Carol's crocuses

Appreciating the saffron yellow, purple and white crocuses popping their way through the earth at her parents' home on Randolph this week is Carol Krueger. Her father, Robert Krueger, planted the bed of the small, bulbous plants known as harbingers of spring in a protected location near the house. They're among the first to be seen in quantity about town. Record photo by Steve Fecht.

Area preschools protest board's proposal

By MICHELE M. FECHT

A group of independent area preschool operators turned out at Monday's Northville Board of Education meeting to voice concerns about the district's plan to implement a child care center at Moraine Elementary School.

The school board gave the administration the go ahead to investigate a proposed child care program at Moraine for the 1985-86 school year at its meeting February 11. The administration recommended finding a use for the building, which will close at the end of the current school year, rather than mothball the facility.

Preschool representatives attending Monday's meeting questioned the need for more child care facilities in the area and noted that most of the preschool/daycare programs in Northville have had vacancies for the past two years.

School Superintendent George Bell told those attending the meeting that the administration assessed the need for a child care program through a survey sent out to area households last month. He noted that of the more than 1,000 responses (approximately 20 percent of households surveyed), most indicated a need for some form of child care in the area — whether it be daycare, preschool, latchkey, etc.

Andrea Lenzi, who operates Little Hornbook in Novi, said she questioned that "need" when six of the preschool facilities within a two mile radius of Moraine currently are operating under capacity. She also questioned why the survey was sent out after the board approved a recommendation to consider a child care program.

Lenzi also protested the use of taxpayer dollars to operate the program and send out the survey.

Lane Norton of Willowbeck Child Center echoed Lenzi's remark stating, "I don't know if tax dollars should be paying for this."

Bell said that if a child care program is implemented, it would be entirely self-supporting with the district charging fees for children to attend.

However, Lenzi argued that initial costs — equipment, supplies, etc. — have been paid for by taxpayers in the community.

Several of the preschool representatives asked the board why the facility is not sold or leased. While the board has never considered selling the facility, the possibility of leasing the building was discussed at the time the board agreed to close Moraine.

School board president Jean Hansen said that, while enrollment projections indicate the district will not need the facility during the next five years, in "eight to 10 years we may need it."

She also said the board "guaranteed the public we would not mothball and board up the building" and directed the administration to investigate uses for the facility.

In explaining the board's decision to shut down both Moraine and Cooke, trustee Chris Johnson noted that "by closing schools we found our operating expenses reduced considerably."

"People questioned what we would do with the building," Johnson said. "Our answer flat out was 'we don't know.'"

He noted that the child care proposal was "a program the superintendent brought back to the board a few weeks ago and we thought it was worth exploring."

"Our main concern with the proposal was whether there was a need in the community," he said. "That's why the survey was sent out."

In responding to questions about selling the school facility, Johnson noted that the "money gained from any sale of the building has to be put back into the bond issue."

He noted that neither the school district nor taxpayers would see a return on their money from the sale of the building as most of the funds would pay back the bond issue.

Superintendent Bell said that while several private schools have indicated an interest in leasing space at Moraine, the board of education currently has a policy prohibiting the district from renting or leasing its facilities to outside competitors.

Bell further noted that in accordance with State Board of Education guidelines, a public school district leasing a facility to a private program is responsible for financing that program's special education needs.

Bell said such an arrangement could end up costing the district more money in special education than in fees gained through the lease agreement.

Bell also was questioned about the state's proposal for funding preschool programs in districts which have closed former K-12 buildings.

Bell noted that while the state has set aside $750,000 for the development of latchkey programs throughout the state and another $750,000 for preschool programs, neither the State Board of Education nor the Legislature has indicated how those funds are to be utilized.

He further noted that as an out-of-

Salary hikes still in budget after residents protest

By KEVIN WILSON

Township board members took some heat from residents Monday night, but retained a 1985-86 fiscal year budget containing raises of $5,000 for the supervisor and $3,000 for the clerk.

Adoption of the budget is scheduled Thursday night. The board will meet at 7:30 p.m. for a public hearing on proposed use of more than $50,000 in federal revenue sharing income — designated, as in past years, to pay the costs of fringe benefits for township employees.

The proposed budget will be adopted in a meeting immediately following the hearing.

Salaries for the supervisor and clerk were the major issue of discussion at Monday night's budget hearing, as residents raised several questions regarding the proposal to pay $19,000 to the supervisor and $15,000 to the clerk.

Battle heating up on DeHoCo limits

By KEVIN WILSON

With sale of the Detroit House of Correction to the state due for consideration yesterday in the legislative Joint Capital Outlay Committee (JCOC), area legislators were still locked in a battle with the state administration over how many prisoners could be housed there.

The state department of management and budget is holding out for a 750-bed capacity while local legislators, including JCOC-member senator R. Robert Geake (R-Northville Township) are fighting for a 500-bed cap.

State representative Gerald H. Law (R-Plymouth Township) is advocating tie-bar legislation that caps population not only at DeHoCo but at two nearby prison sites — Phoenix Correctional Institution and the under-construction Scott Regional Prison. Similar legislation would also place a moratorium on further prison sitings in areas where one state or county prison already exists unless the local government approved. And, local legislators are attempting to ensure that security at DeHoCo is vastly improved before the state places any prisoners there.

JCOC was expected to vote on the $6.7 million purchase last Thursday, but the decision was deferred to this week at the request of Detroit legislators who have their own agenda.

Detroit officials, who are disappointed in the state appraisal of the property's value, are seeking to retain mineral rights on the land and to include a provision to the sale that would give the city right of first refusal if the state later decides to sell DeHoCo.

Law said he was pleased to see the delay. "It just gives us more time to get our votes lined up. We never got to the prisoner cap or the moratorium (last week) so we have more time to consider our situation."

Law contends that the department of management and budget wants to put 750 prisoners at DeHoCo in order to justify hiring all the present Detroit employees working there. DMB has offered what it calls a compromise agreement to house 750 prisoners initially on a temporary basis with gradual reduction to a 500-bed permanent capacity.

Northville Township supervisor Susan Helnitz said the area has "already been burned by the state using the word 'temporary.' Phoenix was supposed to be temporary and now no one is using that word anymore. We know what temporary means, and we're not interested."

NHS search under way for distinguished alumni

Northville High School has begun a search for this year's Distinguished Alumni recipient.

Any person may nominate a Northville High School graduate by submitting a letter that details the accomplishments of the nominee. Nominations for the second annual award will be accepted through April 12.

The Distinguished Alumni Award recognizes the contributions of Northville High School graduates who have distinguished themselves at the local, state, national or international levels.

The award will be presented at commencement exercises June 14. The high school is requiring that the recipient be present at commencement to receive the award.

Nominations will be screened by the selection committee consisting of representatives from the student body, community, faculty, central office and high school administration.

All letters are to be sent to Northville High School, Distinguished Alumni, 775 North Center, Northville.

Brasures begin service

Air Force graduates land 'Star Wars' posts

For Captain Wayne Brasure and his wife, First Lieutenant LeAnn Brasure, graduation from the Department of the Air Force Air University, Air Force Institute of Technology, March 15 means a special assignment. Both will be participating in the Space Defense program at Kirkland Air Force Base in Albuquerque, New Mexico.

That's more commonly known as the Star Wars program, explains Captain Brasure, who has been visiting his parents, the Reverend and Mrs. Lloyd Brasure here following the commencement.

Both Wayne and his wife, who met at the University of Michigan, are research physicists. LeAnn soon will be commissioned a captain as well. Before beginning work at the weapons laboratory, they will visit her family in Omaha.

The Reverend and Mrs. Brasure attended the couple's commencement held at the Officers' Club, Wright-Patterson Air Force Base in Ohio. He lauded the graduation address by General Thomas M. Ryan Jr., Commander in Chief, Military Airlift Command.

Military service is a family tradition in the Brasure family. Reverend Brasure, pastor emeritus of First Presbyterian Church, served as a chaplain during World War II. He has just completed 20 months' service as interim minister at First Presbyterian Church of Pontiac and has begun an interim pastorate at University Presbyterian Church in Rochester.

Wayne's older brother Neal, a major in the Air Force, is completing his assignment at Maxwell Air Force Base in Montgomery, Alabama, and will be assigned in Hawaii.

Major Brasure was attending Air Force Staff and Command at Maxwell Air Force Base. His father reports he "picked up a masters degree on the side."

Farmer's Market gets early start

Northville's Farmer's Market, held during the growing season on Thursdays from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. in the parking lot on Main at Hutton, will be starting earlier than usual this year.

Opening date was advanced to May 16 at the request of area farmers by the sponsoring Northville Community Chamber of Commerce.

At the chamber board meeting last Thursday the board voted to advance the opening date and to contact area farmers. The board was told that farmers expected to have flowers and seedlings as well as storage crops available.

Rates for the expanded season were increased to $125 from $100 for those signing contracts and paying for the season in advance. Chamber president, Sherry Spaman noted that the season rate is "a bargain" as it includes 25 Thursdays through October and it is likely that the season will extend into the first two weeks of November, as it did last year. Daily rate is $10.

Former Detroit mail carrier appointed to local post

Yvette M. Jenkins, a veteran of seven years of government service, has been appointed by Detroit Postmaster Gene Cole to be customer service representative for Northville and other suburban communities.

She previously had served as a letter carrier at the Northwestern Station in Detroit and joins a long list of postal service employees in attaining this position.

As a representative in Northville, Jenkins will be responsible for maintaining contact with commercial mailers regarding postal problems, procedures and policies.

She also will ensure mailers are utilizing the correct programs to get the best possible service at minimum cost.

In addition to her government service Jenkins serves as a member of the National Association of Black Women Entrepreneurs, Founders Society of the Detroit Institute of Arts and the USPS Women's Program Action Committee. She also had worked as a volunteer on numerous community projects, including the United Negro College Fund and WTVS-Channel 56. She is an avid

Owners of Nichols Realty (foreground) say construction of offices (background) led to flooding

'Stop work' order voted, but not issued

Citing consistent disregard of township regulations, the board of trustees March 14 approved issuance of a stop-work order against the contractor for a Seven Mile Road office structure. The board action was subject to review of the township attorney, who subsequently rejected the proposal.

The order would have halted all construction on property owned by the Connecticut Corners Partnership on the south side of Seven Mile across from the state hospital.

Neil and Ann Nichols, owners of Nichols Realty, have complained about storm drainage problems resulting from construction work on the Connecticut Corners property, which is due east of theirs. Their basement has flooded and there has been damage both to the foundation and to storm drains serving their property, the Nichols said.

Township engineer Jack McNeely explained that the developers had not obtained approval on the engineering of their site plan and proceeded with grading and drain installation without obtaining permits.

The only permit issued for the project, according to building official Troy Milligan, was for construction of the building shell. He said another permit for heating and cooling system installation was issued "by mistake," but that no permits allowing the site work had been issued.

McNeely said he began writing letters detailing the necessity for the developer to submit engineering plans in October, 1984. "They have continued to do unauthorized work despite our continuous communications telling them they could not proceed without engineering approval," McNeely said.

He advised issuance of the stop-work order until:

- Engineering plans were approved;
- The storm drainage system is repaired;
- Restoration is made for damages to the Nichols property.

The township board voted unanimously to seek a stop work order. But on March 16, clerk Georgina Goss said, the township attorney advised against the action, particularly since engineering plans had been approved the day before.

The township issued a strongly-worded letter to the contractor demanding that the firm adhere to township requirements and repair damage done in the past six months. Work on the drainage system is not to be done without the presence of a representative of McNeely's firm to act as an inspector to ensure compliance with the plans and requirements.

Storm drainage in the area proved critical when it was discovered the office site was the terminus of drainage patterns serving a large area. McNeely said determining proper drainage arrangements was complicated by the presence of old, unregistered drain systems in both the Nichols and Connecticut Corners property.

Further complication arose when the county tried to restrict the amount of water flowing into a nearby storm drain without recognizing that it was cutting off long-standing flows of large volumes, McNeely said. Later county approval for larger storm water flows into a drain under Seven Mile promises to ease the situation, he added.

Sewage holding tanks could save money

The average fellow will tell you there's only one thing to do with sewage — get rid of it.

Northville Township may try another approach, however. With financial incentive provided by last year's rejection of federal funding for the so-called "Son of Supersewer" project, the township is giving serious consideration to storing sewage in holding tanks.

Both the township board and the water and sewer commission have authorized an $8,900 study to determine feasibility of the storage system and to project costs.

By storing sewage during peak hours and releasing it into the sewer systems during periods of low load, it may be possible to continue growth in the township with less sewer capacity than would otherwise be needed, township engineers McNeely & Lincoln Associates advised the board of trustees recently.

The storage idea was considered several years ago but was found to be uneconomical — the costs of purchasing the needed capacity in Supersewer were lower than the costs of building and operating a storage system.

The balance sheet has changed since then, however. The older study anticipated that Supersewer would be built with 75 percent federal and five percent state funding, with the communities served by the system picking up the remaining 20 percent.

A modified version of Supersewer may yet be built, but, if it is, the costs will be much higher. As of January 1, federal financing for such projects dropped to 55 percent, and state funding may not be available at all.

Had the older system received approval, Northville Township's share of the cost would have been roughly $2 million. Now, cost projections run closer to $4.5 million.

Construction of a storage system could save as much as $2 million, the engineers projected.

Novi uses a storage system to reduce its daytime peak flows and lessen the required capacity to be purchased.

Hearing to consider expansion of city CBD

Possibly as soon as this summer, the city's central business district may expand to include the east side of Center Street from Cady to the Northville Downs parking lot.

City planners have scheduled a public hearing April 16 to consider changing the zoning classification of the one-block area, presently zoned for race track and related uses. If officials get their way, the block would be rezoned and added to the city's downtown-based central business district.

Talks concerning the block of six homes have taken place before, but remained a dormant issue until two weeks ago, when downtown businessman James Perkins submitted a petition to rezone one structure on the block — 209 South Center — for business use.

Since the structure borders residential-use property to the north and south, officials last week told Perkins the only way his request would be approved would be if the entire block were rezoned. Commissioners agreed that idea was worth examining.

"The original premise was that the track would buy out all the property up to Cady," said city planning consultant Ron Nino. "Perhaps we ought to consider rezoning all of it to CBD."

There are six houses on the block. All but one are used exclusively as residences, the exception being the southernmost house, used for track-related purposes.

Should commissioners encounter no resistance to the proposed rezoning at the April 16 hearing, it's likely they will recommend it to city council. Council would also have to schedule and conduct a public hearing on the change.

City Planning Commission Chair Jerry Mittman at last week's meeting informed Perkins he should expect any rezoning in the area to require at least eight weeks to receive approval.

No annexation fight

Parmenter's Northville Cider Mill owner Vern Bodker will be unimpeded in his effort to consolidate his property by annexing the township portion to the city.

Township trustees signed off on the annexation petition by unanimous vote March 14. A letter directed to James Hyde, executive secretary to the state boundary commission, states that "The Board of Trustees does not oppose this annexation."

In the absence of township opposition, annexation of Bodker's property to the city is expected to receive swift approval by the boundary commission.

The cider mill property on Baseline Road straddles the city-township line, with the larger area being in the township. Bodker filed his annexation petition shortly after Normac, Incorporated, which is immediately east of the cider mill, began seeking city water service.

The city initially rejected Normac's request, urging that it consider annexation. A meeting between mayor Paul Vernon and supervisor Susan Heintz subsequently resulted in agreement that city water would be extended to Normac while the township would drop opposition to the cider mill annexation.

Earlier in the month, city council reconsidered the Normac water issue and altered its position to allow water service to the property. The township board action followed.

DPW to get heating bids

Northville City Council authorized getting bids for a new furnace and air conditioner for the DPW office at its March 4 meeting.

DPW superintendent Ted Mapes reported that the office at 650 Silver Spring Court has a severe humidity problem, and that the heat ducts, located under the concrete floor, contain water most of the time. This, he explained, is due mainly to the high water table in the area. He noted that the building also lacks a cold air return.

Mapes warned that, because of the high humidity (which, he stated is 100 percent most of the time), damage to the computer and typewriter could become expensive. "All of our maps, records and papers," he told council, "also are being damaged by this problem."

He estimated that a 93 percent efficient furnace with a cooling unit would cost between five and six thousand dollars. Payback on the cost of the furnace was estimated at approximately two years. Money for this purchase is available in the equipment fund, without any additional city contribution, he said.

Girl Scouts celebrate week with activities

Cookie sales, banquets and church programs all focused on Girl Scout Week observed from March 10-16 throughout the community.

Theme for this year's observance has been "The best part's the fun!" representative Carmen Kuckenbecker reports.

Girl Scout cookies have been delivered at homes and sold at various locations during past weeks.

Proceeds from the annual cookie fund raise help finance troop and council-wide activities and programs for nearly 10,000 girls in the Huron Valley Council.

Northville Brownie Troop No. 220 and Junior Troop No. 379 provided greeters for Girl Scout Sunday at First United Methodist Church of Northville. The troops are sponsored by the United Methodist Women.

Amerman Cluster of Brownie Troops No. 220 and No. 740, Junior Troops No. 234 and No. 379 held a mother-daughter potluck banquet March 12 to celebrate the Girl Scout birthday at First United Methodist Church. After dinner a film on the four Girl Scout World Centers was shown. A Happy Birthday sing and cutting a cake concluded the evening.

During Girl Scout Week, marking the organization's 73 years, the Huron Valley Council reported that "the popular image of a typical Girl Scout of just a generation ago would bear only a slight resemblance to the Girl Scout of 1985. Today's scouts are mastering computer technology, learning about the environment and the ecological balance, exploring the universe by telescope and getting on the job training through Girl Scouting's career education projects."

The week's celebration, the council emphasized, was to point up that the Girl Scouting value-centered program is still helping girls grow up to be happy, strong, contributing citizens.

College trustee race starts

Nominating petitions for candidates to the Schoolcraft College Board of Trustees now are available in the President's Office on campus.

The office is open from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. weekdays.

Two six-year terms on the seven-member board will be filled at the general school election June 10. The deadline for completed petitions is 4 p.m. April 23.

Candidates must be residents of the college district and registered voters. The signatures of not less than 50 nor more than 200 qualified voters are required for nomination.

There is no charge for filing nor is there remuneration for those elected. Information pertaining to the Campaign Finance Act will be available to any who take out petitions.

CHOIR ATTIRE — Northville High School choir member Kim McRae (center) surprised fellow singers by showing up for practice in one of the newly-designed choir outfits. Proposed attire for the male members of the choir are tuxedos. To help raise money for new "choir attire," a spaghetti dinner is planned from 5-8 p.m. Friday preceding the evening's performance of "The Wizard of Oz." Dinner will be held in the NHS cafeteria and includes spaghetti with meatballs or meatless, tossed salad, rolls/butter, chocolate chip cookies, coffee, tea or milk. Price is $3.50. Record photo by Steve Fecht.

Owners are held liable for dogs running loose

Police Blotters

Radar detectors prime target for theft

It's spring — the season for kites, flowers and baseball. But it's also the season when people let their dogs out of doors for a hearty romp through the neighborhood — and that causes problems for police and neighbors alike.

Both the city and township have ordinances which prohibit dogs from running loose. But enforcing those ordinances is often a difficult matter.

"It (dogs running loose) is always a problem, but it's particularly bad in the spring," said Northville Township Police Captain Philip Presnell.

"Dog owners who let their pets run loose throughout the neighborhood should be aware that they're committing a criminal misdemeanor which is punishable by 90 days in jail, a $100 fine or both.

"It can be an expensive proposition." One of the problems with enforcing the ordinance is that complainants may be reluctant to testify against neighbors who violate the ordinance.

The problem was illustrated by a woman who called The Record Monday to complain about the number of dogs running loose through her township subdivision.

"I've lived here a long time and I plan to continue living here," she said. "I don't want to get in trouble with my neighbors by reporting them to the police."

The woman, who asked to remain anonymous for that reason, requested that people be made aware of the fact that allowing dogs to run loose is a violation of township ordinances.

"I looked out my window this morning and saw four huge dogs in my front yard," she said. "People don't have a right to let their dogs run loose."

Presnell acknowledged that fear of retribution from neighbors is an inhibiting factor in enforcement of the ordinance. In order to prosecute violations, people have to be willing to sign a complaint and testify in court.

"I understand why people don't want to do that," he said. "Nobody wants to make enemies out of their neighbors."

Presnell said one possible solution is to bring up the matter with the local homeowners' association. "If residents call us, we'll be happy to investigate and do what we can to help," he added, "but we won't be able to prosecute unless the complainant is willing to sign a complaint and testify in court."

Presnell advised residents with complaints about dogs running loose to call police with a description of the animal. "When we catch them running loose off their property, we take them to the pound," he said. "Even if there's no prosecution, it can cost the owner quite a bit of money just in pound fees to retrieve his dog."

In the Township . . .

A radar detector and three golf clubs were stolen from a Mercury Marquis parked in a Nottingham Court driveway sometime between 8 and 10 p.m. March 18, township police report.

The complainant told police unknown person(s) broke the driver's door window with a rock and stole the radar detector from the dashboard.

The complainant also said three loose golf clubs left in the back of the car were stolen.

Value of the golf clubs was placed at $300; the radar detector was valued at $287. Damage to the vehicle was estimated at $100.

Items valued at nearly $500 were stolen from a 1985 Mercury Cougar parked at a West Five Mile bar sometime between 4:30 and 5:40 p.m. March 17, township police report.

The complainant said unknown person(s) smashed the passenger side window to gain entry to the vehicle. The officer at the scene observed the smashed window and a dent in the window molding where a possible first attempt to break into the vehicle was made.

The doors of the vehicle remained locked, police observed.

Items stolen from the vehicle included a radar detector valued at $245 and a Polaroid instamatic camera valued at $249. Damage to the vehicle was estimated at $150.

Stereo equipment valued at $228 was stolen from a Plymouth Turismo parked in the driveway of a Robinwood residence sometime between 6:30 p.m. March 17 and 7:30 a.m. March 18, police report.

The complainant said unknown person(s) punched out the passenger door lock to gain entry to the vehicle and stole a JVC AM-FM cassette stereo radio valued at $114 and a JVC amplifier also valued at $114.

Damage to the vehicle was estimated at $150.

Township police reported a rash of radar detector thefts between March 17 and 23.

Five incidents were reported to township police during the aforementioned dates. Items stolen ranged in value from $172 to $260.

. . . In the City

City police are continuing to investigate a house fire at 911 Jeffrey and the apparent assault of its occupant March 18. Detective David Fendelet reported Monday that the department is following through on some leads it has received.

City police arrested a Novi resident on an Operating Under the Influence charge March 22.

Patrolman Roger Rathburn observed the subject, Dennis Burnham, in a 1982 Chevrolet pickup with the front end across the sidewalk and stuck in a hedgerow on South Ely near Center at 10:55 p.m. They watched the driver free the truck and back into a parked vehicle.

He reported the subject staggered as he approached the officer and that his speech was slurred. He failed sobriety tests, was read his rights and arrested. He was lodged in jail, later posting a $100 cash bond.

City police, acting on a complaint at 11:48 a.m. March 20, found a minor in possession of alcohol and a new Cobra radar detector subsequently found to be stolen. The minor, and two juveniles, also in possession of alcohol, were discovered in the rear of property on North Center. Investigation is continuing.

A breaking and entering at Northville High School's auto shop was reported to police by the shop teacher. It occurred sometime between 3:30 and 7:30 a.m. March 20. Police reported no evidence of entry but a cutting torch was used to cut into the storage area where tools are kept. Nothing was reported missing.

Car thief caught in the act

City detective David Fendelet has credited city police's quick recovery of an automobile stolen from a township residence with halting potential auto thefts by Detroit operators in the community.

In the early morning hours of February 27, before 3:18 a.m., officer Hugh Jordan heard the information radioed by township officers of a stolen vehicle from a residence on Stoneleigh.

He noticed the vehicle pass on Main by High and arrested the driver and questioned the passenger.

"It was a typical auto theft — they were from Detroit and said they basically were cruising around; so we nabbed them good," said Fendelet. He added he does not think the Northville area is tabbed as a place to pick up automobiles.

The driver of the car also was involved in a Farmington auto theft, police found.

The passenger, an accomplice in the theft, is in the county jail, Fendelet said. The driver was released on $5,000, posting a 10 percent bond.

A Huron-Clinton Park Naturalist visited Amerman March 6 to discuss outdoor ecology.

Amerman is happy to report there were more than 50 participants in this year's Science Fair. The exhibits will be on display in the library this week during Parent-Teacher Conferences.

The next J.E.S. Program will be at 1 p.m. tomorrow in the gym. A puppet show about handicapped children.

"Kids on the Block." will be presented.

Everyone is invited to bring a friend to the last Roller Skating Party of this school year. It will be held from 6:30-8:30 p.m. tomorrow at Bonaventure's Skating Center, 24505 Halstead Road in Farmington Hills. The class with the largest attendance will be treated to a noncorn party

Amerman students will be entertained by the Meads Mill School Band Friday.

More than 100 Amerman students are buried in books these days as they are participating in a Special Reading Olympics sponsored by the March of Dimes. They are soliciting pledges and can earn bronze, silver or gold Olympic Medals depending on the number of books read. The Read-a-Thon ends April 15 and the participants will then collect pledges that will go to the March of Dimes.

In order to raise funds for a Living Science Program, Amerman students will be selling paper products such as note paper, cards, stickers and wrapping paper from Current Magazine. Orders will be taken through April 2.

Armerman parents are invited to a presentation of creative writing at 7:30 p.m. April 3 in the library. On display will be products of a workshop conducted by Kathy Leo, a poet and author from Northville.

Orders for the annual spring flower sale will be taken in April with delivery in May.

Parents are reminded to trim labels from Campbell's, Swanson, Prego, V-8 and Franco-American products and send them to school so that we can order free school supplies.

The next PTA meeting is 1 p.m. April 15 in the Amerman library. Milton Jacobi, Amerman's principal starting with the 1985-86 school year, will be introduced to the PTA. Everyone is welcome to attend.

District Achievement Tests will be given during the week of April 22-26 to students in grades 2, 3, 5 and 6.

MORaine

On April 4, Moraine will hold its annual school carnival. This year the theme will be "Rock and Roll Groups." Tickets are 20 cents each or 11 for $2. Some of the attractions will be a lollipop pull, basketball shoot, animal walk, hidden treasure, balloon bust, darts make-up and much more.

"Hat Day" is coming up April 17. Students and staff will don their favorite crazy hats.

Savory Craig and Moraine students are busy working on their spring music program. This year it is entitled "Moraine International" and will feature music and information from around the world. Since the United States was settled by people from many different countries, the program will reflect the ancestral backgrounds of many of our students. These music programs are very successful and highlight student talents.

March 5 Moraine students took the Michigan Elementary Math test. Top winners were Matt Beemer, David Yoon, Eric Starkweather, Kate Holstein and Scott Swamba. Congratulations to all of you.

CITY OF NORTHVILLE
NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING
PROPOSED SANITARY SEWER IMPROVEMENTS
TO SERVE PROPERTIES ON THE NORTH SIDE OF EIGHT MILE ROAD WEST OF LEXINGTON COMMONS SUBDIVISION

Notice is hereby given that a public hearing will be held on Monday, April 1, 1985, at 8:00 p.m. in the Council Room of the Municipal Building, 215 W. Main Street, for the purpose of hearing comments from the property owners proposed to be assessed for sanitary sewer improvements to serve properties on the north side of Eight Mile Road west of Lexington Commons Subdivision.

The description of the proposed assessment district is as follows:

(1) All property in the City of Northville located north of Eight Mile Road, west of Lexington Commons Subdivision and east of Northville Estates except a 1 acre parcel owned by Donald Lewis; and

(2) The following lots in Northville Estates Subdivision: Lots 1-16, Lots 19 & 20, Lots 86 & 87, Lots 90-92, Lots 116-120, Lots 135-140 and Lots 145-154.

It is recommended that one-hundred percent (100%) of the project be assessed to the properties in the proposed assessment district, and none of the project be assessed at large.

It is recommended that the basis of assessment be according to benefit, with the cost of the trunk line sewer being shared in proportion to the acreage of the benefiting properties, and the cost of the Northville Estates lateral system being shared equally per lot benefited.

A complete copy of this proposed Sanitary Sewer Improvement Project is on file for public inspection during regular business hours at the City Clerk's Office.

pany visits the school with a program entitled "Spring Safari." Anticipating the Easter holiday, Mr. Bunn E. Rabbit will search for a golden egg with the help of several members of the audience.

On April 2, students will participate in their own Spring Program. The Upper Elementary Glee Club will perform.

The next PTA meeting will be at 9:15 a.m. April 16. Dolly McMaster will speak at the meeting about the middle school program. Anyone interested is invited to attend. Nominations now are being made for PTA Board for the 1985-86 school year. Anyone interested in a particular position should call Linda McMillan at 349-7456 or Kathy Reavy at 349-7672.

Second, third and fifth and sixth graders will be tested the week of April 22 using the MAT and the Otis-Lennon. On April 29 Silver Springs Poetry Writing Workshops will begin. Participating students will work with author Kathleen Ripley Leo.

The Silver Springs PTA would like to thank everyone who worked so hard to make the Silver Springs Fun Fair such a big success. In addition to the many parents and students who gave so generously of their time and talents, the PTA extends a special thank you to the many merchants and business owners for their contributions.

COOKE

On March 16, the Cooke Symphonic Band, under the direction of Michael Rumbell, earned a first division rating at the MSBOA District Band Festival. This is the highest rating a band can receive at festival and indicates a very high level of performance. The Cooke Band was the only group in its class (B) to earn a first division.

This rating enables the band to participate in the State level competition to be held May 4. The location has not yet been determined.

Congratulations to Mr. Rumbell and the Cooke band for their tremendous effort and achievement.

Seventh grader Jennifer Beyersdorf won first place in the DAR (Daughters of the American Revolution) essay contest. Two of her classmates, Jarrett Beer and Jennifer Urbahns, won second and third place. The students wrote essays of at least 500 words on the Statue of Liberty and its meaning to Americans.

Rick Abramovich, a Cooke eighth grader, has proved to be a speller. Last year's runner-up, Rick came on strong this year to win the spelling bee and will represent the school in the district contest in April. Jennifer Beyersdorf is the school runner-up.

Cooke seventh graders, through their English classes, have been raising money to send to the Statue of Liberty restoration fund. Their cookbook brought in $100. Most recently, they purchased pencils with the saying "For the Hope of America, Keep the Torch Lit — Cooke Junior High 1984-85." Students have been selling pencils for $1 each and will have another $100 toward the fund. Anyone who purchased a pencil will be in an upcoming drawing. A clock radio is the prize. Mrs. Dorothea Bach and Mrs. Carol Pasco should get a big thanks for helping their students with this worthwhile project.

Just a reminder: yearbooks still are available for $8.50. This could become a collector's item as Cooke will close at the end of the school year.

April 23 and 24 are the dates for this

Taking a spin

Todd Clason, Pat Beemer and Merrilyn Michelitch assist Donald Bisdorf (seated) in taking a spin around the neighborhood in their award-winning "Hood Mobile." Using Robin Hood as their theme, the students (along with high school student David Tadrzyaski) competed with three other Northville teams in the Southeastern Michigan Regional OM Competition in Troy last Saturday. OM (formerly known as Olympics of the Mind) is a creative, problem-solving competition. Students plan and create a product or production according to established criteria. The Division III team, comprised of students in grades 9-12, will go on to State Competition at Michigan State May 4. The team's ecology dozer, dubbed The Hood Mobile, was powered by two hydraulic jacks. One driver picked up tress and another driver tested the distance of a run on one jump of the jacks. Coaches for the team were Jack and Marilyn Michelitch. Record photo by Steve Fecht.

"Where we care enough to give you our very best"

We have all your IRA answers.

"...Retirement's only 10 years away—it's too late to start an IRA... right?"

Wrong.

Putting $2,000 each year into a Down River Federal Savings Individual Retirement Account for 10 years could give you an extra nest egg of $35,833.*

After all, why settle for just getting by when you can start now and build a bigger and more secure future. At $2,000 a year, you'll have a tidy sum in ten years. An extra $250 deduction is allowed for a non wage earning spouse for a total deduction of $2,250. And married couples who are both employed may contribute up to $4,000 a year to an IRA—so you'll have twice as much in your nest egg.

And, let us tell you about how your

IRA contribution can lower your income tax each year (even last year, if you act before April 15).

Come into any of our 24 neighborhood offices—or call our IRA Information Counselors. In the Downriver area call 285 1010, Northwest area 477 9340 and in the Monroe area 243 6600.

Need a loan to finance your IRA? Borrow from us now and pay us back monthly. And remember, the interest on this loan like your IRA is another tax deduction.

IRS regulations require a substantial penalty for early withdrawal prior to age 59½ on IRA accounts. Federal regulations require a substantial penalty for early withdrawal from a traditional account.

We make it a little easier for you.

*Based on a conservative 10% annual growth and a total 10 year contribution of $20,000.

MEADS MILL

Eighth and ninth grade students at "The Mill" are busy working with their high school counselors preparing their academic program for fall, 1985.

The Meads Mill symphonic band played at Ida High School at the annual State Band Festival March 16. Their performance was awarded a rating of three.

Meads Mill students competed in the Continental Mathematics League Junior High Computer Contest. The winners ranking first to sixth were Mitchell Moore, Jeff Gursky, Courtney Bond, Eric Rossing, Eric Fogel and Chris House.

Congratulations go to the following eighth graders who are local winners in the "America and Me Essay Contest" — Avery Robinson, Shannon Jackson and Davis McKee.

There will be a dance sponsored by the band from 2:45-4:45 April 3 in the cafeteria.

There will be parent orientation meetings on the middle school program from 7:30-9:30 p.m. April 18 and 25. On April 23, there will be an afternoon meeting at 1:10 p.m. in the media center. Parents should plan on attending one of these meetings if their child will be attending middle school next year.

All students will be participating in the National Science Olympiad April 24. Cranbrook Institute of Science will be sending Melissa Pletcher to put on a science assembly for all seventh graders May 2. The assembly is entitled "Physics Wizardry" and is sponsored by the Meads Mill PTA.

Congratulations are in order to the following students for their 1984-85

Detroit Free Press Writing Awards: Jennel Clarkson, Rachel Cole, Jason Hill and Mickey Moore, honorable mentions in the short story category; Jeff Gursky, Julie Ibach, Kathleen Kotarski and Chris Leuliette, certificates of commendation in the short story category; Jenny Riker, honorable mention in poetry and Steve Guldberg, Chris Leuliette and Kim Wilds, certificates of commendation in poetry.

Laura Williams is the winner in the Meads Mill Spelling Bee. Becky Frayne took second place and Becky Crampton was the seventh grade winner. Laura has been invited to Our Lady of Victory School for the 1985 LIT/Detroit News Regional Area Spelling Bee at 1:30 p.m. March 26.

Friday is the end of the marking period with report cards going home April 4.

The next PTSA meeting will be at the school at 9:30 a.m. April 17.

Saturday. The matinee is general admission for $3. Tickets also may be purchased at the school after 2:15 p.m.

Plan to have your Friday supper at the high school. For only $3.50 you will be able to have a salad, roll, a generous helping of spaghetti with or without meat, a beverage and dessert. Not only will you have a delicious meal, but will help the high school choir purchase outfits to be worn at school concerts and competition festivals. Tickets may be purchased from any choir member, Mary Kay Price or at the door on Friday.

The National Honor Society members have been hard at work selling flowers and fudge so they will be able to award three to four scholarships to seniors on June 5 during the Honors Convocation. They hope to raise enough money that the awards will amount to $150-$200. Marie Hopkins and Emily Serafini, faculty co-sponsors of the Honor Society, report there are 117 students currently carrying a 3.5 grade point average which qualifies them for induction into the Honor Society May 7. Potential members must also meet high standards of leadership, service and character. Currently there are about 50-60 members. Once inducted, students must maintain their grade point average, standards of leadership and character and be active participants in the organization.

Junior boys and girls who are interested in applying for Boys and Girls State may pick up an application in the counseling office. The American Legion and Auxiliary sponsor these events which introduce young people to our governmental process. The students selected to go will participate in numerous activities including running for office, campaigning and getting first-hand experience in a political convention.

The Foreign Language Club is sponsoring a trip to Europe. Forty-four students and six adults are preparing themselves for departure June 17. They will spend three days in London, three in Paris and three in Spain. American Travel International will provide the transportation, half-day tours of the major cities and side trips. Breakfast and dinner are included in the package. Students have been receiving orientation presentations by the foreign language staff raising the anticipation level of everyone lucky enough to go.

ST. PAUL'S LUTHERAN SCHOOL

Spring is in the air and has created a flurry of activities at St. Paul's Lutheran School this past month. Oriental tea parties, rocketry, maple sugaring, spelling bees and traveling to Washington, D.C., are just some of the various happenings among students and staff.

The second graders spent the month studying Japan, China and Korea. They then entertained the first grade with a tea party and Oriental foods. With the first graders concentrating on nutrition during National Nutrition Month, the tea party was an added highlight.

The Michigan Exhibition Museum in Ann Arbor was viewed by the third grade class in March. The planetarium show helped them relax for the achievement tests the entire student body just completed.

If anyone wants information about the various states in the union, the fourth grade spent the entire month gathering information and writing reports on the state of their choice. With all their reports in, they spent an educational, fun-filled day maple sugaring at Cranbrook.

It's obvious that some of the St. Paul's fifth graders have been practicing spelling. Chhuti Nag was crowned School Spelling Bee Champion and Scott Kilpinen was runner-up in the event. Amy Miller, eighth grade, finished third and Shawn McGuffie, seventh grade, finished fourth. Chhuti represented St. Paul's at the Regional Spelling Bee sponsored by The Detroit News and Lawrence Institute of Technology. Amy and Shawn will represent the school at the Spelling Bee Sweepstakes at Lutheran High School Northwest March 28.

One eighth grader and three seventh graders took part in the Detroit Science and Engineering Fair March 6-10. They were Chris Kuffner-physical science, Chris Braue-math and computers, Wendy Fettig-life science and Christine Joslyn-life science.

Following their trip to Washington, D.C., March 21-24, the seventh and eighth grades returned to their lessons and volleyball season, which is well under way. The eighth graders will be meeting with their high school counselors in preparation for the fall term, which is not far off.

Pre-registration materials for all St. Paul's students are due in the school office by April 15. Preschool round-up will be at 7:30 p.m. April 23 and Kindergarten round-up is scheduled for 7:30 p.m. April 25. For further information, call St. Paul's school office at 349-3140.

Preparing for the school Music Festival April 2 will close out the month of March and begin another busy month at St. Paul's.

WILLIAM ALLAN ACADEMY

What a busy month at the Academy. With spring around the corner so is "Spring Open House" from 7-9 p.m. April 2. It's a nice time for the students to share their school, teachers and hard work with friends and family.

Our kindergartners have been preparing for this for several months but their day-to-day work continues — especially those reading "word packets." They get fatter by the day.

The first/second graders at the Academy have just finished a beautifully coordinated unit on "Free to Be Me." Stories, pictures and vivid expressions all have been culminated into a great book. Next, they tackle written reports on aspects of Michigan. They all sent their letters out to different cities throughout the state and with these responses will coordinate a written report.

The third/fourth graders have been busy on a month-long project. They all picked an individual subject new to them. They prepared questions about the subject, word games and searches and fact sheets.

Our fifth/sixth graders at the Academy sure have turned out some interesting projects. History brought them into World War I with reports written and oral, mobiles as visual aides and debate discussions. Science and Health brought the study of great scientists from the past and the study of communicable diseases.

Matt Boirusch will be the Academy's representative at the State Competition Spelling Bee at Lawrence Institute of Technology. He will compete against other seventh and eighth graders.

Nancy Lawrence

Essay winners

Our Lady of Victory School had three winners in the 16th annual American & Me Essay Contest, sponsored by Farm Bureau Insurance Group. Winners were Dana Lynn Roslinski, first place; Jenny Crotteau, second and Matthew Scarlett, third. All three students received award certificates for their achievement. Topic of this year's contest, open to all Michigan eighth grade students, was "My Hope for America — And How I Can Help Achieve It." Record photo by Steve Fecht.

We have all your IRA answers.

"I'm going to retire in 20 years-no sense starting an IRA now... right?"

Wrong.

Start now with an annual $2,000 contribution to a Down River Federal Savings Individual Retirement Account and, at the end of 20 years, you'll have an extra $132,049* to play with!

$132,049 isn't bad when you stop to think that it means less than $9 a week to make a $2,000 a year contribution into your IRA. That's a lot less than many people spend on entertainment!

And you'll be creating a solid secure addition to your future. Here's a pleasant bonus: That $2,000 a year is deducted from your income — and the taxes you'd normally pay on it and the interest earned are deferred.

Here's your first step: Visit or call any of our 21 neighborhood offices. In the Downriver area call 285-1010. Northwest area call 477-9410 and in the Monroe area 243-0600.

Need a loan to finance your IRA? Borrow from us now and pay us back monthly. And remember the interest on this loan like your IRA is another tax deduction.

JAMES H. BIDDINGER

James Herbert Biddinger, 67, of 1068 Washington Circle died March 20 at Harper Hospital after a long illness. A resident of the community for 11 years, Mr. Biddinger was retired sales manager for Star Cutter Company, a tool manufacturer, in Farmington, with 43 years of service.

Funeral service was at 10 a.m. March 22 at Our Lady of Victory Church. Burial was in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery.

Mr. Biddinger was born June 13, 1917, in Highland Park, Michigan, to Claude and Elizabeth (Dahn) Biddinger. He married Jean Ellen Hoppel in 1939.

In addition to his wife and mother, he leaves six daughters Mrs. Carol Harding, Mrs. Peggy Endlein, Mrs. Kathy Yrooman, Ms. Pat Biddinger, Mrs. Joan Cannon and Mrs. Beth Keeney; a son James R.; three sisters Mrs. Mary Goddard, Mrs. Joanne Campbell and Bettie Stever; two brothers Charles and

J. William Biddinger; and 11 grandchildren.

Arrangements were by Ross B. Northrop and Son Funeral Home.

IRMA FLORENCE MOYNES

Funeral service for Irma Florence Moynes, 83, was held at 1 p.m. Saturday at Ross B. Northrop and Son Funeral Home with the Reverend Charles H. Beynon of First United Methodist Church in Birmingham officiating. Burial was in Woodlawn Cemetery.

Mrs. Moynes died March 20 at Whitehall Nursing Center. A homemaker, she had been a resident of Birmingham. She was born August 7, 1901, in Michigan. She married Gayer Moynes, who died in August, 1983.

She leaves a daughter Mrs. John (Mary Ann) Cardno of Northville, a son James A. of Birmingham and three grandchildren.

The family suggests that memorial contributions may be made to the Leader Dogs for the Blind.

MARION R. OLSON

Marion R. Olson, a life resident of the area, died March 22 at Botsford General Hospital after a year's illness. She was 62.

Funeral service was at 11 a.m. Tuesday at Casterline Funeral Home. Officiant was the Reverend John Grenfell of First Methodist Church of Plymouth where Mrs. Olson was a member. Burial was in Rural Hill Cemetery.

A Livonia resident, Mrs. Olson was born December 19, 1922, in Detroit to John L. and Nina G. (Miller) Hayes. She married Albert J. Olson who preceded her in death in January, 1981.

She leaves sons Gary of Northville, Richard and Keith and a daughter Nina Richeson, all of Livonia, a sister Mrs. Dorothy Hinkle of Plymouth, brother Donald Hayes of Livonia and six grandchildren.

Kitty Rhoades, representing the Northville Township Homeowners Association, questioned the salary increases, particularly in light of substantial raises granted last year.

"Our question is: would that create full-time positions?" Rhoades said. "When we adopted the township manager, we decided we didn't need the full-time supervisor and clerk. If we're finding that's not the case, let's just say they're full-time positions."

Treasurer Richard Henningsen, who recommended the increases, responded that he based his decision in part on the performance of the individuals in the positions — supervisor Susan Heintz and clerk Georgina Goss.

"I have put in the budget money for elected officials who are working more than one-half time, they're working full-time," he said. "There should be some reward for that."

But Rhoades immediately questioned raising the salaries because of the individuals involved.

"What if we are not so lucky in the next election?" she asked. "What if we have someone elected who comes in two hours a week — we'll be paying them $19,000 a year for nothing."

Henningsen said he, for one, would not approve a high salary for an elected official who wasn't performing the job the way Heintz or Goss does.

"I certainly would vote 'no' on the salary if we had such a person," he said. "I'm not going to pay $20,000 to someone who isn't earning it."

Trustee James Nowka made a similar statement.

"You pay on performance and if the performance is not there, you adjust accordingly," Nowka said.

But Rhoades said she didn't believe the board could reduce the supervisor's salary. "You may vote that way, but you can't speak for a future board. When you cut salaries before, you did it by hiring a manager. Now you have a manager, how would you do it again?"

Rhoades suggested that if the money was available in the budget to increase the supervisor and clerk salaries, it might better be applied to expand the role of the manager.

"If we have the money, let's put it in the manager's salary and eliminate the so-called revolving door," Rhoades said. "Pay enough so that you can hire an experienced person who is going to stay more than four or five years."

Henningsen said that many of the jobs performed by Heintz and Goss could not be accomplished by even the most experienced manager. "When you go out there and meet with people in a political situation, they want to talk to the highest elected official there," he said.

"If I go somewhere with him," Henningsen said, indicating manager David Leiko seated nearby, "people address all their comments to me. If I go somewhere with Mrs. Heintz, they ignore me and direct their comments to her. That's the way the system works. There are just some things that a manager cannot do. I want to pay these (elected) people enough that I can be sure they'll be there in those situations. I want them there — I don't think you want us to sit up here, run meetings, and shirk those other responsibilities."

Trustee Richard Allen added that it was never the township's intent to have the manager run the government while reducing the supervisor and clerk roles to figurehead positions.

"We wanted the elected officials to be responsible to the voters," Allen said. "We didn't want a manager making important decisions and not being accountable to the people."

Rhoades said that, although she had been told there was no legal definition to justify calling a supervisor part-time or full-time, the homeowners association is concerned that there is no job description for the position.

"There's like this limbo — if the need is for full-time people in those positions, we should be able to find some way to require full-time hours," she said.

Nowka said the issue was "difficult. In a general law township, the job is not really well defined. We cannot really place requirements on those positions beyond the minimum ones that are in the law. It keeps coming back to performance."

Henningsen and Allen both said they don't expect these salaries to increase next year. Nowka said future increases "would probably be incremental — I don't think you'll see the big changes come back again. This looks to be it."

Resident Patrick Coyne also questioned the raises, saying the township board was "changing the rules after the game has started."

He said he knew of "at least two people who would have run" for the supervisor or clerk position "if they had known you were going to raise the salaries. Not to question the job these people are doing, I know that more qualified people would have run."

"There is no dramatic growth," Coyne said, citing the recent decision to close two schools as evidence. When trustees responded that the anticipated growth is in commercial and industrial development that does not increase population, Coyne said the township is "paying for anticipated performance — there has not been that performance, yet. If the growth doesn't happen, will you take the $5,000 out of the salary next year?"

Henningsen and Allen agreed that if the township tax base does not expand in the next year, they would consider reducing the salaries.

Moraine preschool plan questioned

formula district, Northville may not be eligible for state funds.

Bell also pointed out that the $1.5 million is to be dispersed among school districts throughout the state. Therefore, any funding offered would be minimal — at best.

The superintendent reiterated that the proposed child care facility is "only in the study stages."

"We have no intention of trying to run you out of business or undercut your business in any way," Bell told the handful of concerned preschool operators.

He further stated that the proposed program may only be as large as the preschool currently offered at Amerman Elementary — depending on the community's response.

The district has been offering a preschool program at Amerman for two years as well as a latchkey program at Silver Springs.

"Our program at Amerman is in great demand," Bell noted, adding that "we haven't put anybody out of business in the two years we've been running the program."

An Amerman parent attending Monday's board meeting noted that part of the popularity of the Amerman preschool is that children go on to Amerman in grades K-6. She noted that by moving the preschool to Moraine, the district may see a decline in its enrollment.

Should the district decide not to implement a child care facility at Moraine, the administration will have to find another use for the building. The special education program currently housed in the school will continue its operation. The administration has indicated that it would be too disruptive to special education students to move the highly technical equipment from Moraine to another facility.

Up to this point, the district has not discussed its plans for the utilization of Cooke, which also will close in June.

School Notebook

KRISTINE A. BAGGETT, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Othal Baggett of Northville, has been named to the high honor list at Case Western Reserve University in Cleveland, Ohio. The high honor list requires above a 3.5 grade point average on a 4.0 scale.

A 1982 Northville High School graduate, Kristine also was recently elected president of the Zeta Phi chapter of Alpha Phi for 1985. She previously served as pledge trainer and social chairman.

Her other campus activities include serving as vice president of the Geological Society, Panhellenic delegate to the Greek Week committee and membership in the Society of Women Engineers. She is a new student recruiter and has been chosen one of eight freshman orientation coordinators for 1985.

Off campus, she is a volunteer at the Cleveland Museum of Natural History and has been summer curator of the Department of Mineralogy for the past two years.

She is a junior majoring in geology.

Three Northville residents are among the students named to Wayne State University Liberal Arts Dean's List.

To be named to the dean's list, students must carry a 4.0 average while carrying between six and 11 credits and at least a 3.6 average for full time programs of 12 credits or more.

Students named to the dean's list include GREGORY LEWIS, 18244 Jamestown; KIM PETTIT, 19701 Meadowbrook and LISA WOODEN, 41725 Rayburn.

Lewis also was selected as a member of the Golden Key National Honor Society.

SARAH JOHNSON of 335 North Center was named to the dean's list for Northern Michigan University's fall semester.

Students named to the dean's list must have earned a grade point average of 3.25 or better.

Two Northville residents were among the Eastern Michigan University students receiving advanced degrees at winter commencement December 19.

Students receiving degrees were PAUL HUFF, 19206 Silver Spring Drive, M.A. and KATHLEEN ZABINSKI, 45796 Clement, M.B.A.

Northville resident LAUREN ROSLINSKI recently was the recipient of a Gold Key Award in the Southeastern Scholastic Art Competition held at Tel Twelve Mall.

Her pencil drawing was selected from approximately 1,200 entries. She also won recognition for her acrylic painting.

She is a senior at Ladywood High School.

JEFFREY KING, son of Mr. and Mrs. John King of 41306 Lehigh Lane and a senior at University of Detroit Jesuit High School, is one of 10 state finalists representing 578 Michigan high schools in a Good Citizen contest sponsored by the Daughters of the American Revolution.

He was selected as an outstanding senior and Good Citizen by his class and faculty at the University of Detroit Jesuit High School for qualities in leadership, dependability, service and patriotism.

To qualify, he was asked to answer a questionnaire on American History, send a transcript of grades and write an essay on "Our American Heritage and My Responsibility to Preserve It."

As a member of the National Honor Society, National Merit semifinalist and a recipient of a Book Award from Brown University, he is listed in Who's Who in American High School Students and a regional and state winner in the Senate Youth Program.

King plans university study in political science, urban renewal and to become a practicing attorney.

In addition to his DAR award, King also recently participated in the 1985 national conference of Century III Leaders in Colonial Williamsburg, Virginia, where he and 101 of his peers debated solutions to some of the challenges confronting America while competing for a $10,000 college scholarship.

The Century III Leaders conference, held March 15-18, brought together 102 of the nation's most outstanding high school student leaders for a long weekend of leadership training and scholastic competition.

King won Century III honors in his school last fall and then advanced to the state level where he was named a state winner. As one of two representatives from Michigan, King received a $1,500 scholarship and an all-expense paid trip to the national conference.

While at the conference, students heard noted speakers such as newscaster David Brinkley.

Seven Northville residents were among the cast members in Mercy High School's production of "The Boyfriend," a 1920s era musical comedy last weekend.

Northville residents featured in the Sandy Wilson musical were KIM KOSLOWSKI, CATHY and ANNE PALER, PAULA TEEVENS, SHEILA WORDEN, KEVIN MURRAY and LARRY TEEVENS, serving as co-director and musical director.

"The Boyfriend" originally opened on Broadway in the fall of 1954 and introduced a 19-year-old Julie Andrews to American audiences.

Doctor Ali named chief at St. Mary

Shafqat Ali, M.D., an internist whose offices are located in Northville, has been installed as medical chief of staff at St. Mary Hospital in Livonia.

Dr. Ali, has been on the medical staff at the hospital since April, 1971.

His degree in medicine is from Nagpur University in India. He has served on the staffs of hospitals in India, England and Wales. In the United States he has been associated with Albany Medical College Hospital in Albany, New York, and Ellis Hospital in Schenectady, New York. He was certified by the American Board of Internal Medicine in 1973.

At the installation dinner nephrologist Edward Pearce, M.D. of Livonia was honored for his year of service as former chief of staff.

Other medical staff officers installed are William Siebert, M.D., orthopedic surgeon, of Livonia, chief of staff-elect, and Edwin J. Renell Jr., M.D., oral surgeon, of Livonia, secretary-treasurer.

Representatives at large who were elected to the medical staff executive committee are Seyed Bakhshandeh, M.D., Livonia internist; Stuart Barak, M.D., Livonia surgeon; and Martin Daitch, M.D., Livonia gynecologist-obstetrician.

Newly appointed to serve as chief of St. Mary's obstetrics/gynecology department is Bertram Spiwak, M.D., Livonia, who replaces Gene Saunders, M.D., also of Livonia.

Succeeding Eugene T. Capuzzi, M.D., of Northville as head of surgery is Robert Lilly, M.D., of Livonia.

Reappointed as chiefs of their respective departments are Donald Brock, M.D., pathology; Joseph Catalano, M.D., radiology; Prem Dua, M.D., pediatrics; Richard Horsch, M.D., anesthesiology; Anthony C. Munaco, M.D., family practice; Paul Pomeroy, M.D., emergency; Prem S. Prasad, M.D., psychiatry; and John M. Shuey, M.D., department of medicine.

College seeks award applicants

Schoolcraft College now is accepting applications for the 1985-86 Schoolcraft College Trustees' Award. Award recipients receive $500 their first year at Schoolcraft.

Awards are renewed for the second year if the full-time student completes 26 credit hours with a minimum 2.5 grade point average.

Interested high school students from the areas Schoolcraft serves, including Northville, should see their counselors for applications and information.

Schoolcraft College Trustees annually grant five awards to eligible students in each of the resident area high schools.

Opening up

These youngsters at Northville Co-Op Preschool's playground are hoping to meet new friends when the preschool hosts its annual open house for parents and children all this week. NCP offers programs for children 18 months to 5½ years of age. The parent-run preschool with certified teachers includes a kindergarten readiness program and toddler play group. For more information on the school at 501 West Main, or for times of the open house, call 455-4460 or 348-6455. Record photo by Steve Fecht

"IRA? I won't be retiring for 40 years, I have plenty of time to start an IRA... right?"

Wrong.

Start now with $2,000 each year in your Down River Federal Savings Individual Retirement Account, you'll have $1,084,067** set aside in 40 years!

That's only about $167 a month—you probably spend that much on your car payment. But you don't have to start that high—we can set up an IRA for you for as little as $50 and you can contribute as much as you like at any time.

Plus your contributions are deducted off the top of your income, so the income taxes you'd normally have paid on that amount including the interest earned are deferred!

Water system planned in Grandview Acres

Township water service will be established to serve Maxwell, Fry and crossroads in the Grandview Acres subdivision, township trustees recently determined.

The board voted to establish a special assessment roll to finance the estimated $318,265 cost of the project. Property owners in the district, many of whom signed petitions seeking the water service, will pay $2,608 for each buildable lot served, plus $17.28 per front foot. Cost is evenly divided between benefits and front footage.

Frontage for lots within the district ranges between 71 and 218 feet. Assessments range from $3,840 to $6,375.

The final estimate is roughly 12 percent lower than early projections that showed costs of nearly $360,000.

The township water and sewer department will sell bonds to finance construction of the water system, with the assessments against properly pledged to pay back the bonds. Assessments are payable in 15 annual installments, plus interest payments not to exceed one percent more than the interest charged on the bonds (the bond interest rate is established when they are sold — 10 percent has been a typical rate in the most recent sales).

The water system is to be constructed during the 1985 building season.

Battle on DeHoCo purchase centers on inmate capacity

Law said some compromise might be necessary on the issue of temporary housing, but only if there is a strict time schedule for reduction of the population to the 500 level.

"The department of corrections says all they want is 500 — they think that's all that's manageable there, so that's our position," Law explained. "Only the management and budget people want 750, and that's because of the deal they cut with Detroit to hire all those Detroit employees."

Law is also contending that the state is deliberately underestimating the operating costs for DeHoCo. Average cost for running a state prison, he said, is $47 a day per inmate. The DeHoCo figure is projected at $43.50 a day per inmate, despite the provision requiring that Detroit guards, who are paid a higher wage than state guards, be retained at their present salaries.

"You can't get an honest number out of these people," he complained. "They're so busy trying to claim a 'zero-growth' budget that they won't give us any realistic figures for what it will cost to run all these new prisons they want to build."

Airman Charles P. Cruz, son of Carolyn Yarnovich of 42486 Water Fall Road, has been assigned to Chanute Air Force Base in Illinois after completing Air Force basic training. During his six weeks at Lackland Air Force Base, Texas, Cruz studied the Air Force mission organization and customs and received special training in human relations. In addition, airmen who complete basic training earn credits toward an associate degree through the Community College of the Air Force. Cruz will receive specialized instruction in the fuels specialist field.

Airman Robert D. Bond, son of Robert D. and Marlene M. Bond of 38216 Connaught, has been assigned to Sheppard Air Force Base, Texas, after completing Air Force basic training. During the six weeks at Lackland Air Force Base, the airman studied the Air Force Mission, organization and customs and received special training in human relations. In addition, airmen who complete basic training earn credits toward an associate degree through the Community College of the Air Force. The airman will now receive specialized instruction in the aircraft maintenance field.

Marine Private Jonathan A. Strong, son of Sandra LaMontaine of 42570 Swan Lake Drive, has been promoted to his present rank upon graduation from recruit training at Marine Corps Recruit Depot San Diego. Strong received the early promotion for his superior performance during all phases of the 11-week training cycle, which emphasized physical conditioning, self-discipline and teamwork. A 1982 graduate of Dearborn High School, he joined the Marine Corps in September, 1984.

Army Private Richard T. Reid, son of Harold E. Reid of 9934 Five Mile, has completed basic training at Fort McClellan, Alabama. During training students received instruction in drill and ceremonies, weapons, map reading, tactics, military courtesy, military justice, first aid and Army history and traditions. He is a 1983 graduate of Wayne Memorial High School.

We have all your IRA answers.

"Every dollar we put into our IRA is tax deductible... right?"

Right!

Your Down River Federal Savings IRA contribution for the year is taken off your annual income plus the interest your IRA earns is also deferred!

For example, a young couple with a $2,000 income who contribute $1,000 to their IRA can save as much as $1,000.

TAXABLE INCOME	TAX SAVINGS
$10,000 to $20,000	$800
$20,000 to $30,000	$1,600
$30,000 to $40,000	$2,400
$40,000 to $50,000	$3,200
$50,000 to $60,000	$4,000
$60,000 to $70,000	$4,800

If you're over 59 1/2, you can withdraw your IRA funds without penalty. To find out more, call or write to our "Financially Sound" offices in the Down River area: 2800 E. 10th, Farmington, MI 48334 or 10000 E. 10th, Farmington, MI 48334.

Need a loan to finance your IRA? Borrow against your IRA and pay us back monthly. And remember, the interest on this loan from your IRA is another tax deduction. IRS regulations require a substantial penalty for early withdrawal prior to age 59 1/2, on IRA accounts. Federal regulations require a substantial penalty for early withdrawal from certificate accounts.

Our Opinion

Salaries justified in light of demands

Much as it may appear to residents that the township supervisor and clerk plan to line their pockets at taxpayer expense, we believe the salary increases recently proposed are not only warranted but necessary.

The unfortunate aspect is that the current township board had to undertake the job for itself after last year's similar effort to bring salaries into line with reality was sidetracked. Yes, the increases granted last year were substantial viewed in percentage terms. But the pay rates established were still based on absurdly low figures — as trustee Allen says, 100 percent of nothing is still nothing. The issue arises because the history of township salaries has posed the question in a false light.

The problem is the meaningless distinction between the full-time and part-time designations — arising out of a political storm five years gone, the distinction confuses residents even now. This false notion, rooted in the hiring of a business manager four years ago, resulted in last year's salary increases being limited. And it is muddling up what should be a straight-forward analysis of what a township supervisor or clerk is worth.

Salaries for these elected officials were slashed in half in 1981 to find money to hire the manager. What was needed was a staff leader professionally-trained in government. But, adding the manager's salary to the budget would have worsened a deficit, so the pay for elected officials was slashed. As justification, board members suggested that the mandated duties of a supervisor or clerk could be accomplished on a part-time basis. In other words, they said that anyone who needed more money than the township was paying could get a second job. This ignored the fact that even the so-called full-time supervisor was free to hold two jobs if he or she chose — and frequently did.

That gave rise to the idea that hiring a manager meant the township government had been restructured, with the elected officials playing a smaller role in running the township while the manager took on many of their duties. It sounded rational, but it had little basis in reality. The fact was, and is, that the township needed a professional administrator on staff simply to address the rising workload at township hall and to de-politicize day-to-day operations. The manager does not perform the duties assigned by law to the supervisor, clerk or treasurer and is far more tightly restrained in his range of authority than is the manager of a city.

For good reasons, the role of township manager was limited to prevent its becoming an unelected power base. That worked, but it also meant that the supervisor and clerk were not really relieved of their administrative responsibility to the degree suggested by the part-time designation. Without a manager, the work load of today would probably demand 50 or 60 hours work by the supervisor and clerk. With the manager, work weeks exceeding 40 hours are not hard to imagine and the minimum probably runs in excess of 30 hours.

The township was lucky to find it had elected people who did virtually the same amount of work as their predecessors did, and for half the money. They did it out of necessity. The necessity is now gone. The tax base has expanded, as have the demands on government. The 1985-86 revenue projection is more than 60 percent higher than the budget figure for 1980. The money is available to offer a more reasonable level of compensation to the people who perform these vital jobs.

The argument for higher salaries is simple: pay rates ought to be high enough to attract high-quality candidates to the ballot and to encourage them to devote the time necessary once elected. We should not be forcing a supervisor or clerk to choose between serving the township to his or her best ability and putting food on the table. We note that both salaries would still be under $20,000 a year — the supervisor would still be making less than the clerk of five years ago and the present clerk will still be making less than she did last year as a deputy clerk. The supervisor quit a $10,000 part-time job because she couldn't do it while fulfilling her duties to the township. The raise proposed doesn't even make up the difference.

Except in the previous paragraph, we've resisted the temptation to apply these arguments to the present supervisor and clerk. That's because what is at issue is the salary for a position, not an individual. Homeowners who seek a written job description to ensure that the elected person earns the salary need look no farther than their own voter registration cards.

Elected officials serve at the whim of the electorate — voters define the job they want done, and anyone who doesn't do it gets "fired." By offering up the idea that there was any difference between a part-time and a full-time position, the township suggested there was some other way to describe the jobs. Short of entirely altering our systems of government, however, voter approval is the best job description that can be written for any elected person. From the U.S. president down to the trustee of the smallest township, there are no guarantees of performance. Given the demands we make of our elected leaders, we believe it is incumbent on the taxpayers to offer at least a living wage in return.

Wrestling with the tube

By Michele Fecht

Awhile back, former Novi editor Kathy Jennings lamented about her plight as a televisionless apartment dweller. Kathy had been utilizing a friend's television for months before it was returned to its rightful owner. Though she hated to admit it, the boob tube had become a constant companion along with Alexis Carrington, Joyce Davenport, J.R. Ewing and a host of others.

When Kathy left for another newspaper job in Kalamazoo, we decided she shouldn't go alone and sent her off with a brand new black and white TV. Having recently spent an entire evening glued in front of the television watching such mindless garbage as "Videodrome" and "Time Walker," I'm not so sure we did Kathy a favor.

Actually the two aforementioned flicks were cable offerings. Oh sure, you can find the same senseless stuff on network television but cable viewing allows you to watch the same movie eight or 10 times a month — and with no commercials.

Until my marriage last October, I lived 26 years without cable television. I probably would have survived another 26 had our cable station not been featuring "Raiders of the Lost Ark" November through December. For more hours than I care to admit, I sat mesmerized while Harrison Ford fought off snakes, rolling rocks and Nazi archeologists. I even watched the 6:30 a.m. showing one Wednesday morning before work.

While journalists hate to bruise their egos by admitting they actually watch this stuff, I'll be the first to confess it's the perfect cure for brain drain. After sitting 12 hours at a VDT and an additional three hours at a meeting, the last thing I want to do is delve into "The Rise and Fall of the Third Reich." I know it probably would be better for my character, however at 11 p.m. my character is in a pretty sorry state of affairs.

Though such offerings as "Sahara," starring that wonderful Princetonian actress Brooke Shields, may test my intelligence, it offers me the perfect opportunity to "veg" out. Bring on the junk food.

While I admit I've watched some incredibly moronic television, I am not the only one in our household who grabs for the dial every time a fit of listlessness is about to strike.

After almost six months of marriage, I've come to realize I'm probably the only newlywed spending Saturday and Sunday mornings with Hulk Hogan, Junkyard Dog and the Rock 'n' Roll Brothers — LP and DJ.

Sitting on the couch in a flannel nightshirt with his hair sticking up like a porcupine and a half empty box of Girl Scout cookies on his lap is the little fella I married just a short time ago. "Come here, you've got to see this," he shouts, between gooey bites of peanut butter and chocolate.

I run into the living room just in time to see Brutus Beefcake hurl some wimp opponent across the wrestling ring. "How can you watch this junk?" I ask, as Brutus pounces on his challenger.

"Are you kidding?" he replies. "This is great. Alright, here comes the Iron Shiek. This guy is bad." Sure enough, in just moments "The Shiek" crushes his opponent. "Is this for real," I ask, as they drag the poor slob out of the ring.

I've learned that one does not question the legitimacy of Big Time Wrestling. After all, the foreheads of most wrestlers resemble road maps. Must be from withstanding all those punches.

As most wrestling fans know, the big event — Wrestle Mania — will be coming up all too soon. For those who have never seen the likes of Hillbilly Jim or any other 300-plus pound thug, head on down to Cobo Arena to watch the event of the decade — maybe the century. Mr. T and Hulk Hogan will be taking on Mr. Wonderful (Paul Orendorf) and Rowdy Roddy Piper. Billy Martin will be guest announcer, Mohammad Ali is guest referee and — take note music fans — Liberace will be timekeeper.

If nothing else, it will be a true meeting of the minds.

Take off

After the fact

By PHILIP JEROME

My wife went to The Total Runner in Southfield Saturday to buy some running shoes and flashy new togs for her daily four-mile jaunts.

I accompanied her, but decided not to go with her into the store for fear of tarnishing my unimpeccable reputation for physical unfitness.

Instead, I wandered through the other stores in the shopping center, spending time in a video-tape store and a book store.

Unfortunately, she was still trying on running shoes, so I went into a store called the American Exercise & Gym Equipment Company, thinking I might catch a glimpse of some superbly-fit young honey trying out Nautilus equipment.

It was a grievous mistake. First of all, there were no honies in sight. And then I made the mistake of asking a clerk to identify a funny-looking piece of equipment lying in the middle of the floor.

"It's a rowing machine," he responded brightly, muscles bulging through his shirt. "Only piece of equipment there is that exercises every part of the body at the same time."

And with that, he jumped on the machine and started demonstrating. "See, the tension is adjustable. Low tension for cardiovascular; high tension to build muscle.

"And you can exercise different parts of the body by how you row. Put your head back for the stomach muscles. Put your head down to work on the chest muscles. Pull your arms up if you want to develop your biceps."

He was still going through his spiel when my wife sneaked up behind me.

"That looks like fun," she said, throwing her packages on the floor as the guy with the muscles got up so she could give it a try.

After about five minutes of vigorous rowing, she looked at me and suggested I try it, too.

I averted the crisis my telling her I had rowed about 10 minutes while she was buying running shoes.

And that's when the muscular young salesman showed his mettle. "I think it was closer to 15 minutes, sir," he smiled.

Complimentary acts

By B.J. Martin

"Wow, this is your new suit? You look terrific! Look at this suit, y'all! Doesn't this look sharp?"

The words were mine, all fake-sounding, all hackneyed, all inelegant, and all completely sincere. The lady I was complimenting did look snazzy in her new suit, and she looked snazzier when she started to glow under my heavy-handed barrage of compliments.

Not everybody reacts that way when complimented. Some people belittle the compliment by brushing it off. "This old thing?" they shrug, or: "Oh, this is nothing at all." A perfect example is a friend of mine who received an award for his hard work and talent had obviously merited, yet he refused to believe he really deserved it.

Well, they're wrong. When we give a sincere compliment — maybe for a well-done project, maybe a new hairstyle, a sharp sartorial touch, losing weight, whatever — it's because someone has done something special. So why are compliments so often brushed aside or belittled?

I think it's because people aren't used to getting them. For some reason, compliments are hoarded like money, as if giving them away makes us poorer. And sometimes the very best, most deserving people in the world simply have no idea people value them because we're so tight-lipped with an encouraging word.

One of my dearest friends — call him Ishmael — is one of those fortunate souls who hasn't an enemy in the world. Everyone he meets feels at ease with him, and all his acquaintances have pleasant memories of time spent with him. I suspect that one reason he is so well loved is that Ishmael isn't afraid to compliment someone, be it old friend or new acquaintance.

Now one thing I can't stand is a flatterer. There are some times my ego could use one, but if there's anything more creepy than someone who compliments to excess, I'd prefer not to think of it. Yet the fact is, I've never seen Ishmael give an insincere compliment. If he said to you, "That's a great hat," you can be sure you had a great hat. Often, he complimented someone for something I had been thinking myself but didn't say — or perhaps more accurately, something I wouldn't say.

No doubt, Ishmael's compliments simply express his willingness to love others. I think many of us have that same willingness, but we don't express it.

While I may never be able to do it with his grace, I'm trying to follow Ishmael's lead. I'm trying to make a habit out of complimenting people when they deserve it, either through the newspaper or in my personal life. Sometimes I'm going to come off as being pretty clumsy. Sometimes I'm just going to out-and-out fail to give credit where it's due.

What a wonderful Wiz it is

To the Editor:

Last Saturday I attended Northville High School's production of "The Wizard of Oz," and I am delighted to find that the NHS theater is as strong as it ever was.

The "Ozian" set is visually exciting — detailed, bright and colorful — and the special effects people provide an inexhaustible supply of tricks and surprises (I'm still wondering at the Wicked Witch's Castle.)

Combine that with the talents of Melanie Bennett, Jeff Peters, Chris Kaley and Dave Dore (as Dorothy, Scarecrow, Tin Woodsman and Cowardly Lion) and you have a performance too fine to miss (even Toto is good!)

Director Kurt Kinde has given Northville yet another terrific production, and I hope the remaining performances on Friday and Saturday night (reserved seats, 8 p.m.) with a (2 p.m.) matinee on Saturday go as well as last Saturday's. Congratulations to the NHS Drama Department and break a leg!

Steve Chisnell
1981 graduate

EDITOR'S NOTE: The high school may be called at 349-3400 to reserve evening seats. Remaining ones will be sold at the door, as will matinee unreserved seats.

PTA Founder's Day a community effort

To the Editor:

I would like to take this opportunity as chairman of the Northville PTA Founder's Day Banquet to thank The Northville Record for the coverage of our annual event. It is a pleasure to live and work in a community such as Northville where a spirit of cooperation exists between newspaper, businesses, schools and citizens.

Our Founder's Day evening focuses on honoring persons who have been supportive of the PTA and who strive for excellence. The Distinguished Service Award was dedicated to the memory of Nancy Soper who devoted several years of her life to improving the Northville school system.

It was through Nancy's initiative that the first Founder's Day was organized in 1981. Other honorees were: Nancy Trabin (pictured next to Norm Hannewald in last week's Record), William Craft, Brenda Gardner, Donald Van Ingen, Pat Collins, Dwight Slegreen, Rose Marie Kucharski, Jan Janigan, Jeff Radwanski, Nancy May, Sandra McRae, Andrea Iwanicki, and Yvonne Katharopoulos. To these people, and the others honored by photograph last week (Judy Beyersdorf, Norm Hannewald, Joe and JoAnn Brummet) we offer our congratulations.

Sincerely,
Betty House

Clothing donations needed for veterans

To the Editor:

I am now living in the Michigan Veterans Facility in Grand Rapids and the needs are many. There are mostly men veterans and there are many clothing donations for men.

But there are a few women living here and their needs are also great.

My husband will be here Friday, March 29. So if you can drop off the following clothing at 605 Grace before that date, I am sure he will be happy to bring them to me and I will see they get to the ladies here who need them.

Items needed include Size 12 ladies — anything in good condition you can spare. Ladies pullover sweaters, size medium and large and men's pants size 46W and 33 inseams.

Many, many thanks again for any help you can give these people.

Shirley Matthews
formerly of 605 Grace

Still time to join in health events

Area residents who have not taken advantage of Project Health-O-Rama '85 to receive free health screening tests for height/weight, vision, blood pressure, blood test panel (nominal fee of $7 for this), as well as special tests for glaucoma, pulmonary function and hearing still may participate.

Project Health-O-Rama is in progress at the Livonia Mall and will continue today through Friday from 11 a.m. to 7 p.m. Staffed by volunteers, it is sponsored by Blue Cross Blue Shield of Michigan, WXYZ-TV, Channel 7, and the United Health Organization.

Expectant Adoptive Parent Classes will be offered weekly, beginning April 12 at 7 p.m. at Botsford Hospital in Farmington Hills. For families waiting to adopt an infant up to two years of age, the classes cover care and development as well as explore some of the emotional aspects of adjusting to parenthood and adoption. To register or for more information call Terry Allor, 459-7383.

"I Can Cope," a patient education program designed to help people seek strengths and resources to cope with cancer and its therapies, is being offered at Ward Presbyterian Church. It will be presented on eight consecutive Tuesdays, beginning April 2 from 7-9 p.m. in the Calvin Room at the church, 17000 Farmington Road.

There is no fee, but class size is limited. Register by calling 422-1150.

Heartsaver CPR (cardio-pulmonary resuscitation) will be taught in a three-hour class from 9:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. April 4 at Providence Hospital's Ambulatory Care Center in Novi. A $3 fee is charged for supplies. It also will be taught at the center in South Lyon April 15.

Basic Cardiac Life Support will be taught from 9:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. April 11 and 18 in Novi. It expands on the Heartsaver information; successful completion results in certification by the American Heart Association. There is a $7 materials fee.

How to handle childhood emergencies will be taught April 25 in Novi.

Call 552-9042 for registration information.

Dentist treats patients to breakfast

Many lawyers send their clients Christmas cards. Some Realtors send calendars.

But Northville dentist William Demray hosts frequent gourmet breakfasts in his Victorian home-office for patients, fellow professional friends, local merchants and officials. "It started really small," says his receptionist, Roberta St. Amour, recalling that Dr. Demray had purchased an automatic fruit juicer and then a waffle iron. He used the new appliances to make breakfasts for the staff. Then, his receptionist explains, "it smelled so good we started serving it to his first patients on different occasions."

During the warm weather the event moved to the patio of the dentist's landmark home on Northville's main street. Located at 371 East Main at Griswold across from the historic Ford Motor Company waterwheel plant, the home has won awards for beautification of the property. Flower beds, a vintage-era bench and brick walk provide an attractive entrance for patients.

Both inside and out, the house reflects the efforts of the young dentist.

His most ambitious entertaining to date, a spring breakfast March 22, welcomed a crowd of about 80.

"The business contacts are most unusual," observes Dr. Demray, noting that in the main it is not his professional colleagues but patients and townspeople who attend the breakfasts he hosts every few months.

Those attending had opportunity to view the pleasant blend of Victorian charm with ultra-modern dental equipment. Each of the treatment rooms, for example, is lighted with two separate lighting systems. Blocks of lights in the ceilings provide accurate light to match teeth colors in the bonding process that is among the services that Dr. Demray offers.

Dr. Demray has occupied the building for nine years. Initially, he had a single office on the lower level. In the following seven years, he renovated the entire first floor into offices and reception areas and the second floor into his bachelor living quarters.

"He practiced dentistry during the day," his staff relates, "and in evenings came upstairs to rewire, change partitions and decorate."

Viewers at the breakfast, who were free to move from room to room, mentioned that a great part of the appeal was the way the dentist had managed to retain the Victorian flavor of the home with period wallpaper and reception furnishings while installing the latest equipment in his field.

Assisting at the open house breakfast were receptionist St. Amour; Becky Horton, a registered dental assistant; and Nancy Perpich, registered dental hygienist.

"It's so comfortable and so different a working atmosphere — I just love it," says St. Amour, adding that Dr. Demray is unique to work for. "It's just very pleasant."

This is Dr. Demray's first experience in private practice. A native Detroit, he is a graduate of University of Detroit Dental School and established the Northville practice after a period of working in associatehips with dentists in Detroit, Dearborn and Belleville.

He also has become an active city resident, serving on the planning commission and the Downtown Development Authority.

His involvement was evident in the names of those at the most recent breakfast. Both Mayor Paul Vernon and his wife Norma were present as was city controller Betty Lennox, Realtor James Cutler and his wife Louise as well as local businessman Doug Boor.

The ambiance that his staff finds attractive also is pleasing to his patients.

"Let's face it," remarks St. Amour, "dentistry doesn't have a reputation for being a pleasant experience, but the old-fashioned charm here blended with ultra-modern equipment creates a different feeling."

Patients at the breakfast agreed, noting that most of the time all treatment rooms where Dr. Demray, hygienist Perpich and dental assistant Horton work are occupied.

"They really help me with the breakfasts," Dr. Demray says, lauding his staff.

The March 22 breakfast incorporated a theme. Dr. Demray had taken a trip to Hawaii earlier and Perpich had just returned from the islands; so it was a Hawaiian Springtime with fresh-squeezed orange juice, fresh pineapple and melons, ham and pineapple sauce, all served with Belgian waffles.

But the final touch was live music. Harpist Jane Rosenson and flutist Jill Felber, both of Ann Arbor, played for the early morning guests. Rosenson is second harpist for the Detroit Symphony Orchestra (Dr. Demray is an active symphony goer) and Felber is a flute teacher in the Ann Arbor area, assistant director of the Kerrytown Concert House and player with the Adrian Symphony.

Why does he do it? "I think it's an excellent way to start the day," he explains.

U-M team foresees economic expansion

Smaller federal budget deficits will help keep the American economy expanding through 1985 and, at a slower rate, through 1986, according to University of Michigan economists.

But if Congress and President Reagan fail to achieve something like a $30 billion reduction, they warn, 1986 could see rising interest rates and a sharp economic slowdown, if not a recession.

Saul Hymans and Joan Cray presented this analysis in their periodic update of the national forecast.

"The major drag on the economy," Hymans and Cray said, "will be the predicted steady deterioration of our real trade balance throughout 1985. From fourth-quarter 1984 to fourth-quarter 1985, we are predicting a nearly three-fold increase in our real trade deficit to about $29 billion (1972 dollars)."

The U-M economists say that the current quarter will register a 4.8 percent rate of growth of real gross national product to be followed by two quarters of about five percent growth and a final quarter growth rate of 3.4 percent. Key indicators:

- Total real consumption will be strong throughout 1985, but the growth of durable goods purchases is expected to be much stronger in the first half of the year.

- Automobile sales are forecast to total 11 million units this year — up from the 10.4 million figure posted in 1984.

- Residential construction is forecast to rebound in 1985 with housing starts increasing through most of the year and totaling 1.9 million units.

- Real business capital spending will continue upward, but at rates sharply reduced from the double-digit rates which characterized the earlier stages of the economic recovery.

- Civilian unemployment will drop from February's 7.3 percent to under 6.9 percent by the end of the year.

Moderate wage increases and weak energy prices are expected to generate a modest rate of inflation for 1985. Consumer prices are forecast to increase 2.5 percent at annual rate during the first half of 1985 and by 3.5 percent during the second half.

Hymans and Cray forecast slower economic growth for 1986 with the growth rate of real GNP averaging just under three percent during the year. Auto sales will decline from an 11-million unit pace at the end of 1985 to a 10.5 million unit pace by the end of 1986. Residential building activity will be relatively flat next year.

Business Briefs

GUARDIAN INDUSTRIES Corporation of Novi has announced that Russell J. Ebeid, formerly group vice president, has been named to the new position of president of Guardian's Glass Division with responsibility for Guardian's worldwide glass manufacturing and architectural fabricating activities.

Ebeid, 45, joined Guardian in 1970 as maintenance supervisor at the company's Carleton (Michigan) plant, which was in the construction phase at the time. He was promoted to plant engineer in 1971, production manager in 1972 and manufacturing manager in 1974, all at the Carleton plant.

In 1978, Ebeid was named plant manager of Guardian's newly constructed float glass manufacturing and tempering facilities at Kingsburg, California, where he earned the company's Employee of the Year award in 1979. In his most recent position as group vice president, Ebeid was responsible for the company's Kingsburg, California; Corsicana, Texas; and Bascharage, Luxembourg, float glass plants as well as various glass fabricating operations and Guardian's rolled glass plant at Fullerton, California.

A registered professional engineer, Ebeid earned a BS in Electrical Engineering from General Motors Institute in 1963 and a Masters of Science in Industrial Engineering from Wayne State University in 1968.

ROBERT LOWRY has successfully completed the Michigan certified public accountant examination. The son of Marilyn Lowry of Novi, he is on the professional staff of the Seidman & Seidman, certified public accountants in Grand Rapids.

Lowry attended Schoolcraft College and earned a BBA degree from Western Michigan University in 1984. He graduated from Novi High School in 1978. He is a member of Beta Alpha Psi, the accounting honor society at Western Michigan University and past president of Phi Beta Kappa honor fraternity at Schoolcraft College.

DOUGLAS TEUBERT, FIC, of Northville has earned membership in Lutheran Brotherhood's 1984 President's Club. The President's Club is one of the fraternal insurance society's top sales honors. Teubert qualified for membership on the basis of the combined amount of life and health insurance, annuities and mutual funds he placed with Lutherans in his area.

Teubert, who lives at 660 Horton, is a district representative associated with Lutheran Brotherhood's Karl Mueller Agency headquartered in Rochester. Lutheran Brotherhood has over $14 billion in assets. In 1984, the society's fraternal activities program allocated more than $20 million in support of its members, the Lutheran Church and society in general.

Raymond Burr and Keith Tappan at convention

KEITH TAPPAN of K.A. Tappan & Associates of Novi was welcomed to the 87th annual meeting of the Independent Insurance Agents of Michigan by Raymond Burr, famed for his portrayals of Perry Mason and Ironsides.

The conference, which was held at the Hyatt Regency in Dearborn, featured the latest developments in insurance coverages and risk management techniques for independent agents to use on behalf of their clients.

Burr is the national advertising spokesman for Independent Insurance Agents.

KEVIN IRWIN of Novi has joined the latest addition to the Schweitzer Real Estate/Better Homes and Gardens network of offices spanning the metropolitan Detroit area, the former Rizzo Realty in Northville.

A Novi High School graduate, Irwin is a lifetime Novi resident and active in the community. He is majoring in linguistics at Wayne State University with a minor in Classical Greek.

Formerly associated with another Northville real estate firm, Irwin specializes in residential homes in Novi and the immediately surrounding areas. Irwin engages in real estate sales as a fulltime occupation. "I love the profession," he said. "There is no limit to the amount of success you can achieve, provided you work hard."

Residential building up 46.5 percent for 1984

Residential building permits issued for the seven-county southeastern Michigan region increased a dramatic 46.5 percent in 1984, according to Manufacturers Bank.

The total rose from 8,069 in 1983 to 11,824 in 1984 in the seven-county region.

Oakland County permits increased 52.4 percent, Wayne County was up 38.5 percent and Macomb County was up 28.8 percent.

Patrick L. Anderson, Manufacturers Bank staff economist, said 1985 should be another good year with inflation low and incomes rising. "However, I don't expect it to match the boom year of 1984," he added.

"Given the very strong performance of the national economy in 1983 and 1984, Michigan home buyers took advantage of their increased income to order new houses at a rapid clip in 1984."

"Low inflation and reduced national income tax rates helped keep those income gains available for big-ticket purchases such as autos and houses.

"However, the most dramatic gains came in the first half of the year when the economy was expanding at a blistering pace. The second-half slowdown allowed mortgage rates to drop, continuing the recovery in the housing industry at a slower pace."

Interest rates on typical 30-year fixed mortgages in metropolitan Detroit continued to decline in January, dropping to an average 13.25 percent from 13.41 percent in December.

Mortgage rates have declined steadily since their July 1984 peak of 14.88 percent.

The housing permit survey was compiled by the Southeast Michigan Council of Governments. The local mortgage rate survey was compiled by Manufacturers Bank.

Unemployment figures down to five-year low

Michigan's seasonally adjusted unemployment rate for February dropped to a five-year low of 9.2 percent, according to the Michigan Employment Security Commission (MESC).

MESC director Richard Simmons, Jr. reported the number of jobless workers across the state fell by 81,000 during February to 403,000. In January the number of people without jobs in the state was 484,000, a rate of 11 percent.

A year ago, Michigan's unemployment rate was 11.5 percent with 495,000 people out of work.

Last month's unemployment rate was the state's lowest since December 1979 when the rate was 8.9 percent. It also is the first time the rate has been in single digits since January 1980 when the rate was 9.4 percent.

Simmons attributed the drop in unemployment to job increases in the service industries and government, as well as among the self-employed. Total employment in the state rose by 77,000 in February to 3,990,000.

Nationally, the seasonally adjusted unemployment rate for the civilian labor force fell to 7.3 percent, down from 7.4 percent in January. The number of unemployed fell by 85,000, to 8.399 million during the month.

Stamp-collecting not recommended for investment purposes

If you want to make a quick profit, stamp collecting is not the way to go. That's the word from area philatelists. Stamps, like many other collectibles, usually require patience to turn a profit — years of patience.

Karl Lagler, owner of Ann Arbor Stamps and Coins and a professional philatelist for more than 20 years, said his view is that currently stamp collecting is a better investment in education than for money-making purposes. "It should be done for pleasure and enjoyment ... for its educational value," Lagler commented. "It is a terrific way to learn history and geography, not only of the United States, but of the world."

"Only those people willing to spend a considerable amount of money (thousands of dollars) can plan on making a profit as the market is now."

Lagler added that the stamp market has changed considerably in the past five years. "In 1979-80, we had an aberration (unusual rise) in the market, and collectors were really able to make money in stamps and coins. Then the market settled back down to pre-1979 prices."

"If you bought one $50 stamp in 1950, you were able to sell it and do well in 1979. However, if you bought 1,000 five cent stamps in 1950, you did not do well. Exceptional stamps are always a good investment."

The stamp dealer said stamp collecting is most attractive as an investment when inflation is in double digits — as a hedge to keep an estate from shrinking because interest rates at banks are low. He added, that in his opinion, double-digit inflation will be back in 1-1½ years. "It would take that to bring stamp investing back to what it was in '79-80."

Today, just buying stamps at the post office is not the way to build an investment. He explained that only stamps that are already rare — those from the late 1800s or early 1900s — are worth buying for investment purposes.

"Since that time (about 1940), the government has printed stamps by the billions so they have little value over their face value. "We sell U.S. mint stamps (not cancelled) from 1935 on at their face value, plus 2 cents. Most used (cancelled) U.S. stamps from that time on sell for 3 cents each regardless of their face value."

For those who want to try stamps as an investment, Lagler advises purchasing only from a reputable dealer, and only after comparing values with other

"If you bought one $50 stamp in 1950, you were able to sell it and do well in 1979. However, if you bought 1,000 five cent stamps in 1950, you did not do well. Exceptional stamps are always a good investment."

Ann Arbor Stamps & Coins

dealers. "Prices are based on rarity, condition of the stamp, both front and back, how well centered the design is and how fresh the color is. All these things, plus the stamp's general popularity, add up to a price."

John Seidemann of Milford, began collecting stamps as a hobby 40 years ago. Today, a set is worth $3,500. They were not issued for very long ago. "There are stamps like the set of three zeppelins, issued when that type of airship was being used for transportation between the United States and Germany, which became very valuable. They cost then approximately because the airships weren't used very long and their rarity is what makes them valuable."

Sylvia Porter in her "Money Book" advises amateurs on how to invest a portion of their capital in stamps and still protect their savings against inflation with the aim of making a profit.

Porter lists these dos and don'ts for the amateur:

- Do start as a general collector, investing only small sums. Then develop a specialty — such as stamps of one type — air mail stamps or classic stamps, or stamps from a particular country or region.

- "Do study as much reliable literature as possible and attend as many auctions as you can."

- "Join a local stamp club and learn from experienced collectors."

- "Don't waste your money on cheap packets of stamps. The odds that you'll find a valuable stamp are virtually nil because the packets are put together by experts who would have already snagged any valuable stamps."

- "Don't buy up whole sheets of ordinary new stamps from this or that country — where a currency devaluation could slash their value. This goes for the United States, too."

- "Do stick to the higher-price specimens and avoid the typical 50 percent retail mark-up on inexpensive examples. The big increases in values take place in the high-priced category — particularly, 19th-century quality stamps and early air mail stamps.

- "Do, if you find an old stamp collection in the attic and want to sell it, take it to one or two reputable stamp dealers and/or auctioneers. Ask each how much the whole collection is worth. If the stamps are attached to the original letters, don't remove them, or you may slash their value to virtually nothing."

- "Do, if you know nothing about stamps but still want to invest for profit, employ a knowledgeable dealer or other expert to advise you, to buy stamps for you at auction, or simply to sell you stamps he deems investment-worthy."

- "Do beware of improbable 'bargains' of any sort. Errors and varieties can be manufactured and apparent quality improved by a 'stamp doctor' for the sole purpose of fleecing the unwary."

To make sure a dealer is reputable, Porter suggests that you check names with the American Stamp Dealers Association in New York City or one of its chapters in other big cities.

THE PRAYER to the Holy Spirit - Holy Spirit, you who make me see everything and show me the way to reach my ideal, you who give me the divine gift to forgive and forget the wrong that is done to me, and you who are in all instances of my life with me. I, in this short dialog, want to thank you for everything and confirm once more that I never want to be separated from you, no matter how great the material desires may be. I want to be with you and my loved ones in your perpetual glory. Amen. Thank you for your love towards me and my loved ones. I pray this prayer three consecutive days without asking your wish. After third day, your wish will be granted, no matter how difficult it may be. V. P.

A Lonely Valentine

e it is Valentine's Day
 my sweetheart is faraway
 I miss him and I need him so when he returns I'll not let him go
 For him life would not be worth living kind he be true and oh so forgiving treats me just like I am a queen married to him is like a sweet dream someday soon we'll be together again to be parted but until then be just as true as I can be till my Valentine comes back to me

We Loved

met we loved now we must part we you dear with all my heart
I must go across the sea
I hope I love you I think of me ways let me cross your mind the girl you left behind may God keep you safe and free
if you hurry back to me
I'll pray for you each night in your country you must fight
if it be the will of God
I'll be with you soon will trod

Aborted

the tiny laugh the happy smile might have shared in life a while are gone and all my infant mirth now enshrouded in the earth and where may one be found to mourn ly little hands that might have touched ly mother's face and loved so much have her hold them to her lips nd gently kiss my finger tips instead we're clasped in agony then painful death swept over me though formed in lust I might have been ray of joy and hope to men ut loving service nor can I give or I was not allowed to live or wounded heart nor soul may mend have love with one to be one's friend

My parent's sin toward me was great ut oh, they face a far worse fate or He whose nature is divine, oves even unborn souls like mine
low gently holds me to His breast nd there — till Judgement Day — I rest

YOU THOUGHT YOU KNEW NORTHVILLE, BUT DO YOU REALLY KNOW OLDE NORTHVILLE

By PHILIP JEROME

Once upon a time, everybody in Northville knew everybody else.

There were several churches, of course. And people attended different churches. But if you didn't see someone in church, you were sure to see him ice skating on Sunday afternoons at the Mill Pond. Everybody went skating on the Mill Pond on Sunday afternoon.

As people discovered that Northville was a nice place to live and raise a family, the population grew and grew and then grew some more, giving rise to a special category of elite individuals — those who can justifiably call themselves "Old Northville."

It's a pretty prestigious label. And even if you've only lived here a short time, we'll help you trick folks into believing you're "Old Northville" by guiding you through a little local history.

We have prepared the following quiz about "Old Northville." People who've been here more than 10 years may want to take the test to see if they truly qualify for the prestigious title, while more recent residents can use it as a way of boning up on some of the things they really ought to know to impress their neighbors at cocktail parties.

Oh, yes, the answers will be published in next week's edition.

Northville song debuts

By JEAN DAY

Both "The Northville Flavor" and Northville sights in "The Popcorn Man" proved popular with residents attending the Northville Arts Commission-sponsored Celebration of the Arts March 16 in the high school auditorium.

There was lots of applause — for Karen DiChiera, co-founder of The Michigan Opera Theater who was composer of the original song, "The Northville Flavor," for librettist Joan Hill and for David Zaremba, director of "The Popcorn Man" filmed entirely in Northville. Receiving top ovation, however, was Jack Hoffman (attending with his wife Joan) whose book, "Northville — the First Hundred Years" was the inspiration for the revue.

The refrain of "Northville Flavor U.S.A." was catchy enough to become a local hit:

Say, where do you live?
I live out here in Northville
On the southwest Oakland county line."

As Cheryl Gazlay, arts commission vice chair, promised, the community now has its own song, describing it in verse:

Northville loves its weaving, knitting, painting, sewing
Historic Mill Race is the place that we like showing.
Northville's heart goes out to wildlife
Keep things growing.
Yes, we're Northville, U.S.A.

Newcomers to rally, elect officers

For Northville Newcomers April means the annual membership luncheon at noon April 18 in the Mill Race Historical Village. The Spring Fling Salad Luncheon will feature a demonstration on making a floral centerpiece by Louise Whittington and Dewey Gardner of IV Seasons Flowers.

Following the demonstration the new president and board of Northville Newcomers will be presented. As always, says President Judi Amatangelo, members, alums and guests are welcome. While there is no charge for the luncheon, reservations are needed and should be made by April 11 with Susan Debolt, 349-8767.

Annual Newcomers' Road Rally Treasure Hunt is scheduled for April 20. Cost is $16 a couple, including a light meal at the rendezvous point, with reservations being taken by Sherry Anderson, 420-0989. Participants are to gather at 6:45 p.m. and will learn details when reservations are made. Flash lights, maps, etc. will be required equipment for the rally which will have prizes for winners. A surprise rendezvous will await all.

Spring brings lots of activity

Schoolcraft College Women's Advisory Committee and the Women's Resource Center are holding a WRC fundraising dinner at 6:30 p.m. Thursday at the Waterman Campus Center. A spaghetti dinner and program, "A Touch of Broadway," will be given for $10. Call the center at 591-6400, extension 432, for reservations.

Other upcoming dinners at the college include a Polish evening April 19 sponsored by the Gourmet Club, Oktoberfest October 4 by the Gourmet Club, Italian evening November 9 sponsored by the Board of Trustees and another Gourmet Club evening November 15.

Northville Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 4012 is continuing its appreciation dinners to honor local law officers and fire fighters. This year's dinner program is to be held April 14 at the post.

While Michigan Week isn't until May city officials already are making plans for the annual mayor exchange day and other events for the week. This year Northville's exchange community will be Brighton.

Supreme choice

"We Are Called to Choose" is the title of the Palm Sunday musical being presented by 50 young people in grades 7-12 at First United Methodist Church. Director Stacey Becker reports it is based on selections from two contemporary musicals, probing the choices of life, taking responsibility and choosing Christ as the prime source of decision making. She explains it also depicts Christ "making the supreme choice of following God's will, through his own crucifixion." It incorporates chorus, solos, dancing, narration and instrumentation. It will be presented at both the 9:30 and 11 a.m. services Sunday at the church on Eight Mile at Taft. It also is to be presented at other area churches, including those in Farmington, Chesaning, West Bloomfield and Buffalo, New York. Record photo by Steve Fecht.

Irish sought for new club

"Anybody who has a little Irish in their background or who likes the Irish is welcome," reports Northville Township resident Marie Rahilly, president of the newly formed Northville Irish-American Club.

She says the club formed to generate interest about the Irish in the Northville area is a social organization and is "not fussy" about credentials. It meets monthly at the Northville Community Center at 303 West Main.

Proceeds from its events are used to benefit the James Joyce Scholarship Fund which assists with scholarships for young people of Irish descent in this country. Named after the famous Irish writer who lived in Dublin and wrote "Ulysses," the first local scholarship will be awarded this July.

The club held an early celebration of St. Patrick's Day March 9 at the community center, bringing the Innisfree Band and Tim O'Hare's Irish Dancers here to entertain.

President Rahilly reports the event was a "fabulous success" with between 150 and 200 attending.

The club's first event after organizing last year was held December 28. It drew a crowd of 100.

Those attendance figures are not bad for a group with an official membership of 12.

Officers serving with Rahilly are Peggy Boland, vice president; Teresa Meisner, secretary; and Della Melvin, treasurer.

"The Irish dancers were excellent for St. Patrick's," Rahilly reports, mentioning that several will be going to competition in Ireland. She adds that the club is hoping to bring some of the best Irish bands to town as soon as it can afford to do so.

Anyone interested in the club and its activities is invited to call Rahilly at 349-5847.

TAX TIPS

LEE E. HOLLAND, C.P.A.

JOB-SEEKING EXPENSES

You may be gainfully employed now, but maybe you're looking for a better paying job or a job with a higher future potential. If you are, there are certain expenses you incur that can be deducted from your income tax. Among the expenses deductible as adjustments are any travel and transportation you experience in seeking employment, as long as it is in the same trade, business, or field you're in now. You are also allowed to deduct employment agency fees, the cost of resumes, postage, and telephone expenses.

There are restrictions. For instance, deductions are not allowed for someone seeking a job for the first time. Also, there must not have been a long period of unemployment between your previous job and the search for a new job. Those who have been out of the job market for a long time would probably not be eligible to take deductions, either, depending on how long the period has been.

For a review of deductible job-seeking expenses and other ways in which you can lower your income tax, call us for an appointment.

MR. AND MRS. GREGORY AYERS

MR. AND MRS. JACK PATTEE

Ayers-Kuhn vows read in Indiana church

Gregory Ayers, son of Charles and Carolann Ayers, Northville residents on Morgan Circle, and his bride, the former Angela Kuhn, are making their home on the campus of Purdue University in West Lafayette, Indiana.

They were married in a candlelight service at St. Thomas Aquinas Church in West Lafayette. The bride is the daughter of Ms. Aumalee Kuhn of Indianapolis.

The bride's brother, Dan Kuhn, gave her away in the December 29, double ring service at which Father Ted Rothrock officiated.

For the ceremony the bride wore a satin brocade gown designed with a princess neckline and long sleeves accented with lace. The skirt extended into a cathedral train. A matching cap held her fingertip veil of illusion. The bride's single strand of pearls were a gift of the bridegroom.

Her bouquet of red roses and gardenias carried out the holiday season theme.

Lori Wallin was matron of honor. Marie Sweezy, Kathy Lamb and Michelle Balderson were bridesmaids. All wore red plaid skirts and white, pearl embroidered blouses with princess necklines. Poinsettias decorated the muffs they carried.

Reid and Jessica Kinde were ring bearer and flower girl, respectively.

John Penrod of Northville was best man. Ushers were the bridegroom's brother Doug Ayers, Dan Murray and Jim Jones.

A reception followed at Lafayette Country Club.

After a train trip to Toronto, the newlyweds returned to the Purdue campus. The bride is a senior majoring in communications and expects to be graduated in May. Her husband is a senior majoring in engineering. He expects to begin medical school studies in the fall.

New series set by arts group

Northville Arts Commission is presenting the Second Wednesday Lecture Series beginning in April.

The monthly lecture series will cover aspects of the arts and will be held at 7:30 p.m. on the second Wednesday of each month in the Northville City Hall council chambers, the commission announced at its Celebration of the Arts program March 16.

The first program, scheduled for April 10, will feature Michael Curtis, who will give a lecture-demonstration on the technique of painting with acrylics. He holds a masters degree in fine art from Wayne State University and has been an art teacher in the Detroit Public Schools. He also has taught classes at the Detroit Institute of Arts for talented students.

In addition to teaching, Curtis has been a jurist for a number of art shows and was a demonstrator for Nu-Masters acrylic paints.

The commission stated that the evening should provide "an interesting look at a relatively new art medium" and will include a hospitality period after the lecture so those attending can chat with the artist in an informal setting.

Donation for this program will be $2 to cover the cost of refreshments and lecture.

Joseph Norton's birth announced

Mr. and Mrs. William Norton of 649 Reed Court announce the birth of their son Joseph Daniel at 9:16 p.m. March 11 at Botsford Hospital in Farmington.

Mrs. Norton is the former Vena Hosler of Northville.

Maternal grandparents are Cliff and Margaret Hosler of Northville. Paternal grandparents are Robert and Rhoda Norton of Northville.

Great grandparents are Benjamin and Millie Jarrett of Clermont, Florida, and Dewey and Leda Hosler of East Jordan, Michigan.

Joseph joins brother Benjamin, 3, and sister Maggie, 1, at home.

Brunch planned

United Methodist Women of Northville First United Methodist Church will be hosting an Easter Brunch at 10 a.m. Tuesday in the church fellowship hall.

Tickets, which are $2 a person, must be reserved by today. Call Marcy Lilly, 349-6304. Babysitting will be available.

The morning will begin with meditation and Communion. A musical program will follow the brunch. The Reverend and Mrs. Eric Hammar will present duets, "In the Cross of Christ We Glory."

Rehearsal for the service will be at 9:30 a.m. Monday.

European accent

Dewey Gardner of IV Seasons Flowers demonstrates the technique of creating a loose, European style bouquet with an assist from Olga James, president of the Northville Branch, Woman's National Farm and Garden Association, at the March 11 meeting of the branch. Gardner, who was invited to attend an international flower symposium in Holland last year, also is presenting his talk-demonstration for other local groups. See In Our Town. ## Dawn Mills married in sentimental rites

When Dawn Marie Mills of Northville and Jack Christopher Pattee of South Lyon exchanged marriage vows before Pastor Winfred Koelpin at St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church in Livonia February 16, it was with special sentiment.

Pastor Koelpin had officiated at the marriage of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William A. Mills of Seven Mile Road, 21 years ago. Vera Janes, organist, also played for both weddings. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Jack Pattee of South Lyon.

As she was given in marriage by her father in the 6:30 p.m. ceremony, the bride wore an ivory gown fashioned with high collar and fitted bodice. Schiffl lace formed the collar and outlined the sheer yoke. The skirt was adorned with a ruffle and extended into a cathedral train. A matching ivory, waltz-length veil with scalloped lace edging complemented the gown.

The bride carried a cascade bouquet of ivory silk roses and alstroemena with fresh greens and baby's breath. The church was decorated with spring-hued silk flowers.

Lisa Ann Mills was honor maid for her sister in a red taffeta gown with puffy sleeves. The floor-length skirt swept up into a tulip hemline in front.

Bridesmaids in matching gowns were Vicki Alberts of Chicago, Sara Snyder of South Lyon, Becky Walls of Pontiac and Sherri Wiseman of Findlay, Ohio. All carried spring-colored, silk hand bouquets.

Anna Britcher of Highland and Jason Bongoro were flower girl and ring bearer for their cousin.

Paul Pattee was best man for his brother. Ushers were Dale Beckman of Melbourne, Florida, Brian Gay of Columbus, Ohio, Craig Williams of Redford and Bill Berry of Livonia.

A reception followed at the Holiday Inn Holiday West in Livonia for 200 guests, who came from Arizona, California, Florida, Ohio, Illinois, Wisconsin as well as Michigan.

After a wedding trip to Monterey, California, the newlyweds are making their home in San Jose, California, where the bridegroom is employed at Anicon, Inc. He is a 1980 graduate of South Lyon High School Class of 1980 and DeVry Institute of Technology in Columbus, Ohio, Class of 1983.

The bride, a 1982 South Lyon High School graduate, attended Eastern Michigan University for two years. She has been working at the South Lyon Public Library for six years.

DANGER AT HOME

The results of over 250,000 poisonings reported by the American Association of Poison Control Centers indicated that nine out of ten accidental and deliberate poisoning occur at home. The most common source of poisonings is household chemicals such as bleach and detergents. Plants rank second and medicines used to relieve pain and fever are third.

Four ways to reduce the danger associated with the poisons in our homes follow:

1. Discard outdated and unneeded household products by flushing them down the toilet. Throw away empty containers so that children will not play with them.
2. Keep poisonous materials in their original containers. Soda bottles containing even a small amount of solvents can be deadly to the unsuspecting child.
3. Teach children at an early age not to eat plants, drugs, or other nonfood substances.
4. Do not refer to medicines as being "candy" or as tasting "good." Children may seek them out when they get hungry.

The last thing you need now is a problem with a lawsuit.

Becoming a success in today's world is no easy task. So if you've finally outwitted your competition, made some wise investments and fended off bad information... you shouldn't have to worry about what lawsuit would do to your personal worth. And you won't have to if you know about Auto-Owners Executive Umbrella Liability Policy. Its expanded coverage broadly protects you. It's a nominal investment as well. For literally pennies a day you can be protected from lawsuit devastation. Even if you have basic insurance from a company other than Auto-Owners, you can obtain this Executive Umbrella to top off your complete personal protection. Talk with your "no problem" Auto-Owners agent and find out exactly what he can do for you. Complete protection is no problem.

Experts to lecture in Schoolcraft health series

The Schoolcraft College Biology Department is offering a series of health-related programs April 15-30. The programs are free and open to the public.

Organized by Schoolcraft professors Grover Niergarth and Roger Sutherland, the series will present guest speakers on health-related topics.

The program begins at 10 a.m. April 15 when Dr. Cecil Woodruff presents "Emerging First Aid" in Room F530 of the Forum Building.

On Tuesday, April 16 at 10 a.m., "Toxicology" will be presented by Dr. Joseph Miceli, a toxicologist at Children's Hospital, in Room F530. At 7 p.m. April 16, Dr. John Kemink, an ear surgeon at the University of Michigan Hospital will present, "The Ear," in the Liberal Arts Building Theater.

"Hospice — Another Way of Dying" will be presented at 10 a.m. on April 18 in Room F530. Presenters are Audrey Kroll, a representative from the Hospice Support Services in Westland and Susan Holstein, RN, a nurse at the Hospice of Southeast Michigan in Southfield.

The first week ends at 10 a.m. April 19 when Jan Waskerwitz, RN, and Darrell Campbell, M.D. present "Transplantation — Past, Present and Future." Waskerwitz is the transplant coordinator and Campbell is a transplant surgeon at the University of Michigan Hospital.

Chari Bredow-Knowles, RN, will present "Non-Invasive Cardiac Procedures," at 10 a.m. April 22. Bredow-Knowles is a nursing instructor at Sinai Hospital. The program will be held in Room F530 of the Forum Building.

Tuesday, April 23, begins with "Biology of Aging" at 10 a.m. in Room F530. The program is presented by Mary Ann Glazek, PhD, gerontology instructor from Madonna College.

At 2 p.m. that afternoon Dr. Robert Douglass will present "Recent Advances in Endocrinology" also in Room F530. Dr. Douglass is an endocrinologist and internist at Providence Hospital.

On April 24, "Concepts of Burn Therapy" will be presented by Brenda Smith, RN. Smith is a nurse clinician at the University of Michigan Burn Center. Her program is at 2 p.m. in Room F530.

A research chemist at Parke-Davis-Warner-Lambert in Ann Arbor, Dr. John Blankley, will present Thursday's program. Scheduled for 10 a.m., April 25, in the Liberal Arts Building Theater, the program is entitled, "Evolution of a Prescription Drug."

"Microsurgery" ends the week at 9 a.m. on Friday, April 26, in Room F530 with presenter Dr. Seid Moossavi of Livonia, a specialist in surgery of the hand.

'Classic Pops' on campus

The Schoolcraft College Vocal Ensemble, under the direction of Dr. Bradley Bloom, will present "Classic Pops" at 8 p.m. April 3 in the Waterman Campus Center. Admission is free and the public is invited.

The program will feature the Schoolcraft College Chorale, Madrigal Singers and SCool Jazz, the vocal jazz ensemble.

Works to be featured on the program include folk songs by Haydn and Grieg, madrigals by LeJeune and Bernstein, spirituals by Dawson and

Johnson and a march by Ives. Various popular melodies, such as "Summertime," "Here's That Rainy Day," "Operator" and "Can't Help Lovin' That Man of Mine" will be performed in a jazz setting by SCool Jazz.

Bloom has been director of choral activities and professor of music theory at Schoolcraft College since 1968. He also is music director and conductor of the Ann Arbor Cantata Singers.

The Northville Record

Area provided fertile soil for blossoming spike talent

'Tis the season for things to flower, and our area is no exception when it comes to blossoming volleyball talent. With that in mind, sports writers from the Milford Times, The Northville Record, Novi News and South Lyon Herald met recently to — ahem — weed out the best the schools in our combined circulation area had to offer. And we found plenty in the 12 constituents of our first and second Sliger/Livingston East all-area teams.

South Lyon and Lakeland high schools dominated our first-team selections, thanks to their respective team records of 14-10 and 18-19-1. In addition to spikers from those two schools, our 12 choices included players from Novi, Milford and Northville.

On the first team are Northville's Bev Henderson, South Lyon's Pam Heiler, MaryFran Peterlin and Janet Payton, plus Lakeland's Sonja Gohrmann and Jill Whiteman. All are seniors except Whiteman, who is a junior.

Milford, Novi and Northville were better represented on the second team. From Milford, Sue McAuley and Andrea Bewick were picked, along with Novi's Mindy Park, Lakeland's Kris Kraft, and Northville's Nicki LaRoque and Erin Ryan. All the second-team selections are seniors but LaRoque, a junior.

Honorable mention picks were: Chris McGowan of Northville, Annie MacKinnion and Annie Hwang of Novi, Jodi Sellak and Debbi Senk of Lakeland, Mary Case of South Lyon, plus Donna Wilhelm of Milford.

Here is a capsule rundown of our choices:

FIRST TEAM

SONJA GOHRMANN, Lakeland. A second team pick last year, the 5'4" Eagle co-captain was one of the most consistent setters in the Kensington Valley Conference — as well as one of the most noticeable. Gohrmann habitually warms up for her matches wearing a pair of mittens.

Gohrmann had nearly 1,000 good sets in the '85 season, and sports a career mark of 1,700. This year, she was Lakeland's best server as well, with a 93 percent average.

"She's the real heart of this team," said Lakeland Coach Dave Montgomery. "She's the only four-year player I've ever had. We're hoping to find a college for her. I feel she can contribute at that level," he added.

PAM HEILER, South Lyon. "She's the best all-around player we had," said South Lyon Coach Sarah Hollenbeck. "Her serving was very good, her net play was excellent and she was a good leader. We're definitely going to miss her next year."

The senior Lion hitter had a 77 percent success rate on her digs, contributed 165 spikes, 91 for kills, and had 24 blocks for points. Heiler had 131 good serves out of 212.

BEV HENDERSON, Northville. "We would have been in a lot of trouble this year without Bev," said Mustang Coach Steve McDonald. "She gave us a lot of leadership and she was our best overall player. She's primarily a hitter, but she played the back row very well."

Henderson was easily Northville's most explosive front-line player this season, as well as the most consistent. She averaged 10 hits per game and two kills per match, and was named by Western Lakes Activities Association volleyball coaches to the All-Western Division team.

The Mustangs' team MVP was equally effective serving, muffing only 15 serves out of 160 tries (an average of better than 90 percent), and making 25 aces.

JANET PAYTON, South Lyon. One of four starting seniors for the Lions, Payton had a setting ratio Coach Hollenbeck called "close to perfect."

"Everything Janet got to resulted in a good set," said Hollenbeck. "She's a good setter, and a very good server (111 of 170 good). We'll miss her."

MARYFRAN PETERLIN, South Lyon. With one season to go in her outstanding prep career, Peterlin has established herself as one of the top athletes ever to play for South Lyon. An all-area basketball player, a fine track and field athlete, and at 6'0" not easy to overlook, Peterlin appears to have a bright future in athletics.

"I feel she can contribute to some college team next year," Hollenbeck said of the three-year varsity player. "She's definitely a strong net player. MaryFran could dominate a game at times."

Peterlin had matching stats of 176 serves and 176 spikes. Of her serves, 149 were good, and of her spikes 121 went for kills.

JILL WHITEMAN, Lakeland. The co-captain led the charge on defense for the Eagles this season. She passed at better than 80 percent and served at 90 percent.

"She can really get up," Coach Montgomery said, noting her 26" vertical jump ability. "A lot of the time she jumps over the block attempt. Most of our attack next season will be centered around Jill," he added.

The junior had a 32 percent kill rate on her spikes, and put away 102 kills for the season.

Heitert excels at Northern

Although Northville's Cathy Heitert is just a freshman at Northern Michigan University, she proved herself an important part of the college's gymnastics team this year.

Heitert, a state-ranked gymnast as a senior at Northville High School, was Northern's third leading scorer this season. She finished the year with 502.30 points, just behind teammates Lori Farrell of Rochester, New York (523.95) and Karen Viola of Warren (522.45).

SECOND TEAM

ANDREA BEWICK, Milford. A strong server and setter, Bewick was a dramatically improved player for the Redskins. Although Milford struggled through a "rebuilding" season of 6-14, opposing coaches praised Bewick's "never-say-die" attitude.

KRIS KRAFT, Lakeland. Kraft has a rare ability in volleyball — she can spike with either hand. "It caused a lot of problems for other teams, especially when they first saw her," Eagle Coach Montgomery noted. "Sometimes passes would be a little outside, so instead of just bumping the ball over the net she started smacking it with her left hand. It didn't take very long before she was very good at it."

Kraft sported an 88 percent serve rate, 87 percent spiking.

NICKI LAROQUE, Northville. A versatile player with good back-row and front-row ability, the junior has a chance to be one of the best ever to play at Northville. LaRoque converted 88.5 percent of her serves, averaged six hits and three dinks per game, and averaged fewer than one missed set per game.

"We started Nicki as a hitter and moved her to setter for the second half of the season," said Coach McDonald. "She did a very good job for us back there."

SUE MCAULEY, Milford. A spiker with a good nose for the ball, McAuley also was one of the Redskins' top servers. In the early season, McAuley at times was capable of dominating a game. "She improved a lot from her junior year," noted Milford Coach Chuck Chapel. "I thought her first game, when she scored 10 points in a row, was the highlight of her season."

MINDY PARK, Novi. A three-sport standout at Novi, Park's attitude as well as her abilities was sorely needed by the Wildcats. Although Novi was 2-9 for the season, many opposing coaches agreed Park would have been a valuable asset to their teams.

"Mindy never quit, that's one thing I respected about her," said Novi Coach Gina Gervasi. "It wasn't easy for her sometimes, but she was always ready to play."

ERIN RYAN, Northville. Also a fine center for Northville's varsity basketball team, Ryan's 5'11" height gave Northville's front-line some respectable punch. Ryan largely specialized as a hitter, averaging 13 hits, four kills and five blocked shots per game. Of her 50 serves, 40 were good.

FLOWER POWER TOO — Second-team All-Area picks included these top-notch spikers: Erin Ryan, Northville; Andrea Bewick, Milford; Mindy Park, Novi; Nicki LaRoque,

It'll be Quinn vs. the Finns

John Quinn turned a few heads as a star tailback for the Northville Mustangs back in '83. But at 5-6, 155 pounds, Quinn's dimensions didn't point to much of a future in the game.

Well, don't worry 'bout poor lil' John. Turns out Quinn not only became an outstanding kick returner for the Alma Scots last fall, he's got a good shot at a starting tailback job this year. And to top it off, he's traveling with the Scots to the Arctic Bowl this June.

Haven't heard of it? That's not surprising. The Scots will be taking on the Finnish Northern Lights in the June 4 Arctic Bowl game — in Oulu, Finland. Three days later, the team will take on the Finland National All-Stars in Helsinki.

Quinn is majoring in business administration at Alma and will begin his sophomore year this fall.

Ex-Mustang coach makes it big in Iowa

RON SCHIPPER

Former Northville High School football coach Ron Schipper has been named "Coach of the Year" by the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) for Kodak College Division II, Region IV. Schipper currently coaches at Central College in Iowa.

Schipper coached Northville's varsity football team from 1955 through the 1959 season. With Donald "Dutch" VanIngen serving as assistant coach, his team's posted records of 7-1-1, 8-1, 9-0 and 8-1 for an overall mark of 32-3-1 during that span. The Mustangs won 32 consecutive Wayne-Oakland League games and accumulated four straight league championships while Schipper served as head coach.

During the 1984 season, Central Iowa's Flying Dutchmen reached the NCAA Division III finals before losing their bid for the national championship in the Amos Alonzo Stagg Bowl on December 8. They finished the season with a 7-0 record in Iowa Conference play, a 9-0 record for the regular season and an overall record of 11-1.

Since becoming head coach at Central Iowa in 1961, Schipper's teams have posted an overall record of 170-50-3. The former Mustang mentor entered the 1984 season as the fifth-winningest coach in Division III and ranked third among active Division III coaches in victories.

Schipper has won a record 10 Iowa Conference championships, and the Flying Dutchmen have posted winning seasons in each of Schipper's 24 years as head coach. Eddie Robinson, head coach at Grambling College, is the only active college or university coach in the nation with a longer streak of winning seasons.

Schipper has taken Central to post-season play four times. Central went to the NAIA playoffs in 1966 and to the NCAA Division III playoffs in 1974, 1977 and 1984. Central won the NCAA national title in 1974.

Schipper also has been a leader in the NCAA. He served six years on the NCAA Division III football committee, including a year as chairman, and recently completed six years of service on the NCAA football television committee. He currently is on the NCAA football rules committee and has served in various capacities for the AFCA.

In addition, Schipper has served as athletic director at Central College since 1965, providing leadership for a 15-sport intercollegiate program which has produced three NCAA Division III national championships, seven Iowa Conference all-sports titles and numerous other honors.

Thirty-one Central athletes have been named All-Americans since 1981.

Schipper is a native of Zeeland (Michigan) and a graduate of Hope College where he lettered in football, baseball and tennis. He received his master's degree in mathematics from the University of Michigan.

Mustang trackers prepare to open season

Maybe a lot of moms and pops were happy — or at least, relieved — about last year's seniors graduating. But it would be hard to blame Paul Osborn for wanting just a few of them to stay behind.

The Northville varsity track coach could use a few hurdlers and high jumpers like graduates Mark Knoth and John Klokenga this season. Or a few distance men like Jim Riney, also gone.

Osborn has returned to coach Northville's varsity trackers after a 10-n-g absence. In fact, none of this season's runners were even born when Osborn and (now Athletic Director) Ralph Redmond were co-coaching the Mustang thinclads.

The group Osborn will guide this season is long on numbers and diligence, but somewhat short on superstars or experience. The one potential megastar the team had — sprinter Joel Vogt — is planning to take the season off to recover from an ankle injury he sustained last winter.

The good news is that 32 of the 45 members of the team are either freshmen or sophomores — that should give Osborn time to build the Mustangs into a contender in the next few years.

"That'll be our approach," Osborn said this week. "We're not going to cut anybody. We'll try to build our freshmen and sophomores with the seniors helping us out with leadership."

Seniors ALAN GRIFFITH, BRETT NETKE and RICH NASZRADI were chosen as tri-captains. All are veterans of last fall's men's cross-country team. Naszradi will focus on the mile and Griffith on both the mile and two-mile this season, while Netke has shown surprising strength in events from the 440 on up. He may also bolster Northville's high jump and discus corps.

"His first time outdoors this year, in lousy conditions, Brett ran a 53, 54-second 440," said Osborn. "He wasn't even huffing. I think he's capable of cracking 50 seconds by midseason."

RICK VAN BUREN will take his football tailback speed to the track for the first time this spring. "He's got good speed, once he learns to stop chopping his steps coming out of the blocks, he'll be OK," said Osborn. JOHN BRININGSTOOL returns as the team's most dependable high hurdler and sprinter.

TOM BRODERICK will see plenty of middle-distance and relay work for the Mustangs, along with classmate IRVEN MEADOWS.

From the junior class, JEFF HARP will boost the Mustangs in the 880 and 440; TIM MILLEN in low hurdles and weight events, and MATT ASHBY in several possible places — high jump and long jump, high hurdles and the quarter-mile among them.

Other juniors include MARTY BRODERICK, a steady performer in middle-distance events; MATT WINQUIST, a good miler; and SCOTT TREPICONE, most likely a distance runner.

Of the 16 sophomores on the team, sprinter DANA LETARTE, middle-distance men STEVE BROOKS and JOHN MCRAE (possibly also a future hurdler) have looked promising. PAT NASZRADI, KEVIN HAAS and SCOTT WILEY will give Northville good depth in distance events, particularly the two mile.

GREG NEWTON will be seen in events from the 440 on up, TIM SPRADLIN and TIM DEUBY in middle distance (Spradlin perhaps also in discus), JOHN and RICH GIRD in sprints and sprint relays, and STEVE WINTERS (who may also help in shot put) most likely in sprints as well. The status of injury-hampered MATT HUBERT and RAY SMIT is uncertain, as are newcomers RICH SMITH and MATT UNSWORTH.

The freshmen possess no immediate eye-poppers, but appear to be a hard-working group. Among them are sprinters JEFF CROSS and JOHN FRISBEE, who is currently nursing an injury; distance man JOHN KISSINGER, miler and long jumper PAUL LEAVITT, distance men MIKE NUECHTERLEIN, JOE PILARZ, and SCOTT SINKWITTS.

DOUG MEADOWS and KEVIN MAY could bolster Northville's strength in the 440 and mile relay, with Meadows possibly moving up to the half-mile or mile. SCOTT PAREDES will help the Mustangs in distance events, brother STEVE in hurdles and sprints.
