local taxpayers.

While the state Board of Education's recently-proposed plan for improvement of Michigan schools may be viewed as the first positive step toward addressing problems in the state's nearly 600 school districts, local educators are voicing concerns about the state board's plan of action. However, the question of who will pay for such reforms appears to be the key

The state Board of Education's reform plan, outlined in a 39-page report titled, "Better Education for Michigan Citizens: A Blueprint for Action," was adopted at its meeting last Wednesday. Included in the report are recommendations calling for a longer school year, tougher graduation requirements, increased teacher salaries and establishment of homework policies.

While educators are finding it difficult to grapple with the intent of the state board's plan, many have called it 'infeasible" in light of the funds needed to comply with the recommendations.

According to Superintendent Bell, the state's recommendations may indeed become mandates. "Though they're worded in the form of recommendations, they tend to be mandates to local districts." he said.

"In the eyes of the DNR, there was no longer a need for the Haggerty Road Arm since the township had, so to speak, gone ahead and solved the major problem on

As soon as it became apparent the Haggerty arm would be cut out of the larger project, McNeely said, he began investigating the possibilty of having the township undertake construction on its own, or in cooperation with Plymouth Township and Novi.

He detailed potential savings from elimination of a single, large pumping station at the Northville Forest apartment complex, predicting that over a 10-year period some $224,000 would be saved by bypassing it. efficiently. If the 800-odd acres of property that would be served by the Haggerty sewer were required to tie into the Rouge interceptor in the township, extensive modifications would be required at

Water rates might fall

Proposed water rates for July implementation are the subject of a public hearing before the Board of Water Commissioners of the City of Detroit January 25.

Northville city and township are not expected to oppose the proposed rates, which are somewhat reduced from last year's. According to preliminary figures, charges to the township water and sewer department and to the city are expected to fall by about 6 percent.

The recommended rate for the township is $6.65 per thousand cubic feet (MCF), down 5.85 percent from last year's $7.06/MCF, which in turn was down 11 percent from the 1982-83 fiscal year.

The rate recommended for the city is $4.09/MCF, which city manager Steven Walters reported is down from the current year.

The difference between township and city rates is based on a "demand facused in calculating rates. Those units which are determined to place a greater demand on the system and at peak hours are charged a higher rate.

One major difference between the city and township systems (aside from size) is presence of storage facilities, which allow water to pumped into the area during low-demand periods to relieve peak hour demands.

The township is attempting to acquire storage facilities in hopes of avoiding future increases in water rates. The difference in the demand factors is dramatic - the maximum day demand calculated for the city is 1.8, for the township, 2.6.

Peak hour demand in the city produces a 2.4 factor while in the township it is 4.1.

Township water and sewer department superintendent Walter Holinoty said the proposal for reduced rates follows a protest of an earlier proposal. Backed by records of the past year's usage, he said, more and more suburban water departments are challenging the rates as calculated by Detroit.

Holinoty's efforts were praised by township officials at the January 12 meeting, though he noted the decrease

Letter produces Tooth Fairy visit

While losing a tooth is a fairly common occurrence for any seven-year-old, Sarah Teachworth found it can be a fretful experience.

During a recent afternoon recess at Silver Springs Elementary School, the little second grader took a tumble and lost her front tooth.

However, Sarah's front tooth didn't merely fall out — she lost it, somewhere in the snow on the playground.

Realizing the implications of losing her evidence, i.e. no kickbacks from the Tooth Fairy, Sarah took her woes to Principal Ken Pawlowksi.

Though he made a gallant attempt to locate the lost tooth on the snow-covered playground, Mr. Pawlowksi came up empty

Realizing that front teeth rank at the top of the Tooth Fairy chart, Mr. Pawlowski did the next best thing. He wrote a letter explaining that Sarah had lost a tooth on the playground and was "entitled to all benefits derived thereof, i.e. Tooth Fairy visit."

With the letter tucked under her pillow, Sarah rested assured that the Tooth Fairy would make a stop. The following morning, she discovered $1 under her pillow. It seems the Tooth Fairy gave a little extra for the trouble.

Local educators voice concern over state school plan

School District already implements many of the state's recommendations including the six-hour day at the high school, development of a long-range plan for the district, adoption of a philosophy of education and tougher graduation requirements.

However, she noted the state's plan seems like an "indictment of districts that aren't doing those things."

Both Wilkinson and Bell concurred that the state's proposed reform plan is a reaction to last year's grim report by the National Commission on Excellence in Education.

The report, released last May, found a "tide of mediocrity" had swept through the nation's public schools and proposed a host of reforms for improving public education's report card.

While the state's new reform plan addresses many of the problems outlined in the National Commission on Excellence in Education report, Wilkinson said she has concerns about where the data for such proposals was derived.

"I'd like to know what kind of data is being used for basing these recommendations," she said.

Noting that "it's difficult to be against anything that been based on the premise of improving quality," Bell said he feels quality education already is being mandated in Northville.

"We monitor our program very carefully," he pointed out.

In discussing finances needed to implement some of the state board's recommendations, Bell noted that among the most costly proposals is the lengthening of the school year from the current 180 days to 200 days. He pointed out that it currently costs $28,819 in salaries per day to operate the district. Extending the school year 20 more days would cost the district $576,397 in salaries with an additional $80,000 for support services. He noted total cost to the district to extend the school year would be at least $656,397.

Bell said he felt such monies would be better spent on improving existing pro-

> - George Bell, Northville Superintendent

"I think you first have to talk about quality rather than quantity," he add-

Another proposal which he said could prove "very costly" to the district is the state recommendation for local school districts to strengthen State School Aid Act language to "insure minimal pupilteaching teacher ratios" and "establish guidelines on class size for classrooms in which there are mainstreamed handicapped and/or underachieving superintendent Walter Holinoty stressed the need for cooperation with the Wayne County DPW and with Plymouth Township in order to make the improvement properly. They also suggested the city of Novi could see a benefit in participating.

The interceptor would have to extend down Haggerty into Plymouth Township in order to reach the main

Rouge interceptor near Wilcox. A portion would have to be enlarged to relieve a "bottleneck" at that location, requiring county cooperation.

McNeely said he had already approached Plymouth Township supervisor Maurice Breen, who had indicated "they are willing to listen to a is presently unsewered and to a smaller area west of Haggerty.

Novi's interest in the project would stem from development between Eight students."

"Pupil-teacher ratios have been the subject of negotiations at the contract level for years," Bell noted. "If the state mandates that, it could cost a whole lot of money - maybe more than any other item in this report."

While Bell said he concurs with the state's recommendation for local districts to "make every effort to increase teachers' salaries to attract the brightest and best into the teaching profession," he pointed out there often staff members - particulary when the district is facing declining enrollment.

"I don't need the state to tell me I should be paying my teachers more money," he added.

Bell noted that the majority of the plan's focus is on high school-level reforms and that many of the recommendations already are in place in the Northville School District.

State proposals such as the six-hour day and tougher graduation requirements were implemented at Northville High School last year. In fact, the district's increase in high school graduation requirements is nearly identical to the state's proposal.

Though Bell said he favored several of the state's proposals such as implementing reviews of textbooks and materials and expanding programs for gifted and talented students, he said he feared the monitoring of several of the recommended proposals would bring about more bureaucracy at the state

Wilkinson echoed Bell's remark and noted that state monitoring of such programs would take control out of the hands of local school boards.

"I'm leary about taking the government of local schools and putting it as far away as the state level," she noted. 'It tends to be unresponsive to local needs."

While she said she had concerns about the state's reform plan, Wilkinson noted that she is "not fighting the recommendations.

"I don't think it's bad to look at excellence," she said. "I'd just like to see them take a more in-depth look at what's going on."

Bell agreed that the intent of the state

Board of Education's plan was positive.

However, he said he felt his biggest responsibility was "to meet the needs of the kids with the resources we have."

How quickly the state Board of Education's reform plan goes into action will depend on how much additional funding the Legislature - and the public — will support.

Jaycees split tool fund

He and Boor initially suggested that the township not proceed with its purchase immediately, recommending instead that the city and township split the difference between the amount Jaycees hope to raise by March 1 ($6,000) and the actual purchase price (roughly $8,200).

But Treasurer Richard Henningsen suggested the Jaycees divide the fund and allow the two governments to determine how to spend the money for fire department equipment.

Supervisor John MacDonald supported the suggestion, stating that it was "unfortunate it got off on this bad footing. But, if the city wants one, and we want to have one here for sure, maybe the only thing to do is buy two."

He stressed the need to purchase at least the first tool as soon as possible, noting that once the township receives its Jaws of Life it would be available for use in the city under the mutual aid agreement between the departments.

"We have, in fact, the funds to order ours now," MacDonald said. "It's been a long time, and it seems to me important that we move on this thing and at least get one in the community one way

Boor said the Jaycees had considered splitting the money but rejected the idea "because that's not the idea behind our initial project. By splitting the money up right now, we're faced with the question, can the city come up with

"We're ready to move on this," said township fire chief Robert Toms, citing a price of $8,260 for the purchase he wanted authorized. He asked if the Jaycees were willing to make a donation in that amount, or some portion of that amount.

"We really don't want to see either community put up the entire amount of the difference (between the Jaycees' fund and the purchase price,)" Barnum said. "The intentions are to go to the ci-ty council meeting; if we can split the cost between the city and township and get the first one bought then we can start raising money for the second

When it became evident, however, that the township intended to place its order for the tool almost immediately, project chairman Boor agreed to the split in the funding.

"If the city decides it can't use the money," MacDonald said, "you can always come back to us. If they do want to go ahead and raise funds for another one, they will have access to ours in the Holinoty said he was confident about the feasibility of the project from the construction and operating ends, but that his major concern was with "the political end.

"We need a strong agreement between Plymouth Township, Northville Township and Wayne County," he said. "Knowing the problems they have in Novi, we should make a strong effort to bring them in, also."

The township board voted unanimously to have McNeely prepare a cost estimate and a preliminary definition of the district to be served. It also authorized him to direct inquiries to Plymouth Township and Wayne County regarding the proposal.

Preschoolers pay group dental visit

Children's Dental Health Month, an annual observance beginning in February, Northville Cooperative Preschool teacher Lyn Reece took her students to the dental office of Dr. Kathryn Hoppe last Friday to learn about "teeth." In addition to touring the office and its facilities, students were given a lesson in "tooth bonding" and brushing. Using the "big teeth" model, students learned the correct way to brush. During a brushing demonstration, Jason White, 5, at right, shows teacher Lyn Reece that he brushed his teeth that morning. Michael McNally, 5, at left, points out that he has teeth just like those Dr. Hoppe is showing on the x-ray. However, Caroline Mason, 4, below left, appears somewhat apprehensive about the big brush Dr. Hoppe is using to demonstrate how to clean teeth. The theme of this year's National Children's Dental Health Month is "Smile America, A Healthy Smile Brightens Everyone's Day." Celebrating its 36th year, the observance promotes good dental habits. A member of the Dental Health Education Committee of the Detroit District Dental Society, Dr. Hoppe will be speaking to students in the Northville schools about dental care during February.

Ballot question to seek second fire hall parcel

Among the questions to face Northville Township voters this election year will be finalizing the purchase of property for construction of a second fire hall on the west side of the General law townships such as Northville are not allowed to purchase property without a vote of the people; so, although the township has already struck a deal for a parcel on Seven Mile near Beck, the matter must be approved on the ballot before the purchase is

Township clerk Susan Heintz advised the board of trustees last week that she anticipates having the question put to a vote in the August primary.

Heintz initially suggested an April date, but noted that the school district's millage vote is during that month and that election law generally forbids two local votes within 30 days.

She added that fire chief Robert Toms "may have another issue to place on the ballot this year, too." Neither she nor Toms specified what the second issue might be, but it might be reasonable to assume that, should the property acquisition issue pass, the township would seek voter approval of a bond sale to finance construction of the fire station.

1983 alarms up 50 percent over prior year, Toms says

There was a 45-50 percent increase in township fire runs during 1983, according to a report chief Robert Toms gave the board of trustees last week.

Of the 155 run total, 18 percent (28 runs) were to state facilities, including 24 to Northville Regional Psychiatric Hospital, two the child development center and two to Hawthorn Center.

Another two runs went to Meads Mill school, Toms reported.

Structures were involved in 42 of the fire runs, while grass fires accounted for 26 runs and auto fires for 23. Washing down fuel leakages at auto accidents resulted in 11 runs, and 18 runs were made as "investigations."

Ten runs were standby periods for volunteer firefighters during par ticularly hazardous weather or through holiday periods. Nine downed wires and a similar number of rubbish fires drew firefighters to the scene.

Another four runs were rescue missions, while two runs were made under the mutual aid agreements with adjoining communities, Toms reported.

Recreation budget reviewed

The Northville Recreation Depart- L.T. Sylvestre and James Buckland, ment's preliminary budget figures for the 1984-85 fiscal year, expected to be presented at last week's Northville Recreation Commission meeting, will be delayed a month so they can be studied by a special ad hoc committee of city and township officials.

Northville City Manager Steven Walters and council members Carolann Ayers and Burton DeRusha, plus township Business Manager David Lelko and township board members Richard Henningsen and James Armstrong will meet Wednesday, January 25, with Recreation Commissioners and Department Director Jef Farland.

The preliminary budget, following those talks, then will be presented to Recreation Commissioners at their February 8 meeting. If approved, it then will be submitted to the city council and township board for approval.

When approved by the council and board, the preliminary budget will serve as Farland's guide to developing a final budget, which will follow the same channels for approval and implementation. That will almost certainly come before the department's fiscal year goes into effect in April.

Arts benefit evening a nostalgic success

By B.J. MARTIN

I suppose a surly critic can carp about whether "Chatanooga Choo-Choo" or "Boogie-Woogie Bugle Boy" are appropriate arias for opera-trained voices (okay, I will carp — they're not). Still, there's no denying that the singing duo of Marilyn Mercer and Mark Vondrak from the Michigan Opera Theatre's "Overture To Opera" group went over big before a turnout of about 400 Northville arts supporters last Saturday night.

The throng gathered at the Northville Marquis for an evening called "A Celebration of the Arts." To be sure, the "arts" had a distinctly nostalgic slant more Norman Rockwell than Picasso but after all, the evening was a fundraiser and not an exhibition.

Benefitting from the respectable turnout were two valuable local institutions — the Northville Arts Commission

Tax forms available, AARP slates assistance

For those who wish to get right at the task of preparing their 1983 income tax returns, forms are available at the Northville Post Office, 200 South Wing.

The Plymouth-Northville Chapter of the American Association of Retired Persons announces that again this year it is providing tax counseling for the elderly. An expansion of the Internal Revenue Service Outreach Program also is making free help available.

In addition to the needed state income tax form, there are Department of the Treasury forms in the post office lobby that may be used in some cases for a married couple when both work. Schedules for itemized deductions also are available.

Federal income tax forms have been mailed to those who previously filed.

The AARP program, the Plymouth-Northville Chapter explains, is aimed at helping those over 60, but notes that younger persons will not be turned away. Tax forms will be completed at Fifteen sessions are scheduled between February 8 and April 3 in Northville and Plymouth. Those planning to attend a session are asked to bring last year's return. In some cases, where a return is unusually complicated, the person will be referred to the nearest IRS office.

Detroit District Director of the Internal Revenue Service Charles A. Parks has announced that the IRS has an "Outreach Program" through which IRS representatives plan to bring free individual tax help into more than 100 neighborhood locations in the state during the 1984 tax filing season. The program, tested last year, will be expanded almost three-fold for the January through April 15 period.

IRS assistors will schedule tax help projects during daytime and evening hours as well as on weekends, Parks said. Libraries, community centers, schools, union halls, factories, churches and other suitable sites will be used, he

In most locations the IRS personnel will be accompanied by specially trained local volunteers who will work on state and local tax forms.

Representatives of community organizations and other groups interested in arranging for a local outreach program should call or write the program coordinator in Detroit. and Northville Friends of the Arts. Arts Commissioner Gini Patak pronounced the evening "a tremendous success." Commission chair C. Phelps Hines agreed, saying, "I thought it was terrific. We were very pleased.'

The half-hour MOT show, "As Time Goes By," preceded the film that justifiably enhanced that song's durability, something called "Casablanca," starring some fellow named Bogart. In between musical revue and movie, Patak announced what could be expected in the Northville arts community (see accompanying article).

In "As Time Goes By," Vondrak and Mercer zipped through a polished program of more than 30 tunes popular in artime America.

The "Overture to Opera" arm of the MOT is, of course, designed to interest down-home folks like us in serious MOT productions like "La Traviata."

Whether the best way to do that is to shoehorn those big, ripe voices into numbers like "Don't Sit Under The Apple Tree," however, depends on personal taste.

But the champagne-laced punch helped mollify film buffs eager for the movie to start and, it must be admitted, "As Time Goes By" did capture a little of that naive USO Betty Boop glitz unintentionally, no doubt, but entertain-

The Northville Marquis patrons were generous, responding with warm applause to the revue's most spontaneous moment: when a U.S. flag replica appeared about to plummet to the stage floor during the singing of "God Bless America," Vondrak patriotically leaped to the rescue and held it aloft while finishing the song.

Now that's entertainment. Oh, yes - the movie was pretty good,

The use of the Marquis Theater and the print of "Casablanca" were donated by theater owner Inge Zayti, who is unveiling the Marquis' producton of Neil Simon's "Chapter Two" this week, Gael Barr directing, Andrew

Northville arts looking up

The year 1984 might be the most important ever in the development of interest of arts in Northville. The Northville Arts Commission and Friends of the Arts are shaping up a more extensive and enthusiastic program of fine arts programs for the year ahead after a "regrouping" year in 1983.

One of the Commission's most promising projects will be its sponsorship of a new non-profit organization called "Arts And People," based in Northville. The business's first undertaking is producing a six-concert series at the Northville Marquis.

The first of those productions is called "A Spanish Fiesta," and features Grupo Espana, an flamenco music and original flamenco dance troupe. "A Spanish Fiesta" is scheduled for an 8 p.m., March 3 performance.

Commissioners also plan to sponsor tours of exhibitions and other musical events during the coming year, to be

Hospital board taps McBride

Former Northville resident and home builder Wayne L. McBride, presi-Incorporated, is among seven Brighton community leaders reelected to three-year terms on the Brighton Hospital Board of Trustees in December.

Board President Richard R. Dann, retired president of the Automobile Club of Michigan, congratulated the board and the hospital staff for launching a $5.4 million building and renovation program, the largest in the hospital's history, in 1983.

"The construction program symbolizes the renewal of our commitment to quality in the treatmentor alcoholism," he stated.

Established in 1950, the Brighton Hospital opened its present facility in eastern Livingston County in 1953. At that time it was the only freestanding hospital in Michigan and one of the few in the nation — established specifically to treat the disease of alcoholism.

Could be April before prison plan gets to legislature

It might be as late as April before the state legislature begins review of the administration proposal to renovate Plymouth Center for Human Development for use a state prison, represen-tative Gerald Law (R-Plymouth) reported Tuesday.

Law said he learned in conversation with William Kime of the department of corrections that the target for completion of the environmental impact statement now being drafted is the first week in February.

The department is awaiting information regarding local impact to be supplied by Northville Township, which is preparing the information this week. Supervisor John MacDonald told the board of trustees January 12 that a conference with a representative of Karoub & Associates (under contract to the township as a Lansing lobbyist) was scheduled Monday.

After that conference, he said, the information would be sent to Kime, who is preparing the environmental impact statement.

But Law cautioned that completion of the corrections department draft is not all that's necessary before the issue is

Once the EIS is drafted, it must undergo an interdepartmental review and then be presented to the Michigan Environmental Review Board before it becomes official.

That process, Law said, can take up to two months. So it could be April before the completed document can be presented to the legislature.

Assuming Governor James Blanchard's administration still wishes to proceed with the renovation project at that point, it would first need approval from a joint legislative capital outlay committee, then by both houses of the Law said he had learned the governor's office has been routing letters on the issue, including many from Northville residents who propose that the state continue with its previous plan to construct a regional prison at Five Mile and Beck rather than renovate Plymouth Center, to the department of corrections and to the department of management and budget for replies.

MacDonald said last week that he is 'optimistic' regarding the ultimate decision regarding the prison, but said it was "too early to discuss that in

Township budget amendments show rise

Amendments to the township fiscal year 1983-84 budget reflecting increased revenues and expenditures near $300,000 were approved by the board of trustees January 12.

Business manager David Lelko and bookkeeping procedural changes made during the recent shift to computerized

1981, and serves on a one-year contract which has been twice renewed. He is the only township employee on a per-treasurer Richard Henningsen explain-

sonal service contract. Although the contract is renewable each January, salary adjustments have moved to coincide with the township fiscal year beginning April 1 each year. An annual performance evaluation is conducted by the supervisor and accounting. Henningsen noted that changes occur in all 11 major line items of the township budget. A major change shows the "pass-through" of federal community block grant monies, which are now shown as both a revenue and expense item in the general fund budget instead of in a separate fund budget. Alterations in the way court-cost figures are shown in the budget also required amendments to the document adopted last spring. Lelko noted that some changes result from not having completed the shift to computerized methods — he said police overtime costs, for instance, are shown under police regular wage and salary expense and there is a zero figure in the overtime line.

Trustee C. James Armstrong requested that future amendments

(which Lelko said would be needed monthly through the end of the fiscal year in March) be presented to board members in their information packets prior to the meeting and made a regular agenda item.

Henningsen explained that the amendments were made on short notice and that copies would be provided in the next board packet, along with any proposed additional changes. He offered to make copies of the amendment outline he had handwritten on a sheet of paper.

Under state law, the treasurer is required to amend the budget whenever he becomes aware it is necessary, Henningsen said. Had the legal requirement to amend immediately not existed, he explained, he would have put off the changes until the next meeting when he will be able to make a fuller report to the board.

Short in dishwasher wiring starts fire

In the township. . .

An electrical fire in the kitchen of a Green Ridge home in North Beacon Woods subdivision January 13 caused an estimated $2,000 damage to the residence, according to township police.

The complainant told police he arrived at his residence about 9:55 p.m. to find the home filled with smoke.

He further stated that he did not observe any flames until he opened the windows. The complainant told police flames appeared to be coming from the wall next to the dishwasher.

He noted that when he could not put out the fire, he contacted the police.

Police arriving at the scene found the

According to the police report, Fire chief Robert Toms said the fire was electrical and caused by the dishwasher.

Two T-tops valued at $1,000 were stolen off a Pontiac Trans Am parked in front of a Silver Springs apartment sometime between 12:30 and 10:30 a.m. January 13, police report.

The owner told police she parked her vehicle at about 12:30 a.m. January 13 and when she returned the next morning found the T-tops gone.

She further stated nothing else was missing. According to the police report, the owner noted the doors to her vehicle were frozen so she did not lock the car when she parked it in front of her

A dump truck and two wood chippers parked at a Seven Mile service station were damaged by unknown suspects sometime between 5 p.m. January 7 and 7:15 a.m. January 9, township police report.

The complainant, under contract with Detroit Edison and working on trimming trees in the area, told police he had permission from the station owner to leave the vehicle and equipment in his parking lot. The station owner told police the truck and equipment were in good order when he closed the station at 5 p.m. January 7.

Damage to the vehicle and equipment was estimated at $900.

Twenty sheets of Celetex Styrofoam plywood insulation were stolen from a new construction site on White Haven Drive sometime between 4 p.m. January 10 and 9:30 a.m. January 12, police report.

The complainant told police the insulation was located in the rear of the new home under construction at the time the incident occurred.

The materials are valued at $700.

A $400 snowblower was stolen from the garage of a Winchester residence sometime between 10 a.m. January 3 and 6:30 p.m. January 9, according to Police noted no signs of forced entry on the garage doors during investiga-tion of the incident.

The complainant told police that while the side entrance to the garage always is locked, the overhead garage door is not equipped with an automatic door opener and is left unlocked.

The complainant further stated she did not discover the snowblower missing until she went to use it.

Items valued at $250 were reported stolen from a 1973 BMW parked in front of a Sunset residence sometime between 2 a.m. and 4 p.m. January 1, township police report.

The complainant told police he had parked the vehicle in the driveway of the Sunset residence at about 2 a.m. January 1. Upon returning that afternoon, he said he discovered unknown suspects had entered his vehicle and stolen a toolbox from the back seat.

The complainant said the toolbox contained an assortment of Craftsmen tools such as screwdrivers and end

A Canton resident suffered minor injuries January 11 when his vehicle swerved off Sheldon Road and landed in a clump of trees and brush near Thornapple, police report.

According to police, the vehicle was southbound on Sheldon when it left the paved portion of the roadway, traveled along the snowbank for approximately 150 feet, became airborne for another 50 feet and landed in the trees and brush.

The driver told police he was south-bond on Sheldon, going toward Plymouth, and the next thing in knew he was in the trees. According to the police report, the driver stated he could not remember anything else.

The driver was issued a violation for careless driving and taken to St. Mary Hospital.

TAX TIPS LEE E. HOLLAND, C.P.A.

IRA Funds and "Collectibles"

The tax law allows you to invest tax deductible income into an Individual Retirement Account (IRA), up to $2,000 on a single tax return or $4,000 if you and your spouse work and file a joint return. (If your wife works in your business, pay her a salary of 2,000 so that she qualifies for her own $2,000 contribution.) But you should not consider investing your IRA funds in "collectibles," such as gold, artwork, stamps, gems or antiques as this is not permitted under the new tax law.

Your IRA account will continue to earn interest and build capital for your retirement years. Both year's investment in the account will not be taxed until you withdraw it. There is a penalty if the money is withdrawn before age 591/2 but it is only 10%. Con sider putting the money in even if you have to take it out later. Better yet, borrow instead of withdrawing the funds.

Left alone, the capital can build rapidly and continue to provide a substantial deduction on your annual income tax. For example, a contribution of $2,000 per year for 35 years grows to $1,142,766 assuming an interest rate of 12%. This is just one of many savings incentives in the new tax law. ## The Northuille Record

Our Opinion One is enough

While we were pleased to see the township and Jaycees take steps to calm the controversy that arose last week over the purchase of a Jaws of Life tool (used to extract victims from wrecked vehicles) for community use, we find the proposed solution less than satisfying.

If, indeed, the Jaycees had always intended to buy two of the devices, the long-lasting fundraising drive was ill-conceived from the start. The only reason for having two Jaws of Life to serve this area is to placate two fire chiefs who don't seem willing to cooperate with each other to the community's benefit. Each has made unfortunate remarks that, to outsiders, make them look like two little boys squabbling over a toy. The proposed solution is to get one toy for each just to keep them quiet.

For this, residents are being asked to put up twice as much money as is really required. With the purchase price of each tool at more than $8,000, and given the length of time it has required for the Jaycees to even approach that amount, we find it difficult to justify the double expense. We agree it would be nice to have a spare Jaws of Life, but surely in times of limited resources (which is the case in the city, if not the township) the last thing we can afford is redundancy.

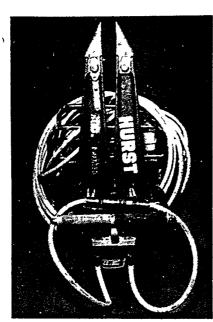

While city fire chief Jim Allen claims his drive won't absorb any tax money, the city fund has been started with more than $2,000 from the sale of department equipment that will be unavailable to offset other equipment purchases (including, we understand, new air masks to comply with changing state law). This other equipment will have to be purchased with tax money from some source—whether it is city, state or federal money does not excuse its unnecessary expense.

Meanwhile, township taxpayers will foot more than half the bill for purchase of the first set. We believe the importance of having one Jaws of Life in the community as soon as possible justifies the expense of tax dollars (rather than wait any longer for the Jaycees to raise the remaining money), but if the city and township could work out their differences, the Jaycees could pick up most of the cost for purchase of a single tool.

There is, and always has been, a mutual aid agreement between the city and township fire departments. It is, as Supervisor John MacDonald noted last week, unfortunate that political reality has dictated separate departments when more efficient service might be accomplished with one. Given the situation, however, the two ought to be able to cooperate to the benefit of both.

That the Jaycees proposed to locate the Jaws of Life in the township makes sense to us — the majority of high-speed roads and dangerous intersections are in the township, and that is the department which will be responding first to most accident scenes requiring use of the tool. While one can quibble over which fire station is more centrally located, the fact is that they are less than five minutes' drive apart — probably much less under lights-and-siren emergency run conditions.

The likelihood of both the city and township needing the tool at separate accident scenes is negligible when compared to the cost of buying two Jaws of Life. In addition, both the city of Novi and Novi Ambulance company have the tool available. If it weren't for the gravity of the subject, the idea of all four agencies needing their

Jaws of Life can open crushed car

Jaws of Life at the same moment would be laughable.

In fact, it was the switch from Novi Ambulance to Community EMS service (for several good reasons) that generated such urgency that the Northville community acquire the tool swiftly. The new ambulance firm does not have this equipment. Were we not afraid that we'd end up buying three of the things, we'd suggest the Jaycees let the fire chiefs squabble and make their donation to CEMS with the proviso that it always be stationed on the vehicle assigned to Northville.

It pains us to be forced to say these things — we are generally supportive of both fire departments and their continual efforts to improve the services they offer. We recognize and appreciate the service given by the volunteer firefighters of both departments.

Unfortunately for the Jaycees, another group which we ordinarily support, it was caught, without warning, in the middle of the dispute. Just as it neared the triumph of concluding its fund drive, the organization was forced into an untenable situation.

So what now? We'd suggest the Jaws of Life now on order be considered as the only one needed by this community. Among the Jaycees, city and township there is enough funding to make this purchase immediately. It should be possible to negotiate a satisfactory method of basing the equipment so that it is available immediately throughout the community — whether that need is in the township or city, at the head-quarters or in a substation is irrelevant.

In the end, it comes down to how the Jaycees wish to handle the money. Despite the claim that in buying two Jaws of Life it intends both to serve the community-atlarge, the split donation furthers the division of city and township departments to no good end. If this is how things are to be, we'd prefer to see city council assign its share to other equipment purchases, assuming the Jaycees would be willing to allow this.

We were disappointed that council did not more intently question its fire chief's proposal to start an independent fund-raising drive before approving it. The action was taken without allowing Jaycees the opportunity to answer the charge that it was favoring the township over the city, and without any real consideration of how often the device is used within the city limits or what harm there might be in stationing it within the township. With the township having settled for an uneconomical compromise, we hope the council can put forth a proposal next week that would bring order from this chaos.

Letter writers get answers

I admire people who have concerns, complaints or questions — and who take the constructive action of writing the editor, their representatives in government and heads of companies. I approve those who return such items as the service report questionnaires hotels and motels sometimes place in the rooms. (Usually these seem to be in the establishments with little to complain about.)

Best of all, usually the writers get satisfactory answers. Last fall, Midge Haynie of Northville talked to The Record about an unusual occurrence she and her husband witnessed on a vacation in Moorea (French Polynesia). They and a group of about 30 saw a "big ball of light falling downward — within a second it seemed to have exploded, but not like a meteorite might do. Rather it was as though a giant cup had been turned over on its side and the contents ran out across the sky in a 'road of light.'"

Locally, in Tahiti, it had been identified as a UFO, but Midge was convinced it was a disintigrating satellite. She wrote her Congressman, Carl Pursell, to tell of the sighting and asked if he could get any information. Eight pieces of correspondence later at year-end the mystery was solved.

Congressman Pursell wrote on October 17 he was referring the letter to NASA. NASA replied to Pursell, who sent on to Midge the information that it had negative results. The object was unknown to NASA. It was suggested the query be send the United States Air Force North American Air Defense Command at Colorado Springs. Pursell did and was told that UFO sightings now are reported to the National Archives Records Service in Washington. He then referred the matter to that service, receiving a reply that the documentation relating to investigations of unidentified flying objects was terminated in 1969 and that no reports now are accepted.

But, after relaying the information to the Haynies, the Congressman received another letter from the Department of the Air Force on December 16. It reported that, according to the space surveillance section of the Air Force's Space Command, "on the evening of September 26, 1983, the rocket body from the launch of Cosmos 1499, a Soviet spacecraft, reentered the atmosphere several hundred miles northwest of Tahiti." Carl Pursell sent the information along with holiday wishes. And a satisfied Midge reported to The Record that she knew it hadn't been a UFO.

Akin to letter writers are citizens who make telephone calls to register their views, or find out "why" something is happening. A question we at The Record get frequently is one about the police blotter. I have to believe it is one of our most regularly read reports. However, no one wants to be in the blotter himself or herself.

Recently, we have been asked why we report breakins and thefts. We report such police news because it is our policy to cover the agencies within our boundaries. We also believe that it can be a help to those agencies as well as to the citizens involved. Names and specific house numbers are not used, but general areas and street locations are. We agree with police administrators that residents in a neighborhood where several robberies may have been reported can be alerted to be especially cautious. Similarly, reporting what the robbery was and how it occurred (ransacked cars in unlocked garages last month) can help to prevent other incidents if householders are warned about a mode of operation.

Why are we specific about what has been taken? Area police have felt that in some instances thefts are by teenagers. If a youngster suddenly "owns" some of the items reported stolen, or tries to sell them, parents and others who have been alerted to the loss, may realize what the situation is. Unless police have cooperation of an aware community, they have little to help them. The person who is concerned and lets authorities know when a situation is suspicious is the kind of citizen a community needs. He-or-she probably writes his-or-her representatives and newspapers, too.

After the fact

By PHILIP JEROME

I have a happy story for you this week,

At least it's a happy story for the Jeromes. But anybody who is tired of reading about Bonnie and Clyde — the Golden Boys, the stray cats who have taken up residence at our house — is hereby advised to read no further.

About a month ago — December 14, to be exact — Bonnie stopped coming by every night to be fed. Clyde was there, of course. In fact, Clyde got upset if we didn't let him in the house. And now that he's experienced the joys of indoor living, we can't get him to go back outside.

But Bonnie stopped coming by. Bonnie had gone AWOL for as much as a week before, but when seven days passed and he still hadn't shown up we started to get worried.

And when the weather turned mean with windchill factors of 40-below, we got even more concerned. As Christmas came and passed with still no sight of Bonnie, we began to fear the worst ... hoping that maybe, just maybe, he had shacked up in some nice, warm barn somewhere.

Roughly two weeks ago, we decided to print up some flyers and distribute them to all the homes within a mile of our place. We got a few calls, too. A man said he thought our Bonnie was hiding out in his barn. And the people at Maybury State Park said they thought they had seen Old Bonnie in their barn.

But when we went to check, it wasn't Bonnie.

Then a lady called. She said she thought our cat was eating dinner at her house and sleeping in a boat underneath her porch. She called again Monday, saying the yellow-and-white cat we had described was on her porch at that very moment.

My wife jumped in the car, roared over to the lady's house and ... you guessed it ... there was good old Bonnie, battered and bruised but a survivor of the Michigan winter.

Bonnie's home now, chowing down cat food like it was going out of style. And we're happy — not just to have Bonnie back but also to know there are people out there who are kind to battered up old cats ... and even give them food and a warm place to sleep.

Exchange student offers thanks to Northville friends

In this letter I would like to recognize and thank all who have made my year in Northvilee a most enjoyable, educational and memorable one.

The Rotary Club of Northville made this whole year possible, and I extend special thanks to my counselor, Mr. Charles Mann, who guided me with the histories of past students and worked so long finding host families for me. My thanks also to the members of the Rotary Club for their fellowship each Tuesday and making me feel a useful

'83 Michigan legislature gets mixed reviews

By GERALD H. LAW State Representative

Amid a late night debate on a new redistricting plan, state lawmakers concluded a bitter and frustrating session with hopes of putting aside political differences in 1984.

The 11th-hour reapportionment plan, which I voted against, should solve the political stalemate that paralyzed the Legislature in the last weeks of 1983 in a fall session which could only be described as disastrous. In addition to the redistricting plan, the final hours of the legislative session saw lawmakers pass some other important measures. They included:

 A $43 million home heating assistance program to aid poor people with their utility bills and make funds available for low-income families who need to insulate their homes.

· Expanded tax credits for about 40,000 small businesses that pay Michigan's business tax.

A benefit roast beef dinner held by the Northville Post 4012, Veterans of Foreign Wars, was attended by 140 persons last Sunday, the post reports.

Proceeds of the benefit totaled $600

dent who is ill with cancer.

• A $20 million jobs and employment-training program for welfare recipients.

• $1.4 million to help cleanup toxic waste at the Berlin & Farro Liquid Incineration site.

· Despite some legislative accomplishments, last year was a regrettable one for Michigan taxpayers. First their income taxes were increased by 38 percent and then the Governor proposed a budget calling for more than a 12 percent increase in spending. The public outcry against higher taxes and big budgets demonstrates that we must hold the line on government expansion, and I will work to maintain current spending levels or reduce them in the coming year. In 1984 lawmakers must rise above the partisan bickering which ground the Legislature to a halt last autumn. Instead of arguing, we should work toward the revitalization and diversification of Michigan's economy, while also striving to reduce medical costs, protect the environment, improve our

A frequent question in the minds of church members involves when a pastor calls on members. Some feel a pastor should visit members only. They enjoy the thought of conversation and coffee. While such visitation is enjoyable, most pastors struggle to find time to do it.

Young business videotapes special events

People often have photographers make records of weddings, family reunions and other special events. Tom and Tony Donner of New Hudson, using more modern technology, have taken the idea one step further.

The Donner brothers have been operating a special event videotaping service out of their home for the past year. For about $200, they will videotape a wedding ceremony, and throw in a few touches like music and

"It's memories in motion," the 26-year-old Tom remarked. "You can see it yourself. You don't have to flip through a book of photographs... It's just the way it

The Donners also are interested in videotaping banquets, speeches, plays, sporting events and graduation ceremonies. Prices vary for each kind of event, Tom said. Business has been slow so far, the Donners said. "People are afraid of a new thing," Tom commented. "People are ignorant about it.' Doubts about the business have included the quality of the videotape, the time it takes to complete and interference by the equipment in the event.

The 21-year-old Tony said an internal light adjuster helps insure the quality of the videotape. It also limits the use of extra lights, which often cause glare, he said. "Videotape is more convenient because you don't have to put it on a reel-to-reel," Tom explained. "Everything is in the (camera)." Tony also said it takes very little time to edit and complete the videotape — less time than for processing photographic film into prints. "It would be like putting a cassette in a recorder," he explained.

The Donners have been honing their videotaping skills while shooting sporting events for the South Lyon cable television station run by Roger Heiple. The Donners credited Heiple with getting them interested in a special event videotaping business.

The final product of a job is often more than just a videotape of the event, Tom said.

For example, a wedding videotape put together by the Donners began with a series of videotaped photographs of the bride that traced her growth from infancy. This section was accompanied by appropriate music, Tom said.

This section of the videotape was followed by the wedding ceremony and reception.

Another Donner product taking advantage of videotape's multi-faceted technology is one based on

Instead of showing the full photo, the camera focuses in on different parts of the picture, giving it a multi-dimensional feel, Tom said. This is done to a series of different pictures, with a musical accompaniment,

Other effects that can be added to a videotape are titles and sound dubbing, Tony noted.

Tom joked that people are not bothered as much by the way they appear on videotape as by the way they sound. "Nobody knows the way they sound," he explained.

As relative novices to the videotaping business, the Donners said they are open to suggestions on what kind of videotapes to do. "We get ideas from (customers)," Tony said. "All those ideas—we don't get them on our own."

The Donners are currently working for their father Douglas' carpet business in Riverview. They said they hope the special event videotaping and their work with Heiple will turn into a full-time job.

Tom said they are saving their money to expand the equipment, which includes one camera, one portable videocassette recorder (VCR) and two home VCRs.

As the video technology expands, the Donners looked forward to the future with some excitement. "It's like getting people out of the air," Tony commented. "It's fun."

1984½ models debut at auto show

By KEVIN WILSON

"We're on a roll" is the theme for the current Detroit Auto Show at Cobo Hall, and an apt descrip-tion of the crowds attracted to the first two days of the show last weekend.

Opening last Saturday for a run through January 21, attendance at the show was expected to match or exceed last year's record of 475,000, aided, no doubt, by an array of 19841/2 model introductions by domestic automakers.

The show presents the first opportunity for many to see the genuinely new Dodge Caravan/Plymouth Voyager compact front-drive vans that Chrysler Corporation began selling only a few weeks ago.

Add to that a prototype Ford Aerostar minivan (rear wheel driven for mid-85 introduction) and more than 400 1984-model cars on exhibit during a rebounding sales year, and the Detroit Auto Dealer Association's (DADA) annual extravaganza was drawing heavy crowds from the time the doors opened

DADA counts among its members most auto dealers in this area and is repeating a special "dealer's panel" feature nightly from 7:30 to 8:30 p.m. A panel of dealers fields audience questions in a format presided over by former state senator Doug

Among the very newest models on display are the Dodge Omni GLH (goes like, uh, heck) designed to compete with Volkswagen's Rabbit GTI. Boasting performance equipment lifted from the Shelby Charger (Chrysler's 2.2 liter four-cylinder tuned to deliver 110 horsepower, 15-inch cast aluminum wheels, higher 5-speed transaxle drive ratio, tuned suspension bits and fast-ratio power steering), the GLH has a base list price near $7,300. Also for mid-year intro is the Dodge 600 ES convertible equipped with the 2.2 liter turbocharged engine from the Laser/Daytona feeding through an automatic transmission and listing at $12,895.

Ford is showing its prototype small van, which has a more slanted nose and more flush glass than will the production version. Underneath the sleek Aerostar body, which is larger than the small vans introduced by Chrysler, Toyota and Mitsubishi, it more closely resembles a small truck than an englarged

GM drew crowds primarily to its Pontiac Fiero and Chevy Corvette (Motor Trend magazines Car of the Year for 1984) sports cars.

Racing and special show cars are on display by virtually every maker, with Ford touting its IMSA GTP racer in new 7-Eleven sponsor colors.

Among the entertainment offerings this week were dual performances by the Novi High School Band Tuesday evening.

STARR ADVERTISING, INC. of Northville announced December 2 that Frank J. Lipford has been named a partner with the title of executive vice president/marketing services. Lipford will also retain his position as president of Objective Attainment Systems — a marketing/sales consulting firm he founded in 1979. Objective Attainment Systems — a marketing/sales consulting firm he founded in 1979. ment Systems is now a subsidiary of Starr Advertising, Inc.

Prior to establishing the consulting firm, Lipford was vice president and general manager of NAPA, serving over 6,000 automotive jobbers nationwide.

'Having spent nearly 26 years in the automotive industry," said Hank Starr, "Lipford provides Starr Advertising's clients with a unique blend of distribution knowledge, awareness and street savvy — Lipford represents the missing link between most clients and agencies in that he understands distribution needs better than most people" (italies Starr's).

Starr Advertising has positioned itself as "market specialists" in the automotive/vehicular arenas and Lipford, Starr said, is representative of that commitment.

W. THOMAS MELTON

MITZIE DeANGELIS

W. THOMAS MELTON, of Milford, has been appointed vice president of the metropolitan corporate banking department of Comerica Incorporated. The announcement was made by Donald R. Mandich, corporation chairman.

Melton joined the corporation in 1973 as a credit analyst. He has held positions of increasing responsibility since then and achieved officer status as a commercial banking officer in 1979.

Melton received his Bachelor of Science degree from Indiana University and his MBA from Western Michigan University.

S. MITZIE DEANGELIS of the Novi-Northville office of Real Estate One exceeded $1 million in total sales volume in 1983. In addition, she was awarded the GRI designation (Graduate Realtors Institute) through the University of Michigan. She also earned her brokers' license.

"Any one of these accomplishments is a tremendous achievement," observed Sharon Serra, office manager. "To have done all three in one year is truly outstanding.'

DeAngelis resides in Novi with her husband and two children, and is active in the community.

DOUGLAS W. COLE DDS is now associated with Dr. Jesse Grimm as a member of the staff at the Convenient Dental Clinic, 22320 Pontiac Trail, South Lyon. An Ann Arbor resident, Dr. Cole earned his bachelor of arts degree at Kalamazoo College and studied at the University of Strasbourg in Strasbourg, France under the auspices of the college's foreign study program. His 1983 doctor of dentistry degree is from the University of Michigan School of Dentistry.

MOUNTAINTOP TREE COMPANY of Northville reported record gross volume in 1983. Vice president Rick Cassidy said the success was due to the growing spraying and tree care customer list, frequency of storm damage and successful bidding in municipal and commercial contracts.

"We added spraying to our services in 1982 and have had fantastic increase in repeat customers," Cassidy said. "After the storm hit Northville in June, we added another crew to speed up assistance to homeowners. We also provided storm damage evaluations for tax purposes. The extra storm work carried our season well into November, then we started our commercial contracts."

The company is completing a contract for removal of dangerous trees in the Village of Milford. It is also soliciting additional work in the area. Cassidy said this is an excellent time for trimming trees, since they are dormant, minimum lawn damage is done and winter discount rates are in effect.

FOUR SALES REPRESENTATIVES at Earl Keim Realty's Northville office exceeded the highly-sought million dollar sales mark in 1983. Betty Greenlee, Pat Kresin, Pat McNamara and Barbara Wojcik each had more than one million dollars in sales, and Kresin exceeded $2 million. Broker Jim Bress, noting that the office consistently has several representatives exceeding the million dollar mark, said his team of Realtor associates combines professional sales ability with a thorough understanding of financing and a since commitment to represent their clients' best interests.

Strategies available for single taxpayers

If you are single and treat your 1963 federal income tax return like an unwanted houseguest you can't walt to get rid of, you may miss out on some good opportunities to save money, Most stogles file a short form and claim the standard deduction, or the zero bracket amount, of $2,300. That's because they usually don't amass more than $2,300 of deductible expenses and it doesn't pay to Bernize their return. If that's your attuation, you may still find ways to save on taxes without itemizing, advises the Michigan Association of Certified Public Accountants (MAC-

At the bottom of the 1040 long form there's a section called "adjustments to income." This can be the route to enable singles to lower their taxable income without the paperwork of itemizing.

Let's say you moved to a new location in 1983 to start a new job and the distance between your old home and new job is more than 35 miles. You can subtract from your gross income the cost of moving all your personal effects. You can also subtract up to $1,500 for the cost of house-in to state for the cost of notice hunting trip and any temporary housing and meals until you were settled.

In addition, you can reduce your taxable locome by any fees or commissions paid to real estate brokers. However, there are limits on these indirect expenses associated with moving, so check the IRS rules.

Another way to reduce taxable income using the adjustments to in-come section is to subtract any unrelimbursed business expenses. Include meals, transportation, lodg-ing and any incidental costs incurred while you were on an overnight business trip. If you hold two Jobs, you can include the cost of traveling from the first to the second. Do not adjust your income for the cost of commuling from your home to your primary job.

Perhaps the most common method of reducing taxable income is making contributions to an Individual Retirement Account (IRA). About a quarter of those eligible maintain IRA accounts. A single person can contribute up to $2,000 per year to an IRA account and reduce taxable income by that CPAs say the best way to save on taxes is to plan ahead. Bunching your tax deductions is an effective strategy for singles. Think about this for your 1984 and 1965 taxes, If your itemized deductions and the standard deduction are about to same, try to banch two years of Hemized deductions under either 1984 or 1985 and ciaim the standard deduction the other year.

Let's say you are single person with itemized deductions of about $2,500—the same as the standard deduction for singles. But maybe you can defer payment of $1,500 of those deductible items and claim the standard deduction for 1984. Then, for the two years, you get deductions totaling $6,100. That's the $2,300 deduction in 1964 and 3,900 in 1985—your usual $2,300 plus the $1,500 shifted from 1984. Thus you increase your total 1984-85 deductions by $1.500 - from $4,600 to $6,100 - and saved vourself a substantial amount saved yoursen a constant of tax dollars

A. The payee may provide the correct TIN or the required certification on new accounts to stop withholding. The other exceptions which the government may consider to stop or not to start backup withholding are when the underreporting has been corrected, when there is a bona fide dispute as to whether underreporting has occurred, or in hardship cases. Note that in cases of underreporting, the IRS will mail at least four notices to you before notifying the payor to start backup withholding. Q. If backup withholding applies to me and I have 20 percent of my interest and dividends withheld, how do I report this on my federal tax return?

A. Interest and dividend withholding is treated the same as income tax withheld from wages. The interest and dividend payment is included as income on Schedule B when you file your return and the withheld amount is credit against your tax.

Instructions for the Form 1040EZ, including specific directions relating to OCR processing requirements, can be found on the back of the form or in the Form 1040EZ and Form 1040A tax package. Special care should be taken to complete the form properly so processing will be accurate and refunds may be sent without delay.

The OCR equipment "reads" the numerals and characters on the form as it scans over the page. To help the machine pick up the correct numerals, the Form 1040EZ has preprinted boxes on each line to guide the taxpayer in filling out the form. #### "Nuclear" Reacting

What does the word nuclear mean To many of us, it doesn't adhere But if you look real quick, you won't miss this

That the word nuclear rearranged is "unclear" -Bob Gerlach

And More?

The Touch of the Master's Hand

It was battered and scarred, and the auctioneer

Thought it scarcely worth his while

To waste much time on the old violin,

"What am I bidden, good folks," he cried.

Two dollars, and who'll make it three?

Three dollars once, three dollars twice,

Then wiped the dust from the old violin,

The music ceased and the auctioneer,

Said: "What am I bid for the old violin?"

A thousand dollars — who'll make it two?

Two thousand - and who'll make it three

Three thousand once, three thousand twice

The people cheered, but some of them cried,

What changed its worth: the man replied:

Is auctioned cheap to a thoughtless crowd

But the master comes, and the foolish crowd,

The worth of a soul, and the change that's

With a voice that was quiet and low,

And he held it up with the bow.

And going - and gone," said he.

We do not quite understand —

And battered and torn with sin,

Much like the old violin.

"The touch of the master's hand.'

As many a man with life out of tune,

A "mess of pottage," a glass of wine A game and he travel's on.

He's going once, and going twice -

By the touch of the master's hand.

He's going — and almost gone!

Never can quite understand,

wrought

And tightening up all the strings, He played a melody, pure and sweet, As sweet as an angel sings.

From the room far back a gray haired man Came forward and picked up the bow.

Who'll start bidding for me? A dollar, a dollar — now who'll make it two —

But he held it up with a smile.

Going for three" ... But no!

-Kit Henderson

Who is he? This guy "Mr. More?" He certainly gets around.

T.V. adverts, fliers from the store,

Everywhere.

Wouldn't you?

He gets good publicity, More than "Mr. New."

I'd love to meet him,

Loves Season

On Moon

And there is nothing that comforts me,

Walls and Bridges

It depends upon

Your love for man. If you build a wall

Your world is small;

If you build a bridge

When I am not with you

For there is no one else,

Blackness is around me

There is nothing left.

I love you so much.

When you are gone Suddenly I am sick.

I am alone.

But you.

You conquer all.

Warm and caring . . the emotion cascades and is one of extreme beauty. They who know love know eternal happiness . . . subtle touching and deep passion bring loves ultimate

The Pond

I like the pond, why? Because of the ducks, the trees The quietness and sky The sunshine is so warm and the water a nice people walk by and they talk to you some say Hi and walk on by for an out-of-towner I will always know the ducks will be here as I come and go. It's nice to see their blues and greens shining in the light. Morning noon and night. So when I come to Brighton town I know the ducks will be swimming around hoping someone will throw them some corn and look at their little ones that have just been born oh they can swim and keep up, by gee, and mother is as busy as she can be keeping tabs on her family, those little ducki-ings that we can see. The men should keep a joy in their hearts All the ones that have taken part to make this pond what it is today and help keep people happy along their busy way.

Leapin' Lizards!

Northville High School readies for 'Annie' production

More than lizards were leapin' last Thursday night during dance rehearsal for the Northville High School production of "Annie." In preparation for the musical's dance numbers, cast members have been keeping on their toes at Miss Millie's School of Dance on Cady. Miss Millie has been helping cast members limber up for their routines while also giving pointers on poise and stage presence. The NHS Drama Club's production of "Annie" is being directed of Kurt Kinde. Ticket sales will be announced.

Practicing last Thursday night for upcoming roles in the NHS production of "Annie" were Annie and her orphaned friends. Among those rehearsing at Miss Millie's School of Dance were above, Barb Woodruff (from left) who plays Duffy, Annie Ross as Molly, Shannon Couzens as Annie, Mandy Berlinsky as Tessie and Gretchen McVay as Lizzie. At right, Laura Allison (far right) practices a cartwheel for Miss Millie (second from left) and her two assistants. Waiting their turn are Jennifer Couzens (far left), Annie Ross, Stacy Nield and Barb Woodruff.

NHS annouces cast for spring musical

Northville High School Drama Department has announced the cast for its upcoming spring production of the musical, "Annie." Cast members were selected from more than 300 local students auditioning for the musical.

Debbie Kinde, wife of NHS Director Kurt Kinde, noted that they still are looking for a dog to play the role of San dy. The primary prerequisite, she noted, is that the dog must be trained.

Cast members for the NHS production of "Annie" include Shannon Couzens as Annie, Darlene Piscore as Mrs. Hannigan, Annie Ross as Molly, Lisa Grey as Pepper, Barb Woodruff as Duffy, Laura Allison as July, Mandy Berlinsky as Tessie, Stacy Nield as Kate, Gretchen McVay as Lizzie, Jennifer Couzens as Maggie.

It was a '49 again' birthday party

By JEAN DAY

Donald B. Williams cordially invites you to attend the first anniversary of the 49th birthday for Sally A. Williams.

So began the wording of the formal invitations sent by Northville resident Donald Williams of 41895 Sunnydale to invite some 150 friends for an evening of cocktails, dinner and dancing in honor of his wife Sally on January 7.

Friends from as far away as Grand Rapids, Toledo and St.Clair gathered with family and neighbors at the Park Place in Dearborn where round tables were decorated with balloons anchored to daisy centerpieces.

Sally Williams had been aware there was to be the celebration — but there were some unexpected surprises, such as the appearance of the Eastern Onion pink-suited gorilla to salute the "honoree." This had been arranged by close Northville friends and neighbors who included Northville Township fire chief Robert Toms and his wife Loretta well as township police chief and Mrs. Kenneth Hardesty. Other guests included coworkers at Don's company and business associates. Sally Williams' sister Betty Bateman and friends from her first job at Michigan Mutual were among the special guests. Michigan Mutual were among the special guests.

Dino Vallee and the Royal Blend entertained with a varied selection ranging from favorite operas to Italian pieces during the evening.

Library lists preschool storytime

Northville Public Library is taking registrations for winter preschool story time open to children 3½ to 5 years old.

Two story time sessions will be held in the library at 10:30 a.m. and 1 p.m. Tuesdays from January 24 to February 28.

Pre-registration is necessary since enrollment is limited. To register, stop by the library or call 349-3020.

The Williamses were among the first residents of Northville Colony II, moving into the subdivision about 10 years

Local resident's assisting with 'Compositions'

The Women's Association for the Detroit Symphony Orchestra is calling its annual spring fashion show "Compositions." The benefit event to be held at Fairlane Manor in Dearborn March 7 is getting a local assist from Mary Esther Fountain, a member of the women's association.

She is a committee member for the show which is being called "an international fashion extravaganza." At the show following the noon luncheon Derek May of California and Marc Bouwer will make personal appearances. Mrs. Fountain has tickets ($20 general admission, $50 patron) for the show. A "bonus" is the opportunity to win some unusual prizes, including a 25-day "Magnificent Odessy Cruise," New York theater package, trip for two to San Diego and a day at Mira Linder's spa.

In addition to her assistance with the fashion show promotion, Mrs. Fountain is taking on another big volunteer job this year. She has agreed to be in charge of the west division of Wayne County for Health-O-Rama and is enlisting help of friends and neighbors.

Chamber nails down racing date

Date for the Northville Community Chamber of Commerce Night at the Races will be March 1, executive director Kay Keegan reported last Friday, Ticket price of $15 a person includes admission, program and buffet dinner.

She adds that members planning to attend should reserve tickets as soon as possible as they are limited.

Cagers 'turn corner,' bag Panthers 65-62

With a come-from-behind win over Redford Union and a wellplayed loss at Plymouth Salem last week, the Northville varsity cagers may have finally "turned the corner" on their lackluster play in recent weeks.

That's the opinion of coach Tim Lutes, anyway.

"I feel better," he said. "I think the kids have matured a bit, and I think we can make a good bid for the division title.'

In Northville's 52-45 loss to Salem Friday night, the Mustangs stayed even with the Rocks until late in the fourth quarter, which began a 33-33

"We played real well. In fact, I think we should've beaten them," of 22 from the line including several one-and-ones." The Mustangs also fired 11 bad passes in the contest, even worse than their passing against Walled Lake Western a week before.

The Mustangs had the Rocks quaking in the early going, but the complexion of the game changed dramatically on a critical play at the end of the second quarter. With Northville up by five, Mustang guard Bob Pegrum had the ball on a fast break, then hit a wet spot on Salem's gym floor and skidded out of control.

A Rock player recovered the ball and sunk an easy layup to turn a likely seven-point Mustang lead to a three-point ballgame.

When the Rocks applied pressure to the Mustang backcourt later in the game, Nor-thville finally folded and was outscored 19-12 in the final quarter. "We just weren't that quick," Lutes said. "They're a better defensive team than we Steve Schrader paced a balanced Northville scoring attack with 13 points. Pegrum added 10, Scott Gala eight and Steve Frellick six. Dan Perpich led the Mustangs' inside attack with four offensive rebounds and five defensive boards. Jeff Arnold and Rick Berberet paced Salem with 14 points each.

The previous Tuesday, Northville headed off a turn for the disastrous with a 65-62 win over Redford Union. The Panthers had an 0-6 record going into the game and the Mustangs went in flat as a shadow.

Warriors snap wrestlers' win streak

By B.J. MARTIN

Last Thursday's showdown between Walled Lake Western and Northville, two undefeated Western Lakes Activities Association rivals, turned out a mite anticlimactic. The Warriors prevailed 33-25 more on a heap of lucky breaks than clear-cut grappling

"There were so many possibilities," said Northville coach Gary Emerson, still looking for the Mustangs' first-ever win over Western. "Had we had any breaks, we could have won it. I think they went home feeling pretty lucky to get by us."

First off, there were sad reports from sick bay. Mike Davis (132) was fighting a stomach flu and was unavailable, while Ernie Bock (155) was still sidelined with a stomach muscle pull (both should return to action this week). Northville wound up losing on pins at both those weights.

The match could have been even closer had a couple of Mustang wrestlers held on for decisions instead of pins. Northville actually won seven matches to Western's six, but the Warriors managed four pins to Northville's

What really hurt was that three of Western's pins came with only seconds remaining. Don Graham fell on a third-period pin at 112 pounds. Mike Bates

(119) wrestled well, and was tied 2-2 going into the third period before he was put on his back with nine seconds left. And Mike Leavitt, filling in for Bock, was pinned with just four seconds left.

Only heavyweight Brian Burgett won on a pin for Northville, making highlyregarded Chris Thompson look like just another opponent with a pin at 1:17.

Steve Smith pulled off an upset 6-4 decision over Western's Matt King in the pair's first encounter since they posed for the All-Area football team picture last November. "Steve had King flatter than a pancake and just couldn't pin him," Emerson said. That's no small feat - King won 18 matches last season and is off to a good start this year.

At 198 pounds, Dino Candella had a near-pin, finally having to settle for a 10-5 decision. Also winning on decisions for the Mustangs were Joel Vogt (185), Norm Estigoy (126), Jim Assemany (105) and John Lazar (137).

Lazar's feat was remarkable, since he felled the defending WLAA champion Ron Schuh on a 7-4 decision.

The Mustangs registered a fourth two days later at the eight-team Romulus Invitational. Nine of Northville's 12 entries placed in the top four of the meet, won by Romulus with 154 points. Gibraltar Carlson was just one point off the pace, while Southgate Aquinas tallied 140. Northville was next with Only Vogt (13-7) picked up a first at Romulus, whipping first-seeded Mark Duperron of Aquinas in the final, 11-2.

The junior has placed in every tournament he entered this year. "Joel got in at second seed, and he told me he didn't want to see, 'Joel Vogt, second,'" Emerson laughed. "He told me he wanted it to be 'Joel Vogt, champion.' And he wrestled his best ever."

Making the finals before losing to first seeds were Burgett (17-4) and John Letarte (8-2), who picked up second-place medals. Taking thirds with vic-tories in the consolation finals were Candella (11-8) and Jay Anderson (13at 145 pounds.

The Mustangs, 4-1 in the WLAA (6-1 overall) will wrestle a rare home meet tomorrow night, against league rival Walled Lake Central. On Saturday, the team will take a corner in Novi's quad meet, which promises to be an in-teresting matchup. Novi is in first place in the KVC and stacks up with nearly the same strengths and weaknesses as Northville.

Spikers may win 'big' but they lose — 'Petit'

By B.J. MARTIN

The toughest blow to the Northville volleyball team last week wasn't the two-game loss to Livonia Stevenson Wednesday or losses to four teams in the Dearborn Bishop Borgess Tournament

Instead, the hardest knock to absorb was team captain Kim Petit hobbling into school last week with a hip-to-ankle cast on her leg. Preliminary diagnosis: torn or stretched knee cartilage, plus a chipped bone.

Treatment: immobilization, with possible surgery after examination in three weeks. And forget about playing volleyball this season.

"She first hurt her knee playing indoor soccer, then she reinjured it playing against Novi last Fri-day," said Mustang coach Steve McDonald. "It's a big blow to us, that's for sure."

It may turn out to be a big blow to the varsity soccer team too, as Petit's status for playing this spring is uncertain.

Get well soon, Kim. The Mustangs opened their week on a high note despite the bad news. They topped division rival Plymouth Canton in straight sets, 15-12, 15-10, and looked sharp doing it, leading all the way. Bev Henderson played assertively up front with seven hits, all good, while Cheryl Spaman connected on four of six.

Lynn Frellick also played well at the net with five hits, three good. Meanwhile, in the backcourt, sophomore Chris McGowan had a very strong night, with eight of nine good serves and 20 sets - 19 good.

Also providing good service were Spaman with eight of nine good b ves, Tracy Martin with nine of 11 and Erin Ryan with four of six. Undefeated Livonia Stevenson ended the win streak at two, making Northville the tall, strong Spartans' fourth victim. Northville played badly in the first game, losing 15-5, but rebounded with a solid second game before falling 15-11. For a while, the Mustangs had Stevenson worried - Northville led 9-8 at one point.

McDonald said he was "encouraged" by the way his team did not fold under pressure.

(The loss of Kim Petit)... is a big blow to us, that's for sure.

- Steve McDonald NHS Volleyball Coach

Cheryl Berryman played well against the Spartans, with nine good sets, and seven of nine good serves. McGowan also played strongly with 10 good sets — none bad. Senior Jane Cassady showed improvement in an area McDonald had been concerned about — serve receptions. The senior registered 11 against Borgess won its own tournament Saturday, and showed why it is expected to be among the state's top teams by thrashing Northville 15-1, 15-9 in the open-ing round. "They just whaled on everybody," McDonald said. Redford Union handed the next round, 15-13 and 15-12.

"We showed class and played them pretty tough," McDonald said. "We were moving our feet and talking — those little things mean a lot.

Sure enough, it paid off in the next game as Northville topped Livonia Crestwood 15-8, 15-10. Then a tough team from Ida, near Monroe, dropped Northville 15-12, 15-13. "That was a close one," McDonald said. "There were two crucial points in the first game we had called back, and the girls just lost momentum, lost their concentration each time."

The Mustangs concluded the tourney by splitting two 15-11 games against Grosse Ile.

The tournament gave McDonald a chance to get a look at some of the players who had not seen a good deal of action going in. In particular, Tracy Dewey played consistently, as she did against Stevenson. Mandy Olgren turned in two excellent games against Grosse Ile, and another sophomore, Nicki LaRoque, also turned in fine appearances.

Tankers dunk Bentley

The Mustang tankers got off on the right foot in league action last Thursday by topping Western Lakes Activities Association rival Livonia

Northville never trailed after the 200 medley relay squad of Jeff Bainbridge, John Gass, Doug Buell and Vince Shimp clocked a 1:51.62 to lead the Mustangs to a 7-1 lead after the first event. By the later events, coach Pete Talbot was able to juggle his lineup to examine different combinations for his examine different combinations for his

"I checked our times against where we were last year at this time," Talbot said, "and everybody's doing much better this season.

The medley relay team, plus Buell and Mikalonis, is showing signs of being able to register entry times good enough to qualify for the state swim meet. The medley relay quartet needs to trim about seven seconds off Thurs-day's time. "They can do it," Talbot ventured, "but they all need to swim their best-ever splits on the same

Mikalonis' first place 2:14.53 in the 200 individual medley needs to come down 10 seconds to qualify, and he needs a 57.8 in the 100 back to make the cut. Buell, Talbot added, also has a shot

Other firsts for Northville were registered by Shimp in the 50 free (23.59, a personal best); Greg Grasley in diving (189.05, a personal best); Bainbridge's 1:01.5 in the 100 back, Mikalonis' personal best 5:18.28 in the 500 free, and Buell in the 100 breast

The previous Tuesday, a strong Yp-silanti team nudged the Mustangs 94-78. With Ron Johnston and John Gass stuck with the flu, Talbot figured Northville's chances of pulling off a non-league win were slim — but he noted several changes he could have made that might have pulled Northville much closer. "But," he added, "I try to use those

Michigan National compounds interest monthly to pay you more money for your money

Higher stated interest rates Individual Retirement Accounts (IRA) may sound good initially. But, if you're interested in earning more money for your money, consider the effects of Michigan National's monthly compounding of interest versus other banks' simple interest method of payment.

Gymnasts jittery, but off to good start

didn't start its season with a win but coach Debbie Heck was anything but dismayed.

"A lot of the parents said it was the best opening meet they've ever seen," Heck said after Farmington outpointed Northville 106.25 to 101.05 Tuesday, January 10.

Heck said the reason for the optimism is that the team has gotten into "a lot more difficulty" this season. If that sounds contradictory, what she meant was that her girls are attempting — and doing well in — more difficult routines than last

"We've got a real young team," Heck added. "A lot of the girls have never seen a gymnastics meet before, let alone compete in one. Also, it was our first meet (and Farmington's third) and everyone was a bit nervous.

Two of Northville's cooler heads belonged to Diane Hale and Wendy Wobermin - Hale posted a 7.55 in uneven parallel bars and an 8.0 in floor exercise, while Wobermin registered a 7.5 on balance beam.

'A lot of the parents said it was the best opening meet they'd ever seen.'

> - Debbie Heck NHS Gymnastics Coach

Those scores were good enough to register as regional qualifying scores. To qualify as an individual in those events, a gymnast must score at least 7.5 in beam, 7.5 in uneven bars and 7.7 in floor exercise — in at least four meets during the season. The minimum qualifying score in the vault is 7.7.

Hale could not have been more pleased with Hale and Wobermin's performances. "It takes a lot of pressure off you to get those qualifying scores as early in the season as possible," she said.

Oddly, Northville won each event but the vault - but the Falcons were five points better in vaulting - and that turned out to be the difference

Hale led Mustang vaulters with a 7.0. Wendy Wobermin scored 6.1, Alica Hickman 5.35, Kim Wobermin 5.1, Jenny Steiner 5.0 and Julie Cass 4.8. Finishing behind Hale in uneven bars were Wendy Wobermin with a 6.7, Kim Wobermin 4.9, Tonia Hickman 3.65 and Sandy Sunberg

Other Mustang beam scores were Hale, 6.5; Tonia Hickman, 6.15;

Alicia Hickman, 5.9; Kim Wobermin, 5.7; and Robin Wisely, 3.9. Behind Hale in floor routine were Wendy Wobermin, 7.45; Terri Forte, 7.05; Tonia Hickman 6.20; Alicia Hickman, 5.95; and Kim Wobermin

"I think all the girls handled it Heck (the first meet) really well," Heck said. "We're off to a late start this year - most teams have meets the first week of January; so we're starting a little behind schedule."

The Mustangs should really begin hitting their stride after a few meets with freshman jitters mastered and the return of senior Cathy Heitert, who will join the team in late January after competing with the Farmington Gymnastics Club. "We're faring very well considering we're short Cathy," Heck noted.

After a dual meet at Plymouth

Canton at 7 p.m. tonight (Wednesday), the Mustang gymnastics team will participate in the Dearborn Invitational Tournament Saturday. Monday at 7 p.m. Northville hosts Plymouth Salem in the Mustangs' first home meet, at 7 p.m.

It was also learned last week that this season will be Talbot's last as coach at Northville, as he expects to relocate in Willmington, North Carolina, following his planned wedding in June.

A supervisor with the Northville Recreation Department - who temporarily was its interim director -Talbot has been a longtime Northville resident and an important part of school and recreation swim programs. Northville (1-0 WLAA, 1-2 overall) will host division rival Farmington Harrison tomorrow at 7 p.m. — a meet Talbot thinks the Mustangs should win.

Cagers gear up for Hawks

"Especially on defense," Lutes added. "We just were not mentally in the game during the first half. We looked like we did against Western."

RU ran up a 24-8 lead early in the se-cond quarter, and it looked like the Panthers' loss streak would come to an end.

But Northville began making a run on the Panthers late in the first half, reducing the halftime lead to 11 points. "I didn't make many adjustments," Lutes said. "I just told the guys if we kept playing them tight, we'd catch

The Mustangs got hot on the Panthers' trail with a 20-13 third-quarter scoring edge and finally bagged 'em with an 18-11 fourth quarter, paced by deadly inside and outside shooting. "We tried to slow them down in the backcourt, break up their tempo," Lutes said. "And they really cooled off. Early in the game they were hitting everything in sight."

Schrader had his best game this year, according to Lutes. The 6-6 senior pumped in 20 points and hauled in 12 rebounds. Meanwhile, the formerly shaky Northville backcourt started playing to its potential. Pegrum and Steve Frellick hit for 17 and 14 points respec-

Cougar cagers pick up win at St. Michael's

The Northville Our Lady of Victory boys' basketball teams swept Livonia St. Michael's in two contests Sunday. The 7th-8th grade Cougars squeaked a 30-28 victory over St. Michael's, while the 5th-6th grade boys rolled 28-8.

Paul Grant was recognized for his offen-sive play while Tim Rea's rebounding led a strong defensive effort.

The girls' teams did not fare so well — the 5th-6th grade girls were defeated 23-8, while the 7th-8th grade girls also lost.

The Cougars will be the guests of Our Lady of Sorrows in Farmington this Saturday, beginning at

Your phone service in 1984.

New ways to handle your phone service.

On January 1, 1984, Michigan Bell separated from AT&T. As a result, there are some changes in how you go about starting, transferring, changing or disconnecting your phone service.

Services Michigan Bell provides:

Michigan Bell provides your basic local service, ranging from budget measured service to flat rate service with unlimited local calling. We continue to offer Calling (Credit) Cards and optional calling plans, plus Touch-Tone® service and Custom Calling service, where available. We also offer long distance service within certain geographic areas called LATAs. LATA stands for "Local Access and Transport Area." In Michigan, there are five LATAs that happen, in most cases, to closely approximate our Area Codes.

Services other companies provide:

Effective January 1, 1984, AT&T Information Systems assumed ownership of the phones that Michigan Bell had been providing for a monthly fee. AT&T will continue to lease phones to you and will offer repair services for them. You also have the option of obtaining telephones from other telephone suppliers.

A number of companies provide long distance service between LATAs. You may wish to contact various companies for an explanation of their offerings.

Ordering new service:

Call a Michigan Bell Service Representative to arrange for new Michigan Bell service. You'll find a number to call listed in the Customer Guide pages in the front of your Michigan Bell Telephone Directory

In order to use your Michigan Bell service, you need to lease or buy your telephones, as mentioned earlier, from the supplier of your choice.

You also may want to select a long distance carrier. Your basic Michigan Bell service provides access to AT&T long distance service. Or you may contact one of the other companies that offer long distance service.

Transferring service:

Call your Michigan Bell Service Representative to have your service disconnected at your old address and started at your new Michigan Bell location.

Telephone sets that you own may be taken with you to your new address. If you are leasing phones from AT&T. please call AT&T Information Systems for instructions as to the disposition of those phones (1 800 555-8111).

Adding, changing or deleting service:

Call your Michigan Bell Service Representative if you wish to add or delete telephone lines, or if you wish to add or delete other services, such as Touch-Tone service or Custom Calling services, etc. Your Service Representative's phone number is listed on your telephone bill.

If you want additional outlets for extensions, you have these options: Michigan Bell or other companies will install them for a charge, or you may install them vourself, using conversion kits available through other service companies.

Disconnecting service:

To cancel your Michigan Bell service, simply call your Service Representative and ask that it be disconnected. If you are leasing phones from AT&T, you need to call AT&T Information Systems for instructions as to the disposition of those phones.

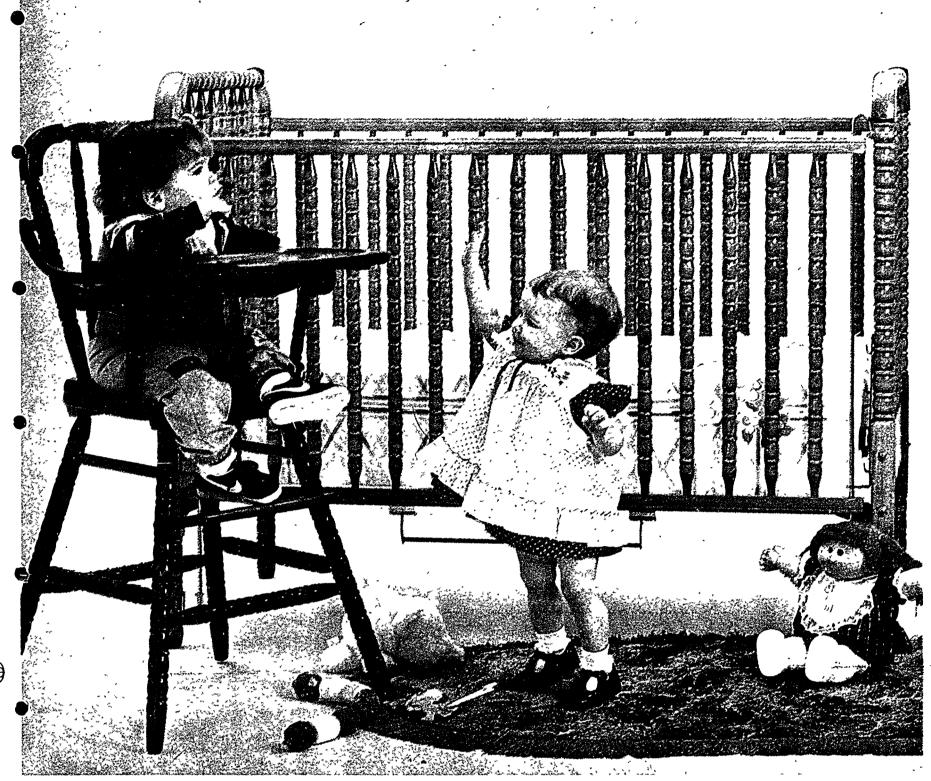

Michigan Bell intends to keep you informed as other changes take place in your phone company and your phone service. You expect the best... and that's our promise to you. After all...

IT'S AT&T WE'VE SEPARATED FROM... NOT YOU.

Facts down the line. Because your telephone business office is busily engaged in normal day-to-day telephone service matters, we are providing this toll-free number as a source for answers to the questions you may have about your changing telephone company. We also suggest that you watch for further informational messages in your newspapers and in your monthly telephone bills. 1 800 555-5000
