School Board Prepares For Special Education

NEW OFFICERS will be elected to the Northville Community Chamber of Commerce, probably at a meeting slated for this week. At its annual dinner meeting last week, Chamber members elected Carl Johnson to the board of directors, and re-elected Margaret Zayti and N. C. Schrader.

NORTHVILLE TEACHERS were praised by Superintendent Raymond Spear, who told board members this week that following a personal survey of each classroom in the system he came away convinced teachers are doing an "excellent" job of teaching. Despite the teachers one-day strike at the outset of the year, Spear said it was the finest start by teachers in his tenure as superintendent. Hangup over negotiations not withstanding, Northville teachers, he said, are exhibiting "real professionalism."

PARKING violators in the township will soon have their fines doubled for paying tickets late. Township trustees directed their attorney to amend the parking ordinance to include a $10 fine for tickets paid more than 10 days after the violation is issued. Tickets paid before that remain at $5.

APPROVAL to apply for a loan not to exceed $250,000 on tax anticipation notes was unanimously approved by the board this week. This figure is the same amount borrowed last year.

REGISTRATION of voters—a special drive sponsored by the Northville Jaycees—will be held at the Northville post office from 9 a.m. to noon and at the Chatham supermarket from 1 to 4 p.m. Saturday.

IN CASE YOU'VE forgotten, tonight's (Thursday) the scheduled public hearing on plans for Maybury State Park. The hearing will get underway at 8 p.m. at Schoolcraft College's Waterman Center.

Despite a philosophical challenge by one member, the Northville Board of Education has approved the hiring of two persons as the first stage in implementing a far-reaching special education program here.

The lone dissenting vote Monday was cast by Trustee Glenn Deibert, who argued against the philosophy of specialized treatment of handicapped.

Trustee Andrew Orphan who voted yes "reluctantly," warned fellow board members the program may signal eventual take-over of all services for the handicapped by local school districts—even to the extent of assuming the services provided by the Wayne County Child Development Center and the Plymouth State Home, both located in Northville Township.

Provisions being made by local school districts, explained Miss Florence Panattoni, director of instruction, represent initial planning for state mandated programs approved by the legislature last year.

The new state act specifies responsibilities of the state education department, the intermediate school districts, and the local districts in providing special education for handicapped from birth through age 24.

Basically, it suggests that children presently being treated outside local classrooms be returned to those classrooms for their formal education—including vocational training.

"The basic philosophy of the district," she said, "has been and continues to be not to separate children from the mainstream of education any more than absolutely necessary. This is in keeping with recently adopted state philosophy..."

"The whole thing tends to make me ill," said Deibert, who argued that such a philosophy can seriously damage local school districts economically if all handicapped availed themselves of these services.

To provide special treatment of handicapped, in the formative years, he said,

Richard Ambler Fills Vacancy

Richard W. Ambler, 49, a former city councilman, was appointed to the Northville Board of Education Monday night to fill a board vacancy.

The appointment was by unanimous action. He was sworn in during Monday's meeting.

Consideration of Ambler and several other former board members, former board candidates and citizens of the district was made by the board at an earlier executive (secret) meeting, Board President Orlo Robinson told audience at Monday's meeting.

Ambler was a unanimous choice of those attending that meeting, he said.

Trustee Glenn Deibert, who did not attend the executive session, told fellow board members that while he had been "thumping" for the appointment of Mark

MAKE WAY FOR ROAD—Part of former councilwoman Beatrice Carlson's (in picture) house was razed this past week in preparation for the extension of Wing Street to Seven Mile Road. The remainder of the house will stand. That portion in the proposed right-of-way was purchased by the city. According to City Manager Frank Ollendorff, construction of the Wing Street extension and completion of the Griswold Street extension in another part of the city are slated for next spring. Top priority in public works projects, however, is the installation of a new storm drain from the Cady-Center street area south and west to the stream near Beal Street, he said.

In Master Plan Proposal

Track Expansion Curbed

New boundaries for future race track development represent the most significant changes in the land use plan proposed recently by the city's planning consultant and now being considered by the planning commission.

This suggested departure from the existing land use plan, part of the city's master plan adopted in 1966, concerns the area lying south of Cady Street of Gardner Street between River and South Main streets.

In the existing plan, long range projections called for Northville Downs to encompass the present area southwest of Seven Mile and Center streets and most of the area west of South Main between Beal and Seven Mile roads.

In the proposal by Consultant Ron Nino now being studied by planners as part of the updating of the master plan, a large part of the area west of South Main has been removed from a track designation and slated for commercial and industrial use.

"There does not appear to be any justification for retaining the designation of extensive areas for race track expansion as indicated on the original comprehensive plan," according to Nino, who suggested that the northern boundary be designated as Cady Street, the eastern boundary the Griswold Street extension and the alley between Yerkes and South Main, and the southern boundary of Gardner Street and Seven Mile roads.

Expansion of the track, he said, can be "adequately accommodated" within this revised boundary.

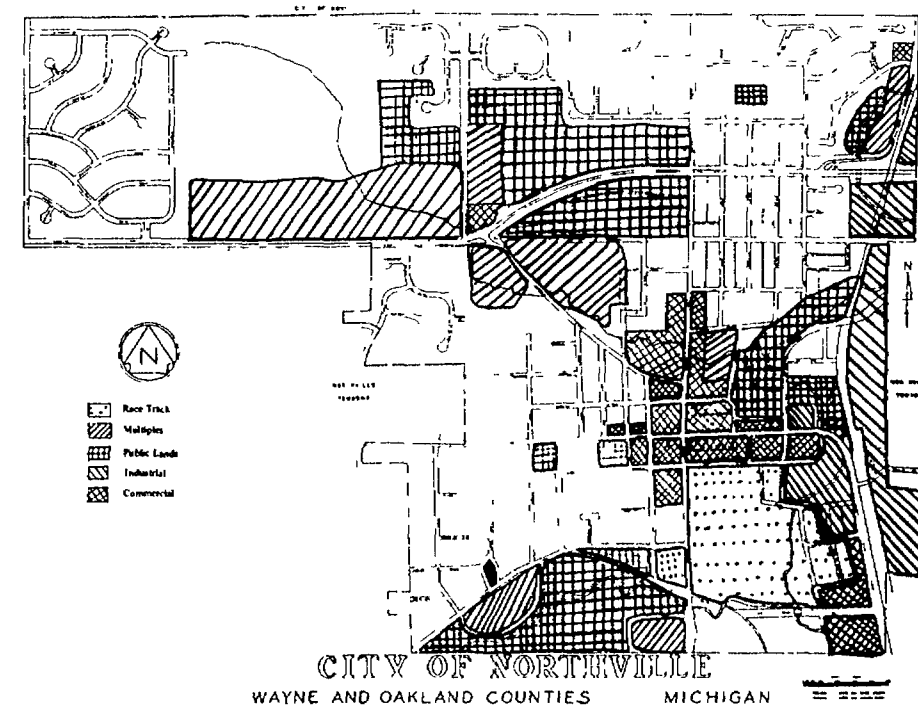

"It is not advisable," he added, "to encourage the further development of stables in the non-contiguous area lying south of Seven Mile Road and west of South Center. This area by virtue of its interesting topography and location within the county parkway would provide a desirable site for residential purposes. The facilities now in this area should be consolidated with expansion of stable facilities in the River Street area."

Nino suggested a commercial classification for the area bounded by Seven, River, Gardner and South

For Township

Trash Pickup Runs into Snag

An unexpected hurdle was dumped into the path of the planned intergovernmental garbage-refuse collection service last week.

It appears, on the basis of an opinion by Northville Township Attorney Donald Morgan, that one or possibly two of the four member communities of the Northwest Wayne County Sanitation Authority may not be able to participate.

Meeting in special session last week, the Northville Township board learned that Michigan law may prevent Northville Township—and possibly Plymouth Township—from joining with the cities of Northville and Plymouth in the service scheduled to start January 1.

On the basis of Morgan's opinion, the board delayed approving a letter of intent to participate in the service and directed Morgan to obtain an interpretation of the law from Michigan Attorney General Frank Kelly as quickly as possible.

(The cities of Northville and Plymouth and the township of Plymouth already have approved letters of intent).

Representatives of the authority meeting with the board last week, including City Councilman Paul Vernon, informally agreed to go ahead with the rubbish pickup bidding process while the township seeks the attorney general's opinion.

Basically, Morgan concluded——That Northville Township may pay for community garbage service only from monies in the general fund by special tax. (In the latter instance, voters of the township would have to first approve the tax).

—That the township has no specific authority to bill the cost of garbage and refuse collection and disposal against the property owners.

—That state law, intentionally or unintentionally, does not give townships, as it does cities, permission to prevent refuse disposal or refuse transporting units within its boundaries without a license.

—That an individual may dump refuse on his own land so long as it does not create a nuisance or hazard to health.

—That townships, may, however, participate in a disposal program of an authority.

Under NWCSA plans, it proposes to accept bids and award a three-year contract to a private company for pickup service in all four municipalities, and bill those municipalities for that service.

In the case of Plymouth and Northville townships, participating township customers would be billed by the township for the service. The two cities plan to pay for the service out of their property tax monies as they are now doing.

The city of Northville presently operates its own pickup service, while the City of Plymouth has contracted out its service. Plymouth's contract expires January 1. Northville Township officials have concluded, that it does not have sufficient monies in its general fund for community pickup and that a special election, at least for the next several months, is highly unlikely.

And since a proposal of Northville township Supervisor Gunnar Stromberg to bill township residents appears, in the opinion of the attorney, to be illegal, the township's participation on January 1 seems unlikely unless the township receives a favorable interpretation soon from the attorney general.

Ironically, Plymouth Township, whose attorney

In Our Town

By JEAN DAY

THE BIG MOVE in our town, of course, has been the relocation of the old library and the Greek revival house on the Millrace. Even those who would have preferred the vintage buildings remain on their original sites have been commenting on how "right" they seem at the Millrace...the site off Griswold street for the historical park.

Because this is a community project, the Northville Historical Society is hoping everyone—from second generation residents to those who recently have moved here because Northville is a "small town"—will support its efforts this year.

It is meeting at 8 p.m. today (Thursday) in the Scout-Recreation building on Cady street. John C. Burkman, president, will welcome new faces.

IT'S A SELL-OUT—all booths for the antique show being sponsored by the historical society are reported sold this week. The show is set for Tuesday and Wednesday, November 28 and 29, at Northville First Methodist Church.

Dealers will set up shop in the airy Sunday school rooms on the upper level. The show replaces the Tivoli Fair of past years.

MANY MOVES have been taking place over the past months as area residents condense or expand, or are transferred.

Friends of Jack and Vercil Blackburn heard details of their move from Orchard Drive to Fairbrook apartments last week end as the couple held a basement clearance sale.

Since this was the home in which Jack Blackburn and his mother were born, moving might have been difficult if sentiment interfered. The outgoing couple, however, look upon it as a way to have more freedom to do other things. Built in 1878, the house was moved from a location by Northville Presbyterian Church to its present spot in 1931.

When the Blackburns move in a week an architect, Norman Shapiro, and his family will move in from Chicago.

(Basement and garage sales are well attended these days with at least a dozen shoppers waiting for the Blackburns' 9 a.m. opening last Friday.

"I'm shopping for things for the place we've bought at Bear Lake," confided Carla (Mrs. Fred) Schwarze, who found marked wooden boxes and an enamel dish pan. She added that the farm near Traverse City has 40 acres—lots of room for their horses.)

The Orin Hoves will be moving late this year into the Cape Cod home they are building on Lexington boulevard behind the Northville Methodist Church. With a son and daughter in college, the Hoves are condensing from five bedrooms to three in their new home. Mrs. Hove already has had the fun of selecting wallpapers and colors to complement her antiques.

Former Northville residents, the Eugene Karrers, will be moving back as they have purchased the Hove home on Pinebrook drive in Shadbrook. They formerly lived in Northville Estates before being transferred away by Ford Motor company.

Since the city has purchased the home of retired Northville librarian Rhea (Mrs. Charles) Wilcox on West Cady street, she will be moving to a new duplex at 250 First Street when it's completed.

Moving vans also have been on Arselot drive as Elsa (Couse) and Dick Stuber with their young sons have moved to a home in the Ann Arbor area.

For the Hurd H. Sutherlands it was a "right around the corner" move as they switched homes with their daughter and son-in-law, the Paul Lemons. The Sutherlands changed their address from 418 Dunlap to 115 Linden.

Also in process of relocating are Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Woodruff of Beck road.

The Fred Wagoners' move from Old Bedford Road in Northville township will take them out of the area. He is retiring and they are going to Moberly, Missouri. Norma Wagoner's friends in Questers and Northville Woman's Club already are regretting the loss of the talented craftsman who has demonstrated the view d'optique and decoupage arts for many.

Just before school started, the Earl Egbert family moved from Northville Estates to Tecumseh, Michigan.

THE STONE CELLAR'S owners, Jean and Verne Magee also are getting ready to move. They have purchased one of the Victorian store buildings on the main street of Clinton, Michigan, and will be living there.

Jean Magee hopes to open her new shop there by Christmas.

Speaking of the closing of the Stone Cellar at 335 North Center, another local dealer candidly remarked that Northville is "losing its classiest antique shop" as Mrs. Magee is known for the quality of her antiques. As many realize, she is the sister of the Schmidt brothers who long have had a large business in Ypsilanti.

FROM CHIGWELL, Essex, England, comes news of the William Slattery, former Northville Estates residents. Phyllis Slattery, who has maintained her local Woman's Club and garden club memberships, attended a meeting of the Associated Country Women of the World at Westminster Abbey Memorial Hall in London in July.

She has been appointed to represent the Michigan and the Women's National Farm and Garden Association in London. (The WNFGA is a member of the world organization, she explains.)

During a visit with her children in Michigan in June she attended the four-day national meeting of the WNFGA on Mackinac Island.

The Slattery's recently entertained John Canterbury at their apartment. They also have had visits from Dr. and Mrs. T. E. McDowell, long-time friends now living in Northville, and from the Robert Hallams.

Jean Day, The Record's regular women's editor, is confining her writing activities this year to her "In Our Town" column. Martha Roemer takes over all other women's page news and may be contacted by calling 349-1700. For information pertaining to the In Our Town column, call Mrs. Day at 349-0701.

HAPPY ANNIVERSARY—The 80th year of the Northville Woman's Club will begin with a luncheon, Friday, October 6 at the Meadowbrook Country Club. To help make the luncheon a festive and attractive one, several Woman's Club members met at the home of Mrs. Charles Fountain this week to make table arrangements. Among those present were: Mrs. J. F. Keese, Mrs. A. P. List, Mrs. Leo Laruwe, Mrs. Charles Hertstreit, Mrs. Gene Cushing, Mrs. Peter Lindholm, Mrs. Robert Mohr and Mrs. Robert Isom. Members are reminded that they have until this Friday, September 29, to make reservations for the luncheon. Special speaker of the day will be syndicated light verse writer Elinor K. Rose.

Luncheon Planned, Too

Five Homes on Tour Today

Five homes, each with a very different and distinct personality will be open to the public today (Thursday) for the sixth annual Homes Tour sponsored by the Women's Association of the First Presbyterian Church of Northville. This year's tour highlights collections and handicrafts which will be on display in each home.

Hours for the tour are 10 a.m. to 7 p.m. and tickets will be on sale at the First Presbyterian Church, 200 East Main in Northville at a cost of $2 a person.

While at the church, tour goers will have an opportunity to purchase baked and canned goods at a sale held at the Presbyterian Church by the Women of Holy Cross Episcopal Church.

The annual tour day luncheon will be held at St. Paul's Lutheran Church, 201 Elm in Northville, from 11 a.m. until 2 p.m.

Of the five houses on the Homes Tour, one, the John Teeter home, is a showcase for a collection of Shaker furniture and Mrs. Teeter's weaving. She will be at her loom demonstrating her hobby in the early afternoon.

The home of Dr. and Mrs. Gerald Fitch is a display of the many pieces of Mexican art they have collected on frequent visits to Mexico and South America.

Mrs. David Houck will have on display for the tour, much of the decoupage she has done in the past six years.

At the Richard Wheaton home, tour goers will see many original decorating ideas designed and executed by the homeowners themselves.

Mrs. Walter Carter's original oil paintings are displayed in the Carter's modern furnished home.

In announcing the tour, the Women's Association has stressed that because the money from the Homes Tour comes from the community, it should be funneled back into the community.

It is for that reason that the organization has decided to contribute proceeds from the tour to UKAN the Council for Community Concern, the Northville State Hospital patients reading fund and Presbyterian Missions.

Verse Writer To Speak Here

ELINOR K. ROSE

Nationally syndicated light verse writer Elinor K. Rose will be the featured speaker at the meeting on Friday, October 6, which will open the eightieth year of the Northville Woman's Club.

The luncheon meeting will begin at 12:30 p.m. at Meadowbrook Country Club. Members are reminded that it is a guest day and that reservation requests should be sent to Mrs. William Switzer, 43423 Reservoir Road, Plymouth, by Friday, September 29.

Program Chairman Mrs. William Crump will introduce Mrs. Rose whose talk will be centered around the theme "Through Rose-Colored Glasses."

For her light-verses Mrs. Rose specializes in taking frustrations and incidents from daily life and putting them into quatrains.

Members are also reminded that program books will be available at the luncheon.

Pediatrician Opens Office

Dr. Elspeth Reagan, a board certified pediatrician, will open the doors of her home on Monday, October 2, to begin her first private practice.

She said she decided to open a practice in Northville because, "I think there is a very great need for pediatricians in this area."

Dr. Reagan, a native of England, moved to Northville in 1968 when her husband, Dr. Paul Reagan, began his duties as director of Maybury Sanatorium.

She graduated from John Hopkins Medical school in 1956, and her internship and residency were done at the University of Arkansas.

In the past, she has worked mainly in public health, most recently in Detroit at the Comprehensive Health Clinic set up by the Office of Economic Opportunity. She has also worked as a pediatrician on a Navaho reservation in Arizona and as a pediatric consultant for day care centers in Arkansas.

Dr. Reagan said she chose her home for her practice because she prefers an informal setting to a more clinical one. Office hours will be in the day by appointment but she said, because her office is in the home, she will be there "most of the time, in case of an emergency."

The ages of the patients she will see, she said, is largely up to the patient. "I will see pre-school and in school children," she said.

According to Dr. Reagan, many pediatricians have a cut-off age of around 12 or 13. "I'll treat anyone who wants to come," she said, "even high school age teens, as long as they want to come."

Dr. Reagan is a member of the League of Women Voters and has made application to the Academy of Pediatrics. She and her husband and their five children are members of the Society of Friends.

ACTING MANAGER EDWARD KRIEWALL

Kriewall Named Acting Manager

Edward Kriewall, head of the Novi Department of Public Works for the past three years, was unanimously appointed acting city manager by the Novi city council Tuesday.

Kriewall, 31, will fill the vacancy created by the resignation of George Athas until such time as a permanent manager is appointed by the council.

Athas' resignation was accepted by the council last week and becomes effective Friday, October 13. Kriewall will assume the managerial duties at that time.

Kriewall will receive an annual salary of $16,200 during the time he serves as acting manager under the terms reached with the council Tuesday. The permanent city manager's position has a budgeted annual salary of $20,000.

Although Kriewall was appointed Tuesday to a purely interim position, members of the council made it obvious that he would have their full support.

"As far as I'm concerned," said Mayor Joseph Crupi, "Mr. Kriewall will have the full authority and responsibility of a permanent manager."

Kriewall's public career began in 1961 when he went to work for the Michigan Highway Department. After four years he moved to the DPW of the City of Detroit where he spent an additional four years. While with Detroit Kriewall worked in the Bureau of Highways and Expressways.

In September of 1969, while Harold Ackley was, city manager, Kriewall was hired by Novi to supervise the DPW.

Since March of the present year, he has had the added responsibility of serving as Athas' administrative coordinator. His duties have involved extensive dealings with developers, particularly the developers of shopping centers. In addition, he has directed the city's sewer and water projects.

Although Kriewall was appointed only on an "acting" city manager basis, his name is still being considered for the permanent position.

The council has directed that advertisements for a new manager be placed in the Michigan Municipal Review, but has also made it clear that Kriewall's application for the position is welcome and would be considered along with the others.

Kriewall told The Novi News Tuesday that he is "strongly considering" the possibility of applying for the permanent job.

"I feel the acting city manager's job is a good opportunity for me to review the nature of the position," he said.

He is presently completing work on his degree at the Detroit Institute of Technology with a major in political science and minors in public administration and English.

Council Says OK To Traffic Grant

A $35,000 grant from Michigan's Office of Highway Safety Planning was unanimously accepted by the Novi city council Tuesday.

The unanimous acceptance of the grant came as somewhat of a surprise to certain city officials who had expected some opposition to the action.

In accordance with the terms of the grant, the funds will be used to establish a Traffic Services Bureau in the city of Novi. In addition, the money will enable the city to add three new men to the existing police force.

News that Novi had received the grant was first given the council by City Manager George Athas at their regularly scheduled session a week ago Monday. At that time Athas asked the councilmen to study the terms of the grant and be prepared to take action Monday.

Discussion of acceptance of the grant Monday was interrupted by the collapse of Councilman Denis Berry (see story under picture). The meeting was adjourned until Tuesday when acceptance of the grant was moved to the top of the agenda.

At the Monday night session, Councilman Edwin Presnell had raised questions about the city's ability to finance the project.

During the first year of the grant the city and state match funds on a 50-50 basis. During the second year, however, the state picks up only 35 percent of the cost and in the third year the state provides only 20 percent of the funding. After the third year, the city must bear the entire responsibility for funding the program unless additional funds are applied for.

"It would be ridiculous to argue that we don't need the men," said Presnell. "The question is whether we have the money to pay for them."

"This is going to cost us $53,000 in the second year and $64,000 in the third year," Presnell stated.

Athas reported that additional funds would be available from several sources.

1. A $7,500 surplus in the general fund
2. An increase of a minimum of $3,000 in the federal Public Employment Program.

3. Increased court revenues. "We know that proper law enforcement will bring about increased court fees," he said. "For example, our returns from the court since we added our own breathalyzer have increased several times. For example, we received $475 in July and last month we got $1,400."

"This in no way implies that we're going to be creating speed traps, it's just that a matter of being cognizant of the fact that as enforcement improves court fees go up."

Mayor Joseph Crupi pointed out that Novi would soon be receiving federal funds from the revenue sharing program - a figure estimated at $48,000.

"There's no doubt in my mind whatsoever that we will be able to comfortably afford this program," Athas told Presnell and the council.

Corporal Frank Barabas, who was instrumental in preparing the application for the funds and will head the Traffic Bureau, told the council that the grant calls for three "experienced" officers to be used in the traffic division.

"We will establish a selective enforcement bureau," he continued. "We'll put our traffic officers on duty in the times and at the places where our records show accidents take place."

Most accidents occur between 6-10 p.m. Tuesday through Friday and 75 percent of Novi's accidents take place on either Grand River (20 percent) or Novi Road (57 percent), Barabas reported.

Chief of Police Lee BeGole added that the "so-called traffic officers are first and foremost policemen and will handle felony cases as they occur just as any other officer would."

"The Traffic Bureau will

COUNCIL CASUALTY—Monday's Novi City Council meeting was brought to an abrupt halt at 10:30 p.m. when Councilman Denis Berry suddenly "blacked out". Fortunately, the council was discussing a matter regarding the police department at the time of the incident and several police representatives were present. Sergeant Dale Gross raced to his patrol car to get an emergency supply of oxygen, which was administered until the Fire Department arrived with the resuscitator. Above Fireman Duane Bell administers the resuscitator while Corporal Frank Barabas (right) helps put the fallen councilman on a stretcher. Berry was transported to Botsford Hospital where his black out was diagnosed as being due to heat prostration and exhaustion. He was released later that night.

Trailer Park Denied

A rezoning request previously denied by the Wixom Planning Commission to permit the establishment of a mobile home park within the city limits has been unanimously denied by the Wixom City Council.

The request of Michael Martin to change his land from single family to a multiple family district was rescheduled for a second public hearing Tuesday night. At the hearing Charles Leman, a Wixom planning consultant, was present to give expert testimony to the council as to the benefits and hazards of rezoning the land.

The parcel of property, which is located at the northwest corner at the end of Charns Road, includes about 80 acres Tuesday night, close to 50 residents appeared to show their objections to the mobile home park.

Citizens of Wixom living in the area in which the park was requested were given an opportunity to speak out on the matter, and then Leman told the council why the mobile home park should not be established in that particular location.

Under the ordinances of the city, Leman explained, a mobile home park must be located on a major thoroughfare. The closest road to that land which could be considered a thoroughfare is Napier Road, Leman said, which is designated as a secondary road.

Leman further pointed out to Council that the land owned by Martin was, in the master plan for the city, intended to be used for single family dwellings with large size lots. "This land is out of character for a mobile home park," he said.

Later on in the hearing, Leman pointed out that in the master plan, which was developed in the early 1960's, mobile home parks were to be used as "buffers between industry and single family residences or industry and something else."

Leman told the Council and the citizens that the master plan for the city was only a guide and would have to be changed, but he still could not give his approval for mobile homes in that area.

"Mobile home parks should not be plunked down in the middle of a single family

Salaries Hiked

Administrators' salaries—ranging from $26,500 for the superintendent to $14,300 for the Village Oaks principal—were approved by the Novi Board of Education Tuesday night.

In addition to setting these salaries, the board approved granting of dental, disability and term life insurance—equivalent to those plans granted teachers—to administrators and central office staff personnel. It also approved salary adjustments for 12 teachers who have received additional educational training, and it granted salary increases to six non-certificated employees.

The salaries of Superintendent Gerald Kratz and Assistant Superintendent William Barr, hired this past summer, were fixed at $26,500 and $22,000, respectively. Their salaries had not been previously set.

Salary of former superintendent Thomas Dale, now administrative assistant, was set at $17,006.64. As superintendent, Dale was paid $21,056.

Search for Junior Miss

The Northville Jaycees have announced that the search has begun for a new Junior Miss for Northville.

The local pageant is open to all girls who are presently seniors in high school. The Jaycees are looking for a minimum of ten entrants for the November pageant. Senior girls desiring to participate or who would like additional information about the program are urged to contact David Van Hine at 349-3015.

The Junior Miss Pageant is a program of the Jaycees to recognize the accomplishments and achievements of senior girls across the country.

Participants in the pageant are rated by a panel of judges in the fields of scholastic achievement, personality, poise and appearance, individual talent, physical fitness coordination, and the results of an in-depth interview with the judging panel.

Northville's present Junior Miss, Lorrie Diebert, will be at the November pageant to crown her successor. Lorrie went on to the regional contest in Pontiac last year where she was named first runner up in the state.

Study Delays Construction

A short-handed Northville township planning commission made short work of a semi-busy agenda Tuesday night by either tabling or postponing action on most of the matters.

Planners pointed to a density and land use study (See Page 11-A) soon to be started in the township as their chief reason for delaying action on any rezoning.

A request by Edward Rose Builders to construct some 300 apartment units on 34 acres on Bradner road was tabled until the study is complete. The Rose company representative was visibly irritated by the delay and called upon the commission to vote "yes" or "no" on the proposal. The commission declined any action.

A request from Levitt for approval of a site plan for unit two in Highland Lakes, 100 dwelling units on 17 acres south of the intersection of Silver Spring drive and Rippling Lane, was given conditional approval. Company representatives were instructed to meet with township engineer, William Mosher, and George Vilcan, planner, for certain corrections in the proposed plans. These include providing a through traffic road from Silver Springs drive to Rippling Lane with off-street parking and greater set-back for garages to avoid conflict with traffic lanes. Changes in grading and drainage provisions were also recommended.

A request from Hugh Lockart to divide land on Seven Mile road into four building lots was referred to Vilcan for recommendation.

Hayes Wilson, representing the Wil-O-Mac Oasis Golf Course at Five Mile and Haggerty, asked that one acre on the golf course be rezoned from R-4 to B-2 so that a house on the site could be converted to an antique shop. Planners suggested that Wilson seek a temporary one-year permit from the board of appeals until the land use study is completed.

A request from Dr. Thomas Heslip for rezoning of his Seven Mile road property from residential to business was tabled.

Planners present at Tuesday night's meeting were Robert Bogart, J. Craig Bowby, Lini Handy and Jim Nowka. Chairman Kenneth Sewell and Bernard Baldwin were absent. The seven-member commission is one member short.

FISH Hopes For Big Turnout

Buoyed by initial response following disclosure last week of its crisis situation, FISH—a volunteer agency to assist persons in need—is hopeful citizens will turn out for a special meeting Wednesday, October 4.

The meeting, billed as a "do or die" gathering, will be held at 8 p.m. in the social hall of the First Presbyterian Church of Northville.

"We want to say a big 'thank you' to those who called in response, to last week's appeal...and to those faithful few who have stuck with FISH to help those in need over the past two years," a spokesman said. "But we must have a steering committee and we must have all these people at the meeting so that we can solve the problems of FISH and plan for the future."

A possibility still exists that the organization may fold if it is unable to attract sufficient volunteers.

Specifically, FISH officials emphasize two needs:

- Need for all of those who have volunteered thus far and others as well.
- Need for some men who will help guide and direct the organization and for a few men to serve as volunteers.

Officials noted that the steering committees on the FISH organization in Plymouth and Farmington include representatives from each church in the community and from civic organizations such as Optimists, Jaycees, Jayettes, Rotary, Lions, Kings' Daughters, Mothers' Club, and the Council for Community Concern.

"Plymouth and Farmington men are involved," they emphasized.

Volunteers need contribute only one or two hours a month.

Following next week's meeting, refreshments will be served.

Trailer Park Denied

residential area. They do scar the landscape and they are not a pretty sight," Leman said.

During the call to the public, one homeowner asked the council to explain the difference in taxes paid by a home owner and the owner of a mobile home.

Leman said that mobile home owners pay only about $36 a year in taxes to just the state. He explained those monies go to the state and the state, in turn, gives to the cities $1 per trailer per year for the schools. "From a tax standpoint," Leman said, "we would have to frown upon it for a source of revenue."

When given a chance for rebuttal, Martin directed much of his questioning and comments to Leman. First, he asked that Leman tell everyone present which parts of the city are suitable for mobile parks.

He went on to refute Leman's statements about taxes, saying that the park owner must pay taxes to the city even if the owners of the mobile units pay taxes directly to the state.

Councilman Val Vangieson asked Martin whether or not he knew what the zoning for the land was in 1967 when he first purchased the property. Martin said he did and that he purchased the land with the intention of developing it.

"You took your chances then when you bought the land," said Dr. Vangieson. "Then, if the request is denied, you may lose money on it."

Martin answered that he wanted to put mobile homes on the land because he felt there was a need for them in Wixom. "I feel that there are a lot of people who would like to live in Wixom in a trailer," Martin said.

In answer to the question of his property not being located on a major thoroughfare, Martin pointed out the future plan for Napier Road to be widened to a divided highway 204 feet wide. "That may come in about 20 years," said Mayor Gilbert Willis.

In opposition to the proposed park, resident Mrs. Thomas Martin read a letter which pointed out several reasons the council should not grant Martin's request. She said it would "ruin" the north Wixom area because it would discourage the building of single family homes, add to the problem created by traffic from Wixom Road to the freeway, and it would crowd the schools and force the homeowners to pay more taxes.

One angry citizen said, "I can't afford to pay my taxes either. Does that mean I can open a Dairy Queen in my backyard." She was alluding to Martin's statement, at the first hearing, that one of the reasons he wanted to open a park on the land was to help pay the taxes on the land.

A case is presently pending in Oakland County Circuit Court between Martin and the city of Wixom. Suit was brought after the denial by the Planning Commission.

Mayor Willis explained that there is a "preferred status" of mobile homes in the state and because of the number of people employed by the industry and the taxation and licensing of them by the state, "they have power in the state."

He went on to say state appointed groups such as SEMCOG and the land use study committee encourage rezoning. "I don't know how much longer local communities will have a say on their land," he said.

City Attorney Gene Schnelz explained that cities must have a provision for mobile homes in a master plan, Wixom does, and because of the preferred status of the homes, the courts have allowed the parks in rezoned areas of cities such as - Rochester and Woodhaven.

The council unanimously denied the request.

save our regular officers untold hours of writing accident reports and court time, however," BeGole continued, "and will thus free them for increased surveillance of the city."

BeGole added that officers will now be able to spend more time patrolling the subdivisions.

In addition to accepting the grant the council also authorized Athas to work with the police department in implementing the new program.

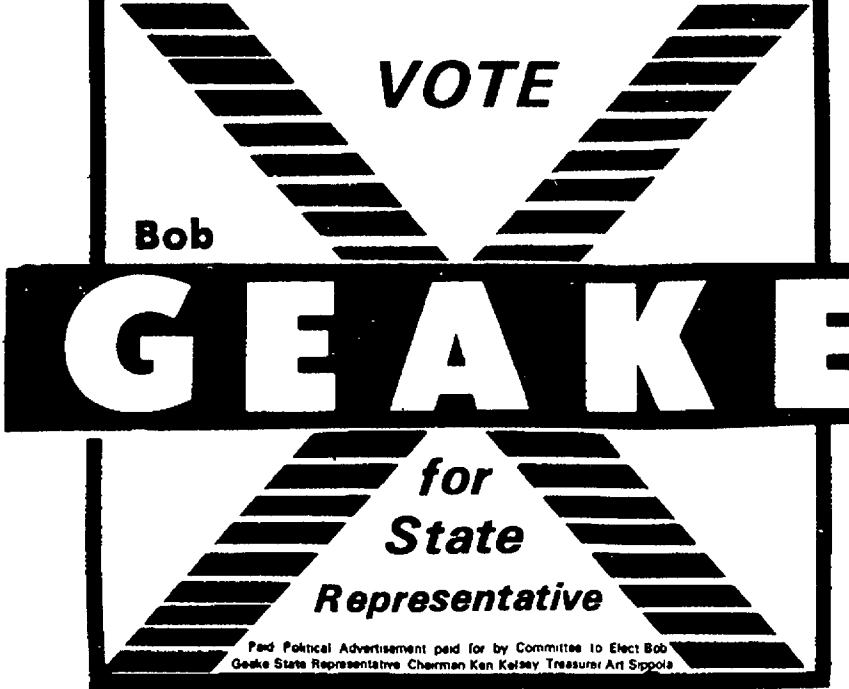

BeGole reported that there are two officers who have already completed training and can be added to the regular police force immediately to replace the three officers being reassigned to the Traffic Bureau.

Using a craftsman's touch, Freckleton is forming the "stone" from cement plastered on the wall and dyed to resemble brown stones in castle-like walls. A native of Scotland, he perfected this unusual skill while working in Australia. Not only is he "carving" simulated stone, he's also creating simulated brick out of cement to fill in window openings on the west side of the building.

'Born Yesterday' Stars Local Residents

Three Northville residents have been cast in roles for the Schoolcraft College production of Garson Kanin comedy "Born Yesterday" to be presented September 28, 29, 30 and October 1.

Mark Hlohenec, Robbie Clarke and Chris Keyes will be among the actors taking the stage during the run of the play. Each performance will begin at 7 p.m. at the Schoolcraft College Liberal Arts Theatre, 18600 Haggerty Road in Livonia.

The story of the comedy revolves around Harry Brock, a vulgar and egotistic junkman, who rents a swanky suite in Washington, D. C., for the purpose of making crooked deals with the higher-ups. He has brought with him Billie Dawn, a former chorus girl, whose dumbness and lack of social amenities embarrass him and everyone else.

Brock obtains the services of a young reporter to educate Billie, who is willing to become a pupil, and who falls in love with Paul Verrall, the reporter. Billie Dawn's hastily acquired knowledge of history and politics causes her to rebel against Brock's crooked schemes, and she gives Verrall incriminating documents which will expose Brock's scandalous transactions. Billie and Verrall eventually walk out on the antisocial and antidemocratic Brock.

The cast, all Schoolcraft students, features Gary Serlin of Livonia as Harry Brock; Pamela Wenzel of Westland as Billie Dawn; Thom Ayotte of Detroit as Paul Verrall; Ralph Viau of Livonia as Ed Devery; Mark Hlohenec of Northville as Eddie Brock; Dean Foy of Livonia as Senator Norval Hedges, and Donna Doran of Livonia as Anna Hedges.

It's Decathlon Time Here

By NANCY DINGELDEY

A multitude of events hitting the Wixom scene in the next week or two. Jot down dates and times—join in and have some fun.

First, this Saturday starting at 9 a.m. at the City Hall grounds, the annual Parks and Recreation Department's Decathlon. All Wixom students from the first through sixth grades are cordially invited to participate in the Decathlon games. Lots of kids came out last year and it is hoped that an even greater number will enter the races this year.

The games will consist of the football kick, baseball throw, bicycle races (grades four through six only), a variety of dashes, the jump and touch and running broad jumps.

Medals and ribbons will be awarded to all winners in all events.

Hopefully, there will be a bright autumn sun shining this Saturday as the kids give their all in the Wixom version of the Olympic Field events. Bring the kids or just come and watch if you'd like. There's plenty of activity.

Monday, October 2 is the beginning of Adult Education Programs offered through the Walled Lake School District. A huge variety of programs suited to any need are offered and you still may take advantage of them.

Registrations are still being taken at the Community Education Office at 624-0202. Join the unhooked (from TV) generation and take up a hobby.

Tuesday is a busy, busy day. On October 3 from 9 a.m. until 12 noon, Walled Lake's free immunization clinic is open to all children up to the age of 18. Immunizations for diphtheria, pertussis, measles, polio, tetanus and rubella as well as Tuberculin tests are offered free of charge.

Sponsored by the Walled Lake Jayettes and the Oakland County Health Department, the clinic gives medical assistant students at the Vocational Center an opportunity to aid the physician and nurses giving the injections.

The clinics are held at the Voc. Ed. Center. There will be no clinic hours in November. The next clinic will be held on Tuesday, December 5.

Education Center but meeting in the dining room will be the Wixom Chamber of Commerce holding their quarterly luncheon meeting.

Beginning at noon on October 3, a buffet luncheon will be served followed by twenty minute presentations. Guest speakers for the day will include Johannes F. Spreen, former Police Commissioner of Detroit and the Chief of Detectives from the Oakland County Sheriff's Department.

Both will be speaking on topics relating to the criminal justice system.

Seating is limited in the dining room and is reserved for the Chamber and guests. Businessmen from Wixom and residents interested in the Chamber are cordially invited to attend.

Rounding out Tuesday's busy schedule of events is Wixom Elementary School's annual Open House.

Beginning at 7:30 p.m., it provides parents with the opportunity to meet the teachers, visit class rooms, and become acquainted with new principal Donald Lamb.

Refreshments will be served throughout the evening and children should not be brought to the Open House.

A reminder to residents of the City who are qualified to become electors but have yet to register. In addition to the regular office hours at City Hall from 9 a.m. until 5:30 p.m. Monday through Friday, the City Clerk's office will be open to those wishing to register on Saturday, September 30 from 8 a.m. until 5:30 p.m. and again on the following Friday, October 6, from 8 a.m. until 8 p.m.

If you wish to cast your votes in the November 7 Presidential Election, you must register before 8 p.m. on October 6. The Clerk's office also reminds those who have not voted in the past two years to check for eligibility to vote in the Presidential election.

This is easily done by calling City Hall at 624-4557.

Another big day is planned by the Police Department at the second annual Police Open House. Sunday, October 8 is the big day set aside for a re-e-l-l-y b-i-g s-h-o-w between the hours of 3 and 8 p.m.

Besides the ever popular rides for the kids in the squad cars, the Police will be demonstrating a beathalyzer (complete with volunteer), drug testing paraphernalia, showing how the Department "lifts" fingerprints from objects, and how they dust for prints, as well as taking the kids fingerprints.

Out on the grounds, there will be a demonstration of the radar equipment and to top off the day a yo-yo demonstration by Chief George Von Behren.

Free yo-yo's will be given to the kids as well as refreshments for all. Come see the Good Guys in the White Hats—get acquainted with your Police Department.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Sam Poota of the General Store they became the parents of a baby boy last Thursday at Providence Hospital. Sorry, can't let you in on the name—a communications break-down, but welcome to the little one.

The Hank Mack's and the Ray Mustonen's of Wixom joined six other couples in Cadillac this past weekend for their annual golfing expedition.

The outings, always planned one year in advance, brought a great weekend of golf, swimming, sauna's, good food and squeezed in somewhere, a little relaxation. It may have been a gray weekend here but over in Cadillac the sun shown brightly. Some people have good luck with the weather!

The trees are really begin to change to the autumn hues by the shores of Loon Lake and the pumpkins are getting huge and golden on their vines. The nights are getting chilly, the days cooler. The harvest moon has been out in its round glory these past few nights and I'm getting the hint that it's about time to start packing away the sleeveless dresses.

It's getting more and more evident that our summer is gone and we're slipping into fall. It's a beautiful time of the year but it means a scurry of yard work to start getting ready for the snows.

Just another thing to add to the list—besides my inevitable race with the weatherman and my window washing!

Some lonely night you'll be glad you bought an Energizer.

Or some cold morning. Or whenever you want to get started in a hurry.

Because a Delco Energizer gives you a big burst of starting power. And you know how much cranking power the Energizer can deliver in the first few seconds of starting even at zero degrees. It's shown by the Peak Watts Rating molded right into the case.

Also, Energizers are dry-charged and vacuum-sealed at the factory. So when we break the seal and add fluid, your Energizer is ready to go with all the fresh starting power you need.

Stop in today for the Delco Energizer that is just right for you. For your car.

LWV Invites New Members

A membership tea will be held on Thursday, October 5, at the King's Mill Clubhouse by the Northville-Plymouth League of Women Voters.

The informal get acquainted meeting is scheduled to begin at 1 p.m. and end at 3 p.m. Babysitting will be provided.

Mrs. Stephen Orban of Northville, president of the chapter, will explain to area women over 18 years of age how the organization works through its members to encourage informed and active participation in government through its programs.

The League, which is a nonpartisan organization, consists of housewives, students and business and professional women. When a woman joins a local League, she also becomes a member of the state and national League of Women Voters.

Mrs. Orban, in inviting prospective members to the meeting, said that she has found the League to be "an excellent way to keep informed as well as the perfect place to meet interesting people."

Co-Op School Opens

September 18 marked the opening of the Northville Co-operative Pre-school. The school is being held in the Scout-Recreation Building.

Teachers at the school this year are, Biz Gazlay, Rae Diebert and Eugenie Bemish.

Officers of the school for the 1972-73 school year are President Patti Zollars, Vice President for Group A Betty Hoffman, Vice President for Group B Lynn De John, Secretary Stephanie Rutter and Treasurer Susan Rasmussen.

Applications are now being taken for the 1973-74 school year. For applications or information, Membership Chairman Cathy Croteau, 349-1492, should be contacted.

Kelly to Speak

Michigan Attorney General Frank Kelley will be the speaker at the meeting on Wednesday, October 4 of the Livonia Interested Democrats. Northville area residents are invited to attend.

The meeting is scheduled to begin at 7:30 p.m. and will be held at the Senior Citizens Building located at Farmington and Five Mile Roads.

Two Artists Show Work

The works of two Michigan artists will comprise the first formal showing at the Northville Gallery, 142 North Center Street.

For two weeks, beginning Sunday, October 1, the art of Lynn Hayes and Thomas Hale will be on display. The official opening will be from 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. when both artists will be present.

This will be the first special showing for both artists.

Miss Hayes is a resident of Farmington. She was awarded a bachelor of fine arts from Wayne State University and once worked as an interior designer.

Hale lives in Redford Township and works as a designer for the American Motors corporation. He was an art major at Michigan State University and attended the Art Center College of Design in California.

Creativity Key To Workshops

To give mothers and pre-schoolers an experience of working together in creative activities which can be taken back and used in the home, is the purpose of the Creative Day Nursery's coming workshops, according to the school's co-director, Mrs. Ellen Wahi.

The workshops will begin on October 17 and will be held on eight consecutive Tuesdays from 1:30 to 2:30 p.m. at the First Presbyterian Church of Northville.

Mrs. Wahi said the previously held workshops of this type have been very successful. She noted several changes in the program, one of them is a reduction in tuition.

For a mother and one pre-school child, the cost is $35 and $10 is charged for each additional pre-schooler. Any interested adult without a child can attend the workshops for $25. All materials required for the workshop are included in the tuition fee.

Pre-schoolers from one-and-a-half years of age are invited to attend with their mothers.

Anyone wishing additional information about the Creative Day Nursery School or desiring to enroll should contact one of the school's co-directors, Mrs. Ellen Wahi, 349-2161 or Mrs. Ann Stasinos at 476-1810.

NOVI BOARD OF EDUCATION ANNUAL REPORT

SEPTEMBER 21, 1972

This report reviews the financial position of the Novi Community School District for the period ending June 30, 1972. The report also contains the achievements of the year and recommendations for the next succeeding year.

The 1971-72 school year was another year of growth for Novi Schools. 1953 students were enrolled in the district's five elementary and secondary schools. Projections of enrollment for the 1972-73 school year exceed 2100 students.

Major construction projects authorized by the voters in 1970 saw the completion of the new Village Oaks Elementary School on Willowbrook Street and the completion of the new Novi Middle School on Taft Road. These buildings are excellent in design and construction and they will serve the school district for years to come.

In the 1971-72 school year the anticipated state aid was drastically reduced by the Contingency Fund. In spite of the reduction of these funds by $37,390.00 the district was able to operate successfully with a balance of receipts over expenditures of $6,400.00. The General Fund Equity was increased to $74,500.00.

Federal Aid for special projects in the district was increased from $11,064.00 to $40,990.00. Two additional teachers attended the reading intern program at Oakland Schools. Novi Schools also received authorization to employ two additional staff members in the Special Education Program. This brings the total to five with the addition of a Type C consultant for the Mentally Handicapped at the Middle School and a School Social Worker to serve the entire district.

The Southwestern Oakland County Vocational Center was opened. Novi placed 35 students in the center during the first year.

The English curriculum at the High School level was modified to include 26 one semester courses in place of the traditional program. Progress has been made toward meeting the needs of all students.

Continuous study and modification must be made with the goal of educational excellence as the criteria for change.

The public schools will continue to carefully observe and select the best means of education. The future will see innovative methods explored on a pilot basis, but only after careful review and evaluation as to the best curriculum for the Novi Community Schools. Our major goal will be to work toward maximum achievement of instructional objectives for each individual child. We must realistically prepare people to live in an age of cybernetics and at the same time in an age when human relationships have never been more important.

Gerald B. Kratz, Ed. D.
Superintendent of Schools

Audit Report

We have examined the balance sheet of the various funds of the NOVI COMMUNITY SCHOOL DISTRICT as of June 30, 1972 and the related statements of revenue and expenditures for the year then ended. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records, and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances. The scope of our examination covered the financial records of the school district, but did not include the child accounting records.

In accordance with recommendations of the State Superintendent of Public Instruction and the Revised Manual of Instruction for "Finance Accounting for Michigan School Districts," the school district maintains its financial records on a modified accrual basis of accounting. Under this method, generally, revenues are recognized at the date they become receivable and expenses are recognized when incurred.

In our opinion, the accompanying balance sheets and related statements of revenue and expenditures present fairly the financial position of Novi Community School District at June 30, 1972, and the results of its operations for the year then ended, in conformity with accounting practices generally followed by Michigan school districts applied on a consistent basis.

Police Blotter

Mother Charged With Brutality

In Novi

A Novi woman, 19-year old Linda Karol Race of 26232 Taft, has been charged with assault with intent to commit murder.

The charges are in conjunction with alleged physical abuse of her five week old daughter.

On September 11 Novi police were summoned to the Taft Road residence with the report of an infant having difficulty breathing. When officers arrived they observed the child undergoing what appeared to be a seizure and subsequently had the infant transported by ambulance to St. Mary Hospital in Livonia.

Due to the nature of the difficulties, doctors at St. Mary immediately had the baby taken to Children's Hospital in Detroit, where she is currently undergoing continued treatment.

In investigating the case Novi detectives learned from doctors that the child was suffering from multiple skull fractures and internal bleeding. As the bleeding was in the area of the brain, doctors stated there was a probability of brain damage, according to police reports.

After receiving the diagnosis of the doctors, police called Mrs. Race into the station for questioning. While talking to detectives she admitted having thrown the child head first onto the bedroom floor to make it stop crying, police reported.

In July of 1971, Mrs. Race's first child was removed from the home and made a temporary ward of the Oakland County Court when the mother reportedly admitted to striking the child, causing bruises on his cheek and temple.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Coyne of Inkster were taken into custody last week in Detroit and arraigned in 52nd District Court.

Bond was set at $8,000 and the pair was lodged in the Oakland County Jail.

The Coyne's are charged with the attempted breaking and entering of the Sommers residence on Nine Mile Road in Novi July 12.

Mrs. Coyne had been arrested for that alleged crime earlier in the summer, but was released on $2,000 bond and had failed to appear in court on her scheduled arraignment date.

A Novi resident who observed four men stealing lumber from the Jackson Landscaping Company pursued the men in his car but was unable to overtake them and lost track of the fleeing vehicle on the I-96 expressway.

The man told investigating officers that he had seen four white males loading lumber into a station wagon and had tried to apprehend them, but failed.

The case is under investigation by police.

A Detroit man, Royal Lester, told police a battery and a spare tire had been stolen from his car sometime last week.

The vehicle had been parked in the lot at Detroit Paving Company on Grand River and when he attempted to start the car he discovered the battery had been stolen.

A purse reportedly containing a $400 diamond ring was stolen from a car parked at Dave's Hamburger Stand last week.

Bernadette Staley of 26470 Beck Road told officers she had left the purse in her unlocked car while going into the restaurant for approximately five minutes. When she returned, she reported, the purse was missing.

The theft occurred at approximately 2 p.m. Monday, October 18.

Lewis Diem of 23925 West LeBoist reported a spare tire valued at $60 had been stolen from the trunk of his car.

Diem told officers the theft could have occurred while his car was parked in Southfield, they reported.

Judith Moon, 22, was arrested on charge on issuing checks on a non-existent account last week and lodged in the Oakland County Jail. She is being held on a $5,000 cash bond.

Arrested on charges of driving under the influence of liquor last week were Monte Bruce Charles, 26, of 25925 Sierra in Novi; Carl Bernard Payton, 25, of Milford; Ada Louise Woodrugg, 30, of Livonia; and Casimer Stanley Pachota, 50, also of Livonia.

Drunk driving charges were also lodged against Water Ray Evans, 45, of Brighton; Frank Bernard Landowski, 46, of Ypsilanti; and Charles Henry Broombaugh, 41, of Livonia.

Charges of driving with ability impaired were brought against Ross Donald Schlabbach, 47, of Livonia and John Francis Quirk, 29, of South Lyon.

A story, which appeared in last week's edition concerning a police report of a fight involving an 18-year-old, should have indicated the fight took place during a party at the Freda Simmons residence.

In Northville

Two bicycles were reported stolen here September 25.

According to police, Michael Heater of 317 West Dunlap and Larry Brown of 45015 Galway Drive chained their bikes together outside Northville Lanes and upon returning they had been stolen.

The bikes are a purple five-speed Schwinn and a yellow 10-speed Schwinn.

A wallet containing a $300 check was reported stolen from a car parked at the home of Sally Puckett, 344 First Street on September 15. The wallet was owned by Mrs. Puckett's son.

Cass J. Weller of Ann Arbor suffered minor rib injuries September 22 when his car collided with a car driven by Charles P. Kling, 656 Thayer, at Eight Mile and Novi roads.

Mrs. George White of 985 North Center Street reported that on the evening of September 22 someone rang her doorbell and then smashed the storm window in the door. Damage was estimated at $10.

A tape deck and tape was reported stolen from the car of Ken Fleck this past week. The car was parked at 312 North Ely Drive. Value of the stolen property was put at $55.

A Florida woman was injured September 21 when the car in which she was riding collided with a vehicle, driven by John H. Karwoski of Livonia, at Edward Hines Drive and Sheldon roads. She was treated at St. Mary Hospital.

The woman was a passenger in the car driven by Frank E. Hayes of Holmes Beach, Florida. Hayes suffered a minor head cut.

FIRE CALLS

September 25: 1:53 p.m. fire truck dispatched to Eight Mile and Taft roads to wash down fuel oil leaked from truck.

September 24: 12:20 a.m., car fire at Six Mile and Sheldon roads.

September 19: 6 p.m., car fire at 453 Grace Street.

In Township

Two motorists escaped serious injury at 12:20 a.m. Sunday when their cars collided at the intersection of Six Mile and Sheldon roads and one of the vehicles burst into flames.

According to police reports, a car driven by Dwight D. Martin pulled to a stop at the intersection and was struck in the rear by a car driven by Phillip B. Brodak of Southfield.

The impact sent Martin's car skidding across the intersection to the side of Six Mile Road while Brodak's car struck a tree and burst into flames.

A 16-year old was arrested for disorderly person-drunk upon a complaint September 25 that he had knocked youths from their bicycles in the King's Mill area.

Theft of a tachometer, valued at $21, and a stereo tape player, valued at $40, from a car was reported by the owner September 19. According to reports someone forced entry into the car of Donald Reed of 46049 Neeson. The vehicle was parked in his yard.

Betty Macura, 46625 West Main Street, was bitten by a dog at her home, police said. The dog was owned by Susan Hesse.

Police are investigating a burglary that took place on September 23 or 24 in the garage of Charles E. Chapman of 19576 Maxwell. The garage was unlocked.

Stolen was a saber saw, valued at $40, and a chain saw, valued at $200.

A .22-caliber pistol was reported stolen over the weekend from the Howell Construction office at 43230 West Seven Mile Road. The pair of motorcycles, valued at $500 apiece, were stolen from the garage of a residence at 2958 Loon Lake Road.

James and Gerald Byrd, owners of the cycles, told burglar gained entrance, according to reports, by smashing through a window.

Four hub caps were reported stolen from the car of Mary Maxwell, 42341 Cottswold Court, this past week.

In Wixom

Wixom police narrowly missed interrupting a breaking and entering of the Micro-Poise plant on Pontiac Trail while it was in progress Monday, September 18.

At 9:23 p.m., according to reports, police were summoned to the Micro-Poise building with reports that a burglary was in progress. At the scene, officers met the complainant, Gunnar Mettala, who told them that a pair of youths had just exited the building and fled in a car on west-bound Pontiac Trail.

Police followed the route pointed out by Mettala, but were unable to find any evidence of the car involved in the theft.

Investigation of the plant showed that entry had been gained by breaking in a portion of the loading door. A number of vending machines had been broken into, as had a number of desks in the office portion of the building.

Sixteen truck tires valued at $3,200 were reported stolen last week.

Norman James Bomia, a truck driver from La Salle, told police he was supposed to pick up a truck from the Auto-Lite Division driveway September 15. When he arrived at the site, however, he discovered the tires had been stolen from the truck.

The trailers had been parked in the driveway since September 9.

Two Wixom youths were arrested at Walled Lake Western High School Tuesday, September 19, on charges of possession of stolen property.

Taken into custody were Gregory Geller, 18, of 2055 North Wixom Road and Kevin Dale McDermott, 17, of 1730 North Wixom Road.

The pair were booked and taken to the 52nd District Court in Walled Lake for arraignment. They are being held on $1,500 personal bond, according to police reports.

A pair of motorcycles, valued at $500 apiece, were stolen from the garage of a residence at 2958 Loon Lake Road.

James and Gerald Byrd, owners of the cycles, told investigating officers that the side window of the garage had been broken out to gain entry and the motorcycles had apparently been removed through a side door.

A 38-year old Southfield man was arrested for drunk driving and leaving the scene of an accident last week.

Taken into custody was Woodrow Clark.

Police were summoned to the scene of an accident on the east ramp of the I-96 expressway. Upon arrival they were informed that the driver of one of the two vehicles involved had fled east-bound on I-96. A description of the fleeing vehicle was received and then sent to surrounding police stations.

Shortly thereafter Wixom officers were notified that Farmington Township Police had apprehended a man driving a car answering the description.

The man was held and, after further investigation, Wixom police arrested him on the charge of fleeing the scene of a property damage accident. Additional charges of driving under the influence of liquor were also brought against Clark.

COURTNEWS

Obituaries

Former Trustee Dies

A former Northville Township trustee and planning commissioner, William Smith, Jr., 50, was fatally injured in an automobile accident Friday, September 22 at Edward Hines and Outer Drive.

Mr. Smith, who lived at 15560 Robinwood, was on his way to work early Friday morning when his car was struck by another. He was alone.

An architect for the Detroit Edison Company, Mr. Smith had served on the township board for a year, having been appointed in September, 1969 to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Thomas Armstrong. He lost his bid for election to the board in the 1970 primary.

Earlier, he served on the planning commission.

As a township official, he had served as the township's representative to the Plymouth Adult Education program and to the recreation department.

Born September 2, 1922 in Sanilac County, he was the son of William M. and Anna (Steinman) Smith. He moved to this area from Ypsilanti in 1954.

He attended Central Michigan University and was a graduate of the University of Michigan. He was a member of St. Kenneth's Catholic Church in Plymouth, the American Institute of Architects, the Michigan Society of Architects and the Michigan Association of Professions.

Mr. Smith is survived by his parents, who live in Marlette; his wife, Rita; and five children, Paul of Metamora, Eric of East Lansing, Suzanne, a student at the University of Michigan, and Brian and Douglas of Plymouth.

Also surviving are two brothers, Emerson of Southfield and Eugene of Australia.

Funeral services were conducted Monday, September 25 from St. Kenneth's Catholic Church with the Reverend Father James A. Machak officiating.

Burial was in Glen Eden Cemetery, Livonia, through the Schrader Funeral Home of Plymouth.

WILLIAM HOWARD

William R. Howard, eight-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald E. Howard of 123 Austin Drive in Novi, died Monday, September 25 at Bi-County Hospital, Warren, after a lengthy illness.

Born in Royal Oak, the boy is survived by two brothers, Donald, Jr. and Thomas E., and one sister, Patricia. Also surviving are grandparents, Earl Howard of Detroit and Mrs. Marie Scarborough of Wichita, Kansas.

Funeral services will be held today (Thursday) at 2 p.m. from the Richardson Bird Funeral Home in Walled Lake, with the Reverend Lawrence Kinne officiating.

Burial will be in West Farmington Cemetery

ESTELLA PRESTON

Mrs. Estella P. Preston, 80 of 24880 Novi Road died Monday, September 25 at endry's Convalescent Home. She had been ill for the past year.

Born April 9, 1892 in Royal Oak, she was the daughter of John and Cynthia Price. Her husband, Floyd, died in 1965.

Mrs. Preston was a resident of the Northville area 25 years, moving to Detroit for 16 years before returning to Novi.

She was a member of the First Baptist Church of Novi and the Maccabees Fraternal Society - Unit No. 594 of Michigan.

Survivors include two daughters, Mrs. Fred Vincent of Novi and Mrs. Ralph Ziebarth of oyal Oak; three sons, Wayne of White Cloud, Michigan, Paul of Northville and Floyd of Northville; 14 grandchildren and 12 great grandchildren.

Funeral services are to be held today (Thursday) from the Casterline Funeral Home at 1 p.m., with the Reverend Arnold Cook of Novi officiating. Burial will be in Rural Hill Cemetery, Northville.

encourages such people to look for special treatment from society later in life. "I think they should be treated as normal human beings" even if they are unable to keep up with fellow classmates.

Superintendent Raymond Spear and Miss Panattoni replied that the proposed programs will, as suggested by Deibert, provide in-district classroom education of such children instead of transporting them out of the local environment to specialized centers outside the district.

Furthermore, supportive staffers envisioned for the programs, explained Spear, are primarily for assisting parents and teachers in teaching and training handicapped—not teaching such youngsters themselves.

Training of the severely handicapped, such as the blind and deaf, they explained will continue to be handled outside the district, Miss Panattoni said.

In voting Monday, the board approved the hiring of a school social worker and a part-time psychologist to meet immediate needs as the administrative staff completes planning for implementation of the program next year as required by law.

According to Miss Panattoni, the district has already begun assuming more local responsibility of training handicapped.

Last year, she said, 32 students received such training—31 of which were transported outside the district to nine different cities and 15 different schools. This year 22 students are receiving special education (others having been integrated into the classrooms)—20 of whom are being transported outside the district to four different cities and nine different schools.

"It is apparent," she said, "that there are needs to meet in the district as indicated by these figures. In addition, we are faced with preparation for Public Act 198 which was approved by the Governor in December, 1971 (commonly known as Mandatory Special Education Act)."

Under this act, she explained, local school boards have the responsibility to——Provide special education programs in accordance with the county plan operating the program with qualified personnel, supportive services and the educational program.

—Provide special education programs in accordance with the local district providing the financial support for buildings, equipment, personnel, transportation and board and room, if necessary.

—The local district may apply no later than July 1 of a school year for approval to provide special education programs which do not comply.

Implications of this act, she said, include:

1. Basic responsibility for implementing plans remains with the local district.

2. There is no financial advantage to a district which does not provide programs. In fact, the district is at a disadvantage if it does not provide them.

3. If local districts fail to provide adequate programs, the county will do so at the expense of the local district.

4. Expense to a district for contracted services will cover building facilities, equipment, programs, transportation and room and board.

5. The county role is considerably stronger.

6. The local board's commitment to special education programs will be formal and legal.

7. Services are to be provided from infancy to age 25.

8. The state board's powers are considerably greater.

Partial Township Cost

Zoning Funds Ok'd

A preliminary $5,000 allocation for study and revision of Northville Township's zoning ordinance was approved last week.

The allocation, approved by the township board, represents less than one-third of the total estimated cost of the project recommended by the township planning commission.

The board decided to provide the initial $5,000 but to delay approval of additional funds pending an updated accounting of budgeted township monies.

Clerk Eleanor Hammond argued against a $15,000 to $20,000 outlay at this time "Because I don't see any place (in the budget) where we can squeeze out (the money)."

Suggestion by Treasurer Joseph Straub that a $5,000 allocation for fire department equipment be transferred to the general fund for the zoning ordinance project was rejected as was a suggestion of Trustee Charles Schaeffer that monies in the township's cash balance fund be used.

Schaeffer noted that an $80,000 cash balance was indicated at the outset of the budget year and that, since the budget projects an equal amount of income and expenditure during this fiscal year, the $80,000 balance should exist at the end of the year. He suggested this money be used for the study.

However, Straub explained that even though the township operates a cash-flow accounting system, part of the budgeted income does not actually occur in the same budget year and therefore it cannot be assumed the $80,000 balance will remain.

Straub's explanation prompted Schaeffer to withdraw his suggestion but he advised the board that upon preparation of the next township budget members should insist upon a true cash accrual system in which only that money actually coming in during the fiscal year be labeled income for that year.

Supervisor Gunnar Stromberg, who argued strongly that monies be provided for the study, pointed out that delays in zoning matters already have been made pending an update of the zoning ordinance.

The ordinance had been amended so many times in recent years, he explained, that today there are more amendments than the original ordinance.

"We haven't always balanced the budget. Usually we get more (income) than budgeted," the supervisor said.

"If the clerk cannot find ways to cut back (specific budget expenditures) then maybe we should borrow it."

Mrs. Hammond, while insisting that she favored the study and revision, said she opposed deficit financing.

Trustee Leonard Klein, who joined with Stromberg in urging the study be begun immediately, argued that "we will spend more money in fighting court cases (zoning) than we will for the study if nothing is done."

The courts today, he explained, are less likely to back up zoning ordinances based on land use, such as Northville's, than those ordinances that place their emphasis on density factors.

"Somewhere, for the good of all citizens of the township, we are going to have to come up with these funds."

In other business last week, the board heard reports from Klein and Schaeffer on initial suggestions for employee fringe benefits. Following the reports and board reactions, the two trustees said they now will begin preparation of specific recommendations.

Wall-to-wall carpeting is one of the most popular floor coverings used today. Perhaps that is because such carpeting gives a sense of spaciousness to a room especially if the room is small. Wall-to-wall carpeting creates a sense of unity, it is luxurious, easy to care for, and is of good quality. If there are children in the family, such carpeting can even cut down on the number of falls these little ones can take.

SPEAKING for The Record

By BILL SLIGER

You'll read elsewhere in this edition that the Northville board of education made an appointment Monday night to fill a vacancy on the board.

The selection was actually made last week at Hillside Inn at another of the board's secret meetings, the little get-togethers members prefer to call "executive sessions".

It's a funny thing about school board members. When they're running for office and anxious to win voter and newspaper support, they always talk about their opposition to "executive sessions".

I can still recall the advertisement (published June 10, 1971 to be exact) at which time Sylvia Gucken declared (along with her fellow anti-year-round-school candidates) that "we support open board meetings, except in those rare instances, such as negotiations"; and criticized her opponents by pointing out that... "the incumbents have encouraged and participated in secret, closed board meetings".

Mrs. Gucken wasn't elected in 1971, but she's a board member now and she participated in last week's secret session at which time the board made a final, flat decision on who would be appointed to the board. (The appointee was summoned to Hillside, interviewed and persuaded to accept the position).

It really isn't fair to single out Mrs. Gucken, except that her declaration of opposition to secret meetings is the most recent.

On June 8, 1967 Andrew Orphan, who also took part in last week's secret meeting, said: "only by conducting all business during public sessions can elected officials hope to stop...rumors".

At one time or another all the present board members have indicated they stand for public meetings.

I'm certain the board can ably defend its little get-together at Hillside to "talk about personalities". They may even try to justify their action by stating that the official appointment was not made until an open meeting.

But the decision was made at a closed session.

How and why the board reached its decision is information the public is not privileged to know.

It's difficult to understand the change in attitude regarding secret meetings that takes place in candidates once they become board members. Presumably, they believe open discussion of the merits and qualifications of various proposed appointees is something so sensitive that only board members possess the maturity to weigh the issues.

Based upon past performances, we can expect the newest appointee will soon be seating himself comfortably in the secret confines of an "executive session" as members convene to discuss another subject too sensitive to debate in public...perhaps administrative salary increases, for example.

A remark made by a township resident at the recent annexation hearing conducted by the State Boundaries Commission should not go unchallenged because it's a typical misconception.

He implied that, unlike city officials, township officials work "for very little" and that members of township governmental bodies perform their duties more or less in the spirit of public service.

In the reality, the opposite is true.

It's my personal conviction, and that of many other observers of local level government, that citizen participation on most public bodies should be volunteered without pay.

And in the case of the school district and the city government, this is largely true.

Let's compare, for example, both elective and appointive bodies in the Northville district, city and township.

1—The Northville board of education, seven members, meeting about 40 times per year, unpaid.

2—The city of Northville planning commission, nine members meeting approximately 36 times per year, unpaid.

3—The city's board of appeals, nine members meeting 12 times per year, unpaid.

4—City's Building Authority, three members meeting periodically to handle affairs of parking deck project, unpaid.

5—City council, four councilmen and mayor, meeting about 35 times per year, councilmen paid $500 annually, mayor paid $600 annually; city manager paid $18,200 plus $1,000 car allowance annually; total cost for city council and manager—$21,800.

6—Northville township planning commission, seven members meeting about 20 times per year, paid $10 each per meeting, annual cost—$1,400.

7—Township board of appeals, three members holding about 15 meetings per year, paid $10 each per meeting, annual cost—$450;

8—Township water and sewer commission, five members averaging 12 meetings per year, paid $10 each per meeting, annual cost—$600. (In the city the manager performs this duty).

9—Township board of trustees, seven members including four trustees and supervisor, clerk, treasurer; held 29 meetings last year, trustees paid $20 each per meeting; annual pay for supervisor, $8,457; clerk, $7,736; treasurer, $7,027; annual cost for trustees and three officers—$25,540.

After the November election salaries of the township board officers will be increased to $12,500 for supervisor and $10,000 for clerk and treasurer.

This will boost the annual cost of the elected members of the township board to $34,820 compared to an annual cost for elected members of the city council plus the city manager of $21,800.

Item No. 4 above lists a "building authority" in the city. Its three members are unpaid. The township is presently preparing to approve its articles of incorporation to form such an authority to build a $500,000 township hall-fire-police complex.

And board members agreed that the articles should provide for compensation for members of the township authority.

To some the above may merely represent more "newspaper nit-picking". But it may cause others to wonder how three local units of government should have such different philosophies in regard to community service.

The school district holds to a policy of paying neither elective nor appointive citizen bodies. Most school districts do pay board members. The Northville board has traditionally voted not to do so. It is the choice of the board members.

In the city none of the appointive commission or board members are paid. Their service is considered a contribution to the welfare of the community.

In the township nearly all appointees are paid.

(Exceptions are the recreation and library commissions where members represent both the city and township).

It is my personal feeling that there is meaningful significance to the fact that the township pays its appointees. And though it is not totally irrelevant, the money involved is not the important consideration.

At any rate, the implication that township board and commission members work for less than their city counterparts should be recognized for the myth that it is.

YES...

Yes! I believe that cities should provide bike paths. The City of Brighton has a Comprehensive Parks and Recreation Plan which was the product of a great deal of study and effort by a committee of the City Planning Commission.

This Plan was formally adopted about this time last year. Our plan envisions neighborhood playground areas, several larger parks, and a baseball field—all of which will be spread throughout the city and connected by a pedestrian-bicycle path network. Ore Creek, would be a scenic route connecting one end of the city to the other.

This plan is being implemented in stages with the dedication on October 14 of the first major portion of the project—the Mill Pond Park.

In planning for this bicycle and pedestrian network, we see their future use as being safe, healthy, aesthetically attractive and as a reduction to possible congestion on main streets.

I know I would rather see my young son ride his bike on such a path rather than in the possible way of motor traffic.

Alan F. Stonex
Mayor, City of Brighton

NO...

I don't think that it is at all necessary to have a bicycle trail in South Lyon.

From my experience in riding a trail bike up north we find that it becomes boring to ride over the same area repeatedly. We want to find new places to explore. I'm sure the children would feel the same way and when they tire of the same trail they will start destroying the signs and whatever else they can damage.

A bicycle trail won't keep them from going wherever they please.

If enough parents think that it is needed, I wish they would present their ideas to Council. I don't like to see children traveling South Lyon's streets during heavy traffic and I and other councilmen will be happy to listen to their arguments.

However, I still feel they will ride whenever and wherever they want to and providing specific paths would not help that situation. Children in this city are considerate and most do observe traffic laws on our streets now.

Herbert Bondy,
South Lyon City Councilman

"I never met an American who was polled."

Senator George McGovern made that observation in attacking the validity of the major pollsters who show him trailing President Richard Nixon by a whopping percentage.

Sour grapes? Perhaps.

But, so help me, I've never met an American who was polled either. Come to think of it I've never met a non-American who was polled.

And that's odd because I and lots of people I know have received unsolicited pornographic literature. That the pornos know me and the pollsters don't, hurts a little.

Anyway, it occurred that perhaps the pollsters have blackballed others as well. So this past week I conducted my own poll...a poll about the pollsters.

It wasn't very scientific, mind you, but a random selection of 12 area telephone numbers. Figuring that each of the persons called is acquainted with a minimum of 100 other persons, I'd guess it sampled at least 1200 people.

Each of those polled were asked if they had ever been contacted by a major pollster, such as Gallop or Harris, or by one of the television rating services. They also were asked if they knew of anyone who had been contacted.

The results show the pollsters are far behind in the creditability contest.

Why Wasn't 1-Mill Used?

To the Editor:

Northville teachers continue to strive for a contractual agreement with the Board of Education, but prospects appear very dim. After negotiating since last spring, the teachers have asked for factfinding which is tentatively scheduled for Saturday, October 7th in Northville at 10:00 a.m. Mr.

EDITOR'S NOTE: A letter received this past week was signed but included no address. If the writer will give us his address, the newspaper will be happy to publish the letter concerning teacher negotiations. Persons writing letters to the editor are reminded that all letters must contain signatures and addresses even though, upon request, names will not be published.

Leon Herman, a Southfield attorney, is the state appointed factfinder. (The factfinding date had been scheduled for September 27th; however, Mr. Herman was contacted by board's representative and the date has now been rescheduled for October 7th.)

The teachers have proposed binding arbitration which has not yet been responded to by the Board of Education. If accepted by the Board, the factfinders recommendations could result in an agreement, thereby eliminating the possibility of an interruption in classroom activity.

Two of the major issues are class size and salary. The Superintendent states teachers are asking for large raises. His contention is erroneous. What Mr. Spear is asking is that teachers pay again this year for the wage-price freeze of 1971. His feeling is that since we did not receive all of our wages last year, offering us those same wages this year constitutes an increase. The teachers association adamantly opposes his position and refuses to negotiate last year's salary agreement all over again. They are only asking competitive wages with other metropolitan school districts, a genuine 5.5 percent increase consistent with the presidential guidelines.

The Board's team also refuses to recognize the class size issue as being real and viable. It is a most important issue that must be dealt with. Students in overcrowded classrooms cannot receive the attention they deserve. We are aware that some classes are smaller than others, but teachers are concerned with the over-crowded classrooms of 32 and 34. Northville is a community that is growing rapidly, and new students arrive each week. The schools are already 100 students over the projected growth for this year and our building program proceeds at a snail's pace, far behind our student growth.

Teachers want programs that were reduced years ago such as counselor, library services, art and music to be fully restored. Why did the school board not use the 1 mill passed by voters to restore these services? In short, the concern is for quality education which must be maintained.

Criticizes Clerk

To the Editor:

I question the sincerity of the Northville Township Clerk who failed to notify the Public about a Township Board meeting held Wednesday, Sept. 20th. The Clerk failed to perform the duties of her office by deliberately neglecting proper procedure last week. She apparently informed the Northville Record late in the week so the notice appeared in the Thursday edition after the meeting was held.

Out of the 12 persons, one "may" have been contacted a number of years ago; two had been surveyed by television rating services; and none knew of anyone else who had been contacted by a major pollster.

Mine was the first.

Mrs. Chester Davies was the lone person who might have been contacted. As best as she can recall, someone may have contacted her several years ago but she cannot recall the circumstances.

"No, never in my lifetime and I'm 50 years old," Harold Ferris said. "You know I've always been curious about that. The polls quote this and that and I've never been contacted, nor have my neighbors or any of the people I work with. Just who are they calling?"

Ferris did, however, receive a call a year ago concerning television shows.

"Never," said Mrs. Allen Cassady.

Mrs. Edward Feast said she never has been contacted, nor have any of her acquaintances. "They're fun to read but that's about all," she remarked.

"It's funny but I've never gotten a call from any of them," said Mrs. Royal Keller. "If I knew of anyone who had I'd tell you. It seems to me what people think is their own business. I'm not sure about those polls."

Gus Kolb has never been contacted but he believes the polls are "pretty accurate" in giving President Nixon a big lead over Senator McGovern. "About the only kind of poll I get are the letters from Congressman (Marvin) Esch. You going to vote for Nixon? You should, he's a good man."

Mrs. Richard Janes neither supports nor rejects pollsters, but she admits that neither she nor her acquaintances have ever been contacted.

"They're a waste of time," said William Hirth, who did, once, receive a call about the television shows he watches.

"I think they're ridiculous," said Mrs. Ray Mudge. "It's like asking people what kind of toothpaste they use. Or let me put it this way: it's like asking what paper you like best—South Lyon, Novi or Northville. They're so much alike. Now if you asked me between the Free Press and News I'd say The News but you wouldn't know that my real favorite was the old Detroit Times."

"I've always wondered about that," commented Thomas Ford. "Who in the world are they contacting. They've never called me and I don't know anyone they have. If they'd let us know from time to time the people they're calling, maybe we could believe them a little. For all you know, those polls favoring Nixon were based on calls all to Republicans."

Mrs. John Blackburn has never been contacted and she doesn't know anyone who has.

Said Mrs. Robert Morris: "Nope, we've never gotten any calls like that. But, by the way, while we're on that subject, we didn't get our paper yesterday. We miss it. Would you see what happened?"

Novi Middle School Providing Buses

Spectator buses are to be provided Novi Middle School children for away football games—provided enough children are interested, Principal Robert S. Youngberg has disclosed.

The buses will leave the middle school at approximately 3 p.m. and return at about 6:30 p.m. Two parent chaperones for each bus are required.

Parents who have volunteered to date for this and other school functions include Mrs. Patricia Beers, Mrs. Kathleen Buck, Mrs. Jean DeWaard, Mrs. Jean Gattrell, Mrs. Judith Harding, Mrs. Myrna Henderson, Mr. and Mrs. John King, Mrs. Carol

Bike Film Kicks off Season

Two firsts are coming up next week—the first of the 1972-73 travelogue series and the first joint sponsorship by the Rotary clubs of Northville and Plymouth.

Kicking off the six-program series will be the appearance at the Northville High School on October 4 of Julian Gromer, who will present the film, "Wheels Across America."

According to Northville Rotarian Robert Webber, this year's travelogue series will feature the first three programs in Northville and the final three in Plymouth.

Following Gromer here on November 9 will be John Strong — "Brighton

Belgium", and on January 3, George Wilhelm—"South Pacific Isles"

The next three programs, scheduled in Plymouth, included:

February 7, Don Cooper—"Lumberjack's Alaskan Adventure"; March 5, Nicol Smith—"Enchanting Bali"; and Robert Brouwer—"Rio Colorado."

Gromer's appearance here at 8 p.m. will feature a unique film of a bicycling adventure across America. It traces the adventures of 40 college boys who pedal their 10-speed bikes from San Francisco, 3700 miles to New York City, averaging 120 miles per day.

Narrating the film, Gromer will use a device of his own invention that makes it possible to focus the projector from the tape recorder on the stage. By projecting the original film, instead of a print, and focusing from the stage, a sharp picture is always seen on the screen.

A professional tape recorder, hi-fi stereo amplifier and twin speakers are all custom made to produce the best possible sound.

Season tickets are $8 for adults, $4 for students, single performance tickets are $2 for adults, $1 for students.

Tickets are available at the Northville Camera Shop, the Harold Bloom Agency, or Manufacturer's Bank in Northville or Beitner Jewelry in Plymouth

Discusses 'Maybury Mess'

To the Editor:

The mess at Maybury indicates the need for strong leadership in township government. When bands of roaming thieves and gangs invade the property, and vandalize the immediate area, citizens have a right to complain about the destruction created by the overflow upon their private property.

The Township Supervisor should demand an immediate response from the State Department of Natural Resources to protect the rights of citizens in the area. The legislature approved an appropriation for the park earlier this summer. State police should protect the homeowners and provide some type of patrol to insure against malicious vandalism. Residents in the area around Maybury can voice their demands regarding this need by attending the meeting to be held at Schoolcraft College on Thursday, September 28.

Faults Construction

To the Editor:

For the past nine months I have been a resident of Highland Lakes Condominiums. During that period of time I have become increasingly frustrated in my attempts to solve certain construction problems with my home by dealing with the builder. These frustrations have included unreturned phone calls, broken promises, and a general lack of concern for my individual problems.

It is a real shame that the same individuals who are so unconcerned with the problems of existing residents, such as myself, are able to sell and build additional units while those of us already here are forced to live with, and pay for, something less than we were sold.

Novi Batters Milan in Tune-Up for South Lyon

Two arch-rivals, Novi and South Lyon, rolled up a whopping combined total of 99 points last week in tuning up for tomorrow's early season showdown.

Both teams will carry two straight victories into Friday's battle in Novi, including the Wildcats' easy 43-12 triumph over Milan and South Lyon's 56-20 rout of Dundee last week.

Add this kind of explosive punch to the fact that South Lyon comes to town determined to avenge last season's 43-12 loss to the Wildcats and you've got yourself one whale of a ballgame.

In posting its second victory, Novi stunned the Big Reds on the opening kickoff as Dave Brown, starting at fullback in place of Gary Collins, took the ball on the 19 and sailed up the center before turning to the sidelines and racing 81 yards for the touchdown. His extra point kick gave Novi a 7-0 lead even before some fans were settled in their seats.

And if that wasn't enough to demoralize the visitors, Novi scored again on its first offensive series a little more than two minutes later.

The Wildcats blocked a Milan punt at the 29 and three plays later Halfback Pat Boyer ripped through the left side of the line and went in for a 17-yard TD.

Despite this early deficit, the Big Reds bounced back quickly with a TD in a three-play series capped by a 71-yard gallop through a host of would-be tacklers by Milan's Chuck Maynard.

But before the first quarter ended the host squad scored another touchdown and snagged a two-point safety.

After Novi had picked up a first down on Milan's 44, Halfback Jim VanWagner plowed over the right side the line to score.

Seconds before the quarter ended, Mike Riley blocked a Milan punt and Novi had its safety.

The Wildcats scored once more before the half-time intermission—this time on a 65-yard drive that netted two first downs.

Quarterback Steve Lukkari fired a shot to End John Pantalone, hooking over center, to pick up 29 yards and set the stage for the TD.

Eleven yards from the end-zone, Boyer crashed over the right side for the score, and Jim VanWagner picked up the two extra points.

Novi took to the air eight times in that first half, but the telling punch took place on the ground where the Wildcats piled up 207 yards to Milan's 98.

In the second half, with Coach John Osborne giving his second and third stringers a workout, the Wildcats settled for 135 yards on the ground while holding Milan to 41.

Just as Novi stunned Milan in the opening seconds of the

Novi Quarterback Dave Brown (15-Upper Right) Watches From Beneath a Milan Tackler as His Pass Is Nearly Intercepted

Less than two minutes remained in the game when Milan picked up its second touchdown on a Novi miscue.

A Milan pass went awry and bounced from one outstretched Novi hand to another before John Withers laid claim to the interception. But the Wildcats fumbled on the first down and Pat Snyder snatched the loose ball and raced 33 yards for the Milan six-pointer.

In its first offensive drive of the final stanza, however, the Wildcats drove 60 yards to the half-yard line before Tom Ford pushed over for the TD. Lukkari booted the extra point.

game, the Wildcats staggered the Big Reds early in the second half as Novi's John Pantalone picked off a Milan pass on the first play. Then in seven plays, including two first downs, Novi marched to the Milan 20 where Lukkari fired a pass to Boyer for the score.

Dave Brown's kick was good and Novi led, 36-6.

Novi threatened again late in the third quarter, pushing to the 19 before falling back to the 25 and giving up the ball temporarily.

COACH JOHN OSBORNE

It was Sunday afternoon and John Osborne was doing just what you'd expect a football coach to be doing on a Sunday afternoon - he was watching football on television.

"I'm watching the college highlights," he reported. "I'd rather watch the college teams than the pros because I get to watch the wishbone and I never get tired of watching them run the wishbone."

Osborne's fascination with the wishbone offense is understandable. Ever since installing it with his Novi High School squad, the Wildcats have become an explosive, high-scoring, almost-unbeatable powerhouse.

The most recent Novi win was a 43-12 conquest of the Big Red from Milan and the victory left Osborne happy.

Not because of the big score, mind you, those have become almost commonplace. What left Osborne pleased was the improvement of his offensive line.

"Two weeks ago the Wildcats had beaten Northville 26-6, but the game had revealed certain weaknesses in the Novi front wall and Osborne and his staff had made some changes to correct them.

"We changed the whole right side," Osborne reported. "We opened up the line positions for challenges during the week and we've now got some new personnel on the first team. I was pleased with the way they performed."

Basically, the changes involved the insertion of Dan Kardell at guard and Tom Celani at tackle. "Celani in particular did an outstanding job," Osborne commented.

Novi gained a whopping 342 yards on the ground and most of it came through the revamped line.

"Milan has a real fine middle linebacker" in Pat Snyder," the Novi coach reported. "They tried to stop our wide game by playing a 5-1 defense against us with Snyder in the middle and the other two linebackers split out wide. They thought Snyder could handle the middle by himself."

"It was our feeling that they had given him just too much to handle. We had him out-manned so we went with our off-tackle plays and they proved very effective."

A second change brought about by the Northville game was the insertion of a new blocking system.

"We knew before the season began," said Osborne, "that a lot of teams were designing special defenses for our wishbone, but we really took a hard shot from Northville. They revealed several major weaknesses in our attack. But we think we've got those weaknesses covered now."

"We've got better communications between the players on the field. The tackles will call the blocking patterns for each play on the line of scrimmage according to how the other team lines up on defense. There are about five different blocking patterns and two of them are for special defenses."

"It's up to those tackles to recognize what the defense is doing and call the blocking assignments accordingly. They did it beautifully Friday."

On the television set the credits for the College Highlights program were rolling across the screen.

Osborne still had a lot more football to watch, however.

"I'm going to watch our game films, one more time," he said. "And then we'll get to work watching South Lyon."

Paced by the passing of Tony Kern, the Lions routed Dundee 56-20 Friday after bombing Brighton 33-8 in their opener two weeks ago.

Mr. K and Company will be in town tomorrow (Friday) to test the Wildcat defensive backs and Osborne intends to be ready.

There is one event open only to the very rich. It is a golf tournament. However, you will say, everybody plays golf. Not in this tournament. It is reserved only for those involved in producing oil. The Confederate Oil Golf Tournament is an affair open to about 1,000 oil men in the country, all millionaires, or on their way to being so. Sounds tempting, doesn't it?

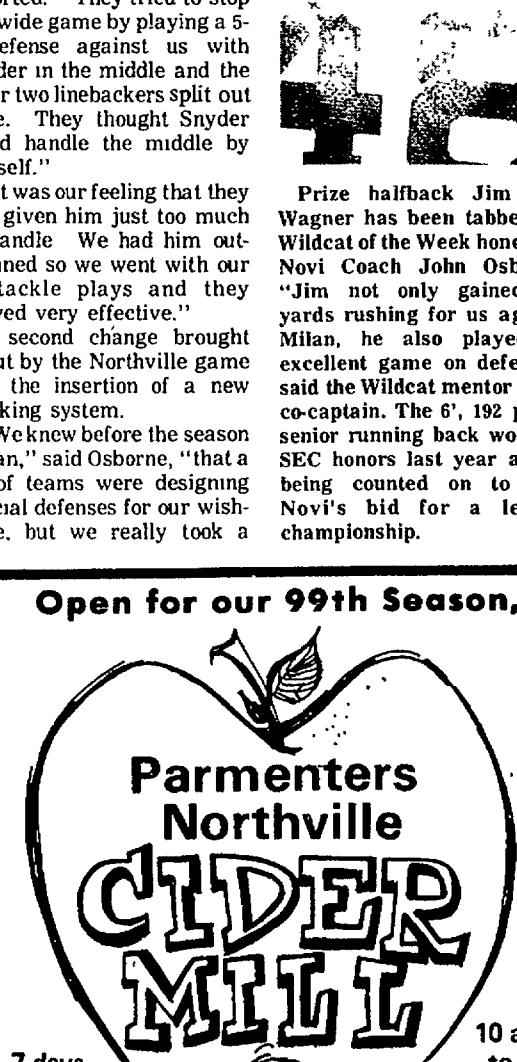

You don't have to be rich to own a top brand motorcycle. At MOORE'S MOTOR SPORT INC., 21001 Pontiac Trail, 437-2688, you will find a complete line of SUZUKI motorcycles, parts and accessories. We don't forget you after the sale. See us too for jackets, helmets, gloves, used vehicles, etc. Service department available for lubrications, tune-ups, brake adjustments, etc. Easy financing.

Wildcat

Prize halfback Jim Van Wagner has been tabbed for Wildcat of the Week honors by Novi Coach John Osborne. "Jim not only gained 144 yards rushing for us against Milan, he also played an excellent game on defense," said the Wildcat mentor of his co-captain. DOWN BUT NOT OUT—A Clarenceville tackler nails Northville quarterback Bill McDonald for a three yard loss in the fourth quarter of Friday's game. The play was hardly typical of the game's direction as the Mustangs rolled up more than 200 yards rushing while winning 26-0.

Praise the Lord and Hallelujah!

The Northville Mustangs finally won a football game. And for those of you who might think that "Hallelujah-ing" about winning a football game is a little excessive, bear in mind the fact that the Mustangs haven't managed to come out on the long end of the score in ten consecutive outings.

You have to go all the way back to October 30 of 1970 - when the previously winless Mustangs edged the winless Bulldogs from Brighton 12-6 - to find the last Northville victory.

Victim of the first Northville triumph in two years was the Clarenceville Trojans.

The game wasn't even close. The Mustangs pounded out a decisive 26-0 victory and, quite frankly, the score could very easily have been 50-0.

Northville's four touchdowns came via four different routes.

The first came on a four yard plunge through the middle of the line following a 52 yard drive. The second came on an 85 yard punt return. The third came on a 10-yard sweep of the left end. And the fourth came on a 32 yard pass play from a second string quarterback to a fourth string end.

It was Northville's night. And although those four touchdowns provided the Mustangs with a comfortable margin of victory, they were hardly an accurate measure of just how completely Northville dominated the game.

Considering the following, 1. Northville has the ball first and goal-to-go on Clarenceville's five yard line in the opening minutes of the second quarter, but fail to score as the Trojans intercept a Bill McDonald aerial.

2. With fourth down and four yards to go for the touchdown, John Sherman snares a McDonald pass in the end zone only to have it pop loose when he is jolted by a Clarenceville defender.

3. The Mustangs have to turn the ball over to the Trojans on downs on the seven yard line after a measurement so close that the officials could have called it either way.

4. Steve Serkaian recovers a Clarenceville fumble in the end zone for an apparent six-pointer only to have the officials nullify the play by ruling that the Mustangs had been offside.

But no one on the Northville side of the field was complaining about the "might-have-beens." There were enough good things that happened to leave everyone smiling.

Northville dominated the game from its onset.

After Rod Crane returned the opening kick-off 21 yards to his own 39 yard line, the Mustangs set off an 61-yard drive that was climaxed eight plays later as 5'11", 160 pound sophomore halfback Tom Marzonie drove four yards into the Clarenceville end zone for the first Northville touchdown.

The big play in that opening drive was a 29-yard burst by Marzonie that put the ball on Clarenceville's nine yard line.

McDonald hit Taylor with a short pass for a two-point conversion and the Mustangs had an 8-0 lead with 8:14 left to play in the opening quarter.

The second Northville touchdown came a little less than four minutes later.

After picking up a first down on their initial series of plays, the Trojans were forced into a punting situation. Northville's Jim O'Brien, a 155 pound junior, gathered in the kick on his own 15 yard line, cut across the field, and sped 85 yards untouched up the left sideline for the score, as the Mustang blockers gave the Clarenceville punt-team worm's eye view of the proceedings.

The touchdown, which came at the 4:35 mark of the first quarter, marked the end of the first-half scoring. The Mustangs threatened during much of the second quarter, but were unable to add to their lead and took a 14-0 edge into the locker room at the half.

The second half was a mirror image of the first in terms of scoring. Northville threatened during much of the third quarter, but were unable to cross the Trojan goal line until the fourth period when they equaled their first quarter output of two touchdowns.

Bill Norton tallied the first of those touchdowns on a 10 yard sweep of his own left end, as quarterback Bill McDonald levelled the last Trojan defender between Norton and the end zone.

That third touchdown was set up when John Sherman picked off a Clarenceville pass and returned it to the 34 yard line. Bart Taylor made an acrobatic reception of a McDonald pass that gained 13 yards to the Clarenceville 10 yard line as the third quarter ended and set up Norton's ten-yard sweep for the score on the first play of the fourth quarter.

Northville's final touchdown of the game came with just 1:25 left in the game. Coach Chuck Shonta, the victory in hand, had substituted freely and even those subs produced.

At quarterback was Phil Palarchio, who, according to Shonta, hadn't worked out at the signal-caller's spot in three weeks. And at end was Glen Kundrick, a fourth-string junior. But Friday night Palarchio and Kundrick looked a lot like Griese and Warfield.

With third and four on the Clarenceville 32, Palarchio faded back and tossed a bomb to Kundrick who outraced the Trojan cornerback and made a beautiful over-the-shoulder reception on the two and carried the ball into the end zone for the six-points.

It was that kind of night for the Mustangs.

Leading the Northville offense was Tom Marzonie, a 5'11", 155 pound sophomore, elevated to the first string for the first time.

Scampering through holes carved out by Tom Johnson, Bill Potter, Tim Rice, Ron Angove, Steve Serkaian, and Jim Porterfield, Marzonie picked up 74 yards in 12 carries. Crane gained 67 yards and Norton added 54 more as the Mustangs picked up 206 yards on the ground.

Northville begins its league schedule next week, as they journey to Waterford Mott to meet the pre-season favorites for the Western Six Conference title. Game time is 8 p.m.

COACH CHUCK SHONTA

"It was a long time coming, I'll tell you that. It was a long time coming, but it sure feels mighty good."

For the first time since he took over the reins of the Northville football program at the start of the 1971 season, Chuck Shonta was a winner.

His fired-up Mustang squad had blasted out a 26-0 triumph over the Clarenceville Trojans and now Shonta had full rights and privileges to all the spoils of victory.

Like being able to put in his substitutes with five minutes left on the clock. Like being able to walk out to the middle of the field to shake hands with the other coach after the game and receive congratulations rather than having to give them. And like being able to report what his team had done right instead of what they did wrong.

"I thought defensively we did a great job," said the Northville coach. "We held them to just five first downs and just 98 total yards. I thought our defense was outstanding."

Shonta had changed his defensive alignments for the Clarenceville game, expecting the Trojans to rely heavily on a passing attack.

Colts Take 2 out of 3

Two of the three Northville Colts' little league football teams recorded victories over the Belleville Cougars last week, but the Colt junior varsity failed for the third consecutive week to register its first triumph of the season as they played to a scoreless tie.

The Colt varsity led the way against Belleville as they scored on a 10 yard pass play in the first quarter, shoved across a two point conversion, and then throttled the Cougars for the rest of the game to earn an 8-0 verdict.

Upping their season's record to 2-1 were the Colt freshmen who drove 75 yards with the opening kick-off for a touchdown and then added a second six-pointer on a 57-yard end sweep in the third quarter to register a 14-0 triumph.

Still looking for their first victory, the Colt junior varsity displayed strong defensive play in shutting out the Cougar jayvee, but were unable to score themselves and had to settle for a 0-0 tie.

"Our scouting report showed that they passed a great deal against Oak Park in their first game and we expected them to do the same against us. That number 22 (halfback Terry Laird) caught two long touchdown passes in their first game."

"What we did was play a 4-3. We dropped a man off the line and went with four linebackers. We had Norton and Crane at the outside linebacker spots and Rice and Serkaian at the inside linebackers. That left Bill Lusk and Tom Smith at defensive ends and Angove and Porterfield at defensive tackles."

The defense worked well. Trojan quarterback Brian Luka completed just four of eleven passes for 19 yards and Tim Rice and safety John Sherman pulled down interceptions for the Mustangs.

One of the facets of Northville's play which brought a smile to Shonta's face was the way they "hit." Right from the first play of scrimmage, the Mustangs started outthrusting the Trojans and the trend continued throughout the game.

"We hit well last week against Novi, too," commented Shonta, "but we really put it all together against Clarenceville. Steve Serkaian got in a couple of great hits for us. He played the best game of his career. He tattooed their good running back (Laird) so hard a couple of times I thought the kid did well just to get back up."

Even in victory there was one disheartening note for Shonta, however, and that was the loss of Bill Potter, the 6'2, 215 pound sophomore, who won a starting spot even though out for football for the first time.

"It came on their interception in our end zone," said the Northville coach. "He was running for the ball carrier and got clipped from behind. It's a knee and it looks as if he'll be out two to three weeks. That's definitely going to hurt us."

Coming up is what Shonta expects to be the roughest game of the season - Waterford Mott. "They beat us badly last year and they've got everybody back," he said. "But we could surprise. Based on Friday's game I'd have to say that we've got a chance against everybody on our schedule. We'll definitely be winning some more ball games this year. I'll guarantee you that."

Romp in Dearborn Invitational

Golfers Cop Major Tourney

Northville's outstanding high school golf team added yet another impressive victory to an already long list of achievements Monday as they swept to a commanding 12 stroke victory in the prestigious Dearborn Invitational.

"Certainly not all the best teams in the state were there," said Al Jones, coach of the Mustang Golfers. "But a lot of them were. The Dearborn Invitational is generally conceded to be one of the better high school tournaments in the state."

Only three Class B schools have won the Invitational since it was initiated in 1959. Sacred Heart came out on top in 1960; Riverside won in 1965; and Northville won it last year.

By copping first place again this year, the Mustangs became the only Class B team to ever win twice, and they did it in successive years.

The same four golfers who toured the Burroughs Country Club course in 319 strokes to beat second-place Thurston by five strokes last year again carried the Northville banner.

But the 1971 victory pales in the light of the most recent conquest.

Four men shared medalist honors in the tournament with 77 and three of them were from Northville. The fourth Mustang golfer, Bob Simmons, finished in a two-way tie for fifth place in the meet just one stroke back at 78.

John Hlohenic, John Marshall and Brian Mills, all with 77s, played three holes of sudden death play with Dearborn's Mike Eddy to determine first through fourth places and it was Marshall who came out on top.

"He really played it smart," said Jones of the Mustang victory. "He was our only golfer who hadn't played the course before so he got a card and figured which holes he should settle for bogeys on and which holes he could par. He figured he could shoot a 78 by playing consistently and not trying to shoot par. As it turned out he beat his goal by one stroke and ended up winning the whole thing."

The Dearborn golfer finished second, while Mills and Hlohenic took third and fourth. Simmons lost the play off for fifth place and had to settle for sixth.

Still, first, third, fourth, and sixth is hardly cause for despair when the fact that 25 teams were entered in the meet is taken into consideration. Thurston and Dearborn finished in a tie for second place with 321 strokes apiece.

Northville's four man total of 309 strokes for 18 holes is a new school record.

In dual meets last week Northville ran its consecutive win streak to 20 and its undefeated streak to 28. Walled Lake Western was the last team to top the Mustangs and that happened in the spring of 1971.

On Wednesday the Northville golfers recorded a 186-205 victory over North Farmington at Brae Burn. The major accomplishment of the meet was turned in by Hlohenic who captured another school record by shooting a four under par 32 on the front nine.

Other Northville scores in the meet were 36 by Marshall, 38 by Simmons, 39 by Mark Dougher, and 41 by Jim Dales.

The Mustangs recorded a 190-211 victory over Milford Friday at Duck Lake. Again Hlohenic paced the Northville team, this time with a one under par 35. Simmons was second with 37, Mills carded a 38, Dales had a 39, and Marshall had a 41. The best Milford score was 40.

Cole, Harriers Finally Lose

There was good news and bad news for the Northville cross-country team last week. First the good news. The Mustangs recorded their fourth win in as many tries and notched their first Western Six Conference triumph of the season last Thursday as they toppled Waterford Mott 22-33.

And now the bad news. The Mustangs' undefeated season came to a short, quick end Tuesday as they dropped a 24-31 decision to Riverside at Cass Benton. In addition, Guy Cole saw his personal undefeated streak come to an end against Riverside.

The thin junior Mustang leader had won each of Northville's first four dual meets, but against Riverside a young man named Mike Donakowski sped across the finish line ahead of him to bring his streak to a halt after four straight.

Ralph Redmond, coach of the Mustang harriers, was pleased with the victory over Waterford Mott.

"We felt it was our best team performance of the year," he said. "You could say that it was also our best from an individual to individual standpoint, too," he added. "Mott is a vastly improved team this year."

Cole won the meet easily, breezing across the finish line in 16:58, a personal best for him over the three mile Cass Benton course fondly known as "The Monster" and generally regarded as one of the best - and roughest - in the state.

Mott's Dan Bennet was second in 17:17, but Tom Coram crossed the line for the Mustangs in third place just eight seconds behind Bennet. And then, after the Corsairs had lodged fourth place, "The Mustang Pack" of Fred Shipley, Kevin Kofler, and Jeff Menhart came across in fifth, sixth, and seventh place to seal the win.

The Riverside meet was a different story. "They took us apart," said Redmond with a flair for description.

Donakowski's winning time was 17:15 and Cole was second at 17:30. Coram outspurred a Riverside runner to the tape to take third place in 17:39, so after the first four runners had crossed the finish line the meet was tied at 4-4. But this time it was Riverside's pack which zipped across the line in fifth, sixth, and seventh places to seal the victory.

Although the varsity's record is now blemished 4-1, the Mustang jayvees are still undefeated with a 3-0 mark. In addition the young Mustang runners swept to a first place finish against 16 other jayvee teams in the West Bloomfield Invitational.

Currently running for the Northville cross-country junior varsity are David Beers, Tim Hurley, Mike Anusbigan, Dave Behrens, Dan Earehart, Dennis Keegan, Jim Dorosiewicz, and Jim Lane.

Errors Abound In Grid Contest

It was a brand new ballgame for contestants in the second week of the football contest.

While numerous contestants came up with near perfect results the opening week, most contestants missed five games or more last week. As a matter of fact, 16 contestants made 10 or more mistakes out of a total of 16 games.

Northville's surprising 26-0 shutout over Clarenceville, Michigan State's 21-16 loss to Georgia Tech, and Michigan's 26-9 triumph over UCLA were big reasons for the widely different results.

Leading the pack and winning himself the first-prize $10 was Ed Kritch of 860 Spring Drive. Taking second place and $5 was Neil Fitzpatrick, 18157 Pinebrook Drive.

Both winners missed three games, but Ed came closer to guessing the tie-breaking Detroit-Minnesota score.

That score—34-10 with the Vikings on top—settled the third place position, too, as 10 persons finished with four mistakes. But Doosie Cole, 9262 West Six Mile Road, came closer to guessing the score and hence won the third place $3.

Other contestants who finished just out of the money with four mistakes were:

Pete Magnan, Frieda O'Leary, Shirley and David Kleckner, Mark and Mike Regentek, Gordon Bunn, Dave Biery, Jr., and Mrs. Elizabeth Martin.

Mustanger

John Hlohenic, Northville's outstanding golfer, has earned Mustang of the Week honors. "He holds just about every record in the book," said Coach Al Jones. "His 71 at Meadowbrook is a school record, his 32 on the front nine of Brae Burn is a team record, and I've never seen or heard of anyone having a 35 on the back nine at Brae Burn and John's done that, too." In his last four dual matches, Hlohenic is a total of four strokes under par. Arnie who?

also is Donald Morgan, has approved its letter of intent and plans to bill its township residents for the service.

Asked last week why Plymouth Township had not been advised of the law, as had Northville Township, a spokesman for the firm, Kerr, Wattles and Russell, replied that Plymouth Township had not asked for the information. Plymouth Township Clerk Helen Richardson told The Record Thursday that legality of bill has not been a question there and in lieu of legal advice to the contrary, "our board is assuming it can be done."

"We have an extremely tight budget," she said, "and we simply do not have any general fund money to subsidize a sanitation program." Plymouth Township "right now plans to bill customers for the service. We'll bill them through our water bills. If they don't receive water we'll probably bill them separately."

"We don't intend or have we considered billing people who don't want the service," she added.

Emphasizing that the township has not committed itself to participate in the service by the letter of intent, she said the board won't make its final decision until after the bidding "and we know how much it will cost us for the service."

Mrs. Richardson said in Plymouth Township's case, residents seem to favor the service proposal and are asking for it.

In Northville Township, however, very little public reaction to the proposal has been noted, according to Supervisor Stromberg, who remains hopeful that the township may yet participate.

"If people know they will get it for less money (than they pay presently for privately contracted service) they will want it," he said following last week's meeting.

Presently, some people are paying $50 or more for collection, he said.

While bids are not yet in on the proposed pickup service, the authority, on the basis of preliminary investigation, predicts it will get a contract for approximately $2.10 per month per pickup, means the annual bill would be approximately $25 for each residential customer, he said.

"Why would they want to continue like they are if they can get it (pickup service) for less?"

Even if they wanted the service, however, the question remains as to how they can be legally billed through the township offices.

The authority does not intend to deal directly with customers but rather with the municipalities. Its plan call for collecting for the service from the municipalities retaining a small service charge (perhaps 10 cents of the $2.10), and then paying the contractor.

While Plymouth Township will not subsidize the collection service, "we are thinking that maybe we will pay the month's bill from the general fund, say $2,000, and then recoup that amount from the customers," Mrs. Richardson said. "That way our expenditure would be only temporary each month, with money going out and coming in."

If Northville Township does not participate in sanitation service program, the project will very likely go ahead, according to Northville Councilman Vernon.

Plan Curbs Expansion Of Track

Main, and for the South Main strip from Gardner to Johnson.

For the area lying between Cady and Park Place on the north, South Main on the east Johnson on the south and the Griswold Street extension on the west he suggested an industrial classification.

Another change from the original plan is the consultant's suggestion that the area north and northwest of the Ford plant be designated for open space use. In the original plan, part of this property, owned by the Ford-Motor company, is designated for industrial use.

Should planners accept the consultant's suggestions — and that can't happen until after a public hearing is held — the commercial area would encompass the existing downtown area, together with commercial on either side of Main Street to Park Place (excluding the Ford plant); the area bounded by Wing, Dunlap, Griswold, and Center; a strip along the east side of Center south from Lake Street; and a bulk of the land north of Randolph, between High and Center and south and east of the Lutheran Church property to Center.

Concerning the latter area, between High and Center, Nino suggested it "is ideally located for specialized office structures and serves the purpose of functional separation of use activities."

Nino's suggested central business district could, he noted, provide for a revised ring or loop street system. The northern boundary of this loop, he said, could follow an extension of Randolph Street realigned easterly to Hutton and then south and east along the escarpment, north of Main, to Griswold.

Most of the remainder of the land within the city is left for a residential classification by the consultant. A significant large multiple-family unit development is projected for the area north of Randolph, south of Baseline, and west of the Taft Road area.

Much of this property is presently occupied by Eastlawn Convalescent Home.

"The topography of this area and its ownership (one owner) makes it extremely attractive for a large scale planned development," he said. "An alternative use suggests public ownership and development as a multi-purpose recreational area, however regional facilities now available and planned suggest that its acquisition by the City of Northville may not be warranted."

Board Rejects 'Arbitration'

Request by the Northville Education Association that "binding arbitration" be invoked in current teacher contract negotiations was informally denied by the board of education Monday night.

Although it took no formal action, the board authorized its attorney, Fred Schwarze, to verbally report to the NEA its opposition to binding arbitration.

Under binding arbitration the two sides would agree to a third party's findings and would have to accept his recommendations for a contract settlement.

Board President Orlo Robinson reflected the board's position with his comment that "we would be abdicating our responsibility to the taxpayers if we went to binding arbitration."

Schwarze and Superintendent Raymond Spear advised against it.

In a related matter, Schwarze advised the board against answering allegations of the teachers association in recent printed flyers and news stories and he viewed proposals for a public forum on negotiations as disruptive to the bargaining process.

Calling NEA's materials that have been distributed to homes "slanted propaganda," Schwarze said board reply would only "harden" differences and "hurt" negotiations.

Informally, "we are down to one or two basic issues," Schwarze said of negotiations, "but legally, under the mediation process, I am not at liberty to discuss publicly even the last proposal by the teachers."

"We have not exhausted all of the avenues so if the board came out now to clear up questions raised in the community by teachers it would be more damaging than helpful in reaching a settlement."

Following fact finding, which has been scheduled to begin October 7, if no settlement is reached perhaps then a public "disclosure of the facts" might be appropriate, he told board members.

Pressed for answers by a spokesman for the PT council, who had hoped the board would consider a public forum on negotiations, Schwarze made the following disclosures:

—That he, Schwarze, was representing the school board at the bargaining table since mid-July.

—That mediation has been underway since early August.

—That while formally 13 or more issues remain to be resolved, informally most of the issues have been settled.

—That since formal settlement has not been reached on all issues, technically even those that have been informally approved are subject to possible renegotiation by either side.

—That the board's position on class size remains firm, namely that the existing contract language be continued.

—That the extra curricular issue concerns payment to teachers, not whether or not some activities should be eliminated or changed.

According to Superintendent Spear, the fact that some cuts made in 1968 (such as remedial reading teacher, elementary art and physical education instructors) have not been restored "has nothing to do" with the board's decision not to levy some of the authorized millage.

Decision in August by the board not to levy one voted mill was based on a conclusion that a "sound education program" would be possible without the added taxes, he declared.

Restructuring of the program, he and Florence Panattoni, director of instruction, explained, has made it unnecessary to restore cuts made in 1968. For example, Miss Panattoni said remedial classes have been replaced by more positive classroom studies, such as speed reading and individualized reading emphasis, which are proving more beneficial than were remedial classes.

The Northville Record

Wed.-Thurs., September 27-28, 1972

....The color-etching brush of fall creeps southward with the disappearance of September to proclaim again, "It's apple cider time." And in this area there are plenty of places to see cider made and enjoy its refreshing, sweet taste. In Northville, Foreman's Orchards has just opened a brand new mill on West Seven Mile Road, while the 100-year-old Parmenter Cider Mill is again attracting daily visitors on Base Line. A favorite near South Lyon is the Olsen Cider Mill at 10550 Rushton Road in Green Oak Township, and in the Brighton area three cider mills are especially popular: Tom Walker's on Parshallville Road north of Hartland, Clare's inside Brighton on Grand River, and History Town on Grand River between Brighton and Howell.

Announcement of the results was made this week by the MPA. Some 210 entries were judged by members of the Nebraska Press Association.

First place awards won by Sliger Publications include: —The South Lyon Herald for best editorial page; competition in this category included all weekly newspapers, regardless of size, second place was won by the Livonia Observer and third by the Birmingham Eccentric; —The Herald for news reporting in its circulation class; second and third place honors went to the Osceola County Herald and the Otsego County Herald times;

—The Northville Record for news reporting, an award won by The Record four straight years; second place went to the Livingston County Press, and third to the Brighton Argus;

—The Herald for use of pictures.

Other awards included the third place, as noted above, to The Argus for news reporting; second place to The Record for use of pictures; second place to The Record for advertising ideas; second places to The Herald in the overall general excellence category; and third place to The Record in general excellence.

The Record had set something of a "record" for Michigan weekly newspapers by winning the general excellence designation three years in a row.

Host Soviet Poet

Poet Iosif Brodsky, recently-appointed poet-in-residence at the University of Michigan, and almost as recently banished from his native Russia, will appear at Schoolcraft College on October 3.

Considered by many as Russia's foremost poet, Brodsky was "invited" to leave permanently for Israel this past summer. Instead, he chose to come to the university to accept a post filled only once before — by Robert Frost from 1921 to 1923.

Brodsky, 32, was met at Metropolitan Airport in early July by his friends, Carl R. and Ellendea Proffer, who were instrumental in his coming to Michigan.

Brodsky will appear at 8 p.m. in the Liberal Arts Theater. His appearance is sponsored by the Cultural and Public Affairs Committee, arranged by David Perkins, an English instructor. There is no charge.

Park Plans

Park naturalists will provide guided morning "Autumn nature walks" open to the general public at Kensington Metropolitan Park near New Hudson on four Sundays starting October 8 at 7 a.m. (Dates are Sunday, October 8, 15, 22 and 29).

Families and individuals should meet the park naturalist at the Nature Center. The purpose of the guided nature walks is to help the park visitor enjoy and understand the plant and animal life of the area during the beautiful fall season.

Boy and Girl Scout groups, other civic groups and school children may request guided nature hikes at Kensington through Friday, with appointments made through the Detroit Office by calling 961-5865 (Detroit).

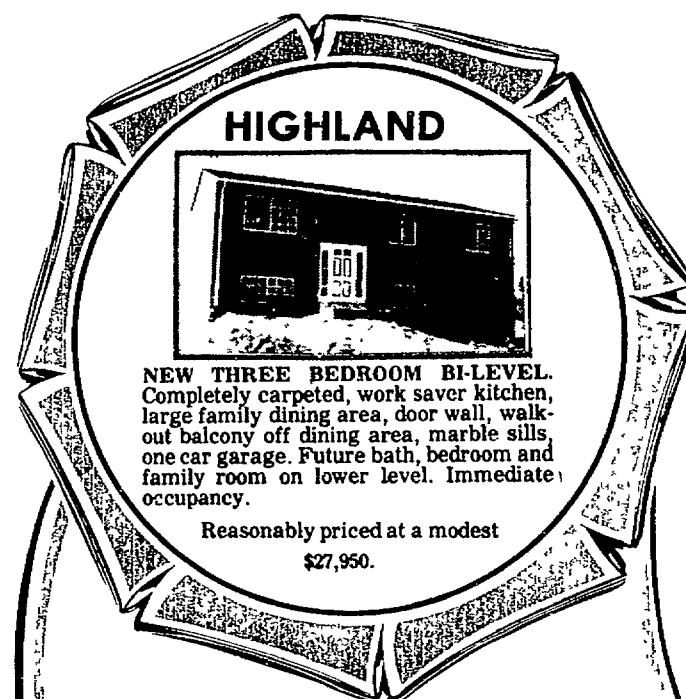

Thomas H. Smith, chief naturalist for the Huron-Clinton Metropolitan Authority, advised persons to dress according to the weather and to wear sturdy shoes that will keep their feet

Is $45,000 Enough for Governor?

LANSING—Can the governor of Michigan survive on a salary of $45,000 per year plus expenses?

Can members of the State Supreme Court get by on $42,000 per year plus free parking privileges?

Should the 148 Members of the legislature get more than the $17,000 per year and $2,500 expense allowance they now get?

These are the questions now before the State Officers Compensation Commission. Sometime after the November election, the commission will give out its answers to the questions.

If past form is followed, they'll decide more is needed.

THE COMMISSION was created originally in 1968 when voters approved a constitutional amendment in the August primary. It meets every other year and makes its decision known after the November election.

The new pay rates go into effect Jan. 1, and will be in effect for the next two years.

The creation of the commission took away from the legislature the politically embarrassing job of raising its own salary base. Lawmakers still have the power to overturn decisions of the commission, but they must vote specifically to overturn it.

That means the pay raise goes into effect if the legislature does nothing—something the legislature knows how to do.

WHEN THE COMMISSION began, each legislator made $12,500 per year plus $2,500 in expenses. They had their pay increased in both 1968 and 1970 to put it at its current level of $17,000 plus $2,500 expenses.

The governor made $40,000 a year when the commission came into being. He received an additional $15,000 expense account in 1968 and a $5,000 salary hike in 1970.

Supreme Court justices didn't get anything the first time around, but in 1970 they received a $7,000 increase to $42,000.

The court's efforts for pay raises have raised more eyebrows than other branches the past few years.

IN 1970 COURT Administrator William Hart said it was "embarrassing" for the judges to be paid so little as they are. Then he suggested a $57,000 salary would be equitable.

Hart was accompanied that year by John Henderson, a Michigan State University economist who received $1,500 from court funds for his testimony. Henderson accompanied Hart again this year and told the commission the court needs at least another $6,000. Hart said Henderson would be paid from court funds again, but that he didn't yet know how much.

Hart also said he still thinks the court needs $57,000 and that the commission should be thinking in terms of $65,000 for 1974.

EVEN HARDER to figure than an equitable salary for the court, however, is an equitable salary for members of the legislature.

State Chamber of Commerce President Harry Hall had much sympathy this year while testifying before the commission. Hall said he didn't think any salaries should be raised this year to set an example for voters in the fight against inflation.

So far as the legislature is concerned, he said, "if you're talking about performance, some legislators are grossly underpaid and some are overpaid at any price."

SOME PEOPLE have a tendency to read things too literally.

For instance, there are some of the people who ride Detroit's public buses.

The bus drivers recently began handing out leaflets to their riders urging them to support Gov. William G. Milliken's transportation package.

The 5 x 8 inch leaflets listed 18 members of the State Senate from in and around the Detroit area and a map showing their districts to enable the reader to identify his senator.

Each rider was urged to write a letter addressed to "Your Senator, State Capitol Bldg., Lansing, Mich." And that's exactly who some of them wrote to.

Numerous letters already have been received addressed to "Your Senator, State Capitol Bldg., Lansing, Mich."

Babson Report

Construction Hits Record

Wellesley Hills, Mass.—Spending on public and private construction during 1971 totaled a record-shattering $109 billion, according to the U.S. Department of Commerce. Of this amount, expenditures for public construction accounted for $30 billion, the private sector for $79 billion. For the current year, total construction outlays are expected to advance 8-percent to $118 billion, with private construction amounting to $86 billion, public spending to $32 billion.

Looking ahead to 1973 and beyond, a continued high level of construction activity may be expected as a result of the enormous task of replacing the nation's outdated industrial and commercial facilities as well as meeting sustained demand for better housing and more service establishments of all types. By the year 1975, total construction is likely to reach a historic height of $150 billion, 38 percent above the record pace set during 1971.

AN UNSURPASSED 2,050,000 housing units were started last year—43 percent more than the 1,400,000 units begun the previous year, and about 7 percent above the earlier high of 1,908,000 starts in 1950. The hot pace of residential building continued into 1972. Recently, however, there have been indications that the housing boom has passed its peak.

For example, although new housing starts for the second quarter of 1972 rose 16 percent above the year-earlier rate, on a seasonally adjusted basis, they were just about even with the number recorded during the first quarter. This broke a string of eight consecutive quarterly housing records. (August starts, however, rose 12 percent above the July level.) Although the housing boom may have peaked, strong pent-up demand and availability of long-term money indicate that residential building should continue at a well-sustained level through 1972 and into 1973.

PRIVATE nonresidential construction—industrial, commercial, religious, educational, hospital—advanced only 4 percent last year as a result of a low rate of capacity utilization in the industrial sector and receding demand in the office building division. This year, however, a more impressive gain is anticipated.

Public utility construction was second only to residential construction in terms of percentage gain last year. With a record volume of $14 billion expected to be spent erecting gas, electric, and telephone facilities this year, the category should once again be a pacesetter in terms of percentage improvement. Threats of power shortages and growing needs of the residential and business communities are sparking acceleration of utility plant construction.

PUBLIC CONSTRUCTION was hampered in 1971 by declining revenues of local communities, a temporary slowdown in the disbursement of federal aid funds, and difficulties caused by high interest rates and rapidly rising costs. Public education was especially weak in 1971, and a further decline in this category is anticipated this year. Public hospital construction, however, has shown powerful expansion in recent years, and this pattern should continue.

Recent prices of the stocks of many building materials companies tend to reflect investors' fears that residential construction may be headed downward. A number of such issues, in fact, are near their 1971 lows and appear to well discount any moderate slowdown that may be forthcoming. The Research Department of Babson's Reports feels that at recent prices most of the building stocks we regularly supervise are worth holding. For current purchase we recommend Giant Portland Cement and Weil-McLain, both on the New York Stock Exchange.

State Marine Lore

Museums Salute Ships

There are hundreds of museums throughout Michigan, but five of them have a special appeal. They are devoted entirely to marine lore and history. Together, they offer more nautical lore than any other Great Lakes state, according to Automobile Club of Michigan.

Their presentations are varied and also extensive. The largest is housed in a specially-designed building. Three are aboard former ships that once sailed the Great Lakes. The fifth is a lighthouse.

Largest among Michigan's marine museums and one of the nautical showplaces of the nation is the Dossin Great Lakes Museum on Belle Isle at Detroit.

The visitor to the Dossin Museum opens a modern aluminum door and steps out of the present into the museum's proudest and most outstanding display—a restoration of the Gothic room, once the ornate salon of the sidewheeler City of Detroit III, called the most lavish of the passenger ships that once plied the Great Lakes.

The city of Detroit III, built in 1911, belonged to the Detroit & Cleveland Navigation Co. fleet. She operated on overnight service between Detroit, Buffalo and Cleveland, making her last run in 1950.

Before the ship was dismantled six years later, its contents and furnishings were sold. A wealthy Cleveland bought entire interiors of rooms, and from this source the Great Lakes Maritime Institute, a non-profit organization, acquired the Gothic room after a successful fund-raising drive.

Two years of restoration followed, directed by the museum's curator, Robert E. Lee, who worked personally on the job with the aid of a small staff and volunteers.

The present blue-brick Dossin Museum building, opened in 1960, is a dry-land successor to the schooner J. T. Wing, a floating museum until age forced her destruction by fire in 1956.

The U. S. Corps of Engineers has designated the Dossin Museum and its flag mast as Great Lakes landmarks and included them in official navigational charts.

The Dossin Museum and its enthusiastic curator, who insists he was named after the steamboat and not the Confederate general, believe in making marine heritage come alive.

A youngster can grasp the wheel of a bygone ship. By pushing a button he can make the paddle wheels turn on a model of the Frank E. Kirby, a famous express steamer. There is real ship-to-shore radio chatter. Another exhibit shows navigation light functions. There is a restoration of the entire interior of a turn-of-the-century pilothouse.

Among static exhibits are pictures, marine lithographs, models of famous ships, pieces of ships, house flags of ships and bells.

The museum is an information center for students of marine lore. Its files contain data on more than 20,000 ships, past and present.

The Dossin Museum is open Wednesday through Sunday, 10 a.m. to 5:45 p.m. Suggested admission is 50 cents for adults, 25 cents for children 12 to 17. Children under 12, senior citizens and organized groups are free.

The Saugatuck Marine Museum, which opened in late 1968, is aboard the S. S. Keewatin, a passenger ship now 64 years old, retired in 1965 by the Canadian Pacific Railroad. Beside the Keewatin is the Reiss, one of the last of the steam-powered tugs.

The Keewatin is open daily through September 15, then is open weekends only. It will reopen on full schedule next May 15. Admission is $1 for adults, 50 cents for children 5 through 12.

In Sault Ste. Marie, near the famous Soo locks, is the 55-year-old Valley Camp, a retired coal-burning Great Lakes freighter. Guided tours are offered which permit visitors to see her cargo holds, crew quarters, captain's quarters, galley, pilot house and all the inner workings of a Great Lakes freighter. The Valley Camp also is the home of the Marine Hall of Fame, an exhibit of ship models, photos and paintings and house flags.

The Valley Camp will close October 15 and reopen next May 1. Present hours are 9 a.m. to 8 p.m. daily. Admission is $1.25 for adults, 25 cents for children.

Another Upper Peninsula attraction, opened in 1971, is the Mystery Ship Seaport in River Park, Menominee. The museum is housed in an old sailing vessel, raised by volunteer and private enterprise from 110-foot depths of Green Bay.

The two-masted schooner, believed by marine historians to be the Alvin Clark, a cargo carrier built in 1846, sank during a squall in 1864. Three of the five persons aboard drowned.

The ship is open from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. through October 31—when it will close until next May. Admission is $1.75 for adults, 75 cents for children under 16, free for children under 7.

Sleeper Park Ideal For Color Touring

Now is the time to begin planning that vacation jaunt to Michigan during the annual fall color spectacular. Gone are the throngs of summer visitors, highways and byways are less congested, accommodations can frequently be attained at between-season rates and the warm days and mild nights of Indian summer can be savored, according to the Michigan Tourist Council.

Nature sets the stage and her colorful cast numbers in the millions. With more than 85 species of hard and soft-wood trees scattered throughout some 64 million acres of public forest, Michigan is America's autumn showplace.

Automobile-oriented as the state is, more and more visitors are discovering the joys of a leisurely stroll along nature trails in state parks and recreation areas.

One such park is Sleeper State Park, located on the north shore of the Thumb and on Lake Huron just 54 miles northeast of Bay City on M-25. This park is dominated by the majesty of the Great Lakes with its half-mile of choice Lake Huron frontage.

Back of the bluff that gently rises from the water the land is undulating and favored with a blend of ample woods and open spaces adorned with large masses of native shrubbery.

Nature waves her magic wand over Sleeper State Park from approximately mid-October through early November mixing gay colors with abandon. The bright gold and vivid red of the maples, contrasts sharply with the burnt gold of the oaks, soft yellow of white birches and the ever green pines.

Sleeper State Park has two marked nature trails—one begins at the playground and terminates seven-tenths of a mile later near the outdoor center, while the other is a circle route beginning and ending near the park. The circle route is slightly less than one mile in length.

If you are adventurous, this 922-acre park also contains miles and miles of unmarked trails winding through open woodland and denser stands of trees.

Mann House Awaits Visitors

Sunday, October 8 has been proclaimed Mann House Victorian Day, marking the second year since the Division of Michigan History opened the Mann House museum, located 10 miles southwest of Jackson off M-60 in Concord.

The home and carriage house are Victorian structures with moderate touches of gingerbread and other period characteristics. The home was built in 1883 and is filled with furniture, furnishings and artifacts dating from the early 19th Century.

In addition to those touring the house, visitors will see displays by local residents in the museum's spacious yard.

Tour hours are from 2 to 5 p.m.

Don't Quit...
When things go wrong as they sometimes will,
When the road you're treading seems all up hill,
When the funds are low and the debts are high,
And you want to smile—but have to sigh—

When care is pressing you down a bit—
Rest if you must, but don't you quit.

Life is queer with its twists and turns,
And every one of us sometimes learns,
And many a failure turns about
When he might have won had he stuck it out.

Don't give up though the pace seems slow—
You may succeed with another blow
Often the goal is nearer than
It seems, to a faltering man.

Often the struggler has given up
When he might have captured the victor's cup;
And he learned too late
When the night slipped down,
How close he was to the golden crown.

Success is failure turned inside out—
The silver tint of the clouds of doubt

And you never can tell how close you are,
It may be near when it seems afar,

So stick to the fight when you're hardest hit,
It's when things seem worst that you mustn't quit.

About Abortion

Father John Wyskiel
Associate Pastor,
Our Lady of Victory Church
Northville

November 7th approaches and with that comes the time for choosing between concrete alternatives. One question to be decided election day for the state of Michigan is liberalized abortion. It would be nice (but naive) to think that before November 7th the issue underlying the abortion question will be settled. But it will not. For that issue, as I see it, is one of life. Precisely: Is human life involved?

Is this human life? This is the question that must first be considered, discussed and finally answered. It cannot be merely brushed aside as a moot question of no consequence. Upon the answer to this question hinges the abortion issue. If what is within the mother is not human life—just a growth of some sort—then it deserves little respect or consideration, and the only concern should be the convenience and the well-being of the mother.

However, until the medical profession is able to present a case showing that the fetus is not human life the fundamental right to life is so to be respected as to cause me to take the safer course, grant that life is present and operate in that manner. (The evidence supporting the presence of human life from the time of conception is, indeed, quite strong). And on November 7th I have to act upon the evidence at my disposal and proceed as if the fetus is an unborn child with all the rights and protection due a human.

Furthermore, since the unborn child cannot protect himself, my Christian conscience calls me to do what I can to protect him as I would any other weak and defenseless person.

This means that abortion is not a private matter between a woman and her physician. It is rather an issue involving three: the woman, the physician and the unborn child. I say it involves three because unless a woman at certain times in her life grows a second heart, has two brains and two different blood types, then the child she is carrying is a unique individual; dependent on the mother, yes—as we all are for years even after birth—but not really a part of the mother the way her appendix is a part of her.

Of the three involved two can speak for themselves, but who speaks for the child?

Our civil society in Michigan has already decided that it is within the scope of its responsibility to speak on behalf of and to defend the unborn child. To cite the example of Wayne County Circuit Judge James L. Ryan, if I should be in a car accident involving the injury or death of an unborn child through my negligence, I would be made to answer before the court for my action.

But, in addition, if the abortion law is changed as now proposed, it could happen that I am brought to court for unintentionally injuring an unborn child and a woman would receive no sanction for intentionally taking the life of the unborn she is carrying.

In recent times that our growing sensitivity to and concern for various personal and social problems has led to the suggestion of terminating some life to remedy other problems of life. This is a radical and violent solution to problems. Should we not look for ways of doing away with the ghetto rather than doing away with children of the ghetto? Shouldn't we look for ways of helping the parent who might abuse a child rather than doing away with the child who might be abused? Would we save a child from being unloved or abused or living in a ghetto by killing that child. What kind of a solution is that?

If we do operate in this way we are taking a step backward in our civilizing process. For civilization (as opposed to barbarism) tries to reason to non-violent ways of solving problems and living with one another. Abortion is a violent solution.

If someone wants to commit suicide we do not say: "Well, if he's going to do it there is no way you can stop him—he'll do it in a back alley or off a bridge—so why not take him to a hospital (have it covered by Blue Cross) and help him to take his life?" No, we try to help him find another less radical and less violent solution to his problems. Likewise in the area of abortion.

Rather than liberalizing abortion laws let us work to build a society where abortion would cease to occupy us because we are dealing with the real underlying problems in a civilized and humane way.

When a man has a brother

A man's got to look after his brother. That's what Timmy said the other day, as he stood beside our baby. And I told him he was right. "You are so much stronger than this tiny, little creature," I said. "From now on, you've got a real responsibility!"

A man does have to look after his brother . . . especially when that brother is weak. But there are moments, too, when even the strongest man may need a brother—especially on Worldwide Communion Sunday!

In the eyes of the Church, all men are brothers, just as all men are equally beloved. As long as there is a church near you, you are not alone. You have only to open the door and walk in and you will be at one with your fellow man . . . and at home with your brothers.

Along the Campaign Trail

Broomfield

"If federal judges are the guardians of our Constitutional rights, who is guarding us from our guardians?" asked Congressman William Broomfield, candidate for election in the 19th district.

Lately, a growing trend has surfaced, he charged this past week, on the part of federal judges to become involved in areas that "once-upon-a-time courts had enough sense to avoid."

"Too many federal judges are, for whatever reasons, overstepping their boundaries into activities that are more properly legislative or administrative. Whether their moves are good or bad, I think it represents a dangerous threat to the delicate balance of authority that for so long has existed among the executive, legislative and judicial branches."

Growing complaints of the people regarding judges are legitimate, deserving a solution, he said.

"That's why I have introduced a Constitutional Amendment that calls for the review of federal judges by the U.S. Senate every eight years. Every federal judge from the district courts to the Supreme Court would be subject to these reconfirmation hearings."

"This requires a slight change in the Constitution. I think it is justified in response to a drastic change in the way the courts traditionally have operated."

Specifically, Broomfield noted that it "is not unusual" today to see courts "telling school administrators how to run their schools, what kind of salaries to pay and how long they should stay open. Courts have become entangled recently in hospital administration, construction projects, labor negotiations and indirectly have ordered new taxes by requiring public officials to make certain expenditures."

"Who knows what will be next?"

Communists

Michigan's Communist party has selected three state candidates to run with their presidential and vice presidential candidates on the November 7 ballot.

The CP is on the ballot after reportedly obtaining 24,000 signatures; 14,000 were needed.

Top of the ticket is Gus Hall, a former CIO steelworker organizer under the late CIO President Phil Murray. The vice-presidential communist candidate is Jarvis Tyner, a former teamster who heads up the Young Workers Liberation League.

In Michigan, running against Incumbent Republican Senator Robert Griffin and Democrat Frank Kelly, is Thomas Dennis, 54-year-old chairman of the Michigan Communist Party. Dennis is a former member of the United Auto Workers Union who now is a member of the United Office and Professional Workers Union, AFL-CIO.

Seeking election to one of the two vacancies on the Wayne State board of governors is Peggy Goldman, a 24-year-old former Wayne student.

Alan Maki, 20, an unemployed man from Grand Rapids is opposing Gerald Ford for the Congressional seat in Michigan's Fifth District.

Dumas

The Wayne County Board of Commissioners was taken to task this past week by Mary Dumas, Republican candidate for the board.

"It is no great credit to the present (board) that they have waited until just before election day to investigate and demand financial accounting of various criminal justice programs which they have approved from federal tax dollars or funded directly from the Wayne County general fund budget," she declared.

Not only is the project long overdue, she said, but continuous evaluation has been lacking to avoid waste and duplication of funding and to provide maximum service to the people.

"Instead, they have waited until two months before the election. And now, with the cries of the voters in their ears, they demand to know where all the money went and why some funds have gone down the drain in poorly planned and inadequately supervised programs. In addition, they suddenly come forth with glowing reports of what they plan to do in the future after they are re-elected."

According to Mrs. Dumas, who recently toured the Wayne County jail facilities, the necessity of a new jail appears questionable at the present time.

"As a result of my observations and in view of the lower average daily population, which results from a more rapid review of cases in the courts, I believe the question of building a new additional jail facility requires further study," she said.

"Meanwhile, we should continue with rapid renovation of the present facility."

"Furthermore, if the 30 month Action Program of the Wayne County Criminal Justice Coordinating committee is successful in cutting by half the time between arrest and trial dates and in increasing probation services for misdemeanants and minor offenders, this will continue to reduce the number of persons housed in the jail awaiting trial."

Mrs. Dumas called for immediate attention to the need for added youth detention and care facilities.

"Since the average age of those being processed at the Wayne County Jail is between 17 and 25 years and most of those are repeaters, it is obvious that we have failed to provide effective preventive measures at an earlier age," she said.

"How many commissioners have bothered to acquaint themselves first hand with the Youth Home, the Wayne County General Hospital, the drug centers, and the many other institutions operated and financed by Wayne County and paid for with your Wayne County tax dollars?" she asked.

Esch

Congressman Marvin Esch, candidate for re-election in the reapportioned Second Congressional District, has appealed to President Richard Nixon to urge settlement of the Northwest Airlines strike.

Noting that Michigan citizens have been without the services of Northwest Orient since June 30, the Republican representative asked the president to urge negotiators to go into around-the-clock bargaining.

"The labor dispute has created an unbearable burden for business in the Second Congressional District in Michigan and throughout the region," Esch wrote the President. "The strike has long since ceased to have any productive impact and has been hard on both the strikers and Northwest Orient."

"It seems to me that it would be in the greatest good of the public that you encourage the negotiating parties to begin around the clock negotiations until this dispute is settled."

Geake

Dr. Robert Geake, candidate for state representative in the newly apportioned 35th (Northville-Livonia) district, has endorsed President Nixon's plan to stop all foreign and military aid to nations which promote or permit the flow of drug traffic into the U.S.

"I applaud the actions of our President," stressed Geake in a meeting for campaign workers in his Northville home Friday night. "Now there is a real opportunity for meaningful action at the state level. For too long we've heard state politicians say their hands are tied because the tremendous drug problem requires programs at the federal level. To me that's pure nonsense."

For example, the state legislature has the money and the power to implement a drug education program throughout all the high schools in the state of Michigan, he said. "In addition, I strongly support increased state efforts in the areas of treatment and rehabilitation. While funded by the state, these programs should be locally controlled."

"While the public generally is very aware of the tragic direct effects on the user, many people are not fully aware of the side effects. For example, experts attribute as much as fifty percent of our street crime to the needs of desperate addicts attempting to support habits which may cost up to $100 a day or more. Drug abuse creates other kinds of crime such as stealing from homes and stores and crimes of violence committed by persons grappling for the tremendous illegal profits of the drug trade."

"I have spent much of my life working in the areas of school psychology and mental health and I can tell you there is no problem in our society today so much in need of immediate attention as drug abuse."

"If elected as the state representative from the new 35th district I pledge myself to work for reordering of state spending priorities. I'll be fighting excessive welfare spending and attempting to use some of those funds to broaden our drug education and mental health programs."

Griffin

Robert P. Griffin, Michigan's Republican United States Senator seeking re-election this year, will be honored Tuesday, October 3, at a dinner-dance at the Polish Century Club, Outer Drive and East Seven Mile, Detroit.

Cocktails will be served beginning at 6:30 p.m. with dinner and a brief program following at 7:30 p.m. There will be dancing after the dinner until midnight.

Tickets are $25 per person. For ticket information, contact Dr. Stanley Zajdel (GA 7-2230 or 477-8863) of 37985 Rhonwood Drive, Northville.

The evening is sponsored by the Polish-Americans for Senator Griffin, chaired by Jerome Jablonski, of 21380 Harvard, Southfield.

Patterson

L. Brooks Patterson, Republican candidate for Oakland County Prosecutor, has announced the appointment of Troy Attorney Richard Thompson as his campaign manager, effective immediately.

Thompson, 35, of Troy, will have overall responsibility for Patterson's campaign.

"I am delighted that Mr. Thompson has agreed to manage my campaign. A native of the Detroit Metropolitan Area with almost a decade as a practicing attorney, he is thoroughly familiar with all facets of law and law enforcement," Patterson said, "as well as politics in Oakland County."

A 1959 graduate of the University of Michigan, Thompson spent two years as a U.S. Army Intelligence Officer and enrolled in Wayne State University's Law School in 1961 following his discharge. He received his law degree in 1964 and was admitted to the bar the following year. Thompson has been trial attorney since 1965 and presently is a partner in the Troy law firm of Gelman, Hand & Thompson.

Stempien

House Majority Leader Marvin R. Stempien (D-Livonia-Northville) has asked the Fair Campaign Practices Committee to investigate and denounce the claims of Republican Marvin L. Esch of Ann Arbor that he is Livonia's incumbent Congressman.

In a telegram to the committee, Stempien called Esch's actions "misrepresentation" and said they violate Michigan Election Law. "What Mr. Esch is doing is just not honest," Representative Stempien said.

"If he were to fairly represent himself to the electors of Livonia, he would have honestly had to say that Jack McDonald is their representative in Congress," he continued.

"I have been the incumbent State Representative in Livonia for three terms, and yet in this campaign I have not used words such as 'keep' or 'retain' in presenting my record to the public in any area of the new district."

Representative Stempien said Esch has mass mailed to every residence in Livonia six times since the Federal Court Order was issued that changed the Congressional lines for the session that begins in January, 1973.

"He has even set up an office in Livonia which is outside his district at taxpayer expense," Stempien said. "Because the actions of my opponent in recent weeks show a pattern of this untrue representation in violation of Michigan election law, I have asked my attorney to seek a Court Order to stop them." A hearing was scheduled before Judge James Ryan in Wayne County Circuit Court earlier this week.
