School Sets March Vote On Millage

A special election will be held Saturday March 6, for the renewal of expired operational millage in the Northville School District.

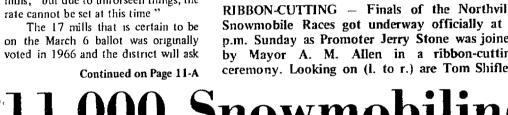

The date was set by school board trustees Monday night, with no specific millage rate established. Administrators have hinted, though, that they may request additional millage besides the 17 mills that expired December, 1970. The additional operational millage may be needed to off set the anticipated state aid cut, they noted.

Superintendent Raymond Spear commented that the "millage rate will be set on February 8. By that time I hope we will know what action has been taken at the state level and how it will affect our school district."

Spear said he had been ready to recommend renewal of just the 17 mills, "but due to unforseen things, the

Northville Braces For State Aid Cuts

With an "almost certain" cutback in state school aid around the corner, Superintendent Raymond Spear Friday ordered a temporary freeze and partial curtailment of the 1970-71 Northville School District budget.

The freeze means that no expenditures of non-contractual services or supplies, which are not considered "vital to the health, safety and well-being of pupils and staff," are to be made until an amount of the state-aid cutback is announced in

Furthermore, later this week Spear will order a number of yet unspecified curtailments Studies of what these might include were being made earlier this week. Presumably, it could mean elimination of field trips, personnel cutbacks, etc.

In neighboring Novi School District, Superintendent Thomas Dale has stopped all purchase orders, and he has indicated that his district, already hard-pressed financially, could face a serious deficit if state aid is chopped significantly.

Meanwhile, Representative Clifford Smart of Walled Lake, House minority leader, confirmed that a cutback in state aid is likely in the wake of Governor William Mılliken's order to curtail state expenditures by $108 million to offset state financial deficits. Earlier, a $50 million curtailment was ordered that did not affect school districts. There has been no decision as to how much of the $108 million curtailment will come out of the state educational budget nor is there any indication when that decision will be made, said Smart Governor Milliken this past Monday proposed a 2-percent cut across the board in all school districts. The proposal needs only the concurrence of the Senate and House appropriation committees.

"I've been telling school officials who check with me that if I were them I'd be doing some careful budget examinations so that if I had to make let's say a 5-percent cut I'd know what to do," the veteran Republican lawmaker said.

However, Smart emphasized that he personally believes every attempt should be made to minimize state cuts in the educational field. Minimization of the cuts could be made, he added, by using some of the surplus monies in certain existing funds. He said he had indicated his position on this matter to Governor Milliken shortly before this newspaper contacted him Friday.

Among surplus monies to which Smart referred are:

Uninsurred Motorists Fund, involving $50 million; Veterans Trust Fund, "a highly sensitive" fund involving $31 million, and perhaps moving up the payment by a month of corporate income taxes that would result in $25 million.

Utilization of monies from these sources to help minimize state aid cuts could result in complications for local school districts. State budget cuts do not require legislative action, but transfer of funds (tapping exisiting surplus funds) does require such action. Thus, while the decision on the amount of educational cuts could be made relatively soon at the executive level, that decision could be delayed if legislative action on tapping of funds is first sought - and particularly if a political hazzie develops over the use of these monies, a Lansing source ındicated.

Delay in announcement of how much money will be cut makes local level planning particular difficult, according to Spear, since school officials must prepare for the inevitable state cut by making calculated guesses based upon the best information at

It's imperative that school districts higge at his state and the avoid deficits in their own budgets and yet school districts don't really know how large of cuts should be anticipated, explained Spear

He said it is unlikely that any more state school aid payments will be made Continued on Page 11-A TAX COLLECTIONS are running high in the township as school officials note 51 per cent of the school taxes have been turned over to the district, while only 29 per cent of the city's taxes have been turned over. In the South Lyon and Salem portions of the school district, none of the school taxes have been collected. Earl Busard, business manager, noted.

INFLATION HAS hit the 35th District Court. As of December 31, 1970, the $3 "judgment fee" that had been tacked on court fines was dropped, only to be replaced with $4 "costs." Consequently a fine that formerly totaled $38 is now $39. It may not be too long before crime becomes a luxury only the very rich can afford...

The setting held special meaning as the bride's parents had exchanged vows in the same church.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Hubbert of

The bride's grandfather, F. E. Graham, a former Northville resident, flew from his home in Dover near Clearwater, Florida, to escort the bride down the aisle. Pastor Cedric Whitcomb officiated.

For the ceremony the church resembled an outdoor scene with Christmas trees and snow. Pews were marked with fresh pine swags and gold velvet bows. The decorations were the work of a family friend.

Mrs. Ellen Graham, a friend of the bride, flew from Miami to play Christmas carols and favorite hymns of the couple. Burt DeRusha was soloist.

The bride's gown of peau de soic was fashioned in Juliet style with high neckline, fitted bodice and full sleeves ending in cuffs at the wrists. It was trimmed with Venetian lace and extended into a full train. A beaded floral headpiece held her shoulder veil of illusion.

SARAH ANN Cochrane Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, has an exciting "first" scheduled for its January meeting at noon next Monday at the Plymouth home of Mrs. Halvar Blomberg. Members will be brought up to date on the theatre world by Lillian

She is director of the new Fisher Theatre Speakers' Bureau and is to speak on "The Theatre Today," reviewing new shows and sharing experiences in the theatre.

Miss Hicks began her career as an actress and has appeared on stage, worked back stage, in the box office and has performed on radio and television. She knows her theatre and

Her talks, the Fisher promises, are laced with hilarious and sometimes hectic anecdotes of theatrical greats.

The world-famous theatre announced recently the formation of the speakers' bureau as a new and-unique service to the greater Detroit community. The bureau is to act as a theatrical information center under Miss Hicks' direction, helping to provide groups with speakers and guests involved in the theatrical world.

The Sarah Ann Cochrane Chapter is one of the first area groups to hear Miss Hicks. The program is to follow luncheon for which Mrs. F. Donald Sober is luncheon chairman. Mrs. David Christensen is program chairman and will introduce Miss Hicks.

Mrs. George F. Merwin, chapter regent, suggests that members planning to bring guests make reservations with A VALENTINE theme was the easy-and-natural choice for the winter dinner dance of Northville Mothers' Club as the event is to be held February 13-the day before St. Valentine's Day-at the Plymouth Meeting House.

Mrs. James Tellam and Mrs. Martin Rinehart, co-chairmen, announce that again this year proceeds will benefit the teen-age Cavern Club.

The candlelight dinner-dance evening is to begin with hot hors d'oeuvres from 7 to 8 p.m. with dinner

Mrs. Gleen Deibert, ticket chairman, now has the red-and- white tickets available. Everyone in the community is invited and table reservations may be made for groups by calling Mrs. Deibert, 349-0285, or Mrs Tellam, 349-2441.

In announcing the ticket price of $20 a couple this week, Mrs. Tellam points out that this is the same price as last year for the London Broil dinner-for-two and evening of dancing.

Monday night Northville Mothers' Club members and their guests were given a glimpse of the Northville High School humanities program in action as six high school students participated in the presentation, "How Man Reflects Himself in Art, Music, and Literature."

Students making the presentation at the invitation of Miss Patricia Dorrian, head of the high school English department who has formulated the new program with staff members, were Sarah Horner, Anne Price, Janice Zayti, Michael Beard, Andrew Bonamici and Dan Taylor.

Miss Florence Panattoni, curriculum coordinator, formally thanked the club for its donation of $500 for supplies for the program in which 47 students in ninth through twelfth grades are participating.

Western Suburban Junior Women's Club made plans for a used book sale to be held January 30 at the Livonia Mall at its January meeting Monday evening at Sword of the Spirit Lutheran Church.

The book sale is to benefit the club scholarship fund.

"Conservation" was the program topic Monday night as a movie, "Save Our Environment," was shown.

The active Junior Women participated in a variety of projects during December. These included delivering Christmas presents to girls at the home the Junior Women's Clubs sponsor, Loc Rio in Belleville, and singing carols at Nightingale West Nursing Home. Members also held a Christmas cookie exchange, made pine cone trees and held their annual cocktail party at King's Mill clubhouse.

In December, 1968, he was one of five Lincoln authorities invited to the re-dedication of the restored Old State House in Springfield, Illinois, where Lincoln worked and gave his "House Divided" speech. The ceremonies were the culmination of the Illinois Sesquicentennial celebration.

To illustrate his talk, the Lincoln authority uses articles associated with the Civil War president to present him as "a visual, real person."

An early interest in the life and person of Lincoln, the speaker notes, led to serious study and collecting in 1943. A member of a four-generation Detroit family (with his daughter Cheryl, now a university student, becoming a fifth), Petz first earned a B.S. degree in music education at Wayne University. He received his M.A.

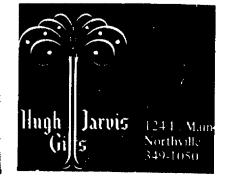

in Musicology and an Education Specialist degree in school administration from Wayne also.

He wrote his master's degree thesis on "Music and Abraham Lincoln." It involved three years of research about Lincoln's influence on and his participation in music. This was the first work done on this facet of Lincoln's life and established the author as an authority on the subject.

Miss Wright, who retired to South Lyon, spoke to Northville Woman's Club members, bringing several chairs and tin pieces to illustrate her talk at Northville First Presbyterian Church.

She also demonstrated ways to stencil plain pieces or antiques that have lost their design.

As she worked with large stencils to create flowers and fruit, Miss Wright explained that the art of stenciling reached a peak in the early 1800's. Earliest stencils were done painstakingly with gold leaf transfer. These early examples, she added, did not use much other color. Such stencils mellow through the years so that when reproducing, she suggested, the craftsman may want to make them

Veins on leaves used in fruit or flower stencils can date an early tin tray or chair. The edge of a curving piece of paper was used first, creating one sharp edge with a shading on the other. Later, vein stencils were cut to form sharper veins.

Early stenciled chairs, mostly black, had thin seats and curving backs, she pointed out. Most were black originally, but sometimes stencil work, especially in Maine, was done on white Chairs stenciled in the 1820's have a brown tone, Miss Wright pointed out, explaining that painters first gave the pieces an artificially grained look in those shades. In later chairs, the graining has a more reddish tone.

Early designs were assembled stencil by stencil with each piece of fruit applied separately, the speaker explained. Peach blush tones were added and, in later work, green shadings. When the Hitchcock chair factory reopened in the late 1940's, she added, stencils were applied with an air brush for mass production.

As she mentioned this revival of interest in stenciled furniture, Miss Wright commented that interest in the

Obituaries

Dr. Eastland Dies

Funeral services for Dr. Jason K. Eastland, 67, a Northville dentist and resident of the community since 1936, were held Monday from Casterline Funeral Home.

Dr. Eastland, who lived at 46900 Chigwidden in Northville Estates, died January 8 at St. Joseph Hospital in Ann Arbor after a month's illness. He had offices in downtown Northville and had been dentist for Maybury Sanatorium from to 1969.

The Reverend Guenther C. Branstner of Northville First United Methodist Church where Dr. Eastland was a member, and the Reverend Joseph Gerrard of St. Georges Episcopal Church, Milford, a long-time friend, officiated at the service.

Interment was in Oak Hill Cemetery, Pontiac. Plymouth Elks Lodge No. 1780 in which Dr. Eastland was a member conducted a memorial service at the funeral home Sunday evening. He also was a member of the Detroit District Dental Society, Western Dental Association, Northville Chamber of Commerce and a charter member of Northville Optimist Club.

He was born December 16, 1903, in Detroit to Jason L. and Sarah J. (Kobe) Eastland.

He leaves his wife, Clara; a daughter, Susan, of Torrance, California; a son, Michael, of Livonia; a sister, Mrs. Ruth Anderson, of Northville; two grandchildren.

Masque Players to Present 'The Apple Tree' in February

† The Masque Players of Schoolcraft College will be presenting "The Apple Tree," a musical, on the evenings of February 3,4,5, and 6 in the Liberal Arts Theater on the campus of the college, at 8:00 p.m.

The musical is based on "The Diary of Adam and Eve," by Mark Twain, "The Lady or the Tiger?" by Frank R. Stockton, and "Passionella" by Jules Feiffer. Tickets may be secured at the bookstore on the college

Written by Sheldon Harnick and Jerry Bock in 1966, the three-part musical gives the players an opportunity to display the varied talents of the many students who are involved in this production. Eve is played by Charlotte LeBlanc(Livonia), who has appeared in many productions at the college. Barbara, the barbarian, is played by Karen Kahn (Westland), who is a newcomer to the group, and Passionella, the Mae West type, is played by another newcomer, Judy Utley of Northville.

The main theme of the play is the eternal problem of man and woman, but in this case it is the woman who controls the men without their being

School Officials Slap State for 'Welching' on State Aid

If the state can chop state aid can a local school district cut teacher

No one seriously believes contracted teacher salaries can be changed but this question posed at a meeting of the Novi Board of Education Monday typifies the resentment by local school officials of suggested cutbacks in school aid.

They emphasize that the state made a commitment to local school districts, which based their budgets on school aid, and now school districts face the real possibility of the state reneging on that commitment. If the state can "welch," why not local school districts? They ask.

Reporting on a meeting with lawmakers and education officials at Lansing this past week, Board Vice-President LaVerne DeWaard and Superintendent Thomas Dale noted that a wide range of various cutback proposals have been made (see story on Record, Page One) and that Governor William Milliken's 2-percent cutback proposal made Monday is but one specific suggestion.

One suggested cutback at Lansing, they reported, would chop $50 million from the state aid act. Such a cut, they said, would approximate a $25 per student decrease throughout Michigan. The 2-percent cut suggested by the governor was put at $7 per student

It would appear, based on some of the suggested cuts, that Novi could lose $30,000 or more in aid, it was noted.

While agreeing that local budget alterations should be considered in view of these suggested cuts, Dale emphasized that "we've got to combat this thing first" at the state level in hopes of heading off a state aid cut. He added, however, that if a cutback cannot be averted at the state level "I'd rather see an across the board reduction for all districts" than have some districts cut more than others.

Dale had specific reference to a state proposal that the "grandfather" clause in the state aid act be revised to produce some of the money the state needs to offset its deficit. School districts such as Novi and neighboring Northville would be hit hardest by such a revision.

Trustee Robert Wilkins advised

Dale to meet with both teachers and students to explain that a cut in aid is probable and what it could mean financially to the local school district.

Dale, who said he planned to do so, indicated that he has already stopped all purchase orders and that he will recommend cutbacks. It was hinted that some teacher replacements may not be made and perhaps teachers who are approaching tenure status could be removed at the close of the board members were equally angered by suggested state cutbacks.

"It's a pretty big slap in the face to school boards that base budgets on the revenue forthcoming from the state,' said Trustee Andrew Orphan. Why must school boards sit back and take it in the neck because the strike (General Motors) last two or three weeks longer than they had planned?" he asked; then adding that citizens should make their feelings known to legislators in Lansing.

Jacob Durling Named to Vacant SECOND School Seat

In a special meeting held specifically for the purpose Thursday evening, the Novi School Board named Jacob Durling of 24040 Woodham. Echo Valley, to fill the vacated board seat of Russell Taylor.

No other nominees were introduced at Thursday's meeting.

But the board considered two other candidates in an informal, private session prior to the official meeting.

Following discussion, the public was excused and the board made its decision privately. When the public returned, Durling was nominated.

The two other candidates for the nomination. were Zoe Ann Price of Meadowbrook Glenns and Rose Howard also of Echo Valley. Both were "very well qualified for the post," according to board members who expressed hope that they would seek election in June.

School to Ask Heating Bids

Preparation of specifications for bidding on a new heating plant at Novi Elementary School was ordered by the board of education Monday.

The specifications are to be prepared by the school district's architect for presentation to the board on February 8. Advertisement for bids Specifications will call for a single heating plant to replace two boilers now in use at the school. Attempts to secure gas for conversion of the oil system have failed because of a clamp-down on additional customers by Consumers Power Company.

Specifications also will call for an addition to the building to house the heating plant, thus freeing space now utilized by the boilers.

Total estimated cost of the project was put at $50,000.

Awarding of contracts for middle school equipment is also planned to take place February 8.

A special meeting of the board has been scheduled for February 1 to review a list of priority projects in the district. Also, earlier in the day bids on equipment are to be opened and then presented that evening, prior to the special meeting, for board Management appeared before city officials and noted that his company had spent $8,000 on the study and had found the swampy conditions and that the remainder could only support development of the residential type. "In much of that area," said Chapper, "the water table is within a foot of the surface. The area is feasible only for residential units with a good deal of open space."

Chapper said an 18 hole public golf course, a lake and enough park facilities to accomodate the residents of his companies development was

A letter addressed to the city by planning comsultants. Vilican and Leman said that given the truth of Chadon's study "the present classification is not sound planning."

The letter noted that in such a case, the petitioners request for residential zoning would be more logical but would reduce industrial land available, something that is being done currently in the master plan review, according to Robert Shaddock, representative of the planning firm.

The letter went on to recommend to councilmen and planners that before they act, they get verification of the engineering study from city engineers Johnson and Anderson.

Meanwhile, in a letter dated five days prior to that of Vilican-Leman, Johnson and Anderson said they were acquainted with the engineers hared by Chadon and that they "are known to be competent in their fields.'

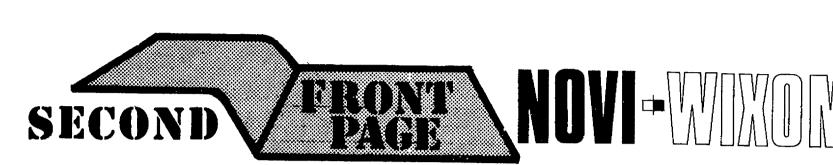

Dissension arose both from the board and the council concerning a three acre square of general manufacturing land included in the rezoning request.

Chapper explained that of the buildable land a small area could support industrial use. He said he could drop the industrial request for the piece and not change his overall development.

Officials insisted upon it being dropped.

Included in the request, which passed both bodies unanimously, was a six acre parcel in the southwest corner, in the area of 12 Mile and the C&O railroad track with a proposed commercial zoning.

Chapper said a shopping center is planned to serve residents of the proposed development.

Officials to Get 20-Month Bonus

Novi Accepts State Law's Vote Change

Terms of Novi city officials which would have expired in April of 1972 have been extended to November of 1973 - some 19 months.

The bonus is the result of a new law that provides for city elections in Michigan every two years during November of the odd-numbered year.

A feature of the law, that newly elected officials are not to take office until January 1st of the year following an election, tacks on an extra month making a total extension of 20 months.

Novi subscribed to the November election Monday night when council decided not to "opt out" of the law a choice that would have entitled them to keep municipal elections in April by special council action.

The law does not affect any school, village or judicial election.

"This will give November the impression of an 'election month' more so than ever in the minds of the voter." said Mayor Joseph Crupi. "People will vote in national elections during the even years, and in local elections during the odd years, instead of splitting elections between the spring and fall."

The City of Northville decided last k to go along with the new law, but there spring elections are already held in odd years so terms will be extended by less than a year.

In other business Monday night, the council reluctantly, agreed to pay $15 an hour to Gordon Hunter Associates municiple appraisers, to appear in the second slate of proceedings of the March board of

The upcoming hearings are expected to be lively due to numerous assessment hikes reflected in tax bills.

As president of the firm hired to conduct Novi's reappraisal, Hunter had been requested to attend both scheduled meetings of the board: Tuesday, March 19 and Tuesday, March 23, as well as a third day resulting from continuation of proceedings.

· At one point, councilmen had assumed Hunter's contract called for him to be in attendance. However, Councilman Donald Young noted Monday that, nowhere could he find such an item.

Hunter had informed councilmen previously that he could not be present on March 9 but might be able to make it on March 23 - for a fee.

Official Named, Salary Hiked

Councilmen accepted Wixom Mayor Gilbert Willis' appointment of a building official Tuesday night along with a $3,000 salary hike for the post. Willis named Earl Madary, 3093

$10,000 was accepted unanimously along with the appointment. According to Willis, Madary is a master electrician and holds a contractor's license in Michigan.

father, Lowell, brought a little of Alaska to Novi by "mushing" during an exhibition at the first annual dog show staged for Malmutes, Samoyeds and Siberian Huskies by the Michigan Siberian Huskie Club, at the Novi Community Building, Sunday. The contest judges awarded 36 first prizes to owners of the 106 dogs entered from throughout the state.

Wixom Extends Election, Too; Increases Police Chief Salary

Wixom will have municipal elections during November of odd years as a result of a decision by councilmen Tuesday night.

The decision not to exempt Wixom from the new law, which provides for odd year municipal elections every two years, substantially extends municipal terms of office.

Mayor Gilbert Willis, councilwoman Mary Parvu and councilmen Howard Coe and Gunnar Mettala will come up for re-election in November of 1973 instead of April of 1972. Councilmen Robert Dingeldey, Val Vangieson and Elwood Grubb, whose terms were slated to expire in April of 1974, will be up for election in November of 1975.

According to City Attorney Gene Schnelz, there's an extra bonus in the measure which provides that persons elected in November shall take office in January of the following year.

The extension runs 20 months beyond the term councilmen were originally elected for.

'This is a blessing," said Grubb, "for freshmen councilmen who will have nearly six months to get their feet on the ground before they tackle something like the city budget.'

Vangieson agreed, noting at the same time the cost factor involved:

"If we had elections every odd year, there wouldn't be so many of them and we'd end up saving the city money."

In other action Tuesday night council raised the salary allotted for a police chief from $12,000 to $14,000.

The move came at the request of Mayor Willis, who said that he was finding it nearly impossible to find a qualified man who "would leave a number of years seniority, for the salary and the term of office we could guarantee him.'

Willis said that with the extension of his term, due to council's adoption of house bill 4232, he could offer a qualified official more job security but the salary was still a problem.

"We're asking a lot of a man for a salary similar to that of a Detroit patrolman," said Councilman Gunnar Mettala. "He'd have to buy a house, leave his former department, and sell a house. It's a lot to ask."

Putting the job under contract and taking the appointive power out of the hands of the mayor was discussed.

"The trouble with a contract," said Willis, "is that if the man's work is unsatisfactory, and he is asked to leave, the contract is still binding. Besides, as chief administrator of this city I'm responsible for the man's actions and have to be able to hire and fire him." Willis said that with the greater tenure he could offer an official, due to his longer term in office, and the $2,000 salary hike, the post of Wixom police official would be more attractive, and that he would re-interview several candidates. He mentioned no expected appointments.

In still other business Tuesday night, the council rezoned from single family to light manufacturing approximately four acres at 29830

Park Board Elects Officers

The newly formed Novi Department of Parks and Recreation held its first meeting last week Tuesday and elected officers.

Peter Alcala was tapped to serve a two-year term as president, while Richard Bingham will serve with him as treasurer. Three year terms went to Edward Butler as secretary and to Thomas Lawson as trustee.

Donald Gorman, Thomas Marcus and Councilman Denis Berry will serve staggered terms of a year each.

Winter programs on tap, according to Butler, include ice skating on a department rink constructed behind Novi Elementary.

"The rink will be ready Saturday morning and we hope to get every kid in Novi out on it," said Butler.

Trail and Beck Roads. It was one of four cases taken at the board's meeting. Officials in denying the petition accepted the opinion from City Attorney Gene Schnelz to the effect that they didn't have the authority to grant the variance. Another request that met with board disapproval was that of Duane Hyatt of Walled Lake who petitioned for a variance which would allow him to build on a 7,350 square-foot lot.

Wixom ordinances require a minimum buildable size of 12,500 square-foot for the type of lot involved.

Two variances of five feet each were granted to Ward Ross of Pontiac in a request he had submitted to split three 50-foot lots into two 75-foot building sites. Ordinances state a lot must be at least 80 feet wide.

A public hearing was set in the matter of Michael McCormick of Birch Park who reportedly has a garage within two feet of his lot line - a six-foot violation of the ordinance.

McCormick reportedly wants to build a house on the 100-foot lot presently occupied by the garage.

Approximately 450 letters are being sent out to prospective bidders on the 865-acre Maybury Sanatorium property asking that Northville be permitted to join them in making a joint bid on the property.

Detroit this past week granted Northville permission to send the letters and it supplied Northville with a list of prospective bidders who had been notified of the property sale.

The letter to these bidders states in "Tentatively, it is our plan to develop a park, recreation, golf and open space area on the parcel we have described. Shoemaker Calls It Quits After Nearly Half-Century

After nearly a half-centry of doing business here, 71-year-old Joseph Revitizer called it quits and on Monday he sold his shoe repair business to Andrew Peccoli of Inkster.

"It's been fun," laughed Revitzer trying to hide some sadness.

The jovial shoemaker, who opened his first shop here in 1923, will now "enjoy some retirement and maybe get in my wife's way."

"I hope I've made a few friends over the years," he said. "I know a lot of-people have been friendly to me and I appreciate the kindnesses shown me over the years."

Then he added: "I'll miss them."

Mr. and Mrs Revitzer live at 19291 Bethany in Livonia

The new owner of the shoe repair business located at 104 East Main comes from a family of four that has been in this trade for some 40 years. Father of five boys, Peccol hopes to sell his home in Inkster and move to Northville soon.

A Hungarian immigrant who "crossed the ocean" wearing his first pair of shoes at age 12, Revitzer opened his first shop in a small part of the frame building that stood where Ramsey's Bar is now located on Center Street He shared the building with a tire repairman

Three years later he moved his shop to the north side of the then graveled Main Street into the basement of what then was called the Elliott Building and what today houses The Little People Shoppe. He shared floor space with Lee Shipley, a barber. Former Northville Mayor Elmer Smith operated a real estate business upstairs where Bill Elliott had a grocery store

In 1930, after Smith (and later Orlo Owen) vacated upstairs quarters, Revitzer moved up. Six years later he moved directly across Main Street and into the building where the shop is now Piccoli has had some 10 years of apprenticeship in the shoe repair trade.

What happens when a person has so many projects going at the same time that the materials start oozing out of all available cabinet space? Why, get hubby to fabricate a workroom, naturally. So, thanks hubby for my little room now dubbed "The Mole Hole" complete with red phone, 13 foot cord and a huge "project" table-my office for all these columns from now on. I'm overjoyed!

Speaking of happiness-it has to be winning in competition. Dennis and Sherry Vangieson, whose parents are the Jack Vangiesons of Pontiac Trail, won a position in the Midwest regionals in figure skating which enables them to compete in the national finals in Buffalo, New York later this month. A first, second or third place win there means a berth on the U.S. Team and skating in the World figure skating championships to be held in Yugoslavia.

Any competitive sport means hours upon endless hours of practice and sacrifice and these two young people have done just that-with an equal amount of time and worry spent by their parents. All was done without much, if any, notoriety. You had better believe that there will be a lot of people in there "plugging" for you on this trip-fingers crossed and all good wishes go with you to Buffalo. GOOD

Youth leader George Mackey and his wife, along with Bob Sutherland who tackled the most difficult but necessary job of kitchen staff director and several other couples from the church, Reverend Jim Efaw of Charleston, West Virginia. Winter sports and a last minute mop-up job by a couple of boys made the weekend complete. From the sounds of it, the kids had a great time.

Bob and I had the pleasure of attending the swearing-in ceremonics of a State Representative and State Senator last Thursday night. It was the first time ceremonies of this nature were held in the "home town" - in this instance, Plymouth. And another "first" of the elected officials was that the two men sworn in represented opposing parties. Judge Thomas Foley administered the oath of office to State Representative James Tierney, a Democrate, and Judge George Bowles administered the oath to Senator Carl Pursell, a Republican It was an evening that we will long remember.

Vi and Gunnar Mettala will long remember last Friday night, too. On the pretext of "just dining out" with George and Martha Tuorin, they drove to the Canopy in Brighton and were met with a "set-up!" New Area Lake to Cover 800 Acres

Construction Expected To Begin January, 1972

A year from now physical work is expected to begin on a Department of Natural Resources project in the Island Lake Recreation area which will create an 800-acre lake next to Kent Lake in Green Oak Township.

Paul Rearick of the Parks Division of the DNR said plans call for the new, 800-acre lake to begin just below the existing dam to Kent Lake and to follow generally the area along the Huron River.

Rearick said that when the project is completed - anywhere from five to 10 years from now, depending on the availability of money - the new lake and Kent Lake will be end to end, with the new lake being at a lower level.

The new lake will be created by impoundment, meaning a dam will be constructed downstream to flood 800 acres. Kent Lake, which covers about 1,200 acres, was created several years ago by the same impoundment method.

About 1,100 acres of Kent Lake lies in Kensington Park, which is located north of expressway I-96 between Brighton and Wixom. The remaining 81 acres of Kent Lake lies in the Island Lake Recreation Area south of I-96. It is at this point, the southwesterly end of Kent Lake, where the Kent Lake dam is located and where, approximately, the new lake will begin. The only hurdle to be cleared now, said Rearick, is acquisition of railroad property from the Cheasapeake and Ohio Railroad Company. And these negotiations, he added, are almost settled.

Most of the land which will be flooded has been state owned for several years, since it was part of the Island Lake Recreation Rearick reported that the proposed lake will cover some land now part of American Aggregate's plant facility located at the corner of Silver Lake and Kensington roads. American Aggregate is expected to move its plant facility to its new excavation site south of Silver Lake road.

Kensington road, in fact, will be re-routed, said Rearick, to make way for the new lake.

Plans call for development of other recreational aspects as well, including a large beach area, camping and picnic grounds and trails.

Pointing out that the planning stage has been completed, Rearick said the DNR is now in the engineering phase, such as, conducting engineering studies on the proposed dam. The next stage is the salvage program, that is, clearing all trees out of the proposed lake bed and development of roads and access.

Concept of the 800-acre impoundment, he said, is six or seven years old.

2,000 figure.

According to TIA managing director, Bruce B. Madsen, "It's particularly gratifying to note that the reduction in Oakland County has been realized despite a rise in licensed drivers, registered vehicles and miles traveled - an estimated 15 to 20 percent increase since 1967 when only two fewer deaths were reported."

The direct costs of traffic accidents in Oakland County, according to a formula provided by the National Safety Council, approaches $37 million. TIA maintains that this is an extremely conservative estimate which could be doubled and still be less than the actual costs.

Plans to Flood 7,000 Acres Remain Alive

Four years ago the Cunningham Lake Flooding Project, as it was called, was the cause of considerable furor in the Brighton area.

The furor has died down, but nonetheless plans to flood 7,000 acres between Cunningham Lake in Genoa Township and Bishop Lake in Hamburg Township haven't been killed.

So says Paul Rearick of the Parks Division of the Department of Natural Resources. In fact, he said, during the four years the DNR has continued to acquire land originally included in the futuristic project just east of the City of

In light of the new, 800-acre lake planned in the Island Lake Recreation Area, however, he said the Cunningham Lake concept "might very well be changed."

"We'll have to re-study the project (Cunningham Lake)," Rearick stated, 'Perhaps we'll consider a smaller lake.'

"I doubt," he added, "whether we'll create another major impoundment that close (to the new, 800-acre lake).

Led by Mrs. Evelyn Cunningham, Cunningham Lake area residents vigorously opposed the flooding project during public meetings held in 1966 by the DNR, then called the Department of Conservation.

Methodist Set Film On Michigan Indians:

The second in a series of provocative films titled "Stranger In His Own Land" will be presented today (Thursday) at the First Methodist Church of Northville.

A production originally created for Detroit television, the film attempts to portray the life situation of the Michigan Indian, not in generalities but in the specifics of circumstances rather close to home.

The 8 p.m. showing will be followed by an informal discussion. It represents "an opportunity especially created by the Council of Ministries of First Methodist Church as a shared project for youth and adults," fa spokesman said. Next week's feature will be the new Rolf Forsberg production on the theme of human sexuality, appropriately titled, "Remember Eden". Forsberg, noted Swedish free lance producer, is best remembered for "Parable", produced some years ago for the last New York World's Fair.

Police Nab Youth In 100 MPH Chase

An 18-year-old Detroit youth was apprehended in Novi last Wednesday, January 6, after a high-speed auto chase involving 12 police cars from seven departments. Donald R. Burkhart, driver of the car, was larrested at 1 a.m. by Novi police on 6North Center Street between Northville city limits and Nine Mile Road, in a car ostolen from Detroit between 7 and 11 5p.m. Tuesday.

Burkhart was charged by Novi police with unlawfully driving away an auto and felonious assault with an auto. He appeared before 52nd District Court Judge Martin Boyle on Tuesday and was bound over to Oakland County Circuit Court to appear on February 28.

Burkhart pled guilty to charges brought by Northville police of reckless driving, fleeing traffic arrest and driving on a revoked license Thursday before 35th District Court Judge Dunbar Davis. Sentencing on the cases was adjourned until all other cases against him have been heard.

According to Novi and Northville police reports, Novi police attempted to stop the youth's car at Nine Mile on northbound Novi Road for defective headlight and tail light.

When overhead flashers and spotlight were activated by Novi police officers, the car accelerated northbound on Novi Road at speeds clocked at more than 100 miles per

At Ten Mile Road, Burkhart attempted to make a right turn, spun around and wound up facing the patrol car. When a Novi police officer approached the vehicle, Burkhart drove the car directly at the officer, forcing him to jump out of the way. The officer fired a warning shot and the vehicle sped north on Novi Road with police in pursuit, police reports stated.

Weight Watchers are coming to Northville with the first session slated for 7:30 p.m. tonight at Northville First Presbyterian Church. Both men and women are invited; anyone interested may register at 7 p.m. before the meeting.

Representative Roy Smith's (R-52nd District) "Fair Share" petition drive. Smith addressed the group at the Frank Geiger home on Five Mile Road prior to the drafting and adopting of the support resolution by the group.

Salem Farmers Club, in a prepared statement, said that Smith's program, if adopted, could reduce property taxes to Salem residents by approximately 75 percent. The group also went on record to canvass all township property owners and to recommend that all farmers and home owners join them in supporting Smith's program.

The group's statement concludes: "the program offers a fair share of educational opportunity to Michigan school children proportionate only to their ability to learn."

Guards Arrested for Extortion

In Township . . .

Two Maybury Sanatorium guards are free on $1,000 personal bond after they were arraigned last Wednesday on charges of extortion.

The men are John Gambee, 44, of Livonia and his son, David Gambee, 21, of Farmington. Both were arraigned in 35th District Court in Plymouth before Judge Dunbar Davis. They stood mute and pleas of "not guilty" were entered on their behalf.

Examination has been set for 9 a.m. Thursday, January 21, in Northville before Judge Davis.

John and David Gambee were arrested January 6 on warrants issued by the Wayne County Sheriff's Department following an investigation of an incident October 18, 1970. On that evening, the guards are accused of extorting $5 from each of two Dearborn youths found on the Maybury property.

Allegedly the guards did not press trespassing charges against the two after the youths each paid the guards

John and David Gambee are employed as armed guards by Banks and Fritz Security of Detroit, a private guard firm hired by the city of Detroit to patrol the Maybury property.

 Wayne County Sheriff's Department investigated a break-in at Plymouth Wesleyan Methodist Church at Bradner and Five Mile roads in Northville Township. According to reports, unknown persons entered the church offices between January 6 and 7 and took a projector, stereo tape recorder, portable radio and adding machine. Estimated value of the items exceeds $1,000. An undetermined amount of damage to the offices was caused during the break-in, church officials

A spokesman for the church theorized the building was entered through an unlocked door after an unsuccessful attempt was made to jimmy a window.

The theft was discovered early. Thursday morning by Jack Norton, director of Christian Education for the

In Northville . . .

Two 16-year-old youths were apprehended in Ohio early Tuesday morning after they allegedly broke in to a home in Northville Monday night and threatened the owner with a knife.

According to Northville city police reports, Mrs Mary Asher, 502 Grace Street, returned home around 11 p.m. Monday and found the two youths in her home.

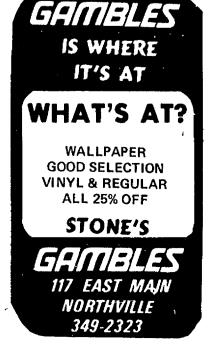

One of the youths allegedly threatened to kill her if she called police. The youths left the house shortly before midnight, taking with them a small amount of cash they stole from the house.

They reportedly stole a car from Novi and fled to Ohio where they were apprehended. The pair was turned over to Novi police where one of the youths is wanted for jumping $2,500 bond.

Northville police are seeking warrants against the two, according to police reports.

A Northville man was taken to St. Mary hospital with a laceration on his forehead after the car he was driving ran into the rear of a stopped car on Main Street, west of Hutton.

According to police reports, Charles P. Kling, 656 Thayer, ran into the rear of a car driven by Mrs. Frances Boor, 20297 Woodhill, shortly after 4 p.m. Friday. She was not injured. Kling was charged with reckless

A two-car accident at Center and Randolph streets resulted in minor injuries to one driver. The accident occurred at 3:30 p.m. Friday.

Police reports stated Eugene F. Tyler, 755 Randolph Street, received minor injuries when the car he was driving was hit by an auto driven by Richard A. Gotts.

According to reports, Tyler was attempting to make a left turn on to Randolph from the northbound lane of Center when Gotts, who was also northbound on Center, hit the vehicle. Gotts was ticketed for careless driving, police said.

A window was reported broken at Freydl's Cleaners, 112 East Main Street. According to police, the damage occurred between 3 p.m. Sunday and 8 a.m. Monday Nothing was reported missing, police said.

A Southfield man has been charged with felonious assault in connection with an incident the evening of January 4 at Winners Circle Bar, 113 West Main Street, in which a Plymouth man was cut with a knife.

Robert Allen, Sr., 56, of Southfield was arrested by Northville City police and charged with felonious

According to police reports. Arnold G. Gornall, 29, of Plymouth, stated he was playing pool about 11 p.m. when he was hit by someone. He told police he turned around and hit Allen whom he said he assumed had hit him. A fight broke out and Allen allegedly pulled a knife, witnesses told police Gornall received an eight inch cut from the front to the back of his neck He was turned over to Plymouth police who held a warrant for his arrest and then taken by that department to a hospital for treatment of his injuries.

Allen was arraigned Tuesday before 35th District Court Judge Dunbar Davis.

Allen pled not guilty to the charge of felonious assault and examination has been set for January 21. ******

Officers investigated a complaint of malicious destruction of property on January 7.

According to police reports, Phyllis B. Marz, 19511 Marilyn, told police a tire on her car had been slashed. The damage was discovered shortly after 6 p.m. in the parking lot next to Northville Drugs. Miss Marz said she was not certain if the damage had occurred while the car was parked in the lot or earlier in the day.

COURT NEWS

A Westland man, George A. Brown, was fined $129 on a reduced charge of driving while ability impaired. The action came January 5 before 35th District Court Judge Dunbar Davis. *****

Frank Dennis, Detroit, was fined $54 and sentenced to spend three days in the Detroit House of Correction for driving with a suspended license. Dennis was given three days' credit on the sentence for time already served.

Failing to yield the right of way resulted in a $39 fine for Barbara R. Worman, 450 Griswold Street.

Two women were fined $39 each on charges of following too closely. They are Beth E. Hutchinson, Farmington, and Patricia I. Ort, Plymouth.

Driving on an expired license resulted in a $14 fine for Charles E. Klocke, 45601 West Nme Mile Road.

On January 7, a Livonia youth, Stewart R. Stetson, was found not guilty of charges of assault and battery and the case against him was dismissed.

In Novi . . .

Four juveniles were returned to authorities of the Wayne County Child Development Center last week Wednesday by Novi officers Aged 12-15, the four were run-aways, according to police. *****

A color television set, worth approximately $250, was taken from the property at 617 South Lake Drive

Austin Napier, 613 South Lake, who watches over the property for the owner, Bonnie Rosenberg, of Lathrup Village, told police that he knew the house to be intact and the television on the premises on December 24, but noticed last week Monday a window broken on the east wall of the building, and upon investigation found the television gone.

Further investigation by police revealed other items disturbed but nothing of value taken.

A former probationary Detroit policeman, Thomas J. Logan, was found guilty of felonious assault by jury trial before Circuit Court Judge William Beasley Friday, police report.

Charges grew out of an incident last June in which Logan, 22, allegedly entered the home of Keith Coykendall, 25690 Glamorgan, threatened two daughters and then fled.

With the help of a specially trained police dog, Logan was tracked to the nearby garage of Andrew Burgess where he was restrained, suffering gun shot wounds inflected by Novi police.

Felonious assault charges resulted from an attack made by Logan against Corporal Dale Gross, as police were escorting him from the garage.

Logan is due to be sentenced February 16.

SPEAKING

for The Record

By*BILL SLIGER

Busiest man in town last weekend was Jerry Stone. By Sunday night, he was also the happiest.

The 26-year-old Gamble Store owner had just experienced his first brush with success as a promoter of a sports' event.

The first International Motor-State Snowmobile Classic finished "in the black". It took a standing-room-only crowd Sunday afternoon at Northville Downs, but when Jerry saw the throng filling every available space in the grandstands, clubhouse and along the rails, the butterflies disappeared and he relaxed and enjoyed the event for the first time.

There's probably never been a bigger crowd at Northville ... Downs. Best estimates set the total attendance at 11,000, which far .. surpasses the top mark set by harness racing fans.

Jerry's thinking about next year already. He'd like to stage two events each confined to two days rather than three. And, naturally, he's learned from his first experience and is compiling a list of "do's and don't's" for his next venture.

The Northville Downs' race taught many first-observers that snowmobiling is a "fun sport". The fans and drivers, alike, are enthusiastic and intensely interested in snowmobiling. These characteristics are sometimes lost in performances by highly-skilled, thoroughly professional athletes where perfection is expected and mistakes are booed.

Some spills took place, some machines chugged along far behind the pack. But the drivers stayed in the race and the fans cheered.

It was a family-fun affair Sunday at Northville Downs and everyone had a good time.

Perhaps surprisingly, there were few complaints from citizens in the community. The noise of the machines was not that Instead, congratulations have come from most observers, many of whom thought Promoter Stone ought to have his head examined and was certain to take an uncomfortable financial bath.

Business was brisk, restaurants were jammed and little ol' Northville hummed with noise and activity.

Chamber of Commerce President Art Jahn issued a commendation to Stone for his efforts. And as president of the Optimist club, Jahn also took advantage of the event to provide fun for the 25 youngsters who were given free passes to the races, compliments of the Optimists.

Downs Executive Manager John Carlo and Leon Slavin, promoter of Jackson harness meets at the Downs, were amazed at the crowd and wondered aloud if they couldn't install pari-mutuel betting for snowmobiling!

Jerry had his problems – like trucking in snow for the track after his snow-making machine broke, and seeing his own entry in the race, a brand new machine, blow an engine in a trial run - but the reward of that one big day made it all worthwhile.

"Boy, I wish my Dad could see this crowd," Jerry remarked as he stood in the infield drinking in the sight of a packed house Sunday afternoon. "He's wondered why I've spent so much time promoting a 'little snowmobile race'."

Anyone who knows Jerry's Dad, Roy - who's now "retired" down in Florida - would probably agree with my reply to Jerry.

"Yeah, if Roy were here he'd have the hotdog concession and make more money than anybody!"

By the way, Jerry. What about that hotdog concession for next year?

There's a new book recently published that should interest antique and history buffs.

It's titled "Michigan Ghost Towns". The guide, written by Roy L. Dodge of Harrison, identifies and describes more than 300 such towns, most of which sprang up, flourished and died during the state's lumber era between 1860 and the early 1900's.

Dodge says many of the ghost towns are "little more than a faint depression in the ground, now covered with white birch and alder trees, yet these sites probably are the repository of many valuable relics of that robust period of boom and bust".

He suggests that the guide will serve as a valuable asset to those who are interested in recovering artifacts and lost valuables in Michigan. The book is available for $5 through the Amateur Treasure Hunters Association, 300 State Street, Oscoda, Michigan.

Speaking for Myself

Should Snowmobile Drivers Be Licensed?

Yes, I feel some type of licensing is needed. Much like boating, it all started small, then mushroomed into one of the states biggest sports. Snowmobiles have become so popular, so fast, we find ourselves with very little, if any, legislation to regulate them. Accident figures show it has, also, become one of the most dangerous sports we now enjoy.

Many people buy a snowmobile, and, the very same day, knowing nothing about the machine, take to the trails. We have laws regulating the licensing of boats, cars, planes, and, special licenses for motorcycles. However, anyone, no matter the age, can get on a snowmobile, and take to the trails, at speeds up to 70 miles an hour, knowing only where the starter and throttle are.

A possible solution to this is much like our boating courses, classes set up to instruct on the proper and safe handling of the machine; also, instruction on the laws that now govern them.

This may not be the full answer, however, it would be a start in the right direction. With the accidents on the increase, at a rapid pace, we must have some type of legislation and soon. Might I suggest, before you go snowmobiling, pick up a copy of the, now existing, rules and regulations at your local police station.

Police Handcuffed By Politics, Courts

When an organization having a history of financing Black Powerites, Communists and revolutionary students now sets up an agency to "develop more modern police forces" the police had better watch out. I am referring to the new Police Foundation recently set up with a multi-million dollar grant from the Ford Foundation.

These groups start off with the false premise that the policeman's difficulties today are the result of his own inadequacies. We of the Wixom Area Support Your Local Police Committee say that such a premise is rubbish. If the courts and the politicians would take the handcuffs off the police, then the police could easily do their job of protecting life and property.

The Ford Foundation's new agency, boldly admits that they will be 'in the change business.' They even expect to employ 'sensitivity' testing which is simply brainwashing. We predict that the effect of this Foundation will be to confuse, demoralize and destroy any police force they get their hands on.

A long list of grants to militants and subversives from the foundation include $630,000 to the Castroite Mexican-American Youth Organization, $475,000 to the Black Power advocates in C.O.R.E., $315,000 to the revolution producing National

Students Association, $648,000 to the Communist staffed Southern Regional Council, $630,000 to the Southwest Council for La Raza, headed by identified Communist Maclovio Barraza, and others. We hope that both citizen and police alike will be extremely wary of this new project of Ford — the Police Foundation." The Support Your Local Police Committee is a part of a national network of similar groups formed to provide support and encouragement for local police. The Committee also has a goal the education of local citizens about the threats facing the police and the entire community. Independent and effective local law enforcement is under attack from the courts, the politicians, the press, a rapidly multiplying number of criminals, tax-exempt Foundations and even from the federal government, which has enbarked on programs to subsidize. regionalize and ultimately to control local police forces. Every person who values the safety of his home, his family and his property should realize that good local police are essential to a well ordered community. They need our support and they need it now.

Licensing of snowmobile operators would be just one more example of too much governmental intervention.

Snowmobiling is a sport performed on a vehicle that is extremely easy to operate. A snowmobile can be handled by a child and there are times when it must be.

Take the following hypothetical but highly plausible situations: A mother must be taken to a hospital to deliver a baby, but a blizzard has closed all highways leading to the hospital to automobiles, etc. A snowmobile can save the dayin fact, it has happened. One member of the Detroit Red Wings was born on a snow vehicle in an Ontario blizzard.

Heavy snowfalls can isolate homes from food sources. What happens then? Perhaps the breadwinner is also isolatedat work and away from the family. How can the family stay alive and healthy? By having a young son take the snowmobile to the nearest grocery for supplies, is my answer.

In addition to enabling a family to overcome emergency situations, snowmobiles provide a clean, healthful sport and give youngsters a chance to learn proper handling of motor-driven vehicles. This is something they cannot get (legally) until they are 16 on other types of vehicles.

Let's give the most rapidly growing sport in Michigan a chance!

> HERBERT BONDY South Lyon

"I pretty much had to win," smiled Bob the Butcher Sunday night after carving himself $1,000 first prize money in the Northville snowmobile races earlier in the day

The 31-year-old Hart, Michigan butcher admitted he had climbed out on a financial limb awhile back by putting a down-payment on a new Rupp snowmobile. And to help bale himself out he entered the Class "C" race as an independent in hopes of winning some money.

Friday night Bob the Butcher, whose real name is Robert Blackmer. tooled his Rupp machine around the Northville Downs oval for a first place in an elimination heat. Then Sunday afternoon "something went wrong" and Bob ended up in third place in another elimination round.

Although that third place was pretty discouraging it was still good enough for a crack at the prize money in the championship round. Now it was either win or . . . well, racing snowmobiles aren't inexpensive, and paying for them on a butcher's salary isn't easy.

Bob entered that last race competing against drivers of 11 other Rupp machines In the mad dash around the track, the butcher from Hart took an early inside position and crossed the finish line in front of Robert Westgate of Lakeview and Henry Manuel of Drayton Plains.

Minutes later he was on the phone telling his expectant wife and their two children, "We won!" which is another way of saying "the new snowmobile is ours."

Remember Colonel Erwin T. Koch? He was the subject of this column a few weeks ago when he requested and received by mail the honorary citizenship of Northville. Owner of 100 or more distinguished titles, his impressive biography prompted a little investigation. But, unfortunately, despite his honors little is known of the man in his home town. And because Colonel Koch did not answer his telephone we began to wonder if he really existed.

As if to clear away any doubt, Colonel Koch has written a note of appreciation to Northville's Mayor A. M. Allen, enclosing a picture of himself with it. The note read in part, "Thanks for friendly message. I love you for it. Will remember you always for your kindness."

One of Northville's oldtimers called the other day to point out that Northville, New York is not located on Long Island as was stated in this column. "I know it's not on Long Island because I've been there," he said in directing my attention to the McNally Road Atlas.

Sure enough, north of Amsterdam near Sacandaga Reservoir off Route 30 is the Northville, New York that he visited. All of which means New York has two Northvilles because there is another located on Long Island, about mid-way between Riverhead and Mattituck.

Smart pointed out, however, that cuts in school aid - no matter what form they take - will be made on the unpaid aid to school districts. With half of the 1970-71 fiscal year past, state school districts have already received approximately 50-percent of their year's total aid.

Based on the studies now going on in Lansing, Northville and Novi could lose anywhere from $5,000 to $100,000.

A big thank you to Ruth Crawford, Elaine Tomalty, Pat Roux, Al Hawraney, Marty Rinehart, Jeff Schoof, and my husband Wes Henrikson. These Northville Newcomers members volunteered several hours of their time on a busy Saturday for the construction and setting up of Santa's Workshop.

Also thanks go to Gerry Stone for the use of the space in his store, the Northville Jaycees for contracting the job of Santa Claus (a lot of scheduling had to be done), and the Northville Chamber of Commerce for footing the bills. Approximately 1,300 children visited Santa here in town - this makes the effort worthwhile.

Trustees also appointed Trustees Eugene Cook, Johnston and Timothy Johnson, members of the physical facilities committee, to the site acquisition committee. Among the school sites they will be investigating is where the next high school in the community will be built.

The physical facilities committee will also explore the purchase of 10 acres behind Moraine Elementary for "open space," with the city possibly acquiring five acres and the school district another five acres.

Trustees also discussed establishing educational specifications committees for future elementary, middle and high schools, with Trustee Andrew Orphan commenting "the work has already been done for our current building program and, when the committees get done, they will come up with the same answers we now have.'

Dundee Tied for Second

Shooting Off, Novi Nosedives, 70-49

Almost from the opening buzzer it wasn't a question of who would come out on top at Dundee but rather how badly Novi would be beaten.

Leading at times by a margin of nearly 35 points, the Vikings coasted past the visiting Wildcats Friday night, 70-49, to grab a share second place with three others squads in the Southeastern Conference basketball

With Friday's trumph under its belt, Dundee is tied for second now with Saline, Chelsea, and Milan--all of which have identical 3-2 records. Well out in front of the pack with a 5-0 mark is high-riding Dexter.

Novi, meanwhile, plagued by an enept shooting performance Friday slipped deeper into the conference cellar, still looking for its first victory as it prepared to host Ypsilanti Lincoln

This past Tuesday the Wildcats were slated to tangle with Country Day in a non-league game.

The Wildcats simply could not find the mark in firing at the nets Friday. And except for an occasional Viking turnover engineered by some aggressive action, Novi's defensive game floundered as well. It was Dundee's game on the boards and in the basket.

By the close of the first quarter, Novi was trailing by 15 points, 20-5, and going into the intermission Dundee had widened its lead to 21 points. At the three-quarter mark it was Dundee on top by 32---58-26.

The dismal first-half performance produced only six Novi field goals.

Novi's ace Tom Boyer, who paced the Wildcats with 17 points, picked up only one field goal in the first half. And Bob Vivian, who was second high scorer for Novi (11), failed to make a single field goal in the first two stanzas.

Four Dundee players hit double figures, with Mark Schultz leading the way with 16, followed by Gordon Wenzel (14) who converted eight free

"It's hard to realize that we are only two months away from the 1971 registration, and only a few months from the start of the season. New boundaries must be set up, the league must be reorganized, there are new diamonds to be finished" he said. We have a lot to do but at our recent meetings it has been impossible for those few in attendance to make any organizational decisions.'

Buck announced a meeting scheduled for January 25, at 8 p.m. in the Novi Community Building to which he hoped to draw citizens who would work as league officials, or directors; team managers, coaches, umpires or scorekeepers.

"We have to decide if we can operate, and if so, how many teams we can operate with," he concluded.

Additional information may be obtained from Diane Alexander, league secretary at 476-5121.

TRIPLE-HEADER - It didn't happen often Friday but in this case Novi has control of the boards as three Wildcats reach high for a rebound. The two Novi players in the foreground are Pat Boyer (23) and Dave Fear (53).

Novi Wrestlers Go Down Twice

The Novi Wildcats went to their fifth and sixth wrestling defeats last week as they traveled to West Bloomfield Tuesday and Saline Thursday.

The Lakers pinned Novi four times while moving to five decisions to take the meet 35-13, while Saline destroyed the local squad 41-3 with four pins

Northville Wins Two Meets

Swim Records Broken

The Mustangs boosted their season record to 3-0 last week, as local swimmers outmatched Clarenceville Tuesday, 56-49, and Dearborn Riverside on Thursday, 70-35.

Tom Thompson emerged from the week's action with two team records and a pool record for Northville. His 58.6 100-yard butterfly performance against Clarenceville and his 1:00.6 backstroke against Riverside were both good for team records, while the backstroke time netted him a pool record as well.

Other firsts in the Clarenceville meet were turned in by the 200-yard medley relay team of Kevin Kelly. Gary Putrow, Ralph Luckett and Bill Witek, who were clocked at 1:54.6 and by the 400-yard freestyle team of Kelly, Dave Wright, Mike Ivey and Bill MaGuire, who were timed at 3.49.5.

The freestylists took a 3:52.5 first from Riverside while the medley team earned a pool record at 1.55.2 in that Riverside with a diving score of 163.90. Dearborn's Eric Thorsrud set ek-to-back pool records in the 200-yard individual medley at 2:19.8, and in the 100-yard freestyle at 52.9.

Jayvee Cagers On Losing End

"Loss" was the word of the day Friday, at least for area junior varsity basketball fans, as Novi was handed a narrow 60-58 defeat by Dundee and Northville was slapped by Clarkston,

It was an up and down game for the Wildcats as Hornet ace scorer Rich Goethe tied the score at 58-58 in the final 29 seconds and then went on to net the winning two-pointer with four seconds remaining. Steve Lukkari's squad leading score of 23 didn't give enough comph to the Wildcats to push them into a leading position at the end of any one quarter. They trailed after the first stanza 17-13, at the half 32-28, and at the end of the third quarter 45-42. At one time in the second quarter, however, the Wildcats were up by six points, 27-21, and in the final stanza, before Goethe's drive, they led 58-54.

In Northville, the Mustangs traveled to Clarkston to trail at the end of each quarter.

Coach Bob Simpson's squad found itself down by two after the first quarter, 14-12: by 10 at the half, 29-19; and by seven at the three-quarter mark, 40-33.

Bart Taylor and Rod Crane tied for point honors, each scoring 15 of Northville's final tally.

The loss marks the worst defeat the junior Mustangs have suffered in their 4-3 record thus far. Previously, they lost by a six point loss to Fenton and by one point to Milford.

The Mustangs kept the pole position through three quarters but faded out in the final six minutes to wind up on the bottom.

Bach, a 6'2" senior, playing his first game of the season, led Mustang scoring with 11 points. He was benched in September by a knee injury sustained during pre-season football practice.

Clarkston's victory gave it fifth place in the Wayne-Oakland League with a 2-2 record over Northville's sixth place 1-3 league showing.

The loss marked coach Omar Harrison's fourth in seven tries with non-league victories from Fenton and Novi adding to the tally.

In that deadly six minutes, Clarkston exploded from a 34-34 tie, running uncontrolled until, at the 2:30 mark, the Mustangs were down by 10 points.

Northville turned on in the final three minutes. Bach hit six points and Stuart connected with two foul shots. But the effort wasn't good enough, as Clarkston finished the game a comfortable eight up.

Bach came in at forward with three minutes remaining in the third period and pumped in a basket and three foul shots. Brad Cole followed up with 10 points, all scored in the first half, and Steve Utley came next with

Scout Building Repair Costs Reviewed by Township Board

A bill from the city of Northville to the township for $1,100 to construct a second floor exit in the Scout-Recreation budget came up for discussion Tuesday night at the Township hoard meeting.

The second exit is needed if the building is to be used by the Cooperative Nursery School.

In a letter to the board from City Manager Frank Ollendorff, Ollendorff and until the township "compiles and chips in to help pay the building costs, all cent will be turned over to the city. If the township agrees to split the cost of upkeep, the rent credit would continue to be split between the two bodies Since 1966 approximately $1,000 has been credited to the town slip, Ollendorff's letter stated.

lownship officials said since the building was owned by the city, all rent should be collected by them.

are scheduled for showing in about a month, Stone stated.

Only two factory teams were entered, Ski-Doo and Chaparral, But Stone stated that he was "flooded with inquiries for next year" after representatives discovered the facilities and potential for snowmobile racing at Northville Downs.

The International Motor-State Snowmobile Classic was originally scheduled to be held at Livonia's Detroit Race Course. But difficulties in arranging for insurance coverage caused as cancellation.

5 one decided to try to bring the meet to Northville but it was not until and Swember that all arrangements sould be concluded. By that time anasuncement of the race's cancellation had been made further complicating efforts to promote and some entries for the event

"It should be a breeze next year," Store predicted, relieved that his first effort had not been a financial failure.

"From a spectators' standpoint it was a whopping success. Everyone really seemed to enjoy themselves," Stone added.

$1.100 bill and recommended the city review the expenses of the Scout-Recreation building and include them in the budget for next year.

'The township wants to pay its own way," Trustee Bernard Baldwin said, "but since the city owns the building, they should collect the rent."

Trustees did not agree to accept the city's billing for construction of the second floor exit but said it should be reviewed and possibly included in the recreation budget for next year

In related action, Recreation Director Robert Prom requested the township supplement and recreation budget for the amount lost on rent. A similar request has been made of the city, Prom said.

He noted $900 has been lost in rent (the cooperative nursery school pays $100 per month to conduct classes five days each week in the building) and the money was encumbered in the recreation budget He asked the township pay $274.48 to make up the difference.

Township trustees voted 5-0 (Supervisor Gunnar Stromberg and Trustee Charles Schaeffer absent) to have Clerk Eleanor Hammond contact Prom to check the figures and also meet with Prom and the city to determine when the city started collecting rent which was formerly turned over to the recreation department.

According to city officials, they began collecting rent in December, consequently township trustees figure the recreation department lost $400,

Ski-Doo Drivers Pace Field In Snowmobile Race Finals

Ski-Doo, Rupp and Arctic Cat snowmobiles dominated the first three places in 14 race finals Sunday in the wrapup of the Northville international snowmobile classic at Northville Downs

With the Bombardier Ski-Doo factory racing team setting the pace, Ski-Doo machines picked up five first, two seconds, and five thirds.

And as anticipated, Ski-Doo's factory racer, Bart Markel of Flint took first place in the double-D modified event for the 441-650 cc machines, while last year's world champion Ski-Doo racer Yvon Duhamel of LaSalle, Quebec took an easy first in the big double-E modified race (for 651-800 cc machines)

Rupp machines took four first, three seconds and three thirds, while Arctic Cats took three firsts, five seconds and two thirds.

Polaris was the only other snowmobile make to win a first place. It was turned in by Kathy Welch in the Powder Puff division featuring women driving machines of 301-340 cc

Following are the results of Sunday's finals

Powder Puff-A (up to 300 cc)- First, Jan Hempton of Goodrich, Rupp; second, Lois Bouck of Goodrich, Rupp; third, Pat Worden of Traverse City, Rupp; fourth, Janice Alspaugh of Traverse City, Arctic Cat, and fifth, Connie Baran of Madison Heights, Ski-Doo.

What God Wants Us to Know

JIM WHEELER, PASTOR

TRI-COUNTY BAPTIST CHURCH

Read 1st John 5:1-13 Test: 1st John 5:13

Introduction: There are some things that God Wants His Children to Know.

We are living in a world of chaos and uncertainty and all is temporal and unstable. Nine times in the First Epistle of John, God has used this word KNOW.

I. God wants you and I to Know that Jesus is our own personal, living, loving Saviour and friend. In the Gospel of John Chapter 6, Verse 37, Jesus says, "All that the Father giveth me shall come to me; and him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out." The works of Jesus makes me safe and His words make me sure. God wants you to Know that you can have Jesus just by asking; Won't you do that today?

II. God wants us to know that through Christ is the forgiveness of sins. Please read: Isaiah Chapter 53: Verses 5 and 6. In 1st Peter, Chapter 2:24 the Bible says, "Who his own self bare our sins in his own body on the tree, that we being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness: by whose stripes ye were healed."

III. God wants us to know of His loving plan for our life. Philippians Chapter 1:6 "Being confident of this very thing, that he which hath begun a good work in you will perform it until the day of Jesus." God has a plan for you and is working it out, won't you trust him? You can do this by yielding to Jesus. Accept him as your personal Saviour and allow God to work out His plan for you.

Tougher Pesticide Sale Restrictions Proposed

Dale Ball proposes amending of Michigan's law governing the use of pesticides to include the licensing of all dealers who sell

LANSING — The man in charge of regulating the sale of pesticides in Michigan thinks the state ought to get a lot tougher right now than it is in the restriction of the use of pesticides.

State Agriculture Director B.

Babson Report

Mideast Hopes Pinned to Talks

THERE IS a breath of fresh hope that a way to peace in the Mideast may be found, now that representatives of Israel, Egypt, and Jordan are engaged once more in dialogue with Mediator Gunnar Jarring at the UN.

The very fact that the talks were resumed despite bitter countercharges is proof that both the Arabs and the Israelis recognize the futility of full-scale war that could even involve the U.S. and the USSR in crucial confrontation.

. But - until or tunless a realistic settlement is found - the uneasy truce that has prevailed so long in the Mideast will continue along the homefronts. It is an irony of fate that partisans on both sides of the essential conflict between Jews and Arabs: allude to their scriptures - the Torah, the New testament, the Holy Koran - to justify their acts, yet still seem ready to place their trust in naked force.

History, however, is filled with instances of resort to force that have brought unintended results, led people where they did not want to go.

DESPITE THE TALKS, the situation in Jerusalem is tense. People of a beleaguered nation have had to make another

The Macomb county government had not participated in SEMCOG as an active voting member since this voluntary association of units local of government and school districts in the six counties of SEM was activated in Ja nuary, 1968.

With Macomb County now a member, a Task Force on Goals, Objectives and Structure will this month wrap up a series of discussions on how to strengthen SEMCOG.

In a review of 1970 program accomplishments, Turner cited such beginning efforts in new activities as drug abuse control coordination, cable television (CATV) potential, and 911 emergency telephone assistance programs.

pesticides and reporting of every sale of a pesticide. IF HIS PROPOSALS were adopted by the Legislature, he says, "most" of the 12,000 businesses which sell pesticides in one form or another "would no longer handle the restricted materials."

Ball said scientists from his department have been working with those from other states and with federal officials to develop a model law for governing the sale of pesticides. He said his proposal goes beyond'' the recommendations of the national rofficials because it provides for mandatory reporting of sales of the restricted chemicals.

SPECIFICALLY, Ball would like to see the Legislature:

-Require development of a list of restricted use chemicals, which could only be used "with extreme care to prevent serious hazards to humans or the environment.'

-Provide that these chemicals be sold only through licensed dealers.

-Require dealers handling the restricted use chemicals to demonstrate knowledge of pesticide laws and responsibility in handling the pesticides.

-Provide for suspension of licenses where a violation was proven.

-Require reporting of the kind and amount of each sale of a material whose use was restricted by the law.

> "WE CHOSE to include reporting of sales of these materials to give us data on where and why they are used," Ball said. "We've never had access to such information."

> The list of "restricted use pesticides" would be drawn up after a series of public hearings, he said. The director said the list might follow, for the most part, guidelines established on a nationwide basis.

> "But Michigan would still retail the option of acting independently on any pesticide considered for the list," he said.

Michigan currently requires all commercial applicators of pesticides to register with the department and the department also has authority in registration of all economic poisons, including pesticides. The department used the authority given it under current law to remove DDT from sale in Michigan.

ELECTRONICS will go to work in an attempt to cut down on those stop and go tie-ups which plague all the freeways in the Detroit area, according to State Highway Department plans.

The department received the go-ahead to start installing an electronic detection and control system which will alert a control center instantly whenever traffic is stopped or slowed for any reason on any lane of the freeway.

It will cost $5 million and take five years to get fully installed and be operating on all 65 miles of Detroit's freeway network. State officials hope to get federal funds to help pay for

When it is completely installed, some 2,000 detection sensors will be either imbedded in the pavement or suspended above the freeway to keep constant surveillance on traffic flow. The information they feed in will be digested in a computer.

OPERATORS in the master control center then will be able to direct immediate help to the trouble spot, and also will be able to direct traffic away from the blocked lane by activating ramp and freeway signals.

The system is important because congestion occurs daily on Detroit's freeway system, with nearly half of it experiencing frustrating stop-and-go conditions during several hours of both morning and afternoon peak traffic periods.

Nearly 13,000 stalled vehicles or accidents obstruct Detroit freeway traffic every year and block lanes for a total of 1,220 hours a year.

One blocked lane on a three-lane freeway has the effect of reducing the freeway's capacity to 57 percent of normal, so getting the lane opened up again is of primary importance, especially during rush hours when all lanes are bumper to bumper.

Sky Features Star Cluster

Four planets and an astronomical "beehive" appear in January skies, notes University of Michigan astronomer Hazel M. Losh.

The planets are Saturn, Mars, Venus and Jupiter. The "beehive" is a misty-looking star cluster historically used as a weather barometer.

Professor Losh notes that Saturn appears high in the east at sunset. It is visible throughout the night in its arc across the southern sky. As Saturn sets in the northwest, the other three planets visible this month rise in the Mars leads the trio, rising in the constellation Libra. Venus and Jupiter follow, making a brilliant "double star" throughout the month.

Venus, about 13 times brighter than Jupiter, outshines everything in the sky except the moon, Professor Lush says. But Jupiter offers more interest to the amateur astronomer with four of its moons clearly visible through a small telescope.

January's "Beehive" star cluster is dimly visible in the southeastern sky near the Dog Stars, Sirius and Procyon. The faint stars in the Dog Stars group form an inverted "Y" and the Beehive is near the junction of the letter's arms.

Professor Losh says that the star cluster was one of the first objects in the sky to which Galileo turned his telescope. The Roman naturalist Pliny said this cluster acted as a barometer, foretelling a violent storm if it was not visible at night.

Robert Huber, the conservative who made an unsuccessful stab at the Republican senate nomination last August, has now announced fintentions of establishing an independent conservative party in Michigan.

According to Huber, two surveys indicate that there is a need to establish this independent party. The Republican party, as he sees it, no longer represents the conservative element in

The surveys are definitely limited and in fact, questionable as to what exactly they indicate about sentiment in Michigan. For the surveys to which Huber was referring were informally taken by him and based only on various responses he got from the people.

The former state senator also bases "the need" on what happened in New York State. James Buckley, a conservative Republican, beat out the liberal Republican incumbent, Charles Goodell, and the liberal Democratic candidate to claim a seat in the United States Senate.

Buckley didn't gain a majority of votes in that election, if you recall. While the two liberal candidates were splitting the liberal and moderate vote, Buckley piled up a plurality of conservative votes to win the

This, we must assume, is what Huber hopes to do in Michigan. Let the liberals and moderates, including the Republican moderates led by Governor William Milliken, split their votes between the Republican and Democratic candidates, thus enabling the conservative candidate to squeeze may seem far-fetched. It may appear to some to be only a ploy to drive the Republican party further to the right.

Right now, Huber's strategy

But no one in his right mind gave Buckley much of a chance when he declared he would run as a conservative independent. With the support of the Nixon administration, and specifically Vice President Agnew, Buckley surged to the front.

What also Huber must be aware of is the similarity between Michigan and New York voter trends. Both are big industrial states with a large, blue-collar voting blocs, which typically vote Whether or not, however, voters in 1972 will cotton to an independent, conservative party remains to be seen. Huber will have to draft some mighty attractive candidates, like Buckley who has personal magnetism. Furthermore, a specific set of conditions will have to be at work in Michigan in order for a conservative candidate to win out. It's unlikely, for instance, that an opposition candidate will be as objectionable as Goodell was to so many people. Goodell irritated GOP regulars in New York with his ultra liberal stand and his mayerick-like stance in the United States Senate after he was appointed to that post.

This isn't to say such conditions couldn't exist in 1972. They could, which enable conservative candidates to cart off a victory or two. But it's unlikely there will be any major success if Republican and Democratic candidates, alike, don't go to extremes to alienate any one segment of the voting public.

There will be a horse and pony show at Briarwyck Farms, 589 Hartland Road, Brighton, Sunday, January 17, beginning at 10 a.m. sharp. For information call, 313-229-9786.

Besides the regular classes held at Briarwyck shows, these additional ones are scheduled: walk-trot, pony halter, pony horsemanship, pony pleasure (English or Western) and bareback riding class.

There is a heated observation room and indoor arena at Briarwyck.

, Results from the Briarwyck show held December 20: Sue Altman, Hartland (formerly of Northville) earned the youth high point trophy riding her Appaloosa gelding, "Hannibal"; Sue Latham won the senior high point trophy. What is looked for in Dressage Competitions? " Dressage is a French word meaning training. With the horse, it means training by the art of horsemanship alone. No artificial gimmicks or tricks are ever used in true dressage. In a dressage test (competition) even the voice is not used. The horse is judged on his response to the influence of the correct use of the rider's seat, back, legs and the quiet use of his hands. Unless the rider rides correctly he cannot use the aids correctly.

In dressage competitions the horse must never be allowed to become a machine, obeying mechanically. He must be quietly obedient, yet showing lively impulsion. He must be on the bit. He must be light on the forehand and use his hind guarters properly. He must be supple.

Thus it is recommended that anyone considering entering even the most basic test and getting the most out of it should acquire knowledge of the terms mentioned above. He should know what is meant by smooth transitions, regularity of pace and the differences in the paces required, i.e.; ordinary walk, free walk, posting trot, sitting trot, etc. He must learn to be aware of what the hind quarters are doing as well as the forehand. He must be able to ride a straight line, and to curve around the corners.

As dressage competitions are a test of the training of both horse and rider, they mean a great deal more than simple obedience and following a pattern. Whereas, they are beneficial for all riders, they are particularly so for anyone, amateur or professional, interested in training a horse really well or in improving one to overcome faults in manners, way of going, etc.

 More and more horse shows are including dressage competitions in their programs. Dressage interests more people in better training methods resulting in better trained horses and more knowledgeable riders. There is nothing new about these training methods.

Quick hurry-up methods are more often used just to U.S. NO. 1 MICHIGAN "break" a horse for ordinary use. But to really train a horse means taking time to build U.S. FANCY muscles and to teach a horse to use himself with a rider as he does without one as well as TEXAS RUBY RED manners.

One of the major causes of CRISP FRESH problems with horses is forcing Carrots.... a horse to do what he is not able to do easily, physically. a horse is a very athletic animal, but like a human athlete, it takes muscle training to develop him to his best potential. This type of training is what makes a horse light and supple. It improves his appearance tremendously because of the muscular development and enables him to handle and carry himself in a graceful manner.
