Bargains roll out at auction

"Will anybody bid $3?"

Cadet Russ Barnes, serving as auctioneer for the Northville City Police Department's annual auction last Saturday morning behind city hall, found himself pleading for bids from a sparse crowd of less than two dozen persons.

Since most of those on hand apparently were there to bid on the row of 15 bicycles, Barnes had a hard time arousing interest in a good condition, six-foot toboggan complete with pad.

It finally was knocked down for the $3 bid.

High bid of the morning was for a good-condition 10-speed bicycle that went for $65.

Barnes, an honest auctioneer, noted that an orange 10-speed was in "medium" condition as he solicited bids. A yellow one in less-choice shape finally brought a bid of $3.

But a 10-speed girl's bike sold for $19 when the bidding between two interested would-be purchasers ended with Carole Romanik the winner — for her daughter.

A desk chair, game table and set of four lawn figures were the other non-bike items.

The lawn figurines had been acquired after students left them on the high school lawn as a prank.

"You ought to pay me for taking them away," commented Roger Borg, who nonetheless bid $2 and got them.

Also on view but unclaimed were several bicycles picked up by police within the past three months. Barnes explained the department hoped someone would identify and reclaim them. They will have to be held until next year's auction to fulfill the time requirement of three months.

Those who missed the bargain-basement prices will have a second chance to bid next week Thursday. The township police department has scheduled its auction (mostly bicycles, too) for 4:30 p.m. September 24.

Angry residents protest school busing reductions

BY MICHELE McELMURRY

Angry residents packed the Northville Board of Education conference room Monday night to voice their complaints about the school's transportation conditions.

More than 50 residents turned out at the board's regular meeting to protest busing conditions for Northville's K-12 students in both the public and parochial schools.

Overcrowded buses, unsafe pick-up and drop-off points and late arrivals were some of the complaints registered by parents Monday evening.

The current busing problems are the result of the board's reduction in transportation expenditures to stay within the 1981-82 budget.

The transportation cutbacks, approved by the board August 10, resulted in the elimination of five K-12 bus runs, reduction of the bus fleet from 14 to nine, reduction in extra bus runs for special activities such as athletics and the elimination of one special education bus run.

The board also made a change in its transportation policy to eliminate busing from areas which lie within a one and one-half mile distance from the assigned school and rescheduled school starting and dismissal times to compensate for fewer bus runs.

Residents at Monday's meeting argued that school buses were filled "way beyond" capacity with as many as 80 to 90 students per bus and that many students were not arriving home from school until after 5 p.m.

Several Northville township residents protested the location of pick-up points for students in that area — particularly those being picked-up in the parking lot at A &amp; P on Seven Mile east of Northville Road.

Others complained about the close proximity of bus pick-up points to Northville State Hospital. Residents argued that the increasing number of hospital walkaways could pose a danger for elementary students walking to the bus stop.

Robert Leindecker, board of education chairman at St. Paul's Lutheran Church School, protested the board's rescheduling of school starting and dismissal times and argued that the board had not contacted the parochial schools before outlining the new schedule.

"We were not contacted before the schedule was approved," Leindecker told board members. "I understand the realities of budget cuts but the only service private school citizens get from the tax revenues of public schools is transportation."

"We're doing a great favor to the public schools and I'd like to be considered."

St. Paul's, Our Lady of Victory and William Allen Academy have a 9:30 a.m. starting time and a 4 p.m. dismissal. According to St. Paul's board members, the ideal starting time at the parochial school is 8:45 a.m.

Board opposes policy exception

Colony III junior high school students will be walking to Meads Mill next year as a result of the board of education's decision to eliminate busing for junior high students in that area.

The board, which agreed to consider an exception to its transportation policy by busing the 30 Colony III students to Meads Mill for one year, voted 5-2 against the proposal Monday night. Treasurer Chris Johnson and trustee Glenna Davis voted in favor of the one-year exception.

Colony III parents initially petitioned the board at its August 31 meeting to reinstate bus transportation for junior high students in that area.

Citing unsafe walking conditions for students — particularly those who might "short cut" to school along Six Mile, Colony III residents urged the board to reconsider its August 10 transportation policy change which eliminated busing from particular areas with lie within a one and one-half mile distance to the assigned school.

The board eliminated a total of six bus runs to reduce the transportation budget by $72,000 — as outlined in the 7-mill proposal approved by voters in July.

At the board's August 31 meeting, treasurer Chris Johnson proposed that the board consider an exception to its transportation policy for Colony III students in light of the unsafe walking conditions.

However, Johnson proposed an exception be made for only one year and that Colony III residents work toward improving walking conditions for students.

Colony III residents pleaded their case again at the board's meeting Monday night.

However, after examining the cost for busing 30 Colony III students to Meads Mill, the board voted against making a policy exception.

Assistant Superintendent Burton Knighton told board members that the total cost of transporting the 30 students would be $3,466.

Board members voiced several concerns about granting an exception to Colony III students. Several board members said they feared that granting an exception for one area would lead to other exception requests.

In making transportation reductions, the board eliminated bus runs from five other areas in addition to Colony III.

Board president Karen Wilkinson said she had a "great deal of sympathy" for concerned residents but added that the board "is charged not only with dealing with individuals but students as a whole."

Police force reductions could reach 40 percent

Northville Township Police Department, which only four months ago was hoping to increase the number of officers by 30 to 40 percent, is looking at a possible reduction of 40 percent by year's end.

That was the message Acting Police Chief Kenneth Hardesty delivered to the board of trustees September 10, only hours after a closed-door session to discuss negotiations with the department's patrol officers union.

Hardesty informed the board that he had instituted one layoff of an officer, Clyde Anderson, effective October 1 and will be forced to lay off at least one more, perhaps two, by the end of this fiscal year in order to balance the department budget.

Officer Michael Panagotides will most likely be laid off November 1 or December 1, Hardesty said. Current projections would call for a third layoff two or three months thereafter, but Hardesty said that projection is tentative.

The department had 10 officers, plus one CETA employed service officer, until July, when former chief Ronald Nisun, demoted to patrol rank, was dismissed for refusing to take a physical. Nisun is contesting the decision and his grievance is pending.

With the October 1 layoff, staff size will be down to eight and with one more in November there would be seven. The decision of township reserve officers to forego their minimal salaries, Hardesty said, might allow him to continue at that strength for a few months, but the third layoff will probably come within this fiscal year, Hardesty told the board.

In any event, a community service officer (CSO) employed under the federal CETA program will be lost September 28. The officer enforced local ordinances such as those involving dogs and sometimes did duty on the dispatch desk.

Dispatchers and record clerks have been reduced to "bare bones" levels through attrition, Hardesty said. Formerly two separate operations, the records often are kept by dispatch officers now as a cost-saving measure.

During the spring, Nisun was hoping approval of added millage would allow the department to expand to 13 or 14 officers come April, 1982.

But voters narrowly rejected the one mill increase request on the May 27 ballot while granting overwhelming approval to a renewal of the 1.5 mills

License transfer okayed for eatery — new owners to offer French fare

The cuisine is to be French — the decor turn-of-the-century as new owners take over Positively Mainstreet, the restaurant at 126-130 East Main.

The location is more familiar to longtime residents as the Old Mill, a restaurant for many years before the present Greek food operation.

While sale of the property had been announced by Constantine L. Kitrakis, finalizing had hinged on approval of the liquor license transfer to the new owners.

Northville City Council September 8 unanimously approved the transfer, as requested by the state liquor control commission. It acted after investigation by Police Chief Rodney Cannon. His report verified that the three new owners passed police investigation and that the building now meets requirements as code violations have been repaired.

New owners taking over from Kitrakis and Daniel Collins were on hand at the council session. They are Gregory Goodman, Thomas MacKinnon and Dr. Leonard Wade. The group has been operating the Clarkston Cafe and had an operation in the Holly Hotel.

MacKinnon told the council he would be managing the restaurant and was "really happy to be here." He said this was his first venture on his own.

Both he and Goodman, he said, received their education in Schoolcraft

College culinary arts department and went on to study in Brussels and other European cities.

"Basically, the food will be French," he reported, "but it will be affordable to a wide range of people."

"We will be serving beer, wine and cocktails as an accompaniment to food," he added, stating that the main emphasis will be on the food with liquor intended to complement it.

He told council that the restaurant will be entered through the bar area.

"We have gone to antique auctions and garage sales and bought old moldings and other architectural pieces from places being torn down," MacKinnon reported. These, he said, are being used to create the turn-of-the-century atmosphere. He said plans call for uncovering an old brick wall and building a 21-foot bar.

"When people walk in the door, we want to take them back 100 years. We're using lots of wood and picking up a hunter's theme," he continued.

Dr. Wade, a dentist and partner in the enterprise, he said, is "one of the finest painters of birds, especially ducks, and his work will decorate the walls."

He added that former President Richard Nixon has one of Dr. Wade's originals. They will not be for sale, Wade stated.

Earlier the new owners had appeared before the Northville Historic District Commission for approval of exterior renovation plans. They indicated they would like to place a canopy over the entrance.

Date for occupancy was given as October 15.

State considers old petition to make township into city

Consideration of a 1977 petition to incorporate Northville Township as the City of Northville Hills is scheduled this Thursday at a Lansing meeting of the state boundary commission.

The commission is to make its determination on the merits of the petitions filed in November, 1977, by a group led by the then-Supervisor Wilson Grier. The request was citizen action, not an official act of the township board.

The proposal has received virtually no support from day one — it is apparent even those who filed it did not wish to see the township become a city. Current township officials do not plan to attend the meeting.

But the boundary commission, given the 1,111 signatures it received, must consider the matter and all the evidence.

Although Grier declined to acknowledge it at the time, the filing of petitions was little more than a delaying tactic to forestall possible "piecemeal" annexations of township lands to the city.

The signatures gathered by Grier, then-Trustee Mark Lysinger and 49 others were filed amidst a spate of such petitions state-wide as township governments responded to a state Supreme Court decision giving the boundary commission authority to approve, without public vote, annexations of areas including fewer than 100 persons.

Many regional and state-wide meetings of township officials ended in the rash of filings for incorporation. Later provisions of law put off some of the fears behind the petitions, but they are still working their way through the commission hearing and decision process.

Grier had been staunchly opposed to the two efforts to consolidate the township and city in the previous four years. With a petition to incorporate as a city on file, all annexation attempts would be delayed until the city issue had been decided.

Grier reiterated his belief township government was better than city government, even as he sent the petitions to Lansing.

At the time, there was fear in some quarters that the court ruling would allow the City of Northville to annex the sparsely populated but tax-base-rich industrial and business developments on Gerald down to Seven Mile Road.

The boundary commission, according to executive secretary James Hyde, has a long backlog of cases to consider. Recent hiring of four new analysts, he said, is likely to clear the docket within a year.

Cable television gaining subscribers

By last week 813 households in the Northville community had become active subscribers to Omnicom of Michigan, cable pay television.

Peter Newell, president of the Plymouth-based operation, said that installers have been working throughout the area to provide the franchise service. Last week 490 homes in the township and 323 in the city were hooked up to receive up to 36 channels, including 24 hour sports and news satellites.

One of the biggest attractions of cable television is the offer of up to four movie channels, Newell said.

When the multi-step installation process is completed in a neighborhood, he explained, residents are contacted by the Omnicom marketing department and offered a choice of five types of service, ranging from a full 36-channel package with four movies and 12 satellite networks including sports and news.

The full package at $34.75 a month, he stated, is the most popular and is the choice of 40 to 45 percent of the subscribers. The next rate of $27.80 offers one fewer movie channel. With others dropped as the rates go down to $20.75 and $13.90.

The monthly base rate of $6.95 is for everything but movies and five satellite channels. Newell said this is the least popular offering, chosen by only a small number—about three percent—of the subscribers.

The charges, he added, are universal throughout the area. He called the full package a "best buy," noting that a family that attends the movies weekly will find it a bargain.

"The movies," he said, "are shown without censorship or commercials and are exactly as they were produced." The movies, he said, are not those being shown currently at movie houses but are those that just have played.

Omnicom, unlike some television franchisers, does not show any X-rated or "hard" R-rated movies on its channels. It is possible to buy a service showing only G and PG-rated movies.

The sports channel, Newell said, is a popular offering as it shows sports not regularly covered on commercial television, including soccer and lacrosse.

Residents who have seen cable installers going through right of ways but who have not been contacted should understand, Newell warned, that installation is a multi-step process.

In aerial (above ground) installations, he explained, a "strand" first is stretched to carry the cable. Then the cable is hung. Third step is electronic tap-ins for individual subscribers. Final one is electrification, balancing and testing. The same process is used underground, he continued, requiring three trips through a neighborhood.

"We always have some problems with underground installations through people's landscaping—there's always someone wishing you were not there," Newell observed.

The complaints directed at the firm at a city council meeting recently were from residents whose landscaping, especially trees, were disturbed. It was pointed out that right of ways were designed for utility-type installations and the Omnicom did not have the right to use private property instead, as sometimes offered.

In franchise agreements with the city and township installation is going on throughout the entire community, with the stipulated exception of areas that do not have a minimum of 70 homes per mile. Cost of installation in that situation, Newell said, would be much greater and would have to be borne by all residents, hiking the charges.

"Everything east of Northville Road has been constructed but not turned on yet; west of Northville Road has all been constructed—Lexington Commons North has been turned over to marketing and Lexington Commons South has been in process of marketing and turned on," according to Pat Cavanagh, Omnicom construction coordinator.

It is explained that even though a neighborhood may have installation work completed, service may not yet be offered as the marketing teams are behind the construction. Salespeople are going door-to-door in completed neighborhoods, Newell said, working at night after 6 p.m. They leave information and make at least three return trips, he stated.

Northville Commons and Colony subdivisions are turned on, he said, while Lakes of the North shortly will have underground work completed.

Cavanagh said that Lexington Condos have not had installation yet. Highland Lakes is in process of design. Innsbrook Apartments are in process and expected to be ready in a couple of weeks. Allen Terrace senior citizen complex does not yet have installation, but the city area surrounding it has been completed.

The area south of Six Mile is "ready to go," Cavanagh detailed.

Any residents whose neighbors have cable television or whose neighborhood is listed as completed, may check with Omnicom to see if they have been missed by calling 459-8320.

tory offer of free installation for 30 days.

The informational packet includes a Home Theatre Network movie guide for September-October featuring "Somewhere in Time," premiere showings of "Bon Voyage Charlie Brown" and "Airplane!"

Other films to be shown include "Coast to Coast," "Seems Like Old Times," "Hangar 18," "Oh, God! Book II," "My Bodyguard," "Freaky Friday" and "Christian the Lion." All are featured as premiere showings. "Every Which Way But Loose" is billed as a final showing. The guide includes a listing of times the films will be shown and repeated.

There also is a "Nickelodeon," a guide "for kids only," and "From the 55 Yard Line," a professional football offering from Canada on the Total Sports Network.

Other features of the pay television include distant stations, public affairs and religious programming.

Saying that marketing in the community is half completed, Newell noted that the big appeal is that "you always can find something worth watching."

"Unlike commercial television, we repeat and duplicate programs at different time periods within a couple of days. You can plan your viewing at your convenience."

Seek citizen nominees

Northville Chamber of Commerce is seeking nominations for its sixth annual "Citizen of the Year Award."

Anyone who has made "positive contributions to the Northville Community" and is a resident of the city or township of Northville may be nominated by an individual or organization.

Northville City Attorney Philip Ogilvie, Citizen of the Year for 1980, is chairman for this year's selection.

He says that offices held in civic, professional and church groups as well as participation in city and township organizations are among the factors considered.

The nominee's education, family, hobbies and other interests should be listed, he notes, with a statement giving the attributes of the candidate and why he or she would be worthy of receiving the chamber award.

Nominations may be mailed to the chamber, P.O. Box 5246, Northville, 48167.

Kay Keegan, executive director for the chamber, explains that the search is beginning early with the hope that there will be several nominees. Deadline is December 31 with the recipient to be honored at the chamber's January dinner.

Jan Reef was the first to be so honored in 1976. Former mayor A. M. Allen followed. The late postmaster John Steimel was next. The 1979 recipient was former chamber executive secretary Essie Nirider.

Although all recipients since the award was instituted have been men, there is no restriction by sex, Keegan says.

Game arcades, regulations, stir government concerns

Center arcade planned

While Northville City Council began initial study of an ordinance to control and regulate arcades, it received its first request regarding a planned video game operation here.

James D. Rea, who operates the Winner's Circle at 113 West Main, had asked to have the request for an arcade in part of the premises he has purchased at 135 North Center be placed on the council agenda September 8.

At the session he told council he would like to purchase six additional parking spaces under the city zoning ordinance (needed to operate such a business) with the city's permission.

He explained that his intention is to convert half of the area at the rear of the building formerly occupied by Lila's Interiors to an arcade operation. The total area is 1700 square feet, he said, stating he would be using only about 900 square feet.

The only entrances to the arcade, he said, would be at the rear from the parking lot. The front of the building is occupied by a beauty shop and the upstairs has four tenants.

"He has tried to rent it (Lila's Interiors area) but been unable to find a tenant," Rea's attorney Don O'Callaghan declared. Council was told that Rea had acquired the building February 1 of this year and had not found a tenant for the rear area.

O'Callaghan stressed Rea's offer to agree to a pinball operation on a trial basis.

Rea would not own the machines for a year, council was told.

He said he anticipated having 20 machines as he asked the council to "seriously consider" his request. He emphasized that he did not feel an arcade "properly operated" would be a detriment to the community.

Asked by Mayor Paul Vernon who would own the machines, O'Callaghan reported it is "normal" to have an agreement with a machine owner on a 50-50 profit split with the machine owner responsible for maintenance.

Steve Palalan, president of Nu-Way Leasing Company, was introduced as the owner who would be supplying the machines. He told council he has been in business 10 years and has "a few hundred (machines) in the tri-county area."

He explained that Rea would receive "fairly new" machines as he told council that "top spots exclusively for people to come in and play."

These, he said, then are rotated down to bars, then party stores and finally are "sold for a few hundred bucks for someone's basement." After three-to-four years, machines usually are old, he added.

"The city has just spent about two million dollars to attract people to its downtown, why do you think an arcade would be appropriate here?" Vernon questioned Rea.

Rea noted there would not be a sign on the front of the building and stated the rear entrance would confine the activity to the parking lot.

The council recalled the previous operation of an arcade in the Northville Square Mall (now occupied by Michigan Association of Gift Salesmen) and said some of the problems occurred after players left the arcade but still loitered around the building.

"It is not my intentions to make the arcade my livelihood," Rea stated, pointing out that operation of the Winner's Circle bar was his main work. He added that he already has submitted a proposed floor plan for the arcade to the fire department for fire safety approval.

Vernon noted that the council is in the midst of developing rules for the conduct of arcades at this time.

Council member Carolann Ayers questioned Rea about who he thought his arcade clientele would be.

"I expect young people," he replied, adding that he would have and enforce "no smoking" signs and "expect that they act like adults."

Council member J. Burton DeRusha observed that he would hate "to see a situation develop causing a 'shunning' of the downtown area because of an arcade. It's another problem when they (customers) come out."

Board passes strict law

All pinball and video games in Northville Township will have to be licensed by January 1, 1982 under an ordinance approved in its final form by the board of trustees September 10.

Major last-minute renovations to the proposed ordinance under discussion since spring increased licensing fees and changed the emphasis of the law from control of arcade operations to regulation of all coin operated games, regardless of location.

Earlier drafts of the ordinance, including the one reviewed by the township attorney and presented for board consideration last week, instituted regulation only when a location had five or more of the games on the premises.

But the board decided, at the urging of trustee Richard Allen and Supervisor John MacDonald, to remove that provision and apply the full requirements of the ordinance to all locations of one or more machines.

Clerk Susan Heintz had suggested a minor alteration that would have charged license fees on all machines, but excluded those with four or fewer games from other requirements of the law. Her suggestion was rejected in favor of imposing the regulation universally.

Also altered from earlier proposals were license fees. Annual fees of $10 per machine with a $150 maximum were rejected by Allen.

"If you're going to license the things, you've at least got to get back the cost of your inspections," he said. Allen then referred to discussions in the city of Plymouth, where a more stringent law was passed recently, where it was said inspections by building and police officials (also required by the township law) would cost about $50 per machine.

"They (Plymouth) are charging $200 for the first machine, and $100 for each one after that," Heintz noted. "Now, to me, that's not regulating them, that's saying 'stay out, we don't want you here.'"

What the clerk did not say, but was evidently clear to the board members, is that courts have held that such a "message" is illegal.

Allen suggested a license fee of $25 with no upper limit.

"Assuming Plymouth inflated their (inspection) cost a little, let's look at $20 to $25 as a fee. That should cover your costs and maybe bring in a little revenue," Allen said. "And get rid of the maximum charge. If a guy's got 40 machines, let him pay for them."

"If he's got that many," added Trustee Thomas L.P. Cook, "he's making plenty of money to pay for them."

As it became apparent the board mood was to change the ordinance drastically from the proposal reviewed by the attorney, Heintz suggested such changes be submitted to the attorney again. MacDonald said it would not be necessary and no motion was made.

Cook suggested a fee structure of $100 for the first machine, $75 for the second and $50 for each game in one location thereafter.

Others, concerned that such a structure would unduly complicate administration as the number of machines in a location increased or decreased, settled on a straight $50 per machine fee.

Heintz and MacDonald said they would prefer a maximum limit on licensing costs as well.

Trustee James Nowka made the motion to set fees at $50 per machine with a $300 cap. It was amended to place an upper limit of $500.

Also of concern was an age limit for employees of game locations. The township ordinance requires that all such employees be 18 years of age or older.

"The Liquor Control Commission (LCC)," Heintz noted, "has its own standards that allow various kinds of work to be performed down to 16-year-olds."

The board opted to retain the age limit at 18, providing that the requirement does not conflict with LCC standards. Younger workers could be employed at such locations if the LCC approves.

Other provisions of the new ordinance include:

— Required closing of game locations between midnight and noon daily and between midnight and 2 p.m. Sundays. LCC licensees are exempt. It is unclear, Heintz said, whether the requirement would mean closing of an entire business during those hours or only that portion containing games.

— Prohibition of gambling, making owners responsible for ensuring adherence; — Windows may not be blocked by any means, and the interior should be visible from the street;

— Standard prohibitions against allowing illegal activity on the premises, making the owner responsible for excluding such activity;

— Provision for revocation of licenses through legal means;

— Penalties of up to $500 and 90 days in jail per offense, each day a violation exists being counted as a separate offense.

The board passed the ordinance by unanimous vote, all members being present. Effective date was established as January 1, 1982. The date was chosen on Allen's suggestion to coincide with the requirement that licenses be renewed annually by the beginning of the year.

It is expected to leave current game operators 60 days or more between publication of the ordinance and the effective date in which to obtain licenses.

Hearing set on chamber building

Northville Community Chamber of Commerce plans for its own building to be constructed on South Main Street and the industrial park drive (Wallis Street) have been put on hold for now.

The chamber went before the city planning commission September 1 with site plans, but found it still needed other approvals from various government bodies.

Variance changes required from the Zoning Board of Appeals were not granted until September 2, and were contingent upon city council adopting an amendment to the ordinance for special uses.

Council agreed last week to hold a public hearing October 5 to consider an amendment for special uses to the zoning ordinance.

Seniors offered humanities series

First in a six-week series of group discussions on humanities will be held from 10-11 a.m. Thursday at Allen Terrace.

Fran Yoakam, director of the Northville Housing Commission, reports that the first course in the free series for senior citizens, "In Search of Solutions," will consider intergenerational problems within families.

It will use as the basis families described in literature, using three stories by Edna Ferber. The discussion will focus on proposed solutions of group participants as compared to the ones of the fictional characters in the stories.

Thelma L. Anderson, a master's degree student in adult and continuing education at University of Michigan-Ann Arbor, will lead the discussions.

Senior citizens in the community may participate, but should register at Allen Terrace as membership in the course is limited to 15. All meeting will begin at 10 a.m. on Thursdays.

Horse show set at library

Northville children will have an opportunity to learn more about the Morgan horse when these special animals come to town this Saturday.

The Northville Public Library has scheduled a film about the Morgan horse at 10 a.m. with a hands-on demonstration of riding and cart horses to be held in the lot behind the library following the film.

All school-age children are welcome to attend the free program presented by the Justin Morgan Association.

For more information, call the library at 349-3020.

DeRusha said he appreciated Rea's cooperative attitude as he with his attorney agreed to meet with City Attorney Phillip Ogilvie to discuss his proposed plans, parking space requirements and trial offer.

Under previous use, the facility required fewer parking spaces. Rea presently has four. City Manager Steven Walters indicated that a higher space amount would be required — one per two persons allowed by the occupancy limit.

The city has provided downtown parking in a sale formula with merchants who do not have their own parking facilities, selling spaces on a city-wide basis and developing the parking deck and downtown lots.

The council agreed to set a date for a work session on an arcade ordinance at its September 21 meeting.

Picture Story

John Galloway

From pen and ink to watercolor

People saw something a little different at the weekly Northville Farmers' Market one recent Thursday. In addition to the array of vegetables and fruits, there was someone sketching a basket of tomatoes.

Pat Cheal, a 1977

graduate of Northville High School, was that artist. After sketching the basket, shown in the bottom picture, she went to her mother's home in Highland Hills to paint it in watercolor.

"I began with pen and ink," she explained, "but watercolor is harder. I like the color more, and once it's on, it's on. You can erase pen and ink and go over oil."

Pat lives in Redford now with her husband Lee. At the time these pictures were taken, she was secluding herself in her mother's home for two weeks. "I just needed some time to relax and paint," she said.

After attending the University of Michigan's art school for a year, followed by some part-time courses at Detroit's Center for Creative Studies, she now is looking for a job as an illustrator in the Detroit area.

I've always doodled. Mrs. (Alice) Kipter at Northville High encouraged me, gave me challenging assignments.

Council appoints Margie Davis to DDA

Margie Davis was appointed to a three-year term on the Downtown Development Authority by unanimous vote of Northville City Council at its September 8 meeting. She replaces Barbara Black.

A. M. Allen, whose term also expires, indicated he would like to continue and was reappointed unanimously by the council.

Dr. Hunter Concern for bedwetters

— One of a series —

New hope for bedwetters.

Bedwetting is a problem — often a serious problem — that many parents approach incorrectly. They restrict liquids. They wake the child during the night.

"Meanwhile, family relationships may suffer because of the problems bedwetting causes. And, in many cases, the child may not outgrow it."

"Bedwetting is rarely corrected by treating it as though it were an allergy, disease, infection or emotional problem. Such problems, after all, cannot occur only at night as does bedwetting."

But bedwetting is correctable. Correctable in the home by parents who learn what they are dealing with and who follow recommended corrective procedures.

A fine booklet on the subject is available free of charge to readers of this column from Enuresis

"Bedwetting is correctable..."

Family Center, and is strongly recommended to families affected by the problem. Send your request to E.F.C., 23023 Orchard Lake Road (Bldg. F), Farmington, Michigan 48024.

Bedwetting called serious and harmful.

Arnold Keller, M.A., C.S.W., often works with children to strengthen their confidence and self image. He noted "if bedwetting is not corrected it can affect these areas."

Similarly, Dr. Joseph G. Molner, M.D., noted that "The correction of bedwetting is an important mental health aid. It is very harmful to the child, distressing to parents and can lead to serious complications later in life."

Enuresis specialist Dr. Dennis L. Hunter agrees. He explained that most bedwetters are actually very deep sleepers and do not even know when the bedwetting occurs.

"Parents are almost never to blame for a bedwetting problem," he said, "but their failure to bed-train a child can be as serious as the lack of toilet training. The emotional damage that can accompany 'waiting it out' makes such advice a risky gamble."

Schools improve communications

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the last in a two-part series examining the future of Northville Public Schools and the challenges facing public education in the years ahead.

BY MICHELE McELMURRY

When 1,827 of 2,903 Northville voters turned down the board of education's 9.5 mill renewal request last April 4, stunned school officials not only were faced with slashing $3 million from the school district's budget, but also were left with what some regarded as an even greater problem — opening the lines of communication between the community and the schools.

The defeat of the millage — the first renewal turned down in Northville's history — brought to light the apparent community dissatisfaction with the school system and the division which existed between Northville residents and the school board.

Analysis

With 95 percent of Northville's school revenues generated from local sources, a loss of community support would ultimately spell disaster for Northville's schools.

Recognizing the problems which could result from any further separation and in an attempt to mend the division which existed between the schools and the community, the board of education set out to establish a community-wide citizens group to serve in an advisory capacity to the board.

In the few weeks following the millage defeat, a group of residents joined together to form a Citizens' Advisory Committee and were put to the task of deciding what type of school program the community wanted and what program it would support.

By the first week in June, the advisory committee recommended the board go back to the voters with a reduced 7-mill, three year request and embarked on a month-long campaign to gain voter support for the package.

On July 28, 2,764 of 4,249 voters overwhelmingly approved that request and Northville schools were — for the most part — back on track.

With the passage of the July 28 millage request, the board not only regained most of its lost millage but also accomplished what it originally set out to do — tear down the barrier which existed between the board and the community.

What caused the split between the schools and the community is a question that school officials and residents have been grappling with for the past several months.

School officials admit that without the Citizens' Advisory Committee, proposing another millage request to voters most likely would have been futile.

With the passage of the July 28 millage, Northville's Citizens' Advisory Committee has disbanded.

However, community involvement with the school system is far from over.

At a time when public education is under fire for failing to teach Johnny how to read and write, a more involved and better informed community could ultimately prove to be the answer to the growing problems facing today's schools.

And school officials contend that community support and involvement will be a major priority in the years ahead for Northville Public Schools.

In discussing the upcoming school year, board of education president Karen Wilkinson explained that in the coming years "the key goal will be communications."

"One thing I'd really like to do is get people working with the school district," she said.

However, getting people to work with the schools may be the administration's most challenging task.

There's no doubt that the success of the board's second millage request can largely be attributed to the dedication of those residents serving on the Citizens' Advisory Committee.

However, many contend that it is much easier to rally people together in a crisis situation than during calmer, more normal times.

Most residents currently involved with the schools are parents of school-age children who volunteer their time for activities such as PTA, sports events, field trips, etc.

Though the schools depend on these volunteers, the need for community involvement in areas such as curriculum development and future programming needs is increasing. Yet, the number of residents with school-age children is decreasing.

Statistics compiled after the April 4 election by school administrators revealed that of Northville's 14,287 registered voters, only 29 percent have children in the Northville Public Schools.

The decline in the number of families with school-age children is due in part to the increase in housing costs coupled with the faltering economy and falling birth rate.

"I'm convinced that the decline is due to the cost of housing in our district," School Superintendent Lawrence Nichols said. "Most people moving into district have secondary students."

Nichols pointed out that many families moving into the area are buying second homes. For first home buyers, those most likely to have elementary age students, houses in this area are out of their price range, he said.

For the past five years, Northville's student enrollment has steadily decreased and projections for the future show little change.

This year's student enrollment will be approximately 3,564, with the largest decline at the elementary level.

By the fourth Friday, administrators are expecting to find a reduction of approximately 150 students at the elementary level.

Administrators also are anticipating that this year 57 percent of the students enrolled in Northville Public Schools will be at the secondary level.

The increase in secondary enrollment means an increase in program costs, Nichols said. With secondary education more expensive to finance than programming at the elementary level, "it throws standards for predicting costs right out the window," he added.

In light of the enrollment figures, considerable

Fire chief Robert Toms thanks the Donald Williamses for donating rescue vehicle paint job

Rescue truck being prepared

Given the right breaks, and approval of the township board of trustees, Northville Township fire crews could be manning a rescue vehicle along with their other equipment.

Already sporting new paint and lettering, donated by the Donald Williamses of Sunnydale Lane, the rescue vehicle needs more than $3,000 worth of equipment to meet state standards and become useable, township fire chief Robert Toms says.

He already has a line on some of the cash, and hopes for other donations to help buy a collapsible stretcher, oxygen equipment and regular medical supplies to equip the vehicle so that it may supply first aid treatment at fire or other emergencies while awaiting an ambulance.

"We're not going to haul people (to the hospital) in this thing," Toms told the township board last week, "but we could save their lives if we had to."

He has cited a need for such a service previously, noting a case where his department helped dig a basement waterproofer out of a cave-in. The vehicle could carry rescue equipment to aid in such cases and at fires and auto accidents. He noted that most of his force is trained to state licensing standards for emergency vehicle workers.

As he has before, Toms pledged that the vehicle "is not going to cost the township anything."

With the acquisition, by donation, of a large diesel tractor, Toms has an unused truck purchased from the army which he plans to sell for the $3,500 it took to buy the rescue van from the city of Plymouth.

With the Williamses donating the paint, and Larry Sheehan coming forth with $1,000 to begin equipment purchases, Toms thinks he can put the rig on the road with no capital outlay — only operating costs would be picked up by the township.

He asked the board to promote two firefighters to staff the vehicle, but ran into a little reluctance by the board to move too swiftly.

When purchasing the truck, Supervisor John MacDonald said it might serve as an alternative to the currently contracted Novi Ambulance service.

That statement led to city criticism that a joint service was being discussed unilaterally. The township position now is that the vehicle is strictly to assist the fire department, and is not a potential ambulance alternative in the immediate future.

The chief's proposal that Edward Rohraff be promoted to "EMS Lieutenant" and Willard Gaul be promoted "EMS Sergeant" was called "premature" by nervous board members.

"I don't want to mislead the people of the township," MacDonald said. "The letters EMS imply emergency medical service, and we aren't really ready to do anything like that."

Toms argued that he needed the men, and the promotions, in order to establish the rescue operation. He cited Rohraff's four years experience as an emergency medical technician and six years with an ambulance company as valuable to the operation.

But board members were reluctant to make any indication that ambulance service would be provided.

Trustee James Nowka suggested that, if the promotions were warranted, deletion of the EMS designation would preclude false impressions.

That suggestion met with approval and Rohraff was named a lieutenant (the department's second) and Gaul a sergeant (also the second man of that rank).

Toms pledged regular updates on the progress of the preparation.

"Before we ever go on the road with this thing," he said, "we'll be back before the board to describe what we're going to do with it and so forth."

In the meantime, he said, he will advertise the truck for sale and hope for donors to step forward to fill the van's empty storage area.

"I believe we're going to equip our apparatus first class," he said.

Among the equipment expected is a "Jaws of Life" device the Northville Jaycees have pledged to supply to the department. The patented tool is used to cut sheet metal away in order to remove victims of auto accidents from badly damaged cars.

"We're not going to go on the road with this equipment real soon," Toms said, "but this is a logical step. What I want to do now is get the thing licensed by the state, because otherwise it isn't doing you any good."

Police Blotter

Ann Arbor car burns, police suspect arson

A car fire that consumed a 1980 Ford Mustang on Six Mile west of Sheldon in the late evening September 6 is being treated as arson by township police.

Alerted by a resident of the area, police found the car "engulfed in flames" with no occupants at approximately 10 p.m. that Sunday. The fire department extinguished the fire.

The owner, of Ann Arbor, was contacted and said her boy friend had been using the car with her permission. The boy friend said the car was parked in front of his Detroit home at 8 p.m. September 6 and he did not note it missing until the morning of September 7.

A stolen auto report was to be filed with Detroit police.

Haynes was issued a citation for driving with expired license plates.

A sailboat valued at $1,200 was reported stolen or missing from the north beach of Swan Harbour Lake September 5.

The owner told township police the boat was missing from where it had been tied on the beach. It was near an access site and could easily have been taken away by car, she said.

The sail was not on the boat, and was not taken. The owner told police she bought the boat used and did not know the serial number. The boat was also unlicensed, police note, making it difficult to trace ownership if the property is found.

It took thieves less than 10 minutes to take a 1981 Mercury Cougar XR-7 from the parking lot of MacDonald's restaurant on Five Mile September 12, township police report.

The vehicle, a Ford Motor Company-owned car leased to an employee residing in Livonia, was taken at 11:45 p.m. that Saturday night after the man's son parked it in the lot and went into the restaurant, placing the keys under a floor mat.

The youth reported that the car was gone when he left the restaurant 10 minutes later.

The tan and brown car, with sunroof, was valued at $7,000.

A tractor mower valued at $2,500 was reported stolen from a Beck Road residence September 5, according to township police records.

The owner told police the mower had been parked beside a shed in his back yard. The police officer noted "tracks" leading to southbound Beck from the parking site.

The same resident had reported two slashed tires the previous day — one on each of the two cars in his driveway. Value of the two steel-belted radial tires was placed at $135.

Police speculated the incidents may be related.

Michael Haynes, 36, of Novi and Vicki Lynn Gravica, 25, of Brighton were taken to Botsford Hospital with head lacerations as the result of a September 5 collision at Eight Mile and Beck roads.

The two were in a car driven by Haynes traveling westbound on Eight Mile that was struck in the side by a car traveling northbound on Beck.

Tracy Lynn Swope, 16, of Plymouth was driving the northbound car, and told police she stopped for a stop sign, allowed one car to pass, then pulled out, striking the vehicle driven by Haynes.

Haynes told police Swope's car pulled out in front of him, and he tried to avoid the collision by swerving to the other side of the road, but the car hit his passenger side door.

Swope was issued a citation for failure to yield at a stop sign. She and her passenger, Erin McGowan of Banbury Circle, were uninjured.

Haynes and Gravica were transported by Novi Ambulance to Botsford Hospital, where they were treated and released for head lacerations.

High speed chase ends here

An early morning police chase that began in Plymouth and ended in Northville resulted in the arrest of a Plymouth Township teen by Plymouth police Wednesday, September 9.

The short chase involved nine patrol cars from four communities.

It ended on Cady east of Center as officers from Novi, Northville, Northville Township, and Plymouth converged on the area at 1:10 a.m.

Michael J. Megis, 18, was arrested soon after passing a blockade on Sheldon south of Seven Mile, which he reached a matter of minutes after being spotted by a Plymouth patrolman at the Speedway Gas Station on Mill Street, where he allegedly "sped out" of the station.

Police accounts say he reached

A key scratch caused $500 damage to a Buick which was parked in a city lot off Wing September 9, city police report.

According to the report, the car owner and a man she works with had a confrontation with the man being written up. When she left work she saw the man by the passenger side of the car and witnessed him scratch the entire side of the auto with the key. Also, there was another man allegedly with the suspect.

Police told all parties involved their statements and the report would be taken to the prosecutor's office for a possible warrant recommendation, the report said.

A purse was stolen from a shopping cart at a North Center business sometime September 10, city police said. The contents of the purse were valued at $325.

Taken were a tri-fold wallet ($25), a gold bracelet ($150), $150 in cash, seven credit cards and one bank card, police reported.

Communities offer fire safety classes

Crawling in smoke, exiting from a bedroom and how to properly contact the fire department and report a fire will be a few of the situations on which instruction will be given during a fire prevention program scheduled from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m., Saturday, September 26, at South Lyon High School.

The family-type program, sponsored by the South Lyon Fire Department in conjunction with the City of Northville, Northville Township and the City of Novi, is in observance of National Fire Prevention Week.

All area residents are invited to attend and bring their children, according to Dennis Ireland of South Lyon, area fire instructor. Youngsters in particular will be instructed in techniques of what to do in case of fire in their homes.

In addition, lectures will be given on fueling gasoline-powered vehicles and implements, smoke detector testing, fireplaces and Franklin stoves, the need for fire equipment and the misuse of electrical equipment. Additional demonstrations will include how to extinguish a grease fire, fire extinguisher use and the apparatus familiarization.

The intent of National Fire Prevention Week, according to Ireland, is to focus on educating the public on the dangers of fire, the ways to prevent fires, and basic survival techniques.

Township cityhood vote

It took two years for the issue to reach a public hearing in December, 1979. By that time, Grier had been displaced by Donald Thomson, who argued against incorporation during the hearing.

He was the only person to address the commission. Thomson noted that the effort to incorporate was not sincere in the beginning and said the board was considering the charter township form of government (since rejected) with its greater protections against undesired annexations.

Now, 21 months later, the commission is ready to consider the evidence gathered by analysts and the public comments. Since no support has ever been voiced for the subject, Hyde said the commission is likely to reject the petitions.

So assured is the present township administration that it does not intend to be represented at the session, although Hyde said public comment is accepted during such meetings.

"Basically, the decision will be made based on the evidence to date," Hyde said, "but the open meetings act applies and the public is invited to comment."

He said government representation is sometimes present, sometimes not, depending on the case and the government's position.

"From my point of view," said Supervisor John MacDonald, "It (the petition) was made for obvious reasons. It was a citizen action, not a township one."

I am not interested in pursuing it."

According to Hyde, the commission has several alternatives open to it in deciding the case this week.

It could accept the evidence presented in its present form and reject the petition, closing the door on the issue.

It could reject the petition and call for preparation of a report of findings and order on the case, to be approved on a later date. This is the most likely course, Hyde implied, and is more usual.

Staff would prepare a detailed report of the evidence in the case, and the arguments supporting the decision, and return the report for final approval of the commission before closing the books.

In the unlikely event the commission chooses to approve incorporation, a findings and order report would have to be done.

Once approved, the township would have two years in which to prepare a city charter for a vote. The township would not become a city until a charter was approved by the voters.

Without voter approval in two years, the process would have to begin all over again in order to attain cityhood.

In neighboring Plymouth Township, several such attempts have been made with voters rejecting the charter each time. It has been said the repeated efforts are nothing more than a method of stalling virtually any annexation efforts, since each time a petition to incorporate is filed, all later boundary issues must await that decision.

Layoffs announced

Police cutbacks coming

levied since 1976.

The township will try again for increased millage November 3 when a request for seven-tenths of a mill will be presented, but the vote comes too late to help the force any time soon.

Because the election is so late in the year, any increase approved could not be applied until the 1982 December billing. Money collected could not be used until the 1983-84 fiscal year beginning March 31, 1983.

Hardesty is wrestling with a $44,370 total deficit. Anticipated in the budget was a $20,000 deficit that would force one layoff last April or two October 1 under original plans.

Not included in that computation, Hardesty reported, was a three percent wage raise granted all township employees (except police, who are negotiating for a contract back-dated to March 31, when the old one expired) which brings the deficit to $23,500.

Another $20,800 was "found" deficit in the fringe benefit account, the acting chief said. Figures include an amount being held in reserve in case Nisun wins reinstatement on the force with his back pay as the highest seniority patrol officer.

Hardesty said he would recoup the deficits through a combination of factors — the $5,800 in salaries relinquished by the reserve officers, the difference in salaries between Nisun's as chief and as a patrol officer, and the layoffs.

How long he could delay a third layoff, Hardesty said, is difficult to predict. Monies expected from the upcoming September 24 police auction will help, he said.

But the layoffs all will be needed within the fiscal year, he said, "to come anywhere near being balanced in our budget."

Professional auctioneers hired to run the auction told Hardesty to count on no more than $3,000 from the sale of unclaimed recovered goods and confiscated items.

Settlement of the Nisun case in the township's favor might free some monies, but the grievance is taking longer to process than anticipated. If Nisun were to win, and be reinstated on the force, it might beef up the patrol ranks, but at the cost of some internal turmoil, township officials said.

Zoning studies to be done for Six and Seven Mile

By KEVIN WILSON

Two long-standing, controversial issues in township planning will be addressed in special studies, it was decided last month.

Locations for convenience shopping centers along Six Mile Road and the entire issue of the best use of land fronting Seven Mile Road between Haggerty and Northville Roads should be studied and action recommended no later than early 1982, the planning commission decided.

Board of trustees concurrence in the decision to expend federal block grant monies for the study was secured during a special meeting called to consider police millage elections.

Future convenience center sites are designated in the township master plan. Any change in the designations would require publication of a revised master plan and map.

Current litigation involves the previous board's decision to overrule planning commission recommendation and reject a proposed center at Six Mile and Sheldon, a corner currently included in the master plan.

Statements at various times by board members suggest that the current board would vote similarly, and a majority has stated opposition to inclusion of the Six and Sheldon site in the master plan.

Seven Mile Road, where state facilities on the south side of the road and numerous apartment and condominium zonings on the north side have long created controversial planning decisions, is an issue of renewed urgency with the perceived threat of strip office or business zoning along the north side of the main road.

Granting of such request August 13 prompted a second request for office zoning opposite the hospital driveway.

The study is to review future zoning philosophy for parcels fronting directly on Seven Mile Road. It also will include a review of the possibilities for installing a bicycle path in that area.

The reviews will be done by consultant Claude Coates, and any changes resulting from the study would be discussed in public hearing before being published in a revised township master plan.

Coates said the Six Mile corridor study could be completed by the end of 1981 and the Seven Mile study finished in early 1982.

School analysis

Attention has been focused on the future use of Northville's four elementary school buildings. One of the recommendations of the Citizens' Advisory Committee was to close an elementary school as a cost-savings measure.

The recommendation, though turned down by the board of education, set off a score of rumors about school closings. Many residents feared a repeat of 1975, when the board closed Silver Springs, Cooke and Main Street schools following the defeat of a 2.6 mill increase.

Though the possibility of closing a school was mentioned, the rumors which have been circulating have proven false.

However, the board hopes to examine the future use of school buildings not only for the coming year but for future years as well.

As part of its efforts to draw upon community feedback in deciding the future of Northville schools, the board of education unanimously concurred Monday night to move ahead with the formation of a citizens' committee to examine future facility needs.

The committee is one of two community groups established as an offshoot of the original Citizens' Advisory Committee.

Advisory Committee.

The facilities committee, to be comprised of several representatives from neighborhood associations, the high school parent advisory committee and representatives chosen by PTA groups, will be charged with examining the district's facilities and projecting the future needs for the district's school buildings.

Douglas Whitaker, board secretary and facilities subcommittee chairperson, said the committee will be looking at several areas including demographics, grade structure and facility use.

The board also approved the formation of an advisory committee to the board which will examine program standards and their effectiveness.

This committee will be charged with defining the "quality of education" as perceived by Northville citizens, compiling a list of specific characteristics which should be contained in the program and formulating standards which should be applied to the program.

This committee will be composed of community volunteers, staff members, students, administrators and board members.

TAX-FREE

all Savers Certificate

Available
October 1, 1981

Here's what the one-year All Savers Certificate can mean to you.

- You can exclude up to $2,000.00 interest from federal income tax on a joint return ($1,000.00 on an individual return).
- Your All Savers Certificate is insured to $100,000.00 by the FSLIC.
- Your interest rate is guaranteed for the full term of the certificate, unlike other investments such as money market funds where rates fluctuate daily.
- Funds in your Standard Federal 26-Week Money Market Certificate can be transferred to an All Savers Certificate without any early withdrawal penalty on the transferred funds.
- You can participate with a deposit of $500.00 or more.

Compare the Tax-Free All Savers
Rate of 12.61% with Yields on Taxable Investments.

TAXABLE INCOME ON A JOINT RETURN	COMPARABLE YIELD ON TAXABLE INVESTMENTS	TAXABLE INCOME ON A JOINT RETURN	COMPARABLE YIELD ON TAXABLE INVESTMENTS
$10,000.00	15.38%	$ 70,000.00	27.41%
20,000.00	16.59%	80,000.00	27.41%
30,000.00	20.02%	90,000.00	30.76%
40,000.00	22.12%	100,000.00	30.76%
50,000.00	24.73%	110,000.00	35.03%
60,000.00	24.73%

The yields shown in this table are based on 1981 tax rates but do not reflect the effects of any tax credits that may be available in 1981, nor do they take into account the 50% maximum tax rate on salary and wages. If tax-free interest is received in 1982, the comparable yield on taxable investments should be calculated using 1982 tax rates.

The deposit needed in your All Savers Certificate to achieve the maximum allowable deduction is $15,860.43 for a joint return and $7,930.21 for an individual return.

The interest rate that will be in effect for All Savers Certificates on October 1, 1981 is 12.61% per year if interest is retained in the account until maturity. This rate will be available on October 1 and 2, 1981. A new rate will be in effect for accounts issued beginning October 5, 1981. If interest is withdrawn during the account term, a lower total amount of interest will be paid. Federal law and regulations require a substantial interest penalty for early withdrawal from All Savers Certificates and loss of the interest exclusion for income tax purposes. The All Savers Rate of 12.61% is equivalent to the yields for taxable investments shown in the table.

earn

temporary investment

Until October 1, your funds can be placed in a temporary investment of $500.00 or more paying interest at an annual taxable rate of 18%. If you have funds invested with a money market mutual fund or a certificate savings account maturing during September at Standard Federal or any other financial institution, this temporary investment at Standard Federal provides an excellent way to increase your interest earnings. At your request, we will then open your All Savers Certificate on October 1, 1981. During September your temporary investment is backed by obligations of the United States or its agencies. It is not a savings account and is not insured by the FSLIC. There is no penalty for early withdrawal from this temporary investment.

In Park Gardens

Township seeking methods to ease sewer cost

By KEVIN WILSON

Park Gardens residents and township officials squared off again last week to debate the proposed sewer project for the area and found, to the surprise of some on both sides, that they were beginning to agree with each other.

For the past several months, discussion often has been heated as homeowners and officials tried to find a swifter and less costly means of providing the needed sewers.

At the township board meeting last Thursday, however, the strident tones were replaced, for the most part, by apparently open communication.

Park Gardens Homeowners Association president William Basse got the ball rolling with a candid appraisal of the biggest worry of area residents — being asked to pay for nearly three-quarters of the project cost in a special assessment district.

The costs would match those of some of the most expensive districts in the township, even though more than $500,000 in federal aid has been granted, because of the high cost of bringing service to the area.

In what is a relatively low income area, those costs are virtually unacceptable to residents, Basse explained.

"We've been out talking to the residents," he told the board, "and we're getting a fairly negative response. Many believe the cost could force them out of their homes."

Supervisor John MacDonald said he understood the fears, particularly in light of a recent estimate that homeowners would have to assume $751,000 of the cost, and hoped to find some way the township could help.

"I am meeting with Plante & Moran (township auditors) next week," he said. "I would be hopeful something can be done. It may take some time, but I'm going to pursue it. There seem to be certain things we can do, we may need state approval for some of them, but while we work on it there are other things we need to know."

MacDonald noted that Park Gardens has often been referred to as a "low income area" and wondered whether "that means low income in relation to the rest of the township or what. I mean how low income are we talking about?"

"There are 24 homes on Parklane, where I live," Basse responded. "I'd say there are seven or eight senior citizens on fixed incomes and a lot of young people just starting out. It's a real sweat equity kind of area, some people are laid off, many have young children."

"This is one of the oldest subdivisions in the township," Basse continued, "there are a lot of older people on fixed incomes who have been living there a long time. They don't want to risk their homes now."

Elizabeth McCarville, the most visible activist in recent months, wearing a T-shirt that read "Pray for me, I live in Park Gardens," asked for explanations of the various methods available for deferred payments of special assessments and "caps" to be placed on the final assessment.

"Right now," she said, "we don't know whether the estimate is right or could go higher. I feel like I'm signing a blank check (for an S.A.D.)."

"Unless the township can assist," she concluded, "there's no way the people can sign (for an S.A.D.)."

"There's the $64 question," MacDonald answered, "how much assist do the residents expect of the township?"

"My posture has basically been, there have been some mistakes in the past, now the question is the future. What can the township do for you? We are limited in what we can do when dollars have been allocated to other projects."

McCarville said she believed the township should pay for a pump station at Northville Forest apartments because it would have had to replace the pump regardless of Park Gardens, and for a collector sewer in Five Mile Road that could conceivably be used to service other areas. Thereby, she said, funds would be made available to the rest of the project.

Such a plan would reduce the special assessment district costs to roughly the level of other districts in the township, by paying for the expensive outlet through federal and township dollars. Residents would pay for lateral lines, service leads and hook-in charges, though deferrals based on need might be granted.

"I agree," MacDonald responded. "If we can do it legally. If the auditor and the attorney tell me I can do it, you have my support."

Trustee James Nowka interjected to say it might be "presumptuous" to count on such approval.

"Everybody dislikes S.A.D.s," he said. "I'd bet some people have been forced to sell. We're just a township here, we're not a city; we can't just go out and sell bonds to put on Park Gardens."

McCarville responded that the township could, indeed, sell bonds if needed and Nowka later acknowledged the possibility. He asked that the idea be discussed by the water and sewer commission.

Nowka also came to the defense of past actions by the board, of which he has been member while several potential solutions were explored.

"Past boards acted responsibly with the assets at their disposal," he said. "A few people made statements out of anger with what was really going on, but for the most part the board has been responding and concerned."

Sandy Basse struck a note of conciliation with the board's stated desire to have the residents assume their share of the costs.

"We know we will have to pay for sewers," she said. "We've always known this. But your latest estimate shows I would pay about $150 a month for sewers and we just can't do that."

Shocked board members asked how large her lot was, and she said the Basse's have three lots.

"We could sell one, but we've worked long and hard to get to this point," she said. "I wouldn't want to sell one. I'd just as soon move. We rebuilt that house and took care of the lots because that's the kind of home we wanted."

Clerk Susan Heintz entered a plea for patience, citing shortage of staff and the number of part-time positions in township government.

"We will try to answer all your questions," she said, "I'm just asking for a little bit of time."

MacDonald noted that "there are some other people who are in need of attention, too."

When McCarville cited the long-standing township policy that Park Gardens was "first priority," MacDonald struck a conciliatory note.

"I'd like to just see us put the past aside," he said. "If they allow us to do it (help), you have my assurance we will do it."

"That's all we wanted to hear you say," McCarville said.

Arson blamed in center fire

Arson is suspected in a September 8 fire that caused $20,000 damage to the kitchen building of the closed Wayne County Child Development Center.

Fire officials noted burn marks indicating the fire was set in at least two places in a storage room of the building, north of Six Mile and east of Sheldon.

The fire was discovered at midday Tuesday when employees of the township water and sewer department, which uses a building on the center grounds as a garage, noted smoke pouring out of the roof.

Township fire crews extinguished the blaze in short order, while township police discovered two doors ajar, one on the east side of the building and the other on the south. A small pane of glass in the southern entrance was broken out.

Township Fire Chief Robert Toms said the fire could have been burning since the late previous night.

Jamie Schrot, a township firefighter and security officer for Plymouth State Home (which also patrols the development center) said he saw a "blue flash" of unknown origin in the kitchen building at around 11:45 p.m. Monday evening.

Upon investigation, Schrot reported, he found nothing suspicious and saw no persons in the area.

"There's no electricity in the building, no heat, nothing in there to start a fire," said Toms. "Somebody went in there and set that fire. It was smoldering since probably the night before, and if our water and sewer guys hadn't seen the smoke it probably would have been night before anyone noticed."

He said the fire burned in floor-to-ceiling wood storage cabinets and eventually spread to a stairwell. It was when the fire started climbing the stairs, Toms said, that the smoke drew attention.

The building is not entirely gutted, Toms said. Predominately masonry construction with plaster walls and concrete floors, the structures in the center are not highly flammable.

The case is under investigation by Force Five arson investigators. The squad, composed of fire and police officers from five communities, is credited with solution of several arsons since its formation about one year ago.

The kitchen building is one of several in the central area of the child development center compound that was slated for renovation and use in plans to locate a senior citizens housing complex on the site.

Our Opinions

Regulate arcades, but reasonably

While we believe a need exists to establish regulation of coin-operated games, and soon, we must also caution against hasty decision-making and over-enthusiasm in this regard.

In revising major provisions of its ordinance governing the machines last week the township board failed to consider the implications thoroughly. As approved, the ordinance would prohibit employment of those under 18 years old in any business that has a single game on the premises unless that business also sold alcoholic beverages. In the latter case, the Liquor Control Commission has rules that apply and could allow 16 year-olds to work in such an establishment.

The absurdity of this situation is obvious, as the economics of the minimum wage law and the potential profits of game rooms will combine to eliminate some of the few job opportunities open to youth. This places the owner of a laundromat, ice cream parlor, local bakery, even the TG & Y in a bind. He must either cease employment of youth under 18, or rid himself of the profitable machines.

When an 18-year-old can be hired for the same wage as a 16-year-old, the choice is a clear one. If one of the primary worries about these games is that the sites attract loitering youth, what kind of solution is it that threatens the productive roles of young stock people, clerks, and the like?

The age limit was of little concern in earlier drafts when it applied only to locations of five or more machines. In that form, it prohibited employment of inexperienced youth overseeing a full-scale arcade. Once the limited nature of the law was changed, however, the problem arrived.

Clerk Susan Heintz had a good suggestion that was ignored — requiring licenses on all machines, but applying the full text of the law only to arcades with five or more machines. In its haste to act, the township board failed to see the implication of the method chosen.

Another result of the haste is seen in those provisions limiting hours of operation. A literal reading of the law says any business with so much as one game machine would suffer again by a requirement more applicable to full arcades — that the premises be closed from midnight to noon. A different reading might be applied, allowing the businesses to open but with the machines closed. We believe the law should more clearly delineate permissible hours, perhaps applying the brakes, again, at five machines.

We hope these errors are corrected as soon as possible. We also hope the city is more diligent in avoiding such problems as it prepares its own ordinance.

Finally, we must point out there is a growing tendency to over-react. Yes, we need such laws, and we need them soon. But a situation in which the township law prohibits employment of a youngster the liquor control commission allows to work in establishments it licenses overstates the danger of the machines. So must some of the rhetoric flying around city council chambers of late — else why are there three such machines in the recreation department's community building and one at the local high school? Can the "incidental atmosphere" of such locations be so damaging?

Since this issue is perceived as one directly affecting our youth, the discussion is often emotional, and understandably so, but it would be well not to get so carried away that good sense, and good law, falls by the wayside.

board, Park Gardens is an area where "sweat equity" is common. Renovation and new construction alike would be given incentive if the sewer problem were resolved. The troubled area could become an asset in short order.

While arguing for township aid to the area, we also support the board position that the homeowners will have to help themselves. If the burden can be reduced, the residents would be well advised to put aside their objections and sign up for a special assessment district. Like residents elsewhere in the township, they cannot assume they can receive services without assuming some of the cost.

Finally, we urge the residents to be patient in their demands to township hall. Officials there are correct when they plead that township government is too small to solve problems with a wave of the hand. The situation is partially inherent in the township form of government — "big government" type responses are impossible. In return, residents get low local tax rates and the ability to deal and communicate directly with officials, instead of through a bureaucracy. Working together, residents and government, we believe, are headed for an equitable solution.

Talking it out

Communication has opened up between township government and the Park Gardens residents, and that is all to the good. Many of the problems of the past could easily have been avoided had such an effort been made.

The board deserves credit for its recent efforts to find some method by which the township can contribute to the sewer project so desperately needed in the area. Disturbing reports have filtered back to us recently, however, that some township residents are protesting the proposed expenditure of township funds to aid the area.

While only a few have protested, others may come forward when plans are firmed up. Perhaps they misconceive what is happening. What is proposed is that the township assume some of the extraordinary costs of the type of project needed in Park Gardens. The township and residents are both discussing expenditures that would not benefit individual landowners so much as they would serve an entire area where sewer capacity is a definite problem.

Moreover, solution to the problem would benefit the entire township by clearing the way for development that would add to the tax rolls. As the homeowners association president told the

Recreation not just kids' stuff

Recreation Awareness 100:— This course is offered year round to help persons understand the recreation program. Such appealing topics include: Recreation is not for kids only and what can the recreation department offer the adult. No fee is required. Classes are conducted seasonally to facilitate changing programs. Open to adults only. Instructor is yours truly. Sign up now.

Good morning class. Today's session will deal with what the recreation program has to offer the adult for the fall season. What program is there to suit me, you ask?

Since a majority of people are into physical fitness these days let's head down to the gym and see what is there.

What's this? People are exercising to music. That's right. Our instructor Peg Kozler will help you develop your cardiovascular system through a series of a dance fitness routines.

Don't panic if you have two left feet when it comes to dancing. Kozler doesn't require you be a Fred Astaire or Ginger Rogers when it comes to dancing. In fact, you don't need any dance experience at all.

Excuse me, Mrs. Fitness, you have two small children and can't find a babysitter so you can attend the morning classes?

Bring the kids, since for the mere sum of 75 cents per child a babysitter will be provided for the morning class only, not the evening. Where else can you find a babysitter for that price, unless it is someone from your family.

Remember men, this is not a class for women only. You're invited to come along and attend the evening class if you work during the day.

This is a very popular class, so don't be left out on the fun. Yes, Mr. Hoop, you would like to play basketball and get your exercise that way?

Okay, we have both a men's and women's basketball league for you. But be sure to bring more of your basketball friends to our meeting because we would like more than the six teams we had last year.

As the saying goes, "the more, the merrier." Besides, it is more fun to play in a league where there are 10 teams to test your talents than a circuit with only six.

Oh, I see we have a couple who love to play volleyball. Better hurry to sign up for our popular co-ed volleyball league. Last season, we had 16 teams competing against each other and we would not mind a few extra teams this year.

I see by the clock it is lunch time. I'm sure all of this talk of exercise has made you hungry, so let's see what's cooking in the kitchen.

We have with us Judy Antishin to explain how to make complete gourmet meals for either the big event you're planning or for the many holiday seasons.

For all of you active and working women, Judy can help you prepare a complete dinner the day before the big party.

When the holiday season rolls around dazzle your company with several appetizers you learned to make in the class and serve a nice spicy drink to complement the affair.

All right, lunch is over. Let's get back to the classroom and see what else is offered.

Yes sir, your wife has hundreds of clothes and keeps spending money for more? Well, we have just the right class for her.

Marlene Coffey will show her how to spend less and still be well dressed for an elegant night on the town or for just a casual evening.

Your wife, and other women who sign up, will learn fashion awareness in how to spend less and dress well while expanding a wardrobe to span the seasons.

Time has run out to explain the other programs available. Before I dismiss class, though, be sure to grab a brochure at the recreation office for a complete listing.

Have fun in whatever you take.

For the first time, this year we hired a professional service to fertilize the lawn.

And now that summer's winding down, the grass is taller and greener but I'm enjoying it less.

I've yet to see the tanker and the professional who sprays the lawn. He (or she) manages to arrive when no one's around, to do whatever it is these lawn specialists do. When I get home there's a bill and a note about how I've mistreated the lawn.

"Set your mower higher," the first note scolded.

Dutifully, I set it a notch higher.

The next note suggested I was still scalping the lawn, and my wife, who has a habit of siding with anyone disagreeing with her husband, agreed: "See, I told you you're cutting it too short."

So up it went...two more notches.

As expected the lawn didn't look mowed anymore. What's more, the grab grass grew higher and mightier.

Apparently convinced my mower could go no higher, the lawn expert took a different tact. The last note said, "Stop collecting your grass."

"See, I told you leaving the clippings is healthy," chortled my wife.

So now my lawn looks like a meadow of alfalfa, accented with ribbons of clippings. The grass is a good two inches higher than a golf course rough and considerably more dangerous. Kids have tripped over the rows of clippings looking for lost tennis balls in the grass.

After our recent rains, my wife surveyed the lawn from the window (up above the grass) and observed, "I think the professional fertilizing is working. It's perfect."

Perfect in the eyes of a farmer, perhaps. That's why I'm betting the next and last note will read:

"Okay, now you can cut and bale it."

Township accused of ignoring voters on millage uses

● The Editor:
I am attempting to formulate what a millage election means. In 1969, the township board recognized that they could no longer support the recreation department under the one mill general township budget. So they went to the people for two mills for this purpose. The people voted it down.

However, the board ignored the people's vote and again put recreation in the general township budget, with no cut-backs. Again in 1976 the township board recognized the fact they could no longer support the recreation budget under the one mill allowed under the General Property Tax Law — so again they put it to a vote of the people.

The intent was, if the citizens wanted a recreation program, they would have to pay for it. This time the election was for a half-mill for recreation and half-mill for library. Both issues were defeated. Once again the board paid no heed to the people's vote and again appropriated a huge sum for recreation and library.

The 1980-81 township budget one mill reflected $65,000 for recreation. The board, feeling the pinch, had to borrow $65,000 from the Water and Sewer Department at 14 percent interest to carry the load.

I challenge the board's right to borrow monies to support a program that the citizens voted "no," twice. The two millage elections apparently had no meaning as huge sums of monies have been appropriated year after year for this purpose. The elections were time and money wasted.

Now the board has laid off a police officer, and possibly another (an essential service) to support a recreation program (a non-essential service).

I believe police and fire should have priority over non-essential services; apparently the board does not agree. Two years ago we voted a half-mill for fire service (essential service).

We were told if we wanted fire protection we had to pay for it. If the monies appropriated for recreation were not in the general budget we would not have had to vote a half-mill for fire service. I believe essential services come before non-essential services. If the people want the non-essential services let THOSE services be appropriated by special millage election.

Teachers must listen

To the Editor:
Letters published in the September 2 issue of The Northville Record illustrated that at least a couple of teachers have masters degrees in issue dodging, or they simply refuse to recognize what the taxpayers, editorials and letter writers have been trying to tell them.

Certainly, everyone wants increased salaries and benefits. When the economy is good, everyone attempts to obtain all increases possible; however, when the economy is bad and the majority of the taxpayers have income reductions, they expect public employees to be responsible members of the economic community and to bear their share of the economic burden. The taxpayers are not asking any public employee to subsidize them, they are only objecting to being penalized twice by paying higher taxes for public employee salary increases out of their reduced incomes.

The message is quite simple. When the taxpayers suffer from salary cuts or unemployment during times of economic hardship, they expect public employees to bear their share of that economic downturn. What is sauce for the goose is sauce for the gander.

Business as usual salary and benefit increases for public employees are inexcusable, grossly inequitable and demonstrate an unwillingness to share the burden of economic hardship with the rest of the economic community. It is time for everyone to accept the responsibilities and obligations that go with our American benefits and privileges.

RecCommission speaks

To the Editor:
The purpose of the Northville Recreation Commission is to provide recreational and leisure time activities to meet the general needs of the city, township and school district.

In doing so, the members of the commission are very concerned with recommendations, comments, or any problems that may arise in the daily operations of the department.

We are striving to achieve good sound programming, and making every effort to expend our "limited" budget dollars in a most prudent manner, and any suggestions to enhance our program would be greatly appreciated by the commission.

The Northville Community Recreation Commission meets the second

Wednesday of the month at 8 p.m. Please call the department secretary for the exact location. Listed below are the names and telephone numbers of each commissioner, who would be happy to hear from the people for whom we all serve.

Kevin Wilson and The Northville Record for publishing the in-depth articles regarding the Park Gardens Subdivision sewer problems. His research and investigation have certainly assisted me and I am certain that they have been helpful to the community at large in reviewing the past problems and the potential solutions.

I am personally optimistic that we will be able to resolve this problem in the very near future. To me this would represent a classic solving of a local problem by the press, the residents of Park Gardens and the Township Board.

I sincerely believe that Kevin Wilson should be commended for a journalism award for the writing of these articles.

Yours very truly,

Getting Down to Brass Tacks

By CHRIS JOHNSON
School Board

For the first time on a large scale, the board of education was required to use its layoff and recall procedure during the spring and summer months. In order to balance the budget, the board started the process as soon as the millage request failed in April.

Since the passing of a reduced millage at the end of July, a number of questions have surfaced regarding the layoff and recall procedure. There have also been a number of concerns voiced about the speed in which the process occurred.

The layoff and recall procedure is found in the contract between the board and the teacher's association. This agreement is very detailed and specific about layoff and recall. The board and the administration were very careful about using this selection in its first real test. While individuals have been inconvenienced, I am convinced that the district and the students are helped under these procedures.

The contract between the board and the teachers not only defines seniority but also contains terms which require a teacher to have certain qualifications before bumping another teacher out of a position. Basically the contract requires that a teacher be certified and that the teacher has at least two years of experience in the subject area in which he or she will be bumping into.

The flip side of the coin for such language is that the qualification requires a slower procedure than a straight seniority layoff and recall. A number of meetings between the administration and teacher association representatives were held to assure that qualifications as well as certification was examined. A number of recall notices needed to be mailed as well as the return of acceptances by recalled teachers. Teachers have 10 days to respond to recall notices.

This process is repeated a second and third time when the administration becomes aware of resignations and leaves. In some cases it was not possible to fill positions until just before school began. During this period the president of the teacher's association was kept fully up to date with administrative decisions on recalls.

The Super Sewer had been okayed up to Joy Road. A meeting to discuss alternatives would be held on Sept. 16 in the Township. Funding would very likely be discussed.

There would be a tour of the Walled Lake sewer facilities on September 12 at 10 a.m.

She would keep the City informed on the Drain Code legislation.

The City Manager asked Ms. Colling to make reservations for two from the City to tour the Walled Lake facilities.

ARTS COMMISSION BUDGET: Cheryl Gazlay, Vestus Spindler and C. Phelps Hines, representing the Arts Commission, were in the audience.

They presented a revised budget request for 1981-82 for the Arts Commission as follows:

They explained their expenditures of the last fiscal period and felt the current budget allotment of $500, being $135 less than the previous year was inadequate.

Their new budget included $500 - Art in the Schools which would be a supplemental program to the current art program being offered by the schools.

$150 for music for the Christmas Walk, $1,320 for artistic display panels (6 at $220) plus other miscellaneous items, i.e., refreshments and guards $100, advertising and printing, $500.

They also expressed the hope of bringing the Michigan Opera Theatre to the area in 1982 and would have an additional request for this expense in January.

They asked for a budget increase of $2,455 bringing their total 1981-82 budget to $2,955.

The City Manager suggested that more than could be handled particularly since some of the plans projected might occur next summer.

It was suggested that Cheryl Gazlay contact the PTA and Area Council and ask them to consider slider funding the $500 for the Arts in the school. It was also suggested that the Arts Commission contact Kay Keegan, Executive Director of the Chamber of Commerce and the Retail Merchants Association for help.

GAS & WEIGHT TAX LEGISLATION: Vol. 81, No. 21, dated 8-4-81 of the Legislative Bulletin was received. The Transportation Survival Package HB 4936-4940.

Councilman Mittman asked if there were any major problems re repair of streets.

The City Manager mentioned that local side streets were in need of resurfacing but that monies received were just enough to maintain them.

Mayor Pro-Tem Gardner commented on the Resolution from the MML urging the Governor and legislators to give immediate attention to restructuring the motor fuels and motor vehicle tax systems in order to provide the revenue growth necessary to keep pace with the impact of inflation and to meet known transportation needs by passing HB 4936 to 4940.

Also received was a communication from the Oakland County Board of Road Commissioners asking for the City to contact their legislators urging passage of HB 4936-4940.

Councilman Mittman expressed concern re a tax increase and did not think it was the right time to put more tax on.

The City Manager explained the gas and weight tax involved gallons sold.

Councilman DeRusha did not think there was a right time and noted the gas and weight tax was the only way the roads were supported. The gasoline tax was the only source of income.

Discussion followed.

Motion by Councilman DeRusha supported by Councilman Mittman to adopt a resolution in support of the MML's resolution and that copies be sent to surrounding communities, our legislators and the MML.

Residents protest cuts

Board members told residents that the transportation department currently is in the process of ironing out some of the difficulties.

School Superintendent Lawrence Nichols said the administration is "trying to balance bus runs" but pointed out that it usually takes a week or two before bus runs are on a normal schedule.

"We've only been picking students up for three days," Nichols said.

Assistant Superintendent Burton Knighton told board members that bus capacity for the first three days ranged from a low of 41 students to a maximum of 95.

School buses hold about 66 students in the 22-seats, with a capacity overload of about 10 percent.

Knighton said the administration will be "evening out" the number of students per bus as they become more familiar with the runs.

Board members concurred that buses carrying 80 or 90 students could pose a safety hazard and charged the administration with looking into the possibility of establishing a maximum capacity limit.

Knighton explained that the administration had to cut $72,000 from the transportation budget in order to comply with budget cuts outlined in the 7-mill proposal approved by voters July 28.

"We are operating with less than two-thirds of our normal runs," Knighton explained. "Regular runs are longer, more areas are covered and children are on buses longer."

Knighton said this year students will be on buses longer than in previous years because of the reduction in the number of bus runs.

He said the duration of the bus runs for elementary students ranges from 30 to 47 minutes and 39 to 63 minutes for secondary students.

Nichols said the administration will examine all the bus runs and stops within the next week to see if some consolidation can be made in the bus routes.

"We will re-examine all of the stops," Nichols said, "but the vast majority of them will have to remain where they are."

"The increase in stops is not necessarily the problem with late arrivals home," he said. "We might have to do something about starting times to take care of the gaps."

Board president Karen Wilkinson told the audience that the administration is "caught in a dilemma because we don't have the money."

Board treasurer Chris Johnson said some things could be changed with money already allocated but added that the administration can only work within the budget which the board was forced to reduce.

"That's the bitter pill the community has asked the board to swallow," Johnson said.

"The clear mandate of the community was to cutback in all areas," he said.

Board secretary Douglas Whitaker echoed Johnson's sentiments and stated that the transportation cutbacks were "one of the legacies of the two and a half mill reduction."

ERA in '82

LWV guest Helen Milliken rallies support in final push for equal rights

BY MICHELE McELMURRY

Last June 30, Helen Milliken stood across the street from the White House with hundreds of equal rights supporters to commemorate the year remaining to ratify the Equal Rights Amendment.

ERA supporters rallied across from the White House to make themselves more visible to the current administration — which has not looked too favorably on the ERA issue.

For the wife of Michigan's governor, rallying across the street from the President's household was a somewhat awkward situation.

Being on the other side of the fence was a "strange feeling," she told League of Women Voters members and guests last Thursday evening in Plymouth.

"I kept looking across the street and thinking 'I've been inside that place.'"

However, when it comes to the issue of equal rights, Michigan's First Lady has been one of its most vocal and ardent supporters — despite who might be on the other side of the fence.

For Helen Milliken, honorary chairperson of Michigan ERAmerica, staunch equal rights advocate and the wife of Governor William G. Milliken, the battle for ratification of the equal rights amendment has little to do with party politics.

"It is an issue which involves everyone," she said. "And now more than ever ERA needs the informed involvement it has lacked over the past nine years."

As the guest speaker at the Northville-Plymouth-Canton-Novl League of Women Voters general meeting last week, Mrs. Milliken stressed the importance of the Equal Rights Amendment and the need for all equal rights advocates to become involved in the fight for ratification.

"These are very crucial times for us," she explained. "If we lose the ERA, we can forget about women's rights in this century," she said.

Like many feminists across the country, Helen Milliken has been urging equal rights advocates to "get involved."

With less than 10 months before the ratification deadline, which was extended to June 30, 1982, ERA proponents are beginning to feel the heat.

Since 1972, when Congress approved the passage of the equal rights amendment, ERA advocates have managed to get the approval of 35 of the 38 needed states to ratify a Constitutional amendment.

However, the struggle to get ratification of three of the 15 remaining states has so far been futile.

"What we're looking at are six key states," Mrs. Milliken explained.

The six unratified states which ERA supporters are focusing their energies toward include North Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Oklahoma, Missouri and Virginia.

"There is an election going on in Virginia this November which is very crucial," Mrs. Milliken explained.

However, in the remaining 10 months before the ratification deadline, ERA supporters are faced with a growing opposition much wealthier and, much more powerful — the new right and the moral majority.

"These are crucial times for the ERA."

With regard to this new opposition Mrs. Milliken observed that "we have been outflanked and outfinanced."

"A tremendous amount of misinformation has been widely publicized," she said.

Mrs. Milliken explained that right-wing groups have led people to believe that the equal rights amendment is a family-threatening force which will put women in army boots and send them in "unisex bathrooms never to be seen or heard from again."

"There was a time when we did not take the new right seriously," she said. "However, if we continue to laugh — it will be to our peril."

The problem with the anti-ERA foes is that they are "a very strong, highly organized minority backed by money," Mrs. Milliken explained.

And for ERA, the bottom line is money, she said.

"ERA is an economics issue and that's the word we haven't gotten out."

Mrs. Milliken stressed the need for both men and women in support of equal rights to give more than just lip service to the cause — but to commit themselves.

"People feel strongly about issues but they don't become informed," Mrs. Milliken commented. "We've got to get the message across to the people — if they believe in an issue they have to become informed and involved."

To battle anti-ERA forces, Mrs. Milliken said the movement needs informed, committed supporters and funds.

"If we can raise the money for a media blitz in those six targeted states," she said, "we have a tool that we haven't had before."

Mrs. Milliken said the ERA needs a "minimum of $5 million."

"If every ERA supporter donated $25 we'd have that," she commented.

Though statistics show the majority of Americans favor equal rights, Mrs. Milliken said many will not make a commitment to the ERA.

"As far as I'm concerned it's a cop out to say you are for equal rights and not for the equal rights amendment," she said.

She attributed part of the problem in gaining support for the ERA to the misinformation which has been given to the public and a lack of understanding of the amendment.

The amendment, which states "Equality of rights under the law shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or by any State on account of sex," would "wipe out sex-based laws across the board," Mrs. Milliken explained.

"There will be benefits for men as well as women under the system," she

The Toors' little red house with the white picket fence

1939 Toor home featured on tour

BY MICHELE McELMURRY

The home of Barbara and Stanley Toor at 42411 Roberta epitomizes the image of the little frame house with the white picket fence.

Home tour participants will have little difficulty in identifying this house while traveling along Bradner on the tour route.

Set among shaded trees, the exterior of the Toor home is painted a deep red with white shutters and trim and is surrounded by a white picket fence.

Visitors will approach the house via a little brick walkway which extends through a white gate to the front porch.

Barbara Toor explained that most of the landscaping surrounding the house — including the white picket fence — was done by her husband Stanley.

For the Toors, who moved to the residence 10 years ago, designing and decorating the house has been more fun than work.

The couple moved to Northville from Westland where Barbara described their former home as "a typical suburban style box house."

"We were so excited when we bought this house," she said. Though their Roberta home only dates back to 1939, Barbara said "to see us, you would have thought we were moving into a 100-year-old farmhouse."

Earth tones and yellows abound throughout the downstairs rooms to complement the many antique oak furnishings which Barbara has accumulated in her more than 20 years of collecting.

The dining room off the front entrance hall is furnished with some of the Toors' finest oak pieces including a pedestal table surrounded by four cane bottom chairs, an oak cupboard and sideboard.

An old treadle sewing machine occupies one wall of the dining area and the Toors have accented the room with crocks and baskets full of eucalyptus and dried flowers.

The ceiling and door moldings were added by the Toors to give the room an older look.

Barbara explained that they have just finished pulling up all of the old carpets and are in the process of stripping, sanding and staining the hardwood floors.

The floor refinishing has been completed in both the dining room and entrance hall, and Barbara said the staircase and upstairs hallway should be completed in the next two weeks.

The flowered wallpaper in the dining room and the small print design used in the front hallway are in soft shades of rust, brown and gold to pick up the floor color. Oriental rugs are used in the entrance hall which contains an old steamer trunk and a wooden clock which Barbara noted was "one of the first electric clocks ever made."

Barbara said she has taken many of

Annual city police ball's Friday

By JEAN DAY

Northville City Police Department is holding its ninth annual Policeman's Ball this Friday evening at the Plymouth Hilton Inn. This year's chairman for the benefit is Patrolman William Harrison, assisted by Patrolman James Marks and dispatcher Susan Hatch. They report that tickets may be purchased at the door at $15 a couple with everyone in the community welcome.

Dancing to the music of Hank Kress and his orchestra will begin at 8 p.m. Paul Lennon is serving as master of ceremonies for the evening.

"We've tried to hold down the cost," Marks explains, saying they are hoping for a crowd about the same size as last year's of 300. Proceeds are used by the police officers' association for its benevolent work.

They're heralding baby boys

Mr. and Mrs. Brad Cole of Northville arranged a special baptismal ceremony for their son Aaron Bradley, born March 25. He was baptized August 23 by Father Gerard Hadad at his present church, St. Conrad's in Melvindale. He formerly served at Our Lady of Victory. The baby has two sisters, Jennifer, 3, and Brenda, 2, as well as a total of five grandmothers and great-mothers. Mrs. Charles Marino and Mrs. Robert Cole are the grandmothers. Mrs. Harley Cole, Mrs. Eva Tawyea of Farmington and Mrs. Virginia Humphrey are the great-grandmothers.

From Charleston, South Carolina, comes news of the birth of Christopher David Ritchie August 21 to Mr. and Mrs. David H. Ritchie. Mrs. Ritchie is the former Cheryl Hollis of Northville. The baby weighed eight pounds, seven ounces at birth and was welcomed at home by a sister Crystal Lynn. Grandparents, all former Northville residents, are Mr. and Mrs. Leo E. Hollis, Jr., in Georgia and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Densmore in Texas.

As Estelle Hollis reports her grandson's birth, she adds a note that she misses her former Quester members in Silver Springs chapter here.

Victorian chair sale aids cancer benefit

Annual garage sale held August 22 at the home of Thelma Goleski at 601 Orchard to benefit the Michigan Cancer Society yielded $211. Chairperson Goleski mentions that purchase of an antique Victorian chair by Mrs. Thomas Husen helped in raising this total. Kevin Motl, 10, of Livonia was winner of the Timex watch that is given at the yearly sale. Last year's winner, Allison Kugler, and her mother returned, Mrs. Goleski reports, to buy a planter at this year's benefit.

Joan Mandell's assisting fashion benefit

While Dr. Robert Mandell and his wife Joan have moved from Northville to Drake Road in Farmington, they have kept many of their ties here. Right now Mrs. Mandell is hoping local friends will support the "Through the Looking Glass" luncheon-fashion show benefit for Wayne County Osteopathic Association Auxiliary. It is being presented by Jacobson's of Rochester at Northfield Hilton Inn in Troy October 1 with tickets at $15 available only in advance.

Theme of the show, Joan reports, is that "every woman is an Alice searching for new and exciting ways to express herself and to improve her personal style." She adds that funds are being raised for scholarships and loans for Michigan Osteopathic students.

New slate's beginning Mothers' Club year

Diane Schrader will be presiding as new president of Mothers' Club as the club opens its the 1981-82 year at 8 p.m. Monday at the home of Carolyn Nieuwkoop, 815 Scott. Other officers are Barbara Willoughby, vice president; Sue Anger, recording secretary; Joann Kissel, corresponding secretary; and Sharon Lineman, treasurer.

At the meeting, the club will be welcoming two new members, Joy Holloway and Patricia Kitchen. Since its organization in the depression days of the the 1930s the club has worked to support public school and youth projects.

AAUW fall buffet's 'get-acquainted' event

"Growing with AAUW" is the theme of an autumn buffet being sponsored by the Northville Branch of the American Association of University Women at 6:30 p.m. Tuesday in the New School Church in Mill Race Historical Village.

The meeting is designed to show new and prospective members what AAUW is and what the local board has planned for this year.

The after-dinner program will open with a short talk by Karel Whitaker, founding mother of the Northville Branch. She will describe how the branch began. Members of the local board will outline activities planned.

Displays and bulletin board exhibits will depict graphically the goals for the year in such areas as education, international relations, legislation, community work, cultural projects and women's concerns.

On a national level, AAUW has adopted two areas of study for the next two years. They are "Taking Hold of Technology" and "Money Talks."

Local study topic leaders Marilyn Robison, Jan Wilhelm and Carole Crain will tell how they plan to implement these study topics in Northville.

Any woman interested in attending the buffet as a prospective member or who would like more information about AAUW is invited to call Jean Hansen, 348-6096, or Jay Ward, 349-3456.

DENTAL ROBBERY SUSPECTED

Q. In the past, I've spent a small fortune in my mouth. Now my dentist wants to replace my old silver fillings with gold. Who's the robber, my teeth or my past dentistry?

A. Sounds as if your teeth are the culprits, but I wouldn't call them robbers. Worn fillings need to be replaced just like worn tires on a car. Gold restorations have great durability, withstand the forces of chewing, and resist acid erosion. These restorations will help insure your continued dental health and are a sound economic move. Remember, what was good dentistry yes-

Handmade rings given in St. Paul's service

Newly wed Mr. and Mrs. H. James Frogner, Jr., drove to Washington, D.C., and on to Florida where they are making their home following their marriage here August 8.

The bride is the former Kathryn Wolfe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Wolfe of Troy.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Frogner of 18651 Sheldon. He has been living in Boca Raton, Florida, where he has his own business, Window and Wall Treatment, Incorporated.

Their vows were recited in a 5 p.m. ceremony at St. Paul's Lutheran Church where the Reverend Charles Boerger officiated. The pews were decorated with large, white satin bows.

The gold rings exchanged by the couple had been made by the bride's mother.

As she was given in marriage by her parents, the bride wore a gown of lace and tulle with satin ribbon decoration.

Her hat also was lace, with banding and back bow of tulle. She carried a bouquet of baby's-breath with pink carnations and silk violets.

Mrs. David (Patricia) Mazurkiewicz was matron of honor for her sister. Bridesmaids were Bobette and Susan Wolfe, also sisters of the bride. They wore lilac Qiana gowns with lace jackets and carried arrangements of baby's-breath and carnations.

Charles Frogner of Northville was best man for his brother. Ushers were David Frogner of Honolulu and William Kelly of Dayton.

A sit-down dinner with dancing followed at the Danish Club of Detroit for 150 guests.

The bride is a graduate of Oakland Community College and presently is attending college in Boca Raton majoring in interior design. Her husband attended Schoolcraft College.

MR. AND MRS. H. JAMES FROGNER, Jr.

Mill Race party marks Sutherlands' 50th year

When former Northville residents Clara and Hurd Sutherland were married on August 26, 1931, the only available flowers for her bridal bouquet were orange-gold marigolds.

Hurd Sutherland presented his bride of 50 years with a corsage of small marigolds, a red and a white rose and baby's-breath when they returned to Northville to celebrate their golden wedding anniversary August 23.

Fittingly, the buffet reception was held in the New School Church in Northville's Mill Race Historical Village as the Sutherlands were charter members of Northville Historical Society.

Mrs. Sutherland wore a cream-hued dress with lace trim for the event.

Seventy family members and friends came from Detroit, Royal Oak, Grand Rapids, Washington, D.C. and Iowa as well as from here for the reception given by their children and grandchildren.

During the reception program their family presented a program tracing events in their married life.

Elmer Schubert played such old-time favorite songs as "I Love You Truly," "Let Me Call You Sweetheart" and "Five Foot Two" on the organ as the cake, made by the Sutherlands' daughter Mrs. Dennis (Dorothy) Costantini, was cut.

The Sutherlands retired to Saluda, North Carolina, after living here for many years on Dunlap Street. He is a Chevrolet-General Motors retiree.

The former Clara Witney, a native of Boston, Massachusetts, met her Detroit-born husband at a house party given by mutual friends in Portsmouth, Rhode Island. They were married in All Saints Episcopal Church in New York City.

During their marriage they have lived in Manhattan, Mount Kisco, New York, and Berkley, Michigan, before coming to Northville.

Hurd Sutherland served the Northville Library Commission as its first chairman while Mrs. Sutherland was a PTA worker and Girl Scout leader here as well as a member of Northville Woman's Club.

They have joined the Presbyterian Church in Saluda.

Mrs. Sutherland is a painter. Her paintings appear on the covers of some of the scrapbooks of the Northville Beautification Commission displayed at city hall and on the notepaper sold by Northville Historical Society.

Her husband is a gardener and cabinetmaker. He made many built-in pieces of furniture for their home.

In addition to daughter Dorothy of Walled Lake, they have two other daughters, Mrs. Paul (Susan) Lemon of Northville and Mrs. Roger (Laura) Brower of Grand Rapids; a son Peter of Saluda; 12 grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Babbitt hosts DAR

Hostess for the first meeting of the 1981-82 year for Sarah Ann Cochrane Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution will be Mrs. May Babbitt.

It will begin at noon Monday with Mrs. Laura Baumhart presenting a program, "Forefathers' Ideals."

Mrs. Christine Campbell may be contacted at 464-1154 regarding membership in the society, which is open to women 18 or older who

Red house reflects owners' loving care

her decorating ideas from the Greenfield Village design books — especially in choosing wallpaper.

To the right of the hallway is the living room which contains several antique pieces. A fireplace with a wood mantel graces one wall of the room. The Toors have complemented the earth tone color scheme of the furniture fabrics with green carpeting.

A paneled den, which Barbara described as the "family gathering place," is beyond the living room area. Bookcases lining the walls of the den were designed and built by Stanley Toor.

Adjoining the den is a small bath which, among other antique collectibles, contains an old crank telephone on one wall. The attic ceiling in this bathroom is covered with a mini-print wallpaper against a brown background.

Bold yellow-and-white checked wallpaper is used in the kitchen to accent the white cupboards and yellow appliances.

A brick-patterned linoleum floor was added to the kitchen to give it a more "colonial" look.

To open up the kitchen, Barbara took the curtains off the bay window and replaced them with hanging plants. In front of the bay is an oak dining table with three high-back chairs.

Antique cooking utensils and knick-knacks adorn one wall and a narrow shelf holding antique tins, boxes and small objects has been placed below the ceiling.

Visitors should take note of a small oak night table in the center of the kitchen which has been in Barbara's family for generations.

The upstairs bedrooms are more contemporary in design than those on the first level. With four children, Barbara said she was hesitant about decorating the bedrooms with antique furnishings.

However, she said she is just beginning to redecorate the upstairs now that her children are off at college or living on their own.

Of particular interest is her daughter's room with its antique wicker furniture and doll collection.

The walls are covered with flowered wallpaper in hues of pink and red and a pink area rug matches the patchwork bedspread which was made by the Toor's daughter.

A wicker desk and chair rest in front of a window and several antique dolls — one which belonged to Barbara's grandmother — have been placed throughout the room.

Several of the upstairs rooms contain antique wicker pieces. A small porch off the back also has an antique couch and plant stand.

Barbara said she has bought the majority of her antiques in Michigan with some purchased in Pennsylvania.

She said she still manages to scrounge antique shops and flea markets despite being a full-time student at Eastern Michigan University.

She started classes last Tuesday and has a year to go before completing her bachelor's degree in special education.

Hopefully, she notes, classes won't be too hectic before the home tour.

The Toor home is one of seven to be open from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. September 24.

Presale tickets are available for $4 at locations throughout town and $5 the day of the sale.

Proceeds from the tour go toward the restoration of the Wash-Oak Schoolhouse at Mill Race Village and aid the work of the Presbyterian Women's Association.

Town Hall makes awards to 10 local charities

As Northville Town Hall prepares to open the 1981-82 season October 8 with the appearance of Bess Myerson, the TH Board of Awards announces that it has distributed $3,600 to area charitable organizations.

Chairperson Frances Mattison reports that checks have been sent to 22 organizations chosen by the board from this year's applicants.

Ten Northville organizations shared the $3,600 with organizations in South Lyon, Novi, Plymouth, Farmington and Livonia. Sponsored by Our Lady's League of Our Lady of Victory Church, Town Hall has shared its profits annually with half going to the church and half to community charities.

A top award this year went to Northville-Nowi FISH emergency help organization for operating funds.

The board also made a major award to Northville Beautification Commission to purchase a tree and tree guard in the Mainstreet 78 downtown beautification project.

As has become a tradition, the board also made an award to Mizpah Circle of King's Daughters and Sons for its aid to the needy and service projects.

Open Door Clothing Center at Northville Regional Psychiatric Center (Northville State Hospital) received funds to purchase underwear, socks and other clothing not usually donated for patients.

Other Northville recipients and uses for the awards are: Friends of Northville Library, a listening carrel; Northville Historical Society, restoration work in Mill Race Village at Wash-Oak School or Yerkes House; Northville Public Schools' PTA-PTSA Junior Entertainment Series, cultural enrichment events for elementary and junior high students.

Others are Northville Community Band, music for its library; Northville Cooperative Preschool, a three-month scholarship for a child; and Our Lady of Providence School, support for trip to Washington to tour the capitol and participate in Special Olympics.

A new area organization, First Step, serving Northville and other communities in Western Wayne County, received a donation for its work in aiding those suffering spouse abuse.

Novi Youth Assistance League received funds to sponsor a summer camp program. New Horizons of Oakland County which gives gainful employment to adult handicapped persons received a donation.

South Lyon Area Youth Guidance received funding for three children in its camping program.

Plymouth organizations and their award uses are: Plymouth Woman's Club, Special Olympics program and Girls Town; and Plymouth Symphony Society, support season's concerts, Young People's concerts and excursions in music.

Livonia Family Y Branch of the YM-CA was given 1981 youth support. Other Livonia organizations receiving funds include: Livonia Historical Society, Greenmead, purchase of a door; Riverside Children's Center, campership; Silent Citizens, film progra attended by area deaf families.

Farmington organizations supported are: Farmington Community Center operation; and Community Living Centers, a room within an apartment building sponsored for a retarded adult.

Board of Awards members meet at the conclusion of each TH season to study requests, made by charitable organizations for funds. In addition to Mrs. Mattison Northville members are Norma Vernon, Anne Brueck and Herman Moehlman. Jean Proctor represents Farmington, Frances Hensley, Livonia, and Betty Childs, Plymouth.

Tickets still are available at $20 for four lectures in the upcoming season which opens at 11 a.m. October 8 at the Plymouth Hilton Inn. Luncheon reservations are $8 each or $32 for the season. Reservations with checks may be sent to Northville Town Hall, Post Office Box 93, Northville 48167.

Following consumers' affairs expert Myerson will be the psychic Char November 12; witty fashion commentator Robert L. Green, March 11, 1982; and Dennis Day, April 1, 1982.

Helen Milliken urges involvement in equal rights efforts

Mrs. Milliken pointed out that many people do not understand the impact the equal rights amendment would have and are unfamiliar with the extent to which sex discrimination exists in this country.

"There currently are 800 federal statutes which discriminate against women," she said.

She acknowledged that Michigan is a "very progressive state" in comparison to other states but stressed that "there's a tremendous double standard which exists across the country."

"In Louisiana, a woman cannot buy stock on the stock market without her husband's approval," she noted.

"And last year, the Mississippi Senate voted down the 19th Amendment (which gave women the right to vote) at the state level."

She also mentioned the most recent wage and salary figures which show that women make 56 cents for every $1 a man earns.

If the ERA should fail to meet the ratification deadline, Mrs. Milliken said the implications could be devastating to the women's movement.

"The demise of the ERA could unleash the right to focus on other issues," she said. "We may lose all the gains we have made — we say it can't happen but it's already happening."

Many feminists contend that the current administration poses a definite threat to the achievements women already have made.

Many feminists regard the Reagan administration's recent move to weaken federal job discrimination regulations for firms working with the government as a "definite setback" and also point to the lax enforcement of Title IX.

"Right now in Congress, rights such as Title IX and affirmative action are being chipped away at," Mrs. Milliken said. "These acts can be repudiated by Congress unless there is a constitutional amendment that guarantees them."

"We find ourselves on the eve of gaining equality for over half of the public or losing it for the rest of the century," she said.

"If we do not have ERA by '82, we will pass the struggle on to another generation."

However, despite the increased pressure facing ERA supporters, Mrs. Milliken pointed out that women are beginning to consolidate their forces for the final push towards ratification.

"Phyllis Schlafly once remarked that fighting for ratification of the ERA was like resurrecting a corpse," Mrs. Milliken observed.

"Well, let me tell you it's a very lively corpse — they keep trying to push it back down."

She noted that "more new memberships have been pushed into NOW (National Organization for Women) than in the history of the movement."

"The issue won't go away," she said. "We've come too far."

"We can't turn back."

Information on the Equal Rights Amendment is available through several organizations. Persons interested in donating to the ERA ratification effort or requesting information can write to the following organizations:

Newest addition to the cluster of businesses in the Oldenburg building, 138-144 North Center, is Aggie's Antiques which was opened this month in the tiny shop at 138 North Center by Agnes Barnard, a Northville resident on Randolph. She is carrying a general line of antiques, including dolls, fine jewelry with Victorian pieces, linens, glassware and antique lighting fixtures. She also will do insurance appraisals and house and estate sales. The business joins Caroline Dunphy's Painter's Place, West End Company of Pat Wright and Gordon Forrer and Auburn Cottage Antiques of Margo Mendelssohn. # EARN 12.61% ANNUAL INTEREST with Security Bank's All Savers Certificate that's on the move October 1 — and get up to

Available October 1

$2,000 TAX-FREE INTEREST

If you and/or your spouse are wage earners with significant taxable income, you should consider signing up for the new tax-free All Savers Certificate that will be available at Security Bank on October 1, 1981. When your income, plus interest earnings, place you in a higher taxable income bracket, you may find you'll receive a greater REAL return on your investments by reducing the amount of tax you must pay.

The All Savers Certificate helps you to have more in spendable income as versus taxable income (check the table below for your income bracket).

- All Savers Certificate available October 1, 1981 at all offices of Security Bank.
- You'll receive the highest rate allowed by law.
- The interest earned is tax free up to the first $2,000 of interest earned by married couples filing a joint return and $1,000 for individuals. (The "tax-free interest" is a one-time total lifetime exclusion of interest income regardless of the number of certificates purchased or the number of years in which exclusions are taken. Any interest earned above the $1,000 or the $2,000 limit is fully taxable.)

*Rate is in effect October 1, 2 and 3 New rate goes into effect October 5

- The term is for one year and the minimum deposit is $500. Rate at which you open the account is set for the term of the account.
- There is a substantial interest penalty and loss of tax exemption for early withdrawal.
- Deposits are insured to $100,000 by Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

Should you have a 26-week Money Market Certificate which has the same, or higher rate than 12.61%, coming due before the October 1 date, here is what you do.

Beginning October 1, savers may convert 26-week Money Market Certificates to the new, tax-exempt All Savers Certificates in mid-term without paying an interest penalty for early withdrawal. This means you can renew a 26-week Money Market Certificate at Security Bank that comes due prior to October 1. Then you just convert your funds in October, at whatever rate is in effect, to the new certificate without facing an interest penalty loss. It's as simple as that.

So, if it makes sense to make a move to tax-free interest—it makes sense to be on the move with Security Bank's All Savers Certificate. Call or visit us today for more details.

Novi to host hot air balloon
racing circuit

The richest hot-air balloon racing circuit in the history of the sport returns to Novi September 25-27, with 26 of the world's top professional pilots competing.

It's the 1981 KOOL Balloon Tour and, before it ends in Las Vegas next December, pilots will cover the skies over major cities, coast to coast, in pursuit of the title of World Professional Balloon Champion and a share of $110,000 in prize money.

Balloons will be tethered in conjunction with the Mall's Fashion Hall of Fame on Friday, September 25, and Saturday, September 26. Two competitive contests are scheduled for Sunday, September 27, at 7:30 a.m. and 5 p.m.

The site for all the race events will be at Twelve Oaks Mall in Novi and are free to the public.

The tour has mushroomed from a modest five-city beginning in 1978, when the purses totaled about $30,000, to a tightly-run, high-profile sports circuit attracting hundreds of thousands of spectators and massive community participation.

One of the more popular features of the KOOL Tour has been the pre-race tethering of the colorful 7-10 story high balloons at shopping malls and parks. Pre-race flights over race cities also have proved excitement for the fans, Gabel said.

The Novi races will be either "fly-ins" where balloonists aim for a predetermined landing target, or "hare and hounds." In the "hare and hound" race, the official KOOL balloon pilot by Bob Corey, is the hare balloon which will take off 15 minutes before the rest of the entries and climb to 1,000 feet.

The hare balloon will then try to elude the hounds, selecting a landing spot as the target area. The closest hound to the target is the winner. The pilot accumulating the most points in the three races will be judged the Detroit area winner.

Each tour stop event carries points for winners toward the title. The other tour stops and dates are: Nashville, October 17-18 (West Finals); Orlando, November 7-8 (East Finals); Las Vegas, December 5-6 (Tour Finals).

Defending champion Chuck Rohr heads the most experienced and versatile field of professional balloonist ever assembled for the tour and the Fort Lauderdale titleholder will be facing the world's elite in Novi including two former KOOL champions, a former national champion and the current world champion.

In the field with Rohr will be defending world champion and 1980 KOOL runner-up Paul Woessner of Nashville, Tennessee, 1978 champion Colvin Rouse of Tampa, Florida, former national champion Sid Cutter of Albuquerque, New Mexico and 1979 champion Al Desmond of Aurora, Illinois.

In addition to the growth of the tour and the more than tripling of the prize money in a few years, tour commissioner Tom Gabel points out that there are now more than 3,000 hot-air balloons in the United States.

"Less than 20 years ago," he notes, "there were only six." Today there are more than 4,000 licensed pilots with an FAA rating for "lighter than air free balloon piloting," he says. The FAA license requirement is 10 hours of flight under a qualified instructor and no pilot on this tour has logged fewer than 500.

Schoolcraft celebrates elaborate dinner party

Schoolcraft College celebrates Judy Chicago's monumental art work, "The Dinner Party," with a champagne reception and candlelight dinner Tuesday.

The evening's festivities begin at 5:30 p.m. in the Liberal Arts Theater with the documentary film, "Right Out of History: The Making of Judy Chicago's Dinner Party," directed and edited by Johanna Demetrakas.

Tickets for the "Dinner Party," which includes the film, champagne reception and candlelight dinner are $20 per person.

Schoolcraft's Master Chef Robert Breithaupt and the college's nationally-acclaimed culinary arts department will prepare the meal. A champagne reception featuring hors d'oeuvres and canapes and of quiche, crab casino, brochettes, caviar, salmon and anchovy is planned.

Dinner in the Waterman Campus Center begins with Caesar salad, followed by Long Island duckling a l'orange, candied South Carolina yams, special-broiled tomato and for dessert a Black Forest torte is planned.

A beer and wine cash bar also will be available.

The Dinner Party, which already has been viewed in San Francisco, New York, Boston, Houston and Cleveland, is the art work of Ms Chicago and 400 artists who worked for five years under her direction. It is a triangular table, 48 1/2 feet on each side, with 39 place settings individually designed to honor 39 women in history.

Highland couple learns the hard way

Building your own home possible but it's not easy

As Dave MacDermott and his wife Vicki scan the pastoral countryside surrounding the home they are building themselves in Highland Township, a sense of frustration shrouds their future.

Detroit residents all of their lives, the quiet beauty of the area, bordering on land owned by U.S. Carl Levin, is in sharp contrast to the hustle and bustle of their west-side neighborhood.

There certainly is no sudden disenchantment with this setting, north of Detroit but rather, the MacDermott's worries center around a common malady these days—money. Or lack thereof.

With the land paid for, the basement poured and plans and dreams securely in place, the young couple cannot get enough money to finish their project, and they feel sabotaged by the banks, including one which verbally assured them of the money less than a year ago.

The MacDermott's situation is not nearly as hopeless as it may seem, however, and probably could have been avoided altogether, according to G. Kenneth Oxley, a registered architect and real estate broker.

The MacDermotts and Oxley got together this past summer, after they started to build, when Dave enrolled in Oxley's "How To Build Your Own Home" class at Schoolcraft Community College. Oxley, director of the Michigan Owner Builder Center, teaches classes at both Schoolcraft and Oakland Community College (Auburn Hills Campus).

While MacDermott took the class too late to avoid construction financing difficulties, Oxley feels he can still help salvage the couple's plans and dreams. But he hopes others will come to his class before starting to build in order to avoid similar frustrations.

A firm believer in the advantage of being your own builder — from both a financial and personal satisfaction standpoint — Oxley is concerned that troubles like those the MacDermotts are experiencing will turn people off to the idea.

"Dave and Vicki made some typical mistakes that could easily be avoided by getting some basic instruction first," explained Oxley.

"Dave has a solid young business (he's a roofer) and Vicki works, too," he explained. "But with a lot of their capital tied up in the business, the banks feel they want to borrow more money than they should and they're probably right. So the first thing I've told them is to pare down the building plan some; leaving them with less money needed right now. There are so many things you can finish after you've lived in the house awhile.

"Just as important," continues Oxley, "is the package you present to a bank."

According to Oxley, Dave and Vicki took a lot of enthusiasm to just about every bank they could find, including smaller institutions in the vicinity of the homesite. They had a good set of building plans and sound financial statements. But that is not enough these days. They had not used all of their "tools" so to speak.

Says Oxley: "Dave is a veteran and yet they had overlooked going to the Veterans Administration for help. The VA gives a lot of security to a lender. Secondly, they had not concentrated enough on making it clear that their most recent W-2 forms reflect a lot of money invested into their business last year. I've told them to take this year's six-month statement with them and not overlook the savings and loan institutions.

"They also have to be willing to switch all of their banking to the lending institutions and make that willingness known without having the bank broach the subject. Be aggressive, in other words. They also should not have paid off the land contract with which they purchased the property."

Despite the setbacks, MacDermott has not become totally discouraged. Heeding the advice from Oxley, he feels he will be more successful in trying to get the financing he needs. He is definitely convinced that by being his own builder he will save close to the 50 percent maximum that Oxley projects an individual can save compared to the price paid when having the home built.

With the price of a new home approaching $90,000 in the U.S., Oxley feels that building your own home is becoming more practical by the day.

There will be two separate eight-week courses held this fall, each beginning this month. One will be held Tuesdays and Thursdays, beginning tomorrow, from 7-10 p.m., at Oakland Community College. The other will be held Saturdays, at Schoolcraft from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. (with an hour out for lunch) beginning Saturday.

The course will be taught by Oxley and cost $275 per person or $400 for a couple.

The prizes were presented by the Twelve Oaks Mall Merchants Association in conjunction with Sears-Twelve Oaks.

Michael Terry and Gordon Hilliard open repair business

A NEW BUSINESS, called The Wrench Works, Inc., has been established by two local men at 7351 Chubb Road, between Northville and South Lyon.

The owners, Michael Paul Terry, president, and Gordon James Hilliard, vice-president, say their business offers quality repair of all motor vehicles, including motorcycles and heavy equipment. Specialists in motor home repairs, they offer road service but no towing.

They bring a wide background of expertise into their business. Terry of Novi, who has been a resident of the Northville area for 30 years, was a mechanic with a dealership for 12 years; Hilliard of South Lyon, who has been a resident of the area for 16 years, was a dealership mechanic for 16 years — 12 years at G.E. Miller Dodge of Northville.

The business hours are 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. weekdays, 8 a.m. to noon on Saturday.

Poetry

No-Show

And waited their blooming with glee,
But came the spring -
Not a thing -
Not even a green leaf to see.*

*Maybe I planted them upside down?
Maybe the ice and snow?
All I know is They're in there somewhere,
And only the fat worms know.*

*This fall, will I try again?
Surely they're not hard to grow,
What beats me is that the lowly weeds
Sprout, snow or no snow.*
Kit Henderson

*If we could learn to love ourselves
Maybe we could learn to love others.
If we could learn to trust ourselves,
Maybe we could learn to trust others.
If we could learn to believe in ourselves,
Maybe we could learn to believe in others.
If we could learn to first judge ourselves,
Maybe we wouldn't be so quick to judge our brother.
If we could learn to live in peace with ourselves,
Maybe we could learn to live in peace with others.
Unity of man's mind, soul and spirit with God
Is Truth within itself.
(God is love - love your neighbor as yourself!)*

Buddy Dennis

For Sale

*It's against my friends' religion
To pass a garage sale.

*I must admit
I've caught the bug,
I love to wander round,
Looking at all the rejected treasures
Lying on the ground.*

*One day I'll find a priceless gem,
Encrusted with rust and grime,
But until that day
(Or so I say)
I'm not parting with a dime!*

Kit Henderson

When the hammer comes down...

Bidders should know what they doing

Shopping at an auction often is the way to spot a good buy. However, shoppers must consider all the financial aspects of an auction before bidding.

For example, a buyer's commission may be required in addition to the price. In the case of large items, there will be expenses for getting them home.

At the auction, carefully examine the merchandise and don't exceed your present maximum bid, advises the Michigan Association of Certified Public Accountants.

$$ MONEY MANAGEMENT $$

The Michigan Association of CPAs

Know the terms of sale and acceptable means of payment before bidding. If they are not printed in the catalogue, ask an attendant or the auctioneer because terms of sales include the buyer's commission. Most auctions charge 10 percent of the final or "hammer" price.

Other suggestions for bidders:

—Always carry enough cash to cover your bids if you are unsure of the terms of payment since some auction houses take personal checks while others insist on certified or travelers checks.

—Although all public auctions are free unless otherwise stated, country auctions might require admission fee as retainer. You can apply this amount to any purchase or reclaim the entire amount when you leave. Most country auctions operate on a cash and carry basis.

—If you cannot be present at an auction, or if you want to avoid overbidding, you do have an option available. That is, you can ask if the auction house accepts advance bids by mail or phone. The house will then execute your bid when you provide the sale and lot number and the maximum amount you wish to bid.

The item you want is purchased at the next bidding increment.

For example, if your maximum is $600 and the next highest bid is $450, with the increments of bidding at $50, you will be charged $500 for the item.

—Before bidding, it also is wise to purchase a catalogue or obtain the list of items in the sale. However, be sure to check the estimate on any item if you are unsure of its worth.

—When bidding, be sure of the amount you offer. The increments of bidding depend on the starting price of the item. For a $50 item, the bids may increase at a rate of $10 while a $1,000 item may jump $500 at one time. A bid can only be withdrawn if the house permits and the withdrawal is made before the hammer.

—Be sure you understand the terms of sale before bidding at the auction.

Established auction houses may guarantee the lot (the item or group of items) is what they represent it to be in the catalogue or at the end of sale. Such guarantees do not assure a refund if you discover your lot to be fraudulent.

Auctions which offer no guarantee might refund your money if the error is discovered soon after purchase and the merchandise is returned properly with a receipt.

Mustangs intercept victory from Thurston

By JOHN MYERS

From the opening play of the contest, he could practically tell things were going to Northville's way in its season-opening contest against Redford Thurston Saturday.

Linebacker Matt Koet intercepted Thurston quarterback Tim Souce's pass on the opening play of the game, which led to Northville's first touchdown, and the Mustangs never looked back in a 24-0 triumph.

Northville will put its 1-0 record on the line against Westland John Glenn 7:30 p.m. Friday at home and Mustang coach Dennis Colligan would like nothing more than another victory before starting Western Six Conference play.

"It would really be to our advantage to go into Western Six play with two victories," Colligan said.

Also, Colligan has revenge on his mind as the last time these two teams met at Northville, Westland came away with a 21-20 overtime verdict. Last year, John Glenn defeated Northville 37-7.

"They have a superior quarterback. He threw touchdown passes of 62 and 53 yards last week (John Glenn won 20-7 over Garden City West). He can really lay it out there," Colligan praised.

"I have a feeling they will want to throw against us. The key will be to get to their quarterback," he added.

"We'll be liable to throw a few more times," Colligan said laughing.

Against Thurston, Mustang quarterback Tim McLaughlin in his first varsity start completed five of eight passes for 118 yards and one touchdown—all in the first half.

"He (McLaughlin) really handled the team well. He threw the ball well and ran the attack well," Colligan said. "We had pretty good blocking up front. If it was a closer game, we would have thrown more."

There was no need as Northville raced to 18-0 lead at the half.

Koet's interception gave Northville the ball at the Eagles 33-yard line and also the momentum.

Not to be outdone, McLaughlin lofted a pass to flanker Tom Hanson who hauled it in and was tackled at the one.

An illegal motion penalty moved the Mustangs back to the six, but three plays later McLaughlin dove over center to give Northville a 6-0 lead. The extra point attempt was blocked.

Hanson was a key receiver for the Mustangs hauling in three passes for 80 yards and one touchdown.

"Tom Hanson, our flanker, made some remarkable catches. He is a blessing in disguise. It was really his first high school varsity game and he came through with flying colors," Colligan said.

The Mustangs were without the services of receiver Bob Townsend, who is out with a leg injury, and once he returns Colligan said Northville will have two good receivers.

After Thurston failed to convert a fourth down situation late in the first quarter, Northville took control at its own 28-yard line.

McLaughlin made two key passes in the drive, one of 30 yards to sophomore tight end Steve Schrader and the final, a 25-yard touchdown aerial to Hanson. The two-point conversion failed.

Each team had a long drive on their first possessions in the second stanza, but neither team could score.

However, Northville received a break on its second possession of the quarter. The Mustangs had lost 15 yards in three plays, from the 50 to its own 35, and was forced to punt.

The break came when the Thurston return man fumbled the ball and Northville's Rick Pearce pounced on the loose pigskin.

After a 14-yard pick up, McLaughlin busted through the line and weaved his way to a 32-yard touchdown run with only 11 seconds remaining in the half.

"That one sealed it," Colligan said. Once again, Northville's try for the two-point conversion failed.

The only real highlight of the second half came on the first play.

Northville had returned the second half kick off to its own 33-yard line. From there running back Andy Dimitroff did the rest.

Dimitroff had been kept on the sidelines in the first half because he was battling strep throat and almost fainted during the pregame warm up session.

The swift back showed no signs of illness on his first carry of the game. He broke through the right side of the line for a 67-yard TD run, which turned out to be the only score of the half. The extra point attempt was blocked.

For the game, Northville ran for 224 yards and collected another 118 through the air.

The Mustangs limited Thurston to 48 yards rushing and only 28 more through the air for a total of 76 yards.

NHS sports budget slashed by $11,000

Only athletic equipment purchases for this year were trimmed from the 1981-82 Northville High School athletic budget, according to Mustang Athletic Director Ralph Redmond.

Equal budget cuts were made from all sports, Redmond said, for anticipated equipment purchases this season. In all, he presented an $11,000 reduction in the sports budget to the school board at its August 31 meeting.

The cuts were necessary even though voters approved a 7-mill, three-year package for the district July 28.

"We prioritized each (sports) list in what each coach needed," Redmond explained.

The lists were analyzed to eliminate the bottom priority items, he added. What it comes down to for the sports teams is holding onto a uniform for another year or so, Redmond said. Other examples he noted were hanging onto a basketball longer and, instead of trying to build a surplus of tennis balls, just maintaining the current amount.

Also, the purchase of a new floor mat, which would serve both the wrestling and gymnastics teams, has to be put on hold, Redmond said.

Even with the trade-in of the old mat, the athletic department would need $3,000 to purchase the new mat. Therefore, Redmond looks to financing the purchase down the road.

"These are the types of things you would like to pick up, but you can't do it," he said.

As for help from the Booster Club in this area, Redmond said, "I think the Boosters are agreeable and knowledgeable of the athletic program and know the athletic programs around the area."

"I think they will be willing to help in several areas," he said.

Game management duties were not part of the budget cuts, but Redmond is hoping to get some volunteer help from the Boosters. Some of the positions include ticket taking, working field entrances and being a field officer.

Pregame ticket sale

Northville Athletic Director Ralph Redmond has announced students can purchase tickets for the football between Westland John Glenn and Northville at home Friday in two locations for only $1.

Students may purchase pregame tickets the day of the game at the school cafeteria or at the high school office before 4 p.m.

Mustang harriers claim Western Invitational crown

By JOHN MYERS

The Walled Lake Western Invitational Saturday definitely was an improvement over the performance turned in at the Marshbank Invitational by the Northville boys cross country team.

Northville coach Ed Gabrys was disappointed in the effort of his team at the invitational September 5, but he saw some promise when the Mustangs raced to a slim victory in the Walled Lake Western Invitational Saturday.

The Mustangs nipped Redford Union, 43-44, for the team title. Milford was third with 79 points, followed by host Walled Lake Western (89) and Farmington (118).

"It was a little bit better," Gabrys said, in comparison to the squad's first outing. "But, we're still looking for consistency."

There were some positive aspects to the Walled Lake Western Invitational which Gabrys liked. One was seeing members of the Mustangs come through in the clutch and finding a couple of sophomore runners who will be able to help the varsity in dual meets.

Leading the way for the Mustangs in the junior/senior boys event was Dave Malinowski, who took first place overall in the meet. His time was 17:03, but Gabrys said the course had a tough series of hills which slowed the runners.

Senior Clark Couyoumjian was the second Northville and third runner overall across the line with a time of 17:14. Senior Scott Dayton was right behind Couyoumjian with a time of 17:42.

Two Northville runners missed placing in the top 15 and that is what made the winning margin close.

Rick Getzen was the fourth runner for Northville and 16th overall with his time of 18:58, while Jim Willoughby was 17th overall with a 19:03 clocking.

According to Gabrys, had either of those two runners been able to move into the number-15 slot, the Mustangs might have won the invitational by three points instead of one.

"We were just lucky to get the victory," he said.

However, Gabrys was pleased with the fact his runners attacked the members of the other squads participating.

Two sophomores who pleased Gabrys were Jim O'Neill and Doug Doyle. Both runners competed in the freshmen/sophomore race.

O'Neill placed sixth overall with a time of 18:50, while Doyle was ninth overall with a 19:12 clocking.

O'Neill's time was actually the fourth best turned in by a Mustang runner and Gabrys said if O'Neill could have been used in the junior/senior race, the Northville winning margin would have been larger.

"Those two will be helping us on the varsity," he praised.

Another aspect of the meet Gabrys liked was the team has enough good runners so that it does not have to rely entirely on Couyoumjian or Malinowski.

The Mustangs had dual against North-

Farmington Tuesday with another dual meet 4 p.m. Thursday against Livonia Churchill at the Cass Benton course. Saturday, Northville will participate in the Schoolcraft Invitational, which begins at 9 a.m., before meeting Farmington next Tuesday.

The girls team took third overall in the Western Invitational for juniors and seniors. Redford Union was first and was trailed by host Walled Lake Western.

Kim Assenmacher placed 11th overall for the Mustangs with a time of 23:13. Margie Wojcicki was injured, but Gabrys had her run just to see how she would perform.

Another Mustang, Kelly Wool, participated in the freshmen/sophomore race and crossed the finish line with a time of 23:38 for eighth-place overall.

Dave Malinowski won the boys individual title...

Soccer team handed first loss of the year

It was hard to believe that, in its match against Livonia Churchill last Thursday, this was the same Northville boys soccer team which won, rather convincingly, the Detroit Country Day Invitational two weeks ago.

The Mustangs looked impressive in racking up three victories on the way to the Country Day championship. However, Northville turned in a lackluster performance against Churchill in a 2-1 loss.

"We let them take the game to us. We played back on our heels the whole game," a dejected Ron Meteyer said.

Unlike the Country Day tournament where Northville played the part of the aggressor, the Mustangs spent most of the afternoon trying to keep the ball out of their own end against Churchill.

Even though Northville scored the first goal of the game to take a 1-0 lead, one could sense it was only a matter of time before Churchill would put the ball past Mustang goalie Steve Ouellette.

"Churchill wanted the game more than we did," Meteyer admitted.

"Our defense didn't do that great a job. We lost the game at mid-field. Our forwards weren't doing the job. We just didn't play with the same intensity like in the Country Day tournament," Meteyer offered.

And it is that fact which disturbs Meteyer. He said the team for the past couple of years has always letdown after winning the Country Day title and he is hoping the team shakes out of its doldrums early this year.

"It was a physical game. We really played their game which is physical and wide open instead of ours which is a control game," Meteyer said.

"We did everything wrong that possibly could go wrong. Churchill played a fine game and their coach, John Neff who is new this year, did a good job coaching.

"He was alert to our weaknesses and I wasn't responding too quickly. I letdown and the kids thought this would be an easy game," Meteyer said.

Northville opened the scoring when Steve Gribbell connected from about 13 yards on a rebound 35 minutes into the first half. However, Churchill came right back a couple of minutes later to knot the score at the half.

Churchill was on the offensive most of the second half but could not score until only a couple of minutes were left in the game.

Northville goalie Steve Ouellette was injured on a collision near the end and is lost for about two weeks with a sprained ankle.

For the game, Northville had two corner kicks, 11 goal kicks and 12 shots on goal compared to three corner kicks, 11 goal kicks and nine shots on goal for Churchill.

But, the statistics for Northville are misleading and Meteyer admitted as much.

"Our attack was atrocious. Our sliding tackles were bad, our support was bad," Meteyer explained. "Our shots were not that good."

Most of Northville's shots were from 20 and 25 yards out, which Meteyer said is practically impossible to score. On the other hand, the majority of Churchill's shots came from within the 18-yard penalty area.

The work done by Ouellette in goal drew praise from Meteyer.

"Ouellette did a fairly good job, but his timing was off a little bit," Meteyer offered.

Another factor Meteyer cited was the thick grass conditions at the Northville football field. He said that is what threw Ouellette's timing off and slowed many of Northville's passes, since the Mustangs like to kick the ball hard and low to the ground.

However, Meteyer is hoping the team will regroup for the game against Farmington Harrison at home 7 p.m. Thursday night and for divisional rival Livonia Bentley away at 4 p.m. Tuesday.

Let us beautify your home while putting a barrier between you & heat loss!

Northville golfers link three consecutive wins

Improving with each match, the Northville boys golf team racked up three victories during the weekend to begin its 1981 season on a successful note.

The Mustangs began the season with a slim 175-176 victory over Novi at the Wildcats' home course Thursday. The second victory was a little easier for Northville as it downed Milford Lakeland 164-174 at the Poley Lake golf club.

Western Six Conference action began Monday with Northville easily prevailing over Livonia Churchill by a count of 211-236 as the Mustangs played on their own home course at Meadowbrook.

In the match against Churchill, Kip Mach was the top performer for the Mustangs as he turned in a nine-hole round of 37. "That was a very fine round at Meadowbrook," Northville coach Joe Blake said.

Close behind Mach was sophomore Bob Pegrum who carded a 39 which Blake said was another good round.

Other golfers tallying in the final score were Terry McManhon and Dave Pohlod, both with 44, and Mark Goodson with a 47.

Blake said the five best scores are counted in league matches while only the four best scores are counted in non-league action.

In the Lakeland match, Pegrum was the top golfer for Northville with a nine-hole score of 40. He was followed closely by Pohlod and McManhon, both of whom had 41, and Mach at 42.

The Blake said the difference in the Lakeland match was already having played one match against Novi the day before.

"They settled down," he explained. It was not until the final foursome came in that Northville knew it downed Novi by a stroke.

McManhon and Mach paced the Mustang golfers both with scores of 42 with Greg Wolfe two strokes behind at 44 and Pohlod at 47.

It was Mach who was in the last foursome and his score pulled out the victory for Northville.

It has been Mach's consistent play which has pleased Blake during the three matches. "I'm a little surprised, but I knew he was a good player. He hasn't had match experience (before this year)," Blake said.

Another golfer Blake has been pleased with is Pegrum. "He had a shaky start, but he has played well the last two matches."

The golfers were playing Redford Thurston away Tuesday and will battle a tough Livonia Stevenson squad away Thursday.

Mustang netters open year with two straight triumphs

Northville's girls tennis has picked up right where it left off last season—winning.

The Mustang netters opened the young season with two victories. First by whipping Milford, 6-1, and then downing Western Six Conference foe Livonia Churchill by the identical score.

Mustang coach Uta Filkin has been pleased with the play of the girls, but sees a need for more stability in doubles play and for the Mustangs to get rid of a few butterflies.

"There is nothing insurmountable," Filkin said. "We just need to get some people settled down."

Number-one singles player Marnie Dillow started the match right against Churchill with an easy 6-0 and 6-0 win over Pat Loftuf.

Sheri Robins continued the winning ways at number two with a 6-4 and 6-2 win over Julie Roman. Gail Englemeyer was victorious at number three with a 6-3 and 6-1 verdict over Denise Canon.

At number-four singles, Holly Hubbard defeated Abby Ahearn 6-3 and 6-1.

The number-two doubles team of Jill Stephens and Jean DuSablón downed Sherry Clark and Carla Dye 6-2, 3-6 and 6-0.

The number-three team of Traci Cave and Jeanne Cook downed Denise Risitte and Mary Jo Ittman 6-3, 4-6 and 6-3.

The loss for the Mustangs came at number-one doubles where Kathy Montgomery and Jackie Nichols were downed by Pat Mellow and Kathy Bohan 4-6 and 7-5.

In the match against Milford, Dillow was victorious over Sharon McAuley 6-1 and 6-2, while Robins was a winner at number two over Julie Graham 7-5 and 6-2. Hubbard won at number four over Gilly Bennett 6-3 and 6-4.

At number-one doubles, Montgomery and Nichols were victorious over Lynn Maggio and Sherry Good, 6-3 and 6-2, while the number-two team of Stephens and DuSablón defeated Denise Deppener and Wendy Johnson 6-1 and 6-4. The number-three team of Cave and Cook downed Stephanie Cuddy and Sue McAuley 6-1 and 7-5.

The only loss of the day for Northville came at number-three singles where Englemeyer was downed by Kimm Morris 6-4, 5-7 and 3-6.

Overall, the team had some butterflies in its match with Milford and it should have won all of its matches, observed the coach.

The Mustangs are playing another league foe today in Plymouth Canton at 4 p.m. at the high school. The team travels to Hartland for another match Friday before returning to league action against Farmington Harrison 4 p.m. Monday at home.

Local golfers win state title

It now is on to Florida and Disney World for four women golfers from the Meadowbrook Country Club after they won the Walter Hagan-Babe Zaharias State tournament at the Boyne Highlands during the past weekend.

The women competing from Meadowbrook at the national finals December 12 and 13 will be Novella Zinko, Joy Holloway, Cecyl Herguth and Gisela McCabe.

The foursome became the first group from Wayne and Oakland County to win the state title. The foursome had a 36-hole total of 101 in the best ball tournament. The group was eligible to compete for state honors after winning the Wayne and Oakland County tournament in August at Meadowbrook.

The foursome was tied for third place after the first day with an 18-hole total of 55, but rebounded with a 46 Sunday to capture the title and a trip to Florida.

"We had 10 eagles, six birdies and two pars in the final round," Holloway said. "We shot a 70 without the handicap."

The Washtenaw Country Club foursome finished in second place behind the Meadowbrook women with a score of 104.

Holloway noted the women are excited to be representing Michigan at the national finals.

Upsets prevail in football contest

Upsets among local high school and college football games were the order of the day in the football contest, and initial winner Steve Austin survived enough of them to win this week's football contest.

Austin, 41680 Elk, correctly guessed 15 out of 19 winners to outdistance his two closest rivals, Paul Newitt, 43705 Gálway, and Doug Ayers, 518 Morgan Circle, both of whom had 13 winners. All three are residents of Northville.

For winning the opening week, Austin takes the $10 first prize. Newitt was awarded second on his closer guess of the actual score of the Stanford/Purdue contest and Ayers took third. Both winners were tied with five other contests, but were awarded their positions by virtue of the tie-breaker.

The key to winning the contest was correctly predicting the opposition prevailing over teams like Novi, Walled Lake Western and Walled Lake Central.

Of those three games, Austin only failed to predict Hartland would upend Western. Otherwise, he was perfect in his other four high school selections.

There were three major upsets in the college ranks and Austin was not alone in incorrectly picking Michigan, Nebraska and Alabama to win. All contestants also picked those teams to win.

Sixteen contestants picked 12 winners, while eight guessed 11 correctly and 10 picked 10 winners.

Remember, you must pick a winner for all 19 games. The total points scored only is used in case of a tie.

Cagers begin year with first victory

Last year the Northville girls' basketball team began its 1980 season with a loss and ended it with a loss en route to a 6-21 overall record.

Last week Tuesday the Mustangs changed at least the first half of the above statement by thumping Milford, 55-36, in a foul-plagued contest to open the 1981 season on a positive note.

"I'm very, very pleased with the girls' performance," Northville coach Gene Wagner said. "But, there still is a lot of work to do yet."

"We're happy to get number one," he added.

Northville had a chance to win its second game of the season against Novi Tuesday night in a non-league match up. The Mustangs open their home season with a game against Redford Thurston 6 p.m. Tuesday night.

There were 55 fouls called in the Milford game, with 33 going against the Redskins and 22 against Northville.

And it was those foul calls which helped Northville break open a close contest in the final quarter.

The Mustangs were leading 28-24 after three quarters of play when a barrage of fouls was called against the Redskins to help Northville on its way to a 27-point quarter.

In fact, the Mustangs nailed 13 consecutive free throws which Wagner believes is a girls' cage record and may possibly even be a boys' record.

The contest started slow with Northville leading 8-6 after the opening period, but trailing 19-16 at the half.

For the game, Northville connected on 25 of 43 charity tosses for 60 percent, "which is really good for us," Wagner said. The Mustangs hit on 15 of 37 floor shots for 40 percent.

"I would have liked to have had more floor shots," the second year head mentor said, but he noted the foul situation dictated fewer field goal attempts.

Leading the scoring charges for Northville was All Western Six Conference guard Jacque Nixon who tossed 18 points. She hit five floor shots to complement her eight-of-10 performance from the foul line.

Melinda House was the top rebounder for the Mustangs with 14 and she also added 10 points. Sophomore Donna Ackley scored eight points and played a good game, according to Wagner.

Tracy Wilkinson added seven points, while Leslie Kucker, Jenny Gans and Marge Muller scored five, four and three points, respectively.

One player who did not figure in the scoring was Melissa McDaniel. However, Wagner said she played a strong floor game and added it depends on the flow of the game whether she figures in the scoring.

Since the Northville girls' basketball program has not been overly successful in recent years, the initial win Tuesday showed Wagner some positive aspects.

"I have eight girls I feel confident with. I can put any one of them in and out of the game and not lose anything. Before, I had only three or four girls to work with," Wagner explained. Last year's team had only six, sometimes seven players.

"I can see the results from the two years of hard work the girls have been putting in," he added.

Also, there is more balanced scoring on the team this season compared to a year ago.

Wagner noted the team lost to South Lyon last year in its second game with Nixon scoring every single Northville point.

"I see some scoring help now, whereas before, Nixon and House did most of the scoring. Now anybody can make a contribution," he said.

Despite the positive outlook after one game, Wagner cited there are some tough teams left on the Northville schedule which will create problems.

OFFICIAL NOTICE OF SALE

CITY OF NOVI COUNTY OF OAKLAND, STATE OF MICHIGAN 1981 SPECIAL ASSESSMENT LIMITED TAX BONDS

SEALED BIDS for the purchase of the above bonds will be received by the undersigned at the City Clerk's Office in the City Hall located at 45225 West Ten Mile Road, Novi, Michigan 48050, on Monday, the 21st day of September, 1981, until 4:00 o'clock p.m., Eastern Daylight Time, at which time and place said bids will be publicly opened and read. Sealed bids will also be received on the same date and until the same time by an agent of the undersigned at the offices of Bendzinski & Co., 1318 Buhl Building, Detroit, Michigan 48226, when, simultaneously, they will be opened and read.

BOND DETAILS: Said bonds will be coupon bonds of the denomination of $5,000 each, dated February 1, 1981, numbered in direct order of maturity from 1 upwards and will bear interest from their date payable on December 1, 1981, and semiannually thereafter.

Said bonds will mature on the 1st day of June as follows:

$20,000	1982;
45,000	1983 to 1990, inclusive;
40,000	1991 to 1994, inclusive;
45,000	1995.

PRIOR REDEMPTION: Bonds maturing in the years 1982 to 1990, inclusive, shall not be subject to redemption prior to maturity.

Bonds maturing in the years 1991 to 1995, inclusive, shall be subject to redemption prior to maturity, at the option of the City, in such order as the City shall determine, on any interest payment date on or after June 1, 1990. Bonds called for redemption shall be redeemed at par and accrued interest to the date fixed for redemption, plus a premium expressed in percentage of par value as follows:

2% of the principal amount of each bond redeemed prior to June 1, 1993;
1% of the principal amount of each bond redeemed on or after June 1, 1993, but prior to maturity.

Thirty days notice of the call of any bonds for redemption shall be given by publication in a paper circulated in the State of Michigan which carries, as part of its regular service, notices of sale of municipal bonds. No further interest payable on bonds called for redemption shall accrue after the date fixed for redemption, whether presented for redemption or not, provided the City has money available for such redemption with the paying agent.

INTEREST RATE AND BIDDING DETAILS: The bonds shall bear interest at a rate or rates not exceeding 12% per annum, to be fixed by the bids therefor, expressed in multiples of 1/8 or 1/20 of 1%, or both. The interest on any one bond shall be at one rate only, all bonds maturing in any one year must carry the same interest rate and each coupon period shall be represented by one interest coupon. The difference between the highest and lowest interest rate on the bonds shall not exceed two percent (2%) per annum. No proposal for the purchase of less than all of the bonds or at a price less than 100% of their par value will be considered.

PAYING AGENT: Both principal and interest shall be payable at a bank or trust company located in Michigan qualified to act as paying agent under State or United States law, to be designated by the original purchaser of the bonds, who may also designate a co-paying agent, which may be located outside of Michigan, qualified to act as paying agent under the law of the State in which located or of the United States, both of which shall be subject to approval of the undersigned. PURPOSE AND SECURITY: The bonds are issued in anticipation of the collection of special assessments for public improvements in certain special assessment districts in said City, as set forth in the bond authorizing resolution. The special assessments and interest thereon are sufficient to pay the principal and interest on the bonds when due. The liability of each special assessment district is limited as set forth in the bond authorizing resolution. The bonds are a limited tax general (full faith and credit) obligation of the City, and the City is obligated to pay debt service thereon as a first budget obligation from its general funds, including any collections of ad valorem taxes, but the ability of the City to levy such taxes is subject to charter, statutory and constitutional limitations.

The rights or remedies of bondholders may be affected by bankruptcy laws or other creditors' rights legislation now existing or hereafter enacted.

GOOD FAITH: A certified or cashier's check in the amount of $11,700 drawn upon an incorporated bank or trust company and payable to the order of the Treasurer of the City must accompany each bid as guarantee of good faith on the part of the bidder, to be forfeited as liquidated damages if such bid be accepted and the bidder fails to take up and pay for the bonds. No interest shall be allowed on the good faith checks and checks of the unsuccessful bidders will be promptly returned to each bidder's representative or by registered mail.

AWARD OF BONDS: The bonds will be awarded to the bidder whose bid produces the lowest interest cost computed by determining, at the rate or rates specified in the bid, the total dollar value of all interest on the bonds from October 1, 1981, to their maturity and deducting therefrom any premium.

LEGAL OPINION: Bids shall be conditioned upon the unqualified approving opinion of Miller, Canfield, Paddock and Stone, attorneys of Detroit, Michigan, a copy of which opinion will be printed on the reverse side of each bond, and the original of which will be furnished without expense to the purchaser of the bonds at the delivery thereof. The fees of Miller, Canfield, Paddock and Stone for services rendered in connection with such approving opinion are expected to be paid from bond proceeds. Except to the extent necessary to issue their unqualified approving opinion as to the validity of the above bonds, Miller, Canfield, Paddock and Stone has not been requested to examine or review and has not examined or reviewed any financial documents, statements or materials that have been or may be furnished in connection with the authorization, issuance or marketing of the bonds, and accordingly, will not express any opinion with respect to the accuracy or completeness of any such financial documents, statements or materials.

DELIVERY OF BONDS: The City will furnish bonds ready for execution at its expense. Bonds will be delivered without expense to the purchaser at Detroit, Michigan, Chicago, Illinois or New York, New York. The usual closing documents, including a certificate that no litigation is pending affecting the issuance of the bonds, will be delivered at the time of the delivery of the bonds. If the bonds are not tendered for delivery by twelve o'clock noon, Eastern Standard Time, on the 45th day following the date of sale, or the first business day thereafter if said 45th day is not a business day, the successful bidder may on that day, or any time thereafter until delivery of the bonds, withdraw his proposal by serving notice of cancellation, in writing, on the undersigned in which event the City shall promptly return the good faith deposit. Accrued interest to the date of delivery of the bonds shall be paid by the purchaser at the time of delivery. Payment for the bonds must be made in immediately available funds.

CUSIP NUMBERS: CUSIP identification numbers will be printed on the bonds, at the issuer's expense, except payment of the charge for assignment of numbers which will be the purchaser's responsibility. Neither the failure to print such numbers on any bonds nor any error with respect thereto shall constitute cause for a failure or refusal by the purchaser thereof to accept delivery of and pay for said bonds in accordance with terms of the purchase contract.

FINANCIAL CONSULTANTS: Additional information may be obtained from Bendzinski & Co., Municipal Finance Advisors, 1318 Buhl Building, Detroit, Michigan 48226; telephone: (313) 961-8222.

THE RIGHT IS RESERVED TO REJECT ANY OR ALL BIDS. ENVELOPES containing the bids should be plainly marked "Proposal for 1981 Special Assessment Limited Tax Bonds."

Start of season delayed for Mustang swimmers

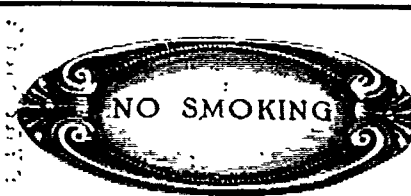

Just when the Northville girls swimming team was ready to begin its season Saturday, it was postponed.

The Mustangs were to have competed in the Plymouth Salem Invitational, but according to coach Bill Dicks there was scheduling conflict and the meet was rescheduled for Saturday.

Instead, the Mustangs who opened their 1981 campaign against Ypsilanti Tuesday, will face Livonia Bentley 7 p.m. Thursday at home and then compete in the Salem Invitational.

Despite the setback, Dicks said his 14-member team was working hard and practices were good.

"I think we should do alright," he said. Hopefully, there won't be anymore delays.

Youth soccer returns for local teams

Youth soccer is back. After taking a summer recess, youth soccer teams from Northville began play for the fall season during the weekend.

Some teams were successful in winning and others were not so fortunate, while still others found themselves in the games.

UNDER-10 BOYS

Northville No. 3 United 9, Northville No. 4 Strikers 1: there was plenty of scoring in this contest as the United's Matt Sepos had five tallies.

The remainder of the scoring was done by Jason Flading, Chuckie Taylor, Larry Osiecki and Erik Bauss. Kyle Lakin and Sean Mackle were cited for strong defensive play.

Jason Nunn scored the first goal of the year for the Strikers. Matt Wilson was cited for good defensive play.

Northville No. 5 Raiders 1, Plymouth

No. 100: It was a strong defensive game with Dave Smith scoring the lone goal of the game. Paul McCreadie and Eddie Petit both played strong defensive games.

Plymouth No. 9 7, Northville No. 6 Tornadoes 0: even though the Tornadoes were blanked, Lee Hyland and Paul Butz played well for the losers. Jason Vertrees was strong in goal by allowing only one goal in 16 attempts.

In other games, Plymouth No. 4 downed Northville No. 1 Hot Spurs, 6-0; Plymouth No. 6 defeated Northville No. 2 Rowdies, 6-0; and the Northville No. 7 Celtics had a bye.

UNDER-12 BOYS

Farmington No. 6 2, Northville No. 1 Rovers 1: it was a close and physical game with Farmington coming out on top. Mike Karfis scored the lone Northville goal on a penalty shot.

Mike Lewis on defense and Scott Steckly were key defensive performers, while Ken Spigarelli and Karfis were cited for outstanding forward play.

Northville No. 4 Tornado 4, Northville No. 3 United 0: Jim Burkowski, Mike Mathes, Jeff Wesley and Jay Griffith all tallied for the winners. Vini Muzzin had a good game in goal, while Jeff Higgins and Jeff Terwin played well at mid-field.

Northville No. 5 Knights 3, Farmington No. 10 1: the Knights received scoring from Dave Moore and two goals from Tom Ursel to secure the win. The goals were assisted by David Buckland, Ron McDonald and Antonio Pacheco.

Brad Grier, Keith Graham, Wayne Magnan and Eric Bemer played well defensively.

Northville No. 7 Arsenal 3, Plymouth No. 10 2: two goals by John Larabell and another Robert Heaton proved to be enough for Northville to win. Ian Newton had two assists and Larabell assisted on the other goal. Ben Custer played well defensively.

Northville No. 6 Cobras 5, Plymouth No. 11 1: Andy Fitzpatrick scored a hat trick (three goals) in leading Northville to victory. Andy Bachman and Steve Austin each scored once. Tagg Smith had two assists, while Austin added one.

Scott Howell and Pat Fagan played well defensively for the winners.

UNDER-19 GIRLS

Northville No. 1 5, Plymouth 1: Sue Borthwick had three goals and Amy Nieuwkoop and Joan Robson each tallied once for the winners.

Northville No. 2 6, Farmington 9: The game was dominated by Northville with Cindy Martin scoring five times and Marge Muller once for the winners. Jacque Nixon and Martina Mellon were cited for their good play.

Colts cruise past Westland in opener

Using a strong offensive performance, the Northville/Novi Colts varsity squad whipped the Westland Comets 31-12 in a Junior Football Association contest.

The Colts were paced by Dion Earehart and Eric Morfe, the two combining for 180 yards and four touchdowns.

The first score of the game came on a razzle-dazzle play when the Colts used a double reverse of Mike Hilfinger to Morfe to Earehart for a six-yard touchdown.

Eric Terlecki scampered 27 yards for another six pointer early in the second quarter with John Taschner running in for the extra point.

The final Colt tally of the first half came when Morfe ran 25-yard touchdown late in the second stanza. The score came after an excellent defensive performance by Paul Newitt, John Lobbia, Jeff Bainbridge and Scott Holloway.

Westland finally put some points on the board early in the third quarter on a 45-yard touchdown pass. However, Earehart quickly got the Colts another six pointer on a 53-yard run.

The Colts' next game is 1 p.m. Sunday against the Ann Arbor Packers at the Northville High School football field.

Northville JV gridders down Thurston, 38-8

Northville's junior varsity football team opened its season with a bang over Redford Thurston, 38-8, last Thursday.

The Mustangs sprinted to a 22-0 halftime lead and never looked back in chalk-up their initial victory of the season.

The next contest for the jayvees is Thursday on the road at 7 p.m. against Westland John Glenn. Northville will be looking to turn the tables on John Glenn, who defeated the Mustangs last year.

Tailback John Quinn bolted off right tackle for 14 yards and the first Northville touchdown of the game. He then followed his blockers for the two-point conversion as the first quarter ended with Northville leading 8-0.

The initial six pointer was set up by Mike Wissman's interception. He had scored a touchdown on the play, but it was called back because of a clipping penalty against Northville.

The Mustangs scored twice in the second quarter with fullback Dave Wilson scampering in from eight yards. Tight end Mike Weber caught the two-point conversion pass for a 16-0 Mustang advantage.

The final tally of the first half came when fullback John Klockenga dove over from two yards. Northville missed the conversion try.

Northville expanded its lead to 30-0 when middle linebacker Todd Deal intercepted a Thurston pass and returned it 41 yards for the TD. Wissman caught a slant pass over the middle for the two-point conversion.

The lead increased in the fourth stanza when Matt Meyer tackled a Thurston runner in the end zone for a safety. Northville's final score came when Ernie Bock ran for a 28-yard touchdown.

Thurston averted the shutout when it scored on a five-yard pass play with 20 seconds left in the contest and added the two-point conversion.

For the game, Northville had 236 total yards with 213 coming on the ground and 23 through the air. Meanwhile, Thurston could only muster up 60 yards offensively against the Mustang defense.

Quinn led all Northville runners with 71 yards in 15 attempts, while Brian Jennings added 51 yards in only three attempts. Other top runners include Wilson with 42 yards and Bock with 37.

In the passing department, quarterback Mike Sylvestre completed three of seven for 23 yards. Wissman made one attempt, but it fell incomplete.

YOUNG ARTIST WINNERS

Madonna College (Jeffries (I-96) and Levan)

Prizes totaling $3,000 will be awarded by the Michigan Foundation for the Arts, and the winners will have an audition with the Detroit Symphony Orchestra for an appearance at a Youth Concert.

You are invited to attend the final auditions. It will be a memorable experience. Come to Madonna College January 15 & 16 between 9:00 and 4:30. All of the contestants are fine musicians, and among the winners may be found the great solo artists of tomorrow. You may hear a future Van Cliburn, James Tocco or Ani Kavafian.

The 1982 competition will be for orchestral instrumentalists, under 25 years of age as of February 14, who live or attend school in southeastern Michigan. For more information, write to the Oakway Symphony, Post Office Box 171, Farmington 48024.

Sunday, March 14. 3:00 p.m.

Southfield-Lathrup High School (12 Mile west of Southfield)

It is with great pleasure that Oakway will present Gordon Staples as soloist performing the Tchaikovsky Violin Concerto. This demanding concerto is one of the most popular solos in the repertoire.

Mr. Staples, Concertmaster of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra since 1968, came to Detroit in 1956 as Assistant Concertmaster. Prior to this he was Concertmaster of the New Orleans Philharmonic. One of his first concert appearances in the Detroit area was in 1956 with the Detroit Little Symphony at Metropolitan Beach under the direction of Mr. Di Blasi.

VI

"CARMEN"

Sunday, May 16. 3:00 p.m.

Harrison High School (12 Mile west of Middlebelt)

Bizet's Carmen is one of the most dramatic operas in the history of the lyric stage, a work that towers above all plays and operas of the period. It is an opera of unique impact; its lyrical parts disseminate a tender and suave melancholy, and the work as a whole has an almost brutal force.

Carmen will be presented in a two-hour version with four acts, fully staged with soloists and chorus. The entire production will be under the direction of Alice Engram, Head of the Voice Department at Oakland University.

STREET TREAT

All right! Pontiac's new specially equipped J2000 High Mileage Coupe is here. And with its standard four-cylinder engine and manual transmission, and without air conditioning and power steering, it offers you the kind of economy that makes road work a sheer pleasure.

Use the estimated mpg for comparison. Your mileage may differ depending on speed, distance, weather. Actual highway mileage lower.

Now the joy of our new J2000 Coupe doesn't end with good mileage. Once you ease into the cockpit, you'll know exactly what we mean. The standard fully reclining front bucket seats, striking instrument panel and floor-mounted 4-speed manual transmission with overdrive make it a driver's delight. There's also standard side window defoggers, a Delco-GM AM radio with integral digital clock (may be deleted for credit) and multifunctional lever awaiting your every command.

Suddenly, driving is fun again. Standard front-wheel drive, rack and pinion steering and a taut suspension system help our J2000 Coupe uncurl corners and smooth out rough spots.

Of course, we knew you'd want a car that looks as good as it feels. So we gave this sporty new J2000 a wedge-shaped design that not only helps make it aerodynamic, but stylish as well. It adds up to one high mileage car you won't ever want to park.

So come on. Treat yourself to the new Pontiac J2000 High Mileage Coupe. Or any of our other exciting new J Generation models—2-door coupe, 3-door hatch, 4-door sedan and 4-door wagon.

J2000. A neat new way to hit the street. At your Pontiac dealer now.

Some Pontiacs are equipped with engines produced by other GM divisions, subsidiaries or affiliated companies worldwide. See your dealer for details.

HOW TO WRITE A LETTER TO YOUR CONGRESSMAN.

Writing a letter is simple. Writing an effective letter, however, is a little harder. And there are a few things you probably ought to know before you prepare a letter to send to your congressman or to a government official.

FREE "HOW TO" BOOK. The Budd Company believes that participation in government decisions is every American's right. To that end, Budd has prepared a free booklet that includes helpful tips on how to create effective letters—letters that not only get received but also get understood. The book also includes Washington D.C. addresses. So if you have something to tell Washington this booklet can help your message get through fast and clear. For your free copy just write to: Public Affairs, The Budd Company, 3155 Big Beaver Road, Troy, Michigan 48084.

Write today. Then start righting the situation in Washington by writing what you think.
