

Rathburn Chevrolet Closes Friday After 38 Years

END CAREER — Kenneth Rathburn and his two sons, Craig (right) and Roger, will go their separate ways tomorrow when their 38-year-old Chevrolet dealership closes its doors.

Nearly four decades of continuous operation will come to a halt Friday for one of Northville's oldest businesses — Rathburn Chevrolet-Oldsmobile.

The local dealership will formally cease operation, at the directive of the Chevrolet Division of General Motors, with little likelihood of its reopening in the future.

Northville customers hereafter will have to purchase their Chevrolet-Oldsmobile cars, parts and service elsewhere. Nearest dealerships are in Walled Lake and Plymouth.

The agency's demise leaves two dealerships in Northville — John Mach Ford and G. E. Miller Dodge.

The agency's founder, Kenneth Rathburn, and his sons, Craig and Roger, had planned to sell the business (they reportedly had a buyer) and notified Chevrolet. But Chevrolet decided against continuing the franchise. Oldsmobile, according to Rathburn, had already planned to end its franchise as part of a phasing out program of dual dealerships.

The Chevrolet Division concluded, according to Rathburn, that current and potential business no longer warrants a franchise here.

The Rathburn agency was grossing $1.5 million annually. A company spokesman reported

Wednesday morning, however, that the company had decided against continuation of the Chevrolet agency "at the Rathburn location" for economic reasons. He added that studies of the Northville area would continue, although there were no assurances that an agency would eventually be located here.

In view of Chevrolet's decision, Rathburn will sell or lease the building and sell back to the auto divisions those new cars and parts not sold by Friday. Rathburn's used car business, which is not part of either franchise, will continue operation into July and then be discontinued after sale of inventory.

The firm employs some 18 full-time and part-time employees.

The agency's founder, who has been less active in the business in recent years, will retire; Craig Rathburn, who has been managing the business, will move to Arizona to join his family who moved a year ago because of the health of a daughter; and Roger, a former Northville

SHORTWAY'S NEW BUSING operation here, started three weeks ago, has been far from profitable thus far, a spokesman in the firm's Toledo (Ohio) headquarters said, "but the number of customers is steadily increasing week to week." The company this week added another stop and adjusted its schedule to more satisfactorily meet the needs at Northville State Hospital. Also, the bus is stopping twice daily at Schoolcraft College now.

WATER BLASTING PAINT off the high school will cost an estimated $400, reports Earl Busard, business manager for the schools. Removal operations are expected to get under way this week, with the project taking two or three days to complete. The school was damaged June 13 when vandals spray painted obscene words on the exterior walls of the building.

FATE OF THE YEAR-ROUND school grant renewal is expected to be known by Tuesday, as the state legislature winds up discussion on the school aid bill next week. Superintendent Raymond Spear said he is "hopeful we will know whether or not we will receive the grant by the end of June." A proposal to renew the total $100,000 year-round grant to the six school districts studying the concept is part of the legislature's state aid bill. Northville has applied for $19,000 which would be used in part for scheduling all students in the district for the next four years.

TOWNSHIP planners met with Levitt developers Monday night in a special session to review the company's request for reducing the number of single family homes to 100 while increasing its townhouse units in the 400-acre ex-gravel mining area between Seven and Eight Mile roads. The planning commission appears prepared to propose a compromise when it holds its regular meeting, June 30. Instead of permitting a reduction from 350 single family homes to 100, as requested, planners will suggest that approximately 220 homes be constructed along the eastern boundary of the development. And instead of adding 400 townhouse units, 240 will be proposed in the Eight Mile road area west of the Silver Springs drive entrance.

Study Recommends Site Purchases

Park Planning Urged

A year-long study on park and open space needs for the city of Northville urges the council to take immediate action to acquire additional sites for community and neighborhood parks as well as a specific open space area.

The report was received this week by councilmembers and will be given official acceptance at the July 6 council meeting.

Composed of 17 members, the committee held about 25 meetings and in addition divided into four sub-committees for specific reports on: tot lots, neighborhood parks, community playfields and community parks.

In addition the committee studied needs for senior citizens and enlisted the aid of the Junior Chamber of Commerce in conducting a survey to determine citizen attitudes towards recreation needs (see story below).

Top priority was given to "exerting every effort" to acquire some 200 acres of Maybury Sanatorium property.

Here's What Park Poll Revealed

Northville is failing to meet the recreational needs of the people in the community, according to an interpretation of a survey released this week by the council-appointed parks and recreation committee.

The survey, taken earlier this year by the Northville Jaycees with the assistance of City Manager Frank Ollendorff, John Buckland and John Stuart, is viewed as a statistically accurate gauge of public opinion.

Out of 1500 households in the city, 105 names were selected (each 15th name on property tax rolls and water bill records). Of these, 71 responded, 11 were contacted but were not interested in completing the questionnaire.

The 71 respondent sampling is seen as 95.9 percent reliable. However, interpretation of the survey, because it represents judgment, is not equally reliable, the committee admits.

The survey showed that residents believe more facilities are needed for swimming, senior citizens, skating and adult organized sports. In addition, with a lesser priority, respondents felt facilities for golf, picnicking and camping should be considered for future planning.

"Twenty-five respondents did not feel the city offers enough recreation. This is more than one-third of the total participating. This result indicates that either the respondents are not knowledgeable with what facilities and program are available or the city does not in fact provide an adequate recreational program," the report states.

Interestingly, more respondents felt the Edward Hines Parkway

"The need for such a park which, when acquired and developed, might include such community needs as an outdoor swimming pool, is further supported by the results of the recreation survey," the report points out.

Neighborhood parks, described as one or two acres in size and serving active or passive types of recreation, were also recommended.

The report urges the city to acquire property for such parks:

- in the Village Green area;
- in the area south of Eight Mile, north of Lake, and east of Center Street;
- within Northville Estates;
- near Northville Heights, possibly immediately west of the Michigan Bell Telephone property;
- and on the Dubuar street property west of Rogers and north of Main street, already owned by the city.

Community playfields, described as containing some 15 to 20 acres, are for the most part already adequately provided but require developing. Such sites include the proposed community park at Maybury, an area adjacent to Moraine school, the fish hatchery, Ford Field, the Cady street Scout-Recreation building area and the high school playfields and surrounding recreation area.

The report suggests that the site near Moraine should be acquired but notes that this should be discussed with the school board, which more properly should purchase and develop the land.

It urges the city to "vigorously pursue" the acquisition of Ford Field and available land adjacent to the recently-acquired fish hatchery site.

For open space the report notes that the Maybury and the proposed five neighborhood parks would satisfy much of this need, but that acquisition of all the Ford-owned property immediately north of Ford Field, including the mill pond, should be pursued.

"This land provides a delightful open space within the city and has excellent possibilities for numerous uses by the public in the future. For example, it is understood that the Northville Historical Society has discussed the possibility of locating several historic homes and possibly a museum in this area."

The report, while commending efforts by the recreation department in behalf of senior citizens, suggests more can be done in the way of providing and maintaining a headquarters where senior citizens may meet.

Little need for tot lots for pre-school children was evidenced by the committee. It was pointed out that many homes provide large yards, while school playgrounds and areas in neighborhood and community parks can be set aside for tot lot activities.

Apart from the Maybury and Ford-owned property purchases, the report views the acquisition cost of the other recommended sites as "relatively small."

"It is probable that with the revenues currently available and soon to be available to the city (including increased race track revenues) that the city could acquire all of the land necessary for the neighborhood parks out of current funds," the report states.

It adds that it would be possible to raise funds for a senior citizens' facility "by popular subscription to a well organized campaign for donations."

John Canterbury, an ex-city councilman, served as chairman of the committee. Other members were Steve Juday, co-chairman; Mrs. Hugh Bradley, secretary; Ed Welch, Robert Prom, Mrs. Charles R. Ely, Mrs. Stuart Campbell, Stanley Johnston, John Buckland, Robert Cole, Wes Henriksen, John Stuart, Charles Gross, Charles R. Kohn, Donald Lawrence, Mrs. Beatrice Carlson and Frank Ollendorff.

Methodist Church Lays Cornerstone

A cornerstone ceremony will take place Sunday at the site of the new First United Methodist Church building at Eight Mile and Taft roads Sunday.

The brief ceremony will begin at 11 a.m., following the 9:30 morning worship service—barring inclement weather, in which case the ceremony is to be postponed until the following week. The public is invited to attend.

The old cornerstone from the present church on Dunlap Street has been removed and set into place at the new site. Contents were displayed at the church until this week when they were placed into a stainless steel box tailored to fit the new cornerstone.

According to the Reverend Guenther Branstner, pastor, the original cornerstone was placed on July 4, 1885. An original poster, fresh and unfaded, was in the cornerstone and will be framed and displayed in the new church offices.

Unless some unforeseen emergency occurs, the new church plant will be occupied by late fall, Mr. Branstner said.

While the new facility now under construction is to become primarily the church's educational center, it is being so constructed that worship services can be conducted there until the new sanctuary is built. Thus, services are scheduled to begin there with the opening of the building in the fall, the pastor explained.

Construction of the new sanctuary, adjacent to the new educational complex, has been postponed because of a financial pinch and is not likely to begin until after the sale of the present church on Dunlap. Meanwhile, negotiations for the sale continue.

The new educational unit, a two-story building located on the rear of the property on the south side of Eight Mile road, will house church offices in addition to classrooms and a large social hall.

William Lindout Associates of Livonia are the architects, and the general contractor is Gordon Hall.

Teachers, Business Favor Year-Round

A majority of the teachers and businesses surveyed on year-round school indicate they favor the concept.

Superintendent Raymond Spear said this week that 70-percent of the teachers in the district are in favor of the concept if it improves the quality of education and saves money for the district, even if it meant teaching at a time other than when they wanted to.

Forty-three employers said they would grant employees vacations to coincide with the students' schedule.

Of the 142 teachers employed by the district, 118 returned survey questionnaires. Forty-nine were elementary teachers, 33 junior high and 36 high school.

If given a choice of vacation, 59-percent said they would prefer the summer quarter. Twenty-four percent of the teachers said they now hold jobs during the summer months.

Twelve-percent of those surveyed said they would like to teach four quarters and 11-percent would teach three or four quarters.

Fifty-six percent of the teachers felt the year-round school program should be operated in grades kindergarten through 12, while 44-percent favored operating the program at a less encompassing level.

Strengths of the concept seen by teachers involved better use of facilities, saving money, better curriculum, shorter semesters, full-year teaching, smaller classes and the possibility of attracting more male teachers to the profession.

Weaknesses centered around the vacation schedule.

Teachers at both elementary and secondary levels felt it was important to have the same vacation schedule as their children.

The teachers indicated a willingness to accept teaching an additional quarter if the educational program was improved, with 84 responding "yes" and 31 "no."

Secondary teachers were more opposed to implementing year-round school in 1972 than were elementary teachers. Thirty secondary teachers

Couple Takes Dream Trip

A 25-year dream, started on their 25th wedding anniversary, was realized this past spring by Dr. and Mrs. Wilbur H. Johnston, when they toured seven European countries with other members of the National Retired Teachers Association (NRTA).

"It was a perfect way to celebrate our 50th anniversary year," explained Dr. Johnston, who retired in 1963. He and Mrs. Johnston were married October 12, 1920 and have lived in Northville all but six of those years. They have two married children.

Mrs. Johnston is a retired teacher, having taught in several communities including Northville and Novi.

They joined 31 other people from throughout the United States on the 21-day tour, flying from New York to Europe but spending most of their time traveling by bus along "out of the way" routes.

They visited Holland, Germany, Austria, Switzerland, France, England, and Liechtenstein.

Highlights of the trip included a "fascinating" visit to Rothenburg, the 1,000 year old walled city; sightseeing in Amsterdam, the "neatest, cleanest city of all...and the tulips were still in bloom," and a visit to Oberammergau for the Passion play.

The donation is to be used exclusively for the special projects at the center, directly benefiting the 350 residents. The gift, presented by Mrs. Janice DelCampo, director of nurses and long-time officer of the association, and the immediate past-president, Fred Lapham, represents many hours of volunteer work in the canteen and various fund-raising projects. Mrs. Theresa Hockstad was the treasurer of the organization for a number of years. # Plans Shaping Up for Fourth of July Festivities

More than 34 floats, bands and color guards will march in the annual Fourth of July parade next week Saturday, carrying the theme "Peace in the Seventies."

Activities for the day, sponsored by the Northville Jaycees, include a chicken bar-b-que following the parade and a finale fireworks display. The event is the largest hosted by the Jaycees to date, according to parade chairman William Broadus.

Marching units will assemble at the Northville Downs off Beal Street at 9:30 a.m. with the parade stepping off at 10 a.m.

The parade route will begin at Beal Street, north to South Main Street, proceeding west on Main Street to Rogers Street. The parade will continue south on Rogers to Cady Street, east along Cady to Wing, south on Wing to Fairbrook ending at the Downs Center Street parking area.

Carl Pursell of Plymouth has been named as this year's parade marshal.

Trophies and ribbons await the winners of parade categories including marching units, first, second, and third places; bands, first and second; classic and antique automobiles, first and second; floats, first; decorated bicycles, first 10 places; and color guards, first.

Local units entered in the parade are Northville High School Band, color guards from the Northville Police, VFW Post and American Legion, Northville's junior Miss, Deniece Bidwell, Miss Millies School of Dance Baton Majorettes, floats from the Jaycees, Newcomers and Lutheran Church.

Also on hand will be the Moslem Temple Cycle Patrol and Lancers from Detroit, the Detroit Edison calliope, prize winning All State Security Color Guard, the Farmington Township Mounted Police, Miss Jean's Dance and Twirl Baton Corps from Dearborn and the Oakland County Locomotive with Madam Lucyle.

The Model "A" Restorers' Club will enter eight cars in the parade and the Classics Car Club will also be represented.

Musical units include the Canadian award winning Windsor Optimist Club Band, South Windsor Lions' Band, Michigan Highlanders' Pipe Band, Chemical Valley Fife and Drum Corps, Silver Chaparrals Fife and Drum Corps, a new group recently formed from the Chrysler Highlanders called the Clan MacRae Pipe Band and the Mapleaires Girls Drum Corps from Chatham, Ontario.

Groups wishing to enter floats in the parade may contact Broadus at 349-6042.

Jaycees remind children that they are invited to participate in the parade with their decorated bicycles, keeping in mind the parade theme, "Peace in the Seventies." Ribbons will be awarded for the best entries.

Post-parade activities will shift to the park behind the Northville City Hall for the Jaycee hosted chicken bar-b-que. Chairman of the project, Howard Kern, reports that chicken, salads, home baked beans and refreshments will be served.

Prices are $1.75 for adults and $1.25 for children. The bar-b-que will continue until the chicken is gone. Proceeds will be used to defray the cost of the parade and the fireworks display.

Highlighting the evening is the fireworks display at the high school athletic field. The show begins shortly after dusk and will climax with the drawing for the Jaycee-sponsored raffle of a trip for two to the Bahamas.

Tickets are still available for the drawing and will be sold during the parade and at the chicken bar-b-que or may be obtained from any club member.

Glass Pickup Aids Anti-Pollution Drive

Halting the accumulation of waste materials which pollute our earth has become a major concern of the Citizens for Environmental Action, a new organization formed to combat environmental problems.

The group's most recent project was the collection of used bottles and glass products on June 17, which were added to some collected in Ann Arbor and given to the Illinois Owen glass company of Toledo, Ohio. About 200 pounds of glass were gathered from Northville by members of the organization.

"This shows that people are willing to cooperate if they have an alternative in the fight against pollution," according to Mrs. Dale Beltz of 362 Welch, a spokesman for the group.

In all more than 60 tons of glass were collected in the Ann Arbor drive sponsored by ENACT, a national environmental organization. It was taken by the glass company for reversion into useable materials such as asphalt, a substance used in making road topping, Mrs. Beltz said.

The Citizens for Environmental Action will sponsor another glass drive on a larger scale later this summer, she said. Local residents are urged to begin saving their useless glass containers; a time and place for dumping them will be announced soon, Mrs. Beltz said.

"The glass will be cleaned and taken by the Illinois Owen company for recycling," Mrs. Beltz explained. "The reuse of discarded bottles and jars is a good way to dispose of solid wastes which pollute our earth."

Since its inception last spring the group has taken "positive steps in their drive to inform the public of alternatives to pollution." Projects have included setting up information tables in Livonia Mall and downtown Northville to distribute free literature on environmental problems.

Starting this fall speakers and free materials will be provided for coffee and club meetings, Mrs. Beltz said.

Persons wishing additional information are asked to call Mrs. Beltz at 349-5678.

DAY CAMP — Interest is the secret of this art, as Northville youngsters discover in the handicraft lesson delivered at a day camp, held in the scout recreation building in Northville. Here children watch as Joan Whitmeyer, one of the paid counselors supervising the camps, shows them how to stitch together pieces of leather. A day camp program is run every week day, from 9 a.m. thru 11:45 a.m. at the Amerman and Moraine schools, and the scout building. The schedule runs until August 5.

Release Time Fate Uncertain

Council Delays Budget Action

Results of Tuesday night's meeting of Our Lady of Victory Catholic Church Parish Council were not made public, but Robert McCauley, religious education director, admitted it "was a most unfortunate meeting." Up for approval was the religious instruction budget which includes the controversial release time.

The Parish Council had defeated a Confraternity of Christian Doctrine release time budget request of $54,000 June 16 by a split vote of 12 to 9.

The original request covered hiring three full-time religious instructors for the release time program.

McCauley proposed the release time concept to both the Northville and Novi boards of education in April, asking that Catholic students in grades one through eight be released during the school day for religious instruction.

By law, school districts must release children for religious education "for a time not to exceed two hours per week" at the request of the parent.

McCauley indicated the parish was not committed to ask for release time and that he was only making an inquiry. The program is not connected with Our Lady of Victory elementary school.

About 425 students would be involved in Northville schools, about 20 percent of the enrollment in grades one through eight.

In Novi, 200 students or 20 percent also would be involved.

After studying the request, the Northville board of education approved the release time program on a trial basis for one semester at their May 25 meeting. The board approved the program to begin in the fall for grades one through five.

Under the program, elementary students will be released one day each week from 11:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. Superintendent Raymond Spear indicated that the time "represents the least educational time lost, since only 20 minutes in instruction time, with the remainder the students' regular 70 minute lunch hour."

Spear said he had also studied the possibility of releasing students in grades six through eight, as McCauley had originally requested, but found that at "no time during the school day could time be given that would not be detrimental to education of the child."

Novi Superintendent Thomas Dale said the release time request is still under study by the administration and indicated the district "will comply with the state law."

Dale said administrators will be meeting this summer with McCauley to work out a schedule for students in the Novi district.

Release time in grades one through eight is under study.

McCauley said that the parish will hold religious education classes outside of school time for students not taking part in the release time program and students attending Farmington, Livonia, Salem and South Lyon schools, portions of which are included in the parish territory.

Out of THE PAST

ONE YEAR AGO...

...Remodeling of the cafeteria side of the former community building (where The Cavern clubroom was located) was proceeding rapidly, with completion of the new school administrative offices slated for July 7. Plans to use the old junior high for sixth grade classes next fall forced this move.

...The Novi School Board approved general plans for a $2.8 million middle school and decided to ask voters to approve or disapprove in a bonding issue the next fall of the proposed new school as well as a new elementary school. Both facilities are to be built on the site at Taft and 11 Mile roads near where Novi High School is located.

...The city council adopted a resolution opposing a bill recently passed by the State Senate that would provide compulsory arbitration where salary agreement for police and fire departments cannot be reached by negotiation. City Manager Frank Ollendorff strongly opposed the measure "because it removes the responsibility of determining the police budget from the citizen-elected council and places it in the hands of a body responsible to no one."

...Lyon Township finally has a golf course — Godwin Glen — located on Johns Road near the Eleven Mile Road intersection. Nearly 7,000 yards of challenging 18-hole play are offered for duffers and accomplished golfers alike.

...Despite citizen protests, the city council rezoned the southwest corner of Allen drive and Novi Road, to permit construction of a Marathon service station.

FIVE YEARS AGO...

...Northville school district voters gave solid endorsement to the board of education's $2,800,000 school building program, 608 YES to 276 NO. At the same time voters surprised many observers by also giving approval to the $500,000 swimming pool proposal.

...Superintendent Russell Amerman couldn't retire without the students and teachers at Northville High School remembering him. At the annual honors banquet Amerman received many awards, including an honorary membership in the Girls Athletic Association.

...A package of fringe benefits for Northville teachers was agreed upon by the school board. The proposal would furnish full hospitalization insurance costing between $20,000 and $26,000, provided funds were available.

TEN YEARS AGO...

...Completion of the Eight Mile cutoff within the month was likely to mark the beginning of construction on Novi road between Northville and Grand River, county officials said.

...The Northville Downs was to have a brand new look — improved by an expenditure of some $500,000 — when it opened its 17th harness racing season. The new improvements included a wider track, brighter lights and new horse barns.

...More than 100 Northville township residents, along with several citizens and officials from adjacent communities, crowded into the township hall to protest the proposed rezoning of 21 acres for an outdoor theater site. The site was located at the northwest corner of Five Mile Road and the extension of Eckles Road.

...Northville school district voters, by more than a 2-1 majority, supported the recommendation of the board of education and city council and approved purchase of the Community Building for $145,000. At the same time they elected incumbent Dr. Waldo T. Johnson and James F. Kipfer for four year terms and Edward F. Angove and Wilfred C. Becker for three-year terms to the school board.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO...

...Northville public school students started the final week of war bond sales with totals over their quotas. The high school raised 127-percent of its assignment and the grades, 112 percent.

...On the movie front it was "Counter Attack," with Paul Muni and Marguerite Chapman as stars. In "To Have and Have Not", Humphrey Bogart and Lauren Bacall had top billing.

...With fat urgently needed in the war effort, 1,163 pounds were collected in May. This was about 100 pounds more than in the preceding month, Mrs. Harold Wagenschultz, chairman, reported.

...Northville Record readers' eyes flicked when the top line of the EMB Food Market told them that "The Meat Shortage Ends June 24, See Bottom of Ad." The answer, as far as EMB was concerned, was: "Fishing Season Opens June 25."

FIFTY YEARS AGO...

...A.E. Stanley, of Northville sold his prosperous drug business to Ralph Horton, also of Northville. Horton, a practical druggist, had been working for the Michigan Drug Company of Detroit.

...Preparations were being made for the first annual banquet of the Northville High School Alumni Association. James Schermerhorn, editor of the Detroit Times, was to be featured speaker at the banquet.

...Two thieves who had stolen new overalls from a freight car in Plymouth were apprehended by Deputy Sheriff Perrin on the P.M. tracks near Northville. Dressed in their new clothes, the thieves were described as looking "like millionaires."

Two Earn Places On Dean's List

Two area students have made the dean's list following their freshman year at their respective colleges.

Susan Gerou, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Gerou of 26900 Meadowbrook was named to the dean's list of Alma College — where she is enrolled in pre-medical studies. She graduated from Novi High School.

Dave Poppe, son of Herbert Poppe of 45233 Mayo Drive, made the dean's list at Purdue University in Indiana. He too is in medical school and is living in Indiana with his wife, the former Rose Zywiec, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Zywiec of 21430 Summers Lane.

Novi's Youth Group Battles Delinquency

Jeff Smith is a problem solver — truancy, discipline, neglect, drugs.

He's the case worker and community organizer for Novi's Youth Assistance Committee, backed by a volunteer citizens' committee, with both working toward prevention of delinquency.

"My job is to talk with the kids that have been in trouble," Jeff said, "and the citizens' committee tries to reach them in the pre-delinquency stage so they won't have to see me later."

Jeff works in Novi two days each week, Tuesday and Thursday, visiting the kids and their families, trying to resolve problems of both the child and family.

Problems are referred to him through the schools, police department, family or even the child himself.

"It's a voluntary program," he emphasized. "If the child doesn't want to come in, I don't force him."

Jeff's office is located in the Office of Economic Opportunity building, 25914 Novi Road. Youth Assistance is not affiliated with OEO, he explained, "but we didn't have an office and the people at OEO were nice enough to offer us space here."

Youth Assistance is under the jurisdiction of the Oakland County Probate Court, Juvenile Division. Jeff covers the entire city of Novi and the school district which extends out of the city boundaries.

A native of Berkley, 24-year-old Jeff is a graduate of Michigan State with a degree in psychology. He's been with the county for six months and has worked in Novi for six weeks.

And with summer here Jeff's talking about the summer camp program.

"We sent 33 kids and 3 families to camp for two weeks and at least as many will go this year. Six kids and one family will go to Camp Oakland, Oxford, with the rest going to YMCA and church camps in the area, all expenses paid. And that's doing one hell of a great job for a volunteer organization."

But Jeff's not sitting around, waiting for donations to come in. He's actively planning money raising projects, too.

"We're selling used books at Gala Days and are planning a flea market, white elephant and grab bag sale."

Jeff agrees he has a great committee working behind him, "but we're still looking for people to help. We aren't near our maximum of 25."

In an effort to involve the community youth, Jeff plans to establish a youth committee with youth representatives. "Kids are better equipped than anyone else to define and offer solutions to youth problems." Hopefully the committee will be organized in the fall.

Jeff isn't ready to generalize on what type of problem he is faced with most, but said he hasn't handled many drug offenses in Novi.

"Drugs are a symptom of something going on inside the user," he said. "It's necessary to get to the root of the problem."

"Kids experimenting with drugs does not mean they are abnormal or have deep-seated problems, but using drugs frequently or all the time is a symptom of something."

"And I don't condone the use of drugs," he added.

Jeff sees Novi as a "city in transition, with people moving into the subdivisions from Detroit and people who have lived here all their lives. It's a critical time."

"It's time to take preventative measures," he said. "That's the name of the game — prevention."

Jaycees Push Park Cleanup To Speed Opening

Approximately 150 Jaycees and citizens of Novi were expected to gather at the city's yet to be opened park yesterday (Wednesday) from 6-8 p.m., for a clean-up, paint-up, fix-up bee.

The project was initiated by the Jaycees in an effort to get the park, two weeks late in its opening schedule, ready for this weekend. The park, formerly operated by the township, is located on the south shore of Walled Lake.

"There is no deadline remember," emphasized Councilman Denis Berry at the council meeting Monday night. "The park should open when it's ready, not before."

Berry, acting in the place of vacationing Mayor Joseph Crupi, formally approved Monday night the appointment of Peter Alcalá, former co-chairman of the park committee, as the committee chairman.

The post had been vacated with the resignation of David Harrison, following the park's failure to open earlier this month.

Berry, acting with support of the council, had assigned Alcalá to share Harrison's duties at that time.

Alcalá gave a report to the council summing up improvements that have been made in the last two weeks.

He mentioned general policing of the grounds, painting of picnic tables, repairing of recreation equipment, installation of posts for a park fence, hiring of life guards and the overhauling of the park tractor.

Alcalá said clean-up had yet to be completed, that a toilet and a pay booth had to be repaired, but that improvements were progressing.

He said that if the Jaycees and the citizens of Novi turned out in expected numbers the park might open Saturday. The Jaycees were offering a free dinner for volunteer workers.

There was confusion concerning the park stickers that already have been sold. They hold no number, or year, or any indication whether or not the bearer is a citizen of Novi.

It was decided either to number the remaining stickers by hand, or to have new ones printed with numbers on them. Either way the stickers would be sold at the city hall. Non-numbered stickers were deemed temporary and it was pointed out that they could be exchanged at any time for the numbered variety.

The city hall is open from nine to five every week day.

Council OKs, Tables Wixom Appointments

Five appointments by Wixom Mayor Gilbert Willis received council confirmation Tuesday night but three others, including the post of parks and recreation director, were shelved.

Meanwhile, an informal hearing growing out of the protests of Ralston Calvert over his removal as city building inspector was scheduled for the next council meeting — July 14.

Appointed by the mayor and confirmed by a split council vote were two members of the city board of appeals — J. B. Morningstar, who was named to replace Paul Salo, and Neil Taylor, a reappointment.

Councilman Charles McCall cast the lone dissenting vote.

Two new members and an incumbent were appointed to the planning commission — Peter Paisley and Lesley Kent, who replaced John Nichols and John Erickson, and James Lahde, a reappointment.

While the planning appointments were approved by unanimous voice vote, two questions were raised. Councilman Dr. Val Vangieson, responding to an explanation by the mayor that he selected new appointees from applications made by citizens, asked how applications for such positions were secured. When told they are available at the city hall, the councilman said he had never been advised of them, nor had he ever seen them.

Planner Mrs. Charles Ware urged the mayor and council to reconsider and appoint a member to the commission from the southern section of the city in order to give it better representation. The mayor noted, however, that no citizens had applied for a position from the southern section.

Tabled for further consideration were the mayor's appointments to the parks and recreation commission

Max Sidor, director, and Ronald Parvu and Mrs. James DuFresne as members of the commission. Mrs. DuFresne is an incumbent and Parvu is a replacement for either Robert Trombley or Paul Nissen, whose terms are expiring.

Sidor is the second person named by the mayor to this post, replacing Thomas Burke, who was dismissed. Earlier, the council voted against confirming the appointment of Ronald Parvu, son of Councilwoman Mrs. Mary Parvu, to the director's post.

These appointments were tabled at the suggestion of Dr. Vangieson and Councilman Robert Dingeldey. Dr. Vangieson pointed out that earlier citizens had presented a petition, containing more than 150 signatures, to the council, protesting Burke's dismissal and urging his reappointment.

Mrs. Parvu, however, challenged the validity of the petition, which she said represented only seven-percent of the city's population. Furthermore, she said some of the petitioners were not registered voters.

When the matter of tabling was put to a vote, only Mrs. Parvu dissented.

Concerning the request for hearing by Calvert, City Attorney Gene Schnelz advised the council that before it can properly conduct a formal hearing over his dismissal it must first determine whether, as Calvert contends, he was indeed an employee hired by DPW Director Robert Trombley — and not by the former mayor

That determination is to be the subject of the July 14 informal hearing. Should the council find Calvert is correct, the council may then, if he chooses, hold a hearing on the dismissal, according to the attorney. Voting against the July 14 hearing were Mrs. Parvu and Councilman Elwood Grubb.

In other action Tuesday, purchases of a cash register and copying machine by Robert Case, assistant to the mayor. Case apologized for making the purchases without first obtaining sealed bids and without first getting approval from the council as required by the city charter.

All council members but Councilman Dingeldey were prepared to approve Case's purchase, after the fact, since Case had admitted his error and since he was convinced the cost of the machines were favorable. (The cash register cost $750 and the copy machine $900).

Dingeldey insisted, however, that bids should be obtained and, since approval after the fact requires unanimous consent of council, the purchases were rejected with Dingeldey casting the lone "no" vote.

Wounded Policeman Suspended

"Unfortunate, perhaps, but nevertheless a crime and certainly an act unbecoming a police officer."

That's how Novi Police Chief Lee BeGole responded this week to defensive reports that the Detroit policeman shot here last week had been drinking and despondent over the death of his brother in Vietnam.

The officer, Thomas J. Logan, 22, of 19143 Berg Road, was expected to be arraigned yesterday in district court on charges of felonious assault and entry into a house without permission.

Meanwhile, he has been suspended from the Detroit Police Department pending the outcome of court proceedings and of an investigation by the Detroit Police Department. Logan was a probationary patrolman, having joined the force about eight months ago.

Logan was wounded by Novi Corporal Dale Gross when he pointed a revolver at Gross and refused to drop it after repeated warnings from the Novi policeman.

Logan suffered bullet wounds of the hand, upper arm and eye when

Council Shortage Limits Novi Action

With two members away on vacation and one seat vacant, the Novi Council took up few major matters Monday night.

(Mayor Joseph Crupi and Councilman Raymond Evans are vacationing, and the seat vacated by William Duey has not yet been filled).

A motion of intent, however, was passed concerning sewer construction in Buckingham Court.

The council decided to draft a statement indicating the city's intention to contract with the W. Stockton Excavating Company for sewer construction when an agreement to pay the $11,000 cost is signed by affected property owners and when formal council approval is given upon the return of the vacationing members.

Councilman Donald Young was careful to point out that such construction is not a budget item but that a reserve fund from last year's surplus could be used as a temporary solution.

In other business, Richard Whitney was given permission to install a secondary water supply on his property at 23125 Meadowbrook Road for the purpose of watering his lawn.

It was pointed out by City Manager Dallas Zonkers that there were to be no water connections between the outlet of the water source and the house.

Young explained that this negated any violation of the plumbing code that controls cross connections.

Councilman Edwin Presnell argued that according to findings of the water board, all water used for watering lawns seeps eventually back into the sewer system, thus constituting a violation of the city code which forbids back flow.

Permission was given despite Presnell's dissenting vote.

Later in Monday's meeting, council:

— Opened bids from Sinclair and Standard Oil companies.

Standard quoted 18.50 cents a gallon for regular gas, guaranteed from June 8, 1970 to May 7, 1971, while Sinclair quoted 17 cents per gallon for regular gas, guaranteed from June 23 1970, to June 21 1973.

The two bids are to come up for council for consideration at the July 6 meeting.

— Decided to try grading Meadowbrook Road where recently citizens requested oiling. It was pointed out that the road had to be plowed up to put in a satisfactory surface.

Rather than rent the equipment, council decided to try doing the same job with the city's road grader.

— Renewed surety bonds with the Ohio Casualty Insurance Company for $150,000.

— Authorized permanent stops to be set up at the corners of Borchart and Silvery Lane, and at Aspen and Tamara.

Police Demand Arbitration

Novi Negotiations Deadlocked

The Novi council Monday wrestled with a disputed procedure in negotiations between the city and the Novi Police Officers Association (NPOA).

Councilman Donald Young reported that the negotiations have reached a deadlock and that the attorney for the NPOA has demanded the talks proceed into binding arbitration.

Mayor Pro-tem Denis Berry insisted that this was an improper procedure, that fact-finding is a legitimate step that can be taken prior to binding arbitration, and that this was the best course for the city.

Councilman William O'Brien agreed with Berry, citing the state statutes as defining fact finding as a legitimate negotiation procedure.

Councilman Young cited an opinion from Charles Long, Novi's legal representative at the talks, which stated in part that the NPOA's attorney was justified in ordering the talks into binding arbitration, that fact finding and arbitration were similar actions resulting in duplication of effort.

Berry said it was his understanding that fact finding can be used to uncover information missed in the process of arbitration.

Fact finding, he added, is a step the city must take to allow sufficient time for the two votes absent council members — Raymond Evans and Mayor Joseph Crupi, to return from vacation.

City attorney Howard Bond was not present Monday so legal opinion was not immediately available.

City Manager Dallas Zonkers was directed to draft a letter to Hyman Parker, spokesman for the Michigan Employment Relations Committee, asking for an opinion on the matter.

Young advised that Long be consulted in the wording of the letter and Zonkers was so directed.

Chief hangup in negotiations is the demand for a five man increase on the police force.

Gas Main Rupture Routs Residents

From the swarm of activity at the site and the wholesale evacuation of residents — and golfers — you'd have thought Lyon Township was about to be blown from the face of the map Saturday.

Not so, says a Michigan Consolidated Gas pipeline supervisor. "The only danger involved was to the Lyon Sand and Gravel front end loader operator who ruptured the line," Michael Majadin of the Ann Arbor office told this paper Monday. "Actually," the supervisor continued, "police would never have had to evacuate people at all. We were glad to have them — we always call them when something like this happens — but the evacuation was unnecessary."

Majadin went on to explain that the pipe — a storage line and therefore one whose rupture caused no inconvenience to users of gas in the area — ejected its gas straight up and that the lake on the property along 12 Mile near Napier was a natural safeguard against fire spreading. While he felt the evacuation of golfers from nearby Godwin Glen and residents from area homes was an unnecessary precaution, Majadin indicated that the troopers from the Brighton Michigan State Police post performed a valuable service in keeping the curious from the site of the repair work.

Repairs continued from the rupture at 11 a.m. until 5:30 a.m. Sunday. "We lost one day in our storage schedule due to the accident," the supervisor concluded.

Majadin said that most companies who plan to do work around pipelines will notify Consolidated in advance, but they failed to do so at the gravel mining operation Saturday. He said Michigan Con was "very happy" that the operator was uninjured in the accident.

were opposed and 28 in favor, while 31 elementary teachers favored beginning the program in 1972 and 13 opposed it.

When asked if they would oppose instituting the program in 1972 even if the taxpayers favored it, 20 secondary teachers said they would oppose it and 38 would favor it. On the elementary level, two were opposed and 45 were in favor.

Spear noted he was surprised by one statistic — 35 percent of the teachers said they did not expect to be teaching in the district three years from now.

 Another recently completed survey centered around 99 businesses in the area, representing a total employment of 897,179 workers, 1,514 of them Northville residents.

Businesses were located in Northville, Novi, Ann Arbor, Livonia, Garden City, Plymouth, Farmington and Detroit.

Wounded Policeman

Gross' single shot ricocheted off the floor of the garage where the Detroit officer was hiding. He was hospitalized but was expected to be released this week for arraignment.

An attorney for the Detroit Police Officers Association was to represent him.

Specifically, Logan is charged with entering the home of Keith Coykendall, 25690 Glamorgan at approximately 2:25 a.m. Friday.

According to Novi police, the off-duty officer had been visiting in the neighborhood, drinking heavily, and had "wandered off" apparently looking for a place to sleep. He eventually entered the bedroom of the Coykendalls' two young daughters, police said.

Logan is reported to have told the older girl, 12, awakened by her St. Bernard dog in the room, to "keep your dog quiet or I'll shoot him."

Hearing voices in the room, Mrs. Coykendall called police. Logan fled. Officers, with the aid of Gross' police dog, Banner, tracked Logan to the garage owned by Andrew Burgess of 25627 Glamorgan.

Logan was observed hiding under a car in the garage and was ordered out. When the Detroit officer refused to drop his 38-caliber non-service revolver pointed at the Novi policeman, Gross fired the single shot.

Jaycees Plan

Weekend Wash

Northville Jaycees will operate Robo Car Wash on Novi Road near Eight Mile Road Saturday and Sunday, from 9 a.m. to 7 p.m.

Cost of the exterior car wash is 75-cents, with owner of the facility, Don Kreeger, donating a major portion of the cost to the group.

The Jaycees will be on hand to provide complimentary exterior drying and assist those using the car wash this weekend. It is the second year the group has staged this project and spokesmen anticipate it will become an annual event.

In the event of bad weather, the car wash will be held July 11 and 12.

All proceeds from projects are returned to the community through Jaycee activities

Of the 99 questionnaires sent out, 48 were returned. Forty-two employers felt facilities could be better used year-round. Forty-five employers felt it was important for parents and children to have the same vacation schedule, while three did not.

Forty-three said they would be willing to grant their employees vacations coinciding with the students' schedule and three said they would not.

When surveyed, 63 percent of the parents felt their employers would grant them vacations at times other than the summer.

Employers were questioned as to how they saw this figure. Twenty said the percent was right, 17 said it was lower than could be expected and five felt the percent was too high.

Thirty-six firms said they would benefit from the year-round school concept and 12 felt they would not.

Spear said all surveys of parents, students, teachers and industry have now been completed. He indicated the majority of those surveyed are "in favor of year-round school and will accept inconveniences if the concept will improve education and save money."

When asked about the contradictory June 8 advisory vote where the proposal was defeated 422 "yes" to 518 "no," he noted that only 17 percent of the electorate voted.

"The administration and the board see the narrow defeat (less than 100 votes) as a mandate to continue studying the concept and provide the citizens with further information," Spear concluded.

Further study of the year-round concept includes scheduling all students in the district for four years. Whether or not this can be accomplished depends largely upon the district receiving a renewed grant of $19,000 from the state to continue the study, Spear explained.

"The bridge marathon is the biggest single money making project of Mother's Club," Mrs. Marburger explained. Winners received cash prizes totaling $50 for first place, $20 for second place and $10 for third place.

Two duplicate groups participated in the nine month tournament. Taking first place in group One were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Diesley. Second place winners were Mr. and Mrs. James McCormick, and Mr. and Mrs. Al Wister and Dr. and Mrs. Orlo Robinson tied for third place.

In duplicate group Two top winners were Mr. and Mrs. Blake Couse. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Horner placed second, and Dr. and Mrs. Cliff McClumpha came in third.

'Gerbil Factory' Produces A Hobby and Sparks A Book

When most boys his age were fishing and playing baseball, 10-year-old John Hasenau began raising gerbils as a hobby. The hobby grew until now, at 13, he has one of the biggest "gerbil factories" in the state.

John's father, J. James Hasenau of 6215 Six Mile, has written a book about the pets entitled "Cecelia's Gerbils". The book, which was published earlier this year, is a manual for children and adults describing the care and habits of gerbils.

"A gerbil is a rodent - sort of a cross between a mouse and a hamster," John explains. "Our particular Mongolian gerbils are brown on top with a white stomach. They make excellent pets because they are clean, gentle and have no disagreeable odor."

The Hasenau's first became interested in gerbils about three years ago after visiting several mink shows. "We decided to breed them so we bought a pair for $4 at a pet store," said James Hasenau.

The animals multiplied, he said and then the family sent away to an animal farm for 20 more pairs. The family includes Mr. and Mrs. Hasenau, John, and three older children, who are now living away from home. Although all have enjoyed the gerbils John is mostly in charge of their care.

"We have about 100 gerbils in the factory now," John explained. "The factory" is the Hasenaus' term for the family garage, which has been converted into a small laboratory.

The gerbils are kept in the factory in separate cages which look something like plastic dishpans with a screen top. Usually one male and two females are kept in each cage, John said.

"We find new babies just about every day," he noted. There are usually about five gerbils in a litter, and under ideal conditions gerbils will mate about once every 24 days.

An unusual interruption or stress, however, will upset the breeding cycle, John explained. Stress is an epileptic type fit which the animal undergoes when it is startled by loud noises or vibrations. It alters the cycle by four or five days.

"We have to tiptoe and whisper in the factory," he explained. Rather than enlarging the farm and hiring someone to help with the gerbils, which might upset them, the Hasenaus have decided to limit the number to 100.

Caring for the animals takes John about an hour a day plus six hours every two weeks to clean out their cages. Feeding can be set up automatically, though, which permits him to be away for five or six days at a time.

The adult animals are fed food pellets which the Hasenaus buy wholesale from a feed store. John said he occasionally feeds bits of bread soaked in milk to baby gerbils when something happens to the mother.

In cleaning the cages John first washes the pans in warm soapy water. He covers the bottom with saw dust and puts in a paper napkin, which gerbils shred up for a nest.

"Gerbils are easy to raise but hard to breed," John explained. They make gentle pets and can be taught tricks, like hanging from ladders or jumping. He has not named any of the gerbils and does not have any particular pets himself.

The gerbils which the Hasenaus raise are sold to local laboratories which order them weeks in advance. The medical school at Wayne State University has purchased more than 100 for air pollution experiments.

Experiments also have been conducted by the Hasenaus themselves, especially James Hasenau, to observe genetics and heredity traits in gerbils. He has discovered that gerbils who are good parents tend to produce more good parents.

"A good mother tends to her babies and provides them with plenty of milk," Hasenau explained. "The best fathers will sit on the young to keep them warm while the mother is feeding. They lick any extra milk off the babies' mouth."

Hasenau, a former teacher and builder, said that he first decided to

The babies are weened 20 days after birth, removed from the factory after a month.

Proceedings of Northville Township Board

Meeting opened at 8:00 P.M. by Supervisor Stromberg.

Present: Full board, Consultant Mosher, the press, attorneys representing Oldford, Shapero and Meadowbrook Association, Chief Nisun, in addition to twenty-eight visitors and residents.

Mitchell moved that the minutes of May 12 and May 25, 1970 be approved as submitted, seconded by Smith. Ayes: All. Straub moved, seconded by Smith, that the treasurer's report for May be accepted. Ayes: All.

Smith moved that the current bills be paid and that the clerk's financial report and the monthly receipts be approved, seconded by Mitchell. Ayes: All.

Hammond moved that the planning commission minutes of May 26, 1970 be accepted, seconded by Lawrence. Ayes: All.

Smith moved that the water and sewer minutes of May 6, 1970 be accepted, seconded by Baldwin. Ayes: All.

Baldwin moved that item No. 5 under New Business be taken out of order, seconded by Hammond. Ayes: All.

NEW BUSINESS No. 5. Recommendations from planning commission, (a) Shapero request and (b) Brooks request.

(a) The planning commission in its meeting of May 26, 1970 recommended that the township board approve the rezoning of the Nate Shapero property at Eight Mile and Haggerty Roads from R-1 to B-3 and B-2, as per attached map, on the basis that:

1. The land involved in this area is very low and it would be extremely difficult to develop as an R-1 area, and the fact that a major highway exchange will pass in the very close proximity.

2. It would be difficult to develop as a one-family residential area.

3. Also, on the basis that the proposed relocation of Haggerty Road will cut through the property and act as a deterrent to the development of residential property and this area will then provide a buffer area to the surrounding areas.

Smith moved that this matter be tabled until the board has had more time to study it, seconded by Lawrence. Ayes: All.

In the meantime, the Wayne County Planning Commission will have time to submit its report on the rezoning.

(b) The planning commission in its meeting of May 26, 1970 recommended that the township board deny the request of Leonard Brooks for rezoning of the parcel at Seven Mile and Haggerty Roads for the following reasons: (Rezoning lots 1 to 35 inclusive from R-1 to B-3)

1. The property was an extension of Meadowbrook Estates and existing plat of record in residential lots. Rezoning would disrupt continuity of the street system as presently recorded.

2. The request to rezone to commercial is not in keeping with the character of the area either as it presently exists or as proposed;

3. If rezoned to B-3, the buffer required would have the appearance of a Chinese wall.

4. The location of the Haggerty Expressway will not have an adverse effect on this land.

5. The land can be properly developed into residential, conforming with the Master Plan which we now have.

Lawrence moved that this recommendation be tabled until the next regular meeting, seconded by Mitchell. Ayes: All. This request has also been submitted to the Wayne County Planning Commission.

Hammond moved to take item No. 1, New Business, out of order, and also No. 6, Old Business, seconded by Mitchell. Ayes: All.

NEW BUSINESS

1. Beautification Committee Report. Mrs. Martin.

Mrs. Martin stated that she has been representing the township for about two years at the Southeastern Michigan Beautification Council meetings and that the meetings are very interesting and instructive. She gave highlights of the recent meetings held in Hazel Park. Since some of the meetings are held at a considerable distance from here, she would like to have an alternate that could sometimes attend with her or replace her if she is unable to go. Baldwin moved to accept her report with appreciation for all the time she has spent and that the supervisor appoint someone as an alternate with the appointment to be approved at the next meeting. Supported by Smith. Ayes: All.

OLD BUSINESS

No. 6. Baldwin moved that consideration of the electrical code be tabled until the next meeting in order that the electrical inspector and/or the township attorney be present, supported by Smith. Ayes: All.

CORRESPONDENCE

1. Letter from Burnham-Flower Agency. Smith moved that the matter of paid-up back pension be tabled until the next meeting and that copies of the letter from the insurance company be sent to board members for study, seconded by Mitchell. Ayes: All.

2. Letter from Stewart Oldford. The clerk read a letter requesting the township board's consideration of an appeal concerning the alignment of Oldford's road with Levitt's Silver Springs Parkway. Mr. Cramer then spoke in behalf of Oldford, saying that he was asking for assistance and guidance in regard to Oldford's site plan application. If we don't see fit to assist them in this matter they have no recourse except in the courts. He requested that the board hold a joint meeting with them and the planning commission to solve the problem. Mitchell moved that the board set up a joint meeting with all parties involved to go over all or any alternatives to help resolve this stalemate, supported by Smith. Ayes: All. Oldford asked if a representative from the road commission could be at the meeting also.

3. George W. Kuhn. Smith moved to accept and file this letter concerning the new bus line operating into Northville, seconded by Mitchell. Ayes: All.

4. Draugelis. Mitchell moved to accept and file this letter from our attorney telling of the progress of the new water line, seconded by Straub. Ayes: All.

5. Wayne County Road Commission. Straub moved to accept and file this letter which announced the creation of Main Street west of Clement Road as a new stop street, seconded by Smith. Ayes: All.

6. Levitt & Son. Mitchell moved to table this letter pertaining to Silver Springs Parkway as an easement and that the letter be referred to the attorney and engineer for their comments, seconded by Lawrence. Ayes: All.

OLD BUSINESS

1. Police Standards. Baldwin gave a committee report saying he felt that the committee would very soon have a recommendation for the board. They have looked briefly into Act 78. Hammond then moved that item No. 3 of New Business be taken up out of order, supported by Straub. Ayes: All.

2. New Business. A Mutual Aid Agreement for police in Wayne County was read by the clerk. All but our one and other community have already signed this pact. Chief Nisun reported that if we approved, he would assign two reserve officers to be trained for this work at sessions to be taught for four hours a month for a period of eight months. This pact is called the "Western Wayne" and the other one in the county is called "Downriver". Baldwin moved that the agreement be referred to our attorney for his comments and that our insurance agencies be contacted to be sure our men and machines would be covered when acting outside our township, seconded by Straub. Ayes: All.

OLD BUSINESS

2. Annual Meeting. Baldwin moved that the question of elimination of the annual meeting be put on the ballot in the General Election in November, 1970, supported by Smith. Ayes: All.

3. Charter Township. After considerable discussion pro and con, Baldwin moved that the matter be tabled, seconded by Lawrence. Ayes: All.

4. Parking Violation Bureau. Lawrence moved that a Parking Violation Bureau be adopted for Northville Township as set forth in a resolution composed for us by the attorney, seconded by Hammond. Ayes: All. (Resolution No. 70-29)

5. Service Policy, office machines. Hammond presented a report on service calls on each machine in the office since purchase. Straub asked that she submit a further detailed report at the next meeting.

NEW BUSINESS

2. Boiler Insurance, Township Hall. Smith moved that the township purchase insurance on the boiler as per the letter from the Burnham & Flower Agency of April 17, seconded by Baldwin. Ayes: All.

4. Sick Leave Policy. Straub moved that a committee be set up to study sick leave and compensation matters, to be composed of three men appointed by the supervisor, seconded by Baldwin. Baldwin moved that Mr. Kaiser, who is ill, be paid for a second month, through July 19, 1970, if he is not able to return to work before then. It can be reconsidered at that time if necessary, seconded by Lawrence. Ayes: All.

6. Fire Department and Township Hall. Smith reported on the work of the committee so far. They have reviewed possible locations and costs of office facilities, building and equipment. It is felt that a minimum of five acres will be necessary for a fire hall, township hall and department of public works. They are now at a point where they need the services of an architect and consultant so as to have something more tangible to work with and asked for authorization from the board for same. Hammond moved that the building committee be authorized to proceed to interview the necessary consultants and to talk to property owners in regard to acquisition, then to come back with preliminary costs for plans, etc. supported by Lawrence. Ayes: All.

7. Disposal. Authority Report. Our delegate, Straub, reported on the first meeting of the authority committee wherein officers were elected, Robert's rules were chosen, a regular meeting night set, and a bank depository decided upon. There is to be a second meeting on Wednesday, June 17, 1970.

8. Recommendation from auditor - $15,000. On the recommendation of the auditor in his 1969-70 report, Straub moved that the $15,000 loan from general to water and sewer department be repaid and that the money be transferred to the capital improvement fund, seconded by Lawrence. Ayes: All.

9. Report on Petitions for August Primary. Only four petitions have been returned to the clerk to date. Deadline is 4:00 P.M. on June 16, 1970.

Meeting adjourned at 11:25 P.M.

Respectfully submitted,
Eleanor W. Hammond, Clerk

Schipper's teams have won the Iowa Conference championship four times, and the 1966 and 1967 editions both sported 9-0 records. His 1969 team finished 6-3. The leader in win percentage is Earl Banks of Morgan State College with an .824 mark.

Schipper guided the football fortunes at Northville high school from 1956-60, compiling a fantastic 38-6-1 mark.

(Robert Froelich, who earlier this year resigned his post on the Northville school board, is now the vice-president for business at Central).

HOME RUN - Monday was a nice day for baseball, but Richard C. Lake, 37, Detroit, had a rather unorthodox way of getting to Ford Field. Lake slammed through the guard rail on Dunlap and Hutton streets shortly before 1:45 p.m. and plowed 15 feet down an embankment, coming to a stop above the baseball diamond. He was taken to Wayne County General Hospital with head injuries. Lake, who minutes before had forced a car off Eight Mile at Griswold, was charged with drunken driving and will be arraigned Tuesday.

Section 1. This general ordinance, consisting of Titles 1 to 8 including 47 chapters, each inclusive is hereby enacted and adopted and shall be known as the Code of Ordinances of the City of Northville, and shall be treated and considered as a new and original comprehensive ordinance which shall completely supersede all other general ordinances adopted by the City Council prior to the 1st day of April, 1970, except such as are expressly saved from repeal and which are included herein, or adopted by reference herein, and re-ordained in whole or in part, howsoever they are classified, arranged or numbered herein.

Section 2. All other general ordinances not included in this code, or incorporated by reference therein, and enacted and adopted prior to the 1st day of April, 1970, are hereby repealed. Such repeal shall not abrogate or affect any pending litigation or prosecution or any vested rights, obligations, or liabilities, incurred or accrued prior to the effective date of this code, and such repeal shall not effect the continuance of any "special" ordinance as distinguished from ordinances of a general and permanent nature.

Section 3. The repeal of any ordinance as hereinabove set forth shall not affect any offense which was committed contrary to, or in violation of the provisions of any ordinance so repealed; or any penalty, forfeiture or punishment which was incurred by reason of such offense or violations.

Section 4. The repeal of any ordinance as hereinabove set forth shall not be construed or interpreted to revive any ordinance or part thereof that has been repealed by a subsequent ordinance which is repealed by this ordinance.

Section 5. All general and permanent ordinances enacted and adopted by the City Council as required by law, after the 1st day of April, 1970, are hereby continued and declared to be in full force and effect, and the City Clerk, with the assistance and advice of the City Attorney is hereby authorized and directed to arrange, classify and number such ordinances according to the plan and method of this code and consistent therewith, and to supplement this code by reproducing and including them, and all subsequent general and permanent ordinances in this code. SPEAKING for The Record
BY BILL SLIGER

The announced decision of Kenneth Rathburn to discontinue business as a Chevrolet-Oldsmobile dealer in Northville comes as a double-barreled disappointment.

First, Ken Rathburn will be missed. He and his family have conducted a thriving agency since 1932. A young Kenneth Rathburn went into business when the banks were closed and the prospects for business success were bleak.

Now facing the promising 1970's he finds that his decision to retire is greeted with a response that could hardly be characterized with the spirit shown by Mr. Rathburn 40 years ago.

Northville will go the route of South Lyon, says Chevrolet. Although there are prospective buyers for the agency, the company is exercising its prerogative to designate the community as one unable to support its own dealership. Nine years ago the South Lyon agency closed and many Chevrolet-Oldsmobile buyers in the South Lyon-Novi-Northville-Wixom area have found Rathburn's the most convenient agency for sales and service.

Now Walled Lake and Plymouth are being designated as the cities to serve this area...at least for Chevrolet products.

Ford and Dodge agencies remain in Northville. So buyers can still shop locally. But the selection has been reduced. And a business that has survived a depression and 38 years has come under the axe of corporate experts who explain that "you can't project yesterday's business into tomorrow's picture."

It's fortunate for Ken Rathburn that he didn't have the advantage of such guidance 38 years ago.

When he started out there was no business and nobody bothered to make projections.

But in those days, Chevrolet needed dealerships.

One of my automotive industry friends once described General Motors as the "New York Yankees" of the world of big business. He was referring, of course, to the Yankees of the Ruth, Gehrig, DiMaggio, Mantle era.

"They're three and four deep at every position," he proclaimed.

I'm satisfied he wasn't exaggerating. Matter of fact, I'd call the Chevrolet Division about five-men deep per position. And every one is backed up by an efficient secretary who is well-schooled in the art of passing along inquiries to the next man down the ladder.

I'll admit right off that there isn't a chore in this world that I abhor more than trying to find direct answers to direct questions from executives of big corporations.

I honestly believe they win their promotions based upon their ability to dodge confrontations with inquiring reporters or complaining customers.

I can't remember his name, but I'd bet that the guy who runs Chevy and married Tom Harmon's daughter could certainly teach his swivel-hipped father-in-law a thing or two about evasive tactics. He must be a master.

Anyway, a couple hours on the phone and a list of names as long as the local tax roll (Bell, Jackson, Lund, Love, Malloy, Berberich) produced very little in the way of answers concerning Chevrolet's decision to scratch Northville off its dealer list. Actually, only two of the above were available, or would respond.

City Manager Frank Ollendorff, equally concerned by the loss of a prime community business, found his first day efforts at making inquiries rewarded with pleasant conversations with five secretaries.

Tuesday he managed to extract a promise from an official of the survey section of the Chevy dealer organization to meet and review some of the population and development projections for the Northville community.

There's no evidence that Chevrolet consulted such local statistics before deciding to pull out. Thus there's little hope that the company will reverse its decision to promote the sales of the Chevy dealership in neighboring Plymouth.

Maybe if somebody could get through to whatchamacallit, the guy who married Tom Harmon's daughter...."operator, give me the General Motors building.... what's that, you say? The entire office is in conference!"

Every Silver Cloud Has Black Lining

by Jack W. Hoffman

Sometimes I feel like the kid in the comic strip who is continually followed around by a storm cloud while everyone else basks in sunlight.

If the world was inhabited by only myself and a sea gull and I was walking on a desert, guess whose head that bird would fly over?

Take our second car for example (you take it; the junk man won't). It hadn't budged for a week. I walked past it the other day and it proceeded to have a flat tire right before my eyes.

Somewhat it'd picked up a nail in a parking position and then stubbornly refused to go flat until I got near it.

My young son handed me a Father's Day gift — an eight foot metal banister rail that "just came off the wall all by itself."

In detaching itself, the rail took part of the wall with it. And with the piece of wall went the new wallpaper I just put up. Naturally, the wallpaper design has been discontinued.

Our dog's pregnant again, and no one will buy our gerbils before still another family is started.

For weeks I waited for heavy rains to settle the sandy base of the new garage I'm determined to build. Nothing but dew. Then the night before the building inspector showed up we got our worst storm in a year and all the foundation trenches caved in.

My wife doubled the contents of my tool chest by buying a new hammer to replace the two that mysteriously disappeared.

Less than an hour later the new one was gone. And after I'd accused everyone of grand larceny, they found it under a pile of dirt. I'd buried it.

"That's probably what happened to the other one," she fumed. "They'll probably sprout and we'll have the only garage with hammer trees growing out of the floor."

We poured the garage floor Saturday. Beautiful job but expensive. The concrete truck crushed the driveway.

I was proud as a peacock when one of our kids brought home a tiny plant for his mother's garden. He nurtured the thing to a handsome size before someone took the soil out of my pride by asking, "What's the poison ivy doing in the garden?"

Speaking for Myself

Alimony for Men?

YES...

The lawmaker who proposed alimony for men may have been winking at society but the product of his merriment was a peach. It put as many smiles on my heart as did the railroad company that acceded to the 'equal rights' demands of women by putting them to work climbing in and out of boxcars just like their male counterparts.

Certainly, the male is entitled to alimony. His sacred cows have been slaughtered one after another by the opposite sex until he stands naked before the world—a sniveling, cowering shadow of what once was man. But even a rat, backed into a corner, will fight back.

And one way to fight is to seek the same kind of equality that the woman demands. As long as she insists on wearing man's pants she shouldn't object if they pinch.

Where is the equality in the fallacious proposition that a woman, who shares in the breakup of a marriage, is the rightful recipient of most of his property and a good hunk of his paycheck? What entitles the woman, who shares the responsibility of a shattered marriage, to the children of that union?

If indeed woman receives the equality she demands, along with it must go the headaches and responsibilities that man bears.

Her purse is no more sacred than his.

Jack W. Hoffman

NO...

These days everyone wants to knock the blocks out from under time-honored American tradition. Some idiot is even proposing that males receive alimony from their more affluent ex-mates.

To suggest such a thing is to spit in the eye of that time-honored axiom, "The man always pays."

Can you imagine the far-reaching consequences of such a move? Having pocketed the alimony, our man will want the other advantages that usually go to the wife following a divorce — like the kids, the dog and the parakeet. Of course, he'll clamor for the house in order to contain them all.

Responsible for the care of the kids, the house and the livestock, he'll necessarily become more domestic and will want to slip into a frilly little apron while he goes about those everyday chores that women have been blessed with for so many years — like changing the diapers, washing the clothes, mopping the floors, watching soap operas and doing the marketing.

Our guy won't want to work. He'll be far too humane to want to take the paycheck from a divorcee who's working diligently to support her ex.

Wives pay alimony? Better we should eat steak on Thanksgiving or pumpkin pie on Washington's birthday.

One Bad Apple, Not Whole Barrel

To the Editor:

This is in reference to the letter to the editor which appeared in last week's Record registering vehement discontent, with Northville High School, indeed, all of Northville itself, for the unfortunate display of obscenities which were sprayed on the walls of the High School two weeks ago.

Certainly, this malicious act WAS disgraceful, and surely, that portion of the protest was justly meted out. However, the allocation, the implication, the mere suggestion in that letter that youth of today "obviously" get their kicks "being destructive" is as disgusting as the act itself. Generally speaking, we students of Northville do NOT delight in the destruction of our school, but once again it seems as though the work of a few might well have to speak for over a thousand local teens. That our young people should be subjected to guilt by association for the vandalism of a handful of degenerates with criminal, demoniacal proclivities is purely repugnant.

"It is our sincerest hope that the good people of Northville will not succumb to this frame of mind, but rather agree that in the case of our town, one rotten apple does not spoil the whole barrel.

To the Editor:

The following is in rebuttal to the letter last week from Sharon Watson Young

I too am a graduate of Northville High School and am indeed ashamed of what certain individuals have done to our fine school (painting of obscenities on school walls). It too makes me sick to see the actions of vandalism and destruction on our community.

But I cannot and will not by any means agree with the ignorant conclusion that: "it's obvious this is what kids do today" and that we all do this for "fun". The fact is that less than 1% of our generation acts out of line and we all get blamed. I'm sick and tired of being given a constant "bum rap" for what a few individuals do.

It seems that too many people are making generalizations which are doing more harm than good to the young generation. Since when is any generation better than another? There are just as many undesirable "old" people as there are undesirable youngsters. Could it be that the "oldsters" get their "kicks" in different ways (polluting our country, etc.)

Somewhat I feel sorry for you and those that think like you. Open up your eyes to the light that his world is full of "good" kids and that we all aren't vandals. The sooner this happens the sooner we will all be happy!

a disgusted "kid",

policeman, is undecided as to what he will do.

The senior Rathburn, who lives at 729 Grandview, launched the agency in January, 1932 — in the same week The Northville Record carried banner stories of the death of Eddie Stinson, aviation pioneer and Northville airplane manufacturer, and of emergency meetings following the bank closing here.

Rathburn started the business a year before he was married. Previously, he had been a car salesman elsewhere.

His salesroom was then located at 128 West Main Street where the poolroom and upholstery shop are now located. Despite the economic gloom that shrouded the nation during that depression year, Rathburn opened with optimism, featuring a special Chevrolet Sedan with Syncro-Mesh transmission and top speeds of 65 to 75 miles per hour.

In 1934, Rathburn added the Oldsmobile franchise.

Twenty years after the firm's establishment, Rathburn held the grand opening of the present quarters at 560 South Main, just south of Seven Mile, on Saturday, April 26, 1952.

The large, new building had been erected on property Rathburn purchased from Charles Altman, Sr.

Other dealerships at the time included G. E. Miller Dodge, Atchinson Chrysler, and Cy Owens Ford.

Nine years ago Chevrolet closed out its agency in South Lyon. With the closing of Rathburn there will be no Chevrolet dealership in the Northville, Novi, South Lyon or Wixom communities.

took it on the chin from fourth-ranked American Leaguer J.S. Trudeau, coming up 9-4 for the season. The Police edged Fendt last week, 13-12 to end up in first place despite Fendt's identical record.

LaFleche Fires No-Hitter for Snow

A no-hitter, pitched by Joe LaFleche, plus two clear victories boosted Snow's Standard to the top of the Babe Ruth league in Novi last week.

The third, fifth and seventh were big innings for the Standard, with five runs in the third, four in the fifth and two in the seventh.

LaFleche battled Mario Sinacola hurler John Pantalone for eight long scoreless innings last week Monday and then, in the ninth, Standard exploded for three runs by Jim Van Wagner, Gene Reske and LaFleche.

Doubles for Snow came from Reske in the first, a fruitless effort, that left him stranded; by LaFleche in the third, bringing in three men; and another by Reske in the fifth, driving in two.

Earlier, Snow Standard defeated second-place Snyder, 6-2, for its first win of the season. Snow cemented its lead by making it three in a row against Albers-Shubnell last week Wednesday. Gene Reske hurled the 11-3 victory over Shubnell, allowing six hits and seven walks, while fanning eight men.

Shubnell scored its runs on a triple by Pat Boyer in the first, bringing across Kevin Tobel; a wild pitch in the second that let in Mark Bumann; and a fielder's choice in the seventh that brought home Eric Hansor.

Local Scouts Go to Olympics

Northville Explorers Post 905 will participate in at least four events at the National Explorer Olympics when they are held in Colorado this August.

In other action last week, Mario Sinacola lost a 6-5 squeaker to J.R. Snyder for its third straight defeat of the still infant season.

Placing first in local olympic runoffs during the past three months assured Alex Foller, 18130 Lexington, a place in the golf contest; Randy Brown, 16821 Franklin, competition in the shot put; Jay Letarte, 45861 Seven Mile, a shot at the high jump; and the 400 yard relay team of Brown, Letarte, Steve Hazlett of 42825 Mill, and David Collins of 18435 Dungal, a place in the relay competition.

Snyder scored its runs on three hits off losing pitcher Dave Brown. Gary Colton took the win, striking our 10 men.

The event will be held at Colorado State in Fort Collins.

Second and third place winners also are eligible according to Carl J. Bachmann, public relations director for the Detroit area Boy Scouts.

Following are second placers: - Brown in the 100 yard free-style and mile run; Hazlett in the 100 yard back-stroke and 880 yard run; and Rene Vannee, 49151 Ridge Court, in the high jump.

Collins placed third in the 100 yard back-stroke.

Sponsors for the Explorers in Northville are the Lloyd A. Green American Legion Post 147.

The National olympics will be held August 24-28. Events will include track and field, cross-country, handball, swimming, table tennis and basketball.

Thomas Steel Forms took first place in the American league away from Muncey's Marathon when Muncey went down to the Forms 5-2 last week.

A "world series" will be played in the minors starting Saturday.

American and National Leagues will meet at Orchard Hills.

Games will run to Monday and, if necessary, to Wednesday. Best two out of three determines the champion.

Game time is 2 p.m. Saturday and 6 p.m. Monday and Wednesday.

In Adray And Connie Mack

Reef: Duel League Entry

Reef Manufacturing, Northville's dual entry in the Adray and Connie Mack baseball leagues, finished up last week 2-2 in Adray and 1-2 in Connie Mack.

walks, a sacrifice and a single by Greg MacDermid. In the second frame, two men streaked home on a four-bagger off the bat of Adams.

Leagues are sponsored through the recreation department of the city of Livonia and are arranged by age and ability, with 16 to 18 year olds playing in Connie Mack, and 16 to 19 year olds in the tougher competition of Adray.

The third ended Reef scoring as Rick LaRue got on with a single and came around on an error and a single by Taylor.

In Adray the action went like this: FRIDAY, JUNE 19

Westland's sixth and final run came across in the fifth.

Reef took a 6-2 thumping at the hands of Hubert Realty of Livonia, loading the bases three times and leaving 10 men on.

SUNDAY, JUNE 21
Hurler Taylor led Reef against Garden City in a 3-0 shutout. He struck out 10 and walked three.

The defeat was engineered by Hubert's pitcher who allowed only seven hits and six walks.

Reef got its three runs off as many hits in the first inning.

"If we'd had a couple of hits in the right places," lamented Manager Art Adams, "we could have done better. We just didn't get them when we needed them."

Mills led off with a single and advance to second and third when Stan Nirider and Taylor took first safely on errors.

The two runs Reef did get were turned in by Terry Mills and Pat Cayley.

Then Adams hit to the shortstop and Mills was thrown out at home on the choice.

Mills was hit by a pitched ball, went to second on a single by Rich Adams, and came home on a sacrifice fly by Stan Nirider. Cayley got on with a single, and two walks later was forced home by Jim Fox, who also was hit by a pitched ball.

Lanes Go to 7-0

Northville Lanes stretched its winning streak to seven games and Northville Drug-Casterline maintained its front-running position in the "A" league of the men's slo-pitch action last week.

With the bases still loaded, Cayley tagged a two-run single that sent Adams to third. Berry Beal was safe at first on another error allowing Adams to score.

The side was finally retired leaving Cayley and Beal on.

Gary Piusches took the defeat for Westland.

Action in the Connie Mack league consisted of two games, both of which Reef lost.

On Thursday they went down to hosting American Century of Livonia in a narrow 8-7 contest, despite a 10-7 hitting edge.

Reef came up the losers in a 4-0 shutout at Thurston against Redford Uniroyal Saturday.

A scheduled game with Farmington Keating was forfeited to Reef last week Tuesday.

Here's how it went: MONDAY, JUNE 15

Novi Inn walloped Pyles Industry, 12-6, with Faulkner, Engel and Duggan blasting home runs.

Undefeated Northville Lanes topped winless Erie Trailer, 19-3, in other Monday night action.

TUESDAY, JUNE 16

Perkins Engines and Newcomers Club II fought a double-header with the Newcomers coming out on top in both games to hold on to third place in the "B" League. Scores were 7-4 in the opener and 8-7 in the second game.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 17

Northville Drug had little difficulty in polishing off Newcomer Club I, 7-1, in a rain-out decided in the fifth inning.

THURSDAY, JUNE 18

Northville Lumber, second-place "A" team, bombed Plymouth State Home, 18-6, in the only game of the night.

FRIDAY, JUNE 19

Plymouth State Home took it on the chin for the second time of the week, dropping a 7-5 decision to Perkins Engine.

The scheduled game between Erie Trailer and the Northville Jaycees was forfeited by the Jaycees because of an insufficient number of players.

HOLD IT! THE DODGE BOYS JUST MADE THE PRICE OF THEIR SMALL CAR... SMALLER.

We made the price quite a bit smaller, Sheriff. To the tune of nearly $400 on the Dart Swinger Automatic. Here's how the Dodge Boys did it. Sticker prices have been reduced* $157 to $194 per car on all new Dodge Dart models—hardtops, sedans, even the Swinger 340.

Then the Dodge Boys came up with a specially equipped hardtop that includes the automatic transmission at no extra cost. It's called the Dart Swinger Automatic. And it also includes a vinyl roof, white walls, carpeting, and more. Add the savings of the automatic transmission ($191 on V8, $175 on Six) to the $187 price drop on the regular Swinger, and you come up with a total price reduction of $362 to $378. This Swinger Automatic offer is limited. So hurry. See the Dodge Boys and save now on America's big, 6-passenger compact.

The Dodge Boys are driving down your cost of driving in style.

*Manufacturer's suggested retail price, standard 51 cubic foot hardtop. Price excludes state and local taxes, destination charges, optional equipment, and dealer preparation charges, if any. Reduction includes replacement of 1 lb. 9.55 ballad tires by polyester cord and oil-injection on day/night rear view mirror as standard equipment.

State Considers Possible Control Of Child Center

Should operation of the Wayne County Child Development Center be turned over to the state? That's a question presently being explored jointly by the State Department of Mental Health and the Child Development Center committee of the Wayne County Board of Commissioners.

An answer is likely to result with the conclusion of an audit of the center costs and facilities by the mental health department under the supervision of Mrs. Evelyn Provitt, deputy director of the department, within 60 to 90 days.

According to Carl Pursell, chairman of the county committee, the state audit will include an analysis of costs, the kinds of children serviced at the center, and an inventory of facilities.

Located in Northville Township on either side of Sheldon road was built in 1926. It includes a 550-acre campus on the east side of Sheldon and a 700-acre discontinued farm on the west side.

At least five alternatives are being considered, says Pursell. These include:

- Turning the facility over to the Department of Mental Health, with operation, including financing, being assumed by the state over a year's phase out-phase in program.

- In the event the mental health department cannot assume the responsibility because of its present financial problems, the matter may be turned over to the state legislature in hopes that it will include the center in its appropriation to the mental health department for the facility's operation by the state.

- Continue county operation of the center with no major changes.

- Continue county operation of the center, but providing for rehabilitation of four of the five vacant cottages on the property to increase enrollment. The fifth cottage already is being rehabilitated.

- Phasing out the center altogether, possibly selling the property, and using county funds now going to the center for a foster parent program.

Cost of operating the center, according to Pursell, "is unbelievably high and, one way or another, something must be done."

The county commissioner notes that with approximately 300 youngsters now at the center, cost per child is running about $10,000 annually. Operation of the center, put at $3.2 million, is the highest of any county operated facility in Wayne.

"In view of these costs," says Pursell, "and because most of the youngsters are returned eventually to the same unfortunate environment from which they came, I would much prefer giving a family $2,000 or $3,000 to take one of these youngsters into their home. It would cost the county less and the foster parent program would, if properly supervised, be far more effective and a good deal more beneficial for the child."

"Right now we've got mentally retarded children along with slow learners at the center who are mixed with disciplinary cases thus reducing the effectiveness of the program."

Pursell contends that if neither state operation or a foster parent program becomes a reality, "then we've got to do something to bring down the costs. One way would be to increase the center's enrollment."

Rehabilitation of the vacant cottages, he said, would permit the center to increase its enrollment by 150 youngsters, thus shaving the cost per child—"provided the size of the staff is not increased correspondingly." Presently, said Pursell, it is costing the county $42 per day to house and train a youngster.

"Personally, I don't see this kind of costly operation continuing in view of the county's budget potential within the present tax structure. We're the only county in Michigan operating a facility of this kind."

Other commissioners on the county Child Development Center are Joseph Cardinal of Dearborn, Harvey Beadle of Redford, Michael Novak of Detroit, and Rudy Hicky of Ecorse.

City Lacks Recreation

provides adequate recreational facilities than does the city of Northville. "In addition, these people are using the park. This would indicate that Northville residents are substituting the park facilities to that provided by the city. However, there were several comments that the park is becoming or has already become overcrowded. As this condition persists or increases it may initiate increased demands on the city's recreational facilities."

More than 70-percent of the respondents felt adequate recreational facilities will not be available in 10 years. One-third of the respondents indicated they do not believe facilities are adequate at present.

No Decision On Maybury

There has been no change in the proposed sale of Maybury Sanatorium property, a Detroit spokesman said this week.

Northville, along with some 24 other parties who have voiced interest in purchase of all or parts of the property, is still being considered as possible purchaser, said Russell Chambers, real estate supervisor for Detroit.

Detroit, said Chambers, is "still trying to come up with a marketing package" to determine the property's price tag and how it is to be sold—either as a total land sale or by smaller tracts.

The City of Northville last year formally indicated that it would like to purchase approximately 200 acres of the 900-acre Detroit-owned site for development of recreational facilities.

"No one," Chambers emphasized, "has the inside track or is in a more favorable position than another to purchase." He added, "We still hope to sell it within a year."

the committee concluded, "is that the city should start planning to meet the needs of the future."

Following are the questions asked and the resulting data:

Do you feel the City of Northville provides enough recreational facilities for your family's needs? Forty-three said yes, 25 no, and three did not know.

Do you think the Edward Hines Parkway provides adequate recreational facilities for your family needs? Forty-nine said yes, 18 no, and four did not answer.

Do you use Edward Hines Parkway? Forty-seven said yes, 23 no, and one did not answer.

If you feel that current recreational needs are adequate, do you feel that they will be in 10 years? Nine said yes, 52 no, and 10 did not answer.

Concerning adequacy of the city's recreational program, respondents who felt it was not adequate were asked to indicate where improvements could be made. Following are their comments:

More summer activities, more organized games, place for mini bikes, more league activities organized sports, public pool, more activities for girls in non-datable age groups; need pre-school swim program and pre-school summer programs.

Track for mini-bikes; more recreational parks nearer people, more facilities for senior citizens; arts and crafts, things that children can do with their hands; more with swimming, ice skating (hockey) improve little league softball/mini-parks around at strategic locations; swimming pool; more summer programs, camping facilities, swimming pool, community recreation building;

Subdivision parks for small children; ice hockey, artificial rink; little league baseball, football and basketball; more of everything, municipal pool, skating rink, parks; parks, behind Allen Drive, wooded area north of Hill Street, needs more green spaces not tennis courts or diamonds; need tennis and general park, Hines is too crowded on weekends, and tennis courts, better baseball fields, ice skating rink.

Asked to rank activities in order of their preference (family's favorite activity), respondents ranked swimming pool first 20 times, swimming lake eight times, golf seven, picnicking six, camping five, fishing and boating each four, baseball three, and ice skating, hiking, tennis, football, skiing each once.

Swimming pool was mentioned by 47 respondents, swimming lake by 23, golf by 29, picnicking by 39, camping by 23, fishing by 24, boating by 18, baseball by 22, ice skating by 33, hiking by 25, tennis by 18, football by 14 and skiing by 4.

The sampling included 64 married persons, two divorcees, and five widowed persons. Sixty-nine respondents were homeowners or were buying their homes, while two were renters.

The average number of children per home was 1.9, the average age of children living in the home 11.2 years, and the average number of years the respondent has lived in the city was 16.5.

PLEASANT SURPRISE - The expression on Jane Devereaux's face tells the story. She's executive secretary for the Crippled Children's Society of Western Wayne County and she's just received a $500 check from Rotarian Philip Ogilvie on behalf of the local Rotary club. The presentation was made at Rotary's ladies' night dinner last week.

25 years in the making.

We'd like to thank the makers of the other new economy cars for giving us such a nice head start.

It gave us time to develop an inspection system so ridiculously scrupulous that it expects every VW to pass 16,000 examinations.

It allowed us to find out (at a reasonably scientific pace) how we could double our horsepower without doubling the cost of your horsepower. (The VW still gets about 26 miles to the gallon and requests only a smidgen of oil.)

It permitted us to work on things that didn't even have to do with the actual making of the car. Medi-car, the Volkswagen Diagnosis System, for example. Electronic equipment that can spot trouble in a car before it gets to be trouble. When you buy a new VW, you get 4 free Medi-car checkups.

Of course, it took great fortitude to resist squandering our time on phony styling improvements.

The beetle looks just as good (or bad) as it did 25 years ago.

A LOOSE LEAF

By ROLLY PETERSON

It was a drink from the cup of Zeus, it was a miracle at Lourdes, a bottle of champagne on New Years, Christmas 365 days of the year, a bunny girl in every basket and a million dollars in the bank.

In reality it was Thursday, June 19th, a day to remember, just as 1948 was a year to remember. The occasion won't soon be forgotten by this writer, especially with the August primary and the November general election just around the corner and a duffle bag full of presidential elections coming up in my lifetime.

What happened last week was exquisite ecstasy. Edward Heath, the British conservative who wasn't given a Leper's chance in Hell of reaching the heavenly realm of victory, upset the dooisters, the Gallups and Harries, to climb into the prime minister's chair.

Not that I give a hoot about Heath, or the conservative or liberal sides of the issues in Britain. Like most Americans, I barely knew the British were voting last week. Only the Christian Science Monitor, of the newspapers I read, had any advance poop on the election and that newspaper talked in weighty terms of favorable balance of trade.

Then the local dailies had it in the headlines on Friday, big and bold. "British Tories Win." Upset was the key word in story after story. The Conservatives had done it, despite the fact that most polls had predicted a landslide victory for incumbent Laborite Harold Wilson.

"The Tory victory both confounds and disgraces all of us who have reported the election campaign," the AP quoted George Gale as writing in the London Evening Standard. "We have all been the dupes of the polls. No political journalist will ever again allow himself to be bamboozled by pollsters."

The Harris and Gallup poll takers discredited! Hurrah. "Lovers of scientific data, believers at the shrine of pollsters, eat crow!" the headlines should have barked.

Perhaps the pollsters will walk a little quieter and speak a little softer from now on. But whatever they do, no election will be a certainty, not as long as people can change their minds and act unpredictably.

No longer will I watch election returns with the belief that the great gods COMPUTER and VALID SAMPLE are right. There's a distinct chance that they might be wrong. Hail to the Heaths, the Trumans and the human element.

U.S. Senate

State Senator Robert J. Huber concedes he doesn't gain many votes in his race for the Republican nomination for U.S. Senator by attending State Senate sessions regularly.

"But," he told 15th Congressional district precinct delegates, "my first obligation is to the job I now have, serving the interests of Oakland County voters I represent in Lansing. As I work in the Senate, I console myself that I am accumulating more of the very governmental experience that my opponent, Mrs. George Romney, lacks completely."

Senator Philip Hart reports that his constituents are voicing disappointment, frustration and subdued outrage over two dissimilar matters this month—the expanded war in Indo-China and inflated auto repair bills.

"But that's not surprising," said Hart. "Both stacks (of mail) are the products of long-standing American impatience with wasted resources...."

"In the language of the used car lot, we have been 'lot balled' into this war. We cut a deal only to find that the final contract carried a much higher price than any previously mentioned."

U.S. Congress

In filing nominating petitions, Congressman Marvin Esch said, "We live in a day of constant change and crises that threatens the very existence of our nation."

"This country desperately needs a restoration of faith in leaders who can establish a society of order, who encourage individual dignity, who put a strong emphasis on freedom with responsibility," said the GOP candidate from the Second District.

"Our citizens have long become bone weary with tired politicians who promise more than they can deliver and of mass appeals to special interest groups. They seek people who will be responsible in public office, who will be analytical, innovative and aggressive in tackling the problems that sometimes appear to engulf us."

"Congress, which should be a vital, coequal branch of federal government, has failed to meet the grave challenges we face. Progress has been impeded in many areas because Congress is dominated by inept leadership, outmoded procedure and a Southern Democratic stronghold on key committee chairmanships. Since my first days in Congress I have fought to correct this inherent weakness."

Governor

"The present leadership of the Republican Party is correct when they conclude," said James C. Turner of Howell, GOP candidate for governor, "that our people are being driven to a near revolution. It will indeed take a police state to oppress us if we are submitted to another four years of such insincere and corrupt political and legal misrepresentation."

"I have today filed my campaign income and expenses. I shall make a complete disclosure each two weeks hereafter. I challenge Miktoast Milliken to disclose where his $500,000 campaign fund came from. Who are these people that are willing to pay so much, in order to control party and government?"

His candidacy, said Turner "will lead to the Republican Party becoming truly a part of the people, rather than one controlled by special-vested interest group. The leadership of both major political parties have so violated their public trust that there is little faith or hope left in the minds of men."

SENATOR GEORGE KUHN

State Senate

In announcing his candidacy for re-election, Republican Senator George Kuhn of the 14th Senatorial District, said the major reason for his decision to seek re-election is that many areas of legislative activities that he has been engaged in over the past four years require follow through.

These include: "Holding the line on state and local income taxes, watch-dogging excessive state spending, fighting organized and violent street crimes, and stimulating economic growth and development of the state."

Kuhn also indicated he "is deeply concerned about the problems associated with water and air pollution, as well as unrest and disorders on the university and college campuses."

Cited as an indication of his competence in office is the fact that he was recently elected by his Senate colleagues as the Senate Majority Whip, one of the top leadership posts of the State Senate.

In noting his support of abortion reform legislation such as was offered by State Senator Gilbert Bursley, Democrat Candidate Paul Kadish for the 14th Senatorial District questioned the motives of incumbent Senator George Kuhn on this subject.

"Kuhn voted yes on the bill's first roll call, which failed to receive a majority," Kadish said. "He then switched and voted no on a move to reconsider. I strongly question Mr. Kuhn's apparent duplicity as indicated by a comparison of this recent vote with his written statements of support sent back to backers of reform in our district."

"It appears that Mr. Kuhn knew abortion reform would fail its first vote, and thus hoped to achieve two ends apparent support by his first vote while helping to doom it by his second."

Also on the abortion question, Republican Candidate Al Smith for the 14th District Senate seat said "today women should have the right to make the decision on what they want to do concerning abortion. But before this right is granted the abortion reform bill should be looked at very carefully."

He said the abortion bill is another struggle for women's rights and that he is sure Kuhn did not vote down the bill unless it was for personal reasons."

County Commissioner Carl D. Pursell has attacked a proposal to set up county crime labs as a needless duplication of expense that could actually hurt the fight against crime by wasting tax funds which could be better spent on other anti-crime projects.

"The Michigan State Police have two fine, modern crime labs already set up to serve county law enforcement agencies and they are planning to set up more," Pursell said. "It is a waste of tax dollars for county sheriffs' offices to set up their own labs to do the same thing the State Police are doing."

"Wayne County's sheriff's department has asked for an initial appropriation of $153,000. Obviously that would be just a beginning, and the costs will soar once the lab goes into operation," Pursell commented.

Pursell, who is running for the 14th District State Senate seat in the Republican primary, wants the county sheriffs' departments to get together with State Police officials on the matter of crime labs. He contends there has been little or no effort on the county level to find out what the plans for additional State Police crime labs are.

LARRY VANDERMOLEN

County Commission

Larry D. VanderMolen, 30, of Northville, a political science instructor at Schoolcraft College in Livonia, announced recently that he will seek the Democratic nomination for the office of Wayne County Commissioner in the 26th District.

The District includes Northville, Northville Township, Livonia, Plymouth, and Canton Township.

VanderMolen is a campaign manager for Ron Hecker, Democratic candidate for Congress in the 19th District, and is a staff member of the Kadish for State Senate Committee. He is a member of the New Democratic Coalition of Livonia and a candidate for the Democratic Party precinct delegate in Northville Township.

VanderMolen is a co-chairman of the Schoolcraft College Faculty Forum Negotiating Team and is a member of the Michigan Education Association. He is the vice-president of the Michigan Association of Political Scientists, and a member of the Pi Gamma Mu, the National Social Science Honor Society.

He resides at 18595 Jamestown Circle with his wife, Lynalice, Kristen, 3, Scott, 2, and Ann, 1.

Harvey W. Moelke, candidate for the County Board of Commissioners

Lawmaker Blasts Opponents

Disaster Seen in School Aid Hangup

Efforts to block aid to non-public schools could, according to State Representative George Montgomery, result in a substantial loss of local school aid.

Montgomery charges that opponents' contention that "no bill" is better than a bill including non-public aid is self-defeating.

"The public should be made fully aware of the great danger of this 'no bill' position," declared Montgomery, "and the unbearable financial consequences for local school districts which could result from it."

On the basis of Montgomery's figures and estimated enrollments in local school districts for next fall, Northville could lose nearly $49,000,

Novi nearly $31,000, and Walled Lake more than $127,000.

Montgomery, majority floor leader of the House, submitted an analysis in comparing the probable impact of adopting the Governor's proposal, the Senate approved plan, the House approved plan, or acquiescing to the "no bill" position.

"Not one single public school district could possibly benefit if we adopt no bill for 1970-71," Montgomery said, "every school district will lose money on a per-pupil basis."

Local school boards, while not publicly advocating 'no bill', nevertheless have gone on record as being opposed to aid to non-public schools. Here's Montgomery's comparisons locally:

NORTHVILLE - 1969-70 actual state aid per pupil, $232.30; governor's recommendation, $237.87 ($5.57 increase); Senate plan, $243.32 ($11.02 increase); House plan, $295.53 ($63.23 increase); no bill, $216.99 ($15.31 decrease).

PLYMOUTH - 1969-70, $210.19; Governor, $200.56 ($9.63 decrease); Senate, $211.34 ($1.15 increase); House, $242.23 ($32.04 increase); no bill, $193 ($17.19 decrease).

NOVI - 1969-70, $221.81; Governor, $220.06 ($1.75 decrease); Senate, $228.06 ($6.25 increase); House, $270.09 ($48.28 increase); and no bill, $205.54 ($16.27 decrease).

SOUTH LYON - 1969-70, $268.71; Governor, $299.50 ($30.79 increase); Senate, $296.14 ($27.43 increase); House, $383.57 ($114.86 increase); no bill, $256.61 ($12.10 decrease).

WALLED LAKE - 1969-70, $271.22; Governor, $303.74 ($32.52 increase); Senate, $299.78 ($28.56 increase); House, $89.63 ($118.41 increase); no bill, $259.33 ($11.89 decrease).

"It is a popular myth that failure to enact a school aid bill this year will leave each local school district with the same amount of state aid per pupil next year as was received during the current school year," Montgomery said. "(But) a casual examination of the net decreases ... will disclose that the adoption of 'no bill' will impose serious financial hardships on most local school districts."

Keydel Named Chairman

Park Authority Elects Officers

New officers for 1970-71 have been elected by the Board of Commissioners of the Huron-Clinton Metropolitan Authority, a regional park agency serving the citizens of the counties of Livingston, Macomb, Oakland, Washtenaw and Wayne.

The election was held at the monthly meeting of the Board of Commissioners which was held at Lower Huron Metropolitan Park near Belleville on Thursday, June 11.

The HCMA Officers are elected for one year and they are:

Kurt R. Keydel, who represents the district-at-large, is Chairman. He has served on the HCMA Board since July of 1964, when he was appointed by then Governor George Romney Keydel is a managing partner in the Keydel Company of Detroit, and is also on the Wayne State University Board of Governors. He is president of Abend Post, Michigan's only German-language newspaper. He is a member of the Detroit Boat Club, Detroit River Yachting Association and Detroit Harmonie Club. Keydel resides at 2940 Seminole Street, Detroit.

Keydel succeeds James Clarkson, HCMA Chairman for the past two years. Clarkson represents Oakland County and resides in Drayton Plains. Eugene J. Ellison, is Vice-Chairman. Ellison also represents the district-at-large, and has served on the board since May of 1965. In May of 1969, he was reappointed to the HCMA Board by Governor William G. Milliken. Ellison is Vice-President with SOS Consolidated, Inc., with corporate headquarters in Birmingham. He is a former Mayor of the City of St. Clair Shores and has also served on its council. He is a member of the Detroit Athletic Club, Detroit Yacht Club and Michigan United Conservation Club. Ellison resides at 23040 Ardmore Park, St. Clair Shores.

Ellison succeeds Kurt R. Keydel, HCMA Vice-Chairman for over two years.

William E. Kreger is Treasurer. Kreger has represented Wayne County on the HCMA Board since 1954. He is Vice-President of Coca-Cola Bottling Company of Wyandotte and publisher of the News-Herald Newspapers, which serves Wyandotte and several other downriver communities. Kreger is also a member of the Wayne County Road Commission. He is a member of the American Legion, Wyandotte Rotary Club, Wyandotte Boat Club and on the Executive Board of the National Soft Drink Association.

Kreger resides at 1562 13th Street, Wyandotte. He succeeds Eugene J. Ellison, who previously served as Treasurer.

The Authority is composed of seven members, with five representatives, each appointed to a six-year term by the County Board of Commissioners to represent the county they serve and in which they reside (covering the counties of Livingston, Macomb, Oakland, Washtenaw and Wayne); and two commissioners who represent the district-at-large, each appointed to a four-year term by the Governor of Michigan.

Other Commissioners include: Livingston County - Charles H. Sutton, of Howell; Macomb - Thomas

S. Welsh, of St. Clair Shores; and Washtenaw - Vacant and awaiting an appointment to replace the late Herbert L. Frisinger, of Ann Arbor, who died in March of this year.

It's Official: Summer's Here

Summer officially began on Father's Day (June 21) this year, giving fathers the most daylight hours of any day in the year to enjoy themselves.

At 2:43 p.m. Michigan time (3:43 p.m. EDT) on Sunday the sun will reach summer solstice, its most northerly point and most direct position over the northern hemisphere, notes University of Michigan astronomer Hazel M. Losh

The event was marked by a 15-hour day and 9-hour night, the longest day and shortest night of the year.

"We also received the most solar heat in any 24-hour period of the year on Sunday," Professor Losh said. But, she adds, "we probably won't get our hottest day for another month or more. This is because the earth will continue to receive more solar heat than it gives off at night until about August 1, when intake and output become equal."

In the meantime, the earth's atmosphere will act like a blanket for the heat. Temperatures should keep soaring until the end of July.

Professor Losh noted that the earth is about 3 million miles farther from the sun during our summers than during the winters. This makes our seasons a bit milder than those in the southern hemisphere. And, because the earth moves a little slower in its orbit around the sun during our summers, we enjoy slightly longer summers than winters.

Seek State Aid Earlier in Year

Michigan House of Representatives has approved a bill sponsored by State Representative Marvin R. Stempien (D-Livonia-Northville) to give all public school districts the greatest share of their state aid payments in the first half of the school year when they need it most.

The Stempien bill passed on June 9, 1970 by a 72 to 21 vote and was sent to the Senate where favorable action is expected.

Presently, local schools receive their annual state aid allotment in six equal parts on August 1, October 1, December 1, February 1, April 1 and June 1.

"Unfortunately," Stempien pointed out, "the expenses of the local schools are front-ended. Public schools have a greater need for money in the first half of the school year than they do in the second half. Often, the school district will run short of money early in the fall of the year and have to borrow against their anticipated school aid payments."

Camera Repair Offered in Salem

This area finally has a place to go if you have a camera in need of repair.

John Wolding, an April graduate with highest honors from National Camera Repair School in Englewood, Colorado, has opened just such a shop in his basement. The "Photographic Shutter Shop" is located at 5178 Seven Mile Road, just a mile west of Pontiac Trail in Salem Township.

Wolding, who says he is, as a photo-technologist, trained to repair some 1,500 brands and lines of cameras and projectors, has been accepting repair work through Spencers Drug Store in South Lyon. He may be called for an appointment at 437-2890.

Currently employed by Ford Motor Company, Wolding says he hopes to devote increasing amounts of time to photographic equipment repair as he increases his clientele.

To Be Or Not to Be

James F. Andrews
General Pastor
Full Salvation Union - Northville

What is the difference between "personal convictions" and truth which must be universally accepted by all those who would be saved (from error)? How can God's elect tell the difference when they hear the different views and ideas advocated by various religious groups or individuals?

Who is truly trusting God? Is it the person who is constantly insisting that his views must be accepted in order to be saved, or is it the person who depends on God to build the house and who recognizes that no scripture is of any private interpretation.

For example: those who are constantly advocating "victory in Vietnam." Do they desire God's understanding of victory or their own understanding as to what they THINK God's understanding of victory in Vietnam is?

The man who truly trusts in God is the one who is willing to lay down his life for his brother. This means he is willing to lay down his own personal conviction of truth in that type of sacrifice that the understanding of God may be born in a many-membered Body of Christ made literally manifest in this earth.

Who will come up to the help of God against the mighty in this regard? Who is able to be baptized with the same baptism that Christ was baptized with, to the end that the body be born? No wonder that Jesus, upon seeing this reality, said, "Nevertheless when the Son of Man cometh in His Kingdom today shall He find faith on the earth?" Will He find anyone who will surrender to God without a mental reservation?

"To be or not to be—that is the question?"

God's elect know that in order to save their lives in the Body of Christ they must lose it in the realm of their own personal convictions of truth.

In this process, we have the law that brings us to Christ. Without law we would be in utter confusion and anarchy until we come to "The Christ"...until "The Christ" is made manifest in the earth as a literal fact.

All efforts to substitute your law (your personal convictions) for the other man's law (his personal convictions) only adds to the confusion that already exists and builds against the things we destroy.

There is room for dissent and for counsel within the orderly, established process of law in this great country. We should thank God that such is true and urge all our citizens to truly trust in God rather than in their own understanding as to what it means to trust in God.

Right shall prevail as we are willing to follow Christ's example and lay down our own life for the Brethren. Only in this spirit can we go forward today. In the past God has winked at our ignorance and allowed kingdoms of men to divide our political and religious world, but now He commands all men everywhere to repent that the Kingdom of God may come and His will be done in earth as it is in Heaven.

yours is the hand that lights your child's face.

We've heard so much about the effects of insecurity on the life of a child! It seems urgent to find a picture of security... that elusive ideal that parents want to provide but can never be sure they have. Notice the importance of the light in our picture. It doesn't really come from that fatherly hand. Someone else has provided the light which links father and son. The father merely stood in that light... and held his son's hand!

Sunday — Father's Day — in hundreds of thousands of churches, earnest fathers will stand in the Light. With their sons they'll worship God... experience again the spiritual understanding of life. See the brightness of that true security reflected in youthful eyes.

Babson Report

Fortune May Smile on Utility

BABSON'S REPORTS INC., Wellesley Hills, Mass. — This year could well see a change in the fortunes of the profits-starved electric utility industry, with consequent renewal of investor confidence in the group. A more liberal attitude on electric rates on the part of the regulatory agencies and a possible easing of inflationary pressures could result in a resumption of the historically favorable pattern of earnings growth for the industry. There is no question as to demand for electric power; the yardstick of doubling sales each decade should again be easily reached in the 1970's. Greater use of electrical appliances is certain, and the market for home heating is still virtually untapped.

AS SALES of electricity increase, generating capacity obviously must also increase. Utilities normally operate with a margin of capacity available for peak loads. On the hottest summer day, for instance, when thousands of air conditioners are operating, the overload could easily result in power brownouts or blackouts if sufficient capacity is not available. Over the years this safety margin of capacity has shrunk so that the electric companies are, so to speak, running faster and faster just to hold their place on the treadmill.

One solution to providing a large reserve capacity would be nuclear generating stations. But the lead time for construction of these giant units is steadily widening, and many utilities have been forced to abandon nuclear plans in favor of the more quickly built coal — or oil — fired stations. Lately, therefore, the number of planned starts for nuclear power stations has actually been on the decrease.

ANOTHER problem in which utilities have a large share is anti-pollution. Power generation involves burning fuels that produce air pollutants, mainly sulphur dioxide. Use of low-sulphur-content fuels is now, or soon will be, mandatory in much of the country. Yet to convert plants to the more costly low-sulphur fuels is an expensive proposition, as are precipitators to remove particles from the air.

Thermal pollution of water is another factor to which utilities are sensitive. To a large degree this question often controls plant location. Utilities also find that today they are faced with a not-so-silent majority of citizens concerned with the environment and its aesthetic quality. A high voltage transmission line is admittedly far from a thing of beauty, but again, the alternative is "undergrounding" the line at prohibitive cost. Environmental concern is making plant location a community decision rather than a corporate matter, meaning a great deal more time consumed in the process.

AS FOR COAL, this country has reserves enough for many years to come, but low-sulphur coal is in short supply and is relatively expensive. And the coal mining industry is under pressure from several directions. When nuclear generation of power seemed assured, few new coal mines were developed and coal mining itself lost much appeal as

Anti-Measles Campaign's A Success

LANSING — STATE HEALTH OFFICIALS say the massive measles vaccination campaign they carried out last winter and spring was successful in stamping out a threatening measles epidemic in Michigan.

An estimated 600,000 kindergarten through third grade school children, normally key spreaders of the disease, were immunized during the campaign

State Health Director Maurice S. Reizen said as a result 'the rubella epidemic has been aborted in Michigan.'

"The stage is set for our continuing rebella vaccination program aimed at ensuring that rubella will never occur in epidemic form again," he said.

SUCCESS OF THE IMMUNIZATION program has saved "many Michigan babies" from severe crippling birth defects which can occur when rubella hits a mother in the early months of pregnancy, says Reizen.

For many years rubella, also known as German Measles, was regarded as a mild disease. But in the 1940's research revealed it as a major cause of birth defects.

In the past, rubella epidemics have swept the nation every six to nine years. The last U.S. epidemic resulted in killing or crippling an estimated 50,000 unborn babies whose mothers contracted the disease.

Reizen said Michigan "is among a handful of states in the vanguard of the attack on the disease."

APPROXIMATELY 50 Michigan families have husbands, sons or brothers who are believed to be prisoners of war in North Vietnam.

They are part of a total of some 1,500 or more men who apparently are prisoners of the North Vietnamese.

The word apparently is used because virtually nothing is known about the condition of these men or even whether they are alive.

To focus attention on the plight of these men and their families, Gov. William G. Milliken recently proclaimed a "prisoner of war week" in Michigan.

THE PROCLAMATION was the result of the efforts of a Mount Clemens woman whose husband is a prisoner of war in North Vietnam.

Major Donald Odell was shot down over North Vietnam in October of 1967. His wife, Shirley, did not know his fate for more than 14 months.

Finally, just before Christmas last year, she received a very brief letter from him which told her he was at least alive.

Her experience, Milliken said, "is tragically typical of the situation."

"CAN YOU IMAGINE having some relative or friend who has disappeared some place in the jungles of Vietnam and is missing?" Milliken asked.

"He may be dead or seriously wounded. He may be a prisoner of war of the North Vietnamese. But the terrible burden of not knowing whether he was in pain or being mistreated or dead would be an enormous emotional burden for someone to bear 24 hours of every day.

"One of the primary causes for concern is that so little is known about loved ones who may be extremely ill or seriously wounded."

MILLIKEN urged all Michigan residents to write to the North Vietnamese government to urge that it treat prisoners humanely and allow the prisoners to correspond with their families.

"It might help the situation if the people of Michigan all expressed concern that those prisoners be given decent treatment and that their families be notified about their condition," he said.

"I feel this might be accomplished if enough people notify the Hanoi government in North Vietnam of their deep desire for improved treatment," he said. "We ask that people in Michigan, alone or in community groups, express their concern for the men missing and captive."

an occupation. Recently enacted strict safety rules are being rigidly enforced, and costs of implementing the laws, plus higher wage scales, could up coal prices by as much as 30%. A turn to oil or natural gas would be logical, but low-sulphur oil is far from abundant and natural gas is in extremely short supply.

As margins of return on capital have diminished over the past few years, utilities have about-faced and applied for rate increases instead of reducing rates as they have so long done. These rate boosts, combined with an easing of interest rates, should permit the industry to raise needed capital to solve some of today's pressing problems and enter the decade ahead with renewed vitality.

Out of the Horse's Mouth

Send your comments, questions, and horse show news to "Horse's Mouth", care of South Lyon Herald, South Lyon, Michigan 48178.

Dear Sally Saddle,
I have noticed some bumps along the jaw bone of my four-year old mare and I wondered if this could have anything to do with her teeth? Also do horses lose their teeth and at what age does this occur?

Yes, horses have two sets of teeth. The first set is referred to by the names "baby", "milk", "temporary", or "deciduous". These are replaced during the period of growth by the second set known as the permanent teeth.

Classification of teeth is based on their form and position. The front teeth are called middle incisors. These erupt at birth or from the first week to ten days. At about two and one half years of age these are replaced by the permanent middle incisors.

The next pair — lateral to the middle incisors — are called the intermediates. They first erupt between four and eight weeks and are replaced with permanent teeth at three and a half years.

The third and outside pair are called the corner incisors, they erupt between six and nine months and are replaced with the permanent teeth at four and one half years.

As to your noticing bumps on a four year old's jaw bone. They are teeth, that's right, they're the permanent incisors moving into position and the lump on the jaw bone should disappear by the time the horse reaches its fifth birthday, when the tooth moves up into position.

The permanent incisors will be full grown six months after eruption; hence at five years of age a horse should have a full mouth.

The canine teeth, also referred to as tusks or tusks, are located in the interdental space between the incisors and molars. Usually these canine teeth erupt around four to five years of age. Mares may or may not have these teeth or sometimes they may get them only on one jaw rather than both.

The molars or the large back teeth are sometimes called grinders. The horse has 12 molars. Since these molars do not wear down evenly but become very sharp on the edges, it is very important that at least once a year a horse's mouth, especially the molars, be checked by a veterinarian.

If he should find sharp caps on the teeth the "vet" will then float the teeth. "Floating" the teeth is the name given for the process of filing away the sharp points.

The number of teeth in the upper jaw may be increased by the presence of so-called "wolf" teeth. Such teeth are much-reduced vestiges of teeth, situated just in front of the first well-developed premolar. There is one on each side of the upper jaw. Often these teeth are not more than half or three quarters of an inch in length. They may erupt during the first six months and be shed about the same time as the milk teeth behind them. They may remain, however, indefinitely. Veterinarians sometimes advise pulling "wolf" teeth, especially in the case of a driving horse when an over-check bit will be used.

A green mouth is any mouth which features all or some "temporary" incisors.

A full mouth is one which features all permanent incisors.

A smooth mouth is the term applied when horses are ten years old or older.

for the 26th District, who entered the race at the urging of State Senator Kuhn and "Republican leaders," said:

"The county government receives a substantial portion of the local property taxes. I feel that it is of vital importance to have an individual who is very experienced in county government represent our district and that is the primary reason why I am running for this office."

In seeking the Oakland County commissioner post in District 27, Democrat William T. Roberts charged that the incumbent commissioner, Lew Coy, "has not been responsive to the needs of his constituency or the county. We must establish new priorities, placing road, crime prevention and drug abuse, above airport development, etc... He has not kept liaison with his constituents.

"If elected I will commit myself to work for the establishment of the priorities and to create local county offices in Southwest Oakland County that will be available and responsive to my district."

Hi...
I'm Reese Lamb, Michigan's Truck Driver of the Year.

I'd like to ask you a favor.
Keep your cool driving on the hot Fourth of July.
The highways will be crowded...traffic may move like a snail...and tempers may flare.
Don't let a hot temper cause you to blow your stack.
When your stack blows...your patience goes...And you may be heading for trouble.
This is how accident statistics are made.
You don't have to be one if you keep your cool. So keep your cool on the hot Fourth of July.
If more people do...fewer will die.
