Very closed by fire

By STEVE KELLMAN
Staff Writer

Tiffany Art Glass was not the only business shut down by a fire which gutted the second-story shop early Saturday morning, Sept. 29.

Water and smoke damage also forced the closure of Holloway's Old Fashioned Bakery downstairs.

A sign on the front door of the 123 E. Main St. bakery reads in red magic marker, "Closed due to fire upstairs at Tiffany's Art Glass."

Inside the darkened store, stacks of cardboard boxes line what would normally be the seating area for customers. The boxes contain much of the bakery's equipment, in storage until the damage is repaired. The glass shelves, normally lined with doughnuts, pies and cakes, lie empty.

Thief arrested in home

By MIKE TYREE
Staff Writer

A Detroit man who for days lived as an uninvited guest at a Northville Township home has a new address — the Wayne County Jail.

Township police last week arrested Eric Joseph Socia, 24, and charged him with breaking and entering a Farmcrest Lane residence.

Police say Socia allegedly lived in the home from early Oct. 2 until 6:30 p.m. Oct. 5, when a relative of the owner found him on the premises.

Socia allegedly lived in the home, stole silverware and a mink stole and coat, and returned to the home after township police arrested him on a disorderly person charge.

Police allege that Socia's bad week began at approximately 1 a.m. Oct. 2. Socia reportedly told police he arrived at the Farmcrest Lane home of an acquaintance at that time and knocked on windows and doors.

When no one answered, Socia allegedly let himself in through an unlocked window and fell asleep.

Homecoming

Northville High School celebrated Homecoming all last week, with everything culminating on Friday evening. A spirited parade, above, traveled from the community center to the football field before the game. Earlier in the day Tim Kerns and Abbey Cross, right, became king and queen. Kerns would go on to recover two fumbles in the Mustangs' 28-14 win over Livonia Churchill. For more pictures see page 12A, and for a report on the game, see page 7D.

Education thrust attempts to teach fire safety to kids

By MIKE TYREE
Staff Writer

"Stop. Drop. Roll."
"Stop. Drop. Roll."

A chorus of diminutive voices joined township firefighter/paramedic Guy Balok's recital of the three steps to take when clothing catches fire.

"You have to know how to protect yourself from fire," Balok told 60 preschool-aged children at Kinder Care on Silver Springs Drive. "If your clothes catch fire, stop what you are doing, drop to the floor and roll to put it out."

"What is it everyone should always remember to do?"
"Stop. Drop. Roll," the children chanted. "Stop. Drop. Roll."

Consider the point well-taken. Balok's visit to Kinder Care last Monday was part of an education and fire-safety program designed to target local schools and child care facilities. The fire department's goal, Balok said, is to teach children ideas they can understand and put to use if they are confronted with a fire.

Baylok speaks to local classes throughout the school year, but this week is Fire Prevention Week and his Kinder Care presentation took on special meaning.

"This week commemorates the great fire in Chicago that happened a long time ago," he told the children. "You need to know fire can happen in anybody's house."

The details of the Great Chicago Fire of 1871 — 250 dead, 100,000 homeless, more than 17,000 buildings destroyed — may be too abstract for the Kinder Care group, but the danger fire poses to individuals — particularly children — is not.

"The number one reason young people get hurt is because they play with fire," Balok said. "Matches and lighters are a tool for mom and dad to use. Does anybody here play with matches?"

Balok's question was met with a hail of "No's." But the children's response did not come without a smattering of tattling.

"My brother, he plays with matches," one young person said.

"My friend lit a candle and burned

WOLF says it lacks teeth to assess library

By STEVE KELLMAN
Staff Writer

The director of the Wayne Oakland Library Federation disputes the idea that the Northville Public Library may be petitioned for financial support of the Novi Library.

Northville Library Director Pat Orr told the city council last week that increased use of the Novi facility by Northville residents could move the Novi Library Board to petition the Wayne Oakland Library Federation board for relief. She said the WOLF board could then set a borrowing limit of one item per patron on Northville residents, or seek an agreement for Northville to assist in the financial support of the Novi Library.

But according to WOLF Director Malcolm Hill, the library cooperative guidelines contain no provisions for such financial support.

"The plan is silent on that," Hill said. "There is no provision formally for charging operating costs."

Actually, the plan is not entirely silent. But it is vague enough to require some interpretation. The actual provision, as taken from the WOLF cooperative plan, stipulates that a member library with more than 10 percent non-resident use can request a borrowing limit of "not less than one book or circulating items" be imposed until the non-resident use drops below 10 percent.

Though it is inferred, the plan does not specifically say that the borrowing limit would be imposed on non-residents alone.

"My guess is that it would be interpreted to say 'no,' that the library could not actually charge Northville, because Northville supports a library of its own."

MALCOLM HILL

The provision governing "support" of one library by another is equally vague. "If the WOLF area aggregate non-resident use exceeding 10 percent results from one or more communities borrowing at a rate of five percent or more," it reads, "the requesting library may ask WOLF to seek an agreement for the other community or communities to assist in the support of the lending library in lieu of the borrowing limitations."

The provision does not detail what form that "support" should take.

Hill said he did not believe the Novi Library could charge Northville based solely on the WOLF policy. "My guess is that it would be interpreted

Rec budget snafu draws council fire

By STEVE KELLMAN
Staff Writer

It seems budget requests can be as confusing to those who make them as they are to those who approve them.

A case in point — Recreation Director John Anderson was criticized by the city council two weeks ago for funneling interest generated by a park development fund into his department's general fund.

"To me, that's totally inappropriate," Council Member Jerry Mittman told Anderson. "That interest should be going back into the development fund to help develop that fund."

Anderson said he added the interest from the development fund into the general fund last year, after discussion with the council. "I guess I misunderstood the council's intentions (then)," he said.

But according to City Manager Steven Walters, the interest in question was already going back into the development fund as Mittman wanted, and not into the general fund as both Anderson and Mittman thought.

At stake is about $8,000 in interest from the development fund, Walters said. The interest is part of a $25,000 reserve fund which includes roughly $8,000 in park surcharge fees and $9,000 in miscellaneous revenues, all of which is slated to go back into the park development fund this year.

Adding the interest to the general fund would have increased recreation department revenues by the same amount, if the interest had actually been added.

But Mittman's point was not totally moot, because the interest generated by the fund was not slated to go back into the fund in the proposed 1991 budget.

Anderson also warned the council last week of increases in the proposed Senior Citizen program budget for 1991. "The contributions do show an increase," he said, "which may raise some eyebrows until you look at what caused those increases."

He attributed the requests for an added 17.3 percent in township and 15.9 percent in city contributions to cleanup costs at the newly renovated Scout Building, and a rise in the cost of employee fringe benefits. The Scout Building opened for use by the Senior Citizens program after the program lost its space at Cooke School this summer.

Anderson faced other hard questions during the council's budget review. "Your expenditures exceed your revenues," Mittman noted. "Where's that money coming from?" Anderson said the recreation department may have to cut back on free transportation to balance the budget.

"The buzzword is revenue enhancement, or cut," said Johnson, as the council sent Anderson's proposed budget back to the recreation department's budget committees for review.

He expressed hope that the committees could find ways to limit the rise in city and township contributions to the programs.

Fund Equity too low — auditor

By SUZANNE HOLLYER
Staff Writer

The fund equity for the Northville Public School District was one of the biggest concerns to auditors reviewing the district's financial standing.

Plante and Moran, a certified public accountant and management consultant company, reported to the Northville Board of Education on the status of the district's finances for the year ending June 30, 1990.

The district's $275,000 fund equity is too small for a district the size of Northville, said consultant Pearl Holforty. The district's budget was $25 million last year.

Fund equity is the "rainy day" money set aside for financial emergencies. The district's goal is to increase the fund by 1 percent each year. Last year it was increased by 1.5 percent, but Holforty said that is not enough.

"I commend you on adding to (the fund equity)," Holforty said. "I caution you, you must continue to add to it."

The fund equity is currently at about 1.1 percent of the district's budget. Holforty recommended that the fund be at least 5-7 percent of the budget and said the statewide average was about 9 percent for districts in 1988.

The audit was also intended to find any problems or discrepancies in the district's finances. According to the written report given to the board of education, the financial statements of the district accurately represent the district's financial status for last year, Holforty said.

Plante and Moran made other recommendations to the board, including the elimination of a deficit in the cafeteria fund during the 1990-91 fiscal year, and spending the remaining money from the 1965 bond issue, for which approval from the state may be required.

NOVI ROAD & GRAND RIVER (S. OF 12-OAKS)

Minivan flees scene of Haggerty Road accident

No injuries were reported in a two-car hit-and-run accident Oct. 1, according to township police.

Police said the driver of a vehicle southbound on Haggerty south of Six Mile was struck by another vehicle that was leaving the south drive of the Mobil Gas parking lot. The second vehicle, described as a cream or tan minivan, fled south on Haggerty, police said. The driver of the minivan was described as a white male in his early 30s with brown, collar-length straight hair.

ter attempting to steal women's tennis shoes and a 35-mm camera kit from Meijer, 20401 Haggerty Oct. 1 at 3:25 p.m., township police said.

The woman concealed the stolen items in a large purse she was carrying, police said.

BREAKING AND ENTERING: Township police are investigating two reported breaking and entering with force cases at Northridge Apartments. Police said they found pry marks on the wooden door of one of the apartments Oct. 1, but no one got in.

Thieves stole several items from a neighboring apartment, police said. Reported stolen from the second apartment were a video recorder, coins, rings, a gold chain, earrings, and a woman's watch. Police found pry marks on the wooden door of the apartment.

The thefts occurred sometime between 7:20 a.m. and 4:50 p.m. Oct. 1, victims told police.

AUTO THEFT: A 1980 GMC truck was reported stolen from a construction area near Northridge Villas sometime late Oct. 1 or early Oct. 2, township police said. The vehicle reportedly was in poor condition and had a load of dirt in its bed when it was stolen.

DRUNK DRIVING ARREST: A 24-year-old Oak Park man was arrested for driving while intoxicated at 3:52 a.m. Oct. 6.

The man reportedly approached a city police officer twice to ask for directions before being arrested. The officer noticed the smell of alcohol on the man, and had him perform several sobriety tests, which he failed.

The man admitted to drinking five or six rum and vodka drinks, and having had too much to drink, according to the police report. But he became verbally aggressive when placed under arrest and had to be forced into the police car. His blood alcohol level was measured at .16 percent, well above the legal limit of .10 percent.

TAMPERING WITH AUTO: Someone let the air out of the tire of a vehicle parked in the city lot south of the MAGS building, sometime between 4-10 a.m. Oct. 5, city police said.

Citizens with information about the above incidents are urged to call Northville City Police at 349-1234 or Northville Township Police at 349-9400.

Spilled fuel causes several accidents

By SHEILA PHILLIPS
Staff Writer

The intersection of Grand River and Novi Road was closed for three hours Monday afternoon, while firefighters and public works employees cleaned up spilled diesel fuel from a leaking freight truck.

"The fuel was actually puddled at the Novi Road intersection when we got there, and given the rain, it acted just like ice, resulting in several fender-benders," Novi Fire Chief Art Lenaghan said.

The culprit, a freight truck which punctured its gas tank when it ran over debris on I-96, also leaked fuel where Grand River meets Meadowbrook and Seely roads at about 3 p.m., creating further traffic nightmares.

No major accidents or injuries were reported in connection with the spill. But police were forced to close down the Novi Road intersection in order to clean the site, creating a December-type traffic jam in the area.

Cleanup operations required Novi's vacuum truck, absorbent padding supplied by the fire department, a lot of sand and washing down over 200 feet of roadway.

Lenaghan said that there was no soil contamination at any of the three intersections. As a precaution, however, the department left absorbent padding beside drains along the path of the leaking truck for a 24-hour period.

Police seek information on fire

Northville city police are still seeking information on the early-morning fire at Tiffany Art Glass, 121 E. Main St. on Saturday, Sept. 29. Fire officials consider the blaze suspicious, and have been unable to determine a cause.

Anyone with information on the fire, or who observed suspicious activity near the Main Street store that morning, is asked to call Fire Chief Jim Allen at Allen Monuments, 349-0770, or Det. Sgt. David Fendeleit at the city police station, 349-1280.

At least two rewards are available for people who assist an arson investigation.

The Northville Silent Observer program offers rewards to people with information leading to the arrest and conviction of anyone involved in a

And, of course, the smell of smoke still clings to the walls.

The Holloways notified state Department of Agriculture officials as required after the fire and were advised to throw out much of the food in the store. The store must be repaired and reinspected by the department before reopening.

Jan Holloway, wife of owner Rich Holloway, was uncertain when that would take place. "We have no idea — it all depends on the owner of the building's insurance company," she said. "We just have to plan day by day."

Building owner Joe Spagnuolo said carpenters will begin repairing the damaged stores by Monday. "Richard (Holloway) should be opening up just as soon as we get some carpentry and electrical work done in there," he said. "It'll be all back in shape by the first of November... but Tiffany Art Glass might take a week longer."

DENTAL PROBLEMS OF TEENAGERS

If you have a teenager at home, among your other concerns you probably want to do whatever you can to protect his dental health. The teenage years can be critical in protecting his permanent teeth.

By the time a child reaches the age of thirteen he probably has all of his permanent teeth except his third molars or wisdom teeth. But he may also be more prone to tooth decay and the damage it can do to his teeth through neglect and poor dental health habits. Accidental injuries are common in the teenage years, and often a broken or chipped tooth may be ignored. Injuries may also cause his teeth to be pushed out of alignment, causing malocclusion and other problems.

The teenage years are the growing up years, a period in which the child is learning to think for himself and to assume responsibility. This responsibility should include concern for his dental health. Regular check-ups and treatment when he needs it will help prevent serious and expensive problems from developing later.

herself," another said knowingly. Balok stressed the importance of children looking at firefighters as friends.

"Don't be afraid of the fireman," he said. "When he comes in the home he looks scary and sounds funny because of his mask."

"But he'll be calling your name. He's there to help you," he added. Balok said his presentations are set up to match children's ages with appropriate subject matter. While preschool children are taught basic fire safety ideas, older children may be instructed on how to change smoke detector batteries.

And Balok said fire-related statistics indicate education is vital.

"This country has the most injuries, death and loss," he said. "Most fires occur by mistake or ignorance. Our hope is that by teaching kids about the dangers of fire, we can actually put ourselves out of business."

WTUA nears decision on compost location

By MIKE TYREE
Staff Writer

A long-promised but oft-troubled composting site designed to collect leaves and other yard wastes from three local townships apparently is a step closer to reality.

Two parcels near the Michigan Avenue and Sheldon Road intersection have passed Canton Township Board muster as a composting center for members of the Western Townships Utilities Authority (WTUA).

The WTUA executive board, comprised of Northville, Canton and Plymouth townships, is expected to approve the combined 70-acre center after Canton Township and the site developer finalize a lease agreement, WTUA Executive Director Ann Bollin said.

The developer, Composting Systems Inc. (CSI), of Ypsilanti, is expected to purchase 40 acres of the site from Canton Township. The township will sublease 30 adjacent acres of Detroit Edison property to CSI to round out the site, Bollin said.

Bollin said the Michigan Department of Natural Resources must approve two composting center permits in order for the site to open in spring 1991.

The WTUA project is funded in part by a $242,000 state grant. Other funding — for start-up costs and equipment — is provided by the member townships.

Compost materials, including grass clippings, leaves, branches and other yard wastes from WTUA communities, will be handled and processed at the collection center, Bollin said.

Oktoberfest celebration

Fall is in the air and officials at St. Paul's Lutheran Church and School are planning a celebration.

The Northville church and school will host an "Oktoberfest" from noon to 4 p.m. Sunday, Oct. 14, complete with German food and entertainment.

For those seeking lively entertainment, German music and songs will be performed by students of St. Paul's Day School.

In addition, the German dance group Altnauch Trachtengruppe from the German Park and Recreation Club of Ann Arbor will perform.

Tickets are $5.50 at the door for adults, $4.50 for seniors, and $3 for children. Tickets may be purchased in advance for a savings of 50 cents per admission. Call St. Paul's at 349-3146 for more information.

Uninvited guest arrested

According to police reports, Socia looked around the residence the following morning and found silverware and the mink stole and coat. Socia allegedly stayed inside the residence until 7:30 p.m. and then decided to drive to Detroit to sell the items.

Socia reportedly told police that he was on his way to Detroit when his brakes failed. He allegedly said he pulled into the parking lot of the Mobil gas station at 39425 Six Mile Road.

A witness at the gas station told police that Socia drove his 1975 Olds Cutlass through the station at a high rate of speed and that the vehicle's muffler was dragging and showering the lot with sparks.

Socia allegedly left his vehicle near the Mobil lot and began to walk from the scene. A Mobil employee called township police, who saw Socia and asked him to come over to the car to answer questions.

Socia allegedly responded that the car was not his. The officer continued to attempt to question the Detroit man, who police said became abusive. Police said they found an opened 32-ounce bottle of beer in the car and asked Socia if it belonged to him.

Socia allegedly replied that the police officer planted the bottle and that he did not drink that particular brand of beer. Police then gave Socia a sobriety test, which they say he failed.

During a search of Socia's vehicle, police allegedly found a cloth containing sterling silverware. Police also said they found a mink stole and coat wrapped in plastic in the trunk of the vehicle.

Police say they also found a woman's gold ring on Socia during a routine pat-down.

Socia said the items belonged to a friend's mother.

The owner identified by Socia was contacted and denied knowledge of the items, police said.

He also said he had bought them from a man at a street corner on Joy Road in Southfield, police said.

Police then charged Socia with disorderly conduct and placed him in jail. He was issued an appearance ticket at 35th District Court in Plymouth and was released the following day, police said.

Socia then allegedly returned to the Farmcrest Lane home and stayed there until a relative of the owner appeared at the residence at approximately 6:30 p.m. Oct. 5.

The relative said he entered the home and heard a noise, according to police reports. The relative said he saw a man running from the back of the home and chased him.

Socia allegedly recognized his pursuer and stopped. The relative reportedly coaxed Socia back to the home, where police arrested the Detroit man.

The homeowner verbally identified the items allegedly stolen by Socia and police said Socia admitted that he had been inside the home and had taken the silverware and minks.

Socia was arraigned Oct. 6 in 35th District Court on a charge of breaking and entering. A not guilty plea was entered for him and a $10,000 cash bond was set, township police said.

Socia was lodged in Wayne County Jail. A preliminary exam is scheduled for Oct. 12.

Mill Race Matters

There are only a few weeks left to visit Mill Race Village on Sunday afternoon. The village is open every Sunday until the end of October from 1 to 4 p.m. What a great place to enjoy a fall afternoon outdoors. Bring your family and friends.

Thanks to all Historical Society members and friends who volunteered their time and energy to set up, clean up and staff Tivoli Fair. This major fund-raising effort is Mill Race Village's prime source of revenue. Without the fair the society would not be able to maintain the village.

The society extends appreciation for the time and talents of many people. Special thanks go to Sally Henrikson and Betty Omar for their many hours of hard work putting this great show together. Many other members and friends also devoted long hours and deserve much thanks, as do the many thousands of visitors who made the show a success.

Lapham receives Ely Award

Active Boy Scout leader, local business person and Northville native James Lapham received the Claude N. Ely Award at the annual city recognition dinner last Thursday.

The city presents the Ely Award each year for outstanding community service. It is the main event of the annual city dinner, which also featured a new award for library service; recognition of city employees; and thanks to all members of city boards and commissions.

In presenting Lapham with the honor, Mayor Chris Johnson said that Lapham has "demonstrated a lifelong commitment to his country, and to his community and its youth."

Lapham was born in Northville in 1935 at the old Session's Hospital. His mother was a teacher in the Northville School District, and his brother Charles still runs the store downtown founded by his grandfather.

The honoree graduated from Northville High School and served in the Navy before returning to work in the community as a building contractor. For the past 10 years he has worked for Belanger Inc., where he is now a vice president.

He has always been active in Scouting. As an active Scout he attended a World Jamboree in Austria, and in 1953 earned the Eagle rank. He recently retired from a 10-year term as scoutmaster of Northville's Troop 755. During his tenure as scoutmaster the troop produced 26 Eagles.

Lapham's wife is a medical assistant in Northville. He has a son who is an Eagle Scout and a senior at Bowling Green University, and a daughter who is a junior at Kent State University.

The dinner also saw the introduction of the Library Service Award, a new honor. Northville Township Supervisor Georgina Goss presented the award to Fran Mattison for her many years of work for the Northville Public Library.

City employees recognized for 20 years of service to the community were Ted Mapes, the city's director of public works, and David DeLauder, of the city police department. Det. Sgt. David Fendele of the police department was honored for 15 years of service. Receiving 10-year recognition were Deputy City Clerk Tonni Burns and Sylvia Mazzaro from the library.

Five-year recognition went to Recreation Director John Anderson, Linda Burbo of the police department, Gary Cash of the public works department, Administrative Assistant Beverly Dennis, JoAnn Dewey of the library, Bill Edgar of the police department, Traci Gottschalk of the recreation department, John Gustaf of Allen Terrace, Lillian Nelson of the city clerk's office, Darlene Oginski of Allen Terrace, Senior Coordinator Karl Peters, David Stroyan of the public works department, and Christine Yezback of the finance department.

The dinner began with an invocation offered by Patrolman Jim Marks of the city police department. Employees and board and commission members were recognized for their efforts. After dinner the group watched a video of the Victorian Festival produced by Industrial Video Productions, a Northville company.

Guests left the dinner with a special city mug, the third year the city has presented mugs featuring work by a local artist. This year's mug features a drawing of a summer bandshell concert by C. Phelps Hines.

WTUA nears decision on compost location

By MIKE TYREE Staff Writer

A long-promised but oft-troubled composting site designed to collect leaves and other yard wastes from three local townships apparently is a step closer to reality.

Two parcels near the Michigan Avenue and Sheldon Road intersection have passed Canton Township Board muster as a composting center for members of the Western Townships Utilities Authority (WTUA).

The WTUA executive board, comprised of Northville, Canton and Plymouth townships, is expected to approve the combined 70-acre center after Canton Township and the site developer finalize a lease agreement, WTUA Executive Director Ann Bollin said.

Mill Race Matters

There are only a few weeks left to visit Mill Race Village on Sunday afternoon. The village is open every Sunday until the end of October from 1 to 4 p.m. What a great place to enjoy a fall afternoon outdoors. Bring your family and friends.

Thanks to all Historical Society members and friends who volunteered their time and energy to set up, clean up and staff Tivoli Fair. This major fund-raising effort is Mill Race Village's prime source of revenue. Without the fair the society would not be able to maintain the village.

The society extends appreciation for the time and talents of many people. Special thanks go to Sally Henrikson and Betty Omar for their many hours of hard work putting this great show together. Many other members and friends also devoted long hours and deserve much thanks, as do the many thousands of visitors who made the show a success.

Lapham receives Ely Award

Active Boy Scout leader, local business person and Northville native James Lapham received the Claude N. Ely Award at the annual city recognition dinner last Thursday.

The city presents the Ely Award each year for outstanding community service. It is the main event of the annual city dinner, which also featured a new award for library service; recognition of city employees; and thanks to all members of city boards and commissions.

In presenting Lapham with the honor, Mayor Chris Johnson said that Lapham has "demonstrated a lifelong commitment to his country, and to his community and its youth."

Lapham was born in Northville in 1935 at the old Session's Hospital. His mother was a teacher in the Northville School District, and his brother Charles still runs the store downtown founded by his grandfather.

The honoree graduated from Northville High School and served in the Navy before returning to work in the community as a building contractor. For the past 10 years he has worked for Belanger Inc., where he is now a vice president.

Lapham's wife is a medical assistant in Northville. He has a son who is an Eagle Scout and a senior at Bowling Green University, and a daughter who is a junior at Kent State University.

The dinner also saw the introduction of the Library Service Award, a new honor. Northville Township Supervisor Georgina Goss presented the award to Fran Mattison for her many years of work for the Northville Public Library.

City employees recognized for 20 years of service to the community were Ted Mapes, the city's director of public works, and David DeLauder, of the city police department. Det. Sgt. Five-year recognition went to Recreation Director John Anderson, Linda Burbo of the police department, Gary Cash of the public works department, Administrative Assistant Beverly Dennis, JoAnn Dewey of the library, Bill Edgar of the police department, Traci Gottschalk of the recreation department, John Gustaf of Allen Terrace, Lillian Nelson of the city clerk's office, Darlene Oginski of Allen Terrace, Senior Coordinator Karl Peters, David Stroyan of the public works department, and Christine Yezback of the finance department.

The dinner began with an invocation offered by Patrolman Jim Marks of the city police department. Employees and board and commission members were recognized for their efforts. After dinner the group watched a video of the Victorian Festival produced by Industrial Video Productions, a Northville company.

Guests left the dinner with a special city mug, the third year the city has presented mugs featuring work by a local artist. This year's mug features a drawing of a summer bandshell concert by C. Phelps Hines.

Prize winners

Jay and Chad Balko of Northville went to Pumpkinfest in South Lyon over the weekend — and each came home with a prize. Jay had the tallest pumpkin at 33 inches, and Chad had the largest around at 87 inches.

User fees a local decision

Any agreement between Northville and Novi for financial support of the Novi Library likely would be made by the two library boards, according to Novi Library Director Brenda Evans.

Evans made the remarks Monday after Northville Library Director Pat Orr warned the city council that Northville could face borrowing limits or a request for financial assistance from the Novi Library because of its increased use by Northville residents.

Orr said such limits could be imposed by the Wayne Oakland Library Federation (WOLF), the library cooperative to which both Northville and Novi belong.

Evans said increased use could be a matter of concern to the Novi Library, but she was uncertain what action the library could — or would — take in response.

"It hasn't been an agenda item on our board's meetings," she said. But she said the topic would likely come up at the next library board meeting, scheduled for Nov. 12.

Evans added that any financial agreement between Northville and Novi would likely be discussed by the respective library boards. "It really isn't a WOLF decision," she said. "It's not something that they would immediately become an agent of — restricting services or imposing sanctions . . . Each library has the choice of engaging in those restrictions."

"It would be kind of an arrangement worked out between Northville and Novi," she said.

Evans added that the Novi library board's first priority would be to determine whether the matter is worth pursuing financially. "If the amount of money we're talking about is not significant, then it might not be worth our time," she said.

Evans said non-resident library use has not been a serious issue for most libraries. But the West Bloomfield library had a similar problem with Commerce residents, she said, because Commerce Township did not have a library of its own. The two municipalities eventually agreed that Commerce would pay a percentage of the operating cost for the West Bloomfield library.

"So there's some precedence there," she said.

Evans also agreed in theory with Orr's assertion that Northville residents may be using the Novi Library because of its weekend hours. The Northville library is closed Saturdays during the summer and offers no Sunday hours at all.

"It makes some sense because Saturday's the busiest day of the week," Evans said. "I can see that people like having access to libraries on Saturdays."

Evans said the recent introduction of Sunday service at the Novi Library might increase use by Northville residents even more. "It does spark a potential for increased use by non-Novl residents, but it's something that we would have to formally address," Evans said. "We don't even have data on the increased (Sunday) hours yet."

If the Novi board does address the issue, she said, "They will need to see it from the perspective of a cooperative member, one who shares reciprocal resources."

Orr library claim disputed

to say 'no,' that the library could not actually charge Northville, because Northville supports a library of its own," he said.

But Hill did agree that WOLF could place borrowing restrictions on residents using another community's library. "Full reciprocal borrowing is one of the privileges (of a WOLF library)," he said. "The restrictions come in when any one library or group of libraries make too much use of another library."

An estimated 5.7 percent of the Novi Public Library's circulation — and 3.5 percent of Plymouth District Library's business — is to Northville residents.

Orr had asked the city council to approve a near 37-percent increase in wages and salaries for the coming year's library budget to fund year-round Saturday service. She argued that the increased service could lure Northville residents back to their own library, and head off borrowing limits or financial assessments against Northville by the Novi Library or other libraries where Northville residents account for more than five percent of total circulation.

The council did not approve the budget request, citing the need for more specific data on the use of the Novi facility by local residents.

Northville's Cady Street Development

This diagram is one of five proposals that the City of Northville has encouraged developers to use for ideas in making their own proposals.

Bus stop law confusing

By SUZANNE HOLLYER
Staff Writer

Although an act changing the school bus stopping procedure was signed into law in July some Michigan motorists are still confused. Bus drivers report that some people have been so confused by the new law that they stop when they see a bus with any lights on — even headlights, said Norm Frank, transportation director for Northville Public Schools.

The law adds flashing yellow warning lights to the stopping procedure, indicating the bus is about to stop and requiring other drivers on the road to prepare to stop. When red flashing lights are turned on, motorists must stop a distance of at least 20 feet from the bus and are not allowed to continue until the lights are turned off again.

Despite the confusion, the change was not controversial. In fact, Michigan was the 49th state to adopt the procedure, according to Jerry Basch, manager of community safety services for the American Automobile Association of Michigan. But the legislation does not require school districts to purchase new buses equipped with new lights until they are needed, Basch said.

Northville does not have any buses with light systems which comply with the law, so bus drivers have to do some tricky maneuvering to use the procedure.

Turning the lights on and off, while all the time watching students being picked up and the students already on the bus, has required a little adjustment for the bus drivers.

"All in all, they are doing a good job," Frank said.

The area as a whole has had very few problems with the change. Basch said, although some drivers have complained that the yellow lights are difficult to see.

"We are concerned that this might be putting youngsters in danger," Basch said.

Basch said he believed there was not enough time to get the word out about the change after the legislation was passed. When people are aware of the change, the transitional problems should end, he said.

Frank agrees. He said he hopes to encourage the Secretary of State to make knowing about the changes a requirement for anyone receiving or renewing a driver's license.

Still, the changes aren't over quite yet.

In the future, drivers could see swinging arms mounted on the side of school buses which will show a 'stop' sign when the bus is halted.

Hotline open for business

By SUZANNE HOLLYER
Staff Writer

The Homework Hotline program began work recently, helping students and parents end frustration caused by tricky homework assignments.

In its second year of operation, the Homework Hotline Project will be open from 4-8 p.m. Monday through Thursday to help an expected 10,000 callers this year.

Students and parents can have their homework questions answered by calling the hotline, housed in Marygrove College in Detroit, using a toll-free number.

During the last school year, the first year of the program, the 24 certified teachers working for the hotline received over 4,500 calls, said Joe Banks, program coordinator for the National Education Association.

The calls were not only from the Detroit area or even limited to within Michigan. The program received calls from Illinois, Kentucky and Ohio, and within Michigan from as far away as Traverse City.

The program is a result of the collaboration of Marygrove College, Wayne County Intermediate School District, Oakland County Intermediate School District, Macomb County Intermediate School District and Detroit Public Schools.

Money from New Detroit Inc., a community organization created to help reconstruct Detroit in the 1960s; the Michigan Educational Association; and the National Education Association helped get the program started in October 1989.

In January 1990, the project received a $51,528 grant from the W.K. Kellogg Foundation in Battle Creek that should, with continuing contributions from the two school unions, carry the project through the end of December 1990. The project is looking for additional contributors to continue after December.

The money is needed to pay the teachers and the average $700-a-month phone bill.

Although posters and billboards advertising the program help get the word out about the program, Banks said money for the phone bills and teacher's wages are the necessities. "If we have the money to pay the teachers and the phone bill we can survive," Banks said.

The teachers, two-thirds of whom are from the Detroit Public Schools, do not receive their usual wages for the time they spend working at the hotline, Banks said. He called the money they earn "sort of a stipend/wage."

The number for students and parents to call for help is 1-800-356-1909, unless they are in Detroit, where the number to call is 345-7000.

Homecoming, Mustang style

Northville High School's annual Homecoming festivities came to a peak Friday with daylong celebrations. Right, the Class of 1992 shows its spirit in the parade going up Center Street to the high school. Like our commitment to outstanding community newspapers for example.

It was only a couple of weeks ago that we changed our name from Sliger/Livingston Publications to HomeTown Newspapers. But you've probably noticed that nothing else has changed. We're still bringing you the same excellent community newspapers that you've learned to depend on for everything you need to know to live in your home town.

The Michigan Press Association (MPA) hasn't noticed much difference since we changed our name either. In fact, the MPA acknowledged our continued commitment to excellence by awarding us a total of 21 awards in the recent Better Newspapers Contest. That makes HomeTown Newspapers the most honored newspaper chain in the state. Here's a look at how we did.

Police extradite drunk driver

By MIKE TYREE
Staff Writer

A Westland man arrested for drunken driving in Northville Township has been extradited to Texas to face felony warrant charges.

Township police arrested Reinaldo Garza, 35, Sept. 14 and charged him with operating a vehicle under the influence of alcohol. A warrants search indicated that Garza was wanted in El Paso, Texas, on a felony warrant stemming from a 1989 drug conviction.

According to 34th District Court records in El Paso, Garza was convicted of one count of illegal investment in a scheme to purchase 65 pounds of marijuana. He was sentenced to 10 years probation, which he apparently violated by moving to Westland.

Garza is being held in El Paso County Jail, awaiting probation revocation, a court spokesperson said.

Township police said they witnessed Garza driving a 1970 Chevrolet eastbound on Eight Mile west of Haggerty around 3 a.m. Sept. 14.

Garza was driving "in visual excess" of posted 50 mph speed limits, police said. Police attempted to stop Garza, who then allegedly sped to a radar-clocked 88 mph before pulling in the Meijer parking lot at the intersection of Eight Mile and Haggerty.

Police said Garza "seemed dazed and confused" after exiting his car at the Meijer lot. Police said he failed sobriety tests and was arrested.

A computer check then revealed that Garza was wanted by the El Paso County Sheriff's Department. Garza was extradited after communication between the Wayne County Prosecutor's office and El Paso law enforcement officials, police said.

Fires fought for 100 years

The City of Northville Fire Department will host an open house Saturday, Oct. 13 to celebrate a century of service to the Northville community.

The open house, to be held at the fire station next to city hall between 10 a.m. and 5 p.m., commemorates the department's 100th birthday and marks the end of this year's Fire Prevention Week.

The historical record is not completely clear, but old editions of The Northville Record indicate the fire department was first organized about 1890. To honor the past century of service, the department will display old fire-fighting apparatus and equipment, and photographs of notable fires in the Northville area. Residents willing to contribute equipment or photographs to the display are asked to call Chief Jim Allen at 349-0770 during business hours. All items will be safely returned.

The focus will not be strictly on the past, however. In recognition of this week's fire prevention theme, "Make Your Place Fire Safe," firefighters at the open house will pass out information on home fire safety. A special emphasis is placed on children, who will be enlisted as detectives in a "Hunt for Home Hazards." A special area at the fire hall will feature continuous showings of fire safety videos, including the one produced in Northville this past summer.

The more adventurous, both young and old alike, can participate in a wet and wild game known as "Water Ball," where opposing teams dressed in firefighting gear fight to push a ball suspended from a wire across each others' goal with water from fire hoses.

In recognition of the centennial, the department has created a special logo blending elements of the past and present. T-shirts and baseball caps bearing the logo will be offered at the open house. Balloons, refreshments and other treats will be served as well.

Seven go to boys state

Seven boys from Northville High School attended the American Legion Boys State held at Michigan State University in June.

A committee of counselors, faculty and an administrator chose the students based on their excellence in leadership and academics.

The week-long program provided approximately 900 boys a chance to participate in running a model government.

The Northville students held both elected and appointed positions that allowed them to get first-hand experience in the workings of county, city and state government.

Participants were Jason Sherman, president of the Michigan State University Board of Trustees and the chair of the National Delegation; Erik Bauss, legal adviser to the governor and zoning board chair; Kevin Smoot, state Supreme Court justice and member of the budget commission; Kyle Legel, delegate and chair of the zoning commission; Tim Kerns, state senator; Adam Fisher, sheriff and city council member; and Jeff Todd, state party convention delegate and city police chief.

The cost of $185 per student was picked up by sponsors. The Mothers Club of Northville sponsored two boys. Sponsoring one boy each was

Our Opinions

Library use charges poor reason for hike

The Northville Public Library has some good news and some bad news, and they're essentially the same thing.

This double-edged sword is the revelation that Northville use of the Novi Public Library most likely will not result in an outright levying of charges against Northville by Novi. That's good news, of course, but it includes a down side.

Traditionally the library has closed on Saturday during the summer. Northville Library Director Pat Orr proposes in the new library budget to keep the local library open on Saturdays all year long. That move represents a significant share of an overall 26-percent increase in the new library budget.

The greatest impetus for year-round Saturday service, Orr told the city council, arises from the danger that too much use of other libraries by Northville residents may result in those libraries assessing charges on Northville. Orr said Northville residents account for more than 5.7 percent of total circulation at the Novi Public Library. With both libraries belonging to the Wayne Oakland Library Federation (WOLF), any use above 5 percent may result in borrowing limits or financial assessments at the affected library, she said.

It might not be as serious as all that. The director of WOLF, Malcolm Hill, said this week he doubts such a thing would happen. Brenda Evans, director of the Novi library, said the situation might be cause for discussion — but, at this point, nothing more. WOLF documents themselves offer no firm basis for such charges.

All three sources mention a potential to talk about issues of library use by other communities. But it's always in terms of sitting down together, of "reaching an agreement" — not in terms of "assessments," which implies something much more ominous.

The bottom line is that use of the Novi library may very well continue at its present level with nothing ever happening to Northville. If some action appears necessary to the Novi library board Northville will be involved in whatever decision Novi makes. The picture appears less frightening than it did at first.

Good news? Absolutely. Local library officials, however, may not consider it as such. That's because it takes away the pressure for expanding hours of service — which in itself is a worthy goal. Orr wants to provide as much service as possible to the community; that's her job. Year-round Saturday hours would definitely serve the Northville public better.

However, no one even knows at this point whether that particular expansion of hours would decrease Novi library use one iota. This leads us into a classic cost/benefit analysis: Is the value to the community worth the extra money?

The exact cost may be figured out of the overall budget increase. The benefits, however, are more nebulous. Year-round Saturday service would be nice. But to take it to a ridiculous extreme, 24-hour service would also be nice. We doubt the community would be willing to pay for it, but the community might consider year-round Saturday service a worthwhile expense. Sounds like a good question to add to the community survey now under development.

Or perhaps, as suggested at the council table last week, some rearranging of hours — rather than a simple expansion — might accomplish the goal. Reducing morning hours was suggested, but Orr opposed the idea because she said senior citizens like to use the morning hours, when fewer children are around. However, isn't the summertime different? Do the patterns of times children use the library hold constant throughout the year, or does (as we suspect) overall use by children change during the summer anyway? Could a shift only of summer hours still accommodate everyone's needs?

Clearly the city council and township board need more information before approving the library budget, and most of it is probably attainable. A good start would be to know which days Northville residents most often go to Novi, to have some indication of the community attitude about year-round Saturday service, and to discover when the Northville library gets the most and least use — and, if possible, by whom.

Then the public officials may determine budget priorities for the library. The proposed increases may or may not prove worthwhile — but whatever decision comes down, it will be well-grounded in true community needs.

Great debate disappointing

Michigan is lucky to have two intelligent, well-educated, thoughtful, moderate, tested politicians such as Jim Blanchard and John Engler running for governor. In person, they are kind, polite gentlemen. For this voter, going to the polls Nov. 6 will be a no-lose choice. It's fashionable to be cynical. Nuts to fashion.

I know two state senators — one from each party — who go to committee hearings without having read the bills and vote no because they don't understand them. I know of vain, "camera on me" types in both parties. None of them has been nominated for governor. Gov. Blanchard is running for re-election against Senate Majority Leader Engler.

So why, then, was the great Saturday night debate so unsatisfying?

It wasn't a real debate, that's why. It was a scattershot of one-liners. Neither man shone.

Consider the Engler cutie that made the front page of the Detroit monopoly press — "Burger Kings and welfare queens." The question was how to fix Michigan's dismal reputation for generous medical malpractice jury awards.

Actually, Engler came close to answering the question earlier when he charged Blanchard "defended the Michigan Trial Lawyers (Association) and their resistance to any reform." Engler said malpractice insurance costs in Michigan average $5,600 a bed, triple the national average.

He stopped short of spelling out the Republican solution — capping "pain and suffering" awards at $250,000.

Democrat Blanchard never addressed the question. He thanked the League of Women Voters — nice. He said high medical costs are a problem all over the country — no answer to Michigan's malpractice lawsuit problem. He talked about certificate of need legislation — good, but off the topic. He talked about the "old days" of debt — totally irrelevant.

See the problem? They needed a half-hour to talk about nothing but the malpractice, "defensive medicine" and the juries gone amok.

Next question was state funding of education, a major function of state government, according to the Michigan Constitution.

They couldn't answer in 90 seconds to answer.

Engler endorsed a 20-percent property-tax cut, saying the size of state government had to be reduced so that more state aid could go to education. "Freeze hiring. Cut out the silly contracts," he said.

That left me wondering what he would cut. State police crime labs? The Michigan Strategic Fund? Job corps? Social case workers? Judicial staffs? If I know Engler, he had answers — but no time to divulge them.

Blanchard talked about how education spending is up $1.5 billion in his eight years. He hit Engler on failure to use all the lottery money on schools earlier. But Blanchard ignored the question: How would he lift the state's share of local school funding from the current, dismal one-third to one-half?

Blanchard has difficulty answering questions under pressure. He dabbles on unrelated topics in order to give his subconscious mind time to compose an answer to the real question. He's not as unfocused or evasive as he seems. But he looks it in a 90-second format.

Education deserves a full hour of debate — grade school, community colleges and universities.

Engler needs to tell us where he stands on tax-base sharing, raising the attendance age to 18, and why he thinks the Michigan Education Trust is bad.

Blanchard needs to tell us why he bludgeons universities for raising tuitions and then reappoints the trustees who raised the tuitions.

Jim Blanchard and John Engler are two of my favorite people. I wish the rest of you could see them debate in a better light — one topic at a time, in depth.

Recognition by peers is nice

Journalists who win press awards are expected to accept them in a low-key, dignified manner.

"Awards don't mean that much," winning reporters and editors are often heard to say. "The judges have to be subjective. And the point of community journalism isn't to win awards, after all, it is to put out good newspapers."

So when the Michigan Press Association released the results of its 1990 Better Newspaper Contest, there was an outbreak of modesty in the newsrooms all across the HomeTown Newspaper chain.

The staff here in the east office, which puts together The Northville Record and The Novi News, pulled in no less than seven awards in the Class B weekly division of the contest.

The Northville Record took third place in the "sports coverage" category of the contest. "Excellent photos," the judges commented, "large with action telling its own story. Good assortment of photos. Excellent handling of standings and recreation notes."

It was beat out for first and second place honors in that category by The Milford Times and The Novi News, respectively. Both of those papers are owned by the same company that owns The Record, HomeTown Newspapers.

Additionally, The Northville Record won third place in the "lifestyle/family section" category. Again, The Record was beat out only by other HomeTown Newspapers — The Livingston County Press took first and The Brighton Argus took second. The Novi News, The Record's sister publication, won an honorable mention in this category.

Record Editor Bob Needham won second place in the "features stories" category. "Needham took a potentially humdrum . . . story and made it come alive as readers get slices of John Nichols' fascinating career," the judges stated.

Michigan Model needs removal

To the editor:

In a recent bulletin sent home from school with my children's homework papers, I was advised of The Michigan Model Teaching Technique being infiltrated into my children's classes.

Infiltrated is an accurate description as we, the parents, were not advised of this new technique before it was already put into use on our children. The Michigan Model was slid into the Michigan Public School system through a grant, therefore not our tax dollars, so as not to involve us.

In fact, I have learned that this Model has been present in our schools for at least a couple of years.

Many states have gone to court to have this Model removed, proving it to be New Age Religion, therefore making it unlawful to be taught in our public school system. Several states have claimed victory and removed it. Even the originator of this Model has had a change of heart, calling it "a death sentence of our children." If you research into New Age Religion at all, you will learn of its subtle method of mind control through meditation, self-hypnosis, and anti-family tactics that give the government control over our children.

I urge you to research the matter yourself by contacting the Michigan Alliance. Also talk to your children about "Health Class," and consider pulling them out of that class.

The Michigan Model needs to be removed altogether, as it is in all facets of our children's curriculum. We need to allow our children to get back to the basics of learning instead of losing their childhood to this kind of garbage. Please support the community in giving the family the authority over our children's minds in issues of religion and morals. Don't give that right to the state.

Our thanks also goes to all the teachers, school administrators and staff support people who contributed time and effort and ensured that everyone received the facts necessary to make an informed decision. ## Tax problems

To the editor:

Many local residents are asking themselves this question: Why did Northville have to raise its taxes to ensure proper education, when the money was ours to begin with? The answer to this question is Carl Levin. No, he's not the one that will solve our problems — he's the one causing them. While in the U.S. Senate, he has voted to raise taxes consistently. He fights for higher income tax rates, higher gas taxes and opposes a cut in capital gains taxes.

Levin supports spread the wealth programs which take money out of well-balanced school districts and households. This money is then put into pork-barrel projects which, in turn, benefit nobody.

Carl Levin has no interests in Northville, or for that matter, in Michigan. Sixty-six percent of the personal donations in his campaign come from out-of-state! A whopping 75 percent of his total money comes from out-of-state political action committees — special-interest groups! He votes for them, not for us. His eyes are on California, Florida, Ohio and New York. Jim Blanchard doesn't ease the pain either.

Believe me, Carl Levin would rather take our money and send it to Detroit (where his votes are) and out-of-state (where his money is). No need to worry; this is an election year! Jeffrey M. Schroder

Representatives let the people down

I spent the weekend oscillating between white hot rage, hysterical laughter and deep depression as I tried to follow what Our Leaders in Washington were doing to us as they tried to put together a budget for the country.

Certainly Michigan's delegation didn't cover itself with glory. The only members who tried to act responsibly were Reps. John Dingell and Sander Levin.

Bill Broomfield, Bob Carr, Bill Ford and Carl Pursell should be ashamed of themselves. I have only three words, as follows:

"Feeble": adj. Lacking vitality; feeble; ineffective.

The single greatest threat to our country is continued tolerance of enormous and growing annual federal budget deficits.

They drive up interest rates, making it more expensive for us to buy houses and cars. They drive down the value of the dollar, making it cheap for foreigners to buy American corporations and farms. They risk severe recession, making economic growth uncertain and job security meaningless.

Yet for the 10 years since the great tax cut giveaway of 1981, America's federal deficits have spiraled up and up. The 535 members of Congress and two presidents have huffed and puffed without result.

For the record, the gross national debt as of the end of fiscal 1990 was $3.113 trillion. That comes to $12,408 for every American man, woman and child.

And now this last episode, which would be funny if it weren't so tragic for the country. How could this happen?

"Craven": adj. Characterized by abject fear; cowardly.

In our politics, there exists a separate class of politicians whose entire careers consist in running for and holding office. If the purpose of holding office is solely to get re-elected, such old-fashioned notions as responsibility, leadership and courage are pointless.

Certainly it's tough to vote for increased taxes on gasoline, cigarettes and booze. And it's even tougher to vote for increased premiums on Medicare.

But if that's what it takes to get the deficit under control, that's what you do — if you have any courage or sense of responsibility to the country as a whole.

Why didn't the U.S. House of Representatives do it?

"Self serving": adj. Furthering one's own interests.

The House's astonishing rejection of the budget flew in the face of the entire leadership of both parties: the president, the speaker of the House, the minority leader, the chairs of powerful committees, both Democratic and Republican party chairs.

From the time I was an administrative assistant to a congressman in 1965, I never have seen such a revolt against "The Leadership."

How is this possible? Today's politics are fundamentally different from any time in the past. Members of Congress used to depend on the leadership of their parties for money and campaign workers.

But with the new technologies of polling, computer lists and television, each member can function as an individual political entrepreneur, responsible solely to his or her own career ambitions.

Washington today is dominated by these political forces:

● Political consultants who specialize in the 10-second TV sound bite.

● Lobbyists for special interests who manage the contributions (read "bribes") from the political action committees.

● Pollsters whose tracking data insure that any twitch in public opinion cancels the possibility of independent thought.

They dominate because they — not the leadership — get members of Congress re-elected. And re-election — not national leadership — is the name of the only game.

A troubling image comes to mind. Wasn't it Emperor Nero who fiddled while Rome burned?

Positive discipline motivates kids

In my next few articles, I will share with you suggestions from the book Positive Discipline by Jane Nelson. The theory of this book is to provide an environment in which children will be motivated to be "good." Below are examples of how this may be accomplished.

1. Misbehaving children are "discouraged children" who have mistaken ideas on how to achieve their primary goal — to belong. Their mistaken ideas lead them to misbehave.

2. Use encouragement to help children feel that they "belong" so the motivation for misbehaving will be eliminated.

3. A great way to help children feel encouragement is to spend special time being with them, doing something you can enjoy together. With younger children this could be 15 minutes a day. With older children it could be an hour once a week.

4. When tucking children in bed, ask them to share with you their "saddest time" during the day and their "happiest time" during the day. Then share with them. You will be surprised what you learn.

5. Have family meetings to solve problems with cooperation and mutual respect. This is the key to creating a loving atmosphere while helping children develop self-discipline, responsibility, cooperation and problem-solving skills.

6. Give children meaningful chores. Many children would rather cook than wash dishes. Children feel they belong when they know they can make a real contribution.

7. Decide together what chores need to be done. Write out chores, put them in a jar, and let each child draw out a few each week. Then no one is stuck with the same chores all the time.

8. Take time for training. Make sure children understand what, for example, "clean the kitchen" means to you. To them it may mean simply putting the dishes in the sink.

If you have any suggestions that have worked in your family to motivate your children, please give me a call. If you need help or someone to talk to about parenting, please don't hesitate to call 344-1618.

Recognition by peers appreciated

Further, staff members of The Record picked up honors for their work on The Nott News. The News took second place in the "general excellence" category. It was beat out for first place only by The Milford Times and was closely followed by The South Lyon Herald, both of which are HomeTown Newspapers.

Also winning in the contest was a special section called "Neighbors," which took first place in the "special sections" category.

That's right, what you are seeing there is a sweep — first, second and third places — by publications of the HomeTown Newspaper chain in three categories of the Class B weekly division of the contest. Those categories were among the most competitive — "general excellence," "sports coverage" and "lifestyle/family section."

All told, the HomeTown Newspapers chain knocked down 21 awards. Additionally, one newspaper in our chain took an award given for the first time this year. Known as "Michigan's Best," the award is given to the publication which picks up the largest number of awards in the contest, and The South Lyon Herald won it in the Class B weekly division.

Now, I wasn't here when all this award-winning work was being done, so I don't have to be modest. I can tell you what it really means.

One award means you did something right. A couple of awards means you occasionally do things well. But a showing like this means you're good — damned good.

It means you've got good staff members — people like Neil Geoghegan. Most weeks, Neil handles the writing and layout for the sports sections in The Northville Record and The Nott News all by himself. He didn't get his name mentioned in the MPA awards list, but he should have. His sections were the ones that took first and third place in the "sports coverage" category.

It means you've got people like Bob Needham. While he picked up the award for feature writing, he also deserves credit for ushering both the The Northville Record and The Nott News to this kind of a strong showing.

It means you've got people like Jan Jeffries, who has been one of the writers who has been contributing to the paper, and therefore was one of those who has helped us achieve the showing we did in this contest.

And when awards are as widespread throughout a publications chain as they were for HomeTown Newspapers, you have to give some credit to the management. The job of the owner and managers of a chain of papers, after all, is to create the kind of environment in which good journalism can thrive. From this kind of performance, I'd have to say they're doing a bang-up job themselves.

It takes effort from everyone to produce a strong newspaper. And regardless of whether our staff members got their names mentioned in the contest or here in this column, they are winners, every one.

Recycling center gets a hand

Retired engineer oversees operations at voluntary township drop-off site

By MIKE TYREE
Staff Writer

Lou Gensley doesn't taunt athletic opponents, or cut controversial rap albums, or denigrate women and minorities a la some in today's pop culture.

But the 66-year-old Northville Township resident certainly knows how to talk trash.

Gensley spends about two hours a day, six days a week tending the township's fledgling recycling center on Sheldon Road north of Five Mile. The retired Detroit Edison Co. traffic safety engineer stacks newspapers, rakes bins of plastic milk cartons and tin cans and sometimes offers friendly—but pointed—tips to recycling center users.

"We had an avalanche in here one day," Gensley said as he waded through a stack of bundled newspapers in a 40-foot trailer at the recycling center. "Two rows of papers fell on me. People need to know that if you stack them right, you can get more in."

October marks the recycling center's 10th full month of operations. The center accepts newspapers, colored and clear glass, clear plastic milk jugs, household and automotive batteries and used motor oil.

And its unmonitored, 24-hour, seven-day-a-week status sometimes left the center vulnerable to unscrupulous or recycling-unequipped users.

Enter Lou Gensley.

"They called me one day and asked if I'd be interested," he said. "It's a fun thing, in a sense. It keeps me from getting stagnant."

Gensley said he used to exercise by walking two or three miles per day. He now works out by tossing bundles of papers, raking and generally tidying up after strangers.

He keeps busy at his $7-an-hour job, too.

"They (users) try to be conscientious, they just don't know the rules," he said. "They need to know how and why we do things out here."

"I guess only about 2 percent don't follow the rules."

But that 2 percent translates into a great deal of busy work for Gensley, as well as added expense for the township.

"They don't dump things while he's around . . . We'd like to get a replacement that can handle things like he does."

RICHARD HENNINGSEN
Northville Township manager

Gensley said items such as yard wastes, household trash, tires, gas tanks, paints and colored plastic containers show up at the recycling center. The township has no provision to recycle the unwanted items and must pay a trash hauler to remove excess materials.

And with the recycling center far from being a break-even venture, added expense can be painful.

Township Manager Richard Henningsen said handlers have carted away 151 tons of paper, seven tons of cans, 31 tons of glass and 5.5 tons of plastics from the collection center since January.

The township receives a return: only on cans and plastics and has pocketed about $500 in material refunds.

The center has cost approximately $10,000—including start-up fees of over $3,000—since January, Henningsen said. The cost consolation comes from the fact that recycled materials avoid landfills, he said.

To help users understand the dos and don'ts of the center, the township and Gensley have posted signs that are intended to serve as step-by-step facility guides.

Last week, Gensley hung hand-crafted signs on the plastics bins. The sign urges users to take bottle caps off milk jugs and to exclude colored plastics from bins.

"Most people don't know the difference," he said. "The only thing we can use here is what I call the opaque white."

Out-of-town commitments will soon bring an end to Gensley's three-month reign as recycling center monitor. His contributions will be missed, Henningsen said.

"He really gets involved in the recycling center," he said. "He's out there six days a week and shows up religiously. He also keeps people in line out there."

"They don't dump things while he's around," Henningsen added. "We'd like to get a replacement that can handle things like he does."

Gensley scoffed at the praise. "They say I'm doing a good job, but I'm just glad to give them a helping hand."

By TIM RICHARD
Staff Writer

Defendants in drunken-driving cases and their attorneys will have more difficulty plea-bargaining and obtaining restricted licenses under a five-bill package before the Michigan Legislature.
In a bipartisan love-in, the House Judiciary Committee favorably reported out four House bills and one Senate bill.
"This will close some of the loopholes that creative attorneys have made by moving from one offense (drunk driving) to another (impaired)," said Rep. Debbie Stabenow, D-Lansing.
AAA Michigan, the auto insurer, supported the bills, noting that only 200 people a year are arrested for impaired driving but 35,000 to 42,000 plead guilty to that lesser charge.
Two area members of the judiciary panel — Dave Honigman, R-West Bloomfield, and Kirk Profit, D-Ypsilanti — voted yes on all five bills without comment.
The only political bell was rung when Judiciary chair Perry Bullard, D-Ann Arbor, said the House might delay action on one measure — Senate Bill 95, sponsored by Rudy Nichols, R-Waterford. Nichols' bill, which already has passed the Senate, would tighten circuit court procedures for handling revoked license appeals.
Bullard said Nichols' bill "will be held on the House floor to make sure the Senate doesn't violate the spirit of the agreement."
That led Republican Rep. Tom Power of Traverse City to quip: "Will the Senate bill be a guest, Mr. Chairman, or a hostage?" — a reference to Iraqi leader Saddam Hussein's calling trapped foreigners "guests."
"It will be studied," Bullard replied.
Under legislative rules, the Senate probably will be unable to act on the bills during the current three-week session, which ends tonight. Action is likely in the post-election session.
On center stage for praise from Bullard and Mothers Against Drunk Driving (MADD) was Rep. Michael Nye, R-Litchfield, sponsor of HB 4942. It creates new felonies — 15 years for causing death while driving drunk and five years for causing long-term, incapacitating injury.
According to Bullard's staff, the bills, if enacted and signed by the governor, would:
● Allow administrative lifting of the license of any driver failing a Breathalyzer test. The driver will receive a temporary permit until the case is resolved — assuring swift sanctions.
● Require the secretary of state to suspend the license of a driver found to have more than 0.10 percent blood alcohol if court proceedings aren't completed in a limited time. Purpose is to keep defendants from delaying their cases.
● Require a 30-day mandatory suspension for one convicted of driving under the influence of liquor with no possibility of a "restricted" license for driving to work.
● Eliminate court restoration of suspended and revoked licenses in so-called "hardship" cases.

Someone Is Taking Lots Of Money Out Of Your Checking Account.

Your Bank.

At Standard Federal, we think that you — not your bank — should take money out of your checking account. So we have low minimum balance requirements and no checkwriting fees, no matter how many checks you write.

As the chart shows, our minimum balance requirement for free Regular Checking is just $250.00. That's lower than the average of five other major area banks. They also charge you more — and we save you more — if you dip below the minimum. And we offer you a variety of other ways to enjoy free checking, too.

The bottom line: The most you can pay annually for Standard Federal Regular Checking is $36.00. Our five competitors' average fees are $177.60. What more can we say?

Plenty. We offer free ATM use at over 150 locations including select Standard Federal branch offices and participating 7-Eleven stores. And right now, we'll pay you up to $10.00 for your unused checks from another bank when you open any checking account with us — Regular, Interest-Bearing or Money Market.

Cabinet maker caters to variety of homeowners

By RICK KEATING
Special Writer

Dan Mansfield, owner of Mansfield Cabinets in Novi, feels complete customer satisfaction is as important as a profit margin. "We strive for customer satisfaction. We believe in it and want customers to be satisfied."

Mansfield, like his father and grandfather, was a journeyman carpenter. In 1976, what is now Mansfield Cabinets began with Mansfield and his father working out of a garage on 12 Mile Road in Novi where Toys 'R Us now stands. From there, they moved to two leased buildings in Novi before acquiring their own shop, which the Mansfields built themselves.

Mansfield said the company has prospered by "working hard for people, trying to back our products. Whatever we sell, we try to back up. We have grown along with the community. We've learned how to provide what the community is asking... We plan on being here a long time and we want to do a good job for people."

"We offer a full custom shop," said

Mansfield. "We build Formica counter tops and Du Pont Corian counter tops. We build custom cabinets. We also customize stock cabinets."

Stock cabinets are usually available within a day. Mansfield carries in stock cabinets from such companies as Merillat and Brookhaven, as well as their own custom Formica cabinets.

Of the custom cabinets, which usually take six to eight weeks for delivery, Mansfield offers products by Woodmode and Rutt, which he describes as among the finest in custom cabinets.

Woodmode has two lines: an 84 series, which is a contemporary, frameless line; and a 42 series which is a more traditional line. According to Mansfield, many people prefer the traditional 42 series.

"We take very particular pride in our countertops," Mansfield said. "We feel we're one of the top countertop people around . . . and our customers feel that way too."

In making cabinet and countertop choices, customers can select countertop color, with many choices available for both Formica and Wilsonart. They can also choose wood species—such as oak, maple, cherry or pine—the color of stain on the wood, and the door design.

"You can truly customize your kitchen to your own tastes," Mansfield said. "That's where a big company can't compete with us. Their attention to detail is not there."

Offering a kitchen for everyone's budget, Mansfield said that "People have become aware of the fact that they get their money back out of a kitchen and bath. The real estate studies show that the best places to put your remodeling dollars are the kitchen and bath. People are becoming well aware of that. We find a lot of people, when we go in, have already determined their budget."

Mansfield has noticed that people like the feature items like roll-out shelves and tilt trays. They all seem to be very popular these days.

Generally speaking, Mansfield Cabinets offers a one-year warranty on its products, but they've been known to fix things long after the warranty has expired. "We want to keep a good name in the community," Mansfield said. "So we try to fix things."

Mansfield Cabinets provides a large builder network of cabinets and countertops for new homes. They've also done quite a few celebrities' kitchens via shipping. Mansfield has shipped his custom displays to Tokyo.

Mansfield has, however, no plans to expand his business to include other locations, feeling that it would lose the personal touch.

Mansfield Cabinets is located at 45033 Grand River in Novi. Showroom hours are 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday, and Saturday 9 a.m. to 1 p.m.

"People are welcome to come to the showroom and just browse," Mansfield said. "They don't necessarily have to buy anything."

Money goes fast when you're away at college

When it comes to financing a college education, most of us focus on the big picture: tuition, room and board. But once school is underway, miscellaneous expense such as shampoo and soap, utilities, late night snacks and transportation can total hundreds of dollars and put a strain on any college student's budget.

To be sure you're not left holding an empty wallet, the Michigan Association of Certified Public Accountants (MACPA) suggests that you develop a realistic budget that zeroes in on those easily overlooked expenses.

The first step in creating a budget is calculating the amount of money you have available to spend. If you're like most students you probably have four possible sources of funds: a part-time job, a savings account, a monthly allowance supplied by parents and scholarship or loan funds (or what's left after paying for tuition, room and board).

Now comes the hard part—planning for expenses. To simplify the budgeting process, break down your expenses into categories such as books, supplies and lab fees, meals, transportation, clothing, toiletries, utilities, and entertainment. Make sure you include both fixed expenses (such as rent) and variable expenses (such as insurance payments and automobile repair bills).

Next, estimate how much money you will need to cover each category of expenses. For instance, to calculate the cost of books for a semester, visit a local bookstore and price the books on your required reading lists. Be sure to include lab fees associated with specific course work. Then, estimate your school supply needs, such as typewriter and computer ribbons, computer disks, notebooks, pens and calculators.

Even if you are on a meal plan, reserve some budget dollars for those midnight snacks. If you can't resist brezing through McDonald's golden arches for an Egg McMuffin each morning, make sure you include the cost in your budget.

Whether you are commuting or living in a dorm, you will have to contend with transportation expenses. Calculate how much a visit home costs, and how many visits you plan to make. Talk to your parents and find out if they are willing, or able, to car. estimate how much gas you may use each week. Is it likely the car will need repairs, or even a tune-up, sometime during the year? Make sure you also plan for those hefty insurance payments that pop up every few months.

If you are living away from home, remember that you will now have to pay for such basic necessities as toothpaste, shampoo and laundry. Although these items seem insignificant, they can add up to a sizable sum by year's end.

Other expenses to consider are utility bills. If these are not included in your room and board fees, ask other students to give you a basic estimate of how much you can expect to spend. And, of course, no budget is complete until it includes entertainment expenses. If you are a movie buff, don't forget to reserve a few dollars for an occasional night out at the local cinema.

Money Management

Try to estimate expenses realistically and, as a safeguard against unexpected costs, increase your total by 10 percent. In any case, you won't be sure that your estimate is on target until you've tested it a few months. So try your budget out and see how it fits. During the first month or two, jot down every dime you spend so you know where your money is going and whether your budget figures are accurate. If the same patterns continue the following month, adjust your budget accordingly.

Now for the big exam question. What if you find that you simply can't make ends meet? The answer is elementary—you have to increase your income or decrease your expenses.

First, try to find a part-time job. Another option is creating your own business. Some schools offer venture-capital funds to help launch student entrepreneurs. Students have successfully initiated businesses to fill obvious needs, such as typing term papers, running a wake-up call service or even house-sitting. Whatever venture you pursue, remember to keep your academic priorities in mind.

Now, what about trimming those expenses? Although you may think you are living on a bare-bones budget, you will be surprised at how much you can still cut back. Often, your college ID card can be the key to discounts on food, entertainment, haircuts and even school supplies. Don't hesitate to ask whenever paying for goods or services.

Shop for food and toiletries wisely, taking advantage of sales and coupons. To save on transportation costs, plan ahead and you may be able to purchase super saver air fares. Find out if buses and railroads in your area offer discounts to student travelers. To trim your hefty phone bills, shop around for the company offering the best long-distance rates—and make your calls at non-peak times, when rates tend to be lower.

To ease the burden of those textbook bills, buy used books through the bookstore or from other students. But plan on shopping early, because supplies of used books are generally limited.

CPAs also advise you to set up a bank account nearby. Shop around for the bank that best meets your needs. In comparing, consider such convenience factors as location, hours and automated teller machines, as well as savings rates and checking charges. In addition, find out whether the bank offers special student discounts, such as no-fee checking.

With a little bit of planning, you can stretch your dollars further than you may now imagine possible. For more assistance in building a budget, you can request a copy of the "Budget and Cash Flow Worksheet" from the MACPA. Send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request to the Michigan Association of Certified Public Accountants, P.O. Box 9054, Farmington Hills 48333.

The Prichard Family English manor mixes country charm with city style

By James McAlexander

Like an English manor, the Prichard puts a good night's sleep above a good time had by all. Atop this two-story home, a fireplace-equipped master suite and other bedrooms stand ready to revitalize a spent family with a good night's sleep. Below this private area, the main floor yields to both formal entertaining and less-formal pursuits, like lounging over coffee and a Sunday morning paper.

Built for a family, this three-car garage, low-slung looker combines luxury with livability—all on a city lot. From the back of picture windows in front to the spacious entryway, the Prichard's open layout spells elbow room.

Visitors step down into a sunlit dappled living room graced with vaulted ceilings. After cocktails, amble next door to the dining room, which opens onto the deck.

For the chef using this gourmet kitchen, pleasing the fussiest plate comes easy. Be it a hot dog or a Caesar salad, culinary delights spring to life in this magic corner of the house. The kitchen combines a country view with big-city sophistication.

An island boasting a second "vegetable sink" means extra hands can join in the cooking. Also, a full pantry provides food for rainy days. For more private moments, the nook acts as that perfect in-house hide-away where a beat parent can savor mid-morning tea and relish a chapter of the who-done-it mystery.

If the nook means solitude, the family room—complete with wet bar—means marathon Monopoly games or singing Christmas carols around the tree and fireplace.

But upstairs, it's sweet dreams amid cozy comforters and thoughtful design. The master suite features a sitting room for those pensive moods and a walk-in closet for those fashion moods. Throw in a double-sink vanity and a huge shower, and the Prichard's billpayers have what they deserve: luxury.

Another two-sink vanity in the Prichard's third full bathroom separates the other two bedrooms. And there's enough storage space for any king's ransom.

For a study plan of the Prichard (209-32), send $5 to landmark Designs, P.O. Box 2307 CN, Eugene, OR 97402. (Be sure to specify plan name and number when ordering.)

The cut-away drawing of this Tri-steel house shows the features of the steel frame features. They include: 1. bolt together steel columns and rafters; 2. metal roof purlins; 3. eight-inch steel stud system for exterior walls; 4. metal framing components for all dormers, roof and porch saddles; 5. metal subfloor material for roof overhangs; 6. 3 5/8-inch metal studs and track for interior walls; 7. metal furring channels for ceiling

Residential construction is borrowing a page from the office and commercial construction industry manual — steel framing. Steel frame homes, nearly unheard of in Michigan, may become a more important part of home construction as wood prices rise.

Kevin Adams, a former Farmington Hills resident and a builder of steel frame homes in Onsted near Irish Hills, stressed steel frame homes are not pre-fab or modular homes.

"They look exactly like conventional wood frame homes when completed," Adams started building homes six months ago and chose steel framing because his background in mechanical engineering leads him to believe there are advantages to steel frame homes.

"The main advantage of steel is the strength of materials," Adams said. Greater strength allows larger spans — which create more open space within the home — and more flexible floor plans because interior walls are not needed to support weight.

Steel frame homes are also more energy efficient because, since the steel frames are wider than wood studs, they permit a greater degree of insulation in the walls and ceilings, he said. "The insulation also creates a quieter home," Adams said.

Steel frame homes are built so tight they require an air-to-air heat exchanger — a filtering system that allows old, stale air to leave the home while transferring heat from the exiting air to the incoming air.

And finally, there is perhaps an environmental reason for building steel frame as opposed to wood homes, Adams said.

"I used to live in Oregon and if you've ever seen the barren mountains that used to have trees on them, you have to wonder where all the wood has gone."

STEEL THIS HOUSE

Adams said that business is still slow, but he's optimistic that steel frame homes will take off.

"I've had a lot of inquiries, but most people are waiting to see some finished homes before making any decisions."

New Ideas take time, he said, adding that he plans to build mainly custom homes at first, but intends to branch out into subdivisions as business grows.

William Ku, president of architectural firm Yamasaki Associates in Troy, said that 30 years ago he tried his hand at building steel frame homes because "it was a time of experimentation — it was during the building boom (of the late 1950s and early 1960s) war, and people were building different ways to see what could be done."

Ultimately, it was not practical, Ku said. "You just couldn't compete with the other builders."

"With one or two houses, it can work — it's not so much of a problem, but with larger projects building steel frame homes was too expensive, and the steel was harder to work with," he said.

"It was all right for small-scale building, but not for normal, mass-production housing," Ku said.

The main advantage of steel framing — its strength — was not enough to outweigh the advantage of wood — its cost.

"You would see it in high rise residential housing and commercial and office, but not homes."

Wood has had sufficient strength for most residential homes because load-bearing and exterior walls do not need to hold up as much weight as large apartment, commercial and office buildings.

Steel does offer some advantages because of its greater strength and resistance to termites, Ku continued, but unless the cost is brought down substantially, he doubts steel frame homes will ever catch on.

But all that may be changing, according to Richard Calooy of Tri-Steel Structure Inc., a Dallas firm that specializes in steel frame home packages.

In the last decade, wood prices have increased and steel prices have remained stable or have fallen, Calooy said.

Furthermore, the quality of wood today has suffered, Calooy said.

"The Grade A wood of today is not the same Grade A wood of yesterday,"

In the past, wood frame homes were built from mature trees. Today's wood frame homes are made from relatively young trees, he said. Wood from immature trees warps more and has less strength.

The quality of steel can be made consistent, Calooy said.

Steel frame homes can also be less expensive, he said. Because steel can be pre-engineered, it can be assembled quickly. Also, because less steel is required to achieve the strength and durability of wood, steel is lighter.

In some cases, he said, wood is still cheaper. "Once (the house) gets below 2,500 square feet, it's probably faster and cheaper to go with wood because you can't take advantage of the economies of scale."

In homes larger than 2,500 square feet, steel frame homes are also built at a comparable price to wood frame homes, generally costing $60 to $80 per square foot, he said.

While materials are slightly more expensive, simplicity and ease of assembly helps even out the costs, Calooy said.

Steel frame homes are sent in component form, and are "stick-built" on site just as a conventional wood frame home is built, but pieces are pre-sized pre-drilled and labeled.

Calooy said geography and traditional building practices dictate the use of steel as opposed to wood framing in homes, which is why Michigan homes are predominantly made from wood frames.

"It's not as bizarre as people think it is," he said. "Steel frame homes are fairly common (in the Southwest) and in the Southeast."

Michigan has always had a great deal of wood in its forests so builders use the most available natural resource, he said. In the Southwest and Southeast, where steel frame homes have been more the norm, there is less wood available for home construction.

Second, Calooy said, Michigan builders are just in the habit of building wood frame homes. "That's a major obstacle. With a lot of builders, their fathers built wood frame homes, and they've always done it that way, too. That's what they're used to."

REAL ESTATE

Seniors have a variety of home options

By James M. Woodard

Seniors have more housing options today than ever before.

For seniors over age 62, special financing plans are now available to build a second "accessory apartment" in a single-family home. The apartment, containing a room, bath and private entrance could provide the senior independence and privacy but with nearby help from a tenant if needed.

Special financing also is available to build a separate, self-contained housing unit on the lot of an existing home of a relative. Or a senior could convert his home into a multi-housing structure with up to four units.

Still another option for seniors is to receive favorable financing when selling his or her home to a family member or investor, then leasing it back (sale-leaseback arrangement). This allows the senior to receive proceeds of the sale without moving.

Financing for all these situations is provided through a special pilot program launched late last year by the Federal National Mortgage Association — Fannie Mae. It's called the Senior Housing Opportunities (SHO) program.

The loans, giving seniors favorable terms and greater qualification leniency, are available from primary mortgage lenders in all 50 states. After the loans are funded, they can be sold by the lender to Fannie Mae, the nation's largest investor in home mortgages.

It's not surprising that Fannie Mae and other agencies and companies are developing new housing programs for seniors. Seniors constitute the fastest-growing segment of our market.

In 1988, seniors age 65 and older made up about 12.4 percent of the U.S. population, according to the American Association of Retired Persons (AARP). That translates to one in every eight Americans or about 30.4 million people.

By the year 2000, about 13 percent of the population — or 34.9 million Americans — will be 65 or older. By the year 2030, the number will climb to about 21.8 percent, or 65.6 million Americans.

Another increasingly popular plan whereby seniors can receive financial assistance and still continue to own and reside in their established residence is the use of a reverse mortgage.

This concept provides senior homeowners (age 62 or older) the opportunity to receive monthly tax-free payments from a mortgage company by tapping the accumulated equity in their home. And in the most popular reverse mortgage plans, those payments continue for the life of the person or as long as he or she owns and resides in the home.

A study by AARP revealed that 56 percent of seniors in the United States are now aware of reverse mortgages. And that "awareness proportion" is steadily growing.

The same AARP survey indicated that 86 percent of today's senior homeowners prefer to remain in their own homes after retirement. That segment of seniors is up from 78 percent in 1986, reflecting a substantial increase.

The typical reverse mortgage user is a widow or widower, age 75, according to James H. Burke, president of American Homestead Mortgage Corp., based in Mount Laurel, N.J. — the pioneer firm in providing reverse mortgages for senior homeowners.

That typical user owns a home valued at $150,000 and receives about $750 per month tax-free from American Homestead. Burke's firm has provided more long-term (lifetime) reverse mortgages for seniors than all other plans combined.

"A reverse mortgage is not for all seniors," Burke noted. "But for the increasing number of seniors who want to remain in their own home and need added monthly income, it often works out very well."

Q. How can military reservists who are called to active duty in the Persian Gulf continue to make their home mortgage payments?

A. A little-known law will help. Many existing mortgages are eligible for reduced interest charges during the time the reservists are on active duty. This is covered under a provision of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act.

Loans that qualify under the ACT may have their interest rates reduced to 6 percent during the reservists' tour of active duty. The difference between the actual and reduced interest rate is "forgiven." It cannot be collected.

Borrowers should check with their lender to determine if their mortgage loan qualifies.

Q. Is it true that most home mortgage lenders insist that any person who co-signs a mortgage note must be a resident in the house securing the loan?

A. Yes and no. If the mortgage loan is 90 percent or more of the property's market value and the lender plans to sell the mortgage to Fannie Mae, he insists that a co-signer be a resident in the house.

That's a Fannie Mae requirement. Otherwise, it doesn't matter whether a qualified signer is a resident or not.

Your lamp stand was a fairly good investment

By James G. McCollam

Q. This walnut lamp stand with square legs is 29 inches high and the top measures 17 by 20 inches. It was purchased in Ohio for $45 in 1971.

When it was made and what would it cost today?

A. This stand was made in the mid-19th century and would probably cost $265 to $285 today in an antique shop. Since that beats inflation, it was a fairly good investment.

Q. The attached mark is on the bottom of a figural group consisting of a boy in a sailor suit and a girl in an old-fashioned blue and white dress. The figures are 13 and 12 inches tall.

I would appreciate your opinion of their value. Do you know what the mark means?

A. Your figurines were made by the Gebrüder Heubach (Heubach brothers) in Lichte, Germany, during the late 1800s. A dealer would probably price them at $400 to $500 for the pair.

Q. I have a bronze figure of a young boy dressed in a suit. He has both hands in his pockets and is holding a violin under his arm. It is

This lamp stand, purchased in 1971 for $45, is worth nearly $285 at today's prices.

16 inches tall including a wood base. It is signed "J. Garnier."

Can you tell me anything about the origin and value of my young violinist?

A. Jean Garnier was a well-known French sculptor in the 19th century. He probably modeled the original clay figure about 1875.

Your bronze statue was probably cast from the original around 1900. I find pieces similar to this selling for $500 to $600.

Q. We have a bisque finish cookie jar that is marked with crown and wreath, "Royal" above the crown, "F.M." inside the wreath, "Bon, Germany" below. It is decorated with lavender and pink flowers with gold trim.

Can you tell me when this was made and its current value?

A. Royal Bonn porcelain was made in a factory established in 1755 by Franz Mehlem. Your cookie jar was made in the early 1900s and would probably sell for about $100 to $110.

Q. We have an Ingraham banjo clock that has two round wooden pots on each instead of the usual brass brackets. Can you determine when it was made and what it might sell for?

A. Apparently you have the Ingraham "Nile" model made about 1900. It is currently selling for $265 to $285 in good condition.

Tulips for Valentine's Day

By Patrick Denton

Today I have some thoughts on potted tulips and a children's project to share with my gardening friends.

For tulips by Valentine's Day:

Planting the first week of October, using a carefully chosen variety, will yield a pot of tulips to enjoy in bloom or to give as a special gift on Valentine's Day. Here are some commonly available varieties that are well-suited for this project.

Paul Richter is an excellent choice in scarlet for potted Valentine tulips. Stockholm has orange-red double flowers. Prominence is deep red, Preludium rosy pink. Charles is a scarlet single early tulip—Christmas Marvel is cherry pink. Monte Carol is a double yellow tulip. Attila Purplish violet. Apricot Beauty a salmon rose. Merry Widow is red-edged in white.

Given roughly 16 weeks for rooting in darkness at temperatures near 13 F, tulip bulbs potted the first week of October can be brought out during the fourth week in January for bloom at Valentine's Day.

For a really nice show of bloom, set the bulbs as close as possible on top of a layer of planting mix in the pot. Just watch they are not touching each other or the pot sides. Arrange them so that their tips rest about rim level or just slightly below, and set the flat side of the bulbs facing the pot rim so that the big lower leaf that emerges from that side will develop toward the outside of the pot.

Six to seven tulip bulbs will fit in a pot 6 inches wide. For a larger arrangement plant 10 to 12 bulbs in a pot 8 inches wide.

Keep the planting mix moist during the cold rooting period. When roots show through the drainage holes and top growth has started, bring the pots into a cool, dim place for a few days so that the plants can start adjusting to warmer temperatures and light.

Then set the pot in a bright place with coolish room temperatures for bloom. Keep the soil moist, and turn the pot regularly for even growth.

A child's garden

Have you ever noticed little boxes of alfalfa sprouts in the fresh vegetable section of the grocery store, or seen sandwiches made in a cafeteria-style restaurant with these little sprouts? They're full of vitamins and minerals and are very fast and easy to grow at home. In fact, the sprouts are usually ready to eat in just five days.

You can buy alfalfa seeds for sprouting in health stores, where you will also find special sprouting lids that fit any glass jar that also fits a wide-mouth canning lid. These lids are handy, but a piece of cheesecloth or fine netting can also be used over the jar top.

Start to project by putting 2 tablespoons of the tiny seeds into a clean jar. Cover them with about a half cup of water and let them soak for about five hours (or overnight).

Before draining the water away, fit the jar top with a cover of cheesecloth of fine netting held with a canning ring or a rubber band. If you have a set of special sprout tops, screw the one with the smallest holes in the jar. Now you can empty the water without washing the seeds away. I save this soaking water for my plants, because it's so rich in good things that plants like. This water is also good for adding to soups, stews and gravy.

Now give the seeds a rinse. Just hold the jar with its cover on under the tap and let slightly warm, not chilly, water run into the jar. Swish the seeds around a little and empty the jar. Do this every morning and evening. Keep the jar right in the dish drainer by the sink.

As the sprouts grow, they will throw off their seed coverings. By the third or fourth day, you will be able to rinse most of these away if you want to by changing to a top with slightly larger holes and filling and swishing the jar to let the seed covers (the hulls) float out the top.

When the sprouts are 1 to 2 inches long, rinse the seeds with cold water. Put the fine screen back on the jar and store the sprouts right in the jar in the fridge. A cold water rinse will freshen sprouts stored this way, but try to use them as soon as possible. They're good in salads and floated on soup as well as in sandwiches.

Clothing Drive

The First Presbyterian Church of Northville will be holding its annual clothing drive Oct. 8 and 15 from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Clothing should be in bags and can be dropped off at the church.

The clothing will be distributed to the Fort Street Presbyterian Church in Detroit in conjunction with their weekly soup kitchen.

During the week, clothing can be dropped off at the church.

Historic Tour

Northville Newcomers are organizing a Ladies' Day Historic Tour of Detroit for Wednesday, Oct. 17 from 9:15 a.m. to 3 p.m. The tour group will travel by bus and meet in the parking lot in front of the China Fair restaurant on Seven Mile Road. In the event of emergency call 331-6740. Reservations will be taken until Oct. 3. The cost of the tour is $28 per person, and includes luncheon at Fisher House. For more information contact Carrie Semeyn, 349-1207.

Town Hall Series

The Northville Town Hall Series will be starting back up again with some exciting speakers for the 1990-91 season. The first speaker, actress Nannette Fabray, will be today, Oct. 11. She will be followed by: Col. Charles Scott, a former hostage in Iran, on Nov. 8; on March 21, former Miss America Kaye Lari Rae Ralfo (this has been changed from the original date of March 14); and on April 11, veteran NBC news person Jack Reynolds will speak.

A season ticket to hear all four speakers is $30. Checks should be made payable to Northville Town Hall and sent to Ticket Chair Bonnie DeWan, Northville Town Hall, P.O. Box 93, Northville 48167. Please mark the outside of the envelopes with ticket orders "Attention Ticket Chairman."

Box 93, Northville 48167. Please mark the outside of the envelope with orders for luncheon and speaker tickets, "Attention Ticket and Luncheon Chairman."

For more information contact Marshall, who is handling the event during the month of October, at 349-9026.

Also, anyone ordering tickets for the speaker series or the luncheons is asked to enclose a self-addressed, stamped envelope for the ticket chairpersons to return your tickets in. The committee is non-profit and has been spending too much money on return postage for those forgetting to do so.

Dinner Theatre

Key Konkotions

A Northville jewelry maker, Michael Key, will talk about his work and display his "Konkotions by Key" at the Friday, Oct. 19 meeting of the Northville Woman's Club.

Members will meet at 1:30 at the First Presbyterian Church and because of church renovations are asked to use the Church Street entrance.

In addition to his lapidary and silversmithing, Key brings to his work an interest in collecting stones in Utah and the Wasatch Mountains of the Western Rockies. He found that the colors and patterns found in the West were similar to those caused by glacial movement in Michigan.

An active member of the Northville Arts Commission, Key directed and organized the fourth annual Art Market facet of the recent Victorian Festival.

Key's love of the outdoors has fostered his interest in orienteering, mushrooming, outdoor survival and photography. His indoor interests include computing and woodworking.

Key has put his master's degree in social work to use as Commissioner of Scouting for the Handicapped, as well as running two Boy Scout troops, one in Northville, the other in Detroit.

Members may bring guests to the meeting, where Key's work will be displayed.

Art Exhibit

J. Giordano Gallery announces the opening of a new exhibition featuring the works of award winning artist Tom Roy, Saturday, Oct. 13, 1990 from noon to 4 p.m. J. Giordano

Clockwise from lower left, Grace Pollock, Barbara Bergum, Ruth Borset, Pat Eden, Lane Norton and Esther Cockin display some of the goods that will be available at the Holly Mart Bazaar.

Gallery is located at 426 S. Main St., Northville. Visitors are encouraged to meet the artist and enjoy refreshments at the opening. The exhibit will continue until Friday, Nov. 9, 1990.

Tom Roy has been painting and drawing in various media for the past 30 years in the Detroit metropolitan area. His work can be seen in many parts of the country, and on television, where his work as an animator and electronic graphics artist can be seen on many national and local commercials.

As the former owner of Tom Roy Graphics, Roy produced hundreds of animation spots for television, including the long running opening for the "Kelly & Co." show (seen on Channel 7 in Detroit), which has run since 1977.

The exhibit at J. Giordano Gallery will feature examples of Roy's oils, watercolors, cartoons, wearable art, pen and ink and pencil drawings, and promises to be a highly entertaining presentation.

PTA News/Northville High School

The school year at Northville High School was off to a great start with an open house to welcome freshmen and new students and their parents. Good luck to the Northville High family for the new school year.

The week of Oct. 1 was Homecoming Week with the theme being "Under the Sea." Student congress headed committees with lunchtime activities, dress-up days, class competitions, and a shoe kick at the stadium.

Each class and organization or club has built a float symbolizing Mustang victory and keeping with the "Under the Sea" theme. Friday's Homecoming assembly recognized all scholastic achievers and athletic teams.

The Homecoming parade was Friday evening, followed by the football game with the king, queen and court presentation at halftime. Saturday's Homecoming dance was in the cafeteria.

People who made Homecoming so great are Homecoming Chairperson Jason Sherman; class competition, the varsity cheerleaders; pep assembly, Karen Vogt and Jeni Couzens; lunchtime activities and daily dress-up, Robyn Davis and Lisa Hohnacki; float building, Tim Duff and Joe Kontuly; publicity, Stacey Segowski; dance, Laura Whiteley and Katie Crawford; parade, Beth Ursel; king and queen, Amy Currie and Mark Hilfinger; escort cars, Dave Smith; and halftime activities, Keith Jacobsen.

Parent/teacher conferences are Oct. 16 from 4 to 7 p.m. for students whose last name begins with A through K, and on Oct. 18 from 4 to 7 p.m. for students whose last name begins with L through Z.

The following grade 12 students have been recognized as commended students in the National Merit Scholarship Program: Matt Beemer, Peter Beyersdorf, Clair Cryderman, Adam Fisher, Robert Holloway, Amanda Parke, and Jason Sherman.

About 35,000 commended students nationwide are being honored for their outstanding performance on the 1989 PSAT/NMSQT, which places them in the top five percent of more than one million students who entered the 1991 Merit Program by taking the qualifying test. Commended students scored slightly below the level required to continue in the competition for scholarships, but they have shown exceptional academic promise.

College Night will be held at Schoolcraft College on Oct. 9. Students will be able to visit representatives from 63 different colleges and universities.

The Oct. 19 football game will feature District Band Night during halftime. Bands from high schools and junior highs will perform.

The Fine Arts Department has an exciting year lined up. The choir concert at 7:30 p.m. Oct. 25 in the auditorium will be the first of many such nights.

The Fine Arts Department at Northville High is also proud to announce the comedy play "The Man Who Came to Dinner." Show times are 8 p.m. Nov. 15, 16 and 17 and at 3 p.m. Sunday, Nov. 18. Look for tickets to be on sale the last week in October. Mark your family calendar and join us for an exciting evening. Tickets are $4 for students and senior citizens and $5 for other adults.

The SADD Haunted Forest Walk at Maybury State Park will be held from 7 to 10 p.m. Oct. 26 and 27. Admission is $5, which includes cider and doughnuts.

The Western Lakes Activities Association is sponsoring a dinner hosted by Northville High School at 5:30 p.m. Nov. 1. Between 150 and 200 coaches will be honored that night and will have an opportunity to hear nationally recognized motivational speaker Mike Smith.

The WLAA will take 40 student leaders from clubs and classes to a leadership conference at Oakland Community College on Nov. 2. Student leaders from all 12 high schools will be involved in leadership workshops the entire day. Mike Smith will also be the guest speaker at this conference.

The next Parent Advisory meeting will be at 9 a.m. Oct. 31. Please join us. Helen Ghannam

The Northville Record will again publish "PTA News" on Thursdays this year, on the following schedule: First Thursday of the month, private/parochial schools; second Thursday, Northville High School; third Thursday, middle schools; and fourth Thursday, elementary schools. All schools are encouraged to participate. Submit articles, including name and phone number of the writer, to 104 W. Main, Northville, MI 48167. For more information call 349-1700.

Iris Kampf tells of the days when Mother's Club first started

Member recounts club beginnings

By CRISTINA FERRIER
Staff Writer

If it weren't for impulsive spending, it never would have happened.

The Northville Mother's Club — a group of volunteers who devote time and fundraising efforts to the Northville Public Schools — actually began when some slick salespeople sold expensive books on raising children to four young women during the Depression.

"We were just thrilled because with those books we were going to raise our children just wonderfully," recalled Iris Kampf of Northville, one of the four founding members of the club. "Then we sat down and had a cup of tea and we said, 'Oh my gosh, how are we going to pay for it?' We thought our husbands would be so angry."

The club, with a $20 admission fee, was an invention to pay for the books.

"We decided to start the club and charge $20 to join," she said. "It was the Depression and we were all bored, so we decided to go ahead and start it."

"As far as doing anything for the public or charity or anything like that — it never entered our heads. We just had a really good time."

Iris was one of several "life members" invited to share their memories and experiences with the current Mother's Club Oct. 1. She recalled that the club she and her friends started would have speakers (University of Michigan provided them for free) and would take their children on picnics and other outings.

"We really would have good speakers," she said. "We had an obstetrician come down from Detroit. He was really nice looking."

"Two of the women were very pregnant, so they were very embarrassed. But he was very nice and congratulated them and told them how well they carried themselves."

"We were just thrilled because with those books we were going to raise our children just wonderfully . . . Then we sat down and had a cup of tea and we said, 'Oh my gosh, how are we going to pay for it?' We thought our husbands would be so angry."

IRIS KAMPF
Northville Mother's Club co-founder

Iris said the club never stopped providing a good experience for its members.

"It really was a fun club, but I really thought it never should have been started," she said. "We really couldn't afford those books." They cost $240.

"When they finally came — oh, they were pretty," she said. "They were a lovely blue and they looked so nice sitting on the shelf."

"But we hardly even looked at them. We never read them."

The books were eventually donated to the Northville Public Library.

"But it almost seems to me we had a little magic, the four of us who started that club . . . and I do think we brought up our children very well."

Favorite author will be at Border's Bookstore

Critically acclaimed children's author and illustrator Tomie DePaola will sign copies of his newest book, Tomie DePaola's Book of Bible Stories, at Borders Book Shop in the Novi Town Center Thursday, October 11, from 7 to 9 p.m.

DePaola will sign all books purchased during the signing, or up to two books brought in from homes, schools or libraries.

DePaola, who won a Caldecott Medal for Strega Nona, was born in 1934 in Meriden, Connecticut, to a family of Irish and Italian descent.

Although he has received many honors, including the Catholic Library Association's Regina Medal for his "continued distinguished contribution," he said he most cherishes the distinction of having more books than any other author on the International Reading Association's Children's Choice list, which is chosen annually by children themselves.

Other popular titles by DePaola include The Art Lesson and The Legend of the Indian Paintbrush.

"A good children's artist-author is the storyteller of a new era — of today," DePaola said. "And that's what I want to be more than anything else in the world."

Gathering to honor Chamberlain anniversary

On Sunday, Oct. 14, people of the community and First Presbyterian Church will gather in the church sanctuary at 5 p.m. to honor and give thanks to Larry Chamberlain for his 25 years of ministry.

Chamberlain has been senior minister at First Presbyterian since 1981. Before coming to Northville, he was senior minister of First United Presbyterian Church in Salem, Ohio. Prior to that he was senior minister at the Kenwood Park Presbyterian Church in Cedar Rapids, Iowa. His first church was the First Presbyterian Church at Broadalbin, N.Y.

He is a graduate of Princeton Theological Seminary in Princeton, N.J.

He also holds a bachelor-of-music degree from Westminster Choir College of Princeton. He is active in the Presbyterian Church structure and in the Northville community.

Sunday's observance will begin with a program in the sanctuary from 5 to 6 p.m., followed by a reception in the fellowship hall. Special guests will include William Whitledge, pastor emeritus of St. Paul, coming from Florida; Jack Cooper, director of the continuing education center at Princeton; Lloyd Brasure, pastor emeritus of First Presbyterian of Northville; Nell Harper, a former associate minister of First Presbyterian; and many others.

Everyone is welcome. For more information, call the church at 349-0911.

School News/Private schools

The Parent Teacher League of St. Paul's Lutheran School has begun the year with a variety of activities.

Following opening day chapel service, we enjoyed greeting parents new to our school, and fellowship with familiar faces at our "Welcome Back Coffee." The following week, on Sept. 11, we gathered for a "Fall Family Picnic" potluck organized by Mary Rhee. After dinner we had an opportunity to sign up for volunteer activities, visit classrooms, and receive our PTL handbook/school directory compiled by Julie Stricker, membership committee chairperson.

The Victorian Festival provided the setting for our first fund-raiser for 1990-91. Working jointly with St. Paul's Women's Guild we were pleased to sell nearly 1,500 pieces of pie at our pie booth. Our thanks to the many bakers, booth workers and pie eaters that made this project such a success.

The community is invited to attend St. Paul's second annual Oktoberfest, presented jointly by our PTL and Aid Association for Lutherans. It will be held from noon to 4 p.m. Sunday, Oct. 14 in the school gym, located behind Hardee's at 201 Elm St. The menu offers bratwurst, meatballs, ham, German potato salad, sauerkraut, au gratin potatoes, corn, salad, beverages, dessert, and more.

Highlighting the afternoon will be German dancing, German songs sung by children, and games. Profits will go toward building improvements in the educational wing. For more information or tickets (also available at the door) call 349-3146.

Thanks to the families of St. Paul's who diligently sold goodies from Zehnders of Frankenmuth for the fall fund-raiser. Sales are concluding and look positive. Kudos also to Cassandra Shackelford, booster committee chairperson, for organizing this event.

Events to look forward to include the annual rummage sale Nov. 9 and 10; a cookbook of St. Paul's favorite recipes; a Christian Athletes speaker; and a film series to focus on the Christian family.

This looks to be an exciting year for St. Paul's. The Parent Teacher League has chosen a theme of "Growing in Christ" for the year, and has many events planned to help in this endeavor.

Musical earns standing ovations

"Broadway Bables and Phantoms," currently showing at the Marquis Theatre, rated standing ovations at both of last weekend's opening shows, according to theatre owner Inge Zaytl.

The show is just wonderful and the people loved it," she said. "It was so neat to see a spontaneous standing ovation like that. The people just jumped up off their feet."

The musical revue includes show-stopping favorites from the Broadway musicals Phantom of the Opera, Les Miserables, Showboat, Desert Song, Into the Woods, and many more. The songs are performed by professionals (including six children) in conjunction with the Michigan Opera Theatre.

Tickets are still available for Fridays, Oct. 12 and 19; Saturdays, Oct. 13 and 20; and Sundays, Oct. 14 and 21. The Friday and Saturday performances are at 8 p.m. and the Sunday performances are at 2:30 p.m. Special matinee performances will be offered Wednesday, Oct. 10 and Thursday, Oct. 18 at 2:30 p.m.

Tickets for Friday and Sunday shows are $10; Saturday shows are $11 and special matinees are $7.50.

Advance tickets may be purchased at all Ticketmaster outlets or at the Marquis Box Office.

Single Place varies from speakers to dancers

Ellens is a minister and psychologist in private practice in Farmington Hills. He has published numerous books and has lectured at Harvard and Yale Universities as well as at Fuller Theological Seminary in California.

During this seven weeks Ellens will address some of the questions that people have expressed in moving beyond divorce. It is open to any divorced or separated person of any age. All sessions meet at First Presbyterian Church.

Cost for the series is a $28 donation, which covers the cost of the speaker, notebook, refreshments and childcare.

To arrange child care, call 349-0911 at least two days ahead of the meeting.

The topics to be covered during the seven weeks include: honesty, forgiveness, trust, loneliness, intimacy, anger and self-esteem.

● On Oct. 17 Single Place Presents will welcome L. Wagner, a member of Single Place, who will be speaking on "Risking — When is a risk reasonable?"

● On Saturday, Oct. 20 enjoy an English Dinner catered by Crawford's of Northville. Then, after the dinner, Single Place will welcome back Bernie Swartz, who will lead the "Contra Dance," a form of folk dancing which takes place in lines rather than squares.

Dancing is $5 per person and may be paid at the door.

The dinner is $6.50 and all reservations, with checks, must be in the church office by Tuesday, Oct. 16.

Calling all skiers: Tell us the best spots to go

By Iris Sanderson Jones

I attended a travel marketplace sponsored by the Canadian government in Southfield last week. Canada was promoting its ski destinations.

The cold-weather professionals were all there. Western ski resorts like Banff, Lake Louise, Whistler Mountain and Big White. Eastern ski resorts like Sutton, Orford, Mont Sainte-Anne, Owl's Head, from the Eastern Townships in Quebec. Ski packagers like Skican and UTL.

Provincial tourist bureaus from Ontario and Quebec were represented, and cities ranging from Quebec City to Sault Ste. Marie. And that most popular Ontario area for Michigan skiers, Blue Mountain.

I nodded my head a lot, as if I knew what they were talking about, but the truth is that I have failed several bunny slopes in my life and finally gave up skiing. Skiers will tell you that any idiot can learn how to ski, but I prefer not to comment on that.

I had an ulterior motive in attending the show. I was looking for skiers. We're planning special winter sports pages in late November and I want to talk to all you skiers put there who strap wooden boards on your feet and slide down icy slopes in defiance of gravity.

I found a remarkable number of ski club members at the Canadian show, all of them lapping up information. Ski Angels, T-Birds, Powderhounds, Playboys, Drifters.

I found National Ski Patrol skier Bill Heinz of Milford. And several members of the Metropolitan Detroit Ski Clubs. I found lots of winter lovers, but I need more. If you ski, I need you.

I need you to tell me where your favorite ski slopes are—in Michigan and outside of Michigan. How far are you willing to go for a winter weekend? When you go out of state, do you always go west, or do you go north to Canada or east to New England? Are any of you like Bud Moore of Brighton, who usually skies in Europe?

What about cross country skiing, snowmobiling and other winter sports? Can you save my hide by sharing the places you go, where you stay and any other inside information?

Oh sure, I can fake it, write objectively about ski resorts and snow events from written literature and from having skied the unmy slopes, but you know when somebody's faking it, right?

So be my experts. Send postcards about your favorite places. Send letters about what you do while you are there, and what your non-skiing spouse does. Write me a Reader's Report, no more than two or three double-spaced pages.

If you're on the selling side of the winter travel business, send me information about your resorts or your ski trips. But do it now. We plan ahead, and November is just around the corner in this business.

Send your winter sports information to Iris Sanderson Jones, Travel Editor, 35516 Grand River, Farmington, Michigan 48335.

What else did I learn at that Canadian ski market place? If you plan any winter activities in Ontario, ask for Ontario's Winter Book, which lists alpine and cross country skiing and well as snowmobiling and ice fishing. Call toll-free (800) ONTARIO.

For the same information about the Province of Quebec (PQ) call toll-free (800) 363-7777.

Northville's Liz Kalota (right) performs as part of the cast of Captain Rudder's River Revue on the General Jackson showboat

'Opry' audition pays off for Liz Kalota

By Phyllis Kreger Stillman

Have you ever wondered if you have what it takes to become a performer?

Liz Kalota, who was born in Garden City and graduated from Northville High School, wondered. She remembers the snowy day in 1978 when she attended an Opryland audition at the University of Michigan.

"I came in out of a snow storm with wet hair," she said. I sang some pieces that I had prepared. Then the staff asked me if I knew "Only Make Believe" from the musical "Showboat." "I didn't, but they wanted me to sing it anyway. They would feed me the words, and I would sing them."

Several months later, Kalota got the call. She was hired! Today she is a regular performer on the General Jackson Showboat, a paddlewheeler at Opryland, in Nashville, Tennessee. The rest of the Opryland theme park closes Nov. 4, but the Showboat runs all year.

She strongly recommends that young hopefuls appear at this year's Opryland auditions at Marygrove College in Detroit on Nov. 17 from noon to 3 p.m. If you love music, it's worth it.

Kalota always loved music. "I remember singing a lot around the house when I was a child." She lived in Garden City until she was 13, attending St. Raphael's Grade School. Her family then moved to Northville, where Kalota attended Northville High School.

"That's where I really got involved in a lot of music and theater." She was featured in several productions there, including "See How They Run," "Sound of Music" and "Guys and Dolls."

While in college at Eastern Michigan University, from which she earned a degree in theater, Kalota worked at Greenfield Village. She appeared in a musical review at the Town Hall in the village, and was also featured in "Three Men on a Horse" and "Our American Cousin" at the Henry Ford Theater.

After being hired by Opryland, Kalota worked at the Acuff Theater, in "I Hear America Singing." She also lived in New York City for a time, where she worked with the New York Gilbert and Sullivan Players, and came back to Michigan to appear at the Attic Theater in Detroit in "Marry Me a Little."

In 1983, Kalota returned to Nashville where, along with working for the Opryland complex, she is now involved with the Nashville Shakespearian Festival, and does TV and radio commercials. In 1989, she also performed as a dancer on the Country Music Awards show.

Kalota's current Opryland assignment is to appear in "Captain Rudder's River Revue" on the General Jackson Showboat. She will next appear in "Christmas Stories" on the showboat.

A lot of people think a showboat is something special. And Kalota agrees.

"There's something about the showboat; it's really neat. I often wonder—here I am working on a showboat. I don't know if it's playing or working."

The General Jackson, sailing the Cumberland River since 1985, is just what we think a showboat should be, except maybe bigger. The boat is almost 300 feet long with four decks, enough room for 1,200 passengers, and plenty to keep them busy on board—several cocktail lounges with entertainment, a gift shop, a snack bar and the 1,000 seat Victorian Theater.

On Thursdays through Oct. 25,

On Nov. 4 and 11, the Jackson will provide full-day fall foliage cruises along the Cumberland River through the locks at Old Hickory Dam and onto Old Hickory Lake. The tours leave at 8 a.m., returning at approximately 3 p.m. Cost of $38.79 includes breakfast and lunch on the boat.

For the rest of the fall, the boat sails three times during the day, Thursday through Sunday, until Thanksgiving. After that, there will be only one daytime cruise, at 12:15 p.m. The cost is $12.95. There is also a dinner cruise every evening, which features a special show in the Victorian Theater, at $34.95 for adults and $26.95 for children from four to 11 years old. Call (615) 889-6700 for information and reservations.

Detroit auditions for singers, dancers and instrumentalists will be at the Madame Cadillac Conference Center on the campus of Marygrove College on Nov. 17 from noon to 3 p.m. Auditions are held on a first-come, first-served basis. You will be given a number and forms to fill out, then wait your turn.

Auditions are open to all ages, although most performers are between 18 and 35 years old. Call the Opryland Entertainment Department at (615) 871-6656 for more information, or you can just show up on the day of the auditions.

Opryland open until Nov. 4

By Phyllis Kreger Stillman

If you hurry, you can still visit Opryland this season. The park is open weekends until Nov. 4.

Billing itself as a "musical entertainment theme park," Opryland has as many as a dozen live musical shows performing throughout the park on any given day.

As you might expect in a town that is a mecca for talented hopefuls, the quality of the entertainment within the park is high.

But live shows are only part of the fun. Opryland also has 21 rides, including roller coasters, white-water rafting, a sky ride, a train ride, antique cars and special children's rides.

And, of course, restaurants, food concessions and shops abound within the park.

Opryland will host a special Halloween celebration this fall, on the weekends of Oct. 20-21 and 27-28. The park will be decorated for the "Howl-o-ween" festival, which will feature a special halloween-themed show, costumed characters throughout the park, and candy

While you're in the park, you might run into performers from Michigan. Look for the Taylor Brothers, Jack and Joe, identical twins from Flint. They perform throughout Opryland park as strolling minstrels. According to Jack Taylor, they have a great job.

"We feel it's one of the best jobs. You get to walk around and meet people one on one." They also serve as a warm-up act for some of the shows in the park. After the season is over at Opryland, the Taylor Brothers will be commuting between Nashville and Michigan. They will be performing at several private functions this fall and winter, including a convention in Brighton in December.

The 1,600 seat Acuff Theater on the grounds of Opryland will also be open until Nov. 4. "The Spirit of America," a Broadway-style, no holds barred, old-fashioned, patriotic show, features "Little Miss Dynamite," Brenda Lee. Lee is only 4'10" but she, along with an excellent cast, put on a very big show. There are two performances every day the park is open, at 2:30 p.m. and 6 p.m. Admission is $11.80.

Festival offers old-world delights

In 1926, a social service agency for the foreign-born called the International Institute created the Old World Market — the first ethnic festival in metropolitan Detroit.

The market gave new Americans a way to earn much-needed money by selling their native crafts.

Now held at the Southfield Civic Center, the yearly market still captures the unique flavor of the original. This year, the market runs Friday, Oct. 19 through Sunday, Oct. 21. Natives of Laos, Japan, Mexico, Somalia, Yugoslavia and more than 30 other nations unite to present their music, dance, food and folk arts in a weekend of fun and exotic shopping.

This year's festival has a special theme. "Stand Beside Her — The Statue of Liberty" honors the newly-emerging democracies in Eastern Europe with performances and artwork from natives of Hungary, Poland, Romania, Czechoslovakia and the Soviet Union. The celebration begins Friday at 9 a.m. with a formal "Swearing-in of New American Citizens."

Throughout the three days, festival-goers will discover living examples of world history. Many market participants came to these shores in a quest for personal freedom. Half the fascination of the event lies in gaining firsthand accounts of the past from our newest immigrants.

Just ask Estonian woodburning artist Johanna Spargo about her childhood during the Russian Revolution of 1917, or talk to Romanian folk artist Maria Munte about life behind the Iron Curtain, while admiring her exquisitely-embroidered blouses and tapestries. If you catch high-kicking Slovak dancer Milan Straka after his performance, ask about his escape from Prague after Soviet tanks rolled into the city in 1968.

Features new to this year's market include concerts by well-known Soviet jazz pianist and Detroit resident Vladimir Karmilinski; wood-carving demonstrations by Bob Siegel of Wisconsin, the only U.S. craftsman making Dutch wooden shoes by hand; and a Michigan Opera Theater salute to composers ranging from George and Ira Gershwin to Andrew Lloyd Webber.

On stage, 40 ethnic groups will perform, ranging from the high-flying Scots Highland hoofers to feisty Spanish Flamenco dancers, from popular local folk singer Phil Marcus Esser to the reggae beat of the King David Calypso Band. Their performances are made possible by a grant from the Michigan Council for the Arts.

Shoppers at the Old World Market can buy anything from genuine imitation Egyptian mummy jewelry to strings of Baltic amber beads from Lithuania. Look, too, for African-American soft sculpture dolls, Mexican Day of the Dead figurines, and olive wood Israeli sculptures.

Authentic folk artists will demonstrate skills including quilting, leatherworking, silversmithing, Japanese origami and the art of Ukrainian egg-decorating known as Pysanky.

This year, the Institute will unveil its unique "Nationality Quilt." Embodying world unity, the quilt was pieced together with embroidered squares made by immigrants from more than 30 ethnic groups, including Armenia, Belgium, Grenada, Haiti, Iran and Turkey. The Institute is now collecting squares for another quilt.

Tickets to the Old World Market are $5 for families, $2 for adults and $1 for seniors and youth 16 and under. For advance tickets and group rates of $1 per person, call the International Institute at 871-8600. Tickets are also available at the door. The Southfield Civic Center is located at 26000 Evergreen, Southfield. The market hours are 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. Friday and Saturday, and 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Sunday.

The Old World Market is sponsored by the International Institute in cooperation with the City of Southfield's Community Relations Department. The event raises funds for the Institute's social service programs, including English and citizenship classes and immigration counseling.

NOT JUST FOR KIDS: A new season of family entertainment comes to the Michigan Theater when the irresistible magic of Ann Arbor's twin minstrels, Gemini, opens the "Not Just for Kids" series. This wildly popular duo will present their brand new show, Fancy That! — A Musical Celebration, Sunday, Oct. 14 at 1:30 p.m.

A concert by Gemini is a mutual love affair between the brothers and their audience — a rousing festival of music filled with laughter, boisterous fun and the magic of hushed singing. The brothers combine uncannily matched voices with superb musicianship on nearly a dozen instruments. Brother Las is accomplished on violin, guitar, mandolin, bowed psaltery, folk flutes and pennywhistles while brother San plays a wide variety of hand-percussion instruments. The brothers' songs are as diverse as the instruments they play — drawn from around the world they take their audience on a whirlwind musical tour moving effortlessly from an Irish jig to a traditional Israeli song, from an Appalachian dance to '50s doo-wop.

Gemini has released four critically acclaimed recordings.

Tickets are $6.50 for Michigan Theater members and $8.50 for non-members. Tickets are available now at the Michigan Theater Box Office located at 603 E. Liberty Street in Ann Arbor. Box Office hours are Monday through Friday, 11 a.m. to 6 p.m. and Saturday, noon to 4:00 p.m. To charge tickets by phone call (313) 668-8397 during Box Office hours.

The Northville Record

Tennis squad keeps winning, in three-way tie for league lead

By BOB NEEDHAM
Editor

The Northville tennis team continued to play like a league-title contender last week in the final matches before the Western Lakes meet.

Three wins in five days — over Walled Lake Western, Franklin, and Canton — raised the netters' season mark to 11-1 overall, 10-1 in the WLLA and 4-1 in the Western Division. Although coach Uta Filkin was a bit disappointed in the closeness of the win over Canton, the upshot of the week was that Northville was in a three-way tie for first heading into the league meet this Tuesday (after the Record's deadline).

Northville beat Canton 4-3 on Friday in a match which started to overlap with Homecoming festivities on the adjacent football field. Concentration was difficult, it was a late makeup, and the top singles player was not feeling well — but Northville still pulled out the win.

The Mustangs actually lost at first, second and third singles, but took the remaining flights to win the match. At No. 1 singles, Karen Vogt battled a bad flu bug and Canton's Leanne Gurchak at the same time — and the flu ended up winning the match for Canton. Vogt won the first set 6-2, dropped the second 6-7, and led 3-0 in the tiebreaker — but was then forced to default.

At second singles, Diane Vogt lost to Denise Gildo in another tight match, 7-6, 4-6, 1-6. Third singles also went to a tiebreaker and was even closer, with Shannon Price eventually falling to Reetik Aulakh, 6-3, 6-7, 5-7.

The No. 4 singles flight saw the Mustangs turn it around, however. Kavitha Sriraman beat Jennifer Davis 6-3, 6-1. First doubles was perhaps the closest of all the day's close matches: Rebecca Bellamy and Melanie Apligian outlasted Lorena Sanford and Gina Fuerst 7-6, 4-6, 6-0 — the last set being an overtime which actually went to 9-7.

At No. 2 doubles, Jenny Lower and Vicki Eppers beat Dorothy Pao and Pam Reynolds 6-0, 6-2. At No. 3, Stacy Green and Kelly Woodsum finally beat Elleen Gasten and Jenny Schaefer 7-5, 7-6. The No. 3 locals were actually down 0-4 in the tiebreaker game of the second set, Filkin said, when one said to the other, "We will not play a third set." And they won the next seven points."

Before the Canton match, Northville disposed of Franklin 6-1 on Wednesday.

At No. 1, Karen Vogt was already fighting the flu and lost to Tanya Berner 3-6, 6-7, 7-2. Sister Diane followed up with another win, over Nicole Chiesa 6-3, 6-0.

Price beat Jessica Spilas 6-0, 6-1, and Sriraman beat Heather Mayle 6-1, 6-0.

Gridders dispose of winless Churchill team

By BOB NEEDHAM
Editor

The Northville gridgers Friday continued to develop what has become an outstanding season with a Homecoming win over Livonia Churchill.

The final score was 28-14, but it wasn't really even that close — half of Churchill's scoring came on a touchdown in the final two minutes.

Although Churchill was winless heading into — and out of — the game, Mustang coach Darrell Schumacher said motivation was high, due in part to Homecoming. It was Northville's first Homecoming win in several years.

Schumacher suggested that the Chargers might be better than their record, especially with the presence of Mike Brooks, one of the area's better running backs.

Northville went to work early, scoring on the first possession. The Mustangs started on their own 19-yard line, taking five plays to romp into the Churchill end zone. The score came on a 16-yard pass from quarterback Ryan Huzjak to Bill Kelley. Brandon Hayes' kick was good to make it 7-0.

Churchill answered Northville in the second quarter, however, on an 8-yard Brooks run with 6:10 left in the half. The point after was good, but the tie didn't last long.

Later that quarter Northville took possession with good field position and scored on the second play of the drive. Huzjak tossed a 38-yarder to Mark Hillfinger for the 6 points at 1:59 left in the half. A two-point conversion attempt fell flat.

In the locker room, "We reminded them not to wait for a wake-up call," Schumacher said. The team needed to get back in control.

"Basically, that's what we did" in the second half, the coach said. After the break the Mustang defense clamped a tight lid on the Chargers, and Churchill could not come up with a first down until the last possession of the game.

The Mustang offense also found new life, scoring again just 41 seconds into the third quarter. Huzjak found Jamie Miller with an eight-yard pass for the TD. Then the quarterback followed it up with a run in for the two extra points.

From there, "We controlled the ball, basically, and finally we got it back and went after it," Schumacher said. They got it again, too, starting a drive on the Churchill 23-yard line

Swimmers take Fenton Relays for third time

Winning the Fenton Relays is turning into a habit for the Northville girls swim team.

The Mustang swimmers "three-peated" at Fenton on Saturday. The girls' third straight first place at the event was sealed by the final event, the 200 freestyle relay.

Northville finished with 292 points, followed by Birmingham Marian in second place with 264. Coach Bill Dicks mixed his state qualifiers — Megan Holmberg, Jodi Wesley, Pam Holdridge, Teri Juhasz and Claire Cryderman — with other quality swimmers to get the best effort from the team.

The strategy worked as the girls won four relays, took second in three more, and placed third in another three races. No swimming relays took lower than third.

The divers struggled slightly with a fifth-place finish by Beth Frayne and Jennie Mezurak and Nichole Meehan handily, 6-0, 6-0. Lower and Eppers beat Amy Kosiba and Brandy Buzette 6-4, 6-2, while Green and Woodsum beat Amy Green and Deena Kurszynski 6-2, 6-1.

NORTHVILLE 7, WALLED LAKE WESTERN 0: The netters started last week with a relatively easy win over Western, possibly the weakest team in the conference. Filkin took her regular doubles teams out of action to give some younger players a chance, and Northville still swept the match.

At first singles, Karen Vogt beat Katie Kennedy 6-3, 6-2. Diane Vogt defeated Ann Wentzel 6-2, 6-0. Price beat Jennifer Lipson 6-0, 6-0, and Sriraman beat Diane Benner 6-0, 6-0.

The first doubles team was Susan Weix and Molly Gudritz, and they beat Lisa Grotduschen and Melissa Wildman 6-2, 6-0. At No. 2, Jody Buttigieg and Sandy Bosscher beat Jessica Smiley and Heather Bryant 6-2, 6-1. And at third doubles, Ellen Song and Michelle McNally defeated Amy Farkas and Amy Beunes 6-0, 6-0.

All the doubles players for the match are underclassmen, Filkin said. "They need all the experience they can get," she said. "It was good experience for them."

COUNTRY DAY INVITE: Northville also played in the Country Day Invitational on Saturday, but without a complete lineup. The Mustangs had one slight win, at No. 3 doubles. "It was a very good effort for a lot of the girls," Filkin said.

TOURNAMENTS: The league tournament Tuesday was going to count for half the league standings, and going in there was a three-way tie for first between Northville, Harrison and Stevenson. Northville lost to Harrison, but Harrison lost to Stevenson — and Northville had beaten Stevenson.

"It's going to be a very tight and very competitive conference," Filkin said on Sunday.

The regional tournament is scheduled for tomorrow.

Mike Brooks carted in the final Churchill score on a 4-yard run with 1:28 left.

For the game, Huzjak was outstanding, making 15 of 27 passes for 203 yards. Kelley caught five of them for 82 yards, and Hulfinger caught four for 69 yards.

On the flip side, Schumacher said, "We had a good defensive team effort." Bob Holloway had 11 assists with Jeff Todd adding seven. Tim Kerns recovered two fumbles for the Mustangs.

"We made some adjustments at halftime and it seemed to work," Schumacher summed up.

CANTON PREVIEW: In spite of the tough loss Northville suffered against Farmington Harrison, Schumacher said this week's opponent — Plymouth Canton — might be the best team the Mustangs face this year. The game is at Canton, with varsity scheduled for 7:30 p.m. kickoff.

"I look for them to be very, very good," Schumacher said. They returned more players than anyone in the league, both offensively and defensively, he said. He described the Canton defensive line as "not large, but quick."

"I look for it to be a tough one," he said.

Lady runners raise record to 3-1

Running well together is the key to success, according to Northville High's girls cross country coach Nick Dunwoodie.

At least, that is the strategy that helped the Mustang runners down Farmington Harrison last week, and bring their season record to 3-1, 2-1 in the division.

"We are improved by leaps and bounds last week and the key was that we ran very well as a team . . . The scores exhibited what we call 'good packing,'" Dunwoodie said.

While the Mustangs' top runner finished the Oakland Community College course more than a minute ahead of her colleagues, four Northville runners finished within four seconds of each other, snatching the second, fourth, fifth and sixth places in the contest.

And that lead to a 19-44 route over Harrison.

The meet was held in conjunction with the Farmington City Meet, due to a scheduling conflict, Dunwoodie explained. So the Northville runners participated in the contest, but their scores went down only as a dual meet with Harrison.

Running first was Marcie Dart, who turned in a time of 21:32. Then came the pack, including Michelle McQuaid second (22:37), Kamal Bagga fourth (22:38), Amy Goode fifth (22:39), and Cheryl Mittman sixth (22:41).

Not only was the grouping better, Dunwoodie said most members on that team showed a marked improvement in their individual times.

REDFORD UNION INVITATIONAL: Dunwoodie said he was also please with the improvement and performance of the Mustang squad during the Redford Union Invitational meet Tuesday, Oct. 2, although the group was not as tightly packed.

The Mustangs finished with a score of 206, and while the squad's rank was not available as of press-time, Dunwoodie estimated that would place the Northville team in the middle or top half of the 15-school field.

The winner of the meet was Plymouth Canton, with a score of 90. Redford Union placed second, Edsel Ford came in third, Trenton placed fourth and Walled Lake Western placed fifth. All of those top five finishers earned scores under 150.

The top runner among the Mustangs was Dart, who placed 11th by turning in her best time ever on Northville's home course (21:12). The Redford Union Invitational is annually held on the Mustang's course. That made Dart a medal winner, her first time in the top 15 in that event.

Then, the Mustangs' two through six runners finished within a minute of each other. Amy Goode placed 41st in the event, with a time of 22:43, Bagga placed 44th (22:53), McQuaid finished 52nd (23:11), Mittman placed 58th (23:39) and Angie Nelson placed 60th (23:42). The Mustangs' seventh runner, Kendra Huard, placed 66th with a time of 24:15.

"The point to emphasize is that we are running well as a team," Dunwoodie said. "And it shows, in the way they run, the way they talk with each other. This is probably the best season we've had in terms of their ability to run as a team."

Mustang golfers add two wins to season record

By BOB NEEDHAM
Editor

The Northville golfers raised their record with two wins last week, but a communication problem cost them a chance to make it three.

Friday was supposed to feature a showdown with Walled Lake Western, rescheduled from an earlier date. But what if they gave a golf match and nobody came?

"They didn't show up," Northville coach Don Morgan said of the supposed-to-be opponents. "There was a communication problem, obviously . . . I tried for an hour to find them."

There's no time to reschedule the match again, so as a result the league meet (scheduled for Tuesday, after the Record's deadline) took on double importance. The Northville and Walled Lake Western scores from the front nine at the league meet will also count as the results of the dual meet.

"This'll give them something else to shoot for," Morgan said.

The big news out of last week, however, was the match with Farmington on Tuesday — a team which was fresh from a second-place finish in the Oakland County meet last Monday.

"They've got a good team, but we were pointing toward that one," Morgan said. "The kids played pretty well."

Northville came out with a 196-208 victory. There were two medalists, and both of them were Mustangs: Chris Lemmon and Mike Fischer, who both shot 37.

Following were Kevin Krupansky with 39, Jason Sherman with 40, and Matt Telepo with 43.

"That was a good one," Morgan said. "That's what I was waiting for" — for everyone to play up to their potential at the same time.

He added that they sort of took Farmington by surprise, but now they "won't be able to surprise anyone at the league meet."

NORTHVILLE 207, FRANKLIN 258: "It wasn't much of a match," Morgan said of the Wednesday meeting which ended with Northville ahead by almost 50 strokes.

Krupansky took medalist honors with 38. Lemmon and Telepo followed with 40 each, and Fischer shot 41.

The two wins take Northville's record to 9-1 overall, the only loss coming in the season's first match, against non-conference Novi. It's been nine straight wins since then.

LEAGUE AND REGIONAL MEETS: Morgan was expecting the Western Lakes meet to be a repeat showdown between Northville and Farmington, which probably have the greatest depth in the league. "The depth takes it," he said.

"They're peaking at the right time," he said of the golfers.

Mustangs put a scare into Canton Chiefs

By RICK BYRNE
Copy Editor

The Plymouth Canton basketball team won't be looking forward to another meeting with Northville anytime soon. Not after the Mustangs gave the Chiefs a big scare in Thursday's 41-28 Plymouth victory.

Northville led for 26 of the 32 minutes in the contest, a game marked by defensive play on both sides.

"It was a very low-scoring game for the most part," said Mustangs' coach Ed Kritch. "We played pretty tight . . . just the way we wanted it."

With Northville ahead early in the fourth quarter 25-22, Karen McNeil watched her three-point attempt go in and out. Canton scored on the fast break, and then forced a turnover at midcourt.

The Chiefs were fouled on the lay-in that followed, and sunk the free throw to take the lead for good. The Mustangs fouled Canton down the stretch, trying to break the Chiefs out of their slowdown game, but the strategy backfired. Canton nailed 13-of-15 from the free-throw line in the fourth quarter.

"It really was a much closer game than (41-28)," said Kritch.

Maria Macinnis was the Mustangs' top scorer with nine points, while Kate Holstein pulled down 10 rebounds to lead the squad.

Northville led the early going, and held a 7-6 lead at the end of the quarter. The Mustangs also outscored the Chiefs in the second period 13-10, thanks to two three-point plays by Karen Pump at the end of the period.

In the third period the defenses really dug in. Though the Mustangs were held to just three points in the period, Canton scored just six.

"Their defense dominated in the second half. . . but we played pretty good 'D' ourselves," said Kritch. "We're close to beating these kinds of teams, but we haven't done it yet. I still think we can, but it remains to be seen. We're close to playing some really good basketball."

Northville is now 5-5 overall, but 1-5 in the Western Lakes Activities Association.

NORTHVILLE 50, NORTH FARMINGTON 38: The offense and defense had equal shares in a stunning comeback effort as the Mustangs upended the Raiders on Oct. 2.

North Farmington opened up a 23-12 lead right before halftime, with Eve Claar well on her way to a game-high 23 points. Kritch then scored his defensive whiz Karen Cavanaugh on the Raider center, shutting down Claar for most of the second half.

"Karen's just 5-3, and she's an extremely quick defensive player," said Kritch. "We put her man-up on the Harrison kid, and she shut her out for 10 minutes."

That gave the Northville offense a chance to go to work. Kate Holstein got the call as the Mustangs worked the ball in to her consistently. She bucketed 17 points in the second half, and led the team with 21 overall. From trailing 23-12, Northville took a 33-29 lead in the fourth quarter. Laura Apligian also played a key role, canning eight, all in the second half. McNeil chipped in with 10 points.

Study explores triglycerides

Regular aerobic exercise — accompanied by dietary changes and weight loss — can effectively lower dangerous levels of triglycerides, according to the National Exercise for Life Institute.

Triglycerides are lipids or fatty molecules, the largest of the blood's oily particles. Triglycerides are formed in the liver from the fats you eat, or from the body's synthesis of internal fat. Triglycerides are also known as very-low-density lipoproteins, which, along with low-density lipoproteins, make up the bad cholesterol in the blood.

Recent research has shown that these are the blood fats that cause the most damage to the circulatory system.

"New data shows that triglycerides are an independent risk factor for heart disease," said William Castelli, M.D., director of the Framingham Heart Study. "Anyone who has high lipids — cholesterol or triglycerides

"New data shows that triglycerides are an independent risk factor for heart disease. Anyone who has high lipids — cholesterol or triglycerides — should be considered a high-risk coronary patient."

WILLIAM CASTELLI, M.D.
Framingham study

— should be considered a high-risk coronary patient."

Triglycerides have two main functions in the body: they're the major source of energy from fat and they're the most important way of storing energy.

The primary cause of abnormally high triglyceride level is excessive intake of carbohydrates and alcohol, according to the Exercise for Life Institute. Triglyceride blood levels can also rise dramatically and stay high for hours after a meal that's high in saturated fats.

Limiting fat intake can help lower triglyceride levels.

"Recent studies have indicated that regardless of diet or weight loss, aerobic exercise reduces levels of fat in the blood stream and may help prevent heart disease," said Diane DeMarco, executive director of Exercise for Life.

Three common steps can control triglycerides.

Weight loss is the primary step, followed by carbohydrate reduction. The next important step is starting an aerobic exercise program.

Triglycerides respond positively to physical conditioning — especially endurance exercises such as walking, jogging, swimming, and cross-country skiing.

Extra energy that is not used by the body is transformed into triglycerides. Many doctors say burned calories contribute to lower triglyceride levels.

Studies indicate that exercise increases the activity of the lipoprotein lipase enzyme, which breaks down triglycerides in the bloodstream.

As always, health care professionals urge a trip to a physician before embarking on an exercise program to reduce triglycerides.

Hidden pollutants may be a worry

By JUDITH BEHN
Special Writer

Fitness Tips

In addition to air and water pollution, we must also be concerned about "hidden" pollutants — potentially toxic substances associated with food and other household products.

Chlorofluorocarbons (CFCs) are examples of this kind of pollution. These chemical compounds are used in the manufacturing of polystyrene foam cups, plates and cartons. CFCs are also used in refrigeration and air conditioning equipment.

Scientists believe that CFCs are one of the primary causes of damage to the atmosphere's protective ozone layer. Further depletion of the ozone shield will increase the amount of ultraviolet radiation reaching the earth's surface. This, in turn, could make skin age faster and increase the incidence of skin cancers.

Potentially harmful substances also go into other products we bring into our homes. Permanent press clothing and no-iron bed linens are applied with formaldehyde resin, resulting in fumes which are toxic to many people. Many brands of air fresheners and permanent ink pens and markers contain harmful solvents like ethanol, xylene and toluene. And mothballs made from 100 percent paradichlorobenzene emit fumes which may be harmful to your liver and kidneys.

Not only are these products potentially hazardous to our health when we use them, they can harm the environment when we throw the packaging away or rinse the chemicals down the drain.

Here are some things you can do to avoid the hazards of hidden pollutants:

- Don't buy polystyrene-packaged products. Avoid polystyrene foam cups, plates and food containers and patronize restaurants which provide recyclable food containers.
- Recycle CFC coolants. If you need to repair your refrigerator, your auto or home air conditioning, go to a place that recaptures Freon (TM) gas for reuse.
- Find out what's in the products you buy. Learn what chemicals come in your personal care products, cleaners, solvents, paint thinners, fertilizers and bug sprays. Refer to books like The Non-Toxic Home, Making the Switch, or the Greenpeace Guide to Toxins in the Home.

- Use safer alternative products. Shop for safer, biodegradable products or prepare them at home. For example, use cedar chips or cedar oil instead of mothballs. Or clean silver with baking soda and water instead of a commercial polish.

Judith Behn is medical director at the University of Michigan Medical Center (M-Care) in Northville. This is the second in a series of articles on "Earth Care." The series is coordinated by Peg Campbell of the M-Care staff.

Kickers drop one-goal game to tough Brighton

By RICK BYRNE
Copy Editor

Even a four-day rest couldn't help the Northville soccer team as the Mustangs dropped a 1-0 decision to Brighton Saturday.

"I felt we underperformed," said Northville coach Bob Paul. "We had a good break where practiced all week, accomplished a lot and worked on some things. But the enthusiasm just didn't seem to be there."

Both teams battled even through the first half, but the Bulldogs planted one in the net 10 minutes into the second half.

"We had just as many shots on goal, just as many chances," said Paul. "We've got some solid players. They're learning a new system, and it's taking some time. Unfortunately longer than I expected."

"Brighton is leading the Kennington Valley Conference, but there's no reason that if we play the kind of game we're capable of that we shouldn't beat them."

The loss dropped Northville to 3-6-3 on the season, and the Mustangs are 2-4-2 in the Western Lakes Activities Association.

"The challenge to us as coaches is 'How do we get our team up for every game?'" said Paul. "The guys have worked really hard this season. We've asked them to learn a lot. Unfortunately, we are not able to rally them for every game."

PLYMOUTH CANTON 2, NORTHVILLE 1: The Mustangs played one of their best games of the season for one of the best teams in the state.

With 20 minutes left in the game Canton was given a free kick just outside the 18-yard mark. The Rocks capitalized with a goal, and followed with the game-winner with five minutes left to play.

It would have been a strong showing for the Mustangs in any event, but the results were even more impressive considering they had just undergone a lineup shuffle.

"We switched the lineup around and went to a different formation," said Paul. "We just weren't getting enough chances in front of the goal so far this season. We were trying to create a little more offensive punch by putting some more strength at mid-field. That seemed to be working effectively."

"It was one of our better games of the season. Unfortunately, it just went against us."

Runners beat Harrison; Coon breaks 17 minutes

By BOB NEEDHAM
Editor

Last week saw the Northville boys cross country team even its dual meet record — and it saw Steve Coon enter the truly elite of recent Mustang harriers.

The team went to 2-2 with a win over Farmington Harrison last Thursday at Oakland Community College. Northville won 26-29 on a windy day.

Coon won the race in 17:36. Harrison took second and third, with Northville's Andy Haas in fourth at 18:38. That evened the race at 5-5 — but the Mustangs next three runners each beat the Hawks' next three for the win.

Jamie Groves ran fifth in 18:43; Mike Connery was seventh with 19:20; and Doug Huntington was ninth with 19:30, lopping a full minute-and-a-half off his last time on that course.

REDFORD UNION INVITE: It was at the Redford Union Invitational —

"(Steve) Coon is on a roll . . . He's sort of broken through that 17-minute barrier. We expect good things from now on."

ED GABRYS
Boys cross country coach at Northville's home Cass Beton course — last Tuesday that Coon took his big step: becoming only the sixth member of the team in the last 10 years to race Cass Benton in under 17 minutes.

Coon was eighth overall, running the course in 16:56 — taking 21 seconds off his previous personal best time.

"Coon is on a roll," Mustang coach Ed Gabrys said. "He's sort of broken through that 17-minute barrier. We expect good things from now on."

Northville placed eighth of the 15 teams in the meet and fourth among Western Lakes teams at the event.

Other Northville finishers were Andy Haas in 42nd with 18:17; Jamie Groves in 49th with a personal-best 18:43; Mike Connery in 54th with 18:47, taking almost a minute off his previous personal best; Parag Parikh in 63rd with 19:13; Doug Huntington in 64th with 19:17; and Randy Stinson in 70th with 19:39.

NEXT: The runners take on Livonia Churchill today, and then Plymouth Canton before the league meet Oct. 24. "We've been running away during the first half of the season," Gabrys said, but now some home work will help the runners focus on the WLAA meet.

Free Car-Care Check-Ups Offered In October

Motorists can learn if their cars are likely to run trouble-free during the upcoming winter by stopping at AAA Michigan's free Winter Car Care Inspection, Oct. 8-21 at Highland Tire Center in Highland.

The Winter Car Care Inspection, open to the general public, offers a free 12-point checkup designed to help drivers avoid potential cold weather problems.

"This year, in cooperation with Metro 25 Tire Centers, Highland Tire, we have expanded our annual Winter Car Care program in keeping with our commitment to help get motorists through the winter months," said Paul Gliessman, AAA Michigan Emergency Road Service Manager.

More than 20,000 Michigan motorists are expected to take advantage of the Winter Car Care inspection, which will operate daily as a motorist convenience during regular Highland Tire store hours throughout the two-week period. Last year, inspections were held on a one-day basis at 23 locations.

Metro 25, the largest independent tire dealer network in North America, will have its mechanics check the following during a 10-minute inspection:

- Belts and hoses
- Battery terminal
- Automatic transmission fluid
- Brake fluid
- Motor oil
- Power steering fluid
- Antifreeze level and strength

- Windshield washer solvent
- Air filter element
- Wiper blades
- Lights and directional signals
- Tire pressure and wear

Motorists will receive a written analysis of the inspection results along with safety and car care literature.

For more information, consumers can call AAA Michigan's Customer Service Center at (313) 336-1000 or 1-800-482-5300.

Celebrity wheels, car lore and more

By Allison Ashton

Rollin' down the highway or cruisin' the boulevard, clearly, cars are much more than a means of transportation. Heck, in Southern California, some residents would say that automobiles are a way of life.

Most of us feel that our wheels are an integral part of our identity—those who are vain of their practicality take pride in their fuel-efficient Japanese models or super-safe Swedish cars. The more adventurous among us opt for something exotic and expensive.

STAR CARS

Just like us regular folks, the rich and famous catch the car bug. Big wheel Paul Newman has been a regular on the racing circuit for years (though he tools around in a VW Rabbit on city streets). Newman's one-time co-star, Tom Cruise, is another recent convert to racing.

Partyman Charlie Sheen has reportedly traded his black Porsche hot wheels for a more sedate, grown-up Mercedes sedan. Eddie Murphy still loves his fast cars. And he likes them loud—one of his cars has 17 (count 'em) speakers.

Heavyweight Mike Tyson has been known to buy his wheels on a whim. One story has him going out for a burger and coming home with a Ferrari.

The last car James Dean owned—a devilishly cute Porsche 550 Spyder—is almost as famous as the star himself. Some say Dean, a notorious speedster, if not the car itself, was cursed. And friends ranging from Ursula Andress to Alec Guinness wouldn't go near the Spyder and urged Dean to give it up.

You even can rent wheels with star status in Los Angeles. Star cars that have, at one time or another, been available for rental include singer Karen Carpenter's 1957 Chrysler 300, Chet Huntley's 1955 Cadillac and David Janssen's 1969 Cadillac.

CINEMA AUTOS

Sometimes cars themselves are stars, and in some movies they have taken on the status of secondary characters.

Who can forget the sleek black Batmobile of the "Batman" movie and television show? Some would contend that race cars are really the stars of the Tom Cruise movie "Days of Thunder"—a sort of "Top Gun" on wheels.

James Bond's various Aston Martins are outfitted with some pretty outrageous extras (and the cars always get wrecked, much to the character's consternation). Bond first saw his wife speeding down the roadway in a Mercury Cougar in "On Her Majesty's Secret Service."

Dustin Hoffman zipped up and down the California coast in a bright red Alfa Romeo Duetto Spyder—only to have it run out of gas in Santa Barbara. Hoffman later becomes attached to a 1949 Buick convertible in "Rain Man."

Ferraris play an important role in a number of flicks. Christy Brinkley, driving a Ferrari 308 GTS, flirts with Chevy Chase in "National Lampoon's Vacation." A convertible Ferrari 250 GT gets abused by parking lot attendants and high school students in "Ferris Bueller's Day Off." (A Porsche 928 gets similar treatment at the hands of Tom Cruise in "Risky Business"—before he tears up the track in "Days of Thunder." Hmmm—where would Cruise's career be without cars?)

What about when a car is the movie? On the one hand you might have the sweet VW Beetle of "The Love Bug." On the other, you have the murderous and possessive 1958 Plymouth of "Christine."

WHAT WE DO IN CARS

The question should be, what don't we do in our cars?

One hairstylist in Los Angeles considers her four-wheel-drive a roving closet on wheels. Other folks prize their pickups—they can haul anything and sleep under the stars on the flatbed when they go camping.

You see a lot of women putting on makeup and touching up their nails while they drive to work in the morning. In "The Making of Mr. Right," Ann Magnuson even shaves her legs in traffic.

Lots of people change their clothes in their cars—tinted windows give you more privacy.

Car stereos mean more than music. Of course, everyone sings along with the radio once in a while (when you sound great). But lots of folks use car tape decks to listen to best sellers on tape or to motivational or instructional tapes—my mother learned conversational Japanese by listening to tapes in her car.

Cars also have become offices on wheels. Drivers stuck in traffic chatting away on their cellular phones are a common site. Now portable fax machines and copiers are making their way into upscale buggies.

Finally, cars provide a private venue for some of our most important moments. People have proposed marriage, had arguments and kissed and made up in their cars. ■

Seasonal checkup for your car

By Joel Simon

Every autumn there's a list of chores, the same list each year. Some of them are simple, some rather pleasant and some you'd like to forget. Taking care of the car is usually one of the last. But if you take it simply and logically, you can easily get it out of the way.

Let's go over a simple checklist of things you might want to look into before the snow flies.

TUNEUP

In a way, your engine runs on heat. An engine that runs rough when weather is nice may refuse to start when the puddles freeze. Time for a thorough tuneup. Make sure the air and fuel filters are clean. Get the plugs cleaned or replaced, the timing checked, the carburetor tested. The ignition coil has to be putting out a strong spark, and the distributor rotor and plug wires have to be in good condition.

BELTS AND HOSES

On front wheel-drive cars with transverse (sideways) mounted engines, the belts are easy to overlook because they're not right out in front. But they still wear out and break, and when they do, you're still stranded. So have a look at them.

Twist the belts around in one spot so you can see the narrow side. That's where they're most prone to cracking, and that's the part you can't see unless you make a special effort. If they're in good condition but loose, tighten them. But tightening a frayed or cracked belt can cause it to break that very day. Any signs of fraying or cracks are a clear indication that they should be changed immediately.

ANTIFREEZE

Check antifreeze when the engine is cold. If it's brown or much more than a year old, it should be flushed and replaced. If the level is low, you may have a coolant leak or an even more serious problem. You should probably let a professional have a look at it.

If for any reason you add antifreeze, you'll notice that the instructions on the bottle say you should use a 50/50 solution of antifreeze and water. Believe that. Pure antifreeze actually has a higher freezing point than antifreeze mixed with water.

BATTERIES

Lead-acid storage batteries don't like cold. They are forgiving in the summertime, much less so in the winter. If you are using a marginal battery now, chances are it will leave you stranded somewhere, sometime next winter.

If you have a battery whose vents can be removed, you can test it yourself with a battery hydrometer. But if the vents won't come off, and most won't these days, you'll have to take it to a shop for testing if you have any doubts. Regardless, make sure that the connections are clean.

If you see any film on the metal between the battery posts and cables, clean it off with a wire brush or emery cloth. Then see to it that the connections are good and snug. If there's a wet film on top of the battery, clean it with a mixture of baking soda and water.

The battery is filled with sulfuric acid, which is sudden death to clothing. It doesn't do your skin any good, either. Avoid contact with it.

If you ever recharge an old battery, you might notice steam rising from the vents. That steam is almost pure hydrogen and oxygen. If there's a more explosive mixture, I don't know what it is. Never smoke around a recharging battery.

WINDSHIELDS

On a sloppy winter day, right after a snow when the salt trucks have been out, the spray from other people's tires coats your windshield with a layer of impenetrable glop that constantly renews itself. If you can't clean it off while you drive, you can quickly find yourself unable to see at all. So give some thought to your windshield wipers and washers. Make sure the wiper blades are in good repair and not leaving streaks.

The washers should send a solid stream of fluid squarely into the path of the wipers. Make sure you have a good supply of washer fluid on hand. Be careful not to fill the reservoir with water. It's an easy habit to get into in the summertime, but it will freeze solid in the winter, break the bottle and possibly ruin the pump.

TRANSMISSION

You should take the time to have the transmission fluid changed. Even if it hasn't been overheated, transmission fluid breaks down over time and doesn't stand up to cold the way it should.

That's one reason why, when you put an older car into gear on a frigid morning when it hasn't warmed up yet, it sometimes refuses to move. The fluid has thickened up and won't operate the transmission clutches. You can do your transmission a world of good with just a new filter and fluid.

TIRES

Changing from regular to snow tires used to be a fall ritual. The advent of the all-weather radial did away with that to the thunder of applause. But you still have to make sure you have enough tread to run safely on rain and snow.

There's an old trick that will tell you if you need tires. Push a penny into the grooves in your tire tread, so that Lincoln goes in head-first. If you can see the top of Lincoln's head, your tires are too badly worn for safety.

The checklist for winterizing your car is really quite simple and can be done in a matter of minutes. And spending a few minutes caring for your car now might save you frigid hours later, when your car can no longer take care of you. ■

Do-it-yourself repair and tuneups

Three Es to make car maintenance easy as one, two, three

By Norm Hudecki

With the average price of a new car at more than $15,000, many car owners are taking more of a hands-on approach to protecting their investment.

While the convenience of quick lubes and specialty service centers is becoming increasingly attractive, most folks still perform at least some maintenance or repairs on their vehicles. For instance, research by Valvoline Inc. shows that two-thirds of the motor oil sold in the United States was purchased by do-it-yourselfers.

To be successful as a do-it-yourselfer, follow the "three E's": educate, equip and execute

EDUCATE

Before you pop the hood and start poking around, learn about the procedures you want to perform. Your best instructional tool is probably right in the glove compartment—your owner's manual. This widely published, seldom-read book contains a wealth of information on troubleshooting, basic maintenance and recommended parts and supplies.

You might also look for seminars or classes on car care in your area. Many American Automobile Association chapters across the country sponsor Car Care Clinics, taught by the organization's trained auto service technicians. Check the telephone book under AAA for the office nearest you.

Community colleges, vocational schools and some car dealerships also offer classes for the public.

In addition, there are a number of books and guides for specific models available at bookstores. No matter how you decide to educate yourself, make sure you know what the job entails before you start it. Know where the parts involved are located and how to reach them. Know when the engine should be running and when it should be shut off. And have an idea of how long the job should take so you can allow enough time and avoid hasty mistakes.

EQUIP

Good auto service requires the proper tools and supplies. After you educate yourself on what items you need for your project, set about getting the equipment you need.

An oil change is a good example. You would need a drain pan for the used oil, a wrench for the oil pan plug, a filter wrench, a funnel for pouring in the new oil and a container for transporting the used oil to a collection site. As for supplies, you would need the proper amount of new motor oil (usually three or four quarts) and a new oil filter.

EXECUTE

Finally—now that you've educated and equipped yourself—it's time to execute the work. First, find a good work area. Your vehicle should be parked on level, firm ground or pavement. Try to find an area that is protected from the weather but that is well-ventilated to avoid being overcome by fumes or engine exhaust.

Take precautions for safety while you work. If you are under the car, make sure the jack or ramp is sturdy enough and in the proper position and that your car is in "park" with the emergency brake on. Be careful when working around the battery, electrical system, refrigerant storage tank and moving parts. Wash your hands after exposing them to fluids.

A key part of car maintenance and repair is practicing environmental responsibility. Learn where to dispose of old fluids, batteries, tires and other items. And it's generally best to have a professional technician with recycling equipment handle airconditioner recharging

Refrigerants contain harmful CFCs that can be leaked into the atmosphere when the procedure is done improperly.

The final step in the execution phase is to record what you have serviced and when the next check is due. Most owner manuals have a section for this. Such records can often be helpful if you choose to sell the vehicle as evidence of its good care and performance.

In addition to these three E's, there are a couple more to keep in mind. One is experience

The first time you try a particular job it may take you a little longer; with experience you will become more adept to the task.

And expertise

Don't let your ego get in the way of asking for help when you need it. If you get in a bind, seek someone with the expertise to help you finish the job.

Do-it-yourself car service can be easy, enlightening, economical and enjoyable. It's elementary. ■

Focus on finish, tires and brakes

By Steven Parker

There was a time when turning the hose on the trusty family beater was all it took to get your car ready for a night on the town. But paint and tire care for cars has gone high-tech. And today's braking systems, using new materials and computer-controlled electronics, are so sophisticated that most of us can barely comprehend how they operate, much less how to maintain them correctly.

So the three basic systems that keep your car or truck in tiptop shape—paint, tires and brakes—deserve a bit more attention than you may have paid them in the past.

FINISH FIRST

You might be surprised to learn that car and truck paints have been reformulated over the last decade, and these new chemical processes have made paint care something that might be more suited for a chemical engineer than a typical car owner. But lacking your own personal chemist, here is a look at how and why paints have changed—and how to care for them.

The enamel paints that were used widely in the auto industry until the start of the 1980s had a lot going for them. Mostly they had a lot of paint going for them. Cars and trucks were painted by being sprayed with layer after layer after layer of colored paint. This made for a great finish on the vehicle if cared for properly, but it also created lots of problems.

The process added considerably to air pollution problems, and auto-makers spent time and money developing a new method for painting cars that would cut down on pollution.

That method is called clear-coating. Instead of painting with many layers of colored paint, only a few layers of color are sprayed on. Then they are covered with several layers of clear-coat paint, which serves to seal the paint and protect the surface.

Clear-coating's main problem is that if scratched or damaged in any way, the clear coat tends to show off that damage much more vividly than the old enamel paints. This is because the clear coat, when abraded or scratched, reflects that surface problem in a much more pronounced way than the old and polluting enamel paint methods. Clear coat, simply put, is delicate.

older vehicles or those needing the most intensive cleansing. For instance, the cleanser in our top-line wax is the same product jewelers use to clean gemstones and rings. It's non-abrasive, but it would not be appropriate for an enamel paint car, only for clear coat. Be sure to check the labels."

Robinson says waxing a car once a and it will probably have a shorter life than you might expect. Luxury car tires last a long time and give a smooth ride, but they do not provide the same handling that a sport tire will. Some new high-performance tires are unidirectional (made to roll in one direction), so make sure these tires are installed properly for the best performance.

Tire life can also be extended by applying protectant to the tire, usually in the form of a water-based silicone spray.

"Ozone, oxidation and ultraviolet radiation are your tire's worst enemies," says Armor All's Robinson. "If you are going to use a protectant, make sure it is waterbased and has no petroleum products in it. If the protectant has any fragrance, it probably has alcohol in it, and that is as bad for your tires as driving nails through them. Again, read the labels

How to care for clear-coat paints?

First, determine the condition of the paint. Has your vehicle been waxed in the past year? Do you live in a bad environment for the clear coat (heavy pollution, high heat, salt from snow-covered roads, acid rain and factories in your area)?

If the paint is generally in bad condition, it is probably best to start the cleaning process with a moderately abrasive cleanser. Now do not rush to the kitchen and get out the scouring powder. You need to use products specifically formulated for cleaning the clear coat without scratching the delicate finish.

Harry Robinson, a consumer relations representative for Armor All Products Corp. of Aliso Viego, Calif., says his company and others like it offer several different kinds of waxes and cleansers formulated for the new clear-coat finishes.

"Armor All has three waxes available," says Robinson. "Armor All wax is formulated for clear-coat paint, Raindance is a bit more abrasive and longer lasting, and Rally is best for year is a good rule of thumb, but if conditions dictate, you may want to do it more often. Just check the label first so you do not ruin your paint job.

How best to apply the wax?

"We supply applicators with our wax and so do some other manufacturers," Robinson says. "It's safe to use either a sponge or terry-cloth applicator, whichever you prefer."

TIRE TIME

When it comes to tire care, basic rules apply. Tire rotation is still a good idea, especially if it is recommended in your owner's handbook. Proper balancing of your tires is essential, of course. Have this work done at the appropriate shop or at the dealer if still under warranty.

Most new cars come with a manual from the tire manufacturer (which also contains your new car tire warranty), and following the instructions there should give your tires a nice, long life.

Remember, the sportier a tire is, the less comfortable a ride it will give,

SAFE BRAKES

Caring for brakes is generally best left to qualified service personnel. Some drum brakes, found on the rear end of many cars, can be adjusted by driving slowly backwards and pumping the pedal. Check with your service person before you try this.

Disc brakes, found on the front end of the majority of cars and on many trucks, need to be serviced by experts. Chirping or squealing noises when the brakes are applied, a scraping felt through the pedal or vehicle pulling to one side or another when you hit the brakes are all cause for a visit to your service facility.

If your car or truck is equipped with anti-lock brakes, you will feel a "kickback" in the brake pedal if that system is activated in a panic stop. That pulsing feeling is supposed to be there; it lets you know the computerized system is working properly. ■

Your Intercoiffure Salon

Nu-Motions

NU-MOTIONS

TIME and how to use it will be what everyone will be focusing on in the '90's. NU-MOTIONS will take the place of traditional motions in technics used in the salon of the '90's to help meet your needs of today. Today's ever changing and fast-paced lifestyles will have to be met by salon stylist's helping to give you the diversity you need to cover the many different areas of your life.

The ratio of the salon client will be equally divided between men and women. The appearance of more male clientele will make stylists perform more quickly, yet still effectively to ensure your needs are met.

"WASHING"

THE NEW WAVE IN HAIR SALONS

The new term in the salon business will be called "washing". This will mean simply that most chemical services that can take one to two hours will be achieved in a matter of a few minutes to half an hour! This will apply to all areas that include permanent waving, hair coloring, hair relaxing and, also hair conditioning.

COLORING

Color will be gentler to the hair and Color Washing will be the way to keep hair that is colored more natural looking and less damaged. It will have the affect of blending the colors together and brightening the hair to give it a more even color, allowing you the flexibility of a new, richer tone and luster to your hair.

The shape of hair is Short with Curls! You can wear it very set looking with curls, brush it out later for full waved hair, and sleek it down for a more styled look for night! There is much diversity to hair today.

WITH EYE MAKEUP

Makeup will have more alternatives also. The shape of course, is square...no soft round looks. Eye-liners will be more exact, using the darker color for the upper lid and a softer and sometimes lighter color for the lower lid.

Get ready for some glitter! Eye shadows for evening are definitely metallic ranging from coppers to silvers and golds. Day shadows will be matte and very rich in jewel-tone shades. The lips will be full and imperfect in shape, from deep red browns to dark blueberry tones. Night will find them shimmery with golds and silvers applied as over tones. Cheek colors will be used softly, taking in color tones from ruby to Sante Fe colors of sand. They will be neutralized with yellows or browns by day, and highlighted with soft whites and yellows by night. Eyebrows are the key factor for the new look, using soft browns or taupes through the hair with eye shadow colors and applying mascaras from gray, brown or black to give control, lift and weight to sparse hairs. The look is a well intended application of color with exactness and preciseness, projecting a woman who knows who she is!

Body care in the salons of the '90's will be very big. People are more aware that their health is their responsibility and pulling toxins from the body, improving circulation, and reducing stress will be of utmost importance for them.

VOLUME 1 • NUMBER 1

HAIR IT IS!
What's new in hair color products at Gerald's? Highlights with Kaleidocolor are all the rage! Kaleidocolor allows colorists to impart rich red and gold tones or cool tones to the hair.

MAKE-UP YOUR MIND...

...And Lips, And Eyes and Cheeks!

Earth tones of soft browns, taupes and beiges will be the colors adorning the lips and eyes of the most up-to-date ladies this fall.

In keeping with the new "Santa Fe" look in vogue for make-up this fall, Gerald's salons have introduced four dramatic new shades for lips, five dazzling eye colors and two wonderful new blushers to set your cheeks aglow with color.

Be sure to see these stunning new shades during your next visit to Gerald's salons in Dearborn and Northville.

HAVE NO FEAR GENTLE IS HERE.

Also new — tube tints are now formulated with conditioners which allow them to work as gently as possible on the hair while still achieving the desired results. In addition, non-amonia color is being used for clients being introduced to color for the first time. The non-amonia based color also works gently to color the hair.

So don't let fear of damaging your hair keep you from experimenting with color. Ask a Gerald's colorist about a consultation today.

DULL IS BORING!

It's the end of the line for dull hair. Gerald's new hair care products, Altobella Maximum Shine, will add a healthy shine to your hair.

Developed at the renowned Rocco Altobelli salons, Altobella Maximum Shine products contain HylurSilk which is a combination of the natural moisturizer produced by your body (sodium hyaluronate) and silk protein. HylurSilk adds outstanding body and volume to the hair and leaves it with a natural silk-like shine.

Now available at all Gerald's salons, the new Altobella Maximum Shine product line includes shampoos, moisturizer, gel, glaze and fixative spray.

GERALD'S STAFF — IN THE KNOW

Knowing what the new looks in hair are for the approaching fall season is one thing. Knowing how to achieve those looks is quite another.

Hair stylists at Gerald's salons, know both the "what" and the "how", and are taught "how" by some of the very best in the business.

Internationally-renowned stylists Tony and Guy visited Gerald's salons during March and April this year to conduct workshops with Gerald's hair stylists.

The stylists were tutored in achieving various versions of the new fall look for hair which is chin-level hair layered throughout the crown and top with soft wave added for body and movement.

"Not all of our clients change their hair to mirror the latest trends. But, we believe it is important for us to keep abreast of these trends and techniques so that we can consistently offer our clients the very latest styles," said Gerald Haynes.

CONSULT THE EXPERTS

Thinking of changing your hair style or color, but not sure what to do? Let one of Gerald's experts help you out.

Complimentary consultations with Gerald's colorists and stylists are available by appointment. If you are contemplating a new style or color, but have reservations or questions about what is the right look for you, our highly-knowledgeable, expertly-trained staff would be happy to discuss the options that might work best for you. For a consultation, simply phone the Gerald's salon nearest you. Call Gerald's in Franklin at 626-7171, Dearborn 274-9200 or Northville, 420-0111.

FASHION 1990-2000

The World According to Harper's Bazaar

Today's American Woman is intelligent, opinionated and affluent. She cares about quality and style and doesn't mind paying a premium for it. She's a risk-taker, with a strong desire to be distinctive, to make her mark.

One of the most important characteristics of today's woman is that she thinks young. She takes care of her health and makes an effort to stay in shape. Look around you and you'll see the results: today's forty-year-old woman looks a lot like a thirty-year-old did ten years ago. It's no wonder she doesn't regard herself as "middle-aged." In the '90s that huge, all-important demographic bulge we call the Baby Boom will turn fifty. All bets about what's "old" and "young" are off.

Nearly one hundred years ago, in 1895 to be exact, H.G. Wells wrote The Time Machine, a science fiction novel that told the story of a scientist and his extraordinary invention, which transported him backward and forward in time.

We've come up with our own version of the Time Machine, to show the influence on trends for Fall 1990. Our Time Machine makes four exciting stops.

This period is represented by the urban menswear, influenced "Annie Hall" look and the reemergence of Yves Saint Laurent and his signature pantsuit.

The '70's inspired color trend has ecology as its underlying theme. A natural and brown dominated color palette will set the tone. An orangy, true pumpkin shade will be the dominant accent color. This will be a major print season--especially paisley.

Here we have Russian peasant dressing and America's love affair with folklore and knits.

The most pronounced silhouette: tunic and tent shapes worn over leggings. Here fabrics will be grainy, plush, brushed, coated, or all of the above.

The color story in this trend is predominantly dark, in keeping with the military-uniform theme. Watch for lipstick red, old gold and tarnished silver as accent colors.

The primary emphasis here is on combining solids. The overall shape is long over long. Sturdy fabrics will dominate "Uniform" dressing.

The palette of Florence is filled with vintage colors; the rich, beautiful focus of this trend. Blues and greens will be blended, especially during the Holidays, with antique gold accents. "Decorative" and "ornamental" sum up this tribute to Renaissance Baroque.

The true Renaissance silhouette is contemporary, with a focus on slim underlayers with long overlayers. Plushness and texture will be essential.
