Downs, city win fight to retain racing dates

Threat of possible loss of racing dates at Northville Downs vaporized this week.

And local officials are singing the praises for Racing Commissioner F.F. Fauri, who decided to give the local track virtually the same number of racing dates that it received last year.

"This is a major victory for Northville," said Mayor Paul Vernon, who along with others had battled an attempt by the Hazel Park and Livonia track interests to grab additional harness racing dates for themselves at the expense of Northville.

"Obviously, the racing commissioner withstood heavy pressure from the two big tracks in making his decision. I really respect him for it," Vernon said.

"We're flying," enthused Downs Executive Manager John Carlo, who hailed Fauri's Monday announcement as good news—even though it means one less night of racing in 1980 for the Downs meet.

The Downs 1980 meet will run for 83 nights, from Tuesday, January 1 through Saturday, April 5.

Jackson Trotting Association meet at the Downs next year will run for 61 nights—two more nights than it has this year—from October 20 (Monday) through December 31 (Wednesday).

(Incidentally, the Jackson-at-Northville 1979 meet will get underway here October 22).

Pressure referred to by the mayor was exerted by the partners who own the tracks in Hazel Park and Livonia where, unlike Northville, both harness and thoroughbred racing meets are conducted.

The big track owners had pressed for "parity" in awarding of harness racing dates in Michigan, which meant simply that because they figured they could make more money on harness racing than thoroughbred racing they suggested 30 nights of harness racing be taken away from Northville and Jackson so that the dates could be more evenly distributed.

The big tracks, however, fared no better than last year.

Wolverine Harness Raceway in Livonia will have 84 nights of harness racing, from July 14 through October 18, while Hazel Park will have 84 nights from April 7 through July 12.

Jackson's own meet in Jackson will be split—35 nights from April 18 through June 15, and 44 nights from August 20 through October 18.

In addition, Fauri awarded a 57-night meet to the Saginaw Valley Trotting Association at the Saginaw Fairgrounds—June 16 through August 19.

SEMCOG vote angers super sewer backers

Suburban political leader said Detroit officials "doublecrossed" Western Wayne County by helping defeat an endorsement of the so-called "Super Sewer" project.

The executive committee of the Southeast Michigan Council of Governments split 15-15 Friday on whether to endorse Super Sewer, a Wayne County Department Public Works plan to build a sewage treatment plant at the mouth of the Huron River with sewer lines extending to Canton Township.

Nevertheless, other county officials were confident Super Sewer will be built anyway.

Eighteen votes were needed for SEMCOG to endorse the project, seen as critical for industrial development in the western suburbs along the I-275 freeway.

Richard Manning, chairman of the Wayne County Board of Commissioners, revealed after the meeting that suburban commissioners thought Detroit would support them.

"They told us that if the out-county would modify its position on SEMTA, they would support this ... that the City of Detroit would vote for the sewer needs of Western Wayne County," said Manning in an interview.

By "modifying its position" on SEMTA, Manning said, suburban commissioners agreed in caucus to tell their three appointments on the Southeastern Michigan Transportation Authority it would be all right to support a partial subway in the Woodward corridor—a project cherished by Mayor Coleman Young.

A tightlipped Manning added grimly, "However, a review of our SEMTA positions is imminent and on the (Detroit) Downtown Development Authority."

Detroit's three votes on the SEMCOG executive committee were all cast against Super Sewer. Had they voted for it, SEMCOG would have endorsed the nearly 20-year-old plan.

Plymouth area officials were elated, however, at SEMCOG's refusal to endorse a project they considered unnecessary, costly and a contributor to urban sprawl.

Northville artist

Pope John painting featured during visit

By ELLEN SPONSER

Who says dreams don't come true? A Northville woman had both her dreams and prayers answered when a painting she did this summer of Pope John II ended up on the cover of 25,000 copies of the missal used in the Pope's Polish Mass in Chicago last week.

For artist Linda Wikowski, 24, of 21705 Currie Road, it all began when she decided this summer she wanted to paint a picture of the pope.

"I just decided to do it, and if I could sell it, I could give part of the funds to charity," she said.

Trouble was, she did not know exactly what type of picture she would like to paint. "I knew I wanted to paint a different type of picture," she says.

So she contacted the sisters at Our Lady of Mercy High School and asked them for advice. A sister there connected her with Father Zdzislaus Peszkowski at St. Mary's Orchard Lake Seminary, who is a friend of the pope.

"Father Peszkowski gave me some personal photographs and snapshots he had of the pope. I chose three, and worked from those. But I also talked with Father Peszkowski and got that special feeling of what the pope was really like."

During July and August, Linda painted the 25-inch by 31-inch watercolor when she could find time between her art-restoration internship at Greenfield Village and classes.

"Then I left the picture at St. Mary's in September. And one day I got a telephone call saying that they wanted to use it on the missal in Chicago."

Amazed, Linda, her mother and sister all headed for Chicago, where they were invited to the special small Polish mass at 8 a.m. Friday at Five Holy Martyrs Church.

"I sat within 150 feet of the pope during the mass," she said.

She signed one of the missals and was told it would reach the pope. For Linda, the entire experience is still unbelievable.

"When I painted the picture I did not plan that it would reach the cover. I followed my instincts. The whole thing has been wonderful. Any artist wishes that his work be seen. They did a beautiful job on the missal cover with the color. And it was even a higher compliment that there was no other lettering on the front of the missal."

"I don't know how to explain what I saw or how I felt. It was the experience of a lifetime."

Now the artist, who holds a bachelor of fine arts degree from Michigan State University, is planning to go into the complicated field of art restoration.

"I'm ready to move onto the next project," she says modestly.

One has the feeling that Linda Wikowski has a few more dreams up her sleeve.

A SPECIAL MEETING of the Northville Township Board of Trustees scheduled for 8 p.m. today has been cancelled, Township Supervisor Don Thomson said yesterday. The meeting, which was to be a discussion of the township's budget problems, will be rescheduled by the trustees at their regular monthly meeting tomorrow, Thomson said. The supervisor said the meeting will likely be held next week.

PERMISSION to conduct a car wash in the municipal parking lot on Main, opposite Northville Square, has been granted Girl Scout Troop 638 by the city council. The wash is to be held from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Saturday, October 13.

COMMENDING his citizenship, the city council has granted Timothy Potter permission to conduct a conservation project in the wooded park property owned by the city in the vicinity of Hill and Maple. The beautification project, which represents the last step in Potter's climb towards scouting's coveted Eagle Scout award, is to be conducted later this month.

Pianist Varani is toreodor of the concert hall

By ELLEN SPONSELLER

If you don't keep up with concert pianists you may have never heard of Flavio Varani who will be playing Sunday afternoon at Northville's Marquis Theatre.

But if you miss him then you will have only yourself to blame.

Extremely famous in his own country, Brazil, and well known around the world, Varani somehow manages to be both completely professional and absolutely charming at the same time.

Part Italian, part Brazilian, he was born in Sao Paulo, studied in Paris and is now an American citizen. He's around 30 ("I'm not old, just established") and is especially talkative. He radiates creative cheerful tension like he is forever just about to jump onto a flying trapeze.

"When I came here people said, why leave New York for Detroit?" he says, hands moving expressively. "But I decided I had to have a place called home. I did not want to wait in New York. I did not want to fight for pupils. I decided I couldn't be a Bohemian student anymore."

When Oakland University in Rochester offered Varani a guest-artist status, he took it, and he has stayed here for six years. He just moved into a little brown-shingled house in Birmingham. His Steinway grand piano takes up the whole living room.

"I know all the communities here. I've played with everyone. More community symphonies exist in Detroit than in New York," he says. Last year I played in West Bloomfield with the Detroit Symphony to a full hall. It could have been Paris."

Varani has played recently with the Detroit Symphony at Meadowbrook, the West Bloomfield Symphony, Scandinavian Symphony and the Oakway Symphony. He teaches 30 students in a master's class at Oakland. He recently returned from Brazil where he taped six television specials. He just came back from New York. And coming up this week are concerts at Flint, Marquette and Northville. But with all the hectic travel, he likes this area. "When I saw Birmingham I knew I could spend my life here. I never meet anyone who doesn't say hello," he says.

Birmingham may be a more permanent spot, then, for Varani who has never lived more than two years in any one place.

The unusual life began when he was just a child in Sao Paulo.

"As a child I wanted to play the violin. I thought if you stood up to play an instrument it was better than sitting down."

Varani was instead given a piano for Christmas when he was seven.

"At first my mother said I was too young for lessons. So I listened at the door when my brother had his lesson. Then afterward I would try it and it seemed very simple to me."

His father was his severest critic. "If I was boring he would fall asleep. I thought, how can I keep my father awake? And that is it, if you can keep an audience from falling asleep."

At age nine Varani had a series of television programs. At age 13 he left for Paris to study under and live with the great Magda Tagliaferro.

By age 16 his parents wanted him to settle down.

"They said it was about time to become a real person," he says. But Varani kept on with his music and won the international Chopin contest in Mallorca, Spain when he was just 18. Then he came to America, with no money.

"I was a Bohemian musician. I taught folk guitar lessons. I would borrow the kid's bicycle from the family I was living with and ride to people's houses to give them lessons. Of course I didn't speak a word of English so I would tell the kid to get the words to 'Blowing in the Wind' off the record and I would find the chords."

Varani enrolled in Juilliard School of Music in New York City where he got his master's degree. But he did not really like the school.

"It is a professional school but I came to resent it," he says. You can only create an artist by putting them on stage and letting them break their necks. The good ones will survive. If I would do anything for young pianist I would put them on stage and just let them give as many concerts as possible."

"When I was in school the teachers said the freedom I was taking with the music were distortions. And I began to believe them."

But when Varani left Juilliard he realized that his Paris teacher, Mme. Tagliaferro's style was better.

"I realized she had a truly great style that has been missing in concerts for years, he said. "The American music schools are good, maybe too good. The academic side of music is perfect after years of study. By the time you are out you know music as a science."

"But music is not a science. It is an art."

Varani's dream came true recently when he persuaded Mme. Tagliaferro to come to the United States to play. But the 89-year-old teacher had already been invited to play in Carnegie Hall. (She played in New York last weekend to rave reviews.)

"I knew American audiences would react to her," Varani says with enthusiasm. "She plays with a French, traditional, old-fashioned romantic style. Everybody is now crazy about that style. She plays very differently with a truly original freedom with time."

Varani criticizes much classical music played these days as having no imagination, vigor or personality.

"I hate to go to concerts. And why? Because the majority of concerts are boring. They forget here you cannot teach charisma and personality in a class. Young people play so beautifully all the time, like saccharin." The artist is not afraid to dare, to make you laugh, to play ugly to contrast with the beautiful," he says.

What is a professional pianist's life like?

Flavio Varani will be featured in concert Sunday at the Marquis Theatre

If you are Varani, it is a 24-hour-a-day hectic love affair with the piano.

"There are many things an artist gives up. You have to prepare and practice so if someone asks to go to a movie you have to say no. It looks like a very little thing but when you do it up, you can't go out to eat, you can't play soccer, you can't do anything."

"But the truth is you can't do anything in life without a price. All we performers look so spoiled. But you are on a different level. You become sensitive to so many things. People find you demanding."

"You pay a family price. The only reason my family accepts what I'm doing is that I'm well known. Basically, they would prefer I would go home and become a lawyer."

Marriage and a family have place in Varani's life now.

"I am a very responsible person. If I had a family, I wouldn't be a concert pianist. You see, an artist must be absorbed with himself. He needs the time and the room and the passion... It is one of the prices you pay."

Varani does jog up to one hour every day, which gives him time "to dream." He also likes to sail and jump out of airplanes (with a parachute). He doesn't worry about ruining his hands like some pianists.

He insists you needn't be a dark philosopher to be a good classical musician. "You can be charming, you can be flirtatious in your music. Dare to be charming and comic and still be classical," he says.

He does get nervous before performances. "But it is so much fun to deal with it," he says.

"First, you hear the audience whispers. Then you see the piano waiting for you. Then comes the walk to the piano from the wings. It is the most important part of the concert. The way you walk in confesses how you feel to the audience. I must walk on stage the same way a toreodor walks when he sees the bull. There is no way to escape."

"The piano is alive. I am always challenged. Every time I walk into a concert hall I want to jump onto the stage. I feel like the piano is challenging me."

Varani is fully booked for the next year. He will make a series of recordings for Spectrum records in 1980. But he has no far-flung plans for the future. "I can speak, I can play, I can conduct and I can teach," he says.

For young pianists, he warns of the hard life of being a professional.

"Very few people can stand it," he says. "Only about two in my Juilliard class are concert pianists today in the public eye."

"Parents bring kids to me and ask if they have talent. I tell them talent is not enough. They must also have the desire and the strength. I have an incredible resiliency inside me."

"I can conceive of work that would be easier to do with less pressure, but I can't imagine doing it. Why should I worry about being THE pianist?" he asks exuberantly. "I may die tomorrow. My success is to be able to do what I want to do."

Recital is Sunday

Benning Dexter will present a piano recital at Schoolcraft College in the Waterman Campus Center, 18800 Haggerty Road, Livonia, at 4 p.m. Sunday, October 14.

Dexter is a native Californian who began music study and performance at an early age. He continued study on the West Coast until he was awarded a fellowship at the Juilliard School.

During five years there, his major instructors were Alexander Siloti in piano and Felix Salmond in chamber music.

Dexter will perform the works of Handel, Mozart, Beethoven, Ravel and Chopin. The recital is sponsored by the Schoolcraft Music Department and is free of charge.

Students face battery of tests measuring achievement, knowledge

By ELLEN SPONSELLER

About this time of year in nearly every grade, Northville students sit elbow to elbow chewing on number-two pencils, eyeing the clock, making marks on a computerized test page filled with tiny boxes. They hope to "go on to next page" before time runs out and they are forced to "stop here."

Between the ages of five and 18 students here will have taken eight such mandatory tests. The state of Michigan requires three of them. Northville requires five more. And nine others may be given at the counselor's, teacher's or student's discretion.

What are all the tests for?

"A test is just a tool we use to define weak areas," said Mike Burley, curriculum coordinator for the Northville school district. "When a doctor takes a person's blood pressure, he does not use that information alone. He interprets that information as part of the whole body. A test, likewise, should not be used alone. It is only one instrument to help kids," he said.

Basically, mandatory tests here fall into four categories: standardized tests, criterion reference tests, Scholastic achievement (for example, reading) tests and career inventory tests. Scores from all these tests are available to parents, Burley said. Students are also given their criterion reference test scores, he added.

Standardized tests, given in grades 3, 5 and 6 are designed to measure student achievement. The Metropolitan Achievement test and the Otis Lennon IQ test are used here.

The standardized tests inquire into a student's general knowledge and are designed so that 50 percent of students will answer the question correctly.

"Nationally, test scores have gone down. But Northville has a tradition of doing well on IQ standardized achievement tests," Burley said. He said last year's third-graders here performed six months above the average third grader. Sixth graders here performed at over a seventh grade level, he added.

Criterion Reference tests are given in grades 4, 7 and 10. The Michigan Department of Education has broken down components of subjects and test on these components (for example "reading comprehension").

Criterion tests are designed so that 80 percent of students will get 80 percent of the questions right. It is not, as a standardized test, designed to judge general knowledge of students but to "diagnose" areas in which the student is weak, Burley said.

"Assessment tests are not designed for comparison because performance objectives are not designed to do 'smarter than' comparisons, but are designed to see how many kids have achieved the minimum performance objectives," he said. "Assessment tests measure the lowest level of knowledge. Does the student have the basics? Can he read? Can he do math?"

Testing philosophy in Northville is that both achievement and criterion reference tests are needed.

An interest-attitude test, given here in the 9th grade, measures what the student provides as an honest description of his interests and attitudes. In Northville they take the Differential Aptitude test and the Career Planning Program.

"These tests used to be sex-biased; that is, they would have one test for the girls and one for boys," Burley said. Now all students are given the same test, he said.

Students get a print-out sheet stating what careers they would be suited for based on their interest and aptitudes.

A Metro-Instructional reading test is given in first grade to determine how well the student is reading. It is a scholastic aptitude test, determining how well the first-grader is doing in reading skills, so that if he or she does not do well some help can be given, Burley said.

Why give so many tests? And what do they actually tell about a student?

The states' philosophy is that a more accurate picture of a student is gotten when he or she is tested many times. "In this way the heavy burden of responsibility in a single measurement would carry more than one assessment," the philosophy states.

Can tests predict how well a student will do in life?

"What tests will predict is that if you do well on the third-grade assessment test, you will do well on the 7th grade and 10th grade assessment tests," Burley said. "It doesn't predict how well you will perform in school or out of school."

Burley concedes that the standardized tests have come under much criticism for not testing how well students write; and the criticism that all the tests do is to teach children how to take tests.

"These tests are not designed to test composition skills," he says. "Objective analysis of a composition can be done but it requires a person. These multiple choice tests lend themselves to machine scoring, with less time required. Computers are a little insensitive. But these tests work for what they were designed to do."

Burley said that at the junior high in Northville there are writing skills tests independent of state standardized tests.

He added that Michigan State University now has composition test as an entrance requirement.

Inside NHS

Rainfall damaging

Northville High School suffered minor damage and a big headache last week when the roof came off and the rain came in.

The Chaffee roofing Company, doing a $121,439 re-roofing job pulled off parts of the NHS roof Monday, October 1, and put in insulated fill which must cure for three days before a new roof can be stuck on.

Monday night, it rained.

Tuesday morning puddles up to one-inch deep flooded 12 classrooms and offices. Two mathematics classes and physics lab had to be rescheduled.

"It was inconvenient," said NHS Principal George Aune.

"It was a sloppy mess," said Ron Meteyer, who teaches science at the high school.

Rain poured through the roof and down the walls in much of the science wing. Overhead fluorescent lights filled with water. Newly purchased shades

More teachers recalled

All Northville elementary and institutions' Special Education Program (IEP) teachers have been recalled from layoff, Personnel Director Burton Knighton told the Northville Board of Education Monday night.

Six secondary teachers are still on layoff, he said.

The district had pink-slipped 24 ISEP teachers and 38 K-12 teachers last spring.

Recalled Monday were ISEP teachers Diane Best, Janet Damiani, Ansett, Darryl Lewis and Floyd Taylor.

Recalled in K-12 were: Mary Armstrong, Cathy Bloomfield, Mary Burg, William Dicks, Michelle Kotowicz, Brigida Miller, Stephen Sutherland and Marian Yockey.

A new teacher, Mary Jean McKay, was hired as a special education teacher for the emotionally impaired at Cooke Junior High.

Honored

A framed resolution, adopted recently by unanimous action of the city council, was presented to Northville Downs Executive Manager John Carlo (right) Monday afternoon in honor of his years of service to the community as well as to the race track.

In his honor, the council has named the library addition at the city hall (in background) after Carlo. Presenting the resolution was Mayor Paul Vernon (left) and Councilman Wallace Nichols.

Community band seeking new musical members

Forty-five musicians attended the inaugural rehearsal meeting October 3 of the newly formed Northville Community Band.

Jane Francoeur, the band's founder, and Director Robert Williams expressed delight at the large turnout.

"We had a true cross-section of the community — adults and students," reported Mrs. Francoeur. "With their combined musical talent and experience, we're off to a fast start."

Sponsored by the Northville Community Recreation Department, the band was formed to provide adults having a musical background with the opportunity to play in a band, as well as to offer additional training and performance experience to area students.

"Everyone is welcome," says Williams. "We hope to see the adults take full advantage of this opportunity."

"If they haven't played since their school days, that's no problem, because music is like riding a bike — once you've learned, you never forget. A couple of rehearsals and they'll be back in the swing of things. It's a great way to relax," he said.

The band meets from 7:30 to 9 p.m., Wednesday evenings in the band room at Cooke Junior High School on Taft.

Membership is open to all area adults and students and there is no fee. Plans call for a number of performances throughout the year, the first tentatively scheduled for December. For information concerning the band, call Ann Youngquist at 349-8173 or Mrs. Francoeur at 349-8242.

Students see pope

Six students from St. John's Seminary in Plymouth traveled to Philadelphia for an October 4 assembly with visiting Pope Paul II.

Fourth year students Mike Mardone, of Mount Clemens and Phillip Sessions of Lansing joined third year students Mike Malaway of Hamtramck and Allan Ranusch of Detroit along with second year seminarians Steve Koehler of Roseville and Gary Smetanka of Sterling Heights for the trip.

The students, whose names were selected at random from a hat, left Tuesday, October 2 and returned October 5.

were ruined. In the physics room water covered some electrical sockets.

What happened?

"This is a better job to do in the middle of summer," said Bob Muirhead, Chaffee spokesman. "With this type of roof we have to wait three days before the roof goes on. It is just one of those things that happens."

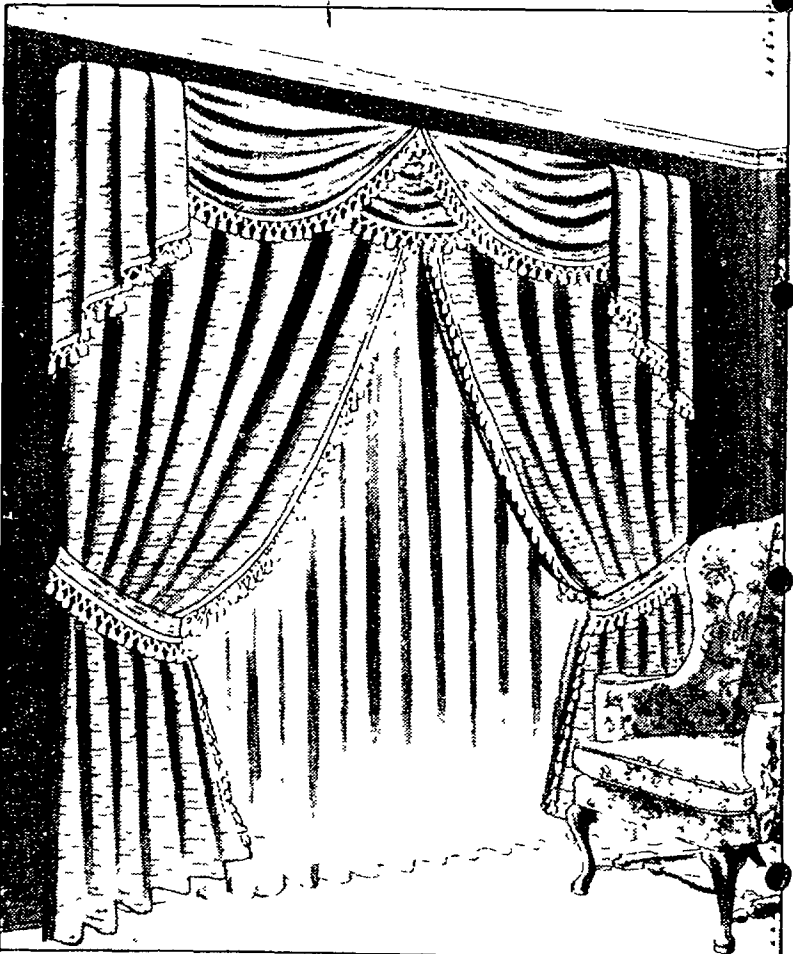

The chance of rain coming through the curing insulation is just an occupational hazard, Muirhead said. In fact, it could happen again at NHS before the roof is finished.

"The risk is still there," he said. Chaffee's insurance will pay for the damage.

Tuesday and Wednesday were spent vacuuming the puddles of water up at NHS with huge vacuums. But Wednesday the physics lab still had to be rescheduled.

In one physics room, textbooks and papers on the teacher's desk were soaked, Meteyer said.

This newest event just adds to the high school's physical problems. New terrazo flooring in the main halls is still not completed although original estimate were that it would be September 4.

Register this week for our Interior Home design seminar and learn how to give your home that personal touch.

Interested in making your home a little out of the ordinary? JCPenney can provide you with exciting hints and the know-how to create your own personal home interiors. In the 4 week seminar, our expert instructors will cover floor planning, the use of color and color accents, custom window treatments, floor coverings, and much more.

You will learn how easy it is to create a total look from wall coverings right down to decorative home furnishings.

Northville resident named Rap SEMCOG tie vote head of training school

A Northville man with training in clinical psychology and experience as a private human services agency executive and a child welfare licensing consultant was named this week to become overall administrator of the W. J. Maxey Boy's Training School at Whitmore Lake beginning October 15.

Neil H. Wasserman, 35, was selected to take charge of the facility for delinquent youth after four years of decentralized operations at the five-center Maxey campus.

The appointment follows by about 10 weeks a recommendation to hire a general administrator that was contained in a special Michigan Department of Social Services task force review of the state-run school.

MDSS Institutional Services Director Vergil Pinckney said the move was not intended to diminish the roles of the five separate center directors who, along with the administrator in charge of business services and maintenance, have worked together as an administrative board.

Instead, Pinckney explained, the new position was filled in an attempt to standardize operating procedures, improve community and public relations, and to deal with enhanced bargaining rights obtained by Maxey staff recently in extensive representation elections among the state workers there.

"The new administration will retain the strength of the previous system but minimize the weaknesses," Pinckney said. "Services to youth will remain basically unchanged. The treatment programs at Maxey are strong, but continued efforts will be made to achieve greater success."

Pinckney, who until two years ago spent the greater portion of his working time at the Maxey campus, added that he could no longer spend the time at the training facility and still meet his other responsibilities which include overseeing operations at youth training schools, centers and camps elsewhere in Michigan.

Wasserman, a Detroit native, attended the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor where he graduated in June, 1965, with a bachelor's degree in psychology. He spent the next four years in graduate school at Wayne State University where he completed all course work, practicum and an approved internship for a doctoral degree in clinical psychology.

At the time of his appointment he worked for the Department of Social Services as a child welfare licensing consultant in greater Detroit, evaluating public and private agencies on compliance with state standards for personnel, administration, services, physical surroundings and special services. He also maintained a private consulting practice for groups engaged in human services work in Wayne, Oakland, Macomb, Ingham and Livingston counties.

Wasserman is a member of the American and Michigan Psychological Associations, the Michigan Association of Children's Agencies, the Metropolitan Area Planning Committee (Subcommittee on Children and Youth) of the United Community Services of Metropolitan Detroit, and the American Association on Mental Deficiency. He is also a past member and former regional chairman of the Michigan Federation of Private Child and Family Agencies.

He worked as executive director of the Barat Human Services in Detroit from August, 1972, to April, 1978, as staff psychologist and director of social services at the St. Vincent and Sarah Fisher Home for Children in Farmington Hills from 1968 to 1972, and as a part-time instructor of psychology at Oakland Community College and Wayne State Community College at various times between 1969 and 1972.

Film show at Allen Terrace

The first film of Northville senior citizens' fall film program will be presented October 18 at Allen Terrace, 401 High.

The season opener, "The Best Things in Life Are Free," is a musical spoof of the Roaring Twenties.

Scheduled for November 15 is "The Cantervill Ghost," the tale of a cowardly ghost doomed to haunt a castle until someone in his family performs a brave act.

"Captains Courageous," with Spencer Tracy and Freddie Bartholomew, is the December 13 feature.

The films are open to all senior citizens in Northville and Northville Township and are shown the third Thursday of every month at 2 p.m.

Refreshments and discussion follow each of the free films, which are sponsored by the Friends of the Northville Library.

For more information about the senior citizen film programs, call the Northville Library at 349-3020.

Class hits tax blues

If those income tax blues are hitting you early this year you might want to get a jump on the rest by taking a non-degree course offered the Oakland University Division of Continuing Education in Farmington Hills and Rochester.

The five-week course will start October 22 and take you through basic procedures in preparing returns to take advantage of changes contained in the recent Revenue Act. The course will also cover legal deductions, how to complete various schedules, business income, capital gains, sales of residence and concerns of the individual class participants.

The course will be conducted from 7 to 9 p.m. Mondays at Harrison High School in Farmington Hills and at Oakland University.

Fidge told the SEMCOG group the Wayne County DPW was wrong when it advised them their communities were overcapacity in sewage discharge and advised them to join in support of Super Sewer. Mrs. Fidge said the county had confused the city's and the township's capacities.

Super Sewer's formal name is the Huron Valley Wastewater Control System. At one time, it was a giant of an idea, serving the Ann Arbor-Ypsilanti area of Washtenaw County, the Commerce-Nowi area of Oakland County, and the western range of cities and townships in Wayne County, including Northville.

The U.S. Environmental Protection Agency, however, scaled down the plan. First, Washtenaw County was eliminated two years ago. Next, further "study" was asked for the Oakland County portion, Northville and Plymouth.

As it stands, according to engineer Ken Bonin of the Wayne County DPW, the project would serve 185,000 persons from Canton Township south to Lake Erie, cost $217 million (80 percent federal) and 40 miles of sewer interceptor. This version is about half the size of the original.

The man who is confident Super Sewer will be built any way is Robert Fitzpatrick, head of the county's Economic Development Corporation. His job is to recruit industry to the suburbs.

Fitzpatrick, along with Commissioner William Sullivan of Wyandotte, noted that EPA had actually proposed the latest version and had achieved the reluctant consent of the Wayne County DPW. They saw little chance EPA would abandon it, although technically SEMCOG's action puts the project in limbo.

Fitzpatrick, a former Wayne County board chairman and SEMCOG chairman, also noted that SEMCOG's position wasn't really as "negative" as it appeared.

A resolution passed by SEMCOG's Regional Clearinghouse Review Committee (RC2) did give a "negative review" to the EPA's scaled down Super Sewer, but it did so on the grounds that more information was needed and that the expansion plans above Joy road were "too nebulous."

RC2 acted September 25, and backers of Super Sewer promptly appealed to the executive committee to reverse RC2. Mrs. Fidge pointed out that it was the first time in SEMCOG's 11 years that a reversal of an RC2 decision had been sought. When the executive committee failed last week to overturn RC2, it meant the RC2 "negative review" was SEMCOG policy.

Fitzpatrick noted RC2 did not use the arguments usually cited by opponents of Super Sewer — only that more answers were required.

Detroit opposed Super Sewer, according to John Kanter, Mayor Young's proxy, because "sewers promote population growth" at the expense of other areas in the SEMCOG region.

Kanter, director of the Detroit Water and Sewerage Department, added his office feared "possible loss of customers and revenue" if Canton and Plymouth joined the project. He said Detroit would, however, support a new treatment plant for the southwestern Wayne communities from Sumpter to Brownstown townships.

Monroe County delegates opposed Super Sewer, charging a malfunction would endanger their Lake Erie water supply.

The outlying counties of Washtenaw, Livingston and St. Clair joined Detroit and Monroe in providing 15 negative votes. The votes in favor came from Five Oakland County delegates, Nine Wayne County delegates and one from Macomb County.

Northville oldtimers recall 75 nicknames

Nicknames were such an indelible part of the community that many residents were never really known by their real names in years past.

In fact, recalled Charles Ely, Sr. recently, "I probably knew 'Dutch' Litzenger for 60 years but didn't have the faintest idea until recently that his real first name was Marcus.

"I'll bet other oldtimers won't remember any name but 'Dutch' either.

The abundance of nicknames in past years triggered a recent trip down memory lane by Ely, Alex Johnson, Russell Knight, Harry Sedan and Liza Wagenschutz.

Putting their collective heads together, the six came up with more than 75 nicknames of persons they have known in Northville over the years.

In disclosing the names, however, Ely emphasized that "we recalled them with fondness. In no way do we intend to embarrass anyone by recalling these names. Maybe other people will remember other

Milton Hall, Thurlow Masters and Lee Palmer — Red; Norman Copeland — Seefus; Lynn Partridge — Pheasant; Rollin Hollis — Duke; James Ely — Baby Face; Lawrence LeFevre — Lorney; Harry Shaeffer — Shike; Donald Ware — Beaner; Gerald Taft — Bean.

E.A. Champam — Chappie; Richard Smith — Brick; Lou Lanning — Sliver (there was Big Sliver and Little Sliver); Claude Morgan — Jake; Fred McCrumb — Tooter; Horace Boyden — Hod; Gary Deal — Sledge; Roy VanAtta — Fuzz; Clyde Merritt — Barefoot; Fredrick Kerr — Zede.

Arnold Jaska — Shag; L. German and Marcus Litzenger — Dutch; Milton Bradley, Thompson, and Fred Balko, Jr. — Shorty; Charles Ely, Jr. — Clancey; Ada Bloom — Spike; Earl Markham — Squirrely; Glenn Hammond — Lefty; Horsphall — Buzz; Clarence Bolton — PeeWee; Ivan Ely, Jr. — Chips; Lyle Kistell — Crock.

Merritt Young — Bud; Sam Hall — Kewpee; Alex Johnson — Swede; Ted Cavell — Bronc; Earnest Lyke — Cracky; Charles Ely, Charles LeFevre, and Charles Strauss — Chuck; Edgar Freydl — Egg; Charles Lapham — Ponty; Ned Junod — Bugs; Aubrey Gates, Aubie; Lloyd Gates — Gobby.

Alfred Sibley — Zip; Reed — Mohair; Hubbard — Jiggs; Edward Austin — Jigger; Dale Roberts — Deak; Ralph VanSickle — Bulleye; Harry Sedan — Peanut; Meryl Bolton, Russell Alger and Harold Merithew — Mutt; Howard Goodale — Oates; Reginald Hill — Hoot; Vivian Taylor — Mike; Nelson Schrader, Sr. — Pooney; Clifford LeFevre and Adolph Balden — Butch; Earl Stimpson — KiYi; Kenneth Beach — Firpo; Howard Dixon — Polly.

Gordon Allen — Curly; Willard Ely — Fink; Claude Ely — Pete; Linwood Miller — Dunby; Allen Locke — Rusty; Claude Hinchman — Buck; Frank Hinchman — Bo; Mrs. Richard Clark — Maw; Richard Ritchie — Skip; and Ed Shafer — Snuffy.

City police okay contract

A 1979-80 contract between the City of Northville and the police officers union has been ratified, with both sides calling the new pact a good one.

The new contract provides a wage structure with a range over three years of $10,234 to $12,771 for dispatch clerks; $10,234 to $13,229 for police cadets; $12,938 to $15,059 for community service officers; and $15,350 to $20,800 for patrolmen.

Here are some of the other provisions of the new contract:

- All permanent full-time employees shall accumulate sick leave at the rate of one working day for each complete month of service, up to a maximum accumulation of 120 days.

- Offices will be entitled to five days vacation after six months; six days after first year; and up to a maximum of 25 days after 20 years of service.

- Promotions are to be based on this formula: written test, 70 percent; performance evaluation, 20 percent (may include oral board ratings); education, 10 percent; seniority, 1/2 of 1 percent per year of service up to 15 years (7 1/2 percent).

Salary hikes okayed

Salary hikes for school administrative and supervisory personnel were approved by the Northville Board of Education Monday night.

The average upward adjustment will be 8.75 percent. Superintendent of Schools Lawrence Nichols made the recommendations for increases which range from no increase to a 14.5 percent increase, for salaries which range from $12,960 to $36,742 for 11 school administrators.

Nichols' salary of $42,727 was set by the Board of Education in March in a separate procedure.

The new salary scale eliminated the lock-step progression in pay in favor of a merit system this year. All administrators except 3 are already at the top of the step progression, Nichols said.

The board approved the superintendent's recommendations six to one,

- Emergency patrol vehicles shall be fully equipped with all standard items before being put into emergency use.

- A cost-of-living allowance shall be paid based on the monthly increase in the Consumer Price Index, up to a maximum increase of 12 percent.

- The city will pay tuition for attendance in a college program of police enforcement, and it will provide increased wages for 'obtainment of approved college credits.

- Hospital and medical coverage, which reportedly is as good or better and less expensive than the Blue Cross coverage, has been switched to the Equitable life Assurance Society Package.

- Mileage reimbursement is to be increased from 18 cents to 25 cents per mile.

- An annual clothing allowance of $375 is to be paid each full-time non-probationary CSO and patrolman, and $300 to each full-time non-probationary cadet and dispatcher.

- Officers required to carry a weapon off-duty will be reimbursed for expenses at a maximum payment of $325 per year.

with Vice President Marge Sliger voting against the proposal.

"I have no quarrel with the chart (pay schedule) but I have a problem with the total recommendation," Sliger said. "I think we are getting the cart before the horse."

Sliger was referring to a new organizational chart for administrative personnel which is being developed. She said she thought the new chart should be completed before new salary schedules were adopted.

President Karen Wilkinson said she would vote in favor of the recommendation, however.

"The fiscal year started July 1 and it is now October 8. I feel the initial adjustment should be made now."

The new salary adjustments included improvements in the health insurance comparable with the teacher's new contract provisions.

HOWELL—After nearly a year with felony charges over his head, a former county alcohol services director pleaded guilty to two misdemeanors and walked out of Circuit Court Judge Paul Mahinski's court with "no fine, no costs, no time—not even a suspension," according to his lawyer.

HOWELL—The brakes are being applied to school growth in Livingston County. Although the unofficial Fourth Friday count indicates that student population is slightly higher than last year, the growth is significantly lower than that projected by school officials.

SOUTH LYON—The new senior citizen and multi-purpose building for Lyon Township is stuck in the mud even before it has had a chance to build up a full head of steam, the Lyon Township board has learned. Architect Roy Albert told the board the building's present site was unsuitable to build on and that the building would have to be moved south and a new footing constructed.

SOUTH LYON—The school board here has voted to seek additional millage in an election to be held the last week of November. The amount to be sought won't be determined until next Monday.

NOVI—Montgomery Ward has been dropped as the major tenant in the proposed West Oaks Shopping Center and replaced by the Kmart Corporation. The proposed center is on the west side of Novi Road opposite the Twelve Oak Mall.

NOVI—It appears the housing boom predicted by Novi officials earlier in the year simply is not going to materialize in 1979. In May it had been estimated that between 600 and 800 housing starts would be recorded this year, but City Manager Ed Kriewall now says that figure will be closer to 300.

NOVI—A proposal for the hiring of a contractor to provide city-wide trash collection service is to be presented to the Novi City Council by early November.

WALLED LAKE—The Michigan Supreme Court has been asked by an attorney for the Camelot Inn in Walled Lake to hear an appeal on the so-called nudity rule that bans nude entertainment in establishments holding state liquor licenses.

NOVI—A two-week old infant was killed in an automobile accident at the intersection of Twelve Mile and Novi roads last week. The baby was a passenger in one of the cars.

Symphony eyes season opener next Sunday

The Plymouth Symphony Orchestra opens its 34th season at 4 p.m. Sunday in the Plymouth Salem High School on Joy, west of Canton Center.

Directing the orchestra will be a young guest conductor who is equally at home as operatic stage director, vocal coach, or piano recitalist.

This gifted young man recently completed a tour as accompanist for a Metropolitan Opera star, but he is best known for his work with the Michigan Opera Theatre.

Starting his third season there as music director, Mark Flint has been receiving acclaim for his work with the newly-formed Michigan Opera Theatre Orchestra.

A native of West Virginia, Flint began his operatic career as a young boy in the title role of "Amahl and the Night Visitors."

He represented West Virginia twice in national collegiate piano competitions, and concertized as solo pianist, making guest appearances with the orchestras of Charleston, Huntington and Pittsburgh as a soloist as well as a conductor.

Appearing as guest artist for this concert will be Charles Roe, baritone, from the New York City Opera Company.

Music lovers may have heard him recently when he starred in the network TV production of Aaron Copland's "The Tender Land."

No stranger to this area, Roe taught at Eastern Michigan University for six years and has previously appeared as soloist with the symphonies of Detroit, Flint, Kalamazoo, Grand Rapids and Toledo.

Since his debut with the New York City Opera, he has appeared in numerous productions, including "Magic Flute," "Die Fledermaus," "Pagliacci" and as the baritone soloist in Orff's "Carmina Burana." This latter role is an exceptionally demanding one, requiring unusual vocal range and flexibility.

The program selected employs these special talents. Roe's principal contribution will be from Mahler's "Songs of a Wayfarer," but he also has scheduled a group of solos from Viennese operetta.

Also on the program will be the "Rosamunde Overture" of Schubert, the "Mephisto Waltz" of Liszt and the Prelude to "Die Meistersinger" by Wagner.

Tickets for the concert as well as season memberships will be available at the door on the afternoon of the concert. Advance sale tickets may be purchased in Plymouth at Beitner Jewelry, Book World and Heide's Flowers.

Cost of tickets is $4 for adults and $2 for senior citizens. Students, kindergarten through 12th grade, are admitted free. Members of the Plymouth Symphony Society will be admitted with their season tickets.

A Girl Scout troop will provide babysitting for preschoolers during the concert.

This concert is made possible with the support of the State of Michigan through a grant from the Michigan Council for the Arts.

Tour day's beautiful

An Indian summer day Saturday, September 29, added to the enjoyment of visitors on Northville's 13th annual home tour co-sponsored by Women's Association of First Presbyterian Church and Northville Historical Society. Short lines were the rule throughout the day at most homes, reports Lois Winters, co-chairman with Jewel Luckett. She estimates 500 tickets were purchased. At the Federal style home of the E. J. Clarkes on West Main a flag flew by the door. Visitors entered the Timothy Cutting home on Center through a Victorian design doorway. Southwest Indian exhibit in the Mill Race weavers' cottage was viewed by Mary Conley. And Carol Fortin displayed the Indian coil baskets for photographer Jane Hale.

Many Hearing Problems Can Be Helped

Chicago, Ill.—A free offer of special interest to those who hear but do not understand words has been announced by Beltone. A non-operating model of the smallest Beltone aid of its kind will be given absolutely free to anyone requesting it.

True, all hearing problems are not alike... and some cannot be helped by a hearing aid. But audiologists report that many can. So, send for this free model now, and wear it in the privacy of your own home. It is not a real hearing aid, but it will show you how tiny hearing help can be. It's yours to keep, free. The actual aid weighs less than a third of an ounce, and it's all at ear level, in one unit.

These models are free, so we suggest you write for yours now. Again, we repeat, there is no cost, and certainly no obligation. Thousands have already been mailed, so write today to Dept. 02988, Beltone Electronics, 4201 W. Victoria, Chicago, Ill. 60646.

Detroit driver dies as his car plummets into the Rouge River

A 23-year-old Detroit man was killed and two others were severely injured October 2 when the man drove his car off a Northville bridge.

Robert E. Debusschere drowned when the 1972 Ford he was driving southbound on Northville Road just ahead of Debusschere's car when he heard the crash.

He returned to the scene, Richardson said, and flagged down a nearby Michigan Bell truck which had a winch (hoisting machine).

Richardson and the two Michigan Bell employees, William Baker and Dennis Painter, hooked the winch to the car, which was submerged in about three feet of water.

The men, with help from employees of the nearby paint shop and some other bystanders, pulled the vehicle to shallow water where they pried the doors open with a crowbar and helped the passengers to safety.

"They (the passengers) were having a hard time," Richardson said. "I could hear them calling for help because they were having trouble keeping their heads above the water."

The three occupants were taken to St. Mary Hospital where Debusschere was pronounced dead on arrival.

Andrew Bosnak suffered a ruptured spleen, broken ribs, lacerations and contusions, police said, while Marie Bosnak suffered severe lacerations and contusions.

Police have determined that slippery pavement was a factor in the accident (it had been raining). They also said there were no other vehicles involved.

"The woman passenger told us the driver was attempting to hit the brakes to slow the vehicle as it approached the curve; but hit the gas peddle instead," Richardson said.

Police Blotter

Man severely injured

An 18-year-old Northville man remains in guarded condition at St. Mary Hospital as a result of self-inflicted injuries suffered October 7.

James Cahill of 47030 Dunsany, told police that his son Thomas jumped through a second-story bedroom window at their home following an argument between father and son.

Thomas suffered internal bleeding, a ruptured spleen and possibly a broken neck, police said.

The father told police his son has a problem controlling his temper. He said whenever Thomas gets angry he takes it out on himself.

The incident is under investigation.

Police have no suspects at this time.

Two model homes on Granite Court in Highland Lakes Subdivision were vandalized October 6, apparently by a group of youths from Northville and Plymouth, township police reported.

Robert L. Hlavin, 22, of Plymouth was arrested along with two juveniles from Northville and three from Plymouth in connection with the malicious destruction of property at the two homes.

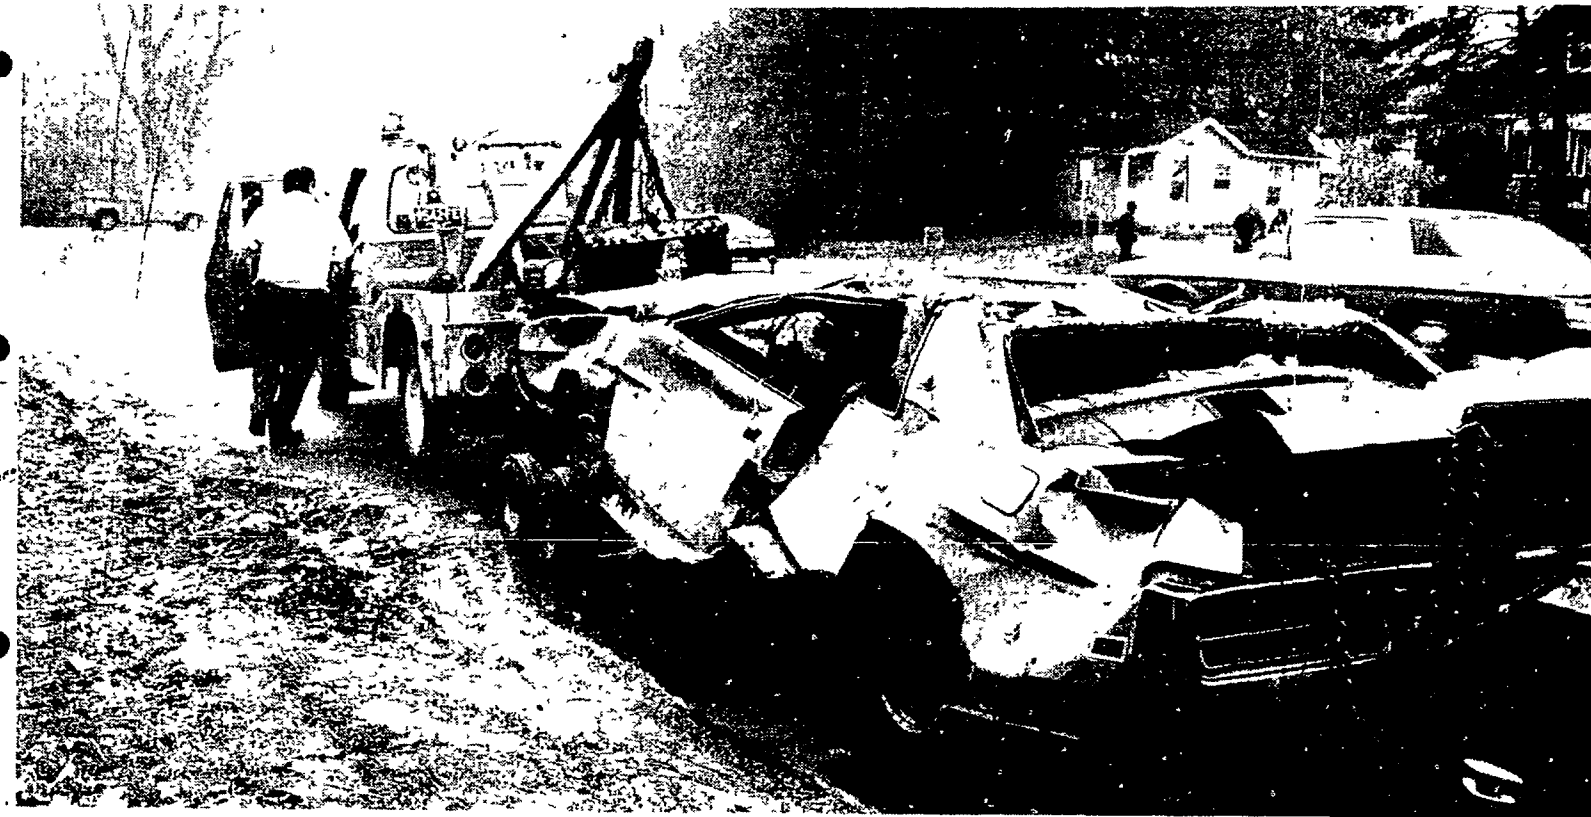

There was damaged sheathing and holes kicked in the walls, police said.

The juveniles were released to their parents and Hlavin was released without bond.

Pulte Homes, the developers, and builders of the new homes, have not indicated if they will prosecute, police said.

Honor Society took first prize

Sophomores took surprise third

Juniors placed fourth

Homecoming's a winner

Half-time festivities were as light as the successful Homecoming football game at Northville

High School Friday night. The NHS Honor Society took first place in the float competition as in most other years with a jack-in-the-box whose nose lit up when hooked to a car battery inside the float.

Seniors took second place with its rocking horse surrounded by students dressed up in children's costumes, signifying "International Year of the Child," the theme of homecoming this year.

A surprise third place went to the hard-working sophomore class, who have come in last several years in a row. Their ingenious "Big Bird" leaned against a huge goal post. The sophomores built not only the float but the entire trailer beneath when they could not find anyone to lend them one.

Juniors captured fourth prize with a toy box with a lighted scoreboard on the side, surrounded by toys and autumn leaves.

Homecoming king and queen were seniors Todd Mack and Kelly Assenmacher. This year four other representatives from the senior class were selected and two representatives from each of the other classes were chosen

League pushes county executive proposal

The weekend's Indian Summer weather was expected to contribute favorably to a two-day petition drive by Wayne County's League of Women Voters seeking additional signatures to place the question of an elected county executive on next year's primary ballot, Wayne County Commissioner Larry E. Dumas of Livonia, said this week.

Commissioners Dumas, Alex Pilch of Dearborn and William Joyner of Plymouth are spearheading the drive. The League of Women Voters is in an effort to hurry along the process of obtaining a county executive through direct election rather than through the actions of a charter commission.

League Chairman Robert Beeny of Wayne said 35,000 of the necessary 50,000 signatures have already been collected but we're going to try for 77,000 by our target date of November 30 just to be certain.

According to Betty Cook, chairperson of the county committee of the Wayne County League of Women Voters, members of that organization were out circulating petitions October 5 and 6, in shopping centers of Dearborn, Dearborn Heights, Allen Park, Northville,rosse Pointe and Plymouth in a major effort to reach the petition goal.

It is the feeling of the three commissioners that an elected county executive — as required in Governor William Milliken's plans for county reform — is too important an issue to allow it to wait until the formal creation of a charter commission with the added possibility that the commission might recommend a county manager or create a weak form of executive.

PACE has the added support of numerous suburban newspapers, civic organizations and councils and boards of local communities.

Commissioner Dumas said, "Not only will it take less time to proceed under P.A. 139 — a maximum of 270 days as opposed to two years under a charter proposal — but it will be far less expensive."

"Electing a charter commission will cost taxpayers over $1.5 million while a direct election for a county executive will cost about half," she explained.

"If there is to be any effective reorganization of Wayne County government," Commissioner Pilch explained, "it appears that it will have to be forced by the people. The jockeying around Lansing offers little hope of anything meaningful being accomplished there. The so-called compromise by the Joint Task Force is in Act 1 of a pretentious charade," he said. "The wrong departments are targets for abolition."

Arts festival here

The Northville Public Schools has been selected as a site for the 1980 Michigan Very Special Arts Festival. The festival will take place May 17, 1980.

Coordinators Lynne Thompson and Lorraine Thompson told the Northville Board of Education what the festival will be like and presented the board Monday night with a wood and clay picture made by special education students at Bryant School.

Lorraine Thompson, consultant on research development, told the board Northville will be one of nine sites for the festival. "We will be getting approximately $2,200 from the National Committee on the Arts for the Handicapped," she said.

"One thing this festival is not—it is not competition," she said. "It is also not just for handicapped."

She said the focus of the art festival will be for the handicapped but will include regular student art as a means of mainstreaming the festival.

The festival will include art, dance, music and drama, Bryant art teacher Lynne Thompson said.

Art can help a student achieve academic goals, Lorraine Thompson said. It can also help develop social and intellectual skills, build self-esteem, provide the joy of creation, and also give the handicapped ways of using leisure time, she said.

Movie makers slate seminar

The Society of Amateur Cinematographers (SAC) will host its 24th annual convention at the Plymouth-Hilton Inn October 19-21.

Those attending are invited to bring along their own movie-making problems for presentation to top flight speakers and instructors.

Six hours of award-winning amateur films, three meals, including the Saturday evening banquet, are planned.

Cost for the SAC convention is $34.50 per person. Those planning to attend only the banquet, featuring the film "Italia" by Leo Tallieu, one of Detroit's finest film makers, is $14.50.

Persons planning to attend should call either 531-1912 or 739-2072 to make reservations.

Northville's Paul Cooper in uniform

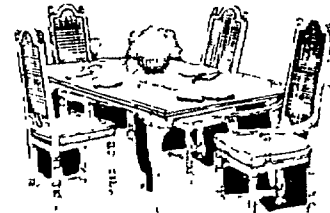

Private Paul R. Cooper, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Cooper, 47221 S. Chigwidden, recently completed training as an armor crewman at the U.S. Army Armor School, Fort Knox, Kentucky.

The training was conducted under the One Station Unit Training (OSUT) Program, which combines basic combat training with advanced individual training into one 13-week period.

During the course, students received training in the duties of a tank crewman, including firing the tank's armament and small weapons. Instruction also was given in field radio operations, map reading, and tank maintenance and repair.

David Schoop hired as assistant principal

A new junior high assistant principal has been named in the Northville school district.

David Schoop, eighth-grade science teacher at Cooke Junior High was appointed to the position by the Northville Board of Education Monday night.

He will begin his professional duties as soon as a teaching replacement can be found, personnel Director Burton Knighton said Monday night.

Schoop will split his time between Cooke and Meads Mill Junior High, assisting both principals. He was selected from six candidates for the position. The post was only advertised within the school district, Superintendent Larry Nichols told the board.

The position of assistant principal is new to the Northville School district. Originally the district planned to hire two half-time assistant principals, one at each junior high, but could not come to an agreement with the Northville Education Association regarding bargaining unit membership for part-time assistant principals, Nichols told the board.

"We are making a continuing effort to make sure there are promotional opportunities within the district," Nichols said.

Schoop has been a teaching staff member for 11 years here. Besides teaching experience he served one full year during 1974-75, as administrative intern in the district.

Schoop served as acting assistant principal at Cooke last year for seven weeks while Principal Ron Horwath was working on a millage renewal campaign.

He served as acting principal during 1976 to 1978 during times when the prin-

Music, food and fun

The Highland Dancers, the Clark Family Players and many other delightful entertainers provided music and fun for those who attended the Northville International Festival at Northville Downs last weekend. Essi Nirider of the Northville Chamber of Commerce said the attendance was about half of what it was last year (8,000) and that the gross sales were also about half. "It wasn't the best festival that we ever had," he said. Promoters blamed the current economic crunch and other activities scheduled at the same time for the thin turnout.

Another tax bite is proposed

By R. ROBERT GEAKE
GOP State Senator

An obscure proposal to increase an obscure tax that would take yet another bite out of consumers will soon find its way before the Senate.

The measure, HB 4730, would amend the Severance Tax Act to levy a substantial tax increase on oil and gas produced in Michigan. It would raise the tax rate from the present 2 percent to 4 percent for gas—a sizeable boost of 100 percent, and from 2 percent to 8 percent or a whopping 200 percent increase for oil. According to the bill, the revenues from the increased taxes would be used to fund a home heating assistance program for low-income families.

The current home heating assistance program expires December 31 and money for its continuance was not included in the 1979-80 budget.

I question the logic of increasing the cost of a vital commodity such as gas and oil at the same time people are having difficulty paying for those items because the cost is already too high—and going higher. Substantially increasing the tax on Michigan produced gas and oil and only result in higher prices for these products.

Revenues raised by the Severance Tax Act in 1978 amounted to $12 million. Passage of House Bill 4730 would increase that amount an additional $40.2 million in 1980. This action will definitely push the price of oil and gas higher. It could stifle the expansion of the oil and gas industry in Michigan. Not only will it adversely affect every consumer in this state, but threaten the 800 small businessmen in the oil and gas industry and the jobs of 10,000 people they employ.

ESSENTIAL INSURANCE UPDATE

A compromise has finally been reached on essential insurance legislation. The agreement was hammered out after many meetings and long hours of discussion between Republican and Democratic legislators, members of the Statewide Coalition Against Redlining, and representatives from the United Auto Workers Union and the insurance industry.

The compromise language is now being drafted into bill form and will be offered on the Senate floor as a substitute to Senate Bill 428 within the next couple of weeks.

I believe that the compromise legislation will result in a much better essential insurance bill than the one previously before us. During the negotiations we were able to increase the allowable spread between urban and outstate insurance rates which makes the legislation much more equitable to outstate drivers.

In addition, sex and marital status would no longer be used to determine rates, but age would continue to be used in setting rates.

Another change growing out of the compromise requires insurance companies to make auto and homeowners' insurance available to all qualified customers without regard to where they live. In other words, whole neighborhoods can no longer be written off and insurance coverage refused just because of location.

It is not expected that any immediate change will result in insurance costs by passage of the compromise legislation.

Most view the major gain in the substitute measure as making home insurance available to everyone as long as their homes meet local building codes.

School adopts two policies

Substitute teachers and new board members were the subjects of two new policies adopted by the Northville Board of Education Monday night.

The board passed a policy which states that "an orientation...shall be available to all candidates and newly elected members of the board."

The board also passed a definitive policy on substitute teachers which will be available for all teachers who sign up to be substitutes in the Northville school district.

The policy outlines the qualifications, certification, requirements, times of employment, responsibilities, discipline and evaluation procedure for substitute teachers.

Both policies were adapted unanimously by the board.

They'll spook with Plymouth

The Northville and Plymouth Jaycees have teamed up for what they hope will be their most successful 'haunted house' ever.

The two chapters have received permission from Wayne County to use a building in the vacant former Northville Training School complex on Sheldon near Five Mile.

Ghosts and goblins will be present at the haunted house 11 days prior to Halloween—October 19-30.

The house will be open from 6 to 10 p.m. Monday through Friday and noon to 10 p.m. on Saturday and Sunday, Northville Jaycee treasurer Jim Luterek said.

Last year's haunted house project, at the Northville Plaza Mall, was a break-even venture and this year the 230 members of the two chapters hope to make a sizeable profit which will enable them to make a significant donation to the March of Dimes, Luterek said.

Rotary gets Piston ball

Will Robinson of the Detroit Pistons was guest speaker at a meeting of the Northville Rotary Club recently.

He presented the club with a league basketball, which Rotarian Chuck Smith guessed the club will "raffle off" to help raise money for club projects. The ball has been autographed by Piston players and coach.

Smith, in cooperation with Vance Masters of Allen Terrace, is working on plans to provide entertainment at the senior citizens complex.

"Most of the entertainment will be provided by residents of the Terrace who have real talents and who wish to display their talents and bring joy and sunshine into the lives of others," he said.

'Solar' open house focuses on energy

A series of 24 open houses and tours of energy facilities to coincide with International Energy Conservation Month in October includes the Julliee Solar Home on Six Mile.

Committee, it was announced October 3. He is the only state legislator serving on the 47-member panel.

The committee, representing business, labor, energy producers, government and consumer groups, was appointed by the governor to emphasize the importance of the energy future to each individual and to deepen energy awareness of all Michigan citizens.

Open houses are being held at solar research centers, wood chip manufacturers, wind energy sites, oil refineries and nuclear plants.

The committee also is sponsoring three regional energy expositions designed to provide information and education on new and developing technology as well as the Michigan Energy Exposition November 8-11 at Cobo Hall.

'Daughters to meet here

A Wayne County meeting of King's Daughters will be held in Northville on Monday, October 15.

The county meeting will be held at the First Presbyterian Church of Northville, beginning with a coffee hour at 9 a.m. The regular meeting will take place at 10 a.m., followed by a luncheon at 12:30 p.m.

Members of the local Mizpah Circle who plan to attend the meeting should contact Marion LeFevre at 349-3655 by October 11.

Star to strum guitar free

A recording artist will give a free guitar demonstration Friday from 3 to 5 p.m. at the Gift-fidder, corner of Main and Church streets.

He's Shawn Phillips, who work is a combination of folk, contemporary and jazz.

In addition to guitar demonstrations, he will also demonstrate the base, according to shop owner Thomas Rice, who says guests will be able to get the star's autograph, talk to him, and enjoy his music.

No. VI plan meeting here

No. VI Station Quarters Group will hold its Wednesday, October 10 meeting at the home of Polly Kurwoski in Northville.

Members are asked to bring an antique or handmade item to be auctioned off at the 12 noon meeting.

Seminar to deal with wills

Over 90 percent of the country's population has never had a will.

Those who do might not have updated them since federal and state laws were revised in 1976.

In keeping abreast of these changes, Madonna College, Livonia, is sponsoring a free Wills and Estate Planning seminar. Professional presenters will be on hand to share their expertise and answer questions.

The session, at 7:15 p.m., October 23, will be held in the dining room of Madonna Residence Hall, 14221 Levan, north of Schoolcraft.

Reservations must be made in advance by calling the Development Office, 591-5127.

SPEAKING
By BILL SLIGER

Oh, if only October would compare to the most-beautiful-ever September. But already it's ripping and dripping away and even threatening an early snowspill.

Indian summer, where are you?

Apparently fall's colors are attracting long-weekenders to Michigan's north country. Southbound traffic Sunday was extremely heavy.

And speaking of "long weekenders", Stan and Fran Johnston made an interesting tour into the north last Saturday.

Actually, they had intended to extend the trip through Monday.

The Northville city councilman and his wife decided to get away for a leisurely three days Saturday departing from Northville around 2 p.m.

Stan didn't bother to make reservations. "We'll just play it by ear," he informed his spouse.

There was no room at the inn at Cadillac, Kalkaska, Traverse City or Grayling.

At 2 a.m. Sunday they found a vacancy at their Northville home.

"Do you think we ought to tell anyone about this?" Fran asked Stan.

He did. But I promised not to say a word. And I'm not.

When all the clucking was over last Sunday, Northville Township Trustee John Swienckowski walked away with top honors in Plymouth's annual Chicken Flying Contest.

More accurately, Swienckowski and his son, Scott, won the $300 first prize on the wings of "Millage Idiot", a trim, 13-ounce Northville-bred fowl who displayed amazing flying ability with a leap from the starting chute of 70 feet.

The stupid promotion has been going on in Plymouth for three or four years. It attracts thousands of spectators and about 100 chicken contestants.

The cities of Northville and Plymouth had their official entries; Ma Bell had "Clark Cluck" complete with theme song music from Superman and a phone booth. The Great Chicken Parade goes on and on.

City Attorney Phil Ogilvie, Controller Betty Lennox and Mayor Paul Vernon composed Northville city's team. Its entry was "El Chicken Kiwanis".

No other entry came within 10 feet of the Millage Idiot.

The all time record is not likely to be topped. A year or two ago a chicken leaped from the chute all the way across Main street to the top of the old Kresge store building.

Anyway, Swienckowski and his son won $300 and a "Big Bird" trophy.

The township trustee is particularly proud of the achievement because the Northville Township Board declined to accept the challenge issued by the city of Plymouth to enter a chicken in the Flying Contest.

Board members decided the $40 entry fee would place too large a strain on the township's budget.

"Wait a minute," exclaimed Swienckowski, never one to turn down a challenge.

"I'll foot the bill."
And, so he did. First, he sought a Polish Chicken.

"They're very pretty, graceful and fly like bandits. Eunice Switzler said she thought I could get one in New Jersey."

(I'm hearing all this and wondering what's going on ... the Chicken Flying Contest fever is a terrible disease.)

Anyway, Swienckowski finally turned to Eric Creekmore, a young Northville township resident who had raised the sleek, trim chicken, which Swienckowski declared was in perfect shape at 13 ounces.

As the township trustee prepared Millage Idiot for his leap at the Plymouth event, a curious spectator asked: "What the hell's that ... a big robin?"

Undaunted, the Swienckowskis, Eric and Millage Idiot prepared for the leap.

For the uninformed, there's a "chicken plunger" used to prod the fowl from the jumping chute. When systems were all "go" for Millage Idiot's leap, Swienckowski found the bird hiding behind the plunger. So he just reached inside the chute and gave Idiot a jab.

Off he leaped to the cheers of thousands.

Meanwhile, the city's El Chicken Kiwanis winged a distance of 30 feet.

The thrill of victory ... the agony of defeat.

CHARLES LEVERETT

Speaking for Myself

Hunting: Sport or slaughter?

WALLYNE SMAIL

SPORT

Hunting to me is a sport, more so recreation in the out-of-doors. Many has been the time I have pursued wild game only to come home empty-handed. The rewards of hunting are many, so if you miss bagging a deer, squirrel, rabbit or other game, you can still enjoy the hunt.

The hunter through the years has assumed the duty of caretaker of our wildlife. The hunter has asked for seasons, bag limits of game, restocking and research. The hunter has provided money through license fees and excise taxes on hunting equipment to provide land for habitat, research and restocking.

Every time a piece of wild land or farm land is covered with cement for a new shopping center, subdivision or school complex, the wild game is pushed together a little tighter. This is the time the hunter becomes the caretaker again and harvests the wild game. If the wild game is left unharvested, they will perish from starvation and disease. Our big predators, the coyote, wolf, bobcat and bear, can only eat so much of the smaller game. If the wild animals are left unchecked, then the farmer gets his problems.

I enjoy my recreation of hunting and being a caretaker of our wildlife. It beats running back and forth on a cement tennis court or window shopping at a cement shopping center.

Charles H. Leverett

SLAUGHTER

In ancient times there was a purpose for hunting: meat for foods, hides for shelter. I have no objection to hunting when it is done for need in a humane way. We are a hunting family who live by the motto "you eat what you shoot." Selectivity comes naturally with that!

"Weekend Warriors," however, I am against.

A typical Weekend Warrior has sat many hours and finally shoots a deer, only wounding it. He is too lazy, hung over or fat to track, so he doesn't. The wounded animal suffers, possibly for days, until death is a welcome event. All for nothing. A Weekend Warrior would participate in shooting wolves in Canada from an airplane and running animals to death from a snowmobile.

A Weekend Warrior's hunting dog also suffers. He's kept on the "back forty," too far away for human companionship. In the few weeks every year that he is used, he must either shine or else join the ranks of abandoned hunting dogs.

Most hunters I know are conservation minded: they love the outdoors and animals and hate waste. But I feel man stoops to his lowest when he needlessly hurts and kills God's defenseless creatures who share with us this earth.

Some Friday nights, Ugh!

Whew! mayor keeps one step ahead of tornado

By JACK W. HOFFMAN

Probably because I find nothing so frightening as a tornado, the experience of Northville Mayor Paul Vernon last week strikes a chord of terror in just the telling of it.

Enroute home from Connecticut from a business trip, Paul was waiting at the Bradley International Airport for a 2:50 p.m. flight when passengers were informed there would be a take-off delay because of heavy thunderstorms in the vicinity.

"Suddenly the sky blackened, the wind began roaring, and all occupants in the terminal were ordered into the basement baggage area because a tornado had been spotted nearby," he said.

As Paul and the others waited in the basement the lights suddenly went out but otherwise they were unaware of the destruction occurring at the airport.

It wasn't until later that they would learn that the tornado had cut a swath through the airport, killing one person, and injuring more than 400 others.

The storm struck at 3 p.m., demolishing buildings, flattening more than 50 homes, severely damaging another 50 and flipping planes, trucks and cars.

The airport was closed indefinitely, and Paul took a bus to Boston where the next day he took a plane for home.

"Fortunately, I seemed to be one step ahead of the tornado," sighed the mayor. "The second floor of the School officials, Record, master plan under fire

to the Editor:
When some people get upset they turn to drink, others holler and scream, and still others bang their heads against the wall. As for me—I write letters.

In this manner, you as editor of a respected paper, learn of my plight and your readers share with me my problems and maybe if enough of you get concerned with me then my problem becomes your problem and then I'm not the only one upset—we're upset—and if we're all upset it's called a crisis and that's exactly what we have in this community, so allow me to get on with it.

Fact: A teacher calls the superintendent with a problem and is told, "Don't ever call me again with a 'problem.' You're a teacher—inform your principal—go through the chain of command but don't call me."

Fact: The repairs on the roof of the high school are still going on. The workmen using air hammers on the roof have caused teachers and students alike to think that their classroom environment is one of being in a foundry. And a number of rooms were damaged last week by the rainstorm. This repair work that should have been started and completed during summer vacation is supposedly in its "completion phase" in the second week of October.

Fact: The floors being laid in the high school won't be finished until the end of this month or beginning of November. Another job that should've been started and completed during summer vacation.

Fact: The boilers that generate heat in the high school are down for repair—since last summer—and there isn't a licensed boiler operator or steam engineer on the school's payroll. A system that costs many thousands of dollars is maintained by incompetent personnel but my greatest concern is the safety of our kids.

Fact: Prior to "open house" last week a "memo" went around to the teachers in one of our middle schools that stated—"Do not complain to the parents that you don't have all your teaching supplies or materials."

Why the cover-up? And if our teachers don't have all their supplies or materials how are they teaching our students?

Fact: There isn't enough natural gas pressure coming into the ranges in the high school home economics class to keep the pilot lights burning. How do you demonstrate or teach how to cook on gas ranges without gas?

Fact: The teacher turnover ratio is worse than any neighboring community. Why? And why are a number of our teachers preparing resumes and looking for jobs elsewhere?

Fact: Many parents pay tax dollars to support our schools yet pay additional tuition dollars and enroll their children in private or parochial schools. Why pay double for an education that tax dollars alone should provide?

Join with me and let's see if we—as parents of school age children—can't find out where the roots of all these problems are and do something about it now.

Effective immediately I'm forming a committee to act as a liaison between the schools and the board of administration. A committee of parents who are fed up with the incompetence—cover up—and lack of concerns, for the benefit of our children's education that is so evident and prevalent today.

Working together with the teachers and the board and not against the board or teachers, it's time that an organized group was formed to turn this school system around.

EDITOR'S NOTE—The following letter was directed to the Northville School District administration with a copy to The Northville Record.

SUBJECT: Moraine School.

As parents of a child at Moraine School, we are both disillusioned and disappointed with the type of education being provided.

After suffering the setback of a teacher's strike, we then encountered a haphazard school opening with all the children meeting in centers to learn in which room they belonged. This must have been a frightening experience for the younger children.

Two weeks later we found that the majority of the children would be reorganized into new rooms with new teachers, and must again prepare themselves for the process of learning. Much of this situation could have been averted had the enrollment figures submitted to the board office been accepted in the Spring. Since the opening of school, we believe there has been too much turmoil at Moraine School and too little attention paid to actually educating the children.

Providing a good atmosphere for pupil instruction at Moraine apparently has not met with the expectations of many of the Moraine parents. This is evidenced in recent years by the removal of their children from the Northville Schools to private institutions. We suggest that a survey be made at Moraine to determine the reasons why so many parents have removed their children from this school. With this information, perhaps you will realize the need to improve upon the educational environment at Moraine.

We cannot, however, wait for the tabulations and improvements to be made to eliminate the detours blocking the educational process. We have joined the Moraine exodus to a private institution in an attempt to provide a solid education for our child.

We regret having to make this change and hope our letter will alert you to a serious problem within the Northville School System.

Sincerely,

H.L. Stringer

To the Editor:

I cannot believe that there is so little news of importance in Northville city and township that you had to resort to putting the article on the clash of the supervisor and clerk on the front page of the September 26 edition of The Northville Record. Why did you feel you had to glorify this problem with a front page article? There have been many incidents like this in the past — as you state — and you seem to enjoy exploiting them all. Why?

Mr. Thomson's comments were like a little child who feels that he is not getting his own way and therefore he will throw a temper tantrum. I feel that his statement "she did it deliberately" shows that he is somewhat childish. Why doesn't he grow up and act his age?

If you want to glorify stories about the clash in our township government, then print some articles about the supervisor's behavior in the township hall. There have been many witnesses to these tantrums who were in the township hall conducting business when they occurred. Have you printed any of these incidents? No, you have not. Why? Is it because there is no one to take the blame other than the supervisor himself for his behavior at those times?

He is a grown man—not "running the township" as he states — but working with the other elected officials (board of trustees, etc.) to be an effective township government. Even the president of the United States can't say he runs the country. He and the Senate and Congress and all the other departments in the government run our country. Why does Mr. Thomson feel he has more authority than the president?

His statement that he wasn't notified of the meeting change and there would be no meeting change reeks of lack of consideration for all the other members of the board. What happens when the time comes when he can't make a meeting and asks for a change of meeting date?

Does the supervisor really think everyone should do everything just the way he wants it at all times? After all, that's why we are all free people and human beings that have the right to our own ideas — and quite constructive ones at times, I might add — and not puppets on a string. Obviously, the supervisor doesn't believe in the concept of free government, free speech and a free society for all people. He seems to want to have everyone bow down to him, agree with him and obey. We have even eliminated "obey" from the marriage vows — that's what we think of that way of life. Mr. Thomson does not "run the township," he is an elected official and expected to conduct himself as part of the team, otherwise he may find himself on the losing end in next year's election.

I think, Mr. Sliger, that you should stick to the business of reporting news of importance and ignore the trivial "garbage" not worthy of your reader's time.

A Township Resident

To the Editor:

I read with interest your recent front page story about the Supervisor's feud with the Township Clerk. While Mr. Thomson's tantrums and the ensuing petty bickering over who phones who and who picks up the mail might make good reading, the real problems of Northville Township need to be brought to light.

Northville State Hospital Security. We had 45 more reported escapees last month and another criminal incident involving a patient. The 239 escapees this year are only those "reported" missing and the figure does not include an escapee who might be apprehended in the first couple of hours. Rumors of missing keys and forensic patients chill my spine.

On my recent trip to Lansing, the Governor's aide expressed a shared concern for the patients safety. How safe is a patient walking the shoulder of busy Seven Mile? A fence may only be a small deterrent but a big step in the right direction. I personally will not rest well as long as escapees are allowed to wander at will in our backyards, businesses and playgrounds.

The Prison. Northville will have a maximum security prison soon. According to corrections department officials that I met with in Lansing, plans have begun. Our silence has been taken as an affirmative vote to build in a now remote area of the Township. We must let the Governor know that we are no longer the apathetic community which serves as a dumping ground for society's outcasts. We must demand assurances for the safety and well being of our citizenry.

Money. Inflation has had its impact on the Township. Many of our essential services have already been trimmed. Even as I write this, Supervisor Don Thomson is contemplating more cuts in the police and fire budget. With a record number of fires and increasing crime, I personally will oppose the cuts. Yet we still need funds from somewhere. Township residents may soon have to "bite the bullet" to continue the superb services we now have but let's have the government, who own 29 percent of the developed land, pay more along with us.

Recreation Complex and Western Fire Station. Both are high on my priorities. We have already asked the state for the land and we must continue to lobby for it and funds to build on it. No, the harmony we were promised in the Township office does not exist, yet the board is working long and hard with the Township's best interest at heart. Yes, Mr. Editor petty bickering will always exist but hopefully the major problems won't if the people rally behind the board.

Bill Zapke,
Northville Township Trustee

To the Editor:

Evaluation of the proposed Northville Township Master Plan reveals movement toward the "single family" concept. However, attached to the plan are a number of other proposals requiring our attention and concern.

"Fifteen residential planning areas were determined yielding a total population of 42,036." Where do we get the additional sewer capacity to accommodate this growth? Four proposed new elementary schools are required, with 60.9 additional acres needed to provide space for those new buildings. Will our property taxes skyrocket to finance such proposals?

Commercial development activity is greatly increased with a projected need for three new shopping centers. We should question the wisdom of those seeking new shopping centers, when downtown businesses, in Northville, provide excellent services and convenience. In an attempt to justify the need for three new shopping centers the report states "the inherent assumption is that income will rise at the same pace as the inflation rate." Hold on to your pocketbooks while we laugh at that one!

Furthermore, the report is designed to compound demands upon other demands. For example, if we accept the need for accelerating our population capacity to 42,000 persons, then the current 8 acre township hall site "will prove most inadequate. It is critical that the township give immediate consideration to acquiring adjacent lands so as to bring the site size to a minimum of 15 acres and preferably 25 acres. This site will ultimately provide for an expanded township hall and related offices, a library, a community center, and other such required township facilities." (p.7) Guess who will request additional taxes to finance those proposals!

Therefore, the proposed master plan advances a maelstrom of additional hidden costs attached to future projects, if we accept the underlying premises upon which the report is based. Whatever happened to the concept of inexpensive township government? The majority of our taxpayers continue to demand? As we have seen, we are sandwiched between those who want to beef up our population capacity, and those who desire to change our township into a city, but both proposals require higher taxes. So, in effect, since we have recently experienced the effects of "nicking" our school district residents, are we now ready for the ultimate "crunch" from the township and the city?

Here's some school support

To the Editor:

At last Monday's school board meeting (October 24) I, as a parent, was impressed with the presentation of Dr. Burton Knighton. I did not feel it was a "recitation" of what took place from April until school opened, but rather quite an education in the negotiating processes. It troubled me then that there were only four parents in the audience to hear this enlightening recounting. I felt assured that the Record would print it verbatim for the general public to review and gain insight but it couldn't be found in Wednesday's edition. Please, as a service, would you print it in your next edition?

Also reviewed at Monday's meeting were class sizes and teacher ratio. Mrs. Soper presented results of her extensive survey, but again few were there to hear.

I'm glad the children are back in school and praise all sides of this community with creating an enthusiastic

College reporter: 'state hospital needs a fence'

EDITOR'S NOTE: The following opinion article was written by Rick Asher, a Schoolcraft College student, and published September 24 in the college newspaper, The Campus Globe. Because the article deals with a Northville matter it is published in its entirety here.

The murdered Northville widow never had a chance. An angry family in Livonia wait for their son's next visit; a visit they aren't anxious to have. And many residents in Northville and Northville Township live with the constant wondering whether "it" will happen to them.

You might be wondering what the preceding three sentences are in reference to. All three relate (in one way or another) to Northville Regional Psychiatric Hospital located on Seven Mile, west of Haggerty, and only half a mile away from the Schoolcraft campus.

Northville is a state-run institution which treats the mentally ill. The majority of the patients treated there have been proven in court to be potentially harmful to themselves or others.

The widow never had a chance because her assailant (supposedly a patient who had walked off the Northville grounds) slipped into the 82-year old's residence and stabbed her three times in the back until she was dead.

The Livonia family does not anxiously await their son's next visit because he is a patient at Northville. When he comes home he's there only because he has escaped from the hospital grounds. He has terrorized his family with these visits six times over the past four years.

"It" is murder, and many residents from Northville and Northville Township believe if it could happen once, it can happen again.

True, it is the first murder supposedly committed by a Northville walkaway in the hospital's 25 year existence.

True, the hospital has doubled the amount of security on staff.

And true, the number of patients who were on unauthorized leave from the hospital these past three months has decreased from the amount last year at this time.

But they still leave, and they leave unauthorized. And as long as even one patient is declared an unauthorized leave, there is still a chance, as slight as it may seem, that someone else could be fatally hurt. It could just as easily happen on some lonely night at the Schoolcraft campus, as well as in the neighborhood of Bealton where the elderly widow resided. And it might not happen for another 25 years, but it might also happen tomorrow.

The beefed up security has indeed helped. But it is still not enough. This is illustrated by State Senator Bob Geake's introduction of Senate bill 180 to the Michigan legislature. The bill calls for fencing to be constructed around the back and two sides of the hospital. Coupled with beefed up security, fencing would be another in a series of positive steps being taken to improve safety at the hospital; safety for the patients themselves, as well as for citizens who live, work and are educated in the vicinity of the hospital.

Some may think that residents, local lawmakers, and the media are blowing the situation at the psychiatric facility way out of proportion. That thought couldn't be farther from the truth.

A letter writing campaign to the state capital in late April saw specific examples of how local residents' involuntary involvement with walkaways come to light. Some of the more unique incidents follow.

One resident claims that, "just a few days before the Northville (widow's) murder, that same patient (charged in the killing) came down my road. Last fall two patients were fighting in front of my driveway, and when I called the hospital they told me that it was out of their hands, and I'd have to call the state police."

In regard to patient safety, one Northville couple wrote, "Not only is the fence of utmost importance for the safety of the residents of the area, but also for the safety of the patients. We personally came upon a girl lying beside Six Mile Road. It turned out she had walked away from the state hospital."

In regard to children's involvement with patients, one local mother wrote, "I have school age children and just last week (mid April '79) a patient was apprehended in our subdivision who had completely disrobed and was using a neighbor's house to pour water on himself to supposedly cool off."

Another Northville mother wrote, "My daughter was swimming in the pool when one of the patients came into the pool area and proceeded to go into the water with his clothes on. This made it necessary for my daughter and friends to leave by going over the fence."

And finally in regard to security at the hospital, this resident wrote, "a close friend recently finished her nursing clinical experience at the hospital. It seems that the wards are left unlocked and many patients are allowed to come and go as they please."

These examples are just the tip of an iceberg of many letters received by Geake and Governor Milliken by residents who urgently support fencing around the psychiatric facility.

The Livonia family's situation came to light only after their son made it home twice in one week early in September. Their son is presently confined to his ward, and it seems unlikely he will make it home while confined this way. He won't always be confined this way. Eventually he'll get more freedom. Eventually he'll be able to make another break for home. Fencing might provide the obstacle needed to keep him within the grounds without having to confine him to his ward.

The alleged killer of the Northville widow was found in a court of law to be incompetent to stand trial. He has been committed to Ypsilanti Forensic Hospital which houses and treats the criminally insane.

There is a chance that when his treating team feels the patient is well on the road to recovery he will be transferred to a Regional Psychiatric facility. There is also a chance that if that day comes he might return to the Northville Regional Psychiatric facility. And sad but true (as remote as it may seem) there is a chance he might kill again.

But on the other hand if a fence is installed there also is a chance it might serve as the preventive factor which stops this patient, and for that matter any other patient, from doing bodily harm to themselves or others.

Sure it's only a chance. But it's better than no chance at all. Isn't it?

The airport looked like it had been bombed. World War II bombers, fighters and cargo planes from the air museum littered the part of the field — a trash heap of wings, fuselages and wheels.

Damage at Bradley International Airport and the adjacent air museum was estimated at $50 million to $100 million.

Chief John Gogulsky of the airport's fire department, who had served in both Korea and Vietnam, told Boston Globe staffers, "I've been through some scrapes, but this is the worse ever."

The mayor echoed that observation. A frequent traveler for Allen Testproducts Division, he's hoping future close shaves are no closer than is likely to occur in his bid for reelection next November. He's unopposed.

Jaycees select bikeway paths through area

It was cold and windy, but the weather failed to dampen the spirits of a small group of area residents who gathered Sunday morning for a working bike outing.

Sue Stimpson, one of the group leaders, remarked, "We should get moving or all freeze solid."

And move they did. Before breaking at Parmenter's Cider Mill, the group had finished about 75 percent preliminary assessment in a process of determining good potential bike paths in the city.

The remainder of the assessment is expected to be completed this week.

Referring to Sunday's outing, "Jaycee Douglas Boor, chairman of Project Bikeways, said, "We concentrated on the possible connecting routes between Edward Hines Bikeway and Maybury State Park, but we inventoried many other city streets as well. This will help in the overall network plan."

"Included was information on traffic volume, speed, grade, surface condition, and path continuity. We also listed facilities located along the possible routes. From this information we will elect two or three candidate routes to connect the two park systems."

According to Ed Mica, director of Wayne County Parks, the opportunity of extending the bikeway out Seven Mile was not considered safe because of lack of right-of-way width.

"Another alternative is to direct the bikeway around the downtown area and continue out Eight Mile, but we are looking at all the possibilities," said Boor.

"According to Mica, funding is the major problem. But, hopefully we can combine city, county and state resources to make the connection."

All interested persons are urged to contact Boor at 349-2710. "We need citizen support to help make this idea a reality," said the Jaycee spokesman.

environment for the young people. The teachers, despite repeated upsets, are placing their concern for their students first. Thank you one and all.

Now, parents, let's follow the school board activities throughout the year, not just at issue time. They, after all, are responding to our directives of "watch our pocketbooks but give us the best education for our children that is possible."

Let us also be visible as parents at the schools, to be aware and supportive as problems arise. After all, we as parents are the cogs that can keep balance on the see-saw the children face every three years at contract time.

Knowledge of any situation can't but help when decisions must be made.

Thank you,

Vocal music need expressed

To the Editor:

My wife, Shari, and I have sung in the Schoolcraft Community Choir for several years and have found it a most rewarding experience. We are concerned about the apparently inadequate program in vocal music in the Northville Public Schools, e.g., no high school choir. It was encouraging to read that Superintendent Larry Nichols would like to see a new emphasis on the performing arts.

A community that can support organized sports as strongly as Northville does can surely provide an opportunity for young people to discover and develop their talents in vocal music. Football, basketball, wrestling, etc. are no longer reasonable options for me, but I hope to continue singing for many years to come.

Sincerely,
Pete Clason

'Woman's bill of rights' is their goal

By MARGARET MILLER

● "Revise Social Security so women have it in their own names."

● "Draw up health legislation so that tests given under Medicare are not dangerous to women."

● "Institute a program of massive research to find a means of contraception acceptable to all to end the abortion conflict." These were a few of the ideas U.S. Representative Carl D. Pursell heard as he listened to the women in his district during unprecedented hearings.

And if Washington listens to Pursell, it could mean some landmark legislation on issues concerning women.

He will have plenty of specific suggestions for congressional action, suggestions straight from area women who have expertise in matters like employment, health, family planning, displaced homemakers, spouse abuse and taxation.

From women's leaders like Laura Allow and Linda Renik of Livonia and Jean Wagner of Plymouth, he can take back some new ideas that could perhaps change the course of legislation.

The Plymouth Republican spent the last weekend in September meeting with three groups of women — representing cross-sections of opinion in Wayne, Monroe and Washtenaw counties — getting their ideas on many issues.

● At each of the three sessions, he told the women he would take their ideas back to the Congress and would try to

She was given quick support by several other women present, including Esther Friederichs and Peggy Letwin, both of Livonia.

● Holtzman needs better medical advice," said Mrs. Renik.

Pursell said he would see that she sought it.

Regarding Social Security, all present agreed, "the whole thing needs revising."

But Mrs. Callow had a suggestion on how.

"I'm interested in seeing that women have Social Security rights in their own name whether they are single or married," she said.

"When a husband works and his wife stays home to take care of the home and family, why couldn't his Social Security payment be divided, with half in his name and half in hers?"

"Then when his wife goes to work, hers should be split, too," someone else in the group suggested.

"Yes, that would be fair," Mrs. Callow agreed.

Her point, she went on to explain, was that such a system makes a big difference to the woman who is divorced after a number of years of marriage and has no Social Security benefits in her own name.

Attorney Wagner made her suggestion during an unusually calm and matter-of-fact discussion of abortion legislation — an issue Pursell said is "the only visible women's-interest issue in Congress and has so deadlocked the House and Senate that it has stopped the processes of budget approval."

"As long as there are unwanted pregnancies, we are going to be at each other's throats," said Mrs. Wagner.

"Why, with our technology, have we not put research money into finding a means of contraception that does not offend anyone? I don't believe this problem is unsolvable. Massive research could do it."

Mrs. Gaitskill urged action to continue the Older Americans Act.

"This act made possible limited paid work for persons over 62 on low income," she said. "It's a survival thing for these people, both financially and emotionally."

Peggy Letwin managed to present a conservative view throughout the hearing.

"I keep looking at the costs of all these programs and wonder if I as a taxpayer want to pay for them," she said. "We need guidelines for all of them. I want them to be based on real need."

office on Farmington in Livonia, found moments to laugh as well as moments to be serious as they talked to women from the district at Schoolcraft College. Photos by Jane Hale.

get others to join him in synthesizing some sort of women's bill of rights.

"A lot of effort has gone into this project," said Pursell, who supplied each of his panelists with a comprehensive list of bills that had been introduced in 14 areas of women's concerns.

He introduced staff members Nancy Nirider, a former Northville resident, who works with him in Washington and did much of the preparation work on the

Of the others commenting on present and possible future bills, Mrs. Friederichs is a homemaker who has held several appointive posts and Mrs. Letwin is president of the Livonia Republican Women's Club.

The group of women also included Sheila Ogg of Livonia, a leader in First Step, a group assisting battered wives; Pat Rzetelny, active in the Business and Professional Women's Club and the National Secretaries Association; Kari Miller president of the Northville League of Women Voters and Mary Uhl of Plymouth, representing the American Association of University Women.

Others were Fran Yoakam and Jane Gaitskill, both of Northville and both active in senior citizen programs, and Doreen LeGault, representing women in postal work.

The issues covered also included women in business, child care, civil rights, women's commemorative issues, displaced homemakers, women in education, employment, insurance and retirement, women in the military, rape and wife beating and women and taxes.

Some of the other pieces of legislation that brought comment for Pursell to take back to Washington involved child care, displaced homemakers and senior citizens.

Ms. Ogg mentioned an interpretation of the tax reform act of 1976 that excludes grandparents from payment for child care.

"While I was a single parent going to school, I would not have been able to manage without my mother's help," she said. "I paid her, because she needed the money. But I was not able to deduct the payment, although I could have left my children with strangers or in a center and been able to get tax credit."

Mrs. Yoakam and Mrs. Gaitskill asked for close attention to legislation that helps older people.

"Most seniors who apply for senior housing are women," she said. "The difference is not so much age as economics. Many who are widowed relatively young are in real need until they can get into less-expensive housing."

JANE GAITSKILL

listing of bills, and Denise Radtke, who arranged the sessions with the women from his Livonia office.

"This is something that never has been tried by anyone in Congress to my knowledge," Pursell went on for the Wayne County group, 11 in number, gathered at Schoolcraft College.

"We deal with issues on a piecemeal basis, and, in the hundreds of subcommittees, bills have a tendency to get lost."

"But if we could get a general agreement on issues, we could introduce a Women's Bill of Rights that could be an important landmark whatever happens to the Equal Rights Amendment."

Some specific ideas in the areas of health, Social Security and birth control came from Mrs. Renik, a nurse, Mrs. Callow, a homemaker and ERA booster, and Mrs. Wagner, an attorney.

Mrs. Renik addressed herself specifically to a house resolution introduced in the 96th Congress by Representative Elizabeth Holtzman (D-N.Y.).

Designed to provide Medicare coverage for breast cancer detection, it would provide for one mammography and Xeromammography per year, according to the information Pursell distributed.

"A mammography every year is dangerous unless you are dealing with high-risk women," Mrs. Renik said.

Their log cabin restoration improves on original

By JEAN DAY

Autumn and Thanksgiving hold special meaning for the William L. Miron family of Six Mile Road who annually spend time in the fall at the log cabin they restored on their vacation property at Lexington near Port Huron.

"We dress in costume and feel very much in the mood," relates Anne Miron as she tells how the log cabin has been restored authentically. The family worked with the Port Sanilac Historical Society in researching the restoration of the cabin that has been authenticated to 1875. It is furnished in the manner of the 1840s to 1900s.

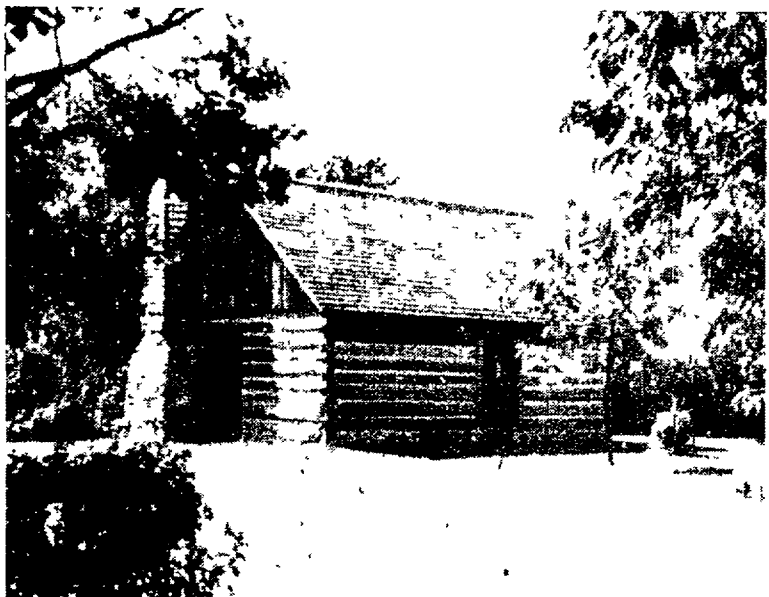

On October 17 Mrs. Miron is hosting her Silver Springs Quester antiques society chapter and guests at the cabin. Then there will be the traditional large family gathering at Thanksgiving when both the guest cottage-cabin and the Miron vacation home will be occupied.

"My father, an architect-engineer, bought the property 49 years ago," Mrs. Miron explains, noting that he then built a vacation home on the property. Restoring the log cabin has been a more recent project of the Miron's, who concealed the refrigerator behind a panel and installed board tops to hide the sinks.

The cabin now boasts an unusual stone and log chimney as a result of the research. Original occupants would feel at home in the cabin, but would be surprised to discover a bath, complete with shower and washing machine, tucked away.

Anne Miron is treasurer of the Silver Springs Questers headed by Virginia Hayward. Other new officers are Jackie Kenyon, first vice-president; Diane Carter, second; Martha Lyon, corresponding secretary; Gail Gross, recording secretary; Midge Karrer, historian; Jackie Daniel, historical society son; and Estelle Hollis, publicity. Cheryl Swayne hosted the first meeting of the year in September when "Old Lace" was the topic.

Mirons have restored this log cabin by their cottage in Lexington

'Garden of the Month' Especially attractive gardens in our community are going to receive recognition. At its October 2 meeting, Country Girls Garden Branch adopted a "Garden of the Month" project that will become effective as soon as spring, 1980, is in bloom.

Pat Nixon, president, explains that there will be a traveling plaque to be kept by the winner each month as well as a certificate the garden owner will be given as a permanent memento.

Local business places as well as neighborhood gardens will be considered with nominations welcomed. Gardens located in Northville city and township and in Novi will be considered.

Lifers' fingers are busy

Third annual "talent" auction of the Life Member group of Northville Mothers' Club will be held at the fall meeting at 8 p.m. Tuesday at the home of Gwen Marburger at 20149 East Whipple.

Members bring needlework, plants and baked delicacies to be auctioned in the fund-raiser for scholarships. Last year's auction provided two $350 scholarships for high school seniors. Ruth Mary Atchison, first president of the Life Member group, used a magnifying glass to do the fine needlepoint that was her donation.

Carol Forrer succeeds her as president this fall. Barbara Yoder is vice-president and treasurer; and Jeanne Ambler is secretary. The group, composed of all members who served at least 10 years in Mothers' Club, meets four times a year and holds an annual Christmas cocktail party.

Martha Lyon will host the next meeting of Northville Mothers' Club at 8 p.m. Monday at her home at 710 West Main. Plans will be finalized for a skate-ski sale October 20 at Cooke Junior High.

Shirlee Baggett marries EMU classmate

A romance that began when Shirlee Baggett and Michael A. Murphy were students at Eastern Michigan University resulted in an exchange of wedding vows at Holy Family Catholic Church in Novi.

Father Mike Zahorchek officiated at the double ring service in late summer which included the symbolic lighting of wedding candles.

During the service Susan Hatch, maid of honor, and David Roosen, best man, publicly voiced their witness of the marriage.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Othal Baggett of 49901 West Seven Mile. Her husband is the son of Barbara and Arthur Murphy of Clawson.

As she was given in marriage by her father in the 6:30 p.m. service, the bride wore a soft jersey gown fashioned with a Queen Anne neckline, cape sleeves and blouson bodice. Venise lace appliques on the bodice were pearl detailed. The full, bias skirt extended into a full, chapel train.

Venise lace and pearls adorned the picture hat worn by the bride. She carried a bouquet of phalaenopsis orchids, white miniature carnations, silk peach sweetheart roses and stephanotis.

Bridesmaids were Terrie and Kris Baggett, sisters of the bride, Chris Manning of Conshohocken, Pennsylvania, and Maureen Plude of Indiana.

All bridal attendants wore nectar-hued crepe gowns with blouson bodices and full bias skirts and hats trimmed with matching ribbons and small clusters of peach lilies.

They carried clutch bouquets of silk peach lilies, white miniature carnations, fern and baby's-breath tied with silk and lace ribbons.

Organist Karen Kilpatrick played "I Can't Help Falling in Love," "My Sweet Lady" and "Always and Forever."

A reception at the Finnish Cultural Center in Farmington Hills was attended by 200, including the bride's sister, Darlene Anderson from Ontonagon, Michigan, and the bridegroom's aunt and cousins, Mrs. Howard Cervantes, Mary and Anne from Chelmsford, Massachusetts.

The newlyweds are living in Sterling Heights.

GOOD TIME WINE

by Jim Roth

Perhaps the greatest of the German wines is the Trockenbeerauslese. It is a mouthful of a name and a mouthful of a wine. It is made, as some of the best French wines, with grapes that have a covering of Noble rot. Noble rot is a mold which eats through the skin of the grape, lets water evaporate and leaves just the essence for wine making. Grapes with such a mold occur only under very special conditions, especially damp autumn fogs and are often hard to pick. But, wine fans will attest that the effort is worth the taste.

It's not hard to find a good selection of wines when you come to us at GOOD TIME PARTY STORE, 567 Seven Mile Road, 349-1477. We have a wide selection available and, if you have a preference for a wine we don't have, we will special order and stock it for you. Hours: Mon. thru Sat. 9 a.m.-10 p.m., Sun. Noon-6 p.m.

WINE WISDOM:
Do not mix wines of different varieties in the same decanter. You will lose the special qualities of each wine.

Jana Fieldman wed in Elk Rapids

Jana Lynn Fieldman became the bride of Floyd Byron Hassett in a double-ring Sunday service in First Presbyterian Church of Elk Rapids.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Fieldman of Kewadin, Michigan. The family formerly lived in Northville. The bride's mother, Nancy Fieldman, was principal of Silver Springs Elementary here.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Ruth Hassett of Kewadin and the late Floyd Hassett.

The Reverend Richard Henderson, pastor of Faith Community Presbyterian Church in Novi, officiated at the 4 p.m. ceremony September 2 which included the symbolic lighting of a unity candle.

Lou Ann Smith, the bride's roommate at Michigan State University, sang "The Wedding Song" and "One Hand One Heart." Ellen Hassett, aunt of the bridegroom, was organist. The church was decorated with potted white mums.

The bride's gown of candlelight white chiffon was fashioned with a high neckline with delicate lace insets on the bodice and bishop sleeves. She wore a picture hat with fingertip and chapel length veils. She carried a Williamsburg dried flower bouquet.

Dana Fieldman was her sister's honor maid. Bridesmaids were another sister, Jennifer Fieldman, Suzanne Evans and Linda McKerr. They wore dusty rose and ivory print gowns of old-fashioned design in polished cotton and carried baskets of dried flowers matching their gowns. They wore matching flowers in their hair.

Jennifer Henderson was flower girl in an off-white dress with print overlay matching the attendants' dresses. She carried a small basket of dried flowers made by her mother.

Fredrick Warner was best man. Ushers were Larry Hassett, brother of the bridegroom, Leslie Hubbell and Edward Cole.

A reception for 175 followed at the Embers on the Bay in Acme, Michigan.

The couple, who had met through summer jobs three years ago, will take a wedding trip at Christmastime.

The bride, who will be graduating from MSU in December, presently is student teaching in Traverse City. She is a 1975 graduate of Northville High School.

Her husband is a 1970 graduate of Elk Rapids High School and a 1975 graduate of Western Michigan University. He presently is a teacher in the Traverse City public schools.

They are making their home in Kewadin.

MR. AND MRS. FLOYD BYRON HASSETT

Politi-Kienzler vows recited

Barbara Ann Politi and Allen Alfred Kienzler exchanged vows in a late summer afternoon nuptial mass at Our Lady of Victory Church in Northville. Father John O'Callaghan officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elbio Politi of Emmishore Drive in Novi. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Kienzler of Dearborn Heights.

For the ceremony the bride chose a gown of white lustre knit featuring a Queen Anne neckline and long sleeves adorned with Venise lace, which also edged the hemline of the A-line skirt that extended into a chapel train.

A Venise lace headpiece held her chapel veil.

The bridal bouquet of white roses and Stephanotis had streamers of English ivy.

Rosemary Ziegel of Livonia was matron of honor. Doreen Politi, sister-in-law of the bride, was bridesmaid.

They wore aqua-hued gowns of Siesla fashioned with U-necklines and fitted waistlines. The skirts had handkerchief hemlines. They wore picture hats and carried cream-color parasols with silk flowers. Their gloves and shoes also were cream colored.

Kenneth Pickard was best man for his cousin. Ushers were Kenneth Evans, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, Richard and Roman Politi, brother and nephew of the bride.

A reception for 200 at Roma Hall of Bloomfield followed the ceremony. Out-of-town guests came from New York, New Jersey, Tennessee, Florida and Toronto and Hamilton, Ontario, as well as from northern Michigan.

A surprise visitor and special guest was the bride's great-great aunt, Mrs. Sylvia Spallacci, who came from Italy for the wedding.

The bride is a graduate of Novi High School and Oakland Community College. She formerly was employed with Consumers Power Company in the word processing division. Her husband is a graduate of Dearborn High School and Grand Rapids Electronics school.

Following a wedding trip through Canada, they are making their home in Virginia.

MR. AND MRS. ALLEN KIENZLER

Perri Mazzaro carries heirloom

A trip to Niagara Falls and Toronto followed the marriage of Perri Roxanne Mazzaro, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rocko L. Mazzaro of Livonia, and Mark Douglas Lindenmuth.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Lindenmuth of Farmington Hills. Mrs. Lindenmuth is the former Patricia Dingman of Northville.

The couple exchanged rings and vows in a 4 p.m. ceremony September 15 at Holy Cross Lutheran Church before the Reverend William Lindholm.

The bride reflected both her Italian and Finnish heritage by carrying a lace handkerchief from Venice, Italy, given her by her paternal grandmother, Mrs. E. Mazzaro. Attached to the handkerchief was a gold wedding ring, a family heirloom from Finland, from her maternal grandmother, Mrs. William C. Holtz.

Soloist Marlene Johnson sang, "The Greatest of These Is Love" and "The Wedding Song." Pastor Lindholm sang "The Lord's Prayer."

As she was given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a high-waisted, A-line gown fashioned with a high neckline and sheer sleeves with trim of applique and pearls. Lace and pearls trimmed her headpiece and veil made by her mother.

Silk azelias, lilies of the valley and daisies formed the nosegay bouquet carried by the bride.

Gina Mazzaro was her sister's honor maid in a light green Qiana gown trimmed with matching lace appliques.

Bridesmaids Liisa Mazzaro, Laurie Lindenmuth, Jeanne Doyle and Maria Dorf wore gowns of yellow Qiana styled like that of the maid of honor. All carried bouquets of silk azelias and daisies and wore matching flowers in their hair.

Steve Holland was best man. Ushers were Glenn Doyle, Paul Rentsch, Rocko W. Mazzaro and James Wright, Jr.

A reception for 200 followed at Plymouth Cultural Center with guests attending from Michigan, Ohio and Wisconsin.

A special feature of the reception was the elaborate wedding cake made by the bridegroom's mother, consisting of five heart-shaped tiers and including a lighted fountain. Linking the main cake to the double-tier groom's cakes were bridges containing miniatures of the wedding party.

The couple, who met through mutual friends, will be living in Farmington Hills. The bride attends Oakland Community College and is employed by Federal Mogul. Her husband is employed with Ford Motor Company.

Couples mark silver, golden anniversaries

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard H. Lambert of Schoolhouse Court in Highland Lakes celebrated their golden wedding anniversary at a family dinner Sunday.

It was given by their daughter Pat Gannon at her Plymouth home. Also attending were the couple's sons James and Jack with their families. The Lamberts also have 10 grandchildren.

They were married October 5, 1929, in Detroit.

Helen Standford Pollick and Clarence "Ray" Pollick of 4005 Jewell, Howell, celebrated their silver wedding anniversary September 25.

Mrs. Pollick was born in Northville and attended Northville schools before entering Henry Ford Hospital School of Nursing. She recalls having to wait for admission. She was graduated in 1954 and in June, 1955, began work at the old McPherson Hospital on North Michigan Avenue.

She has been active in the Howell Health Center and with the Howell Woman's Business Club.

Her husband attended school in Ohio and then in Northville when his parents moved to the community. He is a veteran. His hobbies include woodwork and wood carving.

The Pollicks have four children. Mary is married and living in Washington state. George is in the U.S. Navy while Pamela and Matthew are at home and attend Howell schools.

Guy L. and Marguerite F. Coykendall, former Northville residents of 47150 Seven Mile, came from their retirement home in Manton, Michigan, to celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary here.

They renewed their vows at 10 a.m. September 8 at St. Paul's Lutheran Church. Grace Sorenson, who was matron of honor for her brother and sister-in-law, attended. Her late husband had been best man at their marriage September 4, 1929, in Bowling Green, Ohio.

At the anniversary service the Sorensens' son Walter took his father's place.

An open house for their many relatives and friends followed at the home of their daughter, Marlene Shoebridge, 303 Pennell. More than 150 attended.

The couple also has a daughter, Mrs. Sherry Manning, in Tacoma,

Washington, and four grandchildren.

He had worked for Ford Motor Company for more than 30 years. During the 1920s he worked for the U.S. Customs between Marine City and Canada on the St. Clair River.

Mrs. Coykendall had more than 20 years' service with Burroughs and previously worked in a clothing store in Marine City. The former Marguerite Schriener, she was born in Marine City. Her husband is a native of Manton where both now are enjoying the Manton Retirees' Kitchen Band and bowling.

They are affiliated with Colfax Community Church in Manton. Mrs. Coykendall keeps busy with sewing and crocheting while her husband hunts and fishes.

Human development seminars set

Registration is still available for a variety of human development seminars sponsored by the Women's Resource Center at Schoolcraft College.

Seminar sessions are designed to help participants, especially women, stretch their potential and prepare for expanding roles in today's changing world. Registrations can be made through the Women's Resource Center, 591-6400, extension 430. Fees vary with each workshop and are payable at the session.

Designing your personal, integrated health routine will be the focus of the "Holistic Health Seminar" scheduled from 9 a.m.-4 p.m., Saturday, October 13.

This "hands on" seminar, facilitated by Alice Belfie, includes instruction in fitness, relaxation, nutrition, stress, holistic time, and leisure management. Participants are to dress for learning in leotards or loose clothing. A light luncheon is included. Fee: $20.

"You Can Win," a day-long workshop scheduled from 10 a.m.-3 p.m. Saturday, October 27, will stress tactics for expanding personal options, assuming new attitudes, and moving toward a more fulfilling life.

An overview of traditional approaches and new theories, including Gestalt, transactional analysis, psychoanalysis, behavior modification, assertiveness training and hypnosis will be presented. Lectures, discussion, questions and experimental exercises form the basis of this workshop facilitated by Stanley Mann. Fee: $15.

Tuesday, November 6, from 7:30-9:30 p.m., the WRC offers a seminar primarily for men, although women, too, are encouraged to attend. Entitled, "Caution: Masculinity May be Hazardous to Your Health," this seminar, facilitated by Dr. Wayne Fisk, will explore man's culturally defined role of achiever, provider, and protector.

Attention will focus on how men's preoccupation with success, power, sex, status, competition and violence leads to a shortened life expectancy. Fee: $5.

Methodists set bake sale

A one-day fall rummage and bake sale will be held by Northville United Methodist Women from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. this Friday at the church at 777 West Eight Mile.

Small household goods as well as books and clothing for men, women and children will be available. Nikki Greenfield, who heads the sale, announces.

Everything from breads to pies and cakes will be homemade at the bake sale for which Pat Eden is in charge of arrangements.

The public is invited.

Dessert style show set for Highland Lakes Club

A delicious dessert as well as fall fashions to wear into the holiday season will be the attraction at the annual dessert fashion show of Highland Lakes Women's Club to be given at 1 p.m. October 18 at Highland House.

All women living in the Highland Lakes condominiums and their guests are invited. Tickets at $2.50 are available from club members or Phyllis Siegel of Leidel Court, ticket chairman.

Club members who will model the fashions by Claire Kelly of Northville and Plymouth are Doris Cain, Dorothy Felthouse, Chris Hinkle, Mrs. Siegel, Dorothy Sitarski and Donna Veil. Nancy Terwin of the Highland Lakes Mother's Club also will be a model.

Kay Russell, general chairman, says a pudding torte that was "a sensation" last year is being repeated by request. Ruth Collins and Jean Weaver are in charge of refreshments.

"This is an every member endeavor," declares Mrs. Russell. Special chairpersons are Mrs. Hinkle, centerpieces, Mrs. Sitarski, door prizes.

New officers of the club are Ruth Collins, president; Mrs. Veil, vice-president; Virginia Simpson, secretary; and Mrs. Weaver, treasurer. Mrs. Russell is publicity chairman.

Other upcoming meetings will feature a folk singer-autoharpist, November 1; holiday centerpieces, November 15; and a holiday luncheon, December 6.

The club is sharing its recipe for the torte it will serve at the fashion show:

PUDDING TORTE

1 C. plus 1 Tbsp. flour
1/2 C. chopped nuts
1/2 C. butter, melted

Stir together and press into 9 by 13-inch pan. Bake at 350 degrees for 15 minutes. Cool well. Cream together:

1 eight-ounce cream cheese
1 C. confectioner's sugar

Fold in:

1 C. Cool Whip
1 tsp. vanilla

Spread over well cooled crust. Stir until thick:

2 3/4 ounce instant lemon or chocolate puddings
3 C. milk
1 tsp. vanilla

Spread over cream cheese mixture. Spread with Cool Whip. Make torte a day ahead and refrigerate. Cut into squares at serving time.

At Schoolcraft

View depression glass

An artist in glass repair will demonstrate his talent in repairing chipped crystal and glassware at the Michigan Depression Glass Society's seventh annual All Depression Era Glass Show and Sale October 20-21 at Schoolcraft College.

Local collector and society member Carolyn Kugler says this year's show and sale promises to be outstanding as it marks the 50th anniversary of the "Great Depression" and the beginning of an era in glass patterns and colors.

From 11 a.m. to 6 p.m. on Saturday and Sunday, 23 dealers from various states will exhibit glass in the multitudes of patterns and colors and offer opportunity to find "rare and elusive pieces."

Another special guest at the show will be Nora Koch, editor and publisher of "Daze" magazine from Otisville, Michigan.

Stephen Trupiano of Marshall, Michigan, is the artist in glass repair. He has appeared on American and Canadian television demonstrating his talent in glass restoration and will take repair work at the show.

Anyone with a choice piece that cannot be replaced may be interested in the service, says Mrs. Kugler.

The Michigan Depression Glass Society was founded in 1972 and is devoted solely to the preservation of Depression Era Glass.

Guests are welcome at meetings which are held the first Monday of each month at Jackson School, 32025 Lyndon in Livonia, reports Mrs. Kugler.

She set up exhibits of Depression Era Glass in the Yerkes House in Mill Race Village for the home tour and the current one in Northville Public Library.

Food and beverage service will be available both days of the show under the direction of Robert Breithaupt, director of food service at Schoolcraft College, and Michael McConnell of the college culinary arts program.

A donation of $1.25 a person will be requested of those attending the show. Betty Merritt, society president, 934-3786, or Mrs. Kugler may be contacted about the organization.

At last year's show also held at Schoolcraft collectors attended, Mrs. Kugler said, to learn more about their patterns and fill out collections.

Mothers' club benefit

Ski, skate sale coming

Are Susie's skates too small?

Are you into cross country skiing but stuck with downhill equipment?

Northville Mothers' Club is offering opportunity to sell, swap and buy such sports equipment at a benefit sale to be held from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Saturday, October 20, at Cooke Junior High School on Taft north of Eight Mile.

Anyone in the community is welcome to place items in the sale, explain members in charge, Mrs. David Pohlod, Mrs. Thomas Schaal and Mrs. David Longridge.

If the item does not sell, it is simply taken back by the seller with no charge. A 10 percent commission is charged for equipment sold with all proceeds to be used for Northville Public School projects.

Sports items will be accepted for other than skating and skiing if they fit in with the general theme of the sale. Equipment should be taken to the school between 4-6 p.m. October 19 and between 8-9 a.m. October 20.

Unsold merchandise must be picked up between 4-5 p.m. October 20. There is no provision for storage, the club warns, adding that unsold items not called for before 6 p.m. the day of the sale will be considered donations to the winter Special Olympics.

Payouts will be made after 3:30 on the sale day.

The committee suggests that items be priced to sell as it will be a firm rule that prices will not be changed on tags during the sale. Any change will result in the merchandise being withdrawn from sale, it states.

Pointing out that it is a nonprofit organization and cannot afford loss insurance for the sale, the club says it will not be responsible for losses because of fire or theft. Anyone placing merchandise in the sale is invited to supervise it. All sales will be final.

For further information call Mrs. Pohlod, 420-2162; Mrs. Schaal, 349-5686 or Mrs. Longridge, 349-0551.

Newcomers plan dinner

Annual Newcomers progressive dinner has become such a successful event that the club has moved the "good mixer" to the beginning of its season.

This year it will be October 20 with Jan Vander-Bok taking reservations at 420-3219. They are $9.75 a couple.

The menu begins with mushroom soup and features spinach and walnut salad and chicken Kiev with green beans ferniere and homemade bread.

Reservations are limited to 50 couples.

Sale set

A three-day sale of used hard cover and paperback books is planned as a benefit for Novi Public Library by the Friends of the Library.

INTEREST CARD

PURPOSE:

To strengthen the Family unit by reinforcing relationships between parents and children, and opening new pathways of communication between all members of a family. The Parent-Child Programs have been especially designed to create an atmosphere in which parents can come to understand their children better. This encourages parents to provide much needed positive examples to their young children. As the name implies, the Y-INDIAN PROGRAMS are based on the lore of the American Indian. This is because of the common interest of both Moms, Dads, and Kids in Indian life.

Champion trotters and pacers make great sires

The fresh semen is inserted into the vagina of the mare through a thin, straw-like tube.

It must be done immediately because the semen will die within one hour. But Jim Downing, Jr., has everything under control. He has injected the semen of various sires into 10 different mares this day.

"We average about 8 to 10 mares a day but sometimes we service as many as 15 or 18," he said. "All together we serviced about 250 mares this year."

Downing does all the breeding at the Downing Stock Farm, 8249 Seven Mile, Salem Township.

He has been handling the breeding for the past three years. His father, Jim Downing, Sr., was the breeder prior to Jim.

The farm breeds standardbred trotters and pacers for harness racing horse owners in Michigan, Ohio and Ontario.

The Downing farm is the second largest standardbred breeder in Michigan. The only larger volume breeder is Shiawassee Farms in Duran, which services between 350-400 mares a year, according to Downing.

Almost all breeding is done through artificial insemination, Downing said. "We have to take every precaution to prevent disease and infection," he said. "The stud and the mare are thoroughly checked by a veterinary doctor before breeding."

"We do such a great volume of breeding that we can't take any chances."

Downing said he does occasionally mate a sire and mare naturally when he is only breeding a few mares that day and if both horses are free of infection.

The Downing Farm sires have produced a number of successful race horses with studs like Timely Adora, Keystone Accent, Fulla Strikes and Mighty Phantom.

Timely Best Man, sired by Timely Adora, is the fastest horse ever sired in Michigan. He has won over $250,000 ($212,000 last year).

Mighty Phantom sired Phantom Fella, a yearling who recently sold for $29,000 — the highest price ever paid for a Michigan yearling.

Fulla Strikes (now five years old) holds the world's record for two-year-old pacers on a one-mile track. He set the mark at Hollywood Park in California in 1976 with a time of 1:54.2.

Keystone Accent set a one-mile world record in the aged category (four years and over) with a time of 1:55.8.

As these horses become big money winners, their value as a sire increases proportionately, Downing said.

"Most buyers look for a horse who has won at least $100,000," he said. Owners must pay $1,000 to have a mare bred to Timely Adora, while Keystone Accent brings in $1,500 and Mighty Phantom's services cost $2,000.

It is rare for a mare to give birth to twins, Downing said, but it does happen occasionally.

"Twins are almost valueless as race horses," he said. "We usually don't charge the fee if the mare has twins because as a rule neither of the foals will become successful race horses."

"Twins are usually smaller and even the ones that mature and become full size generally don't develop into good racers."

Downing said another general rule is that males tend to develop into better race horses than females.

"Studs are generally faster, stronger and have more stamina than fillies," he said. "A male usually sells for about 20 per cent more than a female."

Standardbred horses recently have been receiving much less publicity than the thoroughbreds which run in such well-known races as the Kentucky Derby.

But the harness racing horses "are now beginning to emerge," Downing says.

"Steve Cauthen has done wonders for thoroughbred racing," Downing said, "but trotters and pacers are very fast too. In fact, Paul Revere rode a pacer on his famous ride."

The studio here is part of the Fox Photo chain which has four other studios throughout the Detroit metropolitan area. Together, Fox is the largest wedding studio in the state, doing over 1,000 weddings per year.

Steel says, though, that his barnwood studio has its own atmosphere. He has several years experience as a photographer in the Pennsylvania Pocono Mountains and in Detroit. He has a degree from the Rhode Island School of Photography.

NORMAN ROSE, FIC, of 2800 Earl Lake Drive, Howell, was among a group of Lutheran Brotherhood field representatives who attended a sales conference September 17 at the Ramada Inn, Perrysburg, Ohio.

The theme of the conference was "Sharing the Key to Success." Rose is a district representative associated with Lutheran Brotherhood's Robert Chadwick Agency, headquartered in Grand Blanc. Members of 10 agencies from Ohio, Michigan and Indiana were present at the conference. Lutheran Brotherhood is a Minneapolis-based fraternal insurance society.

PERRY DRUG STORES, said it is discontinuing, effective immediately, filling eyeglass prescriptions, a service which has been offered in 16 of the Pontiac-based chain's 60 Michigan stores. Robert A. Shapiro, vice president of professional affairs, said optical products and services have not produced the sales volume necessary to justify continuing them. The 200 square feet of space occupied by eyeglass prescription departments in each of the 16 stores will be adapted to other merchandising areas, Shapiro said.

DR. C. GORDON NILES, an orthodontist with offices at 8086 Grand River, Brighton, was inducted into active membership in the American Association of Orthodontists and the Great Lakes Society of Orthodontists at the society's annual conference in Toronto, September 16-19.

To become eligible for membership in the association, a person must have earned a Doctor of Dentistry degree and completed at least two years of advanced education in orthodontics. American Association of Orthodontists membership consists of approximately 8,800 qualified specialists who practice in the United States and Canada. The great Lakes Society includes orthodontists whose practices are located in the states of Indiana, Michigan, Ohio and a part of Pennsylvania as well as the province of Ontario, Canada.

The Association and Society exist to promote a high level of professionalism, ongoing research and education in the specialty of orthodontics and to provide public education about the need and benefit of orthodontic treatment.

CONSUMERS POWER COMPANY announces it has applied to the Michigan Public Service Commission (MPSC) for authorization to adopt an expanded energy conservation program.

The company would provide interest-free financing to eligible customers for ceiling insulation by either an approved contractor or by the customer on a do-it-yourself basis. Consumers Power estimates that in its service area 234,000 single-family homes, duplexes, apartments or other multi-family dwellings (of four units or less) have no more than 2½ inches of ceiling insulation.

"Saving gas now will make more gas available for the future," James B. Falahee, senior vice president in charge of regulatory matters, said. "We have applied for this authority to expand our present gas conservation program to help lessen the impact on our customers of increasing gas heating costs and because the current abundance of gas will not last for more than a few years, according to our best estimates."

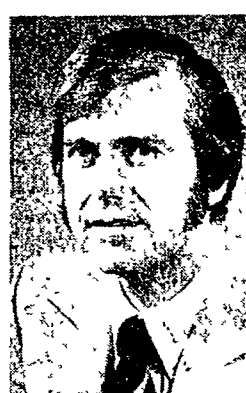

The MPSC on July 17 adopted rules allowing regulated utilities to offer customers interest-free loans to buy cost-effective energy conservation devices, Falahee said. "The commission's rules say that interest-free loans can be made if the installation costs can be repaid in energy savings within seven years," he said. "Of the 570,000 gas-heated residences in our gas service area that do not meet Federal Housing Administration standards of six inches of ceiling insulation, 234,000 have only 2½ inches or less. These 234,000 homes could meet the cost-effective standard set up by the MPSC by having more insulation added in their ceilings."

Falahee said Consumers Power would implement the program by mail and media advertising aimed at increasing public awareness of the limit to gas resources, by training and employing personnel to conduct initial and followup insulation inspections, by arranging contracts with customers and contractors for insulation installation, and by providing financing for eligible customers.

There would be a $1,000 limit for each building when the installation is done by a contractor, and financing for a "do-it-yourselfer" would be limited by current legal limitations to $300.

Participating customers would have up to 60 months to pay for the insulation in equal monthly payments added to their gas bills. "Consumers Power would incur costs for labor, transportation, money, advertising, taxes, insurance, bad debts and general and administrative costs," Falahee said. In accord with MPSC rules, costs that exceed funds received from participating customers would be spread over all gas customers through a surcharge based on monthly gas usage. The surcharge would continue until all costs associated with the program are recovered, which could be up to 10 years.

S. ERIC BOOTH, 44, of Oakley Park Road in Commerce Township, has been appointed Director of Engineering for the Michigan Wisconsin Pipe Line Company.

S. ERIC BOOTH

Booth has worked for the Detroit-based interstate natural gas pipeline subsidiary of American Natural Resources Company for the past 23 years.

Booth joined Michigan Wisconsin in 1956 after graduating with a degree in civil engineering from Wayne State University. Until his recent appointment, Booth has served as chief engineer. He is a Registered Engineer in the states of Michigan and Louisiana.

A graduate of Walled Lake High School, Booth has lived in the Lakes Area all his life. He and his wife Nancy have three children: Sue, 16; Scott, 14 and Steve, 8.

The Michigan Wisconsin Pipe Line Company provides natural gas to 52 utility customers in nine states. Through its affiliated company, Michigan Consolidated Gas, Michigan Wisconsin supplies more than half of the natural gas consumed in Michigan. The pipeline also provides more than 90 percent of Wisconsin's gas requirements.

TWO FAMILY TAVERNS in the Detroit area even have free popcorn, hot dogs sold from a hotbox, waitresses dressed in shorts and football jerseys and bartenders sporting football jerseys as pigskin parties again become weekly events.

All the trimmings contribute greatly to the relaxed and convivial atmosphere at Chuck Muer's Bloomfield Charley's and Northville Charley's where giant television facilities are featured for easy viewing. A traditional event at the Muer taverns, Monday Night Football gets under way about 9 p.m., but seats are available on a first come, first served basis. Northville Charley's is at 41122 W. Seven Mile Road in Northville, and Bloomfield Charley's is at 5656 W. Maple Road (at Orchard Lake Road) in West Bloomfield.

Pigskin parties are being planned at both taverns for Wolverine and Buckeye football fans who can't make it to the big game Saturday, November 17.

WILLIAM R. WRIGHT

Formerly a pharmacist in South Lyon, Wright took over the Northville store September 1.

The new owner is a graduate of Wayne State University's pharmacy school. He lives in South Lyon with his wife, Joyce and three children, Kevin, 16, Kristine, 11 and Keith, 5.

COMMUNITY FEDERAL CREDIT UNION Northville Manager Sherry Spaman spoke to the Northville Kiwanis Club Monday on the credit union and its benefits to members.

Mrs. Spaman, who has been manager of the Community Federal Northville service center for more than a year, actively is involved in several Northville areas as well as her managerial duties at the credit union. Her latest endeavors include taking night classes in credit union management at Henry Ford Community College for credit toward an associate degree and working with other Northville residents in the International Festival last weekend.

PHOTOGRAPHER DAVID CARL TURNLEY of Sliger Home Newspapers has had two photographs published in the new "Family of Women" book (Ridge Press, New York, C. 1979, price $15.00.).

The book is a third in a series, following "Family of Man" and "Family of Children." The original "Family of Man" was created by immortal photographer Edward Steichen and is one of the best-selling books in the world.

Turnley's two pictures, on pages 135 and 139 of "Family of Women," were originally taken for the Brighton Argus. The book features the work of 180 photographers from around the world.

The staffer had mixed emotions as he opened the first copy of the book last week. He was pleased with the pictures but disappointed that his name was misspelled "Trunley." (The publisher promised to correct the error right away.)

An excerpt of the book is in the current Reader's Digest magazine.

Happenings . . . Places to go/things to do

Ringmaster Harold Ronk directs the Ringling Brothers and Barnum & Bailey Circus at Cobo Hall through October 21

Ringmaster sets tone for circus

All eyes focus on a solitary figure standing in a pool of light in the ring, and Ringmaster Harold Ronk pro- nounces the immortal words that have signaled the opening of the Ringling Brothers and Barnum & Bailey Circus to untold millions throughout the years: Ladies and gentlemen, children of all ages . . .

After more than a quarter century as the singing narrator for The Greatest Show on Earth, Ronk still epitomizes the perfect ringmaster in a white ruffled shirt, spangled coat, dark trousers, white gloves and a high beaver hat. He created a classic style and set the standards for his profession.

The circus will be at Cobo Hall in Detroit through October 21.

Through his musical and informative contributions to the circus, Ronk plays an important role in the continuity of the show. "An audience comes to the circus to be thrilled, to be excited," he said. "They want to feel the pulse of the circus, and I can help them by telling them what to expect."

With his poise and authoritative bearing, he directs the audience's attention to the deeds of skill and daring and comic antics that are taking place above the arena and on the sawdust. He is also alert for the unexpected — for anything can happen in a presentation that involves hundreds of performers and animals — and he is able to ease the spectator's concerns.

The dapper ringmaster, a native of Canton, Ohio, studied music in his youth, attended the University of Southern California, Bradley University in Illinois and was a drama student at the American Theater Wing. Ronk toured as a vocalist with composer Sigmund Romberg and had a role in his last Broadway musical, "My Romance," with Ann Jeffries.

After serving in the Navy during World War II, he entered the world of sequins and sawdust by means of an audition with John Murray Anderson for what he thought was another Broadway role. Instead, Anderson offered him a job singing with Ringling Brothers and Barnum & Bailey Circus.

"I had done quite a lot of serious singing and wanted to perform in theater or opera," said Ronk who was recently honored by the Circus Fans of America with a special award for his rendition of the "Star Spangled Banner."

"But I attended a performance of the circus at Madison Square Garden and it was so spectacular and dramatic that I was fascinated."

Ronk was hired and in 1953 he took to the ring to begin his long and illustrious career with The Greatest Show on Earth.

"I was going to try it for a year," he said, "but I've stayed for 25."

"During my time with the circus, I have sung for more live audiences than I could ever have imagined."

Tickets for the circus are available at the Cobo Arena Box office, Hudson's and Olympia Travel in Birmingham. Ticket prices are $7, $6.50, $5.50 and $4.50.

"AN EVENING FOR MERLIN FINCH" is currently being featured in the Attic Theater's midnight theater series.

Performances are held every Friday and Saturday at midnight through November 24 at the Attic Theater which is located at 525 East Lafayette in Detroit. Reservations and ticket information may be obtained at 963-7789.

"An Evening for Merlin Finch" is Charles Dizenzo's zany look at modern family life and features the equally zany members of Detroupe. The play is a modern farce in which Merlin, a teenage boy, rises above his parents and the system to follow his own interests.

A WINSOME AND TALENTED NEWCOMER, Judy Powers, will entertain this month at Win Schuler's Grate Steak and Seafood Lounge, the Ha' Penny.

Win Schuler's is located at 6066 West Maple Road in West Bloomfield.

Judy, a vocalist and guitarist, whose specialty is contemporary pop music, has appeared in Michigan at Win Schuler's Grate Steak and Seafood in Rochester, Archibald's in Birmingham and the Grand Hotel on Mackinac Island.

She will be appearing every Tuesday through Friday from 7 p.m. to midnight and on Saturdays from 8 p.m. to 1 a.m. through October 27.

GREENFIELD VILLAGE visitors can learn how skilled artisans practice colonial crafts during October and also enjoy a cup of freshly-pressed cider from the steam-powered Martinsville Cider Mill during their tour.

The growing popularity of colonial crafts among hobbyists makes these "Cornucopia of Crafts" weekends popular with visitors. Experts focus on skills handed down through generations, demonstrating and explaining finer points of each craft.

Pottery making is the highlight this weekend (October 12-14), metal working takes center stage (October 19-21) and doll making wraps up the special weekends October 27-29. The Cider Mill also will be operating each weekend to demonstrate cider pressing and for the sale of cider and donuts.

Each of the "Cornucopia of Crafts" weekends are available to visitors of Greenfield Village at no additional charge beyond regular Village admission of $3.75 for adults and $1.75 for children 6-12 years old. Children under six are admitted free of charge.

THE RAVEN GALLERY will be featuring Claudia Schmidt, a native Michigander whose exceptional voice and talents as a multi-instrumentalist have made her one of the top female folksingers in the midwest today.

Claudia will be at the Raven Gallery in Southfield from October 17-21. Performances will be at 9:30 p.m. on Wednesday, Thursday and Sunday, and 9:30 and 11 p.m. on Friday and Saturday.

Tickets are priced at $4 and reservations may be made at 557-2622.

Claudia Schmidt's voice is her primary instrument — rich, warm and expressive, high and low. Her incredible vocal range can be matched only by her skills on a 12-string guitar, a mountain dulcimer, a harmonica and a pianolin (a hand-crafted instrument reminiscent of a zyther).

RENAISSANCE CONCERTS, INC., a very active nonprofit organization which recently marked its first birthday, continues its successful weekly midnight chamber music series, "Nightcap with Mozart."

Concerts are held every Friday evening at the Birmingham Unitarian Church at 651 Woodward at Lone Pine Road in Bloomfield Hills.

"Nightcap with Mozart" is a great way to top off your evening.

Doors open at 11 p.m. when complimentary wine and beverages will be served. The concerts begin at 11:30 p.m. and continue for about 45 minutes. Immediately after the concert, the audience is invited to meet the featured artists and enjoy conversation.

Ticket price is $5 which includes complimentary wine and beverages. Tickets are available at the door. Additional information is available at 851-8934.

The West Bloomfield Symphony Orchestra opens its 1979-80 season with a Tchaikovsky spectacular featuring David Syme at the keyboard.

This all-Tchaikovsky concert will be held this Sunday (October 14) in the auditorium of West Bloomfield High School on Orchard Lake Road at 7:30 p.m.

The most well-known work on the evening's program is the "1812 Overture." Tchaikovsky wrote this piece for a festival that was to commemorate the great Russian victory over Napoleon in 1812. The West Bloomfield Symphony Orchestra has promised a bang-up rendition of this exciting piece as the orchestra will boast extra bass players and some added surprises for the finale.

The internationally-acclaimed pianist David Syme will be playing Tchaikovsky's "Piano Concerto No. 1."

Syme is known for his dazzling technical qualities. It is his ability to interpret the music with contagious fever and to convey in a present and immediate sense the piano literature of the past which result in his superb effectiveness as a musician.

The "Piano Concerto No. 1" is probably the most popular concerto for the piano ever written. The work begins with an unforgettable theme that has been used in motion pictures and even made its way onto the Hit Parade.

Opening the concert is Tchaikovsky's "Fourth Symphony."

Tickets for the performance are priced at $6 for adults and $3 for students and senior citizens. Tickets may be reserved ahead of time by calling the symphony office at 626-1560. Any tickets which remain will be available at the door starting at 6:30 p.m. before the performance.

Hey Kid!

We've
a
for you.

Once a week, on Wednesdays, our community newspapers are home delivered by young people just like you (minimum age eleven years old). They're earning money every week and are eligible for our contests for prizes and vacations. More people are reading our newspapers in Northville, Novi, Walled Lake and South Lyon and Livingston County therefore, we need additional carriers. So if you live around here and aren't doing anything on Wednesday...

CALL TODAY and we'll tell you all about it

Mustang runners near league title

Northville finally met a worthy opponent. Undeclared going into Saturday's Brighton Invitational (8-0 overall, 3-0 in the Western Six Conference), the Mustang cross-country squad had yet to meet a team that could give them a real run for its money. Brighton was the first.

Earlier in the season, the Detroit Free Press rated Brighton's team fourth in the state and Northville 12th. Although there were nine other schools at the Invitational Saturday, the real competition was between Northville and Brighton.

The meet consisted of four divisions: seniors; juniors; sophomores; and freshmen, with each team providing runners in each. Northville's team is made up of just seniors and sophomores. Since a team had to enter three runners in each division to make up a team, the Mustang's could only run in two of the divisions.

But run they did. The Mustang super sophomore trio of Dave Malinowski, Scott Dayton and Clark Couyoumjian finished one-two-three in their race. Their times were 16:43, 16:59 and 17:09 respectively for the 3.2 mile course.

The Northville seniors came in second. Brighton finished first. Harry Couyoumjian was the top Mustang finisher, taking second place with a time of 15:59. Ross Grover finished in a time of 16:59, good for eighth. Doug Wright was 10th with a time of 17:10.

Pinckney took the freshman division race while Mason captured the junior run. Coach Dave Gram had a prior commitment and couldn't travel to the Brighton meet with his team. Former cross-country coach Ralph Redmond took over the reins in Gram's stead. According to Gram, Redmond was of the opinion that if Northville matched its top five runners against Brighton's, the Mustangs would win the race. If the Invitational scores had been kept as duel meet scores, Northville would have beaten Brighton 24-31. So, just how good are the Mustangs?

"I felt that they (Northville) had a good chance of placing in a high position. I didn't know what kind of competition we would have here

Try these for fall fun

While fall may bring visions of footballs, field hockey sticks and cross-country courses, not all sporting activities need be of the traditional variety. There are some alternate sporting activities that were tailor made for fall and you need no more than a little bit of motivation to enjoy them.

The first fall sport that will be examined here is apple-picking. Although this sport is generally enjoyed by at most, small groups of people, teams can be formed and competition is often intense, many times evolving into another enjoyable fall sport; apple-throwing.

All the equipment that is needed for this sport are tennis shoes, for proper grip on the bark of trees; blue jeans or similar tough accoutrement, so your lower proximities aren't jeopardized while using your tennis shoes on the tree bark; and a bushel basket, for collecting the apples.

The rules are simple: after selecting a promising tree, position the basket at a location on the ground which will allow you a clean line of fire; climb the tree until you find a particularly bountiful section of fruit; and while gripping the branch with one hand, use the other to throw the apple, gently of course, into the container. Any variety of pitches can be used, including the curve, sinker, and knuckle ball. The spitball is not allowed as there is no guarantee that you will be the one who eats that particular apple in the future. Points are awarded for baskets made, with 10 points for a swoosh, five for a bank shot and minus one point for a moosh-ball shot (a rotten apple).

Apple-throwing is a different matter altogether. In this sport, moosh-ball hits count as 10-points while direct hits with a hard fruit count as minus-one (no need to get violent about things). Teams can play hunt-and-smooth or here's-a-worm-in-your-eye. There are many different varieties of this game.

If Mark Twain and tales of the great Mississippi enthralled you as a child, then canoeing will be a fall sport that you mustn't miss. Fantasy, the Disney movie that celebrates sound and color, has nothing over the sensual experience of gliding down a calm fall river with the trees that line the banks seemingly exploding in a multitude of reds, browns, oranges, and yellows.

The only negative aspect to fall canoeing is the possibility of overturning in the water. Cold, bone-chilling water is a sensual experience that is best left for Polar Bear Club members and penguins. It is not advised that the sport of apple-throwing be engaged in while canoeing.

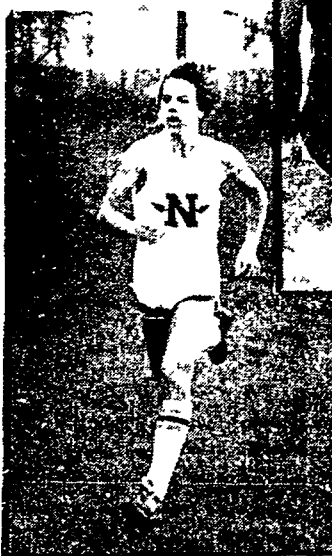

Another popular fall sport is stick-the-hay-down-their-back. Equipment for this game consists of a large wagon; piles of hay (straw doesn't cause enough itching); a horse; tractor, or other similar means of locomotion; and a driver. This is an individual sport, with fleeting alliances formed one minute, only to be smashed the instant your ally turns his back. The object of the sport is to, while in motion, at night, stuff as much hay down the shirts of those on the wagon with you, while not allowing anyone to score similarly on you. The calories burned while engaged in this sport make the crisp fall night air seem like a humid tropical atmosphere.

Another fall sport that usually takes place in conjunction with stick-the-hay-down-their-back is pick-the-hay-from-your-clothes. This is usually refereed by parents, cleaning ladies or whomever does your laundry. It isn't nearly as much fun as the stick-the-hay game.

Raid-the-pumpkin-patch is a sport that involves high levels of risk and quick reflexes. The object of this sport is to find a farm that has a large pumpkin patch, hop the fence, dodge the dog, snitch the pumpkin (the larger, the more points you get) and dodge the buckshot. This sport is recommended only for those who have criminal records as points of a different variety are given if you are caught by the police.

Rake-the-leaves-and-jump-in-them is a game that most youngsters enjoy each fall, but adults can take part in this activity also. All you need is a rake, leaves, and a running start. After raking the leaves into a large pile (care must be taken that the pile isn't raked over, beside and along fire hydrants or other protruding solid objects), pace off 150 steps, turn around and with all the effort you can muster, start running as fast as you can in a straight line for the pile. At exactly 145 paces from the point where you began running, leap into the air and land on top of the pile. Fun, right? No? Well, allowances have to be made for those who have stronger legs. If you miscalculate, there is a chance you will miss the pile. Whether landing short of your mark, or too long, the result is the same, and with the price of medical attention what it is today, it is advised that a few trial runs at half speed be conducted before you attempt the real thing.

Northville blanks Mott 14-0

The Northville varsity football team won its second straight league game by downing visiting Waterford Mott Friday, 14-0. Two weeks ago the Mustangs beat Plymouth Canton.

Friday's game, homecoming for the winners, looked anything but the rout some people thought the contest would be. Mott came into the game with an 0-4 record while Northville sported a 2-2 mark. The game was a defensive battle right down to the final gun.

Northville took the opening kickoff and drove down to the Mott 48-yard line. There the Mustangs fumbled the ball and Waterford recovered. After three plays Mott was forced to punt to Northville.

Northville took the ball on its own 18-yard line. After an incomplete pass attempt by quarterback Dave Greer, halfback Joe Hamp carried the ball up to the Northville 30-yard line for a first down. The drive stalled after Greer was sacked on the 23-yard line. Northville punted to Mott.

Waterford took possession on its own 47-yard line. On its second play from scrimmage, a face masking call against the Mustangs moved the ball down to Northville's 35-yard line. Mott tried two passes, one going incomplete and the other for a seven-yard gain. With fourth down and three to go on Northville's 32-yard line, the Mustang defense swarmed the Mott runner and stopped him short of the first down marker. Northville took over.

After a short gain on a running play, Greer dropped back to pass. The Mott defense caught him for the second time and dropped the Northville signal caller for a three-yard loss. But he wasn't to be denied, as he dropped back on the very next play and hit Dan Goehman on a pass up the middle for 38 yards. But that brief spark of offensive ignition died a quick death as in succession, Hamp was dropped for a seven-yard loss on a sweep. Greer threw an incomplete pass and then was sacked for a 13-yard loss. Northville punted.

Mott took the ball on its own 38-yard line. After 11 plays the Corsairs were on Northville's 12-yard line with a fourth down and five-yards-to-go situation. Waterford opted to try for a field goal, but on the snap, the holder got up and sprinted around right end in an attempt to gain the first down. He was tackled ed short of the mark and Northville took over possession on its own nine-yard line. Three plays later the Mustangs punted.

Mott took the punt on its own 49-yard line and started another drive.

kickoff to begin the second half. Three plays later they punted. Northville took over on its own 31-yard line.

Hamp took the handoff on the first play of the series and carried the ball into "Corsair territory. He was tackled on the Mott 45-yard line. Millard carried the ball for five more yards. Greer carried the next three times and moved the ball down to the Mott

14-and-under Hot Spurs win 6-1

Boys 14-and-under

NORTHVILLE HOT SPURS 6,
LIVONIA STRIKERS 1

Scott Gala scored the first of three goals at the 15-minute mark of the game to give the Northville team a 1-0 lead. Mike Ross added the second Spur goal on a penalty kick and then Livonia scored to make the score 2-1 at the half. Gala cranked in two more scores in the second half and Jim Willoughby and Chuck Kellar each added a goal.

NORTHVILLE ARSENAL 4,
PLYMOUTH (NO. 1) 0

Steve Starcevic chipped a shot over the goalie's head at the 20-minute mark for the first goal of the game. Tim Ruffing added a goal at the 40-minute mark to make the score 2-0. Starcevic and Tom Davis each scored in the second half for the winners.

LIVONIA RAIDERS 1

Livonia took a 1-0 lead at the 15-minute mark of the game. John Moran scored at the 60-minute mark to tie the game. Chris Sixt banged home the winner 75 minutes into the game. Sixt and John Daly manned the goal-keeping chores for the winners. Ray Greene was singled out for superior defensive play.

NORTHVILLE ROWDIES 2,
PLYMOUTH (NO. 2) 1

Down 1-0 at the half, Matt Ashby scored the first Northville goal to tie the game at 1-1. Randy Eppers picked up an assist on the play. At the 70-minute mark, Billy Harmon cruised in from his halfback position and deposited the ball behind the Plymouth goalie for the winner.

Girls 14-and-under

NORTHVILLE STARS 0,
LIVONIA GREEN MACHINE 0

The Star coach singled out outstanding defensive efforts from Chrissie Kreutzberg and Anna Bryson in preserving the shutout tie.

LIVONIA ROWDIES 5
NORTHVILLE AZTECS 4

Livonia blew out to a 2-0 lead after the first 30 minutes of the game. Lisa Cahill cut the margin to 2-1 with a goal. Livonia matched her shot and led 3-1 at halftime. At the 55-minute mark of the contest, Cahill scored to narrow the gap to 3-2. But Livonia scored again to go back up by two goals, 4-2. Chris Hanson then shot the ball past the Rowdie goalie for a 4-3 score, but Livonia added its fifth goal of the game to go up by two again. Holly Hubbard got the last goal of the game for Northville. It came with 10 minutes left to play.

LIVONIA RED BARONS 2

After Livonia scored two goals within the first 15 minutes of the game, it looked as if the Fillies were out to pasture. But Annie Schwartz scored at the 25-minute mark and Marianne Moylan scored at the 50-minute point to tie the game. Kathy Kirwan scored the winner an hour into the game. Angie Butterfield and Carole Anderson were singled out for good defense.

Boys 10-and-under

NORTHVILLE STING 4,
LIVONIA (NO. 11) 0

Tom Schwarze and Dan Magdich each scored in the first quarter to stake Northville to a 2-0 lead, enough to cruise to victory on. Dan Clark added a goal in the third quarter and Dave Watts scored in the fourth. Watts and Greg Beaber manned the goalie position for the winners.

NORTHVILLE COSMOS 7,
FARMINGTON (NO. 4) 2

Eric Smolenski scored twice and Don Potts and Jeff Terwin each scored once for the Cosmos in the first quarter and the onslaught proved to be too much for the Farmington team to withstand. Avani Bhavsai added the fifth goal, in the second quarter while Potts repeated his scoring performance of the first quarter, in the third. Don Bisdorf also scored for the winners. "We always play good in the rain," Cosmos coach Don Bisdorf said.

NORTHVILLE ARSENAL 2,
PLYMOUTH (NO. 2) 1

Brad Metz scored in the first quarter to give Northville the lead but Plymouth came back in the second quarter to tie the game at 1-1. John Larabell scored the winner with only two minutes left to play. The Arsenal coach praised the "kamakazi" style of play that his goalie, Pat Balai, displayed.

Other 10-and-under scores:

Livonia Cardinal 1, Northville Hot Spurs 0
Plymouth (No. 4) 2, Northville United 0
Livonia Express 3, Northville Black Knights 0

Livonia Flames 1, Northville Tornados 0

Livonia Cougars 5, Northville Pink Panthers 1

Boys 12-and-under

NORTHVILLE BLACK KNIGHTS 6,
LIVONIA WILDCATS 0

Billy Herguth scored the winner in the first quarter for the Black Knights. Ken Slattery and Wes Magnan each scored two goals in the game. Dave Watts scored the final Black Knight goal.

NORTHVILLE EXPRESS 1,
LIVONIA (NO. 15) 1

Chris Hauser scored the first goal of the game, for the Express, one minute into the third quarter. Livonia tied the game two minutes later. The Express coach said that the Northville team made numerous shots on the Livonia goal but the goalie was "excellent."

PLYMOUTH (NO. 6) 5,
NORTHVILLE HOT SPURS 3

Plymouth took a 1-0 lead in the first quarter. Matt Lotarski scored for Northville to tie the game. John Tashner then scored to give the Hot Spurs the lead at 2-1. Lotarski scored again in the second quarter to make it a two-goal margin. But the Northville team couldn't hold on for the win. Before the half ended Plymouth scored two times to tie the game up and then scored twice in the second half to win.

FARMINGTON (NO. 9) 4,
NORTHVILLE ARSENAL 2

In this battle for first place, Scott Balai staked the Northville team to a 1-0 lead with a goal in the first quarter on a pass from Brant Nicholas. Farmington scored two goals in the second quarter to eliminate the Northville lead. Jamison Anderson then scored to knot the score but Farmington scored two more goals in the second half to win the game.

Other 12-and-under scores:

Livonia Cougars 4, Northville United 1
Livonia (No. 21) 2, Northville Champs 1
Girls 12-and-under

NORTHVILLE FOXES 3,
LIVONIA (NO. 3) 1

Julie Anger scored goals in the first and the second quarters for the Northville team. Devan Voelker scored once in the fourth. Livonia notched its goal in the fourth quarter.

LIVONIA BOBCATS 3,
NORTHVILLE AZTECS 2

Despite goals by Jill Werdell and Mandy Olgren, the Aztecs dropped the contest to the Bobcats.

Other 12-and-under scores:

Farmington (No. 1) 4, Northville Pink Panthers 1

Northville Cup Play:

Cougars 2-0
Pink Panthers 1-0

Aztecs 0-1
Foxes 0-0

The Northville Cup is a round robin tournament with each team playing all of the teams in the division once. The Cougars have taken an early lead by virtue of their 1-0 win over the Stars. This game also counted as a regular season victory. Vicki Skuratowicz scored the lone goal. The Cougars have also beaten the Aztecs, 5-0. Jill Bemer, Linda Townsend, Sandy Spigarelli, and Laura Daly all scored goals in the win. Bemer scored twice.

The Panthers earned their victory with a 2-0 win over the Stars. Jill Jensen and Kathy Kirwin scored for the winners.

(Brighton). There were a lot of smaller schools competing. I didn't expect the sophomores to finish one-two-three.

"I was really surprised to hear that Ross and Doug finished as high as they did. This just strengthens my confidence that we can go on and sweep the rest of the teams in the league to win the championship title."

Does Gram think that Northville is the 12th best team in the state? "Not at this time," he said. "The Brighton coach felt that his team was overrated and I think it is the same with Northville. Ann Arbor Pioneer is rated ninth and this gives us something to shoot for as we meet them in our regionals at the end of the season. Then we'll see just how good we are."

In the first of two other meets last week, Northville won a quadrangular meet against Redford Union, Edsel Ford and John Glenn. The Mustangs scored 27 points, Edsel Ford took second with 40, John Glenn scored 56 and Redford Union finished with 109.

Harry Couyoumjian took first in this meet with a time of 16:04. Malinowski finished third with a time of 16:13. Scott Dayton crossed the line in a time of 16:25, good for fourth. Ross Grover took sixth place with a time of 16:48.

Other top finishers for the Mustangs were Clark Couyoumjian with a time of 17:13 (13th), Steve Stuart in 17:24 (15th) and Doug Wright at 17:27.

"This was an outstanding performance by the team," Gram said. "It was a good meet for us. The team pulled together. They had a lot of nervous energy before the meet. We saw where the gap needed to be filled and Ross Grover did it for us by taking the fourth spot. It was his fastest time of the year.

"Clark Couyoumjian had an off meet. Steve Stuart is cutting his time and showing determination," Gram said. "Stuart is determined to make a spot for himself in the front seven."

There was a JV run at this meet and Northville finished second. Steve Bourne was the top Mustang runner with a time of 17:54. Jim Williams clocked in at 17:50 and Tom Allen crossed the finish line at 18:21.

The Mustang girls also ran. Anita Sledz, the top Northville girl harrier, was sick that day so Cathy McMillan and Kelly Assenmacher had to shoulder the load. McMillan took fourth against Lady-Wood Immaculate, the opponent, with a time of 22:35, while Assenmacher finished ninth with a time of 22:46.

Waterford Mott was the next victim. The Mustangs beat the Corsairs 23-34 on Thursday. Harry Couyoumjian finished first on the flat course, crossing the finish line in a time of 15:15. "This was Harry's fastest time on a flat course," Gram said.

Dayton brought up third in 15:52 and Malinowski clocked in at 16:00, good for fourth. Their times were also the best these two have ever done on a flat course, according to Gram.

Wright had a time of 16:15, good for seventh, while Clark Couyoumjian took eighth place with a time of 16:21. Ross Grover was ninth in a time of 16:30.

"We need to cut down the time difference between our first and fifth man," Gram said. "The difference was a minute and a half. I'm hoping that Ross, Doug or Clark will fill the gap. That's my only goal presently. To fill that gap."

Jim Williams ran his fastest time ever in the meet, clocking in at 17:15.

four-yard line. Hamp carried the ball in for an apparent touchdown but the play was called back on a Mustang offside penalty. With the ball on the nine-yard line, Hamp tried the same play but was thrown back for a six-yard loss. Greer tried to hit Goehman in the end zone but the pass was incomplete. Greer carried the ball for six yards to make it fourth down and goal-to-go. Hamp tried to get the yardage on the next play but was stacked up on the seven. Mott took over. Waterford couldn't get anywhere and punted after a short series of plays. Northville took over the ball on the Mott 35-yard line. Millard carried the ball twice, and moved it down to the Mott

25-yard line. Hamp picked up nine yards on the next play and Greer then lost two on the play after that. With third down and three yards to go, Greer dropped back and spotted Goehman in the end zone. He threw for the completion and Northville finally had a touchdown that counted. Bob Thomson kicked the extra point and Northville had a 7-0 lead going into the fourth quarter. Mott didn't threaten the rest of the game. Northville scored again late in the quarter on a four-yard plunge by Bob Crisan. Thomson's kick was good and the Mustangs led 14-0. In the game, Northville gained 219 yards rushing to Mott's 110. The Mustangs gained 84 yards passing while the Corsairs had 42.

Swimmers sink Redford Union

The Northville swim team kept its duel meet record unscathed with a 109-63 win over Redford Union last Monday. But the team suffered a fourth place finish at the Redford Union Relays a week later. The team of Tammy Selfridge, Allison Farquhar, Sue Cahill and Kim Storm got the Mustangs off and swimming with a first-place finish in the 200-yard medley relay. Their time was 2:24.3. Caralyn Brown, Carolyn Schrot, Betty Iversen and Marla Wald teamed to take second place in a time of 2:25.9. Cahill came right back to capture the 200-yard freestyle in a time of 2:01.1. Nancy Donovan took second in a time of 2:07.6. Allyson Farquhar swam a 2:21.1 in the 200-yard intermediate medley, good for first place. Leslie Farquhar was right behind in a time of 2:27.8, good for second place. Laurie Sellen captured first place in the 50-yard freestyle event, swimming in a time of :27.1. Lissa Carter took third with a time of :29.7. Holly Raycraft captured the diving honors by compiling 175.65 points. Storm took first in the 100-yard fly with a time of 1:06.8 while Sellen took second in 1:11.4.

Cahill captured her third first-place award when she clocked in at :56.7 in the 100-yard freestyle. Donovan took first place in the next event, the 500-yard freestyle, with a finishing in a time of 5:46.0. Leslie Farquhar took second place, touching home with a time of 5:53.6. Selfridge took first in the 100-yard backstroke event, finishing at 1:09.8. Caralyn Brown took third in 1:20.5. Allyson Farquhar swam a 1:12.7 in the 100-yard breaststroke, good for first. Leslie Farquhar, Sellen, Donovan and Storm teamed to take the last relay event, the 400-yard freestyle relay, in a time of 4:00.8. On Saturday, Northville took part in the Redford Union Relays. Out of 11 teams participating in the event, Northville finished fourth. Stevenson won with 90 points, West Bloomfield came in second with 73, Farmington took third with 57 points and Northville brought up fourth place with 52. Leslie Farquhar, Donovan, Sellen and Storm combined to give Northville its first points in the meet, taking second place in the 400-yard free medley with a time of 3:55.3. In the 400-yard individual medley, Northville's team of Selfridge, Allyson Farquhar, Cahill and Leslie Farquhar swam a 4:23.4 for first place.

SPORTS TALK

If you were Monte Clark, how would you help the Lions out of their present dismal situation?

"Use Jeff Komlo at quarterback the rest of the time and run as a wide open offense as the can."
Dave Malinowski

"Trade somebody for a good quarterback, say Tommy Kramer of the Minnesota Vikings. Someone who can throw the ball."
Rob Ade

"They should try to get some new quarterbacks because none of the ones they have now have any leadership ability."
Lori Mitchell

"Just put the whole team on waivers."
Dan Whitaker

"I think they should open their offense up more. Use a little more variety in their plays. The first 10 plays last game were running plays. Komlo can handle it. They're just not giving him a chance."
Craig Wisbiski

JV gridders lose 3-0

A few years back, Tom Dempsey kicked a 66-yard field goal against the Detroit Lions to enable the New Orleans Saints to pull out a one-point victory. It was a miracle field goal, the longest that has ever been kicked in NFL history. The Northville JV football team now knows how the Lion team felt. While the 36-yard field goal that Canton kicked with just two minutes left to play wasn't of the magnitude of Dempsey's blast, the effect was the same. Northville lost 3-0.

Injuries to linebackers Scott Spaman and Chris Dimitroff and quarterback Tim McLaughlin shut down the normally potent offensive attack of the Mustangs. Against Canton the Northville squad could only muster 135 yards in total offense.

The Mustangs started out like they meant business. They took the opening kick-off and drove all the way down to the Canton 12-yard line before running out of downs. After that, the team couldn't generate any kind of a consistent attack.

"They were really prepared for us," coach Lee Holland said. "Canton really played well. They had the wind to their backs in the second half and that 37-yard field goal is something you don't see often at the 10th grade level. It was a lucky shot."

Netters sweep three, top league

The Northville tennis express kept on rolling towards the Western Six league title with three more league victories last week. The wins raised the Mustang victory total to 13 without a loss.

On Monday, the Mustangs downed Waterford Mott 7-0. Holly Sixt won at first singles 6-3, 6-0; Eve Englemeyer won at second singles 6-1, 6-0; Lisa Gejoff won at third singles 4-6, 6-4, 6-3; and Sheri Robbins won at the fourth singles slot, 6-0, 6-0.

Lynn Herald and Stephanie Colovas won at first doubles 6-1, 6-1; Jenny Missel and Kim Hubbard won at second doubles 6-2, 6-0; and Debbie Spade and Jana Holloway took the third doubles competition, winning 6-2, 6-0.

Kim Smith and Lori Kormanis got into the act also as they won in the only JV action of the day, beating their Mott doubles opponents 8-3.

The next school to fall to the wayside before the Mustang charge was Walled Lake Western. Northville again won 7-0. Sixt beat Holly Spencer 6-0, 6-0; Englemeyer downed Regina Roberts 6-2, 6-2; Gejoff won against Cindy Calhorn, 6-2, 6-2; and Robbins beat Brenda Shubbert 6-2, 6-2.

Colovas and Herald beat Cindy Borden and Michelle Bryant 6-3, 6-2; Missel and Hubbard took the second doubles competition against Debbie Salisz and Julie Jenkins, 6-0, 6-3; and Spade and Holloway beat Marsha Bryant and Lisa Roselle 6-1, 7-5.

The rain forced the shortening of the competition between Northville and Walled Lake Western. As it was, the Mustangs won 6-0.

Sixt downed Kim Wellwood 6-1, 6-2; the match between Englemeyer and Patty Peel was cancelled after rain forced a stoppage of play; Gejoff beat Debbie Young 6-0, 6-0; and Robbins also won against Debbie Fisher, 6-0, 6-1.

Colovas and Herald downed Donna Richard and Pattie Mix 6-0, 6-2; Missel and Hubbard beat Carol Koch and Amy Piper 6-0, 6-0; and Spade and Holloway downed Kathy Bower and Patty Mallon 6-2, 6-1.

"We have Salem this week and they will be the toughest competition we've had. As it looks, it would be hard to lose the title, but we have Canton and the league meet left," coach Uta Filkin said. "I'm wary that the team is a little flat-footed. The team may get a rude awakening against Salem. Regionals will be hard too."

The team will be going into the upcoming contests in good shape. "I think some of the girls are getting stronger," Filkin said. "The singles are working out well. Doubles, it's hard to tell."

"I saw some various things I wanted to criticize the girls about last week, but it's hard to do. When a girl is ahead 2-0, you just don't go after them for every little mistake. It's hard to coach them when they have such weak opponents. Their scores are so super that you just can't go after them on their few bad shots."

FOOTBALL CONTEST

Enter Today! You May Be A Winner!
HERE ARE THE RULES

Take a plain piece of paper and number down the left hand side from 1 to 16. You will notice that each square below is also numbered from 1 to 16 and each contains a football game to be staged this coming weekend. To complete your entry you must do the following:

- (1) after each number on your paper write the name of the sponsor of the corresponding square.
- (2) following the sponsor's name — write the name of the winning team.
- (3) in addition you must pick a score on the outcome of the game in square 16. This will be used in the case of a tie and then the contestant whose score is closest to the actual score will be declared the winner.

Be sure to write your name, address and phone number plainly on your piece of paper (your entry). In case of tie, prize money will be split

NOTE: Only ONE entry per HOUSEHOLD family per week. Prize money paid only to name on entry. PLEASE do not enter several times using friends' names. Such entries will be disqualified if discovered.

Copies of the contest will be posted at The Northville Record office at 104 W. Main and at The Walled Lake News office, 1340 S. Commerce Road, each week.

Entries must be postmarked or brought to our offices no later than 5 p.m. each Friday. Mail-in entries should be addressed "FOOTBALL CONTEST," Northville Record, 104 W. Main, Northville, or Novi-Walled Lake News, 1340 S. Commerce Rd., Walled Lake.

Employees of The Northville Record and The Novi-Walled Lake News or sponsoring merchants are not eligible.

Entry forms available without charge in our offices. Winners announced in paper and posted in offices.

Linksters drop three of four

The Northville golf team's Western Six title hopes took a severe jolt last week as the team suffered two league setbacks in a total week's action that saw the Mustangs drop three of the four matches they played.

Last Monday Northville dropped a 201-204 league contest to Canton. Bob Stephans was low man for the Mustangs. He shot a 36. Todd Mack was next with a 37 and Ted Seltz followed with a 39. But the next two Northville scores were Ted Seltz's 44 and Mark Denhoff's 48.

On Tuesday, the team dropped a 200-213 match to league foe Livonia Churchill. Stephans shot a 38 and Mack followed with a 40. The highlight of the contest came on the fourth hole, where Mack sank a hole-in-one. The excitement must have got to him as he finished the day with a score of 40. Dave Booth was next with a total of 43, while Seltz followed with a 44. Chris VanGulesan and Mike Pohiod shot 48's.

On Thursday the Mustangs finally chalked one up in the opposite ledger as they downed Walled Lake Western 217-234. Stephans shot a 41, Mack a 42, McMann a 42, Seltz a 44 and Gavin Wolfe a 48.

Bently beat the Mustangs on Friday in a non-league match. Northville is now 5-4 in the league with one match left, against Waterford Mott on Thursday.

"I knew we didn't have as strong a team as we did in previous years (referring to Northville's 5-4 tally)," coach Joe Blake said. "But you have to realize, in the last three league meets, each opponent has scored its lowest point total of the season. In a different place or time, we may have won. I'm not sure of their records but I think that Harrison and Mott are on top of the league. I suspect that we are in third place. Canton plays Harrison this week and we play Mott. It is just possible that if we can beat Mott, there may be a tie for second place. That would put us in a good position for the league meet."

JV Colts win 14-7

The Northville-Novl Colts JV team ran its record to 3-2 with a 14-7 victory over the Garden City Panthers this past weekend.

The Panthers drew first blood with a 33 yard touchdown run in the first quarter. The Garden City lead was shortlived, however, as Benji Evans returned the ensuing kickoff 68 yards for a Colt score to tie the game at 7-7.

After receiving the second half kickoff the Colts moved the ball well for 55 yards only to lose it on a fumble at the Panther's five-yard line. An inspired Panther team mounted an effective ground attack on the next series totaled 86 yards, but the Colts defense held on fourth down and two yards to go, enabling the Colt offense to take over on its own nine-yard line.

POWDER PUFF POWERHOUSE—The juniors proved to be superior in the annual homecoming powder puff football clash between the high school classes. The activity was part of the homecoming festivities at Northville. The juniors had practiced hard all week and displayed an offense that resembled a well-oiled machine and a defense that was like a brick wall. Here a flashy junior halfback carries the ball for a big gain. The Juniors beat the sophomores 6-0 and the seniors 2-0 claim this year's title. (Photo by David Turnley)

Hoopsters beat N. Farmington

It looks as if winning has become a habit for the Northville varsity basketball team. After going winless for the first five games of the season, the Mustangs won their first contest, against Harrison, two weeks ago. Last week Northville proved the win wasn't a fluke as the Mustangs beat North Farmington 35-27 on Tuesday.

Jacque Nixon led the Mustangs to the win by scoring 19 points. The smooth sophomore has been the leading scorer for Northville in every game thus far this season. In the win over Harrison Nixon scored 34 points.

Sandra Flannigan and Melinda House, recently up from the Mustang JV, each scored five points. Heidi Wagner added four and Lori Mitchell chipped in with two to complete the Northville scoring.

Northville and North Farmington played close for the first half. The score was tied at the end of the first quarter at 8-8, and the Mustangs held a slim 14-12 lead at halftime. The third quarter proved to be an important one for the winners, however, as Northville outscored North Farmington 13-6 in the period to go out front 27-18. The fourth quarter saw the losers outscore Northville 9-8 but it wasn't enough. Northville had its second win of the year.

The Mustang bubble burst though when two days later Mott trounced the orange and black 56-36. Nixon again led the Mustangs in scoring with 16 points but the Mott team had two big guns of its own in Bridgette Brennen and Martha Schmitt. Brennen scored 17 points while Schmitt accounted for 16. Kim McGuire was the second leading scorer for Northville as she hit for 10 points. Kim Kurzawa added eight and Mitchell again chipped in for two.

Northville led after the first quarter, 13-10, but Mott was only warming up. The second quarter saw the Waterford team outscore the Mustangs 17-7 to take a 27-20 halftime lead. In the third quarter Mott scored 14 points to Northville's eight. The fourth quarter was much the same as Northville managed just eight points to Mott's 15.

Schoolcraft runners place

The Schoolcraft cross-country team traveled to the Monarch Invitational at Macomb Community College last week. The boys team finished fifth out of nine teams while the girls squad took first place.

Wendy Tipton paced the girls with a new school record in the three-mile event, finishing in a time of 17:56. She took first in the event. Betty Davis came in third with a time of 18:55. Mary Martin was eighth at 20:27 and Dorothy Boshnien clocked in at 22:10. Northville's Michelle Hays took 13th with a time of 22:13. These times were the best ever for each girl. All of them stand a good chance of qualifying for Nationals, coach Steve Montgomery said.

The boys were led by Northville's Phil Reed and Jim Bedford. Reed took ninth place with a time of 26:20 in the five mile course. Bedford finished 10th at 26:21. The next finisher for the squad was Dennis Opfimer, who took 35th place with a time of 29:49. All the boys recorded their best times ever, with Reed and Bedford close to qualifying for Nationals also.

NEW!! DELUXE SLIMS

AUTOMATIC WATER CONDITIONERS BY REYNOLDS

Reynolds Slims are designed to be beautiful and also to fit almost any space - only 13 inches wide. Same extraordinary quality you expect from Reynolds with high capacities up to 35,000 grains and if you have really rusty water, the new exclusive Reynolds Rust Purge System is for you. The Rust Purge System eliminates the problems most water conditioners have with iron content in water. Yes, you may rent them too! Rental fees apply toward purchase.

REYNOLDS Michigan's oldest water conditioning company. Since 1931 a name you can trust.

SHINE ON BRIGHTLY—The result of $15,000 and a lot of elbow grease, the new recreation department gym floor looks almost too bright and shiny to play on. When the rec office was moved to the Community Center, the old gym floor was warped and bubbled from water that leaked from the roof. The roof has been temporarily repaired and the new floor is primed and ready for action. A new program where for $50 a family or individual can have their name routed into a one-foot square section of the floor is underway. Orders are being taken at the rec office. The squares will be there for as long as the floor is.

Ski Club meeting coming soon

The Northville Community Recreation Ski Club will have an organizational meeting on Thursday, October 25 at 4 p.m. at the Community Center, 303 W. Main.

Friday to Alpine Valley in Milford and the buses will leave at 4:45 p.m. from the Community Center parking lot.

$5.00-Tow; $4.50-Rental. Every member must take one lesson to be rated for hill assignment.

Registrations will be accepted Monday through Thursday only.

The group-rate fees this year are: $1.50-Lesson;

Kickers finally lose

It had to happen eventually. Perhaps now the awful pressure is off their shoulders. The Northville varsity soccer team lost its first match of the season. Andover beat the team 3-2 Saturday. Northville's record is now 7-1-1.

It wasn't a loss without honor. If you have to lose, shouldn't it be to the best? That was the case Saturday as Andover, the state champ last year in Class A ball, out-hustled the Mustangs to gain the victory. Perhaps it was just a strange coincidence that the Andover coach is Sam Oates, captain of the Detroit Express, Detroit's professional soccer team and the referee for the game was his teammate, Steve Sargent.

Kevin Swayne put the Mustangs on top in the first half of the contest as he beat the Andover goalie with a wicked shot from the side.

Andover came out fighting though in the second half as the team scored two quick goals to take the lead. Russ Gans, Northville captain, took matters into his own hands after that and blew a shot past the Andover goalie from 30 yards out on a direct kick to knot the score at 2-2.

Then, with 10 minutes left in the game, the Andover team did its bee imitation and swarmed the Northville net. The result was a goal and the lead, which eventually turned into the win as the Mustangs failed to score again in the game.

"Everyone's pretty down," Mustang goalie Craig Wisbiski said. "We really wanted the win. Maybe we wanted it so much that we were trying too hard."

beginning on Thursday, October 25 after the meeting. Registrations will be accepted all season long.

When registering for membership you should bring a small picture of yourself for your ID Card and $26 (which covers the cost of membership and twenty bus trips to Alpine).

Each time you take a bus trip, your ID card will be punched as you enter the bus. At the end of the ski season we will reimburse each member any remaining bus fees not used. This will eliminate having to exchange bus tickets each week and/or purchase tickets each week.

Chaperones, over 21 years of age, are needed. If you are interested, please contact the rec department at 349-0203.

There will be a regular commission meeting on Wednesday, October 17 at the Community Center at 8 p.m.

A men's basketball organizational meeting is scheduled for Thursday, 8 p.m. at the Community Center. The women's meeting will be on the same night but at 7 p.m. at the center.

Contest winners named

All three winners in last week's football contest missed no fewer than four games.

Thus, in all instances, the winning margins had to be determined by the tie-breaker game, Atlanta over Green Bay.

First place went to Pat Hansen of 1895 Greenmeadow, Walled Lake.

Mrs. Hansen's entry had Atlanta winning by a score of 21-7 — just four points off the actual score of 25-7.

In second place, 10 points off the mark, was Charles B. Eubanks of 18239 Jamestown Circle, Northville. And third place went to Tom Alkire of 316 South Wing Street, also of Northville. He was 11 points off the tie-breaker.

All contestants missed the North Illinois-Eastern Michigan game since that contest ended in a scoreless tie.

And believe it or not, every contestant correctly guessed Michigan to defeat Michigan State — the first time this has happened in the history of the newspaper's football contest.

Even Green contestants went for Blue when it came for picking a winner. Also missing four games but finishing out of the money were:

Matt Eaker, 745 Thayer (12 points off); Tony Hamp, 46132 Norton (13 points off); Chris Odom, 797 Springfield Drive (15 points off); and Paul Caroselli, 770 Bradburn (28 points off).

Eighteen contestants missed five games, 20 missed six, 15 had seven mistakes, five had eight wrong, and the remaining contestants had nine mistakes or more.

Frosh Colts up 26-14

Last Sunday the freshman Colts upped their season record to 3-2 by defeating the Garden City Panthers in a Western Suburban Football League game. The score was 26-14.

The game started with the Colts kicking off to the Panthers but the Garden City team fumbled and Scott Stephens recovered for Northville. The Colts proceeded to march the ball down the field, with Bob Bop Smith scampering 35 yards for the score. The extra point conversion, also scored by Smith, was good and the Colts led 7-0.

The Panthers also began a drive towards their goal line but the Colts' Rickey Athey sack-

With the score 13-0 in favor of the Colts, the Panthers opened the second half with a touchdown on a 10-yard run around the right side after recovering a Northville fumble.

FISH
JIM AYTES
Neptune
Aquarium

One man, Richard Graham, of North Canton, Ohio, has spawned 8,000 goldfish in his basement this year.

Goldfish became fashionable in France in the mid-18th Century when Louis XV imported some to amuse Madame Pompadour.

Who brought goldfish to the U.S.? Some historians say the showman P.T. Barnum did, others credit a retired American admiral.

WE'VE GOT YOUR NUMBER

Ever notice the number on the label of a prescription bottle? It's there for your protection and convenience. Your original prescription, bearing this number is kept in our permanent file. If your physician orders a refill, all we require is the number to make sure you get the same medication. If your prescription is at another pharmacy, simply give us the number and we will call and get the current prescription information so you can pick your prescription up at your convenient Perry Drug Store.
