Meters Coming Off City Parking Lots

Streets To Get Repairs

In other business Tuesday night the council took the following action:

—Approved a portion of a proposed $72,000 street improvement program involving sealing of split joints in paved streets, repairs and "slurry-seal" resurfacing.

Council approval included only the joint-sealing of approximately two dozen city streets, estimated at $11,000. Bids will be sought for repairs on other streets estimated at $18,000, while the proposed resurfacing was delayed for further consideration. The latter would involve special assessments against property owners, while the improvements are paid by the city without assessment.

—Learned from an audit of the District Court that the city still owes the court some $6,000, but has $9,000 in refunds, also voted to accept the new District Court budget and pay local court clerks in accordance with salaries set by the court. But unlike other communities within the local district (Plymouth city and township), Northville has declined to make the salary hikes retroactive to January. The council accepted the new District Court budget with the provision that probation court procedures for handling tickets and funds be corrected

The city council Tuesday night kept a promise it made when the now-completed double-deck parking facility was proposed.

All off-street parking meters were ordered removed.

The action opens up three "blue-metered" lots (two along Dunlap, one on North Wing) to free, all-day parking.

It leaves parking meters on the main streets in the business district only.

In taking the action the council discussed its over-all parking situation, particularly in reference to the new deck facility and to abuse of the parking accommodations by businessmen and their employees.

Councilman Charles Lapham, himself a merchant, urged the council to send a letter to all merchants suggesting that business district employees be encouraged to park their cars in the lower level of the new parking deck and in the Wing and Dunlap lots where meters are being removed.

"That would leave the more convenient spaces open for customers, and that's why we've provided the parking", he argued.

Councilman Lapham also suggested stronger promotion of the parking deck, particularly the upper level, to encourage more use of the facility.

It was agreed that the huge deck is still somewhat confusing to customers because it lacks signs. Proper lettering will soon designate the structure as a "free municipal parking lot for business district customers."

Under its new parking program the council hopes to:

—maintain and enforce street meters to provide curb parking spaces for the short-visit customers;

—enforce two-hour limits on all municipal customer parking lots adjoining stores, including the upper deck of the new parking structure on Cady street;

—permit, at least for the time being, all-day parking (but not overnight) on the lower-level of the parking deck and on the fringe-area lots that had been metered for all-day parkers.

The council also decided to charge customers of Northville Downs for parking in the lower deck of the Cady street parking structure. The manager was directed to negotiate with a local scout troop for operation of the lot during evenings of the meet.

The council was firm in its attitude that merchants must cooperate to help promote the

NEWS BRIEFS

NEGOTIATIONS between the City of Northville and the Northville Police Officers Association are continuing this week with both sides confident the contract will be settled within three weeks. Still under discussion are health insurance; disability pay, gun allowance, guaranteed minimum overtime pay and pension plan. Last year's contract expired June 30.

NEW RECORDS were set at Northville Downs last Saturday night as 8,858 fans bet $608,697. It was the first time the mutuel handle had ever topped $600,000 at the local harness racing track. The old record of $544,316 was set on the previous Saturday. Total handle through the first nine nights of the 35-night summer season was $3,744,575, and average of $416,063, up 6.3 per cent over last year. Total attendance to date is 51,239, up 6.4 per cent.

SCHOOL BOARD members will meet Monday at 8 p.m. for their organizational meeting at which new officers will be elected. Also on the agenda will be an update on progress in the district's suit involving the sinking gym floor at Cooke Junior High and discussion of applying for money through the school bond loan program to cover debt retirement funds over 7 mills.

18-YEAR-OLDS won the right to vote last week when Ohio became the 38th state to ratify the 26th Amendment to the Constitution. To date, the City of Northville has registered 32 in the 18-20-year-old category, Northville Township, 30; Novi, 19; and Wixom, three. The first election new voters will be eligible for (once counties issue a release of voter registration cards) will be the September 13 millage election for Schoolcraft College.

THROGS OF SPECTATORS jammed Northville's Main Street Saturday when it was turned into a parade of bands, antique cars, horses, floats, pretty girls, clowns and youngsters on decorated bikes. More than 650 chicken dinners were served at the bar-be-cue following the parade and a fireworks display topped off the day's events. For more pictures of the Jaycee sponsored Fourth of July festivities, see Page 6-A.

Jaycee Event Attracts Throng

Sunny skies and warm temperatures set the stage for Saturday's Jaycee sponsored Fourth of July festivities as thousands of spectators lined the streets of Northville to watch the hour-long parade kicking off the day's events.

Over 650 chicken dinners were served at the barbecue following the parade. Everything was "sold out" before 4 p.m. In past years, rain has dampened the barbecue but this year the weather remained beautiful the entire day.

Antique, arts and crafts booths set up at the barbecue grounds at city hall saw hundreds of browsers and buyers, while the evening fireworks display and drawing for a trip for two to the Bahamas capped the day's events.

Winners of the trip were Mr. and Mrs. David Ebacher of 337 Sherrie Lane who had purchased a ticket in the drawing Saturday afternoon. Over 1,700 tickets were sold, Jaycees report.

Newcomers to Northville, having moved here from Westland in May, Mrs. Ebacher said "We're really looking forward to the trip. We're so excited, we've never won anything before." The Ebachers plan to visit the Bahamas in October.

Judges picked 19 parade entries for awards as tops in their divisions. The panel included Mrs. Louise Cutler of Cutler Realty; the Reverend Timothy Johnson, assistant pastor of the First Presbyterian Church and member of the Northville Board of Education; and Al Laux, owner of Northville Drug Company and past president of Northville Rotary.

Winning units included: Best Band—first, Clan MacRae Pipe Band of Detroit; second, South Windsor Lions Band; third, Amherstburg Community. Best Musical Group—first, Marauders Drum and Bugle Corps, Madison Heights; second, Chemical Valley Fife and Drum Corps of Sarnia, Ontario; third, Plymouth State Home and Training School "Sullivan Hall Band." The Marauders also won first place in state drum and bugle corps competition last week.

Best Marching Unit—first, Pace-Setters Drum and Baton Corps of Melvindale; second, Navy Junior ROTC Color Guard and Drill Team of Bentley High in Livonia; third, City of Northville Police Department Color Guard made up of Sergeants Louis

Westfall, David LaFond, Corporal Phillip Young and Patrolman David DeLauder.

Best Restored Automobiles—first, 1931 Packard, owned by Fred Foust of Plymouth; second, 1930 Ford Roadster convertible, owned by Everett Redd of New Port Richey, Florida; third, 1933 Pierce Arrow, owned by Arthur W. Biggers of Farmington. Redd drove his Roadster from Florida to Northville to participate in the parade.

Best Float—first, "Blessed to Serve," Northville St. Paul's Lutheran Church Walther League; second, "American Eagle," Farmington VFW Post 4033 Liberty Bell Girls; third, "Lighthouse for Youth in Action," Northville First Baptist Church Youth.

Best Equestrian—first, Farmington Township Mounted Auxiliary Police; second, Washtenaw County Sheriff's Mounted Division. Special Awards—first, Detroit Firemen's Fund Association Clown Team; second, VFW 4th District Clownettes.

William Broadbuss, chairman of the Fourth of July activities reminded winners in the best decorated bicycle category they may claim their ribbons by calling him at 349-6042 this week.

For 232 Apartments

Levitt Plan Approved

A plan to build 232 apartments on Seven Mile Road just west of Northville State Hospital won preliminary approval from township planners last Tuesday night.

Submitted by Levitt Multihousing Corporation, the plan calls for one, two and three bedroom units in clusters of contemporary building design.

Planners granted preliminary approval of the building arrangement concept, subject to referral to the board of appeals for a variance on the length of the buildings.

Township zoning limits length of apartment buildings to 180 feet and, according to planners, some of the buildings in the proposed development exceed the limit.

The 19.7 acre apartment site is located on the south side of Seven Mile Road bounded on the east and south by Northville State Hospital and on the west by the proposed Oldford shopping center.

Land for the complex had been rezoned in February, 1970.

The apartments would be situated behind a shopping center planned by Iliad Corporation, also a subsidiary of Levitt and Sons. Spokesmen for Levitt said no plans had been drawn up for the shopping center.

Planner Donald Boor expressed concern over the density of the apartment complex, 11.75 units per acre. "The density is high," he noted, "even though the open spaces between gives better esthetics."

The plan goes before the board of appeals on July 19.

In other action, planners tabled until August 31 a request from Greenspan Building Company to rezone 16.295 acres of land from residential to permit construction of a 160-unit apartment complex. The land is located near Northville Forest Apartments on Five Mile Road.

Police Get $90,000 Grant

A federal grant establishing a traffic division within the Northville City Police Department was approved last week by the Office of Highway Safety Planning of Michigan.

The three-year grant gives the department $29,900, or 50 percent of the cost, to equip and operate the traffic division during the first year. It is estimated the grant will remain the same for the second and third years, totaling approximately $90,000.

The traffic division will concentrate on enforcement of traffic laws and prevention and investigation of accidents, Police Chief Samuel Elkins said in announcing the grant.

Sergeant Louis Westfall will be in charge of the new division, Elkins said, with three officers trained and assigned to work with him. Two additional patrolmen will be hired when the department is reorganized Elkins said, and one current patrolman will be transferred to the division.

Sergeant Westfall said he will be meeting with representatives from the Office of Highway Safety Planning within the next two weeks to work out guidelines for establishment of the traffic division.

"Within the new division of the department," the sergeant explained, "traffic service will receive top priority over all other police matters, except in cases of emergency."

Presently, traffic service is handled by the total police force and not singled out for specialized attention except as specific calls are received.

Chief Elkins said the "police generalist" approach has been discarded due to the city's rapid growth in population and the resulting increase in traffic related problems.

"The major goal of the traffic division," the chief explained, "will be to maintain a low traffic accident rate and improve traffic flow in the face of increasing traffic volumes."

"The grant will enable us to create a specially equipped and trained division so that top priority can be given to traffic," he said.

Officers will receive special training in accident investigation, breathalyzer testing and traffic problem reporting from police academies. In-service training in traffic control, traffic law enforcement and traffic patrol procedures will be given by the chief and division sergeant.

Among equipment to be purchased with funds from the grant are radar and radio units, traffic counters and microfilm readers.

Chief Elkins and Sergeant Westfall said they hope to have the division operating by fall.

MRS. GEORGE J. CIOT, JR.

Evening Vows Unite Couple

Barbara Ellen White became the bride of George J. Ciot, Jr., in an evening double ring ceremony June 19 in Forest Hills Missionary Church in Farmington.

The parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Howard C. White of 26250 Beck Road and Mr. and Mrs. George J. Ciot, Sr., of Walled Lake.

Officiating before an altar decorated with fireside baskets of blue tipped carnations and white gladiolus was the Reverend Harold Beigle. Church decorations included candelabras and white bows with blue roses.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a dress designed and made by her mother of sheer polyester over taffeta and net. Accenting the empire gown was a high collar and long puff sleeves. Rose appliques highlighted the dress and train and pearls and lace edged the collar, cuffs, empire waist and train.

She wore a fingertip veil of white illusion net and carried a nosegay of white roses and baby's breath.

The bride chose Marty Little as her maid of honor. Attendants were Sue Beigle and Cindy Ortwine. They wore floor length empire gowns of pink, blue, yellow and white flowers on a turquoise background.

The dresses, made by the bride's mother, had short puffy sleeves and a scoop neck accented by a ruffle.

They carried white lace parasols with pink and yellow daisies, pink roses, blue tipped carnations and matching streamers. Feathered carnations and daisies held their headpieces of blue net.

Lisa Bidwell served as flowergirl and carried a white lace basket of flowers. Ring bearer was Chris Feys.

Mrs. Evelyn Smiley, organist, accompanied soloist Steve Beigle who sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "Whither Thou Goest."

Leonard Wilks served as bestman. Ushers were Robert Harrison, Robert Sprenger, Jack Fritz and Alan Bidwell.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. White wore a lilac A-line long sleeve dress she made with high neckline trimmed in gold braid with purple jeweled stones. Mrs. Ciot wore a pink fitted dress with three-quarter length sleeves and matching coat. Both wore matching accessories and corsages of pink roses and white carnations.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at Ford Local 182 on Plymouth Road. About 250 guests from Novi, Walled Lake, Howell, Brighton, Camden, Farmington and Indiana attended.

For the couple's wedding trip to northern Michigan, the bride changed to a long sleeve street length dress made of the same material as the bridesmaids dresses.

The bride is a 1969 graduate of Novi High and the bridegroom is a 1966 graduate of Walled Lake Central. They will make their home in Howell.

Garden Club Plans Picnic

A French Cafe atmosphere, created in the gardens of the William Walker Home, will lend an international flavor to the annual summer picnic on Monday of the Northville Branch of the Women's National Farm and Garden Association.

Members will meet at Happy Acres, 39900 East Eight Mile around 12:30 p.m., bringing a passing dish and their own place setting. Dessert and beverage will be provided by the hostess.

To compliment the French decorations of red and white checked table cloths and wine bottles, it is suggested that women might try cooking with a French flair. For instance if your speciality is one of these you might try salade nicoise (tossed salad), mousse au jambon (ham mousse) or petits pois a la creme (creamed peas).

A committee of four women will assist the hostess under the direction of Mrs. Joseph Keese. Other committee members are Mrs. Earl Egbert, Mrs. Eugene Konrad and Mrs. Orson Atchinson, who recently became a life member after serving 20 years in the club.

Other summer activities of the group include classes on flower arranging, which will begin July 13 at 9:30 a.m. in the home of Mrs. J.H. van Buren. Along with scissors and other implements, members should bring a compote type vase, assorted greens and a few flowers.

Summer classes will be held once a week, taught by Mrs. Gene Cushing and Mrs. Frank Whitmyer.

Kids Stage Parade

About 80 youngsters participated in a Fourth of July parade held Saturday in Meadowbrook Glens Subdivision. Leading the parade were flag bearers David Warneke, Terry Thompson and Sandy Kovar. After saying the pledge of allegiance, the parade marched up Hampton Hill. Children decorated their bicycles for the occasion and were awarded prizes by judges Mrs. Richard Freeman, Mrs. Gunther Hancken and Jerry Asher.

Prizes were awarded in three categories. Recipients were: bicycles, David Ziegler and Debby Freeman; bicycles with training wheels, Scott Smith and Kelly Parker; tricycles, Ricky Kramer and Erin Cherfoli. Sparklers were distributed to the youngsters following the parade.

Garden Reception Fetes Newlyweds

Following the marriage of Patricia Jane Hammond and Albert James Uren on June 19 in Livonia's St. Paul's Presbyterian Church, a festive garden reception, complete with accordion music, was held at the home of the bride's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Crispin M. Hammond of Northville.

Miss Hammond and Mr. Uren were married in a double ring ceremony before an altar decorated with baskets of green and yellow mums. The Reverend William Whitley officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nellis W. Hammond of Livonia. The bridegroom, who is employed by the Kroger Company in Northville, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Uren of Livonia.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an empire styled wedding gown of white organza. The gown was trimmed with pearl embroidery and a long organza train edged in lace. Mrs. Marjorie Wdowiak, sister of the bride, served as matron of honor. She wore a long empire styled gown of yellow organza with daisy appliques at the waist. Matching flowers and a veiling headdress completed the outfit.

Bridesmaids were Karen Montroy, sister of the bride, Pat Sitterlet, and Laura Uren, sister of the groom.

Serving the bridegroom as best man was his brother, Robert Uren. The three ushers were Charles Sitterlet, David Wdowiak and Gary Van Eck.

About 178 guests from Florida, Wisconsin, New Jersey, Ohio and Michigan attended the garden reception following the wedding. Dinner was served to them at tables set up under the trees with musical accompaniment on the accordion provided by the bride's cousin, Conrad Fedus.

Following a week's camping trip in Northern Michigan, the newlyweds will make their home in Canton Township.

Local Coeds Elected To Girls State Posts

If women ruled the state of Michigan what changes, if any, would occur?

Legalized abortion, gun control and free drug counseling might be established.

These were the areas given top priority by 504 young female legislators meeting to form their own government at Eastern Michigan University last month. They were participants in the 30th annual Girls State, sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary.

"It was a great experience and I'm very thankful to the Legion for sending me," exclaimed Northville's Karen Duguid upon her return. "We learned so much about city and county government which ordinarily you just don't hear too much about."

Karen was one of five area girls who attended the weeks session from June 10 to June 17. Others were Joey Frere, Roberta Day, Diane Horwath and Janet Warren. They are among a select group of local women who have attended Girls State since its inception in 1941.

Upon their arrival at Eastern each girl was assigned to a certain city and county, Karen explained. In all there were seven counties in Girls State with three cities of 24 girls in each county. Cities were designated by girls living on separate floors in a dormitory.

From there the girls elected representatives and formed their own local governments. Karen served on the county board of supervisors as did Janet Warren.

"We wanted to set up a free drug counseling service," Karen said, "but we changed to smoking to bring it down to the Girls State level." A separate room was set aside where girls who smoked could come in and discuss their habit.

On higher levels a state legislature considered abortion legalization and gun control laws. A state supreme court considered judicial cases including the attempted "assassination" of the governor. Girls were advised on the duties of their positions throughout the week by graduate students and professors from the University of Michigan.

On several occasions the girls heard speeches by different Michigan legislators including Ernest Browne from Detroit's common council. Other times they took breaks for refreshments and music in the Hideaway, set up especially for them.

At the week's end separate awards were given to recipients voted upon by the girls. Roberta Day of Northville received an award for good citizenship from her county.

In evaluating the unique experience Karen Duguid made two suggestions. Better communication between the different branches would permit citizens to know what issues their government was considering and what legislation had been enacted, she noted. Also instead of being chosen by school administrators, local participants might be allowed to apply for the positions.

"If girls were allowed to apply then more girls who are really interested in government and wanted to go might have a better chance," Karen observed. "By actually participating in a model government I have a much better understanding of administration on a local level. It was a great experience."

Karen is but one of many local women who have shared the Girls State experience since its beginning. Since then Northville's American Legion Auxiliary has sent girls every year, chosen on a basis of citizenship, leadership and general achievement.

"The response has always been very enthusiastic. Sometimes the girls even ask to go again, although that is impossible," related Mrs. Charles Denune, chairman of Girls State for the auxiliary. Several mother and daughter teams are among those who have represented Northville over the years," Mrs. Denune said. While in high school Mrs. Betty Hoffman once attended girls state, as did her daughter Pat in 1969. Christie Becker, who attended in 1968, was preceded in earlier years by her older sister Margaret and by her mother, Mrs. Wilfred Becker.

Among other local women who have attended girls state from Northville are Mrs. Robert Bogart, and Mrs. Blake Couse, according to Mrs. Denune.

Following their week at Girls State, the girls traditionally describe their experience to a meeting of the legion auxiliary in the fall.

"Something new happens every time but the high level of enthusiasm among the girls is unchanging," noted Mrs. Denune. "This year will be no exception."

Scheduled for October 12 through November 4, the drive will seek funds to underwrite operating costs for 164 health and community services in Wayne, Oakland and Macomb Counties.

The residential campaign annually brings in more than $1 million of the Torch Drive total and provides every household in the three-county area with information about the UF and its services.

It also offers housewives, the retired and the self-employed - all those not contacted at work - an opportunity to make their contributions.

Mrs. Yanover served as a neighborhood chairman in the last two United Foundation campaigns. A graduate of Michigan State University with a degree in secondary English, she is the mother of two children, Jennifer, 5, and Jonathan, 2. Her husband is president of 3 P.M. Inc.

Novi Newcomers Elect Officers

The newly-formed Novi Newcomers group met recently at Village Oaks for the election of new officers. Elected to office for the coming year were: Mrs. Tammy Tandy, president, Don Warneke, vice president, Mrs. Marjorie Kotez, secretary, Mrs. Jan Cooke, treasurer, and Mrs. Ruth Woodward, social co-ordinator. Club activities for the coming year will include meetings of special interest groups and a monthly social events like a party or trip to the theater, explained Mrs. Connie Podolski, spokesman for Novi Newcomers. To date interest groups have been formed for chess, golf, poker and bridge. "I don't think that many people in this area realize that Novi has a newcomers Club separate from Northville," Mrs. Podolski observed. "As the club grows we plan to form additional interest groups, bringing together newcomers with similar interests."

Although a concentrated membership drive begins in the fall, interest groups will be meeting at member's homes throughout the summer, she said. A family picnic is slated later this month. Membership in Newcomers is open to anyone who has lived in Novi for three years or less, she added. For further information contact Mrs. Tandy at 476-9018.

Seniors Set

Tuesday Meet

Northville Senior Citizens Club will hold its next meeting 6 p.m., Tuesday, July 27. An outdoor barbecue is planned for that date and will be held on the grounds of the Scout Recreation building.

Smith Picnic

An annual Fourth of July picnic was held Monday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C.A. Smith of 43643 Nine Mile Road.

About 50 people from YMCA, YWCA, Star Commonwealth and church groups attended.

After the picnic lunch, guests gathered for a songfest and games.

SUMMER GARDENING — Mrs. Elmer Schubert picks flowers from her garden of wild roses, baby's breath, lemon lillies and blue delphinium.

Half - Wild Gardens Yield Beauty

Summertime—and a circus of color erupts in the gardens of area residents.

An especially good example of flowers cultivated by local gardeners are those at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Schubert, 413 Beal. Their gardens reflect the feeling of old fashioned elegance which the Schuberts have tried to restore in their old home. "Our gardens are natural, sort of half wild like gardens used to be," Mrs. Schubert described. "Personally I never cared as much for formal gardens with stiff, neat rows of flowers."

And so it is that a person sitting in the back yard might easily imagine himself deep in the countryside. Almost completely enclosed by trees, one sees only a grassy cliff dotted with wild flowers, leading down to a secluded portion of the Rouge River. The only sounds are birds chirping, the babbling river and the occasional quack of wild ducks which live on its banks.

"Sitting down by the river you would never know you're in the center of Northville," Schubert declares.

From the backyard a series of circular steps wind down to the river, fashioned from cross-sections of tree trunks. The steps circumvent to the right wild flowers and a vegetable garden, and an old fashioned weed garden on the left. "I love to save some of the weeds, dry them and make winter flower bouquets," says Mrs. Schubert. Included among her "weeds" are several types of tall flowering grasses and an abundance of Queen Anne's lace.

Occasionally the Schuberts lose some of their plants to wild animals, living along the river. "The groundhogs eat our cucumbers like corn on the cob," laughs Mrs. Schubert. "There's also a family of raccoons living somewhere down there."

Wild ducks also seem to enjoy living behind the Schuberts. "There are about four hens nursing along the river bank," Schubert relates. "Every morning a choir of quacking ducks assemble outside the back door for breakfast. We feed them with corn we've bought, then they sit on their tails and slide back down the cliff to the river."

In the front yard gardens, Mrs. Schubert has followed a color scheme of red, white, blue with touches of gold. Of special interest is a double cylinder milk can, which has been painted wedgewood blue and filled with wild red roses.

The can is nestled among more roses.

"We resurrected that old can from the city dump," Schubert notes.

In other gardens Mrs. Schubert has planted more red roses, amidst arrangements of white daisies, Easter and Lemon day lillies, vanishing blue bells and fragile blue delphinium.

The unusually dry weather, coupled with recent winds and hard rains, has been hard on flowers this year, Mrs. Schubert feels. Many of the taller plants have been broken and knocked down, and blossoms are smaller than average.

"Fortunately our yard is on a slope," she observes. "Water runs off carrying away particles of sand and clay."

Her interest in gardening has led to her active participation in the Northville branch of the Women's National Farm and Garden Association.

The colorful blossoms contrast with the old house, which is painted light green. Schubert has been working to restore its original charm since they purchased the place in 1967. He figures it will be done in about three more years. "I take care of the inside of the house, Nancy fusses over the outside," he jokes.

When the restoration is complete, the Schuberts plan to invite back old residents who knew the house years ago.

Visit Montessori

An open house and fall registration for Montessori classes will be held next week Thursday and Friday, July 15 and 16, from 11:30 a.m. to 2 p.m. at Moraine Elementary School on Eight Mile Road. parents' group will assist. An informal program will be presented by Dr. and Mrs. Willis B. Hunting, co-directors of the Northville Montessori Learning Center. Included will be an explanation of the Montessori approach to education, together with a slide presentation of a Montessori classroom in action. A question and answer period will follow.

Police Pact Ok'd; Chief's Pay Hiked

Novi Councilmen unanimously ratified a two-year police contract Tuesday night and set salaries for four officers not included in it.

The contract, announced last week by negotiating teams from the city and the Novi Police Officers Association (NPOA) excluded four non-contracted positions: a uniformed and a detective sergeant, a detective lieutenant and the chief of police.

These four full supervisory capacity, according to City Manager George Athas, and thus were excluded from the contract dealing with various grades of patrolmen.

The uniformed sergeant will receive $12,900, the detective sergeant $13,400, the detective lieutenant $13,800 and the chief $14,200.

Last year the detective sergeant received $10,900; the detective lieutenant, $12,300; and the chief of police, $13,000. Uniform sergeant is a newly-created position.

Council adopted the salary recommendations from Athas in a split vote with disagreement over an accompanying recommendation to pay time-and-one-half overtime to the four.

Athas said that each of the four claimed approximately one-third of the overtime he put in and that, should the city pay the time-and-one-half, the amount would reach some $4,000 annually.

Councilmen Louie Campbell and William O'Brien were against the overtime because of the supervisory role of the officers involved.

"I would just as soon," said Campbell, "see you raise the salaries of the four men involved an extra $1,000 than hand out overtime pay to supervisory personnel."

In adopting the police contract, Councilman Edwin Presnell mentioned that, in his opinion, "the contract settlement" eliminated the possibility of hiring the two new patrolmen requested by Chief Lee BeGole in his recent budget.

Earlier in the meeting, councilmen agreed to turn over $441 in escrow funds to residents along Buckingham Court so four sidewalks on the court could be paved.

Mayor Joseph Crupi, told Robert Discher, representative of Buckingham Court citizens, that they were to contract for the job, get it done and the city would pay for it, up to $441.

In other business, councilmen: —Instructed Athas to inform Paul Bosco, area land owner and developer, that 50 sewer taps would be available for his property along Novi Road but that the price was unsettled as yet.

—Decided to have specifications drawn up on a permanent fire building in the Walled Lake area.

—Were petitioned by Robert Ronk of the Pepper Tree Restaurant on Novi Road for the city's one class 'C' liquor license.

Ronk said he'd been in the community for 16 years and stood near the front of the line of applications.

Mayor Crupi said that the council had previously decided to save the license for the possibility of a "large development coming to this area."

—Set payment for those not under contract to the Walled Lake sewer at $600 per tap.

Additional debt service fees, according to Athas will be $64 or $96 depending on whether or not a user puts in his own lateral or hooks into those already available.

—Passed a set of covenants for Kaufman and Broad's Village Oaks subdivision according to changes made in the contract by City Attorney Howard Bond.

—Received information, in a letter from school superintendent Thomas Dale, indicating that the Novi school board expects to pay some $15,000 in interest on borrow money in fiscal year 1971-72.

The letter was in response to communication carried on between Dale and Athas concerning the school board's advisory question, passed last month in the Novi School Board election, which would allow for collection of one-half the school's millage in July with city taxes and one half in December with county taxes.

An opinion called for last week from Bond said that such an arrangement would be legal should "the governing body, the city council in this case, approve the measure."

Cagey Burglars Bring Warning

Someone knocks at your door and asks if Jane's home. You say "No one by that name lives here." The individual says thank you, he's sorry to have disturbed you, and he leaves.

Two doors down the street, maybe around the corner, the same persons knock on the door of a home that has an open garage, an overstuffed mailbox, or a porch littered with newspapers.

Nobody answers, they're away on vacation and they didn't notify their police department.

When the family comes home from vacation they find their home ransacked. Televisions, stereos, cameras, rifles, shotguns, anything that can be carried or sold has been stolen. All of their belongings have been carried off and they ask, "Why me?"

According to Novi Detective Lieutenant Richard Faulkner, his bureau handled 18 cases of breaking and entering in June alone.

Faulkner said that burglars work in no particular season, during no certain time of day but strike anytime without regard to "daylight or lights left on to make it appear that someone's home."

"Burglars read the local papers," Faulkner said, "so they know when someone announces an extended vacation, or else they'll cruise around a neighborhood in broad daylight with a panel truck until they find an empty garage. They'll pull into the garage, knock at the door and if nobody answers clean out the house in half an hour.

"If somebody does answer, they'll say they're from an air conditioning contractor. 'Oh, you didn't order an air conditioner, sorry must have the wrong address.'

"Sometimes they'll try three and four houses on the same block until they score," continued Faulkner.

"There are things a resident can do to protect himself," Faulkner said.

"When he goes away on vacation, anything he can do to make it appear that he's home will help."

Four Named As Planners

Novi councilmen returned one planning board member to a three year term, Tuesday night, and tapped three new recruits for one unexpired two-year term and two three-year terms.

Returning to the planning board will be Mrs. Jean Rumble of 23780 Maude Lea. She is a housewife and was originally appointed to fill an unexpired term.

Ron Birou, an engineer from Meadowbrook Lake subdivision, and John Roethel, a patent attorney from Village Oaks, will replace Olen Green whose term has expired, and George Athas who resigned the chairmanship to become City Manager.

Mrs. Barbara Enzor, 1304 East Lake Drive, will fill the two years left by the resignation of long time member, and former chairman, Kalin S. Johnson.

Other members of the planning board are Robert Bretz, 47133 West Nine Mile, Merle Jenkins, 26821 Meadowbrook Road, William Weber, 47233 Glamorgan, Peter Alcala, 1327 East Lake Drive and James Cherfoli, 24565 Hampton Court.

ABLAZE—Two recent fires raced through three barns belonging to H. J. Hunt, 42500 11 Mile, above, Thursday and the Walled Lake Park boathouse Monday. Both properties were destroyed despite fireman's efforts to save them. Fire trucks from Walled Lake, Farmington and Novi fought for four hours Thursday in a vain attempt to control the blaze which fed on papers within the Hunt barns.

Middle School: New Approach

Novi's Middle School, now under construction and slated to open in the fall, will provide a transient stage of development and attempt to better serve the educational needs of children in the seventh through ninth grade bracket, according to principal Robert Youngberg.

The concept of elementary school is student oriented while that of high school is curriculum oriented, Youngberg stated. "It's hoped," he said, "that the middle school concept will be able to combine both these approaches in a technique that will better suit the physical, emotional and psychological development of the seventh through ninth grader."

Ideally, said Youngberg, elementary school should range from kindergarten through sixth grade and the high school should handle 10 through 12. "This centers on emotional level more than the present K-5, 6-8 and 9-12 breakup."

Youngberg said that generally sixth graders have not sufficiently developed out of the elementary stage of the educational approach, and ninth graders have not quite reached the high school stage.

"It is hoped," Youngberg said, "that new projects, and innovative teaching methods might be attempted which would spark greater productivity in the student and lay a more solid base for high school."

Youngberg summarized the basic purposes of the Middle School.

To serve the educational needs of "in-between-agers,"

To provide optimum individuality in curriculum and instruction,

To plan, implement, evaluate and modify, in a continuing curriculum development program, a curriculum which includes provision for:

—a planned sequence of concepts in general education areas;

—major emphasis on interests and skills for continued learning;

—exploratory experiences and other activities in a balanced program directed toward personal development, —appropriate attention to development of values.

According to Youngberg, team teaching is prevalent in the middle school program. "Each middle school student," he said, "is a member of an instructional group taught by a team of specialists representing language arts, social studies, math and science. Variations in teaching skills and roles, the use of special centers staffed by other specialists, and the coordination of professional and non-professional staff are an integral part of the team teaching concept.

"The middle school concept depends on freedom for innovation found in a new organization unshackled from the dominant traditional patterns of elementary school self-containment and secondary school departmentalization," Youngberg said.

"It's an opportunity to put the best of what is known into operation at a newly defined level that promises to strengthen the earlier and later years that children spend in school."

Henderson New Prexy

Gilbert Henderson was elected president of the Novi Board of Education by fellow trustees in a special meeting Friday night.

Henderson was elected 4-3 over fellow member LaVerne DeWaard.

His term of office will not begin until that of current Board President Bruce Simmons expires Monday.

Henderson, a principle in the Farmington school system, was elected to a four year term in board elections held last month.

He was elected to a three year term begun in 1968 when Novi switched to K-12 school district.

Henderson's election came after Simmons officially announced he would not seek re-election. He mentioned calls he had received, which he labeled as "crank," that had accused him of "deserting" his children. Simmons relied on his record of community service, particularly that as a little league coach and said that criticism should "knock one professionally and not personally."

He was elected to the office of vice-president by a 4-3 vote.

Others elected were Robert Wilkins, (4-3) as secretary and Sharon Pelchat, unanimously, to the post of treasurer.

Descendent of Founder

Wixom Meets Will Wixom

What is the feeling you have when driving down an expressway and suddenly see your name appear on the green sign marking an exit. "Well," said William Lee Wixom, "I pulled over and took a picture of it."

"But," he said, "I really felt proud when I saw the police car with the shield and my name right under it. I went over and told the officer he was driving my car."

So unfurled the story of Mr. and Mrs. William L. Wixom of Keokuk, Iowa. They stopped at the General Store and introduced themselves to a stunned group of people on a lazy, rainy holiday afternoon.

The news spread through the City. Gunnar Metalla happened in and it was then that Mr. Wixom produced a seven hundred page book entitled the "Wixom Family History" including a picture and description of the Wixom Family Crest.

The guests were taken to the Metalla home where the book and lives of the Wixom descendants were discussed at great length. Mary Parvu and the Robert Dingeldey's also entertained the couple who explained how they happened to find they were a part of the eighth generation of Wixom's.

Two years ago, Wixom explained, a Wixom cousin was working at a construction site in Iowa. He met another Wixom from California who produced the book. The cousin called him and he was told to "get up there fast."

William Wixom subsequently ordered the book from the publisher in Salt Lake City. He and his wife Hazel began studying the genealogy and found the listing for Abijah Wixom, noting that a town in Michigan had been named after him.

Locating the city and planning a trip "some day" to visit the city bearing his name, was then discussed by Bill and Hazel who like "old things." They did not know that the City was celebrating its 100th year.

Mr. and Mrs. Wixom were presented with both a bronze and silver coin commemorating the City's Centennial as well as Centennial plate and book.

To history buffs, the Wixom Family History Book is a treasure. Over 1,000 descendants of Robert Wixom who came to Massachusetts in 1630 are listed.

The name Wixom was originally Wickham, sometimes written without the letter "h" and it is easily understood how the name changed through an era when few people could read and fewer could write.

The history of the Wickhams in England began at the time of the Norman Conquest in 1066. The name prior to Anglicizing was most probably Walchelin and it appears in the Domesday Book compiled by order of King William in 1086. At the time of the compiling, the name was changed to Wickham. The history of Sommershire states that Sir Robert Wyckham was knighted by Edward II at Bristol in 1327.

In Swalcliffe Church,

Oxford, appear the Wickham Arms in glass windows. The same arms are shown on the tomb of Rectar John Wickham of Rotherfield. A William Wickham bought Broughton Castle and it is still held by his descendants.

The history of the Wixom family in this country began with the landing of Robert Wixom in Massachusetts in the year 1630, writing his name as "Wixam" but in the third generation of the family in this country the name generally was written "Wixom". Branches of the family also write the name Wickson or Wixson but all, including the name of the City of Wixom are descendants of Robert Wixam the First.

The Wixom's who are camping at Proud Lake, met with members of the City Council, were luncheon guests of Mayor and Mrs. Gilbert Willis and will be returning to the City bearing their name next week when a tour of the Wixom Ford Assembly Plant is scheduled.

The Wixom Family Coat of Arms bearing the Latin motto "Mores Hominem Facit" was found in the book "Wixom Family History".

The motto "Manners maketh the man" lies below the shield described as "Arms Argent or chevron sable three roses gules seeded on crest. A bull's head sable. A night's helmet of steel faced visor open."

WIXOM FAMILY CREST

ALMOST FINISHED—Novi's Middle School project is still being completed and is scheduled for a fall opening.

Music Festival to Open

Music of American composers such as Edward MacDowell, Aaron Copland and Charles Ives will be featured in the fifth annual Summer Music Festival held at Schoolcraft College this month.

As in the past the festival will comprise three series of concerts. The chamber music series will feature guest artists. The court orchestra series, directed by Wayne Dunlap, will be performed by a group of highly skilled musicians drawn largely from the Detroit Symphony. The third series of concerts will be performed by Schoolcraft music students. Unlike previous seasons, when the festival highlighted the music of pairs of composers, this season's concerts will consist almost entirely of music of American composers.

The first court orchestra concert, on Tuesday, July 13, will have two outstanding features. James Tocco, Detroit pianist, will be heard in Edward MacDowell's lushly romantic Second Piano Concerto. The complete ballet music, in its original scoring for 13 instruments, to Aaron Copland's Appalachian Spring, will also be presented.

On Monday, July 19, the duo of F. Gerald Errante, clarinetist, and Althea Waites, pianist, will perform music written within the past decade, with some tape and electronic sounds. Their recital will conclude with Sidney Hodkinson's The Dissolution of the Serial, a theatre event not to be missed.

Detroit's nationally known Kenneth Jewell Chorale will perform on Tuesday, July 20, singing music ranging from William Billings and the Moravians to Stephen Foster, Negro spirituals and American folksongs. Moving on up to the present they will conclude their program with Danle Pinkham's Christmas Cantata for choir and two brass ensembles.

Performing on Friday, July 23, will be the Tipton Trio with Albert Tipton, former principal flutist of the Detroit Symphony, Mary Norris, pianist, and Mario DiFiore, cellest with the Detroit Symphony and member of the Schoolcraft College summer music school. Included in their varied program will be the Trio for Flute, Cello and Piano by Ned Rorem. This work was recorded by the Tipton Trio on Westminster Records.

The closing festival event on Tuesday, July 27, will feature another court orchestra concert. Their performance will include Charles Ives Third Symphony as well as cellist Mario DiFiore in a work by Frederick Delius. Soprano Rosemary Jackson will perform the Knoxville, Summer of 1915, by Samuel Barber.

CITATION — Schoolcraft College's retiring president, Dr. Eric J. Bradner, left, receives a special citation from A. Russell Clarke of Northville, president of the Schoolcraft College Foundation. The Foundation recently hosted Dr. and Mrs. Bradner at a dinner at Meadowbrook Country Club. The citation, prepared by Phelps Hines, paid tribute to Dr. Bradner's decade at the helm of the College, and appointed him a life member of the Foundation. The Foundation also established a $500 revolving loan fund in Dr. Bradner's name.

NEW ROOF—That's Northville Jaycee Don Campbell with the hammer putting a new roof on Northville's artesian well. RonBeier is helping but prefers the step ladder. The result of their efforts last week was a new appearance to South Main Street's popular attraction.

Pianist James Tocco Returns to Schoolcraft

James Tocco, the popular young pianist from Detroit, will appear again this year as guest artist at Schoolcraft College's fifth annual Summer Music Festival. Tocco, who placed fifth at the International Tchaikovsky Piano Competition in Moscow a year ago, will perform Edward MacDowell's "Second Piano Concerto" with the Court Orchestra on Tuesday evening, July 13.

The concert, which begins at 8:30 p. m., will be under the baton of Wayne Dunlap, director of the Schoolcraft College Summer Music School and Festival.

Tocco's first appearances in this country after last year's competition were also with the Schoolcraft Summer Music Festival. He has made a number of appearances in the area since then, including a recital on the University of Michigan's prestigious summer piano series at Rackham Auditorium in Ann Arbor, and recently with the Detroit Symphony in the Save-Orchestra-Hall concert.

This past year he has been Artist-in-Residence at the University of Wisconsin. This year's Festival at Schoolcraft focuses on American music, and there are some items of special interest on the series. Tuesday's concert opens with Henry Kimball Hadley's overture, "In Bohemia." Hadley was one of America's leading composers in the early years of the present century, but has since dropped into virtual oblivion. The piece, dedicated to Hadley's friend Victor Herbert, was commissioned by the Bohemia Club of San Francisco in 1901.

A most interesting event will be the performance of Aaron Copland's "Appalachian Spring" in its original complete version for thirteen instruments. Probably Copland's most famous work, the score was commissioned by the Elizabeth Sprague Coolidge Foundation and first performed at the Library of Congress in 1944 with Martha Graham and her Troupe. The orchestration calls for nine strings, three winds and piano.

Preceding Tocco's performance of the MacDowell concerto, Michael Stoune, guest artist from Ann Arbor, will perform Robert W. Jones' "Nocturne" for Alto Flute, Strings and Percussion. Jones is Composer-in-Residence at Schoolcraft College. Stoune, a doctoral student at the University of Michigan, gave the "Nocturne" its world premier with the Plymouth Symphony in January.

A total of 643 students qualified for the Dean's List at Bradley for the second semester of the 1970-71 school year. Qualification is based on academic achievement with a minimum grade point average of 7.0, the equivalent of an A-minus on a perfect 8.0 scale.

Wixom Newsbeat

There's No Place Like Home

by Nancy Dingeldey
"Bring On Those Lazy, Crazy, Hazy Days of Summer"... and you have a song that pretty well fits the mood of Wixomites. From a sampling of people it seems that most of us are staying close to home or just taking short jaunts here and there this summer.

Lots of campers flowing through Wixom on their way to Proud Lake especially over the long Fourth of July weekend. But I found that Wixomites seemed to prefer staying home this Fourth, enjoying picnics with family and friends and watching various area fireworks displays.

At least the weather has turned cooler and we've had a little rain to help the crops and flowers along. Everyone has been complaining about the dryness--can't hardly walk barefooted--the grass is so dry all over that it crunches when you step on it.

I'm a fireworks addict myself and even with the mosquito population out in force, I really enjoy watching the sky light up with all those beautiful colors, the pops and the booms, the sky rockets and the ground displays. I even envy people in airplanes flying around right at the time when the first "shot" blazes away in the sky--wouldn't that be a beautiful sight!

A fun trip for those of you staying around home base... the Island Queen is again making her tours around Kent Lake near Milford. A replica of an old Mississippi riverboat and one of the most popular attractions in this area, the 45-minute tours run from noon through 6 p.m., Wednesdays through Sundays. So, for something different, why not try a boat trip.

Another attraction for the whole family is a canoe trip on the Huron River around Proud Lake. Boat rentals are available. Coupled with a picnic, it could be a great day.

Good news from the Cavallero family... Carmen was released from the hospital a week ago and is now at home recuperating. It will be sometime yet before he is back in the swing of things but we're glad to hear he's on the mend.

Also home recuperating after surgery is Ruth Counts. We're happy to hear she's doing well although it will be a while before she will be able to resume all her normal activities.

June Sereno is another Wixomite who has returned home from the hospital and we wish her well in her recovery.

Marsha Spencer is settled with her "new" family, Dr. & Mrs. Sevilla and their three sons in Manila, the Philippines. Marsha is spending the summer there as part of the Youth for Understanding Program. Word was received by Pat and George Spencer that Marsha was ready to enter classes at the Philippines Women's University. Her afternoons will be spent at a Finishing School run by her "mother" Mrs. Sevilla. The family has planned several outings to acquaint Marsha with the Islands.

By now our Wixom gals who journeyed to Straussburg, France, with Western's French Club are settled in their new quarters and caught up in the activities of the University.

Terry McAtee, Lori Armstrong and Laura Shoemaker are spending this week at Camp Beach Point. While there, the girls will be attending classes to acquaint them with methods of teaching children the Bible and other Church related subjects.

The past Sunday marked the beginning of the Wixom Baptist Church annual Outdoor Drive-In Church services. This is for the Sunday evening services only and as usual, all are cordially welcome.

And for stamp buffs, the newly organized Postal Service is offering four different historic stamp posters at $1.50 each or all four for $5. They are all on display is the gaily decorated Wixom Post Office and may be ordered by mail.

Beginning July 1, the Post Office System changed over to the U.S. Postal Service offering better, most efficient service to all of us buying stamps. Commemorative stamps and envelopes were on sale the day of changeover and the Post Office was really a blaze of red, white and blue. I was totally unaware of the activity and was really surprised with the pennants and banners strung up announcing the change.

SPEAKING for The Record

By BILL SLIGER

Fifteen years ago there was a chubby, crew-cut, red-headed youngster of about 14 taking most of the pictures and doing all the darkroom work for The Record. As new owner of the newspaper, I wondered how such an important job could fall into the hands of a mere boy.

I was to learn that Harold Duncan Hartley only looked like a boy. He thought and acted like a man.

Harold's 29 now. He's thin, long-haired and the possessor of a doctorate degree in English literature.

He's been a fulltime student since 1960, when he graduated from Northville high school, and he's also been a graduate teaching assistant and instructor while earning his BA degree from the University of Michigan ('64), his MA degree from Wayne State University ('66), and his Ph.D. from WSU in 1971.

This fall Harold will become Dr. Duncan Hartley, assistant professor of English literature specializing in Shakespeare, of William Paterson University in Wayne, New Jersey.

At Wayne State University they call his dissertation the best ever submitted in the department of English. It was a 250-page study of Shakespeare's "The Two Gentlemen of Verona", which required one-and-a-half years of reading and research and six months of writing.

Very little has ever been written on "The Two Gentlemen", which was one of Shakespeare's early plays. Generally, Shakespeare's early works have been considered less intellectual than his later accomplishments.

But Harold's study disagrees and concludes that the so-called stupidity in the play was intentional and that "The Two Gentlemen" was really satire on courtly life, a comedy.

As I chatted with Harold last week, my thoughts went back to the days when I'd call at his house where he would often do work for the newspaper in his own darkroom.

Harold wouldn't always be home. He had other things going besides his job at The Record. He went out for football, played the tuba in the band, had a photography business on the side, and was an avid birdwatcher.

Frequently, I'd interrupt a discussion group composed of a variety of people from all walks of life: Mrs. Hartley, an artist; Mr. Hartley, a carpenter and poet; Dr. Josselyn Van Tyne, head of the U of M Science Museum and recognized as the greatest ornithologist in the world; and many others who enjoyed discussing politics, literature and nature, such as the Dirk Groenenbergs, Jesse Hudson, Roland and Marie Bonimici, the Duncan Hursleys.

Harold was a part of this, too, even as a teenager.

"My parents made life exciting and interesting for me, but not with money", Harold points out.

Mr. Hartley died in 1966 and Mrs. Hartley passed away last year. Harold retains the home whose beauty was its warmth and its cluttered look...the stacked paintings, the nature trails outside unchanged by a gardening; and he inherits a love for nature and a belief that great changes must be made in our society through love, not violence.

The story of Dr. Duncan Hartley (he's dropping the Harold), is probably not unusual. There are many who have worked their way to three degrees and finally gained an $11,000-a-year job as a professor of English literature.

But it's written here for the friends and parents of youngsters who did not accomplish enough to gain more than six lines in a newspaper.

Drab reading, indeed compared to the youngster who signs a five-figure contract to pitch baseball, or becomes an All American tosser of a football.

The press and the public rarely respond to Ph.D.'s in Shakespeare, not when there's a good curve ball or a touchdown pass to write and read about.

From Kyungiu, Korea comes a card from Northville's Clifton Hill. He's on another world tour and reports that in Japan trucks and buses are equipped with television screens in the front and cameras mounted on the rear of the vehicle so the driver has a wide-angle view of what's going on behind.

"It's more accurate than mirrors, no blind spots", says the local attorney. "Wonder who will be the first to import them to the USA", he asks.

Probably Hill.

I'm sure the thousands of area citizens who enjoyed the Fourth of July parade, barbecue and fireworks (celebrated on Saturday) will agree that it was the best ever staged here.

Northville's Jaycees deserve community thanks for an excellent program. The undertaking is a major project which calls for many hours of volunteer effort.

R. Breithaupt

Yes...

The question has been asked, who are better cooks, men or women? Before an answer can be determined a differentiation must be made between cooking and the art of cookery. We already know what cooking means so what about the art of cookery? It means carefulness and inventiveness, willingness and readiness of appliance; it means French art, Teutonic persistency, English thoroughness, and Arabian hospitality. It also means the economy of our grandparents, much testing, no wasting, and the science of the modern chemist.

To master this art takes many years of study, research and hard work. Few women, if any, have the patience, persistence or time to really master this art. True, most women prepare food for their families to eat—they cook. The likes and dislikes of their families and close friends form the perimeters of their culinary knowledge. We find that most women regard cooking as a drudgery much the same as washing dishes, ironing, scrubbing floors, vacuuming, cleaning rugs and the like.

On the other hand, the man who has chosen cooking as a profession must spend years adhering to the criteria of study, research and hard work. Study and research into the culinary delicacies of many countries. He becomes proficient in the hows, whys, whats and whens of food combinations. He also has a deep knowledge of nutritive and chemical substances.

Speaking for Myself

Men Better Cooks Than Women?

R. Reed

No...

Of course not. Heresy. The mind boggles. To squash the idea, to bare the facts on the table, to reduce the entire watery supposition and move quickly to the meat of the matter—an unabridged definition: "Cook (kook), noun; one who dresses or cooks for eating; originally, an officer in large households, later a woman, especially a domestic servant."

My wife is a culinary genius. I have proofs. The household will not soon forget Kahlua and Carp, a succulent entree of broiled fillet basted with a half cup of chick peas and liqueur. Our beagles were awed; a respectful silence hung over the face of that creation.

Or macaroni and cheese, a rare dish so continental as to recall a finely textured Vichyssoise.

Rich, buttery-smooth chocolate fudge: the precious, quiet moments of winter, alone, before the fire place, with love dancing in her eyes, my wife will go like a goddess to the stove and unfailingly return to me with an exquisite sauce for butter almond ice cream.

But no generation lives in isolation. What we are we owe, in no small proportion, to our parents. I have never known spaghetti like that my wife makes. It is an old family recipe her mother sent us from Pontiac.

Editorials... a page for expressions ...yours and ours

by JACK W. HOFFMAN

NOTE: The writer is camping with his sons. Following is one of his previous columns published in October, 1969.

Old Fred Atworthy used to hold court on his rickety porch three lots back of our place.

He was a miserable failure in all that he did but for two remarkable talents. He could shovel a wad of tobacco into his mouth, lather it up in nothing flat and then, with uncanny accuracy, fling a syrupy bullet over the porch railing and splatter a fly on the wing.

Stains on the porch side of the railing were either from deliberate misfires or sudden crosswinds. In steady wind he could adjust his aim, lead the fly a little more, and still score a bullseye. Yet, he never learned to cope with the swirling breezes that sneaked in around the corner of the coal box that hung from the side of the house. But no one discredited him for this singular weakness.

Although he commanded the kids' respect with his chewing and spitting abilities, his greatest claim to fame were the stories that he somehow managed to splice in between his shots at flies.

Old Fred Atworthy could breathe life into the simplest, most ordinary story. Buried deep in his memory or imagination, his first invariably would come out slowly, almost as if it pained him, pick up speed, and then, as it tumbled swiftly down the stretch, drag others after it. Like all good story-tellers, he always saved his best for last.

When old Fred Atworthy worked himself into a lather over his final story he was the world's best. He was like a belching, hissing steam engine on the verge of popping its rivets. And there wasn't a kid around who hadn't wet his pants or ignored an angry parent's call rather than leave and miss the explosion.

He told his most memorable story a few days after a couple of us boys had untied two of his pet goats, opened his screened door, shoved them inside and then ran laughing for our homes. It bothered us a little that he didn't mention the prank but as his stories started to flow, we soon forgot about it.

"I don't like to talk about it," he started, "but I got this here power that scares the dickens out of me sometimes. It goes a long ways back to the time I was out in this storm and got hit by lightning. Lightning's awful stuff, you know. Most times it'll burn you to a crisp. But sometimes, just when you ain't expectin', it goes in one side and comes out the other. Next thing you know you're standing there, alright, but it ain't really you. The sun comes out and your shadow's you and you're your shadow."

"That's the way it happened to me. It's a secret, 'course, and I ain't told no one before. Shadow's got powers you ain't ever dreamed of."

By now all ears were hanging on every word but all eyes watched the old man's shadow hugging the wall. We couldn't be sure who was who.

"Well, most times shadows are nice and don't hurt anybody. But you take a shadow that's really somebody else — well, you know there's nobody any meaner. They sneak around on walls and streets and things just waitin' to grab somebody 'cause they want to trade places. Ain't no other way they can come back, less they get hit by lightning and everybody knows lightning don't hit shadows very much."

"Anyway, awhile back I seen my goats were actin' up. Real edgy, like somebody's after 'em. Then it dawned on me. My shadow wants to trade palces with them goats. After awhile they settled down again and didn't mind nobody. But, as you know, the other day those goats come walkin' into my place just as nice as you please. But 'stead of goat shadows on the wall I sees shadows of boys. Now what do think of that?"

Old Fred Atworthy isn't around anymore, nor is his shadow. But whenever I revisit the old neighborhood, saddened because even his stained porch is gone, I automatically look for a goat shadow. It isn't there of course, but neither is the shadow of the little boy I once knew.

To the Editor;
The Northville Jaycees wish to publicly thank all those people and firms who assisted the Jaycees in carrying out the most successful July 4 festivities ever conducted this year. We express our sincere gratitude to the many businesses and Northville city employees had Christmas in July Tuesday night. The council added another $5,000 to pay increases that had previously totalled $25,000 and took effect July 1.

The Northville township board will seek enforcement of its order calling for the removal of trailers from the Gerald avenue area in Northville municipal court, it was decided at Tuesday Night's meeting.

Construction was underway on an $8.5 million apartment complex located on the west side of Northville road between Seven and Six Mile roads.

...Herman "Bud" Hartner, Northville's superintendent of public works, suffered a broken leg when a ditch caved in while he was repairing a water line. He was working at Northville Downs near the Church and Beal street entrance where an underground water line had broken. He was taken to Community General hospital where x-rays revealed a broken bone near the knee joint.

For the first time in years the state was up to date on its aid payments to Northville schools, thus relieving some pressure for payment of summer bills from the school board.

Buoyed by a warm reception from Congresswoman Martha Griffiths, the Northville city council decided to take a definite aim at obtaining federal funds for urban redevelopment. Mayor A. M. Allen appointed Councilman John Canterbury, who introduced the idea, to head the project.

The Northville township board passed along the findings of the city-township library study committee to the school board "without comment". The report was made June 1 and recommended that administration of the service be placed under the school district and a one mill tax be levied for support.

Jaycee July 4th Chairman

Methodists to Start Vacation Bible School

A child's approach to art, ecology, brotherhood and the Bible in their relation to Christian involvement will be explored this summer in vacation church school at the Northville United Methodist Church.

Mrs. L.M. Lancaster, chairman of the education work area, invites all local children to take part.

Each Wednesday will offer the children a "self-contained" look in depth at their own christian involvement in one area of topical interest:

July 14, music-Christian, modern, pop.

July 21, Bible-its history, its message today: one group will try to write their own psalm.

July 28, brotherhood-races and nations with emphasis on this year's Mission study of South America.

August 4, art-a look at the masters' works for appreciation of our own talents

August 11, ecology-our individual responsibility here in Northville.

August 18, nature trips (permission required).

The school will be held every Wednesday for the six weeks from 9 a.m. to noon. Classes will be held in the new Methodist church education facilities at 777 W. Eight Mile.

Attendance at all six times is not required to enroll. Children may attend on any Wednesday of their choice or on all activity days, officials report. It is hoped that by this arrangement more children will have the opportunity to join in on some of the fun-games, a pinata party, prizes, crafts, trips, and time for pursuing individual interests.

A large staff at the Methodist Church has been busy finalizing plans for the bible school. They are: Margery Lancaster and Lou Wolf, co-directors; Janet Hood, Gerri Parkinson, Joan Phelps and Sharron Owings, kindergarten; Eileen Wittenberg, Dorothy Kirkpatrick and Lane Norton, first and second grade;

Riki Gans and Dale Luebke, third and fourth grade, Charlotte Heath and Peg Beard, fifth and sixth grade, Nancy Bishop, art; Betty Knapp, music; and the Reverend Guenther Branstner, Bible.

Several teenagers will also be working as teacher assistants and general helpers. They are: Merilee Becker, Lori Schutz, Janet Moore, Kathy Miller, Donna Guard, Kim Marshall, Carolyn Duncheck, and Bonnie Angell.

Witnesses Assemble

Jehovah's Witnesses from parts of Michigan, Ohio, and Indiana are planning to attend a five-day district assembly in Jackson from July 7-11.

Among those attending from Northville will be the William Kontz family, the Mike Murany family, Mary and Robert Reimer and the John Badalutz family. In all a turn-out of over 7,000 delegates is expected at the assembly, held at the Jackson County Fair Grounds.

Divine Name District Assembly, as the convention is entitled, is one of many similar gatherings to be held throughout the world this summer. The public is invited to attend, and all sessions are free of charge.

Featured in the assembly program are dramas of Biblical events with relevant meaning for people today. The principle address entitled "When All Nations Collide Head On With God" will be delivered at 3 p.m. Sunday by A. D. Schroeder from Brooklyn, New York.

Arrangements have also been made for an immersion service for those who have made the necessary preparations to be baptized as disciples of Jesus Christ.

Reef Off to Good Start

Reef Manufacturing carded three straight victories recently to kick-off its second round of Adray diamond action with a 3-0 record.

Sunday the local nine downed Hubert Realty 3-2 in nine innings. Friday they had an easier time with Westland, 5-2, and Wednesday scored a 1-0 win over North Farmington.

The Hubert game went scoreless until the bottom of the sixth when Rich Adams singled, went to second on a wild throw and was driven in by a double off the bat of Dan Boehm.

The Livonia team tied it up in the top of the seventh and pulled ahead in the top of the ninth as one run came in on a fielder's choice and a double by Tom Grills.

With one out, in the bottom of that inning, Dennis Benedict blasted a triple for Reef and scored the tying run as he sped for home on a single by Jim Buerss. Buerss went to third as Utley singled and an intentional walk dealt to Dale Griffith loaded the bases.

Hurler John Morrison provided the power that tallied the winning run as Buerss galloped home on his single.

Morrison gave up four hits and three walks, while fanning four men.

Friday against Westland, the Reef nine collected its five-run winning tally in the first inning as batsmen exploded for a pair of triples and a pair of singles.

Rick Boehm led off that inning with a walk. Adams was safe at first on a fielder's choice and a walk to Rick LaRue put two men on.

Dan Boehm ripped a triple, driving in Adams and LaRue, and then sped for home on a single by Dennis Benedict.

A second triple, by Jim Buerss, drove in Benedict and a single by Steve Utley drove in Buerss from third.

Strike-outs ended the inning.

A sixth-inning triple by hurler Bernie Bach provided additional Reef power but the effort went for naught as Bach was stranded.

Bach gave up six hits and six walks, and fanned 11 men, before he was relieved Morrison with two out and two men on in the sixth.

Morrison proceeded to walk a man, loading the bases, and then fired a strike-out to end the inning.

Wednesday's game with North Farmington went scoreless until the fifth inning when Rick Boehm drew a walk, stole second, went to third on a sacrifice by Adams and galloped home on a double by LaRue.

Morrison worked the shut-out, giving up two hits and one walk while fanning 12 men.

OUT—Dick Boehm tried to out-run the throw to first Sunday night but he wasn't in time as Northville's Reef team took on Hubert Realty of Livonia in a nine inning squeaker that ended up 3-2 in favor of the local nine.

B-V Splits in Connie Mack

Novi's B-V Construction wound up 3-4 in the first round of Connie Mack diamond action last week as it picked up two victories from Redford Tooling, 5-1, and 7-5, but then dropped two games, 11-3 and 4-1 to the Patriots and Thurston.

Those two Redford victories came Thursday, 5-1, and last week Saturday, 7-5, as Phil McMillan and Steve Bosak each carded their first winning efforts.

Starting his third game Thursday, McMillan fanned eight while giving up five hits and five walks.

He was also the spark in the Constructor attack with a first inning double that scored Bob Vivian, a fourth inning homer into center field, and a sixth inning sacrifice bunt that squeezed Steve Bosak from third.

Other runs in that game were in the fifth and the sixth as Dennis Fritz forced John Pantalone in with a single and Bob Pisha singled in Bob Vivian.

In all, the Constructor nine collected eight hits and four walks from Redford hurler Douglas Reper.

Bosak laid claim to his first win last week Saturday in his premier performance on the Constructor mound. He was relieved in the sixth, however, by McMillan who retired the side and finished the game.

Kim Smith lead off a five-run first inning in that game with a single.

Pantalone and Bosak were safe at first and second on throwing errors after Smith was picked off at second.

Bosak scored as McMillan singled. Pantalone came in on Vivian's single and Bob Pisha ripped a triple to clear the bases.

A single laid down by Denny Diem scored Pisha.

Things were quiet until the sixth inning when Diem capped Constructor scoring with a three-bag-blast that scored Bosak and McMillan, both on with singles.

The Constructor squad collected a total of nine hits and three walks while Redford worked Bosak and McMillan for six hits and seven walks.

A trio of Constructor hurlers went to the mound last week Tuesday against the Patriots in a vain effort to avert the 11-3 defeat.

Bob Vivian started in his first mound performance of the season to take the loss as Pantalone replaced him in the sixth. McMillan came on in the seventh.

The Patriot squad nipped the three hurlers for only four hits, but were able to parley eight walks and seven costly Novi errors into their 11 run winning tally.

Constructor runs came in the fourth as Diem punched a three-run homer deep into center field.

Last week Saturday, against Thurston, Pantalone took his second loss of the season as the local nine fell 4-1.

The Constructors nipped opposing hurler Brad Channan for one hit, a double in the fifth by Bob Vivian that scored Steve Bosak for the only local tally, and five walks.

"Of four guys on base," said Constructor coach John McMillan, we stranded three."

The local nine was slated to begin their second round of Connie Mack play Tuesday against Harrison with a second game scheduled today against Thurston at Thurston High School.

Two Wins Keep Braves in First

Northville's Casterline Braves picked up two victories last week against Anger Manufacturing, 5-2, and Plymouth Clark Station, 6-2, to maintain a first place tie in Class 'F' Little League competition with Plymouth No. 1.

The two victories left intact a 5-0 record.

The Anger game, Thursday, saw all five runs cross the plate in the fifth inning as Criss Sylvane led off with a walk and advanced to third as Jim LaPlante and Dave Wilson singled to load the bases.

Greg Mack ripped a double to force in two runs as Wilson was caught by the throw to home.

Later in that inning Kurt King singled to score Brent Ashby, who was on with a walk, and Tom Eis who'd been safe at first on a throwing error.

LaPlante went the distance keeping a no-hit shut-out going until the seventh when Anger batsmen nipped him for two runs on three hits.

In the Plymouth game, called in the sixth because of darkness, LaPlante led off the first inning with a triple.

Hurler Dave Wilson followed with a run-scoring double and then went to third on the first of Greg Mack's two singles.

Another double by Kevin Corchran drove in two more runs.

Things were calm for the Braves until the sixth when two more runs scored.

Wilson gave up two walks and three hits while fanning six men.

Friday, the league shaped up like this:

Casterline Braves	5	0
Plymouth1	5	0
Plymouth4	3	1
Clark Station	3	1
Anger Manufacturing Co.	2	2
Plymouth2	2	3
Plymouth3	1	3

90-Yard Ace

With Driver!

Brooklane Professional John Koch says that Dow Swope of Plymouth can hit a golf ball some 250 yards with a driver.

But for some reason Swope chose to use a driver on the 90-yard sixth hole at Brooklane Monday.

It turned out to be a good club selection. He scored a hole-in-one.

Swope was playing in a foursome with his wife, and Mr. and Mrs. Marty Flavin of Plymouth.

It was the seventh hole-in-one recorded at Brooklane this year and the second on the sixth hole.

Four Straight For Fred

Northville's Fred Holdsworth, pitching for Rocky Mount of the Detroit Tigers' Carolina A-League farm club, recorded his fourth straight win in mid-June with a 3-1, nine strike-out stint over Lynchburg.

Through June 20 Holdsworth boasted a 4-1 record with Rocky Mount and the team's leading earned run average, 1.69.

Teams Tied In Knothole

Ten games in Northville's Knothole Hardball league last week saw a first place tie develop between the Thompson Brown Mets and the Township Police Athletics each with flawless 2-0 records.

John Wizard engineered both victories for the Athletics: a one-hit, 7-0, shut-out against Del's Twins and a 6-4 squeaker over John Mach Yankees.

Dave Brewer blasted a triple and a double to pace the Athletics in the Yankee game, Tuesday.

Met hurler Steve Crane worked a two-hit, 8-0, shutout over his co-sponsored team, the Thompson Brown Orioles, and tripled while Dave Barron powered the Met attack with a three-run homer and Don Dales carded a pair of singles.

In their first game, last week Monday, the Mets beat the Record Dodgers 8-2 as Crane fanned eight men.

The Angels and the Wolverines split third place in the league last week each with 1-0 tallies as the Angels bombed the Northville Police Padres 16-6, and the Wolverines carded a 10-1 victory over the Northville Realty Astros.

In the Wolverine game John McIntire and Cliff Griggs each hit three-run homers.

In the rest of the league:

The VFW Giants beat the Casterline Indians 9-3 as hurler John Holdsworth fanned eight men.

Indian power was sparked by Gary Collins who collected a homer in the first inning.

The Yankees were able to out-do Giant power in a later game as Jeff Norton hurled an 11-0 shut-out.

Mike Long hit a triple for the Giants lone extra base hit. The Dodgers handed the Optimist Pirates one of a pair of upsets, 6-5, last week as the Twins worked the second one 5-4.

In the Dodger game, Brian Holloman went to the mound for the Dodgers and fanned 11 as Pete Martinsen blasted a pair of homers and Dave Biery tripled.

Taque Harding engineered the Twin victory, blasting a two run homer as Paul Knapp drove in the winning run with a double to deep left field.

as of Friday, the league looked like this:

Mets	2	0
Athletics	2	0
Wolverines	1	0
Angels	1	0
Giants	1	1
Yankees	1	1
Twins	1	1
Dodgers	1	1
Indians	0	1
Astros	0	1
Padres	0	1
Orioles	0	1
Pirates	0	2

Rangers Capture Novi Title

The Rexall Rangers pocketed first place in Novi's Little League Major Division last week as they bombed General Filters, 22-2, to post a final 11-3 record.

The Victory decided a first place tie with B-V Construction who put the Ranger title on ice by losing 5-3 to the third-ranked Novi Police.

Ranger bats exploded for 18 hits in the Filter game last week Monday. Richard Ling accounted for a triple and a pair of singles while Dave Beall and Craig Pelchat each carded a pair of doubles. Rick Faulkner and Dennis Tuck and Jeff Bunker contributed doubles.

Beall went to the mound for the Rangers and held the opposing nine to three singles.

Mark Frere took the loss. The Novi Police sealed first-place contender B-V Construction in second with a crippling 5-3 defeat last week Tuesday.

The Police won that contest in the fourth and fifth innings as they scored five runs home on one hit and three walks.

Frank Helms walked in the fourth, went to second and third on a walk and a fielder's choice and came home when Constructor hurler John Bosco hit batter Kurt Roderick.

In the fifth, Tom Vaughn's single was the only hit as four runners scored on two walks and two fielder's choice plays. In all, the Police tallied but a pair of singles—Vaughn's in the fifth and one by Bill Miller in the third.

The third inning was the big one for the Constructors as a three-bag blast from Mike Graham and singles from John Bosco, Jeff Laverty and Kevin Ary tallied three runs.

The rally died, however, as the side retired and the Police nine held them scoreless for the remainder of the game.

Steve Kerr took over the Constructor mound in the fifth. Between them, Kerr and Bosco dealt 12 strike-outs and gave up six walks to the Police nine.

In two other games last week, Wroten Brothers grabbed a share of fourth place from Carl's X-Way Shell by lambasting it 15-5, and cellar-dweller Michigan Tractor notched its only victory of the season at the expense of Novi Party Store, 7-5.

In its game with Carl's, last week Tuesday, Wroten collected 15 runs on a pair of doubles by Reggie Casky and five singles, two of which came from hurler Randy Wroten.

Wroten fired 10 strike-outs but issued 10 walks and three hits to Carl's.

Two of those hits were doubles, blasted in the third by Tom Goers and in the fourth by Bob Bannatz.

Last week Monday, Michigan Tractor carded its first victory in 13 starts as it beat Novi Party Store 7-5.

Tractor hurler Mark Langkil walked three and gave up seven hits to the Party Store while fanning six men, but blasted a triple for his team's only extra-base hit.

Two of the Party Store hits were singles off the bat of Mark Gross while Paul LaVoie carded a double.

Brad McQuiston took the loss, peppering his mound performance with 11 strikeouts and eight walks. With the majors preparing for all-star competition against Southfield American Self later this month the final standings shaped up as follows:

Rexall Rangers	11	3
B-V Construction	10	4
Novi Police	8	6
Carl's X-Way Shell	7	7
Wroten Brothers	7	7
General Filters	6	8
Party Store	6	8
Michigan Tractor	1	13

parking accommodations. It agreed that adequate parking is available, perhaps more than presently needed, but that abuses by merchants and their employees fill up prime parking areas.

The city manager was directed to prepare a letter that would encourage use of the fringe area lots by employees of the business district, and would also urge merchants to help promote the city's new, convenient parking facilities, particularly the upper deck of the Cady street structure.

In other business involving the parking deck the council agreed with two members of the Parking Authority, Russell Amerman and Robert Freydl, that a protective fence must be installed around the upper deck, that the facility must be kept clean and rubbish containers provided, and that signs must be erected.

It was also proposed by Councilman Paul Folino that high school art classes be asked to paint murals on the walls of the lower deck to avoid less attractive and offensive artistry.

A sealer has also been ordered for the concrete structure to preserve the surface against damage by water, snow and salt.

Burglar Warnings

Faulkner recommended obvious precautions: cancel paper and milk deliveries, have a neighbor pick up mail, mow the lawn, perhaps park a car in the driveway.

"It's very important," he said, "to let the police department know you're gone and when you'll be back."

Faulkner said that burglaries can occur not only while a resident is on vacation but while he's at the store, or in the backyard garden.

"The biggest single percentage among methods of entry, 20 percent," he said, "is through an unlocked door. It's gotten so that if you want to enjoy your backyard on a summer evening, you'd better lock your front door."

Burglars take things that people like to buy, according to Faulkner, who said that the biggest percentage of items stolen are those that can be sold fast.

"They'll sell a $400 color television to a fence for $50 just to get rid of it," said Faulkner.

as suggested by auditors. —Decided to meet with Detroit Water Board director, Gerald Remus, to determine why water pressure to the city is permitted to drop below the desired 60-pounds. Manager Frank Ollendorff noted that hour-by-hour checks must be made of the water tower and reservoir to be certain that pressures are high enough to keep them filled.

—Decided to advertise for bids on the city's ambulance. The manager reported that it has been unused for more than a year.

—Delayed action on the proposed Randolph drain district designed to handle water drainage for a vast area northwest of the city. The project, which comes under county coordination and involves both Northville and Novi, will cost between $600,000 and $1 million. One plan, favored by Manager Ollendorff, would provide a 12-acre lake on city property west of Taft road and north of Eight Mile that could be used as a recreation area as well as for water-retention purposes. Council wants to study comparative costs.

"Unless we have serial numbers, descriptions or make and model of the stolen merchandise, there's no way in the world we can trace it."

According to Faulkner, one of the biggest single deterrents to police investigation of a robbery, and recovery of the items stolen, is a victim who has no way of positively identifying what was stolen.

"Most things that burglars steal," Faulkner said, "have serial numbers, or model numbers. A list of these numbers plus the make and type of the object should be kept. If there is no identifiable number, the owner should scratch one in: his drivers license, for instance, or his social security number, anything that will identify the object as his."

Another big problem

Faulkner mentioned was residents who disturb the scene of a burglary by walking through it, straightening things up, or touching things.

"Thieves leave distinctive clues behind them," Faulkner said "and these can be destroyed by well-meaning residents anxious to clean-up after a break-in."

"If there's one thing residents should do," Faulkner concluded, "to help the police department, it's to inform them of strangers in the neighborhood. People who come to the door asking for someone who doesn't live there and never has, and then go on to the other side of the street, or simply drive off, should be reported. If they're innocent, no harm can come of it. But if they're casing the neighborhood, someone can be saved a lot of grief."

Race Benefits Go to Cancer

Bob Hines, disc-jockey from WXYZ radio in Detroit will be on hand Friday night to accept benefits from the fourth race at Northville Downs, in behalf of the American Cancer Society.

At the same time Kent Carmer, an eight-year-old Livonia youth who was recently cured of cancer, will drop a blanket around the winning horse.

Plans are currently underway for forming a Northville branch of the American Cancer Society, officials report. Dressings and other supplies will then be available locally to cancer patients in the area.

School's SEV Rate Less than Expected

Final state equalized valuation (SEV) for Northville School District for the 1971-72 school year is $82,532,000, according to Superintendent Raymond Spear who received the figure this week.

Though the SEV is up $7.6 million over last year's figure of $74,908,000, the increase is less than anticipated. Based on an operational millage rate of 28.9, Spear said approximately $2.3 million would be raised in local revenue. The district's budget for the 1971-72 school year is estimated at over $3 million. "The final SEV figure is less than we anticipated," Spear said, "and will raise $75,000 less revenue than we estimated."

Coupled with a state aid loss of $125,000 if the grandfather clause (guaranteeing a school district no less state aid per pupil than received the previous year) is totally cut, the budget exceeds the anticipated revenue by $200,000.

The superintendent said "unless something happens, the school board will have to choose between asking for more millage or curtailing the program by $200,000."

He said the district should know the final state aid by late July or early August. But, should the district have to ask for more millage, a decision would also have to be made whether or not to set the election simultaneously with that of Schoolcraft College.

(On September 13, Schoolcraft will seek voter approval to levy one-half mill for construction and one-half mill for operation.)

"Two millage questions pit one against the other," Spear said, "and could result in the defeat of both requests."

He noted the final decision on whether or not a millage increase is needed can only be made by the school board after the state aid formula is known.

"We just have to wait and see what happens to the grandfather clause in Lansing," he concluded.

Students Earn CMU Degrees

A Novi girl and a Northville man were among the 1,495 students who received degrees from Central Michigan University during recent commencement ceremonies.

Local recipients included Constance Marie Cook of 41840 Aspen Drive, Novi, who graduated "cum laude" with a bachelor of science degree in education, and John Clark Jameson of 45743 Clement Court who graduated with a bachelor of science degree in business administration.

Miss Cook maintained a grade point average between 3.15 and 3.39 (based on 4.0 scale) throughout her college career, earning her the "cum laude" designation.

A TYPICAL REUNION—of Northville's Yerkes' family taken in 1915 at the family's first Northville address, 535 Baseline Road, now Eight Mile.

Northville, Michigan, Friday, July 3, 1931

They Won Their Battle - - Let Us Win Ours!

IN THE RECORD—Symbolizing the patriotic feeling Americans of 1931 had for the Fourth of July is this drawing which appeared on the front page of the Northville Record July 3 of that year.

It was a weekend for celebration. The Fourth of July, 1971—the 196th anniversary of American Independence.

It was a time for parades, public barbecues, donkey baseball games and cascading firework displays illuminating nighttime skies with multi-color explosions. It hasn't always been like this.

Instead of playing baseball on a donkey, a young man would sunny up a greased pole, instead of community barbecues, there were huge family reunions, instead of jumping into the car and driving hundreds of miles to the cottage, there was a stroll through a nearby park or a picnic at a nearby lake.

But the fireworks haven't changed. They've always been the trademark of July Fourth.

While the commercial displays now in fashion may be more spectacular (and certainly, safer), they can't compare with the fun, frolic and confusion caused by the firecracker-throwers of the old days.

Area residents remember Fourth a few decades ago when it was impossible to sleep past dawn for the noise of exploding fire-crackers.

"Everybody had fireworks," recalls Edmond Yerkes, of Northville. "My dad used to come back from Ohio with suitcases full of them. That was the place to go unless you wanted a special display, in which case you'd have to order it by mail."

During the forties, according to Ruth Burkman, another Northville resident, you could see fireworks' displays held over the Detroit River from the hills along Haggerty Road.

Other area residents recall massive family reunions in the twenties and thirties when relatives would come from all over the country to be in one place for one occasion.

"People used to furnish their own amusement," said one long-time Northville resident. "There were picnics and barbecues in Cady's grove," (an apartment house now stands on the Sheldon Road site, north of Northville Downs) "when people would eat home-made ice cream and shoot off Roman candles."

It was a day for patriotism, according to Yerkes, who remembers speeches delivered in the twenties from a bandstand at the intersection of Main and Center Streets in Northville.

If private gatherings, and parade-less fourths were the norm in Northville, they weren't the rule elsewhere attested by an excerpt from The Brighton Argus of July 4, 1899.

"Everything worked together this year to make the Fourth in Brighton a grand success. The weather was all that could be asked for, in fact, an ideal day for this occasion. At an early hour the people, whole families, began to gather on the streets, and between nine and ten o'clock the bicycle parade started from the Western House."

"Although it was not a very large parade, it contained some of the prettiest and most profusely decorated wheels it has ever been our lot to witness."

"After marching through town the parade was led to the fairgrounds by the City Peerless band. Here the one-mile bicycle race, and the Howell vs Brighton ball game occurred in the forenoon."

"After the dinner hour the two bicycle races and horse race took place."

"The ball game between Hamburg and another Brighton team was a surprise to many, resulting in a score of 14 to 2 in favor of the former. The Hamburg boys gave conclusive evidence that they know how to handle a ball. Several pretty double plays were made."

"Immediately after the game the crowd was invited downtown where the program of side sports was carried out. The side sports were a bicycle race on Main Street, a baseball throwing contest, the slow bicycle race, standing broad jump, the hop, step and jump, the putting a shot, the tug of war and the fat man's race."

A 1935 edition of The South Lyon Herald describes a Safer Fourth of July celebration as "another grand success."

The paper tells of "a dandy" parade with first and second place prizes for the best decorated float, the best saddle horse and riding costume, the most comic entry, and the best Shetland pony.

Those without lunches, according to The Herald, "enjoyed a sumptuous dinner served by the Ladies Aid Society in the basement of the Federated Church."

A baby show was "one of the biggest events of the day," as awards were given to the most popular baby, the healthiest, the one with the bluest or the darkest eyes, lightest, curliest or darkest hair, and the baldest head.

Wheelbarrow, leap frog, obstacle, peanut, balloon, three-legged and flag races, as well as contest in pie-eating, husband-calling, cow-calling, slipper throwing and boys running jump highlighted an afternoon of sports action that was capped by a ball game between single and married men in which "the married men proved 7 to 11 that the bachelors were the better."

There's a little of the old-time Fourth's still left in the modern-day celebrations.

The patriotic speeches are gone, but the patriotism remains. The modern patriot is more critical, but no less loyal to Old Glory because he demands that it become even better.

The reunions are gone; but the ease of modern-day travel may be responsible for that. Relatives get together more often now and don't have to plan once-a-year reunions.

There may be fewer fire-cracker accidents, but the self-destruction on the highways has more than compensated for that statistic.

There's something nostalgic about the Fourth of July. Every father and mother can remember the fun they had on the Fourth with their mothers and fathers.

So they take their children. They may think it "isn't the same fun it was when we were youngsters."

But that's what their youngsters will be telling their youngsters in the decades of the future.

So maybe the Fourth's of July haven't changed that much.

Maybe it is just people who change.

HORSES AND BUGGIES—Fourth of July parades in Brighton were conglomerates of the old and new. These pictures taken in 1935 show that some paraders favored the early auto (above) to the horse drawn wagon, below.

Two-Child Exemption Limit Eyed

LANSING — Any children born in Michigan to families who already have two or more children won't be counted as tax exemptions much longer if Senator Gilbert E. Bursley, R-Ann Arbor, has his way. He introduced legislation in the Senate which would allow a family to claim tax exemptions only for their first and second child. The bill is a portion of the program being pushed by those who think the nation must achieve a "zero population growth" — if other attempts to keep the environment clean are to mean anything.

The bill has no chance of passage this year. But, it falls in the classification of ideas that might be just a few years ahead of their time and should be watched — much the same as issues like open housing 10 years ago.

Similar legislation has been introduced in Congress by Sen. Robert Packwood, R-Ore., and Charles Percy, R-Ill.

BURSLEY'S PROPOSAL would not be retroactive to affect families which already have three or more children. It would, in its present form, disqualify children born into a family after December 31, 1972, from being used as income tax deductions if the family already had two other children.

A family could adopt children and count them as exemptions, however, even when they became the third or more children. And, the family which had twins or triplets or larger multiple births could count all of the children as exemptions if the family did not already have two children before the births.

"GOVERNMENT CAN NO LONGER irresponsibly encourage couples to have large families," Bursley said in explaining why he has introduced the proposal.

"If tax exemptions are an incentive for having large families, the trend must be reversed. With the current population growth rate, we must recognize that three children will more than replace the adult population, even taking into account those adults who have no children.

"Solutions to our most pressing problems — including overcrowded classrooms, environmental pollution, transportation, housing and employment opportunities — will be much more difficult to achieve with a continued galloping increase in our population.

"We have given exemptions to families who increase demands in each of these areas and have indirectly required taxpayers who have no children to bear the tax burden and pay the increased expenses. With the passage of these bills, the parents would pay a more realistic portion of the cost to society.

GOV. WILLIAM G. MILLIKEN has been treating some men who normally fall on the other side of the political fence from him with some unusual kindness in recent months.

It all started last winter, when the Governor named former Deputy Secretary of State William Hettiger director of the State Department of Administration. Hettiger is a life-long Democrat and the appointment raised quite a few eyebrows, since the job is a well paying one usually reserved for dissolving political debts.

More recently, the Governor had some very kind words for outgoing State AFL-CIO Gus Scholle, a man who has been a power in the Michigan Democratic Party for years and who has never been known to feel kindly toward Republicans.

Milliken told the AFL-CIO convention that Scholle "has the ability to cut through to the heart of a problem and the courage to tackle the problem once it has been identified." And he told Scholle that he plans to call on him for help in working on the state's problems "as often as you will let me."

NOT LONG AFTER THAT, the Governor's office issued a release saying Livonia Mayor Edward H. McNamara had been appointed to the Governor's Special Commission on Land Use.

The release forgot to say that McNamara was the Democratic candidate for lieutenant governor last fall and that he worked all fall to knock the Governor out of office.

It said McNamara's "achievements and expertise in municipal and regional planning background will contribute significantly to the commissions efforts."

No one in the Capitol could remember the Governor saying one kind word about McNamara during the campaign last year.

Disclosure of the Pentagon Papers, the Justice Department's court action to suppress publication, the arguing in and out of the courts, subsequent publications by newspapers other than the New York Times, and finally the Supreme Court decision have dominated the headlines during the past month.

Ask the man on the street the upshot of it all and he'd probably concede that when Lyndon Johnson was President he lied to the American people. "There was deception in high places," he'd charge.

It would look like this was indeed true. But there are few facts in the 47-volume report that bear out the assertion of lies and deception. And a few columnists have bothered to point out this fact.

William Boyd of Knight newspapers, shortly after the New York Times publication of its version of the documents, related only two incidents which substantiate the hypocrisy conclusion. And Stewart Alsop in Newsweek singled out the same two damaging facts, as revealed in the Pentagon Papers.

On September 4, 1964, there was reportedly a "general consensus" that air attacks on North Vietnam were in order. Less than three weeks later, President Johnson was proclaiming to the American people during an election campaign that he wanted no such thing.

And on April 1, 1965, the president authorized the sending of another 18,000 to 20,000 to Vietnam and gave the word for two Marine battalions to take the war initiative. Yet at the press conference, President Johnson dismissed the suggestion that "anything very dramatic" was taking place, although his action had committed the U.S. inextricably to the "land war in Asia."

Other facts have also been brought to light about the men who apparently drafted the Pentagon Papers that cast some doubt on the validity of the Papers. Reportedly, these men had a bias against the war and furthermore, because of the ordered secrecy of the study, neither the State Department nor high administration officials who had a hand in the war were consulted.

This isn't to say that Lyndon Johnson, the President, is vindicated, nor that the Pentagon Papers should be disregarded as insubstantial records of little consequence, for they definitely do trace our increasing involvement in a hopeless war.

But what one must remember, although he would like to find a scapegoat, is that the Pentagon Papers are just part of the total record or picture. And not until all the assessments have been made and the records are imprinted in history will the truth, or a closer facsimile thereof, be known.

Babson Report

Soaring Labor Costs Unchecked

BABSON'S REPORTS INC. — Labor costs have been moving upward from one all-time height to another, a reflection for the most part of upspiraling pay rates and fringe benefits for workers in all lines of business. An advance in workers' earnings is in itself a sign of prosperous times. But it is also a factor in perpetuating the inflationary pressures that are so dangerous for the country's economy and for the American people.

This is especially true if upward wage adjustments are permitted to run far ahead of the basic rate of increase in worker productivity. Unrestrained raises lead, of course, to additional boosts in prices, then vice versa, until an uncontrollable circle of inflation is established. The present Administration has done little more than its predecessors to slow down this inflationary process. It has issued a few "alerts," made a half-hearted stab at curbing runaway pay hikes in construction, and jawboned a bit against letting wage-price inflation get out of hand. But none of these modest moves has reversed—or even slowed—the powerfully rising trend.

THE RESULT has been an entirely free-wheeling system of labor-management negotiations in all important instances, except for a not unexpected congressional intervention to stop a railroad strike. President Nixon has accepted wage boosts up to 6 percent as noninflationary, although all significant settlements have been substantially larger than that. It may be recalled that the Kennedy and Johnson Administrations set their guideline for raises at 3.4 percent, with any awards above this level considered inflationary. With no inordinate rise in productivity since those days, it would appear somewhat capricious to assume that a 6 percent raise is not inflationary today when an upslant of more than 3.4 percent was so considered only three or four years ago.

The President's continuous aversion to direct wage-price controls still prevails, and those closest to the White House—some of whom have long favored controls—do not expect an early change in his attitude. About the farthest he has gone in the direction of interfering has been to have hints leaked out from his office that import regulations could be used as leverage to keep the settlement pending in the steel industry within reasonable bounds. But nobody expects contract provisions for the Steelworkers to fall below those won in the earlier bargaining sessions in cans and aluminum.

This Administration admitted that the settlement in the can industry—9 percent annual gains plus full living-cost clause—was inflationary. The 31 percent + three-year labor agreement in aluminum improved slightly on that adjustment, especially in such areas as pensions and vacations. Current steel bargaining is expected to continue this pattern of concessions. The union intends to gain a pay hike of approximately 32 percent for the three years, including living-cost escalator provisions. High on the list of demands are better pensions, more liberal weekend work arrangements, and broader vacation bonuses. These outlays will boost labor costs for Big Steel enough to force the corporations to lift prices, despite White House appeals for price restraints.

Fresh wage-price upswirls will not be limited to steel during the remainder of the year. There will be negotiating activity in ship-building, aerospace, electrical equipment, bituminous coal mining, maritime companies, and communications. In each instance, union leaders will feel called upon to win for their memberships wage increases and fringe benefits in keeping with those already racked up in earlier bargaining sessions this year. Since there is still little chance of wage-price curbs unless there is a new twist of inflation that really hurts, companies must prepare for a continuing climb in labor expenditures, at very least through the remainder of the year.

Christianity - Simple or Profound

Arnold B. Cook, Pastor
First Baptist Church of Novi

One cannot help but question whether or not present day christianity with all its profundity is in any way related to the simple life-style as taught by Jesus Christ. Ministers today strive for intellectual sounding titles for their sermons, and the themes upon which they often expound, cover every facet of matter imaginable, often having little relevance to the things of the Spirit.

The younger generation may be justified in pointing a critical finger at the church when it demands genuineness without hypocrisy, and truth that has not been toned down "Tell it like it is", they want to know.

Years ago when the Official Board of Trinity Church in New York made plans for their house of worship, they decided that since Trinity was the church at the nations crossroads, and multitudes of people visiting New York would come to Trinity for worship—and too, since there were different ministers preaching to the changing crowds of people, they wanted to make certain that each minister knew what his task was, so they had carved into the desk-top of the pulpit one sentence (unseen by the people, but always visible to the preacher) That sentence was: "Sirs, we would see Jesus".

Yes, Christianity is Christ

— diminish Him, and whatever else you put in His place, be it ever so palatable to the intellect, or stirring to the emotions, or entertaining to the flesh, and you have but a poor substitute.

Man today has not devised a more needful message, nor a message with a greater subject than the Bible presentation of the love of God revealed in and through Jesus Christ. Man with all his frustrations, anxieties, temptations and fears needs to know that Jesus Christ came into this world to deliver man, not only from sins penalty, but also from sins power, and from the problems of self and society. Christ alone in the power and plenitude of His saving grace is man's only way of escape.

The world cries, "Sirs, we would see Jesus", and the Bible exhorts its ministers to "Preach the Word", but in spite of the need of the hour and the command of our Sovereign God, ministers strive for profundity, and shun the simple faith.

To believe in Jesus Christ and to commit ones self by faith to Him is a simple child-like exercise. In doing this one discovers that Christ is all that he needs. He is our Saviour from sin. He is our Priest, and by His priestly function prays for us, and to alleviate our concern for the future, He is our coming King.

We make Sunday reservations

Thursday we breakfasted in Paris and then had a business lunch in New York. On Friday, we joined a conference in San Francisco. With the new space-age technology, we feel so free, as though we have conquered time and distance and everything.

Well, maybe not everything!

You know some things can't be answered by better machines. So, wherever we are, we go to church on Sunday. How about you?

Whether it's a trip through Traverse City's fabulous cherry orchards or just enjoying the music of an Alpine band while sipping on a frothy beverage, Michiganders planning vacations or weekend trips this month (July) are sure to find something to their liking.

Highlighting the 11 major events that are listed on Automobile Club of Michigan's feature map for July 12 to 25 are Traverse City's Cherry Festival and Gaylord's Alpenfest.

Approximately 300,000 persons are expected to attend the Cherry Festival which runs from July 12-17. Among those attending will be Governor Milliken, Buddy Ebsen of the Beverly Hills TV program, who is grand marshal, and Cherry Queen Trudy Annette Lindsay of Central Michigan University.

Most attention will be directed toward the Grand Cherry Royale Parade on Friday, July 16, at 2 p.m. in downtown Traverse City.

Featured will be floats, bands, military color guards plus special dignitaries.

Gaylord's 7th annual Alpenfest, with an emphasis on parades, band concerts, a water show, an all-terrain vehicle race plus loads of free entertainment, runs July 14-17. A crowd of 50,000 is anticipated.

The 75th anniversary of the car will be celebrated during the Automobile Diamond Jubilee July 15-17 at Greenfield Village in Dearborn. The event is open to the public with 500 persons participating in the Jubilee.

Upper Peninsula travelers will find the Ferrous Frolics at Caspian, July 15-18, an interesting attraction. It is to be held in conjunction with the Michigan Art Fair, which will be in nearby Iron River. The Art Fair is carrying four carloads of paintings, sculptures and carvings to 25 Michigan counties.

ALCOHOL IS ONE OF TWO LARGEST SINGLE FACTORS INVOLVED IN MICHIGAN TRAFFIC FATALITIES. SPEED TOO FAST FOR CONDITIONS IS THE OTHER. A RECENT STUDY SHOWED 50 OF 207 DRIVERS INVOLVED IN 135 FATAL ACCIDENTS, OR 24 PERCENT, HAD BEEN DRINKING TO THE POINT OF IMPAIRMENT. POLICE WERE UNABLE TO BE SURE IN AN ADDITIONAL 48 PERCENT. THREE KINDS OF PERSONS WERE INVOLVED: THE ALCOHOLIC, THE SOCIAL DRINKER WHO EXCEEDS HIS LIMIT AND THE YOUNG DRIVER—WHO MAY BE EITHER.

In June 23-24 paper we printed an article on proper stock seat equitation. Due to a mix-up, only half of this article was printed and that was the rules for the American Horse Show Association. There is, however, another set of rules that a horse and rider may be showing under, that of the American Quarterhorse Association. These rules state:

YOUTH ACTIVITIES

Paragraph 559 Hands: Both hands and arms shall be held in a relaxed easy manner with the upper arms to be in a straight line with body, the one holding reins bent at elbow. Free hand will be partially closed and held near the belt with elbow bent causing the hand to be near but not against the body in front of the right side; however, when using a romal the rider's off hand shall be around the romal with at least 16 inches of slack.

Some movement of the arm permissible, but excessive pumping will be penalized. Hands to be around reins. Fingers between reins are permitted when using split reins but not with romal. Reins are to be carried immediately above or slightly in front of the saddle horn. Only one hand is to be used for reining and hand shall not be changed. Reins should be carried so as to have light contact with the horse's mouth and at no time shall reins be carried more than a slight hand movement from the horse's mouth.

Sally Saddle

To "The Horse's Mouth": There has been quite a bit of "tom-fool-orey" going on in the western classes of Livingston and Oakland Counties Horse Shows.

English Jackets over the cantle of a western saddle covers many a bouncing bottom these days! Although I've yet to see a western coat in an English class, it is interesting to note that most English judges would be able to tell the difference between English and western attire. I have noticed, however, very few western judges who can tell the difference or care to know this difference in the show ring.

Thanks,
Mary Ann Pappas

HUNDREDS of school children will use this new Outdoor Activities Center at Proud Lake Recreation Area in Milford. The $120,000 Center was recently added to the Education Group Camp facilities. School groups from surrounding counties use the center for nature study. The Michigan Department of Natural Resources accepted the building. The 4,720-sq. ft. structure blends into the natural setting with its design and wood shingle roof. It has a large assembly room equipped with natural science study centers. There is a fireplace and a balcony-library at one end. Movie projection facilities are provided for both inside and outside viewing. The 15-acre Proud Lake educational facility also has dormitories, dining hall and an outdoor amphitheater.
