

It's still too early to spot the "new look" but as workmen began stripping the interior and making initial alterations inside and out last week, owners of the former Methodist Church, located at the southwest corner of Center and Dunlap streets, crossed their fingers and hoped for a late November or early December for the new restaurant-cocktail lounge to be housed in the building. Much of the building will remain intact, although it will be given an Early English motif—in keeping with its name, The Drawbridge.

Public Hearing Set

A public hearing to review proposed plans for Maybury State Park in Northville Township will be held September 28, at Schoolcraft Community College, a spokesman for the Michigan Department of Natural Resources disclosed this week.

"The hearing will be the first of two to be held to get some public input," said Larry Miller of the DNR.

Maybury, an 865 acre parcel, was purchased from the City of Detroit by the DNR. It formerly housed one of the world's most widely acclaimed TB sanatoriums.

Second hearing has been tentatively set in October. It is to be held in Detroit.

Although the format for hearing has not yet been formalized, Miller said it is likely DNR will open the meetings by detailing "plans we have in mind for the park. After we're finished we'll probably invite written comments from the audience as to any changes or deletions they may wish to make."

Following the hearings and after review of the comments by the public, DNR staffers will prepare a final master plan for presentation to the DNR commission for approval, modification or rejection.

With the final master plan in hand, the matter of obtaining the funds for implementation will be the next step, Miller said.

However, probably before that time the first phase of park development—razing of existing buildings on the property, located between Seven and Eight Mile roads west of Beck, and complete fencing of the property will begin.

The legislature approved an appropriation of $378,000 for the park earlier this summer. These funds will cover demolition of the former TB sanatorium buildings, general cleanup of the property, fences, road development and additional park planning.

The appropriated money comes from a state recreation bond issue approved by the voters in 1968.

Miller declined to predict when actual development of the park will begin. Razing of the buildings and the fencing, however, will likely be completed within a year. "Once the fencing is up and we have personnel at the park we may open it on a limited basis during development for such things as hiking and perhaps picnics."

Presently, the DNR is polishing its park proposals to be unveiled to the public on September 28. Unless they are changed they are likely to provide—

At Annexation Hearing

Who Will Take Township's Side?

Who will present the township's side before the boundary commission when it meets Tuesday, August 29, at Northville High School?

After nearly one hour of debate Tuesday night, township trustees failed to resolve the question.

A motion to ask a representative of the Michigan Township Association (MTA) to speak on why the township should remain a township failed in a tie vote.

Clerk Eleanor Hammond, Trustees Richard Mitchell and Charles Schaeffer voted for the motion and Supervisor Gunnar Stromberg, Treasurer Joseph Straub and Trustee Bernard Baldwin voted against the matter. Trustee Leonard Klein was absent.

A proposal by Stromberg to authorize him to find someone not connected with townships to speak for the township failed to materialize in the form of a motion. The supervisor said he had considered contacting Southeastern Michigan Council of Governments.

Visibly upset over the board's lack of action was Clerk Hammond. She said, "I want the township's side for remaining a township spoken too."

"What will it look like when the city gets up and presents its views for 20 minutes and then no one gets up to present the township's views?" she questioned.

Straub adamantly opposed the township board having any part in obtaining a speaker against annexation.

"We represent people in the township who are for annexation, too. We (the Board) should not get involved. Let the people opposed to annexation get their own speaker," he said.

Stromberg asked Clerk Hammond if she would speak for the township.

"I would like to," she stated, "but in fairness to the people who will remain here, I should not be the one."

Mrs. Hammond, who did not seek re-election, will be moving from the township in November.

Baldwin asked, "Why do we have reason to defend township government? Whether the township is annexed by the city or whether we remain a township, there will be a substantial tax increase."

"The people must decide whether now is the time for cooperation or not," Baldwin explained. "If service needs are real, then we should be looking at some type of cooperation, be it annexation, unification or consolidation."

He said he was looking at "what's best for the community in future years."

"Can you say annexation or consolidation of any type is dead wrong? There is no difference in the type of people in the township than in the city," he noted.

Mitchell commented that the township should have a speaker. "I ran opposed to annexation and won nomination," Stromberg asked if he would like to represent the township, and Mitchell said he would be willing to ask someone from the MTA to do it.

"The MTA could give us someone who is not involved, someone impartial and we could supply him with the facts," Mitchell commented.

Upon questioning from Baldwin, Mitchell said that even if the township remains a township "there will be an increase in taxes for services people want."

Baldwin asked if he was opposed to cooperation with the city and Mitchell said he "might agree with consolidation but not annexation."

"You're arguing the

Property Owners Eye Drain Plan Alternative

Hoping to head off ditching of the proposed Randolph Drain improvement project, property owners last week urged engineers to go ahead with a flood plain easement study as earlier ordered by the inter-county drain board.

"At issue is the portion of the drain between Eight-Taft roads to Center Street where, if current plans are carried out, widening and deepening of the drain are proposed."

Property owners along this stretch of the stream see this ditching as both unnecessary and ecologically damaging. Their property values, they argue, will be destroyed and their property values adversely affected.

They learned last week, to their dismay, that the proposed new ditch will be four-feet deep and 30-feet wide at the top, 18 feet wide at the bottom. Most of it is to be seeded, with sections riffraffed with rock.

Apparently, the lone economically feasible alternative, according to representatives of the engineering firm, Johnson & Anderson, is to establish a flood plain easement. (1 & A was retained by the drain board to develop improvement plans).

Such an easement, engineers believe, would encompass a considerably wider area on which no future building could take place. While it would mean that ditching would be unnecessary and that the present stream base would be maintained, the additional easement could possibly be economically damaging to some property owners.

Nevertheless, upon learning of ditching plans, property owners urged the flood plain study to be made so that they will know specifically the width of such an easement and how it would affect each property owner.

Cost of the study has been estimated at upwards of $4,000, which would become part of the overall drain improvement cost even if it is decided later to go ahead with the ditching without implementing a flood plain easement.

NEWS BRIEFS

MINI-BIKE complaints may soon end in the township. Tuesday night, trustees approved an ordinance providing for registration and regulation of motorized vehicles, including mini-bikes, not covered by state laws. The ordinance, which takes effect September 23, says the motorized vehicles must be registered with the township, can only be operated on the owner's land or with written permission of the owner, between 9 a.m. and 7 p.m. and 500 feet or more from the nearest residence.

PUBLIC HEARINGS on three rezoning petitions, rescheduled from August 7, will be held Monday at the Northville city hall beginning at 8 p.m. They involve: Professional office rezoning of three lots on North Center Street opposite Chatham supermarket; commercial rezoning for a lot on South Center, south of Cady; and multiples rezoning for property on Randolph Street west of Center.

DON'T LOOK NOW but the summer vacation's nearing an end and regular classes will resume soon in Northville and Novi schools. Next week The Record will publish its annual back-to-school edition, containing information to assist parents and students as they prepare for the opener.

UPDATED material concerning projected costs of consolidation versus separate city and township are to be given city and township officials late this week. A spokesman for the Citizens Research Council of Michigan, retained by the city and township to update a 1968 study, said Friday work was nearly complete and data would be turned over to local officials by this weekend. The non-profit agency is doing its work at no cost to either the city or township.

TOWNSHIP PLANNERS will meet Wednesday, August 30, at 8 p.m. in the township offices. The meeting was rescheduled to avoid conflict with the Boundary Commission public hearing on annexation of the township which will be held at 8 p.m. Tuesday, August 29, in Northville High auditorium.

Center Street Asphalting Near

Resurfacing of Center Street and Seven Mile roads is likely to begin within the next two weeks, spokesmen for the contractor told The Record Saturday.

The projects involve Center, from Base Line to Cady streets, and Seven Mile, from Clement to Ridge Road.

Contractor for these two projects, assigned by the Wayne County Road Commission as part of an overall county road improvement project, is Macomb Concrete Corporation.

Both projects, according to the county, call for two layers of asphalt.

During construction, no detouring of traffic is planned. However, traffic interruption is possible, with one lane being open at all times.

Meeting Set For Bowlers

The annual fall meeting of the Women's Thursday Night Bowling League has been scheduled here Thursday, August 24.

Purpose of the meeting, league spokesmen explained, is to establish local rules governing league play during the upcoming bowling season.

The meeting will get underway at 7 p.m. in the Northville Lanes Meeting House.

All women who plan to become members of the league for the 1972-73 season are asked to attend the meeting. Any woman wishing to join a team or substitute in the league should call either June King (349-0962) during the day, or Ira Bauer (453-6592) after 5 p.m.

Couples Exchange Wedding Vows

Profitt—Kelm

A wedding trip to Mackinac Island followed the July 29 marriage of Jessica Lee Profitt to David Allen Kelm.

The Reverend Lee Baltzer of Kenwood Church of Christ in Livonia performed the double ring evening ceremony by candlelight.

Parents of the couple are Mr. Mrs. Charles Craig of 48129 West Road in Wixom and Mr. and Mrs. McKinley Kelm of Detroit.

Given in marriage by Chester Profitt of Novi, the bride wore a white lace floor length gown trimmed in pastel pink. Small pink rose buds accented the wrist length sleeves. She carried a bouquet of carnations and pink sweetheart roses.

Jeannie Daves of South Lyon, sister of the bride, was honor attendant. She wore a cotton candy pink floor length gown and carried a basket of pink and white daisies with pink and purple streamers.

Sister of the bridegroom, Ksena Kelm, served as flowergirl, in a soft pastel pink floor length gown trimmed in daisies. She carried a basket of pink and white daisies trimmed in purple.

Michael Smith of Livonia served as best man while Kevin Smith and Kinley Kelm seated guests.

Carolyn Brown of Livonia, cousin of the bridegroom, played the theme from "Love Story" on the organ.

Following the ceremony, a reception for 100 guests was held at the VFW Hall in Wixom.

The bride is employed as a hairdresser at salon Rene in Northville and her husband by Irving Furniture Company in Livonia. They will make their home in Northville.

Girls Off For Sweden

The John Linemans, of East Chigwidden, and the Joe Traudt family of Debra Lane said goodbye on Tuesday to visitors from Sweden. The families hosted Marianne Johansson and Marie Carmo, respectively, during their 10 week stay in Northville.

The Linemans became acquainted with Marianne's family while in Sweden on business. The girls, both 17, wanted to come to America and stay with an American family to learn more of American life.

Debra Jeane Smith and Perry Keith Branim were married in an afternoon double ring ceremony July 29 at the Plymouth Assembly of God Church.

The Reverend Warren Tyler performed the marriage.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Smith of 47872 West Seven Mile Road and Mrs. Richard Dean of Plymouth and Monroe Branim of Ypsilanti.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an A-line empire gown of champagne silk organza with a high neckline and long puffed sleeves.

Lace and pearls were applied on the bodice, skirt and sleeves of the gown.

Her long veil was held by a lace and beaded headpiece and she carried a bouquet of daisies, Figi mums and sweetheart roses.

Connie Smith, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Robin Fulton of Brighton, Joyce Caksackkar of Plymouth and Kathy Fulton of Bitely, Michigan.

They wore matching floor length gowns of chiffon, each in a different pastel color.

Garden hats trimmed with long streamers accented their dresses.

Larry Branim, brother of the bridegroom, served as best man. The ushers were Brian Baker and Bob Greer of Northville and Bill Dean, stepbrother of the bridegroom.

Buster Brashers, nephew of the bridegroom, was ring bearer.

A reception was held at the United Methodist Church of Plymouth for 160 guests.

The couple traveled to Niagara Falls, Canada, for their wedding trip and are living in Plymouth.

Both are 1971 graduates of Northville High School.

Often one of the most fascinating styles of dress to make is the simple princess-style costume. Whether you make your princess a tight-fitting or a curvaceous experience, there is something about its gentle curves which make the princess style most pleasing to look at. Of course, the trick to making a princess-style dress look high-class is all in the fit. Always try the pattern on before cutting. Make alterations that will flatter your figure; and when sewing the dress together, try it on often. Then you will be able to gauge the seams more carefully.

For just the right pattern and fabric to flatter your figure, let the experienced salespeople at SPINNING WHEEL FABRIC SHOP, 146 E. Main St., Northville, 319-1910 help you with your selection. And we have the most complete selection of fine name-brand fabrics in the area, competitively priced. Choose from up-to-date fashion patterns by McCall, Vogue, Butterick and Simplicity. ### Schoolcraft Opens Day Center for Tots Mothers who have small children at home need not let that keep them from attending classes at Schoolcraft College this fall because the Day Care Center is now a permanent service at the College.

The center accepts children ages 2-5, and is open from 7:45 a.m. until 5 p.m. on all class days. It will continue to operate in the Pilgrim United Church of Christ on Seven Mile Road in Livonia.

Costs at the Day Care Center involve a $5 semester registration fee for each participating family, and hourly charge of .60 cents for each child. Enrollment forms are available at the office of Vice President Edward McNally on the Schoolcraft campus, or may be obtained at registration times.

Registration for the fall semester will be held August 21 and 22, with classes starting on August 24th.

The Day Care Center operated last year on a trial basis and proved so successful that it has been established by Schoolcraft's Board of Trustees as a permanent service at the College.

There is a limit to the numbers of children that the center can accommodate hourly, and placement is on a first come basis.

News Around Northville

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence A. Lughtman, 551 Orchard Drive, recently returned from a seven country tour with the Bloomfield Hills Chorale.

The Chorale, under the direction of Lughtman, performed in Belgium, Holland, Switzerland, Austria, Germany and France. Climax of the tour was the Chorale's participation in the Anglo-International Music Festival in Coventry, England.

The vacationing Sam Volpe family of 1642, Old Salem visited Mt. Rushmore National Memorial during their recent trip to the Black Hills of South Dakota. They spent four days sightseeing in the hills and found only isolated areas affected by the Rapid City flood earlier this summer.

A backyard Carnival Against Dystrophy is planned August 26 at 218 South Ely Drive.

Staging the carnival, as a means of raising funds for research and patient service programs of Muscular Dystrophy Associations of America, Georgia Hawkey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Forest D. Hawkey, is thousands of young people throughout the United States participating in the program.

The carnival, beginning at 10 a.m., will feature such games as pie toss, treasurer hunt, penny sale, rides, and spongy toss.

All proceeds will go to aid the fight against dystrophy and related diseases afflicting millions she explained.

Mark Alan Sanders, son of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Sanders, 18442 Jamestown Circle, has been accepted for admission at David Lipscomb College, Nashville, Tennessee.

A junior transfer, from Michigan Technological University, Houghton, Sanders is a graduate of Belleville High School, Belleville. He plans to enroll in Lipscomb in the fall quarter, which opens September 18. He will follow a major program in economics.

Lipscomb is a senior liberal arts college offering major programs in more than 25 fields of study, with daily Bible classes required of all students.

New Ideas for Meals

Love sandwiches, but watching your weight?

If so the Weight Watchers may have just what you're looking for. The organization has prepared some unusual and delicious sandwich ideas that are highly nutritious, easy to prepare and ideal menu additions for the entire family's diet.

CHEESE DELISH

4 ounces cooked chicken, minced
 1/2 cup canned mushrooms, minced
 2 tablespoons mayonnaise
 Pinch of thyme
 1 teaspoon freshly chopped parsley
 1/2 teaspoon Worcestershire
 Salt and pepper to taste
 2 1-ounce slices American Cheese
 2 slices toast
 1 dill pickle, sliced

Combine first 7 ingredients; mix well. Divide equally and spread evenly on toast. Top each serving with 1 slice cheese and place under broiler until cheese melts. Garnish with pickle slices. Makes 2 servings.

GRILLED RUBEN SANDWICH

1 slice whole wheat bread
 2 ounces sliced turkey
 1/4 cup sauerkraut, drained
 1 tablespoon mayonnaise
 1 ounce sliced Swiss Cheese
 Watercress
 1 dill pickle, quartered
 Radish rose (optional)

Toast bread lightly. Arrange turkey on toast. Place sauerkraut over turkey; spread with mayonnaise and top with cheese. Place under broiler until sandwich is thoroughly heated and cheese melts. Garnish with watercress, dill pickle and radish rose. Makes 1 serving.

KON TIKI SANDWICH

8 ounces tuna, drained
 2 tablespoons chopped celery
 1/2 cucumber, peeled and chopped
 1 teaspoon chopped pimento

A Happy Marriage

"Serendipity Beef," the happy marriage of marinated beef slices with green beans, is a boon to the working girl or time-shy hostess.

This enchanting dinner for two, developed by home economists, combines reasonable cost with the especially simple wok cooking method.

SERENDIPITY BEEF

1 pound top round beef, thinly sliced (1/4")
 5 tablespoons soy sauce
 1 tablespoon cornstarch
 1 teaspoon sugar
 2 tablespoons sherry
 1 package (10 oz.) frozen string beans, julienne cut
 4 tablespoons cooking oil

At least one hour ahead, prepare marinade of soy sauce, sugar, cornstarch, salt and sherry. Slice beef in 1/4-inch strips and marinate at room temperature for one hour. (Note: freeze beef slightly for most efficient thin slicing for all Oriental recipes.)

In saucepan, cook frozen beans as directed on package, less one minute, taking care not to overcook. Drain. While beans cook, heat oil. When hot, add beef for a few seconds, turning frequently with fork. Add beans to beef and stir-fry until beef is cooked (about three minutes). Serve over hot buttered rice. Serves two.

1/2 medium tomato, sliced
 Lettuce
 2 tablespoons mayonnaise
 Salt and pepper to taste
 4 small slices pineapple, canned in its own juice PLUS
 4 tablespoons juice +
 2 slices toast
 Parsley sprigs (optional)

Combine first 6 ingredients; mix well. Divide into 2 equal portions. Place each portion on toast and spread evenly. Arrange 2 slices of pineapple on each sandwich. Garnish with parsley. Makes 2 servings.

+Be sure to consume pineapple juice.

BARNYARD SANDWICH

2 ounces green onion or scallion, sliced.
 3 tablespoons diced pimento
 4 eggs
 Salt and pepper to taste
 2 slices of toast
 Watercress

Combine all ingredients, except watercress and bread, in a small mixing bowl; beat well. Pour mixture into a heated non-stick pan and cook slowly, stirring until eggs begin to firm. Remove from heat. Divide into 2 equal portions; place on toast and garnish with watercress. Makes 2 servings.

REGENCY CLUB SANDWICH

1 tablespoon mayonnaise
 1/2 teaspoon vinegar
 Chives
 2 slices white bread
 2 ounces sliced turkey
 1 ounce Swiss Cheese

Mix first 3 ingredients; spread evenly on bread. Arrange turkey on 1 slice of bread. Add cheese, tomato and lettuce. Cover with remaining slice of bread. Makes 1 man's serving.

MOZZARELLA VEAL BURGER

1 pound ground veal
 1 tablespoons water
 1/4 teaspoon salt
 1/4 teaspoon basil
 1/4 teaspoon oregano
 1/4 teaspoon pepper
 4 tablespoons tomato juice; reduced to 2 tablespoons
 4 1-ounce slices mozzarella cheese
 4 slices toast

Combine first 7 ingredients. Mix well. Divide into 8 equal patties. Place 1 slice of cheese atop each of 4 patties. Cover with remaining 4, pressing edges together. Place burger on barbecue grill or under broiler 4" from source of heat. Broil 5 minutes on each side. Remove and serve on toast. Makes 4 servings.

TOWNE HOUSE BEEF

Openings Available In Marathon Bridge

Anyone wishing to play in the Mother's Club Benefit Marathon Bridge Tournament in the fall should register with the chairman, Mrs. Edward Hodge, 349-0192 or Mrs. A. Ben Kline, 349-4387.

According to Mrs. Hodge, "This is an excellent way for newcomers to become acquainted with others as the tournament attracts both old and new Northville residents." She also said they hope to have at least as many groups as last year.

Proceeds from the ten groups last year went to the school enrichment program through which live drama was brought to the schools.

There are still openings in the day and evening ladies groups, an evening couples group and an evening couples duplicate group.

Groups of 10 partners meet once a month and play other partners in the group each time until all of the other partners have been played. Each person who plays pays $1 and cash prizes are awarded to first, second, and third winners in each group of ten.

Adding Unit

One of four new service units authorized by a Michigan legislative bill approved earlier this summer is to be located at Northville State Hospital.

The local facility—largest of the new agencies funded by the state—is to be a mental retardation unit located in four vacated buildings at Northville State Hospital.

Appropriation for this unit is $1.5 million.

Initially, the unit is to serve patients transferred from Fort Custer State Home which will be completely phased out later this year, according to Department of Mental Health officials.

Woman Reports U.F.O.s in Novi Skies

Several "Unidentified Flying Objects" were spotted in the skies of Novi last week by citizens in the Walled Lake portion of the city.

In all, four people told Novi police they had seen unusual flying objects in the sky that had to be "something more" than just shooting stars.

The initial report was filed with police by Mrs. Florence MacDermid of 2297 Austin.

The sightings occurred Wednesday, August 3. "I was out in my yard about 9 p.m. hanging up the wash when I heard a peculiar noise up in the air," reported Mrs. MacDermid. "I probably wouldn't even have looked up if it hadn't been for that noise. It was a strange humming sound, almost a drone."

"When I looked up to see what it was I saw an oval-shaped object with white lights all around it. The lights formed a ring, almost like a halo, around the oval object. I thought it was unusual because air planes have red and green lights on them and this thing had only white lights and made that funny whirring sound."

"I know I wasn't drunk," she reported. "I, a teetotaling Baptist, who never touches a drop. For a minute there I had to remind myself of that."

Mrs. MacDermid also called her daughter-in-law who lives next door out to see the object, but it had already gone by the time she got there.

"If it hadn't been for the second one, I don't think I could have convinced her of what I saw," said Mrs. MacDermid.

"My mother-in-law called me outside with a real funny tone in her voice," recalls Mrs. James MacDermid of the incident. "I was kidding her, telling her she'd been seeing things. While we were talking I was watching three very bright stars up in the sky when all of a sudden one of them took off and flew very rapidly from west to east. Then I got as excited as she was."

Shortly thereafter, the two women, who had been joined by James MacDermid, 39, spotted a third object.

"From what my mother-in-law told me this one was very similar to the first in appearance," said the younger Mrs. MacDermid. "It was about as far away as an airplane and was circular with a ring of white lights around it. I still wasn't sure that I was imagining things until that third one came right over the house. Then I realized that I was seeing something very, very weird."

Also seeing the third object was a 15-year old neighbor boy.

It was after the third incident that Mrs. MacDermid went into her home to call the Novi Police. While she was making that call, approximately 9:30 p.m., the three people outside saw yet another strange object.

They described it as being extremely bright, like a huge white light. It traveled all the way across the sky from the west to the east, the younger Mrs. MacDermid reported, stopped suddenly in mid-air, and made a right-angle turn to the north before disappearing out over Walled Lake.

The group reported seeing one more object before police arrived. Like the second and fourth ones it was reported as being very bright and shot across the sky with great speed.

The younger Mrs. MacDermid denied the possibility that what she had seen were shooting stars.

"That possibility crossed my mind," she said, "and I still think it's a possibility with one or two of the things we saw. But there

TEETOTALER AND SAUCERS—Mrs. Florence MacDermid of 2297 Austin claims she hadn't had a drop to drink when she spotted several oval-shaped objects over her home last week. "I'm a good Baptist and I don't drink," she said. "I couldn't believe my eyes and so I called my daughter-in-law and a neighbor boy and they saw them too." Novi Police listed the case as a spotting of "Unidentified Flying Objects."

For Meadowbrook Road

Road Assessment Spurs Paving Plans

By a 5-2 vote the Novi city council Monday passed the seventh of seven resolutions setting up a special assessment district to pay for the paving of Meadowbrook Road between Nine and Ten Mile Roads.

Passage of the resolution brings to an end the city's lengthy special assessment procedure which has stretched out over the past seven months and would seem to be a major step toward accomplishing the paving of Meadowbrook Road.

Paving of the road is still far from a foregone conclusion, however.

Novi city councilman Edwin Presnell told the Novi News Monday that he would seek an injunction to stop the paving Basis of Presnell's objection is a city ordinance which requires developers to pay for the paving of roads that pass their property.

Kaufman and Broad, developer of Village Oaks, owns a sizable portion of land along Meadowbrook Road and yet have not been included in the financing as they should have been, Presnell contends.

"I'm not picking on Kaufman and Broad in this case," said Presnell, "and I'd just as soon leave names out of it. The point is that our ordinance says developers have got to pay and if our ordinance is good we ought to enforce it."

Presnell also stated he might enlist the aid of a private citizen in filing the injunction rather than filing it himself.

In spite of Presnell's objection, when the council approved the seventh resolution by a 5-2 margin, residents present at the public hearing broke out in applause an action which led City Manager George Athas to state it was the first time he's ever heard anyone applaud after getting hit with a $14 per front foot assessment.

And while the Meadowbrook Road residents present may have been pleased with the apparent progress toward getting their road paved, a portion of the applause may also have been due to the fact that the council had salvaged at least half of the road paving program proposed in November of 1971.

Previously, the council had abandoned the proposed paving of Taft Road after five months of special assessment hearings by failing to come up with a 5-2 vote on the passage of the fifth resolution.

For at least awhile, it seemed that a similar fate might befall the Meadowbrook paving project. The purpose of the public hearing was to hear the objections to the special assessment district from the residents involved. City Manager Athas and City Clerk Mabel Athas told the council, however, that no correspondence objecting to the assessment had been received.

In the Taft Road hearings nearly 90 percent of the number of abutting property owners had petitioned against the assessment.

The absence of objection also prevailed during the audience participation section of Monday's hearing and one Meadowbrook Road resident, Edward Jano, profusely praised the council, calling the $14 per front foot assessment very reasonable.

Most of the other questions raised by Meadowbrook Road residents concerned construction problems such as ditching and paving of driveways.

Several objections were raised by the council, however, and it was Presnell who led the discussion.

Presnell first objected the use of the term "city at large" in the resolution. The city proposes two primary means of financing the paving of Meadowbrook. Approximately $140,000 will come from the special assessments with the remaining $306,000 coming from the "city at large."

Presnell contended that since the "city at large" portion was to be paid from several sources, including accumulated Act 51 monies and road millage, those sources should be specifically listed in the resolution.

City Attorney Howard Bond disagreed, saying that an exact breakdown of the financing sources would be needed in the future, but that at the present time the term "city at large" was sufficient.

Presnell further stated that commercially zoned property along Meadowbrook should be assessed at a higher rate than the $14 per front foot assessed against residents.

"Stores create a much greater flow of traffic than private residences do," he argued.

City Manager Athas told the council, however, that the city's bonding attorney had rejected the idea of assessing commercial property higher than residential property as undefeasible in court.

"Bonding attorneys have been wrong before," Presnell retorted. "I feel that commercial property should have a higher assessment in this case."

Presnell also suggested that the portion of Meadowbrook Road which runs over the swamp should only be sealed at this time because of the unstable conditions of the road base. This would amount to approximately 1,000 feet of road, beginning at the point where Meadowbrook crosses the bridge and extending to Malott Street.

Another councilman, Raymond Evans, criticized Presnell for making his objections at the hearing.

"We've had this resolution in front of us for the past three weeks," said Evans, "and we're all very desirous of getting it passed. 'Why is it that you waited until this time

Council Says OK

An amendment to the city's zoning ordinance which allows construction of indoor recreational facilities in areas designated for industrial usage was approved by the Novi city council Monday.

Specifically, the council approved an amendment which allows indoor tennis clubs and ice and roller skating rinks to be located in M-2 (restricted manufacturing) and M-3 (general manufacturing) districts.

Previously, the Novi zoning ordinance called for location of tennis courts and skating rinks in commercial districts. In a concurrent action Monday, however, the council deleted the words from the zoning ordinance which allowed their location in commercial districts, thus leaving the M-2 and M-3 districts as the only ones in which indoor tennis clubs and skating rinks can be built.

A relatively large turnout of citizens were present at Monday's hearing to consider the proposed zoning amendment.

The turnout was prompted by two requests regarding skating rinks currently pending before the planning board.

The Sugden Corporation has indicated it would like to construct an indoor ice skating rink on a parcel of land at 42300 West 11 Mile Road. The parcel, presently zoned M-1, abuts the expressway.

The second request is from Ebejer Associates who are considering construction of a roller skating rink on a piece of land on the south side of Grand River, west of Haggerty Road. Currently bearing a C-2 zoning, the property abuts the rear of the Old Orchard condominium development.

As a result of the two requests, two groups of residents were present Monday. The 11 Mile Road residents opposed adoption of the ordinance amendment because the Sugden Corporation could then build its ice skating rink on its industrially-zoned parcel.

The Old Orchard residents, on the other hand, favored adoption of the ordinance because Ebejer Associates would then be unable to construct its roller skating rink on its commercially-zoned parcel abutting their condominiums.

A similar amendment to the zoning ordinance had been rejected by the council at a public hearing June 12. Two weeks later, however, a representative of the Sugden Corporation appeared at a city council meeting to ask the council to reconsider the action.

At that time Councilman Raymond Evans stated that his opposition to the original

School Board Signs Contracts

Contracts for two "shared time" teachers were approved last week by Novi School Board members.

Both teachers will be serving Novi school district and Clarenceville school district. They are Robert Young, director of vocational education, who holds a MA degree from University of Detroit; and Hilda Sucher, part time diagnostician, who has an education specialist degree from Wayne State University.

With the hiring of the two teachers, Superintendent Dr. Gerald Kratz said three openings still exist at the high school and one at the elementary level. One social worker is also needed by the district.

Changes in assignment were approved for Gloria Crawford, Title I teacher at Novi Elementary, Jeanne Kinney, third grade teacher at Orchard Hills, both of whom will teach third grade at Village Oaks; and Shirley Snyder, fourth grade teacher at Orchard Hills, who will teach fourth and fifth grade at Village Oaks.

In other action, school board members approved the hiring of four custodians; awarded a bid of $11,900 to Excavation Engineering of South Lyon for the Novi elementary sewer tie-in and exploration of the tile field.

approved a policy by which students who are not residents of the district may attend Novi schools on a tuition basis; set the elementary tuition rate at $199.58 per year and secondary tuition rate at $326.12; and directed the superintendent, attorney and architect to meet with representatives of Kaufman and Broad to discuss construction of the bridge at the entrance to Village Oaks school.

In Tractor Accident

Cop Saves Boy's Life

Novi Patrolman William Brown

A three year veteran of the Novi police force is credited by doctors with saving the life of a 15-year old Novi boy after a freak accident last week.

"I'd call it performance above and beyond the call of duty," said Novi police chief Lee BeGole, a man who feels the majority of the cases of police heroism involve little more than an officer doing what he is paid to do.

As for the officer involved, 30-year old Bill Brown, the real hero in the case was the military training he received back in 1960.

Shortly after arriving on duty on Friday, August 5, Brown was summoned to an address on Summit Drive.

Randy Gunn, 15-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gunn, had been attempting to pull a pick-up truck out of a ditch with a chain attached to a tractor. Unable to dislodge the truck, the tractor had raised up and, instead of easing up on the throttle, the youth continued to give it the gas, causing the tractor to rear up and tip over backwards with the steering wheel crushing his chest.

"From the looks of the wound and the fact that he was having an extremely difficult time breathing, I surmised that he had what we used to call a 'sucking chest wound' in the service," said Brown. "What that means basically is that his chest had been punctured and he couldn't breathe because the air was escaping through the hole."

"The only thing I could do was try to seal off the wound to prevent the air from escaping," he added.

Brown peeled the tin foil from his pack of cigarettes. "It's a good sealer," he explained and placed it over the wound. He then flattened out the cardboard from a gauze bandage box in his police first aid kit and put it over the tin foil. Finally, he tied the gauze around the foil and cardboard.

"By the time I had the wound sealed the ambulance had arrived and they transported the boy to Botsford Hospital," Brown concluded.

The youth underwent immediate surgery for severe chest injuries. During the operation doctors discovered five broken ribs and a lung punctured by a hole approximately the size of a man's fist.

Following the operation Gunn was placed in an oxygen tent, where he stayed for three days. Last Thursday, he underwent a second operation.

"The doctors told us they were going to keep him in intensive care for 10 to 14 days after the operation," reported the boy's father, Reverend Jack Gunn of the Lighthouse Assembly of God Church in Walled Lake.

Monday, however, doctors removed the young man from the intensive care list and put him in a regular room. "Randy's coming along very well," his father reported Tuesday. "He even talked today for the first time since the accident took place. Apparently, he's very much on the road to recovery."

BUSY BEES—It's difficult to tell who is busier—Ed Musolff or the thousands of bees he keeps in 17 hives. Bee-keeping has been a hobby, a small business and part of his life for more than 50 years.

Ed Musolff

He's Got A Sweet Hobby

Ed Musolff got a bee in his bonnet about 50 years ago and it's still there.

Musolff keeps bees as a hobby. It started "probably 50 years ago or so. When I was a kid, I lived on a farm. We had bees then and I've just kept bees ever since."

Now, Musolff has only 17 hives, or swarms, of bees. Eight of them are in an orchard and nine are in back of his home on Fairbrook.

He said he had to cut down the number of hives because of a recent illness. "Two years ago, I had almost 50 swarms, and produced about one-and-a-half tons of honey."

Best time to catch bees for a hive, according to Musolff, is in June because that's when bees swarm. "That's when the old queen will leave a hive and worker bees will go with her to make way for a new queen. If the old queen doesn't leave, the young one will kill her, because there can be only one queen to a hive."

Bees rarely sting when they swarm, he said, but just in case he wears a hood and gloves when he captures them. "Never wear white around bees and don't hit at them. That makes them mad."

Each day, Musolff walks among the thousands of bees in his swarms with no special protection. He said in all the years he has been around them, he has only been stung by a bee twice.

Musolff gets frequent calls from people to capture swarms of bees.

"A couple of years ago, the police called me to Amerman School. There was a swarm of bees in a tree. I went over there and pushed the swarm into a cardboard box and they kept flying out. Finally, they landed on my arm and stayed there, so I got into my car and drove home with one hand."

Musolff sells the honey from his bees in two forms. Some is extracted and bottled as liquid honey and others is kept in the comb, cut and put into plastic boxes and sold. He said he can get up to 60 pounds of extracted, or liquid honey from the larger boxes on the hive "depending on the honey flow."

A bee, Musolff said, will fly two miles in any direction to get honey. The best honey comes from sweet and regular clover and second best comes from flowers. "Big swarms can make up to 200 pounds of honey at a time."

In the winter when there are no flowers in bloom, the swarms of bees will stay in the hives and hibernate as long as there is honey in the box on which they can feed.

Musolff said that bees can be big business. He said there are apiaries that produce so much extracted honey that it is taken away in huge gasoline-type tanker trucks to large honey companies. Such businesses often grow fields of flowers and clover for honey production.

Musolff explained in order to keep bees and sell the honey, an individual must have a permit from the state agriculture department and once a year an inspector comes to check out his operation.

"What they check for mainly is a foulbrood. What happens is that the bees get a dirty house and the honey isn't good. Then the inspector will burn out the inside of the hive with a torch," he said.

Then, Musolff explained, the whole hive must be started again. Nine wooden frames are taken and starter comb, made of pure bees wax, is put into each one. Bees are gathered, and honey can once again be produced in the hive.

Another threat to bee keepers is the wax moth. "Usually, when a queen bee is getting weak, a wax moth will get into the hive and make a web and will kill all the bees," Musolff said.

Once the honey is produced by the bees, Musolff explained there is quite a bit of work to be done. For the liquid honey, he has a machine which separates the honey from the comb. To do this, the honey must be heated to 60 degrees so it will not sugar.

"Then," he said, "I put it through three strainers. First is a cheesecloth. The second is a nylon strainer and then I filter it as I put it into the bottles."

According to Musolff, "There are more vitamins in honey than anything else you can eat." He also said honey is good for medicinal purposes.

Epiphany Lutheran

Church Moves Outside

"People seem to be happier outside where it's cooler," the Reverend Frederick Prezioso, pastor of Epiphany Lutheran Church at 41390 Five Mile Road, stated.

"So, we decided to try holding Sunday services outside during the summer, and the response has been very positive."

Two church services each month during the summer have been held outside on three acres of wooded land behind the church.

"You sort of feel like you're away from everything," Mr. Prezioso said.

Members of the church have developed a worship area in the land behind the church and built a portable altar and crosses for the area. Mr. Prezioso said the church members decided in March, while planning the year's work, to hold regular services outside.

For the past several years, services on Reformation Sunday in October have been held outside, "but we always faced the possibility of being frozen out," the pastor commented. None of the summer outdoor services have been rained out.

Average attendance has been up during the outdoor services, which coincide with the church's Evangelism drive. "We've also had more visitors and guests than usual," he said.

Held every other Sunday, the next outdoor service is planned for 10 a.m. August 20.

Next summer members of the church hope to hold nearly all of the services outdoors, Mr. Prezioso said.

Construction Up in 1971

A total of 594 dwellings went up in the city and township of Northville last year, according to data released by the Southeast Michigan Council of Governments (SEMCOG).

The combined total, however, was only seven fewer dwellings than were erected in 1971 in the City of Novi where construction has been booming.

SEMCOG reported 214 single family homes were constructed in Novi last year. Also constructed were 373 multi-family units. Eleven dwellings were demolished for a net gain of 576.

In the City of Northville, 54 single family homes and 48 multi-family units went up last year, while in the Township of Northville 105 single family units and 387 multi-family dwellings were constructed.

Demolitions included two in the city, two in the township. Wixom showed a total of 52 single family dwellings, 224 multi-family units for a total of 276. No dwellings were razed.

Registration

Set At Schoolcraft

Registration for the fall semester at Schoolcraft College will be held on Monday and Tuesday, August 21-22. Classes begin on August 24.

Both day and evening students will register in the auxiliary gymnasium in the Physical Education Building. Monday morning from 9 to 11:30 is reserved for sophomores. From 1 to 3:30 that afternoon, freshmen whose last names begin with A through N will register. The balance of freshmen will complete the process the morning of the 22nd.

Evening class students may complete their registration between 6:30-9 either night. Persons who have not completed admission to the college can obtain complete details and information by telephoning 591-6400, ext. 228.

Tuition for resident students is $11 per credit hour. Residents are persons living within the school districts of Clarenceville, Garden City, Livonia, Northville and Plymouth. Non-resident tuition is $22 per credit hour, and out-of-state students pay $33.

Schoolcraft College first opened to students in the fall of 1964. Enrollment has grown from an original 2,000 students to over 6,000 last fall.

Registrar Russ Bogarin reports that nearly 3,000 students have completed advance registration to date, and said he anticipates approximately that many more will be enrolled when classes start on August 24.

Adventures In Palestine

Norman A. Riedesel, Minister
First United Presbyterian Church
South Lyon

Due to the magnanimous generosity of the people of our church Mrs. Riedesel and I recently visited the Holy Land. Traveling through that country today, particularly the northern portions, one can readily understand why it was once called "a land flowing with milk and honey." (Ex 3:8, 17) Modern methods of agriculture and irrigation have revitalized its productivity. We saw many acres of watermelons, tomatoes, peanuts, alfalfa fields yielding 8 cuttings a year, etc. The watermelons seemed among the best I had ever tasted.

It is easy to understand Jesus' statement that a "city set upon a hill cannot be hid." Ancient cities were built on hills for better military protection. As you look around in that beautiful mountainous country you see many cities such as Nazareth and Jerusalem built high up on hills.

At Megiddo, one of the most ancient fortresses of the world, the remains of stables for some of Solomon's horses can be clearly seen (1Kg 9:19, 10:26). The mangers were hollowed out of rocks, just large enough to make a nice bed for a baby. We saw a manger possibly just like that in which Jesus once lay (Luke 2:7).

We saw the well in Nazareth to which Mary, perhaps at times with a little toddler, Jesus, going with her, went to get water. We drank water from Jacob's Well where Jesus converted a Samaritan woman and many of her neighbors (John 4:6-42). We saw the Pool of Siloam where Jesus healed a man born blind (John 9:7).

In ancient times as cities were built, destroyed and rebuilt the hills upon which they stood became higher still from the debris. Archaeologists have learned much about the past by digging in these mounds.

In Jerusalem, nine feet below the present surface, the very streets upon which Jesus once walked have been found. The pavement was made rough by the Romans to keep their horses from slipping. We saw the very spot "Gabbatha" where we think Pilate pronounced sentence upon Jesus (John 19:13). We saw marks on the floor which the Roman soldiers made for playing their games. In the old Jerusalem wall, 12 feet below the present surface, the Damascus gate through which we think Jesus passed as He went to Golgotha, and through which Paul probably passed as he started out on his journey to Damascus, has been found (Mt 27:31-36, Acts 9:1-22).

In the Garden of Gethsemane eight old olive trees, never covered by debris, which probably witnessed Jesus praying there, are still standing (Mark 14:32-42). They were heavily laden with olives when we saw them. They reminded us that if we are real Christians we bear much fruit (John 15:5). As Paul said so well, we experience the life which is "life indeed" (1 Tim. 6:19).

Maybe you like smiling babies? Sorry to disappoint you, but I've got a lot on my mind.

There's something wrong in America . . . and I'm the chap who is getting hurt!

Our Constitution says that no one can be denied the right to worship God. I'm an American! According to the Constitution I have the right to learn about God, to hear the Bible Stories, to be taught the Christian Way of Life.

But here's the hitch. While the Government can't deny me the right to attend church school and church—MY PARENTS CAN. They can rob me of my most sacred right just by neglecting my spiritual needs.

Did you know that about half the children in America are growing up without religious training? And yet there's a church in every village!

Yes sir, I'm serious! Instead of talking about it, we ought to do something! And we ought to start Sunday!

Police Blotter: Chase Ends with Arrest

In Northville

A 32-year-old Novi man who ran through a flashing red light early Monday morning has been charged with fleeing and eluding police officers and carrying a concealed weapon.

Arrested shortly before 5:30 a.m. Monday following a high speed chase was Terry Dees of 47235 11 Mile Road.

He was apprehended by city police at Phoenix Lake dam in Plymouth township after his car crashed down the embankment. Dees was not injured.

Police recovered a loaded .44 caliber magnum rifle with a shell in the chamber Dees reportedly took from the car after it crashed. A loaded .22 caliber pistol was found under the front seat of the car.

According to reports, police saw Dees run through a flashing red light on Seven Mile and Sheldon roads headed eastbound. He turned south onto Hines Drive and ignored two police orders to stop. His vehicle finally was stopped on southbound Hines at Cass Benton picnic grounds.

When officers approached his vehicle and asked for his license, he sped away, police said.

Two city cars gave chase on Hines Drive with speeds recorded in excess of 100 mph. Plymouth police set up a roadblock at Wilcox and Northville roads but Dees lost control of his car and went down the embankment at the Phoenix dam.

As one of the officers left his car to arrest Dees, a citizen whom Dees had forced off the road warned police Dees had a rifle with him. He dropped the rifle and was arrested by police.

He stood mute when arraigned Monday in 35th District Court on the weapons charge and will appear Monday, August 21, for examination. Tuesday he stood mute to the fleeing and eluding charge and will face trial on Monday. He is being held in lieu of $10,000 bond.

A home at 358 First Street was broken into early Monday morning. Two windows and a screen were cut with what police believe was a glass cutter.

Sand tracks were found in the bath tub under the window the intruder entered but nothing was reported taken from the home.

Unknown persons ransacked a newspaper subscription at 103 South Center Street late Friday or early Saturday. Police said one desk drawer had been forced open but nothing was taken.

Several cases of vandalism were reported to police over the weekend.

White powder was sprayed over the interior of a car on Fairbrook, flower pots were broken and trailer license plate stolen on Thayer and 12 windows broken on Rail Road Street.

Equipment valued at more than $2,000 was stolen in a break-in at Northville High band room last week.

Unknown persons broke a window to enter the building between August 7 and August 10.

Missing are a tape recorder valued at $1,500 and a console amplifier valued at $700. An amplifier in the sound room was badly damaged and a stereo record player was thrown on the floor and damaged.

Police said a piece of paper placed on top of a lamp started a fire at the John Federspill home, 21150 East Chigwidden, last Friday at 1:30 a.m.

According to reports, the girl's bedroom where the fire started was badly charred while the rest of the upper level of the home sustained smoke and water damage.

A tape deck and am-fm radio were stolen from a locked car parked across from Winners Circle Bar on West Main Street Friday.

The theft occurred between 1 a.m. and 2:30 a.m., the owner told police.

FIRE CALLS

August 9 — 1:33 p.m., Eight Mile between Randolph and Center streets, truck fire.

August 11 — 1:31 a.m., 21150 East Chigwidden, house fire August 12 — 5:35 p.m., behind Lexington Commons, brush fire.

COURTNEWS

Ronald J. Naif of Redford was fined $19 (suspended) and sentenced to three days in jail (credit given for time already served) after he was found guilty of vagrancy.

Naif was arrested August 7 by city police and he appeared before 35th District Court Judge Dunbar Davis on August 9.

A Livonia youth, Victor O. Giller, was fined $21 after he was picked up on a traffic warrant for no registration on person.

He was arrested by city police July 22.

In Township

A Northville man was killed Wednesday, August 9, when the car he was driving went out of control and struck a tree on Six Mile Road east of Bradner Road.

William Earl Kahler, 45, of 220 South Main Street died at Wayne County General Hospital from multiple injuries.

Kahler was alone in his car at the time of the accident, according to Michigan State Police who investigated the accident. He was driving east on Six Mile when the car ran off the road and struck a tree. The accident took place at 5:15 p.m.

Children are believed to be responsible for a break-in of a home August 8 at 46250 West Main Street.

Police said unknown persons entered the home through a sliding door, tipped over furniture and ate food found in the home. Nothing was reported missing.

Tools were reported taken from a garage on Franklin Road during early evening hours August 5.

A Northville woman and three passengers in her car escaped injury in an accident last Wednesday, August 9, on Eight Mile Road near Chubb Road. The accident took place at 6:30 p.m.

According to Washenaw County Sheriff's deputies, a car driven by Mark J. Muncey, 25, of Bloomfield Hills crossed from the westbound lane into the eastbound lane.

His car struck the side of an auto driven by Mrs. Marjory V. Cinader of Northville. She and her passengers were not hurt.

Muncey was taken to St. Joseph hospital in Ann Arbor where he was treated for cuts, bruises and possible internal injuries.

Township police have charged at 27-year-old Livonia man with indecent liberties with a minor following his arrest Saturday night.

Arraigned on the charges Monday night was James L. Morris. He stood mute before 35th District Court Judge Dunbar Davis and is free on $1,000 bond.

According to reports, Morris was found parked on Waterford Road near Six Mile shortly before 10 p.m. with a 14-year-old girl whom he said he picked up in Redford township that evening.

Examination will be held Monday, August 21.

COURT NEWS

In Wayne County Circuit Court, two Detroit women pled guilty to charges of larceny by conversion and were each placed on probation.

They are Delores Buyck, placed on one year probation, and Virginia White, placed on two years probation.

Both were arrested in April by Michigan State Police and charged with diverting funds from patients' accounts to their own use.

In Novi

A 19-year old Detroit girl reported that she had been raped behind an old barn at the corner of Wixom Road and Grand River last week.

The girl made the report Thursday, August 10, more than 24 hours after the alleged rape had occurred.

The girl told police that she and a girl friend had been picked up at the corner of West Chicago and Greenfield by a couple of males they knew by the names of "Joe" and "PeeWee". The four went to a bar where the girl reported they stayed until 1 a.m. when they decided to drive out to Novi.

While the four of them were parked in the car, the one named Joe suggested that he and she take a walk away from the others. While they were gone he became physically aggressive, and, when she resisted, he forced her to submit by holding a knife to her throat.

Later the four drove back to Detroit. The girl told police she had not reported the offense the previous day because she had gone to Detroit, Wixom, and Farmington police stations, where she was told the report had to be made in the city in which the offense took place.

A 20-year old Novi man was arrested on charges of possession of marijuana and peyote, an hallucinogenic drug, last week.

Facing charges is Jeffrey Michael Adams of 2300 Shawood.

Police made the arrest after stopping Adams' van truck because of a defective exhaust. Adams was unable to produce identification and, according to police reports, asked officers to get his vehicle registration from his glove box. In so doing the officers discovered the suspected narcotics.

Later analysis revealed that the confiscated drugs were marijuana and peyote.

Adams was also issued a citation for having no operator's license on his person.

Seven burglaries which have occurred in the Novi area in the past two weeks were solved with the apprehension of a 16-year old juvenile last week.

Breaking and enterings of residences at 43030 11 Mile, 41800 11 Mile, and 43100 11 Mile were solved with the apprehension of the youth.

Police reported that most of the stolen property has been recovered and that the family of the juvenile indicated it would make restitution for the unrecovered money.

Police recovered 18 shutters valued at $75 which had been taken from the Village Oaks area last week.

A workmen told police he had observed a man with a truck full of shutters driving away from a construction site. Investigation revealed that 18 shutters were missing.

Police traced the truck through information supplied by the workman. The truck owner was notified and it was discovered the shutters had been taken accidentally.

All members are reminded of the general membership meeting scheduled August 22 at 8 p.m. at the home of Joan Hemker. Included in the program will be a talk on fabrics.

NOVI BOY SCOUTS

Last week 19 boys went camping at Lost Lake Scout Reservation near Clare, Michigan. They were accompanied by Mr. Fear, Mr. Harrison, Mr. Rice and Mr. Buck, who drove the bus.

This camp was unique in that the families of the men who went also spent the week with the boys. While there eight of the boys went on a survival hike for one night, leaving without any food or anything for shelter. During the night they built a "lean-to", caught a chicken and cooked it over a campfire. Over 50 percent of the troop attended camp this year.

The Scouts need a new exhaust pipe for their bus and would appreciate help in getting this as well as installing it.

Regular weekly meetings will resume on August 21 at the Middle School at 7:30 p.m. Every boy is to wear full uniform for inspection. Plans will be made for the Court of Honor in September.

Other coming events include a canoe trip down the Marquette River over the Labor Day weekend.

First Camping Trip's Soggy

By NANCY DINGELDEY

Our first stop was the Straits State Park in St. Ignace where we ran into the Yawn family from Hopkins Drive. Fortunately they were in a nice, cozy camper because Jim's notations on his map of all the places they had been were circled with rain.

Our rain began Monday night and we found we were "parked" in a gully and even though park rules say "no trenching" you trench just to make sure you don't float away during the night. We did fill in all our trenches before we left. We beat the rain to the Soo and had two dry hours before the deluge hit and saw five huge vessels pass through the Locks in the pouring down rain.

The sun managed to appear Wednesday morning just long enough to raise our hopes for a sunny day on Mackinac Island. The rain waited long enough for us to take our seats on the boat and we found ourselves dodging rain drops and eventually hail for the rest of the day.

While visiting the Fort, we heard a band concert provided by the Honor Scout Troop from Farmington. We then set out for Tahquamenon Falls State Park still looking for the sun. It was overcast there too, only the waters held off until after bedtime.

The park naturalist has a slide presentation every night at an amphitheatre near the lower falls which we attended Thursday night with the four-hour hike from the lower to the upper falls taking us most of Friday.

Wixomites may have a problem here with dogs and garbage but up there it's the big black bear that does the scrounging. I'll take the dogs anyway. The really big thing to do up there at night is to take a trip to the Paradise City dump.

My one final thought has to do with the insect department. It may have been chilly and wet but we didn't have to do battle with the mosquitoes except "in" the deep woods. Their wings probably froze!

On a further report from our cyclists. We had left them with Mike's exchange family of seven years ago in Germany and we now pick them up on a train on the way to Wurzburg.

A trainride to Steinarch and from there a cycle ride to Rothenburg, the famous medieval walled city and noticed gatherings of more tourists. I might add that this part of their journey closely parallels that of Marty's brother and wife, Neil and Dom, which I told you about last week. At this point, Mike received the prize for being the flat tire king...he's had six.

From there, it was onward to Munich described by Marty as "looking like a fairyland under the lights." They came upon a marionette theater and since there was time before the next show, the owner led them backstage for a look at the marionettes, props and the sound system.

Back to the cycles and bicycle paths through quaint villages and rolling pine woods on their way to Garmisch with the note that "at last we are in the mountains!" They met a German family who invited the group to join them for some swimming and through the course of conversation, the family mentioned friends from Orchard Lake.

Oberammergau was the next stop and is a village known for its wood carvings. Unfortunately prices were quite high for the pieces so our group did more looking than buying. They did manage to walk into a unmarked workshop on a back street and saw two woodcarvers at work.

From there it was off to Linderhof, the summer palace of Ludwig the "crazy" king. Again, this parallels Neil's and Dom's trip in which she so beautifully described the castles of both Maximilian and his son Ludwig. Maximilian's castle was the one Disney chose as his replica at Disneyland.

When the group arrived at the castle, it was raining and the place was jammed with

Woman Writes Book

By NANCY DINGELDEY

A woman who spends her summers with her family in a small cabin in the woods near Loon Lake has been named to the position of Distinguished Visiting Professor of General Studies for the academic year 1972-73 at Sacramento State College in Sacramento, California.

Dr. Betty E. Chmaj, who is currently assistant professor of Humanities and American Studies at Wayne State University, has been selected from a broad field of candidates and will leave for California shortly to accept her duties as a distinguished visiting professor.

Dr. Chmaj is the author of "American Women and American Studies", currently in its second printing. The book has been praised by professional associations as a ground-breaker in reporting the status of women in American universities in general and the field of American studies in particular.

Although covering topics that are pointed directly to those at university level, the book in its informal, witty and personal approach has been read and commented on by people outside the strictly academic circle.

The unique factor about the book is that it was written last summer on the grounds of the Detroit Finnish Summer Camp in Wixom. "Cabin 14" also received its mention in the volume.

Dr. Chmaj, who is of Finnish descent, spends her summers at the Finn Camp in her "special place" and is currently writing "American Women and American Studies 2" in the same small cabin. She is also writing a three volume book entitled "The Double Attraction in the American Arts", along with "Cities of Our Minds" and "Jazz in Our Time".

Dr. Chmaj currently is chairman of Wayne State's American Studies committee, which serves in lieu of a department, although she is considered to be a part of the Humanities Department.

She is also the first woman

to be nominated to the office of national president of the scholarly American Studies Association as well as being a member of the Executive Council from Michigan to the A.S.A. She is also on the Program Committee for the A.S.A. convention to be held in San Francisco.

An enthusiastic, popular teacher who is regarded by her students as being "tough but fun", she also has appeared on Channel 56 programs as well as giving lectures in the Rackham series. Her love of working with children covers all ages.

During her summer stays at the Finn Camp, Dr. Chmaj has put on and directed three plays for the young people, the latest entitled "All in The Finn Family", as well as having an active interest in the Association and its problems.

As for Dr. Chmaj's forthcoming assignment which will be to "focus the attention of the entire campus upon an area of study of high general importance to modern society," she remarked that she "could not think of anything more important during an election year than to focus attention of American values and ideas as they operate in modern society today."

County Abolishes Board

Realign Child Center

The seven-member governing board of the Wayne County Child Development Center will be abolished next month under an ordinance adopted by the County Board of Commissioners.

From then on, the superintendent of the residential school for educable retarded children will report directly to the Board of Commissioners and its committees.

The Child Development Center has been governed by an administrative board appointed by the county legislative body since the school was opened at the Wayne County Training School in 1926.

Elimination of the Administrative Board was among the alternatives recommended recently by a citizens committee appointed by the commissioners to evaluate the center's operation.

The Board of Commissioners amended the original ordinance governing the Child Development Center to eliminate the administrative board. Effective date of the amendment is September 27.

"This action is another step in the Board of Commissioners continuing effort to improve the county administrative structure," said Board Chairman Robert E. FitzPatrick.

"Under the old, indirectly-chosen Board of Supervisors, the county government operated by what amounted to remote control through a maze of boards and commissions not directly accountable to the voters.

"Every study of the county structure has recommended that this maze of semi-autonomous appointed bodies, which some people have called a 'shadow government,' be simplified."

The Board of Commissioners also amended the ordinance governing Wayne County General Hospital, effective September 27, to place three commissioners on the hospital governing board, the Board of County Institutions.

Under the amendment, three commissioners will replace the three citizens serving on the five-member hospital board by appointment of the Board of Commissioners. The two other members are appointed by the County Board of Auditors.

Commissioners will serve on the hospital board without additional compensation. Members of the hospital board now receive $4,500 annually with the chairman getting $5,000.

FitzPatrick pointed out that the hospital, with a budget of $36.2 million, is the county's largest department. He stated:

"It is critically important that the closest possible liaison exist between the hospital and the Board of Commissioners. Having three commissioners on the hospital board will ensure that degree of liaison."

A recent study of the county government by consultants recommended that the hospital and Child Development Center boards be abolished.

Under the present structure of county government, FitzPatrick said, the changes made by the Board of Commissioners come as close as possible to the improvements advocated by the study.

Approval of county ordinances by the governor is required by law. A two-thirds vote of the county board can override a governor's veto.

Teen Parlays Coins Into Summer Job

Mike's father, Darrell Ashley, is owner of Ashley and Cox Real Estate, and now Mike, at the age of 15, has decided to join his father in the ranks of free enterprise by starting a business of his own.

Mike, who will be a sophomore at Novi High School when classes resume in the fall, has nothing to do with real estate, however.

His interests are in the realm of numismatics - coin collecting; and last year Mike made the decision to undertake a project that would not only allow him to continue his hobby, but also make a little money from it on the side.

Two weeks ago, he opened the "Novi Mint," a coin shop in a corner of his father's real estate office at 43043 Grand River.

"Actually," Mike hastens to point out, "it's much more than just a coin shop even though that's what I specialize in. I've also got antique glass and pottery, old political campaign buttons, old checks, old postcards, foreign coins, wooden nickels, old railroad tables, and a lot of paper money."

And then he proceeds to tell about a few of his more interesting items.

There is a McKinley for President button from the 1900 election, a "Win with Taft" button, a Rhode Island ship - taken cast in 1779 and worth about $150, and many more items of interest.

There's a $2 bill among the paper money, but Mike says that $2 bills may be making a comeback.

"A New York congressman currently has introduced legislation that would bring back the $2 bill with Susan B. Anthony's picture on it in honor of the Women's Liberation movement," says Mike.

The young entrepreneur has been involved in coin collecting for approximately three to four years now. "I picked it up from a friend," he reported. "I had a lot of free time and it seemed like an interesting hobby."

Mike has since gone on to become a charter member of the Farmington Coin Club and a member of Michigan State Numismatic Society. "I have a fair collection for someone my age," he says of his coins. "There are a lot of adult collectors whose collections aren't as large or extensive as mine is."

The idea to open the shop came from some of his friends in the Farmington Coin Club.

"One of the members told me of a couple of kids in Grand Rapids who opened their own coin shop," Mike said, "and the more I thought about it the more I thought it would be a profitable way to spend the summer.

Originally there were two of us, but my friend lost interest and I bought him out about a month ago."

"We worked through most of the winter getting things ready - ordering materials from coin dealers, getting our display cases ready. Right now I've got about $400 invested in the business."

The business works on a consignment basis. People bring in items they would like to sell, Mike sells them, and then gets a share of the profit.

"So far it's been slow," he adds, "but I expected it would take awhile before people became aware that I've got a shop here."

One of his cures to that problem is an advertising gimmick.

"I'm giving away steel pennies that were made during the war when the government couldn't afford the cost of copper," he said. "They're made of steel and zinc and are worth about 15 cents apiece. I've still got about 200 left."

Grand Opening Set

Grand opening of the multiples development in Thompson-Brown's Lexington Commons subdivision, at Eight Mile and Taft roads, has been scheduled for September 15.

According to Robert Campbell, sales manager for Thompson-Brown's new residential sales division, the models have been completed and furniture is to be installed as soon as roads have been completed.

Roads and grading should be completed by the end of the month, he said.

Meanwhile, construction of non-model units have begun.

When completed the development will include 205-home condominiums with its own private clubhouse and swimming pool. It will have access to a 16-acre commons complete with hike-n-bike trails and tennis courts

The models include a 2-bedroom, 2½ bath condo colonial; 2-bedroom condo ranch, and a 3-bedroom, 2½ bath condo colonial.

Anti-Busers See Hope in Appeal

Local members of an anti-cross district busing organization remained hopeful this week that U.S. District Judge Stephen Roth will be forced to curtail his busing order.

An appeal brief on behalf of suburban parents was filed in the U. S. Sixth District Court of Appeals in Cincinnati.

According to Mrs. Shirley Millard of Northville, local spokesman for Tri-County tourists all waiting in line for tickets. Undaunted, our group made their way around the grounds of the castle and saw it from all outside angles, besides enjoying the gardens and fountains with not a soul around them.

Back to the train and the first real ride through the mountains with long tunnels, deep gorges, small villages and farms.

Citizens for Intervention in Federal School Action, the brief hopefully will convince the Appeals Court to reverse Judge Roth's order as it affects suburban busing.

Tri-County's attorney, Robert J. Lord, contends that since Judge Roth finds Detroit schools segregated he should confine his proposed remedy to Detroit and not involve the suburban school districts where no segregation ruling has been made.

Even if the segregation ruling is affirmed, said Lord, the proposed remedy "is not merely too much baggage for one vehicle but all baggage without a vehicle; not merely a cart before the horse but a cart without a horse."

Although neither Northville nor Novi has been included in the proposed cross-district busing plan, local members of Tri-County have a vital interest in combatting Judge Roth's all-encompassing ruling, said Mrs. Millard.

She noted that Tri-County now has several hundred members in this area.

before bringing these objections up? All you're accomplishing is delaying this matter for another three weeks."

One of Presnell's objections the one concerning seal-coating a section of Meadowbrook was endorsed by Councilman Denis Berry, creating some uncertainty among the other councilmen as to how Berry would vote on the resolution.

Bond had informed the council that a five-sevenths vote was required to pass the resolution setting up the special assessment district. Council was well aware that Presnell would vote no and Donald Young has consistently opposed the $14 per front foot assessment as being too high, meaning a "no" vote from Berry could have scrapped the whole project.

With Louie Campbell, Evans, and William O'Brien having voted "yes" and Presnell having voted "no", Young's name was called.

Apparently unsure of Berry's vote and not wanting to see the Meadowbrook paving project abandoned merely for the principle behind his vote, Young asked to abstain until the end-an action which brought the protest of Presnell, who argued that abstentions must be made before the roll call begins.

Mayor Crupi ruled Young's temporary abstention legitimate, however, and the roll call continued. First Crupi and then Berry cast yes votes, providing the five votes necessary for passage. Young then concluded the balloting with a no vote, making the final margin 5-2.

amendment had been that it allowed recreational facilities in M-1 as well as M-2 and M-3 districts. As the M-1 designation is frequently used as a buffer zoning abutting residential districts and he did not feel that tennis clubs or skating rinks should be located next to residential areas, Evans said he had voted against the amendment.

The councilman went on to say that he would reconsider his vote if the M-1 zonings were deleted from the amendment. The matter was sent to the planning board who revised the amendment in keeping with Evans' comments.

After hearing comments from both the 11 Mile Road and Old Orchard residents Monday, the planning board unanimously recommended adoption of the amendment to the city council, an action which drew the ire of the 11 Mile residents, who charged their objections had not been heard.

Mayor Joseph Crupi addressed himself to those charges.

"We aren't dealing with specific requests here tonight," said Crupi. "We're dealing purely with theoretical considerations. The city must provide for all land uses within its boundaries and the question that we're confronted with is should these recreational facilities be located in commercial or industrial areas."

The council voted to adopt the amendment by a 4-3 margin, with Edwin Presnell, Denis Berry, and Louie Campbell casting the dissenting votes, while William O'Brien, Donald Young, Crupi, and Evans favored its adoption.

Presnell and Berry said they would approve the amendment only if it could be designated that the facilities be located only in the center of a planned industrial subdivision. Presnell also objected to the low valuations recreational facilities would have in terms of real property value.

Campbell cast his vote after questioning City Attorney Howard Bond about the effect adoption of the amendment would have on the proposed roller skating rink of Ebejer Associates. Bond replied that Ebejer would be governed by the amended ordinance, 3 districts.

therefore being unable to proceed with plans for the roller skating rink.

As matters presently stand, however, Sugden Corporation is also unable to proceed with construction plans. Their property on 11 Mile Road carries a M-1 zoning and, according to the amended ordinance, ice skating rinks can only be built in M-2 and M-3 districts.

List 87 Crashes

Most of the traffic accidents in the City of Northville during the first half of 1972 took place between 3 and 4 p.m.

A report recently issued by the city's traffic division showed that 87 on street accidents took place between January and June.

Ten of the accidents occurred between 3 and 4 p.m. Eight accidents were recorded between each of the following times: 11 a.m. and noon; 2 and 3 p.m.; and 5 and 6 p.m.

Six accidents took place between 7 and 8 a.m. and five accidents occurred during each of the following hours: midnight and 1 a.m.; 8 and 9 a.m.; 10 and 11 a.m.; noon and 1 p.m.; and 7 and 8 p.m.

Four accidents took place between 1 and 2 p.m. and between 4 and 5 p.m., while three occurred between 1 and 2 a.m. and between 6 and 7 p.m.

Two accidents were reported between 8 and 9 p.m. and 11 p.m. and midnight, while one accident took place at each of the following times: between 6 and 7 a.m.; 9 and 10 a.m.; and 10 and 11 p.m.

No accidents occurred between the hours of 9 and 10 p.m. or between 3 and 6 a.m.

Amend Pact

Township Board members authorized Supervisor Gunnar Stromberg to sign an amended agreement exempting Northville Public Schools from bearing costs of maintaining street lights and storm sewers in the Highland Lakes development.

The action was taken in a special meeting last Wednesday, August 9.

The amended agreement covers the school district's 10-acre site in the Levitt and Son development.

Executed last June, the original agreement, from which the amendment exempted the school district, was made between the township, Levitt and Son and the condominium association. It specified that any maintenance costs will be paid by Levitt and the association.

According to the document signed last week, Levitt, through the condominium association will bear the maintenance costs of the street lights and storm sewers up to the school's property.

School Business Director Earl Busard said the school districts will pay costs for maintenance all lights and sewers on its own property.

ORDINANCE NO. 18,190

AN ORDINANCE AMENDING SECTION 17.02 OF ARTICLE XVII, AND SECTION 18.02 OF ARTICLE XVIII, OF ORDINANCE NO. 18, KNOWN AS THE ZONING ORDINANCE OF THE CITY OF NOVI:

THE CITY OF NOVI ORDAINS:

PART I. That Section 17.02 of Article XVII of Ordinance No. 18, known as the Zoning Ordinance of the City of Novi, is hereby amended by the deletion of the words "skating rinks," and by the addition of the following to sub-paragraph (c): "but excluding ice and roller skating rinks and indoor tennis courts", whereby said sub-paragraph shall now read as follows:

"(c) Commercial recreation facilities, such as swimming pools, bowling alleys, and dance halls, but excluding ice and roller skating rinks and indoor tennis courts."

PART II. That Section 18.02 of Article XVIII of Ordinance No. 18, known as the Zoning Ordinance of the City of Novi, is hereby amended by adding the following words to sub-paragraph (b):

"(b) Banks, theatres, assembly halls, restaurants, recreation and dance halls but excluding ice and roller skating rinks and indoor tennis courts, testing and research laboratories, open air sales or display of motor vehicles, parking lots, auto courts, public utility buildings, transformer stations or sub-stations without storage yards and uses similar in character to any of the above permitted uses which will not be detrimental either by odor, noise, smoke or vibration to the district in which they are located, or to the adjacent zoning district."

PART III. That Section 20.02 of Article XX of Ordinance No. 18, known as the Zoning Ordinance of the City of Novi, is hereby amended by the addition of the following sub-paragraph:

"(6) For indoor tennis courts, roller skating rinks and ice skating rinks."

PART IV. That Section 21.02 of Article XXI of Ordinance of the City of Novi, is hereby amended by the addition of the following sub-paragraph:

"(b) For indoor tennis courts, roller skating rinks and ice skating rinks."

PART V. EFFECTIVE DATE. This Ordinance is hereby declared to be immediately necessary in the interest of public welfare, health and safety, and shall become effective immediately after posting and publication thereof in manner prescribed by the City Charter.

Made and passed and adopted by the City Council of the City of Novi, Michigan, on the 14th day of August, A.D. 1972.

Cities to Receive Highway Funds

Second quarter Motor Vehicle Highway Fund collections, representing a total of $61,187, is being distributed to the cities of Northville, Novi and Wixom, the State Highway Commission announced this week.

All state gasoline and diesel fuel taxes and license plate fees go to the Motor Vehicle Highway Fund.

After deduction of collection costs and the Waterways Commission's share, 46 percent of the proceeds are distributed to the Department of State Highways, 34 percent to the state's 83 counties and 20 percent to 529 incorporated cities and villages.

Under this formula, the Highway Department will receive $45,861,776 as its share of the second quarter collections. The counties will receive $33,897,835 and the incorporated cities and villages will get $19,939,903.

Locally, Northville is to receive $16,649; Novi $34,488 and Wixom $10,052.

Last year second quarter receipts for these three communities were: Northville $15,180; Novi $31,583 and Wixom $9,184.

Amounts received by other area cities this year include: Plymouth $33,069; South Lyon $7,724; Brighton $10,711; Walled Lake $12,035; Farmington $28,954; and Livonia $333,887.

GOP Taps Ed Hodge

Edward Hodge has been elected president of the Greater Northville Republican Club, succeeding A. Ben Kline.

Other officers chosen in the recent election are: Thomas Schwartz, vice president, Hester Courter, secretary and Fay Waldren, treasurer.

"The national and local elections this year are of extreme importance to the people of the Northville community," Hodge said.

The club has scheduled a meeting for 8 p.m. on August 21, at the home of Tom Schwartz, 45145 Mayo Drive.

According to Hodge, the meeting will be "the kick-off session for the club's programs for the coming elections."

New books available in the public library this week are:

IN NORTHVILLE

"The Settlers," Meyer Levin; The settlers are those hardy pioneers who, to escape oppression in Middle Europe at the turn of the century fled to the eternal homeland of Palestine.

"The Savage God," A. Alvarez; The author traces changing attitudes toward suicide, from primitive to the alienation in the 20th Century. He examines the relationship between suicide and creative imagination.

"Out of the Dark," Norah Lofts; A young 19th Century girl's world; explodes, with violence when her step-brother is found murdered and the evidence points to her.

"The Nick Adams Stories," Ernest Hemingway; These semi-autobiographical stories present Nick as a child in the northern woods, as an adolescent and as soldier, veteran, writer, husband and parent.

IN NOVI

ADULT

"The Outposter," Gordon R. Dickson; Science fiction. Overpopulation on Earth City is handled by a lottery that sends unlucky ones as colonists to alien planets.

"The Japanese Mistress," Richard Neely; An attractive though neurotic suburban socialist is murdered and her husband is the prime suspect

"Doctor's Destiny," Elizabeth Seifert; Dr. Storm Linder's future in his grandfather's hospital seems settled until he meets an attractive student training to be a surgical technician.

"Handmade Rugs from Practically Anything," Jean Ray Laury; If you can sew, knit, crochet or darn a sock, you can make the rugs pictured on the pages in this book.

An experiment in providing rapid reference, loan and photocopy service to all public libraries in Oakland County is the aim of Oakland County's Reference Hotline.

Serving the Novi Public Library, the hotline operates from Oakland University's Kresge Library.

Crime has paid, at least in the eyes of Oakland County librarians.

Certified Oakland County libraries split a total of $136,342.26 in fines collected in municipal and district courts during the past fiscal year.

Distribution of the money is based on the number of people served by each local library. Novi Public Library received a total of $1,479.25, while Northville Public Library received $355.47 for that portion of the city which lies in Oakland County.

If you're moving, curtains can be a problem. Old curtains are sometimes a life-saver, and sometimes they are absolutely no good at all. The windows in your new home may be of totally different dimensions from those in the old house. But be flexible. You may find some unexpected combinations. Old bedroom curtains may find a new home in the study. Kitchen curtains may be just right for the new back hall. Experiment; it's worthwhile, and it's fun!

Moving—or redecorating where you live? Experiment with new colors and styles of carpeting, furniture and lamps from SCHRADER'S HOME FURNISHINGS, INC., 111 N. ## College To Host Meeting

Schoolcraft President C. Nelson Grote has extended a special invitation to his eight community college counterparts in the greater Detroit area for a meeting on August 18 to explore regional coordination among the colleges.

In calling the conference, Dr. Grote expressed the hope that a voluntary regional consortium could affect the nature of impending state coordination or control. He said it is a matter which must be dealt with now because state coordination is a pressing question in the minds of many at the state and national levels.

Dr. Grote noted examples of regional coordination now in existence in the state, especially that of eight community colleges in northern Michigan. He said it seems reasonable to believe that those in the metropolitan area of greater Detroit have an equal if not a greater need to work more closely together on a formal basis.

Invitations went to Dr. Stuart M. Bundy, Henry Ford Community College; Mr. Thomas Lloyd, Highland Park College; Dr. John Dimitry, Macomb County Community College, and Dr. Ronald Campbell, Monroe County Community College.

Also Dr. Joseph Hill, Oakland Community College; Dr. Richard Norris, St. Clair County Community College; Dr. David Ponitz, Washtenaw Community College, and Dr. Reginald Wilson, Wayne County Community College.

A tentative agenda prepared by Dr. Grote calls for the election of an acting chairman and recording secretary when the meeting opens at 10 a.m. This will be followed by a discussion and review of State Coordination plans, a discussion of current interinstitutional projects and activities in the Region and State, and consideration of forming a regional consortium of the nine greater Detroit area community

He's Back On Campus

A young man who began his college career when Schoolcraft first opened in 1964 is back on the campus where he started three degrees and nearly a fourth later.

Spencer Johnson is spending eight weeks in the Schoolcraft Student Affairs Office as an intern this summer, a final requirement for his specialist degree in higher education administration. Like many others, he launched his college career, part-time, in the fall of 1964 at Schoolcraft, earned his associate degree and then went on to bachelor and masters degrees at Eastern Michigan University.

With fall semester registration coming up at Schoolcraft on August 21 and 22, Jonson said he would recommend the college to others wanting to get started on a transfer program such as the one he followed.

Optometrist Opens Office

Dr. Jerome L. McDowell, optometrist, has opened a new office in Northville at 113 East Dunlap Street, located in the new addition on the rear of Jacks Barber Shop at 111 East Dunlap.

Dr. McDowell was born and raised in the city of Detroit, graduating from Redford High School and proceeding for two and one half years of pre-optometry at Michigan State University. Upon completion of an additional four years of professional training at Ohio State University, where he graduated with the degree Doctor of Optometry, he went into association with his father, T. E. McDowell O.D., who has had an optometric practice in Detroit for 30 years.

Dr. McDowell and his wife, Paula, a graduate of Michigan State University in education, have been married for three years and have a son, Scott, 14 months old. They moved to 506 Griswold Street last year.

Dr. McDowell's professional services will include eye examinations for adults and children, contact lenses, visual training, glaucomaocular pathology detection, and spectacle repair and alignment. Receptionist at the office will be Mrs. Karen Davis.

Dr. McDowell's qualifications, beyond college include being a member of the American Optometric Association, Michigan Optometric Association, and Wayne County Society of Optometrists.

SPEAKING for The Record

By BILL SLIGER

Statisticians like to talk in averages.

Like the report on the 1970 census published in this week's edition.

The average age in Northville township is 24.4; in the Wayne county portion of the city it's 34.2; in Novi it's 24.9 and in Wixom, 26.8; but in the Oakland county portion of the city it's 19.5.

So according to the law of averages, you're younger if you live north of Eight Mile road in the city of Northville. Which just might be enough to cause some people to move.

Anyway, the statistics go on to prove that the "young" sector also contains the highest percentage of married people, some 70.8 per cent compared to 47.4 in Northville township, for example; family sizes are also larger.

Statistically speaking, averages may be worthwhile.

But I've never trusted them.

The .141 hitter always gets a home run to win the game. Or there's the story about statistician who drowns walking across a river with an average depth of four feet.

And I've either experienced, read or heard about these classic "law of averages" failing to hold true just when you're ready to bet on them:

—that the garage door will obey the electronic signal door and open;

—that the magic-eye door in the supermarket is working;

—that a motorist turning a corner will stop if you're walking with the green light;

—that the water at the end of the dock is deep enough for diving;

—that the manhole cover in the sidewalk is secure;

—that there's a gas station open along the expressway;

—that your daughter took along a house key when she went out on a late date;

—that the coffee isn't blistering hot;

—that sugar's in the sugar bowl and salt's in the salt shaker;

—that the porch steps aren't slippery;

—that a stranger you meet on the golf course can't break 90;

—that the balance shown in the family checkbook is correct;

—That you'll remember the names of old friends as you introduce them;

—that the friendly dog won't bite;

—that you don't need a map to get to your destination;

—that your wife's got the play tickets;

—that there's no need to make advance motel reservations when traveling;

—that the keys are in your pocket, not the ignition, after you've locked the car doors;

—that the doctor knows what he's talking about when he says "this won't hurt";

—that the trench coat you take out of the restaurant is yours;

—that the youngster standing on the curb won't race across the street.

Don't depend on the law of averages, my friends.

You'll die in a sea of exceptions.

JOHN M. AMBERGER

YES...

We shouldn't put all of our correctional hopes within the prison walls. There is a time during the prison sentence, especially toward the end, when it is beneficial for the inmate to return to the world of outside work gradually and with the guidance and controls of the correctional institution. Allowing felons to work in the community not only exposes them to the most realistic training situation but also allows the inmate to earn money to defray the cost of his keep and supply money for the family he left behind.

The most promising criminal rehabilitative programs have been those that have given inmates training and entrance into the world of work. Employment for most people is the only way to enter into the mainstream of American society with all of its benefits.

When an individual is employed, he gains entry into our health system through group health insurance; he gains the security for his family and old age through social security insurance; he gains respect, trust, and credit through his job in addition to all the material things his wages will bring. It is no wonder then that, as one Federal study has shown, inmates who are placed in regular employment have two to three times better chance of staying out of trouble than those released without a job.

In the long run, I feel that society is best protected by solid correctional programs that change criminals' lifestyles and life chances. Our present "revolving door" policies are fiscally expensive and degrading to both out

NO . . .

A column like "Speaking for Myself" has its own built-in problems. First of all, finding questions of general interest isn't always easy. And secondly, there are times when it is extremely difficult to find anyone to participate in the column.

Last year, a question about the proposed super-sonic transport had the staff up in arms, contacting Congressman after Congressman in a vain effort to find someone to write on the subject.

This week's question also turned out to be a real headache for staffers. The 'yes' side was easy enough to get, but it was found to be impossible to come up with someone opposed to the idea of giving felons work within the community.

More than 25 persons were contacted—people from all walks of life, of varying ages and with various occupations. Not one could be found who opposed the idea in question.

They Called It 'Eloise'

By JACK W. HOFFMAN

The red brick buildings are beginning to chip and crack.

Much of them unused, they hardly resemble the impressive but foreboding place I remember from my youth.

I remember the place simply as Eloise. An aunt was a patient there...a mental patient.

Corner of Michigan Avenue and Merriman Road, surrounded by cornfields.

Sixty-five miles and more than three hours from our Flint home by a 1936 Chevrolet over the Dixie Highway.

Black Horse Tavern

Today's generation know it as Wayne County General Hospital...the large, relatively new facility located in the backyard of the red brick buildings.

But years ago Eloise was a four-year-old girl, a hospital and a post office. It was the offspring of Wayne County's first poorhouse, first insane asylum.

On March 3, 1831—six years before Michigan became the 26th state to join the Union—Wayne County supervisors decided to build a poorhouse at a cost not to exceed $1,200.

So in the days before cost overruns, a 17-acre site on the Fort Gratiot turnpike (northwest corner of Gratiot and Mt. Elliott) was purchased for $200, and a two-story wood building was constructed at a cost of $950.

It was called Wayne County House.

It housed 25 to 40 persons, with separate accommodations for men and women.

Historical accounts indicate the County House soon became "almost uninhabitable and the inmates greatly neglected." So two years later it was placed under the direction of the Reverend Martin Kundig, a Catholic clergyman who was assisted by three ladies of the Order of St. Clare.

A cholera epidemic swept through Detroit in 1834, dumping many of the orphaned children into the County House. By 1837 the number of inmates stood at 100, and of these about 60 were bedridden.

Costs to care for these patients - bankrupted Father Kundig, and his personal property was seized. Not even a special $3,000 appropriation by the state legislature could cover his losses.

the County House became pitifully overcrowded, forcing officials to seek a new and larger facility.

Thus, at a cost of $1,600, a 240-acre farm, located in Nankin Township, was purchased. The property included the then famous Black Horse Tavern, a log structure, where whiskey sold for three cents a glass and 20 cents a gallon.

Next door to the Black Horse, a 78-foot long, 26-foot wide building was constructed to house the relocated County House. But of the 111 inmates in the original facility, only 35 were willing to be transferred to the new house in the "wilderness" of Nankin.

(Ironically, more than a century and a quarter later patients and staff rebelled again, this time when they were required to vacate Wayne County General Hospital with some of them going to Northville State Hospital).

The "keeper" of the County House and his family lived in the log tavern.

The "wilderness" was a magnificent stand of oak, maple, beech, hickory, walnut and butternut trees through which a road, reportedly impassible two-thirds of the year, and a railroad ran from Detroit to Ypsilanti.

This highway eventually was named the Old Chicago Road and later, Michigan Avenue, when it was extended all the way to Chicago.

Several years later, in 1858, a "pest house" was built on the grounds for "smallpox patients, should any such cases occur." It was used as a schoolhouse until 1861. In 1876 four patients in the Asylum caught smallpox and died in the pest house.

In 1869, the same year The Record was founded by Samuel Little, a separate building was constructed on the grounds to house the county's first insane asylum. That year Little wrote about the asylum several times, not knowing, of course, that his own younger brother, Andrew, would die there of "brain disease" more than a half-century later.

Late in the 1800's, probably because many of the County House patients were indigents without families, the county cemetery on the grounds reportedly became a prime place for "body snatching" by Ann Arbor medical students. Later, enactment of the "anatomic law" provided that all unclaimed bodies of paupers were to be sent to medical schools.

In 1894, Freeman Dickerson, former Detroit postmaster and at the time president of the Board of County Superintendents of the Poor, petitioned the federal government for establishment of a post office on the County House grounds.

The name "County House" was found unacceptable by the Postmaster General, who ordered only short names of one word be used. Also rejected were the names of superintendents and their wives.

Eventually the board chose the name of Dickerson's four-year-old daughter, Eloise, and it was promptly approved on July 20, 1894, and the new post office, "Eloise, Michigan," was established.

By 1911 the name Wayne County Asylum, was changed to "Eloise Hospital" and in 1913 the name "Eloise Infirmary" was designated to replace the name Wayne County Alms House. Eloise Sanatorium was the name given to the new hospital for outdoor treatment of TB patients.

For most, however, all of the facilities on the grounds were known simply as "Eloise."

Partly because the public identified Eloise as a poor farm and mental asylum and partly because of the growth of its general hospital division, the institution was renamed in 1945 as Wayne County General Hospital and Infirmary.

When the new Wayne County General Hospital was dedicated in 1962, a special guest at the occasion was a Mrs. Harlow N. Davock—daughter of the man who had sought and won a post office on the Black Horse Tavern site... a 71-year-old woman named Eloise.

The proven road to sales success!

Fact: over 94% of everybody uses the Yellow Pages 70% of those make calls to firms while 30% go directly to the advertiser without calling. Smart businessmen know the Yellow Pages reaches customers, produces sales! That's why they've found it pays to feature addresses and slogans prominently in their ads... to use display ads to stress reliability and to let buyers know the range and variety of brand name products sold and serviced. They also include days and hours open, if delivery service is available, what credit cards they'll accept. And they're represented under all headings pertaining to their business.

Now's the time to expand—or begin—advertising in the Yellow Pages. Just contact your representative—in the Yellow Pages under "Advertising—Directory & Guide" Call soon. Beat the deadline. Join the following businessmen who travel the Yellow Pages road to sales success:

LANDSCAPE CONTRACTORS—Stone Age Landscape Supplies, Van Dyke, Utica—Mr. John J. Merle

"It took us only one year to prove the value of the Yellow Pages. Being new in business, and a new advertiser, we kept close check on what the ads were doing for us. Based on our survey, we determined about 50% of our calls came from the Yellow Pages."

MOTORCYCLES—Detroit Honda Stores, Chalmers, Detroit—Mr. Gil Engles

"Yellow Pages advertising motivates a person who is ready to buy to call us, or come in and see us, and buy from us rather than another dealer. Because of our locations on Detroit's east side, and in northwest Detroit, Warren and Romulus, we advertise in the Detroit Yellow Pages, all six of the metropolitan directories and the Ann Arbor-Ypsilanti Yellow Pages. Our phones ring constantly and I must credit this primarily to our Yellow Pages program."

CONTRACTORS—GENERAL—Nick Manzella & Daughter Improvement Co., S. Mill, Pontiac—Mr. Nick Manzella

"I've always made a point of finding out where my customers come from and how they found me. Since I changed locations early in 1970, between 70 and 80% of my business has come from the Yellow Pages."

LUMBER—RETAIL—Tela-Warren Hardware & Lumber Co., N. Telegraph Rd., Dearborn—Mr. Leonard Zucker

"Two-thirds of my advertising budget goes into the Yellow Pages. And my business increased 27% during 1971! Most of that increase can be directly attributed to increasing the sizes and placements of ads in the Yellow Pages."

HALLS & AMPHITHEATRES—Camoron Hall, S. Telegraph Rd., Taylor—Mr. William J. Campbell

"I placed an ad in the West and Downriver directories and, within a few months after they were out, my date book was filled for the remainder of the year. Business hasn't let up since. I started asking every customer how he or she happened to find us and knew I had made a wise move when 90% of the people said they found us in the Yellow Pages."

DOORS—Doors Galore Inc., Schoenherr, Warren—Mrs. Bernice Osborne

"Since we've placed display ads in the East Area, North Woodward Area and Detroit Yellow Pages, about one-third of all our new business can be traced directly to the Yellow Pages."

TOWING—AUTOMOTIVE—Shelton Towing Service, Marion, Redford—Mr. J. C. Shelton

"The first year I advertised in the Yellow Pages my business doubled as a result of my ad! No other advertising has ever performed for me like the Yellow Pages."

R & L Wall Girls Win Novi League

Peggy Daley blasted a home run and joined Nancy Porter and Bobbie Wilkins in posting perfect four for four performances at the plate as the trio paced R and L Wall to a 12-3 conquest of Ashley & Cox Real Estate that enabled them to clinch the Second Division championship of Novi's Parks and Recreation Commission's Girl's Softball League.

Novi Plans Physicals

Physical examinations for all Novi High School football candidates will be given Thursday, August 17, in the high school gym at 9:30 a.m. Novi Football Coach John "Jack" Osborne announced Friday.

The examinations, available to ninth through twelfth graders, will be given by Dr. Lyle Fettig.

Osborne reminded prospective athletes that physical examination cards must be on file with the school before equipment can be issued or the individual can be allowed to work out with the team.

Football practice starts Monday, August 21, at 8 a.m.

Soapboxes Race Soon

The third annual Soapbox Derby, sponsored by the Northville Jaycees, is slated to get underway Saturday, August 19, at 10 a.m.

As in the past two years, the Derby will be held on the Maplewood Drive hill and trophies will be awarded to the winners.

Entrants must be between 9-14 years of age and soapboxes must be a minimum of two to three feet in length. Skateboards are not eligible.

To register for the Derby contact either Dave Pevovar at 349-0635 or Dennis Diddy at 349-4746.

Icemen Register

Pre-season registration for all boys interested in playing organized hockey this winter will be held Saturday, August 19, at the Northville Presbyterian Church.

Boys between the ages of 7-16 may be registered between 10 a.m. and noon. Parents must be present at time of registration to sign necessary forms, reminded Harry Schaeffer, president of the Northville Hockey Association.

The R and L victory proved to be an important one as the West Oakland Bank girls also posted a victory, a 15-11 decision over Staman Insurance. Had R and L lost, they would have had to share the crown with West Oakland Bank.

In another Division Two game Ashley and Cox squeaked past Vicite Engineering 12-10.

Division One and Division Two All-Star teams were selected by team managers last week.

Division One All-Stars are Denise Stipp, Lillie Jolgren, Jill Sibole, Sue Velianoff, Debbie Hensel, Kate Pierce, Ann Couch, Cathy Natzel, Marty Mason, Tammy Thivierge, Sue Kerr, Sharon Weber, Mary Mulligan, Dede McAllen, Sue Holmes, and Peggy Turpin.

All-Stars representing Division Two are Nancy Porter, Ginger Hensel, Bobbie Wilkins, Christine Derrick, Sherrie Johnson, Rene Faras, Joy Benson, Melissa Faulkner, Sue Thomas, Sheryl Mason, Kelly Beall, Cindy Pierce, Kelly Mills, and Lynn Lambert.

DIVISION TWO (final standings)

TENNIS CHAMPIONS—John Boland, left, and Ron Angell represented Northville in the Michigan Parks and Recreation Department's Tennis Championships held recently at Port Huron. Boland failed to hold an early lead and lost in the first round to the tournament's eventual runner-up in the 16 and under division. Angell, however, swept through three straight matches to win the state championship in the 12 and under division. Dan Condor, not pictured here, also participated in the tournament, but was eliminated in the first round by the eventual 14 and under champion.

Schraders Wins Again

People will little note nor long remember, but the big story this year in the Northville Recreation Department's Tee-Ball League has been the emergence of the Schrader's Home Furnishings squad.

Or, as they are known in the dugouts of Tee-Ball rivals, "Schrader's Raiders."

Losers of their first four games, the Raiders suddenly found the winning formula and won six of their next seven contests.

Rain limited Tee-Ball play last week to just a single game, and, true to form, the Raiders continued their surge by bombing the Del's Shoes Bears 20-8.

Schraders scored 10 runs in each of the games' two innings, while the Bears picked up seven runs in the second and an eighth run in the top of the third.

Eric Schrader, Dan Yoder, and Mike Ziemann each collected three hits and Dave Martin, Steve Schrader, Don Kauffman, Kevin Anderson, Sean Sporkowski, and Tim Brown contributed extra-base blows to spark the Raiders. Dan Nyquist with three singles and Jim Ziegler and Marty Cramer, each with a double, were the leading hitters for the Bears.

Amazin' Mets Eye Perfect Season

Northville's version of the "Amazin' Mets" — the Thompson-Brown Realtor Mets of the Knothole Hardball League — are just one game away from a perfect season.

The Mets picked up their tenth and eleventh victories of the season last week and now have just one game left separating them from an undefeated season.

The Mets clinched the Knothole Hardball championship with their two victories last week. The VFW Giants have won as many games as the Mets have, but have also suffered a pair of setbacks and with just one Met game left, there's just no way the Giants can overtake the leaders.

The Mets opened play last week by routing the Hyatt Construction Wolverines 26-7, scoring five runs in each of the first, second, fourth, and sixth innings.

Jeff Koziara was the hitting star as he collected five hits, including a triple and double. Greg Suckow with a double and triple and Greg Bach with a pair of two-baggers also paced the Mets. Dave Herbel had a double and triple and Dan Davis had a triple for the Wolverines.

The Mets had to stage a three-run seventh inning rally to wrest a 16-13 decision from the Northville Record Dodgers, who did their best to bring the Mets' undefeated streak to an end.

Greg Suckow, Jeff Koziara, and Jim Kula each had three hits for the Mets, while Carl Kohns with three hits, and Brian Prom, Todd Mack, and Mike Coolman with two hits apiece paced the Dodgers.

The second-place VFW Giants brought their 1972 season to a successful close with a pair of wins last week.

Monday the Giants saw the Del's Shoes Twins break an 8-8 deadlock with four seven inning runs only to come back to score five runs in the bottom of the seventh to take a 13-12 victory.

Jim Bedford's triple brought the Giants to within one run of the Twins and then Al Barrow pounded a home run to bring in the winning tallies. John Holdsworth, Steve Maisonneuve, and Jeff Norton had three hits apiece for the determined Twins' team.

The Giants other victory came considerably easier, as they pounded the Northville Record Dodgers 23-8. Jim Bedford's four hits included two triples and a double and Cliff Griggs contributed four consecutive singles to the Giants' 26-hit total. Mike Hooth, Brian Prom, and Mark Hooth each had three hits for the Dodgers.

The John Mach Ford Yankees, league leaders early in the season and now trying to hang on for third place, also posted a pair of victories last week.

Monday the Yankees scored 11 times in the final inning to take a come from behind 14-8 decision from the Casterline Indians. Clayton Williams had a pair of doubles in that 11-run uprising and finished the game with three hits to top the Yankee hitters. Pat McLaughlin, Dan Golze, and Rick Torgeson combined for six of the Indians' 10 hits.

The Yankees continued their winning ways Friday with a 22-9 verdict over the Choo-Choo Car Wash Chiefs. Doug Castillo had two doubles and a triple, Todd Pascoe had two doubles, Don Bernum had a home run, and Robbie Tuisku had two singles and a double to share hitting honors for the Yankees. Jack Stabenau, Steve Dykstra, Dane Cates, and Joel Hoffman had eight of the Chiefs' 11 hits.

The Thompson-Brown Realtor Orioles and Hyatt Construction Wolverines each won two games last week and in both instances one of those victories was a forfeit from the Northville Police Padres.

The Orioles' legitimate victory was a 12-6 conquest of the Choo-Choo Car Wash Chiefs. Scott Medley stroked three singles and Dan Quinn, Gary Beason, Mark Swayne, and Greg Barons all had doubles for the Orioles, while Ron Cates belted a homer and Dave White stroked a double for the Chiefs.

The Wolverines' legitimate victory was a 16-14 squeaker over the Dodgers. Dan Davis slugged a third inning grand slam for the Wolverines and was joined by Mark Crane, who had four hits, in leading the victor's 25-hit attack. Mike and Mark Hooth had three hits apiece for the Dodgers.

Pirates Take Softball Title

The race in Northville's - Knothole Softball is now strictly for second place.

Del's Shoes Pirates, the season-long leader, officially clinched the league championship last week with a convincing 22-1 victory over the Township Police Athletics.

Two teams are still battling for second place, or, more correctly, one team is still battling for second place. The Choo-Choo Car Wash Warriors have already gained a share of the runner-up spot, as they brought their season to a close with a pair of triumphs last week.

Still battling to be Number Two, however, are the Northville Hardware Colts. The Colts, like the Warriors, have lost three games this season, but, unlike the Warriors, they still have two games to play. Should they win those next two contests, they can finish the season tied for second place.

The Pirates put the finishing touches on a highly successful season last week by clobbering the Township Police Athletics 22-1. The Pirate's only loss all year was an 8-5 defeat inflicted by the Northville Hardware Colts in a hard-playing ten-inning affair.

More typical of the Pirates' season long play was their victory over the Athletics. The champions, featuring a strong batting order from top to bottom, ripped out 38 hits in amassing the 22-1 decision. Scott Robbins, Carl Lang, Brady Lineman, and Conrad Newman each collected four hits, while Greg May and Doug Iverson each chipped in with a double to spark the awesome offensive display.

The Athletics' sole run came in the first inning when Tim Hoult, Jack Pattwell, Matt Fasang, Kurt Wolfe, and Neal Hartshorne all singled.

The Choo-Choo Car Wash Warriors also brought their season to a close with a pair of victories last week.

First to fall to the Warriors were the Northville Realty Astros, who lost 10-4. Mark Morriset and Ron France with three hits apiece paced the victory, but they got hitting help from Keith Foster, Bob Thomson, Rusty Carpenter, and Brian Starr who stroked out doubles Jamie North with two doubles and a single and Rob Reitenour with a double and single were the top Astro hitters.

The Warriors then pounded their way to a 12-4 conquest of the VFW Rams. Bob Thomson, Keith Foster, and Ron France with three hits apiece paced the 24-hit attack. Bob Eaker and Jim Thompson, each with a pair of two-baggers, and Rod Barrons, with a, double and triple, joined in spearheading the Warrior attack. Chuck Meredith's three hits were tops for the Rams.

The Northville Hardware Colts kept their chances for second place alive by also - winning a pair of games last week.

One of the victories came easily, as the Athletics had to forfeit their game for lack of a full team.

The other Colt victory was just about as easy, however, as they unleashed their power hitters to record a 26-3 mauling of the Northville Drug Panthers.

Brian Pascoe had four doubles and a triple; Scott Richmond had two doubles and two home runs; and Dave Ward had a double, triple, and home run, as the trio led a 35-hit attack. Dale Hawkey also homered for the Colts in the rout. Mike Lupini had three hits for the Panthers, who also got a double from Mark Tuggle and a pair of doubles from Rob Marzome.

Battling for fourth place in Knothole Softball are the Northville Realty Astros and the Northville Drug Panthers. Both teams recorded victories last week to remain deadlocked for fourth place with 8-6 marks.

The Astros had to rally for two final inning runs to beat the seventh-place Casterline Lions 12-11. Rob Ritenour's bases-loaded single brought in Jamie North with the winning run. Ritenour, North, and Eric Mueller each stroked out three hits to spark the Astros. Joe Traudt of the Lions led all hitters in the seven-inning contest as he collected five straight singles. Brian Pratt and Chris Schrott contributed two-baggers to the Lion attack.

The Northville Drug Panthers had a much easier time of it, beating the winless A&W Cougars 12-5. Mike Lupini, Dean Axtell, and Chris VanGieson each rapped out three hits and John Ludwig and Brian Hicks had doubles to spark the Panthers. Bob Darrel and Gary Lauber picked up three hits apiece for the Cougars, who lost their thirteenth game of the season without a victory.

Choo-Choo Clinches Softball Crown

As they have time and again throughout the season, Don Thomson's Choo-Choo Car Wash powerhouse withstood all challenges last week to walk away with just about every honor in sight in the Northville Recreation Department's Men's Slo-Pitch Softball League.

It was a week of decision for the Car Washers. And they could be forgiven for having a feeling that everybody was out to get them, because, quite frankly, everybody was out to get them.

First of all, they had to face a determined Renwick, Grimes, and Adams Insurance team from South Lyon that could have pulled into a first place tie for the American League crown with a win Friday.

But the Car Washers won, clinching the American League championship.

Then, having survived that challenge, the Choo-Choo team went into a best-of-three series with the Northville Jaycees, National League champions, for the city championship and the right to represent Northville in the State Class B tournament.

And once again the Car Washers emerged victorious, winning in two straight games.

The Choo-Choo Jaycee series Saturday night highlighted the week's play. The American League is generally conceded to be considerably tougher than the National League, and on the whole that statement is 100 percent true. The Jaycees, however, felt they could post a formidable challenge to The Car Washers, and, as it turned out, that feeling was justified.

The Car Washers took a 5-3 victory in the first game, but were hard-pressed. Some daring base running by Omar Harrison, who scored from first base on a single, enabled the Jaycees to take a 2-0 lead in the third inning. Paul Woodard evened the score in the fifth with a line shot over the left field fence that brought in John Fawcett from first, and then two Jaycee errors enabled Dave Broad to score the go-ahead run in that stanza before Joe Hay struck out with runners on second and third.

Dick Norton doubled and scored on Tom Lang's sacrifice bunt to knot the score at 3-3 in the sixth, but the Car Washers clinched the victory in the seventh as Broad singled in Fawcett and Woodard with the winning tallies.

The first game proved to be the Jaycees' best effort. Choo-Choo pitcher Don Philippi limited them to just five hits in the second game as his teammates recorded a 7-2 victory to clinch the city championship.

Brian Gilles scored the first Choo-Choo run in the first, but Pete Magnan crossed the plate for the Jaycees in the second.

But then the Car Washers pulled away, scoring three runs in both the third and seventh innings to take the victory. Larry Vanderbie, playing a brilliant game at shortstop for the Jaycees, finished off his team's run production with an inside-the-park home run leading off the fourth inning.

Choo-Choo third baseman Brian Gilles proved to be his squad's top player in the second game, going three for three at the plate and scoring three runs.

The Jaycees managed to pose a far greater threat than the Renwick, Grimes and Adams contingent had in the battle for the American League championship. The Car Washers broke the game open with three runs in the third, fourth, and fifth innings to take a 10-4 victory.

Again it was Gilles who paced the Car Washers as he banged out three hits, one of them a home run, and scored three times. Also collecting three hits for the champions were John Fawcett, Joe Hay, and Don Philippi. Paul Jamieson, Don Smith, Bill Hogg, and Dennis Knapp had two hits apiece for RGA.

RGA had to top a Palace-Phil's 76-Stones team (much tougher than its 7-9 record would indicate) to even have a shot at tying the Car Wash for the American League title.

Vince Givens ripped out four hits including a fifth inning homer as RGA scored nine times in the fifth and sixth innings to gain a 10-6 victory. Five of the Palace runs came in the top of the seventh. Bill Gilbert had a round-tripper for the Palace to share hitting honors with Joe Kluesner, who had a pair of doubles.

The 1971 champions, Northville Lumber, clinched a share of second place with RGA by posting a pair of triumphs last week.

On Wednesday Bill Yoder singled in Gerry Wedge from third base in the bottom of the seventh to give the Lumber a 6-5 decision over Lipon's Sporting Goods. It was the third hit of the game for Yoder, who collected one-third of the Lumber total.

The Lumber's second triumph was a 14-1 thrashing of Civitan-Casterline Friday. Bob Kucher had four singles and Doug Swiss and Bob Simpson each collected a double and triple to ignite the Lumber. Al Cox had a pair of doubles for the losers.

Tied for fourth place in the American League are Lipon's and Palace-Phil's 76-Stones. And although both teams lost once last week, each team also posted a victory.

Paul Mack had three hits and Bill Gilbert blasted out a double and triple to power the Palace to a 9-4 victory over Plymouth State Home. Terry Courter and Ed Angner had doubles for the Home.

Lipon's came up with two runs in the bottom of the seventh to beat Exotic Plastic and Rubber 8-7, as Ed Hock's single drove in Ron Evasic with the winning run. Ray Graham and Jeff Jones each had three hits for Exotic.

Exotic, one of two teams to beat Choo-Choo this year, was again on the losing end in a game with Plymouth State Home. Terry Courter and John Maciejewski had two hits apiece for the Home, while Jeff Moon banged out a single, double, and triple to pace Exotic.

In an inter-league game the BCA Truckers got a seventh inning home run from Ken Kujala to beat the Presbyterian Men's Club 10-9. Dutch VanIngen had three hits for the Presbyterians.

The Jaycees wrapped up the National League championship two weeks ago, leaving the rest of the teams to scramble for the runner up positions.

Village Oaks clinched second place with a pair of victories last week. Fred Baker gave up just seven hits and Bob Conway stroked out four straight singles to lead the Oaks to a 10-2 victory over Ford Valve. Bill Segura and Terry Salsbury each had a pair of safeties for the Valvers.

The other Oaks' triumph was a 21-13 decision over the Our Lady of Victory Men's Club. Chuck Gramlich and Julius Wright pounded out home runs for the Oaks, who had 18 extra-base hits. Bob Conway and John Moorhead had four hits apiece in the Oaks' attack. Don Ashcraft had four hits for the Catholics.

CAT Diesel Power clinched third place in the National League by topping the Northville Newcomers 10-9, as Dave Ball's sacrifice fly brought in Jeff Nast with the winning run in the bottom of the eighth. Dave Coe paced CAT with a single, double, and homer in four trips to the plate. Bob Coates was the only Newcomer with more than one hit, as he had a pair of singles.

The Newcomers clinched fifth place by beating the VFW 18-13. Terry Heaton homered in the victory and Dick Lurvey, Joe Pisan, and Chuck Coltrane added doubles for the Newcomers. Jerry Lyke and Bob Norton each had a double and triple for the veterans.

John Mach Ford collected 13 hits in topping the Presbyterian Men's Club 13-5. Wayne Loontjier had a home run and triple among his three hits and Bob Brooks had two doubles among his four hits as the pair paced the car dealers. Larry Meyers had three hits for the Presbyterians.

Filters Beaten In Novi Tourney

The regular season over, Novi's Parks and Recreation Commission's Men's Slo-Pitch Softball League began tournament play last week and, as fate would have it, it took no longer than the duration of the first game before the first major upset had been registered.

Thompson's Travel Center, a team which had finished in fifth place with a 5-7 record during the regular season, was the upset for; and the Michigan-Ohio Air Filter squad, a team which had failed to win the league title only after losing a play-off game to the Novi Inn, was the upset-tee.

The Air Filters were the only one of the top three teams to falter in the first week of the two-week, single elimination tourney, however. The league champion Novi Inn was awarded a bye and the third-place Novi Jaycees skipped past the Novi Policemen, as both teams advanced to the semi-finals.

The Men from Ben's and the Jaycees were scheduled to meet Tuesday with the winner advancing to the finals against the winner of Monday's clash between Thompson Travel Center and Meadowbrook Lakes.

The big news, last week of course, was the Travel Center's defeat of the Michigan-Ohio Air Filters. The Filters had finished the first half of the regular season with a 4-2 record, but had come on strong in the second half of the season and seemed to be the team to beat for the honors.

By the end of the regular season they had tied Novi Inn for first place and a play-off game was slated. But suddenly the Filters folded faster than Myron Floren's accordion during a rendition "Lady of Spain." The Inn won the play-off game to win the championship, and last week the Travel Center heaped abuse on top of injury by eliminating the Filters from the tournament.

The game was a wild one. Dan Laho's first inning homer gave the Travelers an early lead and then Jim Pelkola and Bill Hennonen belted home runs for the Travelers in the third as they scored six big runs to move out in front 7-1.

The Filters weren't done yet, however. Paced by Fast Eddie Stanczak, who belted a grand slam home run in the fifth and drove in three more runs in the sixth, they pulled into a 10-10 tie at the end of six innings.

The Travelers scored a pair in the top of the seventh as Hennonen tripled home Harold Ortwin and then scored on Dan Fessler's single, and those two runs proved decisive as the Filters could score just once in the bottom of the seventh.

The other two games had more predictable outcomes even though the final scores were a bit unusual.

Todd Price was just about all the Jaycees had going for them through the first five innings of their game with the Novi Policemen. Price's two-run second inning home run accounted for the entirety of the Jaycees' scoring in the first five frames, and, when he wasn't clubbing the cops with his bat, he was thwarting them with his pitches.

Price gave up just four hits in registering the first shutout of his career and pitched the Jaycees to an 8-0 victory.

Councilman Louie Campbell, pitching for the law enforcers, was almost as effective, yielding just five hits through the first five innings, before getting shelled with six Jaycee runs in the sixth.

Jerry Fortenberry, Chuck Gramlich, Joe Pochter, and Gary Chamberlain had two hits apiece for the Jaycees. Jack Crawford, Frank Appleton, Jack Grubb, and Father Harding picked up the four police hits.

Meadowbrook Lakes also made it through the first week of play by bombing the Northville Burger Chefs 20-2. Trailing 2-1 at the end of the first inning, the Lakers erupted for eight runs in the second and never let up in amassing the lop-sided total.

Wil Pilch and Lindy Mills belted home runs for the Lakers and Pilch and Mike Fritz each had four hits in five at bats to spark the Lakers' 25-hit attack.

Gary Durand, Bill Ruck, and Tom Mobray combined for six of the Burger Chefs' 10 hit total.

BIG HITTER—Most feared hitter in Novi's Men's Slo-Pitch Softball League was Ted Battistone of the Michigan-Ohio Air Filters. Battistone's nine home runs were four more than the league's second most successful home run hitter collected. But in spite of Battistone's potent bat, the Filters were eliminated from Novi's post-season tournament in a major upset by the Thompson Travel Center team last week.

Phillies Back in First

Del's Shoes Phillies regained sole possession of first place in Powder Puff Softball last week, and they did it without having to play a single game.

The Phillies were the direct beneficiary of an 8-7 upset victory that the Choo-Choo Car Wash Squaws registered over the Green Giants, the former league leaders.

The loss was just the second of the season for the Green Giants, but the Phillies have only lost one game and consequently moved back to the top of the standings.

The Squaws scored twice in each of the first and sixth innings and once in the second, third, fourth, and fifth to account for their winning eight-run total. The Green Giants duplicated the feat exactly with the exception of the fourth inning when they failed to score and thus dropped the decision 8-7.

Colleen Burke and Julie McDaniel each had three hits and Jean Egbert contributed a double to pace the Squaws. Debbie Maguire's three hits included a double and triple and Rita Williams chipped in with a pair of singles, as the duo collected five of the Giant's eight hits.

In spite of their upset of the Green Giants, the Squaw's week was marred by the surge of the Charles Chipster Bombers.

The Bombers won twice to pull into a third-place tie with the Squaws. Both teams now have 4-4 record.

Victim of the Bombers' successes was the VFW Cobras. On Thursday the Bombers registered a 9-3 triumph over the Cobras, and then came back to record an 11-3 victory under the lights Friday night.

Pacing the Bombers' Thursday victory were Lynn Sylvester, Liz Smith, Kathy Corcoran, Lisa Lauber, and Brenda Twiddle, each girl having two hits. Jacki

Sherman with two hits was the only Cobra with more than a single safety.

In the second encounter between the two teams, the Bombers wrapped up an 11-4 victory with a seven-run third inning. Cathy Corcoran, Cari Wedge, Liz Smith, and Lynne Sylvester had two hits apiece to spark the triumph. Cathy Herbel, Carla Schronce, and Jacki Sherman each had a pair of hits to account for half of the Cobras total.

They're Winners In Dune Buggies

A father and son team copped honors in their respective divisions in Dune Buggy Drag Races held recently at Riley Center.

Edward Hancock and his 13-year old son Howard were the winners.

Ed took first place in the Class C-modified dune buggy category, but it was Howard, according to his father, who had the major achievement. Racing against adult competition and having only a 36-horse power engine as compared with the 40 horse power machines of his opponents, Howard still managed to grab first place in the Top Eliminator Class B Bandit-type Dune Buggy Race.

"It was his driving skill and the job he did in building his engine which gave him the edge," said the senior Hancock of his son's performance.

Mannisto Wins Bike Marathon

Northville's first 25 mile bicycle marathon was an unqualified success.

"I'm very pleased with the way things went," said Bob Prom head of the Northville Recreation Department which joined with Town and Country Cyclery in sponsoring the gala affair.

Finishers in each division were as follows.

25 Mile, All Ages Race: Mannisto, first; Wayne Enders, 19, second; and Dana Atton, 16, third. Winning time: 1 hour, 13 minutes, 20 seconds.

25 Mile, 5 and 10 speed bikes, 14 years and older Race: James Loper, 31, first, Butch Gillelan, 15, second; Brent Ashby, 14, third. Winning time: 1 hour, 15 minutes, 5 seconds.

25 Mile, 13 years and under Race: Mike D'Haene, 13, first; Joe Mason, 13, second; Mark Van Ingen, 12, third. Winning time: 1 hour, 35 minutes, 18 seconds.

25 Mile, Girls Race: Lori Puzzuoli, 14, first; Mary Dresbach, 13, second. Winning time: 1 hour, 38 minutes, 50 seconds.

10 Mile, Sting Ray, ages 6-16 Race: Brian Prom, 11, first; Deanna Bailey, 12, second. Winning time: 55 minutes, 30 seconds.

Swimmers Compete

Ten Northville youngsters were members of the bulldog Aquatic Club that journeyed to Lakewood, Ohio, last weekend to participate in the Charles Foster A.A.U. Swim Championships.

Fifty-one teams, eleven from Michigan and some from as far away as Hawaii, competed in the two-day affair. The Bulldogs, who use Schoolcraft College as their home base, finished fifth in the final team standings.

Only two Northville athletes won awards in individual events. Ginny Gans finished sixteenth in the 50 yard backstroke in the seven and under category and Bob Simrak finished eighteenth in the 50 yard breaststroke in the eight and under category.

Other Northville residents participating in the meet were Cathy Coates, Art Greenlee, Gineen Greenlee, Mark Hechtman, Kevin Kelly, Tom Cook, Russ Gans, and Tom Simrak.

Obituaries

Mrs. Ambler Dies

A link with Northville's early history was broken Monday with the death in Detroit's Harper Hospital of 102-year-old Mrs. Metta J. Ambler.

Wife of the late Mark C. Ambler, she had been in failing health for the past two weeks.

Born September 19, 1869 in Farmington, she was the daughter of George D. and Lucinda M. (Sidney) Conroy.

Oldest of four girls and three boys, largest family then living in Oakland County, Mrs. Ambler grew up on a "mile square" farm in the vicinity of 10 Mile and Orchard Lake roads, a short distance from the Farmington Nursing Home where she had been living at the time of her death.

Her grandfather had purchased the large farm for $1 per acre.

She moved to Northville at the age of 21, living for two years with The Record's then publisher, F.S. Neal. She married Mark Ambler, son of William H. Ambler and grandson of William H. Ambler, Sr., all of whom figured prominently in early Northville industry and business circles.

The once famous Ambler Mill, located near Rural Hill Cemetery where today only a few crumbling slabs of concrete remain to mark the big dam, and the old Ambler hotel, located at the southwest corner of Main and Center streets, are part of her late husband's family history.

She took pride, too, in the fact that her mother-in-law, Mrs. Mary Ambler, was a school principal in Northville.

Mrs. Ambler had a vivid recollection of the early Northville area.

Horse racing on Dunlap Street, wood sidewalks and dirt streets, circuses that came to town, the county fair, the "wonderful big skating rink (Princess Rink destroyed by fire many years ago)," and her father-in-law's ice house and brick yard were but a few of her recollections.

In her lifetime of changes and technological advancement none equaled the walk on the moon, she commented upon celebrating a recent birthday.

"Oh, and of course, electricity is important," she added.

Her greatest treasure was her large family.

Preceded in death by her husband, a daughter, Mrs. Leida Myers, and a son, Sherrill Ambler, she is survived by five grandchildren, including Richard Ambler of Northville, 10 great grandchildren; and six great great grandchildren.

Rosary was said Tuesday night at Casterline Funeral Home, followed by a 9 a.m. funeral service at Our Lady of

EURAL F. CLARK

Funeral services for Eural Freeman Clark were held Wednesday, August 9, with burial at Rural Hill Cemetery. He died at the age of 74.

Mr. Clark lived in Northville all of his life until moving to Farmington three years ago.

He was born in Northville township on October 18, 1897, the son of Jesse and Edith Clark.

He was a retired employee of the Wayne County Road Commission and served on the Northville Board of Education.

Survivors include his widow, Gladys Heeney Clark, two daughters, Mrs. Lawrence (Corine) Mayer, Miss Gloria Clark, and one grandson, Jonathan Clark Mayer, all of Farmington.

BESSIE R. GOTRO

Services were held Wednesday, August 16, for Bessie Ruth Gotro, formerly of 44239 12 Mile Road, who died August 12 at Farmington Nursing Home after a long illness. She was 88.

A resident of the area for the past 42 years, Mrs. Gotro was born January 17, 1884, in Ohio, the daughter of Frank and Elizabeth (Story) Perkins.

Her husband, John F., died in 1953. Mrs. Gotro was a member of St. Williams Catholic Church in Walled Lake.

Survivors include four daughters, Mrs. Kenneth (Ruth) Cook of Novi, Mrs. Clarence (Janice) Renn of Bradenton, Florida, Mrs. Lou (Norma) Asborno of Santa Ana, California, Mrs. John (Florence) Pantalone of Novi, three sons, Robert of Plymouth, John of Northville, Allan of Gainesville, Florida, a sister, Mrs. Bert Jaycox of Elyria, Ohio, two brothers, Arthur Perkins of Palmetto, Florida, Barton Perkins of Detroit, 19 grandchildren and 20 great-grandchildren.

Rosary was said Tuesday, August 15, at the Casterline Funeral Home with services held at St. Williams Catholic Church Wednesday. Officiating was the Reverend Father Tom Maher. Burial was in Oakland Hills Memorial Gardens, Novi.

GRACE J. MOORE

Grace Jean Moore, formerly of 517 Langfield Drive, died Thursday, August 10, at Oak Hill Nursing Home in Farmington. She was 84.

Born April 9, 1888, in Aspen, Colorado, she was the daughter of Hugh T. and Idella Maw (Lumley) Moore.

A resident of the area for the past 11 years, she was a member of Holy Cross Episcopal in Novi and American Red Cross Blood Bank.

Her husband, Julian P., died in 1963.

Surviving is a daughter, Mrs. Paul (Della Mae) Dixon of Northville, a son, John T. Moore of Oakland, California, nine grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Saturday, August 12, at Holy Cross with the Reverend Leslie Harding officiating. Cremation was at Evergreen Crematory.

Palbearers were John D. Allen, John P. Dixon, Charles T. Dixon and Douglas Dingwall.

Elected

Richard A. Reynolds, president of Firebaugh-Reynolds Roofing Company, 45240 Grand River, Novi, was elevated to the presidency of the State Association at the Associations Convention held at Boyne Highlands Inn, Harbor Springs, Michigan on July 27-30.

Reynolds had previously served as treasurer and vice president.

mechanics of the thing," Baldwin said, "but the idea is okay?"

Mitchell did not reply.

Baldwin commented that the "efficiency of government can be increased by joining the two governments."

Mrs. Hammond said that "You're forgetting the people who moved out here from the city. They do not want to look like a city. We (the township) can provide services better and more economically than a city."

Baldwin told her she "cannot defend that point."

Schaeffer said that Baldwin's argument that one government can provide services more economically than two governments is "based on the assumption that the people want these services. How do you know?" Stromberg commented that he is getting "calls everyday from people moving in to the township who want services."

Schaeffer asked if by merging the two governments, "Will we be creating a unit that will ultimately be more than can be economically served?" Baldwin stated no. "The peak of efficiency, shown through studies, is reached at a population of 200,000."

Stromberg, Straub and Baldwin said population projections for the ultimate growth of the township do not estimate anything that high.

The question remains, who will present the township's side before the boundary commission?

"I don't know if they were flying saucers or what. But I do know that we all saw something very weird that night."

Police officers called to the scene saw none of the objects. "The people were extremely excited," said one Novi policeman, "and their descriptions compare favorably with other reported sightings of U.F.O.s. It's entirely possible that they did see something."

The report is on file presently and will be investigated further before a final dispensation is made.

Technology brings more natural gas to Michigan

A typical natural gas reforming plant

For the past year Michigan has been affected by the national shortage of natural gas, and by the limited supplies available by pipeline from other states. At the same time, the demand for natural gas — one of the cleanest sources of energy — has continued to rise.

Now, thanks to a technological breakthrough developed by the British Gas Council in 1964, a new source of natural gas will become available to our 860,000 customers — from Canada.

To provide this additional gas for Michigan, Consumers Power Company is building a $40-million natural gas reforming plant at Marysville, in St. Clair County; the first of its kind in this hemisphere.

This new reforming process takes light liquid hydrocarbons and reconstitutes, or reforms, them into natural gas. In 1972 these natural gas liquids will begin arriving from Alberta, Canada, via a 1600-mile pipeline. By 1973 we expect to be able to provide 100 million cubic feet of natural gas daily for our customers; and output is expected to double in 1974.

Natural gas is vital for Michigan and its people, and Consumers Power is seeking every available means to meet this ever-growing need.

Picture Messages

New Look in Traffic Signs

It has been said that one picture is worth a thousand words and the Federal Highway Administration is operating on that premise.

Highway and street traffic signs and pavement markings will be undergoing extensive changes during the next few years.

International-type traffic control devices, emphasizing the use of pictures and symbols rather than written messages, are being adopted in the United States.

The symbolic signs are not entirely new, with curve and crossroad symbols having been in use for several years in this country.

However, symbols and pictures will be placed on all traffic signs by 1975, with companion word messages also used until motorists and pedestrians become accustomed to the new system.

Symbols have several advantages over word messages, the Highway Administration explains. They provide almost instant communication with drivers, since they are understood at a glance, and they overcome language barriers, which officials note is important in view of the growth of international travel.

Some of the present word signs will remain in use because the Highway Administration believes they have proved effective in the past and are easily understood. These include stop signs and speed limit signs.

States and local communities have a target date of 1973 to implement new pavement markings; 1975 for signs; and 1977 for signals.

Color will play a major role in the Bicycles are used by many persons on portions of heavily traveled roadways. This mixing of bicycles and motor vehicles is extremely dangerous and wherever possible, separate facilities are being provided for the bicycles.

The two signs shown here will appear where bicycles are restricted from roadways and where separate paths for bicycles are provided. A guide sign, with the bicycle symbol, is also being used to direct bicyclists to permissible routes.

Where sudden changes in the number of highway lanes occur, motorists need to be alerted in advance so that the proper maneuvers can be completed. The three signs above appear in a series to serve as a repeating reminder to merge into the adjacent lane.

Michigan Mirror: Defence of the Hot Dog

LANSING—State officials leaped to the defense recently of the seemingly lowly Michigan hot dog. This included visits to Washington, D. C.

The hot dog (as produced in this state) is attacked by a group of national meat packers who don't like the restrictions put on what can go in the hot dog and by consumer groups which object to what is allowed (in most other states).

Michigan has the highest standards of any state in the union for its hot dogs. The state allows only fresh skeletal meat, muscle tissue only, to be used as the meat ingredient in hot dogs.

That means Michiganders don't get such remnants of a butchered animal as lips, snouts, ears, bladders, lungs or entrails in the hot dogs they buy in this state.

THE FEDERAL LAW isn't as strict. It allows the use of such left over parts of the body, lumped together under the term offal, to be used in hot dogs, sausages and bologna.

Three large meat firms, Armour, Wilson and Hormel, have gone into the federal courts trying to get the courts to rule the Michigan regulations are too strict and need not be enforced. This would allow them to freely ship into the state meats they processed elsewhere under less rigid restrictions.

THE MEAT FIRMS lost their case in the federal district court and now are trying again at the U.S. Appeals Court level. Both Gov. William G. Milliken and Attorney General Frank J. Kelley have been firm in fighting the meat people, Kelley in the courts and Milliken in the political arena.

When meat firms lost their initial court effort, they went to Congress to try to get a bill passed forbidding Michigan for enforcing its stricter regulations.

Milliken fired off a letter to the House Agriculture Committee protesting the proposal to force Michigan to weaken its stand. He told the committee the proposal was "an injustice to Michigan con-

'No' Vote Changes Park Plan

Voters throughout the counties of Livingston, Macomb, Oakland, Washtenaw and Wayne, on Tuesday, August 8, rejected "Proposal D-Metro Parks", which would have given the Huron-Clinton Metropolitan Authority an additional 1/4 mill tax to expand its park system and redevelop Belle Isle Park.

The count was 324,524 "NO" votes to 184,625 "YES" votes.

The Authority's expansion plans would have also provided for sufficient funds to build the proposed North Branch Metropolitan Park, a 3,000-acre site in Ray Township in Macomb County, a yet unspecified site in north central Oakland County, and Mill Creek Metropolitan Park, a 4,000-acre site in Lima and Freedom Townships west of Ann Arbor.

"We are disappointed that this park proposal has failed to win voter support at this time," said David O. Laidlaw, Authority Director.

"Our first step will be to analyze our financial situation and the HCMA's Board of Commissioners will then decide on the Authority's future course," said Laidlaw. He also stated that because the voters rejected the additional 1/4 mill, the Authority—

(1) Will not be able to take over and redevelop Belle Isle because the project is too costly to undertake without added revenues.

(2) Will probably review possible new sources of revenue at its parks or consider additional charges of some type in order to offset the growing costs of operations and maintenance which is now absorbing about two-thirds of its annual budget.

(3) Might continue to give consideration to the development of one or more of the proposed future park sites, but at a much slower pace than was proposed with additional funds.

(4) Perhaps at some future time seek voter support for additional millage so that it can obtain additional lands and meet its future obligations to develop the "much needed" metropolitan parks to serve the citizens of the district.

Horse's Mouth

This column is open to news of all breeds of horses and ponies. Send your questions, comments, and horse show news to "Horse's Mouth", care of South Lyon Herald, South Lyon, MI 48178.

On June 26 Hy-Lites Jean produced a chestnut filly foal for owner Jayne Marsh, as a result of Jayne's winning of the state-wide Morgan Essay Contest last spring sponsored by Miss Trudeau and her Oldtime Morgan Horse Farm. Named Jay-Rich Miss Judy, the filly is marked identically to her dam. Also a registered Morgan, the sire of the foal is Miss Judy Trudeau's Merry Corwin.

Handy hint: To remove botfly eggs from the legs of a horse, try using a piece of fine sandpaper and rub it over the eggs with the lay of the hair. and be gentle. Don't sand off the hair!

Watch his ears! The ears on a horse are designed for his hearing, but to a horseman they are much more than that. They are the instrument panel which reflect the horse's interest, alertness and temperament.

Many older, experienced horsemen watch the ears so automatically that they forget to pass this important information along to younger riders. It is important for the rider to keep his eyes on the horse's ears.

Normally, when a strange rider mounts a horse, the horse's ears will be turned back towards him. The horse wants to know the kind of rider he is, and what to expect from him. He will flick one or both ears forward momentarily at the beginning of the ride.

If things go smoothly after awhile, he will keep one ear turned back toward the rider and one pointed forward.

An interesting sidelight on ear study is the old Indian method of splitting the ears of a favorite war horse, to make it easier to recognize him in the dark. A touch of the hand could ascertain that this was the right mount for a night raid.

The ear signs of a riding horse are his most expressive means of communication. A good horseman watches the horse's ears carefully.

Chamber Backs YRS

Year-round school, a concept that is being used experimentally in Northville, has been backed by the Michigan State Chamber of Commerce as a means of cutting the state's operation costs.

Michigan school districts, claims State Chamber President Harry R. Hall, could save $215 million alone by implementing a year-round school system and by making better use of driver education training.

In addition, making use of new innovations in school construction could save each district 40 per cent of its annual building costs on all exterior construction.

These three new proposals join nine other Chamber-sponsored, money saving ideas developed earlier that would save the additional $250 million each year.

All have been thoroughly researched by the Chamber's education specialists and a volunteer task force of businessmen and approved by the board of directors, according to Hall.

"The increasing demand for more money for school operations is based on the myth that a perennial boost in budgets will cure all the ills of education," Hall said.

"Unless taxpayers unalterably insist that existing human and financial resources be utilized more effectively, there will be neither adequate education nor adequate public dollars for anything else. It is our firm conviction, based on well-documented research, that education has adequate funds to meet present and future needs if long overdue internal structural and program reforms are made," he continued.

"The proposals of the State Chamber are designed to reallocate existing funds, to improve educational achievement and to abruptly

Northville Downs Will Host Another Sanctioned Motorcycle Race Saturday Night

Teddy Newton to Defend Title

Teddy Newton, winner of the last motorcycle race in Northville on May 27 and will be back Saturday night to defend his title.

He'll be facing a field of the nation's best riders in the $3,500 event. Promoter Staton Lorenz predicts a field of more than 150 licensed, professional riders.

Newton has won more than a half-dozen events this year and lists the half-mile Downs' track as one of his favorites. His 27.28 seconds' record on the local track will be challenged, however, by such top national riders as Mark Brelsford, Dick Mann, Jim Rice, Gene Romero, Mert Lawwill, John Hately, Larry Darr and Bart Markel.

The field will also include Dave and Doug Sehl, Gary Nixon, Charlie Chapple, Robert E. Lee, Rex Beauchamp, Jack Warren, Corky Keener, Frenchy LeBlanc, Kenny Roberts and Gary Landry.

Speeds of up to 100-miles-per-hour are developed on the big 750 cc machines.

In addition to the professional riders there will be junior and novice classes competing in the program of 15 to 18 races.

Competition begins at 7 p.m. with the three main events and the 15-lap Expert Final at 10 p.m. Fans can watch the night races in the air conditioned grandstands of Northville Downs.

Backs Year-Round School

halt the intolerable tax increases at the state and local level."

"The education crisis cannot be solved by more dollars. It can be solved by more education per dollar." By implementing a year-round school system, districts could save taxpayers $200,000,000 a year in school construction and debt costs alone.

Basically, the State Chamber has four plans for year-round school organizations that, according to the proposal, will "permit better utilization of existing facilities and properties and curtail total costs of education while improving educational achievement."

Briefly, the principal types of year-round school plans are:

Trimester, composed of three 78-day sessions in which the school day is lengthened from six to seven hours and the students attend 156 instead of the usual 180 days. Two-thirds of the students are in attendance at a time with one-third on vacation.

Quarter divides students into four groups, each group attending three 12-week sessions and vacationing, according to family units, the other.

In the 45-15 method, which is being tried in Northville, students are also divided into four groups with each group attending school for 45 class days and having 15 days off. In this method the classes scheduled are staggered 15 days apart so only three of the four groups are in class at a time.

The Quinquennial system also divides school time into 45-day units with four comprising the school year and the fifth as a vacation period.

With these ideas in mind, the proposal will save money by eliminating the need for new construction, since building is done either to take care of expanding student populations or to renovate old buildings, Hall said. Both could be eliminated since the schools would be in constant use. Old buildings could be closed down and present ones used to take care of increased enrollments.

Advantages to the program, according to the Chamber, include being able to more easily find jobs for the students since they would filter into the market year-round instead of just the summer months, being able to plan new types of courses that need extra time, having shorter vacations more frequently, helping eliminate late-summer juvenile delinquency that is frequent now, and better utilization of equipment and schools.

An additional $982,800 could be saved if schools used their own driving ranges more and city street driving less in driver's education courses, Hall said.

The new State Chamber-sponsored proposal suggests that this plan would increase the pupil-teacher ratio from 3:1 for on-the-street experience to 18:1 for range training and, in the long run, save taxpayers nearly $1 million.

"We're not advocating completely cutting out the on-the-street training, just cutting it down from the customary six hours a week to three," Hall said.

The Chamber's report further documents research studies indicating the multiple car method used on the driving range is just as effective as on-the-street method.

And on-the-street training is still possible since between the time a student passes the course and receives his license, he must wait for 30 days. During this time, the study shows, he may work with his parents on a learner's permit.

Since the public is constantly turning down bond proposals for new school construction, it would make sense to think of the alternatives to building that new school, the State Chamber recommends in its third money-saving proposal.

By seriously considering an alteration in the organization of grades, and consolidating several districts into one unit, educators could make the best use of existing facilities and discourage the need for new ones.

The proposal further recommends that existing grade separations, K-6, 7-9, 10-12, be flexible so that current building facilities are used to their best advantage as student population within each division changes.

The Chamber also suggests that school districts with continuing facilities' problems consider consolidating with other districts, thus forming one unit and cutting building costs considerably.

These plans, coupled with a little foresight in building facilities, can save school districts 40 per cent in exterior building costs each year, the Chamber estimates.

Flexibility is the key word and new buildings should be designed to accommodate the entire community, not just school children. By using metal skin or pre-finished, water-proofed, concrete blocks for outside construction, districts could save about $2 per square foot in building costs.

Inside, if schools were planned with adequate lighting to eliminate the need for windows, thousands a year could be saved in window-cleaning costs alone, not to mention the saving due to vandalism, heat loss and the costs of shades and drapes for windows.

In 1971 the public turned down almost $190 million in bond proposals for construction of new school facilities. The State Chamber feels it would be better to cut the costs of construction and eliminate the chance of monies not being approved for important educational needs. An additional $250 million savings can be implemented by cutting back on staff expenditures.

These cuts include increasing the pupil-teacher ratio, repealing teacher tenure, hiring paraprofessionals for supervisory positions like hall duty, lunch room supervision, etc., requiring teachers to spend 25 hours a week actually teaching and instituting cooperative purchasing arrangements among school districts.

The State Chamber research shows that by increasing the pupil-teacher ratio from 24:1 to 30:1 schools can save $158,026,848 with the present teacher tenure system and $199,130,598 without it. The Chamber has documented that the increased student load has no detrimental effects on the individual's education

This proposal goes hand in hand with one that would require teachers to spend at least 25 hours a week doing what they were hired for—teaching. This would eliminate the need to hire new teachers and get the highly-paid help-teachers who make $7 to $8 an hour—out of lunchroom supervision and into teaching.

For these principally supervisory tasks the State Chamber proposes hiring paraprofessionals at half the cost of the teachers and allowing them not only to take over in study halls and lunch rooms, but helping with grading simpler tests-like multiple choice

If the repeal of the Teacher Tenure Act were added to this list, the schools could further cut their expenditures by getting rid of incompetent or unproductive teachers who are at the top of their salary scales and hiring younger ones to replace them.

If school districts pooled their purchasing efforts, a State Chamber-conducted survey proves that they could save $1.6 million for each one per cent savings. It can be done with proper leadership and a solid set of purchasing guidelines developed by the state department of education sumers, and I urgently request you to delete it from the measure."

State Agriculture Director B. Dale Ball appeared before the committee and won his points. The committee finally voted 9-8 to knock out the weakening amendment, giving Michigan another victory.

The battle isn't completely over yet, and Michigan officials have vowed not to give up.

"In most other states, sausage, bologna and hot dogs serve as a dumping ground for a wide range of animal by-products under prevailing federal standards," Ball says. "Our quality products are worth fighting for."

New Look in Traffic Signs, Markings

new traffic markings. Red indicates stop or prohibited action. Green shows movement permitted or gives directional guidance. Blue is used for signs leading motorists to services and yellow indicates a general warning.

Black on white indicates regulatory signs, such as speed limits. Orange conveys construction and maintenance warnings and brown is for public recreation and scenic guidance.

Shapes of the new signs are also important. Diamond shaped signs signify a warning while rectangular signs with the longer dimension vertical provide traffic regulation, such as merging traffic, low clearance or termination of a divided highway.

Octagons will still identify stop signs and inverted triangles will be used for yield signs. Both will be red in color.

A pennant will signify no passing; pentagons will identify school zones and circles will warn of railroad crossings.

Pavement markings will also be changed, with yellow being used much more than in the past.

Yellow lines will separate traffic traveling in opposite directions. The center line on a two-way road will be marked with yellow dashes, differentiating the road type from dashed white lines used on multi-lane one-way roadways such as divided highways.

Other uses of yellow will include left edgelines on divided roadways where traffic cannot pull entirely off the roadway and for marking obstructions and islands which must be passed on the right.

Changes in traffic signs, signals and markings have been under study since 1964, officials said, and have been recommended by the Federal Highway Administration.

They were decided upon after a study by the American Association of State Highway Officials, National League of Cities, National Association of Counties, Institute of Traffic Engineers, National Committee on Uniform Traffic Laws and Ordinances and the Federal Highway Administration.

Pedestrians, including school age children, often must cross roadways where heavy vehicle traffic constitutes a hazard. These signs are to inform motorists of frequent crossings by pedestrians and to alert them to the possibility that young children may dart out on the roadway.

Two-lane, two way roadway, passing permitted.

Two-lane, two way roadway, passing prohibited one direction.

Multi-lane, two way roadway, crossing centerline permitted only as part of left turn maneuver.

Two-lane, two way roadway, crossing centerline permitted only as part of left turn maneuver.

Multi-lane, two way roadway, with two way left turn lane reserved exclusively for left turning vehicles in either direction.

Multi-lane, two way roadway, with center lane direction reversible during specified periods. Such markings are supplemented with signs or signals.
