Folino and Mittman face off in only council competition

City residents will have a choice between a former council member and an incumbent appointee to fill out a twoyear term on city council when they go to the polls next Tuesday.

For two other four-year council seats the incumbents are unopposed, as is Mayor Paul Vernon who is seeking his third two-year term.

Paul F. Folino, 52, a council member for eight-and-a-half years, lost his seat on council when he ran for mayor in 1977 and lost out in a council bid in 1979; he is opposing Jerome J. Mittman for a council seat for the second time.

Mittman, also a council candidate in 1979 who with Folino lost to Stanley Johnston, was appointed to a council vacancy June 15 of this year.

He was the unanimous choice of council to serve until the next election the unexpired term of Johnston who resigned because of the press of business. When the vacancy occurred, both Mittman and Folino applied. Mittman was chosen, the council stated, because it felt he (at 36) would be a younger representative of newer residents in the community.

This is the only city council post for which there is a contest.

Schools await hearing on state audit appeal

When the state's findings were evealed, 26 specific items in the ISEP budget were in question - amounting to a $450,000 disallowance of costs for the 1978-79 school year.

According to School Superintendent Lawrence Nichols, the items in question ranged from fringe benefits for transportation department personnel to the purchase of a food blender.

As a result of the state's audit findings, the district conducted a staff review and concluded that the state auditing team had misinterpreted several codes. At about the same time, it was discovered that the state auditing team had not granted Northville Public Schools an exit interview at the conclusion of the audit. (School districts are Folino's involvements have included working for passage of Mainstreet "78 downtown renovation project, serving on the recreation commission for eightand-a-half years, serving as council delegate to Michigan Municipal League and SEMCOG.

Folino lists as achievements in community service of which he is most proud his work through SEMCOG to prevent having Center Street designated as a five-lane highway; with the city and township to obtain ambulance service; and on council seeking senior citizen housing here. He is light truck marketing plans manager, at Renaissance Center, for Ford Division of Ford Motor Company.

Before being appointed to city council, Mittman served on the city planning commission, having been appointed to fill out the unexpired term of William Tucker. He also was alternate member on the zoning board of appeals. He is ccuncil's representative to the recreation commission and 35th District Court advisory committee. He is president of the Lexington Commons Association and a member of Our Lady of Victory Church.

He lists as his objectives for the city continuing to develop a strong, vibrant downtown, encouraging new and expanded business development while retaining small-town atmosphere and character. He also feels there must be response to increased budget pressures and that council must make the best possible use of citizens' tax dollars. He added that he thinks a key issue is furthering cooperation between the city and township because township development will affect the future of the city. His views should not be taken as support for annexation, he noted.

Mittman said, "selling the downtown, getting business moving again is another top priority."

Mayor Vernon, 59, and his wife Norma live at 1080 Allen Drive. He is vice president of special accounts for Allen Testproducts, a division of The Allen Group, a conglomerate that is auto related. The Vernons have one daughter, Carmen Kuckenbecker, who

"Significant but orderly progress has been made in recent years because of a dedicated and cooperative city council working for the best interests of both constituants and the Northville business community. The next 'few years will be very challenging because declining revenues and increasing costs will require some difficult and unpopular decisions by city council involving increased property taxes or a reduction in city services.

"As mayor, I will continue working to make Northville an even better place to live with an acceptable level of services at a minimum cost to the taxpayers,' Vernon states.

G. Dewey Gardner, 42, who currently is serving as mayor pro tem, is a life resident of Northville and a graduate of Northville High School. He is ownermanager of IV Seasons Flowers and Gifts. He attended Eastern Michigan University and the University of Alaska. He taught instrumental music and theory from 1962-67 and was minister of music at First Baptist Church in Northville from 1964-69. He purchased IV Seasons in 1967.

"As one of the people responsible for giving public direction to our community through ordinances and policy, I feel that the proper function of a government is to make it easy for the people to do good and difficult for them to do evil' (William E. Township Clerk Susan Heintz reports more than 500 absentee ballots requested as of last Friday. Most such ballots are returned. Heintz said there are nearly 8,500 registered voters in the township eligible for this election. Based on the issues involved (the township regularly registers many absentee votes), Heintz said she, too, expects a "light to moderate" turnout. She said she would be surprised if the count exceeds one-third the number of eligible voters. Polls will open at 7 a.m. and close at 8 p.m. Tuesday in both the city and township with everyone in line at 8 p.m. permitted to vote.

The city's three precincts are located as follows: Precinct One, city hall; Precincts Two and Three, Amerman Elementary library.

Absentee ballots may be returned (by other than the absentee voter) until 8 p.m. election night, McAllister said. Absentee ballots may be requested until 2 p.m. Saturday, or a voter may come to city hall Monday to vote the ballot. The city clerk notes these usually are emergency provisions.

Heintz said similar rules apply in the

Despite a little pre-winter snowfall Friday night, crowds flocked the downtown area this weekend for the Northville Merchants Association's "Autumn in Northville" festival. Streets were jammed with bargain-hunters taking advantage of store discounts and shoppers were treated to free cider and doughnuts served by local Girl Scouts. Store hours were expanded to 10 p.m. Friday and from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. Saturday to accommodate shoppers like Ken Brodie, above left, and Ed Crook, right, who took their children for a stroll down Main Street. From April to August, the district received no word on the audit or the cost accounting revision. In mid-August, the state informed the distict that a hearing date for the appeal would be set within the next 30 days. No date has been set and the district once again has been left in the dark.

Last week, Nichols sent a letter to State School Superintendent Phillip

The outcome of this more than yearlong battle has left the district in a state of financial limbo.

The district currently has enough fund equity to cover the the $450,000 disallowance should the district lose its appeal. However, Nichols said he believes Northville will be successful -

"Living in a Humpty Dumpty World"

Recently a political leader described the brokenness of our time by referring to "Humpty Dumpty people existing in a Humpty Dumpty world." This intriguing phrase recalls childhood and the poor egg who fell from the wall. He was so badly broken that all the king's men could not put that splattered egg back into the shattered shell. the shattered shell.

That rhyme is a commentary on modern life. People today are battered and bruised by a vast number of complicated problems. Often the cause of the breakdown seems obvious (afer all, the king's men could see what had happened to Humpty). Yet solutions are vague, difficult, and usually contradictory. People are confused, often concerning the basic issues of life. Hurting men, women, and young people usually see experts and critics who "couldn't care less." What they really need to see is a crucified Savior who "couldn't care more!" You see, every problem is ultimately a solidital problem. We need to turn from all the spiritual problem. We need to turn from all the king's helpless men to the King himself. Jesus Christ, the King of Kings, specializes in healing broken lives and, more profoundly, He forgives people's sins. Key police tax vote Tuesday

By KEVIN WILSON

Campaigning for Northville Township's police inclinate increase request on the ballot November 3 has not been high key, but there is little doubt Athin the government, or the police department, that a lot is riding on this election.

The request for a seven-tenths of a mill increase . the second time township voters have been asked to raise property taxes to support the police department this year. A May 19 request for a full mill inrease was rejected by a narrow margin, while voters endorsed renewal of the 1.5 mill levy first tassed in 1976.

Approval of the new request, however, would have far different effects on the department than hose projected for approval in May election.

For one thing, the department is different. It has suffered one layoff from its 10-officer strength and its former chief, demoted to patrol rank, is still protesting the decision, although termination notice has been sent.

Moreover, the May hopes that increased millage would come to the rescue by next March were lost when there was no attempt to schedule this second election prior to the September deadline for billing

If voters approve the 0.7 mill request, millage ra'es would not reflect the increase until December, 1982 and the money could not help the department until March, 1983.

The fear is that the department will have to suffer further layoffs before any rescue is available. The promises made in May that four officers would be added to the staff if the increase were passed ring hollow for a department that may find itself needing that many officers to return to its former strength

Township officials, well aware of the taxpayer mood as expressed last spring when equalization by class was at issue, are not willing to predict how the election may turn out. They are particularly reluctant due to the defeat of the May proposal by only 81 votes of nearly 3,800 cast on the issue.

Also unknown is what effect the late June dismissal of former police chief Ronald Nisun might have on the traditional strong citizen support offered the department. Some in township hall felt the decision to demote the chief, who was later fired for refusing to take a physical before working as a patrol officer, is at least partially responsible for the different campaign styles of the two elec-families to push for the millage renewal and increase issues.

After the new mill request was deleated, the township board met with representatives of the campaign committe and told them a second request would be possible if the group could show citizen support for the issue.

But the Nisun incident followed soon after, and the campaign committee has not been heard from since. When it became obvious that the department budget was headed for difficult times, the township board moved on its own and scheduled next week's

In two respects, the board action follows the spring recommendations of the committee. There was a feeling at the time that defeat was partially dependent on two factors — nearness to a school millage election (the May 19 date was wedged between two school requests) and the governor's illfated tax shift Proposal A.

The committee advised the board to await the final outcome of the school millage issues (the system's renewal was eventually reduced over two mills) and some resolution of then-rampant talk of cutting taxes.

The November date chosen meets both those criteria, if not in the form desired last spring. With the governor's recent retraction of earlier support for a tax cut this year, the effects of equalization by class are sure to show up on December billings in the township.

The average residential state equalized valuation (SEV) in the township will rise an estimated average of 15-21 percent as a result of state law taking effect this year that demands equalization "by class" instead of overall.

The law is intended to shift the tax burden to residential properties somewhat in order to offset alleged past inequities in the tax system that made commercial properties carry an unfair share.

Township hopes are that the tax cut fever that swept the state last spring, at least partially in response to the equalization by class issue, will have been responded to or have abated by the time next week's 0.7 mill increase would appear on bills.

If approved, the issue would increase millage allocated solely to the police department to 2.2 mills from the 1.5 levied the past five years and this year. Total township millage rate would increase from 3.0 to 3.7. General operating tax is one mill, and the fire department gets 0.5 mill.

The township tax is less than 10 percent of the more than 50 mills levied on residents of the community through combined school, county and local

Both rear wheels and tires were stolen off a 1982 Japanese pick-up truck in the Innsbrook Apartments parking lot over the weekend, township police report.

The owner told police the vehicle was parked overnight, and in the morning it had no rear wheels.

The left front wheel and tire and both left side wheel covers were stolen from a car parked on Franklin Road October 23-24, the owner told township police.

The owner's wife told police she heard the family dogs barking but did not investigate. The stolen items were valued at $198.

It wasn't exactly a high speed pursuit, but township police officer Michael Panagiotides had to make a little extra effort to chase down a suspect early Wednesday morning.

Panagiotides found a man apparently asleep behind the wheel of a car at rest in the left turn lane on northbound Haggerty, south of Five Mile in the early morning hours October 21.

Since the site was outside township jurisdiction, Panagiotides radioed Plymouth police and told them he would wait at the scene until they arrived. The driver was slumped over the steering wheel with the car in neutral, he reported, but was breathing and appeared to be in a deep sleep. Attempts to awaken him had failed, the report shows, and all this information was relayed to Plymouth.

No sooner had he called the neighboring department however, the officer found he had no need for them. While he sat in the patrol car awaiting the arrival of the other officers, Panagiotides' report states, the car under observation started to roll.

TITLE 7, CHAPTER 4, SANITARY SEWERS, SECTION 7-402(a), OF THE CODE OF ORDINANCES OF THE CITY OF NORTHVILLE TO INCREASE THE SEWER PATES

THE SEWER RATES.

Section 7-402(a) is proposed to be amended by changing the rates per 1,000 gallons only to increase sewer revenues as follows:

Service Charge First 14,000 Gals. All over 14,000 Gals.	Present $1,20 1,23 0,94	Proposed .$1.45 1.86 1:43

Printed copies of the complete text of Title 7, Chapter 4 of the City Code of Ordinances are available for inspection by and distribution to the public at the City Clerk's office during regular business hours as well as the report on the need for the rate increase.

WHY THIS INCREASE IS NEEDED

The proposed water and sewer rate increases are necessary to provide for the following:

1. Increase in the Detroit water supply rates, November, 1980, and Wayne County Sewage Disposal rates, June 1981. (The City last raised its water and sewer rates in May 1978).

The result of the Detroit and Wayne County Water and Sewage increases will result in no repair reserve and an operating deficit of at least $111,000 in 1981-82 if no increase in local water and sewage rates. Renovation needed to the water tower.

The total of the proposed water and sewer rate increases will amount to an increase of approximately 35% in the average customer's total bill.

A detailed report concerning the need for this rate increase is available at the City Clerk's office.

Our Opinion

It's financial keep council

· City residents Tuesday will be marking a ballot on which there is a contest for only one council post. Mayor Paul Vernon, seeking a third two-year term, is unopposed, as are G. Dewey Gardner, mayor pro tem, and J. Burton DeRusha, incumbents asking for second four-year terms on council.

While we already have stated that we would have preferred to see opposition for all posts as a matter of good government, we support reelection of all three. They have proved their ability to work hard for the city during difficult months recently. All are dedicated, spending long hours (meeting have been running four or more hours Monday nights) at the council table. This service, as Vernon has observed, is "only the tip of the ice berg."

Council members receive information about the agenda items the previous Friday and spend their weekends checking it, as well as police reports and bills payable. They have been forced to study cost-cutting measures during the past months that will keep the city on a sound financial basis. Their most difficult decisions are ahead, but they are informed on city budgetary mat-ters from these months of intensive review.

The council is well aware that fewer state revenues will be returned to the city — sales tax income is down and the state is paring its budgets. City Manager Stéve Walters has been following the situation closely along with the council. For this reason we recommend retaining Jerome Mittman on the council. His opponent, Paul Folino, also seeking the two-year term caused by the resignation of Stanley Johnston in June, makes the choice a difficult

Folino previously served on the council for eight-and-a-half years and is known for his complete dedication and willingness to work untiringly for city projects. He is a life resident of the c o m m u n i t y a n d h a s demonstrated he "cares about Northville."

But so does Mittman who was the unanimous choice of the council to fill the vacancy until this election. The council said it was appointing him as he gave a different representation on the council — he is a relative newcomer to the city (five and a half years), bringing fresh ideas and a younger viewpoint (he is 36).

He also brings an impressive background that includes a second master's degree in business. He has demonstrated his ability in this area during his four-and-ahalf months on the council. Because economics must be the prime concern of the council during the upcoming months, we recommend that he be retained.

The city, however, will be well served by either candidate, and we feel Paul Folino will continue to make major contributions. He already has committed himself through the chamber of commerce to overseeing construction of the new chamber building by the Northville well.

Our concern, because there is only the one contest, is that voters will not exercise their privilege Tuesday. We above all recommend that you VOTE.

Reservoir buy worthwhile

While police millage has been attracting most of the township attention for the upcoming election, there is a second local issue on the ballot — purchase of the Beck Road Reservoir.

The township water and sewer department claims it will need the reservoir in future efforts to hold water rates down, and it appears it would be useful to that end; so we recommend voters punch "yes" on this proposal.

Which is not to say we entirely agree with the picture painted by township hall about this purchase. As the ballot proposal reads, and as township board members would let you believe, it seems the reservoir will cost only $1, which is most emphatically. not the case.

It's just that the other $23,999 has already been spent, without voter approval. The one dollar purchase price is merely a technicality; it executes an option clause in the 99-year lease contract signed with the city of Plymouth earlier this year.

Given Plymouth's anxiety to derive some income from the property swiftly, and the state regulations that govern township land acquisitions, we understand why the exchange of the reservoir and land was done the way it was. But we dislike the implication that this is some kind of gift.

What it is, pure and simple, is an expenditure by the water and sewer department in hope of longterm benefits. As such, it is perfectly defensible as a good move. What is less defensible is township officials trying to avoid admitting that they have circumvented the rules that demand a vote before a township can buy

If the potential benefit was worth bending the rules, why not admit it? At the worst, township voters would reject the one dollar proposal. But then, the township would have another 98 years to get approval before the lease, and the purchase option, run out.

Later may not be good enough, however, for approval of added millage for the township police department or a home rule charter for Wayne County. As readers will recall, in this space last week we recommended approval of the millage, and suggested that the county charter be passed, preferably with an elected executive.

SAT workshops don't make the grade

Rifling through last Friday's stack of mail, I came across a large packet with the letters "PSAT/NMSQT" inscribed on the envelope. Looking through the contents of this packet, I found five or six booklets focusing on a variety of topics such as "Test Taking Strategies," "A Student Guide To the SAT" and other related literature.

A wave of nostalgia came over me as I thumbed through these pink, blue and green covered booklets. Somewhere in the back of my mind I envisioned this high school kid sitting at a cafeteria table on a Saturday morning trying to decipher geometric proofs and comprehend the volume of a cube and the hypotenuse of a right triangle.

I snapped back to reality when my younger sister whisked passed me, snatching the envelope from my hands. For a moment I was stunned. I thought our mailman had accidentally placed this package in the wrong mailbox. "This is yours?" I queried of my younger sister. "Yep," she replied, skipping out of the kitchen and off to the telephone (her permanent place of residence).

It is incomprehensible to me how my "little sister" could possibly be preparing for the SAT test. What happened to the kid with the pixie haircut, whose hand-me-down shorts used to fall somewhere between her knee and ankle? Can this almost 17year-old be the same little person who used to paint the whitewalls of my father's gold Toronado bright green and would stand at my bedroom door with pillow in hand after watching a "scary" movie?

For my sister, as well as millions of other high school juniors, two and-a-half hours this week will be devoted to scratching in little boxes on a grid sheet. Northville students were

The PSAT/NMSQT, sponsored by the College Board and National Merit Scholarship Corporation, is designed to measure each student's verbal and mathematical aptitude. Students taking the PSAT enter competition for scholarships administered by the Merit Scholarship Corporation and also get some idea of what the SAT will be like.

These exams not only reflect each student's academic skills - or lack of skills — but also qualifies academically talented 🐔 students for Merit Scholarships — which can amount to considerable financial assistance for the college-bound.

I find little difficulty in accepting the premise for which these exams are given. However, I am extremely bothered by a somewhat newfound aspect to these exams — the preparatory

Last week, I received a press realease from Oakland University announcing a "low cost preparatory workshop for the SAT." For a mere $65, "qualified instructors will analyze the mathematics section of the exams and carefully explain reading comprehension, sentence completion, analogues and anonymn sections as well as explain test-taking strategies and time-saving techniques."

What irks me about this entire test-taking preparation is that it discriminates against those students who cannot afford the luxury of preparing for THE exam - which could ultimately decide their future. Let's face it, for the high school kid working part-time at McDonald's, the $65 fee is hardly a drop in the bucket — in fact it's probably their entire paycheck.

In some ways I regard this whole prep-test business in the same category as cheating. If that's the case, it would be cheaper to pay a master's degree candidate to go in and take the

Tax 'difference' in car sale

By R. ROBERT GEAKE State Senator

It doesn't take a financial wizard to see it might be easier to sell cars where less of a buyer's money is involved. Despite the state's deplorable revenue situation, most of my colleagues in the Senate recently felt it was time to improve a facet of our sales tax structure.

Senate Bills 221 and 222 would make the cost of buying a car in Michigan somewhat less than it is now. Under these two bills the state would allow buyers of cars or boats to subtract the value of a trade-in vehicle before computing the four percent owed the state

With a $2,000 trade-in on a $10,000 new car, buyers would pay $320 in sales taxes (four percent of the $8,000 "difference"). Presently, such a transaction would cost the purchaser $400 (four percent of the gross purchase price, $10,000), regardless of the value of any trade-in vehicle.

Will sales tax on the difference make a difference in car sales inside the state of Michigan? Supporters of the bill point out that 33 other states already subtract trade-in value before computing sales tax, making the cost of buying a car in most of the United States less than it is here. Four states charge no sales tax at all.

That kind of tax structure puts

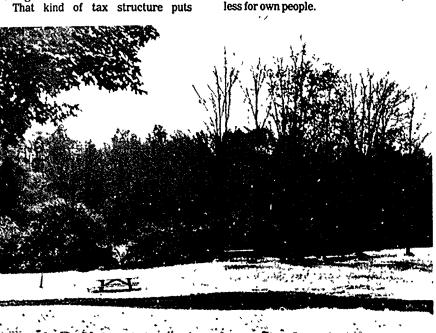

Michigan buyers and sellers at a disadvantage: the transaction costs a buyer more here and compounds sellers' dif-ficulty in a competitive market for the buyer's money. Sales tax on the "difference" was named the number one legislative priority of Micigan auto dealers this year. Over the past three years, new car/truck sales in this state dropped from more than 800,000 units in 1978 to 533,877 in 1980.

Since January 1, 1980, more than 104 dealers in the state have either gone out of business or transferred ownership. While the present sales tax structure on the gross purchase price is not considered the major contributing factor to these losses, it certainly does nothing to make the situation more conducive to a healthy business climate.

I supported Senate Bills 221 and 222. Even without taking into account the dsiastrous effects a huge unemployed populace has on remaining surviving businesses and taxpayers, we should at least allow our people and businesses a sales tax structure that doesn't add to their problems in a competitive economy.

Seventy percent of the population of the United State live in state where the sales tax, if applied at all, subtracts the trade-in value first. Can we afford to do less for own people.

But the couple in the bungalow was different.

They looked the same — older, of course and their voices stirred some forgotten memories. She wore the printed dress and a soiled apron out of the past that I remembered, and he, well, he wore slippers and suspenders that were as familiar as the stuffed sofa and chair and the paper-thin carpet that still decorated the living room.

But something was wrong.

A lifetime had passed since two boys, grown up together into their teens, said goodbye as one went the way of a giant moving van. It was the last they saw of each other until in 1952 the Army reunited them briefly before sending one to a place called Sobuk Mountain.

Now, many years later, I had hoped for find a couple with whom I could recall some pleasant memories. That they lived in the same house was a delightful surprise.

Equally surprising but disappointing was their reaction to my visit. They were cordial but would have none of the nostalgic discussion I tried to generate.

"Remember," I asked, "the tree house we: built out there by the garage? We read comio books up there, Jimmy and me, and flew our: kites from there."

"How are your parents?" they asked in: response.

"Fine," I said. "Your house still looks the same. Is Jimmy's darkroom still in the base." ment? Remember the vacation film we ruined for the Harts down he street?"

Oh, and how about that old phonograph; player we fixed up and played all the time? Is: it still here?"

You married?" they asked.

"Yes, we have six children. Say, isn't the a picture of Jimmy? Yup, that's him. What a great guy."

The silence was shattering.

And then she took the picture down from the wall, wiped it with her apron, and said, "No, this isn't Jimmy. It's his boy; he's grown now. He never saw his father." To the Editor:

The seven Leagues of Women Voters in Wayne County urge a "yes" vote for a county charter on November 3 to improve our county government. The charter provides a badly needed executive, a streamlined and truly legislative board of commissioners and strong financial controls.

Wayne County has long needed an executive. The one provided in the charter would give leadership, draw up and carry out the budget, and appoint the heads of all departments not directed by an elected department head.

There would be a streamlined legislative body - the commission with only 15 instead of the present 27 members. Their powers would include budget approval, confirmation of most appointments and approval of all contracts, thus setting up a check and balance system we do not now have.

The current $20 million deficit proves the need for financial controls. Charter requirements include a balanced budget, an annual audit by an outside CPA and the use of "generally accepted accounting practices."

. County tax increases without a vote of the people are forbidden.

State law requires that the two charter proposals face the voters on November 3. They are identical except that one provides for a county executive elected by the people, the other for a chief administrative officer chosen by the board of commissioners.

The proposals are presented as two separate ballot questions. You can vote yes or no, or abstain from voting on either or both. If both proposals pass, the one with the larger number of yes

The League of Women Voters has no position as to whether an elected or appointed executive would be better. Members believe that either is a vast improvement over the present system.

Nancy J. White, President LWV Northville, Plymouth, Canton, Novi

To the Editor:

On Tuesday, November 3, Northville city residents will have the opportunity to elect a mayor and three council members. Candidates for the mayor's position and the two four-year council terms are without opposition. Only the two-year council post has two candidates from which to choose.

Voter turnout for elections where there are few contested offices is often low. It is easy to forget to go to the polls when large numbers of candidates and/or issues are not vying for your attention. An election is your opportunity to express your opinion on issues confronting the citizens of the community.

While the League of Women Voters takes political action on a wide variety of governmental issues, it is firmly nonpartisan and it supports neither candidates nor political parties. The purpose of the League of Women Voters is to encourage active and informed participation of citizens in government. We urge you to study the candidates and issues, make your decision and vote on November 3. Your vote counts!

Nancy J. White President League of Women Voters Northville, Plymouth, Canton, Novi

To the Editor:

We, the members of the Northville Township Board of Trustees, wish to go on record in full support of the much-needed additional police millage which will appear on the local ballot November 3, 1981. Funding from state and federal revenue sharing are constantly being cut. We anticipate that these will see even further cuts in the next year. Our township and its services are funded by these revenues and the millage voted by the people of this community. Your concerns are our concerns. The health, safety and welfare of our residents are our highest priority.

You will also find the purchase of the Beck Road Reservoir as a ballot item for you as residents to vote on. The purchase of this reservoir is one dollar. For this dollar investment, it is the township's aim to hopefully purchase water at a lesser rate and store a water supply for the township in off hour pumping times. We feel this is to every resident's advantage.

On this November 3, 1381 ballot, you will also be voting for te Wayne County Charter and the official to guide this group. The members of the Northville Township Board of Trustees wholeheartedly support the proposed Wayne County Charter and further endorse the elected official.

Join school committee

Early in October, at the request of the school board, a citizens' committee was formed to study quality of education in Northville and to develop a framework within which present and future programs may be judged.

As funding becomes more and more difficult to obtain, it is increasingly important that we find ways to maintain an educational system which will guide our children toward responsible and productive lives.

To be successful in this endeavor, we must establish our educational them? priorities. The goal of the citizens' committee is to do just that.

The Citizens' Advisory Committee on Program Standards and Their Effectiveness will hold its second general meeting at 7:30 p.m. November 4 in the Old Village Board of Education meeting room (405 West Main Street).

The agenda will include a report from the sub-committee on the definition of Quality Education. Any citizens who are interested in education but were unable to attend the first meeting are encouraged to attend.

This is an excellent opportunity to have a voice in the direction our schools will take in the future.

Sincerely, Jeanne Parkinson Chairperson Citizens' Advisory Committee

Use all players, coach

As a parent of one of the Junior Varsity football players, I would like to express my — and other parents' — opinions about the coaching of the team.

It is becoming more and more obvious that the coaches have only a few chosen favorites who play in the games no matter how good or bad the game is

Oh, they can say they play everyone they can when it is obvious they are go-ing to win. How about the times their favorite first team" isn't doing the

Do they forget that maybe some of their players they relegate to second position may be able to do the job for

It seems a smart coach would use all his players to accomplish his goals. It sure becomes discouraging to those faithful players who practice all week in all kinds of weather to go to the games knowing they won't get a chance to play unless the other team is a pushover.

Coach, if you want continuous enthusiasm by all the players and support of the parents, wise up and use your team - not just your favorite few.

There is more to building character in youth than just winning all the games, because, as I see it, you're not doing that well at either one.

OLV says thanks

To the Editor:
On behalf of the Our Lady of Victory School PTO, we wish to express our heartfelt thanks to The Northville Record for the excellent coverage of the special guests who appeared at our school on October 9.

Your story allowed the community to meet the six "Kids on the Block" purpets and to learn how this presentation provided our students with a deeper insight and better understanding into the world of the handicapped in a very entertaining manner.

Our complments to Steve Fecht, the Record photographer, whose photos clearly captured the students' spontaneous delight with their new friends, 'Kids on the Block."

While examining every aspect of the ISE Program in detail, the administration discovered that the district was entitled to extra revenues in an amount of approximately $450,000 per year for the past three years. The district im-mediately amended its reports to the

The school district's auditing and legal firms were immediately contacted and a detailed review of the state auditor's findings was conducted. The board and the administraton became convinced that the state report was in error. Nearly $450,000 of the district's fund equity is due directly to this additional payment which is in dispute between the district and the state. For this reason the auditing firm has recommended that the district reserve that amount of the fund equity until the matter is completely settled.

The district is pressing the state for a resolution of this matter. The board has also discussed the possibility of having to go to court should the department of education fail to recognize legitimate expenditures. To date, the department has not acted on the matter since the appeal was filed. The district learned other important

Purchase of reservoir on township ballots

Northville Township is asking its purchase land without a vote of the peo-residents to authorize the expenditure ple. of a single dollar in balloting next Tues-

The dollar would complete the comsomity's purchase of a water reservoir on Beck Road south of Six Mile now owned by the city of Plymouth.

Earlier this year, the township water and sewer commission signed a 99-year lease on the two million gallon water tank and the three acres of land on

Paying $23,999 to add the facility to the township department's system was intended to help reduce water rates, or at least forestall future increases. By having water pumped from Detroit to the holding tank during off-peak hours, the department hopes to be able to negotiate lower water rates for residents.

Part of the lease agreement was an option to purchase the facility for one dollar any time during the lease period. Under state law, general law townships such as Northville are not allowed to

Therefore, Tuesday's proposal to authorize the expenditure of one dollar. The lease payment already has been made, out of a water and sewer department account. Law does not demand resident approval for leasing property.

Township water and sewer officials said they negotiated the agreement in the lease/option form because the city of Plymouth was amious to sell and would not have waited for the township to conduct an election on the issue.

Plymouth already has filed a deed transfer on the land, relinquishing its claim to the property, but it does not become official until the township accepts title, which it cannot legally do until the voters approve the purchase.

The reservoir needs some repairs before it becomes useable as intended, the department said when signing the lease, but no grave problems have been cited. Under the lease terms, the township has already accepted virtually all responsibility for the land, including insurance.

Mask making's Halloween treat

When you're five or six years old, making a Halloween mask can be about as much fun as trick or treating. Just ask the 15-20 little tykes who gathered at Northville Public library two weeks ago. All it takes is a styrofoam plate, a little orange and black paint, some colored paper, a few cotton balls and a wild imagination.

For the past three weeks, the Friends of the Northville Public Library have been sponsoring mask-making workshops for soon-to-be trick or treaters. Under the careful direction of instructors Ellen Wahi and Heather Fee, young participants have been busy constructing their own creations of

The little artists will have a chance to show off their masks this Saturday when they'll join hundreds of other ghosts and goblins venturing out on Halloween night. Record photos by John Galloway.

Q. My child has malocclusion, what does this mean?

A. Malocclusion occurs when the teeth come together im-properly when chewing, or put more simply, it's an uneven bite. The teeth "fight" each other for space in the mouth. Malocclusion can occur if a child inherits a small jaw and large teeth, or when the reverse is true. If a child sucks his thumb beyond age four, or loses his primary teeth too early an uneven bite can result. With treatment the condition can be improved or in some cases

Sister team to direct Mill Race Village docent corps

By JEAN DAY

"She's part of the reason we moved here," explained Alice Pooley as she and her sister Marian Roller assumed co-leadership of the Mill Race Docents at the potluck luncheon which ended the season last Wednesday. They took over from Helen Maki and Dorothea Shafer who have headed the group for the past two years.

The new heads will be assisted by Jewel Luckett. Incoming secretary is Margo Keihfuss, a newcomer to the community who has been volunteering as a docent this year.

Marianne Heaton is continuing as social chairman.

The Docents (who guide visitors through the Mill Race on Sundays from 1-4 p.m. and on special tours) ended the volunteer service for the season last Sunday. There now are more than 50 Docents, but Mrs. Pooley is intending to recruit other volunteers before the village opens in the spring. Next season the Wash-Oak Schoolhouse also will be open and will require an additional guide on duty.

A special guest at last week's luncheon was Genevieve Valrance of Redford Presbyterian Village. She was the guest of her granddaughter Judy Kohl, who explained she had come as her "heirloom." Other members had brought quilts, family photographs and antique jewelry as heirlooms

Mrs. Pooley brought her houseguest Norah Bryant, now a resident of Fort Pierce, Florida, as a surprise for retiring chairman Helen Maki. She and Mrs. Bryant had been neighbors 16 years ago.

In appreciation of their service Mrs. Maki and Mrs. Shafer were presented with framed sketches of the Mill Race New School Church and gazebo respectively. They were the work of Northville artist Caroline Dunphy. Dotty Shafer, who also is an artist, said she is "especially pleased" because she has taken lessons from Mrs. Dunphy.

Stephens family endorses B & Bs

Carl and Pearl Stephens with daughter Mary returned last week from a five-week visit in England and Scotland and enthusiastically endorse both "bed and breakfast" accommodations and the BritRail pass that enabled them to travel without restrictions everywhere in England and Scotland for three weeks.

St. Andrew's, Scotland, they stayed with the Hubert Allan family where their son and his wife, Carl and Karen Stephens, had had B & B last year. Their host actually took a day off, Mrs. Stephens recounts, to give them "the castle tour." At Glamis Castle they glimpsed the Queen Mother riding off with two friends.

They met three cousins of Mrs. Stephens as they toured Bath and York and Peterborough Cathedral,—"where Mum used to sing as a young girl." At Michaelmas Fair, a festival celebrated September 29 in honor of the archangel Michael, the visitors were given a traditional two pence piece to bring back to Peter Denton Stephens, a descendant of former resident Joe Denton, who had emigrated to the United States from the community.

The council also discussed laws pertaining to student transportation and the supervision of elementary playgrounds. Our next meeting will be held at 9:30 a.m. November 19 at Winchester School.

The November lobby showcase will feature items for sale in the December 4 Children's Holiday Shoppe. Parents should make time to review the items with their children and write a list of possible gifts the children will be purchasing. No other preview will be scheduled.

The Silver Springs PTA is conducting the annual membership drive with Kathy Reavy as chairperson. Forms are available in the school office. Membership is $1.50 per person. This year, Kathy reports, the classrooms are conducting a contest to see who can get the most memberships. The winning classroom will receive a field trip of students' choice to be paid for by the PTA. So far, Mrs. Roccoon's class is Newsletter which will be going home leading the drive.

The PTA has announced sponsorship of a Silver Springs Girl Scout troop and its future sponsorship of Cub Scout Pack 902. Parents with children interested in Girl Scout membership should call Baro Ibach at 349-5894 Those interested in Cub Scouts should call Barb Siavrakas at 348-6108.

The Campbell Soup Label Drive is gearing up in each classroom. During November the children are selecting the athletic equipment they would like for their classrooms to be purchased with the labels they bring in. Each classroom may purchase any equipment for which it has sufficient labels.

September's orientation for new Silver Springs parents was a success with most new parents participating. They toured the school and met many of the PTA officers and Silver Springs teachers. They were given a fine opportunity to discuss school policies and current school projects.

Likewise, the first roller skating night was a huge success with more than 300 persons in attendance. The next roller skating event will be held during the winter months.

This year's Open House received the best response ever from both parents and teachers. A potluck dinner was held for students and parents. Students watched movies in the Roundell while their parents visited the classrooms and discussed the school curriculum with

WINCHESTER

According to Winchester parents, students and faculty, the Family Open House held September 24 in conjunction with the Cub Scout Round-up was a great success. Students enthusiastically prepared for the evening by practicg the procedure for introducing their parents to faculty members. Attendance was excellent. An interesting highlight of the evening was the demonstration of a video cassette recorder similar to the one recently purchased for the school by the Winchester PTA.

Winchester warmly welcomes Arlene Fravne as new PTA vice president. PTA Committee Chairpersons Virginia Hosmer, Karen Groves, Barbara Weix and Cookie Kuperus are hard at work preparing for the upcoming Pizza Supper - Silent Auction - Bake Sale to be held from 5:30-7:30 p.m. November 5 at Winchester. The Pizza Supper menu will feature pepperoni pizza, tossed salad, a beverage and an ice cream treat. Additional homemade goodies will be available for purchase at the bake sale, and the silent auction will offer all the opportunity to bid by sealed envelope on the particular items which strike their fancy. Winchester families are being asked to donate a craft item or desirable "white elephant" for the anction. Everyone is invited to join us for a delightful evening.

Recent elections were held to fill Student Council positions. Those chosen to represent their classrooms were: Stephen Brining, Becky Nawrot, Chris Lehr, Karen Cavanaugh, Bill Kelley, Brian Walker, Matt Sepos, Julie Stoeckel, Pat Moylan, Becky Frayne, Kris Abita, Tom Whelan, Chris Anderson, Nanci Dutkiewicz and Scott Holcomb.

Selected as alternates were: Josh Wiegand, Kathy Gesdorf, Jennifer Tucker, Aaron Frankel, Karen Pearson, Jenny Lotarksi, Pretti Bagga. Hugh Jordan, Kristy Spade, Mike Karfis, Joe McCartney, Mark Dozier, Mindi Huber, Scott Howell and Julie Belanger. One of the first items on their agendas is the selection of colors for Winchester School.

Halloween is being celebrated at Winchester with the usual costumes and greatly enjoyed classroom parties. We would especially like to stress safety and caution during this holiday period.

Cooke's first Homecoming Spaghetti Dinner was a lot of fun. Our PTA thanks everyone in the community who participated in the evening's activities. Hopefully, however, next year's attendance will be better.

Mrs. Dorothea Bach's seventh grade English classes will be attending a special performance of "Frankenstein" today at the high school. They will read and discuss the play as part of their classroom assignment. Donations for the tickets will be given to the high school drama department.

In celebration of Halloween, the PTA will be selling eider and doughnuts at the close of the school day this Friday. Mary Weaver and Syrita Gosinski will be in charge of this fun event.

The PTA will be sponsoring a Book Fair November 17. All proceeds from the fair will be donated to Cooke's English Department. Persons interested in volunteering for the fair can call chairpersons Sharon Wayne at 349-7643 or Donna Forte at 349-8267.

Inflation Investing

New investors often find investment terminology a very large obstacle to their own money. The technical terms confuse. The general semantics confound. And misunderstandings cause headaches to be substituted for head-

Time and experience perform their usual healing miracles in such matters — if the investor survives that long. But great gaps of ignorance often persist and they can plague investors to an early portfolio graveyard.

One term above all others stands out as especially thorny. Its precise meaning is rarely grasped and its implications almost always evade clear understanding. It describes the single most important element in any investment. When it is finally addressed only rarely does it receive the priority it deserves. The term is "risk!" In investment parlance, it means the possibility of loss of principal, conceivably all of it. Risk obviously is the unpleasant aspect of any investment opportunity considered. Investors, naturally enough, like to put the issue aside and spend their evaluative moments on the ther side of the risk coin, "reward" how much money can be made!

Those offering the investments ideas for consideration also tend to dwell on the positive side, and to skirt the negative. After all, risk is a clear reason not to invest. If the matter gets emphasized too much, the investor may be frightened, slip his checkbook back into his pocket and look for the nearest exit. Result: no order. No business.

Hard-eyed successful investors of our acquaintance, however, start with the risk issue first, no matter what the distraction, and keep it uppermost in their thinking at all times. Only after they are satisfied that the possibility of loss is a controllable, manageable and minimal factor do they proceed, and even then very cautiously.

That's why most investment handbooks that deal with the subject of success when they start out managing prudence (another confusing term) advise new investors to make their first commitments in the most conservative investments available and to concentrate in this area until they fully understand what can happen to invested dollars (and investors) that end up on a speculative sinking ship.

Conservative, risk-conscious investing, then, means, starting out with so-called "fixed dollar" investments. Just so there's no misunderstanding of this subject, "fixed dollar" investments terminate with the same number of dollars that they start with. They include such pedestrian, but safe, items as bonds (only the high grade ones, of course), savings accounts, certificates of deposit, annuities, etc. If held to full term, the investor gets back the same number of bucks he put up in the first place, plus, of course, whatever interest income was agreed upon - in ad-

Never mind what inflation can do to your dollars while they are so invested. At the moment we're concentrating on one thing only - keeping your principal safe and sound.

After fixed dollar investments are fully appreciated the investor might (underscore "might", please) be ready for a little more risk. Enter big, bold equities. Equities represent that which involves ownership and all the risks and rewards that go with such ownership. It includes real estate, a business partnership, or more commonly, common stocks. Even so-called collectibles fall in this category.

Needless to say, lots of things can happen to equities and some of them are bad, very bad. That's why the subject of risk must be so carefully addressed in this area

By PHILIP JEROME Anyone who says "there are no simple solutions" for Michigan's economic woes, just isn't telling it like it is.

There are simple solutions. The hard part is convincing the state legislature to pass them into law.

That was the message that came across loud and clear when representatives of the Michigan Alliance on Small Business (MASB) addressed members of the Walled Lake Action Committee recently.

The Walled Lake group is a branch of the Lakes Area Chamber of Commerce. David Bacci, who is head of the MASB's Oakland County delegation, told the local businessmen that the sources of Michigan's economic downturn, as well as the solutions for rectifying them, are already well known.

All that remains to be done, he added, is to bring pressure to bear on Michigan's legislators to make sure the proposed solutions are carried out.

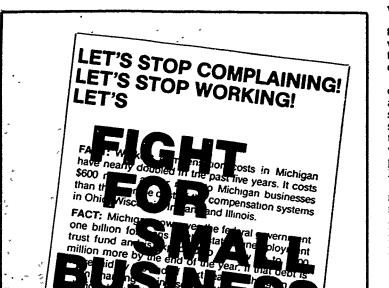

The Michigan Alliance on Small Business is one of the major products to come out of the Michigan Conference on Small Business in May.

The conference traced its roots to the White House Conference for Small Business which was held last year in Washington, D.C. Buoyed by the success of the White House conference, the leadership of the Michigan delegation proposed to Governor Milliken that a Michigan Conference on Small Business be held.

Michigan conference was held in May with almost 1,500 small businessmen from across the state in attendance and registering their concerns. Delegates at the Michigan conference were directly involved in the formal and adoption of more than 60 key points which they felt were badly needed for small business. Fifteen of those points were then identified as the key areas in need of change.

Milliken approved the idea and the

The formation of the MASB may well-be the most important thing to come out of the conference, however, since it is the vehicle charged with making certain that the recommendations are converted into legislation.

The purpose of the MASB," Bacci told the Lakes Area businessmen last week, "is to make sure that the work of the conference does not go down the drain.'

Bacci also said the MASB has a unique advantage in pressing for political action: because of the way the group is structured and due to the fact that small businesses are found throughout the state, the MASB has the wherewithall to establish a direct pipeline with every member of the Michigan legislature.

Paul Hense, MASB chairperson, notes that the key to bringing about needed legislative changes is "to unify a force of small business persons across Michigan who can force the state's lawmakers and bureaucrats to honor their verbal commitments to improve the small business climate."

Although less than six months old, the MASB has already taken several steps to that end. Specifically, the organiza-

- · opened an office in Lansing across the street from the capitol;
- hired a lobbyist who will spearhead efforts to hold legislators to their verbal commitments;
- hired a Lansing-based public relations firm which will put its full resources behind the effort to establish the MASB as the loudest and most articulate voice for the small business segment of the economy; and
- extracted the commitment of several government leaders to assist the group meets its goals. For example, the governor has assigned new Commerce Director Norton Berman to be his liaison to the organization.

The MASB also is conducting a talent search to find an aggressive administrative director to coordinate its

Interest rates cited for bank losses

Citing continued high interest rates as a major factor, Chairman Dean E. Richardson of Manufacturers National Corporation has reported a net loss of 54 9 million for the third quarter of 1981.

"The loss results primarily from continued high interest rates resulting in severe pressure on the net interest margin and an imbalance between the corporation's rate sensitive assets and habilities," said Richardson in announcing the third quarter loss.

"High interest rates have had a particularly negative impact upon the corporation because of its large residential mortgage and consumer portfolio," he added.

Approximately half of the corporation's loan port-folio is invested in fixed-rate installment loans and residential mortgages, many of which were made years ago at the lower prevailing rates at the time.

The loss results primarily from continued high interest rates resulting in severe pressure on the net interest margin and an imbalance between the corporation's rate sensitive assets and liabilities.

> Dean Richardson, chairman Manufacturers National

Richardson said the corporation traditionally has relied upon regular savings deposits as a primary funding source.

However, he continued, this has become a more expensive, less reliable source as customers are increasingly investing in higher interest bearing accounts, such as NOW accounts, Money Market Time deposits and money market funds.

The rate for Money Market Time deposits, for example, reached a historic high of 16.104 percent in August. Partly as a result of high rates, the growth of the corporation's rate-sensitive liabilities, primarily short-term certificates of deposit, has outpaced the growth of rate-sensitive assets, comprised mostly of commercial loans and securities maturing within one year. The purchase of federal funds, which was increased earlier this year to offset the decline in regular savings deposits, was reduced during the third quarter. Instead, certificates of deposit were used as a funding source to provide some insulation against future interest rate increases and to partially lengthen the maturity of the corporation's liabilities, Richardson said.

While interest rates began to descend during the third quarter, a sustained decline is required to relieve pressure on the interest margin. The Money Market Time deposits, which continued at a high cost for most of the quarter, are a major component of the interest expense.

Richardson said these deposits are expected to diminish somewhat as a result of the introduction of the All Savers Certificates on October 1. These certificates have a lower yield, but offer tax advantages which should result in a shift in some Money Market Time deposits.

As a result of the earnings decline and the level of tax-exempt income, Richardson said Manufacturer's National Corporation has not been able to absorb all available tax benefits. Therefore, the credit for applicable income taxes during the third quarter was reduced to $1.9 million, compared to a credit of $2.3 million for the second quarter.

"The corporation's earnings decline results primarily from a problem in the spread between interest income and interest expense," Richardson explained. "Both our consumer and commercial loan portfolios are sound and of high quality.

'Net loan charge-offs were $5.7 million for the first nine months of 1981, compared to $7.3 million a year ago. Non-performing assets are at .67 percent, compared to .72 percent on September 30, 1980.

"Using either of these measures, the corporation compares favorably with other bank holding companies," said the chairman.

Richardson said more stringent criteria for credit card, installment loan and residential mortgage applications will continue to be applied as long as the cost of funds remains high.

"A return to lower interest rates and resolution of the 'due on sale' clause issue should increase home sales and the opportunity to refinance homes at current mortgage levels," he continued. "During the third quarter, Manufacturers Bank introduced an adjustable rate mortgage which enables mortgage rates to increase or decrease, based upon a national index. "Also, we will continue our advocacy efforts in Lansing to remove the statutory interest rate ceiling on consumer loans. 'The control of operating expenses continues and has enabled the corporation to keep non-interest expense increases below the level of inflation in the Detroit area. The cost containment efforts will continue until more favorable interest margins are achieved, providing the foundation for future corporate profitability."

Realtors direct training efforts at energy-conservation needs costs are becoming increasingly important factors in the home resale market, so local Realtors are working to become expert energy conservation advisors.

Workman's 'comp' laws head list of needed reforms

"No simple solutions" to Michigan's economic woes?

Such a statement is simply not true, according to the Michigan Alliance of Small Businesses (MASB) — an organization formed to implement the recommendations that came out of the Michigan Conference on Small Business earlier this year in Lansing.

The problems plaguing Michigan's economy are well known, they contend. The problem is convincing state legislators to enact laws to solve them.

So what are the "simple solutions" to the state's economic plight? Fifteen major problems - and proposed solutions — were identified by the delegates to the Michigan Conference on Small Business And right at the top of the list is Worker's Compensation which costs six to eight times as much in Michigan as it does in the so-called Sun Belt states.

Workers Compensation costs in Michigan average $3.60 per hundred compared with the national average of $1.50 per hundred.

Among the Workers Compensation reforms being requested by MASB are that compensation be specified according to the particular loss of an organ and/or the extent of an injury. The qualification test for a specific loss or injury also shall recognize the ability to correct that loss or injuries.

Additionally, the MASB is asking that all injuries be evaluated by physicians who agree to be objective and nondiscriminatory in determining the cause and extent of any alleged injuries, that an employee's total health environment be permissible evidence in determining cause and arbitrating claims and that worker's disability compensation benefits not be granted for ordinary diseases caused by nonwork related factors.

The MASB also is asking that the small businessman be permitted to produce as proof a pre-employment physical and not be responsible for preexisting conditions.

To help fight alleged abuses of the Workers Compensation laws, the MASB has asked that:

 a reasonable, effective time limit be placed on the filing of claims so that all parties have the opportunity to prosecute or defend themselves;

· benefits not be paid to retired persons who are currently not in the labor claims arising from disabilities resulting from the normal aging pro-cess not be charged against the workers' compensation system; and

· a person not be classified as a dependent of a claimant unless that person is directly related to the clai-

A second area in which reforms are badly needed, according to the MASB, is Unemployment Compensation. Proposed reforms are aimed at tightening the eligibility process, reducing benefit levels, increasing minimum earning requirements and amending the Michigan Employment Security Act to increase the MESC's ability to recover improperly paid benefits.

Specifically, the proposed reforms would eliminate the MESC's discretionary power to waive the "seeking work" requirements and would require claimants to show tangible evidence of their efforts to find work.

Additionally, proposed reforms would redefine "suitable work" as any work and require claimants to accept a wage compatible to a position offered.

Although reform of the Workers Compensation and Unemployment Compensation rules rate first and second on the MASB's list of reforms needed to improve Michigan's economic climate, not be taxed. they are not the only reforms and recommendations made by the ganization. -

Other recommendations which came from the Conference on Small Business

 ABOLISH the Single Business Tax (SBT) and enact a business income tax. Under the proposal, the business income tax would be calculated on federal taxable income and the first later than Decemb $50,000 of federal taxable income would MASB's proposal.

· ENACT "sunset review" legislation to force a complete review of all regulations and regulatory agencies. The proposal calls for the governor to appoint a special commission, which includes representatives of small business, to review all present regulations and regulatory agencies. Unless it is determined that the regulation is justified, it would be terminated no later than December 31, 1983, under the small businesses. The incentives should take the form of a tax abatement on that portion of the firm's assets and income located in Michigan and derived from loans to or investments in Michigan small

• ESTABLISH as a priority of public policy the intent of creating an attractive business and job climate in Michigan. The recommendation calls for the executive, legislative and judicial branches of government to note that the future of Michigan's economic development lies with the future of its small businesses

'The intimidation and insensitivity of government toward small business must cease," states the MASB. "The elimination of the single business tax, establishing a right to work law, and worker's compensation and unemployment compensation laws that place Michigan in a competitive position with other states are required immediately.

• ENCOURAGE women in business by encouraging and enforcing state and federal equal credit opportunity laws, auditing and monitoring bank lending amounts and practices with women business owners and educating banking boards and commissions about women business owners.

 REQUIRE public education instituand assist small business education as an educational foundation for a career

Such education, says the MASB, should begin early and continue throughout the student's course of education.

Further, the MASB calls for Small Business Advisory Councils to be established at the community and fouryear college levels to develop curricula by the small business sector which will provide for the information and assistance needed to meet specific business problems and business educational needs of the small business entrepreneur.

 PASS and implement a Michigan "Right to Work Law." State-funded in-dustries, municipalities, schools, agencies or departments should not be in direct competition with or furnish goods or services available through competitive private enterprise.

• ENACT legislation to provide tax credits to individuals or companies who provide investment capital or award contracts to minority-owned firms.

The recommendation also calls for the state to implement tax relief programs to insure tax abatement for small and minority-owned businesses.

• STIMULATE Michigan's export growth potential by establishing a separate division in state government for export development within the Department of Commerce to provide one-stop export assistance to small business for all products and services.

· REIMBURSE small business people from the regulating agency's tions throughout the state to promote budget for legal fees and court costs incurred in combating a wrongly-issued Common stocks are good examples of equities because there are plenty of them, they're easy to analyze (at least, there's plenty of information and opinion available, they're easy to follow (daily quotations), and they're easy (and inexpensive) to buy and sell (liquid).

Textbook rule of thumb for keeping equity risk low (it ain't easy!): buy big, conservative blue chip companies. That assures (but does not guarantee) survival, at least. It also enhances the prospects for reward (capital gains) with risk at manageable Conservative investors should stop right here. Many successful portfolios never go beyond the risk levels proscribed by ownership of high grade bonds and stocks. True enough, overnight wealth is not achieved by such an investment course.

But risk is contained and risk is the mortal adversary that buries most investors, especially early in the game. Many investors, we realize, find such conservatism too boring for their investment taste. Their appetites run to more exciting gambols, like penny stocks, two dollar windows and casino gaming tables. So be it. We wish them the very best.

As for us, and as for most investors, we believe risk should be confined to a remote corner of the portfolio backyard. If we happen to find any extra bucks left over after that, we might run down to Atlantic City ourselves, just to see what happens when risk is ignored. We think we know!

Northville harriers race to conference title

By JOHN MYERS

Almost running true to form, the Nor-Piville boys cross country team edged past Livonia Churchill to win its fifth Western Six Conferece title last week Tuesday at Walled Lake Western.

The Mustangs nipped Churchill for the championship by four points, 37-41, with host Western placing third with 50 points. Plymouth Canton and Farmington Harrison placed fifth and sixth, respectively.

The big three of Clark Couyoumjian, cott Dayton and Dave Malinowski went 1-2-3, respectively, at the league with a 18:57 clocking. meet, and a strong run by Rick Getzen In the boys junior v. helped seal the victory for Northville.

Getzen claimed 13th place, which Gabrys said one of his runners had to do in order to win the meet, with a time of 18:44. "It was his best performance of the year," Gabrys praised.

Couyoumjian won the meet with a time of 17:04, while Dayton was second at 17:24 and Malinowski third at 17:35. All three were named to the All League

Jim O'Neill was the fifth Northville runner and 18th overall across the line

In the boys junior varsity race, Frank Gonda was first with a time of 19:15, but Northville took third behind champ Western and runner up Churchill.

However, things did not go as well as Mustang coach Ed Gabrys would have liked at the regional meet Saturday at the Cass Benton course.

Northville placed sixth at the meet, but might have been able to tie for third if one of its runners had not suffered a stomach cramp part way through the five kilometer race.

cramp after the one mile mark in the race and was unable to maintain his position among the top runners.

Instead, Malinowski was the last Northyille runner to cross the finish line in a time of 18:58. The senior runner was being counted on by Gabrys to place among the top 10, which might have helped Northville gain the third-place

"It's one of those things," Gabrys said.

Brighton won the regional. Redford Union was second with Howell and Churchill tied for third. Detroit Catholic Central was fifth and Northville was Howell was awarded third by virtue of a better placing by its sixth-place runner than Churchill's. Howell, along with Brighton and Redford Union, will compete at the state meet Saturday in

However, Couyoumjian and Dayton will be competing in an individual state meet race Saturday. Couyoumjian was second overall at the regional with a time of 16:53, while Dayton was 13th with a 17:18 clocking. "He (Conyoumjian) was capable of winning the race," Gabrys said. He added Couyoumjian has been battling a cold which has slowed him down. Two sophomores turned in good times which has Gabrys pleased for the future of the Mustang cross country team.

O'Neill was the 42nd overall and third Northville runner to finish with a time of 18:13 and Doug Doyle was right behind at 18:34 for 64th place.

Getzen and Gonda each came across the line together in a time of 18:41 to round out the scoring for Northville.

On the girls' side, Kim Assenmacher will be joining Couyoumjian and Dayton at the state meet. She qualified when she took 12th place with a time of 21:20

Other runners competing at the regional were Kelly Wool (23:31), Margie Wojcicki (24:21), Karen Sledz (25:00) and Jill Carmichael (26:14).

The only other meet for the girls was the W-Six league meet in which the Mustangs took third behind champ Churchill and runner-up Western.

Assenmacher was eighth with a time of 22:56 which placed her on the All League second team. Wool was next at 23:45 and she was followed by Wojcicki (24:27), Sledz (25:49) and Carmichael

There was junior varsity boys reserve race for the Mustangs Friday with 10 teams competing.

Jim Willoughby was eighth with a 18:18 clocking. Kurt Assenmacher and Paul Smith both were next at 19:39. They were followed by Brian Mance (20:01), Mark Olgern (20:12) and Scott Thompson (21:04).

Colt gridders relish chance to play in Silverdome

By JOHN MYERS

There were not 80,000 screaming fans at the Silverdome in Pontiac Sunday night. Just a couple of hundred fans scattered around two sections.

It was not the Detroit Lions playing against another team for a special Sunday edition of ABC's "Monday Night Football."

Rather it was the Northville/Novi Colts football team battling against the Romulus Flyers in a contest played in the den of the Detroit Lions-the Silver-

For most of the players on the freshmen, junior varsity and varsity Colts team, it was a "once-in-alifetime" chance to play on the same field as such Lion heros as running backs Billy Sims and Dexter Bussey and defensive end Bubba Baker.

What made the evening more enjoyable was the varsity blanked Romulus, 12-0, and the junior varsiy rolled to a 36-12 triumph. The only damper for the evening was the freshmen losing another tight ballgame, 7-0.

However, that did not take away from the thrill and excitement from playing in the Silverdome for the coaches and

For some of the these kids, this will be the end of their football careers and they may never have another chance like this the rest of their lives," varsity coach Mike Taschner said.

"This is something they will remember the rest of their lives," junior varsity coach Ralph Larraza said. "I wish I could have gotten into the game."

Boring said it really did not strike the team at the start of the season it would be playing in the Silverdome. But, when the time came, he said the kids became real excited.

The whole affair was set up through the work of Colt coaches Taschner and Ed Stephens.

The idea to play a game in the Silverdome was brought to the attention of the board of directors last year, Taschner said.

He then contacted the public relations department at the Silvedome to see what was available and for how much.

It was determined playing after a slippery Mustang field. Waterford used a ball control offense in the second half and scored two touchdowns late in the game to hand Northville its fourth loss against three wins this season.

"It's hard to compare because we have not played any common opponents, From what I have seen from scouting them, they like to throw the ball," he explained.

One thing Colligan noted his team must do is stop the opponents in the second half, especially in the fourth "We have to start playing complete

The Mustangs have been outscored "Their (Warren) record is a little /46-0 in the fourth quarter by their op-deceiving," said Colligan, who noted ponents in the last four ball games.

"That is something we need to improve," Colligan said.

Colligan noted Waterford made good on three fourth down conversions in the second half.

Also hurting the Mustangs were turnovers. Northville threw five interceptions, while the Skippers did not commit a single turnover.

The first half was an even game between the two squads with Kinkade scoring four seconds into the second quarter. Waterford scored a two-points conversion on a pass into the endzone after a bad snap from center on the extra point try.

Northville's Chris Dimitroff scored the lone Northville touchdown on a 68yard jaunt. Northville would knock on the scoring door again in the first half,

Mustangs fall short in defending W-Six tennis title

No "miracles" came Northville's Risiott and Mary Jo Estman, 6-2 and 6way to aid hopes of capturing another Western Six Conference girls tennis championship last week Tuesday.

Northville tennis coach Uta Filkin said her team "needed a miracle" at the Western Six Conference meet at Plymouth Canton if it had any hopes of winning the league title. Farmington Harrison had a commanding point lead over the Mustangs heading into the league match. ·

The miracle never materialized and instead the netters took runner-up honors in the league behind champion Farmington Harrison, whom the Mustangs, tied for first in the league match last week Tuesday at Canton.

Northville had entered the match needing Harrison to fall flat on its face, but no such luck.

Both the Mustangs and Hawks tied for the league meet title with 14 points; and because Harrison won the dual meet title and Northville was third, the Hawks won the overall league championship.

"I think we did as well as we could," Mustang coach Uta Filkin said. Everybody made the finals and either won or lost.

Northville's number-two and -three doubles teams were the only champions of the afternoon.

Jean DuSablon and Jill Stevens won ... the number-two title with a straight 6-1 set victories over Walled Lake Western's Sue Humble and Colleen It-

Montgomery and Nicols had to make a comeback in their second-round match against Western's Bev Guthrie and Laurie Kiffner, 4-6, 6-4 and 6-2, for a shot at the title.

Three singles players from Northville took home second-place honors.

Marnie Dillow lost in the finals to Harrison's Kelly Davidson, 6-1 and 6-0. To reach to championship match, Dillow downed Canton's Chris Harrison in straight 6-2 sets.

Sheri Robins lost the number-two finals match to another Hawks' player, Joel Lukafiewicz, 6-2 and 6-0. Robins made the finals when she defeated Canton's Lori Smith, 6-2 and 6-1, for the first time this season

At number three, Gail Engelmeyer took the runner-up slot when she lost to Harrison's Sherisse.Berk, 6-2 and 6-1. Engelmeyer made the title match when she beat Western's Lise Roselle, 1-6, 6-1 and 6-3.

"It was a nice comeback. We needed that one," Filkin said.

The Northville player not able to reach the finals was Holly Hubbard at number-four singles. Hubbard lost her second-round match to Harrison's Teresa Moehl, 6-1 and 6-3. All of Northville's players had received first-round byes in the league match.

"I think we did quite well. Obviously. I was hoping to win the league, but it all boils down to really one little match during the whole season," Filkin said.

Cagers gain two league victories

Using a come-from-behind effort in the second half, the Northville girls baskethall team woo its eighth game of the year with a 35-36 verdict over Western Six Conference rival Livonia Churchill Thursday.

The home court Mustang victory helped gain revenge against the Chargers, who had nipped Northville by one point, 50-49, earlier this

Also, Northville won another W-Six league game last week Tuesday when it downed rival Walled Lake Western, 48-39, in a home contest. The wins gave Northville a modest two-game winning streak and the Mustangs have now won four of their last five ballgames.

The schedule gets rougher for Northville as the Mustangs played Livonia Stevenson on the road Tuesday night and head to Plymouth Canton Thursday night. Northville will be looking to improve upon its 8-4 overall record and 3-2 league record. Trailing by seven at the half, 19-12, the Mustangs came out pressing against Churchill and outscored the Chargers 23-11 over the final two

Coach Gene Wagner said his squad played the game without its best player, Jacque Nixon, who was hurt in the Western game, but as he put it, "we took the bull by the horns."

"They left a little apprehensive at the start, but they did a super job,"

Melinda House had a strong game in the second half as she continually drove inside for the shot or would dump passes off to Melissa McDaniel or Tracy Wilkinson, who returned to action after sitting out a couple of games with a broken finger.

House scored 11 of her 13 points in the second half and eight of them came in the final period. McDaniel added 16 points, while Wilkinson had six, Marge Muller four and Denise Liddle two.

We only shot 27 percent from the field, but we had our least amount of turnovers in a game, 16, and that really helped." Wagner said.

Also, Wagner noted the defensive job Wilkinson and House did on Churchill's two best players, who had helped defeat Northville the first time

Wagner said his team only pressed in the second half due to the fact he only has seven players at his disposal, and he has to be careful his players

Mustang swimmers lead conference race

When one analyzes the Northville girls swim team's overall record a little bit closer, the results should not be too surprising.

After dunking Western Six Conference rival Livonia Churchill, 55-28, last Thursday, the Mustangs moved their overall record to 3-4-1.

But, the win over Churchill was third in league action without a defeat and it avenged an earlier 85-all tie Northville had with Churchill.

Northville had another league meet Tuesday night againt W-Six rival Plymouth Canton and faces Farmington Harrison Thursday night. The Mustangs have beaten both teams, but face each squad in their opponents' home pool.

Coach Bill Dicks said both meets will be close, but having to swim in the six-lane pools of their opponents is a disadvantage to his 11-girl squad for one reason — depth.

Even though Northville could win every event, it could still lose the meet so long as the other team took the remaining places due to the scoring Depth is what hurt Northville in its tie with Churchill at the Chargers' home pool the first time, but not in the Mustangs' home waters.

Just as the squad had done against Churchill before, Northville won eight of 11 events, but because Northville has only a four-lane pool, the point system worked in its favor.

Kathy Bainbridge was the only Mustang to claim two individual wins against Churchill. She was first in the 50-yard freestyle and 100-yard butterfly.

Other individuals taking firsts were Holly Sellen in the 200-yard freestyle, Vicki Grice in the 100yard freestyle, Kim Thompson in the 100-yard backstroke and Tisha Johnson in diving.

The 200-yard medley relay team of Khris Korowin, Linda Shott, Trish Settles and Bainbridge and the 400-yard freestyle relay team of Sellen. Korowin, Grice and Thompson took firsts.

Claiming second places in the meet were Grice in the 200-yard freestyle, Korowin in the 50-yard freestyle, Thompson in the 100-yard butterfly, Sellen in the 100-yard backstroke and Peggy Herald in the 100-yard freestyle.

${m Lewis}$ wins football contest

For the second time this year, the winner of the weekly football contest missed perfection by one game.

Greg Lewis and Derek Osborne each picked 16 winners of a possible 18, but Lewis was awarded the $10 first prize by virtue of his closer guess on the total score tie-breaker. Both Lewis and Osborne are Northville residents.

The only game Lewis missed was Minnesota's upset of Iowa, while Osborne, who took the $5 second prize, missed Illinois' upset of Wisconsin. Both men, as well as all contestants, fell victim to the Harvard/Princeton game which ended in a 17-

There was a real battle for the $3 third prize as 16 contestants picked 15 winners: Farmington Hills' has a S. Paul Zuby survived the tie-breaker as he missed (24.) the correct total points scored in the Southern California/Norte Dame clash by three.

Surprisingly, 21 people thought Illinois would upset Wisconsin, while only four contestants figured Minnesota would upend Iowa. Fourteen people thought Notre Dame would beat Southern California.

In all, 11 people picked 14 winners, 14 had 13 correct and 10 had 12 winners.

Milne one of few state youths to receive standardbred horse

By JOHN MYERS

Brian Milne was determined not to make a mistake the second time around as he hoped again to obtain a standardbred foal to be donated through a program by the Michigan Standardbred Breeders Association and state 4-H clubs.

Last year, the 16-year-old Northville youth was denied an opportunity to receive a standerardbred because of mistake he made in filling out the application

This year, he asked his 4-H leader, Gail Davison, to make sure everything was correct on his application. Also, Novi's Joe Gatheri wrote Milne a letter of recommendation which proved useful, Milne said.

It must have been - because he was one of 25 Michigan 4-H members to receive a year-old standardbred in the 1981-82 4-H Standardbred Horse Production project. He also was one of four Oakland county youths to be selected.

Milne went to Shiawassee Farm in Durand October 17 to participate in a draw for the horse he would be handling for the next year.

His name was the first one chosen. Milne then received the first crack to draw a number for his horse, and the Incly winner was Shiarray Shilling.

It was the 4H leaders and county youth agents throughout the state who nominated youngsters, and state
4-H officials made the final selection in late summer.

Milne said he received a form in the mail, had to draw a picture of his family's farm and fill out an application for the job stating his background in horses and why he wanted to do this project.

"I want to get more into standardbred," Milne explain-

Milne will raise the horse for one year and then sell Shiaway Shilling at an auction in Adrian late next summer. He will receive one-third of the sale price after expenses with the remainder going to Shiawasse Farms.

Working with horses is nothing new (or Milne. He has been around horses since a child and he enjoys what he

Waterford downs jayvee gridders

If statistics could win a ballgame, the Northville junior varsity football team might have an undefeated season. As was the case again last Thursday, the Mustang gridders won the statistical battle, but came up short where it really counts — the final score. Waterford Tonwship handed the Mustangs a tough 60 defeat, which dropped Northville's record to 3-2-2 overall.

Northville had gained 247 yards in total offense, while Waterford could manage only 151.

In all of the junior varsity's losses and ties, it has always come out ahead of its opponent statistic-wise.

Northville travels to Warren to play Warren High in a 7 p.m. contest Thurs-

The only touchdown of the game came in the third period when Waterford took the second half kickoff and proceeded to march 60 yards down field for the score. The run for the two-point conversion failed.

John Quinn lead the Northville runners with 111 yards in 18 carries.

Mustangs break long soccer losing streak

All that is left for the Northville boys minutes into the second half on a soccer team to shoot for is personal pride and a winning season.

That is the way head coach Ron Meteyer sees things as the Mustangs prepare for their final game of the 1981 season against West Suburban Soccer Association foe Livonia Franklin Fri-

"If we play like we have the last two games, we could win," Meteyer of-

Northville enters the game with a 7-7-2 overall mark after picking up two wins last week. Northville downed North Farmington, 3-1, last Thursday and whipped Plymouth Canton, 5-1, last week Tuesday.

Also, if the Mustangs can avenge a 2-0 defeat Franklin handed them earlier in a kick. the season, Northville could finish in second place in its division.

That is turning out to be a pretty significant game. Franklin is one point ahead of us in the standings and if we' could beat them, we could wind up in se-cond place. Hopefully, we will," Metever explained.

A win would do wonders for Northville which has been struggling most of the year. After winning three straight at the Detroit Country Day tournament in early September, the Mustangs had won only twice in their last 11 games before last week.

The two wins also broke a four-game Northville losing streak, the longest in the three-year history of the sport.

The Mustangs stung North Farmington early as they scored 30 seconds into the first half. Doug Marshall took the opening tap and crossed a pass to Craig Lafferty, who centered a pass which deflected off a North Farmington defender and Steve Starcevich blasted into the net from 20 yards out.

"I don't think the goalie realized the ball was coming at him until it was only three or four yards away," said Meteyer of Starcevich's shot.

Greg Marshall added to the score at the 15-minute mark when he outhustled a North Farmington man to the ball and scored from about 15 yards out.

A Raiders' defender tried to kick the ball back to the goalie, but lofted it over his head. Greg Marshall raced in and scored into an open net.

North Farmington scored with two minutes left in the game when Chris Plummer scored from an almost impossible angle. He hooked the ball into the net after shooting it from almost the

That is the second time this season Northville has been victimized by such

Five different players scored goals in the easy win over Canton.

Jeff Dyer tallied the first goal nine minutes into the first period on an assist from Starcevich. Ten minutes later, Doug Marshall netted a score after weaving his way through four Canton defenders.

Steve Gribbell scored with two minutes left in the first half after receiving a pass from Bill Butterfield to make it 3-0.

Meteyer said the team kind of letdown to start the second half, and it showed when Canton scored on a breakaway one minute into the half. "We started pulling together after. that goal," Meteyer said.

Jeff Metz and Starcevich each tallied second half'goals to close out the Northville scoring. The Mustangs bombarded the Canton goal with 16 shots and forced the Chiefs to take 17 goal kicks. It is this type of offensive attack Meteyer had been looking for the past couple of weeks. "You can't score if you don't take the shots," he explained. One thing Meteyer has been pleased with is the work of his defense, which has allowed 29 goals for the season.

The Northville Soccer Club, coached by Gary Sixt and marvin Gans, will play the Mustangs 7 p.m. Wednesday night at the high school football field.
