

OK Authority For Financing Township Hall

Creation of a building authority to facilitate financing of the proposed new township hall-fire station received the backing of the Northville Township Board Tuesday night.

Upon recommendation of Township Clerk Eleanor Hammond, with concurrence by Trustee Richard Mitchell, the board authorized creation of the building authority, agreed to submit names of suggested members for such authority to Supervisor Gunnar Stromberg, and it suggested a study of potential operation costs.

By its action, the board directed the township attorney to begin the legal steps for incorporating the authority. (A similar authority was created by the City of Northville to construct its municipal parking deck, and neighboring Novi recently created one to construct a new municipal office complex).

The township board had two choices open to it: Call for a vote of the people on bonding for the new facility or establish an authority which can issue bonds without a vote. Officials picked the authority because it "would be more expedient" than an election. Mrs. Hammond emphasized the urgency of "setting machinery in motion" because the township soon will be asked to vacate its current quarters.

According to Stromberg, construction of the commercial development on the present township hall site is expected to begin about May 1. It is estimated that completion of new facilities would take up to two years, even through the quicker building authority route. Current plans call for the new facility to be located on the north side of Six Mile Road, east of Northville Road.

Upon the recommendation of Trustee Leonard Klein, the supervisor was authorized to seek temporary rented quarters that could serve as the township hall while the new building is under construction.

Under laws governing establishment of the building authority, citizens can force the matter to a vote by petition. Once the authority is functioning and after formal publication of intent to issue bonds, citizens have 30 days in which to petition for an election, according to the clerk.

Creation of the authority without a vote of the people means, emphasized Trustee Bernard Baldwin, that the board may later decide to dissolve the organization before authorizing the authority to proceed with the bonding procedure.

While separate of municipal government, the authority nevertheless takes its direction from the local municipalities, it was explained.

Hiring of a third employee, under the Federal Emergency Employment Act, came under fire when several trustees expressed doubt that sufficient federal monies will be available to pay 90-percent of his salary.

At issue was the recent hiring of a full-time employee by the township to work in the recreation department.

Supervisor Stromberg argued the employee was hired because federal monies were available and because the Recreation Department Director Robert Prom had

YOU'RE SEEING DOUBLE—Twins aren't all that rare but when you've got a whole raft of them living side by side that's another story. Over in Northville's Lexington Commons subdivision, there are three homes, side-by-side, that claim twins. And if that isn't enough to make you do a double take consider, too, that in one of those homes there's two sets of twins. The twins (front to back) are Lauren and Leslie Oliver, who will be 3 on Valentine's Day, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Gerardo Oliver; Jeanie and Margaret Schmidt, 3½, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. William S. Schmidt; and Alex and Andy, 9 in April, and Jane and Janet, 14, children of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Serwatowski.

But City Finds Fault

Court Budget OK'd

Despite misgivings the Northville City Council Monday approved, with one change, the 1972 budget of the 35th District Court

The change: District Judge Dunbar Davis is to receive a 5.5 percent supplemental increase to his salary but the raise must come from the court's total $112,119 budget outlay for all purposes.

Ironically, the salary increase was not requested by the judge, nor included in the budget but rather it was suggested by the three communities—Northville and the city and township of Plymouth—which support the court.

Although Northville officials questioned several categories within the budget, they emphasized that their criticism was not of the judge's judicial performance, which was labeled as excellent, but rather of his budget estimates.

Following a review of the proposed budget last month, council authorized Councilman David Biery and City Manager Frank Ollendorff to meet with Judge Davis and discuss those areas within the budget criticized by council.

The two officials came away from the meeting still questioning three specific areas. These included: salary computations for court staff that, according to Ollendorff, was generalized and not based on actual expenditure; fringe benefits which also were generalized; and disagreement over the need of a full time bookkeeper.

Concerning the latter,

Two Plans Viewed

City to Widen Center Street

A $31,300 street widening proposal to eliminate a traffic bottleneck at Center and Dunlap streets received a preliminary green light of the Northville City Council Monday night.

The street widening plan was one of several improvement projects aired by the council. Others included:

Construction of a new bridge over the Johnson Drain at the entrance of Rural Hill Cemetery

Installation of a storm drain from Center and Cady streets, southeast to the Rouge River.

Development of the Randolph Drain between Novi and Northville.

Installation of an improved alley between Grace and Center streets, south of Eight Mile Road.

City Engineer Harold Penn introduced two street widening plans for the Center-Dunlap intersection, one pegged at an estimated cost of $22,800 and the other at $31,300.

The latter, which drew unofficial support of the council, is to be submitted to the Wayne County Road Commission for review and recommendation. Council is hopeful the county, which has jurisdiction over Center Street, will split the cost of the project with the city.

Basically, both plans call for widening on Center with wider turning radius at Dunlap to eliminate the bottleneck that exists when cars attempt to make left hand turns going east or west, south or north.

The costlier plan would provide for widening of Center, east to near Randolph, by six feet on each side of the street. The least expensive would widen the west side only, by 12 feet.

Widening both sides of the street, officials noted, would eliminate a slight jog that now exists on the east side of the street from one side of Dunlap to the other, while conforming on the west side of Center with the deceleration lane, which was recently installed at the Chatham Supermarket and which eventually will extend south to Dunlap.

However, Mayor A.M. Allen reminded the council that the east side of Center Street may also eventually have a deceleration lane. This eventuity, he suggested, could have some bearing on what is decided at the intersection.

He also pointed out that Wayne County has plans to resurface Center and that resurfacing should be coordinated with the intersection improvement.

Penn also introduced two different bridge plans for the cemetery drive. One, calling for concrete construction, reportedly would cost $55,700, while the other, which would utilize a huge corrugated metal culvert, was estimated at $64,776.

After discussing the two plans, council instructed Penn to seek an alternate plan utilizing pre-cast concrete in hopes of decreasing the cost.

City Manager Frank Ollendorff reminded council members that earlier investigation of the bridge revealed that it "is too far gone" to repair. The bridge, Penn reported, was built in 1921.

The city manager said he hoped council would award a bridge contract this spring, noting that $10,000 had been budgeted this year and that the remainder could be earmarked in the 1972-73 budget.

Concerning the project, Ollendorff pointed out that with the bridge construction an alternate, temporary access to the cemetery will be needed.

In discussing the storm sewer proposal, council instructed the city manager to

School Fights For State Aid

Threatened by the loss of state aid funds placed in a contingency fund by the state legislature, Northville and Novi school districts are seeking community support to regain the funds.

Monies being withheld from districts throughout the state total 20 percent of state aid or three-quarters of a mill, whichever is the lesser.

In Northville, $62,000 is being withheld while $37,000 is being withheld from Novi. According to Northville Superintendent Raymond Spear, all state governmental agencies had their budgets reduced by two percent and education's budget was cut by three percent.

"I feel we should have been treated equally with the other agencies," Spear said.

Superintendents throughout the state are asking that one percent of the funds be returned to education. This would mean $17,000 to Northville.

"We are getting less total money this year from state aid than last year and we have 250 more students to educate," Spear commented, explaining $8,500 less will be received this year.

"The real reason, deep down in, is the state believes because of the wage and price freeze local school districts will not be paying out all the money," Spear noted.

"The state figured, 'Why give it to them when we can keep it for ourselves and balance our budget?'" the superintendent said.

Lansing maintains, Spear said, they are unsure of revenue and don't want a repeat of last year when funds to schools were cut mid-year to balance the state's budget.

Winner's Smile

Northville's Junior Miss for 1972, Lorrie Deibert, was named first runner-up and Breck Award winner in the state Junior Miss pageant last Saturday in Pontiac. See story on Page 3-A.

Parking Plan: 'Big Surprise'

Expressing surprise that the council has been considering the south side of Cady Street, from Center to Wing, for municipal parking, Councilman Paul Folino voted against obtaining of an appraisal for the house at the southwest corner of Center and Cady.

When fellow council members reminded him that the matter had been discussed several times, over past months Folino insisted no plans of this kind had been shown to him.

"I don't think we should take any property on Center for parking," Folino declared Monday. Center Street property is prime commercial property, he said, noting that he has been considering moving his insurance business to that area.

The house in question recently was put on the market at a listed price of $33,000, it was reported. The house at the southeast corner of Cady and Wing already has been purchased, and the city also owns a lot in the middle of the block.

In authorizing the appraisal, the council agreed to negotiate a purchase following the appraisal and a poll of councilmen prior to the next regular meeting.

The proposed parking strip along Cady is part of the city agreement with the developer of the property on the opposite side of Cady to share parking cost. The developer, Richard McManus, indicated he will officially take possession of the Cady-to-Main property May 1 and begin his project.

Proposed is a large commercial development covering approximately one-half block of property—including the site of the present township hall.

COUNCIL AUTHORIZATION this week to establish the rank of lieutenant on the police force means Sergeant Louis Westfall is to be promoted. The lieutenant's salary is $13,156 compared to $12,896 for sergeant.

DAVID LAFOND, former police sergeant here who was fired and later permitted to resign, has joined the South Lyon Police Department, which is expanding its force to permit patrolling of Lyon Township outside of the city.

PRE-SCHOOL story hour begins Wednesday, February 16, at Northville Public Library. The six-week program, which will be held every Wednesday from 10 to 10:30 a.m., is open to all preschoolers in the area. A coffee hour will be held for mothers concurrent with the program. To register children for the story hour, contact Mrs. Robert Thornbladh, librarian.

COUNCILMAN PAUL VERNON has been elected chairman of the Northville Beautification Commission, succeeding Mrs. Beatrice Carlson, who held the post since creation of the commission.

STILL UNDECIDED is what, if any improvements, are to be made to the ¾ acre site behind the Bell Telephone Company's substation on North Center Street, according to City Manager Frank Ollendorff. Another meeting with neighborhood residents to discuss the matter is in the offing. The property was made available to the city for a neighborhood park.

NIGHT COUNSELING begins today (Thursday) at 6:30 p.m. Sponsored by DARTE (Drug Abuse Reduction Through Education), the program offers students a chance to talk with high school counselors each Thursday until 9:30 p.m. The five-week trial program will be held in the house on the corner of Wing and Main Streets.

WELCOMING COFFEE—Highland Lakes Townhouse residents getting acquainted over coffee last Thursday afternoon are, from left, Mrs. Harold Walton, first resident of the Levitt project who moved from Southfield July 15; Mrs. Robert Nulty, one of the newest residents who came from Westland; and Mrs. Robert Russell, who moved here from Detroit and has accepted chairmanship of the Highland Lakes Women's Club.

Study School Finance

Earl Busard, director of business administration for the Northville school district, will conduct a school finance workshop for the Northville-Plymouth League of Women Voters at 1 p.m. Thursday, February 17, at the board of education offices, 303 West Main.

Those attending will set up a mock budget for the school district. How school aid formula and millage are determined, how the local property taxes are collected and spent, and budgets for the near future are topics to be discussed. Mrs. Edward Hancock is in charge of the program.

Because the LWV feels this information will serve as background information for the April 8 school bond election, the public is especially welcome. Baby sitting is available and can be arranged by calling Mrs. Charles Ayers, 349-1710.

At the county level, current trends and possible changes in the structure of county government will be explored at an open panel discussion sponsored by all leagues of Women Voters in Oakland County at 12:30 p.m. Wednesday, February 16, at Royal Oak Library, 222 East Eleven Mile.

Den Tops Cubs' Sale

Ten Northville Cub Scouts who sold more candy for their den than any other area cubs in last fall's competition received their reward last Monday afternoon as they attended the Shrine Circus at the State Fair Coliseum.

The cubs are members of Den 8, Pack 721, under leadership of Mrs. William Underwood and her assistant, Mrs. James Hollis.

They are Greg Ayers, Mike VanHine, John Starcevic, Dan Whitaker, Mark and Kevin Swayne, David McElroy, Scott Underwood, Mike Hollis and Tim Cousineau.

In Our Town

Events Fete Newcomers

By JEAN DAY

HIGHLAND Lakes Townhouse subdivision off Eight Mile Road is one of our town's fastest growing areas. Since the first resident moved in last July 15, 250 families have arrived.

To help women get to know each other, a coffee was held last Thursday afternoon in the clubhouse. As Mrs. Harold Walton, the project's first resident who came from Southfield, comments, "It's difficult to get acquainted in winter. When warm weather comes, everyone is out at the pool or walking the dog."

Mrs. Dean Lenheiser, Northville's Calling Card representative, was on hand to help acquaint the newcomers with the community's stores and organizations. (The new residents also are getting to know the community through The Northville Record, which is received by all families.)

Earlier last Thursday, a Highland Lakes Women's Club was organized with Mrs. Robert Russell, who had been active in club work in her previous Detroit home, named its first chairman. While no new families will be moving in until April due to slower winter construction, the area eventually is scheduled to have 1,300 families.

NEWCOMERS Club in Northville has scheduled a bowling party for 6:30 p.m. Saturday, February 19, at Northville Lanes. It is to be party bowling with "No Tap" and "Scotch Doubles."

A party is to be held afterward at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Ruland, 16495 Old Bedford Road. Mrs. John Crotteau, Newcomers president, reminds members that reservation deadline is February 14 with checks for $7.50 a couple to be sent to Mrs. Walter Smith, 43444 Galway.

TOWN HALL, which has a sell-out ticket sale during the current (11th) season, is asking area organizations interested in being recipients of Northville Town Hall Awards to make application. They will be considered and awarded in June.

Town Hall, sponsored by Our Lady's League of Our Lady of Victory Church, is operated by a volunteer committee with proceeds divided equally between Our Lady of Victory and community charities. Groups in Farmington, Livonia, Plymouth and Northville may request help. This year TH is assisting Northville projects of King's Daughters, Cavern Youth Club, Northville Library, Northville Historical Society, Northville Jaycettes and Northville State Hospital.

Mrs. Jack Doheny, Town Hall chairman, reports that in its first 10 years, Town Hall has given $20,000 to community charities. Organizations interested in participating in this season's donation should contact Mrs. Harry F. Wagenschutz, awards chairman.

NORTHVILLE BRANCH, Woman's National Farm and Garden Association, will hold its February meeting Monday (Valentine's Day) at 12:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. James vanBuren, 18355 Edenderry. "Edible Plants" will be discussed by a student from the University of Michigan, who also will tell about the U of M botanical gardens.

Taking note of the month, the refreshment committee, headed by Mrs. C. W. Whittlesey, will serve cherry pie. Assisting are Mrs. Harold Schmidt, Mrs. William Farrington and Mrs. Elmer Schubert.

GUNDELLA, who calls herself a "Green Witch", told Northville Woman's Club members and their husbands at last Friday's annual Men's Night dinner, "I've never met the devil, have no pact with him and don't believe in him."

Speaking in the fellowship hall of Northville First Presbyterian Church, Gundella began by saying she was "pleased to note that the building didn't fall down and I didn't go up in a puff of smoke."

Her reference was to five calls that had been received by the Reverend Lloyd Brasure from residents of the area and from a congregation outside the community objecting to her appearance.

Gundella, who holds a master's degree in education, stresses that "everyone possesses psychic powers" and that "witches are humans who choose to become witches." Witches, she continued, believe in universal sources of power, reincarnation and magic, the latter being defined as "anything that science can't explain."

She quoted from the "Sleeping Beauty" in which "doors opened as if by magic, voices were heard and lights appeared." Then, she added, "When you go to Kroger's today doors open, voices tell you what's on special and bright lights shine—but it isn't magic anymore because you know what's happening."

Her lecture was a happy blend of entertainment and psychology. "The way you think determines how others think about you," Gundella declared as she urged "positive thinking—for there's too much negative kind."

"Believe something good is going to happen—and it will," she told her audience, admitting that candles and rituals are "nothing but props—the magic is within you."

AS POSTMASTER John Steimel announces a March of Dimes benefit jazz concert to wrap up the 1972 campaign, Mothers' March chairman Mrs. Al Potts thanks all the area captains and mothers-who-marched for their efforts which brought in a record total.

The Northville High School Jazz Ensemble and Northville Community Jazz Ensemble (composed largely of professional musicians), both under the direction of Bob Williams, will present an annual March of Dimes concert at 8 p.m. Wednesday, February 23, in the high school auditorium.

"This is the best Big Band jazz going today," promises the bands' director, who hopes that donations at the door will help produce a big March of Dimes gift. Everyone's invited.

OFFICIAL GREETINGS—Mrs. Dean Lenheiser, kneeling, Northville's Calling Card representative who welcomes newcomers to the community on behalf of local merchants and organizations, attends the coffee at Highland Lakes House last week to help residents get acquainted. The subdivision now has 250 families.

The Northville High School senior is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Deibert, 9825 Napier Road.

Pretty, brown-eyed Lorrie was presented with a trophy and scholarships totaling $450 as first runner-up. She received a $350 scholarship from the Pontiac Jaycees and a $100 scholarship from the J.L. Hudson Company. As the Breck Award winner she received a GE electric beauty kit and Royal electric typewriter. She was photographed to be entered in the national Breck competition at the national pageant.

As Northville Junior Miss Lorrie received a $100 cash prize from the sponsoring Northville Jaycees, a trophy and a regents scholarship to Eastern Michigan University.

As in the local competition, state contestants were judged on poise and appearance, youth fitness, scholastic achievement, creative and performing arts and on a judges' interview. Lorrie repeated her comedy skit in the talent competition, which was held Friday.

Lorrie is active at Northville High School in choir, cheerleading, student council and is a member of the National Honor Society. She also participates in St. Paul's Lutheran church fellowship.

She has been planning a career in dental hygiene. She and her family have been Northville residents for 15 years. Her father is a member of the Northville Board of Education.

Also participating in the Michigan Pageant in Pontiac last weekend was Northville's 1971 Junior Miss, Wendy Wheaton, now a freshman at University of Michigan. She was one of the former Junior Misses presenting an entertainment skit.

Cheering on the Northville Junior Miss Saturday were Northville Jaycee President Richard Rayborn and Mrs. Rayborn, chairman of the sixth Northville pageant Gerald Campbell and Mrs. Campbell, and Mr. and Mrs. David VanHine.

Snowmobile Races Highlight Winter Carnival

Snowmobile races, ice sculptures, ice-fishing and snowman-building contests, children's dog sled races, and speed skating contests will all be part of the activities this weekend as the Novi Jaycees in conjunction with the Parks and Recreation Department sponsor the first annual Novi Winter Carnival.

"We're hoping for a big turnout," said Novi Jaycee President Hugh Crawford. "We think the Winter Carnival could become an annual event in the life of the city."

The Carnival will be a two-day event held Saturday and Sunday, February 12 and 13, at the Novi City Park on South Lake Drive and on Walled Lake immediately opposite the park.

All profits from the two-day festivities will help to bolster the Parks and Recreation Department's budget.

Highlight of the Carnival could well prove to be the snowmobile races. Drag races on the Lake are scheduled for Saturday, while a five-eighths of a mile obstacle course race through the park is slated for Sunday.

Registration for the quarter-mile drag race is from 9-10 a.m. Saturday morning. The preliminaries will be run from 10 a.m. until 12 noon with the finals slated from 1-2 p.m. Saturday.

A similar schedule has been set up for the obstacle course races Sunday. Registration is from 9-10 a.m.; preliminaries will be run from 10 a.m. till noon; and the finals will run from 1-2:30 p.m.

According to Parks and Recreation Department chairman Peter Alcalá, the snowmobiles will be divided into six classes (A through F) based on engine displacement. In addition separate events will be held for men, women, and teenagers 18 and under. The entry fee is $4 for everyone over 18 years old. A $2 entry fee will be charged for those 18 and under.

Engine classes are based on displacement. A displacement of 250-295 is class (AA modified); 296-340 is class B (BB modified); 341-400 is class C (CC modified); 440 is class D (DD modified); 650 is class E (EE modified); and an unlimited displacement is placed in class F.

But while the snowmobile races will contribute most of the excitement and most of the noise, other contests will be running concurrently.

--The ice fishing contest will run from 10 a.m. Saturday until 3 p.m. Sunday with a trophy being awarded for the biggest fish. Registrations must be in by 10 a.m. Saturday.

--The snowman building contest also runs from 10 a.m. Saturday until 3 p.m. Sunday.

--Ice skating races will be held from 12 noon until 1 p.m. both Saturday and Sunday. Skaters must register by noon on the day of their races.

--Dog sled races are scheduled to begin 3 p.m. Saturday and will be continued Sunday. There is no entry fee and contestants are limited to children under 12 years old. Any dog and any sled are eligible for participation.

In addition the Jaycees are planning numerous other winter activities including open skating, a giant snow slide for the children, and sleigh and snowmobile rides.

Novi-10 Mile

Sewer Line Hearing Set

Development of Novi's first major shopping center received a definite boost Monday as the city council took steps to extend sewer facilities to the corner of 10 Mile and Novi Roads.

It was just one week ago that Novi councilmen were asked by Novi-Ten Associates for a general expression of interest in extending sewer and water facilities to their property on the southeast corner of Novi road and Ten Mile so construction on the major commercial venture could begin as soon as possible.

The expression of interest was received and just one week later, last Monday, that expression was backed up with official action as the council set the date for the first of a series of public hearings that must be held before the sewer line can be constructed.

As proposed, the Ten Mile Novi Road sewer line would tie into the sewer line that runs along the railroad tracks on 10 Mile Road, extend west down 10 Mile to Novi Road and then run north along Novi Road to the railroad tracks where it would again tie in with the existing line, completing the loop.

Total length of the sewer line would be 5,550 feet (about a mile) and preliminary estimates place the cost of construction at $400,000.

In recommending that the council take the necessary steps to get construction of the line underway, City Manager George Athas stated that he considered the line mandatory for the development of Novi. The area that could be serviced by the line once it is in is zoned for commercial and industrial development.

In addition to paving the way for new developments, such as the Novi-Ten shopping center, the line would also relieve pressure on existing businesses along the Novi Road industrial strip Michigan Tractor, for example, has been cited by the Department of Natural Resources for polluting nearby waters with its sewage.

Athas noted, however, that the DNR has shown some flexibility on the matter because the problem is in large part that of the city and the city has been taking steps to rectify it.

Furthermore, owners of property along the strip have indicated previously a strong desire to have a sewer line constructed the city manager reported.

According to the city charter, a cumbersome, unnecessarily long series of three public meetings must be held before the project can be started. The first of those public meetings - the preliminary hearing of necessity - was set by the council for Monday, March 6.

The city must still hold a preliminary hearing of necessity and then the hearing of necessity itself. Purpose of the series of meetings will be to determine exactly how construction of the line is to be financed.

Although no official action has been taken on the financing, Athas stated that there is not sufficient tap-usage in that area to pay for the construction on a tap-in basis and that the city is almost limited to a front foot assessment.

Based on the estimate of $400,000 for the total project, the breakdown would come to $72.50 per frontage foot or, $36.25 for each side of the road.

In addition to setting the date for the first public hearing, the council also directed Athas to meet with the property owners and discuss means of financing the project with them.

Novi to Join Busing Fight

Novi school board trustees agreed Monday night to enter into the Detroit desegregation case and pledged $400 to help fight cross district busing.

Superintendent Thomas Dale, in recommending Novi join with other school districts in Wayne, Oakland and Macomb counties, said although the $400 was not budgeted, "We could get it from two or three categories which would not be affected very much."

Last month Northville school board decided not to expend the funds to join the case.

Dale noted that the $400 was a one time expense and that if additional funds would be needed, assessments would be made based on the number of students in the district.

Trustee Robert Wilkins said he felt the board "must take a stand (on busing) even if Novi is off the map shown now."

In other action Monday, trustees --delayed payment of

School Nixes Road Monies

The defeat of one motion and a stalemate over another left Novi School Board Monday night with a "do nothing" position on accepting the road assessment for paving Taft Road.

A motion to pay a token $10,000 toward the improvement of the road, which runs in front of Novi High and Novi Middle schools, was voted down 1-5, with Trustee Ray Warren casting the lone affirmative vote.

Dissenting were Board President Gilbert Henderson and Trustees LaVerne DeWaard, Bruce Simmons, Robert Wilkins and Mrs. Sharon Pelchat. Trustee William Ziegler was absent.

The 3-3 tie came over a motion, made by Simmons and supported by Wilkins, not to participate in assessment for paving of Taft.

Voting for the motion were Simmons, Wilkins and Mrs. Pelchat. Negative votes were cast by Henderson, Warren and DeWaard.

Henderson and DeWaard maintained the school board "should do something but not either one of those (voted on.) I support going to the voters," DeWaard commented.

Board members had discussed the feasibility of going to the voters in the school district for approximately three-quarters of a mill to fund the school's share of the assessment, approximately $36,000.

However, Wilkins noted the one mill which the city intends to ask for an unlimited amount of time to pave the roads "is important and if it goes down because of what we do, it wouldn't be right."

Henderson said he felt the "one mill will be decided by the people on its merits and not go down because of something we do."

Warren had recommended the district take $10,000 from the building and site fund to help finance the road improvement.

Simmons, balking at the proposal, said "Building and site funds should be used for education and we can't ask for millage (to pay the district's share.) It would be a slap in the face to the council and would kill both issues."

"It's a community road and should be paid for by the whole community," Simmons added.

RESIGNS—Superintendent Thomas Dale, who resigned Monday, had just taken the post six years ago when he posed for this picture.

School Board Delays Action

In a move that didn't take school board members by complete surprise, Novi Superintendent Thomas Dale submitted his resignation to trustees Monday night.

The resignation, which Dale has asked to be effective June 30 at the end of his three-year contract, was not acted upon by board members.

An executive session is planned before the board's February 28 meeting, with action expected to be taken on the resignation at the February 28 meeting.

Dale's letter, which he read to the board, was not on the agenda and was given to board members shortly before the board adjourned at midnight. However, Board President Gilbert Henderson did receive a copy of the letter prior to the beginning of the meeting.

In his letter, Dale cited

"personal reasons" for resigning and that "it is with regret I tender my resignation at the end of my present contract."

He noted he has served the district as superintendent for the past six and one-half years and that he "always served the best interests of the school district."

The superintendent asked that he be allowed to retain "privileges" of tenure, that unused vacation time be granted him after the contract expires and "if the board wishes to retain me in any other capacity (business manager, consultant, etc.) I will be happy to serve."

Board President Gilbert Henderson said he viewed the resignation "with mixed emotions. I don't think this community will ever recognize the accomplishments that have been pulled off by this man in six years."

"It disturbs me the community as a whole does not recognize the growth we have made in the last six years," Henderson added.

Noting the resignation merited further consideration, Trustee Robert Wilkins moved the matter be tabled for action until February 28. The motion, supported by Trustee Mrs. Sharon Pelchat, passed the board by a 6-0 vote, Trustee William Ziegler was absent.

Questioned by this newspaper after the meeting on his reasons for resigning and asked if he was dissatisfied with his job or unhappy in the district, Dale said, "No comment."

He noted it will "take at least two years to break in

Allows Wixom Center

Zoning Changed

Acutely aware of its problem of having an abundance of residential and multiple developments and virtually no corresponding commercial developments, the Wixom council Tuesday took action that will lead to construction of the city's first shopping center and revitalization of the existing downtown area.

Specifically, the council approved the request of Lutz and Foster for the rezoning of seven parcels of land on the east side of Wixom Road north of the Grand Trunk railroad tracks from single family residential to general business.

Lutz, who was present at the session and has previously developed the Farmington Center commercial complex, revealed plans to build a shopping center on the property. And in spite of the fact that the zoning change was merely the first step and site plan approval lies ahead, Lutz estimated that actual construction would begin by late summer.

Estimated cost of the project at this time is placed at $1.5 million.

Objections to the zoning change came from residents living in the area affected. Virgil Houtz, one of those residents, raised several questions including the council's procedure which, in his opinion, did not provide citizens with proper opportunity to be heard and the wisdom of creating a major increase in traffic-flow immediately across the street from the Wixom Elementary School, and charging the request amounted to "spot zoning" in that a commercial development was being placed in the midst of single family residences.

Another resident claimed her property was, in effect, being taken away from her because she could not afford the increase in taxes that would result from the rezoning.

Members of the council, however, stated that in the long run they felt the residents whose property was being rezoned would benefit greatly and re-stated the city's need for commercial developments.

"If this town is to grow," said Councilman Howard Coe, "it needs a business area in the business section and this is the logical place for it."

Only Councilman Robert Dingelday voted against granting the rezoning, saying he could not see immensely disrupting the lives of Wixom citizens when the city has plenty of empty land.

In other business the council: — passed a resolution authorizing Oakland County officials to seek alternate means of financing the extension of the Wixom Sewer

Water Bid OK'd

Construction of the proposed Meadowbrook water line can now get underway as the Novi city council Monday accepted the bid of Dane Construction Company, a Clawson-based firm, to do the work.

First step in the project will be to construct a meter pit on the northeast corner of Eight Mile and Meadowbrook Roads. The water line itself will then proceed north along the east side of Meadowbrook to Nine Mile Road, cross under Nine Mile, and proceed west on the north side of Nine Mile to Ennshire Drive.

A second water line, part of the same project, will proceed from the Eight Mile meter pit west along Eight Mile into Smokler-Broquet development.

The bid from Dane Construction was one of 26 bids submitted for the job and was the low bid, as the $180,318.20 figure was approximately $16,000 lower than the second lowest bid.

Ultimately the cost of construction will be borne by users of the line through a tap-in fee. The project will be started, however, with funds advanced from the two developers who will receive immediate benefit from the lines - Smokler and Kaufman and Broad.

City Manager George Athas reported to the council that Smokler has already submitted an "irrevocable letter of credit" for $67,000 and has indicated they would ultimately commit $128,000 for the project.

An additional $50,000 has been pledged, according to Athas, by Kaufman and Broad. Engineering costs, which have already been incurred in preparing specifications for the bids, were estimated to be approximately $10,000, bringing the total cost of the project to somewhere in the neighborhood of $190,000.

With the commitments from Smokler and Kaufman and Broad totaling $178,000, a $12,000 deficit exists and Athas proposed meeting that deficit with money from $190,000 the city has on hand in the firm of unrestricted funds in the water department budget.

Objections to the proposed means of financing the construction were raised by Councilman Edwin Presnell. "There are too many ifs, ands, and so forths in this whole thing," contended Presnell. "We've had these unofficial commitments before and see them taken

City Plans Open House

The City of Novi is planning an open house.

"We've done a good job here," said City Manager George Athas, "and we should start telling people about it."

The open house, which is slated for Saturday, February 19, will find the doors of the City Hall, Department of Building and Safety, Sewer and Water Department, Department of Public Works garage, both Fire Stations, and the Police Department open for the public to tour.

Coffee and donuts will be served, Athas said, and department heads will be on hand to answer questions.

The open house will run from 10 a.m. until 4 p.m.

"We'd like to have a large turnout of people," said Athas. "We want to show the taxpayers what we've done with their money and we hope a lot of them are interested in seeing just how their city operates."

Kelley Issues Opinion

City Must Tell Employee Salaries

A dispute of long-standing between The Brighton-Angus newspaper and the City of Brighton regarding the availability of individual salary figures of city employees may have been settled by an opinion issued by Michigan Attorney General Frank J. Kelley.

Nearly two years ago, City Manager Bruce Romer declined to permit The Argus to examine individual salaries during the council's annual budget discussions. The city manager's action was supported by a unanimous vote of the council as well as the legal advice of City Attorney John Brennan.

In an official opinion dated February 3, 1972, made at the request of The Argus through Thomas Kizer, Jr., Livingston county prosecuting attorney, Kelley stated "the amount of salary paid to each employee of the city...is a legitimate concern of the public which pays his salary, constitutes a part of the city's public records, and when requested to be viewed by a member of the press, must be made available".

The Argus made its request for the opinion some 15 months ago following a meeting with then-Mayor William Madden and City Manager Romer. Argus Publisher William Sliger and Managing Editor Roland Peterson noted in their discussion with the mayor and city manager that Brighton was the only community they knew where salaries were kept secret. They further noted that in Brighton, only the city refused to divulge individual salaries. School and township salaries are open to the press and public.

Mayor Madden and Manager Romer contended that the city's policy was legal. They supported the policy on the basis that it protected the privacy of the individual employee.

At the time The Argus had retained Brighton Attorney William McCrie and Philip Ogilvie of Northville to assist in persuading the Brighton council to change its position.

Failing that, The Argus had indicated it would take legal action to determine the truth.

In the meeting between Madden, Romer, Sliger and Peterson, the mayor said he hoped there would be another way to settle the difference rather than through the expense of court action.

Sliger and Peterson proposed an attorney general's opinion. Mayor

Madden said he would abide by such a ruling.

This week The Argus mailed copies of Attorney General Kelley's opinion to all Brighton council members, new-Mayor Alan Stonex, and the city manager and city attorney.

The Argus has requested that the council reconsider its policy regarding disclosure of individual employee salaries at its March 2 meeting.

"Naturally, we're pleased by the opinion rendered by the Attorney General Kelley", Argus Managing Editor Peterson stated this week. "We believe it supports the acknowledged right of the public to know how public funds are used. While we understand the concern held by the Brighton council for its employees, the public payroll is not a private matter". Peterson noted that it has always been the policy of all Sliger Publications (The Argus, Northville Record, Novi News and South Lyon Herald) to use individual salaries only when necessary, usually at budget-time, when increases are granted, or for comparative purposes.

"Frankly, we find such disclosures sometimes assist, rather than hinder, the individual employee", Peterson added.

Text of Kelley's Ruling

Mr. Thomas Kizer, Jr. Prosecuting Attorney 634 West Grand River Howell, Michigan 48843

Dear Mr. Kizer: Re: City Employees' Salary Disclosure of

Answering your letter concerning disclosure of individual salary figures of city employees to a newspaper reporter, you state that the reporter has been refused access to such figures. From the enclosures it appears that the city council at one time voted unanimously to withhold the figures from the press. The city is described as contending that furnishing a salary schedule or plan showing various categories and steps without disclosing the identity of occupants thereof is sufficient. Protection of the privacy of the individual employee is also a concern of the city.

The press on the other hand, contends that individual salary figures are public information under the law and should be available, with other city records, for public inspection, to permit analysis of existing and proposed budgets.

Review of the governing statutes does not reveal any basis for excluding from public records those pertaining to the individual salaries of individual public employees. Since these are public records of public employees paid from public funds, it is my conclusion that the press is clearly entitled to see said records.

In Nowack v Auditor General, 243 Mich 200 (1928) it was held that a newspaper editor, wishing to inspect records of auditor general relating to entertainment expenses incurred in an annual governor's conference, is a citizen having a special interest in the material and has a common-law right to inspect said records, which right is enforceable by mandamus. At p. 208, the court said:

"...He is the manager and editor of a newspaper. It is published and circulated in Michigan....In a proper and lawful manner, he has a right to publish matters of public interest. The citizens and taxpayers of this state are interested in knowing whether the public business is being properly managed. By denying him access to the public records for the purpose of securing such information, he is deprived of legal rights for which he is entitled to redress by the writ of mandamus...."

The ruling was recently re-emphasized in Both Newspapers, Inc. v Muskegon Probate Judge, 15 Mich App 203 (1968), holding that a newspaper has the right to inspect the will of a decedent filed in the probate court. At p. 205, citing the Nowack case, the court said:

"The fundamental rule in Michigan on the matter before us...if that citizens have the general right of free access to, and public inspection of, public records..."

I would add, however, that requests to review individual salary records should be made at reasonable times during business hours in such a manner as not to interfere with the conduct of public business, and that further, the private dossier of individual employees containing personal and family information should not be disclosed, where such disclosure might inflict harm or injury to the employee, unless the employee has given permission, except upon court order.

The amount of salary paid to each employee of the city, in short, is a legitimate concern of the public which pays his salary, constitutes a part of the city's public records, and when requested to be viewed by a member of the press, must be made available.

Your Sincerely,
FRANK J. KELLEY
Attorney General

EBERT FUNERAL HOME

404 W. MAIN STREET NORTHVILLE, MICH.

An occasional comment reveals that many people believe a funeral service follows a definite routine.

It may surprise you to know, however, that no two funerals are alike. Each service brings its own requirements. The desires of the family are given first consideration, always. In addition, the clergyman's requests must be considered. Then the many details must be arranged around those requests.

Each service, therefore, is distinct and follows a program of its own.

Respectfully,

plant. The county will seek short term bonds with payment in interest only for five years in anticipation of forthcoming federal funds. It has been the uncertainty as to when the federal funds will be available which prompted city and county officials to seek the alternate financing plans.

— set a special meeting for Monday, February 28, for all city boards, and councils and the Oakland County Planning Commission to discuss the division of Commerce Township properties. Wixom's planning board has recommended that the city file annexation petitions against certain Commerce parcels.

Nix Money

Warren maintained districts surrounding Novi: "have paid at least a token amount. All members of the school district will benefit" from paving of Taft Road.

Wilkins, noting it was a moral issue to help others, pay for the road, said he felt it would be "double taxation with citizens paying some out of a road tax and some out of a school tax."

DeWard said he "would like to go on record to have the city asking for monies to be taxed for road development. It should be put to all the people in the community. They (city) get $70,000 from one mill and we get $50,000. The entire community will benefit from road paving."

Mrs. William (Shirley) Moak, secretary of the Novi road improvement committee, told board members, "Your public relations is not that good and this (taking no action) is just another strike against you."

Other councilmen felt, however, that there was a sufficient influx of funds into the water department budget to offset what money would have to be withdrawn to finance the Meadowbrook water line.

A motion to accept the bid with the stipulation that construction not begin until Kaufman and Broad deposited the $50,000 they indicated they would advance the city toward the project received council's approval by a 5-1 margin. The lone dissenting ballot was cast by Presnell.

In other business conducted at Monday's session

—Athas told the council that a number of rumors had been circulating about the status of the Shopping Centers Incorporated (Hudsons) development, but that the project is "by no means in any way dead."

Foundation Taps Secord

Election of two trustees and a report on Schoolcraft College plans to better serve senior citizens highlighted January's meeting of the Schoolcraft College Foundation.

Schoolcraft's community services director, Ron Griffith, reported that he is in the process of organizing an advisory committee of representatives from senior citizen groups in Garden City, Livonia, Northville and Plymouth. He said hundreds of persons are active in these groups, and the committee will advise the College of programs and services of general interest to, or needed by, senior citizens.

Foundation participation, according to its president, Jan Reef, could be in the form of outright scholarships or other financial assistance. He said the Foundation would do whatever it could to help senior citizens take the classes and programs which are to be established. It could be financial assistance for tuition, or supplies, or transportation.

The new trustees are Dr. Gerald Cox of Garden City and B. William Secord of Northville. Each will serve a term through September, 1972. The next Foundation meeting will be held on February 24.

Merilee Becker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Becker, 543 Dubuque; Melissa Eddy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Keith Eddy, 312 Randolph; John Forrer, son of Dr. and Mrs. Gordon Forrer, 46995 Main; and Carol Turnbull, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Turnbull, 365 Eaton. They are an organized youth chapter of People to People International. Musical Youth International now is in its eighth season. Mrs. Bernice McCoy is executive director of the program which has headquarters in Saline, Michigan. She is the widow of Dr. Lester McCoy who founded and headed the program until his death in 1969.

She served as organist and accompanist for 11 years as the group made tours in Europe, South America, Mexico and all parts of the United States. She has a master's degree from the University of Michigan and a bachelor's degree from Morningside College in Sioux City, Iowa.

Accompanying the high school students will be Edward Downing, conductor of the MYI band, and his wife, Joyce. A University of Michigan graduate, Downing has taught music in Michigan schools for 13 years.

Raymond Voorhees, chairman of the music department of the Fenton schools, directs the MYI chorus.

Experimental Plan

Year Round Proposal Goes to State Board

A combined proposal drawn up by the five superintendents of school districts involved in experimental year-round school program is slated to go before the state board of education Wednesday, February 23.

Superintendents hope the package will win the support and recommendation of state board members before being sent to the state legislature along with a request for funding and a law enabling implementation of the experimental programs. The project has already won the support of State Superintendent of Schools Dr. John W. Porter.

Districts involved include Northville, which plans to use the 45-15 plan (45 days of school, 15 days of vacation, repeating throughout the year) in grades kindergarten through five.

Other districts are Okemos, East Lansing, Hazlett, using a quinquennial plan at the high school level only, and Freeland, implementing a mandatory tri-semester plan in kindergarten through grade 12.

Northville Superintendent Raymond Spear's main concern over the joint proposal is the one year time asked for the experiment.

"Can we get adequate information from a one year trial of the concept? Will citizens, without proof of improved educational advantages, be willing to participate in the experiment?" Spear asked.

"I believe we need a commitment of at least three years going into the program," he explained.

If approved and funded by the state and given the go ahead by the local board, Northville's voluntary experimental program could begin in late July.

Spear said the local district would begin taking applications for the 150 volunteers the program needs after May 1, the date by which the state legislature is expected to act on the proposal.

Goals established by Northville include operating a school year on the 45-15 plan, providing a comparative study of specific achievements under the experiment with those under the traditional school year and demonstrating implementation of the six step management approach developed by the state to measure educational goals.

Major goals established by the five districts include showing the extended school year makes more effective use of educational and teaching systems, provides more effective and efficient use of educational resources and increases the ways of learning and teaching.

Plan Gas Main Extention

An investment of $2.1 million for expansion and improvement of natural gas facilities in Consumers Power Company's West Wayne division is planned for 1972.

In announcing the construction program James P. Thomas, West Wayne division manager for the utility, said a major portion of the funds will be used to extend and upgrade the divisions gas distribution system.

More than 17 miles of gas mains will be installed to provide service for new customers, said Thomas. He added that 3.2 miles of system improvements are planned.

on the work this year.

The division expenditures are part of a statewide expansion program by Consumers Power which will cost, $383 million in 1972. More than $57 million will be used to develop natural gas facilities in the southeastern portion of Michigan's Thumb.

office of General Ambulance Company. With the new location, Early hopes to significantly reduce response time to calls in the area. Butora is general manager of Wayne County operations.

Ambulance Service Opens

More efficient emergency service has been established for the Northville, Novi and Wixom areas by the opening of the new General Ambulance office with qualified personnel and a fully equipped vehicle, according to manager John Early.

Cutting down on the response time is the objective of the new office, which could reduce the waiting period for an ambulance up to 20 minutes, Early said.

Formerly, the closest Ambulance service available was in Farmington, where Early says, General Ambulance has four vehicles operating.

Each employee of General Ambulance is licensed by the state and has a background in advanced first aid.

The Novi car also has a Cardio-Pulmonary Resuscitator, which aids asphyxiation victims, and a Cardio-2 heart machine for heart-attack victims. Each employee is qualified to operate the machines.

Novi is seen as a future central location for ambulance service in South Lyon, Walled Lake, Wixom, Northville and Commerce.

General Ambulance has been in Michigan for 25 years, serving Flint, Highland Park, Pontiac, Farmington and now Novi. Further plans call for greater expansion into Wayne County.

The new Novi office is located at Grand River and 11 Mile Roads. Early urges residents to write down his phone number, 477-5397, and keep it handy.

Raid Novi Drug Party

In Novi...

Acting on information from an anonymous source, police arrested six juveniles and three 17 year olds on drug charges Friday, February 4. The arrests were made at 26899 Lowery Drive, where the subjects were having a "drug" party in a mobile home.

Jerry Lowery, 17, of 26834 Rosaron; Kendall White, 17, of 24157 Woodham, and Donald Cooper, 17, of 43691 12 1/2 Mile Road and the six juveniles were charged with possession of marihuana and barbiturates. Also found were such narcotics paraphernalia as hashish pipes, roach-holders, and cigarette rollers and papers, police reported.

Three of the subjects had previously been arrested for narcotics violations in November of 1971. The six juveniles well be petitioned to juvenile court. Official charges on the three 17 year-olds are pending the prosecutor's decision.

Police suspect other juveniles and adults were involved in Friday's party, but were not present at the time of the arrests.

Five computers and an IBM typewriter valued at $700 were taken from the Condo Automation Company in a breaking and entering that occurred Thursday, February 3, police reported.

Total value of the merchandise taken was placed at $2,300.

Entry was gained by breaking a window on the south side of the building, which is located at 26600 Heyne Drive. Police said the item used to break the window was unknown, but glass was found up to 30 feet from the window.

The case is still under investigation.

A petition from the Juvenile Division of the Oakland County Probate Court charging that four children living at 26785 Wixom Road in Novi were without adequate care led police to pick up the children and lodge them in the Oakland County Children's Home and Village.

The petition charged the children were not receiving proper food, clothing, and shelter. Police investigation revealed that most of the charges levied in the petition were true.

The children will be lodged in the County facilities until suitable facilities are provided at their home.

A color television set valued at $350 was taken from the Wardell Lyke residence at 46300 12 Mile Road over the weekend, police reported.

Fire destroyed the garage and family room of the Ary residence at 41981 Quince early Monday morning, February 7. Extensive damage was done to the house.

A Volkswagen stolen from Detroit was recovered by Novi Police over the weekend. The car had been stripped and set afire when police discovered it.

A wedding reception at the J.W. Townner residence at 39611 Burton Drive was held under trying circumstances when the Townners returned to their home and site of the reception only to find it had been ransacked and burglarized.

The Townners, police reported, left their home at 5:15 p.m. Saturday, February 5, to attend the wedding of their daughter at the Our Lady of Victory Church in Northville. When they returned home after the ceremony the house ransacked. Jewelry, watches, radios, money, tape recorders, and a television set were among the items reported stolen. Value of the missing property was placed at a minimum of $500 by Novi detectives.

In Northville...

Two high school youths were hospitalized last Thursday with what police believe were overdoses of LSD.

The first case was reported to city police shortly before 12:30 p.m. by Livonia Police who were notified by St. Mary hospital authorities.

The 15 year old student was transferred to Wayne County General Hospital and treated for the overdose, police said. A 17 year old student was treated at St. Mary hospital for an overdose of LSD shortly before 10:25 p.m.

Notified of the incident by hospital authorities, police said the youth told them he purchased the drug at Northville High.

Police recovered a 1968 Buick last Thursday which had been stolen from Detroit earlier in the week. The car was found in the parking lot of Northville Downs.

A 1968 Chrysler stolen from the Downs parking lot January 31 was recovered by Detroit Police last Thursday. The car was reportedly found in good condition but the trunk lock had been broken.

Police investigated a report of tampering with an auto February 1.

According to reports, a 1972 Thunderbird, parked on the lower level of the parking deck, was broken into by unknown persons and the ignition switch broken off.

Investigating officers found marks on the window of the drivers side that appeared to have been made by a coat hanger and evidence showed fingerprints had been wiped off the car. The incident occurred between 6:45 and 11:30 p.m.

A radiator was stolen from a vehicle parked in the lot at Fairbrook Apartments February 2. The theft took place between 2:30 and 7 a.m.

Snow-covered roads during the past week have taken their toll causing six accidents in Northville Sunday and Monday.

Accidents were reported on Novi Road south of Allen Drive, Eight Mile and Grace, Eight Mile and Taft and Baseline and North Center. Only injury reported was in one of the Novi Road-Allen Drive crashes in which a passenger suffered a bruised knee.

Officers attending seminars this week in East Lansing include Patrolmen Robert Pankow and David DeLauder, members of the detective bureau, who are studying investigative procedures and case preparation.

Patrolmen Allen Cox, of the traffic division, and Roger Rathburn are attending instruction on use of the breathalyzer, used to measure the amount of alcohol in a persons's system.

Both courses are conducted by the Michigan State Police.

Beginning Tuesday, Patrolman Howard Reeves will be attending the Law Enforcement Officer's Training Council course in supervision held at the Livonia Police Department.

Novi to Host Michigan Week

Novi will continue to observe the Michigan Week mayoral exchange although some reservations were raised by Mayor Joseph Crupi over the ultimate benefit of the program at Monday's council meeting.

Crupi questioned whether any constructive ideas could be gained that would warrant the cost of $500 to $600 cited by City Manager George Athas.

Novi presently exchanges mayors with cities within a population range of 7,000 to 50,000, which raised the question of what gains could be realized by matching cities with extreme differences in population or locale for the swap.

Speaking in favor of the program, Councilman Denis Berry said in the past the program has proven worthwhile, citing the idea which resulted in the establishment of the office of controller, a Following a pre-sentence investigation, John J. Grant of Livonia was placed on two days' voluntary work detail. Grant, who was found guilty of being a minor in possession of alcoholic beverages, was arrested by township police November 19.

In Township...

According to reports, the 21 year old woman from Detroit was hitchhiking on Six Mile Road east of Beck.

Police said she had been at DeHoCo since January 25, sentenced to serve two to five years for armed robbery. She was returned to guards at the jail by township officers.

In Wixom...

A car reportedly was stolen from the Ford Motor Company Wixom plant parking lot while its owner, Larry Marvin Adams, a Detroit resident, was working in the plant between the hours of 8 p.m. February 3 and 2 a.m. February 4, police said.

The still unrecovered car is a white 1968 Chrysler valued at approximately $3,000.

Two complaints by Wixom residents of alleged violations of snowmobile safety laws were reported in the Loon Lake canal area Saturday and Sunday, January 29 and 30, charging that operators were driving close to ice skaters and ice shanties on the lake at excessive speeds and also creating a disturbance during the night, police said.

Police made no arrests but issued a warning to two snowmobile drivers.

Attempted larceny was reported at the home of Arthur Woodkey, 2805 Potter, at 1:25 p.m. February 3, when Mrs. Arthur Woodkey told her husband she saw two unidentified persons running from the garage as she drove home, police said.

Nothing was found missing but Woodkey reported his garage door was opened and one of his snowmobiles was moved.

result of a prior mayoral exchange. Councilman Donald Young said major differences in population or locale which result in different problems could be grounds for requesting a change in the original schedule of exchanges.

Police Arrest 'Batter' Here

A Novi man who assaulted Novi Police Sergeant Dale Gross with a baseball bat has been released from the Oakland County Jail on $2,500 personal bond by 52nd District Court Judge Martin Boyle.

And, according to Novi Police Chief Lee BeGole, "that man is lucky to be alive today."

"There was a case very similar to this last year in Farmington Township," recalled the Novi police chief. "The man came at police officers with a baseball bat and they pulled out but their guns and shot him dead. The only thing that saved this man's life and Dale Gross' life, too, for that matter was the karate sticks. We're the only department in Michigan to use them. With any other department that man would be dead right now."

The incident with its potentially fatal ramifications occurred last week Monday when police were called to the home of Joseph George Lauwers at 40500 12 Mile Road to investigate a civil matter.

Because of previous encounters with Lauwers and the nature of the phone call, five officers went to the home, police said. Sergeant Gross and Patrolman Frank Barabas entered the residence at Lauwers' invitation and Patrolmen Gerald Burnham, John April, and Max Roder stationed themselves outside the building, they reported.

Mrs. Lauwers told police, according to police that her husband had been drinking heavily, and she was afraid for her safety and the safety of her children. She also said her husband was threatening to beat up a man where he worked and that he had a loaded pistol in his possession.

After hearing Mrs. Lauwers' story, police were ordered to leave by the husband. His wife, however, begged the officers to stay until she and her children could leave the home.

Lauwers again ordered the police to leave, but when he was informed they were staying at his wife's request until she left, he went into another room and returned with a baseball bat, police said.

Police reported Lauwers again demanded police get out and hit Gross in the stomach with the butt end of the bat. At that time Gross informed Lauwers he was under arrest for assaulting a police officer.

Lauwers pulled the bat back as if to take a swing at the officer and was promptly hit on top of the head by Gross with his karate sticks and again advised that he was under arrest.

This time Lauwers drew the bat all the way back and took a full swing at Gross' head. The blow was blocked with the karate sticks. With the help of Officers Burnham, Roder, April, and Barabas, Lauwers was finally subdued and handcuffed.

He was transported to Pontiac General Hospital by ambulance where he was treated for cuts on the head.

The following day Lauwers was arraigned before Judge Gerald E. McNally of the 52nd District Court, Second Division, in Clarkston on charges of felonious assault and placed in the Oakland County Jail on $10,000 cash bond.

On Wednesday, however, in a bond hearing before Judge Martin Boyle of the 52nd District Court in Walled Lake, Lauwers was released both from jail and the cash bond. Boyle placed him on $2,500 personal bond, which requires no money to be raised and is dropped completely if the man appears in court as scheduled.

Examination date has been set for February 28 at 2 p.m. before Judge Boyle.

Army Band To Perform

Plans for a performance by the United States Army Field Band in Plymouth this spring was announced this week by Sergeant Robert McAndrew, Army recruiter for the Northville area.

Time for the performance, to be given on May 20, has not yet been decided, McAndrew said. It is to be given in Plymouth's Kellogg Park.

SPEAKING

for The Record

By BILL SLIGER

For years we've heard both government experts and just plain tax-weary citizens proclaim property taxes unfair and over-used.

Now it appears for certain that the days of property taxes as a major source of revenue for schools, at least, are numbered.

Politicians from both parties have agreed that a sharp slash should be taken in the present 50-mill limit allowed for support of schools, counties and townships. They're recommending a 26-mill limit in proposed constitutional amendments.

The 24-mill cut would mean that an income tax would be substituted for this loss in revenue. Meanwhile, cities, villages, community colleges (and schools, counties and townships up to the 26-mill limit) would continue to levy the property tax.

But even with all this accord between parties, it isn't likely that the property tax will be cut in the near future.

That's because the Democrats and the Republicans can't agree on the kind of income tax to substitute for the property tax. Governor Milliken's educational reform plan proposes a flat rate income tax; the Democrats support a graduated income tax.

So both are circulating petitions to place their proposed constitutional amendments on the November ballot.

Both concede that with two amendments on the same ballot, neither will pass.

So property taxes for schools can be expected to survive for at least another year.

Elsewhere in this edition there's a story reporting an opinion rendered by Michigan Attorney General Frank J. Kelley supporting the right of the press and public to know exactly how much government-employed persons are paid.

(See Story on Page 5-A)

Naturally, we applaud the opinion because we have been denied this right by the Brighton city council. It has contended that showing a salary schedule along with step levels for various job categories is sufficient. That way, the council reasons, privacy of the individual is protected.

The council's concern for the individual is understandable, and by many, might be applauded.

But we all sacrifice some rights in the face of public rights. We cannot, for example, sunbathe at high noon in the middle of Grand River avenue if we disturb the flow of public traffic by so doing.

And when we take a job—any job—we must concede that our employer has a right to know how much he is paying us.

In the case of government employees, the public is the employer.

Civilian Patrols?

GOOD...

Criminal activity occurs when the criminal has the desire to commit an offense and he believes the opportunity for success exists. Conspicuously, marked police patrols reduce the opportunity for success and lessen the desire of the criminally oriented to break the law.

Prevention is a key factor to a reduction in crime rates. When a police department's work load increases, due to citizen demand for additional services, and there is insufficient manpower and resources to cope with the increased demand, the first area to suffer is preventative patrol and criminal activity will increase proportionately.

No police department can successfully control crime without citizen support and participation. Participation may consist of reporting offenses, suspicious persons and/or circumstances, co-operating with police investigations or testifying in court. Participation may consist of joining a citizens group organized to patrol a given section of the community and report suspicious activities to the police, who in turn take whatever action is necessary.

Such an organized group is commonly called a "CITIZEN PATROL FORCE". If their formation in the community is adequately publicized, their presence will have a definite deterrent value. Organizational guidelines must be established with controls. Training and supervision by the police is essential.

Lieutenant Daniel A. Byrnes
Acting Chief
Farmington Police Department

BAD...

I can see no need for a civilian patrol in this area. The lack of "street crime", such as purse snatchings, muggings, rapes, assaults, etc. precludes any useful purpose that a civilian patrol could provide.

An awareness by the residents of the types of crimes that are prevalent, and a desire to get involved, coupled with a good relationship with existing law enforcement agencies, could reduce the crime in this area. But a civilian patrol would need constant supervision and the manpower for this is not available.

A police officer must be trained and meet strict requirements before he is empowered to enforce the law. He must constantly take refresher courses, attend classes, training sessions, seminars, etc. to keep abreast of the changes in the laws, techniques, and methods used in his profession. Contrary to the opinion of the public, pinning a badge on a man does not make him a police officer.

Likewise, the desire of some citizens to help the police by patrolling in their privately owned cars and reporting what they see to the police does not always work out as planned.

A 30-man patrol of civilians would contribute 30 additional pairs of eyes to help "see" the crime in the area. Better that we educate the people and enlist their aid as good, concerned citizens and work together to obtain our common goal of a community free of crime and a mutual understanding of each others problems.

Funny things are always happening to Jack Hoffman. Usually he writes about them in his "Top of the Deck" column.

Maybe I can scoop him on this not-so-funny experience he had Sunday when returning from Pontiac with his wife and small daughter.

While exiting off Telegraph onto I-696 his car skidded into a snowbank. Unable to get out, Jack walked and hitchhiked about three miles to a service station where his insurance company had one of its well-advertised road service agencies.

"Sorry", he was told, "Your car is outside our service area. You'll have to contact another agent."

So he called the other agent.

"Are you at your car?", the second agent inquired.

"No, but my wife and child are," replied the normally mild-mannered Hoffman.

"Sorry. We can't respond until you're at the car. How long will it take you to get back", was the response from the second road-service agent.

"How should I know? I'm three miles away and have to walk and hitch-hike. It could take me a week", hollered back the no-longer-mild-mannered Hoffman.

His next call was to insurance company headquarters where he somehow managed to make contact with someone in authority. What Hoffman had to say cannot be recorded here.

But shortly after he had trudged back to his ditched car, wife and daughter, TWO tow trucks appeared.

That's what I call "six-A" service.

'Grave Rubbing' or Grave Robbing?

By JACK W. HOFFMAN

The Record women's editor, Jean Day, calls it 'grave rubbing' and she thinks it's an exciting, legitimate hobby. She may be right but to me it sounds more like 'grave robbing'.

According to Jean, who is preparing a story on interesting epitaphs in area cemeteries, the art of grave rubbing has spread rapidly in recent years and is especially prevalent in New England where historical tombstones abound and where rubbers reportedly are having a field day.

And she offers a long article in The Wall Street Journal to back up her assertion.

Tombstone rubbing, or 'grave rubbing' as connoisseurs call it, simply means making copies of inscriptions by affixing paper to the tombstones and rubbing the paper with wax or graphite.

Most rubbers, I'm told, practice the art for the personal enjoyment of getting out in the quiet of a graveyard and obtaining rubbings that they may hang in their homes or paste in big scrapbooks.

Others, however, have turned rubbing into a handsome business, selling their reproductions to art galleries for sizable sums. For one Massachusetts couple rubbing is their primary source of income. They sell a portfolio of 43 rubbings for $1,400 each.

All of which strikes me as a little unethical.

Aside from the fact that rubbing is bound to assist the elements in wearing down and eventually obliterating inscriptions, rubbers, it seems to me, are dealing with someone's personal property. And if the rubbers are unable to communicate with those interned beneath interesting tombstones they ought to at least obtain permission from living relatives.

(Which makes me wonder who owns a grave once there are no surviving relatives.)

I'm not sure what the legal ramifications of rubbing are, but it would seem that our lawmakers, at one time or another, must have devised a statute to cover the matter.

Maybe it's part of the copyright laws.

If perchance it is not illegal, would it follow that stealing a portfolio of rubbings from the rubber also would be lawful?

Anyway, when I'm gone I don't want rubbers treading on me or sneaking copies of my tombstone without permission. And I especially won't rest easy if I know someone is above making a copy of my personal epitaph to make money...unless, of course, the rubber is prepared to share his profits.

Maybe a coin box imbedded in the tombstone would be appropriate. You know...a quarter per rubbing, or a bargain 70-cents for three rubbings. It might encourage relatives with keys to visit graves more often. Or maybe it could help finance the tombstone itself. Sort of a "buy now, pay later" plan.

One thing's certain: the pay as you rub idea won't work unless the epitaph is really worth collecting. And that being the case, I think I'll take a cue from a former member of the living who had the following inscribed on his tombstone:

"I told you I was sick."

Last-Ditch Effort

Coy Fights for Road Budget

Refusing to throw in the sponge, Oakland County Commissioner Lew Coy is making a last-ditch effort to beef up the budget of the Oakland County Road Commission.

Last week he introduced a resolution to increase the road commission budget by a compromise $500,000 allocation. It was promptly referred to the transportation and aviation committee for study, and Coy is confident it will be forwarded to the board of commissioners for a vote within the next week or two.

Meanwhile, he's trying to generate some public support for his resolution.

"It's absolutely preposterous that the road commission should oppose increased monies in light of the urgent needs we have for life-saving road improvements in Oakland County," declared Coy. "The real irony of the whole thing," said the Wixom Republican Commissioner serving this area, "is that while Road Commission Chairman Paul McGovern is saying they can 'get by' without a budget increase, citizens demanding improvements are told the commission doesn't have enough money."

"Furthermore, Oakland officials are up at Lansing lobbying for a two-cent gas tax hike for county road."

Doesn't that sound peculiar? Why on the one hand can they get by without additional county monies, while on the other they want Michigan legislators to commit political suicide by coming out in an election year for a gas tax hike?

Specifically, Coy's resolution suggests amending the county budget by appropriating $500,000 for the road commission. It suggests the money be provided by increasing the state revenue sharing figure by $100,000 to a total of $360,000, by increasing anticipated state income tax revenue by $300,000 to a total of $4,020,000, and by utilizing $100,000 from any other available fund in county government.

"The money will be there," he said, arguing that the county revenue was purposely underestimated to provide a windfall later that Democratic commissioners could then allocate for welfare programs.

Coy emphasized that county monies will be matched by federal funds, thus providing many thousands of additional dollars for county roads that might otherwise go elsewhere.

Earlier, the board of commissioners rejected a proposal to immediately increase the road department budget by $350,000, with a provision that another $350,000 be provided later in the year. That action drew the ire of both Coy and Wixom Mayor Gilbert Willis, along with other municipal officials in Oakland.

"Our problem," said Coy, "is that people who want better roads don't realize what's happening in Pontiac. Democrats can call on a strong welfare lobby to back their programs but we don't have a lobby for citizens who want better roads."

Coy suggested that those citizens in the Novi-Wixom-South Lyon area, who see immediate need for signals and road improvement, demonstrate their concerns by writing the road commission.

The county budget, according to Coy, fails to provide monies to the road commission "to correct substandard conditions existing within this county."

He noted that loss on county roads throughout the year involved 200 deaths and 18,000 personal injuries—a 9.3 percent increase in traffic fatalities in 1971 compared to a 1.4 decrease in the state for the same year.

another man," but that a superintendent "never gets broken in, just broken up."

Henderson, when asked if Dale's resignation came as a complete surprise, said, "His health has been a question every year when we review his contract."

Wilkins added, "It's a question of whether we want to kill the man or let him out."

Dale's health has hospitalized him several times in recent years. He explained he rarely has had vacations "when I have not come back in to work during a vacation. Usually a person takes a vacation when the work is done," but with a superintendent's job, "the work is never done."

Coy suggested that those citizens in the Novi-Wixom-South Lyon area, who see

Of Cadillac Personnel

Appoint Baldwin Director

Bernard W. Baldwin of Northville has been appointed director of personnel for Cadillac Motor Car Division.

George R. Elges, general manager of Cadillac and vice-president of General Motors, announced this past week.

The appointment was effective February 1.

Baldwin, who previously was personnel director for GM's Hydra-Matic Division, succeeds Joseph G. Pais who is taking a medical leave of absence after 46 years of service at Cadillac.

In Baldwin, Cadillac gains a veteran executive who has served 23 years with General Motors.

Born October 29, 1923, he was graduated with a bachelor of science degree in metallurgical engineering from the University of Michigan in 1948. He joined the Hydra-Matic Division as a college graduate in training in that same year.

In 1950 Baldwin became a production foreman and nearly three years later was named a representative in labor relations. In less than eight months in 1953 he was promoted to supervisor, and then director of labor relations in January, 1955. Only six months had elapsed in his rapid climb at Hydra-Matic when he was named director of personnel on July 1, 1955, the position he held at the time of this appointment.

An elected Northville Township trustee and a member of the township planning commission, Baldwin and his wife Helen reside at 19810 Meadowbrook Road. They have two children, Cynthia, 20, a student at Michigan State University, and William, 18, a senior at Northville High School.

indicated he could use the help.

Upon learning that some $10,000 had been allotted the township under the act, trustees expressed serious doubt that this amount would cover the clerk-typist and DPW employee, already hired and working under the federal provision, as well as the new recreation employee.

Furthermore, they noted that the recreation department budget did not provide for such an employee—although Stromberg and Mrs. Hammond explained the new employee, working full time, eliminates necessity for "unreliable" part-time help.

Trustee Baldwin was especially disturbed because it appeared a job had been created and then someone obtained to fill it—only because federal monies are available. This kind of hiring, he said, contrary to the intent of the act and is unfair to the employee in question, especially if the township intends to employ him only temporarily.

The board also approved expansion of the library (shelving and utilization of the balcony area for a children's center) and agreed to pay its share of the project on an adjusted rental basis. An advance of $350 from the current budget is to be deducted from that amount earmarked in the 1972-73 budget for the adjusted rent.

Present to answer questions about the expansion program, which already has been approved by the city, was Mrs. William Sliger of the library board.

Upon the request of School Superintendent Raymond Spear and School Trustee Stanley Johnston, the board agreed to establish a committee to meet with city and school representatives for discussion of a school proposal that school taxes be collected twice annually instead of once each winter. Under the proposal, half of the taxes would be collected in the summer, half in the winter.

Purpose of the split collection, it was explained, is to avoid the necessity of borrowing money to meet school expenses at the beginning of the school year.

Novi Matmen Post 2 Wins

Wrestling is now in its third year at Novi High School and, quite frankly, its history has been somewhat short of illustrious.

In their first year, Coach Rick Trudeau's grapplers notched a single victory - a win-total they only equaled last year, but last week in a three day span the Novi matmen knocked off Class A Livonia Churchill Tuesday and then beat Southeastern Conference foe Milan Thursday.

And once again it was heavyweight Terry Auten who deserved much of the credit. In both the Churchill and Milan meet the outcome rested squarely on the shoulders of Novi's premier heavyweight and both times Auten came through.

In the Churchill meet the score was knotted at 27-all when the heavyweights took the mat, and the Chargers had a pretty decent grappler to put out on the mat against the Novi star. But Auten put his opponent on his back at the 3:28 mark - midway through the middle period - to give his teammates a 33-27 victory.

The Milan meet was even more exciting. The Big Red held a 26-21 lead over the Wildcats as the final event began. For Milan to win all their 225 pound heavyweight Joe Hitchcock had to do was keep from being pinned.

The two heavyweights circled each other cautiously in a first period distinguished primarily by a couple of ringing slaps to each other's head gear. But then in the second period it happened. Suddenly Auten had Hitchcock on his back. The referee slapped the mat and the Wildcats had a 27-26 victory.

Because the heavyweight match is the last on the card, the role of hero - or goat - is reserved for the big man, and the Wildcats are blessed to have such an outstanding performer as Auten in the heavyweight division.

Nevertheless, for Auten to even be within range of pulling his team to a victory necessitates outstanding performances from his teammates in the lower weight classes.

The Churchill and Milan meets were similar in that the Novi matmen spotted their opponents big leads in the lower divisions and then came on strong in the middle weight classes.

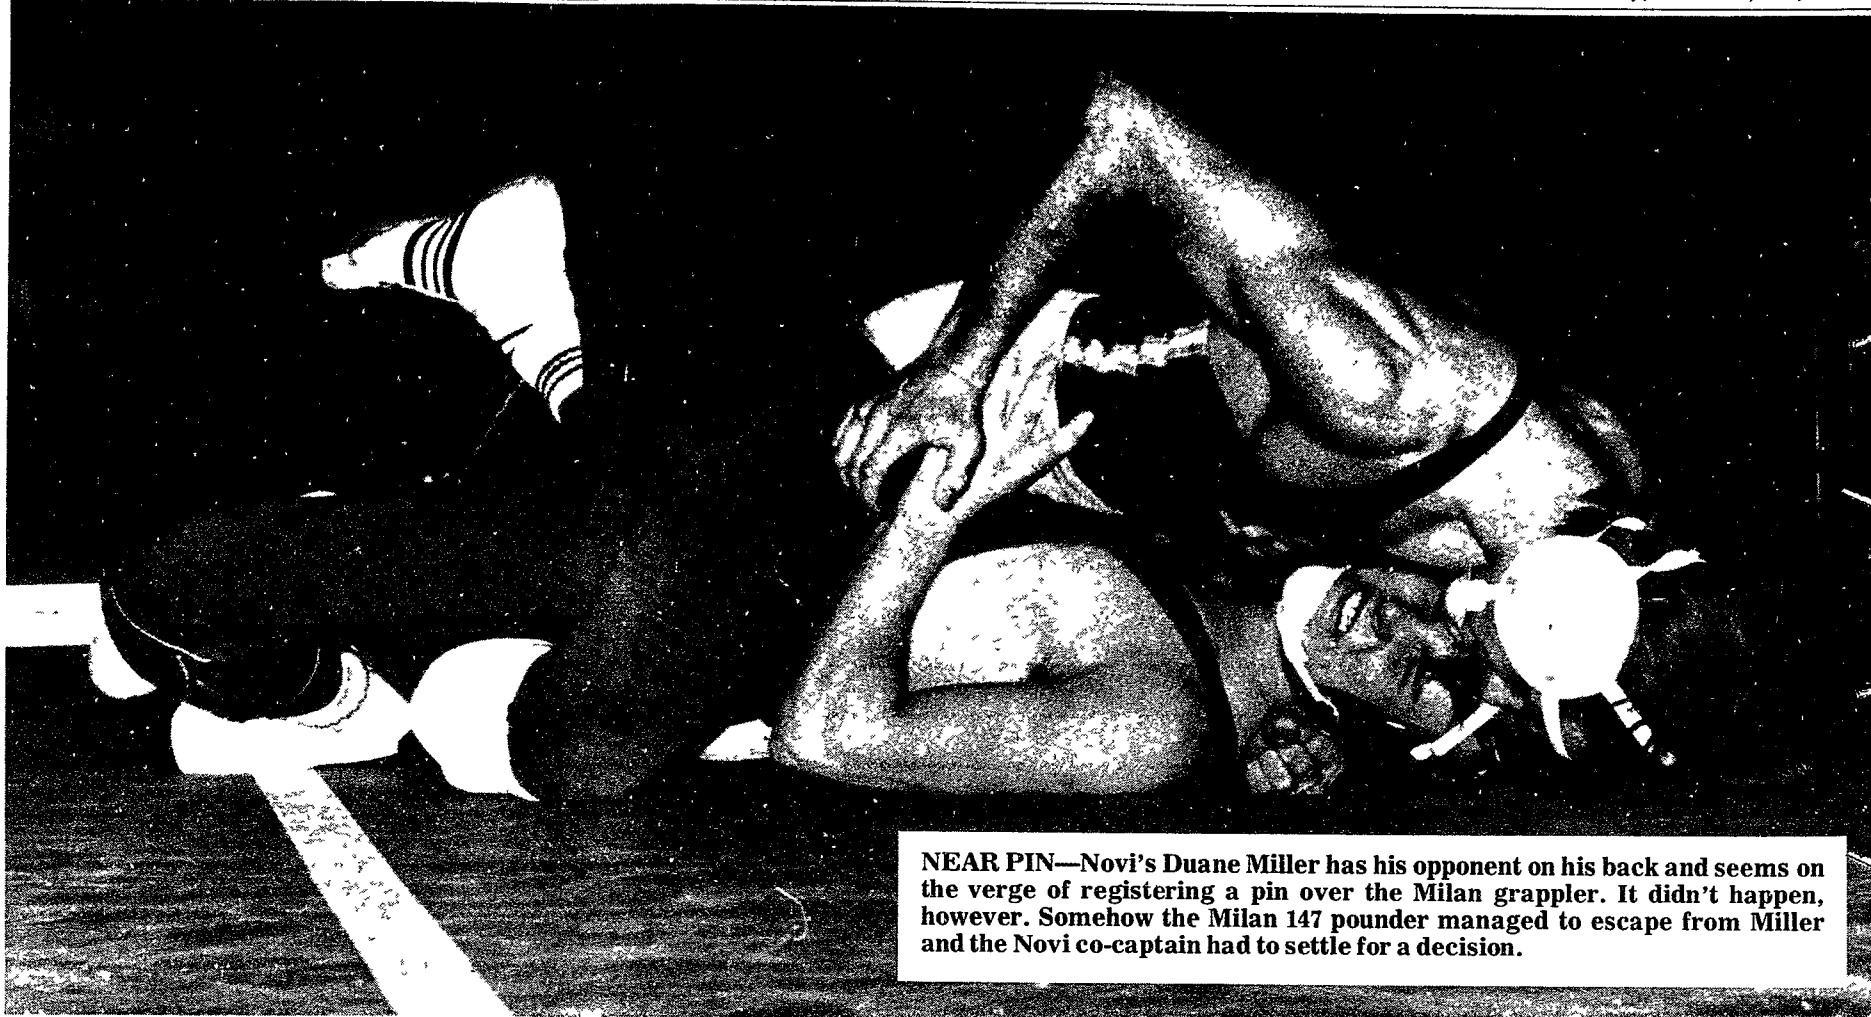

In the Churchill meet, the Wildcats trailed 18-0 after the first three bouts as Bill Livingston got pinned at 101 and they had to forfeit 108 and 115. But Tom Ford got Novi rolling as he pinned Bob Rose at 1:39 of the first period in the 121 pound class. Dave Ward decided Churchill's best wrestler - Rich Boehms - at 129 to cut the team score to 18-9.

Pat Ford decided his opponent 6-2 at 141, Duane Miller pinned Dave Stowers at the 1:41 mark of the first period, Randy McGarry took a 6-4 decision at 158, and Kevin Schingek pinned Terry Driscoll in the 167 pound bracket. It was McGarry's victory that finally drew the Wildcats into a 21-21 tie with Churchill and it was Schingek's pin that gave Novi their first lead of the night, 27-21.

Bill Moore got pinned at 185 as the Chargers knotted the score and set the stage for Auten's heroics. The Milan meet was similar. After the first three weight classes Novi trailed 16-0. Again it was Tom Ford who got the Wildcats on the scoreboard, as he took a 10-6 decision at 121. Dave Ward followed with another decision at 129, as did Pat Ford at 135 and Duane Miller at 141.

Randy McGarry notched the first Wildcat pin, as he nailed Dan Williams in the first period. Schingek followed up McGarry's pin with a 10-4 decision over Dave Whitelaw at 170 to give Novi a momentary 21-20 lead. But Tom Auten, Terry's brother, got pinned at 185 to give the Big Red a 26-21 lead and once again set the stage for the heavyweights.

Saturday marks the Southeastern Conference championships. Coach Trudeau will take his wrestlers to Milan for the all day event.

NEAR PIN—Novi's Duane Miller has his opponent on his back and seems on the verge of registering a pin over the Milan grappler. It didn't happen, however. Somehow the Milan 147 pounder managed to escape from Miller and the Novi co-captain had to settle for a decision.

To Cage Victory

Half-Time 'Talk' Spurs Wildcats

As things turned out, Novi won easily.

But the 67-50 victory over last-place Dexter Friday was anything but pleasing to Wildcat Coach Milan Obrenovich.

"The way it started it was a terrible game," said the coach. "I guess the guys just thought they'd come over here (at Dexter) and really chew them up. You saw what happened in the first half."

Dexter, which earlier this season lost to Novi, 70-60, led at the end of the first quarter, 20-11, and had a five-point edge, 32-27, at the intermission.

"I had a real talk with them at the half," Obrenovich said. "It was pretty strong, and I was a little sorry for it later. I don't like to talk to them that way but they needed it."

The 'talk' must have had some influence because it was a completely different second half—despite a number of turn-overs and play mistakes.

Dexter, obviously rattled by the Wildcats' second-half "passing offense," which really is a modified stall, and their zone defense, couldn't get its own offense working again and during one seven minute period failed to score a point.

Novi, on the other hand, worked the ball well in the second half and scored most of its fieldgoals close in under the basket. The Wildcats' rebounding also was a key to the turn-around game.

Novi fired 36 shots from the floor in the first half, 41 in the second. Big difference was that in the second half the local quintet hit at a 41-percent clip compared to a miserable 19-percent first half.

The dreadnaughts, after shooting 39 percent in the first half, fell off to 27-percent in the second (7 of 26). In the third quarter the hosts hit only one fieldgoal.

Novi's Jim Wagner led all cagers in scoring, pumping in 22 points. High point man for Dexter was Frank Gucker with 13.

Novi, now tied with Milan and Dundee with a 4-6 mark, travels to Chelsea tomorrow where the Bulldogs are savoring a win over Ypsilanti Lincoln last week that boosted them into a two-way tie for second place in the Southeastern Conference.

Earlier in the season, the Wildcats lost a heartbreaker to Chelsea, 65-63.

SE Conference Standings

Saline	8 2
Ypsilanti	7 3
Chelsea	7 3
South Lyon	6 4
Novi	4 6

It was upset week in the Southeastern Conference and the biggest upset of all was pulled off by the resurgent Lions of South Lyon, who humbled the high-flying Hornets of Saline, 66-50. Jim McIntosh paced the Lions, who led 40-21 at the half, with 22 points and 25 rebounds. Chelsea helped themselves and the Hornets by knocking off second-place Lincoln 61-59 on Jeff Schmidt's tip in at the buzzer. Chelsea is now tied with Lincoln for second place, while South Lyon is a game behind them in fourth place. Dundee made it a three-way tie for fifth by beating Milan 75-73 on Tom Bordin's 15 foot jump shot with three seconds left in the game. Joe Hinch and Stan Joplin led Milan with 28 and 27 points respectively. Ron Craig had 20 for Dundee.

Dave Ward has been singled out by Novi wrestling coach Rick Trudeau for Wildcat of the Week honors. A senior, the 129 pound grappler has posted a 7-6-1 record for the season, but last week was the best in a three-year varsity career as he took decisions over his opponent in both the Churchill and Milan meets.

Tankers Stay Undeclared

While the varsity swimmers continue to sail along with a perfect 10-0 dual meet record, Northville's other two swimming teams are doing almost as well. With victories last week, the freshman and junior high teams advanced their records to 5-0 and 4-0-1 respectively.

The freshman squad, coached by John Edwards, had no trouble at all with Pierce, winning nine of 11 events and sweeping first and second place in five of them on route to a 75-29 victory.

Leading performance was turned in by the 200 yard medley relay team of Matt Stopper, Bob Bloomhuff, Art Greenlee, and Mark Leleck who set a new freshman record with a time of 2:06.7.

First place finishes in the meet were taken by Steve Luckett in the 200 yard individual medley, Mark Owens in the 100 yard butterfly, Luckett in the 100 yard freestyle, Bob Clemens in the 400 yard freestyle, Charles Kohs in the 100 yard backstroke, Bloomhuff in the 100 yard breaststroke, and the 400 yard freestyle relay team of Mike Swayze, Greg Johnson, Steve Lovett, and Jeff Guider.

The victory of the junior high swimmers over Plymouth East was just as lop-sided, as Coach Dave Graff's squad registered a 74-22 triumph.

Matt Ivey, Biff Ballash, and Pete Talbot led the rout with record-breaking performances. Ivey broke his own record in the 200 yard freestyle with a time of 2:23, while Ballash shaved seven-tenths of a second off his own 50 yard breaststroke record with a time of 34.3. Pete Talbot tied his own 50 yard butterfly mark with a 32.6 time.

Mustangs Name Captains

Bill Norton and Steve Griggs have been selected co-captains of the 1972 Northville High School Football team, it was announced last week by Coach Chuck Shonta.

Griggs developed rapidly as a defensive back during the season, while Norton starred as a linebacker. Shonta indicated, however, that Norton will be shifted to a running back next year in addition to retaining his linebacking duties.

Norton and Griggs were chosen by a vote of the six Northville football coaches.

Novi JV's Triumph

In a wild but exciting game, Novi Jayvees eeked out a 56-54 triumph over Dexter Friday.

Playing 10 cagers, all of whom scored, Coach Bob Weinburger's local quintet bounced back from a 45-39 third-quarter deficit to win in the final minutes.

Novi led at the end of the first quarter, 13-9, and were out front by two, 28-26, at the half.

Although neither team played exceptionally fine ball, Coach Weinburger was pleased with his squad's determination and was "happy we could play a lot of guys."

Leading Novi in scoring were Sean O'Brien with 15 points, followed by Dave Brown with 12.

Coach Tom Roncoli and his Schoolcraft College cagers

Wrestlers In League Tourney

Eight teams headed by defending champion Grand Rapids Junior College will battle for the Michigan Community College Athletic Association (MCCAA) state wrestling title at Schoolcraft College on Saturday, February 12.

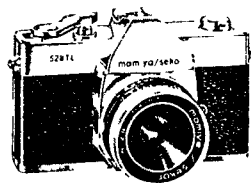

First round matches start at noon, followed by semi-finals and wrestle-backs. Consolation finals begin at 6 p.m. and the championship finals at 8:45. Admission is $1.25 for adults and .50 for students.

The visitors will bring a perfect 16-0 overall record and an equally perfect 9-0 league mark. Roncoli describes Cliff Young's fine squad as "good shooters, good rebounders, strong defensively and with plenty of depth on the bench." He added that if they do have a weakness, no one has been able to find it.

The Schoolcraft squad will take an overall 13-8 record into the contest. The Ocelots are led by co-captains John Jetchick of Livonia Stevenson and Desmond Denham from Detroit Murray Wright. The starting five is rounded out with Wally Suchara and Jerry Knoph of Detroit Cody High, and K.C. Jones an outstanding freshman from Plymouth.

Mustangs Net Second League Win

Want a quiet evening of entertainment? Try canoeing down the Rio Grande, insult "The Sheik" to his face, or sign up for a try-out as Joe Frazier's sparring partner, but whatever you do, don't start following the fortunes of the Northville High School basketball team.

Following the trials and tribulations of Coach Walt Koepke's cagers and their fight toward respectability is definitely not a pastime for the feeble-hearted.

Last week the Mustangs provided more than an evening full of excitement for their fans on two different occasions as they fought to a tie with Clarenceville before losing 66-64 in overtime and then returned to Western Six competition Friday and survived a second half Farmington Harrison rally to notch their second conference triumph of the year, 58-51.

Don't be misled by that seven point margin of victory, either. It was only in the closing seconds of the game that the Mustangs pulled away from the Hawks to clinch the victory.

The game shouldn't have been that close. In fact, after the first half the Mustangs seemed to have the game just about clinched as they rolled to an 18 point, 35-17, halftime lead.

In the first meeting between Northville and Harrison, the Hawks had taken a 68-60 victory mainly on the strength of their fine shooting and the 26 point performance of forward-guard Jim Mason. But Friday it was the Mustangs turn to blister the nets.

In the first quarter the Northville players netted five of eleven field goal attempts, but it was in the second quarter when they outscored the Hawks 23-10 that their shooting was at its best as they scored on nine of ten attempts for an incredible 90 percent.

Harrison meanwhile couldn't buy a basket. Mason failed to score a single two-pointer in the first half as the Northville man-to-man defense harried him into throwing up several "air-balls" that never even came close. And 6'7" center Jeff Sieloff's shooting was so bad he was benched twice.

Harrison had only seven field goals in the first half. But the second half was a different story. Changing from a zone to man-to-man defense, the Hawks started chipping steadily away at the Northville lead. At the end of three quarters they trailed by 11 points, 45-34, and as the fourth quarter started they installed a man-to-man full court press, double-teaming the man with the ball. With a full two minutes left on the clock, they had cut the Northville lead to just three points, 51-48.

But then came one of the game's key plays. Northville's Bill Andrews was fouled at the 2:06 mark, but missed the free throw. Todd Hannert, who played his finest game of the season, grabbed the rebound and put it up and in to restore the Mustangs' five point lead.

Sieloff, who led the Hawks' second-half surge, netted a pair of free throws to bring the lead back down to three points at 53-50, but Andrews added three free throws to make it 56-50 before he fouled out at the 46 second mark. With 11 seconds left in the game Sieloff drove to the basket, but missed the lay-up. Hannert grabbed the rebound and rifled a full-court pass to Mike Brown who laid the ball through the cords with seven seconds to go to give the Mustangs a 58-51 victory.

Northville shot an outstanding 68 percent from the floor, hitting on 30 of 44 field goal attempts. They also hit on 18 of 30 free throw attempts for 60 percent.

Bill Andrews led the Mustangs in scoring with 19 points, collecting four field goals and hitting on 11 of 14 free throw tries. Substitute center Mike Brown took runner-up laurels with 15 points - eight of them in the last four minutes of the second quarter. Jeff Moon tallied 11 points.

Hannert was held to just six points, but he played an important role in the victory as he cleared off 20 rebounds.

Sieloff led Harrison with 19 points, but Mason, whose shooting had defeated Northville in the first game, was held to a mere seven points. Rod Crane hounded the Harrison star when he was at guard and Hannert throttled him when he moved to forward.

Northville's loss to Clarenceville was a tough one to take because the Mustangs had to drop a big lead to do it. After leading 29-28 at the half and 45-44 at the three quarter mark, the Mustangs built up a 10 point lead in the fourth quarter and with 22 seconds on the clock they still led the Trojans by seven.

But in that final 22 second stretch, the Trojans stole two passes and converted a three-point play to tie the game at the end of regulation time. They then copped the victory in overtime, as center Phil Halstead scored seven of their eight overtime points.

Again Bill Andrews paced the Northville team with 29 points, but it was Halstead who took scoring honors in the game as he poured through 34 points.

Northville and Clarenceville will in all probability meet again as they are both slated to play in the district tournament at South Lyon in early March.

Friday the Mustangs will play host to Brighton. When the two squads met previously, Northville took a 77-70 victory.

Milan Tankers Could Put End To Win Streak

"Animals" is what Coach Ben Lauber calls them, but he'll be counting on their talents heavily tonight (Thursday) and in the weeks ahead as his Northville swimming team heads into the crucial part of its schedule.

Lauber's tankers have won 21 consecutive dual meets. They were undefeated in 10 outings last year and have won all 11 of their meets so far this season. But chances are high that the Mustangs will never get that twenty-second victory, as they must travel to Milan to take on the "Big Red" this evening.

"I tend to be pretty conservative and careful in my statements," says Lauber, "but I think I could justify by their performances and times so far that Milan is the best team in the State in Class B."

If the Mustangs do manage to overcome their unusual role of underdog and beat Milan, a large portion of the credit will go to Lauber's "animals."

The term "animal," as used in sporting circles, is a supreme compliment, reserved only for the best performers. The "animal club" on the Northville swim team is a six, sometimes seven, man group headed up by senior co-captain Joe Boland. Other members of the exclusive club are Don Cook, Kevin Kelly, Bill Witek, Jeff Pitak, Art Greenlee, and, from time to time, Bill Bretz.

"It's definitely a prestige-type thing to be in the animal club," reports Lauber. "It's reserved for only my best swimmers and depends on the length of the events they swim, their attitude toward hard work, and their desire to work hard to excel."

Not being in the animal club in no way means the swimmer is not working hard. Lauber is quick to point out. Sprinters, for example, are automatically disqualified because the animals' work outs are geared for the middle-distance and distance events.

The regularly-scheduled meetings of the animal club are now over for the season, and all of the Northville swimmers are doing the same work-out, getting ready for peak performances at the end of the season. But when in session in mid-season, the animals will swim up to twice as many laps as the other team members.

Even if the Mustangs do manage to upset Milan, however, there is nothing but trouble for them in the weeks ahead. Next Thursday Northville will have its final home meet of the season when they host Farmington Harrison.

Paced by sophomore Mike Rado, a two-time state champion last year as a freshman, Harrison has never beaten the Mustangs, but every meet has been unnervingly close and gone right down to the final event.

"We'd really like to get a big turn-out from the Northville people for the Harrison meet," says Lauber. "People ask me why I like to get the biggest turn-outs for the meets we might lose, but that's the way they'll see the best meets. I'll guarantee you that the Harrison meet will be a great one from a spectator's standpoint."

Lauber's swimmers had a meet last week, but it was far from an exciting one as they not only dunked Ypsilanti Lincoln, but practically drowned them. Final score was 80-23. Results are below.

Matmen Eye Tourney

"Far from our best performance of the year" was the way Northville wrestling coach Ed McCloud summed up his squad's showing at Waterford Mott Thursday, and he was right.

The Mustangs registered only four victories in dropping a 3-16 decision to the Corsairs.

The meet was the last of Northville's dual competitions with Western Six Conference opponents and McCloud's grapplers finished with only a so-so record, defeating Livonia Churchill 33-26 and Farmington Harrison 37-24, but dropping decisions to Walled Lake Western 41-17 and Mott 37-16.

Nevertheless, McCloud is hoping his wrestlers will be able to finish higher in the league championships scheduled for Northville High School this Saturday.

"A lot depends on the seedings," says the Northville coach. "What we've got to hope is that we can get Mott and Western in as many matches against each other as possible. Hopefully that way we can pick up advancement points and they can burn each other out."

In spite of his team's definite role as a dark horse, McCloud has four, perhaps five, wrestlers he feels are capable of posting conference championships.

Foremost, of course, is co-captain David Griffin. Wrestling at 122 pounds Griffin moved easily through each of his four league meets without a loss.

Jimmy Watson, Northville's 101 pound sophomore grappler, has won each of his three league matches. He did not wrestle against Western, however, as he failed to make weight, but he is, nevertheless, given a good chance by McCloud of copping a league championship.

Kevin Hartshorne has lost only one dual match all season long, but it was at the hands of Mott's 108 pounder. Hartshorne, however, is a veteran performer and an outstanding wrestler who could easily turn the tables on his conqueror when the championship is on the line.

Doug Boor is another Northville grappler, who, like Griffin, is undefeated in dual meets. Boor started the season at 185 and has wrestled heavyweight, but will move all the way down to 158 for the championships and is another Mustang with a good shot at a league title.

McCloud mentions one other Northville grappler, who could cop a first place at the league meet - Bill Norton. Norton has lost to Farmington Harrison's Bernia by a 3-1 decision in the 135 division, and although McCloud feels Norton might be able to beat Bernia in the championships, he also feels that the junior co-captain would fare better by cutting down to 129.

The Waterford Mott meet wasn't a good one for the Mustangs. In addition to having to forfeit the 185 pound and heavyweight divisions for lack of anyone to enter, the Northville team suffered several other setbacks.

Norton didn't make weight, Joe Weachock lost at 148, Danny Fialon was beaten, and even Kevin Hartshorne lost - his first dual meet loss of the year.

Dave Griffin and Doug Boor posted decisions in the 122 and 158 pound weight classes, and John Fialon wrestled "as well as he has all year," according to McCloud, in taking a 16-0 victory in the 141 pound class. Sole Northville pin of the evening was registered in the very first match, as Jimmy Watson put away his opponent in the 101 pound division.

JVs Top Hawks

There's no telling what the Farmington Harrison junior varsity coach has been feeding his basketball team, but whatever it is should be put on order immediately by the Northville Athletic Department.

When the clubs first met in December, the Northville jayvees were hard-pressed to find enough reserves to put in, as they led 34-10 at the half on the way to a 63-31 triumph.

It was a far different Harrison jayvee squad that came to Northville Friday, however, and although the Mustang again copped the victory, they did it by a tenuous two-point margin, 56-54.

The young Mustangs now have a 10-3 record for the season and are 4-2 in the Western Six Conference, having lost twice to Livonia Churchill.

Northville again ran up an early lead against Farmington, outscoring their opponents 19-12 in the first quarter and 14-8 in the second to take a 33-20 halftime lead.

But Harrison started chipping away at that lead in the second half. At the end of three quarters, they trailed by just six points, 46-40, and then narrowed the gap four more points in the fourth quarter only to trail 56-54 at the buzzer.

The Mustangs were led by freshman center Doug Crisan's 22 point performance. Tod Eis tallied 16.

In Tuesday's game against Clarenceville, Coach Omar Harrison's notched a 63-45 victory, as Crisan and Eis again paced the Northville scorers with 19 and 14 points respectively.

Western Six Standings

Livonia Churchill	5	0
Waterford Mott	4	2
Northville	2	4
Farmington Harrison	2	4
Walled Lake Western	1	4
And look who's in third place. In the other league game Waterford Mott had little trouble in disposing of Walled Lake Western dumping the Warriors 62-41 after taking a 28-15 lead at the half. Western netted a mere 12 field goals. Walled Lake's Tony Howell led all scorers with 24 points. In a non league game, Livonia Churchill exhibited the outstanding defensive basketball that has placed them on top of the Western Six Conference in routing Sterling Heights 77-47. The Chargers held Sterling Heights without a field goal in the second quarter. Jim Foster Bruce Van Wagoner and Roy Hennickson led Churchill with 12, 11 and 10 points respectively.

Two Ice Teams Have Busy Week

Northville's hockey teams played a total of 11 games last week, but it was the Bantams and the Midgets who did most of the work, as they each played four games.

The Squirts (ages 9-10), PeeWees (ages 11-12), and the Mites (ages 7-8) each had one game, but made the most of it by moving to decisive victories.

The F.O.E. Squirts bombed the Inkster Cobras in an Inkster Suburban Hockey league clash by a score of 10-1. Ken Stelmach collected the three-goal hat trick, while Roger Pattison netted two goals. Single scores were made by Jerry Sherwood, Richard Pattison, Tod Mack, Tom Allen, and Doug Horst.

The Thompson Sand and Gravel-sponsored PeeWee team took the measure of the Inkster club 8-2. Bob Michael led Northville in scoring with a three goal performance. Dave Beall and Kurt Stevens added two goals apiece, and Kevin Stelmach rounded out the scoring with a single goal. Russ Horst scored three goals and Jack McIntosh scored two more to account for all of Northville's scoring in a 5-1 victory over the Inkster Jets in a Mite league game.

The talent-deep Midget club sponsored by the Thunderbird Inn won three of its four games, losing only to a strong Fort Worth, Indiana, club 7-3 in an exhibition game.

Port Worth's victory earned them a split with the Northville Midgets. On the previous day, Ritchie scored two goals to account for all his team's scoring in a 2-1 victory over the Indiana squad.

The Midgets fared better against Michigan competition, as they kept their undefeated record in the Inkster League in tact by abolishing Belleville 7-0 and Inkster 11-0.

The Bantams, sponsored by John Mach Ford, won one game, tied another, and lost two. One of the losses was at the hands of Dearborn in a non-league contest.

The other loss was to Plymouth by a score of 6-1 in what was league game. Phil Jackson was the only Northville player to score.

The Northville Bantams got their shooting eye back when they played Belleville, lambasting their opponents 13-0.

In the final game of the regular season, the Bantams played to a 1-1 tie with Inkster.

Mustanger

Mustang of the Week honors go to basketball player Todd Hannert. The 6'5" senior forward netted only six points in the Mustangs' victory over Farmington Harrison, but he absolutely dominated the backboards, hauling in a career high of 20 rebounds. "Todd did a fine job for us," said Coach Walt Koepke. "He played aggressively and was blocking out well."

Approve Budget

Ollendorff reported that the judge is convinced the full time bookkeeper is needed. Officials here, however, have noted that the proposed outlay for an auditor, who has done bookkeeping in the past, had not been reduced to reflect bookkeeper's work.

Dems Meet

Thursday

Northville Democratic Club will hold its regular monthly meeting tonight (Thursday) at 8 p.m.

Alice Woodruff, chairman of the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom, will present current resolutions regarding the war in Vietnam, and Dr. Larry D. VanderMolen will evaluate the merits of the May Presidential Preference Primary and other election reform proposals.

The meeting will be held at the home of Michael and Pat Nader, 18402 Jamestown. All interested Democrats are welcome to attend.

The judge has indicated, the manager said, that a reduction of the auditor's outlay is forthcoming.

Because Plymouth already had approved the budget and because the council was reluctant to exert executive power over the judicial branch of government, decided to avoid a confrontation and approve the budget with the stipulation that it provide, with monies already earmarked for other purposes, for an increased supplement to the judge's salary.

Since the council is satisfied with the judge's work and because the supplement has never previously been increased, the council reasoned that such an increase would eat up part of the surpluses that officials here are convinced are built into the budget.

Judge Davis is paid an $18,000 by the state, and the three communities in which the court sits shares a supplement to that salary. Previously pegged at $5,000, the supplement is now increased to just under $6,500.

"Our problem," explained officials, "is that the judge feels he has the right to transfer funds from one category to another within the budget. So if a surplus results in one area, he can use it to increase the outlay in another category."

"He believes that when we approve the budget we approve only the total figure—not the individual line item estimates."

Given as an example of how such surplus funds may be used in the new budget was a suggestion by the judge that the pension plan for court employees be made retroactive to the date of the court's establishment.

"If he decides to do this there is little we can do to prevent it. He probably will simply transfer a surplus to cover the additional expense," it was noted.

Northville Downs property. Such a right-of-way, it was noted, could require a shorter line than one that would traverse the Downs property, and that it would not necessitate the removal of asphalt as it would in the case of the Downs.

Basically, two plans are under consideration. One would travel south on Center from Cady to either the Cole or Downs property, turn east and extend to the Rouge River. The second would go east on Cady to Church Street and south to the river.

No cost estimate of either plan has been determined as yet.

Concerning the Randolph Drain proposal, Ollendorff reported that engineers, in developing data on which the drain commission would apportion cost between Novi and Northville, have indicated in their initial work that Northville's share will likely approximate 70-percent of the total cost of $700,000 or more.

Northville-Nowi officials are to meet with engineers this week, and the engineering data is to be presented to the drain commission within two weeks. Ollendorff estimated final hearings on the drain proposal are a month or six weeks away.

In other action Monday, the council adopted an initiatory resolution, requiring the manager to present to the council a list of property owners adjacent to the proposed alley improvement between Center and Grace.

The resolution is the first step in setting up an assessment district for the improvement—preliminary to making a decision whether or not to make the improvement, establishing an assessment formula, establishing cost and setting a public hearing.

Civitan Club Donates $100

A $100 contribution to the Civitan International Foundation in honor of Past International President Lou Hopping was voted by the Northville-Kings Mill Civitan Club Thursday.

Hopping, a resident of Northville, was instrumental in organization of the local chapter of Civitan.

Rabies Shot Change Noted

Area dog owners were reminded this week of a new state law requiring rabies vaccinations extending throughout the period covered by the dog license.

According to a spokesman for the Oakland County animal division, the law means that when a dog owner presents certification of vaccination in order to obtain a license the certification must cover the full period of the license.

"For example, if the license covers the period of March to December 31, the vaccination must be good for at least through December 31."

This is particularly important to remember, he said, because licensing periods in Oakland and Wayne County are different.

In Novi and Wixom, licenses purchased now are good through December 31, 1972. Deadline for obtaining licenses without penalty in those two communities is March 1 at a cost of $1 for males and $2 for females.

After March 1 the fee increases to $5 for males and $7.50 for females.

In the city of Northville, deadline for purchase of licenses is May 31. A license costs $2, for either sex, and extends through May 31, 1973. There is no penalty fee.

In Northville Township, the fee also is $2 for the May, 1972 through May 73 period, but a $2 penalty fee is charged after the May 31 deadline.

Under the new state law, certification of vaccination in the city and township of Northville must extend through May, 1973.

VIP Group Meeting Set

First VIP Committee meeting of the year is set for 8 p.m. Monday, February 21, at the Northville board of education offices, 303 West Main Street.

Composed of representatives from each major subdivision in the school district, churches, student body, government and community groups, the committee is entering its third year of existence.

The committee functions as a sounding board and public relations liaison between the school board and community.

On the agenda for the group's first meeting are discussions of the proposed voluntary experimental year-round school program, the April 8 bond issue, scope of the next major school building program and budget needs for 1972-73 school year.

Fish Hatchery Park

City OK's Lease

An agreement with the township to finance, develop and operate the Fish Hatchery property as a park received city council approval Monday night.

The agreement was approved by the township board earlier.

Council members suggested only one amendment—a provision that should the township exercise its option to acquire half ownership in the property such action will not affect the township's obligation to share expenses.

The agreement calls for the city to lease one-half interest in the property to the township for 99 years, with the township allowed anytime after making the first payment ($25,000 before August 31) to purchase one-half interest for $1.

To obtain an interest in the site, the township would have to conduct an election since the township cannot purchase property without a vote of the people.

In other business Monday, the council granted approval for erection of fencing around the property line of the Eastlawn Convalescent Home. The fence will block off unused road right-of-ways to the home, but permission to do so does not relinquish the city's ownership of these right-of-ways, it was emphasized.

A meeting with John Carlo, executive manager of the Northville Downs, is to be held soon to discuss a proposal by Carlo that motorcycle racing be permitted at the Downs on Saturday night, May 27.

Approval to permit ALSAC to solicit funds in the city on September 15 and 16 was given by the council.

Similarly, a request to solicit April 14 to 28 by the American Cancer Society was approved. A request by the Council for Community Concerns, based in Plymouth, that it be made the official drug abuse coordinating agency for Northville's drug abuse agency, DARTE, for recommendation.

Building Addition Stirs Controversy

Can the state force a business to expand?

That question is at the center of a controversy brought to the council table Monday by Planning Commission Chairman C. Thomas Wheaton.

It involves a request of the Northville Convalescent Center for permit to build an addition to the rear of the facility.

The request originally was submitted to the planning commission. Subsequently, planners approved it. Later, however, when it was noted that the business (not the building) is non-conforming, planners were advised that the matter should properly go to the board of appeals rather than being handled by the planning commission. Upon this advice planners rescinded their earlier approval.

Planners later were surprised and upset upon learning a building permit had been issued by City Manager Frank Ollendorff without the matter going to the board of appeals.

Wheaton said his purpose in appearing at the council was to alert councilmen of what had transpired "because you are going to hear about this and you should know what it's about."

Ollendorff explained that he had issued the permit, upon the advice of the attorney, because (1) under city ordinance such a permit may be issued if such an addition is required by law, and (2) because a letter from the state licensing division requiring the addition had been issued.

Copies of the letter are to be sent to each planner, but it was unavailable at Monday's meeting (it was in the attorney's office).

According to Ollendorff, the letter requires the addition to upgrade existing facilities at the convalescent home. He said he had been unaware of the ordinance provision but, upon receipt of the letter and upon advice of the attorney, saw no recourse but to issue the building permit.

Obviously upset because neither he or other members of the commission had yet seen the letter, Wheaton questioned the right of a state inspection agency to order an addition. "They may require that improvements be made but I seriously doubt they can require an addition," he said.

City Attorney Phillip Ogilvie concurred with Ollendorff.

Without questioning the manager's action, Councilman Paul Vernon shared Wheaton's skepticism. He reasoned that if a non-conforming business can be expanded without approval by the board of appeals because of compelling circumstances, it could be argued that a family living in a non-conforming house could demand permission to build an addition to accommodate an increased number of children—a compelling circumstance.

Ollendorff said he, too, had originally thought the matter should go to the appeals board. Furthermore, when told that the Center was being forced to either expand or close down, he said he was skeptical. But later, upon reviewing the ordinance receiving the letter and speaking with state officials, he concluded he had to issue the permit.

Ollendorff conceded that had he fully advised the planners earlier of the situation the conflict with the commission probably could have been avoided.

Husband, Father, Good Neighbor

Here's Our Top '72 Valentines

By JEAN DAY

A husband and a father share top valentine honors with a woman who is a good neighbor and friend in this newspaper's 1972 Favorite Valentine contest.

For the second year, men claimed two of the winning honors in Northville-Novri and Brighton areas. South Lyon's valentine winner this year is the woman who nominated the winner in last year's contest. All three winners will be guests of the Sliger newspapers at dinner out for two.

While men were two of the three top valentines, most of the letter writers were women with eight mothers also being nominated as Favorite Valentines. Perhaps mothers just are expected to do good deeds.

Brighton Argus area's Favorite Valentine is a 25-year-old husband who is paralyzed from the waist down as the result of an accident in June.

Gary Kulpa was nominated by his wife, who wrote: "Since he has been rehabilitated, he has struggled hard to get around and to do the things he used to do so easily. Soon he will get leg braces and will again struggle to achieve his goal—to walk."

"After that he will be faced with finding a job he can do to support our three-year-old son and myself. He has worked hard and gone through a lot of disappointment but has never given up."

Mrs. Kulpa concludes, "To me, he is a very, very special Valentine. I'm very proud to be Mrs. Gary Kulpa." We agree.

South Lyon Herald's winning valentine also has been an inspiration to others while battling illness. Mary Baker was nominated by her friend and neighbor, Karen Slevoski, who wrote that she always had time to work in her church and help friends even though she "has had arthritis since she was young...there are days when her knees are swollen and she is in a lot of pain...but she keeps going, helping people, never complaining about herself."

"I admire her strength and unselfishness," she concludes as she relates how Mrs. Baker has been in charge of dinners, taught Sunday School and headed rummage sales at the Methodist church and how "when there's been an illness or death in the family Mary manages to get a casserole over right away." When the Herald called last weekend to tell Mrs. Baker she was a Winning Valentine, it learned she was in the hospital. So this valentine should cheer her as she has so many others!

BRIGHTON WINNER—Gary Kulpa, paralyzed from the waist down, was nominated by his wife because "he has never given up." Here he appears with three-year-old son Gary, Jr.

Northville's winning Favorite Valentine was nominated by his "littlest girl, Jenny, who loves him more than anything in the world."

This tribute was paid to Damon Lindley by his daughter, who called long distance from Ferris State College in Big Rapids (where she is a freshman) to make sure her entry was received on time.

"How can one explain the love between a girl and her father? How can I tell how my father has given me the gift of joy?...No matter how

Second in Publicity But Not as Fun Sport

With all the focus on skiing lately, skating has had to take a back seat, at least publicity wise. But skating still has to be one of the most exhilarating sports, with appeal to old and young alike.

If anybody has any doubt about the merits of skating, one has only to watch the skating competition at the winter Olympics in Sapporo, Japan. There's speed skating and hockey for those who like the more manly aspect of the sport, and there's figure skating for those who see in skating a certain grace and beauty.

In speed skating, it's the rhythmic, muscular coordination of superbly conditioned athletes, much akin to the runner in track who pits himself against time and other competitors. Hockey involves leg and arm coordination and skating finesse.

In figure skating, the emphasis is on mastery of movement and less so, muscular superiority and conditioning. What the skater tries to do is combine athletic prowess and the beauty of ballet, set to the tune of music.

These are the finer points of skating that few of us achieve. But you don't have to be an expert to enjoy the sport. It demands little in the way of money and facilities.

My skating experience, I assume, is typical of most others. You started when you were old enough to walk with some self-assurance. Aside from that, the only prerequisite was a pair of skates, normally the two-blade-per-skate kind, and some below freezing temperatures.

Weekends and after school it was off to the local rink. If the rink was snow covered, you and several friends dragged scrapers along to clear the ice. You didn't notice the cold. You were too busy accomplishing your objective.

And when the snow was removed, what then? Games of tag, throwing snow balls, "the whip" with you on the end skating like hell to keep on your feet, a "sit-down" in the snow piled high around the rink.

Then you became aware of girls and the sport of skating took on additional glamour. You could skate after a girl and push her in the snow bank, speed around the ice hoping she was looking, or chase her with snow balls in hand—and not give away your liking for the one with the rosy cheeks.

Graduation time comes on skates, just as it does from high school. But the former comes much earlier, like when you're 13. You go to the colonial skateland, a large, indoor rink, where girls and boys go to skate to music.

You're still timid, however, so you fool around with the guys over in the corner, never paying attention to the other sex, except, perhaps, to give her a shove, or to reluctantly but gladly join in "the whip."

Even when the night of skating was over, the aura and glamour of the ice and the crisp air held sway. You went home, where mom had hot chocolate and buttered crackers—for dipping, of course—waiting beside that warm fireplace.

Tools to Correct Prison Inmates in The Works

A great hurdle facing officials of the state correctional system has always been lack of all the tools they really need to "correct" the people put in their custody. The public was never convinced the cost was justified.

Even under the best of conditions, helping a person in jail is a tough job. By the time he winds up in the state prison system, he's demonstrated to other people that he can't make it on the outside. For some reason or other he can't live in harmony with his fellow man.

Most of the inmates lack even the equivalent of a high school education and have no training for work of any kind.

To "correct" them, then, prison officials must educate them both to work at a job and to live peacefully with other people.

NOW, IN MICHIGAN, steps are being taken to construct what prison officials say will be a "true correctional institution" in Muskegon. When it's done, the medium security facility will have room for 600 prisoners, who will be divided up into five 120-man groups.

"I don't think there will be anything like it," says State Corrections Director Gus Harrison. "It will be an extremely progressive program—what we feel should be done in a correctional institution."

Present plans call for the inmates assigned to the unit to be between the ages of 17 and 24 with IQ's in the 80 to 100 range. In addition, they will be men "whose behavior is not so assaultive or disruptive as to require the maximum security placement of the reformatory."

MOST OF THESE MEN have underlying problems in very basic areas of behavior and performance," Harrison says. "They lack motivation and impulse control, and have attitudes that are ultimately self-destructive as well as dangerous to others."

To change this, a counseling program will be set up and plans specify: "counseling is being increasingly recognized as essential to any effective total treatment program."

MOST UNIQUE PART of the new prison, perhaps, is a self-analysis system built right into its operations.

"We will build in at the outset the capability to research what we are doing," says Harrison. "This has been one of the weaknesses of the past—we haven't been able to reevaluate our own programs as they are initiated."

THE NEW PRISON will attempt to work on every aspect of the inmate's profile in hopes of turning him into a useful citizen.

It is this total approach which Harrison favors.

"So many people think all you have to do is change one thing and corrections can be an automatic thing," he says. "But that just isn't the way it is and anybody who's worked in the field knows that. You're dealing with a hard core of people by the time you get to the penitentiary and there are no easy answers."

He and his staff are hoping, however, that the Muskegon prison may provide some of the not so easy answers.

STATE HEALTH OFFICIALS say they have been given a new weapon in the fight to detect and eradicate the most prevalent of the illnesses lumped under the classification "venereal disease"—gonorrhea.

The state Bureau of Laboratories now is handling a new method which allows the swabbing of live bacteria from a patient and the sending of the bacteria in a carbon dioxide filled jar to the state laboratory.

PREVIOUSLY, only examination of smears for dead bacteria could be done as a practical procedure and this failed to detect many women carrying the disease.

Communicable Disease Control Chief Dr. Donald Coohoon sees the new method as a breakthrough in the fight against VD.

"When you realize that gonorrhea is the most commonly reported communicable disease in Michigan and the nation, and that an estimated 90 per cent of the infected females don't even realize they have the disease, you can see how significant this new diagnostic tool is," he said.

Babson Report

DDT: Battle Casualty

WELLESLEY HILLS, MASS.

What was once the routine use of chemicals to control insects has turned into a pitched battle between the environmentalists and the chemical companies. Those opposing the use of chemicals, particularly the chlorinated products, have managed to bring on the almost total demise of the universally known DDT insecticides in the United States.

This group claims that there is a clear and present danger in the rapid rate at which DDT and other chemical insecticides in heavy use have been accumulating and poisoning our environment.

On the other side of the fence are the insecticide advocates. They contend that there is even greater danger for humanity in the rate at which mosquitoes, grasshoppers, and other pests can spread disease and ravage crops, unless they are checked.

AS A STOPGAP chemical substitute for DDT and the family of chlorinated insecticides, organic phosphates have moved into the market. Although these products could capture 50 percent of the business by the middle of this

Vote Slated For 2 Offices

Wayne County voters will ballot as usual for the offices of County Clerk and Register of Deeds in this year's elections instead of voting for a new combined office of clerk-register.

The county board of commissioners voted February 3 to rescind a board resolution adopted in 1970, combining the two offices as of January 1, 1973. A state law permits that action.

Candidates would have run for the single office of clerk-register in this year's elections.

Wayne County Clerk Joseph B. Sullivan and Register of Deeds Bernard J. Youngblood contended the two offices should remain separate because of the differences in their duties and the large volume of work in both offices.

The register of deeds maintains records of all property transactions, while the county clerk supervises elections, provides record-keeping and staff for circuit court and keeps various other records. Sullivan argued that 75 percent of his work involves the court.

By a vote of 6-2, the county reorganization committee of the board of commissioners recommended that the offices remain separate.

The majority argued that constitutional elective offices should be changed only by a vote of the people, that no changes in the duties of the clerk should be made pending court reorganization by the state, and that no action should be taken pending the voters' decision on county home rule.

The board of commissioners has declared its intention to put home rule on the ballot in this year's elections.

Out of the Horse's Mouth

This column is open to news of all breeds of horses and ponies. Send your questions, comments, and horse show news to "Horse's Mouth", care of South Lyon Herald, South Lyon, MI 48178.

Nearly 200 persons attended the annual Justin Morgan Horse Association banquet at Salem Township Hall, January 29 and elected Robert Appling of Swartz Creek as president for the coming year.

James Darling of Howell is the new vice president and Edith Earhart of Northville, secretary-treasurer. Robert Driggs of Mason, Neal Feibel of Plymouth, Ralph Curtis of Oxford and Basil Hiner of Novi are the new members of the board of directors. Continuing directors are Walter Kand, David Batton, Joe Dunville and Frank Mendolia, all of South Lyon, and James Stickley of Webberville.

Nancy Lusk of South Lyon was in charge of arrangement for this year's dinner.

Morgan horse fanciers and horse lovers in general are reminded that the concluding segment of "Justin Morgan Had a Horse" will be televised on NBC-TV's "Wonderful World of Disney" this Sunday at 7:30 p.m.

The Runaway
by Robert Frost

Once when the snow of the year was beginning to fall,
We stopped by a mountain pasture to say, "Whose colt?"
A little Morgan had one forefoot on the wall,
The other curled at his breast. He dipped his head and snorted at us.
And then he had to bolt. We heard the miniature thunder where he fled,
And we saw him or thought we saw him, dim and gray,
Like a shadow against the curtain of falling flakes.
"I think the little fellow's afraid of the snow."
He isn't winter broken. It isn't play with the little fellow at all. He's running away.
I doubt if even his mother could tell him, "Sakes, it's only weather." He'd think she didn't know!
Where is his mother? He can't be out alone!
And now he comes again with clatter of stone,
And mounts the wall again with whited eyes
And all his tail that isn't hair up straight.
He shudders his coat as if to throw off flies.
"Whoever it is that leaves him out so late,
When other creatures have gone to stall and bin, Ought to be told to come and take him in."

This poem was written by Robert Frost while visiting the late Dr. Ruthven of Stannrigg Farms, in Ann Arbor.

On February 25 at 10:30 P.M. on channel 56 the movie "The Morgan Horse" narrated by James Cagney will be presented. This will be a one hour show on the breeding and versatility of the Morgan Horse.

Transplants

Offer No

Easy Answer

Is there a future for transplants?

Will organs someday be almost as easy to match up as whole blood for transfusions? Could everyone be tissue typed as well as blood typed in case he needed a transplant or could donate an organ at death?

The answer, so far as tissue matching is concerned, is no, according to a geneticist at The University of Michigan.

The existence once hoped for of "tissue twins" among unrelated humans is a myth, said Dr. Jan Klein, Ph.D., and therefore the wide use of organ transplants, with the possible exceptions of the kidneys, is a practical impossibility until a means of evading the body's defenses is found.

Immunosuppressant drugs now given transplant patients are not the longterm answer, Dr. Klein said, because of their strong side effects and the fact that the patient is left with little protection from ordinary infection.

Humans apparently are far too different in their antigen-antibody defense systems to permanently overcome with

Conformity Or The Cross of Christ

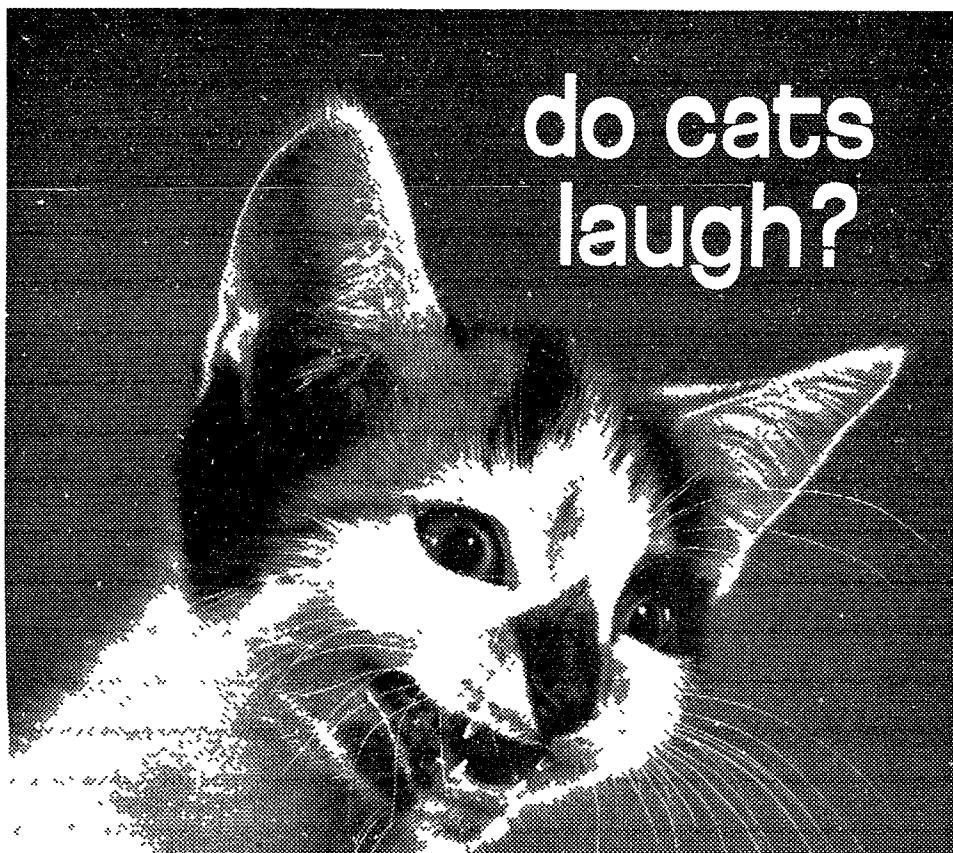

Rev. James H. Green
South Lyon
The Church of God of Prophecy

The restless, searching youth of our modern nation, and of other nations of the world today are often criticized for their different approach toward our long-accepted customs and traditions. Cherished ideals have become so deeply rooted in the hearts of many until they would quickly defend them; even at the loss of family members, and sometimes life itself. The tragedy of this situation is that often the loser refuses any research concerning these values. While it is true that many of these ideals will never fail to bless those who respect them, yet so many customs and traditions are no more necessary than the most heathenistic processes. Many of the youth of our day may well find the higher meanings in life which have so long been rejected by a power and status-mad throng in modern civilization.

Hypocritical pretense allegedly ranks near the top in the despicable traits so loudly denounced by the demonstrators and other outspoken "revolutionists" advertised far and wide. While the common form of hypocrisy is indeed one of the worst means of "cop-out", yet narcotics and illegitimate physical relations coupled with old-fashioned laziness are no better by any means.

Whether youth or senior citizen, this excellent truth from the Holy Bible; recorded in Proverbs 21:2: "Every way of a man is right in his own eyes: but the Lord pondereth the hearts," very efficiently describes all age levels of every era of time. It seems wise to bear in mind that man in many respects appears basically the same through any era of time; whether in the famed Greek culture of old or modern America of today. There remains within man of every culture an insatiable desire to understand those mysteries through life which can only be seen in their proper light if one has good understanding and spiritual insight. Possibly some mysteries are never fully comprehended by the understanding of humanity in this life however, the deepest longings of the heart can be satisfied in a new birth of the Spirit of God. This great truth is best explained through the words of Jesus Christ in Saint John 3:3,7: "Jesus answered and said unto him, verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the Kingdom of God." "Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born again."

We don't mean to offend any cat-lover, but we don't believe cats laugh.

Laughter is a muscular response to appreciated humor. And we're inclined to view humor as one of those high-level responses which are characteristic in humans only. And thank the Lord for humor. Without laughter this would be a sorry world.

Religion is another human characteristic not evident in animals. Our belief in and worship of God, coupled with our conscientious effort to live according to moral principles — these are not found in the animal world.

Whether cats laugh is not a question of great moment. But whether man is living up to the religious capacity God has given him is another matter. Our awakening to our spiritual potential is a great moment!

Here's Our Top 1972 'Favorite Valentines'

large or small my problem may be, I know my father will always be there to listen and comfort and, above all, understand."

The Northville Record-Novi News winning letter concludes "On this Valentine's Day I would like my father to realize that no matter what happens his littlest girl, Jenny loves him..."

Other worthy Northville-Novi area Favorite Valentine nominees include a father, a mother, a teacher who also coaches Novi High School's girls basketball team, and a school secretary in Northville.

"I'd like to nominate my husband—WELDON SMILEY—as a special valentine," wrote Evelyn Smiley, 43943 Cottisford.

"Talk about doing little things that make life pleasant, doing good deeds cheerfully and helping others, that's him. Not only that but he's an A No. 1 father and a great husband."

Mrs. Smiley relates how her husband spends extra time with their three children as she is a musician with outside engagements, how he is "always ready to help friends and is a father-friend to many neighborhood boys."

The Novi Girls' Varsity wrote to tell how MRS. NORLEEN CHADWICK, a teacher and cheerleading coach at Novi Middle School, became coach of the Novi High girls' basketball "so we could have a team."

"She has done a fine job as coach and we would like her to know just how much we appreciate her. She is a good worker and an asset to the community." They add that she had had only one year of experience with basketball but was willing to help.

BETTY WILLING (Mrs. M. J.), secretary at Main Street Elementary School in Northville, was nominated by Miss Ada Fritz, a fifth grade teacher, who writes:

"Tirelessly she accommodates teachers, students, parents and administrators daily. She does so many thoughtful philanthropic deeds that seem to pass unnoticed. We love her for her constant friendliness, cheerfulness and help."

JUDI LANDAU, 201 Fairbrook, Northville, nominated her mother, as did many appreciative youngsters.

"My mother is my Favorite Valentine. She is always nice to everyone. She helps out our family by doing things for us, such as taking us places and picking us up, and much more."

Best of all, we have our own time together, we go roller skating. The main thing is, she tries to fulfill our every need and doesn't think of herself."

Many young people in the Brighton area wrote or printed notes to recommend their mothers as Favorite Valentines. Among the eight mothers nominated was seven-year-old HEATHER WINCHEL'S mother.

Heather, 5441 Daniel Drive, neatly printed her note, which she illustrated with a colorful heart and picture: "My Special Valentine is someone who cares for me. Someone who loves me even when I'm bad. Someone who helps me learn. Takes care of me when I'm sick. My Mother!"

"I would like to nominate MRS. D. DRABIK," writes her daughter on stationery with a pretty pink bird. "She works so we can have some fun. She has six children, but she keeps the house running and her job."

MARY FOWLES, an "understanding, loving and nice" mother, is nominated by her daughter, Esther, who says, "If it wasn't for her, I wouldn't have a bed to sleep in, clothes to wear or a nice warm house to come into when it's cold. I think my mother is a sweet woman. I don't know what I'd do without my mother."

SCOTT MEHRING's mother was named by him "because she has a big heart, and she is a very good cook. I get almost everything I want."

MARTHA LAVEY is nominated by her daughter, Kathy, who notes that "she is the best cook in the whole town...My Valentine will make a pie or a cake or a batch of cookies anytime you ask her to. She does everything for everybody."

Another mother named as a good cook is BETTY STEIN, whose daughter, Lynn Eimers, writes that she also "does sweet things and she likes everyone."

MRS. DORIS BREJAK was chosen as her Favorite Valentine by Sandy Brejak "because she loves me, my four brothers, my little sister and my Dad! She cooks for us all. When I get hurt she takes care of me."

DEBBIE CHANYI writes that her valentine is "my Mom...she is the best mother I ever had. Every time any of us do anything wrong she yells at us to show that she really cares about us. Whenever anybody needs any help, she helps."

"Paul, my brother," is nominated by LEE MINSHULL as his valentine. He writes: "He helps me with my work, plays with me and does very nice things for me."

LEONARD FARMER is the Favorite Valentine of Kathy Maydock, who writes that the man who "runs the Lakeview Roller Rink" is always telling people to smile. "If I'm ever gloomy, he cheers me up. He's the best!"

From Pinckney comes the valentine nomination of DONALD OLESKI because "Every month he can be seen at the Martin Luther Home in South Lyon entertaining the ladies and gentlemen who are living there."

MRS. LINDA MC NEIR, seventh grade teacher at St. Patrick School in Brighton, is nominated by one of her students, who writes, "Every morning she brightens up our classroom with a cheery smile. She is willing to give her time and attention to anyone who needs extra help... (she's) one of the few teachers who make students want to learn. She is concerned with our personal problems as well as school troubles."

Another teacher, MRS. LINDA MERTZ, was named by Patricia Barrett, who reports that her fourth grade teacher is "what you would call a do-gooder. She has given me many books and even invited me to dinner once. She is a nature lover, and she is a conservation person."

A best friend, DEBBIE CHANYI, was named as a Favorite Valentine by Lori Knight who reports that they have fun together and that Debbie sometimes helps with a problem when she's stuck. "I like her and she likes me," she says, summing up their friendship.

KRIS BAUCHAUT, who's "Kind, sweet, neat and helps everybody in every way," was nominated by Tracey Dietrich, a Brighton fifth grader.

"My Valentine's name is BRENDA DOAN," writes Cindy Hayter, who tells how she is "quiet and playful, nice and kind."

Parents, a retired school teacher and a father were other South Lyon nominations for Favorite Valentine this year.

MR. and MRS. WILFORD COGAR are wished a Happy Valentine's Day by their children and grandchildren. "They aren't just parents, they are a very special couple. We want to send them this special wish for being so kind, loving, helpful and thoughtful to us, as well as everyone around them. We want to say 'thank you' for all you have done. You are the 'greatest'."

ROY HOSKINS was chosen by his daughter, Kathy, who writes, "My favorite person has got to be my father. He's helped me when times got bad. If I couldn't have depended on him when I didn't know if I was going to make it, I probably wouldn't have made it this far."

"I love him more than anyone I've ever met," concludes Kathy who wrote a verse for "my beautiful father."

A retired teacher, FLORENCE HICKOK, who has become volunteer executive director of the Big Sisters in South Lyon, was selected as a Favorite Valentine by Kay L. Peters, who writes to explain how "she retired not to sit and rock but to help make 11 girls in the community happier."

GI Loans

Set Record

A 14-year high in the number of GI home loans guaranteed was recorded in 1971.

Donald E. Johnson, administrator of Veterans Affairs, said the 284,000 home loans okayed by the Veterans Administration in 1971 exceeded the 1970 total of 167,000 by 70 percent, and represented the best year since 1957.

In Michigan, R. M. Fitzgerald, director of the VA regional office in Detroit, said 8,802 home loans were approved for Michigan veterans in 1971. This compares with 5,245 approved loans in 1970.

Symphony Delight

'Old and New' Motif Chosen

A unique musical juxtaposition of old and new, Oriental and Occidental is the motif for a Detroit Symphony Orchestra Kaleidoscope Concert to be given at Ford Auditorium on Friday evening, February 18 at 8 o'clock.

Under the direction of Symphony associate conductor Pierre Hetu, the program will include the first Detroit performance of Japanese composer Toru Takemitsu's "November Steps"

Two of Japan's most distinguished instrumentalists will be heard in solo roles in this performance. They are Kinshi Tsuruta, playing the ancient eastern "biwa" which resembles a lute, and Katsya Yokoyama, playing the ancient bamboo flute known as "shakuhachi". The composition itself, written in 1967, uses these two historic eastern instruments in a concerto-like way within a modern western orchestral setting.

J.S. Bach's Brandenburg Concerto No. 4 in G major, which will be heard with concertmaster Gordon Staples and flutists Ervin Monroe and Shaul Ben-Meir in solo roles, will appear in the same program next to American composer Lukas Foss' "Phorian" (from "Baroque Variations") which he wrote in 1967 as a contemporary impression of the J S Bach style.

American composer Earle Brown's 1961 composition "Available Forms I," which is a series of musical events that may be changed or modified according to the performers' own feelings, will appear for the first time on a Detroit Symphony program.

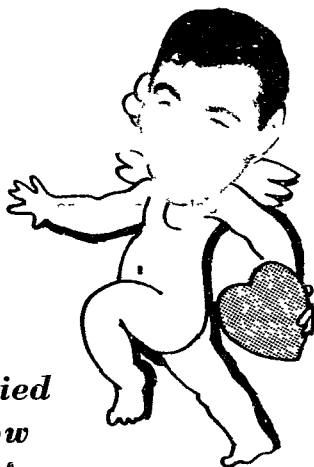

The popular "Bolero" by Maurice Ravel also will be performed

Tickets from $2.50 to $5.50, all available at half-price for students are now at Ford Auditorium Box Office (961-0700).

The event will be the last of three Kaleidoscope Concerts scheduled during the Orchestra's 1971-72 season. The programs are designed for the modern, "uninhibited listener" and have been an unusual hit with students and young adults.

John Wilson has been accused of tugging at the heartstrings of potential customers with terrific deals on his Ford and Mercurys.

These rumors can be denied but Wilson refuses to show anyone his Valentine list!!
