Richest Ever Snow Races Set

The richest prize-money snowmobile racing event ever staged will be held at Northville Downs January 8, 9 and 10.

Promoter Gerald Stone stated this week that the $50,300 in prize money tops by $300 the previous high.

The way was cleared Monday night to hold the races when the council voted to amend a city ordinance so that races can be staged on Sunday and for a period of longer than five hours

Not everyone attending the public hearing to consider the request favored an amendment to issue the permit.

~~ Frank Paulic 508-Gardner, and A. E. Glaser, 495 River, protested to fire. noise, interference with television, air pollution and general nuisance of people attracted by the event.

William Gaab, 105 Fairbrook, who said he was speaking for several of his neighbors, urged the council to issue a special permit for a one-time trial, but said he would oppose amending the present ordinance on the basis that it might encourage other motor-vehicle racing events. He emphasized that his main concern was the Sunday disturbance of such racing and not to the harness racing now conducted at the Downs.

City Attorney Philip Ogilvie explained that it was not possible to grant a special permit outside the limitations of the ordinance, which the council must uphold. Specifically, the present ordinance prohibits mechanical vehicular racing" on Sundays or for more than five hours on a single day.

The ordinance also limits the number of permits that can be issued per year to four days. Thus, it was noted, that if the snowmobile races were allowed by amending the ordinance to extend the racing time per day and grant Sunday racing, only one day of racing by any other mechanical vehicles would remain for the entire

Stone said that he would pay for all four permits (which cost $250 each) on the basis that double event will be held on Saturday. He explained that on the first day of the meet, Friday, racing would be conducted from 6:30 until 11 p.m.; on Saturday from noon until 4:30 and again from 6 p.m. until 11 p.m.; and on Sunday from 1 p.m. until

A spokesman for the Michigan International Snowmobile Association, which sanctions and co-sponsors the races, said that some 600 entries could be expected. He said crowds would vary from 3,000 to 10,000 per day. He stated that all competitors must be association members and abide by strict rules than include no drinking by participants.

Councilman Paul Folino made the motion to amend the ordinance for the -months of December January and February only, to permit Sunday racing and extend the hours per day to accomodate the event. It passed unanimously.

Stone said that he has formed a corporation that will promote the event and that, if successful, will attempt to bring the races to Northville Downs each year. He said he is the lone stockholder in the corporation but that David Biery will be employed as admissions manager and that the track will be leased from the Northville Driving Club and Northville Downs.

Action to Adopt Rescinded, 4-1

Township Police Plan Back at Study Level

Northville Township trustees voted Tuesday night to rescind action taken October 13 adopting a five-year master plan for polcie service.

The motion rescinding the action passed by a vote of 4-1, Supervisor Gunnar Stromberg, Clerk Eleanor Hammond, Trustees Joseph Straub and Bernard Baldwin voting for it and Trustee William Smith casting the lone dessenting vote. Trustee Richard Mitchell was absent and Treasurer Alex Lawrence is still recuperating from an earlier operation.

Smith, who was serving at his last meeting, immediately questioned whether or not a two-thirds majority of the board was needed for passing the motion rescinding adoption of the police master plan.

Baldwin noted that he had "checked 'Roberts Rules of Order' too, and a simple majority is sufficient."

Trustees also approved by a 4-1 vote to "receive the police proposal for review and study." Smith again cast the lone dissenting vote.

A third and final motion asked that the Wayne County Sheriff's Department and the City of Northville, Police Department supply cost proposals for -the same coverage and time limit (five years) as outlined in Township Chief Ronald Nisun's master plan,

-expanding coverage to the township, using the existing men and equipment in the township,

-augmenting the present department to allow it to operate 24 hours a day, seven day a week, and

-providing police protection on a similar basis as the township contracts for fire protection.

The motion gained unanimous favor of the board, with Straub commenting that the board "will have to go to the people for extra millage to operate a two-man force and we must have some cost comparisons for them

The proposals will be analyzed and compared with those reached in Nisun's report.

In other action relating to the police department, trustees voted to table awarding of bids on a base station and mobile radio unit until the next meeting, pending review of the bids.

Speaking from the audience, Marian Szczepanski, 46200 Frederick. asked if he could obtain a copy of Nisun's report for study. Trustees explained that the master plan had not been adopted and therefore "should not go out of the office."

Baldwin commented that the "report should not have been released to The Northville Record until the board had a chance to review and study

Szczepanski then asked if there were any plans to join with the city for police, "because if so, I object to it."

Trustees said they had no plans to join the township and city police departments.

Szczepanski then lashed out at the city department. "I do not want the township to follow in their steps. They are uncooperative, incompetent, allow underage youths to work in the city, allow high school students to work as delivery boys after 1 a.m. on school nights and," he stated, "Wayne County says they are the worst department in the county."

Szczepanski was cut off from further comment by Clerk Hammond and Supervisor Stromberg who both agreed his criticism "had no bearing on the matter under discussion."

Trustees unanimously went on record opposing any cutback in road patrol service by the Wayne County Sheriff's Department.

Baldwin, who made the motion, said the "Sheriff's Department is a county law enforcement service, and diverting funds from the road patrol for the metro squad is being done at the expense of law enforcement throughout the county.

'They are set up to operate the metro squad in metropolitan areas," he said, and "that is merely overlapping the Detroit Police Department.'

Board Slaps Ski Request

 $\star\star\star$

Township trustees voted down a Township trustees voted down a request to join with the city, in subsidizing the Recreation Department's skiing program and delayed paying a portion of the $1,100 cost of constructing an exit on the second floor of the Scout-Recreation Building, pending a legal clarification from the attorney.

Speaking for the Recreation Department, Director Robert Prom told the board Tuesday night that $163.60 was needed from the township for bus transportation to Milford for skiing. The city has already agreed to pay the balance of the $500 cost.

Spearheaded by Trustee Bernard Baldwin, trustees questioned "luxury sport. If the kids can afford the equipment, then they certainly can pay 50 cents for bus transportation.'

The figures are based on 100 students making ten skiing trips. Prom estimated more than 100 have already signed up. He noted, though, that "20 or 40 have their own equipment and the rest must rent it. Most cannot affort to go on the trips every time. Why do we neglect students at the high school level when two years ago this was considered the most critical area?"

Trustee Joseph Straub said financing the program would be "discrimination. We would be financing students that can afford the luxury sport and not those that can't afford Northville School District Tuesday night at a meeting of the State Board of Education. The grant was approved in the amount of $20,000 and will be used to study the acceptability of the concept in the district. The six grants, totaling $87,000, ranged from $8,800 to $20,000. The state board termed Northville's report "the finest that was submitted."

ELEVEN APPLICANTS have been given psychological tests and were scheduled for interviews today for the position of officer on the Northville township police force. Supervisor Gunnar Stromberg said the police chiefs of Redford township and the city of Novi along with a citizen of Northville township would conduct the interviews. Stromberg and Chief Ron Nisun will make their selection based upon the results of the test and interviews.

MARATHON OIL Company has decided to drop its legal action taken to win the right to erect a service station at Allen drive and Novi road. Although the site had been properly zoned (C-I) the city's board of appeals refused to issue a use permit required in the case of service stations. City Attorney Philip Ogilvie told the council Monday the oil company's attorneys had advised him that its Allen drive-Novi Road site would be sold for use other than as a gasoline station. Coincidentally, Thompson-Brown company is presently seeking rezoning of the northwest corner Taft and Eight Mile roads to permit construction of a Marathon station.

WITH TWO OF the new classrooms in use at Northville High, six more are expected to be completed Monday. Business Manager Earl Busard said the remaining three will be ready for use by November 20. Additions to Amerman and Moraine elementary schools will be done prior to January 1 and Cooke Junior High additions will be completed by December 15. Busard said the "building program is 70 per cent finished and right on target."

THREE EXPLOSIONS at Northville Downs around 11 p.m. Saturday night injured two persons, police reported. Two explosions were along the fence in front of the main grandstand area and one was in the restroom area. One man received puncture wounds to his upper left leg and the other man received ankle injuries. Both men were treated at the scene and released. Chief Samuel Elkins said it"is believed the explosions were caused by a large cherry bomb or firecracker." No property was damaged. The incident is under investigation by local police and the FBI.

Little Worry Expressed Here

Parochial Schools Still Intact

Parochial school officials here were optimistic this week in despite passage of Proposal C in last Tuesday's election, denying state support to private schools.

The Reverend Charles F. Boerger. pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran School, said the outcome of the election "will not affect St. Paul's School. We have not been relying on parochiaid and have been getting along fine without it.

'We hope some of the services will not be discontinued," he continued, "but we foresee no financial problems."

St. Paul's School operates a kindergarten through eighth grade program for approximately 75 students. A pre-school program is also conducted at the school.

Speaking for Our Lady of Victory

Catholic School, Robert Brueck, chairman of the Christian Education Committee, echoed the views of Mr.

'When we established the budget for this year," Brueck said, "we did not base it on getting any state aid whatsoever. We have contracts with four lay teachers, a principal and four nuns and intend to fulfill them.'

Our Lady of Victory School serves

275 students in eight grades. ."In fact," Brueck commented, "we are taking steps to look at what it will cost us to operate the school next year. We have no plans to close the school and all our members are willing to keep the school operating." Both men agree it is too early to evaluate any long range effect the passage of Proposal C will have on their

"So much of it depends on the decision made by the courts over what services can and cannot be continued," Brueck said. "The question of taxing church property will also have to be Superintendent of Northville Schools Raymond Spear said he does not expect the passage of Proposal C to affect the local public school system. "I have no reason to believe it will hurt

Spear estimates it would cost Northville schools approximately $16,000 "if the parochial schools closed tomorrow. That's including state aid and teacher salaries."

He admitted that though there would be adequate room for the students "it would force our next building program to begin next fall rather than in 1972."

Business Manager Earl Busard said the school district is currently providing speech, remedial reading, vision and sight tests, use of facilities after school, transportation and visiting teacher services to the parochial

"We will continue to provide these services until December," Busard said. "After that, it is up to the state Department of Education, Attorney General and the courts to decide. The proposal becomes law 45 days after the election has been certified.

'We are mandated by state law to follow their decision," he said, "and cannot provide services unless so directed by state law."

Fair, Book Sale Openings Set

Final details for three upcoming local benefit events - the Northville Historical Society Tivoli Fair, Mothers' Club Book Fair and the St. Paul Lutheran Mini-Bazaar and Bake Sale are announced.

A large selection of adult books, as well as a variety of children's books and paperbacks, is promised for the Mothers' Club Book Fair being held from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. and 7 to 9 p.m. this Friday and from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Saturday on the stage of the board of education building on Main Street.

Mrs. Addison Kline, co-chairman with Mrs. Herbert Weston, also announced that any book may be ordered during the sale to be delivered later by the committee. Follette's in Ann Arbor will handle the special orders. The store supplies the books for the fair and will send a specially-priced selection of "publishers remainders."

At the Mothers' Club meeting · Monday plans were made for the club's Christmas potluck to be held at the home of Mrs. Gordon Forrer December

An added feature at the Tivoil Fair of Northville Historical Society being held Saturday at the Northville Presbyterian Church fellowship hall is a puppet show for youngsters to watch while parents shop.

The fair officially will open at 10 a.m. when Sculptor-Danish Consul Marshall Fredericks cuts the ribbon at the entrance. More than two dozen artisans from various parts of the state will have booths, with many also doing craft demonstrations.

Several performances of "Red Riding Hood" will be given throughout the day in the downstairs of the church by Mrs. James Vollick of Redford.

Local organizations also will be selling baked goods and an assortment of handcrafts. The fair will be open until 8 p.m. with the 50 cent donation to support the work of the historical

St. Paul Lutheran Church women are calling this year's bazaar, which will be from 1 to 4 p.m. November 20 at the church, a "mini" one. It is to feature baked goods for the holidays.

OLV Party Tops Events

JUST WHEN it 'seems impossible to find a new benefit or decorating idea two organizations have announced original plans.

The novel stage decorations made by members of Our Lady's League of OLV will set the theme for their "feather" (yes, turkey) party November 19. And Plymouth branch of the Association of University Women is planning a "Punch 'n' Play" evening of cocktails and live theatre.

ALL TEN GUILDS of Our Lady's League are participating in the Feather Card Party to be held at 8 p.m. next Thursday in the church social hall. Mrs. Norman W. Faustyn, general chairman, completed detail arrangements at a committee coffee at her Pickford Court home Tuesday.

Decorations for the event are painted and ready, Mrs. Francis Korte, guild coordinator. reported. They are bright turkeys created of newspaper-stuffed paper bags, the tops pleated to form a tail. Shirt cardboards were cut and colored for heads while wire coat hangers became feet and legs. Mrs. Theodore Felegy of Novi, a new member, was the creator. They were constructed by members of St. Eva's Guild.

Five turkeys and trimmings will be the major prizes. Twenty-four door prizes contributed by the guilds will be given away. (Mrs. William Quigley, Jr., league president, explains that the guilds each contributed two prizes rather than ask local merchants-who so often are asked for donations.)

Another prize of the evening will be a handmade piece quilt, made and donated by Mrs. Robert Stevens. Mrs. Gordon Smith is in charge of table prizes and centerpieces." Two autumn centerpieces are being designed by Mrs. Marshall Huff for the dessert table. A special lamb-shape cake is being made by Mrs. Richard Alspaugh.

In conjunction with the card party there will be a bake sale by St. Laura, St. Florence and St. Margaret guilds.

Donation for the evening is $1.50. Mrs. Curt Saurer, 349-0669, is in charge of tickets. The committee stresses that husbands are invited and that it is not necessary to come in foursomes as the committee can arrange partners. Many kinds of card games will be played.

* PLYMOUITH BRANCH AAUW members promise "an entertaining evening of cocktails and live theatre" at the "Punch 'n' Play" party next Sunday, November 22. All interested Northville, Novi and Plymouth residents are invited to participate.

Wine punch and hors d' oeuvres will be served in a number of Plymouth homes from 5 to 6:30 p.m. with AAUW members acting as hostesses, according to Mrs. David VanHine, a Northville resident and new branch president.

The evening will continue with a 7:30 p.m. curtain at the Farmington Players' Barn on Reservations may be made by sending $3.50 a person to Mrs. Phillip Settles, 254 Blunk Street, Plymouth. Checks should be payable to Plymouth Branch, AAUW. Tickets deadline is next Monday. Those wishing to attend the same punch party and to be seated together are asked to send orders together.

TOWN HALL theatre hostesses will be welcoming a fashion-conscious audience for the second presentation of the current season, a Tow Bari fashion show, at 11 a.m. today in Northville High School auditorium.

Hostesses are Mrs. Robert Lang, Mrs. Kent Mathes, Mrs. Donald Ware and Mrs. Robert Ronk.

Melodies at the high school and later at the celebrity luncheon at Lofy's will be played by Nancy Coombs.

Luncheon hostesses will be Mrs. Harry F. Wagenschutz, Mrs. Francis Korte, Mrs. Robert Lupini, Mrs. Arthur Palarchio, Mrs. Donald DiCòmo, Mrs. Robert Brueck and Mrs. John C. Burkman.

MATCHERS of this area were given a list of seven species that appear every winter and another seven that have come very frequently at Monday's meeting of Northville Branch, Woman's National Farm and Garden Association Monday at the Cambridge Road home of Mrs. Charles Walker.

Mrs. L.L. Kirk, Wayne University teacher who spoke on "Birds in Our Garden," reported that she and her husband keep January-to-June records and have noted in their Redford garden 90 of the 250 known species recorded by Audubon Society.

Everyone, she suggested, should look for the flicker, grackle, robin, starling, bluejay, cardinal and the English sparrow each year. Most years the catbird, ruby-crowned kinglet, magnolia warbler, myrtle warbler, cowbird, Nashville warbler and the rose-breasted grosbeak will be

The speaker added that everyone can become bird watchers to see how many of the list of 90 are seen throughout the winter. Mrs. William Switzler, branch president, has the complete list which she will share with others interested.

Presiding at the tea table, which was centered with an arrangement of mums and cattails, were Mrs. M.L. Hoysradt and Mrs. Wilbur Johnston. Mrs. William Slattery was hostess chairman, assisted by Mrs. George Miller and Mrs. H.J. Frogner.

WESTERN SUBURBAN Junior Women's Club President Mrs. Dale Starr announces that members of the Michigan State Federation of Women's clubs throughout the state will be traveling to Belleville this Saturday for the annual open house ingathering at Girlstown, Loch Rio. This year the highlight will be ground-breaking ceremonies at the site where a second home is to be built.

The new home for Girlstown, she reports, is a contemporary design on a vsite overlooking Edison Lake. Federation representatives, junior directors and chairmen will participate in the event.

HOLIDAY RECIPES-especially those of other lands-are being sought for publication in The Record's women's pages between Thanksgiving and Christmas.

If you have a recipe that is traditional in your family (perhaps cookies baked every year) that you would share with other readers, please send it to us.

OLV PARTY PLANNERS -- Mrs. Norman Faustyn, second from left, chairman of the "feather" card party being given by Our Lady's League of Our Lady of Victory Church at 8 p.m. November 19 at the church, welcomes Mrs. William Quigley, Jr., left, Mrs Marshall Huff (who created the basket centerpeice) and Mrs. Francis Korte to a planning coffee at her home.

Speaker Views Antiques As Good Investments

Antiques were described as "the best investment in the past 10 years" by Mrs. Barbara Seichter of Birmingham, who took more than 100 members and guests of Northville Woman's Club on a slide-tour of Detroit-area homes decorated with antiques last Friday.

Included on the tour were the Detroit home of Mr. and Mrs. Alan Schwartz (who have a summer home on Eight Mile near Mrs. Schwartz' father Ray Shapero) and the Birmingham home of the former Lucille Wickham, whose family operated Eastlawn Convalescent Home here for many years and who now is married to a Birmingham physician.

The tour began at the pillared white home now occupied by the John Z. DeLoreans. Showing the marble entry floor with an American eagle inlaid in the center, Mrs. Seichter pointed out the popularity of this symbol. (Mrs. Seichter pictured the home when it was occupied by the previous owner and filled with fine American pieces, including a bun-foot

The Schwartz home was filled not only with antiques but with antiquities which include a pre-Columbian statue and an Inca gold mask, the speaker pointed out how well all were blended.

In a new-season, salt-and-pepper tweed costume with black braid in the midi length above black boots, Mrs. Siechter commented on the saying was "when the skirts drop; so does the market." She added that she has done "much better" than 10 per cent in the five years she has been buying and selling antiques.

Woman's Club Schedules Tour

A tour of the University of Michigan's botanical gardens in the Ann Arbor area will replace the next regular meeting of Northville Woman's Club November 20.

Mrs. E. G. Sprunk, chairman for the day, asks those attending to pack a box lunch to be eaten at noon at the gardens before beginning the tour.

Members wishing transportation are asked to meet at 11:15 a.m. at the Northville Presbyterian Church parking lot and to call Mrs. Douglas Bolton, 349-3518, transportation chairman. Mrs. Bolton suggests those attending take Sheldon Road to M-14, turning right and going to Dixboro Road, then taking this left to 1800 Dixboro.

At last Friday's meeting of the club Mary Egbert, American Legion representative to Girls State, told of her experiences as one of 504 girls participating. Mrs. Leonard Klein, club president welcomed her and her mother, Mrs. Earl Egbert, who also was been buying fine antiques as both status symbols and a hedge against inflation, she said.

Among decorating suggestions club members saw were flamestitch upholstery, which Barbara Seichter pointed out, is being made by many women in wool for their own homes. In one home, wool-check horse blankets (well washed) became keeping room curtains.

Other tips:

• An early American piece loses a third of its value if it is refinished. Mirrors also decrease in value if old glass is replaced.

• To be authentic, interior paneling in a room should be vertical on interior partitions and horizontal on walls that look to the outside.

• A star inlay on an antique piece indicates it is the very best work of a master cabinetmaker.

• Old items, such as wallpapered hatboxes, can become wastebaskets to accessorize antique furnishings.

 Stripe materials were not used before 1800. After the Revolution American women decorated with inexpensive checks and then toile fabrics from France.

· Even if you don't want antiques in your home, you can learn from museum pieces how to choose reproductions that are good in scale

Since most antique-lovers are collectors of china, brasses, etc., Mrs. Seichter concluded by suggesting, "If you collect something, display it - a collection makes a statement.'

Chatham Eyes Fall Opening

Chatham Food Stores announced this week ground will be broken in spring for their new store on North Center Street, with opening set for early fall, 1971.

"The drawings are being revised now," Clarence Fish, vice-president in charge of real estate, said "and the project should be bid by the end of Chatham first proposed to build a 21,000 square foot store and expand the facilities later, but recently decided to build a 28,000 square foot building at the onset.

The store will initially include nine check-out lines with room for more, officials explained. "The store will also have a delicatessen, including tray service," Al Weisberg, vice-president in charge of construction, noted.

Self-service produce, meat and grocery departments will be featured along with a complete variety (non-food) department. Parking for 185 cars will surround the store and the parking area will be flat, Weisberg said.

"This will necessitate 12 to 20 foot cuts into the hill on the back of the property," he noted. A concrete poured brick finish wall will surround the parking area. From the front the building will appear to be two story, he added, since "mechanical equipment on the roof will be screened.'

The building will be built of brick with a baked enamel finish. Silhouette lighting will illuminate the parking area and front of the building.

A small amount of window area will be near the check-out area but the large expanse of glass usually associated with supermarkets has been eliminated.

Weisberg added the "building will be similar in size and design to the Chatham supermarket on Twelve Mile and Telegraph roads. We believe it will be the finest supermarket that Northville or any other city has seen."

State Aid Law Could Hurt Here

A little talked about clause in the state aid bill could limit the per capita expenditure for students in school districts beginning with the 1971-72 school year.

The law sets the maximum expenditure at $900 and if a school district is now spending more than that amount, only an additional five per cent, or $45, may be spent, putting the ceiling at $945.

Currently, Northville school district anticipates an expenditure of $918 per student for the 1970-71

"It would appear that we are going to have to do extra work in terms of budgeting next year to limit our per pupil expenditure," Northville Superintendent Raymond Spear said.

As Spear explained, "No matter how much a district is able to spend per student to develop the best educational program it can, the state has legislated against it."

Hillbilly Snap Shooter

Joe Clark to Speak Here

Those impressive initials-H.B.S.S.-that Photographer Joe Clark strings after his name stand, as almost everyone aware of the colorful, nationally-known photographer knows, for "Hill-Billy Snap Shooter."

He is to be guest speaker at a meeting of the Northville Camera Club at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday, November 18, in the Civil Defense Building of the Child Development Center on Sheldon Road. It is open to all interested photographers of the area.

Clark, who has had hundreds of pictures printed in Life Magazine, started his professional career by accident. While working at the J.L. Hudson Company as a watchman, he made frequent trips to his birthplace, Cumberland Gap, Tennessee.

On one such vacation he made photographs of the mountains and mountain people using a camera and three rolls of film given him by a fellow employee before he left. The resulting prints were so successsful that he bought a used Rollei and took up his new hobby in earnest.

His hobby became a full-time job, and at his studios in Royal Oak he specializes in magazine photography. His most recent assignments have been the advertising campaign for Blue Cross, the Jack Daniels Whiskey ads and the Lenore Romney senatorial campaign advertisements.

His appearance at the Northville Camera Club meeting will include not only a slide presentation of much of his work but a chat with the audience about his favorite subject-"Simple Photography.'

He believes that it is not necessary to travel half-way around the world to get good pictures. "The very best subjects," he says, "are your friends, your family and your own back yard."

Unless one is a professional, he adds, simple equipment is fine. To prove his point, Clark observes that his son, "June Bug," earned $5,000 by photographing his fellow classmates in kindergarten and selling the prints to a magazine.

There is no admission charge for the November 18 meeting. The Northville, Club invites anyone interested in 35 MM photography to join. For information about how to find the meeting place call Mrs. Frank Whitmeyer, 349-0340.

93 Receive Certificates

Ninety-three boys and girls were presented with certificates at the final session of the baby-sitting clinic November 3 sponsored by the Northville Jaycee Auxiliary at Cooke Junior High School.

While parents watched, the certificates which stated students had met attendance requirements and passed a written examination were presented. The clinic, which was open to sixth, seventh and eighth graders, was held on Tuesday nights for six weeks.

Each session featured a different speaker, including a public health nurse, a kindergarten teacher and representatives of the police and fire departments. The clinic's purpose was to provide child care information and to teach skills necessary to becoming a responsible baby sitter.

Mrs. Tom Lang, project chairman, reported that most parents and young people felt the clinic provided a valuable service. Because of the enthusiastic response, the auxiliary says, it hopes to hold another next year. Jaycettes participating were Mrs. Russ Anger, Mrs. William Broaddus, Mrs. Ronald Hellier, Mrs. Robert Hilton, Mrs. Richard Norton, Mrs. Richard Rayborn and Mrs. Ross Refreshments concluded the final expressing their patriotism, pride in our country, and our unified support of the national purpose," Commander Pohlman said.

By official proclamation, Mayor A. Malcolm Allen of Northville and Mayor Joseph Crupi of Novi, called upon all citizens" to observe the day with appropriate ceremonies in honor of those who have borne the burden in defense of freedom" and to "mark the day with the proud display of the flag of the United States of America as a reaffirmation of our support of our national purpose."

By its participation in the patriotic holiday, Post No. 147 in Northville joined with more than 16,000 local American Legion organizations throughout the United States and in several overseas countries and territories in the observance.

"Gallant Americans are once again demonstrating their willingness to answer their country's call to the defense of freedom", Commander Pohlman said. "The least we can do is show our appreciation and support of their endeavers."

Fashion Show Slated in Novi

Latest fashions featuring holiday styles for men, women and children will be shown at a Queen's Way party being sponsored by the Novi Jaycee Auxiliary at 8 p.m. Wednesday, November 18, at Village Oaks clubhouse.

Auxiliary members will be models for the fashions. Jewelry and wigs also will be shown.

Mrs. Hugh Crawford, chairman, suggests that those attending will get Christmas gift ideas and will be eligible for many door prizes, including gift certificates, perfume, book ends and a photograph album. Refreshments will be served.

Members of Mrs. Crawford's committee are Mrs. Barry Killick, Mrs. Gerald LaFaive, Mrs. Gerald Mercier, Mrs. David Matteson and Mrs. Douglas Thrush.

Anyone in the community interested in attending is asked to call Mrs. LaFaive, 477-9817.

Salaries 'Fair' But Police Hit Manpower Shortage

Even though Novi policemen say the salaries awarded by the Arbitration Panel are "fair" they are far from satisfied - mostly because the panel made no provision for expansion of the police force.

"And increased manpower," according to a police association spokesman, Corporal Gordon Nelson, "was our most important demand."

Thus, the police association has launched a campaign to solicit public support for additional police officers and equipment. "I'm afraid it's the only avenue we've got left since the council obviously doesn't care to discuss publicly the inadequate police protection Novi has. If they think we're going to drop this they're mistaken.'

Salaries, said Nelson, are meaningless in view of the fact that police officers can only scratch the surface in providing police protection because of a shortage of Salaries awarded Novi policemen by the arbitration panel were incorrectly published in this newspaper last week. Here is the salary schedule, retroactive to July 1, provided by the panel:

PATROLMEN - Start, $8,400; after six months, $8,800; after one year, $9,200; after two years, $9,850; and after three years, $10,500.

CORPORAL - $10,800. DETECTIVE CORPORAL - $10,900. K-9 OFFICER - (over base salary) $400.

"We think the salaries could have been better," said Nelson, "but we're satisfied with them."

"We're not satisfied, however, with the council's reluctance to seriously consider our manpower shortage. Novi citizens just aren't getting the police protection they need or nt - and they can't get it with the size of the department provided by the city council.

"Some councilmen think we're inviting all kinds of crime to Novi by publicly saying our force is far too small. Well, let me tell you something: If we don't tell the people who will? The council doesn't do it. They think if they shut their eyes the problem will go away. Well, it won't. It's terrible now and it will get worse."

Actually, neither the police department nor the council can ignore the decision of the arbitration panel,

Thursday, November 12, 1970

whose chairman was state-appointed Mark L. Kahn. The other two members were Mayor Joseph Crupi, appointed by the council, and Arnold J. Shifman, appointed by the police association. The decision is binding.

But policemen argue that the council can, if it chooses, go beyond the requirements of the panel's decision and provide additional policemen and additional

The council, which contends it is concerned about police manpower but is hampered by inadequate funds, had planned to add three additional officers to the force prior to arbitration. Now, however, cost of the panel's decision may force the council to cut that proposed increase to live

The police association, on the other hand, contends the council's earlier proposal to increase the force by three men was itself inadequate. They emphasize that Kahn, who had access to the financial data of the city, strongly recommended and additional five or six policemen.

Specifically, here is what Kahn said: The chairman is convinced that a nine-man police force (present number of patrolmen) cannot provide the City of Novi with adequate around-the-clock protection, and it is also clear that the department needs additional vehicles. It would also appear desirable to take steps to create a traffic bureau, especially if federal funds are available to subsidize this kind of development.'

The inadequate police force, according to Kahn, represents a hazardous condition.

"It does appear that the city's financial resources during 1970-71 will permit - over and above the additional costs for present personnel contained in the award - an expansion in the size of the force and the acquisition of additional vehicles... We would urge the city to increase the police department's manpower by five or six patrolmen as soon as possible, along with the acquisition of equipment to insure the efficient use of the larger force."

Apparently, the panel's decision did not contain a provision for a larger police force because an arbitration panel legally may not have the power to require such an expansion.

Cashier Robbed At Gunpoint Here

A night cashier was held at gunpoint and robbed of $200 Sunday by two gunmen at the Gulf Oil Corporation, 40600 Grand River.

Nathaniel Clark and his wife were in the building - he in his cashiers cage and she in the ladies room - when two men broke through a window directly across from his cage and ordered him at gunpoint to remain still while they climbed through.

According to Clark, they both had guns and one or both were always pointed at him. They told Clark repeatedly not to move or they'd kill him, police reported. Suspects were described by Clark to be both negro males 5'5" about 135

Clark reported that the two tied him up and attempted unsuccessfully to rob the office while a third suspect waited outside.

The office safe contained nothing but checks made out to Gulf Oil Company and various credit cards, according to police. The men ordered Clark to open the safe "or we'll have to kill you." But Clark did not know the combination so the men merely ransacked the office, finding $12.50 in rolled coins and an unknown number of checks and credit card receipts. They took Clark's wallet which contained $200.

The men heard Clark's wife in the restroom, waited for her to come out, and tied her up also.

Neither were hurt, Clark said. "They just told me to open the safe or they'd kill me, but I couldn't open the safe so there wasn't much I could do."

Left alone finally, Clark worked his way free and called police who arrived approximately five minutes after the bandits left.

Detectives theorize that the men used their car to climb over a fence which surrounds the property and noted that they gained access to the lobby area through an unlocked door.

A special study session of the Novi Board of Education has been set for December 7 to consider possible establishment of a continuing citizens advisory committee here.

denied by split votes of the Novi

Decision to consider such an advisory group was made Monday night following a report by Superintendent Thomas Dale that he is compiling data regarding disciplinary ramifications here and elsewhere in the state.

Referring to a meeting that he and Board Vice-President Vern DeWaard attended in Southfield, Dale explained that discipline goes beyond the role of the administration in dealing with in-school violations. It takes into account citizenship and attitudes of youngsters toward government, police, etc. and suggests community-wide involvement.

Along with presenting data concerning discipline in this wider scope, Dale also will review the school district's existing disciplinary policy and its regulating codes.

While the board will be considering establishment of an advisory group, perhaps on the order of the Very Important People (VIP) citizens group in Northville, it may not tie it specifically to the disciplinary matter. DeWaard sees the committee as a continuing one that, as in Northville, discusses many different aspects of

Later in Monday's board meeting, however, Trustee Ray Warren turned the board's attention to local in-school disciplinary problems by pointing out that some students have indicated to him their displeasure over lax enforcement of school codes, especially smoking. He referred specifically to smoking violations occuring in school restrooms and to vandalism to these and other school facilities. He suggested that if existing rules are non-enforceable they should either be altered or scrapped.

The superintendent indicated that this matter will be included in his report to the board December 7.

The Council, according to George Athas, planning commission chairman, had directed and financed the study by

Proposals called for rezoning agricultural and residential land of low density to higher density residential

Numerous citizens were on hand from the areas directly south of Grand River, between Beck and Taft Roads to complain that the proposed two-family residential zoning along 11 Mile, backed up by light industry to the medium industrial-commercial zoning currently existing on Grand River, devalued their property, raised their taxes, and put industrial land too close to the high school - middle school complex at Taft and 11 Mile roads.

Proposals calling for industrial zoning (all of the lightest classifications) were denied, Councilmen Denis Berry and Edwin Presnell supplying the only support to the changes, while four different types of residential zoning in the area under study were approved unanimously.

"I'd like somebody to explain to these people when their taxes get so high they can't pay them," said Berry, "how industry would have helped." Berry argued that turning down the industrial proposals would make the area unattractive to industry: "The reason Taylor and Troy and some of those communities have developed is because they were far sighted enough to think ahead with regard to their zoning."

Councilmen Donald Young and Raymond Evans disagreed.

"Ten years ago, when I came here," said Evans, "there was nothing here. I'm convinced all property on Grand River will go industrial soor er or later but I think we should let the people ask for it."

"Industry is coming to Novi," said Young. "It'll come regardless of what you or I do about it.'

Athas was pessimistic.

"The idea I got," he said Tuesday morning, "is that the council would look favorably on industrial zoning only by specific request of the land owner. I see this as a definite detriment to industrial progress in the city."

Mayor Joseph Crupi was concerned with taxes.

"If rezoning had no bearing on taxes on our citizens, then I'd have no qualms on the original zoning, but it does, so I'd just as soon delay the actual rezoning until the land is more apt to be used for that purpose."

Another parcel at Napier and 12 Mile was left residential when it became obvious to planners that industrial zoning would raise tax rates.

Reason for the hike, according to Crupi, is the difference that occurs in land values between industrial and residential land.

The four different types of residential zoning approved by council differ in lot size from 10,000 to 12,000 to 21,780 (1/2 acre) square foot minimums.

Tax Hike Seen For Farm Land

"Agricultural land owners in Novi can expect a substantial raise in property taxes, regardless of what we do here tonight," said Mayor Joseph Crupi to a full house gathered at the Novi Community building for a public hearing on rezoning proposals submitted by the Planning Commission Monday night, (See related story.)

"Because of a state law, that requires property assessments on which property taxes are based to be set at 50 per cent of current market value, "continued the mayor,"Novi has been applied in the past with a 1.08 equalization factor, designed to bring us up to 50 per cent.

"Property assessments are down, particularly in area farmland," Crupi said, "and they must be brought up to meet the state dictated figure.

"For that purpose the city has hired an appraisal firm that is currently using a factor to bring everybody up by classification according to with which the county has provided him."

Crupi went on to say that although residential and farm lands were considered to be basically of the same value, there was a difference between them and between either commercial or industrial classifications. Such price difference is determined by what developers will pay for industrial or commerical land compared to what residential land will go for, Crupi said.

"The actual figures cannot be obtained until a sales study, which records all sales in the area over a three year period, can be completed."

Meanwhile, Crupi continued, for '70-71 vacant farmland is set by the county at 35.5 percent about 15 per

Wixom Council OK's Zoning

The Wixom Council, acting on a recommendation by the planning commission, voted unanimously to rezone industrially a parcel of land south of Wainstock between Wixom Road and the C&O Railroad track.

Public discussion was sparked over the possibility of homeowners on Wainstock being sandwiched between commercial usage already existing on Pontiac Trail and an industrial subdivision reportedly planned for the newly zoned acreage.

"What I want to know," said Gerald Abrams, "is if residential property is a good buffer for industrial and commercial lands.'

Abrams demanded assurance from the council that he wouldn't end up with a parcel of land too small for industrial use and too large for commercial.

"What assurance do we have," he asked, "that we won't end up with a 138 foot strip of land that we won't be able to sell either way?" Abrams contended that the council should zone all the land in one area, at one time, one way. In other business Tuesday night, the council: -Granted to Frank Geller the right to operate an SDM license at 2055 Wixom Road. The license enables him to sell beer and wine, but not to operate a public tavern.

-Authorized the payment of $13,947 to Philip Fyke Construction Company by way of cancellation of the city's road paving contract.

-Tabled a request from Ralph Small currently of Mt. Clemens to install a sanitary septic tank on his property on Potter Road.

Sewers are available in the area, according to DPW Chief Robert Trombley, but he noted that Small was! building his house some 200 feet backi from his property line, and estimated that tie-in to the sewer from that point' would cost him approximately $5,000. Trombley went on to say that he had already refused two similar requests earlier in the year and that if the sewer were there he couldn't understand why Small should be exempted from the law which requires tie-in to it.

'You can build your house! anywhere you want," said Trombley; "but if the sewer is available to you; you have to tie into it."

Small was absent from the meeting. and council tabled the matter until he: could be reached.

-Granted a second septic tank request. This one in an area where no sewer is available. Stipulation was made that when sewer lines were put in, the owner, Dwayne Hyatt, would have 18 months to make connection.

-Set a public hearing regarding the rezoning of land on the west corner of Maple and Beck Roads from single; family to multi-family residential. Date set was December 8 at 8 p.m.

NOVI HIGHLIGHTS

By Mrs. H. D. Henderson

After a sojourn of two weeks in the Pontiac General Hospital with a proken hip, Mrs. Gertie Lee returned to her home on Duana Street on Monday of this week.

The Hank Myer family spent this past weekend camping at Bruin State Park in the Pinckney Recreation area. On Wednesday, November 11 Dianne Meyer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hank Meyer, celebrated her eighth birthday. To help her celebrate, other than the members of the family, were her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Jobe of Brighton, and her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Fiolek of Garden City.

A kitchen house-warming was held for Mrs. Gilbert VanSickle at the home of Mrs. Arnold Cook. Mrs. Gaye Jude was the hostess. A beautifully decorated cake was made by Mrs. Arbutus Bellefeville. Game prizes were won by Betty Anglin, Ella Karschnick, Lyda Spicer and Charlene French. Mrs. Maxwell was in charge of the games.

Others present were: Sylva Ridenour, Lyda Spicer, Tina Munro, Cathy King, Linda Foell, Ethel Cook, Jeanne Clarke, Mary Grimes, Janice Stader, Charlotte Munro and Marty Maxwell.

Mrs. Steve Brewer is a patient in Pontiac Osteopathic Hospital where she underwent major surgery on Tuesday of this week.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH OF NOVI

Special music in the morning worship service was a solo by the girls trio. Carol Sannes, Janet Warren, and Barbara Bellefuille sang, "He Giveth More Grace."

Mrs. Mary Grimes asked the church folk to remember her father, John Cockrum, in prayer. He has been ill for sometime and is now an operative patient at Wayne General Hospital and in critical condition.

The church is in need of the current addresses of the servicemen connected with the church and if possible a billfold size photo for the servicemen's bulletin board. The pastor's class is in charge of this project.

The church folk are reminded of the Harvest Supper tonight (Thursday) in Flint Hall of the church. The time is 6:45 p.m. rather than 6:30 p.m. as previously announced. There will be special music by Miss JoKitzman, and a message by the Reverend Richard. Burgess of Lansing.

The mid-week prayer services have had a good interest and attendance. A and would like to enlist others from our church family to share in the blessing of the word with us.

ENACTMENT OF ORDINANCE

CITY OF NORTHVILLE

A Public Hearing was held by the Northville City Council on the following Ordinance Amendment and said ordinance was duly adopted by a unanimous vote of the City Council on Monday, November 2, 1970. The City of Northville ordains:

Section 1: No inoperable or partially dismantled motor vehicle or a part of motor vehicles shall be parked or stored or permitted to remain on any premises in the City of Northville, except those parked or stored within an enclosed building.

PROVIDED: Inoperable cars may be permitted to remain for a period of ten (10) days if the owner is repairing or about to have the motor vehicle PROVIDED FURTHER: Tires or parts of cars being removed, replaced or installed by the occupant working on his own car on the premises, may be reasonably stored in an orderly manner on the premises, but not to exceed ten (10) days. Parts or tires to be discarded shall be removed immediately. Section 2: The City is hereby authorized to remove any such inoperable, partially dismantled motor vehicles or parts or tires thereof after the afcresaid ten (10) day period has elapsed. Section 3: Any such partially dismantled motor vehicle or parts or tires thereof removed from any premises in the City of Northville may be held by the City until claimed by the owner thereof who shall pay the cost of removal. The City shall inform the owner of any such partially dismantled motor vehicle or parts or tires thereof that said owner has thirty (30) days from date of notice in which to reclaim same and that should the owner fail to do so within said time limit, then the City shall declare any motor vehicle so seized to be abandoned and shall dispose of same in accordance with the provisions of the Michigan Vehicle Code relating to disposal of abandoned vehicles (Section 257.252, M.C.L.A.). Any parts or tires seized and unclaimed within the time stipulated shall be disposed of as provided for sale of personal property under execution. Section 4: The time limits for removal thereon specified may be extended for a period of not to exceed thirty (30) days upon issuance of a special permit by the City of Northville in cases where undue hardship would be caused by strict enforcement hereof.

Section 5: The presence of any inoperable or dismantled or partially dismantled motor vehicle, or parts or tires of a motor vehicle on premises as above described, contrary to this ordinance, is hereby declared to be a public nuisance.

Section 6: Any person convicted of any violation of a provision of this ordinance, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall, upon conviction thereof, in any court of competent jurisdiction, be subject to a fine of not to exceed $500, or by imprisonment of not more than 90 days in the City or County jail, or both fine and imprisonment at the discretion of such Court.

Section 7: Every day that such violation shall continue shall constitute a separate and distinct violation of the provisions of this ordinance. Section 8: For the purposes of this ordinance, a person shall mean any person, firm, corporation, partnership or association. Section 9: This ordinance shall be effective 10 days after publication.

Co-op Complex Set to Follow Lyon Township Apartments

An apartment complex is springing up in the 11 Mile Road-Pontiac Trail area of Lyon Township and visions are for co-operative apartments to soon follow the rental units now being built.

James Pelky is helping with the planning and is doing the building of the structures. Sales are being handled through Owen Glass representing Cutler Realty.

The original white colonial, five-unit luxury building has three more apartment buildings joining it to the east (toward Pontiac Trail) with all four fronting on 11 Mile. These buildings - of six, 12 and eight units, all two-bedroom - are either being occupied or are near occupation. A one-acre lake is being completed to round out Phase L.

The project is planned in four phases on the 57-acre site. The acceptance of the model two-bedroom apartment on the corner of 11 and Pontiac Trail will be a basis for determining how many co-ops will be built among the 500 potential units.

The model, similar to a small two-bedroom ranch home, will be built in eight, 10 or 12 unit complexes (not as single family homes) if they gain public acceptance, according to Pelky. Each apartment will sell for about $14,500 (depending on location within the building) with a $79 monthly maintenance fee. They include air conditioning, carpeting, range, refrigerator, disposal and optional dishwasher, washer and dryer, and carport. With all three options included, the units will sell for around $15,930.

The co-ops, if built, will be aimed at the retiree market. Pelky says "they will enable retirees to build some equity into their retirement residences, rather than to return to mobile homes that depreciate rapidly.'

Features of phases yet to come in the project include a five acre lake scheduled for Phase II, a community building as part of Phase III and bridle paths throughout the development with hitching posts available for the horse-oriented community.

The acreage in the development runs south from 11 Mile (800 feet south of 11 Mile) to the South Lyon city limits along Pontiac Trail and approximately 1,000 feet deep from Pontiac Trail west along 11 Mile.

Female Superiority Topic of Lecture

Dr. Ashley Montagu will discuss the "Natural Superiority of Women"at Schoolcraft tonight (Thursday).

When Dr. Montagu's best-seller of the same title was published in the Spring of 1953, it set off a chorus of rave reviews throughout the nation's press. His article on the same subject, published in the Saturday Review of Literature the year before, was followed by a deluge of letters and was discussed in newspapers and magazines throughout the world.

In his lecture, Dr. Montagu cites the evidence for his contention that, from the biological and social standpoints, the female is the superior creature. He discusses the various hoary myths that have been in circulation about the female's inferiority for millennia and demonstrates their fallaciousness.

It is not Dr. Montagu's purpose to demote men by elevating women; as a scientist he is not interested in proving theories but in starting what are facts. This is a provocative lecture of interest to both men and women.

Dr. Montagu's appearance at the college is sponsored by its Cultural Affairs Committee. He will be speaking at 8 p.m. in the Waterman Campus

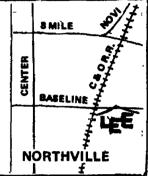

There is no admission charge for Schoolcraft students and faculty. A charge of $2 at the door is required of the public and there is a special $1 student admission charge.

JA Begins Companies In Walled Lake Schools

Jun'ior 'Achievement' of Southeastern Michigan is operating four miniature J.A. corporations on Monday nights at the Clifford H. Smart Junior High School in Commerce.

The size of a typical company is usually 20 members, however, the response to J.A.'s "learn by doing" program, in its first year in the Walled Lake area, is so great that the four companies now are operating with almost 50 students per company.

Ed Nagel, executive vice president of Junior Achievement, was happy with the turn out of students from Walled Lake Western and Walled Lake Central high schools. But he adds, "Because we did not anticipate such great response we don't have enough adult advisors to operate the companies effectively."

Advisors are men and women from local industries that volunteer two hours a night, one night a week, to help teens learn about the United States business system by actually setting up their own corporations. Currently men from Pyles Industries of Wixom are advising the students. The advisor team is headed up by James R. Peters, 2442 Charms Road.

Nagel went on to say, "These students, by coming down to the Jr. High have indicated that they want to learn about business. Now what we need are some more men to act as advisors." People interested can call the J.A. headquarters at 838-4660.

can remember when you couldn't squeeze into the - basement dining area of the American Legion hall for breakfast on November 11. And when you did, there'd be a dozen familiar faces.

On the surface it was a time for kidding, an early-morning 'get-together before going to work. But it was a tribute, too. The kind that most, who would rather forget about the service, wars, uniforms and military discipline, make to the guys they knew, however briefly, who didn't luck out.

The songs they're writing these days carry a different tune and "when Johnny comes marching home again" has heard its last hurrah.

The tables at the American Legion hall were nearly empty Wednesday morning, but one of the Legionaires waiting on table lied that "the crowd has been steady".

I'm not bragging about it; but I refuse to be ashamed of my service to our country. And, damn it, Wednesday I thought about two of my friends (we were boys in '44) who never won any medals for heroism but gave everything they had and deserve at least a moment's memory by someone other than their families.

One was a Catholic and the other a Jew. Not that this made any difference and probably none of us would have known, except that the Catholic embarrassed the rest of us by kneeling at this bunk every night and praying, and the Jew had the appearance and name associated with his religion.

Vince Kraut, the Catholic, was a 19-year-old from Philadelphia. He acted tough and looked underfed. He dove his P-47 right to the bottom of the Atlantic Ocean off the coast of Florida.

Seymour Sobole was the Jew. He was from Detroit and I still remember the time in Florida at primary training when his Dad visited him. They seemed like a lonesome couple.

Because of his initials, and his appearance, I guess, Seymour was tagged "Sad Sack", a familiar character in a popular wartime army news magazine.

He roomed with me through much of our training and I admired his intelligence and his driving desire to succeed. He was the first cadet in our primary class to solo, an honor of which he was quietly proud. Unexplainably, probably because of his intense desire, he was later washed out.

I'll never forget Seymour because of one incident. It happened on a troop train when we were being transported from pre-flight training to primary. It was hot and crowded. And for lack of anything better to do some of the loud mouths were picking on "the Sad Sack"

Finally, it became unbearable and Seymour, a whopping 150-pounder, stood up and challenged his tormentor. You could hear the silence in our car and you could feel the tension radiating from every pore in Seymour's body.

The loud mouth never moved and Seymour wasn't a "Sad Sack" anymore.

After he washed out as a pilot, Seymour became a navigator. When I returned home after the war, I read his name in a list published in a Detroit newspaper... "Lt. Seymour Sobole, navigator, shot down, Pacific theater".

There are a lot of Vince Krauts and Seymour Soboles who might have been the mayors, lawyers, merchants or reporters in our

And on November 11 we should pause to remember these "teenagers" of the past. Brush-cuts, praying and fighting, they compare favorably in my book with the peace marchers of today.

Speaking for Myself

Should Out of Town Proms be Permitted?

YES...

Unless you're "in", you're destined for the "gym"! How can I stay at home when all about me others aren't? Well Raleigh, what's wrong with considering a different place? Is a 31 mile drive of about 50 minutes so far out? Let it be - Let it be.

The Northville Senior Class of '68 did a splendid job of preparing for and seeking Superintendent and Board approval to have their Prom at Raleigh House - some 14 miles distant at Telegraph and Eleven Mile Roads. Their written and oral persuasion was positive, mature, and reasoned. A thinking, academic, considerate spirit was reflected. It wasn't an easy chore - breaking the ice, being first - but rewarding, I'm sure, as is any achievment. All went well that night for students, parents, and the school.

When Seniors in an appellate position indicate by their manner and conduct that they comprehend the responsibilities of a Superintendent and Board of Education - when their arguments are intellectually stimulating - when there is an absence of the put down about what's gone on before - when they came on with a spirit of humility and hope for new things ahead - when they, thus, earn respect and retain one's attention - I will be favorably inclined to deal affirmatively with reasonable requests.

> Glenn T. Deibert Secretary, Board of Education Northville

NO...

The high school prom is one of those special events to be cherished in memory long after school days are over. What better place for that prom than in the students' own high school building?

Held in the high school, the prom belongs to the students from the first stages of planning until the last strains of music have been played.

By planning and working together, students of the junior class transform the room set aside for the prom into a ballroom of dazzling beauty. What a satisfied feeling of pride they must feel as they hear the "oohs" and "aahs" exclamations of appreciation of their efforts to create the perfect setting for this glamorous occasion!

For the seniors, the prom is one of the last social events of their high school days. Why take it out of the high school? They have the balance of a lifetime to seek out entertainment in the comparatively cold, impersonal atmosphere of commercial establishments.

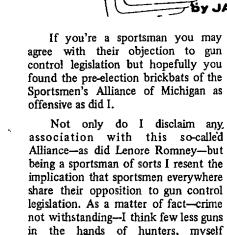

The prom is open to high school students from ninth grade up. Parents of the younger students may feel reassured to know that their youths are on home ground.

It promotes a better feeling among taxpaying adults in knowing that students are not turning their back on facilities provided for them but are utilizing them to the fullest to provide not only for their education but for their entertainment as well.

'Deal Me In'

The pre-election literature put out by the Alliance; which lists a doctor out of Lansing as its editor; is jam-packed with warnings about "politicians who won't trust you with included, might make our woods a your gun" but interestingly it contains nothing about policemen who are equally distrustful.

Lost, too, in the maze of innuendo and slashing gunslop is the distrust that many sportsmen themselves have for those who see their guns as the savior of life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness.

Anyone, apparently, who advocates gun control-be he politician, policeman or even a sportsman-is subversive and a Constitutional criminal and should be placed on a "wanted" poster as the Alliance so honored Senator Philip Hart.

Hart, who violated his trust with the sportsmen of Michigan, according to the Alliance, "is the most accomplished turncoat produced in this country since 1776." And the unsuccessful gubernatorial candidate Sander Levin is a "vellow-bellied jellyfish" who would rather call a policeman than take up a gun even if his wife were threatened by a rapist.

State Representative candidate Richard Friske, in a letter published in the Alliance literature, makes two arguments in substantiating the Alliance's anti-gun control fight: First, he points out that he has lived under the tyranny of Nazism and, from this first-hand experience, can conclude that had the citizenry been given the right to bear arms Nazism would not have lasted long. Secondly, the astute Mr. Friske points out that New York is less safe than Texas even though the latter has no effective gun control while New York has very restrictive gun-control laws.

I did not live under Nazism as did Mr. Friske but most of the histories I have read show little real evidence that the populace of the time and place opposed Hitler. Furthermore, in making a comparison of Texas and New York he neglects to compare, too, the sociological and urban makeups of the two states. The least he could have done was to note that New York has nearly twice the population of Texas even though the latter is more than five times larger in land area.

Yet he is able to conclude his letter by saying: "In light of my past experience and the preponderance of facts available on which to base one's conviction, I must be opposed to any form of gun control, whether its purpose is to eliminate 'mail-order' guns, or to require licensing and registration, or just to prohibit distribution to criminals,"

Unfortunately, the citizens of Northern Michigan failed to see through Mr. Friske's nonsense and elected him last week. I hope they don't make the same mistake with the Sportsmen's Alliance of Michigan.

Refute 'Concerned Mom'

To the Editor:

In response to the letter from the concerned mother who made several erroneous comments about the senior class. I have a few statements.

The statement about the "two big football players" who decided that the class is going to the Bahamas for their senior trip is untrue. I believe you were referring to Scot Stuart and myself. captains of the football team and president and vice-president of the class. The senior trip committee passed out information sheets to all seniors early this fall. Upon their returnal, they were evaluated. The response revealed that the class favored the Bahamas. Then information was passed out at a class meeting. Another information sheet was passed out. These sheets were tallied and revealed that the senior class wanted to attend the Bahamas.

On November 2, a meeting between the parents and the students was held to discuss the trip and the prom. The meeting was planned in advance. Notices were sent home with the students and the Northville Record ran an announcement. Two travel agencies were represented. A trip to the Bahamas will cost between $145-$170 depending on the agency. The price will include round trip air fare, meals, and hotel. Passports and shots are not necessary. Thus, it was the decision of the senior class to attend the Bahamas.

At our class meeting the senior prom was discussed. The class voted against the gym, Schoolcraft, and Meadowbrook and expressed a desire to hold their prom out of Northville. The students decided unanimously that the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club would be an excellent place to hold a prom.

The student-parent meeting November 2 showed that the parents were in favor of a senior prom out of Northville. They realized that the class did not want a prom in Northville. They found out that the Yacht Club is more economical than the Raleigh House. Finally, they realized that many students drive just as far when they go to Clarkston or Waterford Kettering for a football game.

Every year the class has had money making projects. A treasury of $1500 would not be possible without hard work and class unity.

Therefore, concerned mother, I hope that some of your beliefs directed to the senior class and its decisions have been alleviated.

> Sincerely, Bernie Bach Senior Class President

Dear Concerned Mother:

Perhaps you are concerned, but obviously uninformed. We read your letter with great interest, and now feel obligated to present more facts than your daughter has specified, and that you apparently did not hear at the meeting organized for this express purpose on Monday, November 2nd.

First of all, the senior trip was definitely NOT thought up by two football heroes or the "in crowd." The way in which we chose the Bahamas was by a series of voting and of course, the majority decided. Asked at an organized meeting for all seniors whether they were able to finance such a trip, more than half said "yes".

Class projects are presently being thought of that are sure to be a success as we have over $1,400 in our treasury, not given to us by our parents, but raised by ourselves through different fund raising projects. The money earned will be put toward the $145. to $165. per student which, incidentally, includes everything but spending money. Passports and shots are not necessary as United States citizens are not required to have them.

As for the prom, it was also a decision of the Class as a whole. A vast majority of seniors were in favor of the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club or the Raleigh House. Three years ago the graduating class of 1968 received permission to go out of the district.

Hurray for Mom!

A Comment to Concerned Mother:

Hooray for her! In Novi school this is true and it starts in the lower grades. Already in the sophomore class there was a booth at the Novi Gala Days for their class and plans for their "class" Homecoming float. Were all of the students of the Sophomore class called? No, just the "in" crowd. At Football games you do not sit with your class unless you are in this "in"

I know my child and many others would like to earn money for their senior trip. Now they are losing interest in their class and their school. Is this what my children and other children can look forward to?

Panattoni Backs Training for Skills

"Society is becoming more and more aware of needs for programs in occupational education," Miss Florence Panattoni, curriculum coordinator, told members of the Northville Board of Education Monday night.

"We claim that 72 per cent of last year's graduating class went on to advanced studies, leaving some 28 per cent whose needs should be met in a program appropriate to them.

"In addition, we don't know how many of those students will complete four years of college and how many actually will move into technical, skilled, semi-skilled or unskilled jobs,' Miss Panattoni noted.

She said the present program at the high school must be reviewed and objectives and action recommended.

Miss Panattoni said planning for an occupational education program should include a program broad enough in scope "to attract the better, average less capable and handicapped student as well as the adult seeking additional skills. The program must provide skills which will contribute to a satisfying full life and will prepare a student for either a particular work area or provide a basic program for a long range career.

"Occupational education and general education must be designed in such a way as to compliment each other," she explained.

The district is currently involved in organizing an occupational department in grades six through 12, encompassing home economics, industrial arts, business, mechanical drawing and auto mechanics.

Miss Panattoni said plans are underway now to hold a career night to make students aware of job opportunities and the preparation necessary. "We are also conducting a survey of the class of 1966 to determine how many actually completed college and also to get feedback on weaknesses and strengths of our curriculum.

"We also must develop a five-year plan for an occupational program for Northville," she commented, "keeping in mind that some of the projections could be met if the tentative plan for development of area occupational education centers now underway by the state becomes a reality."

She noted that a Wayne County Occupational Education Advisory Committee has been established on which trustees Glenn Deibert and Timothy Johnson serve.

Subcommittees include master plan, manpower, curriculum, finance and public information.

"The extent of success of Northville's program will depend on the educational philosophy and attitude of the community, the resources, the needs of the community and the capability of the teachers," she

Superintendent Raymond Spear noted that "few school systems have the resources to provide all types of occupational education. We must be prepared to meet 50 to 100 per cent more cost for occupational education than academic instruction."

Spear said there is a possibility that Northville, Plymouth and Belleville could go together on an occupational education program, "transferring students between districts for study in specialized programs developed in one area. Northville may be the center for electronics while Belleville may have welding.'

Trustee Deibert questioned if-a high school student could presently attend Schoolcraft Community College to take a course for high school credit.

Spear said he could, provided he arranged his own transportation and paid tuition. Presently the state will not reimburse a school district for transportation of students to a community college for occupational study. Under the proposed state aid package for 1971-72, the state tentatively has plans for such a reimbursement, administrators said.

Mustangs Bombed, 52-6

Best words that can be said of 5 Northville's 52-6 loss to Waterford Kettering here Friday night is that it 25marked the end of a losing season.

Northville's 1970 season got off badly, to be sure, when before even the 2 first game the Mustangs were crippled with injuries.

Bernie Bach in the backfield, Bob .Norton on the line and Rick Ruland at -tackle, took speed, weight and Experience with them to the bench. Scott Evans got a late start, finally getting into a game after a hand injury kept him down for the season's bopening games.

Mike Dresh, a senior transfer from Kentucky who wanted to star-as did all Mustangs-was scratched from the roster with a broken leg, and Paul Edwards joined him midway through the season with bad knees.

The opening non-league tilt with Plymouth, the last of its kind, set the stage for the remainder of the season. The 38-8 setback at the hands of the Rocks led to a series of shutouts-14-0, 50-0, and 47-0-before the beleaguered Mustangs scored a touchdown to finish the Andover game, 48-6.

Coach Al Klukach complained that his team's main problem was that it failed to block and tackle. "You can't play football that way," the coach repeated over and over.

After the Andover romp the message seemed to take hold as the Mustangs held the Clarkston Wolves scoreless until the last three minutes of the game only to lose by two freak touchdowns, 12-0.

And then, happiness, a victory. The Mustangs invaded neighboring Brighton and sealed them in the W-O cellar with a 12-6 victory.

But even that game was marked with fumbles and could hardly be called a decisive victory. And it made Northville's season finale all the midway through the first stanza 6-6. but that tie was the closest the mustangs got to a victory. Seconds before the gun Waterford Quarterback Bob Spraker hit Halfback Earnie Bragg from the 21 yard line and sent him galloping for the goal.

Captain-Upback Bob Gratz rolled over everything Northville could throw at him, rushing 197 yards, receiving two of Waterford's five complete passes for 35 yards, and scoring all but two of their seven touchdowns, one, the first on a 48-yard run.

Waterford started its game, after freezing the Mustangs in their own territory and receiving a punt on the Captain 40 yard line, by crashing through the Mustang defense with that morale shattering 48-yard TD charge.

Northville came back with 32 yards in the air, some decent blocking and a 14 yard sprint by Quarterback Bill Andrews to save itself from a shutout and set hopes running high at that early point in the game.

Out of 46 plays that remained in the half, Northville had the ball during 14 of them while Waterford scored three touchdowns, intercepted a pass, and drove through 18 ground plays, in one sustained offensive, only to be stopped by a pass interception, in the end-zone, by Back Bart Taylor.

The second half followed suit with the Mustangs pinned in their own territory most of the time, getting out only by a punt, until the closing gun mercifully ended it all.

COACH AL KLUKACH

"It was just very disappointing, for both players and coaches,...for everybody involved," said Coach Al Klukach of his Mustangs 1-6 league

"I think that all year long we were plagued by circumstances. We had four injuries before we even started and two mid-way through the season. We had players, and we had skill, but they just didn't hang together.

"That's what happened Friday night, it looked for awhile like we were going to come back, we got that one touchdown following their opening drive, but it just fell apart on us and we went no place."

Klukach's squad bore up under the loss of six players before the half-way mark in its seasonal schedule as-well-as a good bit of what the coach called "lack of desire," to come back from a three game shutout streak and score a touchdown, (the second in five games) against Andover.

The Mustangs gave up two touchdowns in the eve of their next match against Clarkston after holding the Wolves scoreless through 58 minutes of play, showing some defensive skill despite the losing effort. But it was not until Brighton, the following week, that they snapped their losing streak, 12-6.

Finally on the heels of a win. Northville poured onto its own field to meet Waterford Kettering in the season clincher, Friday night.

Afterwards the brightest comment that could be found was from a Mustanger who simply said he was glad it was done.

Klukach echoed the sentiment. "Its all over," he said "It was indeed disappointing."

Novi Gridder Tops in League

Six area athletes were named to all-league rosters this week by coaches from the Southeastern and Wayne-Oakland conferences.

Novi Guard Tom VanWagner, a consistant star for the Wildcats at 5'8" 195 pounds, was the only local player in the two conferences to be chosen unanimously by league coaches.

VanWagner led the Wildcats in tackle during eight clashes on the gridiron. He played fullback in Novi's closing match with South Lyon and according to Coach John Osborne, "preformed beautifully, blocking on both sides."

"Just his attitude and his personal training" continued Osborne," made him one of our most valuable players."

Wildcats to receive honorable mention were quarterback Tom Boyer and end Bob Vivian.

Guard Charlie Cook, Halfback Scot Stuart, and End Scott Evans were honorable mentions from Mustang ranks in the Wayne-Oakland League.

COACH JOHN OSBORNE

"If there's anything we learned from this season," said Wildcat mentor John Osborne, "it was the value of experience.

"We were playing a lot of young kids all season long, and it showed up in our record. We know now that you've gotta have seasoned players, if you don't, you're susceptible to mistakes.'

Novi treated neighboring South Lyon to a 14-0 shutout Friday night to add a final dab of glory to a losing premiere season in the Southeastern conference.

The Wildcats opened with a win against nonleague Hartland, and closed victorious Friday night, but sandwiched in between were six crushing, stunning, disappointing defeats that saw Novi down by as much as 35 points.

That record was not as bad as paper indicates, however. Against Chelsea (defending league champions) time ran out leaving the Wildcats flatfooted on the enemy four yard line

Field Goal Upsets Grid Contestants

That record-shattering 63-yard field goal Sunday upset more than the Detroit Lions. It wrecked top entries in the weekly football contest, too.

None of the winners picked New Orleans to win the pro game - and as a matter of fact only one contestant of dozens had Detroit on the losing end of the game. The one contestant picking the Saints had nearly all other games Winning first place and the $10 prize was Kurt Stelmach, 257 Maplewood. With three errors, he picked Detroit to win 27-21.

Also having three errors (she picked Detroit to win 34-9) was the second-place winner, Eve Rinchart, 14805 Shadywood, Plymouth.

Jim Eis, 18243 Arselot Drive, one of 11 persons who guessed four games incorrectly, won third place and the $3 prize because although he picked Detroit to win he was closer than the others on the score. He picked the Lions to win 27-17.

Arch-Rival Lions Fall, 14-0

Novi Wins First in Finale

Take two teams plagued by defeats all season, flavor with a non-league victory, stir them around in the Southeastern Conference basement, and you come up with a golden bucket filled with tears and future hopes.

That's the way it was Friday night as two luckless elevens tangled in the league season finale, with Novi carting off the spoils of a 14-0 shutout over arch-rival South Lyon.

The Wildcats, who won the game and the golden bucket - an exchange trophy offered for the first time this year, finished the season in a last place deadlock with the Lions. Both squads won a single conference game while losing six.

(South Lyon defeated Ypsilanti Lincoln, 6-0, earlier in the season. Both teams won non-league openers - South Lyon 20-0 over Brighton, cellar dwellers in the Wayne-Oakland Conference, and Novi 12-8 over Hartland, last place finishers in the Suburban G League).

The Lions could still cap their season with a victory, as did Novi Friday night, because they have one more game left - a non-conference battle at Oxford tomorrow night.

By clamping a lid on South Lyon's

Actually, the Lions' first interception of a Novi pass merely stalled a Novi drive from mid-field to the South Lyon 13 late in the first quarter. Pat Boyer was the big gun for the Wildcats, grinding out 127 yards in 31 carries. Best effort for the Lions was turned in by Halfback Alan Rickard, who piled up 45 yards in 14 carries. Another factor in Novi's win was its punting advantage. The Wildcats punted three times for an average of nearly 31 yards, while the Lions punted eight times averaging 25 yards per kick. Novi also had the advantage in penalties too, losing 70 yards to South Lyon's 94.

Its back against the wall most of the night, South Lyon's biggest threat of the game was a drive to the Novi 31 yard line in the final two minutes of play. Novi, on the other hand, was camped inside the Lions' territory throughout the game, once pushing to the Lion 24 before Kevin Taylor picked off a Novi pass at the 11.

Novi IV Wins. Northville Ties

Novi junior Wildcats clinched a 15-2-1 record for the season with last week's 20-0 victory over South Lyon while jayvees in Northville broke their four game losing streak locking themselves in an 8-8 tie with Brighton.

Randy McGarry blocked a Lion punt early in the second quarter and Gary Staub was able to scoop it up and scoot for the touchdown in a seven-yard carry. The extra point attempt fell incomplete and the Wildcats ended the half leading by six

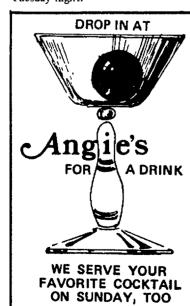

In the third quarter a strong defense forced Novi into the air. Quarterback Dave Brown guided the Wildcats to the enemy seven yard line and ran it in on a converted pass play.

The Wildcats iced their victory in the final stanza when John Pantalone uncorked a 45-yard bomb to Kim Smith who waited for it in the end zone. Brown ran around right end to earn two extra points to blank the Lions 20-0.

Northville gained the upper hand in the second period after a sustained drive that ended in a 10 yard bullet from Bill McDonald to Rod Crane. Tod Eis accounted for the two pointer, and treated the Mustangs to an early lead.

The Mustangs held scoring to a standstill until the opening of the final quarter when a blocked punt gave the Bulldogs possession close enough to the end zone to permit a five-play TD drive. The conversion effort was good for two points, and despite two intercepted passes, the board went unchanged for the remainder of the Northville was slated to close out its season, which stands currently at 1-5-1, against Waterford Kettering Tuesday night.

Air Complaints On Assessments

The city council meeting in special session Monday night decided to wait until next Monday evening to approve the assessment roll for the $380,000 offstreet parking projects.

Several property owners attending the public hearing voiced objections to the assessments. One said the assessment would put him out of business; others questioned the need of additional parking; still more objected to the method used to arrive at the assessments and questioned the amounts.

Only about a dozen of the owners of some 49 properties to be assessed attended the meeting. Three spoke in favor and offered support to the council in the program.

An attorney representing Katherine B. Stockwell, owner of the Main street building housing the P & A theater and two small retail shops, objected on the basis that the building would not benefit from the parking facility and that the business could not afford the assessment. He also contended that his client had not received previous notice of the public hearing, although the council pointed out that notices had been sent to the bank agents for the client where tax notices are received and paid,

In support of the argument for the theater building owner Edward Hohler, operator of the theater, stated that the operation had netted $900 last year. "It is unrealistic (the assessment) and it would be fatal to your theater", Hohler contended. He pointed out that 15 years ago a local organization had urged him to re-open the theater after it had been closed for two years. He said he declined an offer to be subsidized.

"I'm not trying to be smart, but you need me more than I need you", Hohler stated.

The proposed assessment for the theater building, which provides no parking of its own, is $6,000, payable over a 10-year period. The attorney for Mrs. Stockwell noted that rent income from the building is only $325 monthly, while taxes are $3,300 per year. He suggested that the assessment should be reduced by one half.

City Manager Frank Ollendorff explained that special consideration was given to the structure of the theater in figuring the floor space for assessment. He said that only one-third of the main floor area was counted Continued on Page 14-A

Wyandotte Cement Buys New York Operation

Wyandotte (Mich.) Cement Inc., whose vice-president of marketing is a Northville resident, has revealed purchase of the Lehigh Cement Company plant of Buffalo, New York.

Earlier the firm announced it had reached agreement in principal to purchase the cement plant of AFTERMATH AT AMERMAN - Burglars ransacked the safe at Amerman Elementary School early Friday morning, taking about $170 in cash, a tape recorder and camera. A 10 inch by 11 inch hole was chisled in the wall of the principal's office and several windows in the school were broken. Damage to the building is estimated at more than $600.

Amerman School Hit by Burglars

Elementary School late Thursday evening or early Friday morning and escaped with $170 in cash, a tape recorder and camera, leaving behind three broken windows, a hole in the wall of the principal's office and a flashlight. Damage to the building is estimated at $600.

According to police reports, the break-in was discovered at 7:15 a.m. by Charles Kehrer, director of buildings and grounds. School personnel had locked the building at 11 p.m. Thursday.

Police and school officials theorize whoever broke in "knew the layout of the building. It was a real professional job," they said.

McCann Defeats Harvey Moelke

Senator-elect Carl Pursell's Republican seat on the Wayne County Board of Commissioners will be filled by a Democrat-John McCann, Livonia attorney- thus reducing the GOP representation on the 26-seat board to a single member.

The lone Republican to win was Ervin Stiener of Grosse Pointe.

McCann defeated former Livonia Mayor Harvey W. Moelke (this newspaper's last week election story had Moelke winning) by better than 4,000 votes-24,624 to 20,297, according to uncertified county figures released Monday. When Pursell takes office as a state senator (by virtue of his relatively easy, win over Paul Kadish) on January 1, McCann will take over his commission post.

Although McCann failed to win in Northville and Plymouth (city or township), he piled up a big margin in his hometown (18,362 to 13,817) to hand Moelke his second major defeat. Moelke earlier had lost his mayor's post to Edward McNamara, who was a member of the Democrats' unsuccessful gubernatorial team.

A political newcomer, McCann may have been aided by his name in winning the race. While no relation to them, he has the same name as Livonia District Judge James McCann and Livonia Councilman Robert McCann.

> THE BIBLE SPEAKS TO YOU WQTE 560K Sunday 9:45 A.M.

"LEARNING TO FORGIVE"

Like McCann, Democratic Representative Marvin Stempien (35th district) piled up a big edge in Livonia over his Republican challenger, Bob Swanson (16,599 to 13, 523), to offset losses in the city and township of Northville.

While voting figures had not yet been certified Monday, winners of other area posts remain unchanged from last week's election story. Republican incumbent Congressmen Marvin Esch (2nd District) and Jack McDonald (19th District) won re-election as did State Representative Clifford Smart (60th District) and Oakland County Commissioner Lew Coy (27th District).

Report Thefts from Cars, Houses

In Northville

Northville city police stopped a larceny in progress and arrested an 18-year-old Detroit youth shortly after 9 a.m. Wednesday.

According to police reports, officers spotted Timothy F. Dawdy on Griswold near Pennell allegedly removing a condensor from a utility pole. Suspecting that repairmen would not be working in the rain, police checked the youth's car. Inside they reportedly found one conductor and one arrester valued at approximately

The youth was arrested and charged with larceny. He was released and arraigned on the charge Tuesday before 35th District Court.

Dawdy pleaded guilty to the charge and was referred for a pre-sentence investigation.

Three persons were injured in separate accidents Friday evening and early Saturday morning.

At 5:15 p.m. Friday, Northville police investigated an accident at Center and Dunlap streets. According to police reports, Howard S. Bishop, South Lyon, was stopped in the northbound lane of North Center Street when he was struck from behind by a car driven by John H. Johnson, Garden City.

Bishop complained of head and neck injuries and Johnson also complained of head injuries. Both refused medical attention police stated.

Johnson was ticketed for failure to stop in clear distance.

At 12:20 a.m. Saturday, a car driven by Kenneth R. St. Pierre, Detroit, slammed into the back of a car driven by Ernest Jackson, Detroit. The accident occurred as both cars were eastbound on Beal street attempting to turn right on to East Main.

A passenger in the Jackson vehicle, Patreal Allen, Detroit, was taken to Ford Hospital with neck injuries.

Police stated St. Pierre failed to have his car under control.

Two persons were injured in a two-car accident shortly before 8 p.m. According to police reports, a car, driven by Frank S. Pruse, Union Lake, was hit from behind by a car driven by Richard H. Wheeler, South Lyon. Both cars were southbound on Center Street, 80 feet south of Fairbrook Street, when the accident occurred.

Pruse and a passenger in his car, Linda Hall, Union Lake, received minor injuries. They refused medical attention. Wheeler was not injured.

Police state Pruse was attempting to turn left in to the Northville Downs clubhouse parking lot when the accident occurred.

Horse equipment valued at more than $175 was stolen from Barn "H" at the Downs between 9:30 p.m. and 10:30 p.m. Thursday.

According to police, Harold Fisher, Adrian, reported the theft of a harness set and hobble hangers. ******

A Melvindale man, Alfonas Gumbrys, told police his wallet containing $140, drivers license and miscellaneous papers was stolen from him Saturday night during the first race. The theft occurred near the betting windows.

Two persons reported thefts of items from the trunks of their cars while parked at the Downs.

Clayton L. White, Brighton, told police that tools valued at $125 were stolen from his car November 3. He reported the theft Friday.

On Monday, John Southworth, Ferndale, told police a tire and wheel were stolen from the trunk of his car on Saturday night. Value of the missing items and damage to the lock assembly is estimated at $50.

The fire department and police were called to wash down gasoline spilled from a holding tank being filled at Cal's Gulf Station, 470 East Main Street. Officials were on the scene from 7:24 p.m. Saturday until 8:57 p.m.

Two cars were broken into October 30 at Northville Downs and the thefts reported November 4.

Lawrence P. Stoiber, 48000 Eight Mile Road, told police a spare tire and wheel valued at $70 were stolen from the trunk of his car. Julius F. Kery, Dearborn, reported a spare tire and wheel worth $55, three shirts and a jack handle were stolen from the trunk of his car. Value of the missing items plus damage to the car is estimated at

A camera and fishing equipment valued at $270 was stolen from the trunk of a car owned by Janice K. Koch of Mio. According to police, the theft occurred November 3 between 7 p.m. and 12:15 a.m. while the car was parked at the Downs.

Virginia S. Jenesel, 931 Carrington, told police unknown persons removed an am-fm radio from her car while it was parked at Phil's Union 76.

According to police reports, the theft occurred between October 30 and November 2.

Unknown persons attempted to pry open a trunk of a car parked at Northville Downs November 2. According to police, David J. Bender, Detroit, owner of the car, reported no entrance to the trunk was gained.

A Novi woman received minor injuries when the car she was driving collided with another car on North Center Street near the entrance to Northville High at 8:30 a.m. November

According to police reports,

Christine M. Dunning, 24420 Willow Lane, received minor back injuries. She was treated by her own doctor for the injuries.

Driver of the other vehicle, Charles T. Wittwer, Livonia, was not injured. Police said both cars were northbound on Center Street when the accident occurred.

 Police investigated an attempted break-in of a home located at 46900 Chigwidden on November 5.

The incident was reported at 11:15 p.m. by Mike Eastland of Livonia, owner of the home. Investigating officers found pry marks on the front and rear doors of the

In Novi....

A deserter from the United States Marine Corps, absent two years according to police, was arrested last week Tuesday at the home of his brother-in-law where he and his wife had gone to visit.

Richard W. Colwell, a resident of Dade City, Florida, had held at least two area jobs, according to police, and had worked several other places in Michigan, Ohio and Florida areas during the two years.

The arrest resulted from a tip.

The James Gabriel residence at 23815 Willowbrook was broken into and ransacked recently while Gabriel and his wife were out.

The Gabriels were gone only a short time, according to reports, when upon returning, they found their house had been entered and $787 and two watches stolen.

Police report that a turntable, and two speakers stolen from the skating facility on the old Walled Lake Park property, have been returned.

Gabriel Glantz, owner of the property, reportedly threatened to close his skating rink, and the stolen goods were returned.

A warrant will be sought, according to police, against 18 year old Dale McDaniel of Farmington who allegedly falsified a police report. McDaniel reported two weeks ago that he had been kidnapped at gun point, forced to drive to Novi and there robbed of money and car. The time of the kidnapping, according to McDaniel, had been 1:30 a.m. Walled Lake Police, according to reports, had his car under surveillance at that time, parked in a Walled Lake alley.

Robert Ronk, owner-manager of the Peppertree Restaurant, 21420 Novi Road, reported $1,000 stolen early Saturday morning. The money had been placed under the front seat of his Ronk said he checked out his cash register at approximately 5:45 a.m. and left the restaurant for home when he remembered that he had neglected to leave change for the day shift. Going back to the restaurant, he left nearly $1,000 under the front seat of his car while he attended to the matter, police reported.

He was in the restaurant for approximately 20 minutes, he said, to police, and when he returned to the car the money was missing.

Rap Manpower Shortage

Mayor Crupi disagrees with the findings of Kahn relative to the city's financial ability to employ five or six more officers. Futhermore, he points out that Novi has a 12-man police force - not, nine as indicated by Kahn. The chairman, notes Crupi, did not include three men - two detectives and the chief.

The three additional men provided in the budget, according to Crupi, "would have boosted our force above the average he (Kahn) speaks of."

While Nelson is not ready to accept the mayor's contention that insufficient funds are available for five or six additional men, he asks, "Even if they (council) are right and they don't have enough money why can't they take it to the people and let them decide? That's what makes us so mad. They refuse to ask the people for more money. for better police protection.'

Answers Crupi: "It's impractical to finance a continuing expenditure such as police with an uncertain revenue such as millage." The mayor explains that a millage earmarked for the.

police department would be a temporary solution at best. Should such a millage be approved and additional officers hired, the voters later might not approve continuation of the millage, thus jeopardizing the then existing department and perhaps force the council to make cutbacks in vital services. Millage lukes are good, according to City Charter,

Swim Lessons Starting Here

Swimming lessons will be given to area voungsters between the ages of 7-9, at the Northville High School pool beginning Saturday at 3 p.m.

because of the sharp slope and that comparable reductions were made in the second floor area because of the difficulty in converting the area to another commercial use.

Clyde Dettloff, representing the Northville Eagles Lodge on South Center street, protested on the basis that the lodge is non-profit group with but 100 members and could not afford the assessment.

The secretary for the Masonic Lodge protested on similar grounds stating that the lodge, at Main street near Center, does not need parking. The Masons also own the buildings housing EMB Market and Ellis Electronics. No parking is provided for the lodge or stores.

Thomas Quinn, owner of Northville Refrigeration Service, 135 North Center, argued that the parking would not benefit his business or building, which also houses Lov-Lee Beauty Salon. He said the parking assessments would curtail building improvements. He also questioned the formula for assessing the second floor of his building which contains apartments.

The owners of Winner's Circle, bar and hotel at 113 West Main, also

Clean-up Set Along Center

Plans for a second clean-up of Center Street between Eight and Nine Mile roads will be made at the meeting of the Citizens for Environmental Action at 8 p.m. today at the home of Mrs. Marie Bonamici, 740 Fairbrook.

The first clean-up, the group reports, covered only a third of the area as workers found so much debris that it was impossible to complete the project in a day. More workers for the anti-pollution projects are needed. Those interested are asked to call Don Oswell, 349-4456.

objected to the assessment but admitted when questioned by Mayor A.M. Allen that their establishment does not provide parking for its customers or tenants.

Fred McLean of the Spinning Wheel, Del Black of Del's Shoes and C.A. Smith, owner of the building housing Brader's, all spoke in favor of the parking project. McLean noted that lodge members and businesses not providing their own parking fill up the city's municipal lots. Black chided fellow merchants and property owners for not giving wholehearted support to the program. "Most of the money is coming from general funds. I don't see how we could be giving any greater support", he stated.

Smith concurred and urged the council to "get on with the project".

Councilman Kenneth Rathert admitted that there might be some inequities that the council should re-examine. But he pointed to potential shopping centers in the area that will provide parking and concluded that additional parking in the central business district would make properties more valuable and insure their continued prosperity.

"I look at it as an insurance policy", agreed Councilman Charles Lapham, who is a merchant and building owner in the assessment

The council decided to review the assessments for possible errors and act on the matter next Monday. The project itself has already been given council go-ahead, but specific assessment figures remain to be Altogether the two proposed lots-one on Dunlap near Center and the second a double-deck facility on Cady-will provide space to park 200 cars. Estimated total cost of the lots is approximately $380,000. Work on the Cady project got underway this week and is slated to be completed in February.

Some $400,000 in bonds will be sold to pay for the project. They will be retired at the rate of about $50,000 per year with property owners in the four-block area paying about one-half

Financing Sought For 'Free' Patrol

At a crowded public meeting Monday, members of the Law Enforcement and Public Safety Committee of the Wayne County Board of Commissioners told Sheriff William Lucas and a number of out-county law enforcement and other officials that they have six months to devise a plan for financing township patrol services that are now received

Also, in a move to protect the status of a pending federal grant, they recommended a $200,000 appropriation to be applied specifically toward the drug-fighting, highly publicized Metropolitan Squad.

Otherwise, the 2½ hour meeting was an exercise in explanation and clarification on the part of the commissioners, as they sought to correct the apparent misunderstandings of many of those in attendance.

In response to a request submitted by the sheriff, the commissioners passed a resolution which would authorize formation of a study committee, composed of representatives of the Board of County Auditors, the Sheriff's Department, and the Citizens Research Council of Michigan. This group would "meet with individual township supervisors about their needs and abilities to finance adequate law enforcement," as suggested by Sheriff Lucas in his written request.

The commissioners added the six-month stipulation to this resolution, indicating a committment to abolish free services gradually, not suddenly as many of the township officials seemed to believe. Commissioner Carl Pursell of Plymouth stated emphatically that at no time did the board intend to leave any township suddenly unprotected. "We always intended that the phase-out be gradual, not abrupt," he said.

Also rejected was the bid on paving of Willowbrook (in the vicinity of the district's proposed new elementary school in Village Oaks subdivisions), which came in at $9,400, and a poured gypsum roof deck ($1,500). For Holiday Packages

Don't Take A Chance-Use String

With the holiday season just around the corner, area postal officials would like patrons to tie strings around their fingers and their packages.

The finger string, hopefully, will remind patrons to mail early and the package string will ensure safer delivery.

"It may seem impossible but sometimes people wrap things in just a paper bag and then wonder why we won't mail it," says Mabel Hann, officer in charge of the South Lyon

"People don't seem to understand that this (mail) is mass production," adds Brighton's assistant postmaster, Charles Case. "It's impossible to give individual attention to a package as if it is a crate of eggs. Packages must be wrapped securely."

String is adviseable, explains Case, because if a package is dropped or suffers a blow the outside wrapping will pop.

Says Mrs. Hann: "If people could see pieces of steel that are sent through the mail, along with their packages, they'd know why secure packaging is

But even a well wrapped and secured package is worthless if improperly addressed, says William Tesch, acting assistant postmaster in Northville. "Be sure," he suggests, "to address your package on just one side the same side that carries the postage. Packages have been returned or delayed for lack of postage because the handler, who looks at the addressed side, didn't see the postage and set it aside or returned it to the sender."

The wise patron, says Case, will place an identification inside the package. "That way if the outside address is ripped off or obliterated the address of the sender and the recipient is tucked safely inside with the contents."

And, advised all of the postal officials, placement of the Zip Code on the package is all-important, especially during the Christmas season when newer employees are on the job.

Northville Postmaster John Steimel suggests, too, that patrons adequately and realistically insure their packages. "But don't overinsure. A $10 gift, for example, can bring only $10 compensation, if lost, even if insured for $100."

Patrons who want their packages delivered on time should mail early and not wait until the week before Christmas. And there's another good reason for mailing early this year. After November 13 (tomorrow) fourth class postal rates will take a substantial

New zone rates, approved by the Interstate Commerce Commission July 16, 1970, go into effect Saturday on fourth class mail (parcels and catalogs). The rate will be approximately 15-percent higher. Thus, a parcel that costs $1.60 to mail now will cost $1.90 beginning November

Here are some deadlines for mailing Christmas parcels from local post offices:

 Armed Forces overseas mail cards, November 12 (today); SAM (space available mail) November 20 PAL (parcel airlift) November 27; and remaining airmail parcels and cards., December 11.

 Domestic holiday mail (excluding Alaska and Hawaii) distant states, parcels December 1, cards December 10; local and near-by areas, parcels December 11, cards December 15.

 Alaska and Hawaii — parcels November 30, cards December 4.

• International mail - Canada and Mexico, surface parcels December 4, air mail December 16, cards December 9; South and Central America and Europe, surface parcels November 13, air mail December 14, cards November 18; Africa and Near East, air mail December 10; Far East, air mail December 10.

Patrons using SAM for servicemen overseas may send parcels up to five pounds and 60 inches in combined length and girth at this low rate, explains Steimel.

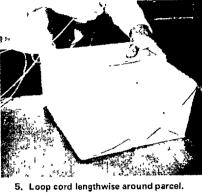

parcels (up to 30 pounds with the same length and girth), costs $1 per parcel plus regular domestic parcel post postage. But that's much less than charges applied later if straight airmail service must be provided, he adds.

Northville, Michigan

A short distance west of Northville, we have a real nice 3 bedroom home on 1/2 acre, 2 car garage. Also an 8x10 foot hip roof shed. This home is immaculate and won't last long on market at $24,500.

Here is another brand new listing in Novi. One of the nicest small 2 bedroom homes we have had recently. Everything about this property is excellent. It is worth much more than the asking price of $22,500.

We feature this very nice 3 bedroom colonial in city of Northville this week. New 24 foot swimming pool and deck with Redwood fence. This home is ready to move in shortly after deal is closed $39,900.

If you are looking for an excellent investment in a good going Beer & Wine store close to Northville, with living quarters, excellent location, no competition, then see this property at once as owner must sell and has reduced price $6,000 for quick sale. You can buy it on Land Contract terms with only $15,000 down.

Near Silver Lake west of South Lyon we have a home with sunken swimming pool - 1800 square feet of living space. Many features you must see with us. The price is $42,000.

North of Ann Arbor and close to Whitmore Lake we have a nice 3 bedroom brick ranch on 1/2 acre. Real country living with 15 more acres available adjacent to property if you want to buy them. The price has just been reduced to $31,900.

West of Plymouth in one of the finest living areas exists a home with so many features. You must let us show it to you if you are in the price field of $61,500. Immediate Occupancy.

Yes, we still have a few vacant pieces of property to show, but they are getting scarcer all the time. Let's get together while some of these are still available.

1974 Freeway Extension Told

Construction of a 9.6 mile extension of Northwestern Freeway in Oakland County will begin in 1974, the State Highway Commission announced this week.

The project will extend the freeway from its terminus at US-24 (Telegraph Road) northwesterly to the planned M-275 Freeway, which will run north and south through Oakland County.

Estimated cost of the Northwestern extension, including engineering, right-of-way and construction, is $32.8 million. Construction should take about two years.

State Highway Director Henrik E. Stafseth said the new construction schedule is necessary because of requirements of a $25 million bond issue sold in 1957 to finance the freeway.

"There are many highways that need building, but there is no question that the state is obligated to move now on the Northwestern extension," Stafseth said. "The bonds were sold 13 years ago and we would be subject to legal action if we failed to proceed with this project."

Stafseth said there is revenue in sight for preliminary engineering and right-of-way but that the Highway Commission must determine between now and 1974 how to finance the acutal construction.

Northwestern now is a four-lane county highway from Telegraph Road northwesterly to Orchard Lake Road, the new freeway will be built along a parrallel route and connect with M-275 near Wolverine

The 20.7 mile M-275 Freeway will be an extension of I-275, and interstate freeway running north from near Newport in Monroe County to I-96 near Novi to Interstate 75 near Clakrston. Construction contracts are scheduled for letting in late 1974 and early 1975.

The estimated cost, including engineering, right-of-way and construction, is nearly $45 million.

The combined 50-mile I-275 and M-275 freeway, connected at both ends to I-75, will provide a westerly by-pass of Detroit. With construction of I-275 scheduled to start in 1972, the entire route should be open to traffic in 1977.

Scheduling of construction of Northwestern Freeway and M-275 resolves long-standing uncertainity over future traffic patterns in eastern Oakland County.

A Blocked Road

Rev. Donald McLelland First United Methodist Church South Lyon

·Read. Luke 4:16-23

Some years ago, I saw a hamster sitting in a cage in a large room. The walls were of glass. The top a heavy mesh held securely in place by a jar of

As this tiny creature looked out at the larger world, he would continually try to escape, to enter this larger world; yet there was invisible barrier which continually foiled his best efforts. And the irony was that the only road to escape was blocked by the very stuff which sustained his life.

In the efforts of this tiny creature I began to see a picture of our lives, of our world. We,too, look out upon the many possibilities of our existence. We,too, long to get beyond the invisible barriers which seem to deny us this life. And we, too, often find our road is blocked by the very good to which we have given ourselves.

One has invested himself in the 'work of the Church' only one day to ask from a growing sense of emptiness and futility within, "Is this really what God wants?"

Another has labored to achieve the good life pictured as the norm for our day until, burdened by an ever growing weight of responsibility, he begins to speak of early retirement and getting away from the rat race.

And another, rejecting the entrapment of things, seeks life in the many liberties which our age affords only to discover that, this too, is only another form of the same bondage: the barriers are still firmly in place.

Yet, it was to this world, the world of the passing and the temporary, the world of our brokenness, that God, in the fullness of time, through the person of Jesus, the Christ, the carpenter of Nazareth, announced a better way: The spirit of the Lord has been given me...He has sent me...to proclaim liberty to captives...

The announcement that it is in bondage that we can find freedom. It is in captivity that we find release; that as we give ourselves to the highest values of life: love, compassion, justice, concern for our brethern, we find the lower levels of our daily existence opening up.

And the paradox that finally, when we, at last, give ourselves wholly to God, in Christ, we discover that the last barriers to the fullness, which is life, begin to drop away. As George Matheson so succinctly hymed it: Make me a captive Lord, And then I shall be

So, let us with gladdened hearts await the Lord who came, who comes, and who is coming.

PRAYER

Come, Holy Spirit, come. Come as the fire and burn, ` Come as the wind and cleanse, Convict. convert. consecrate. Until we are wholly thine. Amen.

He makes a marvelous picture—but would he really make a marvelous chef? Can you imagine what might happen if you let him brew up a pot of everything his chubby little fingers could latch onto?

Let's face it! It takes thought, direction and planning to do anything well in life — even to make a good stew. Though a true chef may not follow the cookbook precisely, he will select and blend his ingredients with care and precision. Only then will the dish be a success.

What does all this have to do with going to church? More than you might think! If you have been leaving the Church out of your recipe for living, you have been missing some of life's most priceless ingredients -God's love, His priceless gift of Faith and some of the greatest lessons ever revealed to man

State Commission Examines Probate Court System

LANSING - Michigan's probate court system is being examined by a special 10-man commission to see what improvements can be made in it.

The commission was appointed by Supreme Court Chief Justice Thomas E. Brennan, whose post makes him the chief administrator for all the courts in the state.

Brennan says the committee is searching for suggestions from laymen as well as lawyers on ways in which Michigan's probate system can be improved.

THE CHIEF justice says the committee will "review probate court procedure and propose any improvements which may properly be promulgated by the Supreme Court in the form of rules under applicable constitutional provisions.

With current studies by the Legislature to improve the law relating to settlement of estates, it is particularly timely and important that procedural aspects, the administration of which are essentially court functions, be reviewed to assure implementation of a process that is as efficient and effective in securing and protecting rights as is possible," he

The high court was given new supervisory powers over the state's lower courts by the 1963 constitution and the current study is its latest move in exercising those powers.

WITH SO MUCH doubt among even the experts concerning what the effects of thermal pollution on large bodies of water will be, the Michigan Water Resources Commission has proposed the placing of a five-year moratorium on the construction of nuclear power plants on Lake Michigan.

Only one such plant is now in operation in Michigan on the shores of Lake Michigan. That one is located in Big Rock Point near Charlevoix.

construction at Palisades Park near South Haven and at Bridgman, and these two plants would be allowed to begin operation under the Commission's proposal.

The operation and effects of these three plants would be tested over a five-year span before any more could be built under the plan.

PEOPLE NEED electric power which can be supplied no other effective way than by nuclear production, but there is some concern that present methods will cause environment damage from the warm water which flows into lakes or rivers.

Harlan Hatcher, former U-M president and a member of an international team to study environment, told members of the University Press Club of Michigan that it seems wisest to begin production of nuclear power now, observing what, if changes need to be made if trouble develops. He indicated that the nation's need for power is so critical and the dangers from this procedure so questionable that cautious progress should continue.

The commission recommendation for the moratorium was forwarded to both the Federal Water Quality Administration, which rejected the state's last proposal of a set of

It also was sent to the Atomic Energy Commission, which must approve all new plants before they can begin operating. The AEC, however, worries mainly about potential radiation.

The commission said in its recommendation that if at any time during the five-year period it appeared existing plants were damaging life in the waters around them, they should be shut down or modified to stop such damage.

THE STATE HIGHWAY Commission is taking note of the new national concern over the environment, commission says it is condu ing computerized inventory checks of environmental factors in planning all future highways in the

"Once we know the character and amount of land in the patterns of the area we are studying, we can make much more intelligent decisions about where development-and what type of development-can and should occur," explains Highway Director Henrik 'E. Stafseth.

He said such a system has been used successfully in New York, Wisconsin and Maryland.

Depressed economic area. A vast wilderness stretching for 400 miles from Sault Ste Marie to Ironwood. A large, deprived Indian population: Located across the straits from the Lower Peninsula.

These are the facts that inhabitants of the lower peninsula normally associate with the Upper Peninsula, a land mass to most L.P. residents that has no distinct association with Michigan and could just as well be an extension of Alaska as far as they're concerned.

To anyone who has lived in the U.P. (God's Country as it is affectionately called by U.P. natives) the forested area north of the Mackinac Straits is a special place that breeds sturdy stock and will eventually take its place in the sun, if it has not already.

The big push, as you will hear from one-time or some-time visitors to the U.P. proclaim, is to somehow bring industry to the Upper Peninsula so that more people will be induced to stay there. Anything for industry.

Joe Mach, the only senator representing the U.P., is in the forefront of this crusade. Mach will do anything short of raping the wilderness just to get some additional government or private money into the U.P. economy.

One of his most recent exploits is trying to get legislation passed to convert the beautiful Presque Ile into a profitable commercial fishing venture. What Mach wants is to blast ladders around Presque Ile's many falls so that a fish hatchery can be constructed upstream. Chances are 50-50 that the falls could be aamagea.

Ecologically, the project smells; politically, it's a sound gambit. Industry of any kind means jobs, jobs mean money, money means a happy electorate and a happy electorate means more votes for a return to office. And apparently that's exactly what Mach is accomplishing, since he was just re-elected.

Talk to any resident of the U.P. He, too, sees industry as the key to the U.P.'s ills. What's more, he believes, that the U.P. truly has a lot to offer to entrepeneurs. Beautiful country, available labor, clean air.

But will industry go to the U.P.? The likelihood is 'no', for the Upper Peninsula lacks proximity to the market place. Transportation costs would be prohibitive. And in this day of municipal competition for industry, this is a decided handicap.

For natives of the U.P., like myself, that's not so bad either. If Ironwood, for instance, could offer the same economic advantages as the metropolitan Detroit area, Ironwood would cease to be Ironwood.

The Upper Peninsula would soon lose its wilderness character. The trees would fall to the saws of progress. The super-highway that does not now go through the beautiful Porcupine Mountains state park would probably become a reality, to the detriment of the park.

Frankly, I'm glad the U.P. isn't more accessible. Circumstances have combined to delay development of God's Country, both as an industrial and recreation site.

Development will come, however, as surely as fall and winter. By then, perhaps, we will have learned how to preserve the wonders of nature so that the U.P. will retain its character while building a sound economic base.

Apparel Sales Hit by Slowdown

WELLESLEY HILLS, Mass. - The slowdown in consumer spending has wrought havoc on sales and earnings of apparel retailers. In fact, operations and profitability in this segment of the economy have been disappointing during the latter part of 1969 and through most of 1970. Owing to the concept of "total merchandising," however, some retail outlets have not suffered severely because turnover of general merchandise has offset the decline in demand for clothing.

There has been tough sledding for the entire apparel industry. Part of the problem arose from the sharply negative response to the radical plunge of hemlines in women's outerwear. This has been in marked contrast to the previous enthusiastic reception of mini-skirts. While the fight raged over the mini-midi-maxi designs, demand for women's apparel waned noticeably.

Uncertainty as to the ruling fashion and lack of a favorable reaction to both the midi and the maxi stylings prompted cautious buying, on the part of both consumers and retailers. More recently there has been a considerable swing toward pantsuits and "separates."

WHILE DEMAND for clothing has been a victim of these drastic fashion changes for more than a year, this has been far from the whole story of the difficulties in retailing. The volume of total retail trade has actually been languishing for the past two years. For example, sales of home furnishings, furniture, appliances, and TV sets have lagged due to the low level of home building.

MONTHLY retail sales figures - seasonally adjusted have held in a peak range during this period, but the trend has been sidewise and not higher. It has been price hikes, not unit gains, which have kept dollar sales volume at a high level. On the basis of a constant dollar, indications are that the physical volume of retail trade has been losing ground.

There are many reasons for the lack of vitality in consumer spending at a time when a rapidly growing population and a strong uptrend in personal income should be having an optimistic effect. For one thing, the Vietnam war and Mideast tensions dampen confidence.

Moreover, demonstrations and other social disruptions keep many women from shopping as often as usual. And there has been definite resistance to soaring prices. Other developments making consumers less eager to buy: Gloomy business and employment outlook over the past year, the weakness in the securities markets for two years, and the relentless climb in various tax levies. As a result, there has been an increasing emphasis on

THERE ARE TWO favorable effects of the step-up in the rate of consumer savings. First, the moderation in spending has helped prevent a more critical inflation binge. Second, the savings build-up puts consumers in a better position to spend now that the economy is in need of assistance.

Despite the drab performance of the past year, apparel sales can still close out 1970 on a strong note. Prospects for 1971 are even more promising. There should be some improvement in sales, and stringent cost-cutting programs of apparel retailers should help counter inflated operating expenditures. With women making up a larger share of the work force, there is a growing market for clothing of all types. Currently, the Research Staff of Babson's Reports favors purchase of the common stock of Franklin Stores - for participation in the apparel retailing field - for investors seeking capital appreciation by way of a thoroughly deflated issue.

50-Percent Increase Seen In Snowmobile Registrations

VERTICAL

Nearly one-half million persons are expected to spend a record-high $133 million on snowmobiling this winter in Michigan, according to Automobile Club of Michigan.

"Michigan will have 205,000 snowmobiles in use by this spring, which will be more than a 50 percent increase in the number of vehicles registered by last spring," states Jerry E. Fisher, Auto Club's touring

He adds that Michigan dealers expect snowmobile sales to climb 20 percent above last year's mark when over 60,000 machines were sold.

Currently, there are more than 130,000 registered snowmobiles in Michigan, and major distributors across this state expect that 75,000 new machines will be sold by spring.

"Safety and shortage of areas where snowmobiles can be used will be major problems this winter despite the enthusiasm about this mushrooming sport," Fisher states.

Fisher points out that 19 persons lost their lives in Michigan showmobile accidents last winter, compared with 13 who died during the 1968-69 winter, the first time official records were kept on snowmobile deaths. Last winter, 13 persons died in collisions with other vehicles on state roads, five persons drowned when machines broke through the ice, and another death occurred when a snowmobiler hit a wire strung across the gate to a ball field.

Snowmobiles have been a growing source of irritation to many private property owners and sportsmen.

Snowmobiles running recklessly across private property, ruining lawns, trees and disturbing farmlands were a major reason for recent state legislation (effective January, 1969) regulating these machines.

Some sportsmen claim that the snowmobile is used illegally during deer season, and when lakes are frozen these machines are overrunning once remote fishing spots.

'Despite complaints," states Fisher, "snowmobiles are here to stay and the economic impact across the state has been notable.

Sales tax on snowmobiles sold in Michigan since 1965 has amounted to $4.68 million. Last winter alone, Michigan realized $1.04 million from sales tax on accessories and $910,000 on taxes from gas for off-highway use. In addition, over $600,000 has been collected by the Secretary of State in registration fees ($5 for a three-year

For the first time, this past show season, the young people of Michigan were offered, at several shows, what is known as an American Horse Show Association Medal Class, both Saddle Seat and Stock Seat Equitation. The young riders showing in these events must be members of the American Horse Association and not have reached their 18th birthday. Upon winning a blue in this division the contestants receive a silver medal and are then qualified for the medal finals, which are held in the late fall of each year.

Since this is the first year that Michigan young people have competed in this highly honored event in this state, we are especially pleased that two finalists were from this area. SPECIAL CONGRATULA-TIONS go to David Earehart, Northville, riding the Morgan mare "Pebbles" and Miss Kathy Holt, Plymouth riding her Morgan gelding "Cohoctah King". Both these rider's qualified for the Stock Seat medal finals, to be held at the Cow Palace, San Francisco, California.

Color Attracts Park Crowds

Wonderful fall color and four beautiful, sunny week-ends helped attract a record of 534,953 persons from the countres of Livingston, Macomb, Oakland, Washtenaw and Wayne to the parks of the Huron-Clinton Metropolitan Authority in October. This was 108,953 more persons than used the HCMA parks in October of 1969 when the total count was 429,300.
