Planners Deny Zoning Request

A request by Chatham Supermarkets, Inc., to rezone lots adjacent to its North Center street store from residential to commercial to provide 55 additional parking spaces was unanimously denied Tuesday night by members of the city's planning commission. An audience of about 30 citizens, mostly residents of the immediate area, applauded the decision.

Chatham, which opened its new Northville market in August and indicated that customer response has necessitated additional parking space, modified its request Tuesday night. But neighbors found it no more acceptable.

Instead of seeking ingress off Walnut street to a proposed employee parking lot, company spokesman Ted Simon said it would drop that plan and ask only that an area on Center street immediately north of the store be rezoned. Simon said this lot would accommodate 55 cars. He said it would be entered from the existing Chatham lot, not off Center street, and he proposed a wall on the northern and western boundary of the lot adjoining neighboring residential lots.

Mrs. Oscar Hammond, who resides at the corner of Center and Walnut street next to the proposed Chatham lot, told planners she opposed the plan. She said that if the rezoning were granted, she requested that her property be rezoned commercial also. Similar sentiments were expressed by Harry Larkin, 113 Walnut, who suggested that Chatham should purchase both his house and Mrs. Hammond's to create a greenbelt buffer between the proposed parking lot and other residences on Walnut and Center streets.

Most other citizens took the position that commercial zoning should stop right where it is on North Center street.

Mrs. Rolf Batzer, 711 North Center, said Northville was becoming a "blacktop community" and she urged Chatham officials to "let things level. Give your business a little more time. Other new markets in neighboring areas may cut down your need for additional parking."

Essie Nirider, while not speaking in favor of the rezoning for Chatham, pointed out that North Center street offered prime commercial property, especially on the east side across from Chatham, and he wondered how far north planners anticipated commercial would extend.

The six planning commission members present—Chairman Thomas Wheaton, Fran Gazlay, Robert Lang, Charles Freydl, Jr., David Biery and Burton DeRusha—took the position that commercial zoning should stop at Chatham. They termed an extension of commercial as "strip zoning" and noted that it was not called for in the

'Novi Can't Quit Drainage District'

With word that neither party can now unilaterally withdraw from the Randolph drainage district, the cities of Northville and Novi have only until November 17 to reach agreement over an independent solution to drainage problems.

At the request of Novi City Manager George Athas, the two bodies were to meet this week to discuss an alternate "holding pond" proposal suggested by Novi's engineers, Johnson and Anderson.

In the event agreement cannot be reached, the inter-county drain board probably will order implementation of its own proposal.

And even if agreement is reached there has been no assurance by the drain board that it will permit an independent, alternate proposal.

The drain board is composed of representatives of the Wayne and Oakland county drain commissions and the Michigan Department of Agriculture. The drainage district includes the Novi area between Beck and Taft roads near Nine Mile and much of the City of Northville through which the Randolph drain passes before emptying into the Rouge River branch.

In a Northville meeting before the drain board last week in which Novi formally requested withdrawal from the drainage district, Novi was reprimanded by State Director of Agriculture, Stanley Quackenbush, who bristled, "I think it's a damn late time to say now you want to pull out."

Emphasizing that both communities had formally petitioned two years ago for the drainage district and drain board deliberations, he told Novi officials that there is no statutory provision for withdrawal and that Novi's only unilateral withdrawal recourse at this time is through the courts.

The record will show, he declared, that Novi was apprised of what establishment of a drainage district meant, that hearings had been held, and that the drain board had at the request of the two communities ordered engineering.

Out of those engineering studies, conducted by Novi's engineering firm working for the drain board, came three proposed solutions, ranging in cost from $670,000 to well over $1 million.

Both communities found the estimated costs "high" but whereas Northville has been willing to go along with one of the three plans with some modification, Novi found the costs' exorbitant and completely unsatisfactory because none of the proposals suggested any physical improvements in Novi.

In an effort to find a less costly alternative that would provide physical improvements inside Novi, Novi councilmen ordered Johnson and Anderson to come up with a proposal independent of those recommended to the drain board.

It is this alternate proposal, which basically calls for establishment of a detention system inside the City of Novi, that is now being studied by the two cities. Cost has been pegged at $195,000.

When informed of this separate proposal by J & A last week, the drain board was surprised and skeptical—both because J & A had recommended three alternatives to it and now an independent proposal to Novi and because the same firm proposes to the drain board proposals of one cost and a proposal to Novi of still another cost.

J & A representatives attending the drain board meeting defended the

Leonard Broquet

New Draft Law Forces Him Out

A Northville man, Leonard Broquet, apparently will have to step down from the Plymouth Draft Board 102 because he has served too long.

And another Plymouth board member and one from the Farmington board will lose their voluntary, appointed positions because they are 65 years or older.

These forced retirements are the result of the new selective service amendments enacted by Congress and recently signed into law by President Richard Nixon.

The Plymouth board serves the Northville area, while Farmington serves Novi, Wixom and South Lyon.

Despite the fact that this and other newspapers were notified last week of the amendments by the Selective Service headquarters in Washington, neither the local board nor the Lansing headquarters would release names of those local board members who have served 20 years or more.

Broquet, who lives on Eight Mile Road, apparently is affected because two years ago he acknowledged proudly that he had by that time served voluntarily for 21 years.

Members who will lose their positions because they are 65 years old or older are: John L. McKersy, member of Local Board 102 in Plymouth and Walter M. Coon of Local Board 328 in Farmington.

State and local officials, in refusing to disclose names, explained that they had not yet been notified of the law and are still waiting informal interpretation of it. "Until we are notified we cannot give out any names," Plymouth Executive Director Dorothy

Lynn told this newspaper. Initially, she started giving the names and then, after leaving the telephone a

Ask Sewer Cost In Subdivision

Prompted by reports of some septic tank failures, the Northville City Council Monday ordered "preliminary rough cost estimates" for extending sanitary sewers to Northville Estates subdivision.

The subdivision is located on the north side of Eight Mile Road, opposite Moraine Elementary School. Originally part of Novi Township, property owners voted annexation to the city several years ago.

Despite septic tank failure reports, it was apparent by comments Monday that many residents of the subdivision either oppose or are reluctant to having sewer lines extended to the subdivision—primarily because of cost.

Donald McDonald of 46855 Dunsany formally requested the cost study.

In a letter to all neighboring residents of the subdivision, McDonald noted that the Oakland County Environmental Health Department had inspected the failure of his septic system—a system installed less than three years ago—and was less than optimistic about corrective steps "to remedy an already poor situation both in my case and in many other systems now installed throughout the subdivision."

Because of the poor soil condition for septic tank drainage, building in the subdivision has ceased, the council has learned. Members were told by a builder, following Monday's meeting, that some homeowners are reluctant to call in the health department fearing their systems will be condemned. Mayor A. M. Allen directed City Manager Frank Ollendorff to obtain cost estimates but emphasized that this is not to include any preliminary engineering.

Presently, the western terminus of sanitary sewers is located on the Thompson-Brown development property, northwest of Taft and Eight Mile Roads. To reach the subdivision, the trunk sewer would have to cross undeveloped private property, subdivision residents were informed.

Residents also were told that the sewer had been oversized to accommodate all city property west to Beck Road. Therefore, in addition to the cost of extending the main line and installation of laterals subdivision property owners also will have to share the cost of the present oversized sewer.

Election Forum Set Monday

A "Meet Your Candidates" night co-sponsored by the League of Women Voters and the Northville Jaycees will be held at 8 p.m. Monday in the Northville City Hall council chambers.

The forum is open to the public to give citizens an opportunity to meet the candidates seeking election in the November 2 municipal election.

Three candidates for two vacancies on the City Council invited to speak are David M. Biery, Wallace Nichols and Paul R. Vernon. The council posts are four-year terms. Also appearing will be A. Malcolm Allen, who is unopposed for mayor, a two-year term. Allen presently is serving in that office.

Five minutes will be allowed for candidates to answer the question, "Do you feel that the City of Northville should explore areas and methods for extending the spirit of cooperation between the City and Northville Township?"

The meeting then is to be thrown open for questions from the floor.

Amendments Published

With names of only three candidates for two council seats and an unopposed mayoral candidate appearing on the ballot, much of the voter interest in the November 2 election is likely to center on the proposed city charter amendments.

The seven amendments, including the specific questions to appear on the ballot, are published in full on Page 10-A of this week's Record. City officials advise voters to study them before going to the polls.

Amendment proposals concern these general areas: election of city officials, city manager and his duties, taxation, borrowing power of the city, assessments, and the judicial system.

Next week The Record will publish biographies and statements by the three council candidates.

Rev. Johnson to Move

The Reverend Timothy C. Johnson, member of the Northville Board of Education, has accepted the pastorate of the First Presbyterian Church in Montpelier, Ohio.

TIMOTHY JOHNSON

Mr. Johnson, who has served as assistant pastor of the First Presbyterian Church in Northville for the past four and one-half years, will assume duties in Montpelier December 1.

"My family and I have had a great experience in Northville," Mr. Johnson said, "one that can only be described in superlatives."

"But it's time to move on and get a parish of my own. It's something that I've wanted for a long time," he said.

Montpelier, with a population of 5,000, is located in northwest Ohio. The congregation numbers 320, Mr. Johnson said.

The Elders of the church accepted Mr. Johnson's resignation Sunday night "with regret," noting he is "well prepared to serve (a parish of his own) with distinction."

The Reverend Lloyd G. Brasure, pastor of the church, said the loss of the assistant pastor will be felt in the "fine program for youth and Christian Education that has been built by Mr. Johnson during his four and one-half years here.

"He has been of immeasurable help in pastoral duties and his friendly warm nature has endeared him to many families of church and community," the pastor said. "Our first full-time ordained minister as assistant has given us a high mark of excellence for which to strive in the future," Mr. Brasure noted.

While in Northville, Mr. Johnson has been active in the Youth Services Committee, past advisor of the Cavern Teen Club, probation department of the district court, DARTE committee and the Northville School Board.

His resignation from the school board goes before trustees Monday.

A farewell open house for Mr. Johnson will be held on his last Sunday in the Northville pulpit, November 21, from 2 to 4 p.m. in Fellowship Hall. Friends are invited to attend, Mr. Brasure said.

Given Town Hall Ovation

Bishop Sheen Talks of Love

Bishop Fulton J. Sheen, the 76 year old prelate well known for his conversions and his vigorous opposition to Communism, came to Northville Town Hall last Thursday to talk to a capacity audience about love.

"Love used to be the solution to all problems, but love today is our problem," he began after being introduced by the Reverend John Wittstock of Our Lady of Victory Church.

In English, he explained, there is only one word for love—"so we love pickles; we love God, and we love the New York Mets."

The Greeks, he continued, had three words: "Eros, something beautiful that pulled us ahead. This is the kind of love that induced President Harding, when asked who he would like to be if he could come back to earth, to reply, 'My wife's second husband'."

The second type of love he cited was Philia—love of humanity and fellow man which young people have developed, and the third was Agape, which, he said, has no English equivalent but means the kind of love that is not reciprocated.

"The noble love of Eros," he said, "was reduced by Freud into erotic so that it has become sensational love today. That's why there are so many 'how to' books. They drink the water and forget the glass."

"Sex," he declared, "is replaceable—love is not." What is pornography? Bishop Sheen defined it as "an abstract interest in something for which the concrete purpose has been lost."

He pointed out that the Bible "never refers to marriage in terms of sex. The word used is 'knew' because there is no closer unity in nature than between the mind and what it knows."

He defined sex as both something physical and spiritual "used for the communication of love and unity."

If sex were purely physical, he pointed out, "it would be easy to explain, but parents know that this is not all and that love must always be a bond."

In defining Philia love, he stressed that this is not the love of husband and wife but love of fellow man.

"It's good that young people have developed this Philia love, but they sometimes pick and choose. In real Philia, we love all."

The bishop differentiated between loving and liking. Liking, he stated, is an emotion "over which you have no direction, but loving is under our will."

The third kind of love, Agape, was a new kind of love introduced when the Lord came, Bishop Sheen said, pointing out that the New Testament in Greek used the word Agape 250 times.

In older times, he added, the word was "charity." "This love is the meaning of resurrection—this is love at its peak."

"There should be more of this love that makes it possible to love your enemies, but it is not developing but becoming rarer and rarer."

To illustrate this "love of the unlovable," Bishop Sheen told of visiting a leper colony with 500 silver crucifixes to distribute. As the first leper held out his wasted hand, eaten by corruption, he recounted, "I dropped the crucifix into his hand—and suddenly there were 501 lepers."

He told how he quickly reacted, "dug it out of the corruption" and then pressed it and the 499 other crucifixes into each hand.

No one, he concluded, has love in a perfect degree. Today's tragedy, he said is that "so many people in this world are unloved."

In response to a question after the celebrity luncheon at the Ten Mile Grand River Holiday Inn, Bishop Sheen suggested the "rebuilding of the home and being helpful to neighbors" is a way women can develop love.

As a way to help young people, he suggested that all religions should cooperate to "instill morality and patriotism in the unchurched young."

"The level of any civilization is its womanhood," Bishop Sheen said as he cited how women love and the whole person, "never just a leg."

"His opinion of the Jesus People, he said, is 'high'." "They are of various colors in the spectrum, looking for something spiritual."

However, he warned, "We're dropping too many things. We go down to win people, but we drop too much we have to lift people up."

"Too many of those dealing with young people are coming down to their level, and young people don't want this...they're leading us when we don't lead, but we should lift them up."

Youth he declared, is waiting to be challenged. He told of visiting more than 400 campuses during the last year and his feeling that there is a great "potential for good." Youth, he observed, is good on protests but not on reforms.

"We need followership as well as leadership," he said, commenting that people are led to God "one by one, not by the barrelful."

Mrs. Jack Doheny, Town Hall chairman, opened the 11th season at Northville High School and pointed out that this was the first sell-out season at the high school location. She announced that Irene Kampen, author and lecturer, will appear November 11.

TOWN HALL OPENER—Bishop Fulton J. Sheen, first speaker in the 1971-72 season at Northville Town Hall, poses with Mrs. Jack Doheny, new chairman, after he received an ovation last Thursday.

In Our Town

By JEAN DAY

DOOR BELLE volunteers in the 1971 residential campaign of the United Foundation Torch Drive are "doing very well," Mrs. Robert Yanover, Northville City and Township residential chairman, commented Tuesday as she relayed the first total—$2,082—collected by workers.

"We're still working, especially in the new areas of the community where we didn't know any volunteers," she added, explaining that the door-to-door total results will be in this Friday.

Neighborhood workers, named "Door Belles" by the United Foundation this year, presently are making return calls to homes where residents were not reached last week.

BASE LINE Questers will be presented with a Certificate of Award from the state organization of the antiques society at their meeting at 1 p.m. next Wednesday at the home of Mrs. T.N. Kampf, 21600 Haggerty Road.

The award was announced at the state meeting last Wednesday in Ann Arbor in recognition of the chapter's donation to the Northville Historical Society and its support of the society's aims. It was accepted by Mrs. John Burkman.

Representatives of all four area Quester chapters heard Richard Frank speak on his work as reconstruction architect for Fort Mackinac and Fort Michilimac. While these reconstructions were tourist motivated, he pointed out, they are part of the state's recognition of Michigan heritage.

He cited 1966 as a "landmark year" as the state then passed the Historic Preservation Act to register historic sites and award grants for preservation.

Next semi-annual state meeting was scheduled for May 17 at the Ramada Inn in Muskegon.

MEAD'S MILL Chapter of Questers has been invited to hold its October meeting at the home of Mrs. Burkman at 8 p.m. today (Thursday). Members of Silver Springs and Novi Station VI chapters have received special invitations to join the chapter. (Since Mrs. Burkman is a Base Line member, that chapter already has viewed her Victorian home and collections.)

Mrs. S. C. Oldford, a Mead's Mill member, will show and explain her mother's Victorian glassware collection. Last Sunday Mead's Mill members attend the Ann Arbor flea market as a field outing.

TWO SOLDIERS of the American Revolutionary War are buried in the Novi Cemetery. They were remembered last Sunday as Plymouth Corners Society, Children of the American Revolution, celebrated Patriotic Education Week by making and placing wreaths on the graves.

Members first met at the Brookland Farms home of Mimi and Jack Merwin to make two evergreen wreaths. Under the direction of President Terry Lapham and Senior President Mrs. Richard Hurlburt they went to the cemetery to lay the wreaths on the graves of Caleb Carr Sr., 1762-1839, and Hooper Bishop, 1762-1861.

They reconvened for a meeting, cider and doughnuts. The society has sent used clothing to the Tamassee DAR school in North Carolina and Store coupons to Crossnore school, North Carolina. They plan to collect toys and games to send at Christmas.

BATIK—or writing with wax—was demonstrated by Mrs. Jessie Hudson for Northville Woman's Club members last Friday at Northville Presbyterian Church.

She explained that batik work on fabric is the same process of wax-resist used to decorate Easter eggs. She stretched fabric over wooden frames and used a "dijanting" pen; designed for this work, to create the wax pattern. Either paraffin or beeswax is used, she said.

Aniline cold-water dyes are used, Mrs. Hudson stated, so that the wax does not melt in the step-by-step process of dyeing, drying and reapplying wax before another color is applied. After the last dye bath—traditionally black—the fabric is wrinkled to produce the "crack" effect of batik.

The wax then is ironed out of the fabric onto layers of newspaper. Most of Mrs. Hudson's batik work is used as wall hangings, although she has created linen bags. She explains that most students hope to make dress fabric and are disappointed as it is not washable. (Some Northville high art students, however, report they have been getting good results by using commercial dyes.)

AN EVENING of punch and live theatre called "Punch 'n' Play" again is planned by the Plymouth Branch of the American Association of University Women. The encore to last year's very popular event is set for Sunday, November 7.

Local AAUW members will open their homes to serve champagne punch and hors d'oeuvres from 5:30 to 7 p.m. The evening will continue with the performance of "See How They Run" at Farmington Players' Barn. Reservations must be made by November 1 with Mrs. Phillip Settles, 254 Blunk Street, Plymouth. They are $3.50 a person.

Northville Senior Citizens will follow an outing to Greenfield Village last Friday with a cooperative dinner at 6 p.m. next Tuesday at the Northville First Presbyterian Church.

Miss Katherine Giltner, a club member, has been invited to show her travel films. Mrs. William Wendover, program chairman, announced.

Twenty-five members toured Greenfield Village and had dinner at Clinton Inn on the October outing. Mrs. Richard Sharron served as trip chairman with Jack Blackburn making transportation arrangements for the club.

Leppien-Finney Vows Read

As Patricia Susan Leppien, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce R. Leppien, 42065 Baintree Circle, Northville Commons, became the bride of Donald James Finney of St. Louis, Missouri, in an 11 a.m. Mass at Our Lady of Victory Church October 2, she wore a mandarin collared white crepe gown she made. Bands of lace entwined with white ribbon decorated the front, extending from shoulder to hem. The bishop sleeves were gathered into six-button cuffs. She carried a cascade arrangement of white daisies and yellow roses interspersed with ivy and fern. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Finney of St. Louis. The Reverend John Wyskiel officiated. Organist Paul Laboda played "Prayer of St. Francis," "Our Father" and "Let There Be Peace on Earth." While "On This Day, Oh Beautiful Mother" was sung, the bride placed her bouquet in front of the Blessed Mother statue. Teresa Jean Leppien was her sister's honor maid while another sister, Marcia, was junior bridesmaid. The bridegroom's sister, Mary Beth Finney, was ringbearer. All wore whipped creme crepe gowns in the same design as the bride's, made by the bride's mother. They carried colonial bouquets with yellow daisy mums, orange shag mums and brown dried flowers tied with brown ribbons. The autumn colors were repeated in altar arrangements of mums and fall leaves. Best man was Dennis Brandon of St. Louis. Ushering was Robert E. Berg of Dearborn Heights, brother-in-law of the bride. For the wedding and reception following at the Thunderbird Inn, the bride's mother wore a blue lace dress with sleeveless blue silk shantung coat. The bridegroom's mother wore a pink chiffon dress and matching coat. Guests attended from St. Louis, Dayton, Ohio, and from Saginaw, Bridgeport, Clare, Flint, Grand Blanc and nearby. For a weekend trip to Ann Arbor and on to St. Louis, where the newlyweds will make their home at 1010 Tillie Lane, the new Mrs. Finney wore a multi-print purple dress and purple coat with black patent accessories.

Believing quality education benefits society as a whole and is everyone's responsibility, Lloyd H. Green Post 147 and Auxiliary of the American Legion are joining posts across the nation in observing American Education Week October 24-30.

This year's theme is "Help Schools Bridge the Gap."

The local post is urging residents to visit the schools, attend school board meetings and offer to help the schools in any way one is able.

American Education Week was begun by the American Legion in 1921 as a joint venture with the National Education Association. The National Congress of Parents and Teachers and the United States Office of Education later joined in sponsoring the week.

"Much good has resulted from the Legion's concern for education," a spokesman for the local post commented.

Listed as the most outstanding accomplishment is the GI Bill and its provision for education for World War II veterans and later veterans of Korea and Vietnam.

Legion officials point out every high school has the booklet "Need a Lift?" listing all scholarships available to children of veterans. The booklet is provided through the local American Legion Post and its Auxiliary.

Council Refutes Ruling on Drain

Reaction to comments made by Intercounty Drain Commissioner Stanley Quackenbush at a special meeting between the Drain commission, engineers, and the city managers of both Novi and Northville came at Monday night's Novi city council meeting.

The Friday meeting was called to discuss the status of the Randolph Drain that has been pending for the past two years.

Carrying out the directions given him by the council, Novi City Manager drew the criticism of Quackenbush when he reported that Novi did not wish to participate in the project as it is presently planned.

Novi's primary objection to the plan is the manner in which the costs will be divided. Traditionally costs have been divided on the basis of acreage.

Engineering studies reveal that 472 acres of the drainage district in issue are in Northville, while 382 acres are in Novi.

Novi councilmen, however, are reluctant to participate on an acreage basis.

For one thing, councilmen contend the problem is Northville's and was created by Northville when they allowed development of a subdivision to take place on a drainage plain — specifically, Thompson and Brown's Lexington Commons development.

Furthermore, council members object on the basis that Novi will have nothing tangible to show for their money, as all of the work is slated to be done in Northville.

In Friday's meeting, Quackenbush criticized Novi and Athas when he learned that Novi was requesting to withdraw from the drainage district.

When Athas explained that Novi's decision was based on what it felt was the unfair division of costs, Quackenbush asked where Novi got the idea that costs would be divided on an acreage basis.

Both Mayor Joseph Crupi and Clerk Mabel Ash, who gave reports to the council of Quackenbush's attack on Athas, praised the city manager for his "cool" handling of the situation. Crupi went on to say that Athas had told him that he feels the drain commission would not assess Novi more than 15 percent of the cost as a result to the meeting.

Northville City Manager Frank Ollendorff has stated that Northville will abide by whatever the commission decides.

Councilman Donald Young was critical of Quackenbush's statement that Novi was committed to the project regardless of how the costs are divided. "We went into this," Young said, "with the understanding that we could get out of it at any time before we agree to the division of costs."

Other council members supported Young's statement. Novi and Northville representatives were to meet yesterday (Wednesday) to

Middle School Headache

Sewer Work Continues

Opening any new school, most administrators will admit, produces some headaches.

But in Novi administrators are experiencing a head-banger that challenges the best aspirin TV can offer.

And apparently — Aspirin or No Aspirin — there's no relief in sight.

Target of growing parental anger, administrators early this week saw little hope for the immediate opening of the Novi Middle School which originally was scheduled for occupancy in September.

Earliest possible occupancy, said harassed Assistant Superintendent T. Richard Hendrickson Tuesday, appears now to be late next week and even that may be unlikely.

Corrective work on the sewer line between the Taft-11 Mile road arm to the school continued Tuesday, he explained, and there was no assurance that it would be completed this week. It is possible, he added, "that we will be in a position to make a decision Thursday (today) or Friday."

In the event that the decision is a positive one, he explained, parents of middle school students will be notified of the opening one week later. The week time-lag between a decision and the opening is to permit sufficient notification of parents, he said.

One problem after another has forced postponement since part of the new school, located southwest of the high school, was partially and temporarily occupied when classes resumed after the summer vacation.

Since then middle school students have been sharing the high school on a half-day basis.

Initially, sufficient construction was completed inside a portion of the new school to prompt occupancy even though many small but irritating jobs remained unfinished.

But sewer construction delays forced administrators to vacate the building almost immediately. Those delays have continued, although specific work details have changed from one area to another.

Now, even as workmen near completion of what appears to be the last bottleneck in the sewer line, still another barrier may be looming, admitted Hendrickson.

Although the furnace has been installed, workmen are about to fire it up and test it, he explained. Should those tests uncover defects correction work also could delay occupancy. In September, before cooler weather set in, heat was not needed. Now, however, occupancy before heat can be provided could disrupt even the best laid plans.

Although the building is far from completed, the state fire marshal has granted approval for partial occupancy. In the portion of the building (about 35 to 40-percent) that could be used most of the finish work has now been completed, said Hendrickson. Hard surfacing has been installed on the middle school drive and part of the parking area, he said, to facilitate use by buses.

Once the sewer line is completed, the school will be using it temporarily as a holding reservoir only. That's because the interceptor into which the 11-Mile arm is tied is not completed and is not expected to be until late this year.

On this temporary basis, effluent from the school will empty into the line held there, and then be pumped into trucks.

About the only other alternative opened to the school board at this time is to temporarily tie the middle school into the high school disposal system. But officials, particularly health department personnel, question this plan.

Already overworked to the point of producing surface liquid, the high school disposal system is to be abandoned once the 11 Mile arm and interceptor are useable.

To temporarily use the high school disposal system for the middle school would necessitate major alterations to meet health department requirements. Cost of those alterations have been estimated at $20,000.

Easiest solution it would seem, as pointed out to board members several weeks ago, would be to install temporary outhouses—the kind used on construction sites.

But board members have already explored this possibility and have learned that the state will not permit them for schools.

Don Sheldon Responds To Inquiries on Busing

A statement regarding cross district busing was released late last week to all parents of the Walled Lake School District by Superintendent of Schools Don P. Sheldon.

"The number of phone calls we were receiving from concerned parents prompted the issuance of the statement," commented Sheldon. "Unfortunately much of what was being repeated was either vague or based upon rumor."

He emphasized that there are no plans in existence which would require the school district to bus students outside the district.

Further, he made it clear that the State Board of Education is developing a plan to desegregate the Detroit Schools which will be submitted to Judge Stephen J. Roth for review shortly after February 1. The plan might include some, all, or none of the suburban school districts, he said.

Sheldon added that some groups may be acting prematurely to a situation that might not even affect them. The time to act is after Judge Roth makes his decision, he said. "However, time may prove them (concerned parent groups) right and now is the time to act."

"But," he added, "I would encourage parents to write to state and national congressmen and express their opinions on busing. Also, they may register their remarks with Dr. Edwin Novak, president of the State Board of Education in Lansing."

In his own opinion regarding busing, Sheldon said he is not convinced that busing is educationally advantageous or that the benefits derived from busing outweigh the problems connected with it. "The children are the main concern here. Some adjust to new situations but on the whole, it would not be easy for them. Just finding a new circle of friends could be difficult."

"We would have a huge logistic problem—how to select the child that would be bused, where we got the money to buy the busses and so on. Busing might produce nothing more than a 'king-sized headache'."

Helping Hands Reaching Out

Novi's Jaycee Auxiliary will be supervising the nationwide Helping Hands program for the fourth consecutive year in their city, it was announced this week by Mrs. John Milnichuk, spokesman for the auxiliary.

The Helping Hands program provides places where children can go for help in time of emergency.

Homes displaying the symbol of an extended hand in their window offer assistance to any child who is lost, injured, bullied, or threatened by a molester. When in trouble, children in the Novi Schools have been instructed to go to a home displaying the sign of a Helping Hand.

The Jaycees are seeking volunteers to serve as Helping Hand homes. All volunteers are asked to fill out an application form and are carefully screened by the auxiliary along with the Novi Police Department.

Once a volunteer has been selected, she remains a Helping Hand during the time she is living in Novi. It is important that the volunteer be home during school hours.

The project has the support of the Novi Community Schools, Novi Police Department, and the Novi Jaycees.

For further information call Mrs. John Milnichuk at 349-7166 or Mrs. Richard Jensen at 349-4403.

Spooks Invade

Novi House

A week full of spooks, ghosts, and goblins starts Saturday at the Novi Jaycee's haunted house on Novi Road between Nine and Ten Mile.

Admission is 25 cents for both children and adults. The house will be open from 1 p.m. to 8 p.m. Saturday and Sunday, October 23-24; from 6 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. Wednesday through Friday, October 27-29; and from 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. the following weekend, October 30-31.

Proceeds from the project will be used in community service projects run by the Jaycees throughout the year.

The Jaycee Auxiliary will sell cider, doughnuts, and candy apples at the house.

Bar Addition Planned Soon

Construction on an addition to Wixom's Continental Bar and Restaurant is slated to get underway soon, according to owner Don Burleigh.

When completed, the addition will double the seating capacity of the present building, which is located at the corner of Wixom Road and Old Grand River.

The new building is the second stage in a rebuilding program undertaken by Burleigh. First stage of the program was to build a completely new building immediately next to the old bar that has stood on the location since 1931. Now that the first stage has been finished, the old bar will be torn down and replaced with the addition. Ultimately the two new structures will be joined together.

"The Continental Bar and Restaurant has been owned by the Burleigh family since 1962, when Fred and Beatrice Burleigh, parents of the present owner, purchased the business."

When the elder Burleighs retired to northern Michigan two years ago, their son, Don, and his wife Betty took control. Burleigh has brought other important changes to the business.

Beginning this Sunday and running every weekend, entertainment will be provided. Folksingers Marty and Marty will be the first featured performers.

In addition Burleigh has changed his menu selections. The Bar will now specialize in roast and corned beef and strip steak dinners, according to Burleigh.

Construction on the addition is expected to be finished by the start of December.

School Sets

Open House

An open house is scheduled at Village Oaks School in Novi for parents to meet teachers and visit classrooms at 7:45 p.m. next Wednesday, October 27. Plans also are being made to establish a parent-teacher group at the meeting. All parents are urged to attend.

Wixom to Revise Its City Charter

Long-awaited work on revision of the Wixom City Charter is slated to get under way soon, according to Mayor Gilbert Willis, who named five members to the charter revision study committee at the city council meeting Thursday night.

City officials have been eager to have the charter revised for several months, but "work has been slow" in getting under way because, Willis explained, he had had trouble in getting people to serve on the committee.

"I don't know if it's a conflict with television or what," the Mayor said, "but people don't seem to have the time to give to their city."

Named to the committee were Mrs. Lillian Byrd, Mr. Neil Taylor, Mr. Fred Moorhead, Mr. Arthur Cronin, and Mr. Cass Schulte.

At the same time that he announced the appointments, Willis asked council for and was granted a six month extension of the deadline for the commission's report.

The council also took action to draft a resolution to be sent to other municipalities, as well as state and federal officials, stating Wixom's opposition to cross-busing.

Discussion on the issue was prompted by a correspondence from the City of Berkely, Michigan, that contained a similar resolution that their council had passed and was urging others to pass as well.

Councilman Gunnar Mettala began the discussion on the matter by stating that he felt any action taken at this

Student Honored

Laura Little, Novi High School senior, has been awarded a letter of commendation for her high performance on the 1971 National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test (NMQST), it was announced this week by High School Principal Hal J. Seymour.

Miss Little is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Little of 24301 Novi Road in Novi. She is one of 35,000 students in the United States who scored in the upper two percent of those who are expected to graduate from high school in 1972. These commended students rank just below the 15,000 semifinalists announced in September by the National Merit Scholarship Corporation.

time would be premature and would be "throwing fuel on a non-existent fire."

Mettala urged that the matter should be allowed to lie quietly on the table until such time as Judge Stephen Roth had made his decision on the legality of the issue.

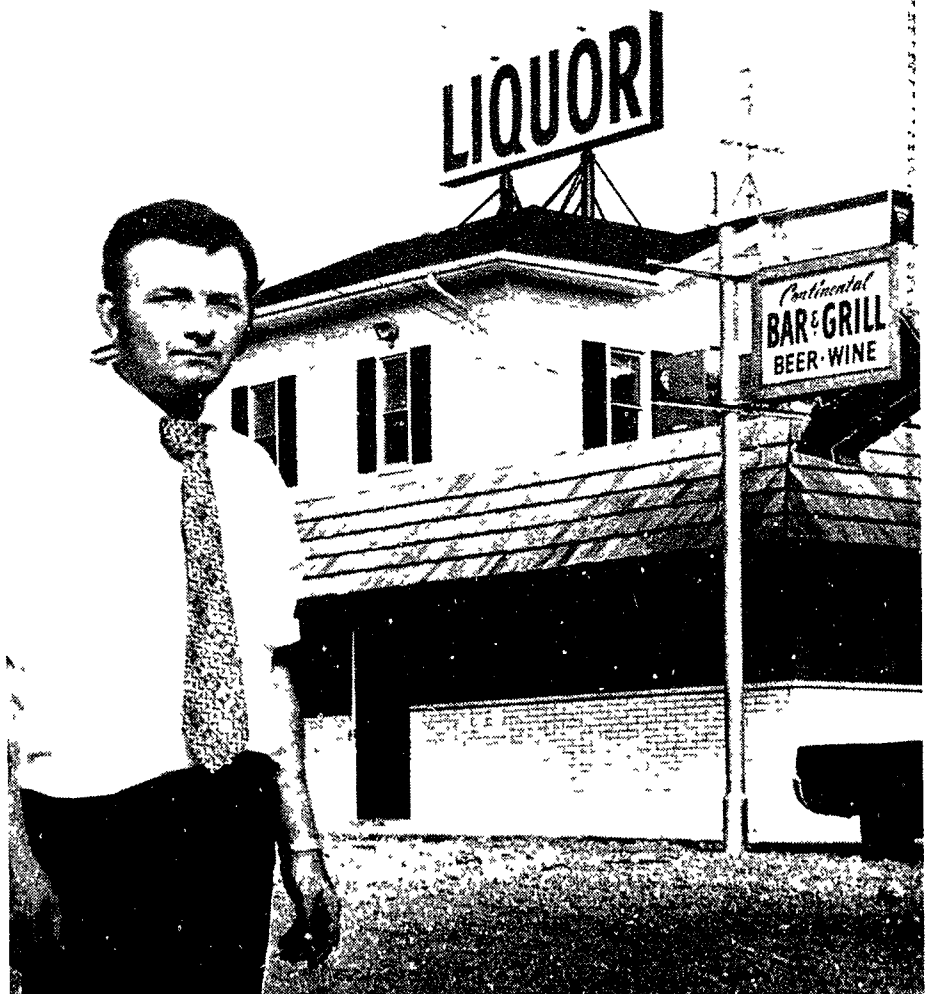

Other councilmen did not agree with Mettala's approach, and Councilman Elwood Grubb cited a letter from the United States Congressman from the 19th District Jack McDonald, which urged that people make their feelings known immediately.

Mettala's motion to receive, and file the Berkely resolution carried by a 2-0 vote, and a new motion that Wixom draft its own resolution opposed to cross-busing was submitted by Grubb and received the council's unanimous support in passage.

In another matter, the council adopted a resolution affirming their belief in the fire prevention training program offered by the University of Michigan Extension Service by a 3-2 vote.

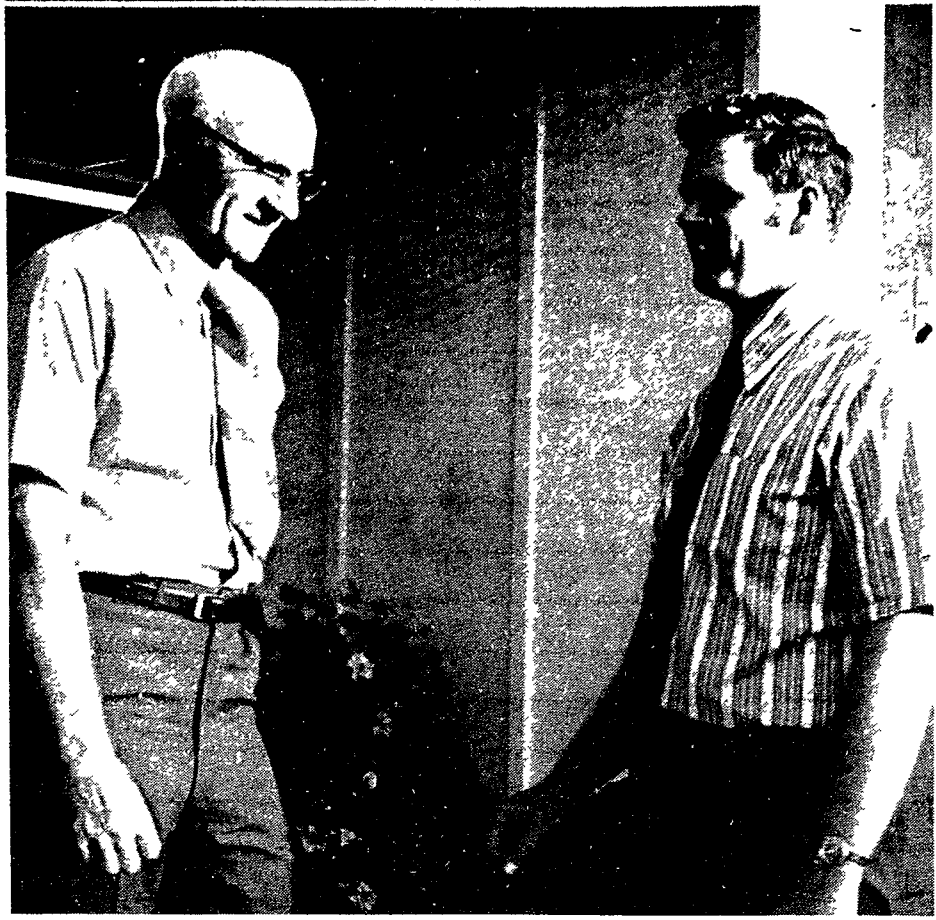

Dissension about adopting the resolution was due to the fact that Wixom no longer participates in the program offered by the Extension Service.

The resolution in support of the fire prevention training program was urged by the Southeastern Michigan Council of Governments, asking that all municipalities which were now using or had ever used the service go on record affirming their belief in the program.

Fire Chief Robert Potter informed the council that the City now goes to the state for its fire training. "With the state program," he explained, "we get 86 hours of instruction and it doesn't cost us anything, while the Extension Service's program offers 40 hours of instruction and cost us $120."

Councilman Robert Dingeldey pointed out, however, that it is not necessary for the City to be directly using the service to affirm its belief that it is valuable.

The resolution passed with Dingeldey, Mettala, and Dr. Val Vangieson voting in its favor and Grubb and Mrs. Mary Parvu casting dissenting votes.

In other business the council:

- granted permission to Chief Potter to advertise for bids for a new fire hose.
- accepted the bid of Boardman Construction Company for road repairs. Boardman's bid was low, but still exceeded the amount of money budgeted for the job. The problem was surmounted, however, by transferring available funds from the road improvements fund to the road repairs fund.
- approved the request of Police Chief George Von Behren for an extension of the residency requirement for his job.

discuss an alternate proposal suggested by Novi engineers but the meeting was postponed by Novi officials due to Athas' illness.

In another important piece of business Monday night the council unanimously approved the passage of the articles of incorporation for the establishment of a Novi Building Authority.

Specifically, the Building Authority is being established for the construction of a municipal complex in which all the various arms of city government are to be housed under one roof. Councilman William O'Brien pointed out, however, that it is conceivable that the commission could also be used for constructing recreational facilities and a senior citizens' home.

The council also made two transfers of money from the special reserve (building and land) fund. In one transfer the council rebudgeted $4,000 to the police department for the payment of installation costs and one year's lease on the 12 x 65 foot trailer that has been secured to house the detective bureau.

The other transfer of money from the special reserve fund was for the sum of $9,875 which will be put in the fire department budget for construction of a new fire station.

Girls Vie for Crown

By NANCY DINGELDEY

There probably isn't a prettier time of year in Michigan than autumn. And Mother Nature is really giving us a show this year.

Have you noticed the trees bordering the Wixom Cemetery? There are two maple trees there that never fail to give a spectacular show of color. Maple Road is ablaze. Or drive east on the Expressway. Near Farmington the trees and bushes are magnificent with their varied hues.

It's a perfect time of year for a hike through the woods. For the kids to collect leaves from all the different trees and then press them between two pieces of waxed paper that are sealed with a warm iron. For bouquets of mums on the table and cider and donuts to munch on. For comfortable days and crisp nights. Truly a beautiful and exhilarating time of year.

Autumn also brings football games, cheerleaders and Homecoming. And so it is as Walled Lake Western celebrates its Homecoming on Friday.

Preceding those festivities is "Spirit Week" at Western, filled with all kinds of nonsense and fun. The classes vie against each other trying to gain "points", come out the winner and have their class win the coveted trophy.

One such way to gather "points" is the school scavenger hunt which is too complicated to explain. Then it's the boys versus the girls in a contest collecting Betty Crocker coupons to be used towards a kidney machine.

Probably one of the most fun times of the week is "field day". Summed up in one word—hilarious. Can you imagine a pogo stick race or worse yet, a trike race?

And each class has its colors red for the seniors, orange for the juniors, the sophomores are yellow and the poor old freshmen, what else but green.

Friday brings the big day. During the pep assembly in the afternoon, one of three senior girls will be chosen as queen. Two of the gals are from Wixom, Lori Tuck and Cindy Tate. Besides the queen, the court of honor will include the other two senior girls plus a girl chosen from each class.

At 6 p.m. the kids will rally 'round the bon fire and then with police escort will wind their way to Walled Lake Central for the big game. At half time, the queen and her court will review all the floats followed by the Homecoming Dance after the game.

Baby sitters will be scarce on Friday night!

Sounds like a good night to take the kids to the Haunted House. Try not to miss it. Great fun. The house will be open for six days to accommodate everyone. It will be closed Monday and Tuesday of next week but open the rest of the week through "trick or treat night" which will be October 30.

Then on Sunday, you can visit City Hall and the Police Department's open house. Stop in, have refreshments, meet the patrolmen and take a look at their newly redecorated quarters. Hours are from 3 until 9 p.m.

The Community Education program offered through the Walled Lake Schools has always offered a wide range of interest classes. One such class proved so interesting for the women involved that it grew into the Gourmet Club.

The ladies meet monthly with a special dinner party planned every two or three months. Their latest venture was a completely German menu. Admittedly, some of the combinations didn't sound at all compatible but, oh, the taste. Each dish was scrumptious and done to perfection. For one who delights in eating, it was a grand evening spent with 10 fabulous cooks.

Spent another "fun" evening in Hartland Saturday night at a circus sponsored by the Hartland Historical Society. What made it fun was the fact that it was only the second performance put on by the troop. Most of all the acts are seasoned troupers but for one reason or another, gave up their jobs under the big top. But circus is in their blood and so the people have banded together and bring the circus to the small towns around Michigan for weekend performances.

There were a few boo-boo's during the evening but the kids were delighted most especially with the clowns and a fantastic magician—so good, in fact that he appeared on the Ed Sullivan Show.

After the performance, we "lost" Jill who had made her way "back stage". She wanted the magician to pull a bunny out of his hat for her. Instead, she got a red balloon. Now if she can find the magician's wand, she is sure she can pop two white doves.

out of it just like he did.

To enjoy the fall coloring all around us, there's a beautiful ride and an even more enjoyable time of browsing waiting for you at the Parshallville Grist Mill. More attractions have been added since it opened a few months ago. Coming up is an Arts and Crafts Show. Since the mill cannot be heated, it will remain open only as long as the weather holds...and you know how reliable that is. So, if you haven't been out to see the mill, enjoy the cider and donuts and all the goodies that are offered for sale, why not plan an afternoon jaunt.

Happened to hear about a movement to beautify downtown Wixom. There have been some great improvements made there in the past year or so but even greater ones could be made. There is talk of a "shopping center" which could bring more trade and movement to that area.

The thought is that further improvements be made to the existing stores...there is the flavor and charm of the older homes that could be retained and developed and in total could become a thriving business area for many people.

We have many talented and energetic people living in our community who see great promise in Wixom. To all of them, much success in their endeavors. Why not look around and if you have any ideas, share them—the results could be surprising.

NOVI CUB SCOUT PACK 240
Orchard Hills School Pack 240 has had an exciting week beginning on Monday with a tour of a pumpkin farm by all the scouts. Each boy received the gift of a pumpkin. Some dens are considering having a pumpkin decorating contest within their individual dens.

Thursday was outdoor activity day at the Adams Site on Llewellyn. It started with a hike through an apple orchard with cubs and webeloes. They were taught the proper way to prepare a bonfire by fireman Sargent Appleton, assisted by fireman Tim Bell and Rick Ortwine. They had an informal meeting of the pack and a special ceremony for induction of new cub scouts was held. Appropriately, fire detection was the theme of the month. Hot dogs and marshmallows roast were enjoyed after which the induction ceremony of new cub scouts was held. Welcome into Den 2 were Ricky Olson, Paul A. Neal, David Alexander, Kevin Ervin, Christopher Airy, Skip Sole, Into Den 3, Daniel Dye, Todd Gillick, Terry Smith, Marc Brinker; Den 4, David Birecki, Scott Brayton; Den 5, Michael Rice, John Melnechuck, Jeffrey Fear; Den 6, David Ziegler, Steven Gillick; and joining Webeloes, transfers made from outside pack, Dan Bresiker and Michael Bergstrom, inducted into Den 6 and Michael Aitama into the Webeloes.

A song fest was held around the bonfires followed by cider and donuts. They were fortunate to have a lovely Indian summer evening for this outdoor event.

At Highland recreation area for an overnight campout with their dads were Richard Jensen, John DeBrule, Jeffrey Lavery, Jeff Adams,

City Traffic Division Ends First Quarter

Northville City Police Department's traffic division has completed its first quarter of operation under the direction of Sergeant Louis Westfall.

Established in July with a grant from the Michigan Office of Highway Safety Planning, the traffic division is currently conducting studies of traffic problem areas within the city.

Under study is the Seven Mile and Sheldon Road intersection where horses cross to Northville Downs track and the traffic flow along main roads leading through town to the track.

During the first three months of the division's operation, motor vehicles have driven an estimated 557,000 miles along the 24 miles of roads within the jurisdiction of the city police department, according to figures released recently.

During that time, a total of 64 accidents were investigated. Fifteen involved injuries, 33 were property damage accidents and 16 occurred on private property (parking lots and driveways.)

Police issued 25 tickets resulting from the accidents. Drivers pled guilty to 13 of the tickets, two were dismissed and 10 cases remain open.

During the division's first three months in operation, the department as a whole has issued 395 hazardous violations and 242 non-hazardous traffic violations. Sixty-nine drivers were given verbal warnings.

Twelve speeding violations were written through the use of radar equipment recently acquired by the department.

Beginning in November, Police Chief Samuel Elkins said he hopes to assign another man to the traffic division. Adding a fourth man in December will bring the division up to its full-strength with one sergeant and three patrolmen, the chief noted.

GETS GRANT—Milton G. Koenig of Northville, an associate professor of Mechanical Engineering Sciences at Wayne State University, has been granted $5,000 by the U.S. Army to continue an investigation of faulty bearings in the lubricating system of engines. Dr. Koenig is trying to discover what types of diagnostic information can be obtained from the exhaust and intake manifold systems, as well as journal and cam shaft bearings, and filter and pump conditions.

Middle School Concept Aired

Novi school officials have released the following information relative to the new middle school as a means of explaining the purpose and objective of this concept:

The Novi Middle School was conceived out of the needs of the children

It was felt that there were many unmet needs for the children in the 10-13 year age group.

1. There was a need to provide a program specifically designed for children in this age group.

2. There was a need to bridge the gap between the self-contained elementary classroom and the more specialized secondary school instructional program.

3. There was a need to remove the more mature sixth grade from the elementary school and provide them with more specialization in instruction

4. There was a need to move grade nine to the high school where they could participate in a more mature environment.

5. There was a need to experiment with various innovations

The Middle School will give students the opportunity to expand their interests and to develop their talents at decision making. They will exhibit a wide range of individual performances in all areas

The design of the middle school was completed with the sixth grade spending 70 percent of its time in academic programs and 30 percent of its time in related programs and activities

The seventh grade will spend 60 percent of its time in academic programs and 40 percent of its time in related programs and activities.

The eighth grade will spend 50 percent of its time in academic programs and 50 percent of its time in related programs and activities

The building is designed to make maximum use of audio visual materials and large group instruction.

The Instructional Materials Center is located in the middle of the building where it will be available to all children.

The spatial requirements of the entire building are designed to meet the group needs and the individual needs of the students with built in adaptations to change.

DARTE Sets Fall Programs

A panel discussion exploring the world of the adolescent and a committee of students and police officers to improve communications between the two groups are programs slated by DARTE, Drug Abuse Reduction Through Education.

The panel, first in a series of workshops entitled "Inside Adolescence," will be held October 28 at 7:45 p.m. in the Cooke Junior High cafeteria.

James Kipfer, former Northville school trustee and an associate of the Michigan Society of Mental Health, will be moderator.

The panel, composed of five students and five adults, will explore differences in attitudes, values, use of authority, personal behavior, goals, achievement and credibility.

"The panel program will create a confrontation between the generations, opening up communications, identifying areas of disagreement, hoping for a new understanding of both groups," a spokesman for DARTE explained.

Adult panelists include Robert Bogart, Robert Chapman, Mrs. David McLaughlin, Mrs. George

Murphy and Mrs. Harold Price

DARTE will follow the initial panel with a series of workshops, led by professional people, on the development of teenage personality.

The workshops will be held on Thursday, November 11; Tuesday, November 23; and Tuesday, December 7. Both parents and young people are invited to attend the program.

DARTE has established a committee composed of students and members of the Northville City Police Department in hopes of building better communications between students and the police force.

Objectives include involving the police department in DARTE programs, enlisting its support of DARTE activities, and meeting in small groups of students and policemen to communicate misunderstandings and help open communication channels.

DARTE also has appointed Kipfer and Missy Eddy to the posts of co-chairmen for the 1971-72 year. Kipfer will serve as adult co-chairman and Miss Eddy as student co-chairman.

Arranged through the Detroit Art Institute, "Lincoln, Kennedy and King" will be performed by George Tipton and his partner, portraying the lives and deeds of the three men through a musical story.

Miss Florence Panattoni, director of instruction, commented, "Unless our students can actually experience these kinds of programs, we cannot expect them to appreciate high quality performances. Thanks to the Mother's Club, we can make the experience possible"

Existing Language:

Sec. 11.1 Special assessments; public improvements; council powers.—The council shall have the power to determine by resolution that the whole or any part of the expense of any public improvement be defrayed by special assessment upon the property especially benefited in proportion to the benefits derived or to be derived.

Sec. 11.2 Same; procedure; ordinance required, contents, restrictions; roll; confirmation.—The council shall prescribe by ordinance the complete special assessment procedure governing the initiation of projects, preparation of plans and cost estimates, creation of districts, making and confirming of assessment rolls, correction of errors in the rolls, collection of assessments and any other matters concerning the making of improvements by the special assessment method.

Such ordinance shall provide for the enforcement of the following restrictions:

(a) No resolution finally determining to proceed with establishing any special assessment district for the making of any public improvement shall be made until cost estimates have been prepared and a public hearing has been held on the advisability of so proceeding, which hearing shall be held not less than ten days after notice thereof has been sent by first class mail to all property owners in the proposed district as shown by the current assessment roll of the city.

(b) No special assessment district or districts shall be created by the council for any one public improvement which includes property having an area in excess of twenty-five per cent of the total area of the city. No public improvement project shall be divided geographically for the purpose of circumventing this provision

(c) No special assessment roll shall be finally confirmed until after a meeting of the council has been held for the purpose of reviewing such roll, which meeting shall be held not less than ten days after notice thereof has been sent by first class mail to all property owners in the proposed district as shown by the current assessment roll of the city.

(d) No public improvement to be financed in whole or part by special assessment shall be made before the confirmation of the special assessment roll for such improvement

(e) No original special assessment roll shall be finally confirmed except by the affirmative vote of four of the members of the council if prior to such confirmation written objections to the proposed improvement have been filed by the owners of property which will be required to bear more than fifty per cent of the amount of such special assessment.

Sec. 11.3 Special assessments; additional permissible improvements enumerated.—The council shall, in the exercise of its powers of special assessment, have power to provide for the following, but this list shall not be exclusive:

(a) For the construction of public parking facilities as a public improvement financed in whole or part by the special assessment method.

(b) For installing a boulevard lighting system on any street as a public improvement to be financed in whole or part by special assessment upon the lands abutting thereupon, provided that the property owners of a majority of a frontage on such street or part thereof to be so improved shall petition therefor.

(c) For the payment of special assessments in annual installments not to exceed fifteen in number, the first such installment to be due either upon confirmation of the special assessment roll or on the following July first and subsequent installments to be due on July first of succeeding years and to be placed upon the annual city tax roll, and for an interest charge only until the due date of each such deferred installment not to exceed six per cent per year, subject to the right of advance payment of any such installment with interest only to the date of payment.

(d) For making additional pro rata assessments when any special assessment roll proves insufficient to pay for the improvement for which it was levied and the expenses incident thereto, provided that the additional pro rata assessment shall not exceed twenty-five per cent of the assessment as originally confirmed unless a meeting of the council be held to review such additional assessment, for which meeting notices shall be mailed as provided in the case of review of the original special assessment roll.

Sec. 11.4 Same; excess, refunds; procedure, exceptions.—The excess by which any special assessment proves larger than the actual cost of the improvement and expenses incidental thereto may be placed in the general fund of the city if such excess is five per cent or less of the assessment, but should the assessment prove larger than necessary by more than five per cent the entire excess shall be refunded on a pro rata basis to the owners of the property assessed. Such refund shall be made by credit against future unpaid installments to the extent such installment(s) then exist and the balance of such refund shall be in cash. No refunds may be made which contravene the provisions of any outstanding evidence of indebtedness secured in whole or part by such special assessment.

All proceedings on such reassessment and for the collection thereof shall be conducted in the same manner as provided for the original assessment, and whenever any sum or part thereof levied upon any property in the assessment so set aside has been paid and not refunded, the payment so made shall be applied upon the reassessment or if the payments exceed the amount of the reassessment refunds shall be made.

No judgment or decree nor any act of the council vacating a special assessment shall destroy or impair the lien of the city upon the premises assessed for such amount of the assessment as may be equitably charged against the same or as by regular mode of proceeding might have been lawfully assessed thereupon.

Sec. 11.6 Contesting special assessments; requisites, procedure.—No suit or action of any kind shall be instituted or maintained for the purpose of contesting or enjoining the collection of any special assessment (1) unless within thirty days after the confirmation of the special assessment roll written notice is given to the council of intention to file such suit or action stating the grounds on which it is claimed such assessment is illegal, and (2) unless such suit or action shall be commenced within sixty days after confirmation of the roll.

Sec. 11.7 Special assessments; lien on property; collection, procedure.—Upon the confirmation of each special assessment roll the special assessments shall become a debt to the city from the persons to whom they are assessed and shall until paid be a lien upon the property assessed for the amount of such assessment and all interest and charges thereon. Such lien shall be of the same character and effect as created by this charter for city taxes. Such assessments shall become due upon confirmation of the special assessment roll except as may be provided by the council pursuant to section 11.3(c).

Each special assessment, or the initial installment of such assessment when installment payments are provided for, shall be collected by the treasurer without collection fee for a period ending on the last day of the second month following the due date of such assessment or installment. On the first day of the third month following such due date the treasurer shall add to any assessment or initial installment paid thereafter a collection fee of four percent of the amount of the assessment.

All collection fees shall belong to the city and be collectible in the same manner as the collection fee on city taxes

Special assessments, or installments thereof, which become due on July first of any year shall be collected in all respects as are city taxes due on such date, and if uncollected on the following first day of March, shall be returned to the county treasurer with unpaid taxes as provided in section 9.18

Special assessments or initial installments which become due other than on July first shall, if unpaid for ninety days or more on May first of any year, be certified as delinquent to the council by the treasurer and the council shall place such delinquent assessments on the tax roll for that year together with accrued collection fees to July first of such year. The total amount of such assessment and fees shall thereafter be collected in all respects as are city taxes due on July first of that year, shall be subject to the same fees and penalties as are city taxes due on that date and if uncollected on the following March first shall be returned to the county treasurer with unpaid taxes as provided in section 9.18

Sec. 11.8 Funds; special account, segregation; use, restriction.—Except as otherwise provided in this charter, moneys raised by special assessment for any public improvement shall be segregated in a special fund or account and may be used only to pay for the costs of the improvement for which the assessment was levied and expenses incidental thereto or to repay any money borrowed therefor.

Sec. 11.9 Sidewalks; construction, maintenance; nuisances, abatement.—The assessment for the cost of the construction of any sidewalk or the abatement of any hazard or nuisance to be made pursuant to section 2.2(s) or section 2.2(t), or for the cost of removing snow, ice or other obstructions from sidewalks or trimming and removal of hazardous trees to be made pursuant to section 2.2(u) or section 2.2(v), shall be made by resolution of the council. Notice of the time at which the council will act thereon shall be given by first class mail to the owner of the property to be assessed as shown by the current tax roll of the city, except that no notice shall be required in the case of assessments for the removal of weeds, snow or ice.

For the purposes of collection of such assessment, the adoption of such resolution shall be equivalent to the confirmation of a special assessment roll. The amount of any such assessment shall become a debt to the city upon adoption of such resolution, be due at such time as the council shall prescribe, and shall be subject to the collection fees and become a lien as provided in section 11.7. Every such assessment shall also be subject to sections 11.4, 11.5 and 11.6

Sec. 11.10 Failure to give notice, effect.—Failure to mail any notice required to be so sent by this chapter or by ordinance shall not invalidate any special assessment or special assessment roll.

Proposed Language: Section 11.1 Power to Assess the City Council shall have power to determine, with or without a petition therefor, that the whole or any part of the expense of any public improvement or repair shall be defrayed by special assessments upon the parcels or property especially benefited and so declare by resolution. Such resolution shall state the estimated cost of the improvement, what portion of the cost shall be paid by special assessment, what portion, if any, shall be a general obligation of the city, the number of installments in which assessments may be paid, the interest to be charged, and designate the districts or land and premises upon which special assessments shall be levied.

Section 11.2 Procedure Ordinance

The City Council shall prescribe by general ordinance the complete special assessment procedure to be used, including the preparing of plans and specifications, estimated costs, the preparation, hearing and correction of the special assessment roll, the collection of special assessments, the assessment of single lots or parcels, and any other matters concerning the making of improvements by the special assessment method. Said ordinance shall authorize additional assessments if the prior assessment proves insufficient to pay for the improvement and costs incident thereto or in case of invalidity in whole or in part, and it shall also provide for the refund of excessive assessments provided that if the excess is less than 5 per cent of the total cost it may be placed in the general fund of the city. This ordinance shall be required to contain the following mandatory requirements: A. That no special assessment district shall be created which shall encompass more than 50 per cent of the total area of the city. B. That no special assessment roll shall be finally confirmed except by the affirmative vote of four of the members of the council if prior to such confirmation written objections to the proposed improvements have been filed by the owners of property which shall be required to bear more than 50 per cent of the amount of said special assessment.

LISA BRYANT

Wins 4-H Honors

A Salem Township 4-H'er, Lisa Bryant, has earned the Michigan 4-H Special Achievement Award for 1971.

Lisa, a 16-year-old senior at Detroit Mumford High School, has been president for the past three years of the Oakland County Little Britches 4-H group and submitted an entry featuring an essay on her most meaningful experience as a 4-H member along with her past and present activities and performance and her future objectives.

Because of her top experience, talking her club into giving financial aid to some one less fortunate, the Little Britches adopted a girl in New Mexico as a foster daughter and helped win Lisa her award. She will attend the November Annual National 4-H Congress in Chicago and then, in December, receive her award at a ceremony which will probably be held in Pontiac.

The popular Salem Township senior is attending the inner-city high school in order to graduate in three years. Had she remained in the South Lyon schools, she would have been required to spend 3½ years in high school.

Jaycees Plan House Fun

Northville's Jaycees will open their Haunted House to the public tomorrow (Friday) night.

The House is located on Nine Mile Road, east of Novi Road, between the cemetery and the railroad tracks.

The House will be open from October 22 to October 30 between the hours of 6 p.m. and 9 p.m. on Monday through Friday and noon to 9 p.m. on Saturdays and Sundays.

Admission is 25 cents, and the Jaycee auxiliary will be selling cider, donuts, candy apples, and coffee.

Group tours can be arranged by calling Don Campbell at 349-0779 or Paul Vandenberg at 349-4513

Garden Club Sets Boutique

Area residents are invited to attend a "Unique Boutique" being given by the Hill and Dale Garden Club of Farmington from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. November 11 at the Orchard United Methodist Church.

Proceeds will be used to help support the club's garden therapy program for special education classes in the Farmington public schools. Children from the area attend these classes.

Among those involved in the bazaar plans is Mrs. William R. Wichman of Novi, a club member.

Salem Approves Road Extension

Amid a crowded agenda, the Salem Township Planning Commission gave their approval to the Milford-Curtis Roads extension proposal, in reply to a letter from the Oakland County Planning Commission, at their regular monthly meeting.

This road would facilitate travel to New Hudson, Pontiac and I-96. It would start where Curtis presently ends at Six Mile Road and connect with a southerly extension of Milford Road at Eight Mile Road, one quarter mile east of the railroad. Floyd Taylor, chairman, stated that the commission was not opposed to the idea at this time, and that more north-south roads are needed. Oakland County requests a commitment from the townships involved because, although it remains for the Oakland and Washtenaw County Road Commissions to put through this proposal, rights-of-way can be provided toward such a move.

Albert J. Tobin represented some 191 area citizens in 13 petitions presented to the commission approving support for the rezoning of Section 23 and adjacent property from agricultural residential (AR) to estate residential (ER) or low density.

Taylor suggested it be noted that the soil in this area is quite poor, has good absorption qualities, and a good per cent can be obtained anywhere in the area.

A review of all industrially zoned property was suggested in a letter from the Salem Township Board, with the intention of rezoning such parcels to estate residential.

Originally an overabundance of land was zoned industrial to help the tax structure, and support a sewer system which is not likely to work out. Both of the above items were to be taken up in an executive session following the meeting.

A surprise proposal was introduced by Oren Nelson, Whitmore Lake realtor, for rezoning to build a drive-in movie theater south of Eight Mile Road and one quarter mile west of Napier. This would require rezoning to highway commercial, and require conditional use permit for the one quarter mile of frontage not quite one half mile deep. Many encumbrances exist for Nelson in order to make it a single use piece of property, the main one being the drainage problem, since the land is not high.

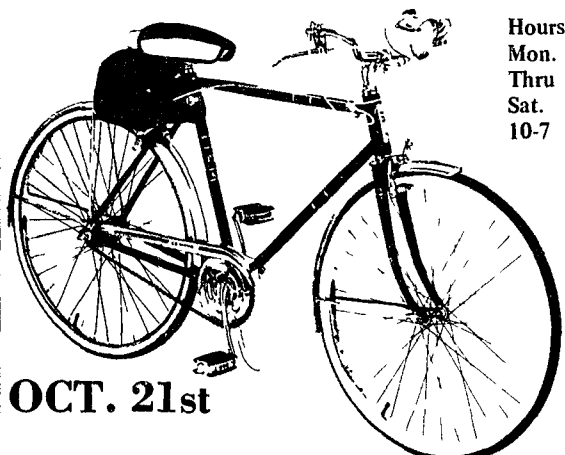

Nelson, however, felt that all would be feasible, and if rezoned he would attempt to solve them. Ferman Rohrhaft, commission member, suggested that this should not be just one parcel of highway commercial, but if rezoned the commission would consider a larger section along Eight Mile Road. No decision was reached.

separate proposals, noting that while the same firm did the work, separate engineers within the firm reached proposals independent of each other.

The board was told that J & A stands behind its initial three proposals as recommended and that the independent proposal was specifically tailored to meet the needs of Novi.

Quackenbush, obviously disturbed by the dual role of J & A, said he wanted to see the J & A proposals reconciled. Furthermore, the drain board was concerned that the latest J & A proposal given Novi might not call for immediate construction of holding ponds.

Acknowledging that Novi has a "moral" obligation if not a legal one to share the cost of engineering to date resulting from the drain board deliberations, Athas argued that the existing drain problem is located in and caused by the City of Northville and therefore Novi should not have to share cost of drainage improvement.

Novi, under the latest proposal of J & A, is prepared, he said, to guarantee Northville that it will not add "one drop" more of water than Novi presently contributes to the drain. He contended, as has the Novi council in the past, that the natural water run-off in Novi is not contributing to flooding conditions in Northville.

Thompson-Brown's development and the apartment complex at Randolph and Taft roads, both inside the city of Northville, are aggravating causes, Novi has stated.

Although the drain board has not indicated what formula it will use in determining shared cost of the improvements, Athas noted that, based on acreage, it could mean Novi property owners might pay as much as $800 per acre. Furthermore, once the large property has paid such an assessment, added the Novi manager, he still cannot develop his property without incurring still another cost of constructing drains to the Randolph system.

Northville Manager Ollen-droff, who agreed to discuss the new proposal with Novi in hopes of reaching a mutually satisfactory solution, nevertheless urged the drain board to set a deadline. Athas agreed and the board set the November 17 date on which it will convene again in Northville to hear the results of discussions between the two communities.

However, before adjourning last week's meeting, the board cautioned Novi officials to give serious consideration before opposing those three proposals initially recommended. Keep in mind, they were warned, that if Northville installs drains of lesser size to handle only its water and later Novi finds such drains are too small to handle Novi water then Novi, not Northville, may find itself later faced with enlargement of Northville drains at a cost borne entirely by Novi taxpayers.

And such future Novi costs, the board added, will be substantially higher than they will be if adequate drains are installed today.

COMMUNICATIONS FROM CITIZENS

Mr. Kenneth J. Lehl, Principal of St. Paul's Lutheran School, appeared before Council and distributed a communication wherein it was stated they were unaware of the City's "trailer ordinance" and apologized for same. Mr. Lehl asked for Council's consideration to continue this service to the community - of having a trailer where people of the community can bring papers on Monday evenings from 6 to 8 p.m. and the trailer is loaded. City Manager explained that this ordinance prohibits the use of trailers for storage and that several have been notified of this violation.

There are 3 possibilities:

1. Violators might go to Zoning Board of Appeals.
2. Council might amend ordinance by screening and set-backs.
3. Government owned trailers would be exempt.

City Mgr suggested that any action on this ordinance be suspended until Council Meeting of October 18th and this matter be discussed at the Work Session on October 18th.

Mrs. Hall and Pegram, residents of Lexington Commons South, appeared before Council to discuss the type of street lights and amount of light being considered for their Subdivision. Mayor Allen stated he believed there had been a delegation from their subdivision at a previous meeting when this question had been discussed. After some discussion, City Mgr offered to obtain information concerning the lights for the subdivision Association.

MINUTES & BOARD & COMMISSION MINUTES

Minutes of the Zoning Board of Appeals for September 8, 1971 and Planning Commission Minutes of September 21, 1971 were placed on file.

NORTHVILLE POLICE REPORT-SEPT. 1971

Northville Police Dept. Report for the month of September, 1971 was discussed and placed on file.

DUNLAP STREET LIGHTING

City Manager explained that the old type of street lights used on W Dunlap from N Rogers to N Center St. cannot be repaired, thus necessitating replacement. He also stated that the lighting at this location is inadequate at present. City Mgr recommended the removal of 10 existing lights, installation of 15 lights from N Rogers to N Center and 14 lights on cross streets for W Dunlap including Landan, West, High and Wing Sts. Increase in cost will be $180 per month, no installation charge.

Moved by Nichols, support by Folino, to approve City Manager's recommendation for installation of lights on W Dunlap and side streets as stated above.

Unanimously carried.

PERMIT FEE RESOLUTIONS

City Manager reviewed the electrical permit fees as submitted.

Unanimously carried.

MICHIGAN BELL PARK

City Manager reviewed his Memo No. 71-11 regarding possible uses for this park, located on N Center St. He reported receiving replies to his letter as follows:

3 felt that area should be left "as is" - open area for general play.

3 like a natural, casual park area with trees and shrubs being planted.

2 preferred swings and slides for a "tot lot" area.

Council felt that a "tot lot" and open space area would be most suitable for this site.

Located at 168 East Main Street in the location of the former Northville Pizzeria, the new business is the franchise of Lawrence W. Sheehan, a Northville resident.

Sheehan, who is married and has six children, moved to Northville's Lexington Commons subdivision this week. He is vice-president of Little Caesar Enterprises, the parent firm that has more than 100 Little Caesar businesses throughout Michigan and Ohio.

The local franchise owner and manager is a charter member of the newly formed Lions Club in Northville and is a Wayne County Jury Commissioner—an appointed position by Governor William Milliken.

Remodeled inside and out, the building now includes a sit-down dining area.

It will be open from 4 to 12 p.m. Monday through Thursday, at 12 noon for lunches on Friday, Saturday and Sunday, and until 2 a.m. Friday and Saturday.

Need Permit To Sell in Novi

Novi Police Chief Lee BeGole Tuesday issued a reminder to Novi residents about a city ordinance forbidding door-to-door solicitations without a permit.

"Everyone should be aware," he said, "that there is a city ordinance to protect people against abuses in this area. Anyone who is confronted by any solicitor should insist on seeing his permit and if he is unable to produce one the police department should be called."

The reminder came in response to an arrest made on the ordinance early this week.

Police received a call from a citizen about a man selling magazines door to door and using high pressure tactics. Responding to the call, police arrested Gilald Craft, 19, for violation of the city ordinance.

Gilald is a representative for Continental Reader Service, a national magazine sales firm with offices in Denver, Colorado. Gilald was operating out of a hotel in Southfield, which is serving as temporary headquarters for the company's suburban Detroit campaign.

Lots of Fish in Phoenix

State Samples Lake And Catches Surprise

Northville Conservation Officer Jack O. Boyd and associates went fishing last week and came up with a whopping surprise.

"We just didn't have any idea that there would be so many fish," chorled Boyd as state conservation department personnel inspected their nets at Phoenix Lake. "It appears restocking has worked," he added.

Boyd, who lives at 531 Linden Court, had requested in his monthly report to the department that an analysis be made of the fish content of Phoenix, located at Five Mile and Northville Roads. And last week the department responded by sending out a crew to sample the lake.

In three days, dozens of fish were netted — ranging from northern pike to a variety of panfish. Catches have been taken to the district headquarters near Pontiac for weighing, measurement and biological analysis.

"We won't have the findings back for awhile," said Boyd, "but it sure looks like we've got a lake here with plenty of fish."

Boyd had requested the sampling because of the "heavy traffic" of bank fishermen on the lake who have regularly complained to him because the lake apparently contained little fish. "They were upset because they pay for their licenses to fish and get nothing,"

Four years ago, the State Conservation Department killed off most of the "trash" fish in the lake (mostly carp) and restocked it with edible species. Since then anglers have expressed doubt about the program's success.

In a one week span this past summer, Officer Boyd checked the licenses of 751 fishermen at Phoenix, he said, and of these a majority complained about the fishing. Many were local area residents, he said.

With so many complaints being received, Boyd himself began to doubt that the restocking had worked. Now, however, he's convinced that either fishermen have been fishing improperly or they've just been having a streak of bad luck. "The fish are obviously there," he said pointing to a big tubful netted by department personnel

In a three-day span the nets produced a dozen or more northern pike — the largest being a 27½ inch beauty and numerous blue gills, crappies, whitesuckers, bullheads, and a few largemouth bass, and a number of carp.

The catch of carp, including some lunkers, was considered "very small" in light of the large number removed just a few years ago. Using a gill paralyzing substance, the department in 1958 "cleaned" the lake by removing several tons of carp. Subsequently, the lake was restocked

Missing from the department's catch last week were the brown trout that had been placed in the lake. "Probably most of these escaped over the dam and swam into the river," explained the department's veteran Erwin Teggerdine who had assisted in the clean-up and restocking program.

"It looks like the people who have been fishing here had the same kind of bad luck fishermen have been having all over," he said. "The fish are there, they just haven't been biting. I think maybe it has something to do with the weather or the temperature of the water."

Water temperature, he said, was unseasonably high this past summer.

The department's catch produced one sure sign of a fisherman's bad luck: the 27½ inch pike was wearing a hook and part of a monofilament line in its jaw.

Conservationists offered a bit of advice to help anglers down on their luck.

"Most of the suckers we got were medium size with very few little ones. It could mean the pike are feeding on them. So if a fisherman wants to change his luck and land a pike he might try using small suckers for bait."

Added Teggerdine, pointing to the shoreline: "You might tell 'em fishing could be better if they'd stop throwing their beer cans and garbage into the water."

WM Picks Fred Hicks

Fred Hicks, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hicks of 810 Horton Street in Northville was nominated by Western Michigan University as their candidate for "Offensive Player of the Week" in the Mid-America Conference.

The nomination followed Western's 31-0 victory over Kent State in which Hicks successfully completed 79 per cent of his blocking assignments.

Moving up to a starting position in the third game of the season, the 6'3", 217 pound Hicks owns the top blocking average on the team with a mark of 76 per cent.

Win Three On Sunday

Northville's little league gridders pulled off their first three game sweep of the season last Sunday as the freshmen, junior varsity, and varsity squads all swept to victories over the Garden City Panthers.

The freshmen squad took a 14-6 triumph, while the jayvees won 18-6 and the varsity took a 20-0 decision.

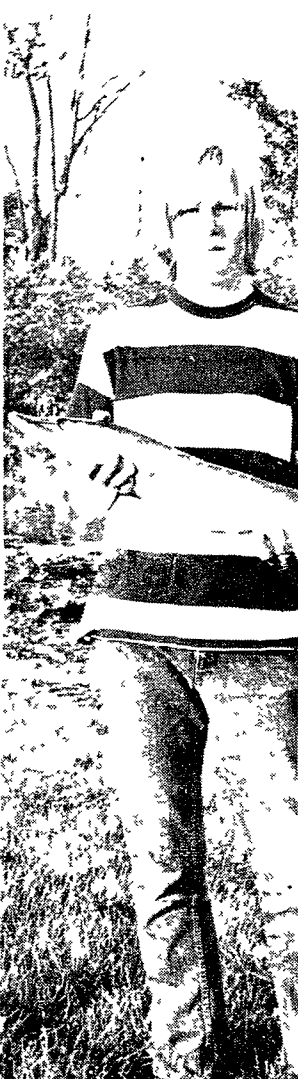

The victories pushed all three teams over the 500 mark for the year. The freshmen lead the way with a record of 5-1. The jayvees have taken four out of six encounters, and the varsity stands at 3-2-1.

The parents of all little leaguers are urged to attend the next meeting of the board, which is set for Saturday, October 24, at the Our Lady of Victory Church in Northville. The meeting will begin at 8 p.m. and refreshments will be served.

John Coleman is playing offensive tackle for East Carolina University's freshman football team in Greenville, North Carolina. Coleman, a 1971 graduate of Northville High, won the starting position in pre-season try-outs with East Carolina's Baby Pirates.

Previously it was incorrectly reported he was attending Ferris State.

ANGLER — Tom Millington, a sophomore at Northville High School, shows off the nine pound pike he netted at Phoenix Lake. "It's the largest fish I've ever caught in Michigan," said Millington.

Downs Readies For Winter Meet

Applications have been made for 1,431 stalls for the 42-night Jackson-at-Northville harness racing meet, racing at Northville Downs, November 1 through December 18.

When Leon A. Slavin, Jackson Trotting Association president, Tom Smith, director of racing, and the Michigan Harness Horsemen's Association stall committee completed the task of selecting horses for the meet, the 740 stalls at Northville Downs were filled with the best trotting and pacing talent ever to compete in a Michigan late meet.

While Michigan horses are in the majority, several out of state stables command attention.

Lewis Williams, leading driver at Northfield, Ohio this fall, will compete with a strong 9-horse stable. Williams had a sensational meet at the Cleveland track, posting a 438 average and winning 34 races. Baron Phillip, a 4-year-old pacer with 12 wins and a 2:00 3-5 record this year, heads the Williams group.

Scamp Direct, a pacer with seven wins this year, and the outstanding trotting mare, Sara Rodney top the powerful stable being brought in for the meet by Wooster, Ohio reinsman, Tom Brinkerhoff. Sara Rodney needs only the winners share of a purse to reach the $100,000 plateau in lifetime earnings.

A five week pacing "stakes" series, with an estimated $30,000 in purse money is expected to attract the top pacing talent currently racing in the Midwest to the 42 night Jackson-at-Northville harness racing meet.

Slavin has scheduled a $5,000 leg of the rich series as the Saturday night feature for four consecutive weeks, starting November 13. The finale, which is scheduled for December 11, is expected to carry at least a $10,000 purse.

The inaugural series, raced last year at the Jackson-at-Northville meet, met with instant and complete approval from both fans and horsemen.

Victories in the early legs went to such highly regarded pacers as Shiawassee Squire, Torjon and Royal Kim. Each winner was timed in 2:02 2-5, remarkable speed for the time of year.

When it was all over, however, it was unheralded Prince Knox, owned by Anthony Alfie, Wyandotte, that paced off with the winners share of the $10,000 finale.

This year, from all indications, Michigan harness horses will be seriously challenged by several out of state stars as the series was responsible for attracting several outstanding stables for the entire Jackson-at-Northville meet.

Workmen are completing the final phases of a major improvement program at Northville Downs in anticipation of the opening racing meet.

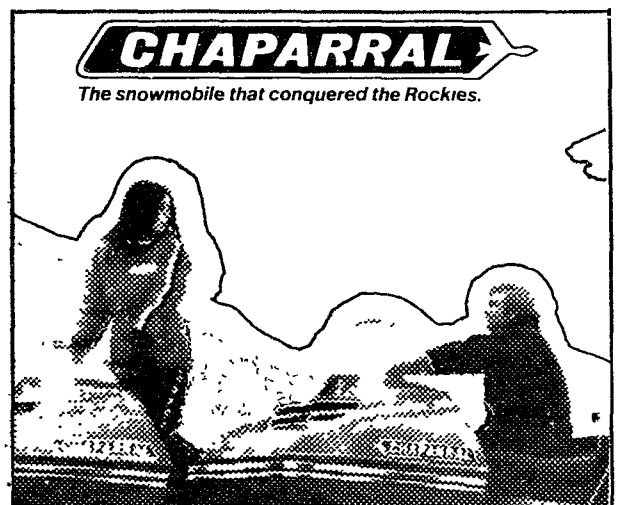

Of immediate benefit to harness racing fans will be the resurfaced track. Preparation of the winter racing surface for the Jackson-at-Northville meet was completed early. Horsemen working over the racing strip have pronounced it in excellent condition.

"The black topping of additional parking space, and of large areas in the stable area will prove convenient for public and horsemen both," officials said.

Other improvements include the construction of a new barn, providing facilities for post-race testing of the winning horse in each race, and additional stall space.

SPEAKING for The Record

By BILL SLIGER

Glenn Long, new president of Northville's Community Chamber of Commerce, has set some ambitious goals for the relatively-young organization.

First, he'd like to see the membership increased and participation activated.

Secondly, a "new projects" committee is visualized to introduce new community promotions. Presently, the Chamber concentrates most of its energies on the annual fair.

And finally, the new president would like to see the Chamber take a leading role in introducing desirable, new business to existing, available sites within the community.

Some of the ideas discussed at a recent Chamber board meeting include:

—suitable business use of the old Methodist church building;

—beautification of the Northville road (South Main street) entrance to the city;

—new alternatives for north-south traffic through the city and general improvement of routes into the area to decrease traffic congestion.

President Long emphasized that the Chamber would welcome ideas for community promotions and projects.

Just call 349-7640 and let them know how you think the Chamber can help improve Northville.

One of the high-priority items for consideration on the Northville city council agenda is what to do with the Cady street residence near the Scout-Recreation building recently acquired by the city.

It's an excellent house and was purchased with thoughts of using it for senior citizens' activities.

Another idea that's certain to spark controversy from several areas is the renting, at least temporarily, of the building to the township for offices. Time is running out for the township in its present location and the board must decide on building a facility — and then obtain voter approval for funds to construct and operate it.

A strong appeal by senior citizens' with a definite program for use of the building would probably make an impression on the council, but to date this interest has not been shown.

The Northville Square development, scheduled for construction at the site of the township hall, is moving smoothly along within its projected timetable.

The multi-million-dollar retail development, which many predict will stabilize and revitalize Northville's downtown shopping district, is certain to provide a face-lifting for the community and dampen criticism of the city's "parking-lot" appearance.

But R. H. McManus, developer of Northville Square, told planners Monday night that the structure will not include a third floor for professional office space.

Studies have indicated, McManus reported, that the area cannot support office facilities of the rental-cost bracket that would be required if an upper level were to be constructed.

So, at the outset at any rate, Northville Square will include retail space exclusively with a single floor on Main street and two-levels on the lower elevation facing Cady street.

Recalls Days in Past

To the Editor:

By way of introduction, I am a native of Northville. The enclosed poem refers to friends and scenes once familiar to me.

Perhaps there are still those who will recall the "good old days" of some sixty or more years ago

Charles E. Hutton

Where are the friends of long ago—
The schoolmates we used to know?
What of the things we used to do—
The games adventures with "gang and crew"
Remember the home talent show?

Remember the times when the train roared in
Down at the old depot?
As the engineer waved with a friendly grin
The roar of the engine made a beautiful din
With the steam hissing out down below.

Remember the winters on Buckner's Hill
Where we coasted—not skied—down the street
When we streaked to the bottom on ten foot bobs
(We sometimes slid down on our seat!)

We of those days can remember much more
That the kids back then used to do.
If you're still around why not meet once again
To recall those times and to tell where we've been Even though we are only a few

Are Your Biscuits Like Door Knobs?

By JACK W. HOFFMAN

Reviewing history through the pages of old newspapers is both educational and entertaining.

Take the War of 1898, for example. Patriotism obviously was running high. So high in fact that the local paper reported that Cap Nichols' chickens, Black Spanish, were ordered from the lawn of a neighbor, who threatened execution because he didn't want any Spanish cavorting on his property.

It sparked this comment by the editor: "Spain says it has a torpedo boat that will stay under water for hours. We say it has boats that will stay under water forever."

An advertiser, however, observed: "The Cuban question and political issues sink into insignificance with the man who suffers from piles."

What with the war and all, patriotism reached a high point by the Fourth of July. Reported the paper, "Northville will have a Fourth of July blow out. The cannons of the church will be read the day before."

Science was challenged in 1898: "George Emig of Bellevue, Kentucky was breaking a lump of coal the other day when a frog hopped out of a hole in the center. It had no eyes. Emig is a thoroughly reliable man, and always drinks straight Kentucky goods."

*****

Advertising claims were far from modest: "One minute is not long, yet relief is obtained in half that time by the use of One Minute Cough Cure. It prevents consumption and quickly cures colds, croup, bronchitis, pneumonia, la grippe, and all throat and lung troubles."

*****

Some advertisers were poets: "Late to bed and early to rise prepares a man for his home in the skies. Early to bed and a Little Early Riser, the pill that makes life longer and better and wiser."
Or, "Pink Pills for pale people."

*****

Some, like the Yerkes Mill which featured Gold Lace Flour, challenged the housewife: "Are your biscuits like door knobs?"

David Barton

YES...

I don't propose to defend that riding a bus will directly improve a child's mind or shorten the time required to get an education.

It may, however, be the impetus that will bring about the changes our public schools desperately need. The legal issue before the court was part of article VIII, section 2, of the Michigan Constitution: "Every school district shall provide for the education of its pupils without discrimination as to religion, creed, race, color or national origin."

In the opinion of the court, the school district was discriminating. The ruling of the Judge to bus children, in effect, allowed the school district to meet the requirements of the State Constitution.

I believe that we will find it very difficult to solve the problem of equal education without busing. If we continue to have segregated housing, based on wealth and race, and isolate the poor, we will continue to perpetuate the conditions that make equal education an almost impossible goal.

Our present school district concept itself discriminates against children on the basis that wealthier districts can afford the best teachers and administrators who, in turn, will attract the more affluent parents.

I believe through busing our children can come to know and understand each other. Until we have equal respect and opportunity for all our citizens, there will be no true democracy.

David Barton
Brighton resident

Speaking for Myself

Cross Busing?

Donald Lawrence

NO...

Although opposed to the transportation of children long distances across schooldistrict boundaries as a means of achieving educational, equality and racial balance, I am nevertheless in sympathy with the aims of those who favor busing.

It is the means to achieve those aims that I find objectionable.

Under a busing program it will be impossible or at best extremely difficult to maintain the concept of neighborhood schools. It will, I believe, result in a loss of "school spirit" and community interest in the school.

An hour or two of a student's time will be spent in travel with the consequent loss of opportunity to participate in school activities. A busing program, in terms of equipment, personnel and operation costs, will divert funds from their primary purpose.

If busing is not the means to achieve the aims (and I hope that no one is opposed to the aims), it is incumbent on all of us who oppose busing on other than racial grounds to work for justice and equality for all citizens.

The only question that we have to resolve, it seems to me, is whether we really believe in what we profess—or are we bigots?

Writing fresh lead paragraphs to news stories is one of the hardest tasks of the reporter who is always looking for something different. And 1898 was no different:

"After taking a good big swig at the marshall's old pitcher of special-brewed-for-family-use lemonade last Monday night, the quartet of councilmen commenced its weekly grind."

Some of the terms were puzzling. Maybe our senior citizen friends can tell us something about these:

— 4-ply linen collars at 5-cents each.

— A Bicola Pill settles nervous Bankrupts.

— A shadow social and oyster supper was held at Henry Schoof's on West Baseline.

— John Abbey of Novi was a "skunk digger."

— A full wide yard of Henriettas.

—Don't borrow trouble. Buy Sapolio. 'Tis cheaper in the end.

— Tonsorial! Two chairs, two artists.

—Syrup of Figs, and Alabastine.

—Percales, gingham, madras, organdies.

—Ladies Seamless, fast black hose with high spliced heel and double sole.

—Crash pants and crash hats.

Teachers and administrators were given raises in 1898, thus boasting the paycheck of the superintendent to $850 and the primary school teacher to $300.

Finally, I learned something about Edward Hines, the man for whom the parkway is named at Northville:

Edward Hines was married to Carrie Steers and they went a wheeling on a bridal tour.

But Offense Shows Spark

Mustangs Lose to Harrison 33-23

After more than two consecutive years of frustrations, Northville's long-suffering fans finally had something to cheer about Saturday afternoon as their Mustangs finally figured out that they could move the ball and put points on the score board if they really put their minds to it.

It is true that the team suffered its fifth consecutive loss of the season, but it is also true that for the first time in a good long while Northville exhibited some offensive spark, scoring 23 points and moving the ball to their opponents' four and 10 yard lines on two other occasions only to be stopped short of the score.

The Mustangs weren't playing any patsies either. In fact, their opponents were the Farmington Harrison Hawks, the team generally regarded to be about the best in the Western Six Conference. Harrison won the game 33-

FAMILIAR SIGHT — Harrison's Dennis Thibedeau slashed through a gaping hole in the Northville defensive line en route to one of the four touchdowns he scored against the Mustangs. With Thibedeau and Dave Manos doing the bulk of the ball carrying, Harrison rushed for 270 yards.

Leading the Mustang offense was sophomore quarterback Bill McDonald. A fine passer who has had to overcome his lack of experience, the sophomore signal caller finally came into his own against Harrison.

McDonald threw 23 passes and completed 16 of them for a completion percentage that Greg Landry would gladly take any day of the week.

On the receiving end of those aeriels were five different Mustang receivers, but the bulk of the pass catching was done by junior Bart Taylor who made seven catches, and senior Jeff Moon, who hauled in five passes.

Another reason for the Mustangs passing success was a newly installed offense. After losing stalwart offensive guard Chuck Cook for the duration of the season with a knee injury, Northville mentor Chuck Shonta decided to change from his "grind it out" type of offense to a more wide open attack.

Using a whole new series of sets, Shonta employed such gimmicks as putting three wide receivers on one side of the field and letting Moon work man-to-man on the corner back on the other side of the field. But the most successful gimmick of all installed by the Northville coach was the no-huddle offense. With McDonald calling the plays audibly at the line of scrimmage, the no-huddle offense produced two fourth quarter touchdowns and almost produced a third.

Unfortunately, Northville's offensive surge came late in the game and was just not enough to overcome the lead built up by Harrison in the first three quarters of the game.

The Hawks received the opening kick-off and promptly marched down the field to a touchdown. With halfbacks Dave Manos and Dennis Thibedeau alternately gaining sizable chunks of yardage through the Northville defense, Harrison was virtually unstoppable.

It was quarterback Chris Pagnucco who tallied the first touchdown, sneaking across from the two yard line, but it was Manos and Thibedeau who did all the work as between them they piled up 101 yards rushing in the first quarter.

Thibedeau was particularly rough on the Mustangs. The senior halfback gained 93 yards on 15 carries and scored four touchdowns, while Manos ran for 122 yards on 17 carries.

Thibedeau's first and second touchdowns both came in the second quarter, as he scored on runs of six and three yards.

Northville's first threat of the game came late in the second quarter as they moved from their own 48 yard line down to the Harrison four before the drive ended.

Aided by a pair of penalties, the Mustangs had worked the ball to the 25 yard line, where McDonald hit Steve Griggs with a 20 yard pass that put the ball on the five.

On a third and four play, McDonald was hit by a blitzing Manos for a 10 yard loss as the drive fizzled.

Northville's first half touchdown came with only a second left on the clock. Sophomore Phil Palarchio grabbed another McDonald aerial on the three and carried into the end zone for the six points.

Jeff Moon booted the conversion, and the half came to a close with Harrison holding a comfortable 20-7 margin.

The Hawks upped that lead to 33-7 in the second half, scoring once in each quarter. It was Thibedeau who tallied both touchdowns with runs of nine and four yards.

It was after the final Harrison touchdown that Northville switched to the no-huddle offense, and the results were fantastic.

The Mustangs took over the ball on their own 48 yard line after Rick Gots covered an on-sides kick-off attempt.

McDonald's first pass fell incomplete, but Harrison was called for pass interference on the next play, giving Northville the ball on the 37.

Four consecutive passes, three of them to Jeff Moon, put the ball on the four and Dale Griffith barged across from the one on a fourth down play for the score.

Moon grabbed another McDonald pass for a two point conversion and the score was narrowed to 33-15.

Northville's third touchdown came less than two minutes later. Scott Evans, returning to action after two weeks of illness forced absence, recovered a fumble on the Northville 48 yard line. Two passes fell incomplete, but on the third play McDonald crossed the Harrison defense by pitching out to Griffith and the speedy Mustang back went 52 yards for the touchdown.

Griffith added the two point conversion on a sweep play to bring the score to 33-23.

Even though both Northville scores came with less than four minutes left in the game, the Mustangs almost added a third.

Jim Porterfield blocked a Harrison punt and on the first play Moon hauled in another pass on the 20 yard line. The Harrison tackler was called for tackling by the face mask, giving Northville the ball first and ten on the ten yard line.

McDonald's next pass was intercepted, however, and the game closed seconds later as the Hawks ran out the clock.

TOUCHDOWN PASS — Sophomore Phil Palarchio grabs a second quarter pass from Bill McDonald as the Harrison defender sprawls to the ground in a futile attempt to stop the play. Palarchio then sped around the grounded Hawk to score the Mustangs' first touchdown. The play came with one second left on the clock.

COACH CHUCK SHONTA

It's been a long season for Northville's Chuck Shonta.

Inheriting a team woefully weak in fundamentals and with a losing tradition deeply imbedded after two years of one lop-sided loss piled on top of the other, Shonta has suffered through some humiliating times in his brief five-game career as Mustang coach.

There have been times, after the Walled Lake Western debacle, for example, that Northville fans have had to look hard for any bright spots.

But after Saturday's encounter with Farmington

Harrison, Shonta had good reason to smile in spite of another defeat.

Late in the game his team had started to "put it all together" and scored two late, fourth quarter touchdowns to run their point total for the game to 23 - more points than an Mustang team has scored in one game in several seasons.

"There have been times," Shonta admitted, "that things didn't look too good for us, but I've got to say that I think our offense really started to jell in the Farmington game."

One of the interesting aspects of the game was the fact that the Hawks were able to contain Mustang halfback Dale Griffith through much of the game.

In Northville's previous contests Griffith has been pretty much the entire Mustang attack, and last week against Livonia Churchill the senior running back had gained 125 yards.

"They were keying on Dale (Griffith)," said Shonta, "that's why he couldn't get anywhere."

Ironically, Griffith still managed to pick up 62 yards rushing, but 52 of them came on one play late in the game. Faced with the task of stopping the pinpoint passing of Bill McDonald, Harrison was forced to relax their coverage on Griffith, who took full advantage of his freedom to reel off the big 52 yard gain.

Offensively, Northville's star performer was sophomore quarterback Bill McDonald. Like his team, McDonald has had to suffer through some pretty embarrassing times this year, but there was nothing wrong with his performance Saturday.

"He had a great day," offered offensive backfield coach Chuck Apap, "He threw 23 times completed 17 and had five of them dropped. He only threw one bad pass all day."

"We got outstanding performances from six players," said Shonta. "McDonald and Griffith, of course, had fine games. Jeff Moon and Bart Taylor caught 12 passes between them, and defensively Steve Griggs had a couple of terrific hits. He weighs only 145 pounds, but he put a couple of their boys on the bench with good, clean solid belts."

But while the offense was strong, the defense was weak, as Harrison's backs ran through gaping holes in the Northville defensive line all day long.

"We lost Bill Norton, our middle linebacker, early in the game and that didn't help," said Shonta, "but basically they were running through two key spots in our line. If we can keep our offense geared up and can fill those key holes, I think we can do alright."

Mustanger

Bill McDonald, Northville's sophomore quarterback, was picked for "Mustanger" honors after his passing performance against Farmington Harrison. With the running of Dale Griffith stopped cold, McDonald went to the air 23 times, completing 17 for 153 yards. Coaches stated that of the six he didn't complete, five were "drops" on the part of the receiver.

RUGGED ACTION — Wildcat halfback Pat Boyer gets a sampling of the rugged tackling that took place when undefeated Novi took on undefeated Chelsea with the league championship in the balance. Novi's strong running attack built up a 20-13 lead early in the second half, only to have the Chelsea team come back to take the victory on the passing of Wayne Welton.

Chelsea Wins Key Game

Rally Foils Wildcat Bid

Defending champion Chelsea puts its chips on the pass in the second half here Friday and wiped out Novi's early winnings.

Down 13-20 midway through the third quarter, the Bulldogs' Quarterback Wayne Welton fired three touchdown passes to help defeat a fired-up Novi eleven, 36-28, and inch his squad nearer a fourth consecutive Southeastern Conference championship.

The victory gave Chelsea sole possession of first place and dropped previously unbeaten Novi to a three-way tie for second place in the SE standings with Milan and Ypsilanti Lincoln, all with 3-1 records.

Milan earned its share of second place Friday by defeating Saline, 15-7, in a defensive slugfest at Saline. And still smarting from that stinging defeat, the Hornets invaded Novi tomorrow bent on proving Friday's contest was no indication that they were the weaker team.

But if ever a score failed to show up the stronger team it was apparent here last week. On paper, Novi was the superior squad in almost every statistical category.

The Wildcats dominated the rushing game, rolling up 280 yards rushing to Chelsea's 84. And even with their edge in the passing category (163 yards to 84), the Bulldogs were on the short end of a 364-247 yard offensive game. Novi had the ball for 77 offensive plays to Chelsea's 52.

At the intermission, Novi led 13-12 and had put together a total of 151 yards rushing while holding Chelsea to only 23 gained on the ground. Novi's defensive team crashed through the line to toss Chelsea's ball handler for losses of 11.8, 9, and 7 yards.

It was the Bulldogs, however, who scored first in its second series early in the first period, Chelsea came up with two pass completions—26 and 22 yards—to set the stage for Halfback Mark Collin's 2½ yard TD.

The Wildcats bounced back immediately. In seven ground plays, originating on the Novi 24, the Wildcats pushed into the end zone highlighted by the 54 yard dash for the goal line along the left side of the field by Jim Van Wagner. Steve Bosak kicked the extra point to tie the score.

On its next series of plays, Novi launched a 64 yard drive picking up three first downs along the way. On fourth down, Pat Boyer cracked over the left side of the line from two yards out to give the Wildcats a touchdown advantage. Early in the second quarter again, Bosak added the extra point.

Then seconds before the intermission, Welton sneaked the ball over from the 2 foot line to cap a 54 yard Chelsea drive that took advantage of a Novi penalty for roughing the Bulldogs' punter.

With an opportunity to tie the score, the Bulldogs chose instead to try for a two point conversion. But back to pass for the conversion Welton was bottled up and cut down short of this goal line.

With the start of the third quarter, Novi launched one of its best sustained drives of the night. Starting at their own 40, the Wildcats marched to the three yard line in 15 plays, all of which were on the ground except two. One pass went incomplete, the second produced 10 yards and a key first down at the six. Three plays later Van Wagner pushed over the left side from three yards out for the score.

This time Bosak's kick went wide, leaving the Wildcats with a seven-point margin with six minutes to go in the period.

Chelsea picked up just 16 yards in its next series, pushing Novi to its 12 on the punt. The Wildcats battled back to the 38 where it gambled on a fourth down with three inches to go. The gamble misfired and Chelsea had the ball inside the Novi 40.

The Bulldogs ground out two plays and 12 yards to pick up a first down on the 26. Then Welton uncorked a 13 yard pass for another first down. A four yard smash up the center put Chelsea at the 9 where Welton fired a screen pass over the left side to Tim Lancaster for the TD with 12 seconds to go.

Again Chelsea had the option: kick to tie or pass or run for the two point. Electing to run, Fullback Tom Lixey smashed up the center for the conversion and the Bulldogs' one-point edge going into the final quarter.

Novi penetrated to the Chelsea 43 before punting in the opening series of the final stanza. The Bulldogs picked up two first downs but were still sputtering weakly at their own 34 when Welton hit Marty Cashdollar who sped for a stunning 66 yard touchdown. Welton added two more points by faking a pass and running over the right side for the conversion.

Now down by nine points, 29-20, and two touchdowns away from overtaking their opponents, the desperate Wildcats took to the air—their weakest offense of the game. Two passes went incomplete, and two others never got off as the now inspired Bulldogs harassed the passer.

Taking over at the Novi 39, Chelsea marched to the 17 eating up the clock. Then on fourth down, 13 yards to go, and 1:23 to play, Welton fired still another touchdown pass—this one to Halfback Mark Collins. The extra point kick was good.

The game now far out of reach, Novi went to the air again, moving to the 14 where with but five seconds to play Quarterback Steve Lukkari passed to John Pantalone for the TD. A rhubarb ensued when the Chelsea coach stormed onto the field challenging a decision that a penalty flag had been tossed after the pass. It and the game ended with Lukkari breaking through the right side for two extra points.

COACH JOHN OSBORNE

To look at the final statistics you'd never guess that Novi had lost the game.

The Wildcats recorded more first downs than their opponents and ran 25 more offensive plays, but the most blatant difference of all was in rushing yardage.

Running their Wishbone T offense against a Chelsea team that entered the game ranked fifth in the state among Class B schools, the Wildcats amassed this whopping total of 280 yards on the ground. Chelsea could muster only 84 against Novi.

Unfortunately, however, games are not won on the basis of statistical superiority, but on the basis of points scored, and it was Chelsea that came out on top in that category.

"Basically, I'd have to say that my first impression of the game is that I was really proud of my boys," said Novi Coach John Osborne. "They played a fine ball game and I have only good things to say about them. It wasn't a matter of a team being bad, it was just a question of the other team being better."

"The one thing that bothers me about the game," Osborne continued, "is that I think we could have beat them."

Novi had led for much of the game, taking a 14-13 lead into the locker room at halftime and upping that margin to 20-13 midway through the third quarter.

But Chelsea had come back on the strong right arm of quarterback Wayne Welton to score three touchdowns and ultimately take a 36-28 victory.

Osborne had nothing but praise for Chelsea. "Welton is a real fine quarterback and he's got some awfully good receivers. They're just a good team and that's about all there is to it."

Novi's defense against the run had been more than adequate. In fact, it might very well have been their inability to move the ball against the Novi line that prompted the Bulldogs to go to the air.

Welton connected on nine of 13 passing attempts for a total of 163 yards—the only area in which their statistics were superior to those of Novi.

In spite of the loss Osborne had no trouble in picking out players deserving of special mention. Defensive tackle Bob Pisha was selected Wildcat of the week for his defensive play, but Osborne also cited the play of center Kevin Schingel, middle linebacker Pat Ford, and backs Steve Lukkari, Jim Van Wagner, and Pat Boyer.

Sets New School Record

Golfers Reap Honors As Hlohenic Shoots 72

Michigan's first fall golf season is just about over and the only things falling faster than the leaves off the trees is the honors that are falling to Northville's superb high school golf team.

On Wednesday, the young Mustang golfers took on a Livonia Stevenson crew considered to be one of the top Class A teams in the state and handed them a 196-198 defeat to run their season's record in dual meets to a perfect nine wins and no losses.

"But that was just the beginning. In fact, it was hardly a suitable fanfare for the accomplishments yet to come."

On Saturday Coach Al Jones took his team to the state Class B regionals at Grand Blanc Country Club, where they promptly not only tore up the course, but also tore up the opposition, as they stroked their way to an easy 12 stroke victory over their closest opponent to qualify for the state finals this Saturday.

Monday the awards kept coming. Northville's plush Meadowbrook Country Club was the setting of the first Western Six Conference Meet and the first Western Six championship of the current school year went to the Mustangs as they defeated their nearest opponent by 32 strokes.

Jayvees Sink Chelsea

Novi's varsity and junior varsity football teams faced identical situations last week.

Both were slated to pit their undefeated records against equally undefeated Chelsea teams in games they could very well prove to be decisive in the races for league championships.

If anything, the jayvee version of the Chelsea squad is even more formidable than the varsity, as they own a winning streak that stretches back over the past four years.

But if the Novi jayvee was awed, they didn't show it, and brought the Bulldogs' undefeated skid to an abrupt halt by taking a 7-6 triumph in what Coach Milan Obrenovick called one of "the hardest hitting games I've ever seen."

It's fortunate that Novi is not a superstitious team for if they had believed in bad omens they might never have showed up for the game in the first place. The bus that was supposed to take them to the game was a half hour late and a time-saving short-cut proved to be anything but.

What's more, the Wildcats lost the coin flip—the first time they've lost it all season. The worst omen of all, however, was the fact that

And then there are the individual honors. At the very top of that list is the name of John Hlohenic. On Meadowbrook Monday, Hlohenic set a new school record by shooting a round of 72, one over par, to break the record of 73 set by former Northville star and three-time Michigan High School state champion Jim St. Germaine. Ironically, St. Germaine is presently the assistant-pro at Meadowbrook.

The list of honors goes on, however, because also announced at Monday's league championship tournament were the names of the Western Six Conference All-Star team.

Based on average scores of dual meets—between league teams, the all-star squad was dominated by Mustangs.

Number one position went to Hlohenic, and Brian Mills, another Northville golfer, was in the number two position.

Walled Lake Western's Al Upchurch was third, Waterford Mott's Scott Follis was fourth, Northville's John Marshall was fifth, and Northville's Bob Simmons and Western's Greg Murray tied for sixth.

But the biggest honor of all still awaits the Northville golfers. The goal that the Mustangs have had their eye on all year long is the state Class B championship.

The state meet is scheduled for this Saturday and will be played on the Burroughs course in Brighton.

At this point, nobody can deny that the Mustangs have got to be considered one of the favorites in the meet, but in a sport where so much can go wrong so fast, Coach Jones is cautious about his team's chances.

"I think we have a very good chance of winning it," he said, "if everything goes all right, but we've got to have greater consistency than we've been getting. Someone will have a hot round one day and a not so hot round the next day."

In qualifying for the state finals by winning the regionals at Grand Blanc, the Mustangs were led by Bob Simmons, who carded an 80 over the tough course. Mills had an 81, while Marshall and Hlohenic both shot 84's.

The 329 stroke total was 12 better than the 341 registered by second place Okemos. Mason was third with 345.

"I don't think we can take the state with the scores we shot at Grand Blanc," said Jones, "but then I don't really think we'll shoot the same scores at Burroughs."

"I think it will take a figure between 315 and 320 to win it, and we're capable of shooting that well. I don't expect Hlohenic to do as well again, but I think a couple of our other boys might bring their scores down a little."

Guy Dixon, Northville's lead runner, took part in the meet in spite of having spent the greater part of the day in a dentist's chair for some emergency work after having taken a bad spill in practice the previous day.

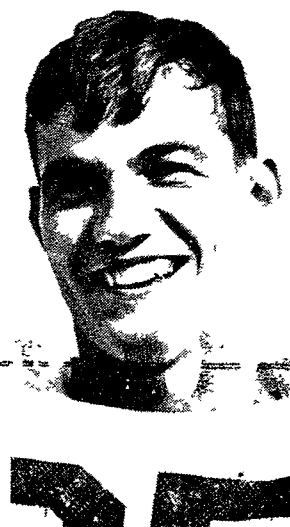

"Under the circumstances," said Redmond, "Guy did a great job, but he wasn't up to one of his usual performances."

Dixon finished third against the Hawks, as Harrison took the top two positions.

Another factor to be considered in the league meet is the anticipated return of Tim Taggart, one of the top Northville runners, who has had to sit out the last two weeks with a pulled muscle.

Dixon and the Mustangs got back on the winning track Tuesday, taking a 24-84 victory over South Lyon. Dixon finished first in the meet, South Lyon copped the second and third positions, but Guy Cole, Jeff Menyhart, Gary Kohn, and Dave Newitt grabbed the number four, five, six, and eight spots to secure the victory.

"Top Cat"

Big Bob Pisha (6'3", 225 pounds) was Coach John Osborne's selection for Wildcat of the Week honors. "Bob played a particularly strong defensive game," said the Novi mentor. Playing defensive tackle, Pisha knocked down a couple of Chelsea passes, and almost intercepted one on what Osborne termed a "superior" effort. Pisha had 13 tackles.

Runners Lose To Farmington

Northville's cross-country team will be looking for revenge next Tuesday when they travel to the Hickory Hills Golf Course for their first Western Six Conference Cross Country Championships.

The team they will be aiming to beat will be Farmington Harrison, which became the second conference team to defeat the Mustang runners, when they won a close 26-29 meet last Thursday.

First place in the conference will almost assuredly go to the fine Livonia Churchill quintet, which has swept through its league schedule without even coming close to losing.

It's the number two position that will be up for contention and Northville coach Ralph Redmond definitely feels that his team has a shot at it. "We feel that we're the second place team in this league," he said. "I know Harrison beat us in the dual, but we've got all the tools to beat them in the league and I think we will."

Redmond could very well be right, for in spite of the loss, it was one of those meets that should have an asterisk beside it.

Guy Dixon, Northville's lead runner, took part in the meet in spite of having spent the greater part of the day in a dentist's chair for some emergency work after having taken a bad spill in practice the previous day.

"Under the circumstances," said Redmond, "Guy did a great job, but he wasn't up to one of his usual performances."

Dixon finished third against the Hawks, as Harrison took the top two positions.

Another factor to be considered in the league meet is the anticipated return of Tim Taggart, one of the top Northville runners, who has had to sit out the last two weeks with a pulled muscle.

Dixon and the Mustangs got back on the winning track Tuesday, taking a 24-84 victory over South Lyon. ## Ask Sewer Cost In Subdivision sized line estimated at $150 per lot, it was explained. The study is to be presented first to the council and then by mail to each subdivision property owner.

In another matter involving a subdivision, the council requested the city manager, at the urging of Lexington Commons South subdivision residents, to delay installation of street lighting.

Although the council several months ago had ordered a specified street lighting system from Detroit Edison, as reviewed and approved by subdivision residents, citizens are now opposed to the system.

The change in position apparently stems from the fact that many of the residents now living in the subdivision were not residents when the system was ordered. A petition containing the signatures of nearly all subdivision property owners requested the delay, pending study of some other type of lighting better suited to the subdivision appearance.

In still another public improvement matter, the council formally confirmed the assessment roll for paving of Horton Street, between Base Line and Eight Mile Road, and set July 1, 1972 as the date assessments are payable.

Confirmation was by a 3-1 vote, with Councilman Paul Folino casting the dissenting opinion. Earlier, Folino, who opposes special assessments on street paving, moved that the assessments be dropped but his motion died for lack of support.

Although the assessment formula calls for a 75-25 percent split with adjacent property owners picking up 75-percent of the cost and the city the remainder, the actual split reported the city manager, is nearly equal because the city is assuming the cost of intersection paving and drainage.

Total cost of the project is estimated at $36,500, minus $7,200 for special drainage. At 75-percent, property owners are assessed $14.63 per front foot. Private property share of the improvement cost has been pegged at $16,385.60.

Assessments may be paid in full as of July 1 or in 10 annual installments.

Although drainage work is expected to be completed yet this year, paving will not begin until spring or later, the council noted.

In other business Monday, the council—

—Granted approval for a one-day liquor license to the Jaycees who will sponsor a "millionaire's party" at the VFW Hall on November 5, permission to the Jaycees to erect signs advertising their Halloween "haunted house", and permission to high school students to stage a bonfire and parade in connection with the homecoming game.

—Appointed Barbara Zerbel, Martha Bingley and George Clark to serve as canvassers for the November election. Appointment of a fourth member awaits confirmation of acceptance.

(Tabled for study a request of the Star Cab Company owner, Thomas Macaluso, to permit 18-year-olds to drive taxicabs inside the city.)

—Rejected a bid by the South Lyon Fire Department to purchase the Northville ambulance for $600 and directed the city manager to advertise the vehicle, no longer used and now housed at the DPW garage, in the Municipal League magazine.

—Approved four short term loans from one account to another (totaling $10,000) and a permanent transfer of $10,000 to the major roads fund from the public improvement account.

—Delayed, upon the recommendation of the city council, until next July 1 any changes in the city's water rates.

—Approved adoption of two amendments to the plumbing code, one of which requires a water shut-off valve on the second floor of residences and the other which requires separate waste arms on newly installed kitchen sinks.

Queen To Reign Friday

Northville High School's homecoming queen who will reign at the annual parade and football game with Brighton this Friday will be crowned a few hours beforehand at an assembly at 2 p.m. Friday.

Three senior girls, Debbie Guido, Nancy Loeffler and Debbie Pickren, are candidates for the crown and will be voted upon later this week by the student body.

The two runners-up will serve on the queen's court with representatives of each class. Underclassmen already have chosen their members of the court. They are Karen Glenn, 11th grade; Mary Barron, 10th; and Karen McDonald, 9th.

They will ride in the annual homecoming parade which includes class floats at 7:30 p.m. Friday. A feature of homecoming again is the pancake supper served by the Northville Presbyterian Men's Club from 5 to 7 p.m. at the church. The community is invited.

Traditional bonfire for homecoming this year will be held Wednesday night on the grounds behind the junior high school to avoid conflict with the Junior Varsity football game Thursday. There also will be class football games Wednesday.

The homecoming dance will be held from 8:30 to 11:30 p.m. Saturday in the high school cafeteria.

master plan.

They did, however, make reference to possible "buffer zoning" and implied this might be "professional office".

Chatham Representative Simon said his company would consider another plan that might provide buffer protection. He admitted that ideally the parking should be located south of the store on Center street, but this property is now owned by Burger Chef which plans to erect a restaurant.

The recommendation for denial now goes to the city council which must also call a public hearing on the proposed rezoning. This action will not be taken for at least 30 days.

Planning Chairman Wheaton explained to the audience that "normally" the council upholds the recommendation of the planning commission. "But it is not bound to do so," he added.

A spokesman for the state Selective Service headquarters supported the Plymouth director's position because of an absence of an interpretation of the law. However, when asked how there could be an interpretation about a board member's age, he conceded there is none and then disclosed McKersky and Coon would have to step down.

He would not, however, disclose names of those with 20 or more years of service. He did say that "apparently" an unnamed Plymouth board member may have to resign because of service time.

According to the national Selective Service office, the new regulation concerning maximum period of service and age also affects appeals board members. The amendments become effective after December 31.

Under procedures of Selective Service, persons who wish to volunteer as board members are screened and recommended by the state director. Federal review usually means investigation by the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI).

Some members apply for their jobs "off the street," others are recommended by current members, and still others are transferred from one board to another when they move to a new community.

Only persons within the age range of 18 to 65 may serve

Does the fact that we're guaranteed twice as long, mean we're twice as good?

We can't prove it, but one thing's sure: We're twice as confident.

When you buy a new car from Volkswagen, you get a new car warranty for 24 months or 24,000 miles, whichever comes first.*

When you buy a new car from any other known company in the world (unless you're interested in a Rolls-Royce), you receive a warranty for only 12 months or 12,000 miles.**

You see, we're the only ones who've stuck with one car model for 24 years. (A gutsy decision when you think we only sold 2 in 1949.)

But thanks to that one decision, we've had a chance to make over 2,200 improvements. (29 improvements on our 1972 model alone.)

And once a VW leaves the factory, we still don't stop caring.

For only an authorized VW dealer offers VW Diagnosis. A series of 4 free checkups with special diagnostic equipment so advanced, it can tell you'll have a car problem before it becomes a big problem.

And if the problem is found (and covered) during the warranty period, we'll solve it for you free of charge.

Even when it comes time to sell, we still won't let you down.

For over the years, two cars have consistently retained more of their original value than others: An old Volkswagen. And an old Cadillac.

Finally, consider price: We're not the lowest-priced economy car you can buy. But once you thoroughly check into what you get for what you pay, you'll find very few car companies who, in reality, end up with their prices lower.

And none who start out with their standards higher.

*If an owner maintains and services his vehicle in accordance with the Volkswagen maintenance schedule any factory part found to be defective in material or workmanship within 24 months or 24,000 miles, whichever comes first, will be repaired or replaced by any U.S. or Canadian Volkswagen Dealer. ## Church Wins Appeal

"We are gratified that Salem has seen fit to reach a decision favorable to us and we hope to begin work as soon as we can clear up contractual details on the property and obtain the building permit."

The Reverend Jim Schaffer thus addressed himself to the Salem Appeals Board's decision to allow his congregation, the Assembly of God, to build a church on Eight Mile Road west of Pontiac Trail (near Dixboro, on the south side of Eight).

"We have built up a congregation of 65 to 70 regular members from a start of one family when we were called to South Lyon 10 months ago," Schaffer pointed out in stressing the need for the building.

Two Tie, Share Contest Prize

Mary Gates of 9262 West Six Mile Road was top winner in last week's football contest but not by much.

That's because two other persons, Steven Baluha of 463 Maplewood and H. W. White of Plymouth, tied and thus shared both second and third place money.

All three made only one error in their entries. In guessing score of the Oklahoma-Colorado game, however, Mary was closest to the 45-17 Oklahoma victory. She picked Oklahoma to win, 35-14, while the two others were both 24 points off the actual score.

Although the biggest obstacle for most entries was Novi's loss to Chelsea, none of the winners missed on that game. They, like many others, incorrectly guessed Florida State to beat Florida.

The other game that spoiled entries of many contestants was Wisconsin's 31-28 triumph over Michigan State.

None of the entries were marked incorrect on the New Orleans-Atlanta game because it wasn't played and won't be until this coming weekend.

Contestants who guessed all but two of the games correctly last week included:

Don't Let Football Get You Down

By PHIL JEROME

Baseball, they say, is the national pastime.

Not so, however, and if you are the type inclined not to believe it, simply ask the wife of any red-blooded American male.

While leaves fall on unraked lawns and storm windows remain untouched in their summer storage places, chances are good that on any given weekend any given male will be snuggled securely in front of the television set watching college football on Saturday, professional football on Sunday, the Don and Howard Show on Monday night.

With so many football games being televised, the number of "teevee football widows" has far surpassed the number of "weekend golf widows."

There is a solution, however, for any wife who wants to avail herself of it, and that solution is for her to become a football fan herself.

But because football is a somewhat complicated game to learn, filled with its own special jargon, many wives may give up trying to learn its fundamentals before they even start.

Printed here in the best interests of marital accord and harmony between the sexes is a women's introduction to the glorious game of football.

Quite simply, the object of the game of football is to score more points than the other team.

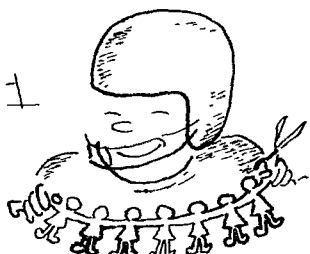

To begin with, then, let's discuss the four ways to score points.

The most common of all scoring plays is the TOUCHDOWN, which consists of carrying the ball across the other team's goal line into the END ZONE. A touchdown is worth six points - the highest of all scoring plays.

After each touchdown, the team that scored it gets to try for an EXTRA POINT. An extra point is scored by either place kicking the ball through the goal posts or carrying it across the goal line again. In professional football the extra point is always kicked, because pro kickers are so good that they never miss an extra point, or, as it is sometimes called a POINT AFTER TOUCHDOWN (PAT).

There is an interesting rule in college and high school football that provides for scoring two points instead of just one after touchdowns. The ball is placed on the four yard line. The team then has a choice, they can try to run it, or pass it across (2 points) or take the easy way of kicking it through the goal posts for one point.

A third means of scoring is by kicking a field goal. Field goals, which are worth three points, are scored by kicking the ball between the goal posts. A field goal can be kicked from anywhere on the field, but the longest in history traveled 64 yards and is still considered by many to be something of an unusual event.

It was Tom Dempsey, a man with a special kicking shoe due to a deformed foot, who set the record and he did it last year against the Lions. This of course is not necessary information to the understanding of the game, but if you slip it into the conversation at a strategic point your husband is sure to be impressed.

The fourth scoring play is called a SAFETY and is so infrequent that you may never see one. A team scores a safety by forcing the other team back into its own end zone and tackling the man with the ball. A safety is worth two points.

The touchdown, extra point, field goal, and safety are the only four ways a team can score points. So far, it has been pretty easy. Let's move next to the players themselves.

There are eleven players on each team. When the team has the ball and is trying to score, they are said to be on OFFENSE. The team that does not have the ball is said to be on DEFENSE.

The players on offense are divided into two types: backs and linemen. Backs are the players that get to run with the ball, while the linemen are the players who try to block the defensive players out of the way so that the backs can run with the ball.

The most easily recognizable of all linemen is the CENTER. He is the one that stands over the ball before the play begins and hikes it back to the quarterback. All offensive linemen have blocking assignments (defensive players they are supposed to knock out of the play), and the center's blocking assignment is the middle linebacker on running plays and whoever he thinks might tackle the quarterback on passing plays.

The GUARDS are the next two offensive linemen. You can always identify the guards by the fact that they line up on either side of the center. Guards usually draw the job of blocking defensive tackles.

Next to the guards are the offensive TACKLES. It is their job to block the defensive ends.

The center, two guards, and two tackles are known as the interior linemen, because they play in the middle of the line. There are two more linemen, however, and they are known as the ENDS.

Professional football teams use two types of ends - tight ends and split ends.

The team "TIGHT ENDS" does not refer to the player's degree of inebriation, but refers instead to where he stands on the line. Tight ends play right next to the tackles.

Unlike the other linemen, ends may catch the ball, but the tight end is used as much for his blocking as for his pass catching.

The other end is called the SPLIT END. He is called that because he doesn't line up with the rest of the linemen, but is split away from them by about anywhere from five to 15 yards. Split ends are used primarily as pass catchers and most are extremely fast runners.

One word of caution: it is important to remember that split ends in the football sense should never be referred to as frizzies.

As you become more familiar with the game you may hear the terms STRONG SIDE and WEAK SIDE. These refer simply to the side of the line the tight end and split ends are on. The tight end is always on the STRONG SIDE, while the split end is on the WEAK SIDE.

Most of the football glory goes to the backs. They are the players who run, throw and catch the ball; the players who score touchdowns and win games.

The most important player on any football team is the quarterback. He is the one in charge of running the whole offense. He calls the plays and makes the decisions. It is the quarterback who receives the ball from the center and either hands it off to a running back or throws it to one of his receivers.

Most professional teams use two running backs and a FLANKER. Not surprisingly, running backs are the ones who run with the ball, although they are also legal pass receivers.

The flanker is primarily a pass catcher. Whereas the running backs line up a couple of yards behind the quarterback, the flanker is "flanked" out to the side, away from everyone else. Like the split end, flankers are generally very fast runners.

Faced with the job of stopping the offense is the defense. A team on offense must have seven linemen and four backs. No such rules govern the play of the defensive team, however, and if a coach wanted to play with eleven linemen there is nothing in the rule book that could stop him.

As a result of the lack of a rule, there are many different types of defensive formations. The one used by pro teams is the one described here.

WISHBONE 'T'

There are four defensive backs. The CORNER BACKS are often said to be the best all-around athletes in football. It is the cornerbacks who have the unenviable job of having to guard, or COVER, the split ends and flankers when they go out on pass plays.

The final two defenders are the SAFETIES. They are called safeties because they play farther back than any other players and are the last line of defense. Once an offensive player gets past the safety he has clear sailing to the end zone.

The STRONG SIDE SAFETY is the safety on the same side of the field as the offense's tight end. His primary job is to guard the tight end.

The WEAK SIDE SAFETY is an extra defensive back. Because the flankers and split ends have an advantage over the cornerbacks, the weak side safety is used to help the cornerbacks with their coverage. When you hear the term DOUBLE COVERAGE on a pass receiver, it means that the safety is helping the cornerback to guard a particular player.

And those basically are the positions. But the world of football has a wealth of slang word and phrases that can make the game sound almost unintelligible to anyone unfamiliar with them.

Here is an attempt to explain a few:

BELLY SERIES - The belly series has nothing to do with the physical condition of the players' mid-sections. It refers instead to a method of faking on hand-offs. The quarterback will put the ball in the belly of a running back as he passes, but instead of letting the back take it, he pulls the ball back out and will then give it to another back.

BLITZ - A blitz is a defensive play in which someone in addition to the defensive linemen charges the quarterback. Usually it is the linebackers who blitz, but some teams will also let their safeties blitz on occasion.

BOMB - A long pass. When the quarterback throws the ball high and far, going for a big gain, he is said to be throwing the bomb.

BOOTLEG - On a bootleg play, the quarterback keeps the ball himself and runs with it around end. He usually tries to hide the ball on his hip so that the defensive players hopefully won't see that he has it.

BROADWAY JOE - The great quarterback of the New York Jets, Joe Namath.

BULLET - Another type of pass. This one is thrown very hard and fast so that it has a trajectory like a bullet.

CLIPPING - A clip is blocking a player from behind. Because a clip can cause serious injuries, it is not allowed. A player who is caught clipping will have a 15 yard penalty called against his team.

CLOTHESLINE - Another dangerous maneuver, although it is legal and will not be penalized. A clothesline refers to swinging the whole arm at an opposing player's neck.

DRAW PLAY - This is an offensive play used by the quarterback when he feels the defensive linemen are rushing him too fast. On his way back to the spot where he is going to pass from, he slips the ball to one of his running backs, hoping that the charging linemen will be so intent on him that they'll run right past the running back who will then have clear sailing ahead.

FIRST DOWN - An offensive team can keep the ball as long as it keeps getting first downs. A first down is awarded every time the team gains 10 yards. Each play is called a down, and a team gets four downs to gain 10 yards and another first down. If after four plays they still haven't covered the necessary yardage the other team gets the ball.

FLAT - The area on the field near the sidelines. When a quarterback throws into the flat, he is passing to a player near the sideline and not very far downfield.

FLOW - Flow is the direction every one is going. If a play is flowing to the right, it means that all the players are running toward the right side of the field.

FULLBACK - One of the running backs.

FUMBLE - Dropping the ball. All fumbles are free balls and may be recovered by either team.

HUDDLE - When a team is said to be in the huddle, they are gathered around the quarterback who is telling them what the next play will be. The huddle is held about 10 yards away from the ball so that the defense cannot overhear what the offense is going to do.

FORMATION - A relatively new type of offensive formation in which all the backs line up in a straight line behind the center and the quarterback.

ILLEGAL PROCEDURE - Another type of penalty. It is a penalty against the offensive team. Usually for not having seven men on the line and four in the backfield.

ILLEGAL MOTION - Another penalty against the offense. Once the offensive players get into their positions and are waiting for the center to hike the ball, they are not allowed to move. If even a single player moves before the ball is hiked his team is penalized five yards.

ILLEGAL RECEIVER - Only the backs and the two ends are eligible to catch passes for the offensive team. If any other player moves farther than ten yards downfield from the point where the play started his team is penalized for having an illegal receiver.

KEY - To key on a certain player means to watch him. Often defensive linemen will key on the offensive guards because the guards usually go where the ball carrier will be running. Sometimes a team will key on a certain player because he is so good. For example, a team might assign a linebacker to watch a good runner on every play to prevent him from getting loose for a long gain.

MONSTER - A name for a defensive player. The "monster man" has no specific area or people to cover. He can go where he thinks the play will be going to. Monsters are usually linebackers.

NAKED REVERSE - It's not what you're thinking. A reverse is a play in which a running back going one way hands the ball off to a different running back coming from the opposite direction. The "naked" reverse refers to the play in which the second back, the one who ends up with the ball, has no blockers in front of him. He is "naked" of any blocking support.

NECK TIE TACKLE - Tackling a player around his neck.

OFF SIDE - A penalty for crossing the line of scrimmage before the ball is hiked to the quarterback.

PIG SKIN - Another word for football. When the game was first invented the football was made out of pig skin.

PITCH OUT - Sometimes instead of handing off, a quarterback will get the ball to a running back by using a pitchout. It is usually an underhand toss of the ball and must always be thrown backwards. If the pitchout is tossed forward it will be called a forward lateral - an illegal play.

PLACE KICKER - There are two types of football kickers - place kickers and punters. A place kicker must kick the ball off the ground, while the punter drops the ball and kicks it in mid-air. All extra points and field goals must be made by place kicking.

POCKET - When a quarterback is going to pass he runs back about 10 to 12 yards from where the play started. The offensive linemen try to keep the pass rushers from getting into this area which is known as the pocket.

PREVENT DEFENSE - Teams use a prevent defense when they are ahead and there is not much time left in the game. Basically, the safety backs play much deeper than usual so that the offense can have short gains but can't have long touchdown plays.

RED DOG - Same as blitz, but this is now an outdated term.

ROLL OUT - Sometimes, instead of going back into the pocket to pass, the quarterback will run back and to one side. This is called rolling out.

SAFETY VALVE - A type of pass. If the quarterback sees that all of his downfield receivers are covered, he will throw a short pass to a back who is standing near-by in the flat. It is not meant to be a big gain, but a means to get the quarterback out of a bad situation.

SCRAMBLER - Refers to a type of quarterback. Most professional quarterbacks will go back into the pocket to pass. If the pass blocking breaks down, however, and the defensive linemen get through, the quarterback has to "scramble" around trying to get away from them.

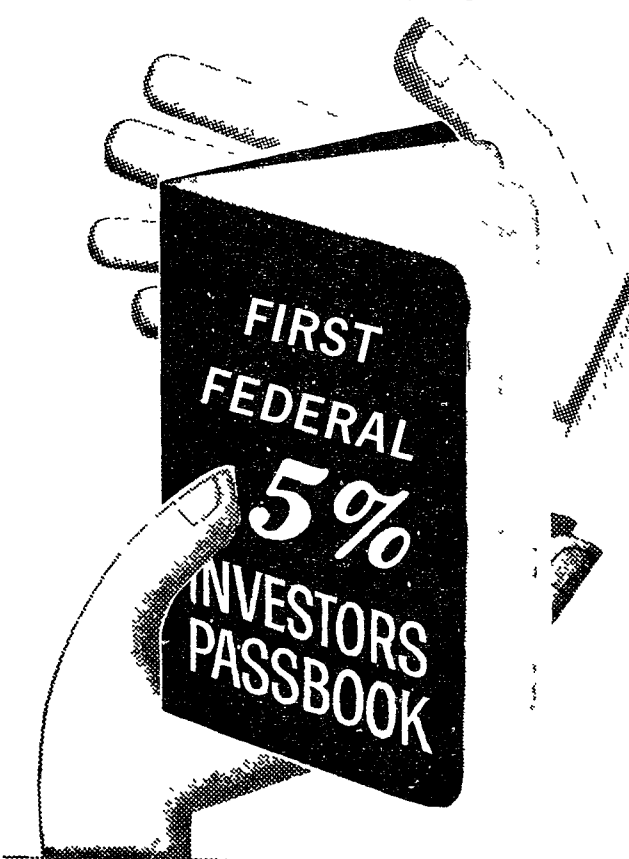

SCREEN PASS - This is another means a quarterback has of making defensive linemen rush him a bit slower. The offensive linemen let the pass rushers get past them. The quarterback waits until

Foreign Car Sales Slice Job Market

LANSING — There are 50,000 fewer jobs in Michigan than if foreign cars had not sold so well during the last two years. This is the estimate of B.M. Conboy, director of Michigan Commerce Department's office of Economic Expansion.

Sale of foreign cars increased about 30 percent during the last 24 months, and this means that Michigan jobseekers simply could not be put to work. Conboy stresses that the 50,000 does not mean people fired or laid off; it is his estimate of those who were not hired.

Since wages are lower in other countries, Conboy hopes that President Nixon's decision to impose a 10 percent surcharge on foreign cars will equalize the cost until overseas wage rates increase to be more comparable with our own.

A WHOLE NEW interest in the subject of legislative reform among his legislative colleagues is apparent, says State Representative Joe Swallow.

And, he quickly adds, he thinks he knows why.

He thinks it's because of the public response he's been getting to his proposal for the establishment of a one house Legislature in Michigan.

He suspects, along with some other observers, that the lawmakers are now taking his proposal seriously. And they figure the easiest way to beat it is shower the state with conflicting proposals for various types of legislative reform.

THE ALPENA LAWMAKER says he wouldn't be so suspicious of his colleagues if they hadn't waited until after his idea started catching on to come up with other proposals.

"Before I started organizing support for the one house Legislature, there was no attempt on the part of the Legislature for any major reform of the legislative process," he says. "Numerous calls for study and reform have been made by Michigan legislators since that time."

For instance, he points to State Senator Patrick McCollough's introduction of a proposal to establish a parliamentary system of government in Michigan. Or, he says, there is Sen. Robert Davis' proposal to establish a legislative committee to study a one-house Legislature and separate proposal by Davis to cut the Senate to 19 members and the House to 57.

"TO ESTABLISH a legislative study committee to study legislative reform is like appointing foxes to study the safety of a hen house," Swallow says. "I do not believe that a fair and unbiased report could come from a committee that would most likely contain legislative members who have already spoken out against a one-house Legislature."

And he says Davis is completely missing the point when he talks, as have several others, of cutting down on the size of each chamber.

"The problems we are currently facing in the Legislature are not due to its size, but rather its structure," he says. "Two houses, regardless of their size, still leave the doors wide open to intrahouse maneuvering, which is a politician's dream for avoiding responsibility."

"Legislative streamlining and reform," he says, "is unquestionably long overdue. The power to do this has always existed but has not been exercised."

"Why? The fact is that many politicians, special interest groups and lobbyists have vested interests that will be disturbed.

"The Legislature, without external pressure by the people, will not by its own action institute reform. The one house petition drive is trying to apply this pressure."

AMONG THE ITEMS squeezed this year by the state's money problems are the motor vehicle license plates for 1972.

Instead of receiving a new set of license plates for the coming year, motorists will merely receive a small sticker which will be placed on the lower right hand corner of the rear license plate on all passenger vehicles, trucks and trailers.

The stickers are made of plastic and will have a gummed backing. All a motorists will have to do is tear off the cover on the backing and stick it to his license plates.

THE CHANGEOVER will save the state about $1 million, says Secretary of State Richard Austin.

That may not seem like much when the total budget is over $2 billion, or 2,000 times $1 million. But when the money situation gets tight, as anyone who has ever been in a tight money situation knows, you start saving every dime you can.

The plans for 1973 call for full-sized plates, but that's not definite.

"It depends on the Legislature," Austin says. "If the Legislature appropriates only enough money in our budget to provide tabs again next year, we may have to issue stickers for a second time."

The stickers, which can be ordered through the mail for the first time this year, go on sale Nov. 15 for passenger cars.

AFTER THE ANNOUNCEMENT of Phase I of President Nixon's economic game plan, the reaction of most labor authorities was immediately and quite bitterly hostile.

AFL-CIO President George Meany was quick to point out that he and most of his top aides had long recognized the necessity for wage-price controls of one sort or another to combat inflation, but only provided they fell evenly on both business and the workers. If wages were to be curbed, the same must apply to profits.

Further analysis of Phase I made many union leaders even more certain that the workers they represent were getting the small end of the deal. Wages were frozen solid, even in cases where raises had been expected.

Mr. Nixon also asked specifically that pay gains promised federal employees be postponed until the middle of 1972. His request for termination of existing strikes and delay of anticipated ones brought angry assertions from labor sources that the government was intruding illegally on the right to strike guaranteed to the unions by law.

And the worst cut of all for Mr. Meany was that no curbs were placed on profits, and only appeals for voluntary restraint were made in terms of interest and corporate dividends.

LABORITES claimed that their wage scales could be almost automatically monitored, if only by employers themselves, while retail prices could go just about where they wanted.

It was charged that a survey of prices in over a hundred supermarkets in New York City revealed only four that were not in violation of the price freeze order effective August 15. Federation's George Meany said on TV that he was told by the Internal Revenue Service—ostensibly responsible for monitoring prices—that no men were on the road for that service, that all checking up on retail prices was done by telephone.

WHEN PRESIDENT Nixon revealed Phase II of his economic game plan on October 7, labor found little relief from what had been found so unacceptable in the original wage-price-rent freeze program. While a White House official said the system must be "voluntary and co-operative" in essence, union heads continued to view the situation with marked uneasiness.

When the 90-day freeze expires at midnight November 13, major businesses and big unions must get advance permission from the government to boost wages or prices. In the middle-size range

Parents: Here's Tips On Drugs

Editor's Note: Following is the second in a series of articles by Oakland County Prosecutor Thomas G. Plunkett intended to inform parents about the drug threat and what it means to their children.

Marihuana is probably the best known drug to most parents because we have heard so much about it in recent years. Marihuana has long been in use in certain cultures, and now has spread widely throughout the country. Its manufacture, distribution and use is, of course prohibited by law except for approved research purposes.

Marihuana is the dried flowering or fruiting top of the plant Cannabis Sativa, L., commonly called Indian Hemp. It usually looks like fine, green tobacco and is smoked in pipes or cigarette forms.

Hashish, also a preparation from Cannabis, is taken orally in many forms, and infrequently it is made into candy, sniffed in powder form, mixed with honey for drinking or with butter to spread on bread.

The primary effect is a feeling of great perceptiveness and pleasure and an exaggerated sense of ability, resulting from even small doses. Erratic behavior, loss of memory, distortion of time and spatial perceptions and hilarity without apparent cause can occur. There is a marked unpredictability of effect.

These reactions are, of course, also usual in users of alcohol, but with the drug user there is no alcoholic breath odor.

Because of the visual and sensory changes which result from the use of marihuana, abusers may act in a manner dangerous to themselves and others. A user may be accident prone because of his time and space distortion. Dependence may lead to anti-social behavior and could be the forerunner to use of other, far more deadly drugs.

Street names for marihuana are: joints, sticks, reefer, weed, grass, pot, muggles, mooters, Indian hay, locoweed, Mu, giggle-smoke, Griffo, Mohasky and Mary Jane.

By the millions, and rightfully so, parents are more and more concerned about drug use. Most disturbing is that drugs, especially marihuana, are becoming popular even among high school and junior high school students. One 37-year-old father said in a recent interview, "My seven-year-old daughter can spell MARIHUANA. I never heard of it until I was in college." Both on high school and college campuses, raids and arrests for possession of marihuana and other drugs are increasing across the country. Simple possession of marihuana is a felony-rightly or wrongly- that can be punished by jail terms up to 10 years. Drug use is, without doubt, becoming a way of life for some young people and for an untold but large number of adults also.

And so, we must all think about these things, for we are all in this together. As adults, it is our responsibility to halt drug abuse in our community. To do this we must all know more about drugs, their use and misuse. Be with me next week. What we are studying is for a very worthwhile cause.

Who Shot The Computer?

Rev. Cedric Whitcomb
First Baptist Church of Northville

It's the year 1985. You're driving your car along an expressway and you decide to speed things up a bit. "After all," you say to yourself, "there's hardly any traffic today, and there isn't a cop in sight." Over the speed limit you go and arrive home earlier than usual—and best of all without a traffic ticket.

Don't get overconfident! This is 1985! The next day you get a notice from the traffic division of your local police department that you were observed by the electronic computer, your speed recorded, licence number noted and the citation printed—all in a matter of seconds.

A page out of the latest science fiction novel? Not on your life! The Wall Street Journal reminds us of this future possibility in an article called, "Computerized Cops."

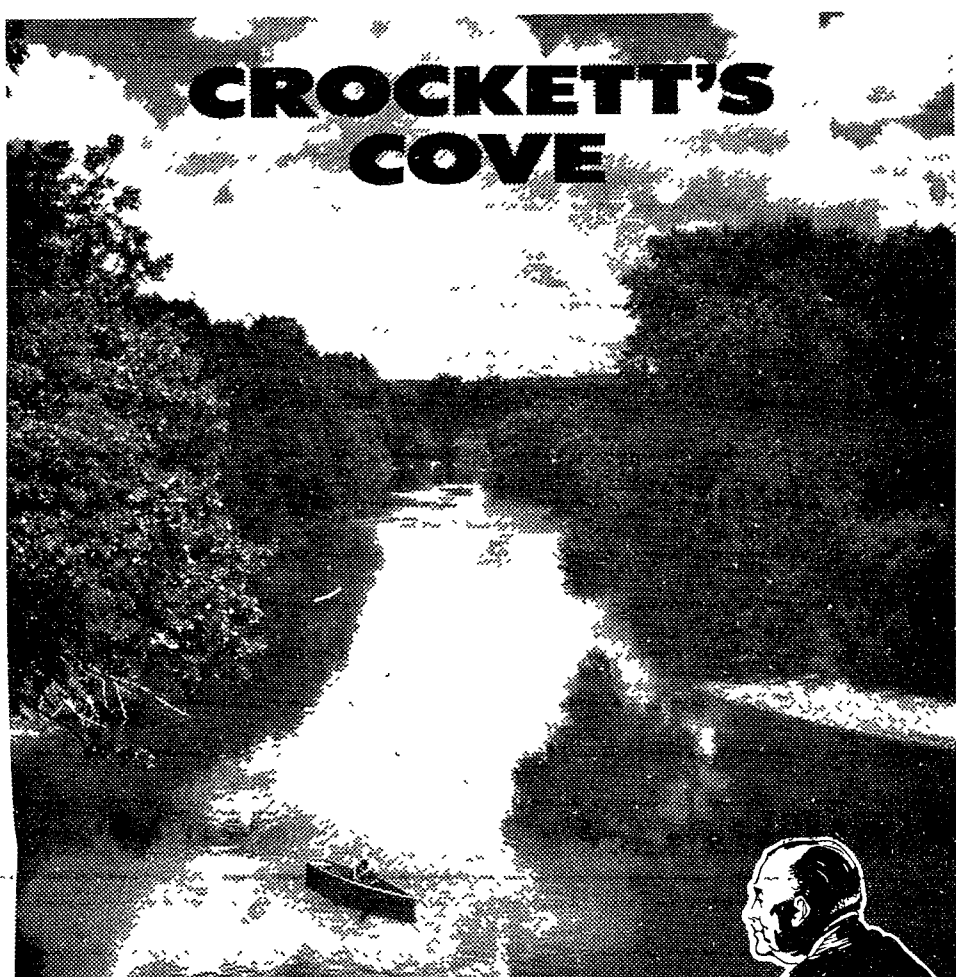

People are reacting to our computerized age. They dislike the fact that it has made our society so impersonal. One man has organized a group called ISFADPM, which stands for International Society for the Abolition of Data Processing Machines. A man in Olympia, Washington broke into an office and shot the computer!

It's comforting to know that God doesn't run His world with computers, but He knows each of us personally. He wants us to know Him the same way. And there is a difference between knowing God personally and belonging to a church or practicing some religious discipline. How do we meet Him personally and come to know Him?

Life is made lonely by the sin on the inside and first of all we must admit all our mistakes, errors and accidents as sin and confess it to God. Jesus Christ died on the cross to make forgiveness of sin possible. The cross upon which He died was not a computer but a personal one and on it He died for you personally and because He is alive today He can come into your life personally. "Whoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved" (Romans 10:13).

Sin is a personal thing, but so is salvation. When He saves us He doesn't put a number in a machine, but says, "Rejoice, because your name is written in heaven" (Luke 10:20).

Why would the Almighty God of the galaxies pay attention to you and your problems? Because He loves you! He died for you! He wants to be your personal Savior.

I get plenty of teasing from the fellows at the plant about my cove. They call it "Crockett's Cove—all for Tired Executives." And they're right.

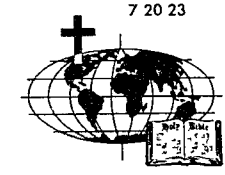

Drifting alone on the still water, tiny under the full sky, things fall into perspective. A bird calls, upriver a fish arches, a passing breeze brings blossom scent. Somehow, no matter how thorny my problem, the harmony of God's nature takes the kinks out of me.

Things weren't always this way. A few years back a was just a tree to me—a lake, a lake. Now, wherever I look, I see God's goodness.

It all started one evening when, worried and depressed, I wandered into a church. I can't remember now what was sung or read, but I will never forget the sense of God's presence. Since then, God's Church and teachings have been my strength.

Your church offers inspiration and a fresh viewpoint. Take advantage of it.

Here's New Regulations

Draft Law Changes Extend Inductions

Congress has passed and President Richard Nixon has signed the 1971 amendments to the Military Selective Service Act, now authorizing the selective service to continue inductions until June 30, 1973.

New regulations will be issued to cover many other changes in the new draft law. Summarized below, pending the issuance of detailed regulations and new brochures, are some of the highlights of the 1971 amendments.

Registrants are advised to consult with their local board if they have any questions concerning these changes.

Student Deferments

Registrants who met the requirements for student deferments during the 1970-71 regular academic school year will be deferred until they graduate, or reach age 24, or cease to pursue their course of study satisfactorily, whichever comes first. The President will have the authority to eliminate student deferments for those who enter college in the summer of 1971 or later.

Non-deferred college students are eligible to have their inductions postponed until the end of the semester or term, or academic year in the case of their last year, or until they cease satisfactorily to pursue such course of instruction, whichever is earlier.

High School Students

High school students who are issued an order for induction are eligible to have their induction postponed until they graduate, or until they reach 20 years of age, or until they cease satisfactorily to pursue their high school course of instruction, whichever is the earliest.

Those students who turn 20 after the beginning of their last academic year are eligible to have their induction orders postponed until the end of that academic year as long as they continue to pursue satisfactorily a full-time course of instruction.

Divinity Students

Divinity students will no longer be exempt from military service but instead will be eligible for statutory deferments. If deferred, they will be liable for military service until age 35.

Conscientious Objectors

The national director of selective service will be responsible for finding civilian jobs for COs and for the placement in appropriate civilian work contributing to the maintenance of the national health, safety or interest.

Sole surviving son exemption is expanded to include those registrants whose father, brother, or sister was killed in action or died in the line of duty while serving in the armed forces after December 31, 1959, or died subsequent to that date as a result of injuries received or disease incurred in the line of duty during such service.

Also exempt are those registrants whose father, brother, or sister is in a captured or missing in action status. The term brother or sister means a brother of the whole blood or a sister of the whole blood.

Procedural Changes

Pursuant to such rules and regulations as the President may prescribe:

Each registrant shall be afforded the opportunity to appear in person before the local or any appeal board of the Selective Service System to testify and present evidence regarding his status.

Subject to reasonable limitations on the number of witnesses and the total time allotted to each registrant, each registrant shall have the right to present witnesses on his behalf before the local board.

A quorum of any local board or appeal board shall be present during the registrant's personal appearance.

In the event of a decision adverse to the claim of a registrant, the local or appeal board making such decision shall, upon request, furnish to such a registrant a brief written statement of the reasons for its decision.

Flint Man Gets Post

Appointment of Bruce Stewart, of Flint as presiding judge for the 42-night Jackson-at-Northville harness racing meet, racing at Northville Downs, November 1 through December 8, was announced this past week by Leon A. Slavin, president and general manager of Jackson Trotting Association, sponsor of the meet.

Stewart heads of veteran harness racing officials. Appointed as steward for the racing commission was Franklin Meharg of Yale. Joining Meharg and Stewart in the judges box will be Frank Utter, Fowlerville, associate judge.

Others appointed to judge posts for the meet include Roger Anderson, starting judge, George White and William Miner, patrol judges, and Howard Poole, paddock judge.

Appointments to the racing department include Thomas Smith, director of racing, Phil Mauger, assistant race secretary and announcer, Ann Pellegrini, clerk of course, and John Coon, track superintendent.

Named to head the mutuels department was veteran mutuels manager, Edwin McCarthy.

The 1971 Jackson-at-Northville meet is the third to be presented at the Northville Downs plant, featuring Michigan's newest club house and an entirely glass enclosed, modern heated grandstand.

Calls for Draft Resume Soon

Draft calls will be resumed in November and December for 1971 first priority registrants with random sequence numbers 125 and below, the state selective service headquarters had announced.

Draftees also will include volunteers and extended priority registrants with random sequence numbers 190 and below. The 1971 first priority group includes registrants born in 1951 or earlier who received lottery numbers of 125 or below in 1970 or 1969 and who are available for induction during 1971.

Registrants selected for induction will receive at least 30 days notice instead of 10 days required under present regulations. All inductions will be completed by December 9.

Students and teachers who are reached for induction in November and December may have their inductions postponed to the end of the current semester, quarter or term.

Local boards have been directed to suspend action on all classifications, personal appearances and appeals until new regulations are issued under the 1971 amendments to the Selective Service law.

Local boards will continue all other normal registration, physical examination and induction procedures pending issuance of new regulations. Registrants should continue to submit information to draft boards which may affect their classification.

Babson: On Nixon Plan

wage or price action may be taken, but rollbacks can be ordered where hikes are found to be excessive. Standards must be followed by small operations, shopkeepers, landlords, etc., with possible IRS investigations if there are consumer complaints.

Reasonable union leaders admit they can live with these restraints, especially since they will be represented by five members on the fifteen-member pay board to set and approve guidelines for raises. But Mr. Meany and other officials of autonomous parts of the AFL-CIO still do not like the fact that profits have no checkreins nor are any planned during the somewhat misty course of Phase II. Even a tax on excess profits—sought by some pro-labor and left-of-center politicians—is not anticipated.

It is the best guess of Babson's Reports that labor will go along, even if reluctantly, with Phase II until inflation is no longer a serious threat to our economy.

Here's the Answer

Blitz Hubby With Knowhow

they almost have him, then loops a short pass over their heads to a back who will then have open field ahead of him. SCRIMMAGE - A scrimmage can be either of two things. A scrimmage is a practice game, or, it may refer to the yard line on which a certain play started.

STATUE OF LIBERTY PLAY - Such an old play that it is almost always called the "old" statue of liberty play. The quarterback goes back to pass, puts his hand up as if to throw the ball as the pass rushers barrel down on him, and then hands off to a halfback who runs behind him.

WISHBONE T - Another type of offensive formation. There are three running backs in this formation and they line up in what looks like a Y or wishbone. It is also referred to as the "triple option" offense because the quarterback can either give it to his fullback, keep it himself, or pitch out to one of his running backs.

WOLFMAN - Same as monsterman. The University of Michigan uses a wolfman in their defensive alignment.

MEMO TO PROSPECTIVE NEW CAR BUYERS:

Chevrolet's building a better way to see the U.S.A. LaRiche built a better place to buy a Chevrolet.

Because we want your new Chevrolet to be the best car you've ever owned, we've moved to a new location.

Now we've got better facilities—a better place to service what we sell.

We've got more showroom space, so you can come and see all the new Chevrolets in one convenient place—and it doesn't stop there. You like quick delivery, we like to be obliging. Now we've got the space to stock more of the types and colors of Chevrolets people want most.

Our new location gives us more service area, too. Which means we can serve more customers more efficiently and with more individual attention. We've moved for the better. And that's good. Especially for you.

Thank You
Lou LaRiche

P.S...Beat the Price Freeze. We still have a selection of 1971 Chevrolets, PLUS 1972 models available for IMMEDIATE DELIVERY.

LOOSE LEAF

By ROLLY PETERSON

"McCabe & Mrs. Miller", despite its realistic approach to the old west, the impressionistic haze of the camera work and the presence of two outstanding stars, is a movie that isn't quite satisfying.

We're accustomed to seeing saloon girls, like Kitty of Gun Smoke fame, in low-cut, short-length dresses covered with spangles. The saloon girls are somewhat below the common cut, but are ladies nonetheless who prance around the saloon and sip a few drinks with the customers.

"McCabe & Mrs. Miller" roughs up this stereotyped impression. There are saloon girls, all right, but they're bona-fide prostitutes who primarily sell their wares and only secondarily tip a few drinks with the all male clientele.

This is the core of the story. How Warren Beatty as McCabe sets up a saloon in a northwest mining town that is bogged down in mud and isolated from more fashionably society in San Francisco to the south, how he at first sets up shop with three females from the dregs of another saloon and how Mrs. Miller (Julie Christie) comes along and makes McCabe's saloon a going concern with high class prostitutes from San Francisco.

There's more to the story than that. McCabe's infatuation with Mrs. Miller, the highest priced prostitute despite her position as partner to McCabe, McCabe's competition from a more steady establishment in the same town, the attempt by outsiders to buy out his profitable business and the ensuing gun battle with three gunmen.

Giving the movie the hazy glow of yesteryear is the impressionistic camera work. No sharp edges with colors jumping out at the viewer. Only the soft, hazy outline of figures conveying the historical impression.

The acting of Beatty and Miss Christie, if anything, are up to par. As McCabe, Beatty is the man with few attachments who takes a flinger at life, such as it is. Miss Christie, as Mrs. Miller, has a few serious hangups, like prostitution and opium smoking, that preclude any normal life or any human commitment.

Still the movie doesn't come off as real life representation of the old west. It's the gun battle that clutters up an otherwise depressing but appealing story.

Can a story be told about the old west without the shootout at the end? Apparently not, according to "McCabe & Mrs. Miller". And the fact that McCabe gets his in the end does little to subdue this point.

Horse's Mouth

pionaward A total of $1,200 in prize money will be offered. Details of the contest may be obtained by writing to Horse Photo Contest, Farnam Companies, P.O. Box 2151, Phoenix, Arizona 85001.

Why do you mount a horse on the left side?

Mounting a horse on the left side is a custom dating back to ancient warfare. The cavalry man or knight wore his sword on the left side to it was easier for him to swing his right leg over the horse's back.

Tips for Shoppers

By Jean Day

MERCHANTS' DAYS in Northville, a three-day shopping event starting this Thursday and continuing through Saturday, October 21-23, offers both bargains and specials (discounts) to shoppers during the fall sale.

Free parking is offered in the new parking deck off Cady Street and in two municipal lots on Main Street.

First-ever such fall promotion, the three-day event is an outgrowth of a one-day spring bargain sale, which was well received.

Sixteen merchants are participating in the October event.

As Halloween season approaches, homemakers may want to try a different candy treat. The Dow Chemical Company, manufacturers of Saran Wrap, distributed this recipe for "Creamy Carmels" to local high school chemistry students touring the Midland plant.

CREAMY CARMELS

(makes 32)

- 1 c. sugar
- ¾ c. dark corn syrup
- ½ c. butter or margarine
- 1 c. light cream
- ½ c. nuts, finely chopped
- ½ tsp. vanilla

Butter sides of heavy, two-quart saucepan. In it, combine sugar, corn syrup, butter and ½ c. of the cream; bring to boil over low heat, stirring constantly. Slowly stir in remaining ½ c. cream. Cook over low heat to medium-ball stage (242 degrees), stirring almost constantly toward the end. Remove from heat and add nuts and vanilla. Pour into buttered 9 x 5 x 3-inch loaf pan. Mark off 32 one-inch squares when partially cool.

Dow also has compiled a guide for quantity servings of coffee and tea, pointing out that this is the fall bazaar and banquet season where large groups are served.

For coffee, one pound serves 25, two, 50, etc. For tea, 12 bags serve 25, 24 bags, 50, etc. One pint of cream is suggested for 25, and one-fourth pound of sugar. Multiply in proportion for larger groups.

Your party may involve a full-scale meal, a between-meals meal, a part of a meal, or just plain light refreshment. But, whatever the kind, there are some general rules for party-planning which any hostess will want to remember:

- Never experiment with a new dish at a party.
- Take advantage of do-ahead dishes.
- Be sure your menu provides contrast in flavor, color and texture.
- Include one "spectacular" in every party menu.
- Write out your menu—down to salt, pepper and butter. Check every recipe for every ingredient—and never have to shop the day of the party.
- Using your menu as a guide, take inventory of everything you'll need for serving—and list them.

- Take out your glasses, china, silver, linen and flower containers on the day before—he sure they are in the condition you want them to be.
- And—decide on what you will wear!

But, regardless of all your planning, what you'll serve will be uppermost in your mind—and it'll depend on many things . . . the type of party, the time of day and year, the ages and preferences of your guests, your budget, your equipment and your cooking know-how!

And Chatham has a treat in store for you which will answer all these questions! Our Party Trays are perfect for any holiday, any special occasion, banquets or office parties of 8 to a 1000. They're "beautiful" to see and "beautiful" to taste—the quality and quantity which you would expect to find only in a gourmet store! They're the "spectacular" of any menu! And, best of all, they completely eliminate the worry and bother of menu planning and preparation at home.

Our deli girls will help you select up to 6 different lunch meat varieties from a couple dozen choices—for every tray. There are also cheese, salad and bread choices from an exciting variety. And the girls arrange every tray to look like a "picture", with the addition of several relishes—pickles, olives, radish roses and tomato slices. We figure that every person will be served 2 to 3 full sandwiches, plus all the trimmings—and for only $1.80 per person.
