

Abortion Debate Stirs Emotional Response

In an emotionally charged atmosphere which squeezed tears from one mother, the controversial Abortion Reform state ballot proposal was debated here Sunday at the First Presbyterian Church.

No one claimed a victory, of course, and the explosive subject very likely will continue to stir people to anger right down to Tuesday's election—and perhaps long after the ballot question is decided.

Following comments by four astute representatives for the two sides of the question, the debate quickly broke down into a string of rebuttals from members of the audience who had been invited to ask questions of the panelists but instead offered their own views.

The audience included both Catholics and Protestants. In the final analysis, the debate and public comment hinged on these two arguments:

- Neither the mother or society should have the right to kill a living human fetus.
- The mother should have the right to make the decision, not for others, but for herself.

Panelists included the Reverend David Church, a Walled Lake Methodist minister; Dr. James Labes, an obstetrics and gynecology physician at Sinai Hospital; the Reverend Father Stanley Kukulski, Catholic chaplain at Northville State Hospital; and Mrs. Patricia Nixon, mother and wife of a Detroit physician.

Mr. Church and Dr. Labes spoke in behalf of the ballot proposal, the other two panelists against it.

It was Dr. Labes who fielded most of the critical comments of the audience regarding his position, but Mr. Church came in for a share of it as well, while panel opponents of abortion reform for the most part came away unscathed.

Pastor Church suffered the most stinging, personal attack when a mother, in tears, said she was ashamed Mr. Church was a clergyman of her faith, declaring, "I have been a Methodist all my life and I've never heard a Methodist minister say what you just did."

In his opening remarks, Mr. Church said his views are in common with the social principles of the United Methodist Church, quoting a lengthy position statement on the matter.

Abortion, explained Mr. Church, is the last resort in often "desperate and tragic circumstances in the lives of people who are no different than you and me" and in such cases it seems to be the "most moral, responsible, and loving alternative open to an individual woman, couple or family."

Mr. Church said he believes

"it is immoral, irresponsible and dangerous for society to deny the right of a woman to make this kind of moral decision that so totally affects her own life, the life of her family, and the life of those she loves the most."

"Our present law," he continued, "forces a woman into the degrading position of having to give birth to a child even though that pregnancy represents disaster to herself, her family, and to that potential child. The freedom of a woman to make moral decision over her own body and her own reproduction is what the abortion referendum is all about."

The minister posed three questions about abortion:

1. In a pluralistic society in which there is no consensus and there is wide disparity of opinion about when human life begins, it is the proper function of the state to intervene on behalf of one theological or philosophical viewpoint and force everyone to live by it?

2. Is it not wiser for the state to stay out of such a murky theological controversy, giving each person and religious body the freedom to live according to its own theological and moral convictions?

3. Who is in the best position to make a responsible and moral decision in each special circumstance in an unwanted pregnancy—judges, theologians, philosophers or this thing called society... or the pregnant woman herself whose life is most immediately affected?

He closed his remarks by saying, "A yes vote on Proposal B is a vote of confidence in the women of this state to make wise and moral decisions about their own lives and their own families."

Father Kukulski limited

most of his remarks to the Catholic interpretation of abortion.

Pointing out that Catholics do not pretend to know when in human development life begins, but because life is valued so highly "one dare not take the chance of taking life" any time during the fetus stage unless the reason for taking that life is as great as the life itself, i.e., the child.

for Congressional candidate Marvin Stempien; John MacDonald, for trustee; Larry VanderMolen, for supervisor; R. Robert Geake, for state representative; Thomas Curran, for trustee; Eugene Guido for trustee; and Mrs. Salley Cayley, for clerk. Crumpton and Geake spoke briefly after the program had concluded. (See story on Page 13-A).

Predict Record Turnout Here Next Tuesday

City and township voters are expected to go to the polls in record numbers Tuesday to cast ballots for a full slate of candidates and proposals.

In the city, only one local candidate and one former city official are involved in any of the major races. Republican

R. Robert Geake of Northville, is seeking the

In the city, where there are no local offices or issues on the ballot, between 75 and 80 percent of the 3,071 registered electors are expected to vote.

Between 80 and 90 percent of the township's 4,560 voters are expected to go to the polls. A full slate of township candidates appear on the ballot.

In 1968, 82 percent of the city and 87 percent of the township voters cast ballots.

Absentee ballot voting is running high in both the city and township with 171 ballots sent out in the city and 250 out in the township.

Deputy City Clerk Rosanna Cook anticipates the biggest voter turnout will be in Precinct 3, Oakland County.

Township Clerk Eleanor Hammond said the township has an "excellent voting record" and noted that most of the new residents are interested in township government and will cast ballots Tuesday. She expects the youth vote also will play a part in the large voter turnout.

City voters in Precincts 1 and 2 will vote at the City Hall while Precinct 3 voters at Amerman Elementary on North Center Street.

Township voters in Precincts 1 and 2 vote at the township offices, 301 West Main Street, while Precincts 3 and 4 vote at Tanger Elementary, 40260 Five Mile Road.

All polling places will be open from 7 a. m. to 8 p. m.

For a complete list of local, county and state candidate's biographies and pictures and county and state proposals, refer to the Voters Guide supplement included in this week's paper.

Nine township candidates are seeking election to two-year terms of supervisor, clerk and treasurer and two four-year trustee posts.

They include Democrat Larry VanderMolen and Republican Lawrence Wright, supervisor; Democrat Michael Frice and Republican Sally Cayley; clerk, Republican Incumbent Joseph Straub, unopposed for treasurer; Democrats Thomas Curran and Eugene Guido and Republicans John MacDonald and Incumbent Richard Mitchell, trustees.

NEWS BRIEFS

PUBLIC HEARING on the school district's proposed 1972-73 budget is scheduled for 8 p.m. Monday, November 13. The budget is pegged at $3.876 million, highest in the school district's history. School trustees urged residents of the district to attend the meeting if they have questions concerning school finances.

WATER RATES IN Northville township increased by three cents per 1,000 gallons beginning yesterday, Wednesday. In announcing the rate hike, Supervisor Gunnar Stromberg said the increase is due to higher rates charged municipalities served by Detroit water. Detroit's increase totaled slightly more than four cents per 1,000 gallons. Township homeowners will now pay 43 cents per 1,000 gallons, plus the monthly service charge. City Manager Frank Ollendorff said the city plans to absorb the increase in rates.

BUILDING AUTHORITY articles of incorporation were filed Thursday, October 26, by Northville Township. Township residents have 60 days from date of filing to challenge through the courts formation of the authority. While no specific project has been decided upon by the township board, construction of a fire hall-police station-township office complex is under consideration.

WHOM DO students favor for president? This question will be answered today (Thursday) as the student body of Northville High School casts paper ballots on the Presidential, Senatorial, and Second Congressional races as well as on the state proposals. This election experience, according to American government instructor Douglas Dent, should prove especially helpful to high schoolers since some of them are eligible to vote next Tuesday and many others are approaching the voting age. In addition to the student vote, teachers also will be casting their votes in a separate mock election, he said.

Both Supervisor Candidates

They Favor Annexation

EDITOR'S NOTE: The candidates for Northville Township supervisor, Democrat Larry VanderMolen and Republican Lawrence Wright, were interviewed jointly by the Northville Record Friday. The following story is based on that interview.

Both candidates for Northville Township supervisor favor annexation of the township to the city—one of them strongly and the other passively.

Admitting that his position has changed since the primary election, Republican Lawrence Wright told this newspaper he now favors annexation or unification of the two governments although he believes residents should and will make the ultimate decision.

Having learned more about annexation and single forms of government, Wright said he now is "a firm believer that one government unit can operate more economically and efficiently than two I'd like to go a step further. I think that there should not only be one Northville in time but perhaps we should consider Plymouth and Plymouth Township and have a regional (city) " accept annexation. I feel that's very inconsistent."

Wright rebuffed his opponent's criticism, pointing out that any candidate has the right to change his position. In his case, he explained, he has had, since the primary, an opportunity to study the issues in depth and on the basis of that study he now believes a single form of government would be a wise choice.

Nevertheless, a "selling job" is still necessary to convince voters of the advantages of a single government, said Wright, adding that he, too, would like ad-

Police Nab Four In Narcotics Raid

Suspected narcotics valued at several thousand dollars were seized by Northville police in a raid early Wednesday morning on house at 660 Horton Street.

Four adults were arrested at 12:30 a.m. after police entered the house with a search warrant.

Arrested on charges of possession of narcotics and attempted extortion was Philip A. Phillips, 29, owner of the house, Mrs. Bobbie French, 29, who also lived at the Horton Street address, was arrested for possession of narcotics.

Two others arrested for loitering in a house of ill repute were James R. Ireland, 30, no known address, and Jack Allen, 32, of Detroit.

Police confiscated a suitcase containing suspected marijuana, heroin and other drugs, narcotic paraphernalia, a loaded gun and more than $1,000 in cash.

State police assisted city officers in the raid which followed more than a month of investigation. Police said they were notified by neighbors that something was going on at the house.

Police said their in-

Heirloom Wedding Ring Exchanged in Ceremony

The altar of Our Lady of Victory Church was decorated with purple carnations and white fugi mums for the October 28 wedding of Tricia Lynn Smith and Robert E. Keller III.

The Reverend Father John Wyskiel officiated at the double ring ceremony in which the bride received the wedding ring of her late grandmother.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard C. Smith of 20330 Lexington Boulevard are the bride's parents. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Billie Bechtel of Toledo, and Robert E. Keller of Kansas.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She chose a traditional gown of chantilly lace trimmed with seed pearls which featured a mandarin neckline, long sleeves and a full skirt. She carried a cascade of white sweetheart roses, stephanotis and baby's breath centered with a lavender orchid.

Maid of honor Ann Rayman of Lima, Ohio, wore a Victorian style gown of violet saki linen with a Venetian lace bib front, long sleeves and a flocked skirt. She wore a white picture hat trimmed with violet ribbon. Her bouquet was a cascade of purple carnations, white fugi mums and smilax.

Sue List and Bonnie Woodward both of Northville, were bridesmaids. Junior bridesmaids were Shelly Patrick and Lenore Keller, both of Toledo. All wore gowns identical to the maid of honor's and wore violet picture hats with violet ribbon trim.

Dorothy Shipley of Northville was an honorary attendant.

The best man was Robert Robert Truscinski of Toledo and ushers were Craig Bechtel of Toledo, Thomas Smith of Northville, and Gary Knapp of Toledo.

The mother of the bride wore a floor length gown of aqua chiffon and carried an orchid purse corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore a long gown of lilac chiffon and an orchid corsage.

For a wedding trip to Canada, the bride changed to a long skirt and matching blazer in shades of brown, beige and orange. She wore a corsage of yellow sweetheart roses.

The new Mrs. Keller is a senior at Mercy School of Nursing in Toledo and an officer candidate hospital nurse in the U. S. Navy Nurse Corps.

Her husband will graduate from the University of Toledo in December and will then continue his studies in mortuary science.

MRS. ROBERT E. KELLER III

Veresh-Barnum Rites Solemnized with Candles

During a double ring ceremony which included the ceremony of the candles, Martha E. Veresh became the bride of Ronald L. Barnum. The marriage took place at St. Paul's Lutheran Church on September 30 with the Reverend Charles F. Boerger officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Veresh of Highland. Mr. and Mrs. Harold E. Barnum of 46151 Bloomcrest Drive are the bridegroom's parents.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown of ivory silk with a vest-like effect of seed pearls and crystals. Her elbow length veil was held by a cap decorated with pearls and crystals. She carried a bouquet of cybidiums, stephanotis and green ivy.

Mrs. Susan Mysliwiec was her sister's matron of honor in a floor length gown of moss green velvet. Her bouquet was made of red and bronze daisies, pomp mums, wood roses and yellow sweetheart roses.

Bridesmaids Joy Mach and Mary Bellman wore gowns of orange velvet and carried bouquets similar to the matron of honor's.

Richard Mysliwiec and Bruce Mach.

Special guests from Milford, Saginaw, Allen Park, Lincoln Park, Howell and Iowa were among the 200 invited to the Livonia Knights of Columbus Hall for the wedding reception.

Following a wedding trip to northern Michigan, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Barnum are now living in Northville.

The bride is employed by Numatics, Inc., of Milford. Her husband, a 1972 graduate of Central Michigan University where he was affiliated with Beta Sigma Psi fraternity, is presently substitute teaching in the area.

In Our Town

By JEAN DAY

ELECTION DAY '72 at our own grassroots level can be a very non-partisan effort. As their contribution in getting people out to vote, Northville Jaycettes are offering to drive anyone who needs a ride to the polls.

It's a first-time project for the Jaycettes under the chairmanship of Mrs. John Buckland. They ask only that anyone needing transportation next Tuesday call Mrs. Buckland at 349-0773 by Monday and give the time desired. Since many of the Jaycettes are young mothers, this good-government project is a real effort.

Mrs. Robert Hilton, however, explained that the young women feel this is more effective help than "merely sitting at the telephone and reminding people to vote."

ANTIQUES are "big" in Northville as a goodly number of residents of both vintage and new homes have decorated with antique furniture and accessories. Northville Town Hall committee took note of this interest in things old as it planned its second program of the season.

Antiques expert George Michael will speak at 11 a.m. next Thursday, November 9, in Northville High School auditorium. He is widely known through his show on public television and is the former editor of National Antiques Review. He has just completed a television series on Channel 56 entitled "Commonwealth" about Pennsylvania and now is working on a color series.

One of Michael's admirers (through watching his show) is Fred L. Brushner of Ann Arbor. Mr. and Mrs. Brushner - originated the monthly antiques market held during the past two summers in the Ann Arbor farmers' market. He has been asked to introduce the speaker.

Northville resident and contributor to National Antiques Review while he was editor, Mrs. Jack Scantlin also is anticipating meeting Michael. During his tenure as the monthly antiques magazine editor, Michael bought Barbara Scantlin's articles on the antique show staged by Our Lady of Victory at Northville Downs and on the flea markets she visited in Rome and Amsterdam.

Since leaving the magazine (those editorships often are of short duration) "Mr. Antique", as Michael has been called, has been teaching courses at the University of Maine, at Daniel Webster Junior College in New Hampshire and in adult evening programs in Boston. He has written a "Treasury of New England Antiques" and other books as well as serving as an antiques tour guide.

AN ANTIQUE show for "An Old-Fashioned Christmas" is the theme for the Northville Historical Society's benefit for the Mill Race restoration to be held Tuesday and Wednesday, November 28-29, from noon to 9 p.m. at Northville First Methodist Church.

Mrs. Roland Bonamici is general chairman with Miss Nelda Hosler, decorations chairman. The 25 dealers who will have booths have been chosen to give a balance of glass, Victorian and primitive-type antiques, Mrs. Bonamici explains.

Eleanor Lowell of the Barn Door antique shop in Northville assisted the committee in getting the variety of dealers.

Admission to the show will be a $1.50 donation to the historical society. Food will be available throughout each day of the show.

"Come look for a Christmas present that already has proved its lasting value," the committee suggests.

Northville Historical Society will have a booth of its own at the show where its new model of the Mill Race Restoration will be on public display for the first time. Interested residents may join the society, and tickets will be sold for the handmade afghan, the donation of Mrs. E. M. Starkweather.

"FLYING HIGH" is the title for the Northville Woman's Club program at 1:30 p.m. this Friday at Northville First Presbyterian Church fellowship hall.

Club member Mrs. Wardell Lyke will tell of the family's trip a year ago to Rio de Janeiro, Brazil. The Lykes, both pilots, and daughters Jennifer and Alison (now also a pilot) flew their own plane, following the islands to South America.

Polly Lyke has culled slides taken on the trip to show "the contrasts of Brazil—and what a great family-type hobby flying is."

While the Lykes have owned several planes, including one whose previous owner was Vaughn Monroe, they now find it's easiest to rent whatever size is needed. Wardell Lyke, a civil engineer, has his instrument-rated commercial pilot's license.

Mrs. Lyke describes her part as a relief pilot with her primary job on trips as a "language" one, using the radio and following charts.

She will bring some of the native jewelry the family bought in Brazil. With four in a plane, she adds, it's not possible to bring back many souvenirs. She does have a silver tray with its own coffee cups and spoons as well as two large oil paintings done by Dr. Sausao Pereira, a Brazilian artist and friend. He has received awards from the Brazilian government for his work.

Mrs. George Weiss will introduce Polly Lyke to her fellow club members. Taking note of the season, Mrs. Robert Isom and her committee are planning a hot punch to serve with Band Booster pumpkin bread.

DEBI GUIDO, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Guido and a freshman at Eastern Michigan University majoring in drama, is continuing her talented performances in Cole Porter's "Anything Goes."

She is playing an angel in performances November 28 through December 2 in the Ann Arbor Civic Theatre's production at Lydia Mendelssohn Theatre. Debi also is a stand-in for the role of Bonnie, in which she received acclaim and awards at Northville High School.

Also appearing in the cast as one of the criminals is Robert Chapel, former Northville High play director.

And, while Northville High senior John Jerome was watching rehearsals, he was recruited to be one of the dancing sailors.

ELLEN THOMAS, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Thomas, is another collegian with creative talent. A senior at Albion, she is one of 58 students participating in the Great Lakes Colleges arts program in New York.

"Sort of a crash course in culture" is the way her mother describes the program under which Ellen serves an art apprenticeship with a New York woman artist-in-residence.

Last month Ellen visited former Northville residents, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Jordan, at their home in Yardley, Pennsylvania. Ellen had been one of Pat Jordan's art pupils here.

Mrs. Jordan has just been able to resume her art classes in Pennsylvania. Their son Steve is at University of Chicago; Cliff is working in Nebraska; and Tom is enrolled at Indiana State University.

Friends and former neighbors of the Arthur Hempes were surprised recently as they dropped by for a quick visit. The family has moved from the West Coast to Texas, near Mrs. Hempes' family home at Shreveport.

MR. AND MRS. MYRON C. GUNSELL

Gunsells Celebrate Golden Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Myron C. Gunsell, former long time Northville residents, now of Caseville, will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary with an open house on Sunday, November 12, from 2 to 5 p.m. at Caseville United Methodist Church.

The couple was married on November 11, 1922. They have one daughter, Mrs. Douglas (Marilyn) Lorenz of Northville and a son, Lieutenant Colonel Richard M. Gunsell of Fort Bliss, Texas. They also have four grandchildren.

The Gunsells retired in 1965 when they sold their Rexall Drug Store to their son-in-law, Douglas Lorenz. They first purchased the store in May, 1934.

While living in Northville, Mrs. Gunsell was a member of the Northville Woman's Club. Gunsell was active with the Boy Scouts and began an Explorer Scout Troop in Northville. He is also a 32nd degree Mason, a Shriner and a past president of the Northville Rotary Club.

A visitor at the A. L. Wistert home last week was Albert Wistert of Sherman Oaks, California. It was a combination business-trip and family visit. Albert is Al Wistert's younger brother. They went north on a fishing trip to the Wistert cottage.

Albert also attended an alumni leadership conference meeting of University of Michigan in Ann Arbor.

An organizational meeting for classes in Esperanto will be held tonight (Thursday) at 7:30 p.m. in the Northville High School library conference room.

The classes in the international language are open to all adults and high school students and will be taught by Esperantist George Lockhart. Lockhart estimates the cost for instructional materials to be used for the classes will be about $5.

A holiday showing of giftware and jewelry is scheduled "with champagne" for 1 to 5 p.m. this Sunday by the Factory Outlet, 279 Park Place. Gift merchandise includes jade jewelry, cultured pearls and rings.

Orient Chapter No. 77, Order of the Eastern Star, will hold its 82nd annual installation of officers at 8 p.m. on Friday in the Northville Masonic Temple. Mr. and Mrs. Richard P. Ludwick will be installed as Worthy Matron and Worthy Patron.

The other elected officers to be installed at that time are Laura Famuliner, associate matron; Herbert Famuliner, associate patron; Mrs. End L. Penn, secretary; Mrs. Martha E. Hawes, treasurer; and Mrs. June Borkowski, conductress.

Following the ceremony, refreshments will be served.

Third graders at Amerman Elementary are staging their own anti-pollution campaign by collection cans, glass and newspapers.

Diane Hinman of Room Four said the students are "bringing cans, glass and newspapers from our homes and our teacher takes it to the recycling plant where they make new cans, glass and newspapers out of it."

The class project is being conducted by students in Mrs. Suzanne Karschnick's room.

Rebecca A. Clark, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lester L. Clark of 18346 Jamestown Circle, has registered for the fall quarter at Tri-State College in Angola, Indiana.

A graduate of Lawrence Central High School in Indianapolis, Indiana, Rebecca is majoring in engineering.

Samuel L. Dibble Jr., of Northville was among the 60 persons who attended Real Estate Institute 11 held in Ann Arbor October 23-27.

Kabzinski, Smart Agree in Opposing Proposal 'C'

CLIFFORD SMART

Kabzinski

Calling himself a "bread and butter" candidate, William J. Kabzinski, a retired Commerce Township resident, attacks his opponent, Representative Clifford Smart, for "failing to look out for the little man."

He charges Smart failed the senior citizen as a legislator by not backing a homestead exemption increase from $2500 to $3500.

Specifically, he contends Smart failed the senior citizen as a legislator by not supporting a homestead exemption increase from $2500 to $3500.

Also, he scores Smart for not supporting a number of labor bills, among them one that would have eliminated the waiting period for collecting unemployment compensation, for failure to support a civil rights measure calling for "equal pay for equal work for girls"; and for opposition to a measure allowing civil servants to use their leave pay during pregnancy absence.

Smart apparently fails to recognize, said Kabzinski, that "there are girls working

Smart

While he hasn't been actively campaigning to defeat the property tax reform proposal, Republican Representative Clifford Smart of Walled Lake strongly opposes the ballot question and personally will cast a negative vote on it come November 7

Instead of campaigning against this controversial proposal and rather than refute "distorted" charges made by his Democratic opponent, Smart prefers to "stand on my record" that encouraged voters to repeatedly return him to office in the past and that has earned him the plaudits of

THE NORTHVILLE RECORD - NOVI NEWS

Thursday, November 2, 1972

Novi, Wixom Expect Record Voter Turnout

A record turnout is expected in both Novi and Wixom Tuesday as local voters go to the polls in the national presidential election.

In addition to the selection of the presidential and United States senatorial candidates, the presence of several local candidates and issues on the ballot is expected to spur local interest in the election.

Two Novi residents - Oakland County Commissioner candidate and Novi city councilman William O'Brien, and 52nd District Court Judge candidate

Terrance Jolly - will be seeking election; while Wixom's Lew Coy, incumbent County Commissioner, is vying for re-election.

In addition, Wixom residents will be asked to adopt or reject five proposed amendments to the city charter. (See the story elsewhere on this page for details).

Voters in Novi Township will select the members for the Township Board.

It is doubtful that either Novi or Wixom will be able to equal voter turnout percentages from the 1968 presidential election. Eighty percent of Novi's 3,300 registered voters turned out for that election, while the turnout in Wixom was even higher as 90 percent of the city's 829 registered voters showed up at the polls to indicate their preferences.

There is little question, however, that the number of ballots cast this year will be considerably higher. The number of registered voters in Novi has swelled from 3,300 in 1968 to 5,100 at the last counting.

A sign that there is considerable interest in this election is the fact that Novi City Clerk Mabel Ash reports that the number of registered voters has risen by more than 900 names in the three months since the August primary.

In Wixom City Clerk June Buck reports 1,325 registered voters - an increase of roughly 500 over the 829 registered voters in 1968.

With the exception of the five proposed amendments to the Wixom city charter and the Novi Township candidates, all Novi and Wixom voters will cast ballots for the president of the United States, Michigan's United States Senator, representative to the United States House of Representatives from the 19th District, representative to the Michigan House of Representatives from the 24th District, five state proposals, all Oakland County offices, and non-partisan judgeships.

A complete list of all candidates and proposals plus biographies of the candidates appears in the Voter's Guide supplement in this paper.

Polls will open at 7 a.m. and close at 8 p.m.

Novi voters will cast ballots in one of two locations. Voters from the first and second precincts will vote at the Fire Station on Novi Road, while voters from the third and fourth precincts will cast their ballots at the Novi Community Building on Novi Road between Grand River and I-96.

Wixom voters will all cast their ballots at the Wixom City Hall.

Novi Township voters will vote at 44021 Wyngate in the Brookland Farms subdivision.

Wixom Voters Face 5 Charter Proposals

When Wixom voters go to the polls on Tuesday, they will be faced with accepting or vetoing five proposed revisions to the Wixom City Charter. The changes, which only a month ago received final city council approval to be placed on the ballot, are the result of a five member citizen committee appointed by Mayor Gilbert Willis in October, 1971.

Two of the proposals are amendments to Section 3.6. One calls for a change in the term of office for the mayor from the present two years to a four year term. The other portion of that section to be proposed for change concerns the commencement of office for the mayor and councilmen who are elected.

Presently, the city charter states that mayor and councilmen must assume office on the Monday after the election. If the voters approve Proposition 2, the term of office would begin on "the second Monday in January next following the regular city election."

Proposition 3 on the ballot is an amendment of section 4.8 and reads, "Should Section 4.8 of the charter be amended to provide that the Mayor shall have ninety days after taking office to make appointments rather than the present thirty days?"

A change in section 5.9 is questioned in Proposition 4. If this is approved by the voters, it would be possible for Council to grant severance pay "of up to two weeks of the annual base salary" of a fired city employee. As the charter reads now, there is no provision for severance pay of any kind upon termination of an employee.

For Fire Districts

Novi Hears Request

Sensitive to charges that it often passes legislation detrimental to the business community and wary of discouraging prospective developers, the Novi city council is taking a long hard look before acting on a request to establish fire districts within the city.

"I realize that opposing the upgrading of fire standards is a little like opposing the Flag, Motherhood, and Apple Pie," commented Mayor Joseph Crupi, "but there's considerably more to this issue than meets the eye."

At issue is a request from Building Department Head Earl Bailey and Fire Marshall Ed McBride to create fire districts which establish minimum building specifications for future construction.

For example, all multiple developments would have to be constructed to meet specific standards designed to prevent fire damage, while all industrial buildings would have to be constructed to conform with standards set for industrial zonings

Fred Moorhead Wins Wixom Appointment

The Wixom City Council, at its last piece of business Tuesday night, elected Fred Moorhead to fill the council seat vacated recently by the resignation of Elwood Grubb.

Moorhead, a resident of Wixom for the past six years, was elected from a field of eight possibilities in three ballots. In accepting the appointment, Moorhead said, "I'm speechless. It is truly an honor to serve the city on the council."

Married with two children, Moorhead has served the city of Wixom in the past as a member of the Charter Revision Committee.

Of the eight nominees, only two, Moorhead and former Wixom mayor Wesley McAtee, were recommended for the post by members of the Council in special committee meetings.

The six who applied to be considered for the seat were Richard Bridges, Charles Craig, Melvin Green, James Lahti, Benjamin McKnight and John Parker.

ONE CROWN, FOUR WINNERS - Not one, but all four of these Novi High School Seniors received the 1972 Homecoming crown from Novi's 1971 queen, Sue Calhoun, far right. The results of the balloting were so close, that all four girls were named 1972 Homecoming Queens. This is the first time the Novi students have ever made a multiple selection. The happy

For Willowbrook Resurfacing

Charges Disrupt Hearing

A public hearing called to consider establishment of a special assessment district to pay for the resurfacing of the roads in the Willowbrook Number Two subdivision erupted with angry charges being hurled at the council and ended with Councilman Edwin Presnell banging his first on the table and threatening to move for adjournment.

The fireworks took place after the council by a 5-2 margin had voted to continue with establishment of the special assessment district.

Apparently angered by the decision, two Willowbrook residents who had spoken out against the resurfacing during the public hearing made their charges.

Primary target was Councilman Denis Berry, a Willowbrook resident who had strongly supported continuation of the resurfacing program. Before order was restored the charges had been extended to the entire council and had resulted in angry rebuttals.

Mrs. William Dunn, who had circulated petitions opposing the resurfacing, opened the attack by asking Berry why he had signed her petition and then voted to continue with the resurfacing. "That makes you look pretty bad," she told the councilman.

Berry retorted that he had signed the petition for the same reason he had moved at the last Willowbrook hearing that the council take no further action until the citizens had been given ample opportunity to circulate petitions.

"I signed the petition because I wanted the citizens to have their objections known and the lady circulating the petition told me she was having trouble getting names," he said. "That

Police Find 'Pot' Cache

While Novi High School's football team was rolling to a 63-6 Homecoming victory over Dundee Friday, a short distance away detectives from the Novi Police Department were carrying out a raid that netted over $8,000 worth of marijuana.

Although the exact location of the raid is still being withheld, Lieutenant Detective Richard Faulkner reported that the home was in the general vicinity of Novi

High School and Novi Middle School.

"We were close enough to the high school that we could hear the public address system as clear as day," he said. "We finished the job and left the house at the same time the game ended because we heard the announcer report the final score."

Much of the information regarding the haul is being withheld by police pending further investigation.

Officers would only say that they had recovered 43 pounds of marijuana with a total street value of $8,000. According to Corporal Robert Starnes, about half the marijuana had been processed, or manicured, and packaged. Each bag contained approximately one pound of marijuana and was slated for sale at a price of $150.

Poetry Teacher Does 'Jail Time'

What do a Northville High School English teacher and inmates of Washtenaw County Jail have in common?

Poetry. For two and one-half hours every Sunday afternoon, John Donohue and his "portable classroom" travel to the jail where he conducts "Now Poetry" classes.

Donohue, who has been teaching at the jail since August, volunteered his time after seeing an article in the Ann Arbor News.

"I volunteered to help teach," he commented, "and have found it both interesting and rewarding."

He teaches the same poetry class to the inmates as he teaches to Northville High students.

"There are more restrictions on what I can and cannot use in class at the high school than at the jail," he explained. "Much of the materials used concern war, drugs and are revolutionary."

His "portable classroom" consists of records, notebooks, pencils, posters, portable blackboard and a record player.

Many of the records used Donohue has borrowed from Northville students.

Donohue feels the course at the jail "gives the inmates something positive to do with their minds. It helps fill in the time and they are asking to meet more than once a week. One of the goals of the class is to help them read and understand poetry better."

At the beginning of the course, Donohue used song lyrics to discuss what makes up poetry, since these forms are the intermediate stage between poetry and prose.

Several of Jimmy Hendrix's songs were used, with inmates discussing thoughts conveyed to each of them by a song.

Even graffiti plays a part in his classroom examples.

Donohue's students number from nine to 11, "but membership is always changing, with inmates going to trial or being let out on bond."

Security procedures in the jail make it necessary for him to teach his classes from the hallway of the cell block, with materials being passed through the cell bars.

Before he began teaching at the jail, he was fingerprinted and checked for any possible past criminal record.

A thorough search is made each time he enters and leaves the jail.

Donohue said the "enthusiasm of the students is overwhelming. Ideas flare up and are discussed, evaluated and re-presented."

"Some of the inmates have known lyricists personally or have been involved with them and can tell the class many interesting experiences which add to our interpretation and discussion of the works," he added.

Girl Scout Troop 1027 had patrol elections. The patrols were named Bobcats, Cookcats, and Clumsy Clowns. The names of the patrol leaders are: Bobcats - Debbie Morandy; Cookcats - Susan King, Clumsy Clowns - Cathy Linton. Sherri Crowe was elected troop scribe, and treasurer is Diane Bosco.

Brownie Troop 351 had a Birthday party for Juliette Lowe.

Mrs. Wilenis was presented with a gift for all her help with the troop.

Special guests were Mrs. Shankel and Mrs. Walling who will be leading the new troop of Brownies at Novi Elementary School. Anyone wishing to join should contact Mrs. Wilenis at 349-2056.

The Calendar Sale begins November 11. Calendars will be available from all Junior and Cadette troops. Other events include the area meeting on November 13th at the Farmington Community Building. All those in the Orchard Hills and Village Oaks leadership who wish to go should contact Ginny Folsom about a car pool. Those in the Novi Elementary wishing to go should contact Jeanne Clarke.

First Baptist Church of Novi

Special music in the morning worship service was a selection by the Faith Chorus "Channels Only" and a solo by Mrs. Bernice Stewart. Music in the evening service was a solo by Miss Peggy Stewart singing "Only Believe." Denise Stipp played a piano selection for the offertory.

The Christian Education committee will meet Tuesday, November 7, instead of this week. Current reading material such as Our Daily Bread, Christian Life, and Moody Monthly is available in the church vestibule.

Reservations for the annual Harvest Supper must be in by next Sunday. Turn in reservations to Mrs. Thomas or Mrs. Scott.

A baby shower is planned for Mrs. Joan Willis on Thursday evening in Flint Hall at 7:30 p.m. This is the first "Shower in Absentia" at First Baptist, as Mrs. Willis may be in the hospital then. The guests are asked to bring their gifts unwrapped. After a display, the gifts will be wrapped and delivered to Mrs. Willis. All ladies of the church are invited to attend.

Set Holiday Bazaars

By NANCY DINGELDEY

Well, we've managed to live through another Devil's Night and Halloween and now it's up to us mothers to ration out the daily treats and worry about the cavities.

The one thing that hasn't changed much since my days of "trick or treating" is what happens after the kids come home from their rounds of door pounding.

Out come the containers with each child's name clearly visible on all sides. Then the bags are dumped out on the table and sorted as to size, shape and color, followed by trading time when you try to get your brothers and sisters to exchange one of their better goodies for one "not so hot" from your heap.

Or trying to decide which house gave out the best treat with the mental note to be there early next year.

And it's amazing how many kids, even the youngest in the household, can remember something special from the year before -- but they can't seem to remember to brush their teeth from one day to the next.

And the covens of witches got together Tuesday night to do a little singing and dancing -- an "unhappy" time of year for them since Halloween supposedly marks the beginning of the winter season and all that is "cold and dead". Great -- if you happen to go along with that way of thinking.

A group that always comes on strong this time of year, rattling nerves and such, has to be the Jaycettes. The "Haunted House" just gets better with each year and my, the crowd it draws.

After standing in line more than an hour, two of my three were ready to back out at the last minute. One of them didn't even make it through the door before she was screaming bloody murder. Imagination does all sorts of things to the soul.

The way didn't get any better for her as we progressed through the maze. I think she was on her hands and knees more than her feet. At one point I made a remark about her stumbling and I was told she couldn't see because she had her eyes shut!

Her screaming and wailing really got to the little one and at one point a putty knife couldn't have scraped her off the wall. I was told in no uncertain terms that she wasn't going any farther.

We exited rather hurriedly (and hysterically) with two in tears only to have them begging the very next day to go back for more.

The first of the bazaars to be held in this area is the Senior Citizens annual bazaar and hand craft show. It will be held November 11 at Walled Lake Central's cafeteria. For weeks and months now, the "seniors" have been getting together at weekly workshops busily preparing for their daylong event. Besides offering a large variety of hand made items, there will be demonstrations, displays, a bake sale, and a sandwich bar.

Wixom this year will be having two bazaars running side-by-side.

On Saturday, November 18, at the VFW on Loon Lake Road, the second annual Holiday Boutique with many of our crafty women displaying and selling their hand made items. Lots of holiday decorations including candles, ornaments and centerpieces along with macrame belts, pottery, ceramics, decoupage plaques and stained glass.

The boutique promises to have loads of goodies just perfect for someone on your Christmas list. Shopping hours are from 10 a.m. until 5 p.m.

On Sunday, November 19, the Ladies Auxilliary of the Finnish Summer Camp will be holding their Annual Christmas Bazaar with doors opening at noon. Held in the club room located in the lower level of the big white building which dominates the Finn landscape, all manner of items, many of them hand-made, will be offered for sale.

Something new this year is a "Man's Table" with hand-made fishing lures as one of the featured items. Silver, wooden beaded necklaces, cookbooks, baked goods, knitted and crocheted articles and Finnish Ryjir wallhangings will also be on sale.

Disrupt Willowbrook Hearing

doesn't alter the fact that I personally think the roads in Willowbrook need resurfacing and would vote for it because I feel it is my duty as a councilman to do what's best for the city," he added.

"As for looking bad in the eyes of the citizens, this isn't the first time and probably won't be the last. If you don't like the job I'm doing you can vote me out of office."

Mrs. Dunn's charges were followed by charges from James Bruce, another Willowbrook resident opposed to the resurfacing.

"If the council is truly concerned about what's best for the city why didn't it override the petitions opposed to the paving of Taft Road," he asked. "There's no doubt that that road needs paving far more than our roads and that paving Taft would be a far greater service to the city at large."

"You people on the council should get off your seats and go out and compare the conditions of these roads so you know what you're talking about," he said angrily.

Bruce's final statement brought an immediate reaction from the council.

"Just a minute," said Berry. "Don't you ever accuse this council of sitting in its seats?" Other councilmen also reacted to the accusation at the same time and the meeting disintegrated into a brief shouting match of charges and counter-charges before order was restored.

The decision to continue with the special assessment district makes Willowbrook just the second Novi subdivision still involved in the resurfacing program, even though all of the city's older subdivisions had originally been included.

When the resurfacing program was initiated, it was seen as a means of winning the favor of subdivision residents for the road millage election. One by one, however, all but two of the subdivisions have been dropped from the program, as citizens opposed the special assessment districts.

At Monday's hearing

Willowbrook residents were equally divided in support of and opposition to the special assessment.

Petitions with the names of 81 residents opposed to the resurfacing had been presented to the council. According to the city's charter, if 51 percent of the lot owners oppose an assessment the program must be abandoned unless the council overrides the opposition by a five-sevenths vote.

The 81 Willowbrook signatures were short of the 51 percent mark as there are 172 lots in the subdivision, a fact that led to criticism of City Clerk Mabel Ash.

Said Mrs. Dunn: "The city clerk refused to tell us how many signatures were needed because she said she wouldn't know until the night of the public hearing. Now that we know how many names we needed to get, 51 percent, there's no doubt in my mind whatsoever that we could have gotten the six additional signatures."

Mrs. Ash replied that the number of lots in the subdivision was a matter of public record and had been published with the announcement of the hearing.

The councilmen were almost unanimous in their support of the resurfacing program.

Mayor Joseph Crupi pointed out that the roads are beginning to break up and the deterioration would continue at an increased rate over the next couple of years, making a resurfacing program mandatory and at a significantly higher cost.

Presnell added that 47 percent of the present estimated cost of the resurfacing project was merely for the repair of the existing surface. "You'll never get a better buy for your money than you can get right now," he told the Willowbrook residents.

Before the vote to continue with the program was taken, Councilman Raymond Evans reminded the council that two more public hearings would have to be held before a special assessment district could be established and that residents can present petitions at either one of them.

"They are only six signatures away from 51 percent right now," he said, "so I think it's safe to assume they can come up with the 51 percent that will require us to go to a five-sevenths vote. If we authorize the expenditure of money tonight, we should be willing to override their petitions by a five-sevenths vote in the future."

Said Berry: "Those roads need paving and they'll never be paved at a lower cost than we can get right now. Even if 99 percent of the residents sign petitions opposed to the paving I would vote for the resurfacing because I feel the roads need it."

The motion to continue with the establishment of the special assessment district passed by a 5-2 margin. Evans and Donald Young cast the dissenting ballots

Fire Districts

"All we're trying to do," Bailey told the council, "is to update the codes of this city so we can have safe buildings and orderly development. We don't want to have a situation here like the City of Detroit has now and have to tear down row after row of unsafe buildings because they constitute a safety hazard."

The primary concern of the council was that adoption of the fire districts could hinder the city's development -- a charge that was summarily dismissed by Bailey.

"Farmington and Farmington Township both have the type of standards we're asking you to adopt for Novi and it hasn't hindered their growth one iota," he said.

"Adoption of these standards may hinder growth to some degree," Councilman Donald Young added, "but development at any cost is not good."

The council refused to take action on Bailey's request for the fire districts at this time and directed City Manager Edward Kriewall to set up a meeting between the council, developers, and members of the business community, for further discussion of the issues involved.

Oppose Property Tax Proposal

Kabzinski

today who don't get equal pay for doing the same job as men. This is not right. I say as long as she does the same type of work that the man does she should get the same kind of money."

Similarly, Smart did not support legislation providing additional funds for a drug abuse program in schools, charged Kabzinski.

"But he (Smart) did have time to support small loan interests; he did have time to vote on motel-hotel tax to subsidize baseball and football stadiums; he had time to increase our gas tax two cents; and he had time to raise interest rates on home mortgages," Kabzinski, a former labor union representative, declared during an interview with this newspaper.

"Who does he think he's helping by supporting interest rates on small loans? He's hurt the working man, that's what."

"Then on the five-percent tax on motel-hotel he ain't helped the working man. He's supporting Briggs (Tiger Stadium and Bill Ford, who I think have enough money that they should be able to subsidize it themselves. And how come, if these are such good things for us, why aren't the banks being involved or don't they think it's practical?"

"And he's helped increase the rate on house mortgages. Does this help the working man? No. That's why I'm saying I'm for the little guy and why I'm running on bread and butter issues."

Although he is critical of Smart's performance in the legislature, Kabzinski's chief concern in this campaign is the "so called property tax reform" as proposed under Proposal C that will appear on the November 7 ballot. He repeatedly returned to this issue throughout the interview.

This proposal, insisted the Democratic candidate for the 24th Representative District, fails to "help those taxpayers who need the help the most"

"To me 'tax reform' is another word for tax increase. I am against Proposal C and I think we must get across to all the people just how bad it is. Sure, I favor reduction of property taxes but in a fairer way. Today they are not advertising that a single person or a retiree under 65 or a renter won't be helped very much."

"They say if it's passed people with children and property tax will gain money. That's true, but you will gain money only as long as your son lives in the house because as soon as your son is a wage earner or leaves and you don't support him your tax will be increased."

The only real solution to these "problems hurting the little man," he contended, is the graduated income tax proposed by Democrats. "It would make the guy on the top pay a little bit more, and it would be a savings for the guy who rents or for the young person just starting out in life."

"If Proposal C provided for a graduated income tax I'd support it. But as it stands, without the graduated tax, it just swings the burden from the older person to the younger person in the family."

He said he cannot feel safe that both Proposal C and the graduated income tax proposal will pass. Therefore, he prefers to hope "C" will fail and the measure be rewritten by the legislature to include the graduated tax.

"Look, 'reform' as they're now talking is a dirty word in my opinion. It's just taking money from a different pocket I don't care what they say; it ain't going to help much."

"I stand to lose $200 if Proposal C is lost. But I can't see me going over the hill, making a young kid pay my share that way because the young kid is thinking of getting married, he's thinking of buying and if we put on his back more taxes what is his initiative? Why are we just looking at retirees? Let's look at everybody because how am I going to become a retiree if I can't afford to get there?"

Turning to mass transit Kabzinski said the problem of transportation is a critical one that needs immediate attention. "It must," he insisted, "be supported by federal funds. The taxpayer is already paying enough federal taxes to pay for it."

Cost could, he said, be held to a minimum if those proposing grandiose schemes would consider instead utilization of existing railroad lines. "We've got all kinds of tracks in this area that could be used. You don't have to go out and spend all kinds of money on new things; let's use what we've already got."

Right now they're thinking in billions of dollars and they don't even know if it will pay off. I don't know what they're spending more time trying to figure out if it's feasible to use the Grand Trunk, the C&O and those other railroads.

"I believe, myself, like in the olden days I rode the DSR and I knew the DSR would be there at eight o'clock and if I was there on time I got a ride. I didn't have to wait. If they'd guarantee the people a time schedule, they could use the railroads and I'd ride it."

Kabzinski said he supports the state proposal to aid veterans, and he opposes the abortion reform proposal.

The latter, he said, is a "poor excuse" to promote promiscuity. A abortion reform, he asserted, will do nothing to solve the problem caused by "men who think only about themselves."

He opposes cross-district busing ("nobody learns on a bus"), and he is convinced that welfare laws need change—but not just change to eliminate fraud but change to "help those that don't get enough now to live on."

Smart

Legislative candidates who elected him to a leadership role.

Minority leader of the House, Smart, when pressed, said he appreciated his opponent's interest in legislative matters but he has found his opponent's criticisms so erroneous and lacking of factual evidence that it would require a detailed analysis of each to set the record straight.

Instead, Smart spoke to his opponent's premise that only labor-backed legislation is good for the working man.

"Anyone who sits in the legislature," said Smart, "must look at what is not only good for each person but also at what is good for the State of Michigan."

"If he (opponent) would examine my voting record on the so-called union bills he will find that I voted for 12 of their 20 bills."

"I can't vote for every bill because I have to recognize the fact that we must keep business in this state...we have to encourage business to come into the state. So there has to be some kind of compromise between the two big powers (labor and big business) so that we can keep both of them around."

"If we can't keep industry in this state then we are in a bad way circumstances. And that's why I have to look carefully at each piece of legislation. When unions come in with bills that would, in my judgment, be detrimental to the state's economic situation I have to vote against it."

Without industry there are no jobs and neither the union, its members, or the state can long survive in that kind of situation, he explained in pointing out that he must weigh each bill on its immediate and long range benefit to citizens and the state. The easy or popular course, he added, may in the final analysis be the least advantageous course.

Asked to explain his opposition to Proposition C, Smart, who sponsored an alternative property tax relief plan, said the ballot proposal offers little real tax relief if one considers the substantial increase in income tax that will become necessary.

Basically, it means substitution of one tax for another—neither of which will please citizens of the state, he said.

Instead of trying "to do this job constitutionally," Smart said he preferred that the legislature get down to the business of devising a plan that offers real, not artificial property tax relief.

And, in his opinion, the bill he introduced this past year calling for "a $5,000 homestead tax exemption for everybody" would do just that. "One thing I like about this proposal is that we would be doing it statutorily...and we don't have to get involved in this whole problem of corporate taxes."

"Corporate taxes are a major complication with

Novi Suffers B&E Rash

The City of Novi is fast becoming the breaking and entering capital of southwestern Oakland County

So far this year the Novi Police Department has been called upon to investigate 102 cases of breaking and en-terings of private residences and that pace shows no signs of slackening.

By the time the year is over, Corporal John Johnson of the Novi Detective Bureau estimates, the city will have had more than 130 private residences illegally entered and burglarized

Using past thefts as a guide, Johnson feels the total loss value of those thefts will soar over the $125,000 mark.

"When you consider Novi's total population (approximately 12,000) and the number of homes in the city it means that a pretty high percentage of our citizens are being victimized by break-ins," Corporal Robert Starnes, Johnson's partner, points out

The problem has become so great that Novi Police Chief Lee BeGole has appointed Johnson and Starnes as a special two-man task force to try to provide some sort of solution.

Why has Novi had so much trouble with breaking and enterings?

There are several answers.

One of the most important reasons is the city's relationship to major thoroughfares. There are seven mile roads which lead directly from other cities and pass through Novi, Johnson points out "We have found that the majority of our breaking and enterings are clustered on and around these mile roads."

Equally significant is the fact that the I-96 expressway passes down the middle of the city. "There are entrances onto the expressway at three different locations—Novi Road, Beck Road, and Wixom Road," says Starnes. "What that means is that potentially a B and E man can break into a home, rip it off, and be on the other side of Detroit in half an hour—often before the theft is even discovered."

Another problem is the size of the city. Novi's 12,000 citizens are spread out over 13 square miles. Attempting to patrol those 32 square miles with the type of thoroughness needed to deter the thefts is a difficult undertaking Related is the fact that Novi is the first truly rural area west of Detroit along I-96.

Whereas the cities east of Novi are comprised primarily of closely-congregated subdivisions residences, a significant number of Novi homes, particularly those on Eight, Ten, and Twelve Mile Roads, are on large parcels of land well isolated from their neighbors.

One of the weapons the Novi officers are using to combat the breaking and entering problem involves educating homeowners as to what they can do to protect themselves.

A large number of thefts could be prevented, according to Starnes, if proper precautions had been taken. "Many people leave their homes open to breaking and enterings by inadvertently publicizing their absence," he said

Available at the Novi Police station is a small book which gives 40 different ways homeowners can protect their homes from theft

Starnes and Johnson listed several of the more important safeguards.

First, both detectives urged residents to leave plenty of lights on when they leave home. A single light in the living room doesn't fool anybody anymore, said Starnes. People should get in the habit of leaving lights on throughout the house as well as exterior lights

Another sign which B and E men look for is open garage doors. An opened, empty garage usually indicates an empty house and often allows easy access to cellars or entryways, unseen from the street.

Both Starnes and Johnson stressed the importance of working out a buddy system with neighbors. Whenever you're going to be gone from your home, said Johnson, tell your neighbors and have them keep an eye open for strange people or automobiles

"People should never be afraid to call police when they spot something suspicious," Johnson added. "It's better to let us check something out than let someone's home be burglarized."

Even when leaving the house during the daytime to go shopping for a couple of hours it is wise to inform neighbors of your absence and probable time of return. Almost 50 percent of the Novi breaking and enterings take place during the day, the officers noted.

Sliding patio doors found in many modern homes are another item which bear special attention. In approximately 25 percent of Novi's breaking and enterings, the original entry was made through sliding doors. A strip of wood placed into the inside track will prevent sliding the door open from outside.

"The problem is," said Starnes, "that a lot of people make it easy for burglars to work. . . and don't even realize it. If we continue our present rate of breaking and enterings, we can expect to have a home burglarized practically every other day. If we can get people to exercise these safeguards, though, we think we can cut into that rate significantly."

Board Erases Work Ban

A recently enacted Novi School Board policy calling for no new construction to take place on school property on Sundays was wiped from the slate last week.

School board members acted to erase the policy as the first step towards voting on a substitution, but once the original measure had been rescinded the board deadlocked 3-3 on a substitution leaving no policy at all.

Had the substitution been adopted it would have provided for two exceptions to the Sunday ban:

Had the substitution been adopted, it would have provided that exceptions to the ban could occur if any one of the following two conditions was a factor:

• That an existing contract be void because of the board's limiting action.

• That health and safety factors would be impaired by the board's restrictions.

Volunteers Spell Success in Novi

In a special report to the board of education last week, Orchard Hills Principal Mrs. Ester McDonough voiced enthusiasm for a volunteer teacher aid pilot program nearing fruition at her school.

According to the Principal, and Robert Rodgers, field consultant from the Oakland County Center of Reading and Language, it has required surprisingly little solicitation by the school to attract some 20 parent volunteers.

These volunteers presently are receiving pre-program training and orientation, it was explained by Rodgers, who showed slides to demonstrate purposes of volunteer teacher aides in the classroom.

The program, it was explained is not designed to replace any existing program or professional teacher but rather to supplement, complement and reinforce the existing program. Aides will not make professional decisions, it was emphasized.

Major emphasis is in aiding the teacher, board members learned, by reinforcing those skills which the teacher has taught. "Individual tutoring is part of the reinforcement service available to all children regardless of their level of achievement. (It) will be used to monitor small groups of children within a classroom upon request of the teacher."

Another purpose of the volunteers will be to prepare semi-programmed materials "under the supervision of a teacher or reading consultant (Volunteers) also...listen to children read from supplemental materials or read to children from library books.

"Lastly, there is a possibility that (volunteers) can work in a pre-recorded listening program for kindergarten children that will develop listening skills."

Oppose Tax Proposal

Proposal C We hear talk of profits and payroll tax now, which is another name for the added value tax. But if we went the homestead exemption route we could leave the corporate taxes alone and we would have the $500 million corporate tax complication that somehow must be absorbed, under C, by income taxes."

Another argument Smart uses in his opposition to Proposal C is that it will take controls out of the hands of the local school districts and place it in the hands of the state.

"I'm personally convinced," he said, "that when you place full funding of the educational system at the state level the controls will go with it. And this doesn't necessarily apply only to schools. Very likely the same thing would happen with townships and counties, which are out after revenue sharing."

Like most Republicans, Smart is opposed to the graduated income tax proposition. "If we go with Proposition C and if graduated income tax becomes a reality the people in the state will have lost almost complete control of the whole tax structure, and the legislature will be in a position to do as it pleases with the income tax. I suspect that in the beginning the legislature would use it, hopefully, in a modest manner but looking down the road I fear it would become a substantial tax."

Should Proposition C pass Smart is prepared to fight again for a piece of legislation he introduced this past year calling for funding in "a different, more equitable manner."

"One example of what I mean," he explained, "is that I don't think we can any longer distribute money on a membership basis. I think we must start distributing money to schools on the basis of the kinds of services to kids that those schools offer. We must set some standards, and this bill did that, such as 48-50 professionals per thousand students.

"If we are going to get equality in education we cannot permit some boards to avoid it—and not necessarily because they don't have the money. As long as we distribute money to them on a membership basis, you will find that some of them may put 30 kids in a classroom when perhaps they should have only 25. We shouldn't pay them for something that doesn't contribute to quality education.

"If, however, you said to the Northville board, for example, that the state standard is say 25 children per classroom per teacher and we're going to pay you on that basis, then the board is likely to set their program up on that quality basis. So we must tie all these things together. We must tell districts that the state will provide monies but that the state will not give you money for quality education when you don't provide it."

Smart opposes cross-district busing but, in his opinion, the question cannot be resolved by the legislature.

"Even though I knew that some of the proposals introduced in the legislature (to combat busing) would not handle this question even if they were passed, I expressed my position on cross-district busing by supporting proposals because I think the people are entitled to know our position on this matter."

Having helped write the ballot proposal that would aid veterans, Smart naturally supports it. "I think we have to provide some help to those who served in Vietnam. I'm not wholeheartedly in favor of giving $500 to everybody because I know a lot of it is wasted.

"The big thing on this proposal is the educational benefits it provides. If everyone used it in my opinion it would be money well spent."

Asked to single out the most important issue facing the legislature, Smart returned to the property tax relief matter. "The way in which we fund the public school system is one of the main issues whether Proposal C passes or not.

"We will necessarily have to provide more state funding, and we're going to have to distribute those funds in a more equitable manner than we have been doing in the past."

"Another issue, especially important in our area, is the matter of environment. We've passed some good environmental legislation but we live in an area where there are a lot of lakes and we still have some big problems with those lakes. I think, representing the kind of area I represent, I must take these kinds of problems into consideration along with the school funding matter.

"To sum it up I would place priority on three things: funding the public schools, reforming the tax structure to provide some property tax relief, and environmental questions."

Turning to welfare, Smart contended that reform, if done properly, must start at the federal level. He noted that Michigan, in comparison with other states, "has been rather liberal with welfare provisions and we find ourselves with a welfare bill that now, for the first time, is exceeding the education bill."

"Fraud," he declared, "is going on all over the state and everybody knows it. The standards of welfare have reached the point where we have taken away the work incentive. Now I'm not unaware that we have people on welfare who are deserving, and we have people on welfare who wish they were working but have been unable to find jobs. But we also have all kinds of people on public relief, where we have taken away the work incentive, who don't want to or never will work even though they are physically capable of working."

Among the "reform" measures he supports are: ceiling on the welfare bill, requirement that able bodied recipients be available for work, a requirement that payments such as dental aids be expended for that purpose, etc.

Asked about his position on abortion reform, Smart took the position that it is a "personal" matter but because electors are entitled to know their candidates' positions he disclosed that he will vote against it.

Buys Furniture, Eyes New School Offices

Novi school officials are hopeful the next meeting of the board of education can be held in the new administration facilities located in mobile-type buildings adjacent to the high school.

Last week the board voted to purchase furniture and equipment for the new facilities from Michigan School Services, which submitted the low bid of $7,450.38.

Bids were received from five other bidders, ranging up to a high of $10,465.

In other business last week, the board approved personnel recommendations of Superintendent Gerald Kratz. These included an addition of 11 teachers to the substitute list, deletion of four others, and employment of Alvin J. Richway as high school custodian at a pay rate of $3.15 per hour.

Also the board approved a formal resolution concerning the district's application under the School Bond Loan Fund. During a discussion of this matter, it was pointed out that by borrowing money under this fund the board is able to avoid nearly 2.2 millage increase above the 7 mills for debt retirement

Approval of Proposition 5 on the Wixom ballot would require Council to adopt a set of rules of order to be used at all meetings. Currently, the charter does not provide for one set order of rules.

The five member committee which proposed the charter changes is made up of Mrs. Lillian Byrd, Arthur Cronin, Neil Taylor, Cass Schulte and Fred Moorhead. Moorhead was appointed on October 24 to fill the seat on the council vacated by the resignation of Elwood Grubb.

Originally, the charter commission recommended a total of seven charter amendments. Three, which were originally approved for the ballot by Council did not gain the approval of State Attorney General Frank Kelley and Governor William G. Milliken ditional information to shore up his less than 100-percent support.

Support Township Annexation

In view of their apparent agreement on the question of annexation, VanderMolen was asked what he feels are the remaining major differences between himself and his opponent.

"The major difference, I think, is that my opponent is inconsistent. The one time he appears to be against annexation, now he appears to be in favor of it. That is his right, and we all have the right to education.

"The other difference is that I don't feel he has advanced solutions for many of the problems. I have advanced solutions; I have identified problems. I've gone out and visited with the residents and talked to them about their needs. That's a major difference between us."

Asked to specify two major problems and to give his solutions to them, VanderMolen suggested inadequate fire protection in the southeast section of the township and construction flaws in Highland Lakes.

He said the township should provide a "modest fire hall" immediately. And this can be done, he suggested, without inclusion of an expensive township hall-police department complex.

To solve the construction problems, VanderMolen said he would insist that the building inspector stop issuing building permits until all construction difficulties have been resolved.

"Secondly, I think the supervisor should support them (citizens of Highland Lakes) in a class action suit. I would be very willing to support them in that endeavor."

Asked why he believes he is better qualified than his opponent, Wright pointed to his maturity, and to his past record of successfully starting and operating several businesses, and he emphasized that, since the primary, he has thoroughly studied township operations, attended many meetings of SEMCOG, and discussed governmental matters with many supervisors and mayors to prepare himself for the post.

Wright said he believes he is well qualified to deal with land speculators who, without some restraint, would quickly turn the township into one big development. "I'm for a balance of multiples, single residential, commercial and some light industry we have areas in the township that could accommodate light industry."

Wright refuted VanderMolen's charge of a do-nothing administration relative to Highland Lakes. "When building problems have been brought to the attention of the township, they (supervisor and building inspector) acted immediately. As a matter of fact, I understand that (at one point) the supervisor stopped all construction until they came to agreement that these things would be taken care of. And I understand they have been taken care of. There may be a few isolated instances."

"I really disagree with that," declares VanderMolen. "I've walked in Highland Lakes, I can show you case studies where the floors are creaking and groaning and caving in a basement flooded for months. The fact of the matter is that many of the residents in there tell me that the supervisor has not reacted, and I can give you specific names."

Speaking about major proposed expenditures in the township, Wright said he, as supervisor, would seek to hold all such expenditures in abeyance until after the annexation question is resolved. "All large capital expenditures and programs," he said, "should be put into deep freeze."

Additions to the township police department, Wright said, is an example of the kind of steps that should be postponed.

However, Wright said construction of a fire station is a must, pointing out that in the event of a fire the southeastern section of the township a tragedy could very easily occur if a train crossing Seven Mile Road should block fire fighting equipment.

The township police department, according to VanderMolen, "needs more professionalism," but he, too, would advise against increasing the size of the department until after the annexation question is decided.

"If elected," he said, "I would insist that applicants (for the police department) be thoroughly screened and meet the test for professionalism that, I think, we now lack. I would be very tough in this matter."

Wright made it plain that if he is elected supervisor, he does not intend to receive his directions from others within the township hall. "The supervisor is the elected head of the township. He is the law enforcement officer, he chairs the board meetings, he's the assessor, he signs all legal documents together with the clerk, he draws up jury lists, and he's a public relations man."

While he intends to be the boss, Wright expressed the hope that "we (township officials) could work as a team so we wouldn't be pulling in two different directions."

VanderMolen said he would offer stronger leadership than Wright, and that on the basis of his contacts with governmental agencies he would do a far better job in the area of public relations.

Criticizing the present supervisor for failing to deal forcefully with vandalism on Maybury State Park property, VanderMolen said he should have, since the situation warranted outside help, immediately called in the state police to assist.

"He should have exerted more influence. tough, strong leadership as I would bring to the job," he said.

VanderMolen's remarks angered Wright, who quickly scored his opponent for suggesting that the supervisor did not act in the Maybury situation. "He was in touch with the Department of Natural Resources, he was in touch with the State Police and sheriff, he was on top of that situation. He informed them that we had only three policemen of our own and that it was impossible for them to patrol and keep the area under control."

Wright switched to VanderMolen's campaign comments concerning purported failure to clean up a lake in Highland Lakes. "That isn't a township function," he declared. "It's something the Wayne County Board of Health and the State Board of Health to deal with. And they do, periodically, take water samples."

"That again shows the narrow interpretation of the township supervisor," replied VanderMolen. "He should be able to call to the attention of the health department any of these problems and say, 'Look I think you should solve the problem instead (permitting it)'."

On the matter of a new township hall, VanderMolen said he is "totally against building immediately a new township hall that would be a $500,000 package. It would require additional millage and I don't feel voters want additional millage for anything they feel is going to be wasted."

"If we build a fire hall first, and build it for a reasonable cost, then if annexation is passed you can still use that facility."

Wright, too, opposes the township complex. "It's way out of line on price," he said, suggesting something far less elaborate. "We need a fire station, however."

If the township remains a township (following the annexation decision, Wright said he would favor construction of a new township hall facility—but a "modest" one.

Bazaar Feature

Need A Patchwork Quilt?

A hand-made patchwork quilt, Christmas ornaments, and wooden birdhouses and feeders will be some of the items for sale at the Beverly Bazaar to be held November 3, 4 and 5 at the Beverly Convelescent Center, 24500 Meadowbrook near Ten Mile in Novi.

All of the handcrafted items were made for the bazaar by some of the 144 patients at the center. Proceeds from the sales will go back into the craft program there.

The sale was completely planned by the patients themselves, according to Mrs. Barbara Warick, activities director at the convelescent center.

Also for sale will be various "odds and ends" items donated to the convelescent center which are in good condition but not usable by the patients, Mrs. Warick added.

Hours for the three day sale are Friday, November 3, 9 a.m. to 3 p.m., Saturday, November 4, 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.; and Sunday, November 5, 1 to 6 p.m.

Anyone wishing additional information about the bazaar can contact Mrs. Warick at the convelescent center, 477-2000.

This Party Attracts A Ghost

Motorists passing by the Griswold homes of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Craig and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Mc Millan on Saturday evening received a Halloween scare a few days early.

A ghost hanging from a tree in the front yard and Craig, dressed as "the devil himself", jumped out from behind trees and bushes.

The frightening events were all part of the costume party planned by both couples for friends and relatives to "get into the fun of Halloween," Craig said.

In addition to rigging the ghost in the tree, Craig and McMillan placed carved pumpkins and dried corn stalks around the yards of both houses to give a Halloween look to the neighborhood.

Invited Northville guests attending the costume party included Mr. and Mrs. Ross Hahn, Dr. and Mrs. Jerome McDowall and Mr. and Mrs. Nick Bickner.

Northville Township Candidates Meet Public

With some 40 persons present Thursday evening in the King's Mill clubhouse, candidates for the Northville Township Board spoke briefly and answered questions of the public.

Only those candidates who face opposition in the November 7 election spoke. Two of these candidates—Michael Frice, Democratic candidate for clerk, and incumbent Trustee Richard Mitchell, candidate for reelection—were unable to be present.

Present were: For supervisor, Democrat Larry VanderMolen and Republican Lawrence Wright; for clerk, Republican Mrs. Sally Cayley; for trustee (two are to be elected), Republican John MacDonald, and Democrats Thomas Curran and Eugene Guido.

Following the regular program, sponsored by the Northville Civitan Club as a public service, brief remarks were heard from R. Robert Geake, Republican candidate for State Representative, and a spokesman for Marvin Stempien, Democratic candidate for Congress.

Moderator of the program was Civitan President-elect Charles Schaeffer, Jr., himself a member of the township board whose trustee position is not up for election. Here briefly are some of the comments by candidates:

SALLY CAYLEY

In response to previously voiced allegations, Mrs. Cayley opened her remarks by defending Township Police Chief Ronald Nisun, calling him an "honorable person" who, contrary to daily newspaper reports, took materials from the Maybury Sanatorium property only because he was given permission to do so. "He is a professional in every sense of the word, going to Schoolcraft College to increase his skills as an administrator of police work, and I have all the respect in the world for him," she asserted.

Mrs. Cayley said that she is confident, in the event that the Michigan Boundary Commission rules favorably on annexation of the township to the city, "there will definitely be a referendum and their decision will be overruled because just about everybody I've talked to has expressed extreme distaste for annexation."

Concerning a proposal to postpone major expenditures pending an annexation decision, Mrs. Cayley said "there are some things that are too vital to postpone any longer and each thing would have to be judged on its individual merits."

"Recently the township board voted to conduct a study on a new method of zoning and this is going to be very expensive. I feel this could have been postponed."

Speaking about the role of clerk, she said "it is a very exacting role. Since the clerk acts as a hub around which the other departments operate and she's responsible for all the record keeping. It's a full time job. If elected I expect to keep fully informed of all matters and vote to the very best of my ability to what I think would be best for the total community."

Concerning voting matters, Mrs. Cayley sees the biggest problem "is a result of the court decision doing away the annual purge of voter records. This decision declared this process to be unconstitutional but, of course, did not replace it with any other method. The purge process removes from the roles people who have moved, are deceased, as well as those people who have not voted in some time."

"This excess of voters causes more precincts to be created, which in turn necessitates purchases of new voting machines and hiring of more election help."

"Another problem, as I see it, is that there are no guidelines in state law to determine what capabilities a person must have in order to register in the first place. There are no guidelines either regarding the locality in which institutionalized persons can register to vote. As there are many institutions in this area this is an especially important issue to Northville Township.

"If elected I intend to seek relief of these problems through our representatives in the state legislature," Mrs. Cayley also said she believes the three elected officials who share the township hall should be more aware of how each other's office is conducted, and she hopes she can achieve this goal if elected.

THOMAS CURRAN

Speaking about annexation, Curran said the township board should continue to plan for the future in the event annexation does not take place. However, he opposes, he added, major expenditures until the annexation question is resolved. "Spending money now could prove wasteful should annexation take place."

More importantly, the township board should address itself to the question of what it must do if a single, unified government is rejected, Curran declared.

"Personally, I would be in favor of any type of arrangement that would give us the maximum amount of services at minimal cost. This can be done in a number of ways, the most common being to cooperate with other governmental units and agencies."

"For example, our current fire protection is provided by a cooperative arrangement with the City of Northville, which gives us fire protection at a cost that is much reduced from what it would be if we tried to provide it on our own."

Like Guido, Curran criticized "certain members" of the board for "failing" to provide township residents with needed services at the least cost. A good example of this, he said, is the township hall and police-fire hall complex.

"I think it's important that all of you realize that if this complex is built it will cost approximately one-half million dollars. That means, depending upon the mortgage arrangements, it will cost each one of you somewhere between slightly under one mill and about one and a half mill. And that does not include operating expenses. I feel this is unnecessary."

Curran contrasted the proposed complex with the present township hall facility, which, he noted, "is rented from the Northville Board of Education at a cost of $3,600 a year. Now, obviously, it's not the most glamorous office building... but I think it is adequate."

Concerning the role of the trustee, Curran said one of the township officer's responsibilities is to "represent each resident of the township, and I think he should make sure that as issues are brought up all alternatives are investigated."

Curran said additional fire services are needed for the southeast section of the township, but he noted that, according to the supervisor's estimate, sufficient monies are available to build a fire station—not a complex—without additional taxes.

"The question of expanding the police force is one that deserves a lot of attention," he said, "but I think it is something that should wait until annexation is settled."

Cooperative garbage-trash collection services, as proposed by the Northwest Sanitation Authority, may be very economical, suggested Curran. "Some of the present studies show," he said, "that an arrangement, such as this, could provide trash collection for about half of what some of you are now paying to private collectors."

EUGENE GUIDO

"I am a strong advocate of unification with the City of Northville," declared Guido, "as the record from the past six or seven years would indicate. In-depth studies, both police study levels and feasibility studies, indicate that unification is feasible, desirable, and economical."

"Personally, I base my own commitment to unification on common sense reasoning."

Concerning postponement of major expenditures, Guido said all long-range plans, requiring huge capital expenditures, "should most certainly and reasonably be held in abeyance pending final resolution of the current annexation question."

Guido said he sees the role of the trustee "to be honest and responsive to needs of the community in bringing to its citizens modern, efficient, economical government with integrity. It is a trustee's responsibility to investigate, develop and foster legislation, since it is a legislative body, and establish policy that is beneficial as equally as is possible to all."

"It seems to me that certain (board) members failed to respond with direct, positive programs to actions seemingly called for in the recent police questionnaire sent to all registered voters of Northville Township. While the questionnaire was, inadequate, in my view, it still indicated some actions were needed."

Concerning services such as fire fighting, garbage collection, police, library, etc., Guido said top priority should be given to provision of additional fire service to the southeast section of the township.

"Garbage and trash collection services," he said, "would be better addressed under unification or at least after that question is resolved. Library services are currently shared but they do need expansion to a higher class library involving more reference volumes."

Police services, through a full professionalized department, Guido said, "are overdue. But to develop our own is to duplicate existing facilities and equipment with unreasonable cost. "Recreation services need expanding in the area of local units owning park lands or open areas. We own practically none in the township, and the city owns very little."

As for water and sewer services, Guido said water is adequate because it is available from the City of Detroit on a pay-as-you-go basis. "However, sewer capacity is woefully lacking in the township and awfully expensive to acquire. We would do well, as a combined community in this area."

Guido noted that under unification control of road services in township areas would be possible. Approximately $120,000 in gasoline and weight taxes, he said, would be rebated to a unified city instead of it going to the county, which can spend the money anywhere in the county—not necessarily in Northville. A city must expend its gas and weight tax funds, he added, within its own boundaries.

"The proper financing (of these kinds of services), without kidding anybody, must be through taxation," he said. "I say it would be cheaper taxation, millage-wise, to combine these two communities and to expand than to start from scratch."

Police also reported confiscating the equipment used for weighing, processing, and packaging the marihuana.

Three officers, Faulkner, Starnes, and Detective Sergeant Gordon Nelson, were involved in the raid.

The home in question had been under surveillance for some time, Starnes reported. Search warrants were obtained from 52nd District Court Judge Martin Boyle and the three officers exercised the warrants Friday.

Township Candidates

remarks by briefly explaining the make-up of the township board, noting that Supervisor Gunnar Stromberg, Clerk Mrs. Eleanor Hammond and Trustee Bernard Baldwin are not seeking re-election.

On the question of annexation, he explained the annexation process, pointing out that annexation is a "highly emotional subject", drawing some "ridiculous comments" as seen with people saying "if we go city we lose our rural atmosphere."

"I don't know if they think the hills of Northville are going to be leveled if we go city or what. There's a great deal of misconception."

"Basically, what we're talking about is eliminating the duplication of services. In other words (under a single government) you don't have two city managers, you don't have a township board and a city board...you have one. If you go city, in Northville's case obviously you would have a city manager-weak mayor form of government with a council. You would have one fire department, one police department etc. That's the argument for the pro annexation group."

"The argument for the anti-annexation side presumably is that we don't need Northville...we've gotten along fine just the way we are. If we need more money we can go to the people and ask for more money, etc."

MacDonald predicted that the Boundary Commission will hand down a favorable decision on annexation in November or December. Following this decision, a referendum very likely will be held, he added without predicting the outcome of this vote.

As to the role of the township board on annexation, MacDonald said he sees it as playing a leadership role.

MacDonald told his audience that, in his opinion, the township board currently running the township has done "an excellent job" and he for one is not basing his campaign on dissatisfaction with board members or their actions. "I'm running," he said, "to try to do what I can in my own small way to contribute to township government."

LARRY VANDERMOLEN

VanderMolen said he is basing his campaign on a program of identifying problems of the community and offering solutions to them--something the current administration is not doing.

One of the major problems, he declared, is the "construction difficulties" experienced by residents of Highland Lakes, who are "very, very angry" over the failure of the contractor and the township supervisor to resolve these problems.

Other problems he pinpointed and promised to resolve if elected included inadequate fire protection and lack of response by township officials. "They (the people) say 'we need a strong candidate, we need a strong leader, we need someone to fight for us, we need representation,' and they say it with fervor, they say it with anger because they know nothing is being done," he said.

As a college professor teaching night classes, VanderMolen told the audience he can and will serve them "on a full-time basis I can serve you well, and I can solve many of the problems that exist."

VanderMolen criticized his opponent for avoiding these important issues. "Has he been willing to tell you what he feels about the major issues of the day? Has he been willing to debate me on any major issue? I am willing to debate the issues of this township."

"I urge you to follow the line of your thinking and your reasoning. Elect the man who is best qualified to serve. Elect the man who can solve the problems, who will respond, who will give you the representation you deserve. Elect a man who is determined to reform township government."

LAWRENCE WRIGHT

Speaking about long-range township plans, Wright took the position that, where possible, they should be held in obedience until after the annexation question is resolved. "It would be foolish to proceed with long-range, costly plans," before it is settled, he asserted.

Wright said, as did other candidates, that the matter political politics should not enter into township board roles. "I want only to promote and protect the best interests of our total community. 'I feel the job of supervisor,' he continued, "is a full-time position."

Speaking about the township, Wright said it is neither possible nor wise to stop progress. "Some say, well we're here now, let's build a wall around it. You can't do that."

"I'm in favor of controlled density of single homes, multiples, commercial and light industry. I hope we will be able to retain its (township) unique features by controlling the architecture..."

Among problems facing the township--and the entire metropolitan area--are those dealing with water and sewer, open land-parks and recreation, housing--both low cost and senior citizens, environment, revenue sharing, waste disposal, roads, and mass transportation, he pointed out. "These are problems that we share with all communities... and if I am elected supervisor I will do whatever is possible to help protect our community."

ABORTION CONTROVERSY--A debate by representatives of both sides of the abortion question triggered

bearing mother's life is threatened.

"If the woman is, say, one hour pregnant do we have a human life?" he asked. "The church says, 'We do not know, but we are not going to take the chance of taking what might be the life of a human being.'"

"Just as in war we attack life, morally, when we have a proportionate reason, we operate this way in the abortion area," he continued.

Some people, he said, appear to view the abortion reform proposal in two different ways: "Either I know for sure when human life begins--that is the first day after the 20th week, which is patently arbitrary--or two, I'm not really sure when human life begins... but I don't value life that highly to get too concerned..."

On the other hand, Catholics and others view the proposal as a means of obtaining an abortion, with or without good reason, simply because one is desired.

"The Catholic approach," he explained, "says that if you are going to think of attacking fetal life at any time make sure your reason for attacking that life is equal to or superior to taking that life."

Dr. Labes emphasized that the person voting for Proposal "B" not saying she or someone in his family wants an abortion; but rather that person is voting to permit another to have an abortion if she must.

The question is, "Do you want to deny it for another person?" he said.

The doctor referred his audience to the Jehovah Witnesses, who, he said, "would rather die than accept blood transfusion. It's a religious belief with them... a very deep and serious belief. I respect it, but that does not mean those of us who don't feel that way must do the same."

"I think it is important not to confuse your feelings with the feelings of another."

According to Dr. Labes, the abortion controversy boils down to two issues: "One is the philosophical question as to when human life begins, what is the meaning of life, who can take it, etc. And the other is the practical level where I am--on the firing line."

And that firing line, he said, is the doctor's office where women are daily demanding abortions--not without serious consideration--because they simply cannot bring themselves to accept the baby no matter what the doctor says to convince them otherwise.

"I'm the one who tells the woman her pregnancy test is positive, that she is pregnant. And I'm the one who hears her cries that are worse than if I told her she had cancer. I offer her all the alternatives but time after time after time the woman says, 'no way, I just can't have this child, it won't work. Where can I have an abortion?'"

"Women who are desperate will, no matter how strongly their doctor may argue, seek the abortion in another state if necessary or turn for help through criminal abortion in Detroit," he asserted.

If the woman refuses to have a child, "I don't see where society can demand that the woman be a baby maker" he said.

Even though he is a physician, Dr. Labes admitted he does not know when human life begins. Neither, however, does he know whether or not a woman should have her baby. She must decide, not an outsider, he added.

Placing her emphasis on the fact that the fetus is a "living human" who has a beating heart not many weeks after conception, Mrs. Nixon suggested that if man can arbitrarily determine that life, before the 20th week, is unimportant, man can and may also one day determine that life should end at two days, or two years, or that it should end quickly for the retarded, etc.

"Where does it stop?" she asked.

Mrs. Nixon quoted several sources on the subject, one of which was by Hippocrates. Until a short time ago it was repeated by physicians but because it has caused them embarrassment it has disappeared, she said.

Five hundred years before the birth of Christ, Hippocrates said, "I will not give poison to anyone though asked to do so, nor will I suggest a plan. Similarly, I will not give an instrument to a woman to cause abortion," she quoted.

Another source was quoted as saying, "Humanity is not an achievement." Mrs. Nixon responded by asking the question, who will set the standard of achievement?

"We have seen in our own country, just a hundred years ago, that blacks were not considered human beings, or Indians until later," she observed.

Mrs. Nixon compared abortion to war, "it is choosing death over life," and she quoted a passage by Pearl Buck:

"Since the fetus is a creature already alive and in the process of development, to kill it is to choose death over life."

OBITUARIES

NINA S. BROWN

Funeral services were held Saturday for Nina Shrimpton Brown who died Tuesday, October 28, in Annapolis Hospital in Wayne after a short illness. She was 86.

Mrs. Brown, who was a long time resident of Northville, lived at 8714 Currie Road. Born May 9, 1887, in Ontario, Canada, she was the daughter of Henry and Harmony (Davis) Shrimpton. She married Robert C. Brown, who preceded her in death, in 1933.

Mrs. Brown was retired from Parke Davis Company where she was employed as a secretary and was a member of Unity of West Suburbia Church in Livonia.

Services were held at Casterline Funeral Home where the Reverend Gene Sorenson of Unity of West Suburbia Church officiated. Burial was in Parkview Memorial Cemetery, Livonia.

FRANCES S. MALLEY
A former Northville

resident, Frances S. Malley, died Monday, October 23, in Rockwood McDonald Hospital in Petoskey. She was 71.

Mrs. Malley, who lived in Indian River, was a native of Port Huron, having lived in Northville until moving to Indian River seven years ago. She was an American Kennel Club judge for 35 years and a breeder of English pointer dogs.

She is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Frances M. Davis of Indian River, and two grandchildren.

Funeral services were held October 26 at Church of the Transfiguration in Indian River. Burial was to be later this week at Rural Hill Cemetery.

Why are Phillips screws often used instead of plain screws in such things as radios, automobiles, and many appliances? It's because a slot-bladed screwdriver can slip and damage parts that may be valuable to the operation or good looks of these items. Phillips screws are used so that there's no danger of slipping or losing the grip of the screwdriver. Your home tool kit should include both types of screwdrivers: you'll never know when they'll come in handy!

The mess at Maybury indicates the need for strong leadership in township government. When bands of roaming thieves and gangs invade the property, and vandalize the immediate area, citizens have a right to complain about the destruction created by the overflow upon their private property. VANDERMOLEN attended the recent hearing field on the Maybury Park Proposal. He challenged state officials to provide security for the homeowners in the area.

Police Blotter: Thefts, Vandalism Top Week

In Novi

Under investigation is the breaking and entering of the Pfeister residence on Beck Road which took place last week.

The crime was reported at approximately 4 p.m. Wednesday, October 25, by a neighbor who told officers her 10-year old daughter had noticed that the side door had been kicked open.

Taken from the home were a portable television set and $200 in quarters.

Police indicated that they have a couple of suspects in the case and hope to make an arrest.

Gary Lee Puckett, 17, and Daniel Eugene Pelkey, 18, both of Walled Lake, were taken into custody last week and charged with larceny from an automobile.

The two men were apprehended after police had stopped their car for a traffic violation and observed two radios and a stereo tape deck lying in the back seat. Subsequent investigation revealed that the tape deck had been stolen from a car parked at the Pepper Tree restaurant, according to reports.

A juvenile was also arrested for the thefts.

Final dispensation of the case is awaiting the results of lie detector tests, police indicated.

A 29-year old Plymouth man, Lawrence Hughes, was placed under arrest for being drunk in a public place.

The arrest was made as officers were investigating a personal injury accident in which Hughes' car had been involved on Grand River west of Taft Road.

Hughes appeared intoxicated, police reported, and became unruly. He was placed under arrest and subsequently lodged in the Oakland County Jail until arraigned.

David Lester Motley, 27, of Union Lake was issued a traffic citation for having no operator's license. He was later jailed when police discovered several outstanding warrants for his arrest.

Arrested on charges of drunken driving during the past week were Joseph John Berry, 31, of Warren; George Edward Manosky, 29, of 1431 West Lake Drive in Novi; and Richard Simms Liebold, 19, of 24512 Olde Archard Drive in Novi.

In Northville

Numerous reports of vandalism were received by police Monday night and two youths were apprehended after they broke a window in a home.

Police were called to 279 Maplewood at 8:25 p.m. after the homeowner reported a window was shattered by a rock and two screens were damaged.

Two youths from Plymouth, one 17 years old and one 19 years old, were caught by police at Maplewood and Novi streets.

The two admitted to police that they broke the window using a sling shot. They made restitution for damages Tuesday.

Two juveniles in a group of 12 other juveniles are thought to be responsible for pulling a screen door from a home at 304 West Dunlap.

The vandalism took place at 9:10 p.m. Monday.

The front storm window of a home at 21500 Holmbury was broken by youths throwing eggs at 9:15 p.m. Monday.

Police believe a firecracker was responsible for breaking the window of a home at 605 Carpenter Street. The incident took place at 6:30 p.m. Monday.

Vandals spray painted a van parked at 411 Baseline Road. The damage, which was reported Monday morning, took place sometime over the weekend.

A tape deck was stolen last week from a car parked at 542 Carpenter Street. Value of the deck was placed near $90.

Police are investigating an assault and battery which took place Saturday afternoon in the parking lot of Northville Lanes.

An 18-year-old Northville youth told police a fight broke out at 1:15 p.m. when he and a 19-year-old Northville youth were arguing over money owed for car repairs the 19-year-old had done.

The 18-year-old said he was struck on the right side of the face and fell to the ground, hitting the bumper of a vehicle with his head.

No charges have yet been filed in the incident.

Four escapees from Northville State Hospital were recovered by police during the past week.

Two youths in their teens were stopped by police at 9:30 p.m. October 24 while walking north on Center near South Ely Drive.

Two women in their twenties, who walked into the police station at 6:30 p.m. Friday seeking directions, were also found to be missing from the state hospital.

Twenty-year-old Michael J. Gendernalik of New Baltimore escaped uninjured when the car he was driving struck a guard rail and flipped over.

The accident took place at 1:25 a.m. Friday on Center Street just north of Base Line Road.

Gendernalik, who was alone at the time of the accident, told police he was southbound.

School Sets Times For Open Swimming

Community swimming will be available four times each week at the Northville High pool, according to school officials.

The pool will be open Tuesdays, Thursdays 7 to 9 p.m. and Saturdays from 1 to 3 p.m. for family swimming.

Open swimming for adults only is scheduled for Wednesdays from 7:30 to 9 p.m. Pool hours will be in effect November through June.

Persons using the pool are asked to enter the high school through doors on the west side of the school off the main parking area.

Swimmers must bring their own caps and towels. Cost of pool use is 60 cents for students and $1 for adults.

Swimming lessons for junior high students are scheduled from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. Mondays and Wednesdays, November through January.

Seven to nine year olds may sign up for swimming lessons offered on Saturdays from 3 to 4 p.m., November through March. Lessons for five and six year olds will be held from 4 to 5 p.m. during the same months on Saturdays.

Lessons for fifth and sixth graders will be held from 9 a.m. until noon Saturday, November through March. To enroll students in the swimming lesson program, contact Northville Schools, 349-3400.

COURT NEWS

In 35th District Court October 24, Nathan Kristall of Southfield was found guilty of failing to yield at an intersection causing an accident and fined $39.

Kristall, who appeared before Judge Dunbar Davis, was ticketed by city police September 7.

Making an improper left turn causing an accident resulted in a $39 fine for Charles P. Cling of 656 Thayer Boulevard.

Cling, who pled guilty to the charge, was ticketed September 22.

Charles T. Coram of 21734 Taft Road was fined $39 and sentenced to three days in jail (credit given for time already served) for driving with a suspended license.

He was arrested by city police in September on a warrant after he failed to appear in court in August to answer the charge.

FIRE CALLS

October 29—11:30 a.m., 1002 Canterbury, stove fire.

October 30—6:31 a.m., 42800 West Seven Mile, gas tank fire at Cadillac Asphalt.

October 31—10:27 a.m., Gerald Avenue, brush fire.

Following pre-sentence investigations, two cases were closed.

William S. Boyce of Detroit was placed on one year probation and ordered to pay probation costs after he pled guilty to an added charge of failing to have drugs in original containers.

Boyce was arrested March 16 on a charge of possession of dangerous drugs. The charge was dismissed after he pled guilty to the added count.

Fighting resulted in four days of voluntary work detail plus $48 costs for Keith H. Ferris of 46906 Grasmere Drive.

He was arrested September 4 by city police and pled guilty to the charge.

In district court October 17, Edward T. Carley of Ann Arbor was fined $39 after he pled guilty to failing to stop in assured clear distance.

Carley was ticketed October by city police following an accident.

truck had been parked inside the warehouse October 20 and that he had checked the building as late as October 22 and found everything to be secure.

It was Rogers who discovered the truck Thursday in Southfield, according to police. He had stopped at a restaurant for lunch and spotted his truck parked in the same lot.

Police are investigating the forced entry of the Ames residence on 12 Mile Road which occurred at 12:45 p.m. Sunday, October 22.

According to police reports, a man approached the front door of the home and knocked several times. When he received no answer he proceeded to the rear of the home and attempted to open the back door. When that failed the man went to the side door and succeeded in kicking it open.

The man, described as a white male about 5'10" tall and having a medium build, picked up a walking stick upon entering the home and was attempting to hit the Ames' dog in the living room when Mrs. Ames appeared on the scene.

The man fled out the side door. A search of the house showed that nothing had been taken.

John Frederick Docksey, 17, of 48201 Pontiac Trail, was arrested on charges of being drunk and disorderly. He was subsequently lodged in the Oakland County Jail, police reported.

In Township

The daytime burglary of a home at 43095 West Seven Mile Road is under investigation by township police.

According to reports, the home was broken into between 12:15 and 5:15 p.m. last Thursday, October 26. Unknown persons forced open the door on the east side of the home.

Once inside, thieves ransacked the home, taking between $120 and $150 from the kitchen. Nothing else was reported missing, police said.

COURT NEWS

Michael W. Castillo of 41400 West Seven Mile was fined $39 after he pled guilty to failing to have his vehicle under control.

Castillo was ticketed by township police October 9 following an accident.

The action came October 26 before 35th District Court Judge Dunbar Davis.

Here are a few general rules for your home decoration. First of all, keep your rooms sufficiently open so that the passage through them is clear. Make sure there is a way to get to the windows in order to open and close them. Try to balance your largest pieces of furniture. And remember, every piece of furniture should be accessible and available for the function it was meant to fill. An open-out desk for example, should have plenty of room in which to open out, and a comfortable chair of the proper weight close by.

Novi, Wixom Add New Policemen

Both Novi and Wixom Police Departments have added new officers to their forces within the past month.

Latest addition to the Novi force is Thomas Hesse, 26.

He will be assigned to duty with the road patrol. His hiring was made possible by a federal grant from the Bureau of Highway Safety Planning for the establishment of a traffic division. Hesse will replace a veteran officer on the road patrol who was transferred to the traffic division.

After graduating from high school in 1964, Hesse joined the United States Navy where he received a "top secret" clearance and was assigned to duty aboard the presidential yacht. His duties included assisting the secret service in the protection of the presidential family.

Following an honorable discharge in 1967, Hesse enrolled at Schoolcraft College and began working at Hawthorn Center, a school for emotionally disturbed children.

Hesse is married and has one child. He lives in Detroit.

David Schwanky, 32, a nine year veteran of the Detroit Police Department, is the latest addition to the Wixom Police Department.

A Wixom resident, Schwanky graduated from the Detroit Police Academy in 1963 and has attended special courses in Auto Recovery, Fingerprinting, and Video Taping. He was a member of the Detroit force from 1963 through 1972.

He is married and has three children.

Hicks Honored

Northville's Fred Hicks, a senior center on the Western Michigan University football team, received a blocking grade of 85 percent in the Bronco's 34-0 victory over Marshall University a week ago Saturday.

Hicks, in his first year as a center, hit his season high for blocking in his first start at the pivot post in several games. A 70 percent blocking grade is considered necessary for winning football.

THE GASMAN COMETH (from the bayou)

The quest:
more natural gas for Michigan's homes and industries. Consumers Power and its wholly-owned subsidiary, Northern Michigan Exploration Company, are working to get more of it.

Exploration in southern Louisiana has produced encouraging results. In joint ventures with other producers, Northern Michigan Exploration Company has succeeded in finding new gas reserves. Pipelines will be built eventually to deliver this natural gas to Michigan.

This and other new discoveries of natural gas promise increased supplies of the premium fuel for more than 880,000 customers in Michigan.

Our Endorsements

How We See Tuesday's Full Ballot

This newspaper makes endorsements in only those political races where, because of the nature of their roles, staff members have had first-hand opportunity to observe the performance of candidates and to analyze their statements. Where staff members have had no more opportunity to hear and see candidates in action than has the average voter—at the Presidential level, for example—we do not feel qualified to make a meaningful endorsement.

We offer endorsements as our opinions and hope that they may encourage readers to give thoughtful consideration to both candidates and issues before voting.

STATE PROPOSALS

We know that our opinions on the several state proposals that will appear on the November 7 ballot may clash sharply with many readers, who are just as expert as their newspaper on such issues as daylight saving time (Proposal A) and abortion reform (Proposal B), for example.

But it's our job to study issues as well as candidates. And in some instances, such as property tax reform for schools (Proposal C), we have not only studied the issue, but we have seen the inequities that have continued to grow under the present system and we have joined many others in seeking this reform.

Interestingly, our opinions are not unanimous, but generally represent a consensus feeling of the staff.

Some things are automatic.

Like night following day, June following May and points after touchdowns in pro games.

If there's ever been a Democrat elected to the Northville township board, the event escapes our research. At least in recent years the board has remained pure Republican.

And, I suppose, we can expect the "automatic" results again at the polls Tuesday.

Honestly, it's too bad.

I'm sure no one really believes that only Republicans are capable of managing township affairs; or that there are no Democrats with ability in Northville township; or that it makes one whit of a difference what party label a member of the township board wears.

Partisan politics at the local level have always been repulsive to me.

I find it difficult to accept the fact that an enlightened electorate will discard qualifications in favor of party preference, especially when the welfare of the local community is involved.

It becomes even more confusing when you realize how difficult it is these days to ideologically identify Republicans and Democrats.

No matter. Tuesday Northville township will elect a full slate of Republicans.

In doing so, they'll skip over some very conscientious and qualified Democrats.

Personally, I intend to vote for Democrat Eugene Guido for Trustee.

In my opinion, Guido and Republican John MacDonald would bring fresh, new voices to the board.

Both are well qualified. And I believe if the township voter would simply concentrate on electing a board that is composed of objective, thoughtful members he would cross over party lines (whether Republican or Democrat) and pair Guido with MacDonald for the two trustee seats on the board.

Northville township now faces the most critical period in its history, disregarding the possibility of unification with the city.

Important decisions await action.

I believe the hold-over members on the present board (Trustees Klein and Schaeffer, plus unopposed Treasurer Straub) would be most ably assisted in reaching these decisions by Guido and MacDonald.

Yes on A-B-C

For little reason other than getting into step with the rest of the nation, we recommend a YES vote on Proposal A, daylight saving time.

We also like the extended daylight for evening recreation and don't mind getting up before or with the sun.

Because we think the matter of abortion is one that should be decided by the individual and we think Michigan's 1846 law should be reformed to permit this, we support a YES vote on Proposal B.

We strongly urge our readers to vote YES on Proposal C.

We believe that by this constitutional amendment that property owners can be assured of property tax relief.

Proposal C will cut property taxes nearly in half; it will bring educational reform that will increase both the quality and equity of the public education system; it will not take control away from local boards of education; it will not give a "tax break" to business, which will continue to pay the same total proportion of financing of education as it now pays.

It's true, another tax will be substituted for the property tax. An increase in income tax has been proposed, as one source, which would be much more closely related to one's ability to pay.

Property tax relief is particularly critical to home-owners on a small income, such as the elderly and retirees.

With the board so composed I favor Republican Lawrence Wright for supervisor and Republican Sally Cayley for clerk.

The "key" to balance of this board is the election of Democrat Guido.

But the "automatic principle" will almost certainly sweep away this possibility.

Guido may garner enough votes to make a respectable showing against the Republican incumbent trustee. He's well known and actively involved.

Although it is almost unheard of in partisan politics, Democrat Guido also has the support of three Republican members of the township board.

This fact alone should give all voters reason to consider the split-ticket Guido-MacDonald combination.

But the odds are against him. He has competition on the Democratic ticket, as well.

And young Tom Curran offers more than just youth and enthusiasm. He's thoughtful, well educated and deeply interested in his newly-chosen community.

If he isn't elected, I hope he maintains his interest and is remembered on the board's list of possible appointees for township committees.

I favor Wright over Democrat Dr. Larry Vandermolen chiefly because of his maturity and business experience.

After a recent interview with both Wright and Vandermolen, I was especially impressed by Wright's new familiarity with township problems.

Obviously, he has taken a business-like approach to learning what the job of township supervisor is all about. I don't think he'll be anyone's rubber stamp.

Vandermolen deserves recognition for waging a vigorous campaign and speaking out on issues, despite their sensitivity.

For Supervisor—Republican WRIGHT;

For Clerk—Republican CAYLEY;

For Treasurer—Republican STRAUB;

For Trustee—Democrat GUIDO;

For Trustee—Republican MacDonald.

But most important, if we are to meet the challenge of quality education for all children in our state, we must discard a system that produces inequities through the happenstance of location of huge tax-producing properties.

Proposal D, removal of the ban against the graduated income tax, generally splits voters along party lines. Democrats prefer the graduated income tax, which they believe to be fairer because the rate is based on income. The flat rate, which most Republicans favor, provides the same rate regardless of income.

This proposal split our staff sharply along party lines, too. One side declares itself for the "fairer tax", the other contends that enough exemptions exist without the graduated scale and that each individual wage-earner should make some contribution, regardless of how small.

No on E

We oppose Proposal E and recommend a NO vote.

We believe the federal government is responsible for education tuition and bonuses for Vietnam veterans and that it is not necessary for the state to borrow $266,000,000 for this purpose.

COUNTY PROPOSALS

Wayne county Propositions F and G should be supported by all taxpayers. The two proposals call for dividing one mill (6-10ths for F and 4-10ths for G) to build a new county jail and new juvenile detention facilities. The Wayne county jail has been described as "an impossible situation" by judges and others who have observed its condition and problems. If proper juvenile facilities are not provided, we are simply creating another such condition.

Yes on F-G

Vote YES on Proposals F and G for an additional one mill levy for five years to build these needed Wayne county facilities.

For Kelley

Having had periodic opportunity to use the services of his office, to see him perform and hear him speak; and having conducted interviews with both candidates, we are convinced Attorney General Frank J. Kelley is well equipped to step from his state position into a role as United States Senator.

A busy official, he nevertheless is seldom too busy to discuss matters on a personal "I care" basis with his constituents.

On the other hand, we have been given quite another impression of Incumbent Senator Robert Griffin, who by his repeated delays in responding to inquiries, by failing to keep appointments, by his deluge of self-serving frank mail, and by his unimpressive busing-oriented rhetoric tells us that we would do better with less muscle and more action.

We support Frank Kelley for United States Senator.

For Esch

One of the most difficult endorsements in this election is our choice of Incumbent Republican congressman Marvin Esch over his able challenger, Representative Marvin Stempien.

Given another opponent, Democrat Stempien might deserve our support. But he is up against a man, who in the consensus opinion of our staff, has served the Second Congressional District constituents exceptionally well. To turn out a good representative, already in office and experienced in Congressional matters, simply to replace him with another well qualified man is unjustified.

Esch, therefore, has our support for re-election, and Stempien has our friendship and our thanks for serving our district well as a state representative.

For Broomfield

He isn't the unanimous choice but certainly our consensus opinion favors Republican Congressman William Broomfield for election in the 19th District.

Broomfield, who moves into the revised 19th District from a neighboring congressional district, gives us a proven background in congress on which to base our opinion. Furthermore, we know, from past experience, that Broomfield has a genuine interest in his constituency and is responsive to the needs of the communities he represents.

His opponent, on the other hand, impresses us with his rhetoric and past experience at the state level but he shows us nothing of so overwhelming persuasion to warrant the unseating of a respected Congressman.

For Geake

While we are impressed by Mrs. Marie Miller, an intelligent, easily-liked Democratic candidate for the 35th State Representative District, we believe her Republican opponent, R. Robert Geake, is the wiser choice for the Northville voter.

Not only is Geake a resident of Northville whose ties here will obviously benefit our community in Lansing, he also is intelligent, practical and an able speaker who will serve Michigan well.

Although Mrs. Miller and Geake have philosophical differences by virtue of their party affiliations, we find them agreeing more than disagreeing in this campaign. Their motives for seeking office are commendable, their platforms appealing, and their qualifications equally impressive, but Geake by reason of his residency here and his experience in an elective office wins our support.

Editorials...

a page for expressions

For Smart

One of the easiest endorsements we can make in this election is our choice of Incumbent Republican Clifford Smart in the 24th Representative District.

Convinced that he has performed well as a legislator and having had an opportunity to speak with his opponent on legislative issues, we believe voters would make a drastic mistake in removing Smart from office.

The only minority House Leader ever to come out of Oakland County, Smart might be aging but he remains an able legislator who, by far, is the best choice offered voters.

For Raymond

Mary Dumas, Republican candidate for the Wayne County board of Commissioners, is her own chief opposition.

Though an intelligent candidate who is obviously well informed, she comes across to us as a super-critical, antagonistic politician. We fear that she, as a commissioner, would spend more time making enemies than aiding Northville constituents.

Her opponent, on the other hand, Democrat Eldon R. Raymond, is equally qualified but more importantly he has the ingredients to successfully fight for his goals while retaining the friendship and respect of colleagues for that next, perhaps more important bout.

For Coy

Just as we view Mary Dumas as her own worst enemy, we believe Democrat William O'Brien, a Novi councilman, hurts his own candidacy for the Oakland County Board of Commissioners.

Sometimes even your best friends (and we consider him a friend) won't tell. We will: if he spent less time philosophizing, more time listening he could accomplish more as a city official and, if elected, as a county commissioner.

O'Brien is better educated and probably has a better grasp of government than his opponent, Republican Incumbent Lew Coy of Wixom, but Coy, unlike O'Brien, is a practical man who has grown in political stature as a public official because he has learned to get along with opponents.

While Novi might have a bigger voice in county government if a Novi resident were on the board, we don't believe that voice would be any more effective than the one there now from neighboring Wixom.

For Jolly

In this business we have frequent contact with district courts serving our area. For the most part we have been extremely pleased with their performance. However, in the case of Incumbent Judge Martin Boyle of Milford we and many others have been disappointed.

We have seen in some of his decisions an inconsistency, and too often we have seen him showing more concern for the rights of the individual than for the rights of society. Say what he will to the contrary, we have heard a steady stream of complaints about his decisions by the policemen who regularly appear in his court.

Granted, police agencies are prone to complain when they lose any case, but when those complaints reach the proportions that police appeal to their newspapers we have good reason to believe that some of them are justified.

Furthermore, we as a newspaper have long resented the lack of cooperation shown by Judge Boyle's court in making conveniently available to the press those records that, under the law, are public information.

In view of his past performance and in view of the fact that his opponent is a qualified, local area candidate, we are pleased to endorse Terrance Jolly for district court.

Our Readers Express Their Opinions, Too

Judicial Battle

To the Editor:

I appreciate the generous use of time and space your newspaper devoted to my views and candidacy in last week's edition. Though the candidates were interviewed separately, the interviews were directed skillfully to cover the same subjects and develop a dialogue which I hope will be of assistance to your readers as they prepare to vote.

However, I believe it imperative to set the record straight on one point. My opponent is quoted as having been "asked to run by the city council and the police officers of Milford and Novi." There was no opportunity for me to respond to that claim. I have since inquired of Mayor Crupi of Novi and Mayor Caswell of Milford and they both deny this claim and authorize me to publish their denials. I have also inquired of Chief BeGole of the Novi City Police Department and Chief Brophy of the Milford Police Department and, they have, at my request, polled their officers, 22 in number, (5 unavailable). Every officer polled denies asking Mr. Jolly to run for this office as he claims.

This correction should complete the interview in the fair manner I know that you intended.

Sincerely,
Martin L. Boyle
Judge of the District Court

To the Editor:

In response to allegations by Judge Boyle, I submit the following copy of a letter to Rabbi Leon Fram of Detroit, chairman of the Fair Campaign Practices Commission.

This is to acknowledge receipt of your letter dated October 24, 1972. It is unfortunate that you have concluded that my signs "Make It Judge Jolly" are an unfair campaign practice.

Over the past month Terry has received more encouragement and votes only after the voter was told that he was opposing Martin Boyle.

The signs were made up by Mr. Jolly's campaign committee consisting of city councilmen, police officers and concerned citizens. After a careful review of literature from notable U. S. Senate races and other district court races, it was decided to use the "Make It Judge Jolly" sign. This approach is not morally wrong. It is a fair consistent approach for a candidate who was rated by Civic Searchlight to be "Well Qualified" for the District Court.

On the other hand, we demand a retraction accompanied by a written apology for the following reasons.

1. FACT The by-laws of the National Fair Campaign Practices Commission instruct "The local organization should serve as a referee between candidates, as does the National Fair Campaign Practices Committee, collecting evidence from both sides when a fair campaigning controversy arises then publicizing the pros and cons. . . . and let the voter act as judge on election day."

2. FACT Most Reverend Bishop Thomas J. Gumbleton, a member of your commission, responded to our inquiry by stating "I was not aware of the letter that was sent to Mr. Jolly. It is definitely not a committee action."

RESPONSE A Four of the members of your committee that we inquired about had no knowledge of the complaint. After four inquiries with the same response, we felt it unnecessary to contact the other five members.

b. The letter states "This practice is not only morally wrong as being an unfair campaign tactic, it is also against the law." The Governor's office stated that there was no such law.

c. A major Detroit newspaper (Detroit News) verified that in January, 1971 the commission was allowed to lapse. The newspaper further stated, that the commission had no statutory basis.

3. FACT The Code of Fair Campaign Practices includes the following "I shall condemn the use of malicious or unfounded accusations against any candidate which aim at creating or exploiting doubts, without justification."

RESPONSE It is obvious that Judge Boyle is trying to use this tactic to generate unfavorable publicity for Terry Jolly as evidence by his immediate release to newspapers without notifying Mr. Jolly.

4. FACT Judge Boyle rates himself "Best Qualified" in his campaign literature.

RESPONSE Mr. Jolly has been rated as "Well Qualified" by Civic Searchlight which is the same as Judge Boyle's rating. I suggest that you investigate this campaign practice as to fairness, because in my opinion this misleads voters.

In conclusion, throughout the campaign, Mr. Jolly has made it perfectly clear that he is opposing the incumbent Judge, because it is primarily that fact which guarantees his victory.

Please expedite the retraction and written apology.

Terrance K. Jolly

They Oppose 'B'

To the Editor:

Ten years ago, to most people "abortion" was a dirty word. Next week, we will be voting on legalizing abortion up to five months of pregnancy. It makes me wonder what we will be voting on 10 years from now.

Following are some of the things I read or hear as the reasons for Proposal B being on the ballot, and a few thoughts on their validity:

1. "A woman has a right to her own body." I believe a woman has a right to her own body as long as it doesn't destroy another human being in the process. If a woman does not want children, that surely is her business - there is the pill and other contraceptives plus final ways to insure infertility - but once life has begun, let's hold it in the highest regard and never let "inconvenience" be an excuse, for how many of you reading this know for sure that you were not inconvenient to your Mother, etc.

2. One of the most sincere reasons I have heard is "I don't want there to be any unwanted children." I have known many women who, when they first found out they were pregnant didn't want the child because of lack of money, unwed, too old, or just plain tired, etc. - all reasons easily understood - but when the child was born it was wanted. I have known other planned pregnancies where, through circumstances beyond their control - divorce, Mother or Father died, etc. - the children may have felt unwanted. I hope being wanted is never a criteria for my existence because who of us has a guarantee that all of our lives we are going to be wanted. +

3. I hear over and over - "It is not a human being." What is it? I had twins at less than 6 months who lived a day and a half - they sure looked like babies! If it is not a human being, then let's add a stipulation that the person who has the abortion gets to take the aborted "blob" home with them for disposal - that - shouldn't bother anyone if it is not a baby!

4. I hear "what about German measles", "rape", the woman near nervous exhaustion with the six children she already has, the unwed mother, etc. The Detroit News estimates there will be 500 abortions for every 1000 live births. Can 1 out of 3 women really fit in the above categories? Why can't we open our hearts and minds and give more love to the unwed Mother? If it is impossible for her to keep the baby, then she should be counseled and encouraged to give it out for adoption where she can at least know she gave it life and not death!

+ (Statistics prove that most battered children have been planned pregnancies - How will Proposal B stop this?)

5. "I wouldn't do it myself but I don't have the right to impose my morals on others." We are not talking about eating fish on Friday! We are talking about life! Without laws to protect life, we shall surely become an uncivilized society.

That we are not a perfect society and that changes need to be made, I will heartily agree but surely allowing abortions ON DEMAND UP TO 5 MONTHS is not the answer.

I think Albert Schweitzer said it best when he said "If a man loses his reverence for any part of life - he will lose his reverence for all of life"

Phyllis J. Lemon

To the Editor:

It is inconceivable and shocking that an intelligent, respectable person could support PROPOSAL B on the November 7 election ballot, which would allow abortion at the 5 months gestation period, upon request for any reason. Five months!!

A number of responsible people feel that there is a need for some form of abortion law reform, but many of us believe that PROPOSAL B is not the answer. It frightens me when I think of the tremendous, far-reaching problems that would result if PROPOSAL B were to become law, far more serious than those presently confronting us relative to the abortion question.

It is a known fact that a 5 months baby can live, when properly cared for, outside the mother's body. Records show that many healthy, suffering, crying aborted 5 months babies and younger are killed or left to die, following abortion. Do we want this? Is this how we should solve those related social problems?

Let's not let the State of Michigan be guilty of such atrocities. Let's defeat PROPOSAL B until something more humane, more realistic can be proposed. We urge all concerned citizens to vote NO on PROPOSAL B.

Mrs. Martha Davis

Urges No Vote

To the Editor:

The Presidential election ballot should offer the additional option of a positive vote AGAINST all of the running candidates.

Under current circumstances, should a voter not feel any of the running candidates to be competent or advisable for the Presidency, he is left with either voting 'against' a candidate, voting for the lesser of evils candidate or not voting at all.

Each of these three options, when sufficient number of voters find it necessary to use any one of them, makes a mockery of the democratic ballot.

This country and its peoples deserve better; even if it should be found that there are sufficient NO votes in a Presidential election to require new elections with different candidates.

It is better to cast a 'positive NO' vote than to throw away a good vote.

Sincerely,
R. F. Bodnar

Fire Protection

To the Editor:

Next Tuesday the voters of Northville Township will have the opportunity to, among other things, choose several new township officials. As one of the candidates for the office of township trustee, I have attempted to state my position on those matters that are of greatest concern to township residents. It is my opinion that the residents of Northville Township have the right to know where each of the candidates stands, and that the candidates have the responsibility to inform residents of their views. This is the only way that the voters can make an informed decision.

I have stated my concern over the lack of fire protection in the southeast portion of the township. I have publicly stated my opposition to a township hall, which would cost each of us at least two mills in additional taxes. I have also stated my belief that a township trustee should be the vehicle through which residents can convert their needs into action.

Unfortunately, not all of my opponents have seen fit to state their views publicly and one of them who is a member of the current township board, has not even bothered to attend either one of the two candidate nights which have been held. This is indeed unfortunate, since such actions make it difficult for intelligent voters to make a logical decision. The residents of Northville Township deserve, and I am sure will demand, better.

Supports 'C', 'D'

To the Editor:

If Michigan voters approve the fiscal reform propositions appearing on the November 7th ballot, at long last it will be possible to finance Michigan public schools on a more equitable and adequate basis.

That tax reform is essential is easily demonstrated by the plight of both the schools and the taxpayers everywhere in the state. Mounting costs for local school districts have collided head on with taxpayer resistance to property tax increases. Taxpayer reluctance to vote more money for schools can be attributed at least in part to the inability of many voters to pay ever increasing taxes from current income. Particularly hard hit are the senior citizens, those who are unemployed or laid off, and others with limited income.

The League of Women Voters believes it is crucial to the schools in the state to base school financing on the ability to pay Proposition C on the ballot would permit reduction in property taxes and a statewide system of school financing. Proposition D would remove the constitutional ban on a graduated income tax. Their passage is essential to the well-being of both the taxpayers and the public schools.

The League of Women Voters of Northville-Plymouth urges a "yes" vote on Propositions C and D on November 7th.

Mrs. Donald (Jane) Stacy
President,
League of Women Voters of Northville-Plymouth

Corrects 'Error'

To the Editor:

Mr. Price is in error when he says there are no residency requirements for voting in the State of Michigan.

Opposes Center

To the Editor:

Concerning the new shopping center proposed for Northville I believe our city fathers (and mothers) should take another hard look at this venture before pouring thousands of dollars into a project that, at this point, looks as though it has little chance of success.

We all know what has happened to main streets of cities and towns across the nation and I see no reason why Northville will be an exception.

We have already removed too many lower cost houses which are needed in our community. You will find only centers that have food stores along with their other shops are really prospering. Just drive to a super-market and see all the traffic. Some of which never go to other shops.

Is there so much wealth in Northville that the citizens are unconcerned about their future taxes to pay for this shopping venture? Why is Northville financing any of this? Most such shopping centers are financed by companies which later lease these shops to the occupants.

Think about this. They say at no cost to the taxpayer. How so? If it fails, who pays?

This sooner or later does involve you, in some way.

Laud Golfers

To the Editor:

There are many of us in Northville who are very proud of our 1972 golf team and we would like to extend our congratulations to these young men. They have performed superbly this season. To recall their record - they have won the Dearborn Invtational, Marshall Invitational, and Oakland Press Invitational, defeating the best class A and B teams in the State of Michigan. They were also Western Six Conference champions, Regional champions, and won every dual meet scheduled this season. The weather had to be a most unfortunate factor in the state competition the Saturday before last. This was apparent when not one of the top championship teams from five regions finished high on the list in the State B championships.

It could well be a long time until we have a golf team equal the performance of our 1972 team. We congratulate Mr. Al Jones and his golfers. They are, indeed, champions.

Ben Lauber

To the Editor:

I would like to offer my congratulations to John Hlohenic, John Marshall, Brian Mills, and Bob Simmons, the four members of the high school golf team who did such a fine job this season. As football traditionally captures the attention during the fall, these boys should not be forgotten as they have given Northville High School a team to be proud of.

As disappointing as it must have been to lose in the State Tournament after being undefeated, the boys should be proud of the fine performance they consistently gave throughout the season, and should be given all the recognition that they have earned.

Congratulations for a job well done!

At Schoolcraft

13 Local Swimmers Win

Thirteen Northville youngsters stroked their way to top places over the weekend as the Bulldog Aquatic Club of Schoolcraft Community hosted its ninth annual Age-Group Swim Meet.

Twenty-six Detroit-area clubs participated in the meet.

Best Northville performance was turned in by Russ Gans in the 10 and under division. The young swimmer won both the 50 yard butterfly and 50 yard freestyle, placed second in the 100 yard freestyle, third in the 100 yard breaststroke and swam legs on the victorious freestyle and medley relay teams.

The only other Northville participant to swim to first place honors was Susan Cahill, who also competed in the 10 and under division. Susan won the 50 yard butterfly, placed fourth in the 100 yard individual medley, fifth in the 50 yard freestyle, and sixth in the 100 yard freestyle. In addition she swam legs on the winning freestyle and medley relay teams.

Jim Cahill, swimming in the 11-12 year old bracket, picked up a second place finish in the 200 yard individual medley, seventh place in the 200 yard freestyle, and eleventh place in the 50 yard backstroke.

Also in the 11-12 year old bracket, Tom Cahill took sixth in the 100 yard breaststroke; Tom Simrak finished eleventh in the 100 yard breaststroke and fourth on a medley relay team, and Jim, Tom, and Tim Cahill swam on the third place medley relay team.

In the 13-14 year old division Cathy Coates took fifth in both the 200 yard individual medley and 100 yard backstroke and swam a leg on the First place medley relay quartet.

In the eight and under category, Jenny Gans and Bob Simrak each placed sixth on medley relay teams and David Malinowski and Gary Simrak placed seventh on medley relay teams.

All of the above swimmers represented the Bulldog team in the meet.

Representing the Clarenceville Swim Club were Dean Guard who took sixth in the 50 yard butterfly (10 and under) and Carl Haynie who took fifth in the 50 yard backstroke and ninth in the 50 yard freestyle (11-12 year old age bracket).

Little League Posts Two Wins in Finale

Northville's little league football teams brought their 1972 season to a close in fine fashion last week by winning two games and tying a third against the Ypsilanti Braves.

The 1972 season, has been a good one for the local gridders as all three squads have posted winning records.

No Colt team has done better than the varsity, however, who by topping the Braves 28-16 Sunday, completed a perfect 8-0 season.

A line plunge in the first quarter and a 50 yard run with a fumble in the second quarter gave the varsity a 14-0 half time lead.

They upped that lead to 20-0 early in the third period with an eight yard run into the end zone before the Ypsilanti gridders family got on the scoreboard with a return of a fumble. The two squads each netted one final period TD to bring the final score to 28-16.

After a slow start the junior varsity Colts finally got rolling and finished the season with a 5-2-1 record. The fifth Colt victory was recorded over the Braves Sunday and came by a score of 18-6.

A 54-yard run in the first quarter and a two-point safety in the final minute of the second quarter enabled the Colts to take a 10-0 lead at the half-way point. The Colts scored again on a 65 yard run in the third quarter and then yielded a touchdown to the Braves to make the final score 18-6.

The Colt freshmen had to settle for a tie with the Ypsilanti squad. The Northville youngsters scored on the first play of the game, but were unable to push across the extra point and had to settle for a 6-6 tie when the Braves tallied in the second quarter.

The freshmen finished the season with a 4-3-1 record.

Novi's Offense Routs Dundee 63-6

You can talk about defense all you want and be perfectly justified

You can talk about the play of the Front Five, the slants of nose guard Mike Riley and tackle Kevin LaFleche, the spirited linebacking of Jimmy VanWagner and Dave Brown, the aerial thievery of Dan Kardell and Tommy Ford in the secondary; the three shutouts; and the five points per game average yield.

You can talk about defense

all you want

But when all is said and done, when you talk about the 1972 Novi football team, you're talking about one thing and that one thing is Offense.

And make sure you spell it with a capital "O," too.

Featuring what could well be the most explosive, high-scoring attack in the state, the Wildcats completely mauled a helpless Dundee team 63-6 Friday for their seventh straight victory of the year.

What was significant about the game was that Novi was flat. Almost emotionless.

The season for all practical purposes ended two weeks ago when the Wildcats routed Saline 42-13. As for the Dundee game and tomorrow's clash with Ypsilanti Lincoln? Well, it's just hard to get up for teams that have a combined record of 3-9 after you've destroyed the ninth rated class B team in the state Nevertheless, the Wildcats disposed of Dundee with much the same ease a Nebraska disposes of Army.

If it wasn't Steve Lukkari throwing a 50 yard touchdown pass to John Pantalone, it was either Jimmy VanWagner bursting 55 yards up the east sideline for a touchdown or Pat Boyer slashing 68 yards down the west sideline for another.

The Wildcats even managed to score on a blocked punt, as Mike Riley managed to get in front of a third quarter kick and Eric Hansor picked up the bouncing ball and conveyed it into the end zone for Novi's ninth touchdown of the evening.

About the only way Novi didn't score was on the return of a pass interception and the reason that method of scoring eluded them was that VanWagner's 99 yard return of an intercepted pass was called back because of an offsides penalty

Novi opened the scoring on its second play from scrimmage as Lukkari dashed 45 yards up the middle of the field on a delayed quarterback keeper play. John Pantalone, who holds for Lukkari's conversion kicks, then scooped up the hike from center and skirted his own left end for the two point conversion. The score was 8-0.

The Wildcats' next touchdown came just as suddenly. On the second play of their second set of downs, Lukkari faked a hand off to fullback Eric Hansor, then dropped back and hit end Dan Kardell with a 38 yard scoring strike.

Four plays Two touchdowns. 15-0.

The third Novi first period score came on their longest drive of the afternoon-five plays. Pat Boyer intercepted a pass and returned it to the 35 yard line. Five plays later - all of them on the ground - VanWagner burst over from the three and Lukkari's kick made the score 22-0.

Both teams scored once in the second quarter as Novi's offensive efforts were sabotaged with three fumbles, and one of those fumbles led to the lone Dexter touchdown. Keith Schmidt covered a loose ball on the eight yard line and four plays later quarterback Dave Rigel threw a four yard touchdown pass to Mike Stough from a fake field goal formation.

Novi avenged the score four minutes later as Lukkari threw his second touchdown pass in as many tries, finding John Pantalone open behind the Dundee safety on a play that covered 50 yards.

Leading 29-6 at the half, the Wildcats put the game out of reach with an explosive 34 point third quarter surge.

In a span of a little more than nine minutes, Novi scored five touchdowns.

Pat Boyer got the first of the third quarter scores by taking a pitchout from Lukkari on the first play of the second half and dashing 68 yards up the sidelines.

John Pantalone scored the next Novi six-pointer on a 16-yard end around play. Defensive tackle Ron Buck covered a Dundee fumble on the 39. VanWagner carried the ball to the nine on the first play and three plays later Pantalone notched his touchdown.

The third Wildcat third quarter touchdown was indicative of their offensive might. Taking over the ball on their own 44 yard line, Hansor ran for 14 yards on the first play, VanWagner carried three tacklers for 19 yards on the second play, Boyer swept 19 yards on the third play, and then Hansor put it into the end zone on two dives from the four yard line.

The touchdown made the score 50-6 at the 5:30 mark of the third quarter and the Wildcats scored twice more before the period ended.

VanWagner got the first of those two touchdowns with a 55 yard run after Don Jackson had recovered a fumble and Hansor got the second TD by picking up the ball and carrying it into the end zone after Mike Riley had blocked a Dundee punt.

Hansor's touchdown ended the blitz with the score 63-6. Coach John Osborne inserted his reserves on both offense and defense and the two squads battled through a scoreless fourth quarter.

VanWagner led all Novi rushers with 134 yards and two touchdowns on nine carries. Boyer, Novi's other candidate for all-conference halfback honors, carried just four times, but gained 104 yards as the Wildcats rolled up 368 yards on the ground.

As for the passing attack, Lukkari went to the air three times, completed all three passes good for 38, 50, and seven yards respectively and two touchdowns.

HEADED FOR DAYLIGHT—Novi halfback Eric Hansor (24) slips through the Dundee line and heads upfield for a 14 yard gain in the Wildcats' 63-6 Homecoming victory

Friday. Novi picked up more than 300 yards on the ground as all-conference halfback candidates Jim VanWagner and Pat Boyer each gained more than 100 yards.

REPLAY

with John Osborne

Novi's 63-6 thrashing of Dundee was something less than exciting and Wildcat Coach John Osborne was the first to agree.

"They must be having some trouble with their program," ventured the Novi mentor. "They only had 18 men dress for the game and it didn't seem like they were very excited about playing us. We expected that they might be up for the game, but they weren't."

"They didn't really seem to care that much. It was the kind of game that's best forgotten."

The bland reaction to the victory was in contrast to the fact that it was an important win for the Wildcats. By virtue of the victory, Novi has clinched at least a share of their first SEC title and if they win against Ypsilanti next week, they'll have undisputed possession of the crown.

"Lincoln hasn't been having a good year," Osborne reported. "They've only won one game this year, but we're going to be careful anyway. They've always been a tough team for us and I expect they'll be able to give us quite a game. They've got a good back in Don Reed and they've got some kids back who who got some votes for all-league last year. We've got to play them over there and I expect they'll be ready for us."

With the end of the 1972 season just two games away the time for selecting the all-league team is near, and by winning the league title the Wildcats can be expected to have more than an average share of all-league selections.

"Each coach gets to nominate six players from his offense and six players from his defense," reported Osborne. "After the nominations are made each coach tells a little bit about his players and then the coaches vote for all-league. You can't vote for your own players." Novi's all-league nominees could be hampered by the fact that they tend to be huddled around the same position.

For example, Osborne feels that quarterback Steve Lukkari and halfbacks Jim VanWagner and Pat Boyer are all worthy of the first team all-league squad. "The other coaches might not want to have three of the four members of the all-league backfield come from one team," Osborne pointed out. "The same is true of linebacker on defense where we have VanWagner and Dave Brown. Both should be on the all-league team, but I don't think the other coaches will want us to have two of the three linebacking positions."

Osborne indicated that his six nominees for the offensive team will probably be receiver John Pantalone; 6'1", 185 pound tackle Steve Fear; and 5'11", 155 pound guard Dave Ward; in addition to the backfield trio of Lukkari, VanWagner, and Boyer.

On defense he feels he has eight men worthy of all-league consideration. They are nose guard Mike Riley, tackle Kevin LaFleche, Ward and Boyer at the ends, VanWagner and Brown at the linebackers, and Dan Kardell and Tommy Ford in the backfield.

"I don't know who we'll leave out," admitted Osborne. "I can only nominate six, so it'll be a tough decision."

On the recruiting scene, Novi received its first official visitor last weekend as a scout from Eastern Michigan University showed up Friday to watch game films and then escorted a group of Wildcats to the Hurons' game Saturday.

Who did he take to the game Saturday?

"VanWagner, Boyer, and Lukkari," Osborne admitted. "Could you see your backfield starting for Eastern Michigan in a couple of years?"

"That would be nice," replied Osborne.

One thing's for sure, they could show the Hurons a thing or two about how to run the Wishbone.

Wildcat

Selected for Wildcat of the Week honors was Eric Hansor. The 5'9", 155 pound junior was elevated to the first team to fill vacancies created by the absence of fullback Gary Collins and linebacker Dave Brown and performed admirably, scoring two touchdowns and turning in a strong defensive effort. Head Coach John Osborne lauded Hansor's "mental sharpness" in selecting him as Wildcat.

Schoolcraft Offers Clinic for Swimmers

Dr. James Councilman, famed swim coach from Indiana University, will be on hand Saturday, November 4, to preside over the second annual Schoolcraft College Swimming Clinic.

The clinic is open to all competitive swimmers and the general public, as well as those professionally involved with swimming and swim education.

Councilman's most famous product is Mark Spitz, who swam to seven gold medals in the 1972 Olympics. He is a former coach of the United States Olympic Swimming team and has coached Indiana University to five consecutive NCAA championships.

There is a $5 per person registration fee which includes breakfast and a luncheon.

Registration may be made from 8-9 a.m. in the lobby of the Physical Education Building at Schoolcraft College. The program gets underway at 9:30 a.m. with sessions in stroke techniques, planning in season, dry land exercises, and mental attitude.

Some of Councilman's world-class swimmers from Indiana will give demonstrations.

The program will resume after a lunch break from 12 noon to 1:30 p.m. with water demonstrations in the Natatorium till 3:30 p.m.

SE Conference

Standings

Novi	6-0
Saline	5-1
Cleassee	4-2
Milan	4-2
South Lyon	2-4
Dundee	2-4
Ypsilanti	1-5
Dexter	0-6

Novi's victory over Dundee enabled them to clinch at least a share of the SEC title, but to win it outright, the Wildcats will have to win their league finale against Lincoln tomorrow as Saline retained a mathematical chance for a tie by blasting Dexter 52-14.

Scoring 24 points in the first quarter and leading 44-0 at the half, the Hornets coasted to the triumph. Scott Skinner scored three touchdowns and Pat Gill tallied twice for the winners. Mark Robo scored both Dexter touchdowns. Chelsea, dethroned SEC champions, turned a 14-6 half time lead into a 28-6 victory over South Lyon. Halfback Bruce Guster led the way with 100 yards in rushing and a 35 yard touchdown run.

Milan kept pace with Chelsea by scoring past Lincoln 12-6. The Big Red will square off against the Bulldogs tomorrow in the season's finale with third place at stake. Both teams have 4-2 records.

By Bob Moore

Ever wonder where baseball rules really come from? The first basic rules were formulated by Alexander Cartwright in 1845. The major difference between these old rules and the ones we use today is this: the game ended when one team made twenty-one runs. The balls were then pitched underhand and any ball caught on the first bounce made an out. Since 1845 baseball rules have gradually accumulated arising from specific needs as the game grew more popular. However, probably even Alexander Cartwright would recognize the game as his old favorite.

Pass Interceptions

Save Mustang Win

The Mustangs finally got it together. The defense was its usual stingy self, yielding the paltry total of just 111 yards.

And for the first time since the Clarenceville game the offense finally got untracked and ground out 289 yards as sophomore halfback Doug Crisan galloped for 148 yards by himself and quarterback Bill McDonald hit on six of nine passes-four of them to Bart Taylor-for an additional 86 yards

The result? The Mustangs had to hang on for dear life as the Brighton Bulldogs launched an all out offensive on their goal line in the fourth quarter before finally relinquishing a 14-0 victory.

The annual Northville-Brighton game has been something less than a grid classic of late as both schools are struggling to rebuild their football programs (Brighton hasn't had a winning season since the 1950's).

Last year's encounter was an exercise in futility as both teams entered the game looking for their first victory and left it in the same condition, playing to a 6-6 tie.

The Mustangs have improved considerably since that time, however, while Brighton continues to have its difficulties and Friday's game promised to be an easy victory for the Northville eleven.

It wasn't. Plagues by costly fumbles and just as costly penalties, the Mustangs won by the skin of their teeth.

And in the final analysis it was the defense which deserved the bulk of the credit for the triumph.

Four pass interceptions-one of them in the end zone and the other on the one yard line-kept the bulldogs off the scoreboard and on three other occasions, Northville's defense stalwarts held firm when forced with fourth down and inches situations to bring Brighton drives to a halt deep in Mustang territory.

The defensive crew also deserved at least partial credit for the first Northville touchdown. Bart Taylor intercepted a Brighton pass and returned it to the 19 yard line from where the offense punched it over the goal line three plays later for the score.

Crisan, the 6'3", 195 pound sophomore who enjoyed his finest day as a running back, ripped 12 yards to the seven on the first play and then carried four more yards to the three where Larry Pink, another sophomore running back, bulled the rest of the way into the end zone on the next play for the score.

McDonald then fired a pass to Taylor for the two point conversion and the Mustangs had an 8-0 lead at the 3:16 mark of the first quarter.

Led by their defensive unit the Mustangs dominated the first half.

Not once did the Bulldogs cross midfield, while Northville was constantly threatening to score. On one occasion the Mustangs forged their way to the Brighton eight yard line before fumbling the ball away on a first down play, and another drive was halted when Northville was unable to pick up a first down on the 20 after two straight cracks at the Brighton line with one yard to go.

But if the first half belonged to Northville, the second half, particularly the fourth quarter, belonged to Brighton.

The Bulldogs returned the opening kick-off 47 yards to the Northville 28, but failed to pick up a first down by inches and the Mustangs took over at the 18. Fourteen plays and 82 yards later the Mustangs had their second touchdown.

McDonald culminated the drive by sneaking over from the one yard line. Key plays in the drive were a couple of pass receptions by Taylor good for 15 and 29 yards and a 23 yard run by Crisan. With the ball on the Brighton 10 yard line, Crisan carried to the one on three straight carries to set up McDonald's scoring plunge.

The extra point attempt failed, however, and Northville had 14-0 lead.

The long drive, which consumed most of the third quarter, was the last time the Mustangs were able to move the ball into Brighton territory.

Twice Northville gave the ball to Brighton on fumbles-one on the 34 and the other on the 35 yard lines. But Tom Marzonie ended one threat by picking off a pass on the one yard line and the defensive line ended another by giving up one yard and a fourth and two situation at the 26 yard line.

The Bulldogs threatened once more. Starting from the midfield stripe they moved to the 40 yard line and then two pass interference penalties gave them a first down on the 12 yard line late in the fourth quarter.

But once again the defense ended the threat as safety John Sherman pulled in Northville's fourth interception of the evening in the end zone.

The victory advanced the Mustangs record to 2-5 and leaves just one game in the 1972 season. Next week Northville will host Milford in the season's finale. Game time is 8 p.m.

SMOTHERED FOR A LOSS — Northville's John Sherman (29) tackles a Brighton runner for a loss while defensive tackle Dave "Pie" McLean (80) moves in to offer assistance.

The sturdy Mustang defense yielded just 111 yards and intercepted four passes in pacing the team to 14-0 victory.

REPLAY

with Chuck Shonta

It's not that Chuck Shonta dislikes winning. Perish the thought.

After all, when you've only won two ball games in the past two years every victory is warmly received.

But, in all honesty, Northville's 14-0 victory over Brighton Friday was a lot closer than it should have been and the Mustangs had their own propensity for fumble-itis to blame.

"We should have had them 28-0 at the half," said the Northville coach. "But every time we got a good drive going deep in their territory we either fumbled or got a penalty."

"In the end it was our defense which pulled us through."

Indeed

The Northville offense gave up the ball three times on fumbles, but the defense with four interceptions more than evened the score. What's more, two of those interceptions were hauled in on the one yard line and in the end zone to thwart serious Brighton scoring attempts.

"Brighton runs a slot-I formation," explained Shonta, "and they like to pass out of it a lot. Defensively we played a 4-4 with three defensive backs. We had four men in the short zones and three men in the deep zones and we also stunted our linebackers off of it. It worked well."

"They only completed five of 17 passes and we intercepted the ball four times so we were catching their passes almost as often as they were."

"I've been very happy with our defensive play lately," Shonta continued. "If you discount the occasions when our offense has given up the ball on intercepted passes, fumbles, or blocked punts within our 10 yard line, our defense has only given up two touchdowns in the last four games. What's really nice is that there are only three seniors on the whole defensive team."

In spite of the fact that it was the Mustangs' defense which proved to be the determining factor in the Brighton game, several members of the offensive unit turned in particularly fine efforts.

Junior quarterback Bill McDonald scored one touchdown on a dive from the one yard line and connected six of nine passes for 86 yards-one of his best offensive performances of the season.

Sharing much of the credit for the Mustangs' success in the air was senior flanker Bart Taylor, who snared four passes and hauled in another after the first Northville touchdown for a two-point conversion.

But then Friday seemed to be the lanky flanker's night for catching passes as he also caught a couple thrown by the Brighton quarterback. His first interception set up Northville's opening touchdown, as he returned it to the 19 yard line.

Shonta saved most of his offensive kudos for sophomore running back Doug Crisan. The talented sophomore runner carried the ball 23 times and gained 148 yards-his best performance of the season.

"There's no question that we aimed our attack around Crisan," said Shonta. "He's big and he's fast. We ran a lot of dive plays and then threw some pitches so he could go wide."

Mustanger

Taking Mustang of the Week honors was junior Tom Coram. A member of Northville's cross-country team which qualified for the state finals by finishing second in the regionals Saturday, Coram finished seventh in a field of 120 and has been a strong performer throughout the year. Coach Ralph Redmond cited Coram's hard work and the fact that this is his first year of cross-country competition in naming him Mustanger.

Upset and Two Ties

Foil Prognosticators

Two tie games and a surprise victory by Missouri over seventh-ranked Colorado upset most prognosticators in last week's football contest.

And for the first time in history one of those tie games occurred in the contests tie-breaker game. What's more, two contestants tied for third place.

In the case of the ties—Dartmouth vs Howard and Michigan State vs. Iowa—all contests were marked wrong by contest judges. And very nearly everyone erred by picking Colorado over Missouri and Los Angeles over Oakland.

All four winners in the contest made four errors, and the order of their winning positions had to be based on the score they predicted for the MSU-Iowa game. Incidentally, all four had State winning.

Taking first place, 16 points off the actual 6-6 score, was H. W. White of Plymouth. In second place, 19 points off, was Jerry Cole of 9262 West Six Mile Road. Tied for third, both of whom were 22 points off the score, were E. W. Brown of Plymouth and Otto Leu of 18129 Pinebrook.

Squirts Notch

Opening Win

The Dave Pink Squirts got their 1972 hockey season off to a flying start by defeating a Livonia house team 6-1 last week.

Don Rose, Tom Allen, Richard Pattison, Tod Mack, Doug Horst, and Jack Macintosh each netted a goal, while Horst and Macintosh each picked up a pair of assists.

Final Western 6 Standings

Livonia Churchill	4	0
Waterford Mott	3	1
Farmington Harrison	2	2
Walled Lake Western	1	3
Northville	0	4

Churchill wrapped up its seventh straight win, sixth straight shutout, and first Western Six championship by blanking Walled Lake Western 21-0.

Phil Damaska scored on a five-yard run and a 10 yard pass from quarterback Bob Biales and Phil Skender scored the other Churchill TD on a four yard sweep. The league champions have outscored their opponents 122-6 this year in winning each of their seven contests.

Mott clinched second place in the final standings by setting back Harrison 16-0. Both teams entered their final Western Six game of the year with identical 1-2 records. Bruce Lovett, Mott's big fullback, accounted for both touchdowns with runs of 29 and 10 yards.

Practice Makes Friday Night Show Go On

Robert Williams Watches as the Northville Band Performs

The football game is half over and the teams are in their respective locker rooms for the proverbial half time pep talk from the coaches.

Out on the field, the drums are beating the cadence for the band's arrival. It's time for the half time show.

Precision marching, formations and music to fit a theme are all part of the band shows put on to entertain football fans.

What goes on before the band is ready to go onto the field and present 10 or 15 minutes of marching and music to the spectators?

Gordon Seiler and Robert Williams, the directors of the Novi and Northville high school bands respectively, have definite ideas about planning and carrying through the shows that their bands perform.

"The first thing I do," said Seiler, "is look for ideas that are appealing to the audience and challenging to the students. Then I look through my music and see what I have that will fit into a certain theme."

He added that most of his ideas for half time shows are formulated during the summer and some come from watching other games both in person or on television.

Williams said that he, too, begins work on football game presentations in summer and adds to them ideas from the students. One thing he said he does is wait to see what kind of band he has and after the first few practices in September he adapts the half time routine to the band.

After a half time show is presented to the Northville band, Williams said, each member spends about eight hours a week in preparation for the actual show.

Seiler said, depending on how far away the show is, his band members spend a total of between 10 and 20 hours preparing a routine.

Each director has his own special way of introducing the band members to each routine and in having them practice and learn it. Seiler, now in his second year at Novi, places the routine on a chart. Every member of his 40-piece band, he explained, is given a rank and file number which is used on the chart to tell him where he is to move at a given time in the routine.

Then, during practice on the football field, the members walk through it. If there are mistakes, they are explained and corrected at that time.

"The larger purpose in a show," Williams said, "is to prove that people can do things together and still remain an individual." He described his method of explaining a show to a band as "a thinking way."

Williams gives the 120 members of the Northville band the show verbally. Then, leaders take their groups of four and go through their parts before the band works on the show as a complete unit.

"To reinforce, everybody in the band sees the show before it is done at a game and sees the total picture. This shows them that it has to be done together," he said. According to Williams, this method enables the group to better adapt to last-minute changes.

Seiler explained that for one game this football season he planned a satire on the presidential elections. "They (the school administration) don't limit us, but we must be careful that we don't imply that we are speaking for the school district."

Williams said that one of the censoring factors in the Northville band's routines is the members themselves. He noted that for one show, some of the students wanted to form the peace symbol and others in the band objected to it. A vote by the members settled the question and the symbol was taken out of the show.

As far as the administration is concerned, Williams said, "If all the kids had an idea they wanted to express, they could put on the show and I don't think the administration would mind. They have been very generous."

Seiler does all of the planning for the shows himself, while Williams believes in using the ideas of his students.

Williams said that in the 19 years he has been at Northville, he has received some of his best ideas from his students. Some of the students with a good sense of showmanship and action, he said, come up with the best ideas. He added that the senior band members are given one complete half time show to plan during the football season.

While Seiler plans the Novi band half time shows so that the members play their instruments and march at the same time, Williams maintains it is wrong for musicians to try to do that.

"I don't believe that they should play while marching. They might ruin the embouchure which takes them years to develop," he said in reference to the adjustment of a musician's mouth on the mouthpiece of his instrument.

In his half time routine, Seiler explained, he utilizes many different kinds of formations.

Williams said he uses only precision drill for the Northville band. He explained that in low bleachers, such as at the Northville football field, precision drill "is what the people are able to see" as opposed to "a big pantomime show with lots of faces and things."

One point on which both directors do agree, is eligibility of band candidates.

In both the Northville and Novi high school music departments, every student who wishes to try out for the band is given a chance to play and march.

Tenor Makes His Debut

A Northville man will make his debut as an operatic tenor Sunday, November 5.

Herbert Genedis of 800 West Main will be singing at Dearborn Woods United Presbyterian Church located at 3250 Pelham Road near Rolunda Drive in Dearborn.

Genedis who is employed as the security chief at Northville Downs, will sing operatic selections from Puccini's "Tosca", Verdi's "Rigoletto" and Leoncavallo's "Vesti la Gubba." Semi-classical pieces will include "O Solo Mio," "The Lord's Prayer" and "I'll Walk with God."

Following the recital, there will be a reception at the church.

Michigan House Representatives seat in the 35th District, while former City Attorney Marvin Stempien, a Democrat, is running for United States House of Representatives in the 2nd Congressional District.

All voters in both the city and township will vote for national offices of President, Vice-President, United States Senator, state board of education, University of Michigan, Michigan State and Wayne State governing boards and Michigan Supreme Court Judges.

Also on the ballot will be five state proposals: Proposal A, daylight saving time; Proposal B, abortion reform; Proposal C, tax reform; Proposal D, graduated income tax; and Proposal E, tuition payment and bonuses for veterans.

All township voters and city voters in Precincts 1 and 2 will vote for 2nd United States Congressional candidates,

Commissioner candidates, except voters in township investigation showed that no Northville residents, other than Phillips and Mrs. French, were involved in drug traffic at the house.

The attempted extortion charge against Phillips is in connection with several household items purchased with bad checks Phillips allegedly forced other persons to sign, police explained.

The four were to be arraigned on the charges Wednesday afternoon before 35th District Court Judge Dunbar Davis.

Indiana Freeway Link Opens

Michigan motorists will be able to drive nonstop from Port Huron to Chicago for the first time ever when the final section of I-94 in Indiana is opened to traffic Thursday (November 2), according to Automobile Club of Michigan officials.

"Completion of this 18-mile Indiana stretch culminates more than 25 years of cooperation between Michigan AAA and the Chicago Motor Club to establish a toll-free, nonstop route between Detroit and Chicago," Auto Club General Manager Fred Rehm points out.

"This new link, located between US 20 on the east and US 20 on the west, now enables Michigamians to save at least 25 minutes driving time, 10 miles and $1.40 in toll road fees ($1.05 for the Indiana Toll road and 35 cents for the Chicago Skyway)," Rehm states.

"Completion of the I-94 freeway in Indiana also eliminates one of the worst traffic problems in Michigan history, especially on summer holiday weekends when cars sometimes backed up 18 miles from Indiana to Michigan," says Rehm.

Because motorists were forced to use seven miles of substandard, two-lane road instead of divided highway to reach the Indiana Toll Road, Auto Club dubbed this area "The Cornfield Carblock."

The area also has been referred to as "Indiana's Missing Link" since it disrupted I-94 travel between Michigan and Illinois.

"Thousands of motorists were trapped there each weekend and even forced to stop for a traffic signal where US 20 intersected. This unfortunate situation is now ended," says Rehm.

The new Indiana freeway section will be opened officially with a ribbon cutting ceremony at 10:30 a.m., Central Standard Time (11:30 a.m. in Michigan) November 2 at the junction of I-94 and US-421, about 1 1/2 miles south of Michigan City, Indiana.

Invited to take part in the opening ceremony are Indiana Gov. Edgar D. Whitcomb, Michigan Gov. William Milliken, members of the Michigan and Indiana State Highway Commissions and Automobile Club of Michigan officials.

Automobile Club of Michigan began promoting a Detroit-Chicago freeway link shortly after World War II and kept pushing for completion until the State of Indiana finally agreed to construct the only uncompleted section of the 350-mile Port Huron-Chicago route.

Indiana delayed completing the I-94 freeway in order to keep motorists passing through to use the Indiana Toll Road, Auto Club states.

"We were also instrumental in having I-94 constructed in this state to replace US-12, which remained virtually unchanged for more than 25 years," Rehm explains. "And when all but a 1.3-mile Indiana-Michigan border like of I-94 was completed in Michigan in 1960, state motorists were able to drive the 350-mile Port Huron to Chicago route in two hours less driving time than the old route plus avoiding numerous traffic delays."

In all, I-94 runs from Port Huron to Billings, Montana, a distance of 1,607 miles.

Prior to the completion of I-94 in Indiana, motorists who traveled the freeway from the Michigan-Indiana border to escape toll charges had to exit onto US-20-35 and travel north one mile to US-20 and then go west on US-20 for 16 miles to reconnect with I-94, 18 miles from the Illinois border.

Why five Democratic mayors are going to vote for a Republican Senator.

Five Democratic mayors have endorsed Senator Bob Griffin for reelection. It would have been much easier for them, politically speaking, to endorse the Democratic candidate. But their consciences wouldn't allow it. They know Senator Griffin is the better man.

They know Senator Griffin led the fight in Congress against school busing and he authored a constitutional amendment to prevent it — an amendment Kelley says he would vote against.

They know that Senator Griffin was instrumental in getting the auto excise tax repealed. (One reason he's referred to as "Michigan's Muscle.")

They know that he co-authored the Landrum-Griffin Act, the "bill of rights" for rank and file union members.

They know Senator Griffin has introduced legislation to guarantee that working men and women get the pensions they've earned.

So these five Democratic mayors are taking the hard way out. And putting the people above party.

They're going to vote for Senator Robert Griffin next Tuesday. And they urge you to do the same.

Community Band Idea Explored

Ever get the urge to go up to the attic, pull out the old trombone you used to carry up and down the field at half time, and slide through a few bars of your alma mater's fight song?

If you have, you're not alone.

A handful of Novi residents, stricken by that very urge, decided to do something about it and are forming a Community Band.

"The only problem is that we need more depth," said Ray Murphy, one of the initiators of the band. "We've got the makings of a good band, but we need more man power."

As a result membership in the Novi Community Band has been extended to Northville residents.

The band practices every Monday from 7-9 p.m. at Novi High School.

Membership is open to adults and high school students.

For further information, prospective musicians are urged to contact Murphy at 449-0376.

New Tax Concept on Threshold

LANSING—Michigan is on the threshold of a new and very different way of raising revenue to keep the state from going broke.

Instead of levying a new tax on some of human endeavor such as earning a living or buying something, the state is going to make some money from one of man's most basic urges—the desire to get something for nothing.

In this case the "something" in the form of large numbers of dollars is not for "nothing". Before a person can win anything, he must buy at least one 50 cent ticket. Among the prizes being dangled before him to entice him to buy that ticket are a $1 million prize, prizes of $200,000, $50,000 and $10,000, and even a lot of $25 prizes.

As anyone who's been around the state can figure by now, we're talking about Michigan's new state lottery, which will begin selling tickets Nov. 13.

SEVERAL EASTERN states already have instituted lotteries and based upon this experience, authorities here are conservatively estimating Michigan will clear $50 million a year, or roughly $1 million a week, from the lottery here.

The lottery idea was approved last May 16 by Michigan voters after the legislature put it on the ballot in hopes of coming up with a painless way to raise state revenues in this election year. The theory, presumably a correct one, is that people don't mind nearly as much paying taxes if they have a chance of getting a dramatic return on their "investment."

And when all the verbiage is stripped away, the lottery is just another tax if you consider any money collected by a government is a tax. But unlike the laws setting up the income tax or the sales tax, the lottery law provides that 45 percent of the money collected will go back to the people who paid it.

LOTTERY COMMISSIONER Gus Harrison devised a system under which every one million tickets sold will result in 4,000 winners of $25 prizes. In addition, two out of each one million ticket buyers will win "super prizes" of $10,000 to $200,000.

The "super prizes" will be drawn for each week in which at least 2.5 million tickets have been sold since the last "super prizes" drawing. That means a minimum of five "super winners" will be involved with a grand prize of $200,000 a consolation prize of $50,000 and three other consolation prizes of $10,000.

In addition, for every 30 million tickets sold, there will be a "super duper" instant millionaire drawing in which the winner will take home a cool $1 million.

EXACTLY 996,000 persons will lose 50 cents every time there are 4,000 winners of $25. That's how the state earns revenue from the lottery. And it shouldn't be forgotten the real reason for the lottery is to earn more money without raising the income tax or some other equally odious tax.

There are some who feel any form of gambling is wrong and that the state shouldn't be in the lottery business. But the lottery is only half a sin at worst. It is really "gambling" in the sense that most of the taxpayers won't get their money back. It's a sure thing for the state. The odds are set up that way.

And with taxes spiralling ever higher, "what's wrong with putting a little suspense into paying taxes? Buying a lottery ticket with hopes of hitting the jackpot surely beats frantically figuring out your income tax in early April and finding out that the state tax rate has gone up another point or two just so the state won't go broke." At least, that is the argument of the majority who favor the lottery plan.

IT'S RATHER ironic in view of the strong influence labor has had on the drafting of laws in Michigan, but Michigan is one of 20 states where there is no legal requirement for employers to give their workers time off to vote on Election Day. The list of states with such laws includes such supposedly "non-labor" states as Alabama, Kansas and Nebraska.

In 19 of the states the employer is barred from docking the worker's paycheck for the time he takes off to vote by law and in three others the attorney general's office has ruled there can be no loss of pay for a person who votes during working hours.

Some of the 30 states say that no time off need be given if there is sufficient time for the worker to vote during non-working hours, but the legal provision is made to make sure everyone has the time to vote if they want to.

ONE DISCOURAGING factor in such a change is that some workers who now have Election Day off are trying to trade it away. The deal advanced is to work then provided they can get paid time off during deer hunting season instead.

Babson Report

New Era Emerging for Japan

WELLESLEY HILLE, Mass. Japan is on the threshold of a new era that promises to bring many changes in her relations with her Asian neighbors and with the United States. She is rapidly emerging from American protection and domination to assert herself more positively in the fields of foreign affairs and foreign trade.

The U. S. rapprochement with Mao's China has presented Japan with the chance to make new choices—many of them undreamed of even as recently as a year ago.

JAPAN'S trade with the U. S. is in serious imbalance and thus far we are low man on the totem pole. Actually, the imbalance threatens to get worse before it gets better, for recession in Japan (i.e., a measurable downturn from the long-term economic upturn she has been enjoying) has dried up domestic demand, making it necessary for Tokyo to beef up her exports in order to avoid more serious weakness in business at home. As a consequence, Japanese foreign exchange reserves have been increasing, to the alarm of the U. S. and some of the other Western countries.

The U. S. wants Japan to import more U. S. goods, and give greater aid to the developing nations of Asia. So far, Japan has made no concrete move to do this on any continuing scale.

However, she has agreed to buy $1.1 billion worth of U. S. farm, fishery, and aircraft products and has hinted that she might decide to cut tariffs unilaterally sometime before fiscal 1974 which begins April 1, 1973. The Ministry of International Trade and Industry is reported to be studying a plan by which Japanese tariffs would be reduced uniformly. Washington thinks Tokyo means business and looks for relief via tariff cuts.

IT IS WIDELY speculated that Japan is on the verge of undertaking nuclear arming. While Japanese advocates of such a course are not lacking, the Research Department of Babson's Reports does not feel that such a move is imminent.

The issue will be hotly debated over the next two or three years, but unless Japan turns radically leftward or is made to feel isolated, there is a good chance she will eschew nuclear armament.

Her 100 million people crammed into an area smaller than California, Japan is uniquely vulnerable to nuclear attack. Hence, she would require a huge nuclear potential for an adequate deterrent. This she cannot mount without inviting economic disaster.

More likely, instead, she will decide to rearm along traditional lines, placing emphasis on naval strength which many Japanese politicians and businessmen contend is already badly needed to protect Nippon's far-flung commerce. A naval building program may also be spurred by the end of the Vietnam war, withdrawal of the U. S. fleet from South Asian waters and eventually from the Taiwan Straits.

HOWEVER, a U. S. naval withdrawal from the Straits of Taiwan will not happen soon, and may not occur for two or three years or more. Thinking in Washington and in some circles in Tokyo is that Chairman Mao and Premier Chou will not insist on this or on reabsorption of Taiwan until they have neutralized the Russian threat in this offshore area and to China generally.

The U. S. will not be pressured to sever diplomatic relations with Nationalist China or to abrogate its treaty with Chiang's government. That would create a vacuum that might beckon Russian naval intervention.

JAPANESE rearmament may also be hastened by growing dissatisfaction on both sides with the present Japanese-American Security Treaty which will likely force big changes within the next couple of years. The days of U. S. bases in Japan are clearly numbered. Scrapping of the whole treaty would not be surprising. The big question: Can it be done intelligently, imaginatively—without a nasty confrontation?

State Bills November Fun

For those who are not rugged, outdoor winter sports enthusiasts, Michigan's November calendar offers inspiration for indoor activity to fill the long winter days ahead, according to the Michigan Tourist Council. Ideas for "busy fingers and fancy doers" will pack the Light Guard Armory November 3-5 with the Detroit Hobby Show. Individual exhibits will include a glass blower, apple carver, wine maker and candle maker.

In addition to the exhibits there will be seminars and lectures on the "how to" of many pastime productions. Rug hooking and the Ukrainian art of decorating eggs are among the demonstrations scheduled. Materials, kits and other paraphernalia for starting a hobby of your own will be on sale.

If you're a flower fancier, the Dunes Orchid Society Show, November 3-5, at the Westmain Mall, Kalamazoo might inspire you to keep your "green thumb" active all winter long. Of the 30,000 natural species of orchids in the world, some 300 will be represented at the Kalamazoo Show.

Horse's Mouth

This column is open to news of all breeds of horses and ponies. Send your questions, comments, and horse show news to "Horse's Mouth", care of South Lyon Herald, South Lyon, Mi 48178.

Four riders from South Lyon scored well in the Majestic Farm Dressage-Jumper Show held Sunday, October 15 in Ann Arbor.

Sue Doty of 8360 Rushton Road placed first in the First Time Out Dressage Event riding her horse Pegasus Blue. She also placed fifth in Training Level Test 2 Junior, look second in the Combined Jump and Dressage Test and took fourth in the Modified Olympic Jump event with three foot fences.

Riding Miss Muffett, Stacey Balcom of 11737 Marshall Road took third in First Time Out, fifth in Training Level Test 2 Junior and fourth in Combined Test Elementary Dressage and Jumping. She took another fourth in the three-foot Open Jumping event.

Judith Franklin of 26945 Melford Road won second in the dressage Second Level Test 1 Open class riding Khaseyn.

Dressage judge was Mrs. Carole Grant of Brighton, Jumper judge, Connie Borwick of Waterford.

Mounting interest in dressage, the complicated show exercises which form part of Olympic competition in horsemanship was demonstrated at the show as dressage entries nearly doubled those in jumping, 109 to 65.

Majestic Farm is a riding school teaching students and horses dressage and other equestrian skills.

HORSE'S SENSE OF HEARING

The horse has a more acute sense of hearing than man. It might be a more exciting world for us, if we had ears as sharp as those of a horse.

Hunting horses are able to discern the sound of a horn several miles away. Hearing it, they will neigh, break out in a lather of sweat and remain generally unsettled.

Horses are also able to put two senses together in a most effective way. The faculty of some animals to detect the presence of other animals is usually attributed to an acute sense of hearing, but several species, including the horse, also detect another's presence by ground vibrations which travel up the legs to the middle ear. This is essentially a combination of sound and touch.

High-strung horses with acute hearing have been disturbed by rustling leaves or paper, steam, music and a lot of lesser sounds.

With a long, flexible neck and receptive concave ears to gather in the sounds, the equine clearly has an auditory advantage over his master. More over, those fine ears are mobile, they rotate a full 180 degrees to pinpoint the origin of the sound, almost as accurately as radar.

Billboards

Coming Down

Billboards will start falling in mid-November under Michigan's new Billboard Control Law, the State Highway Commission has declared.

Before the year ends, the Commission said, several hundred billboards will be removed by maintenance forces of the Department of State Highways.

Control provisions apply to some 7,000 miles of Interstate and primary highways—more than three-fourths of the state highway system.

A recently completed inventory by the Highway Department showed 29,622 billboards along the 7,000 miles of highways. About half of them, though legally erected prior to enactment of the new law, do not conform with its provisions. The owners are entitled to compensation when the signs are removed, but only if they have applied for the $3 annual permit the law required for each sign.

DANIEL R. Krpan of Northville has been named area sales manager for Canteen Corporation's Lake Central Area, according to Lee Agon, director of national sales for the food service company.

Krpan is based in the company's area office in Dearborn.

He joined Canteen in 1969 as a salesman in Washington, D.C. In August, 1971, he was appointed district sales manager for the firm in Louisville, Kentucky, the post he held until his appointment to Lake Central area sales manager.

Krpan was Canteen's eastern area's "Salesman of the Year" in 1970. He has an A.A. degree from Sierra College, Auburn, California and a B.S. degree from the University of Nevada.

He and his wife Clarel, and their sons Steven, Marko and Mathew reside at 15836 Portis Drive.

DANIEL KRPAN

HAROLD BOND, 52, has been elected to the Board of Directors of U.S. Broach & Machine Company, at a meeting of the Board of Directors on October 24, 1972.

U.S. Broach & Machine Company is a manufacturer of broach machines and perishable tools, located in Detroit, and is a wholly owned subsidiary of Michigan Seamless Tube Company in South Lyon.

Bond is Controller-Operations at Michigan Seamless and has been with the company since 1943. He attended Oakland University and Michigan State. Bond and his family reside at Orchard Lake.

MR. AND MRS. E. D. Ewing recently returned from Holland to their Brighton home. They were guests of the Serta Mattress company for the Furniture Dealers of Detroit. The trip was chartered via Dutch Air Lines.

E. D. Ewing Furniture stores are located in Brighton and Howell.

STOP-N-GO Foods, Inc., operator of 12 convenience food stores in the Brighton area, announced plans for expansion that will bring the total number of Stop-N-Go stores to more than 400 by 1973.

John H. Johnston, president of the Dayton, Ohio based convenience food chain, stated that the company's board of Directors has authorized management to open at least seventeen corporate stores during the fiscal year while regional licensees are expected to open more than thirty.

Stop-N-Go stock, which is sold Over-The-Counter reflected earnings per share of 17 cents as compared to 12 cents last year, an increase of 40 per cent. Sales during the first quarter of this year were up more than 15 per cent and before tax earnings up more than 56 per cent compared to the same period last year.

APPOINTMENT of John P. Carroll to the newly-created post of regional consumer relations manager for Levitt Residential Communities, Inc., has been announced by Louis P. Shassian, vice-president and regional manager.

NORTHVILLE'S John McCarter, 20932 East Farm Lane, recently joined the Honorable Martha W. Griffiths and park representatives at flag raising ceremonies marking the official dedication of newly installed, 24-hour flag poles at the three entryways into the 250-acre industrial park near Novi.

The flag, which had previously been flown over the U.S. Capitol in Washington, D.C., was presented to the Association by Rep. Griffiths.

Founded in 1968, the FFIP Association oversees maintenance and upkeep of the park which in 1970 was named the first Class "A" Certified Industrial Park in the Michigan Department of Commerce Program designed to meet a long-time need for the setting of standards for development of industrial parks.

In addition to its industrial and commercial buildings, FFIP, located at I-96 and 10 Mile Road, has its own service center with restaurant, cleaners, beauty and barber shops, gift shop, party store and a newly completed 5-story Holiday Inn.

MORE THAN 200 businessmen and women from Detroit area industry, including several from local communities, will serve as coordinating advisors to miniature Junior Achievement companies that began organizing the week of October 16.

High school students from the six-county metropolitan Detroit area manage and operate their own miniature firms. In this setting, teenagers learn about the free enterprise system and gain practical experience in all facets of running a business.

State Billboards To Start Falling

So far, the owners of fewer than 10,000 billboards have applied for permits. Those for which applications have not been submitted are being tagged with red violation notices. Such signs, whether or not they are in legal positions, are declared abandoned 60 days after they are tagged and may be removed by the state, with the owner being billed for twice the removal cost.

Most of the signs to be removed this year have been abandoned and fallen into disrepair or become illegal through failure of the owners to apply for permits. They also include several dozen signs erected at illegal locations since the law was enacted last spring.

John P. Woodford, the Highway Department's deputy director-chief engineer, urged sign owners to apply for permits.

"Those who fail to take this simple step stand to lose compensation for their signs and pay for twice the removal cost as well," he said.

Non-conforming signs are targeted for removal over the next five years. The federal government is expected to pay three-fourths of the cost.

Boyle

District Judge Martin L. Boyle, candidate for reelection, expressed gratification this week that the "Governor's Fair Campaign Practices Commission has directed my opponent to comply with minimum standards of campaign practices and cease the use of the title 'Judge' in his campaign advertising."

Challenging Boyle for his seat is Terrance Jolly of Novi. "It has long been clear to me," said Boyle, "that he (Jolly) has misled many people into believing he is a judge. Obviously, the harmful consequences of this legal offense will not be entirely overcome at this late date in the campaign, but I am hopeful that the Commission decision will be widely publicized so that as many people as is possible will be made aware of the true fact."

Democrats

An old-fashioned Democratic Campaign Rally, complete with bonfire, will be held at Newman House, Schoolcraft College on Thursday, November 2 at 7:30 p.m.

The public is invited to meet the many Democratic candidates from the Livonia area who will attend.

Folk-singers Judy Kultz and Judy Sprys will entertain, and refreshments will be provided.

This rally is sponsored by the Livingston Interested Democrats, and will take the place of the regular monthly meeting. Members of the Rally Committee include Bea McDonald, Barbara LaRue, Jerry Tyrrell, William Kraft and Mark McQueen.

Further information may be obtained by calling 261-4760.

Griffin

U.S. Senator Robert P. Griffin, endorsed earlier by eight Detroit suburban mayors—none of them Republicans—picked up the endorsement of four additional Southeastern Oakland County mayors during a public reception in Hazel Park.

Griffin, who was publicly supported today outside of the Hazel Park City Hall by Mayor Wallace Cormier, a Democrat, was also endorsed by Majors James Cline, Royal Oak, Gordon Bryant, Huntington Woods; Richard Cogger, Lathrup Village and Ted Barr of Pleasant Ridge. Bryant, Cogger and Barr are Republicans, Cline is an Independent.

Cormier said he was supporting Griffin because of his experience in Washington, in the halls of Congress, influence in the halls of Congress, respect in the Senate, the ability to get things done. This man is a problem solver and holds a leadership position in Congress that comes to few men.

Proposal E

Michigan voters on November 7 will have an opportunity to ratify or cancel a Legislature-approved program that would provide a bonus and educational benefits for veterans of the Vietnam conflict.

Possibly because the other issues on the ballot are considered more controversial, Proposal E has received relatively little attention so far. Civic Issues Voluntary Information Council (CIVIC) stated this week.

Michigan's program would provide a cash bonus of $500 to combat veterans and a maximum of $360 for non-combat veterans. In addition to this cash bonus, the program would provide an incentive grant of $500 per year for four years to those who elected to go to college instead of taking the cash bonus.

The Michigan program also includes educational benefits for the families of prisoners of war and those missing in action. Michigan would finance the program by borrowing $266 million, making principal and interest payments over a 20-year period.

When signing the legislation that placed the question on the ballot, Governor William G. Milliken said "The State has an obligation to help provide both jobs and education for those making up what we all hope will be the last generation of American war veterans."

Arguing against the plan, Civic Searchlight's 1972 Committee on Candidates and Ballot Questions says the real cost of Proposal E, including interest on 20-year obligation bonds, could be as much as $394 million.

The committee adds, "With the pressing needs of State government in areas such as mental health and environmental control, and the urgent need for State aid for our public schools, Michigan can ill afford a cash gratuity to those citizens who were called to duty by the U.S. Government."

Meanwhile, veterans, business and labor groups in favor of this proposal argue that it is only fair to give veterans of an unpopular war equal treatment to that accorded by Michigan to veterans of earlier conflicts.

The choice whether to approve or cancel the Legislature's program is up to Michigan voters. You owe it to yourself to be concerned, to make a decision and to vote.

Plunkett

With the coming of the trick or treat season, Oakland County Prosecutor Thomas G. Plunkett reminded parents to be extra cautious about the safety of young children.

"Young children, caught up in the excitement of Halloween, can be seriously injured if the rules of safety and precaution are forgotten," Plunkett stated. Of particular concern to parents of youngsters is the placement of foreign objects in Halloween treats. Plunkett cautioned parents to examine carefully all candy, fruit and other treats which youngsters bring home.

"Any candy which is not in its original wrapper should be thrown away," Plunkett cautioned.

"Fruit which is cut or bruised should likewise be discarded," Plunkett stated that his office will prosecute vigorously any persons who place any foreign objects in Halloween treats. The legislature has passed a law making it a felony to place foreign objects in candy, fruit and other food items," Plunkett explained.

"I intend to see that any person who violates this law is prosecuted to the fullest extent. My office will not condone such a serious jeopardizing of the safety of the citizens of Oakland County," Plunkett urged parents to know the whereabouts of their children on Halloween and to be familiar with the neighborhoods which children enter. In addition all candy and other treats should be immediately examined for any trace of foreign objects.

"If anyone finds foreign objects in Halloween treats, I urge them to call the local police and my office immediately," Plunkett stated. "Prompt action may prevent any child from being injured in this way and will insure that those responsible are prosecuted for such a serious offense."

Religion and Politics

Rev. David P. Kruger
Pastor
Lord of Life Community
Brighton

"Well, then, pay to the Emperor what belongs to him, and pay to God what belongs to God." Jesus.

On the eve of Election Day, U.S.A., it may be necessary for Christians (especially) to be reminded that loving God is done by means of loving our neighbor; and, that this "loving of neighbor" inevitably means involvement in the political arena of our society.

There are numerous myths about the interrelationship of one's religion and "politics." One is that our ultimate concern (our religion) and politics are incompatible; another, that politics is corrupt (but do we use the same standards to scrutinize our business, community or personal lives), nor, on the other hand, shall the church rule the state. However, they do (properly) interact and influence each other.

None of these myths is true. The concept of constitutional separation of church and state in the United States has never meant (even in recent Supreme Court decisions on school prayers) that the state and church could not have dealings with each other. It simply means that states shall not legally establish any religion (in general, or any specific church), nor, on the other hand, shall the church rule the state. However, they do (properly) interact and influence each other.

Today, the church and other sensitive people again need to raise the cry of Amos, Isaiah, and John who spoke out against man's inhumanity to man, against "trampling the head of the poor," "turning aside the needy from justice," and "closing our heart against our brother." We need to heed Jesus' words to "go and do likewise" after telling the story of a man who helped a person in need.

To deny or repudiate Christian social concern and participation in public affairs is not only to sever what God has indissolubly united but also to thwart the divinely willed purpose of our regeneration as children of God — to be enabled to liberate and love our fellowman. It is significant that such great New Testament letters as Romans, Galatians, Ephesians, Colossians, and Hebrews begin with saving doctrine and end with the obligation to practice it.

Self-sacrifice and personal service, whether in offering a cup of water to the thirsty, supporting a worthy candidate for office, or upholding the rights of others before the law, are the inevitable responsibility of the Christian who accepts the gospel message. In his first letter John wrote, "But if any one has the world's goods and sees his brother in need, yet closes his heart against him, how does God's love abide in him?" (3:17) And Jesus uttered the memorable words: "...as you did it to one of the least of these my brethren, you did it to me" (Mt. 25:40).

So what do we do in '72?

Most of us who read this newspaper don't have any crying material needs, but millions of people in our nation do! Regardless of who is elected to serve as our President for the next four years, we need to work through our political system for freedom from discrimination (whether it be on the basis of age, sex, race, income, or whatever), freedom of conscience, good food at fair prices for all, decent housing in a neighborhood of a person's choice, adequate health care, full employment, an end to the war and solutions to the other desperate needs of people in our society. We also need to vote for the persons who will bring the best leadership to these vital tasks.

This goes beyond simple obedience to the laws of the nation ("paying the Emperor what belongs to him") and takes us, responsibly, into the realm of "paying to God what belongs to God."

Steve doesn't mind. Only a little. He knows Dad has to travel. And some days Mom must work the swing shift.

Steve doesn't mind. Not very much. It's just that food doesn't make a dinner. It's like a vacuum when you're alone. And the evening—what's to do?

Such vacuums can affect adversely the developing personality of a child. They can also test a child's sense of security and self-reliance.

We claim no expertise in child psychology. Our concern, however, is that there be no Sunday morning vacuum. A Steve whose character is being molded by spiritual and moral training, a Steve whose home has the atmosphere of religious conviction and integrity... such a Steve is better equipped to meet the tests of loneliness and freedom.

In many families we cannot alter circumstances — but we can foster quality of character to cope with it. The Church is ready to help!

Adventure in Belgium on Tap

Church and Citadel - A Major Tourist Attraction of Dinant, Belgium

Having biked across America in the opening program October 4, the Rotary Travelogue series will shift to "Bright Belgium" in the second feature here Thursday, November 9.

Cosponsored by the Northville and Plymouth Rotary clubs, the film on Belgium will be hosted by John Strong, who was born in Phoenix, Arizona and grew up among cacti and rattlesnakes.

"Those modest Belgians have kept their fascinating country a secret long enough," Strong says when talking about his film, "Bright Belgium"

"Now is the time to reveal the bright secrets of their tiny kingdom, towering castles, pagentry and pomp, scenic beauty at every turn. Majestic forests sweeping vistas in the valley of the Meuse pack the sightseeing boats with Europeans out to have a good time"

In the film, viewers will see where the Battle of the Bulge hounded in the hills and streams of Ardennes and hear now the crunch of hikers' boots and the splash of doomed trout

In Flanders Fields from Brussels to Ostend, they'll see Belgians growing flax, begomas and hops.

At Ronquiere, the film shows four barges being lifted at one time up the side of a mountain in a huge elevator

JOHN STRONG

Strong, contracted by Ralph Windoes Travelogues, Inc., obtained his degree in physics at the University of California in Berkeley, and following graduation did research in nuclear physics working on guided missiles and electronic computers

Vacations were spent traveling---always with camera. For a short time, he worked with a travel agency but found that sending other people on trips was a poor substitute for going there himself

So he started traveling on his own, photographing the beautiful, the unusual, and the humorous in out-of-the-way places all over the world. "Bright Belgium" is one of the results of these travels

The film will be presented, as was the first (which featured Julian Gromer's "Wheels Across America") in the Northville High School Auditorium at 8 p.m. sharp.

Tickets are available at Northville Camera Shop in Northville, Beitmen Jewelry in Plymouth, or at the box office before the performance.

The third travel film, scheduled Wednesday, January 3, also will be presented in Northville. It will feature George Wilhelm's "South Pacific Isles"

The final three programs will be held in the Plymouth High School Auditorium at Joy Road and Canton Center. These three include:

Don Cooper's "Lumberjack's Alaskan Adventure" on Wednesday, February 7; Nicol Smith's "Enchanting Bali" on Monday, March 5, and Robert Brouwer's "Rio Colorado" on Tuesday, April 3

The canal traffic comes to a focus at Antwerp, bustling diamond industrial center. And in Ghent, where oil painting was invented, the viewers will hear the stories of the brave deeds of crusading knights and feudal counts

Bandmen

Go to Work

Northville High bandmen will be working outside on two Saturdays, November 11 and 18, to raise funds for Band Camp

Bandmen will rake leaves or do any other outside work that is needed, spokesmen for the group said

Help may be obtained by calling 349-5725 or 349-2558 to reserve students for either Saturday

Winter Basketball Program Planned

Winter basketball programs for third graders through adults are presently being planned by the Northville Recreation Department

A maximum of five teams are being sought to form a

Men's Basketball League which will play Thursday evenings at Cooke Middle School. Practice sessions begin November 9, and a registration fee of $85 per team must be paid prior to November 7. There is a minimum age requirement of 18 years for the men's league

There will be five leagues of winter basketball for 3-12 graders. Class AA will be for boys in eleventh and twelfth grades, class A for ninth and tenth graders, class B for seventh and eighth graders, class C for fifth and sixth graders, and class D for third and fourth graders.

A $7 registration fee will be required of B, C, and D league participants, while those in Classes A and AA will face an $8 registration fee

Registration for the League will be held Saturday, October 21 and continue every Saturday thereafter until November 18 from 8 a.m. until 12 noon at the Recreation Building.

The Recreation Department is looking for volunteers to serve as score keepers, time keepers, and coaching assistants. Anyone able to help or anyone with questions about any of the programs is urged to call 349-0203, or stop by the Cady Street Recreation Building during any of the Saturday registration periods

LOUIS SCHULD

Lou Schuldt Honored For Service

At the recent 12th annual meeting of the American Association of Volunteer Services Coordinators in St. Louis, two members from Michigan, including Louis J. Schuldt, CVC, director of community relations at Northville State Hospital, were among 15 named as Fellows of the Association.

Members who present evidence of 10 years of professional experience in volunteer administration and who have been active members for at least one year are placed in nomination by the Fellows Selection Board.

The Association is a professional organization of volunteer coordinators who serve not only in facilities for the mentally ill and mentally retarded and in county mental health programs, but also, since 1971 in the probation departments of our courts.

Presently, state membership chairman for Region V, Schuldt was named in 1970 to a four-year term on the Association's Council on Certification. For several years he has served as the photographer for both the national and Region V meetings.

For Senior Citizens

Plan Retirement Studies

Schoolcraft College has announced a Retirement Studies Program for senior citizens of the college district starting November 6.

The program is being conducted at two locations. It will be held on Mondays from 10:30 until 12 noon at the Northville City Hall beginning November 6, and on Wednesdays from 1:30 to 3 p.m. at McNamara Tower No. 2 in Livonia beginning November 8.

There is no charge for the program, but registration is limited to 30 persons at each location, and enrollment is on a first come basis. To enroll, persons should telephone Mrs. Lois Collins at the Schoolcraft Community Services Office. The telephone number is 591-6400, extension 264.

The first session of the Retirement Studies Program will be an introduction to the program. After that, weekly sessions will be devoted to:

- Social Security and Medicare
- Financial Planning for the Retirement Years
- Good Health for the Later Years
- The Legal Affairs of the Older Person

France Study Draws Bonamici

Andrew R. Bonamici of Northville, a student at Alma College, is one of 61 participants in Alma College's Program of Studies in France during the academic year.

Twenty-two of the students in the cooperative program with L'Ecole de l'Alliance Francaise in Paris are from Alma College and 39 are from other colleges and universities throughout the United States.

Bonamici is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Roland R. Bonamici of 740 Fairbrook Street.

Opportunities for Retirement Living.

The program is sponsored by Schoolcraft College and the Institute of Gerontology at the University of Michigan and Wayne State University. It is the first effort by the College in meeting the special needs of senior citizens.

The needs were identified through a study sponsored by the Schoolcraft College Foundation and directed by Ronald Griffith, Schoolcraft's director of community services. The program leaders are Mrs. Betty Andrews and Dr. Woodrow Hunter of the Institute of Gerontology.

Resource persons for the program include Joseph Mayo of the Social Security Administration, Dr. Edwin Smith of the University of Michigan, Ms. Lucy Bates of the Visiting Nurses Association, and John Dufour, director of the Livonia Department of Parks and Recreation.

Persons wishing a brochure which provides specific program information for each week may request a copy from the Schoolcraft Community Services Office.

Tickets Available Now For High School Play

Tickets are on sale now for Northville High School's production of "See How They Run," scheduled for November 15 through 18.

Curtain time each evening is 8 p.m. in the high school auditorium, according to director Kurt Kinde.

Tickets are $1.50 pre-sale and $1.75 at the door.

"See How They Run" is a farce written in three acts by Philip King.

Galloping in and out of the four doors of an English vicarage are an American actor stationed with the Air Force in England, an actress, a cockney maid who has seen too many American movies, an old maid who touches alcohol for the first time in her life, four men in clerical suits presenting the problem of which is which since one is an escaped prisoner and another a sedate bishop.

Cast includes Larry Klienfelt as the Reverend Lionel Toop; Anne Price as Penelope Troop; Wendell Wegeng as Corporal Clive Winton; Christopher Johnson as Bishop of Lax; Neil Nichols as the Reverend Arthur Humphrey.

Also starring in roles are Jennifer Thomas as Miss Skillon, Liz Kalota as Ida; Ellen Fitzpatrick, Sergeant Towers; Bill Hay, The Intruder; and Mike Gordon as the Choir Boy.

Heading up the crews are Sherry Ellison, programs; Dave Kalota, lights and sound; Gail McDermaid and Chris Rotta, props; Sally Johnson, tickets; Connie Sitarski, make-up; Chuck Alexander, set construction; Debbie Riggs, publicity; Lori Smith, ushers, and Cyndy Carrow, costumes.

LEW COY

My past efforts for the people of this district permit me to boldly ask for their continued confidence.

Lew Coy introduced the bill which gave Novi, Lyon, and Northville residents toll free calling to the County Court House and yet saves the taxpayers a thousand dollars a month - 349-7850.

Introduced legislation that put over a million and a half more dollars into County road construction.

Lew Coy's Health Committee sponsored the contract with the Humane Society which saved the people of this County one million dollars in building cost.

Prevented SEMCOG from robbing Novi of one third of its industrial land, which SEMCOG planned for a Regional Park. I have introduced legislation which will require County Commission approval before the regional solid waste disposal plan is adopted. This will prevent another near mishap.

This district received one-twelfth of all the Federal PEP Funds that came to Oakland County, not one twenty-seventh which would have been its prorated share. This did not happen by chance or luck but through the efforts of a Working Commissioner.

Introduced legislation asking for Drain Commission accountability a year before any investigation.

I supported Veteran's benefits and emergency grants also alternatives for pension payments to protect widows and orphans.

Lew Coy was a leader in cutting a million four hundred thousand dollars from County Hospital costs.

Successfully supported evening sessions so that many interested citizens would be able to attend Commission meetings.

Supported the building of the new Law Enforcement Complex to replace the old jail condemned by the State Department of Corrections; also supported corrective measures to eliminate inhumane conditions at the county jail.

Supported a trusty work camp for honor prisoners.

I opposed cash payments to ADC mothers for children's clothing - favored continued use of the county clothing store.

I feel I have saved the people of Oakland County many thousands of dollars and know of no good cause why I couldn't and wouldn't do it again.

My Priorities for the next two years are:

1. First and always hold the budget down.

2. More dollars for roads by a readjustment of priorities.

3. A work and rehabilitation program for the able bodied welfare recipient.

4. A county satellite in Southwestern Oakland County for improved health and local services.

5. Continue County pressure on the State and Federal governments to maintain the local neighborhood school

6. Reorganization to the point of giving the people through their elected Commissioners control of the autonomous bodies such as the Park Commission and Road Commission. The Road Commission presently is purchasing a $700,000 computer and the employees to operate it, while the County's computer is not working at full capacity. This kind of duplication must be halted.

WILLIAM O'BRIEN

Democrat

I, the above candidate, offer the following for voter consideration to my claim that I am the BEST candidate for COMMISSIONER, 24th DCRC:

(1) Unlike my opponent, I offer an occupation-career which will BEST serve both the local government units and the citizens of this NEW 33,500 population district;

(2) Unlike my opponent, I have had almost four years of local government experience in a rapidly growing community, and invaluable tool, if a commissioner is to BEST serve this rapidly growing district of Southwest Oakland County, and

(3) Unlike my opponent during his commissioner terms, I promise to represent this new 24th District vigorously so that this district will achieve a stronger image status at the county level that my opponent cannot or is not able to achieve. I "Can Do" (15th Infantry Regiment) and will do the best job.

More specifically to (1) above, I am now, and have been for some 20 years a teacher of the social and political sciences (government). I have taught classes at all levels from grade 7 to community college. My total classroom experience with my continuing graduate training (a U of M Master's degree on Southwest Oakland County - Novi, plus an additional 30 semester hours - ABD) gives me a career-occupation which will BEST serve the communities and citizens of the district.

I have been trained to seek the basis of an issue, present its possible solutions and to take a position towards decision making. Although my opponent is a straight and personable gentleman, he lacks background ability to analyze or deal with issues. For example, for some not too clear reasons, my opponent voted "YES" to support an increase in SEMCOG regional dues in April, 1972.

In August 1972, he voted "NO" to SEMTA's regional request for an increased transportation study support. One can only suspect, that with the issue of regional-county needs, my opponent was unable to seek the basis of the issue, decide on possible solutions, and make a reasonably consistent decision. I feel my total occupational background will allow me to be more understanding of conflict-issue-resolution, and therefore, more consistent.

To (2) above, it must be noted that the "new" County Board of Commissioners is the "one man, one vote, edition" of the "old" County Board of Supervisors. To 1968 when the U.S. Supreme Court held that all county legislative boards must be proportional to population, the 87 member Oakland County Board was made up of locally elected township, village, and city officials in the county.

The role of the county legislative board member was clear to represent the interests of their local unit and carry out those state statutes which pertain to the overall welfare of the county.

Members of the "old" board, since they served their district as locally elected officials, understood the needs, wants, and particular problems of their area. The "new" board does not, nor should it, require that the district commissioner be familiar with the problems of the district, since we assume the citizens will elect some experienced person from the district who is familiar with local problems.

In this district, however, this is not the situation. To my knowledge, my opponent has never served as a locally elected official of this district; and to my knowledge, as a councilman for almost four years, my opponent has never sought local input information from his local units which would make him a more effective District County Commissioner. In fact, I personally have had more direct contacts with the state and federal representatives of this district, who are, incidentally, members of the same party as my opponent, than I have had from the county legislative representative who is my opponent. My opponent simply lacks significant local government experience.

Finally to (3) above, I believe my total credentials and almost four years experience in dealing with those issues which are common to this district - namely growth - will allow me to begin to rebuild the status image of Southwest Oakland County. We need someone who will demand recognition at the county level, that this district is not out in the "boondocks", but is in fact a growing and dynamic district, equal to all the other if not a bit better since we are still in a position to plan our growth.

We need an image that will demand that when SEMCOG holds a "public" hearing to designate 800 acres of Novi and Wixom, or any area, to regional parkland, the COG will be sure to remember to not only invite the District Commissioner, but will even invite the local units involved. This incident which occurred last summer (June) more than any other suggested to me that my opponent is not the right person to be county commissioner. I hope that a majority of the citizens of the 24th District will agree that I am the BEST candidate. Thank-you.

MARY DUMAS

As a result of research of Wayne County government as a whole, discussions with Wayne County Commissioners and County Officials, attendance at County Commission and Committee meetings over the past 6 months and visitations to County Institutions I have become familiar with the problems facing Wayne County both now and in the future. In addition, as a member of the SEMCOG on Regional Development, I am already involved in planning the solutions to many of Wayne County's needs in the areas of transportation and mass-transit, land use and preservation of wild life and recreation areas, proper programming of water and utility delivery systems, and solid waste disposal. All of these directly affect the communities of Northville and Livonia.

My recommendations in the areas of Criminal Justice and Law Enforcement are based on my active participation for the past several years as a Volunteer Probation Officer with the 16th District Court and as Chairman of the District Court Bond Drive and a member of the State-wide Crime Task Force.

Finally, in discussing these concerns with your local officials and with you and your neighbors, I have learned what you believe your Wayne County government should be doing to serve your particular needs.

MARY DUMAS

These are some of the issues foremost in your mind and the basis of my platform.

First, you want your County government more accountable to you. This can best be accomplished by abolishing or consolidating some of the obsolete and semi-autonomous boards and commissions to bring them directly under the control of your elected Commissioners. We also need a full-time chief executive to administer the $300,000,000 County Budget.

Secondly, to insure that you are paying no more than your fair share of property taxes, proper assessment procedures should be enforced as directed by the Michigan Tax Commission and the County should place a ceiling on the State Equalized Valuation of property until this is done.

Third, Wayne County in cooperation with the rest of Southeast Michigan must develop an efficient mass transit system to serve the needs of the suburbs and coordinate both the highway and transit system with the development of drainage and water delivery systems.

Fourth, the Commission must coordinate all law enforcement and criminal justice programs. We must complete renovation of the Wayne County Jail, but we should take steps to remove it from the Sheriff's Department and place it under a County or State Department of Corrections with professional administrators.

Meanwhile, we must provide the present jail with an adequate infirmary and psychological screening facilities and personnel to separate dangerous perverts and hard-core criminals from minor or youthful offenders. I strongly support Proposal G to provide a 200 bed western Wayne County detention facility for juveniles with adequate counselling and probation staff and facilities. We must prevent young offenders from becoming adult criminals. We must also coordinate the many drug

Crises Centers and drug rehabilitation programs to provide maximum care at minimum cost. We must make county health facilities available for senior citizens at the community level and also insure that there is adequate middle-income housing to serve their needs. We must also provide them with some measure of property tax relief.

New sources of revenue must be found for both County and local governments, and I would pressure Congress to place much of the new revenue-sharing funds at the disposal of counties and local governments with no strings attached for programs designed to fit the needs of your particular community.

Finally, as your Wayne County Commissioner, I will represent your interests and the needs of the total 19th District at the County level and see that you receive your fair share of services for your tax dollars, and I will dedicate the time and effort required to perform the task effectively.

ELDON RAYMOND

I have lived in the district most of my life. This is where I received my education and this is where I have chosen to raise my family. Both my educational background and my business experience is finance. I think it is safe to say that most of the problems facing government at all levels, especially Wayne County, are financial. Therefore, I feel my qualifications for the office of Wayne County Commissioner from our district are

Northville Public Schools Annual Report — 1971-72 School Year

SUPERINDEPENDENT'S ANNUAL REPORT

NOVEMBER 1, 1972

This report is published to inform the citizens of the Northville Public Schools district regarding the educational program and receipts and expenditures of the District for the 1971-72 school year.

The official audit and resulting formal report of the District's 1971-72 budget shows a black balance of some $23,000. The accompanying facts and figures provide you with the specifics of our last school year, which operated within a total budget of some $3.2 million dollars.

The past year found the Board of Education seven members strong, with a membership change occurring in mid-Fall due to the loss of one member who accepted a new position out of state.

The organizational meeting of the Board held on July 12, 1971, established Dr. Orlo J. Robinson as President, Mr. Richard Martin, Vice President, Mr. Martin Rinehart, Secretary, and Mr. Glenn E. Deibert as Treasurer. The three Trustees' positions were held by Rev. Timothy Johnson, Mr. Stanley Johnston and Mr. Andrew Orphan. On October 25, 1971, Rev. Johnson resigned from the Board and was replaced by the appointment of Mr. B. William Secord, who completed the remainder of Rev. Johnson's second year of a four-year term (expiring June, 1974). Mrs. Sylvia Gucken was elected in June to complete the final two years of Rev. Johnson's term on the Northville Board of Education.

Meetings of the Board were held on the second and fourth Monday of each month (with a few exceptions) during the year. However, it should be noted that many special meetings and work sessions were also held in order to meet the demands of our growing school district.

The Board was pleased that these extra hours assisted in the solution of many of the problems facing the District as well as establishing an orderly procedure for meeting future District needs.

During the course of the 1971-72 school year, the Board with continuing assistance from the District's Architect, Ralls-Hamill-Becker-Carne, Inc. and the Administration, formalized all the necessary details to bring before the voting public a bond issue proposal of $1,450,000. The voters rejected the request at a special election held on April 8, 1972. Also rejected at this special election was the Board's request for a 1.5-mill increase in operation milage.

The Board, recognizing the need for bond funds regardless of the voters' rejection of the April 8th request, reassessed their original proposal to the community; and after making about a 50 percent reduction in the amount of bond money desired, went back to the electorate at the June 12, 1972 annual election and obtained approval to sell $750,000 of bonds to meet minimal immediate needs. Also voted on at the June election, and only after being requested to do so by unofficial petitions signed by several hundred parents, was the matter of Board authority to levy up to one mill (down from the April 8 figure of 1.5 mills) more for operation. Both issues carried.

Some of the more significant projects which were retained in the second bond request include:

1. Site improvement costs at Highland Lakes Elementary School site.
2. Equipping of Reading Center at Middle School.
3. Improvement in High School automotive facility.
4. New school site option funds.
5. Precinct redistricting of School District.
6. Security system for all schools.
7. Improvements in existing facilities.
8. Elementary library facilities alterations.
9. Improvements to existing sites.
10. Classroom equipment.

In addition to the time and attention devoted to these two election issues, the Board dealt with many other problems, projects and tasks, including:

1. Renewed its support for and published two issues of a school newsletter called "Opening School Doors."
2. Continued its involvement with the Year-Round School Concept through the successful development of an experimental, operational Extended School Year Program which received State endorsement and Federal funding under ESEA Title III, Section 306, for implementation in 1972-73.
3. Identified general immediate school facility needs and set the scope for the District's next major school construction program
  - a. One Elementary School to be located in the Highland Lakes project
  - b. One Elementary School to be located in the Northville Commons project.
  - c. One Middle School to be located in the Bradner-Six Mile Road area
  - d. The construction of a second High School was set for consideration soon after all details are final and construction is underway on the two Elementary Schools and one new Middle School.
4. Initiated community consideration of the desirability of collection of school taxes in the summer. The City and Township of Northville offered ordinances to permit such action, but lack of citizen response to a student-carried home survey forced the issue into the 1972-73 school year.
5. Thoroughly reviewed all proposals for educational fiscal reform and went on record as opposing any change in the method for obtaining school operating funds until a "replacement" method is determined and established. The Board also went on record as opposing the elimination of constitutional provisions which would make a graduated income tax permissible.

6. Named the High School Music Suite in honor of Conrad E. Langfield.

7. Endorsed the establishment of a Wayne County Area Vocational-Technical Education Program.

8. Entered into a two-year lease agreement with the Township of Northville to house Township business offices in the Board Office Building.

9. Approved educational specifications for the design of a new Middle School and two Elementary Schools (Elementary Schools to be as similar in design as possible to reduce design expense).

10. Continued its efforts to have faulty construction at Cooke Middle School corrected without cost to the taxpayers.

In the normal operation of the School District, it is necessary to involve the assistance of outside agencies. During 1971-72 the Board of Education employed the law firms of Miller, Canfield, Paddock & Stone, and Keller, Thama, McManus, Toppin & Schwarze to assist in legal matters. The audit of the District's financial records (data reported hereto) was conducted by Plante & Moran, Certified Public Accountants. All financial transactions were completed with the assistance and cooperation of Manufacturers National Bank. In addition, the Board utilized the services of Ralls-Hamill-Becker-Carne, Inc., previously mentioned in this report.

The administration of the Board's policies and the District's programs and activities was carried out under the direction of Raymond E. Spear, Superintendent of Schools, who completed his fifth year as the District's Superintendent in June, 1972. Assistants to the Superintendent included Miss Florence Panatoni, Director of Instruction, completing four and one-half years in position; Mr. Earl T. Busard, Director of Business and Finance, finishing his fifth year; and Mr. Robert Benson, Jr., Director of Personnel, completing two and one-half years in position.

The Director of Instruction has the major responsibility for the organization of and improvement in the instructional program, grades K-12. The time and efforts of this office are devoted to working with and giving assistance to teachers and principals in carrying out the schools' major responsibility: educating children.

Significant accomplishments in the instructional program this past year include:

1. The development of curriculum guides in Music, Art and Physical Education at all levels; Vocational Education, Math, Social Studies and Language Arts at the secondary level.

2. Broadened and enriched the reading and math programs in grades K-12.

3. Introduced multi-grading and individualized continuous progress programs.

4. Developed District goals, objectives and philosophy of education.

5. Developed for implementation in 1972-73, a social studies elective program at the High School level.

The Director of Business and Finance is responsible for the supervision of all classified personnel and related programs, including transportation, building and site maintenance and cafeterias. In addition this office is responsible for the proper carrying out of all financial aspects for the operation of the District. During 1971-72, many additional hours were devoted to details involved in two school elections dealing with financial matters.

The Director of Personnel assisted the Superintendent in carrying out the 1972-73 teacher recruitment program, and represented the Superintendent at the bargaining table with the Northville Education Association until he served notice of his desire to be released of contract with the District at the conclusion of the 1971-72 school year. The Superintendent, with assistance from Attorney Schwarze, completed the negotiating of a new Agreement with the teaching staff.

The High School was administered by Principal Frederick Holdsworth, in his sixth year, and Assistant Principal David Longridge, in his fifth year. The 1971-72 enrollment reached a high of 1145 students in grades 9-12 (75 over 1970-71), who were taught in our expanded 52-classroom High School by 56 teachers, including four counselors and a librarian.

Ida B. Cooke Middle School was administered by Principal J. Ronald Horwath, in his sixth year, and Assistant Principal Richard Norton, in his fifth year. Mr. Horwath devoted time to both the sixth grade program at the Annex and the seventh and eighth grade program at Cooke. Mr. Norton concentrated his efforts primarily at Cooke. The Annex served the educational needs of 283 sixth graders in 13 classrooms with 11 teachers and a counselor. Cooke School served 599 seventh and eighth grade students with its 30 teaching station facility under the guidance of 28 teachers, a counselor and a librarian.

The District's three Elementary Schools were headed by Principal William Craft in his fourth year at Amerman, Principal Donald Van Ingen in his fourth year at Main Street (12th year as an Administrator in the District), and Principal Milton Jacob in his sixth year at Moraine.

her step-father William Sammons; junior class representative Luciene Taffalian, accompanied by her father Dicron Taffalian; and junior class representative Diane Frere, accompanied by her father Raymond Frere.

HOMECOMING QUEEN—Experiencing one of the treasured moments of parenthood is Joseph Holman as he escorts his daughter Mary Lou when she was named Northville's 1972 Homecoming Queen at half time ceremonies of the Northville-Farmington Harrison football game.

NO SWEAT—Winner of the float competition at Novi's Homecoming ceremonies Friday was this entry of the freshman class. Entitled "Dundee-No Sweat," the float consisted of a giant octopus clutching a can of spray deodorant. The float proved prophetic as the Wildcats rolled over Dundee 63-6. Float chairman for the freshmen was Lynette Moyle.

sonnel, including Art, Music, Physical Education, Reading, Speech Correction, Library and Special Consultant, who served our 1971-72 elementary enrollment of 1518 students in grades K-5. Instruction for these students was carried out within the 25 classrooms at Amerman School, 20 rooms at Main Street School, and 23 rooms at Moraine School.

The total enrollment of 3520 students in grades K-12 reflects an increase of 65 over September, 1971 enrollment and 289 over 1969-70. This increased student body was housed in our school buildings containing 153 classrooms, and received their education under the supervision of 129 full-time classroom teachers and 23 supporting staff members. Our classroom teacher-pupil ratio was 25.3 to 1, with a professional staff-student ratio of 21.7 to 1.

The 1971-72 school year found the District and the Northville Education Association working within the framework of a new one-year Agreement, which was reached in early September, 1971. This Agreement established general working conditions and fringe benefits for teachers and provided a salary schedule which ranged from a minimum of $8,400 to a maximum of $16,300. Raises granted teachers ranged from a low of $800 to a teacher holding a Bachelor's Degree to a high of $1,850 for a teacher with a Master's Degree. The salary schedule granted teachers with no experience and a B.A. Degree a starting salary of $8,400 and a maximum after 10 years of service with a B.A. Degree of $13,700. Beginning teachers with an M.A. Degree received $9,150, while teachers with 11 years or more of service holding an M.A. Degree received $16,300. A teacher with 30 hours of graduate work beyond the M.A. Degree received an additional $600. It is noted that the President's wage freeze was imposed on Northville teachers' salaries in 1971-72 and resulted in teachers not being eligible to receive their negotiated salary increases until mid-November. Salary losses to teachers resulting from this action ranged from a low of $115.30 for the least experienced teacher to a high of $502.30 for the least experienced teacher to a high of $502.15 to a more experienced teacher.

Our Extra-Curricular Program was maintained at the same level of 1970-71, with a minimal adjustment in the salary schedule. The District is pleased and proud of the many honors which our Extra-Curricular Program brought our students, staff and schools during this year.

The total accomplishments of your Board of Education and the Professional Staff of the Northville Public Schools were many and far-reaching. The school year 1971-72 constitutes another productive, rewarding and educational year for our children and citizens of all ages.

The community and schools continue to grow. May we continue to work together in meeting the needs and demands of our growing community and ever-changing society.

The support and cooperation of the citizens of this School District are appreciated, and they are of the utmost importance if we are to continue to move forward in the task of providing a well-rounded education for the children of the Northville Public Schools.

A free Pap Test Clinic will be conducted at the Vocational Educational Center, 1000 Beck road, near Wixom, November 14 through November 17 from 9:30 a.m. until 4:00 p.m.

Appointments are required for the free Pap tests. They can be made by calling the Michigan Cancer Foundation North Oakland Unit at 332-5620 or 332-8679 weekdays between 10:00 a.m. and 4:00 p.m.

Sponsored by the Michigan Cancer Foundation, the UF's only cancer control agency, the four-day Pap Test Clinic is part of a program initiated in January, 1971, by the MCF to significantly reduce the number of deaths from cervical cancer in Wayne, Oakland, Macomb, and Monroe Counties.

"Each year some 45,000 women develop cancer of the uterus or womb," said Michael J. Brennan, M.D., President of the Michigan Cancer Foundation. "Foremost medical opinion contends that if every woman in the country had a Pap test examination every year, the number of deaths from uterine cancer could be cut by as much as 90 per cent."

Developed by the late Dr. George N. Papanicolaou, the Pap test is a simple, painless five-minute microscopic examination of cells which have been shed from the uterus into the vagina as a part of the normal life process. The cells are collected from the vaginal wall and studied for alterations in the color, size, and shape of the cell nucleus. Cells with completely normal nuclei are classified as negative for cancer. Extremely abnormal nuclei indicate a diagnosis of positive for cancer.

Because it is a disease of disordered cells, cancer reveals itself in individual cells before the disease becomes evident in physical symptoms. The Pap test is invaluable in that it can detect early, pre-invasive, highly curable stages of cancer as early as eight to ten years before the disease enters the late, serious stages.

When cervical cancer is diagnosed at these early stages, usually only a two-day hospital stay and a minor operation are required.

"Every woman should get a Pap test annually," said John Kroehling, Vice-Chairman of the Michigan Cancer Foundation North Oakland Unit Cancer Committee. "As a former cancer patient, I know that early detection is the best way to keep from getting trapped in a prison of fear."

The Pap tests will be administered by MCF staff nurses and volunteer MCF registered nurses from Oakland County. Assisting them at the four-day clinic will be students from the Vocational Educational Center, who will direct patients and help prepare rooms for the Pap tests as a part of their training to become doctors' assistants.

Members of the Walled Lake Jaycees will act as registrars at the clinic.

The free Pap tests are open to all women at least 18 years old. Those under 18 must be accompanied by a parent or guardian.

Novi Councilmen Disagree

Voting Machine Purchase Approved

A request of the Novi city council by two members of Novi High School teacher Del Muson's government class for use of one of the city's voting machines was satisfied last week, but not until the seemingly harmless issue had threatened to renew long-standing hostilities between the school board and the city council.

By a 4-2 vote the council Tuesday agreed to join with the school board in purchasing a used voting machine at an approximate cost of $350.

The machine will be utilized both by the government class and the city's elections committee.

At approximately the same time of the council's ratification, the school board voted the purchase of the machine regardless of the council's action.

Opposing the purchase of the machine were Councilmen Louie Campbell and Edwin Presnell. Specific grounds for their opposition was the advisability of joint ownership, but past areas of difference between the two Novi legislative bodies also slipped into the conversation.

The whole voting machine issue was raised three weeks ago when two Novi students approached the council to request the use of a voting machine to hold a mock election of the high school student body. The results of the election would be interesting and the educational advantages of learning to operate the machine would be valuable, they argued.

That original request was denied, however, due to problems with moving the city voting machines and, after some discussion, the alternate solution of having the city and the school jointly purchase a used machine was proposed.

At the insistence last week of Mayor Joseph Crupi, who argued that if the city is to spend funds it must derive a direct benefit, council approval of the expenditure was delayed until City Clerk Mabel Ash and School Superintendent Gerald Kratz could arrive at a general agreement that the machine would be available to the city for the time period specified by law before and after every election.

When that assurance was made known to the council Tuesday, the motion to accept half the cost of the machine was made.

"If the city needs a voting machine then the city should buy a voting machine," Campbell argued when the motion was introduced.

"That way it will be our property and there will be no question about when we can or can't use it."

"If the school needs a voting machine then they should buy one," he continued.

"I for one am sick and tired of being the whipping boy in these situations. Any time anything is brought up between the school board and the council, the council catches hell for it. We bend over backwards to help the school board, but whenever something like this comes up we get it shoved in our face if we don't go along with what they want."

While Presnell's objections to the purchase of the machine also concerned the problems of joint ownership, the councilman also pointed out that the schools get 36 mills in taxes, while the city operates on 6.5 mills.

The prevailing opinion was voiced by Councilman Donald Young, who said he thought all the controversy was "ridiculous."

"I hate to own joint property, too, because it's hard to administer," said Young, "but for $175 all this is ridiculous. In the interests of good public relations I'm in favor of helping buy the machine."

The motion to finance half the machine was passed 4-2 with Presnell and Campbell voting negatively.

School Approval Given, Too

Purchase of a used voting machine, costing up to $500, was authorized by the Novi Board of Education last week.

The board voted to purchase following a report by Superintendent Gerald Kratz, that high school government class students had suggested such a machine would be a valuable tool in the classroom learning process.

Concurring, the superintendent said that while city officials had not yet acted favorably upon his suggestion that the city share the cost he was still hopeful a cooperative effort would be possible.

The board then voted to purchase the machine at school expense, and it provided that the machine may be used by the city whenever it is not in use by the school.

Board members also praised students and their teacher for initiating the proposal.

LEO HAZEN
The kind of man you'd want for sheriff.

What do you look for in a man who seeks the job of Sheriff of Oakland County? Experience? Achievement? Administrative skill? Professional dedication? Well, Leo Hazen has it all. He's the candidate with a solid 24-year career in the Sheriff's Department, with actual experience in every phase of department operations. From the patrol car, through the detective bureau, to his current job as Under-Sheriff of Oakland County. Leo Hazen's the man who set up the Oakland County Trusty Camp. # Drain Rebates Told For South Oakland

Vote

O'BRIEN

County Commissioner

24th District — Democrat

(Pd. Pol. Adv.)

Oakland County Drain Commissioner William Richards has announced a "mini-revenue sharing" program which will return $500,000 to South Oakland County cities from the operation of the South Oakland County sewage disposal system.

The rebate is the result of a surplus in the system's reserve for pollution control held by Commissioner Richards to pay the Detroit

Metro Water Department for treatment of South Oakland storm water entering Detroit from the Dequindre intercepter.

Richards directs the South Oakland County Sewage Disposal System as agent for the county under contract with the participating municipalities.

Richards said he was rebating the money directly to the cities and that checks would be mailed during the week of October 30.

Rebates to each community were as follows: Berkley, $31,070; Beverly Hills, $3,650; Birmingham, $19, 570; Clawson, $24,425; Ferndale, $80, 310; Hazel Park, $13,265; Huntington Woods, $16,705; Madison Heights, $29,745; Oak Park, $71,000; Pleasant Ridge, $6,270; Royal Oak, $141,330; Royal Oak Township, $11,815; Southfield, $32,530; Troy, $5,455; City of Detroit, $10,490, and Oakland County DPW, $2,370.

It's First Come, First Accepted

"Do it Now".
That's the word of advice from Schoolcraft President C. Nelson Grote for residents of the college district who are planning to enroll at the College, particularly in courses that are presently filled and for which there may be a waiting period.

The President's advice has been prompted by a special provision in the current state appropriations act which funds community colleges. The provision stipulates that at Schoolcraft and the 28 other public community colleges in Michigan, in-district and out-of-district students shall be treated equally in assignment to classes or courses of study.

And, failure to comply with this stipulation could result in the state withholding all state aid payments from the College.

For the past year, Schoolcraft College at the direction of Dr. Grote has been giving in-direct students preference in admissions as a matter of administrative procedure. This meant that district residents were given preference in admission to programs where waiting lists existed or where enrollment was restricted, and that out-of-district students were taken only where space permitted.

LUTHERAN CHURCH SERVICES

Place: American Legion Hall
Corner of Dunlap and N. Center

Services: Sunday Morning Worship - 10:30 a.m.

Bible Study: Monday evening - 8:00 p.m.

Pastor Don E. Burch
We Believe - There is no other way to eternal life than through Jesus' death and Resurrection
We Believe - That Jesus has told us to get out into the world and teach people His Word
We Believe - That the matter is urgent and demands that we do it now - salvation cannot be put off 'til a more convenient time
This Lutheran mission in the Northville-Nowi area is sponsored by the Federation for Authentic Lutheranism. FAL is a church body in fellowship with the Wisconsin Evangelical Lutheran Synod and the Evangelical Lutheran Synod.

ALL ARE WELCOME

This practice is now prohibited by law. Dr. Grote pointed out that the provision was not in the original bill passed by the Michigan Senate and the House. It was the result of action taken by the Conference Committee on the appropriations bill, which was then adopted by both Houses and signed into law by the Governor.

At Schoolcraft, student's eligibility for classes and programs will be determined by the date their application is complete and they have been enrolled in the College.

JFK Portrait

"JFK," a critically acclaimed dramatic portrait of President John F. Kennedy by actor Jeremiah Collins, will be presented November 6 at the O'Leary Performing Arts Center in Garden City.

An original one-man show that played off-Broadway in 1971, curtain-time for the single local performance of JFK is 8 p.m. It is the product of almost two years of concentrated study by Collins, and has been called an outstanding portrayal.

Critics and playgoers across the country have acclaimed JFK for its authenticity. The Washington Star reported, "Jeremiah Collins' inflection, accent, gestures and movements were absolutely identical with John F. Kennedy's." And of Collins' portrayal of the late president, the New York Times printed, "Jeremiah Collins visually slipped into his skin."

JFK LOOK-ALIKE

JFK is a presentation of the Schoolcraft College Public and Cultural Affairs Committee. It is the second program presented this season in a member district of the college. Earlier, the Don Ellis Orchestra was sponsored at Clarenceville's Schmidt Auditorium.

Tickets for JFK are priced at $3 for general admission, and $2 for Schoolcraft students. There is also a special $2 rate for other students in group purchases through the schools.

Tickets may be reserved by calling Schoolcraft's Community Services Office at 591-6400. Group rate information is also available at this number. Tickets may be purchased on campus daily, from 1 to 4 and 6 to 9 p.m. in the Administration Building.

Carole Terry, 43625 Nine Mile Road, was recently pledged into the Kappa Phi Club at Western Michigan University. The organization is part of the campus ministry program of the United Methodist Church.

This group of women is a service organization which supports both community projects and projects on the Kalamazoo campus.

'Red Ball' Project Starts in Novi

Operation Red Ball, a program designed to protect families from fire, is being initiated in Novi by the Novi Jaycees this week.

The Operation Red Ball stickers - red vinyl circles approximately four inches in diameter - will be distributed to children in all Novi elementary schools Friday. In addition, Jaycee project chairman Thomas Bayer indicated that the stickers would be made available in banks, churches, and other public places throughout the city.

The stickers should be placed in the upper left corner of the bedroom windows of children and invalids. The Red Ball alerts a fireman as to the location of people who need held and thus speeds rescue operations by life-saving seconds.

The program has received the endorsement of both the Novi school board and city council as well as the police and fire departments. Lieutenant William Osborn of the Novi Fire Department and LaVerne DeWard, President of the School Board, will be on hand in the elementary schools Friday to help explain the program to the youngsters.

The program is sponsored on the national level by the American Red Ball Transit Company, and international moving company with headquarters in Indianapolis.

Proposal 'B' Gives You These Choices:

- ☐ I Sanction the Killing of Unborn Babies
In the Womb Up to 5 Months of Pregnancy
- ☐ I Believe That Life - From Conception to Death - Is Precious
And I Will Not Give Others The Right to Take it It

Those of us who have been given the privilege of living find ourselves in a position to legally deny that privilege to others. History records many such opportunities—Genocide has been practiced on nations and races in the names of many ideals. But only now have humans thought seriously of eliminating other humans before they are born.

Unborn babies cannot fight back. They have no lobby in Washington. No army. Not even picket-carriers.

So we are voting on a Death Decree to the most defenseless of Human Beings.

If Proposal 'B' Passes, 1/3rd of All Unborn Babies Will be Legally Destroyed

A fetus—an unborn child—is not a vague blob of matter inside a woman. It is a distinct, separate human being. It has the same organs as you and I. It is a PERSON in every legal, moral and medical sense, except it must remain in the mother for nourishment and protection for nine months.

Neither the mother nor society have the right to take the life of this person.

Proponents of "abortion reform" seek to solve many problems of the living by denying life to the unborn. They want to correct the mistakes of today's people by killing tomorrow's people. This is the lowest possible form of justice, and is certainly not a reform.

The answers to overcrowding, poverty, pollution, "the quality of life" are not to be found in the destruction of life.

Please Look Over The Choices - Death or Life - And Then Decide, If You Prefer Life

Jackson Action at Downs

They're Off 'n Running Monday

An even dozen Northville and Northville area stables have been allotted stalls for the 47 nights of Jackson's Action at Northville Downs. The meet, under the direction of Leon A. Slavin, president and general manager of Jackson Trotting Association gets underway Monday, November 6, and continues through December 30. Only Sundays, and Christmas Day, December 25 will be dark. Post time for the first race nightly has been set for 8 p.m.

Heading the local stables is Briar Lea Farm, whose trainer, Frank Alexander was granted 11 stalls for the meet. The Briar Lea Farm string was particularly successful at the recently completed Jackson meet. Among its wins were two by Briar Lea Andy, in the Invitational pacing series, top competition there Youthful Pete O'Hare has been handling most of the driving chores.

Two of the larger area stables in for the meet are the 14-head public stable of Carl Allen, the eight-head string owned by Charles Farber. Both are from Brighton. Allen has been competing successfully at Hazel Park, and Bea Farber, who does the great majority of driving for the Farber string was a sensation at the Jackson meet where she posted a near .500 driving average with ten wins in her more than 30 starts for the meet. Mrs. Farber, who could well be the national driving champion among women drivers this year, will meet formidable competition in the line from another top woman reinsman, June Weller, of Republic, Ohio. Mrs. Weller, who holds a woman's World Record driving Red Dominion to a 1:59 four-fifths win. She is expected to be accompanied by her daughter Jayne Weller, also a world record holder.

Other Northville, and area stables set to compete during the meet include George Davis, 10 head, Donna Frizell, three head, Mike Gale, three head, Gene Priest, one, Gordon Norris, 16 head, all Northville residents; Roger Edwards, five head, Rangeway Acres, four head, Howard Niles all South Lyon; and Howard McVey of Wixom

It looks very much like summer calibre stock for the fall-winter meet here, a spokesman said. Some 282 stables, from far and wide requested space

County Commission Candidates

Continued from Page 3-D enhanced by this background. Further personal information about me reveals that I have an honorable discharge from the United States Army Security Agency, having served for thirty-two months in the Far East, and for the past seven years I have served on the Zoning Board of Appeals. Of particular interest to me has been the work I have done with retarded children through the Jaycees. During this campaign my opponent has been talking about how she is going to change all of the faults of Wayne County government when and if she gets downtown. I am not so foolish and I don't think the people of this district are so foolish as to think that one lone commissioner can impose his will on the other elected officials such as the County Prosecutor and the County Sheriff along with the appointed commissioners of the Wayne County Road Commission.

Your commissioner must work with these people, to extract the most effective service for our district. This is just what I PLEDGE to do for the best interests of the people of Northville and Northville Township. There are five areas of improved service I hope to get the County moving on and I will do everything I can to get them accomplished during my term of office. These things I believe.

I BELIEVE that the Sheriff and the Sheriff's Department should devote all of its energies to police work, and that the housekeeping and care of prisoners at the County jail should be conducted by a professional jail administrator.

I BELIEVE that the problems of our youth necessitate the opening of an out-county juvenile counseling and training center in conjunction with an out-county branch of the Juvenile Court.

I BELIEVE that the Commissioners must establish a more comprehensive property tax assessment division, so that property tax equalization truly reflects property values.

I BELIEVE that the presently unused mental health facility at Merriman Road and Michigan Ave., with 1400 empty beds, can be converted into a drug addiction treatment center.

I BELIEVE that the cost of our County operations can be reduced by consolidating agencies which duplicate services. This type of economy is no different than that which we must practice in our households and businesses.

These are realistic areas of much needed improvement or new service that can be accomplished with little or no cost to the property taxpayers of the County.

At a time when we are choosing a President, Senator, Congressman and State Legislator let us not forget the importance of all of the local officials who give of their time and energy to make our community a better place to live. I am running for County Commissioner because I also want to contribute to their effort.

DEMOCRATIC

In an attempt to acquaint electors with the candidates whose names will appear on the November 7 ballot, the staffs of the Northville Record-Novi News, Brighton Argus, and South Lyon Herald have prepared this election guide — a supplement to your regular weekly newspaper edition.

Before you begin reading, we suggest that you first orientate yourself by checking, on the opposite page, for the precincts and districts within your voting area. For example, if you live in Northville Township, find out what precinct you live in, notice the various congressional and legislative districts in your area, and then using the index turn to those pages indicated and find the biographical sketches of the candidates for the two major political parties for whom you will vote.

REPUBLICAN

A special feature of this edition is the sample ballot that appears on Pages 10, 11. A careful reading of this ballot will save you valuable time when you enter the voting booth.

STATE OF MICHIGAN

SPECIAL TRIBUTE

LET IT BE KNOWN

That MARVIN R. STEMPIEN is leaving the House of Representatives after 3 terms in office.

In his 6 years in Lansing, Marvin Stempien has given selflessly of his very considerable talents and energy in finding solutions to the very complex problems facing the people of Michigan. A strong advocate of consumer protection laws, he was instrumental in the creation of the Michigan Consumer Council and worked very hard in securing the passage of the State's present laws protecting consumers.

In his first term in office Marvin Stempien served as a member of the Governor's Blue Ribbon Commission on Court Reform. In this capacity he contributed in no small way to the reformation of the State's court system. A proponent of district courts, he was successful in contributing to the realization of the district court system.

Mindful of man's abuse of his environment, Marvin Stempien's dynamism exhibited itself in the passage of very significant legislation concerning natural resources and ecology. He was a cosponsor of the "Environmental Control Act of 1970" and the "Truth in Pollution Act of 1970". Recognition of his concern for the environment came in 1971 when he was nominated to receive the "Conservationist of the Year" Award by the Michigan United Conservation Clubs.

Evidence of his superb leadership qualities and devotion to hard work are amply attested to by his service as Majority Floor Leader and his membership in the very important House Committee on Appropriations where he is Chairman of the Subcommittees on General Government and on Computers. He is also a member of the Legislative Council and the House Fiscal Agency Board. In these positions he has demonstrated himself to be deeply concerned with legislative efficiency.

Born in Detroit on July 26, 1933, a graduate of the University of Detroit High School, the University of Michigan School of Business Administration and recipient of the degree of Juris Doctor from the Detroit College of Law in 1960, Marvin Stempien is married to the former Corinne Lotowski and is the father of 4 daughters Lynne, Christine, Sharon and Lisa.

In 1966 the Lansing Press Corps named Marvin Stempien as the "Outstanding Freshman Representative" of that year. His performance in every year since he was so honored has been nothing less than outstanding; now therefore

IN SPECIAL TRIBUTE, This document is signed and sealed to accord MARVIN R. STEMPIEN a unanimous accolade of tribute for his years of exemplary service to the people of Michigan.

Our Man in Washington Was One Step Ahead

" I have never favored forced busing to achieve racial balance in our schools and voted against it as far back as 1964. I have always supported the goal of equality that I feel we all must share, and my votes on civil rights legislation in the Congress make this very clear.

The very first bill I introduced in the Congress was to repeal the automobile excise tax. This was my first campaign pledge. Last year, we finally repealed this unfair and discriminatory tax. I am proud to have led and won this fight, for this has been a great boost for the economy, for employment, for consumers, and for Michigan.

Long before Earth Day 1970 I had voted for Federal Water Pollution Control, Clean Air Act Amendments, the Clean Water Restoration Act, and the Air Quality Act. Since then, I have voted for more than a dozen major environmental bills, and helped secure over a million dollars of federal funds for M.S.U. for environmental research.

As a member of the House Ways and Means Committee, I helped to shape the Tax Reform Act of 1969. It reduced individual income taxes by $19 billion while increasing corporate taxes by $5 billion. But still more must be done. For example, right now I feel there's an urgent need to provide property tax relief. **"

Why people in Salem Township are voting for Shirley Burgoyne

NIGHT COURT. Crowded dockets result in wasted time. Working people must take off a whole day, and wait for their case to come up. I will establish a night court for domestic relations cases, and alleviate the backlog of cases.

HONESTY. Only sincere and honest judges can encourage criminal rehabilitation.

LAW AND ORDER. The only way to restore respect of the law is to combine common sense with a thorough knowledge of the law.

EXPERIENCE. I am the most experienced candidate, with 16 years divorce work and criminal defense. I have tried all cases, from murder and forcible rape to the smallest misdemeanors.

COUNTY COMMISSIONER
19th DISTRICT-DEMOCRAT

Elect . . . ELDON

RAYMOND COUNTY COMMISSIONER 19th DISTRICT—DEMOCRAT ELDON RAYMOND BELIEVES:

- I believe that the cost of County Operation can be reduced by consolidating agencies which duplicate County Services. This type of economy is no different than that which we practice in our households and business.
- I believe that the Sheriff and the Sheriff's Department should devote all of its energies to police work, and that the housekeeping and care of prisoners at the County Jail should be conducted by a professional administrator.
- I believe that the problems of our youth necessitate the opening of an out County Juvenile Counseling and Training Center in conjunction with an Out County Branch of Juvenile Court.
- I believe that the Board of Supervisors must establish a more comprehensive property tax assessment division so that property tax equalization truly reflects property values.
- I believe that the present mental health facility at Merriman and Michigan, with 1,400 unused beds can be converted into drug addiction treatment center; I believe this is a must.

This is just a brief summary of some of the complex problems, but I thought you might like to know.
