Northville Downs pursues summer racing

By KEVIN WILSON

Thanks to an unsettled situation regarding ownership of Detroit Race Course (DRC) in Livonia and the Hazel Park race track, Northville Downs may stand its best chance in 15 years of acquiring summer racing dates in 1985.

Under terms of a 1980 law governing horse racing in Michigan, ownership and operation of two tracks is not permitted. Herbert Tyner and Bernard Hartman own both DRC and Hazel Park and are therefore required to sell or lease at least one track by next season. They have applied for licenses to operate both tracks in 1985, but potential buyers and leasers of the two tracks also applied for dates to run at one or the other.

Downs operators have applied for virtually every harness racing date available next year, excepting those that would conflict with the Downs' contract with Jackson Raceway, which runs a three-month meet beginning in October of each year.

Downs recording secretary Margaret

Zayti said the application for all available dates — 365 excepting the stipulation regarding Jackson's Action at Northville — was made at the urging of state racing commissioner William Ballenger, who made the same request of all racing organizations in the state.

Ballenger said he made the request more than a month ago due to the restrictions inherent in the 1980 law that prohibit him from granting a license for dates other than those the applicant requested.

"Under the law, if an organization requested a season from May to August, say, and both the operator and I decided later that it would better if they ran from March to June, I couldn't license them unless the application included those dates," Ballenger explained Friday. "With all these prospective buyers and scenarios regarding divestiture in the picture, I asked that they all apply for all available dates simply to give me flexibility."

That may be reason enough for Ballenger, but the Jackson operators nonetheless sought an injunction forcing the Downs to trim its request to 90 racing dates. Deadline for applications was September 1. Assistant executive manager Lou Carlo was in Wayne County Circuit Court August 31 where a judge declined to grant an immediate injunction but adjourned the case until today, when the plaintiff's attorney will be available to make his client's arguments.

Carlo said the judge did not seem inclined to favor Jackson's position, stating that legal action might be more appropriate after racing dates are granted if the Downs is given more than 90 days. But the Jackson representatives requested the opportunity to have their arguments presented by an attorney and the judge agreed to adjourn the hearing until today.

"Basically," Zayti explained, "Jackson is raising the question that their contract with us states that we will not request more than 90 dates per year. We're telling him we don't necessarily want more than 90 dates."

Could strain city finances

By KEVIN WILSON

Additional racing dates at Northville Downs could pose a problem for the city, but a mere shift in dates from winter to summer would be acceptable, city manager Steven Walters said last week.

Although the statute governing the share of parimutuel taxes to be returned to the city allows up to $900,000 per year under a mathematical computation based on the handle at the track, Walters noted that in each of the past four years legislative appropriations have reduced the city's share far below the formula amount.

"If the state (legislature) were willing to take the extra dates into consideration when making the appropriation, maybe the city could tolerate an expanded season," Walters said. "The problem is the cap placed on our share in the appropriations process. If the cap were not made higher to allow for the extra dates, it would be a real cost factor for us."

He noted that this scenario anticipates both summer and winter racing at the Downs. If the track were granted the same number of dates, simply at another time of year, he said, there would be no problem at all from the city's perspective.

An expansion of the season would create some benefit for the city if parimutuel revenue sharing payments were made on the formula basis, Walters said. Last year's winter season would have produced between $800,000 and $825,000 for the city if the formula had been used.

Added dates would likely push the share up to the $900,000 formula limit (as opposed to the appropriation of less than $700,000 last year), he noted. Although two seasons (both summer and winter) would not produce added revenue in direct proportion to the added costs, Walters said the city likely would not oppose such an arrangement under the formula.

"We wouldn't be adverse to additional dates under that scenario," he suggested. "We understood and accepted the terms of the formula. We knew that there would be a limit on the amount we could receive."

"The problem with additional dates under the present system is that legislative appropriation allows no adjustment," he continued. "We had something similar last season when the Downs experimented with Saturday matinees. We incurred additional costs without any more revenue. Under the formula, we would have received more, but the appropriation was not expanded."

The city recovered one-half the additional $9,000 cost for policing the afternoon matinees when the Driving Club donated $4,500 to the city after the season. Walters said the city notified both the Driving Club and the Downs of the added costs involved, and the Driving Club put up one-half the figure.

"The Downs, I guess, didn't think they could pay the other half," Walters said, noting that the experiment did not seem particularly successful. "It in-

One additional factor to consider when attempting to analyze the impact of any scheduling changes at the Downs is that the dates are established well in advance.

"They're talking about the 1985 season," he noted. "That means the next fiscal year, both for us and the state."

Miller's fix-up expected

By B.J. MARTIN

Complaints recently registered about the landscaping of Miller's Bump Shop, 202 West Main, are expected to be addressed this fall, City Manager Steven Walters said yesterday.

City residents' neighboring the business have criticized Walters for what they considered his failure to enforce provisions of a permit granted bump shop proprietor George Miller last year. Most recently those complaints took their form in a letter sent by Patricia Delany to The Record for last week's issue.

The permit allowed Miller to expand his business into the former laundry service building located at the corner of Main and High streets. It was conditional to his fulfilling a landscaping plan including plantings and wall construction to screen his parking lot.

When Miller applied for the permit and public hearings were held, neighbors of his business made it clear they did not want the sight of banged-up cars awaiting repairs cluttering the appearance of the neighborhood. City planners considered those concerns when deliberating approval of the permit, and made approval conditional to landscaping improvements.

Since mid-summer, neighbors have complained that they expected those plantings to be in place by mid-summer, since approval had taken place the previous winter, and spring was a natural time to plant. But according to Walters, city policy has been simply to require the plantings be done either in spring or fall following the approval.

"They wanted him to have it done in summer," Walters said. "But realistically it would have been foolish for him to plant in the middle of summer. Usually early spring or October are the best times to do that."

He added a similar issue concerns the final landscaping of McDonald Ford dealership on Seven Mile.

Walters sent Miller a memo dated August 10 instructing Miller to make the plantings this fall if Miller wants to continue operating his business there. While he and Miller have talked informally concerning the landscaping, Walters filed the letter for records purposes.

"If substantial progress on this improvement has not been made by October 1, I will have to receive additional assurances that the work will be completed in this season or will refer the matter to the city attorney for action," Walters' letter stated.

Neighbors had expected Walters to send them copies of that letter, and Walters explained that he simply forgot.

"The neighbors were dismayed at not receiving the memo," Walters admitted. "Since then I have sent them a copy."

NEWS BRIEFS

OFFICE HOURS at Northville Township Hall will be 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. beginning September 10. The new hours will apply during the fall/winter season.

FIRST BALLOON to be returned in the launch marking the opening day of school at St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran School last week didn't travel far — it landed at the Gerald MacEachern home, 22695 Penton Rise in Novi near Meadowbrook and Nine Mile. Launcher of the green balloon was third grader David Smith.

WALK-IN registration for Continuing Education and Community Service programs at Schoolcraft College will be held today and Thursday from 3-7 p.m. in the registration center on campus.

Township police investigate panther reports

By MICHELE McELMURRY

A black panther which has eluded police in both Manchester and Wixom has been sighted in Northville Township in the Ridge Court area between Six and Seven Mile roads.

Township Police Captain Philip Presnell said a resident reported seeing what was believed to be a black panther at 9:15 a.m. August 29.

A second sighting was reported in the same area around midnight August 30.

Presnell said the animal was described as being approximately four feet long with a two-to-three foot tail, light colored whiskers and about 150 pounds in weight.

The captain noted that the description of the animal is consistent with reports from Wixom police, who have been searching for the panther since mid-July.

Presnell said police in Manchester and Wixom believe they are looking for

'If someone tries to shoot it or wound it, we will have a very dangerous situation on our hands.'

— Ken Hardesty,
Township police chief

two different panthers.

Township Police Chief Ken Hardesty said the animal sighted in Northville Township is believed to be the same one sought by Wixom police.

"It is not uncommon that the cat would be over here," Hardesty said, noting that the panther's hunting range is approximately 100 miles.

Township police patrols have been scouting the area where the sightings were reported and agents from the U.S.

Fish and Wildlife department have been called in to help with the investigation.

Police obtained a paw impression from the area where the animal was sighted and are sending it to a mammalogist at University of Michigan for study.

The paw impression is nearly identical to similar prints made by Wixom police. The prints are approximately 3 1/2 inches in diameter with claw imprints approximately 1 1/4 inches long.

Police said the sightings came from "reliable citizens" and that they are taking the investigation "very seriously."

"The animal is potentially very dangerous to human beings," Hardesty said.

Noting that the panther is a part of the leopard family, Hardesty described it as a carnivorous creature who is "considered the only animal that will kill for pleasure."

However, the chief said the panther sighted in the township is believed to be "partly domestic."

"If someone tries to shoot it or wound it, we will have a very dangerous situation on our hands," he noted.

He warned that anyone attempting to shoot the animal "not only will be arrested but will have their gun taken away permanently."

Residents are urged to call the township police should they spot the animal.

Police also are asking residents to contact them if they are missing animals — particularly dogs, cattle or horses.

Hardesty noted that the panther can kill an animal as large as a horse and can carry up to 100 pounds up a tree.

Considered a lazy hunter, panthers — like other big cats — lie in trees and will attack game found beneath their perch.

Presnell noted that Manchester police have had several reports of missing sheep and livestock.

Township police also are urging residents to keep their dogs indoors in order not to confuse the investigation and are asking parents to tell their children not to play in open fields.

Residents also should keep garage doors and out buildings closed.

The captain noted that while the panther is considered a basically nocturnal creature and does most of its traveling between sunset and dawn, there have been sightings in other areas as late as 11 a.m.

He further stated that while both Manchester and Wixom police have actually spotted the panther, neither department has been able to capture the animal.

Northville Township Police have been working closely with Manchester police on the investigation and planned to meet with Wixom police Tuesday.

Hardesty said both he and Presnell regularly have made visits to Manchester and have received considerable assistance from Manchester Police Chief Bill Zsenyak.

Presnell said that, while no sightings were reported over the Labor Day weekend, extra patrols have been put out near the area of last week's sightings.

State fair honors awarded

Andrea Barber, 12, of 9825 Napier in Salem Township, is among local youths capturing honors at the Michigan State Fair. Two of her rabbits were winners in the Youth Rabbit Sweepstakes. "Sir Kenneth" won "Best French Lops" while "Friendly" took "Best Opposite French Lops."

Andrea, who is beginning her studies at Cooke Junior High this week, attended the fair several days.

Other area fair winners in the Youth Rabbit Sweepstakes were:

Garnet Potter, 46600 West Seven Mile, won best Rex, best opposite Rex and best opposite sex angora.

Best of show award went to Donyale Baird of Highland for his American Standard Chinchilla Senior doe. He also won best opposite sex American Chinchilla.

Diana Lynn Rosinski of Plymouth won best Polish. Terese Rosinski won best opposite sex Polish.

Jan Ehnis of Whitmore Lake won best opposite sex Dutch, and best New Zealand while Jason Plant of Milford won best Flemish an best opposite sex Flemish.

The 136th annual fair, the nation's oldest, ended on Labor Day.

Junior high accomplishments challenge NHS sophomore

By MICHELE McELMURRY

When sophomore Anne Griffith headed through the Northville High School doors yesterday, she was carrying with her an impressive record of junior high achievements.

During the last three years, the former Cooke student has managed to take top honors in everything from forensics to track.

Last year alone, Griffith was the sole recipient of the Joanne Cook Award presented to an outstanding English student and the Joe Bell Citizenship Award, presented to one Cooke student in each grade for all-around involvement.

In addition, Cooke Junior High School is one computer richer — thanks to Griffith's award-winning entry in a national computer essay contest sponsored by Lysol.

However, the classroom was not the only arena where Griffith made her mark. Last spring, she broke the district record for the women's mile at the high school track.

For an unassuming 14-year-old who enjoys camping and collecting pigs, Griffith appears slightly uncomfortable when cast in the limelight.

"I keep myself busy with school and sports," says the daughter of Robert and Valerie Griffith of Seven Mile.

Having spent part of her summer at a high school basketball camp at Michigan State (she played on the Cooke basketball team) and at a soccer clinic at Oakland Community College (she also plays recreational soccer), Griffith says she is looking forward to getting back into team sports with the start of the school year.

"Being in high school will be fun," she says, noting that in addition to sports she also is looking forward to new class offerings.

Though she's always liked math, Griffith points out that English also has become a favorite subject.

"I like the writing end of it — the essays and journalism-type things," says Griffith, who was a winner in both the Detroit Free Press annual writing contest and the Wayne County Intermediate School District competition.

Griffith capped both honors last year by winning a 50-word essay contest sponsored by Lysol.

The national competition, open to all students and adults, required participants to write an essay about "Why my school or organization needs a home computer."

Griffith, who in 48 words explained that Cooke needed a computer to set up a Gossip Control Center, learned during the last week of the school year that she was among 75 grand prize winners.

"It was a total surprise," she says of winning the contest. In addition to winning a computer for her school, Griffith also received a home computer for herself.

With a hectic high school class schedule, her computer prize may prove to be a valuable tool for studying.

In addition to math, English composition, Novels and the like, Griffith says she hopes to take data processing, engineering, drawing and continue with German which she took up last year.

She also says she hopes to continue with forensics. A member of the Cooke forensic team for three years, Griffith, under the coaching of teacher Mary Freydl, took a first place in Informative during her first year of competition and placed second last year in Original Oratory.

"It's so hard to schedule everything," says the onetime dancer who gave up her favorite pastime for other interests.

While choosing a lifelong field of study may seem slightly premature for a 14-year-old, Griffith points out that she "might go into the medical field" with a specialty in sports medicine.

Though it may seem that Griffith has little time for anything except books and practice, she notes that much of her spare time is spent babysitting.

"I babysit a lot," she says, adding that she earned enough money this summer to go up to Grand Traverse Bay with the family for whom she babysits.

Griffith, who turns 15 this month, says driver's training also will be put on her agenda for next year.

However, she notes that she's had no trouble getting around without automobile transportation.

Like most pre-driver's training students, Griffith notes: "I get good use out of my bike."

Special registration will be held at 1 p.m. tomorrow at Main Street School.

Senior citizens also may register at the Community Education Office at 501 West Main between 8 a.m. and 7 p.m. Monday through Thursday and 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Friday.

For further information, call 349-3400, extension 214.

Obituary

Former resident Elden Biery, 70, dies

Former longtime Northville resident Elden B. Biery died August 28 in Cocoa Beach, Florida, where he had moved a year ago. He was 70.

Funeral service was held at the Beckman-Williamson Chapel in Cocoa Beach September 1.

A memorial service will be held here at a later date at First Presbyterian Church of Northville where he was a member.

Before his retirement, Mr. Biery had been a supervisor with Burroughs.

He leaves his wife Arline, sons Dick and Don, all of Cocoa Beach, another son David of Staunton, Virginia, sisters Kathryn Lee and Ruth Black of Detroit and another sister Grace Willis of Columbus, Ohio. He also leaves six grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Omnicom subscribers get coupons

Omnicom cable television subscribers in Northville and Plymouth as well as those in Canton will find a valuable coupon enclosed with their next monthly bill. The coupon is a Sesqui-Buck good for $1.50 off on any single bid for an item during the Canton 150 Fund Auction.

The Sesqui-Buck is being sent along with the September bill, auction chair and Omnicom program director Suzanne Skubick reported. She said the company wanted to help promote the auction and make the watching and bidding "a little more fun."

"We thought it would be a nice idea to give $1.50 off on one item bid per coupon to celebrate Canton's 150th birthday. This extra incentive is available to our subscribers through their billing.

"However, if area residents don't have cable but plan to watch the auction at a friend's house, they can pick up a Sesqui-Buck at our office on Ronda Drive just by stopping by and asking for one," Skubick said.

In addition, she mentioned, Omnicom's sales staff will be handing out Sesqui-Bucks to new subscribers who sign up for cable TV.

Skubick listed some of the items that will be available to bid on during the auction on Channel 8 September 28-29:

A 20-minute plane ride for two from Single Touch;

Two hours of professional tutoring for a student grade K through 12 from Innovative Educations Services, Inc.;

A strip-o-gram from entertainer Jim Mouth;

One hour of personal computing time from Paloran Software Enterprises;

A painting from artist Marilyn Walsh;

A Write T' Me membership from the same organization.

"The auction items are beginning to roll in, but we still need many, many more," said Skubick. "Some of the above items were donated in multiples of twos and threes; so we already gathered about two dozen items."

"We need 30 items to sell each hour, and we hope to go at least 10 hours during this auction; so we still need many more items," she concluded. Anyone who would like to donate a new item with a minimum value of $25, or a service of at least that value, should call Skubick at 459-7306.

Downs seeks summer racing dates

Our application was based on the terms of the new racing law and the commissioner's request.

"Of course, we have been after summer racing ever since they took it away from us," Zayti said. The grandstands at the Downs were winterized in 1970 and the track has not been allowed a summer racing season since. Summer dates are generally somewhat more lucrative than winter ones, though the Downs has done well with its winter programs. Zayti suggested that the full-year application also could allow the Downs to operate early October racing dates if Jackson chose to start later in the month.

City manager Steven Walters recalled that there was "an informal agreement" between the state and the track that summer racing in Northville would continue if the Downs agreed to winterize in 1970.

"Since it seems like there was some sort of reneging on that arrangement," Walters said, "the city is not opposed to summer racing. We could have a problem if the total number of dates is expanded without some provision being made to expand the city's share (of parimutuel taxes collected by the state)."

"We would then be faced with additional costs for providing police and other services without any additional money coming in," he said.

Ballenger will preside over a hearing at 10 a.m. September 13 at the Mayflower Meeting House where all those with an interest in the 1985 season will have an opportunity to speak. Ballenger then has until the end of this month to grant thoroughbred racing dates and until October 15 to establish harness racing dates for next year.

If he is not satisfied that Tyner and Hartman are making sufficient progress toward divesting themselves of one of their tracks, he suggested, Northville Downs might be granted summer dates and/or additional dates. A third option exists in that Saginaw Valley Downs has also applied to run harness races at Northville.

"It's pretty common knowledge that what I'm trying to do is get Mr. Tyner and Mr. Hartman to settle this matter as quickly as possible," Ballenger said. "Northville has long wanted to get back into summer racing and if the DRC/Hazel Park thing isn't settled, I'd be hard-pressed to reject Northville's request. Northville is a good track and in recent years it has had the biggest hypes in attendance from year to year."

Walters cautioned that the distribution of racing dates among the state's tracks involves "a lot of politicking. This is not the first season the Downs has applied for extra dates or summer racing," he noted. "This thing comes up from time to time but it always seems to come down to the status quo in the end."

He acknowledged that the fluid situation regarding divestiture means "this year could be the year it would happen, maybe for one year we'd have summer racing at the Downs."

Gratia Lousma tells of astronaut spouse

Gratia Lousma, wife of former astronaut and Republican candidate for the U.S. Senate Jack Lousma, stood in for her husband to speak before Northville Rotary August 28.

Lousma had to cancel his own scheduled appearance at the last minute when national GOP officials decided to meet that Tuesday in Lansing for a planning session on the campaign. The national party leadership has targeted Democratic Senator Carl Levin, Lousma's opponent, for defeat and the Lansing meeting was established during the previous week's national convention in Dallas.

'With the wingman screaming at him and this engine on fire, he sounded like he was just walking across the street.'

—Gratia Lousma
Rotary speaker

Politics was not a major feature of Gratia Lousma's talk, though she did cite what she perceives as her husband's abilities as a leader while concentrating on particular experiences from his years as a pilot and astronaut.

She stressed his calmness under pressure in several stressful situations. She recalled that Lousma was working the console in Houston when word came of the explosion aboard Apollo 13 that resulted in the cancellation of the moon-landing phase of the mission.

"Jack had just sat down at the console when Jim Lovell sent the message that 'Houston, we have a problem,'" Gratia Lousma recounted. "That was a situation where it would be very easy to panic — it looked like we could lose them — but I remember Jack's voice very calmly asking them to assess their problem."

Lousma hit his own very tense situation in 1973 as part of the crew aboard Skylab when the spaceship began venting its propellant into space.

"They'd only been up two days and there was the danger that if they continued to lose fuel, they wouldn't be able to return," Gratia told the unusually large group attending the Rotary meeting. "But I remember Jack saying they thought they had a handle on their problem. NASA was getting ready to send up a rescue mission if it was necessary and there was lot of concern here on the ground, but Jack was perfectly calm about the whole thing."

Asked whether it was more difficult to be the wife of an astronaut or the wife of a political candidate, Gratia Lousma said she found her husband's days as an astronaut were the most trying for her.

Earlier she recalled that in 1961, when her husband was a pilot, he was forced to make an emergency landing in the Sea of Japan. She heard on the radio that "Jack Lousma's plane had exploded over the Sea of Japan — we didn't find out until 10 hours later that he was okay."

Listening to the tape of the incident later, she continued, she was most struck by her husband's unemotional response to the situation. "He had just finished a night refueling and had a bad engine," she recalled. "He had a wingman watching over him and telling him the engine was on fire. The wingman kept screaming at Jack to eject, which he finally did after he'd made every effort to save the plane. What I remember most is Jack's voice. With the wingman screaming at him and this engine on fire, he sounded like he was just walking across the street."

Local politicians ready for state GOP sessions

When the gavel falls at the Michigan Republican State Convention in Detroit this weekend, township clerk Susan Heintz and deputy clerk Georgina Goss will be on hand.

Heintz and Goss are members of the host committee for the convention which begins Friday evening with Congressional District caucuses in the Westin Hotel at the Renaissance Center.

Each of the 18 district caucuses will choose one presidential elector to be part of Michigan's 20-member delegation to the Electoral College. Two others will be chosen at-large by the state convention when it meets in Cobo Hall Saturday morning.

The delegation will cast Michigan's votes for President Ronald Reagan come December, if the popular vote in the state in November favors the Republican candidate.

Also to be selected at the Saturday convention are the party's nominees to the Michigan Supreme Court and other statewide races. This November's statewide contests include three seats on the Supreme Court bench, two on the state Board of Education and two each for the Michigan State University board of trustees, the University of Michigan board of regents and the Wayne State University board of governors.

Delegates to this week's convention were selected at county and district caucuses August 15. The caucus delegates were selected by popular vote in the August 7 primary election. The Second District convention was conducted in township hall.

Heintz said the host committee has lined up some interesting sidelights to the main business at hand. Included are a light show, several "real big production movies" and a visit by a live elephant.

"We're still working on the elephant," Heintz reported last week. "His name is Jack, but we're not quite sure when and where he'll show up."

Those who followed happenings at the national convention in Dallas last month will recognize one more activity — continuation of the "Fritzusters" campaign by Michigan Republican teenagers. The campaign plays on the theme of the popular summer movie "Ghostbusters."

On the more serious side, Heintz projected a "real good convention. There will be some politicking going on, but we will not have the same problems the Democrats did in terms of nominating people to those university boards. There are no big blocs pulling for anyone other than the leading candidates that I've heard about."

Delegates tapped in primary

While they were making dozens of selections in the August 7 primary election, voters also tapped precinct delegates to represent them at party conventions in the coming year.

Township voters picked seven such Republican delegates, leaving three precincts unrepresented. City voters picked four Republicans. No Democratic delegates were selected in either community — none was listed on the ballot, and write-ins did not meet the minimum number required for election.

In the township, Greg Dawson was selected as the GOP delegate for precinct one. Dawson failed in his bid for election to the township board, but gathered sufficient write-in votes in his home precinct to be selected delegate.

In precinct two, Kathleen McNally was the only name on the ballot and won election — she is best-known as president of the Northville Township Homeowners Association. In precinct three John Leinonen was uncontested, while precinct four elected no delegates.

Precinct five is represented by Myron Kasey, who has represented the area before and also failed in a bid for the township board nomination. Precinct six went to Richard Lennox, unopposed, and precinct seven to Marion Lockhart, similarly without a fight.

No delegate was selected in precinct eight, Willard Gaul ran alone in precinct nine. In the only contested delegate race, Tim Mizerowski outpolled Larry VanderMolen 84-50 in precinct 10.

In the city, Oakland County precinct two voters selected Bob Brueck their representative to the GOP while three delegates were selected in Wayne County precinct one: Steve Folino, Elma Belasco and Charles Toussaint. Clerk Joan McAllister reported a handful of write-in votes for various Democratic delegates, but none reached the total of three required to be elected.

In the township ...

An estimated $2,680 worth of equipment was stolen from a construction site on Northridge Drive sometime between 4:30 p.m. August 25 and 7:30 a.m. August 27, township police report.

The owner of the construction company working on the site told township police that unknown persons stole the equipment when workers were away from the premises. He further noted that all equipment was being leased.

Items stolen included a $1,900 cement mixer, metal scaffolding valued at $364, scaffolding planks valued at $264 and steel scaffolding outriggers estimated at $152.

Two Winchester rifles valued at $400 were stolen from a Sunset residence sometime between 1 p.m. August 27 and 8:30 p.m. September 3, township police report.

The complainant told police unknown subject(s) broke the entrance door from the garage to the house to gain entry. He further stated the subject(s) probably left the house through the front door as it was found unlocked upon his return home.

The complainant said nothing was disturbed or taken other than the two rifles and some ammunition. The weapons were taken from a closet in the southwest bedroom of the residence.

A radar detector valued at $250 was stolen from Ford Escort parked in the driveway of a Stoneleigh residence sometime after 1:30 a.m. August 28, police report.

The complainant told police that sometime during the evening of August 28, unknown subjects broke the driver's floor window of his vehicle and stole the radar detector which was on top of the dashboard.

A witness, who lives directly across the street from the complainant, told police he saw a dark colored Camero/Firebird model in the driveway at approximately 1:30 a.m. and saw someone on foot by the complainant's car.

The witness told police he was not wearing his glasses and therefore was unable to give any further description.

He further stated that when he turned the lights on in his bedroom, the person ran back to the car and drove away.

Unknown subjects caused an estimated $435 damage to a motor home parked on Stratford Court sometime between 11:30 a.m. August 18 and 8:15 p.m. August 21, police report.

The complainant told police that unknown subjects shot a BB through the windshield, headlights and one fog light of the motor home.

In the city ...

Two 3'x6" windows to the northwest front door of Cooke Junior High sustained vandalism damage estimated at $100 last weekend. One window was cracked and the other shattered between an unknown time Sunday and 10:36 p.m. Monday, when the damage was reported to city police.

A walkaway from Northville Regional Psychiatric Hospital was apprehended by city police and hospital security guards Friday afternoon.

A city resident phoned police to report a suspicious male running along Griswold Street near the Anger Manufacturing building. Investigating officers detained the man at 12:25 p.m. and returned him to the hospital.

An orange-and-yellow pup tent valued at $150 was reported stolen from the back yard of a South Wing Street home between 11 p.m. Sunday and 9 a.m. the following morning.

Improvements on the grounds at the Northville Ford Plant at the South Main bend are intended primarily for beautification and to make things more pleasant for visitors drawn to the plant by the waterfowl living in the pond, plant manager Bill Sherrick says. The tail race (below the water wheel) has been widened and deepened by construction of a stone dam downstream from area shown in the photograph above. The slope was lined with stones to stop soil erosion and present a more tidy appearance. Surrounding areas have been planted with new grass seed and the island in the middle of the two water courses was levelled for new plantings early this week. Sherrick said further plans include addition of two or three parking spaces for visitors to the plant and, in the long-term, perhaps some picnic tables. This month should also see bushes planted as a screen in front of the plant's Griswold Street parking lot. The screening was agreed to with the city to improve the appearance of the lot, which is used for storage. Planting only awaits the nursery's determination of the proper timing. Stolen truck is torched near C&O railroad track

City firefighters Monday night snuffed out a blaze that "engulfed" a torched 1984 Ford Bronco stolen from a Walled Lake restaurant earlier that night. It was the second time this summer city firefighters have responded to a torched vehicle emergency.

The truck had been stripped and set afire on Railroad Street, a dirt road located near the city DPW compound just east of the railroad tracks.

The owner, a Milford resident, told police her locked vehicle was stolen between 10 and 10:30 p.m. Monday while she was eating at a Walled Lake restaurant.

At approximately 11:30 p.m., a patrolling city police officer spotted the blazing vehicle and summoned firefighters.

The truck was "engulfed in flames" when Northville firefighters arrived on the scene, according to Northville Fire Chief Jim Allen. After about 10 minutes, the fire was extinguished without anyone being hurt.

Walled Lake police said the seats, tires and radio were removed from the truck before it was torched. The truck as of yesterday morning was impounded in the city DPW yard nearby.

On July 23 — also a Monday — a 1979 Datsun stolen from a Westland Mall parking lot was set afire in Hines Park, requiring a response from the city fire department.

City police from Walled Lake and from Northville are continuing to investigate Monday's incident, and a more complete report is expected by next week.

Rally Day slated Sunday at United Methodist church

Sunday, September 9, is Rally Day at First United Methodist Church on Eight Mile at T&T. It will be highlighted with a family picnic — an old-fashioned corn roast at Maybury State Park — at 1 p.m. Games and music will be features. Members are asked to make reservation with the church. Cost is $2 for adults and $1.50 for children under 10. The Reverend Eric Hammar announces that a two-service schedule begins Sunday. A 9:30 a.m. service is set with full church school and three adult classes. Second service will be at 11 a.m. with church school through third grade.

Support our band

Revival of summer concerts by the Northville Community Band has been welcome news. It was the community band under the direction of Janis Stevenson that listeners heard on a recent Saturday afternoon presenting a free concert in front of the community recreation building at the scene of Northville's first Duck Festival.

As it should be, the band is open to musicians of all ages without auditions. It has been practicing weekly during the summer at Schoolcraft College in rented space.

Makin' music is a double enjoyment — it pleases both the performer and the listener. Old-time residents are fond of recalling concerts in town. And not too many years ago, summer concerts under the direction of Bob Williams were held on the high school hill with listeners bringing blankets to sit on the lawn.

Conductor Stevenson currently has 22 members in the band — and says she would like more. This summer's band has been composed largely of college students who are recent high school graduates, but Stevenson would like to see more residents bring out their instruments to swell the sound.

We can think of many occasions for performances — Sunday afternoons by the Mill Race Village gazebo when the village is open, for example. The band in other years has performed in front of the gazebo, Stevenson notes, as the structure itself is too small to hold the musicians. It's a good gathering place, however. Stevenson recalls that Northville resident Jane Francoeur was a moving force in beginning a community band a few years ago. Stevenson, who was assistant director, took over after Williams developed ear problems. After last summer's bandless silence, it is good to have new interest. Both Williams and Stevenson have donated their time generously to supplying music for the community.

After a September break from weekly practice, Stevenson hopes to continue the band as a year-round organization. It has been operating on donations to buy needed music — light classical, show tunes and marching songs (although, Stevenson makes the point, the band is a concert one, not a marching band.)

With a nucleus group of musicians and a willing director, it appears that what now is needed is a local sponsor. We do not think the band should have to rent space at Schoolcraft in order to have rehearsal facilities. Northville community recreation director Jef Farland has said that a community band was one of his goals in developing the department. It appears the band is ready and willing to strike up — let's give it local support and applause.

Baseball, Bowie Kuhn and wedding bells

I'm quite certain that I am the only Michigan resident who would like to see any other team but the Detroit Tigers make it to the World Series. While many might consider me a Communist sympathizer for voicing such gross disloyalty to the home team, I'm continuing to keep my fingers crossed.

The only way I'll uncross my fingers is if the Chicago Cubs win the National League playoffs. At least that way I'll stand a chance of seeing a few familiar faces at my pending nuptials.

For those who may not have caught on, I have acquired a strong dislike for major league and collegiate sports during the last 11 months.

It all started when I tried to set a wedding date. Always partial to autumn, October seemed like the perfect month. Of course, any sports enthusiast can tell you that October just happens to be the perfect month for other things as well — particularly Big Ten football and the World Series.

Never being much of a sports fan I was considerably more than annoyed to learn that on October 13 (the original wedding date) the Wolverines will be playing at home against Northwestern and Michigan State is celebrating its Homecoming against Indiana. Translated, that means that all of Steve's photojournalist friends (particularly sports photographers and wire service shooters) will be in East Lansing or Ann Arbor on October 13. It also means that many of my diehard Spartan friends will either be at MSU's Homecoming or will reluctantly be sitting in a church eagerly awaiting the end of the service.

I can hear their remarks as they walk through the receiving line. They'd say something like: "Lovely ceremony, it's just too bad you had to have it on the same day as MSU's Homecoming. You know, this is the first game we've missed in 10 years."

Rather than endure such wrath or the possibility of only the immediate families attending the service, we switched the date. Of course, the idea of changing my wedding date to compensate for Big Ten football irks me to no end.

Now to make matters worse, the Tigers had to play this season like it was 1968. By moving my original October 13 wedding to Friday evening, October 12, I'm now stuck right in the middle of the World Series. Who was thinking about baseball back in December when all these plans were made?

As it stands now, if the Cubs do not win the National League pennant, the World Series will open October 9 in the National League park and the move to the American League on — you guessed it — Friday night, October 12. That means that most of Steve's photographer friends will be positioning themselves somewhere on the field at Tiger stadium while we're accepting congratulations from the 10 guests attending the ceremony.

However, there is hope — thanks to Commissioner Bowie Kuhn and Chicago's lightless Wrigley Field. The only catch (no pun intended) is that the Cubs have to win the playoffs.

According to Kuhn, should the Cubs win the playoffs, the series will start in the American League city with night games October 9 and 10 and then will move to day games in Chicago October 12-14. If the Cubs make it to the playoffs, I think I'll invite them to the reception.

About Town

By Steve Fecht

After the fact

By PHILIP JEROME

It was one of those swanky places. The kind where the maitre d' speaks with an accent and calls you Mr. Jerome when you arrive for dinner.

I like places like that. It's nice to get a little respect once in a while.

The only problem is the wine list. You see, I don't know much about wines except that white goes with fish and red goes with meat.

Fortunately, I'm aware of this shortcoming and several years ago bought my wife a book that explains everything you need to know about wines. When the sommelier gives me the wine list, I wait till he leaves and hand it to my wife who selects a wine and tells me what it is so I can order when he returns.

"How about a Cabernet Sauvignon?" she suggested after perusing the wine list. "A Cabernet Sauvignon from the Deer Park region. I like the Deer Park."

"An excellent choice, my pet," I responded. "The Deer Park is one of my favorites as well."

She returned the wine list, I laid it next to my plate and beckoned for the wine steward.

"Have you decided, Monsieur Jerome?"

"Yes, mon ami," I said confidentially. "I think we would like a Cabernet Sauvignon from the Deer Park, 1955, s'il vous plait."

The wine steward was impressed and told me so. "An excellent choice, monsieur, but I'm afraid we're out of the Deer Park right now. Would you care to make another selection?"

Panic racked my mind. No Deer Park! Could it be? I started to stammer and lunged for the wine list, attempting to buy time to recover my composure.

That's when she saved the day. Piped right up and said, "Then let us have a Flora Springs, please. Flora Springs has always been one of your favorites, hasn't it, Phil?"

As soon as the wine steward had left in search of the Flora Springs, I thanked her profusely for coming to my rescue.

"I did it for myself," she replied humbly. "I was afraid you were going to say 'Rip-ple.'"

Township studies charge for rescue unit

Manpower allocations in the township fire department are under study with a particular eye on the operation of a rescue vehicle that began in early March.

Fire chief Robert Toms asked the board of trustees to approve a $75 fee for transportation to a hospital in the rescue vehicle, which normally serves only as backup to Community EMS, the ambulance firm under contract with the township.

Toms explained that the unit is fully equipped to operate as a rescue unit at accident scenes in the township and only transports victims when absolutely necessary, normally leaving transportation to CEMS. The township unit is operated by licensed emergency medical technicians (EMTs) on the volunteer staff and, according to Toms' report to the board, it was dispatched about 25 times between early March and mid-July. The majority of calls were made at the scenes of auto accidents involving injuries, with others at fire scenes and one case of a man being trapped in a cave.

The rescue unit responds when requested to do so by the township police department — it is not available to transport patients who call requesting an ambulance to take them to the hospital. In the past several months, the fire department unit has transported persons only a few times, Toms said. In one case, there were three victims of an auto accident and the CEMS unit had room for only two, so the third was taken to St. Mary by the township unit. In another, a man at a fire scene was bordering on cardiac arrest and CEMS had not yet arrived.

The rescue unit carries the township's hydraulic tool for extracting victims from auto accidents, which has been used five times since purchased, Toms reported. When medical supplies from the township unit are used at an accident scene, CEMS replenishes the stock, he said.

Trustee Richard Allen had requested the report out of concern regarding the number of firefighters being paid for service at the scene of minor fires or at accident washdowns.

Toms explained that he has the volunteer force divided into two squads of 14 men, one of which is on call to respond immediately on alternate weeks. The second squad is called only for major fires that week. The squad separation is abolished for July and August when vacations reduce the number of firefighters available.

Allen said the report that caused concern was for the month of June, when as many as 13 firefighters were turned out to minor accident scenes where the department only washed down the pavement where gasoline spilled. All firefighters who respond to the scene, regardless of whether they are needed or not, are paid $10 so long as they are from the squad on call.

Of the apparent over-response at minor calls, Toms said "that happens sometimes" because the 14-member squads were set up to insure a fairly strong response even when many members are out of town. He noted that as few as six or eight squad members are sometimes available. "When the call goes out, everyone in the squad shows up. Sometimes it's too many, but I'd rather that than have not enough at a fire."

Department captain Bert Sass suggested that some of the numbers reported for total response at a fire call include persons from the off-duty squad. "If they're not on call that week, they might show up but they don't get paid," Sass said.

The board took Toms' suggestion of a $75 fee for transportation under advisement and asked him to supply more detailed information regarding the way in which manpower needs are met.

"I know you'd like to see one man show up for a one man fire," Toms said. "But it just doesn't work that way. You don't know what you have 'til you get there."

Treasurer Richard Henningsen said he had asked Toms to investigate radio equipment that would allow two-way communication between the dispatcher and firefighters. He suggested that such communication might allow the dispatcher to indicate the severity of the call, so that response could be tailored more precisely. It would also allow the dispatcher and fire chief to know how many firefighters were en route so that a second call could be issued if there were a shortage.

Levin press led by Serkaian

Stephen Serkaian, a 1974 Northville High School graduate, has been appointed campaign press secretary to U.S. Senator Carl Levin (D-Michigan).

The 28-year-old son of Nick and Cathy Serkaian of Bloomcrest Drive has been assistant press secretary to the senator since his first Senate campaign in 1978. He is taking a leave of absence from his duties in Senator Levin's Washington, D.C., office and will stay with his parents for the duration of the campaign.

Serkaian previously was press secretary to 10th district congressional candidate Roger Tilles and a reporter at WCMU-FM in Mt. Pleasant, public radio at Central Michigan University. He was graduated from CMU in 1978 and also holds a master's degree in public relations from The American University in Washington, D.C.

Levin, concluding his first six-year term in office, faces Republican challenger Jack Loumsa in the November election. Levin's campaign headquarters is in Southfield, where Serkaian may be reached at 569-4222.

NOTICE TO TAXPAYERS

Beginning October 1, 1984, an additional penalty of $10.00 will be added to each 1982 and prior years delinquent tax that appears unpaid on the records of the county treasurer. This amount is added according to the provisions of Section 211.59 and 211.60 compiled laws of Michigan to cover the expense of sale at the next May tax sale.

Immediate payment will save you this additional penalty and keep your property from appearing in the public list of lands to be offered at tax sale.

Community concert

Making music — for members' own enjoyment and to entertain others — is what a community band is all about. Northville Community Band did both as it presented a summer outdoor concert at the chamber-sponsored Duck Festival August 25 at the community building on West Main under the direction of Janis Stevenson, left. Sean Foley-

Wanroy, below, found the music as good to dance to as to listen to when his mom, Phyllis Foley-Wanroy, far right, brought him to the afternoon event. Director Stevenson says she welcomes additions to the band, both student and adult. She may be reached at 349-8870. Record photos by Steve Fecht.

School Notebook

Northville resident LYNN ROSTECK was among the Henry Ford Community College students named to the dean's list for the spring semester.

To be eligible, students must attend the college full time and maintain at least a 3.25 grade point average.

Eight Northville residents were among the 869 Lawrence Institute of Technology students recently receiving degrees.

Among those receiving degrees were KEVIN J. BLASER, 305 North Ely, industrial management; JOHN A. BYRD, 20196 Whipple Drive, business administration; KENNETH DOMINIQUE JR., 19709 Hayes Court, electrical engineering; LAURIE J. EWALD, 19206 Silver Spring, mechanical engineering; MARTHA J. GLEICHMAN, 41531 Ladywood Court, business administration; MICHAEL J. HORBANUK, 37559 Dungarran Court, mechanical engineering; STEVE MUNSELL, 41550 Rayburn, business administration, and J.E. RILEY, 21312 East Glen Haven, business administration.

THOMAS KENNETH COOK of Northville was among more than 140 students receiving a master of business administration degree from the Amos Tuck School of Business Administration at Dartmouth College June 10.

Cook received his A.B. from Harvard University in 1979.

At commencement ceremonies held June 16 at the Henry and Edsel Ford Auditorium in Detroit, DAVID DANIEL WADDELL of Northville received a Juris Doctor degree from Wayne State University.

He was one of 253 persons receiving a Juris Doctor or master of Laws degree from WSU.

Waddell is the son of Mr. and Mrs. David M. Waddell of Northville. He received his A.B. from University of Michigan in 1981. He was a member of the Wayne Law Review and was graduated from Wayne State Cum Laude.

GREGORY M. AYERS of 518 Morgan Circle is among the Purdue University students named residence hall counselors for the 1984-85 school year.

Each counselor has responsibility for 45-50 students. The counselors are the student administrative staff of the residence halls, advise student organizations within each hall and are available for other counseling duties.

Ayers, a senior studying interdisciplinary engineering, will be a counselor at Owen Hall.

Chambers offer group health

By JEAN DAY

Traditionally, business and professional persons, owners of companies and merchants have joined their local chambers of commerce to help promote their own community, but for many there now is an additional, money-saving incentive — group insurance.

Presently, both Northville and Novi chambers offer their members group-rate health insurance programs at rates they say are considerably less than individuals can purchase.

Kay Keegan, executive director of the Northville Community Chamber of Commerce, recalled that the chamber was able to offer health and dental insurance to its members when it became part of the 12-member West Suburban Area Council of Chambers of Commerce about four years ago. The Northville chamber, she added, is a charter member, joining when the council was organized.

The insurance is available to a member alone as well as to a member with as few as one or two employees. The group plan is through New York Life Insurance Company.

Because some chambers do not offer a group insurance program (a check revealed this is the case in Milford and South Lyon), Keegan reported the Northville chamber has acquired some out-of-town memberships. These, according to Keegan, are business persons who wish to acquire insurance coverage at a group rate. The chamber, she noted, only accepts those who cannot obtain insurance in their own chambers.

Lydia Moses, executive secretary of the Novi Chamber of Commerce, said the Novi chamber has a health plan at group rate for members only through Central Reserve Insurance with K. L. Joiner and Associates of Troy as agent.

While Novi is a member of the Oakland County Council of Chambers of Commerce, she said, the insurance is chosen individually by each of the 15 participating members.

The 120-member Novi chamber meets the third Tuesday of the month for breakfast or lunch at the Red Timbers Restaurant. However, Moses said, a joint meeting with Farmington Hills and Farmington chambers is slated for September 12 at the Holiday Inn in Farmington with representatives of MetroVision Cable. A special meeting also is being planned for September 28 with Senate Majority Leader John Engler at Meadowbrook Country Club.

Concurrently with West Suburban Area Council of Chambers (WACC), the Northville Community Chamber of Commerce is in the process of taking an in-depth look at its goals and philosophies.

At the August 9 board meeting of the Northville Chamber, President Sherry Spaman reported that the West Suburban Council is reviewing its bylaws.

A subcommittee of the WACC had been appointed in April to review bylaws and "address the possibility of modifying or redefining our mission or philosophy."

The WACC has sent a questionnaire to its members seeking definite responses to members' wants, projects needing undertaken and to what they believe should be "the complement of the council or the eligibility requirements of the officers."

Mitchell Nimmo, WACC president, in a letter to member chambers said he is asking for "candid appraisal of how you view the group and what can be done to help you." Responses were due September 4.

The questions came at a time when the Northville chamber was reviewing its own goals and priorities.

Within the Northville chamber there has been confusion about the organization's priorities. At the August meeting of the board, President Spaman emphasized that the chamber is organized as a "community" group to serve both downtown and township businesses.

Not to do so, she stressed, would be to cut off its future worth as she predicted there shortly will be expansion of retail business in the township. Both the downtown merchants and the outlying businesses coming will have to work together to survive, she said.

The Northville chamber during the past year has attempted to offer monthly general membership breakfast programs as well as additional social meetings. Its board also increased its meetings from once a month to twice monthly.

South Lyon Chamber of Commerce executive secretary Margaret Frink said the South Lyon board has checked into group insurance but at the present time decided not to offer it to its 71 members. She said the chamber had been advised to check to determine what it would do if the insurance carrier decided to drop it.

While South Lyon is in Oakland County and could join its council of chambers, Frink explained that it decided not to do so now because "we're a long way from Troy" where meetings are held.

Local puzzle enthusiasts piece-it-together at contest

By JEAN DAY

"Therapy" comes in 500 pieces in a box for Northville resident Sharon K. Wright who says she long has bought a jigsaw puzzle when she wants to unwind.

Another township resident, Sally C. Nair, also admits to having done puzzles for a long time.

Both report they picked up entry forms for the third annual Hallmark National Jigsaw Puzzle Championships held August 18-19 on the campus of Ohio University in Athens, Ohio, when they dropped by a store to buy a puzzle.

While both joined more than 380 puzzlers from across the nation in the singles competition, they did not know each other, or meet until they got together last weekend to reconstruct the contest puzzle for The Record. An additional 120 puzzle fans competed in the doubles contest.

"Ballerina Legs," the puzzle both worked to assemble in the contest, now is their memento of the event. "It's very pretty," says Sharon of the puzzle featuring ballerina legs in various-colored tights and toe shoes. She also has "Piece of Chocolate," a second puzzle from the nationals which finalists from the initial round were given to work.

"I was very surprised and quite pleased," Sharon Wright comments of her play, noting, "I never had done a puzzle for speed before and I finished in the extra 10 minutes they (officials) gave. I'm sure I was in the top 25."

Sally Nair agreed the contest (first

I was quite pleased ... I never had done a puzzle for speed before.

— Sharon Wright

for both young women although the third sponsored by the jigsaw puzzle maker) was "a lot of fun and a different experience."

She explained that the top entrant finished putting together the 500 pieces in 54 minutes and play continued to find runner-up winners until after the first 15 were finished.

Contestants were vying for prizes of $1,000, $750, $500, $250 and $100 in the championships sponsored jointly by the card company and the Athens Area Chamber of Commerce.

Contestants were chosen at random from those sending in entry forms.

The contest puzzles were specially made Springbok puzzles with both the designs and die-cuts remaining a guarded secret beforehand.

In preparation to enter, Sharon says she had purchased the 1982 official contest puzzle—a round pizza design—and worked it. Her only criticism of the contest, she adds, is that she feels there should be more credit for those who do complete the puzzle. She and Sally only brought home the contest puzzle as an award. Both, however, purchased commemorative t-shirts.

Both Friday and Saturday evenings of the competition, they relate, the sponsor entertained with a talent contest and comedian in a large tent on the campus grounds, providing drinks for the entrants. There also was a puzzle "swap," but both women said they didn't want to part with any they own.

A township resident, Sharon and her husband Paul live in Northridge Apartments on Seven Mile and also relax by playing golf.

She attends Schoolcraft College and also works at Hazel Park Racetrack where she is an animal technician.

Competitor Nair is a resident of Highland Lakes with her mother and was just graduated from Northern Michigan University with a bachelor of fine arts degree in environmental design. She now is enrolling at Lawrence Tech for a degree in architectural design.

She reports that "all ages" are jigsaw puzzle fans with some as young as nine years old in the competition.

"One lady," she relates, "saved her money for two years to come from New Zealand to compete."

While the majority of the contestants were older, the women report, the top 15 winners were younger than the average.

Both say their hobby is "a bit expensive" as puzzles run in the $9 range—but both "would like to go again" to the nationals.

24th season opens

Town Hall lecture tickets available

Limited tickets are available on a first come, first serve basis for the upcoming Northville Town Hall celebrity lecture series.

Comedian Phyllis Diller is headlining Northville Town Hall's 24th season October 11 at its new location at Sheraton Oaks in Novi.

Considered one of the leading female stand-up comics in the world today, Diller started her career at age 37. At the time she began a night club act, she was a working housewife and mother of five children employed as a publicist for a San Francisco radio station.

She followed the night club act with a tour, polishing her material, most of which she writes herself. She appeared on the Jack Paar show and starred in three television series. She has been in many movies and accompanied Bob Hope, one of her biggest boosters, on one of his Christmas jaunts to Vietnam.

An author as well as a piano soloist, Diller has written four best-selling books for Doubleday.

Following Diller will be Mort Crim, television and radio journalist and host of his own TV talk show, on November 8.

Pianist Bernie Katz will appear

March 14 with Bess Abell concluding the series April 18. She is former executive assistant to Joan Mondale, and previously White House Social Secretary.

Season ticket price for the lecture series is $25. Price for the celebrity luncheons following the lectures will be $10.20, including gratuities. Mail orders for season tickets should be sent to ticket chairman Mrs. Richard Lyon, Northville Town Hall, P.O. Box 93, Northville.

All programs will be at 11 a.m. on Thursdays.

Schoolcraft auditions today for thriller

The Schoolcraft College Theater Department is looking for actors, crew, publicists, set designers and lighting technicians for its dinner theater production of "The Haunting of Hill House."

Four women and three men cast members are needed for the suspense drama to be performed November 16, 17 and 18 at Schoolcraft College.

"The Haunting of Hill House" is a chilling study in mounting terror in which a small group of "psychically receptive" people are brought together in Hill House, a brooding, mid-Victorian mansion known as a place of evil and "contained ill will."

Led by the learned Dr. Montague, who is conducting research in supernatural phenomena, the visitors have come to probe the secrets of the old house and to draw forth the mysterious powers which it is alleged to possess—powers which have brought madness and death to those who have lived there in the past. This play by Shirley Jackson was the basis for the movie,

"The Haunting."

Auditions are open to any student currently enrolled at Schoolcraft and are scheduled at 7 p.m. today in the Liberal Arts Theater (Room B-500). No experience is necessary. Everyone is welcome to audition.

James Hartman has been hired by the college to direct the play and teach a class in stagecraft and lighting.

For more information, call the Office of Special Events at 591-6400, extension 216.

Swim club ends social year with German Augustfest

By JEAN DAY

While Northville Swim Club only closed for the season after Labor Day weekend, its annual end-of-the-year poolside party was held a week earlier. The August 25 German "Augustfest" included a German wine-tasting and German music as well as a German buffet catered by the same firm that handled food for 50 corporations at the Grand Prix in Detroit earlier.

Club social director Cheryl Gazlay and club manager Ron VanHorn had an assist from member Cheryl Cassidy for the event. Jim Roth of Good Time Party Store supplied the wine tasting with a German wine distributor before a full German buffet including bratwurst and finishing with Black Forest cake. The evening ended for the 68 attending with dancing to music of the '50s and '60s.

Because Cheryl Cassidy is catering coordinator for Detroit Olympia Catering located at John R and Eight Mile, that firm supplied the club buffet. At the Grand Prix, she relates, it catered food for corporate "suites" participating. The suites, Cassidy explains, were the striped tents located in front of Ren Cen with the best views of the race and occupied by automotive and other corporate heads.

Cassady's '36 Ford led to her new job

Selecting menus, table linen colors, flowers and interviewing and hiring 200 staff members for the Grand Prix job were Cheryl Cassidy's first assignments on the job that took three and a half months preparation and ended with round the clock hours during the event.

How she obtained it is a story in itself: the Cassadys own a 1936 Ford Coupe which Dennis Cassidy restored himself — it took first place in their club show. As a member of the Ford-Mercury Restorers' Club, Cheryl visited Warren Valley Country Club to arrange a club dinner dance. At the end of the planning session, the manager asked if she were interested in working. His recommendation led to interviews that resulted in her getting the newly created Grand Prix catering coordinator post. "As we planned the dinner dance menu," Cheryl relates, "the club manager asked if I were working and I said I had just finished with tax preparations. At the two interviews, I was asked about my college experience, and I said I had studied criminal justice but loved to cook gourmet meals and entertain."

For the Grand Prix, Cheryl worked with Jeff Wolfe, who then was culinary arts director at Oakland University where all the food was cooked between 10 p.m. and 3 a.m. and trucked downtown. Cheryl already is committed to next year's Grand Prix and in the meantime is to be a west side sales representative for the company, catering everything from weddings to meetings. "I love it," she exclaims, adding, "there I was with an office in Ren Cen and my own secretary — and I used to be one!"

Piano teachers go to school, too

While some of her piano pupils continue 'year round, most of the about 40 taught by Bonnie McIntosh at her home on Curtis take a summer recess. Their teacher attended the Michigan Music Teachers Conference at Michigan State University in July.

She reports that it was "wonderful" as piano students as young as nine years old played Beethoven sonatas. She adds that she is still working on programs to teach preschoolers.

Center teams gourmet lunch with women's lecture series

The Schoolcraft College Women's Resource Center once again will present its luncheon series at Le Gastronomique Restaurant at the Waterman Center on campus.

The series, which features outstanding cuisine prepared by the Schoolcraft College Culinary Arts Department, will be held from 11:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. September 21, October 19 and November 16.

The first presentation will focus on "You Handwriting — Find the Hidden You" by certified handwriting analyst Jeanette Bickham.

On October 19, network advocate Joan Tester will discuss "Networking — What, How, Why?" Claire Nehr, a technical consultant for AT&T Information Systems will discuss "What's a Computer Like You Doing in a House Like This?" at the November 16 luncheon.

Luncheon for each presentation includes soup du jour or salad, croissants, gourmet entrees, fresh garden vegetables, French pastries and beverage.

Price is $7 per luncheon and reservations must be received at least five days before the luncheon.

For more information, call 591-6400, extension 430.

Three attend church meet

Katherine Krauter, Lulu Witt and Jo Krause from the Lutheran Ladies Auxiliary Chapter 22 of Northville attended the 47th convention of the Lutheran Ladies Auxiliary Inc. held at the Livonia Holiday Inn August 9-10.

The 127 delegates in attendance, representing 6,810 women in 49 chapters in Michigan and one in Faribault, Minnesota, endorsed the following projects: 1984-85 — Lutheran Child and Family Services in Michigan; 1985-86 — Concordia College, Ann Arbor, "Media Center."

In addition, an annual scholarship will be sponsored in the amount of $500 which will be available in the spring of 1985 to any member of the Lutheran Ladies Auxiliary Inc. wishing to attend a college or university.

To encourage more Lutheran women to join the various L.L.A. chapters in membership, the convention assembly authorized a special membership drive whereby all Lutheran women from the age of confirmation through 45 may join for an entry fee of $1 plus annual dues of $15 for 30 years.

Further information regarding membership may be obtained by calling Katherine Krauter at 349-1731 or 349-0540.

Hawaii honeymoon follows Village rites

DR. AND MRS. JEFFREY EISENBERG

Tamara Lynn Eis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Timothy Eis of 18243 Arselot Drive, exchanged marriage vows June 3 with Jeffrey Craig Eisenberg, son of Irving Eisenberg of Norfolk, Virginia.

The double ring ceremony was held in Martha Mary Chapel at Greenfield Village in Dearborn. Dr. Richard Henderson of Faith Community Presbyterian Church of Novi officiated at the ceremony with Rabbi Sherwin Wine of Birmingham Temple.

The bride wore an antique ivory gown of silk taffeta and Alencon lace. She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses, gardenias and pink sweetheart roses.

The bride's former college roommate, Anne Haubold of Chapel Hill, North Carolina, served as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Sally Seyler of Oxford, Kyle Roggenbuck of Geneva, Illinois, Jody Lauber of Washington D.C., Karen Boll of Northville and Maureen Knoll of Farmington Hills.

The bride's attendants wore pink tea length gowns and carried pink and white sweetheart roses mixed with baby's-breath.

The bridegroom's nephew Evan Dawson was ringbearer and his niece Amy Kagan was flower girl.

Dr. Courtenay Harrison of Nashville, Tennessee, was best man. Ushers included Dr. Robb Glenny of Durham, North Carolina, the bridegroom's brothers-in-law Bruce Dawson and Dr. Harvey Kagan, both of Virginia Beach, and the bride's brothers Todd and Thomas Eis of Northville.

A reception for 160 guests was held at Lovett Hall at Greenfield Village following the ceremony. Out-of-town guests included those from Virginia, Illinois, North Carolina and Pennsylvania.

The bride is a 1979 Northville High School graduate and was graduated from the College of Nursing at Michigan State University in 1983. She currently is employed at Strong Memorial Hospital in Rochester, New York.

The bridegroom is a 1984 graduate of University of Virginia Medical School and is doing his residency in Rochester, New York.

Following a two-week trip to Hawaii, the newlyweds returned to Rochester where they will reside.

Presbyterian church slates classes

The Reverend Hope Koski will be featured guest lecturer in "The Growth Edge," a series of four early fall classes beginning Sunday morning at First Presbyterian Church of Northville under sponsorship of the Adult Christian Education department.

"We are excited to have her," said Dr. Lawrence Chamberlain, senior pastor, explaining that the Reverend Koski is one of the few women who have been ordained a priest in the Episcopal faith. He added that she "has interesting stories to tell."

She presently is serving as priest associate at the large St. Matthew's/St. Joseph's Episcopal Church in Detroit. She previously was vicar at Good Shepherd Episcopal Church in Dearborn Heights and assistant at St. Paul's in Romeo.

She received her BA in music (organ) from University of Connecticut, her SMM from Union Theological Seminary in New York and her STM in liturgics from Nashotah (Wisconsin) House. She will speak in the series, "The Language of Faith."

At 9:30 a.m. Sunday in the new series members can choose between two eight-week classes:

"The Language of Faith" will deal with the language problem of the Christian faith. Sponsors explain, "Often the words we use in church, such as 'sin,' 'salvation,' 'grace' and 'reconciliation,' are not words we use in everyday conversation. Even more important, we have difficulty in applying what these words mean in our daily living."

"With everyday language and through examples from human experience, this class will be a theological workbook study of key concepts in our Christian faith."

"We try to close the gap between what we learn about our faith in church and how to apply it seven days a week."

"Loss/Change of Lifestyle" will show how, both at home and at work, the experience of loss significantly changes lives.

The four topics included in this series are divorce, death of a child, loss of mobility in corporate life and corporate relocation. It will be presented with guest speakers.

Two programs are offered at 11 a.m.:

"The Theology of Money Management" to be taught by Dr. Lawrence Chamberlain, Dr. Raymond Knudsen and Dr. Charles McCracken will include Family Money Management, Money Management Equals Life Style Management, Investments for Fun and Prophets, Creative Giving in Transitional Times, and Wills and Bequests. Classes will be held from September 9 to October 7.

Second series at 11 a.m. will deal with "Substance Abuse Among Adults." It will be taught by Dr. Frank Hollingsworth and speakers from Personalized Nursing Service. Insights on the reasons for drug and alcohol abuse among adults in suburban settings will be presented as well as methods of treatment used and community referral sources. This class will be held from September 9 to October 28.

Fee for each of the four presentations is $15 a person. Pre-registration will be held Sunday morning, September 2. The church may be called at 349-0911 for more information.

Family welcomes Tanner

Stephanie and William H. Kelly Jr. of 44530 Louvert Court announce the birth of their first child, Tanner William.

He was born July 16 at Sinai Hospital and weighed 7 pounds, 10 ounces.

Mrs. William H. Kelly is paternal grandmother. Mrs. Carolyn Butler of Ann Arbor and Huston Butler of Neosho, Missouri, are maternal grandparents.

Mrs. Rose Robertson of Houghton is paternal great-grandmother.

Bushnell names assistant

The Bushnell Congregational Church returns to a full schedule this Sunday, September 8, at 9:30 a.m. The church is located on Meadowbrook Road between Eight and Nine Mile.

The Chancel Choir with brass quartet and oboe under the direction of Professor Ray Ferguson will perform a large festival anthem on "The Church's One Foundation." Rosemarie Murch will perform a solo by Vaughan Williams.

A change in the professional staff involves the addition of Becky-Myrick as associate pastor. Her new duties began September 1; she will be assisting senior minister, Dr. Robin Meyers.

The Board of Christian Education held a workshop for the 1984-85 church school staff. Classes are provided for children through 13 years of age, and plans are under way to add a young adult fellowship.

The Northville Record

Dan Magdich delivers a clearing kick

Kickers third at DCD

By B.J. MARTIN

The first athletic events of the fall season got under way last weekend, with fair-to-middlin' results — Northville's varsity soccer team took home third place honors from the Detroit Country Day Invitational Soccer Tournament with one loss and a pair of wins.

That may not sound so bad — and it isn't — but Co-coach Marv Gans said Monday he was concerned about a few problems that popped up during the Mustangs' three tournament games — particularly in Saturday's 3-2 loss to Brighton.

One was injuries. Several minor injuries surfaced over the weekend, forcing Gans and Co-coach Dan Swayne into a lineup juggling act. One of the most costly battle wounds was a thigh muscle pull incurred by center back Dan Magdich. Magdich was sidelined for Northville's loss to Brighton — the first time the Bulldogs have ever defeated Northville.

"That might have hurt our chances," Gans said of the injury to Magdich. "We had to shuffle our lineup a bit and that threw us off."

Another problem that surfaced for the Mustangs Saturday was missed scoring chances. We had multiple opportunities to put the game away," Gans declared. "We can't go on doing that if we're going to be successful."

Doug May scored in the first half and Matt Peltz in the second against the much-improved Bulldogs. Gans noted Brighton was "sky-high" for that game after Northville had humbled them in last year's state playoffs.

Another problem that surfaced in the Brighton game was tentative play by the Mustangs. "We were a little up-tight," Gans reported. "Our style this year has been to go hard and play aggressively, and we need to do better at that."

Brighton went on to face Brother Rice in the tournament final later Saturday and fell 4-1. Rice had advanced to that game by beating Detroit Country Day in a post-overtime shootout.

Ironically, in the tournament's consolation final — also Saturday — Northville walloped an admittedly tired DCDS squad 4-0.

In that game, Joe Mackle scored twice, May once and Bob Guldberg once. Gans complimented those three players on an "outstanding performance" throughout the tourney.

Northville has added a scrimmage date against Brighton's junior varsity to its schedule for 6 p.m. today at Schoolcraft College. Gans and Swayne are hoping to use the game to take a good look at some players who did not see much action in last weekend's games.

At 7 p.m. Friday, Northville will travel to Farmington Harrison for a WLAA Western Division encounter, then return for their first home game at 7 p.m. Tuesday against Farmington.

Gridders open season Friday

Northville's varsity football season opens at 7:30 p.m. this Friday against the tough Brighton Bulldogs in Brighton.

Brighton carried a 9-0 regular season record in '83, and is defending champion of the Kensington Valley Conference. With many of the top Bulldog players returning, the Mustangs will have their work cut out for them.

"They're the toughest team we've opened against since I've been here," agreed Northville Coach Dennis Coligan. The Mustangs return home next Friday to play South Lyon.

Northville linksters look strong for '84

With 15 members, 10 of whom will get a chance at varsity work, the 1984 Mustang golf team boasts the largest squad since Coach Joe Blake first took it over eight years ago. Blake is hoping the numbers can make up for the loss in individual brilliance accompanying the graduation last spring of Bob Pegrum.

"I'd say balancing the loss of Bob we've got four or five golfers who have improved significantly since last year," Blake says. "I'm hoping one or two will emerge and play as well as Bob did. There are a few who have an opportunity to have excellent years."

Emerging as one of those few is senior ERIC MORFE, who has shot consistently well in summer practices at Salem Hills Golf Course. He has averaged just over 76 on the par-72 course, and has been the most consistent player thus far. "Between qualifications and practice rounds, Eric hasn't been out of the seventies yet," Blake notes.

Other seniors who are returning letter-men are BOB JUSTUS, who has been stroking an average of 78 per round (only once carding as high as 80), and BOB BAIRD, averaging around the 82 mark.

Senior GREG ABRAHAM and junior RON DEMETER have been impressive in early-season action, and look to have the inside track on earning varsity spots. But after them, there are a number of golfers who will have to battle for a slot on the varsity roster.

"Having a turnout like we do gives us some flexibility," Blake says of the candidates for the last (sixth) varsity slot.

Returning letter-winner MARK YETSO will likely get a good shot at it. The senior was not impressive in pre-season, but Blake notes, "I know Mark can play much better. I'm hoping his game gets to where it can be."

Junior MIKE OGLESBY has been playing up-and-down golf this summer, ending up sixth on the team in scores at Salem Hills. RICK McCULLOCK, a sophomore, looks like another varsity candidate. "He's worked hard on his

"It's a rare high school golf team that has a consistent golfer under 80, and we have two players who've been consistent around that mark," Blake says of Morfe and Justus. "And Baird has been there most of the time."

"I feel very optimistic, based on the experience they've had . . . If we can have four or five maintain a consistent quality of play over the regular season, we will have an excellent opportunity to win a lot of golf matches. We have an opportunity to have a better team than last year's."

Considering Northville's strong performances at the Midwest Invitational and the Class A Regionals last year, that says a lot.

Of the qualities of this year's team, Blake adds, "We have a group of young men who are serious about the game. They're competitive and dedicate a lot of their time to golf. I'm excited about this season."

In its season opener, Northville hosts league and division rival Plymouth Canton today. Friday, Northville will host Redford Thurston in a non-league match, then take to the road against another division rival, Farmington Harrison. Next Wednesday, Northville will play at Livonia Churchill — yet another league and division opponent.

Home matches are played at Salem Hills Golf Course on Six Mile Road in Salem Township, with an estimated tee-off time at 3:30 p.m.

Northville players boost state champion Stingers

Four Northville High School softball standouts were members of the Stingers, the Michigan state champions of the United States Slow-Pitch Association (USSA).

The Stingers, coached by Northville residents Jim Robins and Dick Berryman, featured players from Farmington and West Bloomfield and belonged to the Inter-Lakes Travel League. This season, they compiled a 31-8 overall record, including one playoff victory at the USSA World Tournament in Seattle, August 9-13 — that placed them 13th of the 40 teams from across the country competing.

The state USSA title, which they won in July, qualified the Stingers for the nationals. Thanks to a number of sponsors (listed below), the team was able to raise money for the trip to Seattle.

The trip to Seattle, incidentally, was harder than raising the money — the team's direct airline flight to Seattle was forced to land in Minneapolis because of severe electrical storms en route. After spending the night in Minneapolis, the Stingers found themselves traveling west on the same flight as Minnesota's state champions.

In the two-game knockout national tournament, the Stingers started strong, pasting a team from Brighton, Colorado, 21-1. But in the second round, Washington (who finished third at the tourney) felled the Stingers 10-3. In the loser's bracket playoffs, Sweeney's of Ohio used an early lead to turn back the Stingers 9-6 and eliminate them from further competition.

The Sharks of Melbourne, Florida, were the national champions.

The tourney capped a superior year for the Stingers, the first Northville-associated slow-pitch team to take a state title or to travel to national finals.

The Northville contingent of the Stingers included catcher-third baseman Chris McGowan, infielder Jackie Matteucci and outfielders Lori

Mustang tennis squad gears up

By B.J. MARTIN

VICKI ROBINS and DENISE COLOVAS had been exchanging serves, forehands and backhands under for nearly three hours under last Friday's hot sun.

Long, hard-fought volleys typified the play of the two Northville High School seniors, who were battling for the first singles job for the Mustangs varsity this fall. Finally Robins turned a game-winner, and the suspense was over. Robins would compete for the Mustangs at first singles, Colovas at second.

"They're so evenly matched," said Northville Coach Uta Filkin as she watched. "It's a shame either one of them has to lose the job."

Ironically, it will likely be Colovas, Northville's fourth singles player in 1983, who may have the toughest job for Northville. Robins will be facing opponents who are head-and-shoulders above the rest of their teammates, and even a .500 record by her would be an enormous accomplishment. By contrast, Filkin thinks it's at second singles where Northville can — and must — win the most points to become successful.

"Everybody has improved a great deal," Filkin says. "Overall, we look very good."

Good enough to repeat as a co-league champion?

"It's too early to tell," Filkin responds. "It looks like we'll have good depth again while other teams just have the one or two outstanding players. Hopefully, we'll be as good as we were last year."

Rounding out the varsity singles team will be junior LYNN FREELICK, a well-rounded athlete who played on last year's junior varsity, and DOROTHY ZIEGLER, a sophomore who earned the fourth slot in intra-squad pairings.

Seniors JENNIFER TRAUSSCH and LORI HOUSMAN, standout doubles players for the '83 varsity, will anchor first doubles for the Mustangs. At second doubles are LESLIE OLIVER, a sophomore who played varsity last year, and senior SHARI FAYDENKO, whose gains in strength and height since last season have made her one of the squad's most improved players.

Senior DIANE LINDQUIST and freshman KATHLEEN KOTARSKI make up an odd-couple pair at third doubles.

Evidence of the high caliber of Northville's squad this season is illustrated by the large turnout of players looking for varsity or JV work.

Of the 12 players Filkin will keep on the junior varsity, LAUREN OLIVER, a sophomore, is the most likely to see varsity action in the event of injury or illness to a varsity regular.

Rounding out the junior varsity for Northville are juniors JILL STILES, JENNIFER MILLGARD, SUE LANE and LISA FELICELLI. Other varsity hopefuls for coming years are sophomores CAROLYN ABRAHAM and KAREN MORGAN, and freshmen SHANNON COUZENS, Nanci DUTKIEWICZ, SUE DUNCAN, LAURI NANCE and WENDY WEEKER.

SENIOR SWATTERS — Northville Coach Uta Filkin is counting on seniors Vicki Robins (right) and Denise Colovas (below) to lead this year's tennis squad at first and second singles, respectively. Last year, Robins and Colovas were standout players at third and fourth singles for the Mustang varsity. Record photos by B.J. Martin.

DISCOVER NORTHVILLE RUN

Plans are in place for the annual "Discover Northville Run," 10 a.m. Sunday, October 6. Featured are 10-kilometer and 5-kilometer races as well as a one-mile "Fun Run" for kids. Pre-registration fee of $7 includes a long sleeve t-shirt and refreshments after the race. All races begin and end at Northville Downs. Day-of-the-race registration is $9, and will be accepted from 8-9:30 a.m. Proceeds from the run will go to community service projects through the Northville Rotary Club, which is co-sponsoring the meet with local businesses. Trophies and medals will be awarded to top finishers in the 5-K and 10-K races, and ribbons will go to all entries in the Kids' One-Mile Run. Mail registration with a check made out to the Northville Rotary Club to Bill Tomczyk, 42145 West Seven Mile Road, Northville, MI 48167. For more information phone (313) 348-1509 or 420-2777.

VOLLEYBALL MEETING

A meeting for players interested in forming co-ed volleyball teams this fall will take place at 7 p.m. Wednesday, September 12 at the Northville Community Center.

Half way between Brighton & Howell, East of Dorr Road

HOWELL Highlander Coach John Dukes has a good team and he knows it. Besides experience, speed, and size Howell will have depth at the skill positions, which should guard against getting hurt by injuries.

Thirteen starters return from the squad that went 6-3 last season, and there are numerous good-looking newcomers.

Backbone of the team is a defense which racked up two shutouts last year and returns seven starters. Returning starters Chuck Hughes and Joe Moorman anchor a sizeable front line. A solid linebacking crew includes three returning starters in Tom Clements, Scott Hibner and Rusty Frever.

But the strong link in Howell's defense might be the secondary. Three-year starter Brent Earl leads the way from his safety spot. Also in the defensive backfield are seniors Steve Rienke and Ron Moir, voted the team's most improved player last season.

On offense, six starters are back from a year ago, although the Highlanders will miss Ross Kovanda, a two-year starter at quarterback before his graduation last spring. Earl won the quarterback job in camp this summer, and he will also handle kicking chores.

Clements returns at fullback and Frever and Hibner round out the backfield. All three forsake finesse for power — they'd just as soon run over you as around you.

Howell's offensive line is bolstered by the return of tackles Hughes and Rob Brown, a 5-8, 210-pound senior steamroller. Starting at center is senior Steve Maneikis while the guard spots are being filled by seniors Ted Clowers and Kevin Prather.

Moorman will get the call at tight end, while the other two end spots are going to Moir and senior Tony Cornell.

Offensively, the game plan for Howell will be a little more running and a little less air time. "Our size is a little bigger this year, so that should help us if we want to run the ball more," Dukes said.

BRIGHTON What will the 9-0 defending KVC champion Bulldogs come up with for an encore?

According to second-year Coach George Reck, it starts over from the very beginning and takes one game at a time. "We've been telling them it's going to be tougher because everyone will be gunning for us," he says. "Very few teams go undefeated two years in a row. We're not thinking about that now. We're looking at that first game."

Reck needn't be so cautious. The 1984 Bulldog roster includes 27 seniors, including most of last year's starting offense, and 25 juniors up from an undefeated junior varsity squad.

Seniors Jeff Juday, a lineman, and

KVC Roundup:

Way out west, the Eagles, Bulldogs and Highlanders reloading — not rebuilding linebacker Rich Frank captain the team. Both were first-team all-league picks a year ago.

The Bulldog offense returns nearly intact. Back are all-league quarterback Jon DeAngelis, fullback John Brower and all-league lineman Larry Stawiariski. "DeAngelis is more confident and throwing better than last year, too," says Reck.

When he isn't throwing, DeAngelis will have a number of good backs to hand off to. Brower, a 6-2, 200-pound fullback, will lead the way for 5-9, 150-pound speedster tailback Mike LaMarra, a junior. Chris Morgan, Dave Trudeau and Jeff Gontarski the track team, will do a lot of running as well.

And they've got some big chunks of beefs to block. Among Brighton's linemen are Juday, Larry Stawiariski (6-0, 215), Pete Bradley (6-3, 205), John Haas (6-3, 190), Tom Opre (6-4, 205) and Mike Copnehaver (5-10, 215).

The Brighton defense, which compiled five shutouts and allowed only 28 points (nine in overtime) last year, is again shaping up to be tough.

The defense will be made up of many of the players who staffed the offense. "We may have more players go two ways this year," Reck said. Second-year player Mike Baker fills in at nose guard, with Copnehaver, Opre and the others pencilled in at line spots.

If Brighton is vulnerable, it's in the secondary, where Chris Morgan is the lone returnee. Eight other players are vying for the other three defensive back positions.

HARTLAND When you talk about the Hartland High School varsity football team, you don't get too far before the names Tedd Selby and Mike Messner come up.

Opposing coaches are well aware of Selby, a one-man wrecking squad from his noseguard position and a bullish fullback. The versatile Messner will see time at several positions. "We've been looking at him at tight end some and in the backfield some," Irvin said.

Coach Joe Irvin can't wait to see both of them coming out of the same backfield. With 6-1, 205-pound Selby on one side and 6-2, 215-pound Messner on the other, "I'm talking about some serious beef coming at you," Irvin beams. "We are going to be able to run."

But Irvin has some big holes to fill after the graduation of a fine class of athletes who led the Eagles to the KVC runners-up spot for the past two years with a combined record of 15-3 (8-1 in 1983 and 7-2 in 1982).

Heading this year's senior crew, along with Selby, is quarterback Jim Ford, tailback Gary McNutt and guard Terry Mears. All logged considerable playing time as juniors a year ago.

Senior Fick Malkowski a stand-out hurdler for the Eagles track team, brings speed to the receiving corps, which also includes tight end candidates Steve Dye and Don Skinner.

Irvin's biggest concern is putting together an offensive line which will make some holes for his stable of backs.

Quick, big senior co-captain Mears (the other co-captain is Selby) at 6-3, 210, started at guard last year but missed several games with a broken bone in his hand.

Except for Mears and returning senior tackle Eric Wright, Hartland has little experience up front. Fighting for the other tackle slot are seniors Jeff Lauinger (6-4, 205) and Bill Mickler.

Four starters return to the defensive ranks, which allowed only 25 points (including a safety and a kick-off returned for a touchdown) and had six shutouts. The defense is also led by Selby, at noseguard and Messner on the line.

Dye and Skinner will provide outside quickness at outside linebacker. Along with Ford the secondary includes Ballmer, Malkowski and McNutt and senior Jay Scott. Junior Phil Komar, a wiry speedster, will return punts and kick-offs.

For Hartland to contend, "We've got to avoid injuries. We don't have the depth we had last season," said Irvin. "We have to find replacements for the offensive line and get some experience in the defensive secondary."

MILFORD REDSKINS

Jim Schroder is going into his first season as the head coach at Milford with a positive attitude, which may be harder to do than it sounds.

Last fall, the Redskins suffered through a 1-8 season under now-departed Head Coach Cole Roweckamp (now coaching reserves for Novi High School). And Dan Mitchell, Mr. Everything for the Redskins in 1983, has graduated.

A junior varsity coach last season at Lakeland, Schroder says he thinks it's an advantage to be a new coach at a new school. "Especially at a new school," he adds. "All the kids can get a fresh start."

"By the same token, I didn't know anybody. I have to find out who everyone is. They all have to prove themselves. I try to look at everything positively." Helping Schroder with the squad will be assistants Ross Arnold and Chuck Vereecke.

OFFENSIVE BACKFIELD "Our backfield is shaping up real well," Schroder declares. "We're going to have above-average speed."

Calling the signals for the Redskins will be either Mark Chenevert (6-0, 155) or Paul Ware (6-0, 165), both are seniors who have both looked impressive in early-season workouts.

Returning at fullback is senior Brian Beach (6-1, 175), who saw action at that position last season. The team's top two tailbacks will both see a lot of game time, according to Schroder. They are senior Dave McVeigh (5-11, 155) and junior Joe Costello (5-10, 190).

Senior Adam Westmoreland (6-0, 160) will complete the backfield as the starting wingback.

RECEIVERS While the flashy fingers of Mitchell will be conspicuously absent, Schroder won't ignore the airways this year.

"We'll probably run more than pass, but we want to throw the ball too," he says. "We have some good receivers."

Tall ones, too. Starting at tight end again in 1984 will be Darryl Barr (6-1, 205), a senior. Holding down the starting job at wide receiver will be another senior, Tim Reeves (6-3, 165).

OFFENSIVE LINE How the offensive line withstands opponents' pressure is the key to Milford having a successful season, according to Schroder. Anchoring the line will be a pair of big tackles, Mike Furry (5-10, 205) and Al Crouse (6-3, 195).

Starting at one of the guard positions will be Kevin Osborn (5-10, 160), a senior. The other starting spot is a battle between brothers Mike and Pat Golden, who are both 5-10, 160-pound juniors.

Allen Harding (6-0, 180), a senior, will be the starting center and has looked "very solid" in practice, according to Schroder.

"Things are coming together on offense real good," said Schroder. "I'm pleased with everything so far."

DEFENSIVE LINE The Redskins front five on defense is very quick, explains Schroder, which will help make up for a lack of size on the line.

Mike Weidel (6-1, 170) and McVeigh will be the two seniors who start at defensive end.

According to first-year coach Jim Schroder, the key to Milford putting points on the board this season will be the Redskins' offensive line. Pictured here are (from left) center Allen Harding (52), tackles Mike Furry (72) and Al Crouse (73), and guards Kevin Osborn (75) and George Dudgeon (61).

A junior, Bill Gravin (6-0, 175), and sophomore Rob Koresky (6-3, 190) will be the starting tackles on defense. The nose guard position will be filled by junior Dave Robinson (5-9, 165).

LINEBACKERS George Dudgeon (5-11, 180), a senior who played a considerable amount on defense last season, will be one of the starting inside linebackers.

Dave Sherry (6-1, 195), a junior, and senior Trig Bennett (6-1, 190) are fighting for the other inside spot.

SECONDARY Three juniors will start for Milford in the defensive secondary. The lone senior will be at cornerback, where Rob Schmidt (6-2, 160) gets the nod. The other cornerback will be Scott Young (5-8, 150).

The safety positions will go to Jim Mitchell (6-1, 160), Dan's brother, and Mike Nielsen (5-9, 160).

SPECIAL TEAMS Reeves and Mitchell have looked the best at doing the place kicking. The punting duties will go to either Reeves, Mitchell or Westmoreland. But none of these players have kicked on the varsity level previously.

PROGNOSIS "I'm a positive thinker and I think we're going to do well," Schroder says. "We have to avoid injuries and making mistakes."

"I like to have 22 kids starting. It makes us fresher and pays off in the second half and late in the fourth quarter. We have 24 seniors — that is the key to us winning this year, the key to us turning it around."

"I've been really pleased so far," the coach continues. "If there is a weakness (on this team), then they can blame it on me."

"(My goal) is I want everybody involved with this team to think we have a chance to beat anybody else on any given day. Words don't do anything. They have to try to do it on the field."

Unlike the herds of behemoths he's trained in past years, Coach Kent Griffith's 1984 Lakeland Eagles football team will showcase speed instead of brawn.

"With our speed, this is the quickest team overall I've ever had," states Griffiths, back at the helm for his fourth season. "The kids reported in excellent shape. This will be a different team than the last couple years — a lot quicker."

The Eagles, under Griffiths and assistants Bill Mohr and Darrin Campbell, will be trying to improve on their 5-4 record last season.

OFFENSIVE BACKFIELD One of the strong points of the Lakeland squad will be its backfield, with four starters returning from a year ago. At quarterback will be senior Mike Harper (5-11, 145), who took over the starting job in the fourth game last season and led Lakeland to four wins in its final six games.

Starting behind Harper will be senior Mike Torlina, who moves from tailback to fullback this year. Moving Torlina (5-10, 170) makes room for Dan Baenziger (5-9, 140) at tailback. Baenziger, a junior, is the defending 100-yard dash champion of the Kensington Valley Conference. He was a starter last season at wide receiver, where he earned second team All-Area honors.

Rounding out the backfield is Justin Spewock (5-11, 170), a senior with good speed and fine hands, according to Griffiths. Spewock returns as the starting wingback.

Backing up the starters will be junior Ken McKee (tailback), sophomore Bob Leist (fullback) and junior Tom Weglarz (wingback).

RECEIVERS Moving Baenziger inside to tailback should create a hole at wide receiver, right? Wrong. Back for his senior year is Carl Mero (5-11, 145) who earned All-KVC second team honors last season.

Starting at tight end will be junior Pat Corcoran (6-1, 175) who has looked good so far in practice, according to Griffiths.

OFFENSIVE LINE "We're not big tall-wise, but were extremely quick," says Griffiths about his offensive line. "We really come off the ball quickly."

Pete Lincoln (6-1, 205), a starter last season at tackle, returns for his senior year. A pleasant surprise at the other tackle will be Scott Booth (5-10, 210), a senior who was an All-Western Lakes Activities Association second-team selection while playing at Livonia Stevenson last year.

Jeff Schutt (5-7, 170) and Scott McNaughton (5-9, 170) appear to have the inside track on the starting jobs at guard. Tony Gerometta is also battling for a spot. All three are seniors.

Starting at center will be Jeff Thompson (6-1, 180), a senior.

DEFENSIVE LINE The Eagles return two starters to the middle of the defensive line. Gary Talis (5-10, 220), a junior, and Jay Gross (5-8, 170), a senior, return to start at tackle and nose guard, respectively. At the other tackle will be senior Gary Merkle (5-11, 175).

LINEBACKERS Starting at outside linebacker should be Gerometta and Frank Cooper (6-0, 175), a junior. Also battling for the starting job will be Corcoran and Thompson.

Matt Mosier (5-11, 185) will start again as a senior at one of the inside linebacker spots. Booth and Torlina will most likely share time at the other outside spot, according to Griffiths.

SECONDARY Holding the secondary together from the free safety position will be Spewock, who started there last season. McKee (5-11, 170) and Leist are vying for the strong safety starting job.

A pair of seniors will be starting at cornerback — Mike Genter (5-10, 150) and Joe Mankvitz (5-7, 150).

"Our defense, especially the secondary, is untested," explained Griffiths. "I think we're going to be okay, but it's hard to say right now."

SPECIAL TEAMS Mark Chambers, a senior who handled the kicking chores at the end of last season, looks to be the leading candidate for those duties again. Spewock, Torlina and Chad Lueck, the junior varsity's punter last season, have all been looked at to be the Eagles' punter this fall.

As for returning kicks, Lakeland has one of the best in Baenziger, who returned a punt and a kickoff for touchdowns last season.

PROGNOSIS "I think we're going to have a fine ball club," says Griffiths. "The kids have really done a good job so far in practice. They are enthusiastic and looking forward to the season."

"We have to get our running game going. We want to score at least three touchdowns in each game. We've got to score some points to be successful."

STEVE FECHT

At 3-6, the 1983 edition of the Novi Wildcats surely qualified as a "valley." But there's reason to believe Novi will begin a steady climb back toward respectability this time around.

So thinks the Wildcats' veteran coach, John Osborne. "I expect we'll be a little better," he says. "We have some tough guys, but we're awful young — we could be a young team in a lot of respects."

Osborne and assistants Brian Howard

(linemen, defensive coordinator) and Dave Hartman (receivers, linebackers, special teams) will be going with new blood at several key spots. Only 10 Wildcats played varsity ball last year, and only three had extensive heat-of-the-battle experience.

In fact, for the first time in many years, sophomores are expected to occupy important slots on the varsity roster. "They're going to pull their share of the load," Osborne says of the five tenth-graders on the squad.

OFFENSIVE BACKFIELD Picking the regular quarterback won't be an easy task for Osborne — there are three candidates with some claim to the job.

Junior Keith Motyka (6-1, 165) was the starting signal-caller for the Wildcat JV last year. Sophomore Jeff Tanderys looks like the wave of the future, with size (6-3, 170) and what Osborne calls "a great arm." And then there's Bob Huotari (5-11, 150), a versatile senior athlete who might have seen some varsity quarterback work last season had it not been for a knee injury.

Novi likes to use a pro-set in the backfield. Power runner and blocker Kirk Shaw (5-11, 190), a junior, looks to be the regular fullback, while quick senior Mike Vincent (5-7, 145) will be seen at wingback and halfback.

Also angling for halfback duty in particular formations are juniors Brett Gillick and Brad Abbott, and senior Karl Pertunen.

RECEIVERS It's likely the Wildcat receiving corps will be kept busy in '84. "We have some potential there," Osborne agrees. "All our guys have demonstrated ability."

Senior Jim Sinclair (5-9, 140) returns at split end after emerging late last season as one of Novi's most capable passcatchers. Classmate Kirk Letourneau (5-9, 160) and lanky junior Steve Shankel (6-4, 155) look like inside picks for flanker. Junior Larry McKillop (5-11, 145) looks like Sinclair's backup man, while Glen Williams, a 6-1, 150-pound junior, will see time at both split end and flanker.

OFFENSIVE LINE A trio of seasoned seniors will anchor line positions for the Wildcats. Ed Maresh (6-0, 215) will play center or guard, Kjell Johnson (6-1, 175) will line up at tackle and Rod Bragg (6-0, 195) will fill in at guard. Junior Jeff Gertsen (6-0, 175) has looked sharp snapping the ball in pre-season and may bump Maresh to guard.

Steve Truesdell (5-8, 180) and Jim Whitney (6-0, 175), both seniors, have looked good at guard, as has first-year player Matt Kozler, currently battling a knee injury. Juniors Dave Ingmire (6-0, 175) and Bruce Patera (5-11, 210) will also see plenty of line duty at tackle.

DEFENSIVE LINE Johnson and Maresh are the kind of players Osborne is reluctant to take off the field — quick, big and hard-hitting. They will likely see duty at end and tackle, respectively, when opponents have the ball.

Keep an eye on hard-hitting tackle Franz Samson. Remember "Lava-Lava Lenny" from the Doonesbury comic strip? The 350-pound Samoan who played defensive line for the Washington Redskins? The entire defensive line? With some varsity seasoning, this still-growing 6-0, 200-pound soph could emerge as that type of player.

Patera and senior Ken Schneider (5-10, 175) are candidates for the other tackle spot, while seniors Chuck Fritz (5-10, 170) and Brett Baier (5-11, 180) have been impressive at defensive end in camp.

LINEBACKERS "Our linebackers will be they key to our defense," Osborne says. "We'll be trying to establish a defense that can hold 'em (opponents) at bay until we can score."

Brett Gillick (6-3, 175) and Shaw have looked best in pre-season workouts, but no fewer than four others have been shuffled in and out in search of the right combination: Abbott, Truesdell and juniors Ken Saylor and Glen Williams.

SECONDARY Good athletes, but short on experience. Seniors Mike Vincent (5-7, 145) and Karl Pertunen (5-8, 145) will likely get the cornerback slots.

Osborne may fill the safety corps with Kirk Letourneau (5-9, 160) and rising star Joel Finzel, both impressive in camp. "Joel's a tough kid, a good hitter," Osborne says of the 5-8, 150-pound sophomore. Huotari and Sinclair may also see secondary work, as well as juniors Larry McKillop (5-11, 145) and Gary Blanck (5-8, 145).

SPECIAL TEAMS Darren Mack brings a good natural kicking leg to the place-kicking job, but the junior is short on experience. "We've got to work on Darren's timing, but he should help us a lot later in the season," Osborne notes. Huotari and Motyka likely will handle punting duties.

PROGNOSIS "Our offense is going to be pretty inexperienced, particularly in the backfield. But I think we have the tools there," Osborne declares. "If we continue to blend together and continue to develop the way we've developed so far we'll do all right. We've looked good on defense."

SOUTH LYON LIONS

A lot will be new this year for South Lyon High School football fans. A new coach, John Switchenko, will be roaming the sidelines, and a new offense — the Wing-T — will be used in the pursuit of points.

Switchenko, hired in June following the dismissal last January of former head coach Dan Skatzka, has high hopes for this season. But he admits a lack of depth could hurt the Lions, who finished 5-4 last year and 4-3 in the Kensington Valley Conference.

Assisting Switchenko will be junior varsity coach Bob Vahratian, Mike Palme, Tim Garrett and Tom Jackson.

OFFENSIVE BACKFIELD During Skatzka's tenure as coach, South Lyon fans saw extensive use of the wishbone offense with its sweeping backs and option plays. Switchenko will use the Wing-T, which he describes as a "misdirection offense with angle blocking" in which backs share the load equally. "We can attack anywhere on the line of scrimmage," he remarks.

The Lions' top rusher from 1983 returns to help make the offense run. Senior halfback Scott Warford (5-8, 160) piled up 643 yards last year. He will be sharing ball-carrying duties with powerful junior fullback Dave lafolla (5-10, 200) and senior halfback Kurtis Bidwell (5-9, 170).

Senior Joe Rockel (5-11, 180) will call the signals this year after backing up graduated quarterback John Mindling in 1983. Switchenko said a lot play-action passing would be used this year. Junior Tony Mancinelli (5-10, 155), who handled quarterbacking chores for the junior varsity last year, will back up Rockel.

RECEIVERS Like several other positions on the team, this area does not have much depth, Switchenko observes. The Lions were dealt a blow to their receivers' corps two weeks ago when starting junior tight end Darin Daugard (6-0, 190) broke his arm, which will likely sideline him until at least late September.

Daugard, more pass-catcher than blocker, will be replaced by junior Scott Knapp (6-1, 185), whose strength is his blocking. Lining up on the outside will be junior Brent Heppner (5-7, 155) and junior Jim Buckel (6-1, 170). Heppner is "very agile and quick" and Buckel runs smart passing routes, Switchenko says.

OFFENSIVE LINE This could be one of the strengths of the team, with size and experience to spare. "They (the whole line) are a good, experienced group and they should be able to handle the assignments," Switchenko says. Senior Mike Tolinski (5-10, 185) will snap the ball, while seniors Keith Collins (5-9, 190) and Dean Vader (5-9, 200) will drive out from the guard positions, where Switchenko plans to institute "a lot of pulling and trapping." Senior Kendall Stevens (6-4, 210) and junior Mike Andrews (5-11, 230) will handle the tackle spots.

DEFENSIVE LINE Experience will be evident here, but the Lions' depth is questionable. Junior Rex London (5-11, 190) and Stevens will line up at the tackle positions and Collins and Tolinski will handle end duties. "The people who are there are good people, but if they go down, we'll have some problems," Switchenko says.

The Lions will use a Split-4 defense in which the tackles are down and the defensive ends line up inside the offensive ends, Switchenko notes. "I like to play a gap read" in which the defensive players "read" the headgear of the offensive players, he adds.

LINEBACKERS Lafolla and Vader will handle the inside linebacker positions, and Bidwell, Knapp and junior Dion Earehart (5-9, 160) will handle the outside spots. "I'm pleased with what they're doing," Switchenko comments. "I wish we had more to go one way."

Switchenko says he would avoid stunting and blitzing his linebackers and defensive backs because he feels these maneuvers often result in overrunning the play. "I like to create a wall up front ... to protect my linebackers," he says.

SECONDARY Heppner and Buckel will be called on to show their speed at the cornerback and safety positions, respectively. Buckel will back up Mancinelli at the safety position and senior Chuck Clark (5-8, 155) will line up with Heppner at cornerback.

"Our zone is our basic coverage, but we'll have some man-to-man," Switchenko notes.

SPECIAL TEAMS This is a crucial area of the team, because of the high number of two-way starters, Switchenko reports. "We're trying to keep our two-ways off the special teams," he says, to rest them and lessen the risk of injury.

Daugard was the punter before he was injured. Rockel will take over there. The kicking job still was up for grabs before the press deadline for this story.

PROGNOSIS Switchenko says the season would depend greatly, again, on how well the Lions can avoid injuries.

"We could be super," he declares. "We've got some ability and some good people at the skilled positions. I'm not sure if we have a lot of depth." Stevens, Rockel and Lafolla will be tri-captains this year, he adds.

Switchenko says he has received a good reception from a community that experienced several conference championship dismissals following philosophical differences between him and South Lyon High School Principal Garvin Smith. "We're progressing on schedule," Switchenko says. "I think people in South Lyon will see quite a different, exciting offense."

The Northville Mustangs lost as much talent with the Class of '84 as any other area football team. But Coach Dennis Colligan isn't too dismayed.

"You can't expect to replace players of the caliber of Steve Schrader, Dave Longridge, Matt Meyer or John Quinn," Colligan says, ticking off the names of fewer than half the now-graduated Mustangs singled out for post-season honors last year.

"It's not our goal to replace them," he adds. "But what we do have is a lot of quality kids lacking in game experience, most of whom played behind real good people."

Assisting Colligan with the still-tough Mustangs will be Darrel Schumacher and Steve McDonald.

OFFENSIVE BACKFIELD Wholesale revision here. Senior co-captain Dave Denhoff will step into the quarterback job after backing Longridge there last year. A good leader and at 6-2, 175-pounds, much bigger than he was last year, Denhoff's physical and leadership skills are excellent and should improve as he gains confidence over the season. Backup Paul Newitt, a junior, started each game for a good JV squad last year.

The tailback will handle most of Northville's running plays and there is a trio of different-type athletes vying for the starting nod. Junior Rick VanBuren (6-0, 170) brings 4.7 speed to the position, while classmate Gary Harper (6-2, 175) is more of a finesse-style runner who reads his blocks well. The best candidate is senior co-captain Doug Hartman, a bruising 6-1, 198-pounder who may be too busy linebacking to go full-time on offense.

At fullback, "Little Bull" Phil Pendleton (5-9, 200) and junior classmates Tim Millen (6-1, 195) and Gary Lampella (5-8, 155) have pleased Colligan with their development in camp.

RECEIVERS Passing will be more a part of the Mustangs '84 offense than in 1983, when Northville had a bumper crop of outstanding runners. Favorite outside targets will be returning split end John Briningstool (6-2, 185), a senior, and juniors Don Norton (6-2, 155), Mike Hilfinger (6-1, 170), Keith Dutkiewicz (5-10, 160) and Jeff Harp (5-10, 150).

At tight end, big (6-2, 215) senior Gary Strunk has shown good hands in traffic and possesses experience and fear-some blocking ability.

OFFENSIVE LINE Center Greg Wendell may just be the best in the area — an experienced 6-4, 215-pound senior co-captain with excellent snapping and blocking skills. Looming nearby at tackle will be classmate John Storm, at 6-7, 245, the area's biggest player, and junior Mark Deal (6-2, 215). Juniors Harold York and Dan Boland, plus senior center Scott Holloway will add depth.

At guard, seniors Dino Candella (6-0, 180), Chris Shuff (6-0, 180) and John Norton (5-11, 170) will see most of the work, with Steve Burnworth, Adam Morris and DEFENSIVE LINE A freak swimming injury to the foot will sideline hard-hitting senior tackle Joel Vogt (6-0, 185), and necessitate both-way playing from most of the offensive linemen. Ron Batshon (6-0, 185) will appear in various line duties, as will Storm, Strunk and York.

Deal supplies good hitting ability at nose guard, and will start there, with Norton and Burnworth helping out.

LINEBACKERS Northville probably has the best in the area with Hartman, Shuff and Millen inside and Wendell, Candella and Hilfinger outside. "We're very solid," Colligan says.

SECONDARY "We'll have to gain experience fast," Colligan frets. Only junior strong safety Pendleton returns from the talented starters of '83. Norton will be tested at free safety, with Denhoff and VanBuren waiting in the wings if needed. At cornerback are juniors Gary Harper (5-11, 160) and Paul Newitt (5-10, 160) are up from the JV while senior Ken Rosselot is also likely to see playing time.

SPECIAL TEAMS Colligan is predicting big things for Jack Sylvestre, who became Northville's regular kicker as a freshman last year. "I'll go out on a limb and say our placekicking game is going to be the best we've had in six years," Colligan says.

PROGNOSIS The Mustangs likely will be more fun to watch this year. "We're going to change our offense dramatically," Colligan asserts. "We were a running team (over 2,000 rushing yards in '83). But we'll have to rely on our passing a lot more. Also, we don't have as many big people as before, so there may be some more surprises from us, even on passing downs.

Coming off a 7-2 season with only 10 players lost to graduation, the upcoming season should be one of great promise for the Walled Lake Central gridders.

But numbers can be misleading. Most of the 10 players Coach John VanSicklen will be trying to replace were starters — some, two-way starters. The fifth-year coach and assistant coaches Chuck McKinnon, Ken Smith, Charlie Ginster and Mike Stiltner have 23 seniors on this year's squad, the most ever. So the experience is there.

OFFENSIVE BACKFIELD . One question mark is how well senior Dean Nessen will perform at quarterback, where he backed up now-departed Tom Menard for two years. "When he has played, he's done real well. I expect a lot out of him," VanSicklen says. "We will probably run from a pro-set to balance the offense a little more. Dean will be the key. He'll have to really lead us."

Senior Mike VanSicklen returns as starting fullback. Used mostly as a blocking back last year, VanSicklen (5-10, 190) averaged five yards per carry and scored four touchdowns.

STEVE FECHT

"We don't have a big, outstanding tailback," says VanSicklen. Angling for the job are promising junior Ted Lilley (5-9, 165), who scored 10 touchdowns on the junior varsity last season, and Jeff Adams, a 5-10, 180-pound senior.

RECEIVERS "We have a pretty strong receiving corps," VanSicklen notes. "We'll probably throw more this year."

Two starters are back from last year's receiving corps, but only one saw regular-season action. Jeff Henry (6-0, 175), a flanker, returns for his senior year. Tight end Rick Bochenek, who was also scheduled to start last season, broke his hand in the preseason and missed the entire year. Bochenek (6-2, 185) returns for his senior year.

Senior Curt Calhoun (5-11, 170) has the inside track on the starting spot at split end. Adding depth to the receiving unit will be seniors Bob Mourad and Scott Gallagher.

OFFENSIVE LINE One thing is for sure about the offensive front line for the Vikings in 1984 — it will be big. Seniors Greg Pryjowski (6-4, 240) and Jamie Singelyn (6-2, 210) should again get the starting nod at the tackle slots, but they'll be pushed by junior Gordie Johnstone (6-2, 225).

At the guard position, returning starter Jim St. Pierre (5-10, 195), a senior, appears to have one spot nailed down. Junior Tom Bondy (5-10, 205) is the leading candidate for the other starting job, with seniors Pete Rabaut and Ron Knoppe challenging.

The Vikings may again have a Kreutzer starting at center. Only this season it will be Scott, the 6-2, 200-pound younger brother of former Central standout Jim, who will play for Western Michigan University this fall. Battling the junior for the center job will be senior Doug Scott (6-2, 200).

"We have good size and a fair amount of experience with three starters back on the interior line," says VanSicklen. "This is one of the bigger lines we've had."

DEFENSIVE LINE The defensive line will also be big, since a number of Vikes will play both ways. Anchoring the defensive line will be nose guard St. Pierre, an part-time starter on defense last season. Challenging him will be Adams.

The tackle position on the defensive line will look like the offensive tackle position with Pryjowski (a starter last season), Johnstone and Singelyn seeing considerable action.

At defensive end for Central will be Bochenek and Kreutzer, neither of whom saw action with the varsity last season.

LINEBACKERS Coach VanSicklen likes the size he has at the linebacker spots. The Vikings have one starter returning at linebacker in Mike VanSicklen. He will be joined by either Tom Farr (6-1, 195), a junior, or Bondy.

SECONDARY Leading the defensive backfield will be Nessen, who earned All-Division honors at safety last season. Joining him will be Henry, who played defensive end last season but was switched because he runs a 4.6 40-yard dash.

At cornerback will be Calhoun and Gallagher, with Mourad fighting for a starting spot.

SPECIAL TEAMS The Vikings' kicking game appears to be in good shape, with All-Division kicker Jim Ziola back for his final year. Last season, Ziola converted 22 of 24 extra-point attempts and connected on all three of his field-goal tries, including a 38-yarder.

This year Ziola will also handle the punting duties, taking over for Dave Lobert, an All-WLAA selection last season as a senior.

PROGNOSIS "Defense is going to be our solid point," VanSicklen declares. "We are going to put more pressure on people and play sounder defense than last year. Our size will be an asset because most of these kids are quick too. Physically, we can stay in there with anybody.

"We're going to have to find out who are going to be our leaders on offense. But we're solid everywhere."

Asked if the Vikings could be as successful as last season, VanSicklen replies, "I think so. We have a few things to iron out. We've got the kids. . . time will tell."

League rival and perennial powerhouse Farmington Harrison dealt Central its only two losses last season. With All-State running back John Miller returning for his senior year, Harrison looks to be tough again this year.

"If we meet Harrison (in the WLAA playoffs), that means we won our division, which is one of our goals," stated the Viking coach. "We're not afraid of them. Last year they just had our number."

Chuck Apap's plan for the Walled Lake Western football team this fall is simple.

"We'll make the kids so hungry for physical contact they eat 'em up on Fridays," says Apap, now entering his seventh season with the Warriors.

"We're inexperienced but if we can develop in our players the belief that they can do it they will do it," he adds. "We've got to get them to believe they can play with the big guys - the potential is there."

Learning fast is important to Western's gridiron unit — there are just six returning players. But Apap has 13 seniors and 29 juniors out for his team, and since he does not believe in "cutting," he has numbers and then some.

Last year Western (3-6 overall) was plagued by injuries, five key ones in the season opener against Brighton.

This time Apap doesn't anticipate as many injuries for three reasons. First, he is back in the Western building again this year as a teacher and was able to redevelop a rigid weight program. Secondly, Apap plans to platoon his players to keep them "fresh and ready." And thirdly, the Warriors will save contact for Friday night. "We won't hit as much in practice — make 'em hungry for it," he explains.

OFFENSIVE BACKFIELD Two of Western's key returners, Mike Craig and John Doria, will team up in the backfield. Both are seniors and team co-captains (along with Brian Coulter).

Doria played capably in three games at the quarterback spot, replacing injured Mickey Folsom last year. This year Doria has "shown tremendous desire" according to Apap. "We knew all along he had the physical tools. Now with the desire he should come into his own," he says.

Craig played in six games at fullback last fall and Apap expects "big things" from him. At halfback the Warriors have another veteran in Dave Moody, who was hampered by injuries most of the '83 season.

Juniors Chris Canning and Al Hamilton could see action in Western's running game, while freshman Mike Hall is a solid quarterback possibility, if not this year, then in '85.

RECEIVERS At the ends of Doria's passes (and Apap says Western will pass) are senior Jeff Chngas and juniors Chris Haney and Quent Scannell.

Of them, only Scannell saw much varsity playing time last year. "Quent played in five games for us," says Apap. "He's a great blocker and can catch the ball. He's your typical tight end type." Chngas and Haney will be Western's main personnel at wide receiver spots, the coach reports.

OFFENSIVE LINE Apap calls this an unknown quantity. Only one of the five potential starters has any real experience. That's Eric Yeager, a senior guard. The other four pitmen have yet to be tested.

Apap will be calling on Yeager to lend leadership to the line unit. "Eric is a great blocker," said Apap. "He gets quickly on the linebackers."

Western's other guard is senior Mike Schlimgen. Scott Hollister, a junior, will be at center, while juniors Bill Blair and John Holyfield take over the tackle positions.

"Other than that we're rebuilding our offense," he added. "Our season will depend on how badly the team wants it."

DEFENSIVE LINE Another unknown quantity facing Apap. None of the athletes battling for the line jobs has much experience.

Two seniors, Doug Beck and Chris DeNomme, will see action at defensive end and tackle, respectively, while a crop of juniors fill the other slots.

Junior Dave Dobis will also play tackle, while classmates Wayne Loebig and Gene Daughtery are battling for the other defensive end position. John Martin will be the defensive nose, according to Apap.

LINEBACKERS Brian Coulter, a senior, will be Western's main linebacker. Apap calls the returning starter "the hitter type."

Ty Trudeau, son of offensive coordinator Rick Trudeau, will also see action at a linebacking spot.

DEFENSIVE BACKFIELD Tough Denny Atwell leads this group. The junior played in all nine Western games as a sophomore last year. "Denny is a great athlete," said Apap. "What he lacks in physical size he makes up for in heart."

backfield is young. It includes juniors Andy Rourke and Jim Mirócha, senior Mark Ruby and possibly sophomore Scott Coulter.

"We'll be young but we'll be ready when the bell rings," Apap said. "Nobod's gonna go both ways right now. We'll make or adjustments after the first game."

SPECIAL TEAMS Western's kicking-game success revolves around second-year kicker Carl Engling, a senior booter who was back-up kicker last year.

PROGNOSIS "We'll be wide open and in the air this year. Expect to see a multiple look to our offense and to our defense," Apap says. "If we do three things — practice hard, play hard and enjoy the game — the scoreboard will take of itself. I truly believe that, we just need to get our players to understand that and their desire will be tremendous. God willing, we'll be ready."

Apap sees a tough league schedule ahead against the likes of Farmington Harrison, Livonia Churchill and Plymouth Salem. "Hopefully we'll be right up there over or near .500," he said.

WHITMORE LAKE TROJANS

At this time last year, Whitmore Lake High School's football program was just regaining its senses. Lack of funding threatened its continuation until school district voters approved a millage increase in June, erasing doubts that had plagued players, coaches and fans the previous year.

This year, 1983's problems of hasty planning and relearning fundamentals have given way to a more optimistic feeling.

"I just believe that we're going to be much improved from last year," commented Trojan varsity head coach George Housner, who watched his team go 1-8 in 1983. "We have nine seniors back and they all seem to be working very hard."

Housner will be assisted by offensive coach Bob Henry and on defense by former South Lyon head coach Bob Keezer.

OFFENSIVE BACKFIELD Senior fullback Mark Blaney (5-9, 154) cleared a lot of holes last year for now-graduated Don Shattock, leading Trojan ground-gainer in 1983. This season, Coach Housner is counting on Blaney to accumulate a lot of real estate himself. Junior Blue Livingston (5-7, 170) will return at quarterback and sophomore Joel Drefts (5-10, 185) will replace Shattock at tailback.

Junior Stefan Kril (5-11, 160) will complete the backfield at wingback. The Trojans will run out of a Wing-I offense, which features a lot of trap and off-tackle power plays. "Any kind of running back we've had has gained yards on that power play," Housner noted.

RECEIVERS If Trojan fans see a red streak across their field, it might be junior split end Sean Peterson (5-4, 130). Housner strongly touts Peterson's speed. "He's a little kid, but we have a lot of faith in him," Housner said. "Nobody can cover him one-on-one."

Senior Dan Williamson (6-3, 190) will line up at tight end for a receiver corps that was hurt by graduation.

OFFENSIVE LINE Housner's eyes light up when he talks about his depth and experience up front. Four seniors return with experience at the guard positions alone — Glenn Camp (5-8, 155), Greg Romine (5-9, 170), Randy St. Charles (5-6, 160) and Mark Robeson (5-9, 160). Junior Scott Cooper (5-10, 155) also could help. "It's really a battle right now for the guard position," Housner said.

Taking shots at the crucial tackle spots will be returning starters Dave Scheffer (6-1, 220) and Eric Spiegelberg (6-1, 160), both seniors. Senior John Moran (5-10, 195) also will return at the center position.

DEFENSIVE LINE Housner will continue with the four-man line he started in 1983. In previous years, he had run a 6-1 because he had strong linebackers. Last year, he switched to a 4-4 in order to balance the defensive responsibilities.

Sharing defensive end duties will be Robeson, Spiegelberg, Williamson and Moran. Battling for the tackle positions will be Scheffer, sophomore Donnie Rutledge (5-11, 245), junior Jim Richards (5-10, 210) and junior Dean Marsh (5-8, 150).

LINEBACKERS Fullback Blaney also will play a key role on the other side of the line of scrimmage, calling defensive signals from a linebacking slot. Also seeing time at this position will be two-way players Kril, Drefts, St. Charles and Romine.

SECONDARY The Trojans defensive backfield was a weak link last year, Housner admits. Whitmore Lake's defense yielded about six touchdowns a game last year, and many occurred on long passing plays. "Unfortunately, we didn't have a lot of big or tall people to play back there," Housner said.

Split end Peterson, who started at safety in 1983, will reverse roles on defense. "He's a small kid, but he's very determined and tough," Housner remarked about Peterson. Livingston and junior John Hart (5-10, 150) also will see secondary duty.

SPECIAL TEAMS In 1983, much practice time was spent on reacquainting players with various basic football skills. This time around, Housner plans to spend more time covering special team responsibilities.

"We didn't cover our punts very well and we didn't cover our kickoffs well," Housner noted. "We're going to be stronger this year (in special teams) because we're going to work harder on it. We didn't get the time in last year on special teams that we needed to be a winner."

Drepps will handle punting chores for the Trojans, who spent three practices last week solely on special teams.

PROGNOSIS Housner will retire from coaching after this season. Off and on, he has helped out Whitmore Lake teams since 1958, and he thinks he can go out a winner.

"I think I have a really good group of kids and I'm going to be disappointed if they don't do well," Housner remarked, adding that a 5-4 record is realistic. "I hope I'm going to leave this year with the makings of a good team next year."

In the mostly-Class D Tri-County Conference, defending champion Morenci looks like the team to beat, Housner said. Summerfield and Britton also could be tough, he noted.

Cheerleading: not just weekend work

Mystique and misconceptions have hovered over the heads of these athletes for years.

Cheerleaders have been the most misunderstood people associated with athletics since the pompon was invented. You all know the stereotype — a good-looking female who is a bit on the dizzy side. They show up just before the game starts, and get in a little huddle to decide when to cheer because they have no idea what is actually going on in the game.

Well, that just isn't so. Just ask your local cheerleader.

"A lot of people think we're flakes," says cheerleader Kathleen Henderlong, a senior at Whitmore Lake High School. "We're not. You have to be a good student. You have to be able to practice and keep up your grades. You also have to be a good athlete."

"We're bothered by the fact we're always treated like cheerleaders and not athletes," says Carolyn Foley, a cheerleader and senior at Milford High School.

"People think cheerleading is not a sport," declares Lakeland's Mary Gialanella, a cheerleader for the past six years. "It is. We practice and work out. We go to camp too. People need to know it is a sport and that we're not just out there jumping around."

Cheerleading has turned into a year-round activity. The squads practice even in the summer, attend games and camps, and work hard in the process.

"Cheerleading has changed drastically in the last eight years," says Kim Kaye, Milford's cheerleading coach. "It has become very competitive. Cheerleaders are getting more involved in competitions and higher skill levels. They are also still responsible for cheering on the teams. The girls really work hard."

Because of the changes in the sport, cheerleaders who don't have what it takes in the classroom won't last long on the cheerleading team.

Today's cheerleading squads put in long hours, usually two to three hours a session, two or three times per week, depending what sports are in season. And don't forget the actual games.

"We try to get the crowd going, and of course that gets the guys going because of all the cheering," explains sophomore Carrie Duffy, a cheerleader at Novi High School.

"We get the crowd fired up to support the team," Foley adds. "We have to watch the game. As soon as the play ends and the whistle blows, we go into our cheers."

"This year we're really trying to promote school spirit," says Barbara Perna, Lakeland's cheerleading coach. "We want to get people out to the games and support the players."

Support is usually something the cheerleaders themselves don't get a whole lot of. Most of the money that goes towards the camps, uniforms and other equipment they use comes from money that they must raise themselves.

"We have a very, very small budget for all three squads," Perna points out, referring to Lakeland's freshmen, junior varsity and varsity squads. "We have to pay for letters, chevrons (sleeve insignia), posters and banners, and other items. That doesn't leave enough money for uniforms."

"The girls donate a lot of time and money to support the team," Kaye agrees.

A number of schools in the area are beginning the season without coaches for their cheerleading teams, relying on the girls themselves or parents to help them organize. It seems financial support isn't the only thing that is hard to come by.

But to the girls, it is all worth it.

"I love the cheers," stated Henderlong. "When we work together, we're a team. We work at it to be together and be perfect."

"When I was younger," said Duffy, "I'd go to games and think how I couldn't wait to try out and be a cheerleader."

So there you have it, right from the cheerleaders themselves. They are proud of what they are doing, and they work hard at it.

Said Perna, "I really don't think girls are given enough credit for all that they do."

W.L.A.A. — The Rest of the Pack

Walled Lake Central, Walled Lake Western and Northville's varsity football squads will be vying for the last divisional and conference championships in the Western Lakes Activities Association's present configuration.

At the end of the 1984-85 school year, Livonia Bentley will close its doors due to declining student enrollment in the Livonia School District. At press time for Touchdown '84, no official announcement had been made concerning the makeup of the league for future seasons, although several North Suburban League teams are under consideration.

Western Division

FARMINGTON HARRISON Word is that the 1984 Hawks will be one of Coach John Herrington's best ever — that from a coach with a career record of 101-33-1 (8-1 last year). The conference's premier running back, John Miller (1,200 yards rushing in '83), and signal-caller Vince Enright return. So does most of the Harrison line, which is reportedly bigger than ever — that spells trouble for the lighter Warriors. By the time Northville faces Harrison October 5, the Hawks will likely be 4-0 and roll Western will need an inspired Homecoming performance to stay close the next week.

Vikes, Mustangs, Warriors face tough division battles

LIVONIA CHURCHILL After 14 years at Churchill, Coach Ken Kaestner has retired and longtime assistant Herb Osterland will take control of a talented Charger crew, with nine returning starters from the team that upset mighty Harrison last year. Tops of the lot are tailback Craig Justus, and quarterback John Stoitsiadis, who looks to be one of the WLAA's best passers. Big, mean all-leaguer Dave Mize will anchor a solid pack of returning linemen.

PLYMOUTH CANTON The Chiefs (1-8 in '83) bring back good personnel at the skill positions in quarterback Tony Aiken, split end Dave Knapp, and running backs Rob Boyd and Matt Flowers. But Canton looks light on the line and other positions, having lost 15 starters.

"If we win the close ones, we'll be over .500," says Coach Rick Bauer.

Lakes Division

PLYMOUTH SALEM What a relief it is — 23 players graduated from the 8-1 team Central robbed of a solo divisional title last year. This year's turnout of just 32 players is unusually small for the revenge-hungry Rocks. Could be there will be some passing added to Salem's traditionally potent wishbone ground game. Craig Morton is one of the league's top receivers and tight end Steve Potoczak will also be a good target for new quarterback Steve Sobditch. Still, running backs Brian Johnson, Gary Kafila and Paul Makara will keep Central's rushing defense busy.

LIVONIA STEVENSON Although the Spartans were a tough 6-3 last year, John Reardon's 28th-year as head coach may not be up to his 27th. The Spartans lack depth and experience, and will rely on defense to keep them in most of their games now that quarterback Don Gilmartin and Rick Rozman are gone. Pat Conway, Tony Beaune and Norm Nettle bolster the defensive line and Pete Huddy looks to be one of the WLAA's top defensive backs.

FARMINGTON There's skepticism Coach Don Kuick can lead the 2-7 Falcons to a much better record, despite having 21 returning lettermen. Key players include quarterback candidates Joe Bob Wenson and Chris Green, and a solid kicker, Bruce Kratt. John Tureaud leads a solid line corps and Brian Loofer looks to help the offense at fullback and defense at safety.

LIVONIA BENTLEY The Bulldogs ran 1-4 in divisional play in '83 and have lost 16 starters from that squad. What could improve that is another stellar showing from kicker Chad Darke. Quarterback Pat Schneider and fullback Marty Altounian will shoulder most of the responsibility for getting Darke within field goal range. But Bentley's league schedule is brutal and it's unlikely Bentley's last season will upbeat.

Welcome to the '84 Fall Festival

More than 40 local non-profit groups will be participating in the annual Plymouth Fall Festival Thursday through Sunday, Sept. 6-9.

Each day will feature a "main meal" — ham, spaghetti, fish, pancakes, chicken — plus many food booths located along Main Street in downtown Plymouth.

Thursday will feature the Ham Dinner served by the Plymouth Theatre Guild, Friday will be the Plymouth Lions Fish Fry, Saturday the Plymouth spaghetti, and Plymouth Rotary ending it all with Chicken Sunday.

All of the main meals are cooked and served at the Plymouth Gathering located on the Penniman Avenue side of Kellogg Park in downtown Plymouth.

The major events include the Symphony League Antique Mart at the Cultural Center, the Plymouth Community Artists and Craftsmen Show at Central Middle School, the Fire Department Waterball Contest on Main Street Saturday, the Grange meals on Union Street, and Three Cities art exhibit in Kellogg Park.

There will be 19 booth locations on Main Street between Ann Arbor Trail and Fralick Street, and an Information Center at Main and Penniman Avenue.

The kiddie rides, sponsored by Old Village Association, and the "Moon Walk" will be on Main between Fralick and Church in front of Plymouth City Hall. WSDP, the student-operated FM radio station in Plymouth-Canton, will be doing live broadcasts near the corner of Main and Penniman.

The Plymouth Business and Professional Women (BPW) will have a Spin Art Booth on the southwest corner of Main and Penniman. Also located on Penniman Avenue will be the Festival Manager's office, the Red Cross First Aid and informational booth, and the Catherine McAuley Health Center Health Promotion Van. Henry Ford Hospital also will operate a health information booth on Main Street.

The Produce Tent will be set up near Union and Penniman Avenue. Entertainment will be provided each day at the bandshell near Union and there also will be street entertainment at various times.

The Plymouth Historical Society will have a display at the Plymouth Historical Museum at Church and Main. There will be an antique car display on Sunday and a special visit of 1 and 2-cylinder cars on Friday afternoon enroute from Lansing to Greenfield Village.

Throughout the downtown area windows will be decorated with the theme "On a Sunday Afternoon" (turn of the century). For the youngsters, there will be a Pet Show Saturday morning at the band shell sponsored by the Optimists and the Community Education Department of Plymouth-Canton Community Schools.

The Plymouth Fall Festival is planned year-round by the Fall Festival Board which is a group of volunteers who function as a non-profit organization. All proceeds from the events go back into the Plymouth community through the various service groups.

Bringing the Mercy Tradition of Caring Closer to Home LU 19

When your tennis elbow flares or your eight year old has an ear-ache, it's reassuring to know that help is right around the corner.

Comprehensive health care under one roof is at the corner of Ann Arbor Trail and Harvey Street in Plymouth—the Arbor Health Building, affiliated with the Catherine McAuley Health Center in Ann Arbor.

For All Your Health Care Needs

At the Arbor Health Building, private practice physicians from St. Joseph Mercy and Mercywood Hospitals represent 23 primary care and specialty areas such as internal medicine, general surgery, orthopedics, obstetrics and psychiatry.

Arbor Health Building also offers a mental health service, home care and community health services, and a minor emergency/occupational medicine service.

Minor Emergency Service

Open 14 hours a day, 365 days a year, the minor emergency service can take care of non-life-threatening emergencies from 8 a.m. to 10 p.m.

X-ray, laboratory and emergency equipment are onsite to diagnose and treat your ailment quickly and efficiently. For more information on how the Arbor Health Building fits into your family's health care program, call 313/572-4000. Lots of food, fun at street booths

Following is a summary of the main booths that may be found along Main Street during the four days of the Plymouth Fall Festival. Included is information on how proceeds from each booth benefit organizations in the Plymouth-Canton community.

● OPTIMIST CLUB

The Plymouth Optimist Club has participated in the Plymouth Fall Festival for many years. The Optimists sell helium-filled balloons, inflatable toys, and novelties at the festival. The Optimists sponsor the annual Fall Festival pet show on Saturday morning, a Girl Scout Troop, and an oratorical contest for boys and girls of middle school age.

● COMMUNITY CHORUS

The Plymouth Community Chorus will begin its 11th year of involvement in the Fall Festival with a taco booth. In addition, the chorus will perform at 7:15 p.m. Friday and 3:30 p.m. Sunday. The Plymouth Community Chorus is made up of a membership of 130 from throughout southeastern Michigan. The chorus is directed by Mike Gross, who is in his seventh year as leader.

● MOOSE LODGE

The Plymouth-Canton Loyal Order of Moose No. 1190 will sell ice slush drinks in five flavors this year — the fourth year the Moose has participated in the festival. The Loyal Order of Moose is an international fraternal lodge, which is non-political and non-sectarian. It will observe its centennial anniversary in 1988. The Plymouth-Canton Moose has given money to the Goodfellows, Plymouth Youth Symphony, Children's Hospital of Michigan as well as Moose national projects.

● SALEM JUNIORS

Scrumptious baked potatoes with a variety of toppings will be served by the junior class of Plymouth Salem High School. Toppings include cheese, sour cream and bacon bits. Proceeds will be used to help pay for youth activities.

● THEATRE GUILD

The Plymouth Theatre Guild has been participating in the Fall Festival for 20 years. This group began with a cotton candy machine. The wind would take the cotton candy through the park, and more would blow away than remain on the sticks. In 1967, the Theatre Guild bought a used concession trailer for the cotton candy machine, and that trailer has been in use since. The guild has added popcorn, pop and coffee to its cotton candy sales. The Plymouth Theatre Guild has been performing live theater in the Plymouth community for 29 years.

● GREEK ORTHODOX CHURCH

The Nativity of the Virgin Mary Greek Orthodox Church will, for the seventh consecutive year, sponsor a Greek pastries and shish-ke-bob booth at the Plymouth Fall Festival. The church uses money from the booth for its building fund and the Plymouth Goodfellows.

● CANTON JUNIORS

The junior class of Plymouth Canton High School will continue the tradition set by previous classes by serving Baskin-Robbins "31 Flavors" ice cream at the Fall Festival. While selling many of the 31 flavors, the booth also will sell ice cream bars. Money earned will be used to pay for junior class youth activities.

● PLYMOUTH FAMILY SERVICE

You can eat a pita burger, with or without cheese, again this year at the festival by stopping by the Plymouth Family Service booth. Plymouth Family Service, sponsored by the Plymouth Community Fund, provides individual marital and family counseling to residents. Fees are based on ability to pay. Proceeds from the Fall Festival will be supplement money from the Community Fund.

● CEP PERSPECTIVE

The CEP Perspective, the student newspaper at Plymouth Centennial Educational Park, will have a cookie booth at this year's festival. The students of this award-winning high school newspaper will bake cookies and sell iced tea and lemonade. The money raised will help pay for some training for students of the newspaper staff.

● FAMILY YMCA

The Plymouth Community Family 'Y' has participated in the Fall Festival for a number of years. This year, it expects to sell 1,500 pounds of Italian sausage subs filled with green peppers and onions. The 'Y' also will sell pop, coffee and Y sport bags. Money raised will pay for the community programs offered through the 'Y.'

● SALEM SENIOR CLASS

The senior class of Plymouth Salem High School will sponsor the pizza booth at the festival — a tradition for more than several years. Money from the pizza sale will be used to pay for the youth activities of the class of 1985.

● NEW MORNING SCHOOL

A monster comes to Plymouth in the form of a book called "Peanut Butter Syrup." This book, a children's book written in Plymouth, will be sold by the New Morning School. The book is about growing up. New Morning School is a 12-year-old non-profit, state certified, parent co-operative school for children in preschool through eighth grade.

● CEP HONOR SOCIETY

The Centennial Educational Park National Honor Society is made up of students from Canton High School and Salem High School who excel in scholarship, leadership, character, and service. Again this year, the students will sell Italian ice during the festival. Last year, more than $1,000 was raised to provide scholarships for two members of the local NHS. The money also was used to provide each NHS member with a gold cord for graduation ceremonies.

Service clubs offer big meal fund-raisers

Each year at the Plymouth Fall Festival, the local service clubs feature a "main meal" for festival-goers.

This year's main meals will begin with the Plymouth Theater Guild's ham dinner on Thursday and will wrap up with Plymouth Rotary's chicken dinner on Sunday.

In between those events will be the Plymouth Lions Friday fish fry, the Plymouth Kiwanis pancake jubilee and the Plymouth Jaycees spaghetti dinner.

THURSDAY NIGHT'S kick-off dinner will be a big production since it will be arranged by a group of people who are experts at big productions — the Plymouth Theatre Guild.

The guild is a relative newcomer to the main meal scene but still has managed to make a name for itself. Taking on a project to feed the many first-night festival-goers is enough to give heartburn to a regimental mess sergeant, but the PTG manages to present a culinary treat with a maximum of aplomb.

The script at the Thursday evening meal will read: sliced ham, a serving of potatoes, a pickle spear, bread with butter, and coffee or milk. The price is $3.50 per person. The performance will begin at 4:30 p.m. and run until 8 p.m.

The Friday feast will feature the Plymouth Lions Club Friday fish fry. The Lions will serve 2-9 p.m. The fish-n-chips-style dinner will feature boneless fillets of orange roughy or ocean perch. Dinner will include fish, French fries and cole slaw at $3 per meal. Tickets are available at the door only.

THE PLYMOUTH KIWANIS annual pancake jubilee will start off the Saturday main meals.

Each year, the Plymouth Kiwanis Club sponsors the pancake breakfast and lunch on the Saturday of the festival. The meal will be served from 7 a.m. to 1 p.m. Price is $3.50 at the door. Children younger than 14 will be measured at the door and charged 50 cents per foot.

On Saturday night, the Plymouth Jaycees will tackle a new venture — a spaghetti dinner. The menu of spaghetti, salad and garlic bread will be served 4-9 p.m. for $3.50 for adults and $2.50 for children 8 and younger. In other years, the Jaycees have served beef ribs.

THE MEMBERS OF Plymouth Rotary will bring the festival to a close on Sunday, Sept. 9.

The Rotarians have been cooking chicken dinners for the past 28 years, ever since the festival started as a community picnic in Hamilton Park. Twenty-eight years ago, Plymouth Rotary raised money for playground equipment for Hamilton Park. Today they raise funds for all kinds of community needs.

The Plymouth Rotary Foundation has provided money to Plymouth Family Service, Easter Seals, Boy Scouts, student exchange programs, the Salvation Army, the Plymouth Symphony, the Rotary Swim Meet and for scholarships.

In addition, the club has paid for the fountain in Kellogg Park, the double-decked bus, the pavilion (Gathering Place) and the Rotary School Farm.

This year, the Rotarians expect to serve 13,000 chicken dinners between noon and 6 p.m. Sunday. Price is $4 for the half a chicken, corn on the cob, potato chips, roll and butter, and coffee or milk.

All "main meals" will be served in The Gathering on the north end of Kellogg Park in downtown Plymouth. Seat will be in Kellogg Park or under The Gathering on Penniman Avenue halfway between Main and Union.

Touring automobiles visit festival Friday

One- and two-cylinder automobiles are expected to stop in Kellogg Park Friday afternoon.

The motor tourists will be enroute from the R.E. Olds Museum in Lansing to the Old Car Festival at Greenfield Village on Saturday, Sept. 8.

The cars are expected to leave Lansing early Friday morning. They will follow the same route used by the Curved-Dash Olds Club in 1981.

The little cars will quickly reach quiet roads after departure from the R.E. Olds Museum in downtown Lansing across the river from the spot where R.E. Olds developed his first cars.

The route takes the group through the Michigan State University Farms, into the Ingram County seat of Mason, and then along an old stagecoach road to coffee at Stockbridge.

From there, the terrain changes from farm to rolling recreation land dotted with lakes through Unadilla. The group will lunch along Territorial Road and then make the run along that pioneer roadway to Plymouth where the group will be served refreshments by the Fall Festival Board of Directors.

The cars also will remain in downtown Plymouth for a short time before moving onto Hines Drive enroute to Dearborn.

The waterball contest pits teams in a squirting contest where everything and everybody, including the waterball, end up wet. The waterball contest is fun for the participants, as well as those looking for an exciting Fall Festival event.

Waterball contest returns for 5th year in festival

The city of Plymouth Fire Department will sponsor its fifth annual Waterball Contest and Muster on Saturday of Fall Festival.

This year, there will be a new location for the Waterball Contest events: Main Street between Ann Arbor Trail and Wing Street.

The events begin at 9 a.m. From 12:30-1:30 p.m., there will be the apparatus parade, with the apparatus display 1:30-4 p.m.

The waterball contest will be 1:45-4 p.m. The children's events will be 2-4 p.m.

Children can participate in a bucket brigade and a water-shooting event.

During the past five years, the participants have included firefighting teams from nearby communities of Plymouth Township, Canton, Northville city and township, and Livonia.

The annual art show during Plymouth Fall Festival is a favorite for many festival-goers.

Art show opens earlier this year

The Plymouth Community Arts Council (PCAC) has expanded its hours for its 1984 Artists and Craftsmen Show.

Instead of opening its doors at noon as in the past, the PCAC art show will begin two hours earlier each day.

The annual show will be from 10 a.m. to 7 p.m. Saturday and from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Sunday in Central Middle School, at Church and Main streets.

The 1984 version will feature 98 artisans from all over Michigan. Some exhibitors will offer demonstrations. It is a juried show with participants coming on an invitation-only basis. All proceeds benefit PCAC community services.

Donation at the door is $1 for adults and 50 cents for students and older persons. Children younger than 12 will be admitted free if accompanied by an adult.

The PCAC was founded to promote the arts to all ages in the Plymouth and Canton communities. The arts council sponsors the "Art Ladies" and "Music Ladies" in the schools, music in the park, the art rental library, scholarships and awards among other projects.

Among the features of the PCAC display are a student art booth where local students will exhibit and sell their creations, and a public hospitality room, which will offer drinks and information about the arts council.

THE PCAC art show is the group's major fundraiser, attracting thousands of visitors annually.

A selection committee reviewed the works of more than 300 artists to choose the 98 who will participate in the festival show. The criteria used in selection included originality and workmanship.

The paintings exhibited will include oils, water colors, acrylics, and pen-and-ink. The crafts include pottery, porcelain, stained glass, metal work, lampshades, hand-crafted furniture, toys and wood-inlay.

An additional room is being opened this year to allow space for 13 more artists, said Rosemarie Kramer, chairwoman of this year's show.

Grange to serve meals at festival

Plymouth Grange No. 389 became a part of the Plymouth Fall Festival in the early 1960s with the sale of homemade cookies.

Around 1970, the Grange expanded into baking homemade pies for the festival and in 1974 started selling doughnuts.

During the 1984 Fall Festival, the Grange plans on serving both lunch and dinners on all four days.

On Thursday and Saturday, the cooks at the Grange will serve porcupine meat balls and pea soup with ham. On Friday and Sunday, the Grange will serve stacked ham sandwiches with chips and vegetable beef soup.

On all four days, the group will serve sloppy joes, cole slaw, pie and cookies. The Grange offers educational programs, perform community services, and promotes legislative action for farm, home, family and community issues.

The Plymouth Grange has raised money for, among others, the Salvation Army, the Fife & Drum Corps, Hawthorn Center and Tonquish Manor.

Antique mart benefits local orchestra

For the 22nd time the Plymouth Symphony Society this year will sponsor the Antique Mart for the Plymouth Fall Festival.

The Antique Mart will be from noon to 9 p.m. Friday and Saturday, Sept. 7-8, and from noon to 6 p.m. on Sunday in the Plymouth Community Cultural Center, 525 Farmer at Theodore.

Admission is a donation of $1.50 for adults and 75 cents for senior citizens.

All proceeds benefit the Plymouth Symphony Orchestra, and this is the largest single fundraising project that the Symphony League sponsors each year.

Some 20 dealers will display a wide variety of antiques and collectibles, including primitive furniture, golden oak furniture, caned and rush seat chairs, China, ironstone, Heisey glass, Doultons, Hummels, American brass and copper, quilts, children's miniatures and toys, baskets, and country antiques accessories.

On Thursday evening, Sept. 6, the Symphony League will feature a special preview night of the Antique Mart. There also will be a blue ribbon antique auction that night. The preview night reception will require reservations and a $10 per person donation. For information on the preview call 455-3199.

The auction is new this year. Each dealer has agreed to donate an item to be auctioned to the highest bidder. Bidding will begin at 9 p.m.

Cindy Merrifield and Maret Garard, who select dealers for the show, say they have assembled an elite group of dealers to provide a wide variety of quality antiques.

Fife and fun

Throughout the Fall Festival weekend, various groups are highlighted during performances on Penningman Avenue. Among the favorites is the Plymouth Fife and Drum Corps, shown here during last year's festivities. A complete listing of the performances can be found in the center of this section.

Cancer info will be shared

What can you do to prevent cancer?

Some answers to that question will be available at an information open house at the Plymouth office of the Michigan Cancer Foundation offers a great deal of information on early detection services (pap tests, breast cancer detection, cervical cancer screening) and services for cancer patients (sick room equipment, medical supplies, transportation, counseling, therapy).

More and more people are being cured of cancer, and there are steps persons can take every day to protect themselves against cancer.

The Plymouth office of the Michigan Cancer Foundation offers a great deal of information on early detection services (pap tests, breast cancer detection, cervical cancer screening) and services for cancer patients (sick room equipment, medical supplies, transportation, counseling, therapy).

The office encourages persons to stop in during the Fall Festival to learn what they can do to prevent cancer for themselves and their families.

Steamin'

One of the highlights of the festival is Sunday's chicken barbecue sponsored by the Plymouth Rotary. Included in the barbecue dinner is corn-on-the-cob, which is steam cooked. With the number of patrons on Sunday, Rotary members must depend on this steam engine to provide them with the "cooking power" to cook thousands of the golden ears.

Student radio crew to air live

The student-operated radio station at Plymouth Centennial Educational Park will be broadcast from Kellogg Park in downtown Plymouth during the four days of the Fall Festival.

On Thursday and Friday, Sept. 6-7, WSDP (88.1 FM) will broadcast from 4-7 p.m. from the festival site. On Saturday and Sunday, it will broadcast from noon to 5 p.m.

"WSDP-FM is Plymouth-Canton's community radio station, and we are proud to be a part of the Fall Festival," said Mary Ann Vachler, public relations director for the station.

Her thoughts were echoed by Andrew Melin, station manager, who said: "We feel it is important to be involved with such a significant community event. WSDP hopes to inform and promote the Fall Festival to western Wayne and eastern Washtenaw county listeners."

WSDP broadcast emphasizes contemporary music formats and community-oriented programming. The station also is a valuable educational tool for students of Plymouth-Canton Community Schools.

The FM station first went on the air in February 1972 and is now the most powerful high school radio station in Michigan. The station is owned and operated by the school district.

The 1984 Plymouth Fall Festival guide was put together by advertising coordinator Lisa Birou and editorial coordinator Gary M. Cates.

Assisting in the advertising operations were Peg Knoespel and Missy Handler.

Assisting in the editorial operations were Bridget Moran, Emory Daniels and Barry Jensen. The editorial photos appearing throughout the guide were taken at last year's festival by Bill Bresler.

Supporting the guide by providing information and research was Paul Sincok, assistant to the Plymouth city manager.

ADMISSION FREE SEMINARS, NOVI LOCATION

PRE-Registration is required • 855-3222

Toll free most areas

ORTHODONTICS: A Health Service For All Ages Thursday, September 13, 7:30 p.m.

Orthodontics can offer a variety of services for all ages. Dr. Kreig will discuss invisible braces, non-extraction treatments, surgical and functional orthodontics and TMJ dysfunction (disorders of the jaw joints).
William Kreig, D.D.S., M.S., Orthodontics

ALCOHOLISM AND SUBSTANCE ABUSE IN FAMILIES Thursday, September 20, 7:30 p.m.

Alcoholism and substance abuse not only affect individuals but can dictate subtle changes in the way the entire family functions. Mr. Welsbacher will discuss how these changes can be reversed and utilized for constructive change when the problems are recognized for what they actually are.
Richard Welsbacher, M.S.W., Social Work, Substance Abuse

WHAT'S NEW IN CONTACT LENSES Thursday, October 4, 7:30 p.m.

Bifocal contact lenses, extended wears, astigmatic soft contact lenses... contact lenses are now available for almost everyone. Dr. Stein will discuss the pros and cons of many popular lenses including gas permeable lenses (semi-hard, semi-soft) along with radial keratotomy, the surgical correction of myopia.
Leonard Stein, O.D., Optometry and Contact Lenses

BREAST CANCER: A POSITIVE VIEW Tuesday, October 9, 7:30 p.m.

Breast cancer is a frightening thought, but fear of breast cancer often outruns the facts. Can breast cancer be prevented? How is breast cancer treated and detected? Is surgery always necessary and disfiguring? Dr. Speck, Dr. Frankel and Dr. Gursel, aware that for most women the breasts are perceived symbols of sexual identity, will address these questions.
Lisa Speck, M.D., Internal Medicine
Maurice Frankel, M.D., F.A.C.S., General Surgery
Eli Gursel, M.D., F.A.C.S., Plastic and Reconstructive Surgery

"DOCTOR, IS IT MY HEART?" Thursday, October 18, 7:30 p.m.

Chest pain – what do the various types signify? What are palpitations, irregularities and arrhythmias? Dr. Kozlowski will discuss which discomforts should prompt one to suspect heart problems.
Jay Kozlowski, M.D., Cardiology

EATING DISORDERS IN CHILDREN, ADOLESCENTS AND ADULTS Thursday, November 1, 7:30 p.m.

Anorexia nervosa, bulimia, obesity, and food faddism are topics of increasing concern to physicians, parents, and young people. What is anorexia nervosa? How does bulimia differ from anorexia nervosa? Can obesity lead to anorexia? Is it wrong for teenagers to be vegetarians? These questions will be among those addressed from a psychiatric and pediatric point of view. Audience questions and participation will be welcome.
Sharon Tice, M.D., Pediatrics, Adolescent Medicine
Seymour Baxter, M.D., Psychiatry

ARTHRITIS AND ITS TREATMENT* Thursday, November 29, 7:30 p.m.

Arthritis is among the most widespread ailments in the United States. Dr. Lesser will talk about the common causes of joint, muscle and back pain, including rheumatoid arthritis, osteoarthritis and gout. The most effective treatment measures now available will also be discussed.
James Lesser, M.D., Internal Medicine, Rheumatology

NEW Afternoon Program

Dr. James Lesser will offer a special session of his popular seminar:

ARTHRITIS AND ITS TREATMENT
Wednesday, October 24, 1:00 p.m.
James Lesser, M.D.
Internal Medicine, Rheumatology

SPOTLIGHT STORY: WOODLAND CARDIOLOGY

Ba-bump. . .ba-bump. . .ba-bump. . . The sound of your heart's beat, from the strongest and most vital organ in your body, is a beautiful one. It's powerful. It's tireless. It's reliable. But it does require from you in return respect and consideration and healthy habits to preserve a longer length of service.

When your heart has been denied the proper care, or indicates signs of strain or malfunction, it's time to visit a specialist in cardiology. A cardiologist is actually an internist concentrating on the diagnosis, treatment and prevention of heart disease. We have five staff cardiologists to care for you at Woodland Medical Centers. They are supported with complete diagnostic testing facilities on site to properly care for adult cardiology patients.

In most cases you visit a cardiologist through the advice of your personal physician after a determination that a cardio-vascular (heart/vessels and ducts) abnormality exists. As an extension of your primary care personal physician, your cardiologist handles the diagnostic and therapeutic duties while a cardio-thoracic surgeon is included should surgery be required.

Caring for you prior to any serious heart complications is what our Woodland cardiologists prefer. Unfortunately in too many cases it's after the fact. Once you have had a heart attack, there's a whole new set of rules to play by. Beyond the physical impact of a heart attack, there's also financial, psychological and family impacts to contend with. Again, your cardiologist is readily available to guide you in these sensitive areas during your time of need.

Normally you have nine pints of blood flowing through the maze of veins interconnecting "Grand Central Station" (the heart) to other regions of your body. But how well does that blood flow? Through the use of an Echo Cardiogram, sound waves bounce off the chest cavity and provide pictures of the heart's appearance on screen. How thick are the walls? Is there any scarring? Is the heart contracting properly? These questions are all answered in this test and read by your cardiologist to advise you on any course of action.

Blood flows from your heart up through your neck to your brain via the carotid artery. Just like a car bucks and stalls when the fuel filter is clogged, a carotid artery that is clogged can't supply enough blood to the brain which can result in a stroke.

A Doppler Flow Study uses sound waves to measure the blood flow in your neck area. It can measure if the artery is becoming clogged or if it's losing its elasticity, which is part of the natural aging process. Just like a pump and the pipes of a water system, your heart and circulatory system must work in concert to function properly.

When you are in a relaxed state, your heart is pumping out about 50% of the blood it contains with each beat. As you exercise, the percent should increase. A Stress Muga takes a series of pictures to measure the efficiency of your heart's pumping process under physical exertion. If someone has a weak left wall (that's the main pumping chamber to the body), the pumping efficiency factor will diminish as exercise increases. Put under stress, your heart is not capable of meeting your increased body demands. By measuring the amount of function lost, if any, your cardiologist can advise you what activities you must limit or if medicine or surgery is needed.

Checking the actual blood flow to the heart muscle itself involves checking the coronary arteries. This is done at Woodland with a Thallium Study, using the latest technology on an outpatient basis. We photographically record the way the coronary arteries feed each area of your heart both at rest and in a stressful state.

This painless new procedure is a very important method used in determining if there is any coronary artery disease. It's not a cure; only a diagnostic study. There is no method available to provide a 100% accurate prediction that you might have heart trouble. This Thallium Study, though, brings the prediction rate up to 90%.

Another area of Doppler Testing involves checking the blood supply to your lower extremities. Your vessels lose their elasticity and become constricted through the buildup of plaque along the inner walls. Blockage to the legs and feet can produce such severe cramping that it is impossible to walk.

This harmless test is done on an out-patient basis using sound waves. The technician provides a report to your cardiologist regarding the amount of circulation to the remote areas of your body. Your Woodland cardiologist can then determine what measures, if any, should be taken to increase blood flow.

Regular Treadmill Tests are a normal part of our cardiology testing. We can tell how out of shape you are... whether you need an exercise routine... or whether your blood pressure handles stress normally. It is much more satisfying to you and your physician to adopt a new diet or exercise program, "prescribing prudent heart living," rather than performing open heart bypass surgery.

When someone visits Woodland because of a chronic chest pain, we always check the heart first—because that's the most deadly. We do the studies, check the histories, perform a treadmill, then scan with the Thallium. Only then do we go to less life-threatening organs. That's diagnosis at its best—beforehand, and it's keeping people out of the hospital.

At Woodland Medical we're serious about diagnosis—and we're ready with a complete staff, laboratory, and consultation service to keep your heart pumping to that beautiful beat. . .ba-bump. . .ba-bump. . .ba-bump.
