OLD GLORY — "I just got up one morning and wanted to do it," explained Jack Keys, 19, who is painting an American Flag on the door of his family's garage at 142 Randolph Street. His mother, Mrs. John Keys, was a little more specific.

"Jack really enjoyed the Fourth of July," she said. "I think people are growing more patriotic — for instance there was a big turn-out at the parade — and he thought others might enjoy the flag too." Jack's shown painting stars to complete the flag.

Second Hearing Called On Shopping Centers

The Northville township board delayed action on two major issues Tuesday night, one to permit the holding of a public hearing and the second for more study.

Scheduled for review at a public hearing Thursday, July 23 are the rezoning requests for two regional shopping centers. A proposal by Nate Shapero for a major center on the southwest corner of Eight Mile and Haggerty had been recommended for rezoning by the planning commission.

A second similar request by Leonard Brooks for an adjoining parcel on the northwest corner of Seven Mile and Haggerty did not carry the sanction of the advisory planning body.

Attorneys for Brooks petitioned for a public hearing before the township board, planning commission and consultants. As provided by the law the hearing will be for the purpose of considering both petitions. It has been Brooks' contention that both requests could be granted and that the best plan will survive development.

Residents of Meadowbrook subdivision adjoining the sites along Seven Mile road have opposed both projects and have indicated legal action will be taken if either is granted.

After prolonged argument the board decided to table action on Levitt and Sons' rezoning request that would permit reduction of the number of single-family homes in the company's proposed Highland Lakes subdivision in the old Manning-Locklin gravel pit area.

Specifically, Levitt petitioned the planning commission to alter its original plan which called for 350 single family residences, 914 townhouses along with the 400 apartments.

But the planning commission recommended a compromise plan that calls for 127 single family homes, 1,306 townhouses and 400 apartments. The planning commission and its consultant, Vilcan-Leman, advised the township board that forcing the developer to build 350 single family homes would result in unsatisfactory homesites because of undesirable terrain and that the latest proposal would provide a single family "buffer" along the eastern boundary of the project.

Levitt representatives told the board Tuesday night that the new plan would not increase the population of the development, but would increase the valuation and therefore the tax support. They stated that the surplus yield in tax dollars for schools would be $90,000 under the new plan

Council Commends Recreation Report

Placing its highest priority on the acquisition of some 240 acres of Maybury Sanatorium property the council-appointed committee on parks, open space and recreation officially presented its study findings to the city council Monday night.

Although no action was taken, the council praised the study and the committee headed up by John Canterbury for its work. It is expected that the council will consider the adoption of the recommendations of the report at its regular meeting Monday night.

Canterbury emphasized that the committee hoped the council would begin immediately in its efforts to acquire needed property for parks and open spaces. "Development can follow, but sites should be acquired now," he stated.

In the order of importance as determined by the study neighborhood parks, one and two acres in size, came close on the heels of Maybury, while the Ford Field and mill pond property, a senior citizens' meeting place and

Board Elects Dr. Robinson

Year-Round Foes Voice Objections

Dr. Orlo J. Robinson moved into the president's chair of the Northville Board of Education Monday night by unanimous vote. He went on to preside at one of the longest, most-heated sessions in recent history as members and audience presented their views on year-round school.

Other officers of the new board are Stanley Johnston, vice president; Glenn E. Deibert, secretary, both by unanimous vote, and Andrew Orphan, re-elected treasurer upon nomination of Eugene Cook. Cook had been nominated by Orphan immediately before.

Taking his seat on the board was Timothy C. Johnson, assistant pastor of Northville Presbyterian Church, who won the post in the June election which also returned Johnston to the board.

Dr. Robinson, called upon all eight members of a group organized in opposition to the concept of year-round school for Northville. Board members then replied in turn.

The public hearing had been placed on the agenda at the request of Angelo Chinni. He and the other members of the group, now formally organized, live in the Amerman school area.

Chinni, a teacher at Schoolcraft Community College, told the board that the group has many different reasons individually for opposing the concept.

"You are reorganizing a whole lot of lives for this — for what?" the board was told.

Chinni and R. Duane LaMoreaux stressed that they were "shocked" to find the election tally "of 55 per cent opposed and less than 45 per cent for made to sound like a victory and called a 'mandate' to continue the study."

LaMoreaux added that "if this were a millage vote and 55 per cent were for it, you'd consider it a landslide."

He warned that the group was organized and was "going to oppose it (year-round school) as strongly as possible and will do everything we can to stop implementation of the study."

Chinni pointed out that he didn't think the argument has been made that the concept will save money or improve quality of education as labor is the large cost of operating a district, not buildings. From his experience in teaching in summer, he said, he knows how difficult it is for the children.

"I would like you on the board to think of the non-economic aspects," he continued, adding that he felt it must be guaranteed, if implemented, that all children in a family be home together.

"If Northville were an island, we would be ostracized," Lawrence F.

Gucken told the board, "for who would buy into the community?"

He and Charles Fialon reported they had made individual surveys of their Sherrie Lane neighborhood and found that 16 or 17 out of 20 neighbors were against year-round

School Ends Year With Small Surplus

As the Northville Board of Education began the new fiscal year Monday, the members learned from Superintendent Raymond Spear that 1969-70 had been "a very good year" with books now being audited showing a two to three per cent surplus, amounting to about $6,000 unexpended and allowing balancing the carryover deficit of about $6,000.

Robert C. Benson, administrative intern, reported that while 22 districts in the state were reducing staffs, Northville has hired 22 teachers, eight of whom are for newly created positions. This brings the full-time teaching staff to 150 teachers in the fall.

Of the teachers in the district, he noted, one-third hold master's degrees. Among new teachers hired there is an average of four years' teaching experience, even averaging in 10 without experience. Benson said the district has been "extremely successful in recruiting experienced teachers." Of the teachers without prior experience, he added, three are on intern status.

One of the new teachers is for remedial reading at Moraine elementary, providing a teacher at each of the three elementary. In reply to a question from Trustee Glenn Deibert, Spear said the district has none at junior or senior high level.

Trustee Richard Martin repeated a request made previously for a survey of which children were having reading problems and who had taught them. saying, "What teachers are failing if we have to hire remedial reading teachers?" Miss Florence Panattoni, curriculum coordinator was asked to present a report in 60 days on the program.

The board also approved hiring of 14 teachers and accepted resignations from two, Dennis Levin and Dennis Palmer. Mrs. Harriett Page, who notified the board that her husband has been offered a position with the Cincinnati Conservatory of Music, requested a leave. Noting that this is not board policy, the board cancelled her contract "with regret" while citing her as a "top-notch" teacher. Another teacher, who had signed her contract and wished to be released, was notified a replacement must first be hired.

High school classroom furniture and equipment bids totaling $39,569.45 were approved with Trustee Eugene Cook abstaining to avoid conflict of interest. Spear said all bids were low bidders except in the instance where the district had received inferior quality in the past. He added the bids were well within budget.

The board received notice from "YEAR-ROUND SCHOOL. Is It Feasible?" is the title of a 180 page book published by the Northville School District with funds received from a $19,000 grant from the State. The publication has been submitted to the state, as required by the grant. Copies are available on loan from the board offices and will soon be available for purchase at $5.50. Superintendent Raymond Spear said if there is a steady demand for the publication, funds obtained from the sale of the book will be used to publish additional copies. Beginning next week, a series of articles from the book will appear in The Record.

Two Local Women Attend Conference

Church efforts to combat hunger and poverty and renewed commitments to give spiritual strengthening to needed social change were among the topics considered by the triennial national meeting of the United Presbyterian Women on the Purdue University campus in Lafayette, Indiana.

Among the more than 4,000 women attending the meeting from July 6 — July 11 were Mrs. Douglas Smith of 912 Allen Drive and Mrs.

Tom Sechler of 404 Dunlap. Both were representatives of the Women's Association of the First Presbyterian Church of Northville.

Nationally known speakers presented various aspects of the conference theme, "What Time Is It?" The theme was taken from the passage in the Old Testament book of Ecclesiastes that begins: "To everything there is a season and a time to every purpose under the heaven..."

They heard the Reverend Doctor William Sloane Coffin, Yale University chaplain, challenge women to help the church re-align its priorities. "We care about the wrong thing; we put secondary virtues ahead of primary ones. We stress cleanliness, punctuality, humility at the expense of the primary virtues: ruthless honesty — the kind of criticism that Jeremiah gave — and self-sacrificing love," the clergyman said.

There is a generation gap in the church today, he said because "the church tends to stress personal morality and the kids know social morality is what's important."

Dr. Coffin was both critical of and sympathetic with workers whom he called "flag-waving Hard Hats." Such workers have a full stake in the American dream, he said. "Only what kind of a dream is it, when you spend your day in spirit-mangling labor, have practically no say at all in the conditions which govern your life, and come home at night to a mortgage on the house, payments on the car, a color-blind television set, and a D-in-English, car-smashing son?"

Included among other speakers at the meeting were Mrs. Anita Blackwell, a community organizer for the National Council of Negro Women in Mississippi, Mrs. Johnnie Tillman, one of the founders of the National Welfare Rights Organization and The Reverend Doctor Alan Geyer, editor of the Christian Century.

An Indian American woman, Mrs. Roy Denham of Albuquerque, New Mexico, was elected president of the national body which numbers nearly half a million women.

50 Years Service to Country

He Celebrates Second Retirement

"On April 1, 1961, Master Sergeant Leroy C. Richardson was officially retired from the United States Army after a 39 year career of both active and inactive service."

That's a quote from the April 13,

1961 edition of the Novi News.

Last Saturday Richardson had another retirement party. This one was from nine years as a custom inspector in Detroit and it marked the end of nearly 50 years service to his country.

AFTER SECOND RETIREMENT — Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Richardson, of 24500 Border Hill, in Novi, look forward to travel.

Richardson, 65, entered the Army National Guard at 16. He served with them, the inactive reserve and the regular army for "nearly 40 years," until 1961 when he finally retired.

On April 3, 1961 — two days after his official retirement, — Richardson put in his first full day as a customs inspector.

His tenure with the customs department ran until June 19 when for the second time he officially retired.

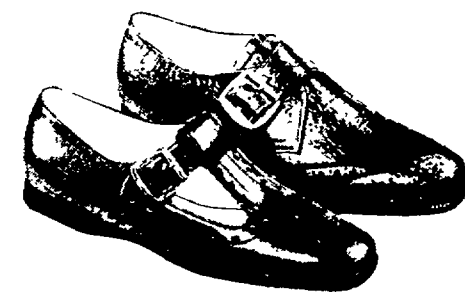

He worked primarily in international railroad traffic. Asked if it was a hard job, Richardson said railroad yards in the Metropolitan area average a total of 2,000 carloads a day import and export. Materials from all over the world come through Canada by railroad into the U.S.

In his job Richardson switched back and forth between the 16 customs offices operated in Detroit.

He and his wife Marian live at 24500 Border Hill Road in Willowbrook subdivision, the same house they have occupied since they returned from his last tour of duty in Japan.

They love to travel and have ambitions of returning to Japan. Mrs. Richardson explained that "it is simply out of this world."

When asked if he might consider getting another job Richardson got a little gleam in his eye, gave a little smile and said that plans were "uncertain."

Novi Board Approves Plans For Middle School; Eyes Bids

School board trustees approved final plans for the middle school, set the date for opening bids on construction, approved preliminary plans for the new elementary school and agreed to an across the board hike in lunch costs and textbook rental fees. The action came July 7 at a special meeting of the board.

Bids on the middle school will be opened August 11 at the board's regular meeting at 8 p.m. Air conditioning the central core of the building and carpeting the library and offices are included, with alternates on air conditioning the entire building and carpeting other areas.

Construction is expected to begin in the fall with the classrooms, offices and the library ready for occupancy September 1, 1971. The building will be completed by January 1, 1972, administrators explained.

"But without the sewer," Superintendent Thomas Dale noted, "we still will have a problem with occupancy."

In May, trustees approved the release of $100,000 to the Novi city council for construction of a sewer lateral to service the middle school and junior-senior high site on Taft Road. On July 6, the city council authorized the county to solicit bids to construct the sewer arm with which the lateral would connect. Construction is to begin in the fall.

Preliminary plans for the new elementary school in Village Oaks subdivision were approved by the board. The 16-classroom school will be bid in two months. The school will be ready for occupancy in September, 1971, officials said.

Enrollment in the fall is expected to reach 1,900 students, or approximately 175 more than this year, Dale said, bringing the school district buildings to near capacity enrollment.

*****

The board approved a five-cent across the board hike in lunches and a $5 increase in textbook rental fees. The new prices go into effect in the fall.

Students lunches will cost 40 cents in grade school, 45 cents in high school and 55 cents for adults.

Textbook rental fees will be $15 per student in kindergarten through grade 12. Kindergarten fees include the price of milk and cookies.

In other action, board members instructed Dale to obtain bids on classroom equipment totaling nearly $30,000 for existing buildings and to obtain bids for the purchase of two new school buses.

A motion to give the administration authority to expend $25,000 on classroom equipment and approximately $15,000 to convert a boiler at Novi Elementary School

Orthodox Catholics Form New Church

A new Autocephalous Orthodox Catholic Church, the first of its kind in the United States, is now being established in this area. The church, named St. Alexis Orthodox, is under the pastorate of the Reverend Father Gabriel and will serve Orthodox Catholics in the Oakland, Wayne, and Washtenaw county area, including Northville and Novi.

St. Alexis is the first parish in the country to be organized since complete autocephaly was granted to the former Russian Orthodox Greek Catholic Church in America April 13 by the late Patriarch Alexis of Moscow. The granting of autocephaly gives unqualified autonomy and independence to the Church, now known as the Autocephalous Orthodox Catholic Church of America, and places her under the exclusive leadership of the Metropolia in New York rather than the Patriarchate in Moscow.

The Church, which was established in Siberia and Alaska under Russian ownership, has been regarded as a daughter-mission on American soil for the past 175 years. Under autocephaly, the Church has attained independent status as an American religious institution.

The congregation, presently numbering 30 to 40 persons, has been holding liturgical services each Sunday at 10 a.m. in the home of parishioners, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Haulund, 341 Ann St., Plymouth. According to Father Gabriel, the growing number of parishioners makes the necessity of locating a permanent church facility imperative. "Any small building for sale or rent in this area would be perfect for our needs," said the pastor.

Anyone wishing further information about St. Alexis may contact Father Gabriel at P.O. Box 199, Plymouth or phone 455-4210.

Unanimous approval was given to a motion to instruct the superintendent to take bids by July 28 on items considered a necessity, with final approval of the bids resting with the board.

In other action, trustees approved hiring a half-time teacher for remedial reading at the junior high level, two vocal music teachers, extending the teaching day of Mrs. Janith Ralston to full-time string music instructor, hire a day matron for the high school, a full-time maintenance person to work outside buildings and hire two full-time additional 7-12 grade teachers if necessary.

But 3 Trustees Abstain

Simmons Wins Third Term

Bruce Simmons was elected to his third consecutive term as president of the Novi Board of Education, Monday night at the board's organizational meeting. Trustees also unanimously approved changing meeting days from the second and fourth Tuesday to the second and fourth Monday of every month.

Simmons won the top board post without opposition and captured four of seven board votes in secret balloting. Three members abstained from voting. LaVerne DeWaard was re-elected vice-president of the board by unanimous ballot.

Also elected by unanimous ballot were Ray Warren, secretary, and Claude Earl, treasurer. Robert Wilkins was named legislative representative and Gilbert Henderson was appointed representative to the Oakland County Intermediate School District.

The nomination of officers and subsequent election was prefaced when Trustee Henderson proposed rotating officers, an idea advanced by Trustee DeWaard at last year's organizational meeting.

"It's good for two reasons," Henderson noted. "Rotation can serve toward the improvement of each board member through experience, helping the individual growth of board members, and if you are president the year your child graduates you have the honor of presenting him with his diploma."

Simmons said it "doesn't matter who is president, a board member should still be able to give his child his diploma."

Both pros and cons of officer rotation were discussed with Simmons noting, "We have seven members and I favor the choice of seven members."

After ballots were cast re-electing Simmons, he thanked the "three abstaining members for your vote of confidence."

In other board action Monday, trustees approved a resolution to make application to borrow $300,000 in anticipation of uncollected taxes in order to meet operating expenses before taxes are collected. The figure must be approved by the Municipal Finance Commission.

Also approved was a total tax levy of 31.1 mills for 1970-71. Included are 8.63 mills for operation in the school district plus an additional 1.00 mill in all except Novi Township, voted millage of 11.50, and 9.97 mills for debt retirement funds, yielding a total of $1,446,766.19 in taxes.

Trustees discussed the possibility of constructing a bus garage and asked Superintendent Thomas Dale to come back to the board with a recommendation.

In personnel matters, the board voted to retain Frederick Knauer as its attorney for the 1970-71 fiscal year, with salary and details to be worked out by the administration and confirmed by the board.

The resignation of Frederick Hanert, junior high counselor and civics instructor, was approved, pending employment of a suitable replacement.

Trustees nullified a motion made at a previous meeting to hire Mrs. Nancy Smith as an elementary teacher when she said she was unable to complete her contract for the coming year.

Board members approved tape recording board meetings beginning in August and continuing through October on a trial basis.

move on the part of the recreation board to "embarrass me before the council and the public."

Willis charged that the letter had been written on June 24 and held until the last moment in an effort to surprise him.

The letter was signed by Irene Rollo, John Ruggles, Jim Nissen, Bonnie DuFresna, Fred Evans, Phyllis Russett and Fred Waara.

Council Rebuts Police; Cites Budget Problems

Novi's city council, smarting under the threat of the Novi Police Officers Association (NPOA) to carry its appeal for more men and money to the voters, issued a statement of its own this week.

The council rebuttal came on the heels of statements carried in The News last week and issued by Corporal Gordon Nelson, president of the NPOA.

Clearly disturbed by the police association's decision to break the news silence that has covered negotiations to date the council defended its position by pointing to its budgetary responsibilities to all city departments.

To substantiate its concern for police needs the council noted that "police and fire protection costs for Novi account for 59 per cent of the current fiscal year budget and 96 per cent of the total budget increase over the past year."

The council maintains that it has offered the NPOA a salary and benefit package increase of $1,600, or 17 per cent per man. "This would give an officer salary and benefits of $11,250 after three years," the report states.

The council claims that NPOA originally demanded increases amounting to $6,700, or 69 per cent per man "and was still demanding salary and benefit increases totaling $4,800, or 50 per cent annually per officer when negotiations ceased."

The current police contract has expired and the city and NPOA are now awaiting arbitration.

While the council notes that it has provided for three new officers in the 1970-71 budget, it maintains that manpower is not subject to collective bargaining. NPOA originally asked to boost its 12-man department to 28, but now would settle for five more police officers.

Top salary for an officer now on the Novi department is $9,100. NPOA has dropped its demands from a range of from $11,400 to a top of $13,200 to a top salary of $11,900. But Corporal Nelson noted last week that under arbitration "concessions made to date go out the window and we start with our original demands."

Following is the complete text of the "status of negotiations" statement released Monday by the Novi council:

"It is normal practice during labor contract negotiations for both sides to agree to refrain from news releases except by joint action. Since it now appears that this agreement is no longer being honored by the Novi Police Officers Association (NPOA), it is time that the demands of the NPOA be examined realistically and completely."

"First, budgeting in the City of Novi is not a simple matter of adding up what everyone wants or demands, and establishing that total as the City budget. Budgeting is a much more complex process of determining the needs of the community, setting priorities on those needs and then trying to make available revenues provide as many of the needs as possible. Each year there are many important projects that cannot be done in Novi because there is not enough money; however, it is the obligation of the City Council to provide for all of the basic needs of the citizens and to do it within the revenue limitations."

"The general fund budget includes five basic functions; community planning, police and fire protection, highway improvements and equipment purchases, and a number of miscellaneous administrative items such as street lighting, accounting and official record keeping, holding of elections, city facilities maintenance, parks and recreation, legal expense and

Novi Hires Firm For Reappraisal

Novi's council has decided to undertake reappraisal of all real property in the city and has retained the services of a professional firm to conduct the project.

In action taken at a special continuation meeting held last week the council authorized Mayor Pro-Tem Denis Berry to sign a contract with Gordon B. Hunter Associates of Farmington. The municipal appraising firm will make specific measurements and complete other field work next January.

At its meeting next Monday night the council is scheduled to act on a proposal to appoint City Manager Dallas Zonkers assessor. Zonkers would be responsible to the council for reporting progress of the Hunter reappraisal.

Such an assignment would not be new to Zonkers. He formerly served as assessor for the cities of Hudson and Jackson.

One hitch in the Zonkers' appointment is the fact that Harold Ackley, former village manager, will remain on the job as assessor until November 1 when he is scheduled to retire. The two may hold the job jointly, or the council may decide to make Zonkers' appointment effective upon Ackley's departure.

Gordon B. Hunter, president of the appraising firm, told the Novi council last week that his company has handled appraisals totaling $1 billion, $60 million and has written over 46,000 descriptions for eight governmental units.

Hunter's fee for the reappraisal work is $28,750.

On Grand River

A Case of Spilled Milk

A United Dairy truck, carrying milk, eggs and ice cream, overturned on eastbound Grand River at Meadowbrook Road Thursday when, according to police, a car driven by 17-year-old Jerry Roll of Rochester attempted a left turn directly in front of it.

Roger Dale Brisbois, 24, of Pontiac, struck the car in the left side. The force of the collision turned the truck on its side.

Traffic was tied up more than 30 minutes as the truck was righted and the Novi Fire Department hosed milk and debris off the road.

Both Brisbois and Roll sustained minor injuries.

Board, Teachers Set For Serious Talks

Teachers and administrators are ready to roll up their sleeves and discuss economic items in Novi's 1970-71 master teaching contract negotiations.

Superintendent Thomas Dale reports state aid figures for the district have been received and both sides are ready to discuss salary schedules and other economic items.

Based on a fall enrollment of 1,900 students in the district, Novi will receive $187 in state aid per child, a decrease from $221 received last year. However, through re-evaluation of the district, local property taxes will contribute $517 per child, an increase from $440 received last year. Net increase is $43 per child.

Of the 100 non-economic items presented at the bargaining table when talks opened in May, 75 have been settled. T. Richard Hendrickson, assistant superintendent said. Included are minor changes in phrasing.

"Negotiations are going smoother than last year, Hendrickson said, "and we are further along." He noted teams for both sides are experienced in negotiations.

Representing the Novi Education Association are Milan Obrenovich and James Ladd. Hendrickson and Dale represent the district. All are optimistic the contract will be settled in August.

When Willis took office in April he dismissed Thomas Burke as parks and recreation director and appointed Ronald Parvu, son of Councilwoman Mary Parvu.

Subsequent petitions, and charges of nepotism from the public forced dismissal of Parvu.

The post has been vacant since May 26. Tuesday night the council was to have acted on the mayor's latest appointee for the post, Max Sidor.

Council directed that the board resignation letter be rejected until such time as the mayor and council can meet with the recreation board to work out differences.

In other action Tuesday night

—Council passed a resolution to enter into contract with Oakland County for enlargement and improvement of the sewage treatment plant on Charms road.

—Approved the request of Patrick Murphy to rezone 24 acres near Beck Road and Potter for multiple housing developments. The development will include 199 units, primarily two and three bedroom.

Wixom Parks Board Resigns

The seven remaining members of Wixom's Parks and Recreation Board resigned Tuesday night throwing the scheduled appointment of a Recreation Director into a turmoil.

In the face of the mass resignation the council tabled the appointment of a director.

Mayor Gilbert Willis charged that the walk out, announced in a letter submitted Monday afternoon, was a

Severance Pay Asked

The Wixom city council postponed a decision as to whether or not severance pay is due dismissed city employees.

The postponement came after council listened to a letter Tuesday night from former Deputy Clerk Donna Thorsberg and former Clerk-Treasurer Elizabeth Waara demanding severance pay from the city.

The two charged that they had been dismissed on one day's notice and maintained that the quality of their work merited consideration.

Also seeking severance pay was former Building Inspector Ralston Calvert. The ex-inspector maintained that he served the city as an employee and not as an administrator and therefore is entitled to the benefits.

The three were dismissed by

Campbell Appointed to Council

Voting in secret ballot Monday night, the Novi City Council unanimously elected Louis Campbell to fill the vacant seventh council seat left when William Duey resigned to run unsuccessfully for mayor.

Campbell, ran for election to the council in April, finishing fourth in a field of 11.

Campbell said Monday night that he feels the current negotiation with the police department was the most serious problem facing Novi at the present time.

"Despite that," he added, "Novi faces problems common to all growing cities. We have roads to build, sewers to construct, a citizenry to serve. It's difficult placing priorities and finding sufficient funds to do all these things."

"I'd like to thank all the people who supported me in the last election," Campbell continued, "particularly the Mayor and council for the faith they have shown in me."

Campbell has served on the Board of Appeals for the last year and is secretary and past president of the Novi Rotary. He has served as a liaison between the Novi Boy Scouts and its sponsoring organizations and helped organize the Novi Recreation Board.

A resident of Echo Valley for the past two years, he has lived in Western Wayne County for the last 15 years. He is employed as a representative for Detroit Gas Products Company.

Newly-elected Mayor Gilbert Willis last May.

Mrs. Waara had been with the city for eight years, Mrs. Thorsberg for five and Calvert for three.

In a special hearing Tuesday night, Calvert maintained that he had been hired by DPW Director Robert Trombley and not appointed by any city official. He cited paragraphs from the minutes of council meetings in October and November of 1967 to support his claim and challenged council to prove he had been appointed. Calvert contended that as a hired employee who has been dismissed he is entitled to severance pay.

Councilman Val Vangieson pointed out that Wixom has no official ruling concerning severance pay for employees and noted that whatever council decided would set a precedent. On that basis he moved that discussion of the problem be postponed until the July 28 meeting. Council passed the action unanimously.

Snow's Increase Babe Ruth Lead

J. R. Snyder climbed into third place in Novi Babe Ruth action last week by defeating cellar dweller Albers-Shubnell but failed to match the onslaught of first place Snow's Standard, going down in the second of a two game series.

Snyder started off the Shubnell game last week Tuesday with a three run first inning on the strength of a double by Tom Ford and a single by hurler Gary Colton.

Dave Ward led off that inning with a walk, went on to steal second and came across on Ford's double. Ford stole third and scored when Colton smacked his single. Colton stole both second and third and scored on an error by the catcher.

Taylor knocked in the fourth Snyder run with a second inning double that left him on.

With one out in the third, Colton got on with an error. He stole second and third, and scored on a single by Gary Staub. Staub went on to steal second, third and home. Gary Collins, who got on with a single, stole second and third and was forced in by walks given to Bob Faucher, Brad Shobe and Rick Gault. Faucher and Shobe came in on two fielders choices closing out the Snyder tally.

Shubnell went scoreless through the sixth when Pat Boyer walked stole

ROOTERS AND WINNERS — While not so slow turtles plod for the finish line in the annual Northville Recreation turtle classic, excited spectators cheer them on. Races were run behind the Scout Recreation Building Tuesday. They were divided into three classes: small, medium and large. Winners in the large class beam over their entries (below) as they show off prize ribbons. They are (standing from left) Brian Prom, first place; Russell Gans, second; Greg Bach, third; and a tie for fourth (kneeling) between Jim Klammer and Teresa Folino. Winners in the medium contest were owned by Kristy Iverson, first, Derrick Gans, second, Bob Isom third, and Linda Prom, fourth. In the small heat, entries earned Melanie Rushlow first, Bob Boshoven second, Dick Yeager third, and Paul Jones fourth. A runoff match between the three sizes saw Kristy Iverson claim honors with the "fastest turtle in Northville."

In Slo-Pitch

Northville Drug, Lumber Tie for Lead

League A leader Northville Drug hikes its record in Men's Slo-Pitch last week to 9-2, but Northville Lumber came from second place to tie it on the strength of a two-game winning streak. In other action Plymouth State Home saw double duty last week Tuesday, in a 20-4 lambasting given to Erie Trailer, and a 5-4 squeaking loss to Newcomer Club I.

Jim Stevens engineered a 6-4 victory for Northville Drug over the South Lyon Jaycees last week Monday with the help of a long homer off the bat of Bill Hopping in the sixth inning.

The Drug's most profitable inning was the fourth when they scored three runs off two errors and two singles. Drug batsmen followed up in the third with three hits putting them ahead 5-2. Hopping's homer made it 6-2.

South Lyon played catch up ball in the seventh but a two run rally was all the power they could muster.

Dave Grimes took the loss.

Meanwhile, Northville Lumber held onto second place by downing Northville Jaycees 13-10, then went on to tie for first by beating Plymouth State Home, 14-7.

The Jaycees held the lead until Northville Lumber blitzed them with a four run rally in the sixth.

The Jaycees started out with six runs in the second inning from six hits, including a triple by Pat Dusten. They followed it up in the third when hurler Paul Vandenberg belted a homer with two on.

In their half of the third, the Lumber earned two runs on two hits, a walk and an error.

The Jaycees wound up their tally in the fifth with one run from two hits.

Northville made five runs that inning from five hits, and went on to tally seven in the sixth from John Sting's double, Bill Bell's triple, and Rick Pyle's homer.

Don Vanlengen pitched for the winners.

Lumber started off with a three run rally in the first, tallying four hits, including a double from Jeff Crawford. They scored four times in the second off a triple from Ron Nuechterlein and doubles by Joe Lineman and Vanlengen.

Jim Tanner smashed two homers, one in the fifth for the only Lumber tally, and one in the sixth as part of a six run rally in that inning.

In the second, Plymouth's Butch Stampfer doubled in one runner and scored on a single by hurler Ed Angner.

Plymouth scored twice more in the fourth and three times in the seventh to finish their tally.

In Tuesday night's action against Erie Trailer, Plymouth had a whopping fourth inning sending 21 men to the plate and scoring 16 runs in a 20-4 ballgame.

In that fourth inning John Slezak socked a triple and a home run, Ken McDermott a triple-double combination, Wayne Patterson and Bob Kent a single and a double each, and Nick Butler two singles.

It wasn't so bright in Tuesday night's second game, however, as Plymouth went down to Newcomers Club I, 5-4.

Novi B-V 2 for 3

B-V Construction, Novi entry in Livonia's Connie Mack baseball competition, picked up two games last week but couldn't muster enough strength to stand the onslaught of ace Cardinal hurler Kenneth Gawkonski.

B-V went down in a 3-0 no-hitter, Thursday, that stood in the middle of a three game series. They downed Franklin on Saturday, 21-4, and the Plymouth Elks last week Tuesday, 2-1.

The Livonia Cardinals tallied all their runs Thursday night in the first and fifth innings from five singles and a double.

Rick Dale got the lone Novi hit: a single in the third inning.

Lee Snow pitched for the Construction.

Snow hurled the victory against Franklin on Saturday allowing six hits.

The Construction earned their runs on 12 singles, three bunts, and six stolen bases.

Bunts came in the second from Dale and Phil McMillian and in the fifth from Dan Flattery. Dale stole three bases while Flattery, McMillian and Steve Bosack were each credited with one.

Snow went to the mound against Plymouth Elks for his first victory of the week, allowing five hits.

The big bat for the night was Dale who tripled the first run in and then came home on a perfect bunt by McMillian.

Reefs Win, Split

Reef Manufacturing, Northville entry in the Livonia-sponsored Adray and Connie Mack leagues, picked up two games last week, one in each league, but lost in Connie Mack to first place Warholak Uniroyal Tires.

Adray Manager Art Adams, nine won its only contest last week in a 1-0 squeaker with first round winner Redford that remained scoreless until the seventh inning.

Stan Nirider walked, went to second on Berry Deal's sacrifice, and came home on Bernie Bach's single.

Rich Adams ripped losing hurler Dale Bjerke for the only other Reef hit of the game: a single in the second.

Jeff Taylor worked the victory, giving up one walk, and a lone single to Bill Howe, also in the second inning.

Manager Fred Holdsworth's Connie Mack team split two, dealing American Century a 5-0 shut out, and going down to first placed Warholak 9-3.

Jeff Moon worked the victory for Reef Thursday, allowing two singles, and fanning five.

Northville power displayed itself in the second inning when doubles by Bernie Bach and Steve Utley plus three singles capped a four run rally.

Reef went scoreless until the fifth when a single off the bat of Bach scored the final run.

Northville couldn't get up enough steam to undo the perfect record of Warholak Sunday as hurlers Scott Evans and Bernie Bach allowed a combined 12 hits.

Bach relieved in the sixth and gave up one run from two hits.

Warholak batsmen started the game with a five run rally in the first off four singles and two walks. They scored once more in the fourth and finished their scoring in the sixth with three runs off a pair of doubles: and a pair of singles.

Kirk Taylor was the winning pitcher holding Reef to three singles and a double.

Northville tallied one run in the first from singles by Terry Mills and David Coe and two more in the third off Mills' double and an error.

As of Sunday, standings in the Livonia League saw Reef at 3-4 in Adray and 5-7 in Connie Mack.

the Department of Education that it will be granted an advance payment of 1970-71 state aid in the amount of $167,000. The board approved a resolution to apply for a loan not to exceed $700,000 to be borrowed if necessary until tax monies are in.

In a review of the transportation program for last year the board learned that 8,128 students participated in bussed activities outside the classroom. Martin questioned the difference in the number of field trips taken by the three elementary schools, which ranged from 23 and 14 to 8. Spear stated this was an administrative concern and was being investigated. He expressed the feeling that every child should have a trip each year but said it depended on the principal and teachers how many were taken.

The board approved administration action in applying for $9,438 in ESEA Title I federal funds to continue the program now in operation for 40 children getting summer work in math and reading who are below grade level.

As it established 1970-71 by-laws, the board included a new resolution giving the board the right to call special meetings when in regular session, to simplify notifications to board members.

Next meeting of the board will be July 27 at it continues the second and fourth Monday meeting dates.

Novi Council

engineering studies, etc. Police and fire protection costs for Novi account for 59% of the current fiscal year budget and 96% of the total budget increase over last year. This alone should indicate that the City Council has given public safety and protection first priority in the current year budget.

The 1970-1971 Police Department Budget is based on careful study of salary and benefit levels of both surrounding and comparable communities. These items were set at dollar levels that should result from realistic give and take collective bargaining. The City has offered the NPOA a salary and benefit package increase of $1,600.00 or 17% per man. This would give an officer salary and benefits of $11,250 after three years. The NPOA originally demanded increases amounting to $6,700.00 or 69% per man and was still demanding salary and benefit increases totaling $4,800.00 or 50% annually per officer when negotiations ceased. This would give an officer salary and benefits of $14,450 after three years of service.

Personnel levels, however, are a completely different matter. While manpower was discussed at the negotiation sessions, manpower is not subject to collective bargaining and no offer was ever made to the NPOA. Three additional officers were included in the 1970-1971 budget subject to the availability of funds after assessment of total community needs. When the budget was added up, expenses exceeded revenues; however, it was possible to make sufficient reductions by deferment of items in other departments, and the three man increase was retained in the Police Department Budget.

"It is the understanding of the City negotiators that the manpower issue is the main reason for going to arbitration; and this is not a negotiable issue.

Russell Knox stated that he knows "we're going to have to pay top dollar to live here, and I'm willing to pay extra to have summer vacation."

James Lauer agreed he was concerned with the quality of education but feels other experiences also are valuable to children — including Little League and summer camping.

"In our day and age, summer vacation is a necessity, not a convenience," he declared, stressing that this is the "outdoor time" when youngsters explore the woods and socialize with others.

Both Lauer and Ronald H. Myers emphasized the need for families to do things together during the summer.

Eugene Cook, speaking first for the board, declared that "the reason we need to continue the study is to learn more; the term 'mandate' is meant that the vote is a 'mandate for more information.' I think the board would be derelict in its duty not to explore every way to save the taxpayers' money."

Admitting that even the board doesn't know all the facts, he expressed concern that the study be continued to gain more information. He pointed out that "everybody gets two weeks in August" in the new plan.

New member Johnson said he agreed with Cook, pointing out that a lot of research is being done in the field of education but not on the year-round concept and that the district is justified in giving research on the national level. (The district has requested $1 million from the federal government for implementation.)

A murmured suggestion of "recall" went through the audience group in opposition as most members, who are neighbors of the minister, seemed surprised at his stand and as tempers seemed as warm as the airless room.

Board member Richard Martin's reaction to the vote last month, he said, was that he felt "we didn't get through" to the people in explaining. He pointed out that it took three returns of the electorate to pass the millage needed last time and that he doesn't believe people will pay more to have children vacation in summer. He also said that with only 25 per cent of the student body out of school at one time some enforcement officers feel the plan has merit as fewer will be on the streets at once.

In the matter of teacher salaries Martin said: "If they are going to work

Company spokesman emphasized that in addition to topographical problems in the development of the single family sites there were critical economic problems, indicating that more expensive single family homes cannot be sold as readily as townhouse units.

Trustee William Smith expressed strong opposition to the Levitt request. He said he did not believe the company did not recognize the site problems from the outset and he said he considered it important to stick to the original plan "which has a better balanced concept".

Smith said he thought there was a way the company could rearrange its

Hearing Delayed

A public hearing on the preliminary plat application of Kaufman and Broad Developers for Heatherwoode subdivision between Nine and Ten Mile on Meadowbrook Road was continued until next week by the city council in a joint meeting Monday night with the planning board.

Questions were raised concerning the plat in a letter received from city engineers, Johnson and Anderson. A representative of the firm was not present to explain the issues however.

single family homes to maintain the same 350 total. When asked about the economics of selling the single family units, Smith retorted "that's your problem".

Trustee Bernard Baldwin, a member of the planning commission, said he did not believe that the board could ignore changing conditions and problems discovered since the original presentation of the plan. He said that planners and the consultant recognized the problems as real and had tried to propose a satisfactory compromise.

The board finally decided to take no action and meet again with planners to discuss the plan. No date was set for the meeting.

In other business the board approved the township police ordinance for publication next week, okayed a request by Chief Ron Nisun to approve a mutual aid pact with other communities for police protection, approved payment of $4 per hour to reserve officers trained for mutual aid work as well as their training costs, approved $3 per hour for reserve officers to answer dog catching calls, instructed the engineer to meet with the city engineer to study drainage problems at the fish hatchery, heard Trustee Smith report that he is seeking costs for hiring architects to design plans for a township hall and fire station, heard a report from the attorney stating that the township cannot sell its portion of the old library without approval at the annual meeting or by a vote of the people.

Picnic Cookies

One of the sweetest treats you can give your child over the summer holidays is an unexpected picnic for him (or her) and a few neighborhood pals. The picnic site can be as close as your own backyard or as far as a state park. The important things to provide, besides the great outdoors, are unobtrusive supervision and plenty of food.

The easiest way with food for a children's outing is to pack individual sack lunches of sandwiches, fruit, small bags of chips, and a sweet. When chow time rolls around, give each child his lunch and drink, together with gentle instructions to replace all wrappings and trash in the sack when the meal is finished; then deposit sack and all in the nearest trash can. ("Every litter bit hurts.")

Bar cookies are always an excellent choice for portable desserts, being less trouble to make than drop cookies, easy to wrap, and less likely to disintegrate under rough handling than other, more fragile cookies. Cherry Chew-Chews suit all these requirements admirably, plus they're absolutely wonderful tasting anywhere, indoors or out. There's a tender shortbread crust topped with a colorful layer of coconut, maraschino cherries, and chopped walnuts, calculated to delight children of all ages. Also a delight for anybody's picnic would be the luscious Double-Deck Brownies.

CHERRY CHEW-CHEWS

1 cup unsifted all-purpose flour
1/2 cup butter, softened
3 tablespoons sugar
2 eggs, slightly beaten
1/2 cup sugar
1/2 cup unsifted all-purpose flour
1/2 teaspoon double-acting baking powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon vanilla
1-1/3 cups (about) flaked coconut
1/2 cup chopped maraschino cherries
1/2 cup chopped walnuts

For pastry, combine 1 cup flour, the softened butter, and 3 tablespoons sugar. Blend well and press mixture firmly in the bottom of a 9-inch square pan. Bake at 350 degrees for 25 minutes.

Meanwhile, combine remaining ingredients for topping. Spread mixture over baked crust in pan. Bake 35 minutes longer. Cut into triangular shapes or bars while still warm. Makes about 2 dozen.

DOUBLE-DECK BROWNIES

2/3 cup sifted all-purpose flour
1/2 teaspoon double-acting baking powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 cup sugar
2 eggs, well beaten
1/3 cup butter or shortening, melted
1/3 cup flaked coconut
1/2 teaspoon almond extract
1-1/2 squares unsweetened chocolate, melted

Sift flour with baking powder and salt. Gradually add sugar to eggs, 1 tablespoon at a time, beating thoroughly after each addition. Blend in butter. Add flour mixture and mix well. Pour 1/2 cup of batter into a small bowl, mix in coconut and almond extract. Add chocolate to remaining batter and spread evenly in greased 8-inch square pan.

Drop coconut batter by teaspoonfuls over chocolate batter in pan; then spread carefully to form a thin, even layer. Bake at 350 degrees for 25 to 30 minutes. Cool in pan on cake rack. Cut in bars or squares. Makes about 20 brownies.

Ham Loaf

Never think of leftover ham as leftover ham. Think ham loaf! And never hesitate to serve this homey dish to company under the misconception that dinner for company somehow has to wreck the week's food budget.

Men — bachelors in particular — are touchingly grateful for home-style cooking with plenty of good, old-fashioned food on the table. So be kind to bachelors and invite at least one to share a sit-down dinner for six, with Ham Loaf and mustard sauce as the featured attraction. The ingenious recipe uses Raisin Bran instead of bread crumbs for a moist, flavorful ham loaf.

If you're a working girl, much of the preparation can be done ahead.

Grind the ham the evening before, but do the actual mixing as soon as you get home. Then relax with your guests while you entree bakes. Mustard sauce, made with whipped topping mix, can also be made the night before.

Whipped sweet potatoes, which you've thoughtfully made and refrigerated in a casserole, bake with the ham loaf. Frozen green peas with sauteed mushrooms go well with this combination. Serve the salad as first course, California style, and make it grapefruit and orange segments on curly endive. End the meal with butterscotch pudding, garnished with whipped topping and sprinkled with pecans. Both the fruit and the pudding can also be prepared ahead.

HAM LOAF

1 cup bran flakes with sugar-coated raisins
1/2 cup milk
2 eggs, slightly beaten

2 tablespoons finely chopped onion
2 tablespoons finely chopped celery
1 tablespoon prepared mustard
1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
Dash of cayenne
4 cups ground cooked ham (about 1 lb.)
Mustard sauce (optional)

Combine cereal, milk, eggs, chopped onion, chopped celery, and seasonings; mix thoroughly. Stir in ham; mix well. Pack ham mixture firmly into an 8x4-inch loaf pan. Bake at 350 degrees for about 50 minutes or until of desired doneness. Let stand in pan 10 minutes; then invert onto warm serving platter. Garnish with parsley and halved pineapple rings studded with whole cloves, if desired. Serve with mustard sauce. Makes 6 servings.

MUSTARD SAUCE

1 tablespoon sugar
1/2 teaspoon salt
3 tablespoons prepared mustard
2 tablespoons vinegar
1 tablespoon water
2 egg yolks, beaten
1 tablespoon butter or margarine

1 tablespoon prepared horseradish
1/2 cup prepared whipped topping
Add sugar, salt, mustard, vinegar and water to egg yolks, mix well. Cook over hot (not boiling) water, stirring constantly until thickened — about 4 or 5 minutes. Stir in butter and horseradish. Remove from heat and cool thoroughly. Then fold in prepared whipped topping. Serve with ham loaf, baked ham, poached salmon, corned beef, or boiled beef. Makes about 1 cup.

TO STORE Cover and place in refrigerator. Remove from refrigerator about 30 minutes before serving.

Apricot Pie

Great new desserts are often born out of combining old favorites in new ways. Such was the manner of creating Apricot Meringue Pie.

Base of the pie is pudding and pie filling, in the form of French vanilla pudding and pie filling. The new flavor is ideal for such elegant pastry desserts

CHERRY CHEW-CHEWS — Sometime over summer vacation, treat your child and a few neighborhood buddies to a picnic. Pack up individual lunches in brown paper sacks, and be sure to include a homemade cookie, like these Cherry Chew-Chews. This layered bar cookie, with shortbread crust topped with flaked coconut, cherries, and walnuts, is a perfect portable dessert.

INSIDE-OUT CHEESEBURGERS — Hamburgers and potato salad are standard summer fare, but you can give them a brighter outlook by making Inside-Out Cheeseburgers and Orange and Potato Salad. Seasoned coating mix for hamburger and onion salad dressing mix make possible the new twists on the old favorites.

from the Pastor's Study

Rev. Cedric Whitcomb
First Baptist Church of Northville

"We are living in a very philosophical age. College students majoring in philosophy are greater in number today than just a few years ago. It seems like almost everyone has a philosophy which governs the way he lives and carries on his business. Daniel Webster defines philosophy as: "a theory underlying or regulating a sphere of activity or thought."

In the Gospel of John, chapters thirteen and fourteen, Jesus' disciples present Him with some questions. In 13:36, Peter asked Jesus where He was going and in 14:1-4, Jesus tells him - He's going to prepare a place for His own. Then in 14:5, Thomas asks Jesus how we get there and to this question Jesus replies, "I am the WAY, the TRUTH and the LIFE: no man cometh unto the Father but by me."

In answering Thomas's question in this manner, Jesus lays down a simple, but profound philosophy of life. He is saying, "Follow me and I'll give you life direction . . . I'll interpret the secrets and riddles of life . . . and we'll be partners in this life and in eternity." This is what people are really looking for in life today.

What is right and who is right? That's a common question right now. Jesus said, "I am the way." He is the only One who can give our life the direction we so desperately need. The Word of God (the Bible) tells us more about life and what's going on in the world today than most people realize. He is the Truth and by His Holy Spirit reveals to His own the truth about life here and hereafter. When we know Him as personal Savior, we know the Truth. To be at peace with God, knowing that our lives belong to Him and whether

He takes us by death or at His coming - to know that we'll spend eternity with Him is not only peace, but life. He is also the Life. Not, He is the WAY through life. He reveals the TRUTH about life and He is the LIFE. The Lord Jesus Christ is the one person you cannot live without.

Peace with God is found through Jesus Christ. We cannot find God through nature or any other aesthetic experience. "No man cometh unto the Father, but by me" (John 14:6). You find peace with God by receiving His Son Jesus Christ into your heart and life as personal Savior. It could be that you've spent the majority of your lifetime searching for satisfaction and life. It's found in God's Son. He's waiting for your invitation to enter your life. Why don't you invite Him in today!

TREE HOUSE

There is joy in the tree house nestled high in the boughs . . . for the boys climbing up to play in it . . . for the adults remembering the golden afternoons of their own childhood.

Sometimes grownups say wistfully, "I wish I were that age again." But do they really wish it? Being a child is wonderful, but maturing can be a painful process.

Help your children enjoy the precious childhood hours - never forgetting that they must grow up. Remember you have a never-ending source of guidance. The church will help your children preserve the spirit of youth and give them the wisdom, courage and faith that will sustain them through the rest of their lives.

Does 'Soapy' Still Hold State Voter Attraction?

LANSING — The man whose name was once synonymous with the Democratic Party in Michigan, G. Mennen "Soapy" Williams, is making another try for public office this year.

Williams, who won six consecutive terms as governor between 1948 and 1960, is running for one of the two nominations which the Democratic Party has for the Michigan Supreme Court this year.

The Democrats, who are scrambling around trying to fill several other spots on their ticket, actually have an overabundance of candidates for the high court.

In addition to Williams, those contending for the nomination include former Gov. John B. Swainson, now a Wayne County circuit judge, and former Lt. Gov. T. John Lesinski, now chief judge of the State Court of Appeals.

*****
WHILE THE VETERANS of Democratic Party politics view Williams as something of a patron saint, he is handicapped by the fact many of the younger party people who have come in since 1960 don't hold him in the same awe.

In fact, when Williams attended a Democratic fund raiser in Lansing earlier this year, a secretary handing out name tags was heard asking him, "And what is your name?"

To combat this, Williams has mounted a fullscale, well financed campaign to secure the nomination. He recently hired Howard Lancour, the man squeezed out of the job of press secretary to Detroit Mayor Roman Gribbs, to handle press relations for the campaign.

ONE MARK against Williams is the fact that he lost the last statewide race he ran by losing to Robert Griffin in the U. S. Senate race in 1966.

But that is also true of Swainson, who lost to former Gov. George Romney the first time Romney ran for governor in 1962. Lesinski, on the other hand, won two terms as lieutenant governor, the first under Swainson and the second under Romney, before moving to the court of appeals.

The crucial moment for Williams and the other two men will come at the Democratic State Convention Aug. 22-23 in Grand Rapids.

It will be then the party decides whether to follow its former undisputed leader into battle one more time or whether to pick two relatively new faces to lead it.

*****
"Taxes Up Everywhere" MICHIGANDERS who are chagrined over the tax increases voted by the legislature this year shouldn't feel alone. The same thing happened all over the country as lawmakers searched for ways to finance programs without offending taxpayers any more than was absolutely necessary in an election year.

Five other states have raised their cigarette taxes. West Virginia took the biggest jump, going from 7 cents a pack to 12 cents. Kentucky went up on from 2.5 cents to 3 cents on the other end of the scale.

West Virginia residents also were hit with an increase in the gasoline tax from 7 cents per gallon to 8.5 cents per gallon and 75 percent increase in the personal income tax.

Three states — Kansas, Kentucky and Virginia — hike the taxes on alcoholic beverages. Kansas raised the tax on 3.2 beer from $3.10 a barrel to $4.65 a barrel while Kentucky upped the tax on distilled spirits from 28 cents to $1.92 per gallon.

New Hampshire has imposed a 4 percent tax on commuters who work in the state but live outside it.

There are other examples as well, but the above should be enough to demonstrate that if taxpayers ever revolt, they'll have members in their ranks outside Michigan.

*****
"Police Recruit" THE STATE POLICE are looking for Michigan men between the ages of 21 and 30 who want to become members of the state law enforcement organization.

To be eligible, one must be an American male and have lived in Michigan for at least one year. Candidates must be at least 5 feet 9 inches tall with weight ranging between 150 and 230 pounds in proportion to height. They must be in good physical condition and meet certain vision and hearing standards, have no serious arrest record and have a high school education or the equivalent.

Cooking for Summer

as this, lending a rich "patisserie" touch.

Atop the layer of smooth pie filling goes a swirl of pureed apricots, beautiful in color, and like the essence of sunshine in flavor. Overall, a cloud-like meringue, delicately browned. Well worth the effort, the pie is a treat to the eye as well as the palate.

The pie is also full of hidden dividends, so it's a dessert you can count on to contribute good food elements to your family's meals. It's rich in milk and eggs, with their much needed protein and minerals. And the apricots are one of nature's richest sources of vitamin A. It's one sweet that's not just "empty calories."

APRICOT MERINGUE PIE

1 Package (4-serving size) French vanilla or vanilla pudding and pie filling
2 cups milk
2 egg yolks
1 baked 9-inch pie shell, cooled
1 cup dried apricots
1 cup water
2 egg whites
¼ cup sugar

Combine pie filling mix and ¼ cup of the milk in saucepan. Add egg yolks and blend well. Add remaining 1½ cups milk. Cool and stir over medium heat until mixture comes to a FULL BUBBLING BOIL. Remove from heat. Cool 5 minutes, stirring twice. Pour into baked pie shell. Cool thoroughly.

Meanwhile, wash apricots. Then combine apricots and water Bring to a boil and gently, uncovered, until tender — about 15 minutes. Puree in electric blender or with food mill. Then spread over cooled pie filling.

Beat egg whites until foamy throughout. Add sugar, 2 tablespoons at a time, beating after each addition. Continue beating until meringue will form stiff shiny peaks. Pile lightly on filling. Bake at 425 degrees about 10 minutes, or until meringue is delicately browned. Cool at least 1 hour before serving.

NOTE: If desired, ½ cup flaked coconut may be sprinkled over meringue after baking 7 minutes. Then continue baking 3 minutes longer.

Cheeseburgers

One of life's small joys is a recipe for a new kind of hamburger, or at least it can seem so on a day when you're trying to plan an economical meal based on ground beef. Don't despair — the never-ending ground beef recipe search has turned up another fine one to try.

Inside-out Cheeseburgers are quick and easy cheeseburgers with two new twists. First, the cheese, Cheddar or Roquefort, as you wish, is put in the middle of the burgers and not on top. The second trick is adding a luscious new flavor to ground beef by using the new seasoned coating mix for hamburger. Just shake the patties in the plastic bag with the mix and let the oven take over for about 15 minutes' baking. The special seasonings in the mix complement ground beef, and the oven method insures burgers that are plump and juicy. Serve the burgers with toasted buns if you want, but weight-watchers, who usually go bunless, will especially appreciate the savory flavor of the burgers by themselves.

Try the new hamburgers for an informal meal on the porch, and serve with Orange and Potato Salad. For dessert, make some Jumbo Raisin Cookies to serve with fresh fruit.

INSIDE-OUT CHEESEBURGERS

1 envelope seasoned coating mix for hamburger
2 pounds ground beef
1 teaspoon salt
Dash of pepper
8 slices Cheddar cheese, crumbled*
Toasted hamburger buns (optional)
*Or use 4 ounces Roquefort cheese.

Empty seasoned coating mix into shaker bag. Combine ground beef with salt and pepper. Form into 16 thin patties. Place some of the cheese between 2 patties; seal edges. Repeat with remaining patties. Shake 1 burger at a time in bag until evenly coated. Place in ungreased shallow baking pan. Bake at 400 degrees for about 15 minutes. Serve on buns. Makes 8 burgers.

NOTE: Burgers may be prepared and coated, then chilled until ready to bake.

JUMBO RAISIN COOKIES

2 cups raisins
1 cup water
4 cups sifted all-purpose flour
1 teaspoon double-acting baking powder
1 teaspoon baking soda
1 teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon cinnamon
½ teaspoon nutmeg
1 cup butter or shortening*
1-¼ cups sugar
2 eggs slightly beaten
1 teaspoon vanilla
½ cup chopped nuts
*Or use ½ cup butter and ½ cup shortening. Bring raisins and water to a boil. Boil until the raisins are plump — about three minutes. Set aside to cool. (Do not drain.) Sift flour with baking powder, soda, salt, and spices.

Cream butter. Gradually blend in sugar, creaming well after each addition. Add eggs and vanilla; mix well. Stir in the raisins and any remaining water. Gradually add the flour mixture, blending thoroughly after each addition. Stir in the nuts.

Drop by tablespoonfuls, about 2 inches apart, onto greased baking sheets. Bake at 375 degrees for 12 to 15 minutes. Makes about 3½ dozen cookies.

ORANGE AND POTATO SALAD

1 envelope onion salad dressing mix
½ cup sour cream
¼ cup mayonnaise
6 cups sliced cooked potatoes
1 cup orange sections
Combine salad dressing mix, sour cream, and mayonnaise. Stir into potatoes along with the orange sections, mixing well. Serve on salad greens. Makes about 6 cups or 6 to 8 servings.

Babson Report

Inflation's Slowing Up, But Recession Deepening

BABSON'S REPORTS INC., Wellesley Hills, Mass. — The primary concern for the third quarter has changed from slowing inflation to preventing further recession. The economy is now in the midst of a setback brought about by the Administration's tight monetary and fiscal policies designed to check rising prices. Inflation has been more difficult to control than was anticipated, and the government strategy has resulted in increasing unemployment, sagging industrial output, and loss of consumer confidence. Currently there are some signs that inflation is becoming less intense, so the Administration can give more attention to stemming the business slide.

Gross National Product in terms of current dollars will be higher during the third quarter because of continued inflation. In constant dollars, however, GNP can be expected to move sideways or slightly lower. Industrial production for the July, August, and September span should begin to level off after declining since July of a year ago. Hedging against a potential auto strike next fall and catch-up efforts due to the prolonged truckers' strike should be helpful in this leveling-off process.

Corporate profits will continue to shade off in the third quarter, but the losses should not be as great as those experienced during the second quarter. Comparisons with a year ago will, of course, be unfavorable. Dividends will drift somewhat lower in the July-September period. This is an extension of the current trend, with dividend reductions or omissions more than offsetting any advances.

IN VIEW of past and pending strikes, inventories have maintained a moderate growth rate without excessive accumulation. However, with the economy continuing to slow and consumer spending lackluster, inventories may become a problem area in this third quarter.

Capital spending remains relatively strong despite lower corporate profits, more limited operations, and high interest rates. Babson's projection for the third quarter is for capital spending on an annual rate basis to fall below the 7.8% increase indicated in the most recent survey. The liquidity squeeze and the Penn Central bankruptcy may also cause a more conservative expansion program. However, the up-trend in terms of dollars will continue as carryover projects prove more expensive than originally estimated.

The Federal Reserve was forced to increase the money supply during the second quarter to rescue the Treasury refinancing. If the Fed had not increased the money supply — which expanded by more than 9% during this period — current interest rate would be higher and the strain on corporate liquidity even more severe. The Research Staff of Babson's Reports expects the Fed to limit growth in the money supply during the third quarter. There should be some easing in short-term interest rates, with long-term remaining close to current levels.

Joblessness will expand further in the third quarter. Babson's estimates that the unemployment rate will be 5.6% for this period. It is probable that the decline to 4.7% in June was a statistical fluke and not a change in the basic up-trend.

Confidence will be the key to consumer spending this quarter. Spreading unemployment and general concern about the economy have made individuals reduce spending as a percentage of total disposable income, and focus on repaying debts and saving more. Total consumer spending, though, will probably be higher this quarter because of larger Social Security benefits, expiration of the surtax, and continued wage hikes in union agreements.

For Star Gazers

It's Milky Way Month

ANN ARBOR — July is a good month to view the Milky Way, says University of Michigan astronomer Hazel M. Losh.

This giant band of hazy light rises almost parallel to the eastern horizon at sunset. Later in the summer it will appear higher and higher at nightfall.

The Milky Way is the myriad of stars, nebulae, and dark dust clouds we see when we look along the disk of our own galaxy. It looks brighter in summer because we are looking toward the center and far edge. Astronomers calculate that the earth is about two-thirds of the way out from the galaxy's center.

Several striking constellations show up along the course of the Milky Way, Prof. Losh says.

In the northeast is Cassiopeia, a giant "W" in the sky. Farther south is Cygnus, also called the Swan or Northern Cross. Shining at the top of the cross is the bluish-white star Deneb. Marking the bottom of the cross is the double star Albireo.

A small telescope reveals that the Albireo pair includes golden yellow and blue stars.

At the Northern Cross, the Milky Way seems to split into a lower (eastern) and upper (western) branch. Prof. Losh notes that this separation is caused by obscuring clouds of galactic dust, not a lack of stars.

The lower branch includes the constellation Aquila, a "giant eagle" flying toward the Northern Cross. Aquila is marked by the bright star Altair. Altair forms the apex of the "Summer Triangle" whose other corners are marked by the stars Vega in Lyra and Deneb in Cygnus.

Just above and to the left of Aquila are two small but easily spotted constellations. Sagitta resembles an arrow. The four stars of Delphinus, also called Job's Coffin, form a small diamond-shaped figure.

A bit farther south is Sagittarius, the Archer. Astronomers say this constellation marks the direction of the center of our galaxy.

certain politicians have hired advertising firms, just as President Nixon did to build a presidency and to avoid the mistakes he made in his first bid for the nation's highest position in 1962. It worked for Nixon, so why won't it work for others? is the rationale.

Personally, I like to be inundated with information, because there's only one way to pick the right man. That's on the basis of the issues. If he contradicts himself, let him boil in his own fat words.

What is disquieting is politicians hiring an ad agency. In taking this step, the politician is, in essence, saying that I'll tell them only what they want to hear, or what is politically advantageous to articulate. To hell with the truth, or personal honesty or conviction. "If the people want rotten eggs, give it to 'em, even if they're rotten and unhealthy."

I realize, of course, that any politician, providing he has the money, can hire an ad agency. And I realize politicians have been attempting to "project the right image" for centuries. In a way, they're just keeping up with the times by hiring ad agencies.

I'm just going to have to be smarter, that's all. And there's only one way to do it. Put up the antenna, read every line—and between them, too—about the candidates, throw some salt over my shoulder, and pull the lever.

By ROLLY PETERSON

Well, it's well underway. The IT I'm speaking of is the 1970 political campaign, involving everybody in the U.S. directly or indirectly and featuring the men and women who are seeking office, from United States Senate to township constable.

Nothing can compare to a political year, not the most extravagant extravaganza, nor the most thrilling sports event, nor the most fantastic marriage. All take a back seat to the spectacle of a political race.

The media is just cranking up for the forthcoming news onslaught. Governor Milliken and Sander Levin participated the past weekend in the Cherry Festival parade at Traverse City. Lenore Romney had her troops there, too, handing out literature and driving the Romney van.

Ask a candidate to appear at a luncheon, to speak on television, to dedicate a back country road, or to go over Niagara Falls in a barrel and he'll be only too happy to oblige. Anything is possible in an election year.

But the most difficult task confronting all of us will be to pick the right candidate, the man who will get the job done the way it should be done. The job of choosing is more difficult today than it was yesteryear, despite the fact that we are flooded with information.

To project the right image,

Here's A Little Bonus

Remember this scene? It was just about four months ago when you were cussing about Michigan winters, and praying for a hot summer day. Now you're cussing the humid temperatures in the 90's. Rather than have you wait until winter's return, we thought we'd give you a bonus. Here's a little of last winter to cool you off.

Silver Lake Residents Oppose Trailer Park

Silver Lake homeowners are now on record as opposed to a proposed mobile home park.

Improvement association president Donald Pedler announced Monday that the group's decision to oppose the development of such a site along Silver Lake by John Hoppins (who owns a park in Brighton) was the major action taken at the annual meeting of the association Friday night.

Meeting in Green Oak Township Hall, the association heard Hoppins present his plans, then decided — on the basis of overtaxing of public facilities and the lake and traffic problems it could cause — to establish a committee to appear before the town board to oppose the development.

William Green was chosen to chair the committee and Pedler indicated that there were hopes that all 60 people who attended Friday's meeting would also attend the board session.

In other action, four new trustees were elected to two-year terms on the 16-year-old association's board. Elected are Ford Atchison, George Jenkins, Jack Terry and Pedler.

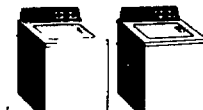

The annual meeting, as in the past, will be held the second Friday in July, 1971. The 1970 picnic will be in August, but the exact Sunday has not been established.

Mosquito control was discussed at length and it was agreed that spraying with a non-residual spray "two or three times" a week had proved effective in the past and would again be instituted.

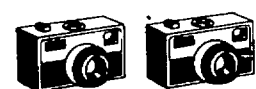

Which should you buy ?

A color TV set priced at $359.95 ... OR another unit priced at $429.95?

An automatic washing machine priced at an average of $206.18 ... OR another model priced at an average of $254.98?

An instant-load autoexposure camera priced at $69.95 ... OR another model priced at $119.50?

A radio-phonograph console priced at $379.95 ... OR another console priced at $499.95?

THE ANSWERS to the questions above show how easily you and your family can lose money each year in your search for quality. The fact is that you, like so many others, may be buying virtually "blindfolded." For example: On the basis of impartial laboratory tests, the color TV set priced at $359.95 was judged better in overall quality than the model priced at $429.95 (Possible saving: up to $70.00). The washing machine priced at an average of $254.98 was judged inferior in washing ability to the model priced at an average of $206.18. (Possible saving: up to $48.80). The instant-load autoexposure camera priced at $69.95 was top rated over similar models priced as high as $119.50. (Possible saving: up to $49.55). The radio-phonograph console priced at $379.95 was judged better in overall quality than the console priced at $499.95 and was rated a "Best Buy." (Possible saving: up to $120.00). ## State Senate Race

Kuhn Hits Pursell Tactics

State Senator George W. Kuhn (R-W. Bloomfield), discussed with the Governor's office today the procedure for filing a formal complaint to the Fair Campaign Practices Commission. Kuhn said he is "deeply disturbed by the unethical practices and tactics" employed by one of his primary opponents, namely, Carl Pursell of Plymouth, in literature recently mailed and distributed throughout the district. Kuhn claims first that Pursell is attempting by a very cute and slick way of using the word "REFERENCES" to allude that many key Republican officials are supporting his candidacy. "The facts are, however, that all of those individuals that I have talked to indicate to me that Pursell has used their names without authorization and that they are not supporting him in this race." Further, some have said that they are sick and tired of being harassed by him for their support since earlier this year.

"To all my fellow Republicans, I wish to further note that Mr. Pursell claims strong support of many well known Democrats, which I know upsets many Republicans in the district."

"Also to be a part of the complaint are several public statements uttered by Mr. Pursell which have been a total distortion of the truth and twisting of the facts."

"I regret having to take this posture in a campaign that I have tried to keep on a high level and refrain from engaging in personalities. The last time we met (in 1966) and to date, I have not mentioned his name once or made an adverse comment about him. However, he cannot say the same."

"I will continue to call to the attention of the citizens of the 14th district the numerous irresponsible, wild and vicious statements he makes. Contrary to his weakness in performance, I have had a very active record in the Senate and have been responsible for many new public acts, especially in the areas of anti-riot, sniping, crime control, banking, economic development and mass transportation, to cite a few," Kuhn concluded.

Pursell Says

Kuhn Failed

County Commissioner Carl D. Pursell last week characterized his opponent in the 14th district State Senate primary as "A man who has given his constituents oratory and confusion instead of effective representation." "Time and again, George Kuhn has failed the voters when they needed him most. When the interests of his district are at stake, my opponent is frequently off on a boondoggle. If he does manage to get where the action is, it's over by the time he makes up his mind what to do," Pursell said.

Passage of Senate Bill No. 1183 was cited by Pursell as an example of Kuhn's failure to be alert to the interests of the voters in his district.

"The bill includes a section that could put many new public access sites on lakes in Oakland County without even giving the property owners there an opportunity to voice their feelings," Pursell pointed out. "My opponent voted for the bill without bothering to find out how it might affect his district. Now that I have pointed out the possible effects, he is scrambling around trying to cover his failure by getting the governor to exercise a line veto on the bill," Pursell said.

Pursell, who is running against Kuhn for the Republican nomination to the 14th district senate seat in the August 4 primary, compared Kuhn's latest performance to his actions on the income tax vote and on the abortion issue.

State Representative

Swanson Issues Challenge

Robert F. Swanson of Livonia, Republican candidate for the 35th State Representative District, today challenged his incumbent Democratic opponent, Marvin R. Stempien, to give public assurances that he would serve a full term in the House, if elected.

"Through recent months, Mr. Stempien's time and efforts have been devoted almost totally to managing the campaign of his colleague, George F. Montgomery, for the Democratic nomination for Governor," Swanson pointed out.

"In the single month of June of this year, Mr. Stempien spent $2,570.24 of the tax payer's money on postage alone.

"It would be interesting to learn how much of this expense served the people of Northville in any way and how much of it served only the political ambitions of Mr. Montgomery and his campaign manager."

"Will Mr. Stempien give us a clear and emphatic statement that he has made or discussed no deal for a better-paying future job in the Executive Office?"

"Will Mr. Stempien assure us that, if elected this November, he will accept the office he publicly seeks and serve a full term - even if Mr. Montgomery becomes Governor?"

"I believe, the people have a right to have this question answered!"

"I believe, in fact, that anyone who seeks the privilege and responsibility of representing this area in Lansing should feel compelled to answer two basic questions. Will he serve the full term he seeks, if elected, and will he be a full-time legislator?"

Governor Race

Turner Cites

'Corruption'

From James Turner

As a gubernatorial candidate for the Republican party I would like to express a challenge to the news media and the citizens of Oakland county.

I now have a task force of volunteer workers, lawyers and other professional men in Oakland county. Our headquarters is located at 94 E. Walton Rd., (corner of Walton and Baldwin). Our office will be open weekdays 10 am to 5 pm and evenings by appointment. There are two stated reasons for this move.

The first is to fight the corruption, the VILE corruption, which we-my staff and volunteers and myself-have uncovered in this county, to lay it on the line and show what many people living here already are aware of: that they've been and are being taken and used by some of their administrators and public officials. I would like to emphasize our knowledge is not based on hearsay but that we have visible proof of this corruption which we will reveal from time to time. We also ask the citizens of this county to share with us any knowledge they have of judicial or political wrongdoing.

The second reason is political. I am running for governor because I feel that, among other things, the corruption of our government has progressed, or REGRESSED, to the point of insanity. Rather than make lengthy political promises I am going to make Oakland county an example-a TRUE example-of what can be accomplished through the people if I am elected governor.

This is my challenge to the press: Try to prove that I am-that ANY of this is-phony. If the media thinks we are sincere we invite them to join us.

This is my challenge to the citizens of Oakland county:

If you want to join either my volunteer Task Force or bring information for us to document and report, our doors are wide open.

I believe it is time that all good citizens stand up and be counted. It is time for a change. But the desire and will for political and social change must come from the people.

Parris Names

Main Issues

George N. Parris took his campaign for the Democratic nomination for Governor to Lansing this week, in a speaking appearance before more than 50 members of the Lansing Democratic Business and Professional Club.

He told the group that the main issues - among many other State problems - are, "Crime, taxes and education."

Parris scorned politicians who spoke about an end to crime. "We cannot eliminate crime from society altogether," he said. "We can contain it. We can reduce it. We can make it safe again to walk our streets, and ride to work and have children enjoy our parks in security. We have to talk fact, not fancy on all of the issues."

He continued to plead for a change in the tax structure, condemning the use of homes as a "whipping post for taxes."

"A graduated income tax," he said, "is the only just and equitable solution. We cannot continue to punish the home-owner. We have to make your home truly your castle. With a graduated income tax we can return to communities the tax money they need on a per capital basis."

In the field of education, Parris called for greater utilization of existing structures and new concepts in school operations. "We can go on a four-quarter system, we can use school buildings for administrative purposes and not have to erect elaborate, expensive, separate facilities. Even libraries, which are mostly used by school children, can be incorporated into school buildings, rather than housed in separate, expensive, facilities."

"And we must provide greater vocational training facilities for those young men and women who do not care to go to college, or cannot do so...and we must advance the level of special educational opportunities for slow learners and under-achievers if we are to give them a realistic chance to build a life in society as adults."

Parris attacked groups in education and other fields who are more intent on building private empires of buildings and staffs than they are in providing,

"total quality education on sound economic planning."

"Whatever we do," Parris said, "government must be humane, it must provide law and order with total and impartial justice; and we have to have an end to the political opportunists who think only of their own personal advantage."

Work Undone

Says Levin

Democratic gubernatorial candidate Sander Levin severely criticized "the massive amount of work left undone by State Government in 1970" last Tuesday, July 7.

Levin cited 11 areas where he feels there are still critical problems. Those areas are, according to Levin, "reduction of school property taxes, fairer state taxes, more effective law enforcement, more effective drug laws, controlling industrial pollution, rising medical costs, education reform, more help for the cities, consumer protection, housing and political reform."

Levin said that many bills initiated in order to solve these problems "are now stalled in the Republican (State) Senate."

In commenting on Governor Milliken's statement that the 1969-70 congressional session is the most successful of the last ten years, Levin said, "I don't believe the person who can't find housing, or the person who is overburdened with high property taxes, or the 6,000 drug addicts desperately seeking unavailable treatment or the Detroit residents who will have to go without adequate police protection... because the city is broke, believe this session (of the State Congress) was so successful"

U.S. Senate Race

Huber Points

To Poll Result

State Senator Robert J. Huber (R-Troy) has shifted into high gear in his campaign for the Republican nomination for U.S. Senator now that the legislative recess, has made it unnecessary for him to spend most of his time in Lansing on Senate business.

Almost concurrent with the recess of the legislature, Huber enjoyed another welcome windfall - a Newsweek Magazine poll that showed his primary election opponent, Mrs. George Romney, slipping from 22 per cent acceptance to 16 per cent in just two months.

"Unfortunately," said Huber, "the Newsweek poll failed to measure the public acceptance of my campaign. But (Democratic Incumbent Senator) Phil Hart's acceptance remained at 52 percent, so it appears that those voters who are becoming disenchanted with Mrs. Romney are not flocking to the Hart banner."

Huber reasons it is unlikely that 32 per cent of those polled had no opinion on the U.S. Senate race.

"So I can only assume that I had pulled up at least even with Mrs. Romney by the last of May. Since then," Huber said, "my campaign appearances have met with mounting enthusiasm. There are indications Mrs. Romney has suffered further erosion of support, in spite of heavy campaign spending in her behalf by would-be back-room political bosses supporting her."

County Commission Race

Dwyer Likes Lucas Plan

Bob Dwyer, Democratic candidate for County Commissioner in Livonia, Plymouth, Northville and Canton, today announced his support for the organizational proposals of Wayne County Sheriff William Lucas. The Citizens Research Council, an independent research agency has recommended four alternative methods of reorganizing the sheriff's road patrol.

"There is no doubt that the professionalism offered by Sheriff Lucas and Undersheriff Pittman are a refreshing change," said Dwyer. "It certainly makes more sense to contract for service (Police) than for small communities to attempt to establish police departments that cannot hope to afford effective lab, juvenile, detective

Lenore Tallies

Endorsements

Five U.S. Senators, including Robert Griffin of Michigan and senate Minority Leader Hugh Scott of Pennsylvania, joined entertainers Bob Hope and Art Linkletter Tuesday, July 7, in endorsing Lenore Romney's candidacy for the Republican U.S. Senate nomination.

Recently, Mrs. Romney has focused her campaign on incumbent Phil Hart and his record, describing him as a "crisis reactor, not a problem solver" and as a "rubber stamp for the proliferation of ineffective programs launched during the Johnson era."

The endorsements were carried in a 30-minute documentary film entitled "Lenore" which a spokesman for Mrs. Romney's campaign headquarters said will be an integral part of her campaign and will be made available for private showings.

In his endorsement, Griffin said Lenore Romney is "energetic and dynamic and independent... and has an ability to motivate people and to lead"

Congressional Race

Conditions Appall Adell

Working folks distressed by soaring increases in the cost of living and unemployment, the national economy sag and the never-ending Indochina war should show their pinched pocketbook displeasure during the Congressional primary and election, Franklin Zane Adell urged today.

Adell, a college drop-out who became a self-made successful Novi Manufacturer, is a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Congress in the 19th District. He has never before run for public office.

"I think the August primary and the November election provide an opportunity for an aroused electorate to avail itself with a natural referendum on the Nixon administration," Adell said.

"I believe it is time that President Nixon provides more than glowing rhetoric and first rate TV performances over the national calamity of inflation chased by a growing recession."

Adell observed that the "war in Southeast Asia is a canker on the American economy that has cost as much as $26 billion a year and seldom less than $10 to $15 billion."

"This prolonged debacle has established that despite our gross national product of $960 billion, the United States cannot afford this war," he added.

and command arms within themselves."

"Although there is a great deal of service offered by the sheriff's office that is used by cities and largely unrecognized, there is some truth in the complaints by cities that they pay for a road patrol that does not serve their areas. A system of contracting for these services by unincorporated areas will serve a twofold purpose. First, it will allow professional police protection to be a reality in the townships of Wayne County. Second, the end result of this contracting will shift much of the budget burden of the Road patrol from the cities to the areas in which they provide the same service as a local police department."

'Need Change'-

VanderMolen

Larry VanderMolen, of Northville, Democratic candidate for Wayne County, emphasized this past week that his campaign is based upon "a desire to change the current mess that Wayne County government appears to be entangled in."

"Most of the taxpayers," he said, "will never forget the arrogant attitudes displayed by the members of the 'Zack Pack' when they voted themselves a high salary in recent months."

"We need honest responsible leadership in Wayne County government," he said.

"My analysis," he continued, "as a professional political scientist (he teaches the subject at Schoolcraft College) has resulted in several positive recommendations that need to be considered at this time."

Among these are reorganization of the county government structure, designing it to provide for a county manager plan, he said. Appointment of a county manager by the Board of Commissioners should be based "solely on the basis of his professional qualifications for the post and without any reference to political affiliation."

"Unemployment is at five percent, the highest since 1964. Interest rates are at the highest level in 100 years. The industrial output is down three per cent. Factory orders are at the lowest level in 15 months."

"Home building is in a terrible slump. Housing starts fell 15 per cent in April to a level of 31 per cent below January, 1969."

"And on top of this, Secretary of the Treasury Kennedy, in mid-June, told the Senate Finance Committee that there was 'a possibility even a strong likelihood exists' that new taxes would be sought next January when President Nixon submits his new budget." He said the Treasury was already "studying various forms of possible levies."

"Of course, nobody in Washington is going to raise the taxes now. The Vietnamese surtax of 27 controversial months expired with political mischief at the end of last month, significantly just a month before the primary. This was to make you feel good."

Equine Dictionary
Belle Beach was a famous woman equestrian who published a book, "Riding and Driving for Women" in 1912. On her death in 1933, the newspapers had accounts of how she was said to go hunting, her reins consisting of strands of number 50 cotton thread. Miss Beach was a great advocate of the side saddle and predicted that riding astride would never become popular.

Pick-Your-Own Cherry Customers Haul Away 8 Tons at Foreman's

The Northville Record / THE NOVI NEWS
 Section C / THE SOUTH LYON HERALD

Thursday, July 16, 1970 Page One

THEY'RE GOOD — The family of Lisa Djakonow comes from Detroit every year to pick cherries in Foreman's Orchards. Apparently 10-year-old Lisa decided eating was better than picking, and she seems to enjoy it.

By PRUDENCE HARTT
 Picking cherries may be menial everyday work — but it's a great way to spend a vacation.
 "There were hundreds of people out here last weekend, carloads of families came out from Detroit to pick sweet cherries," Ralph Foreman, co-owner and manager of the Foreman Orchards on West Seven Mile said Friday.
 "Parked cars almost completely covered the front entrance way to the orchard. We started picking on the third of July and were all done two days later."
 Last Friday when the sour cherries ripened the Foremans opened their orchards again. There have been "quite a few crowds" and picking was expected to finish by late Wednesday or today, Foreman said.
 In all, about eight tons of cherries have been picked since the first of July, he estimated. There are about 900 cherry trees with between 50 and 200 pounds of fruit on each tree. The mature trees bear more fruit, he explained.
 Foreman Orchards have not always had the pick-your-own set up. About five years ago market conditions forced the switch which has been much more profitable.
 "We had a hard time getting pickers, we used to get mostly kids," Foreman explained. "Also we had to go into Detroit with every load to encase the cherries."
 To draw customers, we planted about 450 sweet cherry trees, Foreman explained. Sweet cherries taste best eaten fresh and in simple desserts, while sour cherries are better for canning, cherry drink, wine and pies, he said.
 Once the cherries are ripe, the orchards are kept open seven days a week from early morning until dark. Pickers must furnish their own containers, but special picking pails which hook to the trees are provided for them.
 Although the pick-your-own set up has been easier to manage, it has by no means eliminated all the problems concerned with growing cherries, he explained. Over the years both birds and weather have been a serious threat to the cherry crop.

A DAY'S WORK — On Saturdays and Sundays throughout cherry season, Foreman Orchards on West Seven Mile is where people come for the fresh red fruit. Of course you have to pick them yourself, as 10-year-old Lori Buoncompagno of Dearborn does, but, as she says, after all that work they taste better.

(Special Meeting)
June 29, 1970

Mayor Allen called the Special Meeting of the Northville City Council to order at 8:05 p.m., Monday, June 29, 1970 at the Northville City Hall.

ROLL CALL: Present: Allen, Folino, Lapham, Nichols and Rathert. Absent: None. Also present: 50 residents - Wm. Sliger

1ST PUBLIC HEARING - 1970 PAVING PROGRAM

City Mgr. reviewed his recommendations for the 1970 Street Paving Program: Grace St. from Rayson to Baseline, Lake St. to N. Center to Novi St.; Allen Dr. to Novi St. to Novi Rd. - 1 1/2" re-capping of full-length with asphalt. The procedure for this improvement was also reviewed, this being the first of 2 Public Hearings.

City Mgr. read letter from owner of 312 Lake, protesting assessment as creating hardship.

Letter was read from Paul Vernon, 1080 Allen Dr., asking that his letters of June 19 and 29, 1970 and City Mgr.'s reply letter be made part of minutes and asked that his 12 questions be answered at Public Hearing.

Answers to questions:

1. Good policy to special assess for repairs. City Attorney stated Council has prerogative to special assess improvements for any public facility - streets, sewers, etc.
2. Re-capping is an improvement which can be assessed but merely patching of holes would not be.
3. Allen Drive was surfaced, originally, at developer's expense.
4. Allen Drive did meet city standards at that time but would not today.
5. Life expectancy of asphalt street is 10-15 yrs.
6. City Mgr. recommended re-paving Allen Drive.
7. This question answered by first 2 questions.
8. Recommended that total surface be re-capped.
9. It is Council's decision whether existing street surface is satisfactory. City Mgr. recommended re-surfacing.
10. "I (City Mgr.) do consider Allen Dr. a thorough street as well as an access, based on condition presently."
11. "I (City Mgr.) consider Allen Dr. both an access and thorough street, legally classified "minor street"
12. This is aside from issue at hand - Special Assessments. However, "No Right Turn" signs came down about 1 year ago after a Traffic Study done on Novi Rd. City can ask that decision be reviewed. City Atty believes our request might be granted as this is not controlled by County.

Mr. Klueckner, Mr. and Mrs. Norgren, R. Owings, R. Spencer, Wm. Bingley, Mr. Barnes, Art Adams, Mrs. Robt. Prom, Mr. McCalvy, Ivan Ily, Jr., all of Allen Dr., Don Meinzer, Joe Bell, Mrs. Coolman, all of Grace St., Mrs. Dykstra of N. Center St., Mr. Diddy, Mr. Biegert, Mrs. McKinney, Mr. W. Bogart, Mr. Wm. Lemon, Mrs. Sedan of Lake St. all spoke during the Public Hearing. Some owners did not mind the paving but felt slower traffic enforcement was more important. After much discussion as to merits of Special Assessment, whether the three streets need total paving, why repairs are necessary, etc., it was moved by Nichols, support by Rathert, to continue the 1st Public Hearing on the 1970 Street Paving Program until July 6, 1970 Council Meeting, 8 p.m. at the Northville City Hall. U. C.

(Councilman Rathert asked City Mgr. to contact 3 or 4 neighboring communities as to their repair and assessing programs.)

MOTION TO INCLUDE ADDITIONAL ITEMS ON SPEC. MTG. AGENDA

Moved by Folino, support by Rathert, to include Items No. 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 10 and 11 on Special Meeting Agenda of June 29, 1970. U. C.

JAYCITS REQUEST TO USE CITY HALL PARK - ALSO FIREWORKS for July 4, 1970

Moved by Folino, support by Nichols, to approve Jaycees' request to have July 4th

Fireworks' display on Northville High School athletic field during twilight hours, auxiliary police at said display and also fire dept., subject to submission of proper insurance. U. C.

(Mayor Allen requested insurance be reviewed)

Moved by Lapham, support by Folino, to approve Jaycees' request to have July 4th Annual Chicken Barbecue on Saturday, July 4, 1970 on Park Area south of City Hall. U. C.

CONSIDERATION OF NEW SDN LICENSE - 168 E. Main St.

Mr. Mendolia, owner and operator of Northville Pizzeria and his attorney, Mr. Harold Groehn, appeared before Council to request re-consideration of Mr. Mendolia's request for liquor license.

They presented a sketch showing how store area would be used so delivery persons would not be in proposed area for sale of liquor. After discussion of personnel, moved by Lapham, support by Rathert, to continue further consideration of SDN license 168 E. Main St. at July 6, 1970 Council Meeting. U. C.

APPROVE PURCHASE OF 127 E. Cady St.

APPOINT ZBA MEMBER Moved by Rathert, support by Folino, to appoint Francis Garlay to the Zoning Board of Appeals for a 3-yr. term, expiring July 1, 1973. U. C.

DISTRICT COURT NO. 35 FINANCIAL REPORT

Councilman Nichols, who has been a liaison for District Ct. matters, reported the District Court No. 35 Operating Fund went over budget by $217.00; also that Auditors felt there could be improvement in handling Probation funds. He will be attending a meeting on July 1st. Mayor Allen asked if revenues have exceeded expectations - Mr. Nichols replied they had but so had expenses.

INTERSECTION RE-PAVING SPECIFICATIONS

Held over to July 6th meeting.

WELL SITE SALE

City Mgr. explained that this property has been on the market for 3 months; at the present time a party has presented an offer to the Mayor and City Mgr. that meets price asked by Council of other interested parties. City Mgr. recommends entering into a purchase agreement that seems most suitable to this particular situation - in essence what has been suggested in the past. Councilman Rathert thought perhaps it should be advertised for 4 or 5 weeks. There was much discussion and audience participation concerning the merits of this property for park and open space. Along these lines, City Mgr. urged audience and all citizens to become interested in the Park and Open Space Program and in Recreation. Council unanimously decided to reach a decision on the Novi Well Site Sale on July 6th.

MISCELLANEOUS

City Attorney reported a law suit against 3 city employees and another person for false arrest and explained details of same.

Moved by Folino, support by Nichols, to add matter of False Arrest Suit to agenda of June 29, 1970. U. C.

Moved by Lapham, support by Folino, to authorize City Attorney to defend for this suit if there is no appropriate insurance Company to assume this. U. C.

Out of the Past

ONE YEAR AGO

Preliminary plans for nearly $2 million dollars in additions to Northville schools were unveiled Monday night at a special session of the school board. The additions are designed to correct inadequacies and increase the capacity of each building.

Former Councilman Delbert Black was appointed to the city planning commission Monday night to replace George Clark.

The Northville Record received letters of congratulations for the Centennial Edition from three prominent state and national citizens. They were Governor William Milliken, Free Press Managing Editor Frank Angelo, and President Richard Nixon.

Noisy construction work early Sunday morning upset Northville Estates residents, who Monday night urged the City Council to revise the city ordinance to prohibit construction on Sunday.

The township board defeated a proposal to permit Northville Township's one-man police department to enforce state laws. Debate was sparked by a letter from Representative Marvin Stempien who noted that recently enacted legislation permits a township to permit enforcement.

FIVE YEARS AGO

The sale of 118 acres in Northville township opened the way for development of the property into a 300-home subdivision. The land, located on the east side of Bradner road north of Elk road, has been purchased by the Fred Greenspan Building Company.

A Northville township plan to sell city of Detroit water to Northville State Hospital and Plymouth State Home may lead to the development of a water system capable of serving the entire eastern portion of the township.

A rash of vandalism had destroyed more than 30 street signs during the past four months according to George Clark, Northville's interim city manager. Last week-end two of five concrete benches in the city hall park were turned over and broken.

Two local high school youths with professional potential were selected by the Detroit Tiger organization to tour with a hand picked team. They were junior Doug Swiss, a catcher, and Senior Steve Evans, a pitcher.

TEN YEARS AGO

The Novi Board of Commerce sponsored a mystery bus trip last week. A total of 23 people from the Novi area attended and went to Canada.

Five Northville high school cheerleaders captured the title of grand champion at Camp All-American at Hartland. The winners were seniors Recena Bailey and Corrine Bertoni, juniors Linda Deal and Susan Pharo and sophomore Vicki Stroh.

With three children bitten and close to a dozen dog complaints received in recent weeks, Novi police issued a warning to parents to keep their children away from stray dogs.

Reverend Marvin Rickert, pastor of the Willowbrook Community church, was elected president of the Novi Rotary club.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO...

Dr. Pasquale Buoniconto, succeeding Dr. Robert Haskell as medical superintendent of the Wayne County training school, arrived in Northville and began his official duties.

Twenty three of the 240 employees of the Ford Valve plant who voted against a walkout to obtain the Guaranteed Annual Wage proposal by the UAW-CIO, took the same stand when the polling on ratification of the agreement was held at the local's headquarters on Main Street.

The American Legion Auxiliary Unit No. 147 elected new officers at the June meeting. President was Mrs. Virginia Burnham, with first vice president Mary Bahrtiller and second vice president Dolly Chedick.

Township building inspector Donald Nutten reported that he had issued no trailer violation notices in 1955. Apparently failure of the township board to enforce restrictions on the use of house trailers had led to a complete breakdown of enforcement efforts.

Dr. Robert R. Yoder, assistant medical superintendent at Northville State Hospital, was presented a $100 check from the Lloyd H. Green Post 147 of Northville. The money was to be used to provide small weekly allowances for indigent veterans in the hospital who would otherwise have no spending money.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO...

Merritt Meaker was elected president of the Northville Exchange club and Luther Lapham, president of the Rotarians.

Boy Scout Troop N-1 was presented its charter. H.M. Parmenter was scoutmaster, with Russell Clarke and Harold Schoulz assistant scoutmasters.

The Reverend John McLucas of the Novi Methodist church was returned for the second year of his pastorate.

The newly organized Northville Post 4012, Veterans of Foreign Wars, announced plans to organize a women's auxiliary.

'Let's Take A Ride... And Dump the Garbage'

"I just can't understand it! Everything goes up, Up, UP. And taxes are worst of all.

"I'll tell you one thing, I'll never vote for school millage again. And the city, why those dumb bells at city hall, all they think about is spend, spend, spend.

"What in the world are they spending all our money for anyway? If you ask me it's to find new ways to pass more laws to make it tougher on the people.

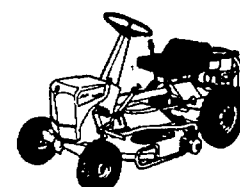

"Instead of all those laws, they ought to cut taxes, lay-off some of those people on the public payroll, put the real crooks in jail and make life easier for us decent people.

"C'mon, let's go for a ride and dump the garbage."

SPEAKING for The Record

By BILL SLIGER

Chamber of Commerce Fair Chairman Bob Webber is finding out that "pieces don't just fall into place". Someone has to haul them there.

Slowly but steadily that's exactly what's happening in Chamber's effort to revive the old "Northville Fair" and to sponsor a single fund-raising project in behalf of all local clubs and organizations.

The undertaking should be easier in subsequent years after experience is gained, but the future success rests heavily on this year's outcome.

Webber and his committee members are well aware of this and are putting forth full effort to assemble as many attractions as possible to the "first annual Northville Fair".

They're getting good cooperation from local people and organizations. On August 6-7-8 and 9 they're hoping for good weather and big crowds.

Thirty different non-profit organizations will have fund-raising booths at the fair; the Optimist club will sponsor a huge antique show; the VFW will sponsor an official opening parade complete with bands; it's hoped that Governor Milliken can be on hand for ribbon-cutting ceremonies; sky-divers, a 4-H Horse Show, Three-Cities Art Club will be special free attractions.

The World of Pleasure Shows will provide 20 rides for the kiddies, the Hurricane Hell Drivers will provide thrills for all age groups, and country music lovers can enjoy the performance of Wayne Jennings.

Thanks to Northville Downs, the Chamber of Commerce can stage its fair in an air-conditioned facility with plenty of parking and grounds' area. The track management is donating use of the facility rent free.

So it's a beginning of a local promotion that could become more professional in future years and prove to be one of the area's annual attractions. This year there's a little "trial and error".

But with support of local residents (attend and tell your friends to come) the Chamber's first fair could be a financial, as well as entertainment, success.

In addition, the revival of the Northville Fair could provide a rallying point for total community-wide effort and cooperation.

An example of community effort is taking place in the tiny northern city of Onaway.

Faced with the closing of their local hospital, the people are planning to stage a huge auction on August 1. They're conducting a state-wide campaign for donations to the auction - cars, trucks, tractors, lawnmowers, furniture, even livestock.

Whatever anyone has that's worth something, they'll accept. If you have such a donation, they invite you to have it shipped by Mulvena Truck Line and they'll pay the freight.

Or maybe you enjoy auctions. So they urge you to join the bidding on August 1.

***

A news release from the Oakland County Sesqui-Centennial headquarters reports that the committee is faced with the problem of filling a five-story high balloon with hot air for launching at the July 18 Soap Box Derby Race.

With the August 4 primary on tap it seems like a relatively easy job to round-up the necessary 21,000 cubic feet of hot air.

Yes...

The most perfect male specimen, Adam, helped Eve, the first of those lovely creatures, pick up apples that had fallen to the ground in the Garden of Eden. This was the beginning of house work.

Adam didn't squawk, for all was bliss in the Garden. Evil, as the story goes, had not visited this good earth. Then he came. Eve was tempted by a male snake, no less, ate of the tree of knowledge and generously offered an apple to Adam.

Most of you know the story. But it serves as a poignant reminder to all men that Man, in the beginning—in his perfect and natural state—was most happy helping his mate.

Now that Evil has entered the world, Man has come a long way, and I'm afraid, many weaker men have gone downward. They have yielded to their baser, weaker selves and have shirked house work, as if it could rob them of their masculinity.

They listen to Evil, who spears their confidence and flings cooperative love to the Inferno. He hopes these weaker men will lose sight of their birthright and natural blissful state.

But some men, confident in their masculinity, gladly jump to help their mates with the housework. They realize full well that only in this extension of love can they hope to return to the Garden to Eden.

Should Husbands Do Housework?

No...

The historic roles of husband and wife in today's middle class puts the man in the position of trying to go from blue collar to white, the woman from domestic life to career fulfillment. In this groping the home has become a drudge rather than a place for developing the art of home making with each adult keeping his separate identity. So to complete the tasks of the house, because there is more house than they can afford, or more children than they can manage, or the wife is inept in home management, the question arises if it is necessary for the husband to take on some of the tasks of the wife. But then what is wrong with the wife driving the truck or running the station or going on the assembly line for a couple of hours after her husband comes home to equalize the question? Why shouldn't she repair the roof?

This may be what we're coming to, but in the meantime what wife is proud of her husband as he goes about the house in his apron administering the feather duster? The male seems to have been emasculated right into the test tube with this question - and in their own home at that!

In these days "with good help so hard to find" I can visualize the bridge club members thinking "He'd make some woman a good wife" or to give the living-in domestic some feeling of pride and an ego boost - "How do you rent him out? By the day, hour, or job?"

NOTE - The writer is vacationing. He wrote the following column in 1968 after wandering through the Northville Downs barns in search of a good tip.

He chewed on the straw, twisting it with the movement of his mouth as he spoke.

"It's a job. All I know. One good meal a day in the restaurant. A little extra now and then for a good sock o' juice."

The big black horse banded his hip against the stall.

"Good looking animal."

"Yah, guess so."

"Ever bet on him?"

"Who, me? no siree. Ain't no horse gonna beat me outta my juice. They's full o' tricks. Turn yore back, sonnas take a junk outta yore hide."

"But if you don't like horses why do you work around them?"

"It's a job, man, like I told ya. Can't ya see? Guy's gotta make his keep. You and me, we both gotta live."

"Ever do anything else?"

"Shore. Been in the factories. They's worse'n this. Horse, he don't stomp on ya less'n ya get too close. Factories, they's awful."

"Have you got a family?"

"Shore, what ya take me for, freak or somethin'?"

"Sorry, I just wondered."

The big black horse pushed his head out of the stall door, rubbing his neck against the nibbled wood. He was big and handsome and powerful looking.

The kind of horse you'd expect to win races.

"Really, yours is kind of an exciting job. Probably isn't a boy around who hasn't read about or seen movies about jobs like yours and wished he could have your job."

"I ain't no boy."

"I know. But just the same it's an exciting life."

"Guess so."

"No one could know a horse like you."

"Yes siree, that's plumb right."

"You'd know when a horse is feeling good, when he's ripe. Only someone like you could know that. It takes someone with a real knowledge of horses. Someone like you."

"Mister, they's not a man hereabouts who knows as much about horses as me."

"You feed him, rub him, doctor him. You probably know every muscle."

"Man, yes. I knows 'em inside out."

The big black horse looked in our direction. His eyes were big and sparkling and full of the determination that marks a winner.

"He's sure a good looking horse."

"Yah, guess so."

"Someone like you'd know if a horse like that is ripe. Only someone like you."

"Like I said, they don't come no better."

"That horse?"

"No, me."

"Yes, I know, but is that horse ripe? Is he going to win tonight?"

"How'd I know. This ain't my barn, yet."

"But..."

"They canned me next door and I'm waitin' to see if they'll take me here."

Group to Oppose Year-Round School

To the Editor:

As shown in the last election the voters of Northville have substantially rejected the idea of year-around school even IF economic and educational advantages were evident. Why does the administration continue to pursue it?

The rejection of the idea is more significant because the wording on the ballot was so obviously loaded:

"If educational and economic advantages become evident would you cooperate with the Board of Education in implementing a full year (quarterly sessions) school program in the Northville Public School?"

This is an "iffy" question, designed to attract voters who want to save money and get better education. That's everyone. They are merely asked if they would "cooperate". Most people like to be "cooperative". However, the majority were not so easily tricked. They registered a decisive answer: NO.

It is astonishing to hear the election results referred to as a "victory" for the plan or a "mandate" to further study the issue.

It is apparent that some grassroots political action is required in order to obtain what the majority of voters indicated in the school election. Our newly-formed Committee Opposed to Year-Around School will meet this need (See ad on page 7-A).

Will all those opposed to year-around school please stand up and be counted?

What Saving?

To the Editor:

We are asked to believe that year-round-schools will save us money, but then find statements that are apparently based on slanted statistics!

For example, we are told that year-round-schools will save each family about $14,000 over the next 30 years. It appears that someone must have projected the costs of expansion and forgot to project the number of taxpayers that will be available to pay for it.

How can year-round-schools save each family money, if we save $20-30 per year per family in capital construction costs and then get slapped with an INCREASE of $40-50 per year per family in operating costs?

Poor Reporting

To the Editor:

As a newspaper supposedly serving both communities, your write-up in the Northville Record - Novi News of the Connie Mack League Baseball teams this summer has reached a new high in one-sided reporting! After reading the 4-column writeup in the July 2nd paper, I thought the Reef team was the only local team in that league! Then, when on July 4th, we discovered Novi's B & V Construction team was playing against them and that they were in our league, we were dumbfounded. Novi went on to beat them soundly 7-2 and your article in the 7/9 paper is headlined "It's a Bad Week for Reef" And, believe it or not, your biased sports-reporter (who must be Reef's coach or manager) went on to detail who made every hit for the LOSING team, who were relief and losing pitchers for that LOSING Northville team and didn't even identify Novi's WINNING pitcher, much less who got the hits and scored! Just a question, who made all of the Reef errors that must have come near setting a game record in numbers?

If this was a single instance of your bias, it wouldn't be so bad, but the Sports reporting is always slanted in favor of Northville and against Novi. The only reporting Novi gets is their losses, never their wins, in small insert

Keep Cleaning

To The Editor:
This is written Saturday afternoon after a trip up one street and down the other, looking at the results of the efforts of so many to make Northville a clean and beautiful City. Took some snap shots too for the scrap books that will be sent to Washington in December.

As Beautification Chairman I want to thank the various organizations, the schools, churches, clubs, merchants, city departments and all the citizens for their help. Last, but not least, the Beautification Commission members and the Northville Record for the extensive coverage of the Beautification program. It can truly be said, "Your Pride is Showing."

To be sure, we can do a better job, but keeping a city clean is like keeping our homes clean, sometimes we are a little careless but most of the time we get at the problems as fast as we can.

The next meeting of the Beautification Commission will be September 22nd after we have had our vacations. The writer will be in Hawaii visiting a grandson and his family, then tour our Great West.

Thanking all of you again and wishing you a happy summer.

Sincerely,
"Bea" Carlson, Chairman,
Northville Beautification Commission

Band Reply

To The Editor:
This is in reference to the letter to the editor last week about the absence of the high school band in the 4th of July Parade.

As a band member, I had expected to march and was looking forward to it. Unfortunately, there was no way to get the word to other band members. The summer schedule, which had been submitted to the Board of Education a week before school ended (as soon as the summer program was approved) was approved, and returned ten minutes after school was dismissed for the summer. When it was returned, the time for band rehearsals had been omitted from the schedule.

I know that I speak for many band members when I say that we would have been glad to march if we had been given the chance.

Sincerely,
Sarah Horner

columns! It does something to the morale of the Novi boys that we hate to see done. We've had 4 youngsters graduate from Northville High and this will be our second from Novi High and we do think it's time for some fair play! We, too, can remember when Northville was just getting started in their leagues — They weren't always as super as you make out.

Please withhold our name because our son is a real sport about the lack of ethics in your sports-reporting.

week's column of "From The Pastor's Study," so that it is understood that not all Lutherans subscribe to the line of thinking that he presented.

First, the "sacredness of established government" is related, not to the "presence (or amount) of evil in the world," but to the government's distinctive function of providing order and justice. Established government becomes more "sacred," if you will, not as evil increases, but as that government provides for an orderly and just society.

Second, even though Paul seems to be specifically referring to the Roman government in Romans 13, according to the New Testament witness as a whole, it is divinely ordained. In other words, not EVERY particular government enjoys God's approval, but that civil authority which lives up to its distinctive function of expressing God's will through order and justice.

Third, as an expression of God's will, the distinctive mission of the state has been spelled out in the following terms by the Lutheran Church in America at its 1966 convention: "...to establish civil justice through the maintenance of law and order, the protection of constitutional rights, and

Police Appeal

To The Editor:
All eyes are on our fast growing community — terrific! But what do they see? Inadequate police protection — 12 under paid men trying to do the job of 30, only asking for decent salaries and manpower — for who? Manpower, for us, our children our property!!!

What is the most important single factor to most people, especially parents when we select a community to live in — we want adequate police and yes, fire protection. This is vital, this is serious. Sure we need parks, new buildings, good roads, etc., but first things first! These men are ready to risk their lives to protect us but what do we do in return?

Mayor Crupi, you're a fighter — doing a terrific job in our city — surely you recognize our great need in this issue of equitable salaries and manpower — City Council: do we need a special election to ask we citizens for a millage increase earmarked for the Novi Police Department? We KNOW the need is there and I repeat, let's put first things first — DO IT — DO IT NOW! They deserve any and all they're asking for and as for the man-power issue — who is it really for? US!!!!

the promotion of the general welfare of the total citizenry."

Fourth, Christians, therefore, should commit themselves to the support of the state (any state) as it seeks to fulfill this distinctive function.

However, when the state (any state) fails to fulfill its proper function, Christians have the duty to prophetically remind the state of its divinely ordained function, and to act in responsible, concrete ways to see that this function is again performed.

I can only disagree with Pastor Tiefert's implication that Christians be subject even to "rotten, oppressive,

Let's Stop Vandalism

To The Editor:

As an employee of the Northville Public Schools and a parent and taxpayer of this community I feel the time has come for some kind of cooperative action on the part of all residents of this school district.

I resent my tax dollars being spent (not on educating my children) but repairing windows that are repeatedly broken, custodial time and effort to clean up messes around our buildings, and having to pay a company to clean off paint, etc. from our buildings only to have them defaced again and again.

I do not pretend to have the answers to these problems, but do not feel that it is solely the responsibility of the school to solve them either. I would like to make the following suggestions and hope that other members of this community would assist in resolving these issues also:

1. Hire a security force to guard our buildings.
2. Recruit a force of volunteer parents (perhaps through the PTA) to assume this task.
3. Perhaps look into building a small apartment into our buildings and having a live-in custodian on the premises at all times.
4. Replace broken glass with some kind of material that will not be easily broken, or brick up windows as they are broken.
5. Build future schools without windows, perhaps using some kind of material in panels that will allow light to come in but not be broken as glass is.
6. Most of all parents in the area should be checking periodically on what groups of children are in fact doing in the yards and playgrounds of our buildings.

Johnny Cash Heads Stars at State Fair

A living legend named Johnny Cash will appear at the 1970 Michigan State Fair to show in person why he has become one of the biggest stars of today's entertainment world.

Cash will appear in front of the Grandstand on Monday, August 31, State Fair General Manager E. J. (Jeff) Keirns announces.

The show will be free to State Fair visitors, as will all entertainment in the Music Shell, Coliseum, and Grandstand.

Cash's albums have racked up sales of 20 million, his TV show is one of the most popular network programs, and his stage appearances draw record crowds. His career was documented this year in an unprecedented 30-page section in Billboard, the newspaper of show business.

Cash, who learned singing stories from his mother in Arkansas, is America's foremost teller of stories in song, with such tremendous hits as "A Boy Named Sue" and "What is Truth."

He has taken his music to the White House, to Madison Square Garden, to the Waldorf Astoria, to prisons around the country, and to the living rooms of the nation.

His appearance will be a highlight of the fair, which runs from Friday, August 28 through Monday, September 7.

Other stars to perform free at the State Fair include: Art Linkletter, Roy Clark and Stars of Hee Haw Show, James Darren, Fifth Dimension, Friends of Distinction, Arthur Godfrey, Dan Fleenor's Hurricane Hell Drivers, Oliver, Charley Pride, Paul Revere and the Raiders with Mark Lindsay, Three Degrees, Mark Wilson and Magic Land of Allakazam, and the Young Canadians of the Calgary Stampede.

State Police Auction Slated August 13

Michigan State Police will hold their sixteenth annual auction of confiscated, recovered and unclaimed merchandise beginning at 8:30 a.m., Thursday, August 13, on the grounds at department headquarters, South Harrison Road, East Lansing.

This year's sale, which will continue through the day until all articles are sold, is not expected to match the record gross of $8,934.05 obtained in the 1969 auction. About 2,000 items will be grouped for sale in several hundred lots.

Among the unusual items to be offered are fur coats, a motorcycle, an engine-less snowmobile, skis, a cornet and a clarinet.

Routine items will include jewelry, assorted clothing, TV sets, radios, cameras, hand and power tools, sporting and camping goods, car accessories and parts, furniture, lawn mowers, vacuum sweepers, record players, office equipment and about 60 bicycles.

Try Mrs. Foreman's Recipes For Tasty Cherry Pie, Cobbler

"About five years ago we were losing a third of our crop to starlings," he said. "To save our cherries we got plans for a bird trap from Michigan State University, sanctioned by a permit from the state conservation department."

They now have four bird traps which resemble a large box with a one way door. Starlings are enticed through the door by garbage in the bottom of the box, held there until after picking. "Song birds have come back to the orchards since we started trapping starlings," Foreman noted.

Excessive rain poses another serious threat to the cherry crop, he added. "Last year we lost between two and three tons of sweet cherries due to rain, which made the cherries pop like popcorn."

Besides cherries the Foremans have apricot, peach, pear, plum and apple trees. Only cherries can be used in a pick-your-own system, however, because the other trees must be gone over several times and fruit inspected for just the right size and color.

During the year there are between 20 and 30 people, mostly family, who work in the orchards he explained. The family also operates a fruit stand which opens around the middle of August.

The orchards are owned jointly by Ralph Foreman and his cousin, Bill. Their grandfather Fred Foreman, a farmer, started the business in 1905. It was divided between his two sons, Bill Sr. and Ralph Sr., and then handed down to the cousins who work the orchards with their sons, Bill Jr. and Ralph Jr. "Four generations of Foremans have worked in these orchards," Ralph said.

A big family affair every year is entering Foreman fruit in the Michigan State Fair. "The kids get into it along with the adults and we all go down with different entries," Foreman said. "We've been displaying fruit since 1930."

Most recently Narda Foreman (Bill's daughter), has won several first place awards for a fruit display.

Sampling the delicious cherry desserts which Mrs. Foreman makes is another activity which the family enjoys together. "She makes a fine cherry pie from an old family recipe," Foreman bragged, noting that most cook books no longer carry recipes for fresh cherry pie.

Her famous recipe, along with one for cherry cobbler are printed below.
