Woman injured in ambulance roadside

By MIKE TYREE
Staff Writer

An ambulance carrying a heart attack victim to St. Mary Hospital was broadsided at the Haggerty/Six Mile intersection by a 78-year-old Northville woman last week.

The Northville woman and three Community Emergency Medical Service (CEMS) workers suffered minor injuries in the Oct. 16 rush-hour accident. The heart patient, a 41-year-old Detroit man, was not injured.

He was transported to St. Mary by township paramedics and fire department personnel.

Township ambulances also transported the injured CEMS workers to St. Mary.

Township police said the Northville woman was ticketed for failure to yield to an emergency vehicle.

According to township police reports and witness accounts, the CEMS ambulance was traveling south on Haggerty at approximately 4:20 p.m. The ambulance driver and witnesses said the ambulance lights and siren were activated.

Police said the ambulance approached the Haggerty/Six Mile intersection by driving left of the left-hand turn lane into a northbound lane and stopped at the intersection.

Teen gets time for burglar tool

By STEVE KELLMAN
Staff Writer

A Farmington Hills teenager was sentenced last Tuesday, Oct. 16 to four days of work camp and placed under the supervision of the court for six months for possession of a burglary tool and alcohol.

Jeffrey Allan Martin, 19, had been stopped June 2 on Taft Road near the Northville/Novi border by Northville City police. Police found a "slim-jim" vehicle unlocking device and three radar detectors in the car, and charged the teen for possession of the burglary tool.

Martin told 35th District Court Judge James N. Garber Tuesday that he had used the device to unlock a friend's car after she locked her keys in it. "I'd gotten it from another friend. I was going to return it the next day, and I was pulled over the day I had it," Martin said.

He had told police that two of the radar detectors belonged to friends as well.

But Garber reminded Martin that the mere possession of such a tool was illegal, before setting sentence.

Martin was also sentenced Tuesday for possession of alcohol. He was placed under the supervision of the court for six months in each case, assigned a total of four days of work detail, and charged court and other costs.

Silver seeks senate election

Steve Silver admits he doesn't really want the job.

What he does want is a resurgence of some old-fashioned, patriotic values in our governmental process.

"I feel government has strayed far from what our founding fathers wanted it to be," said Silver, a 34-year-old Huntington Woods resident and the Libertarian candidate for the 15th District state Senate seat. The district includes Novi and part of the City of Northville.

"The government is there to protect our rights, which means police and courts — nothing else," he said.

"I feel people should run the country, not some tin god in Washington."

Heintz runs for post unopposed

Northville resident Susan Heintz faces no opposition in the Nov. 6 general election for a Wayne County Commission seat. Heintz is seeking her third term as the lone Republican on the 15-member commission. The Record recently asked the former Northville Township clerk and supervisor to discuss her role in county government.

By MIKE TYREE
Staff Writer

RECORD: You are running unopposed for this seat on the county commission. Tell me what you, as the only Republican on the board, can do for your constituents from this minority position.

HEINTZ: I've been very fortunate, because for one that is the only elected Republican in Wayne County government. . . my peers have elected me to the second most powerful (county commission) position, which is the vice-chairman of the commission. In that role I think I've been able to be effective.

I'm also on a very powerful committee, called the Committee on Roads, Airports and Public Services, which directly affects my district. Even though I'm the only Republican, I've been able to have some degree of influence over the body.

RECORD: What is the status of the renovation proposal for Metro (Airport)? What is your position on the process?

HEINTZ: I get two questions when I go out to talk about Metro Airport. Those questions are: One — why does the airport look so terrible? And two — why is there such a noise problem with the airport? The two problems actually are not related, but for the purposes of this election, they seem to have become related.

Back in the winter, when the FAA (Federal Aviation Administration) changed the flight patterns of the airplanes . . . they suddenly started putting aircraft over areas that previously had not had that many planes flying over — especially the Dearborn area and parts of Livonia. We here in the Northville area hear it sometimes, but not as bad as the other areas.

I really believe we have to do something about that airport. It really is terrible, the way it looks, the way it functions. It needs to be modernized, no doubt about it.

The noise problem is being addressed. It's not something we can do overnight, but there's been congressional hearings and we've set up a subcommittee that Susan Hubbard out of Dearborn is chairing. Also, the major impediment for curing it seems to be resolved. (County) Executive (Edward) McNamara was able to convince the FAA to have a task force look at switching these flight plans. They're going to have a recommendation by Dec. 1.

I think we are going to take care of the noise problems, but something has got to be done with that airport. It's a mess.

RECORD: The Northville area is a prime location for holding patterns. A lot of planes fly around at different altitudes here. Will the FAA decision change holding patterns here?

PRESCHOOL HALLOWEEN PARTY: Northville Community Recreation is sponsoring a Preschool Halloween Party from 2-3:30 p.m. Tuesday, Oct. 30.

All preschoolers and their parents are invited to attend the party held at the Northville Community Center, 303 W. Main. Refreshments, games and stories will create an exciting party. Registration deadline is Oct. 26. The fee is $3 per child. Parents are free. For more information call 349-0203.

NYA COUNCIL NEEDS MEMBER: Northville Youth Assistance is seeking a dedicated, youth-oriented city resident to be appointed to the NYA Advisory Council. The advisory council members are appointed by the city council.

Contact Mary Ellen King at 344-1618 for further information.

SENIOR FLU SHOTS: Flu shots for senior citizens will be held in November at the University of Michigan M-Care Health Center in Northville.

Anyone over the age of 62 is eligible to receive these injections at a reduced fee of $5 during these clinics. Anyone 61 years or younger will be charged the regular $13 fee.

Seniors will be required to wait at the center for 10 minutes after their shot to be sure they have no reaction.

Only those who have preregistered for shots will be inoculated. To provide timely services, only one inoculation every 15 minutes will be scheduled. The schedule will not accommodate additional people who come with someone who has an appointment.

Appointments are limited; call the Northville Senior Center by Oct. 31 to schedule an appointment. The number is 349-4140.

U-M ALUMNI MEET: The newly-formed University of Michigan Club of Northville will hold its first meeting at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, Nov. 8 at Genitti's Hole-in-the-Wall, 108 E. Main St. A cash bar will be available.

The meeting is open to all residents of the Northville/Novi area who have recently joined or are interested in joining the club. Membership is open to alumni, parents of students, parents of alumni and friends of the University of Michigan.

The formal meeting will be followed by refreshments and a social hour.

CHAMBER SEEKS PHOTOS . . . The Northville Community Chamber of Commerce is looking for photos of the second Victorian Festival. Anyone willing to share their pictures is asked to contact the chamber at 349-7640 or to drop the photos off at 195 S. Main St.

AND PHOTOGRAPHERS: The Northville Community Chamber of Commerce hopes to find a photographer to take Victorian-style pictures at the 1991 Victorian Festival. Chamber Director Laurie Marrs said the festival may include a setup where people can have their picture taken in the old photographic style in Victorian costume. She asked that anyone who knows of a photographer able to do this type of work call the chamber office at 349-7640.

AMUSING TICKETS: The Northville Recreation Department has discount tickets available to several area amusement parks: Cedar Point, Kings Island, Boblo, the Detroit Zoo, Sea World, and more. You can save up to $5.25 on some tickets. Tickets are on sale now at the Northville Community Center, 303 W. Main St., 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m., Monday through Friday. For special prices, call 349-0203, for children 9 years and older to go to the Four Bears Water Park in Utica. The $14 fee includes a hot dog lunch, admission to the park and transportation. To register, stop by the recreation department office.

MUSTANG UPDATE — Plymouth Salem may have dashed Northville's hopes of a football playoff berth, knocking off the Mustangs 27-13 Friday night. The loss overshadowed a spectacular evening by quarterback Ryan Huzjak, who hit 21-of-27 aeriels for 274 yards and a touchdown. Northville fumbled away its first three possessions — twice inside the Salem 30, and that set the tone for the contest. . . . Some more line-up hanky-panky by Livonia Stevenson stung the Northville netters for the second time in less than a week.

After failing to qualify for the MHSAA State Meet by a single point on Oct. 12, the Mustangs ran into more troubles at the rescheduled WLA Meet on Oct. 16 — and in both cases the Spartans were a major roadblock. That would be frustrating enough; but Northville Coach Uta Filkin has been outspoken against what she believes is a clear case of line-up stacking by Stevenson.

The hard-luck Mustangs wound up in third place in the 12-team competition with 15 points.

Adaptive playground applauded

By SUZANNE HOLLYER

Rain didn't stop Old Village School administrators from officially opening a playground designed for special education students, but it did move the dedication ceremonies inside.

The adaptive playground was officially opened Oct. 10 at the Old Village School in Northville.

The ceremony had all the "pomp and circumstance" of a high school graduation with everything from a ribbon-cutting ceremony to performances by the Northville High School band and barbershop quartet.

"Today is a day for celebration," administrator Christine Clinton-Cali said.

The playground was built and financed completely through volunteers and contributions. No tax money was spent on the playground that was built to accommodate the needs of physically challenged students.

"This is a day for all of us," said Superintendent George Bell. "For three years we've seen volunteerism at work."

The untimely rain that forced the ceremony off the playground and into the school's gym was not unusual for those associated with the playground's construction, Cali said.

She said construction of the playground was often done in the rain or postponed because of the rain.

But after three years the playground was finally ready. The colorful decorations and lively entertainment got the Old Village School students, who have already been using the playground, cheering and clapping their hands.

The playground was designed for special education students, but neighborhood kids often use the equipment, Bell said.

"It's used about every hour of the day on a sunny day," Bell said.

When the young meet the young-at-heart at A Growing Place Inc. day-care center and preschool in Novi all kinds of good things happen.

Located in the basement of Christ Lutheran Church on Ten Mile Road, the preschool provides 2 1/2- to 4-year-old students with busy days of learning to play together and learn about differences between people.

To help them learn about differences, a group of "grandmas" comes to visit on the first and third Tuesday of each month.

The experience provides the kids not only an opportunity to appreciate differences between people, but also an early lesson in etiquette, said director Korene Jett.

"We tell them things like you mustn't sit on Grandma's lap unless you're invited," Jett said.

But the grandmas don't seem to mind sharing their lap very much.

During the grandmas' most recent visit to the preschool, Madison Baja was a little out-of-sorts. It was the day after her parents had another baby. She was not unhappy, just a little flustered.

Madison eventually climbed into grandma Vera's lap for a rejuvenating hug and kiss or two.

Grandma Vera, known as Vera Whitman to grown-ups, accompanied Madison to make a handprint out of plaster of Paris, serious business for preschoolers.

In other areas of the classroom, the grandmas were helping the preschoolers accomplish various feats of art and entertainment.

Grandma Mary (Mary Clair Watters) helped Kelly Nicholson create a vest out of a paper bag and some pictures. The vest had pictures of things Kelly likes to do on it.

Grandma Margaret (Margaret Meldrum) measured Steven Gillan's arms, legs, wrists, height, etc.

Grandma Helen (Helen Harrison) played with toys with Kimberly Rochford and Christine Murphy.

Although the grandmas are helpful, they are not at the center to provide extra supervision, Jett said. "I don't need extra help, we have plenty of staff," Jett said. "What I'm looking for are friendships."

Jett thought of the program when she saw how well her younger relatives interacted with her older relatives. She thought the idea could work in day care.

"A lot of kids don't get a chance to have a relationship with an older person," she said.

Jett will expand the program to include another group of "grandmas" or other elderly people.

Retention Holding kids back is matter of discussion

By SUZANNE HOLLYER
Staff Writer

Failing a grade in school is the third most feared event in the life of a student followed only by blindness and the death of a parent, according to a Massachusetts Department of Education survey.

Novi parents Steve and Izumi Myers wanted to protect their daughter from that dreaded life experience, and they disagreed when a first-grade teacher wanted to retain their daughter.

Retention is educator jargon for preventing a student from advancing to the next grade level.

Jun, it seems, was reading at a third-grade level and had learned the multiplication tables, but her teacher thought she was too immature for the second grade.

"Jun can be very headstrong and impatient," Steve Myers said. But he and his wife did not feel that patience was cause for holding their daughter back a grade.

The Myers' daughter Jun was advanced after discussions with them, the principal and the teacher.

Today Jun is a successful fourth grader. Steve Myers does not want to avenge his daughter's near retention, but he would like the district to have a look at their retention policy.

"There's no injury to Jun," he said. "I'm not trying to redress a wrong."

Steve Myers sent a copy of The Bay State Teacher, which condemned retention as a "bad practice that usually doesn't work," to the Novi Board of Education asking for a public discussion of the issue. The magazine is published by the Massachusetts Department of Education for the state's teachers.

The Massachusetts department in April issued an advisory to all school districts warning against retention.

Myers caught wind of the advisory, which caused a bit of controversy in the state, and decided to pass the information on to the Novi school district.

At the last meeting of the Novi Board of Education, Superintendent Robert Pitwko strongly defended the district's policy.

"(The retention policy) has been in existence for years and it has served the district well," Pitwko said.

"We always try to make a decision in the best interest of the student," Pitwko said. "It's an outstanding policy."

Under state law, the final decision on whether to retain a student is with school authorities, Pitwko said.

But parents are involved in the decision-making process and can appeal a teacher's decision through the board-of-education level, said the director of special programs, Rita Traynor.

"Hopefully, the parent and teacher have been working throughout the year and this isn't going to come as a big surprise," Traynor said.

"If Jun was the only challenge they have ever seen that's not a problem."

Steve Myers,
Novi parent

The district's policy is to retain a student only if no other alternative exists.

The district retains very few students, about three or four a year at the kindergarten through fourth-grade level, Traynor said.

The numbers go down further in the upper grades. One or two students at the seventh- and eighth-grade level may be retained. At the high school level every effort is made to pass students to the next grade because of a fear that students will drop out, Traynor said.

Traynor said parents concerned about their child's achievement often request their child be held back.

The child's social development may be a factor in retention, she said.

"Some children are too young emotionally when they start school," Traynor said.

The cost to the district for sending a child through a grade twice is negligible when the goal is to motivate a student to stay with school until graduation, Traynor said.

"It's not a quick decision," she said. "It's not based on inexperienced decision making."

The district may not have a problem with its policy, Steve Myers said, but he is glad the issue has been raised for consideration.

"It may well be that the policy is well said and well implemented, that doesn't mean it isn't an issue that should be raised once in a while," he said.

"Individual mistakes can always occur. If Jun was the only challenge they have ever seen that's not a problem."

The Massachusetts Department of Education's report listed several criticisms of retention:

- Retention hurts the academic progress of students rather than helps it.
- Retention hurts the self-esteem of students.

- Students who are retained are more likely to eventually drop-out of school.

- Retention cannot be presented to a student as anything but a punishment.

- Prejudices and gender biases could allow students to be retained that could actually succeed at the next grade level.

- Retention is used as a threat by educators who use the practice as a form of discipline.

Self-employed as co-owner of a Southfield-based company called The Oil Dispatch, Silver touts the traditional Libertarian party line. He advocates maintaining personal freedoms, reducing the size of government and lowering taxes. As do other Libertarians, Silver advocates "radical reductions" in taxes and believes public education to be a bureaucracy that "chews up money," and that citizens should be given a choice in education and in other public spending issues.

"Because of his views, Silver clearly stands apart from the candidates on the Democratic and Republican tickets."

"For example, he is against pollution (as are most politicians), but he views the issue differently. With laws and regulations, government actually harasses small businesses and supports large businesses that pollute, he said. He calls the issue of government funding of the arts "a joke." "It's all a side issue," he said. "We shouldn't fund the arts at all. That's an issue where both sides are wrong."

He faces Democratic incumbent Jack Faxon of Farmington Hills and Republican challenger Denise Alexander of Southfield Nov. 6 for the 15th District seat.

In the current economic and political climate, Silver said, people are looking for the solutions his Libertarian philosophy offers. "I think as the government spends more and more money they don't have, there will be painful economic contractions," he said.

"I'm not sure if Democratic or Republican parties are going to change, or whether people will get fed up and go for a third party. I think Baby Boomers are Libertarian without realizing it. They favor fiscal conservatism with personal freedom."

Ironically, it was the conservative Republican Ronald Reagan who first drew Silver to the Libertarian way of thinking. "His (Reagan's) inaugural speech was Libertarian, nearly word for word," he said, adding that he does not believe Reagan adhered to that philosophy very well while in the White House.

Silver has since become involved in several groups devoted to spreading the word about his party, and was put up by the party to run this November, he said.

A Southfield native, Silver's background is in computer science, and he worked for both EDS and General Motors Corp. before going into business with his brother with The Oil Dispatch in 1984. Today, they operate seven of the quick oil change businesses.

District 15 includes the cities of Farmington, Farmington Hills, Southfield, Novi, Wixom, Oak Park, Ferndale, Huntington Woods, Pleasant Ridge, Royal Oak Township, Novi Township and Northville above Baseline Road.

The Council of Homeowners Associations of Farmington Hills will host 15th state Senate District candidates in a debate at 7:15 p.m. Wednesday, Oct. 24, in the Farmington Hills City Hall, 31555 Eleven Mile. The meeting will be in the council chambers.

THE GENERAL ELECTION

HEINTZ: Yes. Specifically, it's supposed to address that. The existing patterns will be reduced once we start building new cross-wind runways and the north-south runway. A lot of that will be reduced. We have to get runways for the planes to land. Flights won't dramatically increase; however, the holding patterns and inconveniences and resident concerns should be resolved by this modernization.

RECORD: What are some of the steps the county is taking to address solid waste issues?

HEINTZ: We were the first to submit our (solid waste) plan to the state. And they're pretty ambitious goals. We're having spirited discussion with the DNR in regard to what is an appropriate plan. The DNR would like to put conditions on our plan that we don't think are appropriate.

RECORD: What type of conditions? Concerning what aspects of the plan?

HEINTZ: Concerning composting. Use of landfills, incineration, recycling. Western Wayne County has a tremendous influence (in the county plan). The Conference of Western Wayne put much greater influence on recycling than incineration. I feel that's the way to go. Solid waste and composting is the issue of the '90s. It's not a real easy process. Nobody really knows which way to go.

RECORD: Is solid waste the county's top agenda item?

HEINTZ: Well, I think the first priority of the county is crime. That takes up over 40 percent of our budget. The county runs not only the Sheriff's Department; they run most of the courts, the jails, they run the youth home, a lot of the juvenile programs... because that is so much of our budget, that has to be the top priority.

RECORD: Can you foresee any more holding facilities — jails, rehabilitation facilities, etc. — constructed in the township?

HEINTZ: No. I would actively fight against it, just as I always have. I think we've done enough. We've done more than our fair share, for a number of services. We have the largest mental health facility in the state of Michigan. We've got three prisons in one small area. We have had a large area of unwanted land use. We're working to stop that.

RECORD: A lot of that changed in the last few weeks with a spread in the pen.

HEINTZ: Yes. Let's hope.

RECORD: The county land deal is dangerously close to completion. Give us your thoughts on the process and what can the project mean to the county and the Northville community.

HEINTZ: Long process. Handled in typical government fashion. It took a lot longer than anyone expected. I think it's going to be wonderful for this community and the major reason that it is going to be so wonderful is that no one will ever come back to Northville and want to use that land for a prison or a dump or any other land use we would consider to be inappropriate.

It's going to be a great development. A showcase.

RECORD: Aside from the idea that the development is supposed to be of such high quality, the practical positions are that it puts over 900 acres on the tax rolls and it removes the threat of dumps and prisons?

HEINTZ: Right. We have been under siege with that property for every single land use imaginable. Actually, a lot of them haven't even been made public. Anytime someone thought of an idea like an alternate kind of boot camp or a dump, that property was up for sale.

RECORD: Was it ever mentioned about that being the low-level radiation site?

HEINTZ: We heard rumors about that, but it's never been verified. To be blunt about it, I wouldn't put it out of the realm of possibility. It's been tested to see if it was suitable to be a dump site. . . . When I was supervisor of Northville Township, it scared the heck out of me.

I didn't like the fact that Northville was always known as the place to put all the unwanted. I think this is the end. We're not going to do it anymore. Everyone in the state knows it and now the county knows it. This is the end of that.

RECORD: Lastly, you've moved rather quickly from the township level to the county level. What comes next? Are you looking at any office on a statewide or national level?

HEINTZ: I've just been one of those fortunate people that have been able to move up when the opportunity is there. I've never really had to worry about that. I'm one of the few people who gets up in the morning and looks forward to going to work. I've loved working in government. My dad was a mayor (Mt. Clemens), so I was brought up in government.

RECORD: Is the federal government a goal of yours?

HEINTZ: I don't know. I haven't really thought about it, to be quite honest. The big push for me, for the last six weeks, has been the land sale. I'm so happy that's over. If that is the only thing . . . if that is my legacy, that would be fine.

Police News

A Northville Township police officer recently was involved in a high-speed car chase which began on Five Mile Road west of Beck and ended near the US-23/M-14 exchange.

According to police reports, the officer was eastbound on Five Mile Oct. 12 at approximately 3 p.m. when he noticed a westbound "newer model" red Chevrolet Nova four-door passing other vehicles. The officer said radar indicated the vehicle was moving at 68 miles per hour (mph) in a 45-mph zone.

The officer turned and began to chase the Nova, whose driver exited on westbound M-14. The officer reported that he chased the vehicle at speeds up to 95 mph. During the chase, the Nova passed vehicles on the shoulder of M-14.

At the M-14 and Dixboro exchange, the suspect vehicle reportedly cut off two other vehicles, causing them to swerve out of the way.

At one point in the chase, the officer got close enough to the suspect to see his facial features. The officer also said the driver waved at him.

A township police command officer cut short the chase at the US-23/M-14 exchange and the Washtenaw County Sheriff's Department was advised of the situation.

The Nova driver was last seen driving southbound on US-23, police said.

The police officer said the Nova was using improper license plates that were registered to a junked 1977 Pontiac. Police said a window was missing from the Nova and that the car may have been stolen.

Township police said the vehicle has not been recovered and the case remains open.

STOLEN JEEP FOUND — A white 1990 Jeep listed as stolen in Farmington Hills was found in Novi Monday.

A Walpole Lake man who was walking in the area found the Jeep stuck in mud in a wooded area near the intersection of Twelve Mile and Meadowbrook roads at approximately 7 p.m. Oct. 15.

According to police, the injured Lake man recovered the proof of insurance from the Jeep's open glovebox. Police used it to trace the vehicle.

SUSPENDED LICENSE ARREST

A 38-year-old Detroit woman was arrested Oct. 18 by Northville City police for driving with a suspended license. She was stopped for speeding on West Main Street at 6:46 a.m., and a computer check revealed that her license had been suspended 14 times. She was released on $150 in bonds.

BREAKING AND ENTERING — An estimated $3,700 in property was reported stolen from a Taft Rd. residence in Novi Tuesday after an unknown person broke into the home through an unlocked window.

Police reported that a visual check of the residence revealed the window, on the lower east side of the house, was unsecured and there was evidence of foot marks on the exterior brick and window ledge area.

No other forced areas of entry were detected.

Novi police, who retrieved some fingerprints and other physical evidence at the scene, placed the property that was traceable into a computer list of stolen items.

Items listed as missing included a 12-place setting of sterling silverware, a television and VCR, a child's fur jacket, a trumpet and a trombone, and costume jewelry.

WARRANT ARREST — A Detroit man, 44, was arrested by Northville City police Oct. 17 after being stopped for a defective muffler, when a computer check turned up an outstanding warrant. The man had failed to appear in court on a Ferndale police department charge of open intoxicants. He was released on $100 bond.

THEFT FROM VEHICLE — The back window of a 1985 Toyota truck was pried open while parked outside VIP Tire on Grand River in Novi. A tool box with an estimated $600 in hand tools was reported stolen from the truck.

There were no suspects or witnesses reported in connection with the incident, which caused an estimated $50 damage to the vehicle.

WOMEN'S WALLET STOLEN — A woman told Northville City police that her wallet was stolen during a party at a North Center Street house Oct. 5, sometime between 2-5 a.m. The wallet reportedly contained $130 in cash, a gold V necklace worth $350, and various credit cards. The case is still under investigation.

A THIRD BREAKING AND ENTERING — Still another breaking and entering occurred Tuesday to an apartment in Novi.

The Solomon St. apartment was reportedly broken into through the front door. Police believe a crowbar was used to help kick the door open.

There was over $100 damage to the door, but no items were reported missing.

Several drawers had been pulled open in the bedrooms, and a jewelry box had been dumped open onto the bed. However, such valuable items as a wedding ring, guns, a computer, VCR and television were untouched.

CLOTHES STOLEN FROM JEEP — Two Polo shirts, a duffel bag and 30 cassette tapes were reported stolen from a Jeep parked on North Center Street Oct. 17, sometime between 2:30 a.m. and 12 noon. One shirt was khaki with a blue Polo emblem, and the other was navy with a red Polo emblem. Two cassette tapes were taken for possible fingerprints, and the case remains open.

WIRE WHEEL COVERS STOLEN

Four 14-inch wire wheel covers were reported stolen off a car parked on Griswold Street Oct. 18, sometime between 8:30 a.m. and 12 noon. The silver covers, by Buick, were valued at $75 each, according to the Northville City police report.

FENDER BENDERS — Northville City police reported two accidents last Thursday, Oct. 18. A Northville woman, 16, driving south on South Main Street about 8:10 a.m. reportedly attempted to make a left turn from the right lane, striking another southbound car in the left lane. She was cited for making an improper lane change.

A 61-year-old Northville man turning onto Baseline Road from the stop sign at Horton Street about 4:42 p.m. reportedly failed to yield and his car was struck by a eastbound car. He was cited for failing to yield.

ANOTHER BREAKING AND ENTERING — A condominium on Edgewater in Novi was also reported broken into Tuesday and items valuing over $11,000 were reported stolen.

The condominium was entered through the front door, which had been pried open with a screwdriver. Reported missing were a $3,000 silver wedding ring with over one-half karat diamond; a 12-place sterling silver setting worth $8,000; assorted gold chains and a collection of quarters.

The homeowner reported she had arrived home at approximately 5:30 p.m. and noticed several articles of clothing thrown about her home. She said she became frightened and went to a friend's home, where she called Novi police.

Citizens with information about the above incidents are urged to call Northville City Police at 349-1234, Northville Township Police at 349-9400, or the Novi Police Tip Line at 349-6887.

Man charged when he fails to show in court

By STEVE KELLMAN
Staff Writer

A warrant has been issued for the arrest of a Northville man for failure to appear at 35th District Court on a charge of filing a false police report.

Judge James N. Garber issued the warrant Tuesday when Kevin Edward Payne, 21, failed to appear for a pretrial hearing on the case.

The charge stems from a car chase just after midnight, July 24. Northville City police attest that Payne was the one that fled from a police officer during the chase, but Payne claimed the car was stolen from his house on Yerkes Road just before midnight.

City police officer William Edgar reported chasing a vehicle which cut in front of his patrol car on Eight Mile Road to Greenridge Road in Northville Township, where the driver stopped and ran from the car. Edgar said the man ran into his patrol car's headlights before running off toward Eight Mile Road.

Edgar was then dispatched to the Northville Wine Shoppe, 680 Eight Mile Rd., to take a report of a stolen car. When he got there, he identified Payne, the person reporting the stolen car, as the driver of the car in question.

Payne insisted on filing a stolen car report that night despite being charged with fleeing and eluding a police officer, according to city police reports.

He has already pleaded "no contest" to the fleeing and eluding charge, which was heard Aug. 21. He was fined $90 for that charge.

5 steps to a more organized life

The Fortune 500 CEO has nothing on the working mother, according to time management consultant Lucy Hedrick. "The working mother and the single working mother especially, have more balls to juggle" than any high-powered male executive, she said.

Hedrick, a Connecticut-based member of the National Association of Professional Organizers, is the author of a new book, "Five Days to an Organized Life." She was in the Detroit area recently speaking on organizing lives to more than 1,100 career women in a "Career Event" sponsored by Hudson's.

In an interview prior to the event, Hedrick said, "Those two categories — working women and single working women — need to delegate and let go. They need to concentrate on the most important things, focused and few, and let the others go."

The '90s woman needs to get away from the image of the '80s lady, she said, and give some time to herself.

The '80s woman tried to do it all and was burdened with stress and burnout. The '90s woman is working just as hard, but has traded quantity for quality. As more demands are made of her time, she's learned to throw up her hands and respond, "Be real."

"Common sense says you have to fill the gas tank, recharge the batteries. You have to take time off for good behavior. Take a Saturday off, spend a week night with the girls, attend a career night with Hudson's. If you don't, what kind of worker will you be? What kind of parent? It sends an important message to kids: 'It's my job to take care of me.'"

Rewards — some as simple as a coffee break — are essential, Hedrick said. "You save time by taking time off. All work and no play makes Jane a dull girl. If you don't stop, take time out to give yourself a reward and boost morale. It's a matter of 4 o'clock diminished returns — eyelids drooping and shoulders sloping."

Prioritizing the "to do's" is one step toward an organized life, Hedrick said. "Look at the 'to do list.' How am I going to feel about myself when I do it? If the answer is 'terrible' do it first in order to feel happy and satisfied. People who are organized feel good about themselves. How to decide which is first depends on how you feel about it. Will you feel better if you get the eight errands done or take a quick aerobics class to work off steam?"

There are some, Hedrick said, "who say they're organized at the office but it all breaks down at home." The differential is motivation, she said. "There's no paycheck at home. And some skills don't carry over — there are no secretaries and subordinates at home being paid to take orders."

Interruptions are also a factor, she said. "There is no protective secretary or voice mail to intercept calls, she said."

The same suggestion that applies to the executive on the job applies to the working mom at home — learn to delegate. "Cleaning help — even if it's only every other week — is a not a luxury. It's a necessity," she said. And she's an advocate of the team approach — children helping to do household tasks that make it easier for the working mother.

While anyone, at any age, can learn to become more organized through methods in her book, Hedrick believes in starting children early to become organized individuals. "One way to create organized adults is by osmosis and role models as children."

Knowing when to quit your day job

Let's imagine that you're about to open your own import gift shop this weekend. You've been a full-time manager with the XYZ Co. and, for the past three years, you have spent every spare moment since last fall working on your gift shop.

Now the vision is about to become reality. There's just one more issue left to be decided. Do you continue working for your present employer? And if so, for how long?

Knowing when to stay and when to leave applies to anyone employed outside the home. But for the new business owner leaving an existing job can spell disaster when the timing isn't right.

At one end are would-be entrepreneurs who quit their jobs as soon as they decide what it is they want to do. At the other extreme are those who refuse to leave no matter how busy their business becomes over time.

Paul Kennedy, owner of Kennedy Plumbing in Livonia, believes quitting a job prematurely is the biggest mistake an owner of a new business can make.

"It's not like leaving your job to write a book," Kennedy said. "I've yet to meet anyone who was financially independent enough to take on that type of risk."

He points out that it is possible to successfully plan and work at the new business on a part-time basis.

"In my own situation, I worked nights and weekends for several years before I was making enough money to break out on my own."

sary before quitting to work at the new business.

"If the owner isn't readily available to make decisions and respond quickly to changes as the business grows, he or she will ultimately lose control of the operation. Depending on who has been put in charge, things may work out extremely well or fall apart completely."

"Regardless of what happens, the risk associated with the company's long-term success is just as great."

He stresses the ethical considerations of working on two careers simultaneously. "The practice of pursuing what is considered 'personal' business during your employer's time is not only unfair to the company and its other employees, but creates a whole new series of complications sooner or later."

He advises those starting new businesses to talk to those in similar fields.

"This is a crucial step and would mean speaking with not just a few people but several," Henke said. "It also helps to get in touch with small business advisers who are available to share information based on their previous work with clients."

"The one thing to remember is that experience is the best teacher, especially when it's someone else's experience you've learned from."

Mary DiPaolo is a Northville resident and owner of MarkeTrends a Farmington Hills business consulting firm. She is also producer and host of the cable television series "Chamber Perspectives."

Glasses are in for everyone

Eye wear makes the man, judging by the latest trend. Intelligent, sophisticated, powerful — eyeglasses are becoming just as important as the pinstripe suit, cuff links and tie as a fashion accessory.

What? Have 20/20 vision? Not to worry. "For the first time, we're getting people in without prescriptions," said Kathleen Bobbish, franchise owner of Pearle Vision in Garden City. "We get a couple of people a week. Glasses are not cheap. They're talking a minimum of $200 a pair."

Eyeglasses have really become in vogue during the past five years. As it becomes a fashion craze, more designers have jumped into the market including Ralph Lauren, Benetton and Liz Claiborne.

For young, upwardly mobile professional men, though, the explosion has really taken off in the last few years. To look erudite is out of fashion.

Lens Crafters recently did a study, which found that men who wore glasses were perceived to have higher incomes.

As a result, male eye wear strays away from big, ornate designs and frames. Instead, they are going for the simple — yet striking — Clark Kent look.

"There has been a trend toward your preppy look or your eye size look," said Marc Ferrara, editor of 20/20, a New York-based industry magazine for eye care professionals. "We see it here on Wall Street. Men are going for that power look."

So glasses that were once worn only by guys named Melvin or Felix, to compliment starched collar shirts and polyester pants, cut to reveal ample white sock, are in. A real life "Revenge of the Nerds?"

Not quite. Electrical tape isn't holding the bridge together on these frames.

Other technological developments have made eyeglasses the choice among men and women alike. For one, people with powerful prescriptions who wore lenses with the same density as the Plexiglass used in front of the bank windows can rejoice. New plastics, such as CR 39, can make lenses 30 percent lighter.

Also, new materials allow for different colorations and detailing on the bridges and the temples.

Some of the more popular styles or designs for men include the Ralph Lauren Polos ($100-$140), Gucci metal frames ($229) and Logo (starting at $90), according to Stephanie Doud of Lenscrafters in Westland Center. The average price for designer frames is $150. Bobbish said.

A growing number of customers coming into eye care centers are in their mid-20s to mid-30s. Most already have a definite style in mind when they arrive, thanks to those in the public eye.

"I noticed a lot of people coming in after 'Raiders of the Lost Ark' when Sean Connery wore a pair of rimless glasses and asking for them," said Bobbish, who has been in the eye wear business for 15 years.

"Every time (women) see a red pair, they do mention her (Sally Jesse Raphael's) name."

"I think that (Hollywood) is where the trend comes from," added Doud, who is a general manager at Lenscrafters in Westland. "They see an image and they want to match or portray it."

Sylvester Stallone set a trend, wearing his aviator style glasses in the recent film, "Tango & Cash." Ferrara also noted many more fashion shoots are including models with eyeglasses.

As the fashion craze continues to grow, though, there hasn't been a run on the basic wire rimmed glasses that President George Bush wears, Bobbish said.

But with any trend, there's a downside.

"Contacts have slacked off in recent years," Bobbish said. "One of the reasons is that kids don't think it's such a bummer to wear glasses anymore. People also tend to find they are more difficult to take care of, especially teenagers..."

So, are the contact wearers of the world the nerds of the '90s? Hard to say.

Bi-weekly payments save money

Can cut term of mortgage

By SID MITTRA
Special Writer

If you are a homeowner and want to save thousands of dollars by manipulating your mortgage payments, then you would want to carefully read this article.

In fact, unbelievable though it may seem, with a slight discipline and with no additional burden on your part, on an $80,000, 30-year mortgage, you can reduce total interest payments from $205,206 to $124,406 — a total savings of more than $80,000 (a 39-percent savings). Here is how it works.

EXPLOITING MONTHLY PAYMENTS

Mortgage payments are made on a monthly basis. Most of us have the mortgage money routinely set aside so it is no sweat writing the check at the end of the month. For instance, if you have an $80,000, 30-year mortgage at 11 1/2 percent interest, you pay $792.24 at the end of every month.

Now suppose I ask you to pay your mortgage on a bi-weekly basis. That is, you will pay $396.12 (half of $792.24) every two weeks, so your monthly payments will remain unchanged. I'm sure your question will be: What difference will it make?

The difference between a monthly and a bi-weekly payment is mind boggling. Your 30-year mortgage will be paid off in 20 years, and you will save $80,800 — all in interest.

GAINS WITH NO PAINS

Because there are 13, not 12, four-week periods in a year, you will pay an extra $729.24 a year, spread out over the year. But your return on this money is great. Clearly, bi-weekly payments make sense, but there are two major obstacles in the way. First, there are costs involved in refinancing your mortgage. Second, making

With bi-weekly payments a new home could be yours sooner than you expected bi-weekly, rather than monthly, payments involves additional administrative hassle on your part. Is there an easier way out? The answer is yes.

ABC BANK AS THE ADMINISTRATOR

Both of your obstacles are easily removed by engaging the ABC Bank (this bank actually exists). For a nominal fee, every other Tuesday ABC Bank will transfer your bi-weekly payment into a checking account opened for this purpose. Then each month, on the scheduled day, ABC will send the monthly payment to your mortgage company, merely eliminating your administrative chores and the need for refinancing your mortgage.

Thus far, the benefits are clear. But there is an additional benefit that is even more attractive. Since there are 13 four-week periods in any given year, by making bi-weekly payments, you will make one additional payment each year. This payment will be directly applied to the reduction of your principal.

THE BOTTOM LINE

The accompanying table, which includes the service charge by the ABC bank, demonstrates the power of this strategy. As mentioned, your mortgage will be paid 10 years early, and you would have saved a whopping $80,000 in interest payments.

One final point: Although the gains from using this strategy are maximum with new mortgages, significant gains can be achieved even if you have a mortgage with only a few years to maturity.

Seminar offers 5 steps to becoming organized

Try as you may, as a working mother there is no way to keep business separate from home life, Hedrick said, so it's necessary to recognize it and work around it. "Women have made decisions to be mothers and to work. It seems as if the children are there forever and forever, but eventually they leave the nest."

She said there will always be the attorney who is in court and gets the message that she has to pick up her child at school because of an injury on the playground. "You ask the judge for a continuance . . . And when the mayor calls and I'm in the middle of dinner, naturally I take the call."

As a time management consultant, Hedrick works most with small groups of workers in the corporation setting, and less often on a one-to-one basis. The quick-fix approach used in her sessions and outlined in "Five Days to an Organized Life," was created in answer to specific requests, she said. "They've said, 'We've brought you here to save time.

We don't have time to read tomes.' It's a given that everyone has too much to do in not enough time. These skills can be learned 30 minutes a day for five days. Some take more time to let the tea steep."

What's the benefit to being more organized? we asked. "You'll save time and gain a sense of freedom, a feeling of being in charge of your life."

And what's the cost of being more organized? "You don't need a computer. It's all pencil and paper for me, until there's a computer I can fit in my pocket. My notebook is my file cabinet and my calendar."

And if she loses the notebook? "I slit my wrists and jump off the cliff," she joked. "Actually I have lost it, but it's amazing that once you've written it down it's easy to regurgitate it. I say 'write it down so you don't forget it.' My friend says 'write it down so you can forget it.' Use your brains instead for creative work."

"Five Days to an Organized Life" is a Dell Trade Paperback published by Dell Publishing at $8.95. It is available at Hudson's book department and at other bookstores.

Hunters must help prevent gamy game

With the fall hunting season right around the corner, many households will be the recipients of deer, elk, bear and a host of smaller game.

If you find yourself in possession of a piece of venison or perhaps a brace of quail, even a mallard duck, don't panic. Cooking wild game is as simple as preparing beef, pork or poultry.

The problem facing most game cooks is that they must correct the mistakes made by the hunters.

Far more meat is ruined in the field than will ever be ruined in the kitchen. If hunters had to buy beef and pork in the same condition as the game they kill, we would be a nation of vegetarians.

While most hunters are men — with women entering the field this year in record numbers — a basic knowledge of cooking, even more in meat preparation, should be tantamount before entering the field.

Ask any hunter what makes a good steak and he or she usually answers, "aged beef."

Too often, venison is "aged" by improper care in the field. But it is also by far the most mistreated by hunters who fail to remove the hide in time or who do a poor job dressing the carcass.

The result is soured meat, a condition most hunters wrongfully explain by saying the meat has a "gamy taste." In truth, the meat is not gamy, it is spoiled.

If a cook comes upon meat that has been treated improperly to begin with, there are few things short of massive doses of spices, marinades and herbs that will disguise the flavor.

Let's take a closer look at venison. A venison steak or chop can be cooked like beefsteak. It can be broiled, barbecued or pan-fried. It is best medium rare.

Venison is not necessarily tough. It can be tough if cut against the grain. It also can be tough if all the moisture is cooked out.

Venison is by far the most healthful red meat you can eat. It is low in cholesterol, has mostly lean, fat-free tissue and, of course, has no chemical additives that ranchers usually administer to cattle, sheep and pigs.

The meat itself is not marbled the way beef is.

All visible fat should be trimmed from venison because it is generally tallowy and unpalatable. A venison roast or haunch can be roasted with strips of bacon laid over the top to compensate for lack of fat and marbling.

Game birds such as quail, dove or duck, like big game, are best when properly cared for in the field.

This means dressing and plucking as soon as possible. Improper drainage of blood and lack of plucking, coupled with a too-quick toss into a plastic unbreathable bag, can spell disaster in the kitchen.

But what can a hunter do to prepare for the upcoming season?

If every hunter spent an equal amount of time cleaning his or her equipment, as well as visiting a friendly neighborhood butcher or poultry expert, there would be little cause for chalking up a dinner that tastes "gamy."

At the Eastern Market, Capitol Poultry will allow you to choose a live hen, turkey or duck and then you can easily observe the preparation of the carcass.

If butchers in your area are reluctant to have strangers in the cutting room, visit your local library and read up on field dressing.

A good primer is the "Wildlife Chef" published by the Michigan United Conservation Clubs, P.O. Box 30235, Lansing 48909.

If your household will soon be gifted by wild game from the family hunters, now is a good time to begin learning what (and what not) to do.

Could the Great Pumpkin choose this pumpkin patch as the most sincere? We'll know by Halloween

GREAT PUMPKINS

Dish up some of the fall's finest fruit

By RICK BYRNE
Copy Editor

In the Peanuts cartoon, Linus tells us that the Great Pumpkin rises each Halloween from the "most sincere pumpkin patch."

If there's any truth to the legend, then Linus may want to plunk himself down in a field at the Meyer Berry Farm at 48090 Eight Mile Road in Northville, one of the sincerest pumpkin farms around. He'd better hurry, though, because the pumpkins are being snatched up by the busload as we reach the heart of the pumpkin season.

"Sunday is our big day," said Carol Meyer, who runs the farm with husband Larry. "Last week we had all four kids working. The cars were lined up so far you couldn't see the end of the line. It was steady."

The Meyers have over 10 acres of pick-your-own pumpkins, as well as gourds and hardy mums for sale. But more than that, a visit to the farm offers a chance to get out in the crisp fall breezes, to hear the wind rustle through the leaves, and to pick that one special pumpkin to carve into a jack-o'-lantern or bake into a pie.

"It's family fun time," said Carol. "We don't just sell pumpkins. Anyone can go down to the Shopping Center Market and get pumpkins or gourds. What we offer is recreation, too."

Kids find the pumpkin farm irresistible, and are awestruck by the big 150-pounder grown on the farm. Meyer's takes reservations for school and other groups.

"We had nine groups today," said Carol. "It can get hectic. On Friday we had three here at once, and one of the buses wouldn't start.

"A lot of children around here have never been on a farm, or ever seen anything grown. One teacher took her kids to an apple orchard, and had them draw a picture of what they saw. Then she asked them to draw a picture of how they thought pumpkins grew. All of them but one drew trees with pumpkins on them. The one child had one pumpkin all alone in a green field."

For the record, pumpkins are found on creeping vines that grow along the ground. They don't grow on trees. Larry, a second-generation farmer, will be the first to tell you that.

"It's a lot of work," he said. "I've got a regular job in town, and I think you'll find most farmers around here are just moonlighters. You need a lot of land to make a living at it."

Larry also noted that some people may have been under the impression that the farm was for sale. In fact, only his father's homestead, a blue frame house on Eight Mile, is for sale. The Meyers now live in a newer home set back from the road. Only two acres of the 45-acre spread will be sold with the homestead.

Meyer's is one of the few pumpkin farms in this area to have a bumper crop this season. Part of the reason is that Larry and Carol went to "Pumpkin School" last year at Domino's Farms in Ann Arbor. The seminar, attended by over 300 pumpkin farmers, was full of useful information on fertilizers, frost prevention, and ways to keep the plants growing longer.

"One thing they told us is that you need bees," said Carol. Just by coincidence, a young couple came to them a couple of days later saying they wanted to raise bees, and asking to use the Meyer farm. The Meyers were happy to oblige, and the relationship has worked out to the benefit of the bees and the pumpkins.

As for cooking with pumpkins, the sweet flesh makes great dessert fixings. It goes great in casseroles, too, or alone with butter, salt and pepper as a side dish. Here are some guidelines provided by the Cooperative Extension Service at Michigan State University:

TO BUY: Select a pumpkin that is heavy for its size. The rind should be smooth and free from spots and discolorations. Very large pumpkins often have stringy, coarse flesh, and are less sweet. Pumpkins will keep two to three months if stored at 50 to 55 degrees with a 70- to 75-percent humidity.

TO PREPARE: Halve the pumpkin and remove the seeds and stringy portion. Save the seeds for roasting.

To cook in water, cut the halves in small pieces and pare off the skin. Add pumpkin to a small amount of boiling water and cover. Simmer gently for 25-30 minutes or until tender. Drain well and put through a sieve or blender.

To bake, cut the pumpkin into halves or quarters and remove the seeds. Place cut-side down in a shallow pan and bake in a 350-degree oven for one hour, or until the pumpkin becomes tender and begins to fall apart. When cool, scrape pulp from the shell and put through a sieve or blender.

The strained pumpkin is now ready for use in your dishes, or to be frozen for later use. To make one 9-inch pie, use 1 1/4 to 2 cups.

TO FREEZE: Cool and pack into airtight container, leaving 1/2-inch of head space. Seal and freeze.

PUMPKIN BREAD

3 1/2 cups sifted flour
2 tsp. baking soda
1 1/2 tsp. salt
2 tsp. cinnamon
1 1/2 tsp. nutmeg
1/2 tsp. cloves
1 cup oil
3 cups sugar
1 tsp. vanilla
1/2 cup water
2 cups cooked pumpkin, fresh or canned
1/2 cup seedless raisins
1/2 cup coarsely chopped nuts (optional)

Heat oven to 350 degrees. Sift together flour, soda, salt, cinnamon, nutmeg and cloves. Toss nuts and raisins lightly into mixture. Combine oil, sugar and eggs, beating vigorously with a spoon or electric mixer for 2 minutes. Add pumpkin and vanilla. At a low speed, beat in flour mixture alternately with water, beginning and ending with flour. Beat only until smooth. Bake in two well-greased 8 1/2-by-4 1/2-by-2 1/2 loaf pans for 60 minutes, or until a toothpick inserted in center comes out clean. Cool in pan for 10 minutes. Turn out and finish cooling on rack.

PUMPKIN CHEESE SOUFFLE

2 cups mashed pumpkin
1/2 cup milk and
2 tsp. melted butter, or
1/2 cup light cream
1/2 cup grated sharp cheese
2 eggs, separated
1/2 tsp. salt
pepper to taste

Separate eggs and beat yolks. Mix pumpkin with milk or cream, seasonings, cheese and beaten egg yolks. Fold in egg whites, beaten until stiff. Place in pan of hot water and bake 40 minutes at 375 degrees or until mixture is firm. Serve hot. Serves 4.

PUMPKIN CAKE

1 package spice cake mix
2 eggs
1/2 cup mashed cooked pumpkin, fresh or canned

1/2 cup water
1/2 cup orange-flavored liqueur

Prepare the spice cake mix as directed on the package, substituting pumpkin, water and liqueur for the specified liquid. Bake in a greased and floured 10-inch tube pan or fluted bundt pan about 45-50 minutes at 350 degrees. Cool cake and glaze.

GLAZE

Blend one cup confectioners sugar and one tablespoon of orange-flavored liqueur until smooth, adding more liqueur if necessary, to make a thin paste. Spread on cake and let it drip down the sides.

Burgundy area short but sweet

Burgundy is not France's largest wine region, but it is its most famed. The legendary aspects may cloud our view of the region's relatively small wine production.

The region's premium acreage, the Cote d'Or, is 30 miles long. Annual wine production is about one-tenth that of Bordeaux.

Burgundy's major white wine is produced from chardonnay, while the reds are made from pinot noir.

Just over 200 years ago, the French Revolution wrought the single most important transfiguration on Burgundy's vineyards. The vineyards were confiscated from church and monastery ownership and put to piecemeal auction. Today, the system of small ownership prevails. The great vineyards remain intact as appellations, but they are divided among multiple proprietors.

Cote d'Or wines are classified as grand cru, premier cru and village wines. The quantity of grand cru Burgundy wines cannot possibly satisfy world demand for the wines from this region. In recent years, prices of Burgundy wines have escalated in double-digit percentages annually.

Burgundy's system of labeling the region's wines is dependent on geography. If you are not familiar with this geography, the easiest way to select good wines is by the name of the producer or the shipper. Below, we discuss several reputable producers and recommend a wine from each.

Maison Louis Jadot was founded in 1859 by the man whose name it bears. Two succeeding generations of Jadots built the company reputation. In 1962, when Louis Auguste Jadot died, survived only by his wife, she appointed Andre Gagey as managing director.

The winery is in the heart of Beaune, where technical director Jacques Lardiere oversees three cellars, one of which dates back to 1477. In contrast, the most recent cellar, completed in 1986, is ultra high-tech.

In 1880, Joseph Drouhin bought the business rights of a wine firm founded in 1756 and bestowed his name on the enterprise. Today, Robert Drouhin, third-generation family member, leads the Burgundy house standing at the center of the old part of Beaune within the inner circle of the ancient Roman fortifications.

John Mongeard represents the eighth generation of his family to produce wines at Domaine Mongeard-Mugneret in the Cote de Nuits. He is a distinguished proprietor, producing barely 10,000 cases annually of outstanding wines from a host of appellations in which his family owns small vineyard parcels.

"When a proprietor works his own land, there is a conscientiousness that cannot be achieved by hiring people as the large negotiants are forced to do," Mongeard said. "I'm not saying that all small producers in Burgundy make top wines. Hard work and dedication are complementary to the knowledge of the vineyards and how to make the wines."

His production of pinot noir makes traditional use of one and two-year-old barrels except for the Richebourg, where 100 percent new-barrel toasty oak enriches the fruit components of the wine. "This wine is always powerful and round," Mongeard said. "The fruit can support the tannin of young wood. The terroir is the difference in quality for Richebourg."

At Domaine Louis Trapet, Jean Trapet is the fifth generation to direct this prestigious estate whose beginning dates to 1680 in the village of Chambolle-Musigny.

Until the end of the 1940s, Louis Trapet sold his harvest in barrels to the local Burgundy trade. In the early 1950s, the Domaine began bottling small quantities. For the last decade and a half, the entire production of 7,500 cases has been Domaine bottled and 50 percent is exported. The portion remaining in France is coveted by Michelin three-star restaurants.

Blackberry and berry fruit distinguishes Trapet's young Chambertin appellation wines. They develop a complex, concentrated, extracted character as they mature, yet they finish delicate, elegant and long.

Gad zukes! It's squash time

As a younger person, I remember the dreaded announcement that squash was the chosen vegetable for dinner. Each of my siblings, six in all, suddenly lost their appetite.

Just the name "squash" is a turn-off. The term "gourd" is not much more comforting. Luckily for me I have learned to love all squashes. Whether pureed, mashed, sauteed or made into flavorful, nutritious soup, squash has found its way into my kitchen.

Zucchini is a member of the squash family that deserves some print now as we harvest the last of the season. Zucchini is considered a summer or soft-skinned squash, along with yellow, pattypan and scalloped squashes.

Squash in the summer grouping have common attributes: tender skins, soft fairly neutral-tasting flesh, high perishability and moisture content and can be prepared quickly. Their availability is from late spring until early autumn.

Baby versions of the above are generally not available to the home cook and are not nearly as tasty as the mature vegetables. The smaller sizes are attractive and have their purpose for restaurant use, namely to use as a garnish for a main entree.

When selecting zucchini look for firm, solid vegetables with thin, unbroken skin, and no soft spots or brown blemishes. Flavor decreases with drastic size variations. Large varieties are soft and tasteless.

Shop for zucchini when you are ready to use it — not on a whim. Wrap in paper towels to retain moisture, store in the refrigerator and use as quickly as possible. Optimum storage time is 2-3 days.

To prepare zucchini wash, stem and peel only as designated in a recipe. Cooking methods include baking whole, halved or stuffed in a 350 degree oven 20-30 minutes, blanching, deep-frying, stewing or stir-frying.

The general rule is to cook until the flesh is crisp-tender. Cooking too long will result in a soft, mushy, tasteless vegetable. Because zucchini is neutral in flavor anything that is cooked along with it, such as cheeses, tomatoes and herbs, will be the dominant taste. Zucchini forms the perfect container for your favorite herb or meat filling, and raw is a favorite for dipping.

And, don't forget the infamous zucchini bread made by the dozens of loafs just to use up the bounties of the season.

The best part of zucchini is its nutritive value: no fat, high in carbohydrates with trace protein, and virtually no sodium in its natural state. As a diet food, many alternatives are available such as stewing with the last tomatoes of the season and serving with a sprinkle of fresh chopped herbs and parmesan cheese, or the recipe included here with brown rice. It is easy and quick. The zucchini-feta pancakes are excellent as a light dinner or as an accompaniment to a main course.

LIZ'S BAKED ZUCCHINI AND RICE CASSEROLE

3 cups cooked brown rice
2 small to medium grated zucchini
2 eggs, or 3 egg whites
10 ounces low-fat mozzarella
1/2 tsp onion powder
salt, pepper and cayenne to taste

Mix all. Press into an 8-by-8 casserole, oiled or sprayed with non-stick spray. Bake at 350 degrees, 25-30 minutes. Leftovers are great microwaved.

ZUCCHINI-FETA PANCAKES

4 compacted cups grated zucchini
4 eggs, separated
1 cup crumbled feta cheese
1/2 tsp. dried, crushed mint
1/2 cup minced scallions salt and pepper to taste
1/2 cup flour
butter or oil for frying yogurt or sour cream to top

Allow grated zucchini to drain in a colander. Squeeze dry in a clean kitchen towel. Combine with egg yolks, feta, scallions, flour and spices. Mix well. Beat egg white until they form soft peaks. Fold into first mixture. Fry until golden.

- MODULAR HOME BUILDING

WINTER CONSTRUCTION SAVES YOU MONEY!

WINTER CONSTRUCTION - The assumption that "You can't or shouldn't build in the winter is a MYTH! Both modular and conventional construction is done in the winter months almost as easy as when done in the summer months. MODULAR CONSTRUCTION has many benefits including the fact that the structure of your home will never see the outside weather conditions. Also, we can build modular homes up to 3,400 sq. ft. in styles of Ranches, Cape Cods, Colonials, Contemporaries, etc.

WINTER CONSTRUCTION WILL SAVE YOU MONEY! Typically construction slows down in the winter months thanks to the old wives tale. Because of this we have discounted our pricing for all of our homes being built in the winter months! (Specific dates apply). We do this so we can stay busy during the winter months.

NEW OPTIONAL CONSTRUCTION/PRICING METHODS: We have developed some new optional methods of charging customers. These methods range from owner participation to a complete - Turn Key Package, and Fixed Guaranteed Prices to a Percentage Over Actual Cost Program.

STATE OF MICHIGAN and OAKLAND COUNTY

VOTE General Election

Tuesday,
Nov. 6, 1990

Polls Open
7 a.m. to 8 p.m.

© 1990 by the Leagues of Women Voters of Oakland County and League of Women Voters of Michigan. Published by the League of Women Voters Education Fund.

VOTERS IN Oakland County and across Michigan will go to the polls Tuesday, Nov. 6, to elect members of Congress and many state and county officials.

POLLS WILL BE open from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m.

Deadline for applying for an absent voter ballot is 2 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 3.

If you have a question about which congressional, legislative or county commissioner district you live in, contact your local city or township clerk.

As a voter education project, the Leagues of Women Voters in Oakland County and the League of Women Voters of Michigan have prepared this guide.

LWV is a national, non-partisan organization established in 1920 to encourage citizen participation in government.

LWV neither supports nor opposes any political party or candidate. LWV may support or oppose an issue after study without regard to the stand of any party. LWV positions on issues are never indicated in Voter Guides.

The League of Women Voters secured biographical information and answers to questions by letter. Answers are in the candidates' own words and have not been edited except for length, spelling and punctuation. Candidates unopposed in the general election were not asked to answer questions or submit biographical data.

An ellipsis (...) is used to indicate a candidate's reply exceeded the stated word limit. Biographical information was limited to 35 words, responses to questions to 50 words or less. (Biographical information and responses to questions were limited to 50 words or less for candidates for Governor, U.S. Senate and Court of Appeals). Candidates who did not respond to our questionnaire have "NO REPLY" after their names.

PUBLICATION OF statements and opinions of candidates is solely in the interest of public service. In no way is it to be construed as an endorsement by the League of Women Voters. Nor can the LWV take responsibility for any views or facts stated by the candidates.

VOTE FOR ONE

GOVERNOR

FOUR YEAR TERM

Candidates were asked to summarize their biographies in 50 words and answer each question in 50 words.

1. What is your position on reproductive choice?
2. How would you provide for more equitable funding for schools?
What alternatives are there to the local property tax?
3. What are your long-range priorities for the state of Michigan?
4. Access to health care for all in Michigan, medical insurance for the working poor, and long-term care for senior citizens and others are current health care issues in our state. How can we provide for these?

James J. Blanchard

Democrat

AGE—48, Pleasant Ridge

OCCUPATION—Governor of Michigan

EDUCATION—B.A., Michigan State University, 1964; M.B.A., Michigan State University, 1965; J.D. (Law Degree), University of Minnesota, 1968

BACKGROUND—Born August 8, 1942 in Detroit. Legal Advisor for Michigan Secretary of State, 1968. Michigan Assistant Attorney General, 1969. Elected to Congress in 1974. Elected Governor in 1982, re-elected in 1986.

1. I believe the decision of whether to have an abortion, however difficult and agonizing, is a decision of the woman and her physician—a private decision and not a decision for legislatures, judges, governors or government entities.
2. My school finance plan will earmark an additional $225 million for K-12 education annually until the state shares costs equally with local schools; constitutionally dedicate all lottery revenue and interest to the school aid fund; cap school property taxes at the rate of inflation; assure student achievement, employability and graduation.
3. To rid our communities of crime; further diversify our economy, support our businesses and protect our financial strength; give every youngster an education and an opportunity to succeed in the global economy; safeguard our natural resources; ensure that no child lacks food, shelter, protection or health care.
4. We must adopt a universal health care plan on a federal or federal/state basis. I proposed 'Healthy Start' to provide health care to Michigan children from working families without adequate insurance and introduced Care Management Projects in 40 counties serving nearly 3,000 seniors who would otherwise be in nursing homes.

John Engler

Republican

AGE—41, Mt. Pleasant

OCCUPATION—Senate Majority Leader

EDUCATION—B.S. (Agricultural Economics), Michigan State University; J.D., Cooley Law School

BACKGROUND—Member, House of Representatives, 1971-78; Member, State Senate 1979-present; Member, Michigan Farm Bureau; Knights of Columbus Board of Directors; Michigan Special Olympics; Chairman of Commission on Presidential Scholars; 5 times Legislator of the Year

1. Supports efforts to educate youth to make choices before, not after, they engage in sexual activity. Supports parental consent for children seeking to terminate pregnancy through abortion. Believes life begins at conception, therefore personally opposed to abortion except in cases of rape, incest, or if life of mother is threatened.
2. Education - #1 state budget priority. Increase state share (ease local property taxes) to 50/50 state/local funding; dedicate fixed portion of general fund to K-12 education, capture state revenue growth to meet obligation. Supports equity, bringing 'bottom up' via K-12 funding formula, not taking money from richer districts for poorer districts.
3. Education top priority. Schools of choice within local districts; performance accountable schools. Cutting property taxes. Protecting environment; polluters pay for toxic clean-ups; leadership by example (cleaning state sites). Strengthening law enforcement: statewide wiretap, RICO, 'no-knock' legislation. Ending tax-subsidized 'corporate welfare'; improving hostile tax, regulatory climate to create more, quality jobs.
4. Access hindered by highest national malpractice insurance and state's refusal to pay what's promised in Medicaid. Supports funding Medicaid, maximizing eligibility, explore Oregon plan for increasing access. Ease facilities regulation - allow hospitals, nursing homes to develop alternatives. Tax incentives for small business, private long-term care insurance.

William Roundtree

Workers World

AGE—40, Detroit

BACKGROUND—African-American disabled Vietnam-war veteran. Organizer for American Servicemen's Union. National organizer of anti-war, anti-racist demonstrations: 1974 Boston march against racism, 1975 Washington march for affirmative action, 1981 march on Pentagon. All-Peoples Congress, Job is A Right Campaign Leader. Socialist fighter 21 years. WW National Committee.

1. Free, safe, legal abortion on demand. No parental or partner consent. No forced sterilization. Develop safe, reliable contraception; make it free and available to all, including youth. Guarantee jobs, health care, food, housing, education, child care so choice can be reality. No discrimination against lesbians, gay men and their families.
2. Quality education is a right. Tax corporations and rich, not individual homeowners. Double or triple public school funding per student in poor districts to bring them up to par; after that equal funding for all districts. Free and open admission to all universities. End racist, sexist, anti-gay/lesbian education.
3. Full employment. $10 minimum wage. Eliminate racism, poverty. Quality education for all. High technology under capitalist profit system means plant closings, unemployment, destruction of cities, ruin for small farmers. Workers and oppressed must seize means of production. For socialism based on workers' ownership and planning to meet needs of people.
4. Nationalize health care. Free medical care for everyone. Clinics in every neighborhood. $1 billion to fight infant mortality in Michigan. Statewide mobilization to end hunger and malnutrition. Top priority research effort to fight AIDS. Free, safe, legal abortion on demand. Fund with state's share of Pentagon budget, S & L bailout.

LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR

FOUR YEAR TERM
VOTE FOR ONE

Candidates were asked to summarize their biographies in 50 words and answer each question in 50 words.

1. What are your priorities for the office of Lieutenant Governor?
2. How do you hope to accomplish them?

Olivia P. Maynard

Democrat

AGE—54, Flint

OCCUPATION—Director, Michigan Office of Services to the Aging (OSA)

EDUCATION—B.A., George Washington University, 1958, M.S.W., University of Michigan, 1971.

BACKGROUND—First woman in Michigan history to be a candidate for lieutenant governor. First woman chair of the Michigan Democratic Party. As director of OSA, oversees a $63 million budget.

1. The Governor and I are committed to helping older adults preserve their independence and dignity. I plan to continue an oversight role in aging programs and to lead efforts to enhance assistance to families of aging parents. I will also focus on the needs and challenges of Michigan's outstate cities.
2. The Governor appointed me to direct the recently-created Long Term Care Planning Committee, which will prepare an action plan for long term care services for families of handicapped and the aged. I hope to play a role in Department of Commerce economic development programs for our outstate urban centers.

Connie Binsfeld

Republican

AGE—66, Maple City

OCCUPATION—Michigan State Senator

EDUCATION—B.S. (Secondary Education), Siena Heights College; graduate study, Wayne State University; Northwestern Michigan College Fellow

BACKGROUND—School teacher; Leelanau County Commissioner; State House (four terms); held major leadership positions in Senate, House, League of Women Voters, Great Lakes Commission; Mother of the Year

1. I will be a working partner with Governor Engler in daily policy decisions. I will work closely with the Legislature. And, I will be prepared to head a state department (similar to the Indiana model) if Governor Engler and I decide this would be in the state's best interest.

Brenda Kirby

Workers World

AGE—35, Detroit

BACKGROUND—African-American fighter for women's reproductive rights, lesbian and gay rights, and against U.S. intervention in Panama, southern Africa and Middle East. Organizer of anti-KKK demonstration, Poor Peoples Campaign for Economic Justice and Job is A Right Campaign. Co-chaired 1988 tent city of unemployed in Lansing.

1. Create $30 billion emergency fund for jobs, health care, housing, education. Finance fund from Michigan's share of Pentagon budget, savings and loan bailout and taxing big business and rich. $10 an hour minimum wage. End discrimination against seniors and disabled. Outlaw anti-gay/lesbian oppression. Reproductive rights for all.
2. Organize workers, oppressed and youth, especially African-Americans, Latinos, Arabs, Natives, Asians and women to fight for rights through demonstrations, strikes, sit-ins, boycotts and rebellions. Overturn capitalist system to end poverty, racism and war. Fight for socialism where jobs, housing, food, health care, education and pollution-free environment are guaranteed.

SECRETARY OF STATE

VOTE FOR ONE FOUR YEAR TERM

Candidates were asked to summarize their biographies in 50 words and answer each question in 50 words.

1. What are your priorities for the office of Secretary of State?
2. How do you hope to accomplish them?

Richard H. Austin

Democrat
AGE—77, Detroit
OCCUPATION—Michigan Secretary of State
EDUCATION—B.A. (Business Administration); Certified Public Accountant
BACKGROUND—Practicing CPA, 30 years; extensive volunteer and community service; corporate executive; Michigan Constitutional Convention Delegate; Wayne County Auditor; Secretary of State, 20 years
1. Continue making government services more responsive, convenient, efficient; continue to protect car owners against deception and fraud; promote healthy respect for Michigan's rich history; continue to register voters at branch offices and to make voting more accessible; and to save lives and reduce injuries on Michigan roadways.
2. Continued use of technological advancements to increase customer convenience in branch offices through automated driver license testing, customer access with ATMs, touch-tone phones and other computerized services. Promotion of traffic safety legislation and an integrated statewide traffic record system. Continued review of all services and programs for improvement and innovation.

Judy Miller

Republican
AGE—not given, Bloomfield Township
OCCUPATION—Small business owner, 1978-85; NFIB member; City Commissioner, Birmingham, 1981-85; State Representative, 1985-present (member, House Elections Committee; co-chair, Accountability Task Force; member, Children at Risk Task Force; member, Environmental Cleanup Task Force)
EDUCATION—B.A. (Political Science), Western Reserve University
BACKGROUND—Wife, mother, community activist
1. More active department leadership with: SERVICE INITIATIVES—eliminate long lines, increase availability, accessibility of services; ADMINISTRATIVE INITIATIVES—stricter enforcement of campaign finance law, recodify election law, increase availability of voter registration opportunities, require department accountability for all programs and services; LEGISLATIVE INITIATIVES—eliminate officeholder expense funds, restore open presidential primary.
2. SERVICE INITIATIVES—more effective use of computer technology; establish information centers at branches; revise forms; streamline procedures; install off-hours deposit boxes; be open more convenient hours; provide adequate staffing for prime-use times, using flexible scheduling for employees; institute mobile offices, identify commercial locations; re-examine current office locations.

ATTORNEY GENERAL

VOTE FOR ONE FOUR YEAR TERM

Candidates were asked to summarize their biographies in 50 words and answer each question in 50 words.

1. What are your priorities for the office of Attorney General?
2. How do you hope to accomplish them?

Frank J. Kelley

Democrat
AGE—65, Okemos
OCCUPATION—Attorney General
EDUCATION—J.D., University of Detroit Law School

1. Continued fair and just enforcement of Michigan law for the benefit of all Michigan citizens; to keep state government clean, open and honest; to use the powers of the Attorney General to prosecute criminals and protect the environment, consumers, civil rights and senior citizens.
2. By fairly and efficiently enforcing state law without regard to race, creed, sex or political affiliation; focusing resources on crime, the environment, consumer protection, civil rights and senior citizens; forcing criminals, drug dealers and polluters to pay for the cost of their apprehension and prosecution whenever possible.

Clifford W. Taylor

Republican
AGE—47, East Lansing
OCCUPATION—Lawyer
EDUCATION—B.A., U. of M.; J.D., George Washington
BACKGROUND—Fifteen-year partner litigation firm with highest ratings in experience-ethics; former naval officer; former Assistant Prosecutor; former Adjunct Professor of Law; co-chair, Western District Federal Judicial Selection; State Bar Character - Fitness Committee; State Bar Fellow; Commissioner on Courts in 21st Century; numerous civic activities
1. Utilize office to fight drugs, street and organized crime. For too long this office has emphasized politically attractive consumer matters, while the criminals and drug pushers took the streets. The Attorney General should lead the fight against these menaces. Further, he should enforce environmental laws against all, not some, violators.
2. Prosecutions should focus on drugs, street and organized crime. The legislature should be pushed to enact anti-crime measures which are needed, and the Democrats in the House of Representatives have stopped. As to environmental matters, all polluters, even the State of Michigan, should be prosecuted.

STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION

VOTE FOR TWO EIGHT YEAR TERM

Candidates were asked to summarize their biographies in 50 words and answer each question in 50 words.

1. What is your position on the issue of public (financial) support for non-public schools?
2. What are the two most pressing problems facing education in Michigan and how would you try to resolve them?

Rollie Hopgood

Democrat
Age—51, Taylor
OCCUPATION—Administrative Assistant; Michigan Federation of Teachers; Treasurer, State Board of Education
EDUCATION—Taylor Center H.S., 1957; B.S. (Education), Western Michigan University, 1962; M.A. (Educational Leadership), Eastern Michigan University, 1981
BACKGROUND—Teacher, Taylor Schools, 1962-81; President, Taylor Federation of Teachers, 9 years; parent, 3 children in public schools
1. I believe that public funding for private schools is a violation of the separation of church and state provision of the U.S. Constitution.
2. Inequitable funding. It's the shame of our state. The method of funding used has created 'poor houses' of education for many children who need the most help. The state needs to change the formula and the source. We need to increase pre-school opportunities to all at-risk children.

Barbara Roberts Mason

Democrat
AGE—50, Lansing
OCCUPATION—Professional Development Specialist MEA.
EDUCATION—BA (Speech and Audio Pathology) and MA (Educational Psychology), M.S.U. Completed doctoral coursework, Educational Curriculum
BACKGROUND—Board of Education, 2 terms. Only person to have served as president twice. Founder and president of an intergenerational community based program, emphasizing math, science, technology, foreign languages and cultures.
1. I am not in support of public financial support for non-public schools.
2. (a) Preparing all students to live and work in competitive, global marketplace. (b) Providing educational and fiscal equity. (1) Advocate that all students need and are capable of becoming proficient in math, science, technology. (2) Monitoring implementation of Public Act 25 (Quality bill). (3) Continue working toward school finance reform

AGE—62, Huntington Woods
OCCUPATION—Art Teacher, Farmington Senior H.S.; Chair of Art and Ceramics Department
EDUCATION—Education Specialist Degree, M.S. (Education), B.S. (Education), W.S.U.; Woman of Wayne Award
BACKGROUND—Active in education matters for over 20 years as teacher, educator, administrator, parent. Active in Wayne State University College of Education. Parent-Teacher-Student issue Facilitator.
1. A voucher method with the proviso that permits students to choose quality education will ensure our standards are raised as long as public monies are not misused or spent for schools that exclude based upon race, religion, sex or ethnic criteria.
2. (a) A widespread program of achievement must be based upon establishing higher standards of quality for all our schools. (b) We must eliminate minimum skills mentality and provide for a broader based skills education making our public schools more like private quality institutions with competitiveness of the Sputnik era.

WHAT IS THE STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION?

The education of every student in the state - whether in grade school, high school, or adult education - is largely the responsibility of the State Board of Education, according to the Michigan Constitution. While much of the day-to-day workings of the schools are delegated to locally elected boards of education, the State Board of Education - through its staff agency, the State Department of Education - provides guidance, regulation and assistance in a multitude of areas. Among its duties, as provided by law and the Constitution:

- Appointment of Superintendent of Public Instruction
- Administration of state financial aid to local school districts
- Teacher certification
- Examination and in some cases approval of local construction and financing plans
- Reimbursement to schools for bus service, school lunch, other programs
- Remedial and special education
- Planning and coordination for community colleges, 4-year colleges and universities

There are eight members, nominated by party conventions, and elected at large for 8-year terms. Two of these members are elected in each general election.

VOTE FOR TWO EIGHT YEAR TERM

Candidates were asked to summarize their biographies in 50 words and answer each question in 50 words.

1. What is your position on the issue of public (financial) support for non-public schools?
2. What are the two most pressing problems facing education in Michigan and how would you try to resolve them?

Robert E. Tisch

Tisch Independent Citizens
AGE—70, Laingsburg

OCCUPATION—Retired commercial artist, property management, consultant

EDUCATION—Michigan State University, University of Michigan, U-FL, USAFI, Officers Candidate School, LCC

BACKGROUND—Elected public office holder, army chemical-biological-bacteriological warfare officer, manufacturer

1. Public schools have become government monopolies; as such they suffer from bureaucratic weaknesses. Education is not constitutionally required. It is the duty of parents. Therefore, one logical solution is parental choice of a public or private school. Public Education will benefit from the competition as we strive to regain 'excellence'.
2. Dropouts and 'non-functioning' graduates. Permissiveness and lack of discipline that destroys students' natural sense of modesty and so too morality. Students must be taught basic skills by teachers who have competence in their assigned subjects. Weed out 'failed' administrators and teachers. Quality Education ought to be job #1.

Mary J. Ruwart

Libertarian
AGE—40, Kalamazoo

OCCUPATION—Senior Research Scientist, Upjohn, 14 years

EDUCATION—B.S. (Biochemistry), 1970; Ph.D. (Biophysics), 1974, Michigan State University

BACKGROUND—Former Instructor, Assistant Professor Surgery, St. Louis University Medical School; former member, City of Kalamazoo, Public Safety Task Force

1. Public funds come from private sources—individual taxpayers who should be able to direct these dollars toward the school—public or private—of their choosing. This would allow more options, especially for the poor who strongly favor such a voucher system.
2. Poor achievement coupled with high cost results when control is taken from parents and given to bureaucrats and teachers' unions. Education should be deregulated so parents, not Big Brother government, choose what, when, where, how, and by whom their children are taught. Competition means more quality for less money.

Gwendoline Stillwell

Libertarian
AGE—67, East Lansing

OCCUPATION—Elementary teacher 30 years; 2 years rural school

EDUCATION—Rural schools K-8th; Rodney B. Wilson H.S.; 2 years, Central Michigan University; B.A., Michigan State University

BACKGROUND—Born McBain, MI. Raised on farm Clinton Co. Belonged to 4-H. Married, 2 daughters, 5 grandchildren. Member Housing Commission, East Lansing. Active in many teacher organizations.

1. Parents need choice and control in all matters of children's education. Public support of schools equals government control. Government control homogenizes learning levels. Government curriculums support ideology to perpetuate itself. Citizens lose freedoms when not informed of historical and current political activities. Tuition tax credits, no public support.
2. Competency levels declining. Escalating costs for public education. Certification eliminated—hire from larger pool. Curriculums free to soar. Private schools use funds efficiently. Government schools overpopulate bureaucracy. More money never produces results. Market forces needed. Tuition tax credits—vouchers. Home schooled—pure learning opportunity. Support home schooling. Abolish restrictive laws.

EDUCATION—B.A., University of Michigan; M.A., Oxford University, England

BACKGROUND—Regent, University of Michigan; Chair, Michigan Job Training Coordinating Council; member, Governor's Commission on the Future of Higher Education and Commission on Jobs and Economic Development

1. Balancing goals of maintaining quality, insuring accessibility, controlling costs. Michigan ranks low in support for higher education; result is universities have to raise tuition. Now impossible to work your way through college. Solution is tough: no extra money likely from state or feds. Must raise private money, manage costs better.

BACKGROUND—U.S. Congressman, 1966-76 (member, Education, Science Committees); Director, Seminars & Programs, American Enterprise Institute, 1980-87; member of Staff, WSU, U. of M., 1951-64

1. In the decade ahead, the university must build on its tradition of excellence to become a global university, even while serving as a major research and education resource for the state and its students. Cost containment measures must be addressed equally with additional sources of revenue—public and private.

Shirley M. McFee

Republican
AGE—60, Battle Creek

OCCUPATION—Current Mayor, Battle Creek; Business-Manufacturing Company, International Trade

EDUCATION—A.B. (History), U. of M., 1951 (Phi Beta Kappa); M.A. (Political Science), W.M.U.; Secondary Teaching Certificate

BACKGROUND—Former teacher, college instructor; 18 years in business; 10 years as elected official, public budgeting, human resources; 35 years in community activities serving economic development and human needs

1. Crucial problem—Support for preservation and enhancement of its position as internationally acclaimed university of excellence, providing education of highest quality, furthering research, promoting economic development. Possible solution—Furthering public awareness, especially among Michigan citizens, of value of this asset by programs that promote interaction between university world and communities.

AGE—46, Ann Arbor

OCCUPATION—Lawyer

EDUCATION—A.B., University of Michigan; J.D., Wayne State University Law School

BACKGROUND—Lived in Michigan since 1945; in Ann Arbor since 1962

1. Realizing that quality of education and providing opportunities for minority students must be achieved through innovative solutions and not just asking taxpayers for more money. In certain ways education has ceased to be the top priority, but expansion of educational bureaucracy and asset acquisition at taxpayer expense has become prime. ...

1. High tuition is too great a burden on moderate and low income families. We must be more efficient, reduce cost through cooperation with other colleges, and fight for a higher funding priority at the federal and state level. Our job is to educate Michigan's children. High tuition defeats that purpose.

AGE—68, East Lansing
OCCUPATION—Director, Placement Services, Michigan State University for 24 years; Army Air Corps pilot; Acting Director of Intercollegiate Athletics; Assistant to President Emeritus, John Hannah; Interim Executive Director of Alumni Programs
EDUCATION—Bachelors Degree in Science & Arts, Michigan State University, 1948
BACKGROUND—Author and lecturer on job placement services and employment trends.
1. The most crucial problem is the relationship between the Board of Trustees and the administration. The Board has the responsibility for the governance of the university and should not be involved in the day-to-day management of the institution. Responsible leadership will ensure a restoration of proper priorities.

AGE—46, Metamora
OCCUPATION—Attorney/Partner - Honigman, Miller, Schwartz and Cohn, Detroit EDUCATION—B.A., Michigan State University, 1965; J.D., Wayne State University, 1968
BACKGROUND—United States Attorney (Eastern District, MI), 1977-80; President, State Bar of Michigan, 1990-91; Chair, Governor's Commission on the Future of Higher Education in Michigan
1. WSU's greatest challenge in the 1990's will be to maintain quality in the face of limited financial resources, while remaining accessible to its students. To meet this challenge WSU must make its unique case to state government for increased economic assistance, carefully control expenditures, seek greater support from private sector.

OCCUPATION—Political Consultant, Scott & Associates; Community Council Director EDUCATION—B.A. (Political Science and Speech Communication), Wayne State University; M.A. (Urban Politics), University of Detroit
BACKGROUND—Former Administrative Assistant to Detroit City Councilmen Mel Ravitz and Herbert McFadden, Jr.; member, Wayne State University Alumni Association; member, Michigan Democratic Party State Central Committee
1. The most crucial problem appears to be maintaining tuition costs affordable. I would like to see Wayne State University established as a premier research institute. Wayne is an urban institute whose role can be expanded in that direction. It has necessary components such as medical, engineering and social research facilities.

Elizabeth Hardy

Republican

OCCUPATION—Partner-Dickinson, Wright, Moon, Van-Dusen & Freeman
EDUCATION—B.A. (High Honors), George Washington University, 1978; J.D., Wayne State University, 1984; Editor-in-Chief, Wayne Law Review
BACKGROUND—Legislative Aide to former U.S. Senator Robert Griffin, 1973-78; Legislative Director for U.S. Senator Rudy Boschwitz, 1979-81
1. As a leading urban university, Wayne must strive for academic excellence while offering creative means of servicing its non-traditional student population (i.e. economically disadvantaged and older, working students with families) through aggressive financial aid packages, flexible class scheduling and a curriculum responsive to the changing needs of the 1990's

OCCUPATION—Executive Director, Labor Quality Health Care Institute. Environmental and Labor Consultant on toxic chemicals in workplace and home.
EDUCATION—B.S. (Education), Wayne State University; Environmental Protection Administration accredited Asbestos Abatement Administrator
BACKGROUND—Member of Kaufman family running statewide to improve system of funding education to better serve the public.
1. The 1990's pose greater problems of economic recession for our state and the nation. We must provide Wayne students with greater economic opportunity by creating programs that focus on greater use of business and problem solving skills for our domestic economy. We must also provide for increased international economics education.

OCCUPATION—Independent Communications Consultant
EDUCATION—M.A. (Applied Philosophy), Bowling Green State University, pending thesis defense 'Ethics of Self-Help and Volunteer Organizations—Principled and Pragmatic'; J.D., Wayne State Law; Bachelor of Philosophy (Interdisciplinary Studies), Monteith College, W.S.U.; Northern Michigan University, Speech Major
BACKGROUND—Developed educational proposals since 1960's; fourth run (for Educational boards)
1. Focusing on expensive, noneducational projects such as buildings, show, which also sacrifice quality programs like day-care, Monteith, historical buildings, detract from real education and waste resources. Emphasis on respect for people and property, personal responsibility and commitment, interactive learning would enhance education and decrease violence to persons and the environment.

OCCUPATION—Student at Wayne State University. I'm a senior getting ready to graduate in Political Science.
EDUCATION—Holy Redeemer H.S.; attended Oakland University from 1976-80; transferred to Wayne State University
BACKGROUND—Currently the president of the Wayne State branch of All Peoples Congress. I served on the Student Congress at Oakland University.
1. I believe the most crucial problem facing Wayne State University is racism. The University needs more African-American professors in all curriculums and more tenured African-American professors. Also, as Board of Governors representative, I would introduce proposals to decrease tuition at Wayne State because it is too high.

Michael F. Cavanagh

AGE—49, East Lansing

OCCUPATION—Justice, Michigan Supreme Court

EDUCATION—B.A., Juris Doctor, University of Detroit;

coursework—MPA Program, Michigan State University

BACKGROUND—Lansing City Attorney; private practice;

District Court Judge; Judge, Michigan Court of Appeals

(8 years); Justice, Michigan Supreme Court (8 years)

1. Our electorate has steadfastly guarded its constitutional prerogative of electing judges at all court levels. Neither the appointive nor elective method of judicial selection has produced a demonstrably greater number of more qualified individuals. Both methods are influenced by politics as intended by the design of our tripartite system
2. Need more communication with and access by the public. Tremendous increase in cases and public demands requires us to address financial needs of court system. Continue providing best training for judges and court personnel with particular emphasis on racial and gender bias. Computerize and modernize courts using most recent technology.

Clark Durant

AGE—41, Grosse Pointe

OCCUPATION—Attorney, Durant and Durant; Trustee,

Ann Arbor Railroad; husband and father of four

University of Notre Dame

BACKGROUND—Legal Services Corporation (appointed by President Ronald Reagan, unanimously confirmed by U.S. Senate to serve as Chairman); Trustee, Ann Arbor Railroad, appointed by Secretary of Transportation, Elizabeth Dole

1. I support judicial elections. However, I oppose the current system for selection of Supreme Court by having candidate seek a partisan nomination and once becoming candidate is asked to run nonpartisan. I strongly support citizens having the right to vote on judicial candidates.
2. I want to be Justice who understands traditional limits of judiciary, one who will return court to its fundamental role of maintaining fair, honest fact-finding system of justice through forthright interpretation of the law. Recent Michigan Supreme Court decisions are making it increasingly difficult for police to protect their communities...

Charles Hahn

AGE—39, Pleasant Ridge

OCCUPATION—Second Vice President and Assistant

Counsel, Manufacturers National Bank of Detroit

EDUCATION—J.D., California Western School of Law,

1979; B.S., Eastern Michigan University

BACKGROUND—Primary practice in Commercial, Real Estate, Bankruptcy Law and Litigation. Also experienced in Probate, Estate Planning and Domestic Relations. Married with two children.

1. Yes, I favor the continued election of State Judges. It is more important than ever for the people to have a voice in the direction and philosophy of the Courts, since the Courts have taken control of the domestic policy of the State and indeed throughout the country
2. (a). The Courts should judge cases based on the law (intention of law makers) and stop fashioning law and remedies that would not pass in a legislative body. (b). The Courts should and must administer criminal justice with the victim as a primary concern

Judy H. Hughes

AGE—41, Hastings

OCCUPATION—Trial Attorney - Cummings, McClory, Davis & Acho, P.C.

EDUCATION—University of Michigan, 1971; Wayne State University Law School, 1976

BACKGROUND—Elected Prosecutor 1980-88; Court of Appeals candidate, 1988; 21st Century Courts Commission; Criminal Justice Commission; Criminal Law Section, State Bar; LEIN Policy Council, Prosecuting Attorneys Association of Michigan

1. Elect trial Judges. Deal in important matters which should reflect the views of the local electorate. Appoint Appellate Judges. Election too dependent on electable name and money spent, rather than on qualifications and philosophy. Executive appointment process is flawed. Favor a truly independent appointment process with electoral review.
2. Loss of public confidence, failure of common courtesy, perceived gender and race bias, judicial activism - acting to create new law, favoring technicalities over common sense (form over substance), unwillingness to detect and sanction frivolous lawsuits, promotion of individual gain over the protection of common good, administration of burgeoning docket.

Jerry J. Kaufman

AGE—36, Huntington Woods

OCCUPATION—Attorney specializing in Taxation, Labor, Environmental Law; consumer activist and author

EDUCATION—Master of Law, J.D., Wayne State University Law School; B.A. with Honors (Journalism/Sociology), Wayne State; Phi Beta Kappa, Mackenzie Honor Society

BACKGROUND—Director of Moore's Bar Review; Lecturer at Harvard, U. of M., U.S.C., U.C.L.A.

1. The system must be modified to ensure qualified judges are appointed by panel of attorneys and members of the public. Judges would then stand for election after one term. District Court judges and certain percentage of judges should be elected after meeting standard qualifications including minimum years in practice.
2. The court system in Michigan must become more cost and time efficient and more user friendly for the public. In order to achieve time and cost savings to the public there must be separate courts for domestic disputes including divorce courts. There should be separate criminal courts including drug courts.

COURT OF APPEALS (NON PARTISAN)

OCCUPATION—Judge, Court of Appeals since 1982;

EDUCATION—Cass Tech High School (summa cum laude), 1948; B.A., University of Michigan, 1952; J.D. (with distinction), Wayne State University, 1959

BACKGROUND—Served previously as Common Pleas Judge, Records Court Judge, Wayne Circuit Judge; Chief Assistant U.S. Attorney, 1969-1973; Chair, Judicial Tenure Commission

1. I favor continued election of judges with vacancies filled by gubernatorial appointment, because I feel that state judges should ultimately be answerable to the electorate. I do believe that there should be a minimum experience requirement and that partisan nomination of Supreme Court Justices should be eliminated.
2. At the trial court level, there is a danger that the drastic increase in criminal prosecutions may endanger the ability of civil litigants to have a day in court. At the appeal court level, the large increase in filings threatens to cause unconscionable delay from filing to decision.

John H. Shepherd

AGE—55, Southfield

OCCUPATION—Assistant U.S. Attorney; private practice Judge, Court of Appeals since 1983

EDUCATION—B.A., J.D., University of Michigan

BACKGROUND—No response

1. Prefer appointment to fill vacancies with adequate screening of candidates. Judges should then run periodically to retain position. This maximizes chances for obtaining qualified appointments and also insures accountability to the public for performance in office.
2. Civil litigation is too expensive for people of moderate means. Because of volume of cases, judges unable to spend adequate time on each case.

E. Thomas Fitzgerald

AGE—50, Owosso

OCCUPATION—Trial attorney; senior partner, Fitzgerald & Dumon, P.C., Owosso, specializing in criminal and family law

EDUCATION—Assumption H.S., Windsor, Ontario, 1958; B.A., U of D, 1963 (attended on athletic scholarship); LL.B. Juris Doctorate Degree, U of D Law School, 1966

BACKGROUND—Trial attorney for approximately 24 years; former City Attorney for Durand, Michigan, and Bancroft, Michigan

1. I would like to see a combination of both, such as a committee that would nominate qualified candidates and then allow the electorate to vote on these candidates.
2. a. Overcrowding of the trial courts as well as the appellate courts. b. 'Justice delayed is justice denied.'

Linda S. Hallmark

AGE—38, Birmingham

OCCUPATION—Hearing Referee, Oakland County Circuit Court, 1980-present

EDUCATION—B.S., Michigan State University, 1973; J.D., Wayne State University, 1977; National Judicial College; specialty course, 1983

BACKGROUND—Private law practice, May & May, P.C., 1977-1980. Clerked for law firms and Michigan Attorney General's Office while in law school.

1. I favor election of judges. It gives citizens greater choice and makes the process less political. Currently, only someone active with whichever party is in power is likely to be appointed. A person who is politically independent has a better chance to attain a judicial seat in the election process.
2. a. Trust - in order for courts to remain effective, the public must trust and respect the judicial system. b. Overcrowded dockets - as caseloads increase, it's more difficult to give cases the time and consideration they deserve. c. Costs - costs of litigation may limit access to the courts for many citizens.

EDUCATION—J.D., University of Detroit Law School, 1977; Western Washington State College, 1971-72; B.S., Michigan State University, 1971

BACKGROUND—Elected Macomb County Probate Court, 11/81; elected Macomb County Circuit Court, 11/84; practicing attorney, 1978-84

1. I favor the election of judges because it allows the citizens to express their preference.
2. It is primarily important that the judiciary provide a forum where disputes between citizens are resolved with fairness and equity under the constitution and state statutes. The most important problem facing the Court of Appeals is to reduce the time a case is pending for disposition.

UNITED STATES SENATE

VOTE FOR ONE

SIX YEAR TERM

Candidates were asked to summarize their biographies in 50 words and answer each question in 50 words.

1. What measures do you support to reduce the federal deficit and the national debt?
2. What is your position on reproductive choice?
3. Should the federal government be doing more to rebuild this country's infrastructure? If so, where will the necessary money come from?
4. What is your view concerning currently proposed legislation to provide employee leave for fathers and/or mothers for the care of an infant, of a seriously ill child or of an elderly dependent?

Carl Levin

Democrat

AGE—56, Detroit

OCCUPATION—Attorney; General Counsel, Michigan Civil Rights Commission; Chief Appellate Attorney, Defender's Office (Detroit); Detroit City Council (President 1973-77)

EDUCATION—Central H.S. (Detroit), 1952; Swarthmore College, 1956; Harvard Law, 1959

BACKGROUND—Elected to U.S. Senate 1978. Committees: Armed Services (Chair, Conventional Forces Subcommittee); Government Operations (Chair, Oversight Subcommittee); Small Business. Married, three daughters.

1. Reduce defense spending by cutting back on Star Wars, by eliminating the rail mobile MX missile and by bringing back troops from Europe. Reduce waste by reforms such as more 'off-the-shelf' procurement instead of purchasing outrageously priced items which are produced for the government to arbitrary specification.
2. I support a woman's right to choose and support the Supreme Court's decision in Roe v. Wade.

3. There is need for greater investment in our Nation's infrastructure. The money for this should come by spending the money in the highway and airway trust funds instead of keeping a portion of that money in the trust funds as a way of hiding the size of the budget deficit.
4. I strongly support, and voted for, legislation to provide for unpaid parental leave. The President's veto of this legislation was an injustice to the families of working Americans, and I shall vote to override it.

Bill Schuette

Republican

AGE—36, Sanford

OCCUPATION—U.S. Congressman, 1985-present; attorney, Currie & Kendall, Midland

EDUCATION—Midland Public Schools; BSFS, Georgetown University, 1972-74, 75-76; University of Aberdeen, Aberdeen, Scotland, 1974-75; J.D., University of San Francisco School of Law, 1976-79

BACKGROUND—Former member of Midland County Housing Commission; member, Midland Hospital Association, Midland Foundation and the Gerstacker Foundation

1. Federal spending must be restrained. Tax policy, including reduced tax rates for capital gains, must promote capital formation, increase business investment and create jobs. I oppose tax increases as an answer to the deficit. I have advocated comprehensive budget reform, a line-item veto for the President, and enhanced rescission authority.
2. I believe abortion is wrong and that the thrust of our public policy should be to end abortion and promote adoption. Parental notification and consent laws should be put in place for minors. I oppose taxpayer funding of abortion and strongly support expanded adoption policies.
3. Infrastructure improvements benefit society, reduce business costs, and improve our competitiveness. Federal money already collected for transportation projects should not be held in escrow to offset the deficit. I am cosponsoring legislation which would take the Highway and Airway trust funds off budget and use them for their intended purposes.
4. The federal government should not mandate employee benefits which are better left to negotiations between management and labor. Allow private sector to offer 'cafeteria style' benefit packages for workers to choose from. This legislation could hurt many small businesses whose smaller profit margins often do not allow for expanded benefits.

EDUCATION—B.A., Sacred Heart Seminary, 1952; Teaching Certificate, University of Detroit; M.A., University of Michigan, 1961

BACKGROUND—Michigan State Representative, 1964-1974; Michigan State Senator, 1974-1976; U.S. Congressman, 1976-present

1. The dramatic events in Eastern Europe and the Soviet Union make it possible to significantly reduce U.S. military spending. The peace dividend and prudent increases in federal revenues should be sufficient to reduce the federal deficit while reordering our national budget priorities toward pressing domestic needs.
2. I have a pro-life record. I have also supported governmental research into safer, more effective methods of male and female contraception. I am also the chief sponsor of the Act for Better Childcare and have supported programs of family planning, adoption assistance, nutrition and health services.
3. As a member of the House Budget Committee, I helped draft the House budget resolution which provided significant increases for housing, highways, and aviation, while meeting the Fiscal Year 1991 Gramm-Rudman deficit target by cutting the Pentagon's budget and raising the same amount of revenues as proposed by President Bush.
4. I am an original cosponsor of H.R. 770, the Family and Medical Leave Act. As a member of the House Education and Labor Committee, I opposed all weakening amendments to the bill in committee and when the House passed it, with my support, on May 10, 1990.

EDUCATION—Ann Arbor High School, 1948; B.A. (Business Administration), Michigan State University, 1953; Chartered Life Underwriter

BACKGROUND—Received from Prudential and General Motors Community Service Awards. Republican State Central Committee.

1. Line item veto, giving the President, 'Republican or Democrat', the ability to force a stop to the free spending by a liberal Congress, of which the incumbent is a prime example. After the budget is brought in line, the surplus can be used to eliminate the National debt.
2. This is one issue I agree with the incumbent.
3. Yes. Replace the current welfare system with a program of guaranteed employment repairing the nation's infrastructure.
4. I support the needed benefit, but it should be implemented by a tax incentive given to the employer, rather than a legislated mandate which would be impossible to make fit all situations fairly.

1. Cut the budget until it hurts. If we raise taxes, there is a good chance of major economic recession.
2. I do not support the killing of unborn babies and do whatever I could to stop the slaughter!
3. User-taxes.
4. I am in favor of such a program if there is no cost or inconvenience to the employer. Any added costs will be passed on to the consumer making our products that much more uncompetitive in the world markets.

OCCUPATION—Self-employed businessman

EDUCATION—High School graduate, 1976; insurance state licensing school, 1984

BACKGROUND—Retail store manager, 1976-84; insurance agent, 1984-87; self-employed businessman, 1987-present

1. I support the passing of an amendment to the constitution for a balanced budget, completely wipe out the wild and unnecessary spending that goes on in government and I support the reduction of all taxes.
2. This is an individual right and should not be taken away and the taxpayer should not have the burden of paying for abortions. People should be accountable and responsible for their own actions, not at the taxpayers expense.
3. No, the federal government should not be involved in fixing the country's infrastructure. The responsibility should be left up to the private sector, local communities, and individual states.
4. This whole idea should be abolished. The federal government has no right at all in passing or even thinking of passing this type of legislation. This should be left up to the employee and employer only, and any arrangements or agreements should be between the employee and employer only.

Sander M. Levin

Democrat

AGE—58, Southfield

OCCUPATION—U.S. Representative, 1982-present

EDUCATION—B.A., University of Chicago, 1952; M.A. (International Relations), 1954; J.D., Harvard University, 1957

BACKGROUND—Assistant Administrator, Agency for International Development, 1977-81; Michigan State Senator, 1964-70; Democratic candidate for Governor, 1970 and 1974

1. Cut unnecessary federal spending. With the collapse of the Soviet Bloc, we don't need new weapons like the MX missile or the ultra-expensive B-2 'stealth' bomber. Reject the Administration's proposed capital gains tax cut for the rich. Finally, any new taxes should be progressive so everyone pays a fair share.
2. I am pro-choice. This is a decision which is best left to individual conscience; a choice to be made by a woman and her doctor.
3. We have to do a better job on infrastructure. Economic growth is not possible without it. Because federal dollars are scarce, developers and other beneficiaries of roads, sewers, etc., will have to help foot the bill.
4. I am an original co-sponsor of HR 770, the Family and Medical Leave Act. America is the only major industrialized country, other than South Africa, without a family leave policy. I also voted to override President Bush's veto of HR 770. Unfortunately, the President's veto was sustained.

Blaine L. Lankford

AGE—44, Royal Oak

EDUCATION—Oscoda High School; Ferris State College

U.S. Navy; University of Detroit

BACKGROUND—Married, 2 children

1. Stop spending. Congress can reduce the deficit by (a) reorganizing the military into one armed forces organization (b) limit foreign aid, (c) withdraw financial support from the U.N., (d) stop funding the National Endowment to the Arts.
2. I support the right of every woman to decide for themselves. At the same time, I do not favor government funded abortions—that places government in the position of taking sides and government should not be involved. Minors should not be allowed an abortion without parental consent.
3. This country's cities need more and better mass transit systems. Our highways and interstates are in need of repair. Perhaps, if we took the $425 million we have given Israel to build refusenik resettlement communities in the West Bank, we could repair our roads and improve Arab-American relations.
4. This is how bad government makes itself look good at the expense of business. If we don't win the Trade War, the question will be singularly academic.

Walter O. Briggs, IV

Democrat

AGE—33, Birmingham

OCCUPATION—Management and Financial Consultant

EDUCATION—Michigan State University (graduate work in accounting); B.A. (Mathematics), Duke University

BACKGROUND—Grandnephew of Philip A. Hart, former U.S. Senator of Michigan; great grandson of Michigan (Detroit) industrialist, Walter O. Briggs

1. In order to reduce the federal deficit and national debt, assessment of current programs and reorganization of their administrative infrastructure is necessary in order to cut expenses. Ineffective programs must be cut and funds must be reallocated from programs such as the military to pay for social programs.
2. I am pro-choice. I believe that a woman should make her own reproductive choices and the state and federal government should not be involved in any way in such a private and personal decision. We should encourage research into more effective contraception and to reverse infertility.
3. An effective national transportation system is critical to competing in the world economy. Federal highway money now being used to offset the deficit should be used first. Then we should look at reallocating funds from the military before increasing user fees. A strong economy is our best defense.
4. I completely support legislation to provide employee leave for both fathers and mothers to care for infants or ailing family members. It is essential to the health and productivity of our country to keep the American family strong.

William S. Broomfield

Republican

AGE—68, Lake Orion

OCCUPATION—U.S. Congressman

EDUCATION—Attended public schools of Royal Oak and Michigan State University

BACKGROUND—Lifelong resident of Oakland County. Began political career in 1948; Michigan House and State Senate, eight years (youngest Speaker Pro-Tem of House in Michigan history). First elected to Congress in 1956. Committees: Foreign Affairs (Vice Chairman), Small Business

1. New taxes are not the answer. Restoring fiscal responsibility requires a commitment to eliminating government waste (such as the millions we waste each year maintaining a 'ghost fleet'). To ensure that our deficit-reduction efforts are long-term, we need a Balanced Budget Amendment and to give the President line-item veto authority.
2. Over the years, I have consistently voted against the use of federal funds for abortions.
3. Because transportation is a critical issue for Michigan's 18th District, I serve on the Congressional Task Force on Infrastructure. Transportation trust fund monies should be put to work to improve our deteriorating road system, not left sitting to disguise the size of the federal deficit.
4. While I am a strong supporter of the family, I agree with President Bush that it is preferable to encourage employers to continue to adopt family and medical leave policies voluntarily. A government-mandated policy eliminates the employer's flexibility to run a business effectively while meeting employees' legitimate personal needs.

8TH SENATE DISTRICT

GARY PETERS, Democrat, 31, Rochester Hills. Occupation: Vice President and Branch Manager; PaineWebber, Inc. Education: Juris Doctor, Wayne State University Law School, MBA, University of Detroit; Bachelor of Arts, Alma College. Experience: Active in numerous community and environmental groups.

A) I am pro-choice. I believe this decision is the most personal one a woman can make and I do not believe government should interfere.

B) The disposal of solid and toxic waste is a major problem. Recycling and composting programs need to be started in every community. These programs are ecologically necessary and make economic sense given the increasing cost of landfills. Toxic polluters need to pay for cleanups - not taxpayers.

C) Local property taxes need to be lowered. I will push for an immediate cap on rising assessments and a roll-back in existing rates. State funding of all public schools needs to be increased. Instead of raising taxes, I will review the $5 billion given away in tax loopholes.

D) People are fed up with career politicians who are owned by special interests. I am not seeking a job - I am committed to public service. I will introduce laws that require personal financial disclosure, limit both campaign spending and the number of years a legislator can serve.

MAT J. DUNASKISS, Republican, 38, Lake Orion. State Representative for ten years; Currently Chairperson-Recycling Task Force; Formerly Oakland County Commissioner and teacher; BA and MA from University of Michigan; Small Business Owner; Age 39; Married to Diane, a teacher. Three children.

A) I have always been a pro-life legislator and will continue to support that view.

B) The most important problem facing our state is the disposal of waste - especially the diminishing capacity of our landfills. We need to look toward new technologies in solving this problem - and everyone must pitch in, starting recycling programs in homes, for example. We should offer incentives for companies to look (...)

C) Equitable funding could be achieved by re-shifting the budget. The Brooks Patterson proposal is a good alternative, one which I helped write and have been working on from day one. It is up to our citizens to make their wishes known, regarding property tax reduction.

D) There should be term limitations for public offices - and I would strongly support this proposal.

15TH SENATE DISTRICT

JACK FAXON, Incumbent, Democrat, 54, Farmington Hills. B.S., M.A. Education, Wayne State; M.A. History, University of Michigan; Teacher/Educator, Founder/Headmaster International School; Constitutional Convention Delegate 1961-62; State Representative 1964-70; State Senator, 1970-present; member Appropriations Committee; Chair, Arts Committee.

A) I have voted consistently that matters between doctor and patient not be subject to state review. Any person's right to make decisions affecting his/her body belong to that person alone. I've always supported the position that the state has no business restricting individual choice in this highly personal matter.

B) Clean-up of our contaminated sites is essential for the purity of our groundwater and quality of our state produce. Those who have polluted the environment should be held accountable and I have consistently favored legislation placing responsibility for clean-up on polluters and not on innocent victims, the taxpayers.

C) Greater equality is required between districts. Student population and tax base should be the first concerns before addressing the formula. I propose major school reorganization as a first step, and limiting homestead property taxes to no more than 2% of the value, with the difference made up by sales tax.

D) It is my responsibility to address the concerns of all my constituents, providing them with materials and information on public issues of the day. This concern for communicating with our citizenry is an important linkage in reestablishing confidence in public services. (I have sponsored legislation to eliminate officeholder accounts entirely.)

DENISE RICHMAN ALEXANDER, Republican, 38, Southfield. Graduated: Oak Park High School (1970), University of Michigan (1973), Detroit College of Law (1976). Specializing in family law with Carson Fischer Potts and Hyman. Southfield City Councilwoman. Former Member Planning Commission (7 years).

A) I am pro-choice.

B) Cleaning up environmental contamination sites. Polluters must pay. The Attorney General and the Department of Natural Resources must have strong enforcement powers to go after those that pollute. We must provide legislative remedies but must be cautious and ensure that any governmental action does not indiscriminately trap innocent landowners.

C) By raising the minimum per pupil spending across the state. Increase the state's contribution to school funding by earmarking general funds.

D) I would work to maintain as much personal contact with my constituents as possible at times other than campaign times, to demonstrate a real interest in my community and the interests of my electorate. Tell my electorate the facts about legislative issues without political rhetoric. Make sure that programs that (...)

B. What is the most important environmental problem facing the state today? How should the remedies be funded?

C. How would you provide for more equitable funding for all schools? What alternatives are there to local property taxes?

D. What contribution would you make toward improving the public's perception of and confidence in, state government?

16TH SENATE DISTRICT

JOHN F. FREEMAN, Democrat, 33, Royal Oak. Obtained B.S. at University of Michigan and J.D. at University of Detroit; practice law at O'Connor & Youmans in Detroit. Former community organizer, so understand concerns of people and what they look to government for.

A) I am pro-choice. I don't think it is government's role to get involved with people's personal lives. Each person must make their own decision within their own family situation, within their own values or religion. I am concerned and want to prevent government encroachment of people's civil rights.

B) Clean up and proper disposal of toxic waste. Businesses or institutions that create toxic waste must clean it up. For multiple owners, allocation of responsibility and therefore cost is proper, with the penalty of triple damages for non compliance. No burial of nuclear waste, but above ground storage.

C) By reducing dependence on property taxes for school financing and increasing state funding through the general fund which will increase naturally, with the elimination of business tax loopholes and with all proceeds from the lottery.

D) I would conduct myself with integrity and maintain regular personal contact with all areas of my district in order to foster communication and information from constituents, including regular outreach to schools. Provide disclosure on office expense funds, sources of revenues, expenditures and any PAC monies.

DOUG CRUCE, Republican, 43, Troy. Incumbent. B.A., WSU, Mass Communications. M.A., Villanova University, Political Science. Born July 1, 1947. Married to Anne; children, Jean, Laura, Charles. State Representative, 1 term; State Senator, two terms. Real Estate broker by profession. Committees: Appropriations, Government (...)

A) I believe that in almost all situations abortion is an unacceptable option.

B) Solid waste management is the challenge facing elected officials at all levels. The voters passed an environmental bonding package in 1988 funding recycling, composting, and education programs to start; as the transition from dumping to recycling is made, funds we pay for waste removal will be spent supporting recycling.

C) As a member of the Senate Appropriations Committee, I have supported education as the top priority for state expenditures. Most of our school funding inequities can be addressed within the current state budget by reducing unnecessary programs, without additional taxes or increased millages.

D) I will continue to promptly respond to the questions and concerns of my constituents daily and to be frank about my opinions on issues. I think individual actions, honesty and responsiveness by individual legislators, rather than self promotion, is the best form of public relations for the Legislature.

17TH SENATE DISTRICT

WILLIAM J. FOLEY, Democrat, 60, Milford. Married 36 years, 6 children, 7 grandchildren. Real Estate Broker. Licensed Builder. Former County Commissioner (Oakland County, District 2 - Milford, Highland, Rose, City of Wixom).

A) I am opposed to abortion being used as a means of birth control. I think we have choice now by law and right of determination. I would not try to impose my views on anyone but just as firmly object to having my party or anyone's view imposed on me (...)

B) Rubbish and chemicals, but not necessarily in that order. Rubbish or waste, especially non-degradable waste, must have built-in funding to pay for disposal or recycling.

C) The cost of schooling has been shifted from state to local taxing districts, and from industry and business to the homeowner. The answer is to tax business and industry on a state-wide basis and return the funds to students on a per capita basis. This would provide some stability.

D) 1. I am not a politician in the professional sense and I'm glad of it. But I have always been a political activist and believe that people will eventually make the right choice. 2. I have spent thousands of hours over a period of ten years working for a change (...)

DAVE HONIGMAN, Republican, 34, West Bloomfield. B.A., Yale University, J.D., University of Michigan; Magna Cum Laude; Honors in Philosophy; 2-time winner of Outstanding Young Man of America; Attorney; 3 terms - House of Representatives; NAACP; Anti-Defamation League, Michigan Cancer Foundation.

A) Reproductive and sexual decisions lie at the very heart of the process by which human beings define and individuate themselves. Choices about one's sexuality and reproduction lie exclusively in the domain of personal autonomy and freedom and should not be regulated by the government.

B) The fight to protect our environment is one of my top concerns. I am working hard to promote recycling to reduce the need for costly and hazardous landfills and incinerators. I have authored legislation to protect our vanishing open spaces, woods, lakes and streams from destruction by development.

C) I have proposed a dramatic property tax cut. Skyrocketing property taxes are both an unfair and heavy burden on homeowners and the source of unfair inequalities in the amount of resources dedicated to our children's education. The state general fund should be used to pay for schools.

D) I have proposed campaign finance reform legislation to limit the amount of contributions that special interest groups (PACs) can make to candidates. The public understandably lacks confidence in public officials who repeatedly sacrifice the public good and instead cater to special interest groups that make huge donations to their campaigns.

STATE REPRESENTATIVE

Michigan's state representatives serve two-year terms in the lower house of the legislature. They must be registered voters and residents of the district they represent. Salary is $45,450.

A) I oppose abortion - the only exception would possibly be for a one-week period after rape and incest. I also support parental consent legislation.

B) Implementing front-end recycling, educating our people to use it - to reduce the use of landfills. Paid for by consumers at time of pickup, surcharge by local municipalities, increase in tipping fees.

C) Change the formula to close the equity gap by such things as removing many of the categoricals & putting that money in the formula. Reduce property tax by moving a portion to sales tax; to be voted on by the people - assurance given that the property tax will not raise.

D) I would like to reduce bureaucracy, limit the growth of government and make it more responsive. My goal is to be truly representative of my constituents and work to assist them in resolving problem situations.

BARBARA DOBB, Republican, 40, Union Lake. Certified Public Accountant. President of accounting firm. Bachelor Degree in Accounting, Masters Degree in Taxation from Walsh College. Commerce Township Planning Commissioner, Past President Lake Area Chamber of Commerce, Member West Bloomfield Chamber of Commerce.

A) I am a pro-choice candidate. I believe the decision whether or not to have an abortion is a very personal one and every woman should have the freedom to make that choice for herself.

B) I believe that the quality of the water table is crucial for drinking water and for the irrigation of crops in Michigan. We must ensure that the water in our lakes and rivers is safe in order to maintain the tourism that is generated from water sports in Michigan. (...)

C) I would support a 50/50 plan with a constitutional amendment earmarking lottery proceeds for education.

D) There are many positive characteristics that I would bring to our state government in Lansing. They would include competence, integrity, and honesty. Due to my experience as a successful business woman and my Masters in Taxation from Walsh College, in addition to my accessibility to my constituents, I feel (...)

ROBERT E. TAUB, Democrat, Novi. 12 years experience as an attorney. B.A. 1975 University of Michigan, J.D., Cum Laude, 1978 University of Michigan Law School. Active in State Bar of Michigan.

A) Pro-Choice

B) Landfills, wetlands, need to recycle.

C) Money should be able to be used locally to give citizens a choice and chance to improve schools locally.

D) My own accountability.

WILLIS BULLARD, JR., Republican, 47, Highland. Incumbent. Four-Term Legislator. Attorney, Former Township Supervisor and Trustee. Graduated-University of Michigan and Detroit College of Law. 'Legislator of the Year'-Michigan Township Association.

A. Opposed to state-funding of abortions. In favor of parental consent (with judicial bypass) for minors' abortions. At present time, U.S. Supreme Court decisions leave state legislatures with little additional authority in this area.

B. Solid waste plans must emphasize alternatives to landfills such as reuse, recycling, composting and incineration. Stronger measures are needed to force polluters to pay their fair share of toxic waste clean-up costs.

C. 1) Make equitable funding of schools a Constitutional mandate. 2) Earmark higher percentages of state's general fund for K-12 education. 3) Cut local property taxes and replace revenues lost by local governments and schools from state's general fund.

D. We must make ethics reform a priority. Ban all honoraria and require disclosure of trips sponsored by organizations/lobbyists. Enact a Code of Ethics for legislators and set up an enforcement mechanism.

SCOTT M. SCARBOROUGH, Libertarian, 35, Davisburg. BSME University of Michigan, 1978. Masters in Electronics and Computer Controls - Wayne State 1988. Position - Test Engineer at Ford Motor Company. Central Committee Member Libertarian Party of Michigan. Private Pilot.

A. Ownership Implies Control. The one and sometimes only thing that every person owns is his or her own body. Remember - you don't own your neighbor's wallet, land or body - you only own yours. I'm astounded that people can't grasp this concept.

B. What is the most important environmental problem facing the state today? How should the remedies be funded?

C. How would you provide for more equitable funding for all schools? What alternatives are there to local property taxes?

D. What contribution would you make toward improving the public's perception of and confidence in, state government?

B. Pollution of lakes and streams. Private ownership always promotes the best use of property. To this end, all lakes and streams should be sold and courts should uphold private property rights. If you're afraid of private ownership ask yourself this question: Are you afraid to go to the Mall?

C. Public schools don't work. Shut them down. If you want a pair of shoes, buy them. If you want a car, buy one. If you want an education, buy one. There's no such thing as a free lunch (but there are such things as thieves - NEA).

D. The public shouldn't have a good perception of, or confidence in thieves and liars, i.e. State Government. Where did you get the idea that they should? As you can see, I speak my mind openly and honestly. That will be my part in presenting a realistic view of State Government.

B) Solid waste- We need to produce less and increase voluntary recycling, recovery and reuse. Financing solid waste disposal should be a balance between private and public funding. I recommend user fees; disposal charge (to include money for research for recycling) collected at time of sale for problem products (tires, etc.)

C) For equitable funding, legislature will have to make education a higher priority and fund it accordingly. Increased taxes resulting from raised assessments have saved the state funding money. (Reduced state funds are going to in-formula districts). Alternatives are: sales tax increase; income tax credit; reducing/eliminating circuit breaker limit.

D) I would continue to live by my own personal and family values of honesty and hard work. These are values that my family has stood for and I also have carried into my business relations and in actions on boards and organizations. We need both qualities in Lansing.

A) I am a pro-choice candidate.

B) Recycling, environmental clean up and waste disposal. These methods should be funded through: A) Making the companies who create toxic waste problems, clean them up. B) By passing the cost onto the general public directly.

C) Cap property taxes, increases to the rate of inflation, alternative funding. I propose a tax on paid vacation type tax (Florida does). Taxing hotel rooms, campgrounds, Michigans tourist industries, one of the largest in the nation and I believe that excess revenue could be raised from people who come (...)

D) I believe it is important for elected public officials to meet with the people, be honest, go into our high schools, elementary and middle schools and talk with students, show them we care about them and that we're there to serve them. My office would always be open to (...)

A) I am and will always be a pro-choice candidate, members of my family have had abortions and I have supported them, in supporting my family on this issue, it would be wrong to change my beliefs for other women who must make the most difficult choice of their life.

B) Pollution in general and toxic waste. A fund should be set up with fines levied from polluting businesses to be used in the clean up of any problem that could occur.

C) Stop disparities between school districts. Increase allotted lottery money for schools, State wide property tax. Increase the amount of money this county gets back from the state. We send in around 400 million and get back only 100 million or so.

D) Introduce an ethics code that legislators should follow, start an ethics committee for both houses of the state legislature. In the 62nd district I would create an Ombudsman who would listen to all the people's problems and he/she would tell me what is happening when I'm away in Lansing.

JON ALLEN BULLER, Democrat, 43, Rochester Hills. Father of three. BA, Oakland University (Political Science) and 2 years Engineering & Economics study. President, Bessenberg Bindery Corp. of Ann Arbor. Volunteer with Rochester Schools, Red Cross, YMCA, BSA. Precinct Delegate; Rochester Hills Board of canvassers.

A) The government has no business interfering in the doctor/patient relationship. This is a private and privileged relationship. Anti-abortion legislation substitutes one group's religious beliefs for another person's conscience, something that would not at all be tolerated in other circumstances. Each woman should decide herself whether to bear children.

B) Michigan's ever-growing population and its quest for the easy way out: convenience-packaged foods; lack of a rational and meaningful energy policy; demand for products that entail generation of toxic by-products; not demanding that industry clean up after itself; over development of near-urban areas.

C) State-wide funding of education is inevitable. One creates more serious problems by ignoring the poorest of our neighbors. Cap the rate of assessment increase, increase state sales or income taxes. Quality education is worth our best efforts. Our future depends on including all children.

D) Addressing issues in a direct manner that helps pave the way to rational/economic solutions to our problems. Obfuscating rhetoric that casts a strictly partisan light on debate can only amplify our difficulties and distract attention from the primary function of government.

GORDON SPARKS, Incumbent, Republican, 54, Troy. Area lifetime resident, Troy 34 years, age 54, completed Royal Oak Schools, electronic trade school, legislator since 1983, Troy School Board sixties, broadcast manager before legislature, been active in PTA, Boys/Girls Club, band boosters.

A) I am pro-choice in that I believe those decisions should be left to the individual. Government, special interest groups, and various religious organizations have no business interfering legislatively in what is very personal.

B) Cleaning up 3000+ toxic sites from the past, to match the better job we're doing currently — must focus on results — make those truly responsible clean-up, but be reasonable and always emphasize results — enough blame to go around including government at all levels — private funding/effectively use clean-up bonds.

C) State share percentage has declined — it must be increased, as education is long term solution to most problems — proper state funding of refined school-aid formula would improve equity — property tax, at least, should be limited to inflation — at best should be reduced — foreseeable future alternative funding politically difficult/impossible.

D) I would continue to view my elected position with respect and dignity — taking seriously and responding to communication from constituents — representing my district with good attendance — speaking highly of the many competent members of the legislature — giving credit to helpful state employees, and sharing understanding of the political process.

64TH HOUSE DISTRICT

MAXINE BERMAN, Incumbent, Democrat, 44, Southfield. 4 term State Representative; Former High School Teacher; B.A.: University of Michigan; Past Director, Citizen's Consumer Organization; Chair, House Elections Committee; Vice-Chair, Consumers; Chair - Tax Expenditure Subcommittee; Member - Taxation, Economic Development, House Oversight Committees.

A) I am pro-choice.

B) Toxic dumping is one. The state must provide funds in addition to the bond passed. Also, polluters pay legislation is critical.

C) I continue to support a sales tax increase. I believe we have an adequate formula, just not enough money to fund it.

D) I hope that all legislators, through their actions, would do so. We need more coverage on issues and better programs in schools to understand more clearly what government does and does not do, and can and cannot do.

BEN MAYER, Republican, 24, Southfield. B.S. in Physics, WSU; Cass Tech; Hillel Day School; Radio Shack management program; Executive Board member, five political & community organizations; Community Service Co-Chair, Oakland County Young Republicans; College Outreach Co-Chair, Detroit Zionist Federation.

A) A woman's right to control the destiny of her own body is fundamental. The status quo pro-choice legal situation in Michigan preserves optimum choice: Women have the freedom to choose childbirth or abortion; others are free to inform women of their options.

B) Most important environmental concern are toxic waste dumps abandoned many years ago by defunct businesses. Funding should come from cuts in wasteful 'pork barrel' projects designed to glamorize local politicians at the expense of all Michigan taxpayers. The state itself also owns several dumps that are likely to contaminate groundwater.

C) Financial equity is irrelevant! Vast differences in educational quality exists among districts, states, and nations with same per-pupil spending. Improving urban schools requires reforming methods and systems. More parental involvement and choice, tougher standards, core curriculum, streamlined administration will produce students with better skills for our industrialized job market.

D) I will listen to my constituents instead of lecturing them. I will not conjure up excuses to raise taxes on the family budget while the state budget is out of control. I will not claim to represent the interests of common citizens while catering to big-money special interest groups.

A) I support a focus on educational efforts promoting the reproductive choices available to provide people with the various birth control alternatives, so that they are in an informed position to exercise their individual choices before they become involved in difficult situations.

B) Solid/toxic waste. Half of the nation's dumps, including Michigan's, will be full in seven years. Daily, Michigan throws out 32,000 tons of garbage. (Enough to fill the Silverdome!) Progressive legislation utilizing tax incentives involve the private sector in waste reduction and complete the recycling circle, thus, offsetting costs.

C) Prioritize education, reverse lottery scam, hold state accountable. Half of 1979 K-12 general funding was replaced by lottery money, and Fund money used on other programs. Our property tax, nations fourth highest, is due to withering support of education from the state, causing heavier local tax burden. Recommit state funding.

D) Experience, responsiveness, and integrity. As a 12 year police officer, two term President of Beverly Hills, (same position as Mayor), and a small business owner I have experience dealing with the issues confronting our state. I have an established record of responding to the public's needs in a forthright manner.

Completing 3rd term as State Representative; Formerly, Teacher and School Administrator for 36 years. Educational Consultant for Senate Fiscal Agency for 4 years.

A) I supported the Parental Consent Bill and opposed medicaid funding of abortions.

B) The continued pollution of our environment is one of our most serious problems. A mandatory recycling program should be instituted to reduce pollution. Individuals and business who are guilty of pollution should pay for the cleanup. A bond issue was approved by the voters to provide some cleanup funds.

C) Additional funds will be needed to provide equitable funding for all schools and needed reduction in property taxes. Perhaps some funds can be provided through changing priorities but if we are to provide dramatic and meaningful property tax relief, additional sources revenue will be required.

D) 1. Public reporting of sources of income and investments by all elected public officials, 2. Prohibit public officials from accepting Honoraria, 3. Eliminate or further restrict expenditures from Officeholders Expense Fund, and 4. Limit Campaign expenses and contributions.

A) This is not an issue that belongs in the political arena. I don't believe my religious convictions should be legislated or mandated by the government.

B) Waste Management and toxic material disposal. Federal Government must legislate and/or ban toxic and non biodegradable products. They must assume responsibility for establishing waste disposal methods, disposal regulations and train state and local inspectors. The funding should come from a combination of Federal, State and those businesses that are generators.

C) Many school districts within Michigan that spend below the per student average, still achieve high scholastic standards and goals for their schools. Parental participation is a major factor for students achieving high scholastic standings. Federal and State Governments should jointly establish scholastic goals and provide the necessary support and funds.

D) Hold the line on spending without reducing overall needed services. The State will have to eliminate certain frills like Senior Citizens, low and middle income earners have learned to do. Establish, for all programs, measurable goals and timetables for accomplishments that must be met in order for funding to continue.

A) Decisions involving reproductive issues are personal ones that should be free from government encroachment. I am pro choice and believe all women, regardless of income, should have the right to obtain a safe legal abortion.

B) Environmental cleanup and the management of hazardous and solid waste must be secured through tougher state laws and strict enforcement. Those responsible for pollution must be made to stop and pay for the cleanup. Fines and penalties collected from polluters should also be used for additional cleanup and enforcement.

C) Increase state aid to education to the greatest extent possible with the most dollars going to the poorest districts with the most needs. Support a workable constitutional amendment that reduces property taxes and diminishes differences in revenue-raising ability among school districts while providing quality education to our children.

D) Create an Ethics Committee to investigate, rule and recommend disciplinary action on matters of conflict of interest and ethics. Require financial disclosure of assets and honoraria. Close examination of officeholder expenses by the Secretary of State that disallows questionable expenses and refers possible violations of law to the Attorney General.

Grandmother of two.

A) The state needs to repeal all abortion laws. The issue of pregnancy involves solely the woman and her doctor, not the government.

B) Residential and commercial recycling; preservation of wetlands, forests, beaches; clean-up of rivers, parks, neighborhoods; toxic dumping clean-up and ban with increased penalties.

C) Sales tax increase and nuisance taxes can be alternatives to escalating local property taxes.

D) - Presence - Responsive to citizens' needs - Responsible behavior - Commitment to full-time job responsibilities - Putting constituent needs above my own.

SHIRLEY JOHNSON, Incumbent, Republican, 52, Royal Oak. Wayne State University; Oakland Community College. Incumbent State Representative. First and only female Republican member, Appropriation committee. Past-Chair Oakland County Community Development Advisory Council (administered $5 million annually). Past-Chair, Intergovernmental Relations Study, LWV.

A) Pro-Choice. Politicians and government should not interfere in such private decisions. The decision should be made by the woman involved, with the benefit of any counsel she may seek from her physician and her spiritual advisor.

B) Low level radioactive waste disposal and solid waste disposal. Regarding the former, institute user fees for those enterprises that generate such waste. Regarding the latter, launch a broad public education effort about separation and segregation of recyclable waste to drastically reduce the amount that goes into landfills.

C) Since 1970, General Fund dollars to K-12 declined from 29.8% to 8.2%. GF commitment to K-12 replaced by lottery dollars. Should allocate more from GF to K-12 additional to lottery. Direct additional to in-formula districts. Mix of sales, use and property taxes should replace sole reliance on property tax.

D) Continue to: maintain personal and professional conduct above even appearance of impropriety; forego officeholders' expense fund (slush fund); diligent efforts on social services, public health, general government and other state budgets; maintain regular contact with constituents; sponsor and otherwise promote needed and responsible legislation such as Children's Bill of Rights.

A) I believe that any attempt to impede a woman's right to obtain a safe and legal abortion through legislative action or otherwise is in violation of the freedom guaranteed in the U.S. Constitution and the ruling of the Supreme Court in Roe v. Wade.

B) The safe and economical disposal of toxic and hazardous wastes. The funding of a toxic waste disposal system should be paid partially by the State and partially by the producers, storers and disposers of the waste material.

C) Since lowering the property taxes and increasing the sales tax was deemed unacceptable by a majority of voters in the State of Michigan, the only systems available is the current system. The state should increase its share of educational funding by reapportioning tax dollars from other areas.

D) As a practicing attorney, I am bound by a professional code of ethics. I propose having a code of ethics that the legislators must follow, with public input in the drafting of the code. Public awareness and adherence to a code of ethics would garner confidence from the public in (...)

A) The decision concerning reproductive choice should rest entirely with the woman and her physician.

B) Clean up of identified 307 toxic waste sites. The source of the pollution should be identified, the most cost-effective clean-up method should be determined, and costs shared by those identified polluters with orphan portions or sites (those where the polluters cannot be identified or is uncollectible) paid by the government.

C) Executive branch must work with legislature and determine priority activities/programs to be funded by the state and have the courage to eliminate all others. Extra funds generated along with greater control over granting tax abatement and loopholes in tax system would provide additional funding to create more equitable funding.

D) Adopt a Code of Ethics. Require annual filing with the Secretary of State: activities/business connections of legislator and immediate family members with any indication of possible conflicts of interest, listing of honoraria to include trips/hospitality/gifts of value/speaking fees, etc., limited financial disclosure, establish Ethics Commission.

OAKLAND COUNTY COMMISSIONERS

Oakland County has a 27-member Board of Commissioners which functions much like a state legislature or city council. The board acts on proposals of the executive; can override an executive veto by two-thirds vote; passes the general government budget; and makes appointments to such boards as the County Road Commission, Southeastern Michigan Transportation Authority, Huron-Clinton Metropolitan Authority and others. Elections are partisan. Term of office is two years. Current base salary is $19,198.

Candidates were asked to summarize their biographies in 35 words or less and to answer each of the following questions in 50 words or less:

A) What is your position on the Oakland County $470 million solid waste program? How should it be financed? How would it impact on taxpayers?

B) In your opinion, should the Oakland County Road Commission and the Drain Commissioner remain autonomous, or should they come under the County Executive? Why?

C) What are your long-range priorities for Oakland County?

A) Action on the solid waste problem is long overdue. As such, I am supportive of the attempt to address that problem. Funding that project with a bond is the most logical way to address it. And the impact on the taxpayers could be greatly reduced if the annual surplus that (...)

B) The Drain Commission should come under the County Executive because that function is clearly duplicative. The Road Commission, however, functions differently and I am opposed to transferring that position under the Executive's office because I don't think it would be managed correctly.

C) The elimination of wasteful government spending and a return to the taxpayers of the annual surplus of tax dollars. Insuring that a waste program will be implemented so as to save Oakland County's beautiful environment. To insure that the citizens have a road system that is adequate and properly (...)

A) Limited tax obligation bonds offer good interest rates and will provide that costs are covered by user fees. Taxpayers, in the municipalities that chose to join, will help protect the environment and save money through recycling/composting as the cornerstone and a waste to energy facility and lastly landfills.

B) While there are some drawbacks to autonomy the current separation works to the citizens advantage by providing a check and balance system between entities. Shared control of contract awards allows for a higher level of scrutiny and a double check process.

C) Implement a fiscally sound and environmentally responsible comprehensive solid waste program. Streamline operations. Establish enforceable guidelines to promote a higher degree of accountability for county departments. Work to provide higher quality services to family, youths, and children.

GEORGIA A. NEUBRECHT, Democrat, 64, Milford. Teacher in the Detroit schools before marriage and the rearing of two daughters. Passionate volunteer for urban causes. Teacher in Huron Valley Schools for 22 years. Now retired and active in the Milford Community.

A) It's high time that recycling became a concrete part of the county's solid waste management program. To avoid the wasteful mistakes that Detroit made, we should give this phase priority beyond any waste to energy conversion. The producers of the waste should be held responsible for financing facilities.

B) The County Executive should have clear responsibility for services. Our present roads do not reflect that our county is one of the richest in the country. Somewhere in the road agenda must come public transportation, offered to those who cannot afford cars and as a needed alternative to gas guzzling.

C) The County must take a part in the solution of urban problems with co-operative efforts in the Tri-County Metropolitan area. We must all work to help the cities before blight and crime and underfinanced schools become our common lot, but we must preserve our rural character by limiting development.

RICHARD G. SKARRITT, Incumbent, Republican, 60, Milford. Retired Senior Staff Engineer General Motors Corporation with 38 years service. Served on Milford Village Council. Attended General Motors Institute and Lawrence Institute of Technology. Veteran Korean War. Incumbent County Commissioner.

A) The solid waste program is necessary and I support the program. Citizens should have the right to vote on a bond sale of this magnitude. The bonds will be retired by revenue generated from user fees. This program should help to stabilize rising trash collection costs to citizens.

B) This consolidation under the County Executive requires home rule charter for Oakland County. The Board of Commissioners has not studied this change. I would support Home Rule if after a study, it was determined that consolidation (Home Rule) was in the best interest of the citizens of Oakland County.

C) Growth must be managed so that jobs will be created with a minimum impact on the quality of life. Programs must be developed to improve funding for roads. Solid Waste - we must continue to move ahead with solid waste planning that protects the environment and emphasizes recycling and waste reduction.

KAREN SCARBOROUGH, Libertarian, 37, Davisburg. Attended University of Michigan, 1984-86, Speech Pathology Major. Business Owner. Treasurer - Libertarian Party of Michigan. Vice Chair - Libertarian Party of Oakland County. Supper Club Coordinator - Metro Detroit Libertarians. Former Peer Counselor - University of Michigan.

A. Should be handled by private sector. Government mandate not needed. Simple solution: citizens separate and transport own trash or pay for service. As landfills reach capacity, necessitating increased collection rates, result is less consumption, more conservation. No tax increase necessary. Proven workable by theory of free market economics.

B. Neither. All road and drain work should be contracted out to private companies who would get it done as inexpensively and efficiently as possible or be subject to termination. The privatization of city services in Ecorse proves how this reduces cost, eliminates graft and corruption, and improves quality.

C. Privatization of all city services and buildings. Result: reduced property taxes by operating the County as financially responsible free enterprise, elimination of school private school, promoting environmental responsibility, and implementing drug education programs supported entirely by voluntary contribution.

A) Because of the lack of vision and planning by the County Executive, the taxpayers are faced with a costly environmentally questionable Solid Waste Program. Financing methods should have been left to the electorate years ago. We may be forced to accept costly limited obligation bond financing for a suspect program.

B) The Road Commission, Drain Commission and Public Works Departments should all be consolidated into one Department under the County Executive. This action will result in a more efficient, flexible, responsive and less costly organization. The reduced redundancy of internal staffs will save the taxpayers at least over one million dollars.

C) Work to: Reduce Property Taxes and Assessment. Roll back assessments to 40% of SEP. Freeze assessments for seniors on fixed incomes. Improve environment through better planning: Solid Waste Emphasizing Recycling, Protecting Ground Water/Wetlands, Control Expansion and Development. Improve and expand roads, Public Safety, Mental and Public Health Programs.

Experience: Former Village Trustee, Clarkston, presently Trustee on Board of Trustees, Independence Township. Married - Two Children.

A) The county government is making progress in this program. I support the county's efforts in addressing this problem though it is not to everyone's liking. I believe bonding is the proper funding method as long as it does not exceed Headlee restrictions. Impact on taxpayers will hopefully be minimal due (...)

B) I believe that the Road Commission and Drain Commission should remain autonomous at this time. Consolidation of power would only increase the Executive's power. Checks and balances are good and should be maintained. Funding of these Commissions do not rely upon the Executive's office - where is the need for change?

C) Final resolution and implementation of solid waste plan. Equitable distribution of Road Commission funds for improving and building new roads. Preparation of future county growth by control and management. I would like to see more funding and action toward substance abuse, education, enforcement, and treatment on county level.

A) Oakland County needs a viable solid waste program, and it will be the responsibility of the users to pay for it. The proven method is financing by bonds. Recycling is the intelligent option, or we could contract with other counties to incinerate or landfill.

B) Combine the road and drain commission and stop duplication of services, which would save one million per year. The county executive must have the drive and desire to lead this consolidation. Higher standards on new construction and better patching material must be implemented to achieve the desired goals.

C) To streamline and improve the existing programs, making them more cost effective to all residents of Oakland County. To include the Build for Tomorrow Fund, to help our existing communities, and plan for new communities. We, as a commission, must have visionary responsibilities - plan, instead of reacting to crisis situations.

A) Support. Our program is most comprehensive in the Nation. Contains all elements of disposal. Legal Counsel says limited obligation bonds do not have to go to vote of people, because they will be paid by revenue from facilities. If people voted, we could raise taxes. Can't raise with limited obligation.

B) The idea of consolidation of county functions would streamline and economize. However, providing a Charter County is the proper approach. This way people have voice and accountability up front. Both Waterford and White Lake are Charter Townships.

C) Better transportation. To start, takes combination of more paving, flex time, mass transit, computerized traffic signals. Crime. Enhance programs of work release, retribution, victims rights. Modernize county government through obtaining County Charter. This increases accountability, streamlines, strengthens, tightens, existing programs.

Chairman Planning and Building Committee, 1990. Vice Chair of Finance Committee, 1989. Secretary of Community Mental Health Board, 1988-1989.

A) Limited Obligation Bonds supported by revenues generated by fees from each facility. Under Act 186 each year, the governing board would set tipping fees to cover all costs incurred from operation of this system. The County would not be allowed to levy any new property taxes to subsidize the system.

B) Under Act 139, the Road Commission can not be made answerable to the County Executive. I will support the merger of the DPW and the Drain Office. I feel that their functions are similar and could easily be merged.

C) Completion of the Solid Waste Program outlined in our 641 Update, which has been hanging over Oakland County taxpayers' heads for 30 years. Continue efforts to recapture road funds that are paid by Oakland County to the state. Support the Sheriff and Prosecutor in efforts to make Oakland safe.

A) If the county is to construct an incinerator, it should be financed through the sale of bonds. However, it should be put to a vote of approval by the electorate.

B) The Road Commission and the Drain Commissioner should be merged to provide better economies of scale and to eliminate duplication of related activities. The combined office should be appointed by a bi-partisan board under the County Commissioners.

C) To reduce regressive property taxes, to improve county wide police coordination, especially in the drug trafficking area, improve roads and traffic congestion, improve economic development to increase job creation.

DONALD E. BISHOP, Incumbent, Republican, Rochester Hills. Education: Oberlin College, Detroit College of Law. Occupation: Lawyer. Background: 16 years State Legislative Service — 4 years in House, 12 years in Senate, November, 1987, to present — elected to the Oakland County Board of Commissioners.

A) I support the County solid waste program of waste reduction, recycling, composting and incineration. The project should be financed by limited obligation bonds, and serviced by revenues. Sufficient income should be generated to pay for the bonds. The taxpayer would not be impacted unless user fees don't pay the debt.

B) The Road Commission should remain autonomous. There is no indication that a Road Commission controlled by the County Executive would be any more efficient or effective. Its main source of funds comes from the gas and weight tax. They simply have more need than dollars available.

C) County Government is primarily service oriented. The Federal and State Governments, caught in debt reduction and reduced revenues, are putting more burdens onto local governments. Long range, the county will have to improve on its delivery of services.

A) Oakland County must embark upon a comprehensive solid waste program which meets the needs of our citizens for the next thirty years. Our program should be prioritized as follows: 1) recycling 2) composting 3) environmentally safe landfills 4) waste to energy facility. Limited obligation bonds should be used to finance construction.

B) Cost reductions could be achieved through the consolidation of all county public works functions. Oakland County voters should decide on choice between County Executive and County Public Works Commissioner.

C) Initiate greater participation of Oakland County Government in resolving the difficulties of our older urban communities. Pontiac and other urban communities must participate in the phenomenal growth occurring in Oakland County. A) $470 million is way too much money. Much of our waste can be recycled leaving a minimal amount to burn. Any profits gained through recycling should finance much of the cost, existent cost may remain or perhaps even be cut. Private entrepreneurs, if permitted, would relieve most of the burden.

B) By all means they should remain autonomous. Until someone gives me a workable reason, I shall continue to stand by a diversity of invested power. There is an old saying, yet true of men. Power corrupts, absolute power corrupts absolutely. That is why I believe so strongly in the vote.

C) A lushly green Oakland County. In 1776 there was approximately two feet of top soil nationally, today there is approximately three inches. We are fast becoming a desert. Through much of our waste we can regain some of our fertility. Oakland County can be the Gem of America again.

10TH COUNTY DISTRICT

TERESA KRAUSE, Democrat, 75, Troy. Graduate Wayne State University, Teacher, 30 years. Retired 1977. 1988 Michigan Senior of the Year, 1989 Michigan Senior Volunteer of the Year.

A) The solid waste problem has existed for a long time, but the County adopted a program only after landfill space was exhausted. The plan does NOT include South Oakland County or Pontiac and relies on high temperature incineration as the key component. Financial plans should be approved by voters.

B) The Oakland County Road Commission, office of Drain Commissioner and Department of Public Works should be consolidated, under existing State Law, into the office of PUBLIC WORKS COMMISSIONER. It should be an elected official, as in Macomb County, directly responsible to the people, saving millions in tax dollars.

C) CUT TAXES - lower property tax rates proportional to the rise in inflation; make the county live within their budget by cutting expenses; consolidate duplicate departments; raise county fees for court and Sheriff's services to better reflect the true cost involved, and limit travel expenses by elected and appointed officials.

MARK CHESTER, Incumbent, Republican, 37, Troy. Oakland County Commissioner, Senior Purchasing Expediter - General Motors, Central Michigan University - 1987, Host - Oakland County Update, Past President Troy Community Council, Member Madison Heights Community Roundtable, Associate Board Member Community Services of Oakland.

A) The program is the most comprehensive in the country and I strongly support it. Since this is the largest single financing program in the county's history, a vote of the people is in order. Ultimately, the taxpayers of this county are liable for its debt retirement.

B) Consolidation of resources is always desirable, although it is premature to make that assumption in this case. Sufficient information has not been presented regarding improving services and/or cost advantages to make an informed decision.

C) Reducing taxes, improving county roads, implementing the solid waste program and enhancing county services.

11TH COUNTY DISTRICT

WALTER H. GILBERT, Democrat, 31, Royal Oak. Trial attorney for six years. Bachelor of Arts - University of Michigan. Law Degree - University of Detroit. Royal Oak homeowner. Married to Cathy; Daughter Emily. Organized several civic forums focused on community issues.

A) Recycling is absolutely necessary if we are going to conquer our shortage of landfill space and pollution problems from incineration. Eighty percent of our waste is recyclable. Taxpayers would be impacted with a tremendous tax savings by having to pay less landfill costs.

B) The current appointment system of Road Commissioners is political cronyism. The departments should be merged and come under the auspices of the commissioners and hence, the voters, and not the County Executive. Then maybe attention will be drawn to the inadequacies of our road systems.

C) Better roads, revitalization of our older established communities like Royal Oak, fair distribution of county tax dollars and county services, cutting excessive taxes, increasing police protection and decreasing crime, senior citizen tax relief, drug-free schools, and providing quality neighborhood child care.

JOHN P. McCULLOCH, Republican, 34, Royal Oak. Graduate Walsh College, Accountancy (5/79); Detroit College of Law, Juris Doctor (6/88). Certified Public Accountant and President of McCulloch & Co., Royal Oak. Native of Royal Oak, married with two children. Member of Shrine Parish.

A) I support the county solid waste program which consists of recycling, composting, landfills and incineration. However, I believe the county should operate a landfill rather than rely on private landfill operators who have poor safety records. The program should be financed by limited pledge bonds and repaid by program participants.

B) The Road commission and Drain Commission should be merged with the County Department of Public Works. Most of their duties are administrative which don't require elected or appointed officials. We now have three independent authorities which could deliver services more efficiently under a single executive.

C) To improve the quality of life in Oakland County. This means better roads, effective law enforcement, sensible solid waste disposal, preservation of 'greenfields' in northern townships, and redevelopment of existing infrastructure in our mature communities. Oakland County also needs return of its fair share of tax dollars sent to Lansing.

A) Oakland County must proceed with a comprehensive solid waste disposal program using a combination of recycling, composting, incineration and landfills in cooperation with local governmental units to better serve all citizens. Material resource and waste-to-energy facilities must be constructed by using limited tax bonds for effective financing.

B) The Oakland County Road Commission and Drain Commissioner should not come under the County Executive, but should be more accountable to the taxpayers. We do not need to consolidate more power in the County Executive, but we do need to eliminate duplication of services and department functions.

C) My priorities: 1) Reduce County taxes by lowering the millage rate, 2) County assistance for development projects in older communities and planning for new growth areas, 3) Consolidate operations for better, cheaper service, 4) Implement waste disposal plan, 5) Improve roads, 6) Drug prevention and enforcement programs to be expanded.

A) I favor recycling, incineration, proper landfills plus research and development of better ways to accomplish the job. I favor Revenue Bonds as, perhaps, the least objectionable to citizens. General Obligation Bonds would be second choice. The users will pay for it either way by user fees or tax dollars.

B) I favor whichever process that reduces cost and improves efficiency or service to citizens.

C) An aggressive program to deal with substance abuse. Wise and conservative use of tax dollars. Waste Management Program that deals with current needs and addresses future needs. B) Your question paints a somewhat false dichotomy. The Road and Drain Commissions are not really autonomous. A) Over $8 million has been invested in County Solid Waste Plan. County commissioners have studied problem over 20 years yet no plan has been adopted leaving county without comprehensive program for the solid waste crisis. I do not have the answer, but this will be a major concern.

B) Consolidation of the Road Commission, Drain Commission, and Public Works Department would help in reducing duplication, saving a possible $1 million. Restore bi partisan appointments to the Road Commission, then Oakland County can go to Lansing united to request a greater return of tax dollars.

C) Election to all county offices candidates who bring practical and business-like, yet compassionate, approach to government. A) We need it desperately. The local governments who will actually pay for our County waste disposal program have voted to proceed. Financing will be provided by using limited tax bonds for the construction of material resource and waste-to energy facilities. There will be minimal impact on the taxpayer.

B) They both should come under the County Executive with accountability to the Board of Commissioners. Consolidation would save the taxpayers millions of dollars by getting rid of duplication in departments, personnel and purchasing for example. The savings in millions could go into improving our roads and transportation system.

C) % Roads: Grid lock and pot holes are on the daily menu. Health Care: sexually-transmitted diseases, substance abuse, and infant mortality are increasing dramatically. B) This problem should have more time to be investigated before I make a decision on what should be done.

21ST COUNTY DISTRICT

LILLIAN JAFFE OAKS, Democratic, Southfield, Incumbent. Current County Commissioner. 8 years Southfield City Council (President and President Pro-Tem). Leadership in many Community activities. Governor's Appointments - Future Higher Education Commission, Cabinet Council: Jobs; Economic Development. Graduate Wayne State University.

A) This important issue must be addressed. I support a comprehensive County Solid Waste Program funded by limited obligation Bonds to be paid by User Fees that will minimize Taxpayers Costs. I support effective recycling, composting, waste to energy facility and efficient landfills.

B) There is much duplication in costs with current autonomous Road and Drain Commissions. All Public works functions should be consolidated under control of an Elected Official under policy established by a bipartisan Board of County Commissioners.

C) To maintain and improve Citizens Quality of Life. A master plan should be established with future growth priorities in mind. Implementation of Solid Waste Program. More efficient roads and transportation with fair financial planning. Improved mental health services. Economic development with maximum utilization of existing infrastructure to avoid urban sprawl.

MYRTEN E. BYRD, JR., Republican, 34, Southfield. Born Dec. 10, 1955 in Chicago. Married to Toni Byrd and have 3 children. Graduated Bradley University. District Manager: Payless Shoe Source. Active in the church, schools, community groups and politics. 6 year resident of Southfield.

A) Oakland County needs a viable solid waste program. Specifically, the 'waste-to-energy' incinerator proposed for Auburn Hills should be built. It should be financed through the sale of bonds. These bonds should be repaid with user fees from the local governing bodies. Taxpayer impact will be negligible.

B) As the county continues its accelerated growth, governmental cohesion and stability are needed. Someone must be allowed to set the priorities within the county. The County Executive reserves that privilege. The Road Commission and the Drain Commissioner should come under the County Executive.

C) As the metro-area continues its northward drift, we must insure that the prosperity of Oakland county continues and touches all sectors of the county. In this district, we must address office abandonment, security, neighborhood beautification, roads, etc. County government must become relevant in the 21st District!

22ND COUNTY DISTRICT

CAROLYN PEYSER, Democrat, 52, Birmingham. Health care professional, 32 years in nursing. 4 children raised here. Witness to health problems resulting from environmental conditions. Wants to address the threat of toxic waste, diminishing landfills. Will deal with the destructive nature (...)

A) $470 mil. for a solid waste program that plans to incinerate 70-80% is money going in the wrong direction environmentally. Can acid gas-scrubbers and filter fabric bag house render gases harmless? Without their voted approval the costs will impact the tax payer.

B) The reduction of duplication allows more coordinated work on the renewal of older infrastructure, would result if OC Road commission, Drain commissioner and Public Works departments were consolidated.

C) Encourage environmentally conscious renewal of infrastructure, work, and community planning of our older communities. Mental health as preventive, enhance education, victim compensation as a deterrent to crime.

DONALD W. JENSEN, Incumbent, Republican, 69, Birmingham. Graduate University of Detroit BBA; Retired Director Advertising and Public Relations, Burroughs Corporation; nine years Birmingham City Commissioner and Mayor; four years County Commissioner; service on 15 county or county-related boards and commissions.

A) Program as conceived is sound and should proceed without unnecessary delay. Should be financed with revenue bonds which place no burden on taxpayer, or limited obligation bonds after and if voters approve. LO bonds could impact taxpayers in event of default, which is very unlikely.

B) Remain autonomous. Road and drain programs now proceed based on most need. Politizing departments would likely lead to inequities in programs. Road Commissioners now concerned only with prioritizing road problems, and the Drain Commissioners with drains, and the system performs effectively. If it ain't broke, don't fix it.

C) Solid waste - proceed aggressively with recycling throughout County; convert non-recyclable material to energy, landfill as little as possible. Roads - Pursue State legislation permitting County revenues for roads. Situation becoming critical. Crime - Danger of becoming epidemic in County. Give Sheriff, prosecutor, and County courts tools to bring criminals to justice.

23RD COUNTY DISTRICT

JAMES W. SHIMOURA, Democrat, Bloomfield Hills. Did not respond in time for publication.

NANCY McCONNELL, Incumbent, Republican, Bloomfield Hills. B.A., Political Science; 8 year incumbent commissioner; 3 term Board Vice Chair; has served on all standing committees; SEMCOG delegate; EDC Director; Airport Commission; Personnel Appeal Board; Advisory Councils: Children's Village, Substance Abuse, Community Development.

A) I am a strong advocate for comprehensive, integrated, user-financed program as proposed. Limited tax obligation bonds save millions in interest costs over revenue bonds, protect taxpayers from tax increases permitted by general obligation bonds, and require discipline of system overseers as any shortfall must come from current, authorized county millage.

B) The Road Commission is unable to ease traffic flow or adequately maintain roads with current funding. We cannot commit further general funds without legislations providing oversight and fiscal control by county commission and exec. The current Drain Commissioner runs a good, tight operation in cooperation with the Board. Why Change?

C) To convince our children and grandchildren that there truly is 'no place like home', by striving to assure a stable employment/investment climate, solid educational opportunities, decent roads, safe neighborhoods, a clean environment, enjoyable recreational facilities, efficient delivery of necessary services to residents, with prudent management of taxpayer funds.

24TH COUNTY DISTRICT

JEFF POTTER, Democrat, 38, South Lyon. Graduated Eastern Michigan University (honors). Employer, Ford Wixom. Married to Andra; two boys, new baby (August). Enjoy community service: Mayor, Councilman, SEMCOG, CEDAC, Municipal League, EDC, groups stressing planning, growth management, good government, intergovernmental cooperation.

A) I have supported combined waste strategy and initiated local recycling program. Market development for recyclables and fair user fees should offset capital costs and reward recycling. A rational system based on revenues avoids new taxes, prevents waste of available landfill capacity, and helps save our beautiful countryside!

B) Current system is unresponsive to our growing area. We need compromise system, responding better to needs, yet preventing domination. Let's combine departments functionally under Executive, with some remaining political autonomy. We can save over $1 million through streamlining. Corporations must do this to survive competitive environment; we should require same.

C) In our democracy peoples' priorities are important, not mine or special interests. Personally, I favor moderate, carefully planned growth to maintain our quality of life, avoid urban sprawl, while providing diversified economic opportunities, parklands. Let's roll back millages; income limits help organizations spend effectively. I'll work for cooperation and consensus.

KAY SCHMID, Republican, 53, Novi. Married, 3 grown children, Hillsdale College 1956-57. Past Purchasing agent, sales representative. 18 years - Novi. Treasurer Novi Civic Center Planning Committee. Elected Republican Precinct since 1978. Novi City Director. State Committeewoman, 18th District Republican Committee.

A) Solid waste is a problem County government can do something about. Limited obligation bonds will be paid for by the users and costs can be controlled from year to year. User fees not tax monies should pay for the program.

B) Elected Drain Commissioner remain as is. Roads impact economic growth, quality lifestyle within County. Legislative change should be considered but not as presently funded. This change should deal with additional tools to raise revenue for road improvements with responsibility, accountability under the Executive with oversight by the Commissioners.

C) The crisis of roads and traffic needs to be resolved to accommodate the growth our county is experiencing as more business and families locate here. Disposing of solid waste must be managed to control costs. Fiscally sound government & tough law enforcement must be continued to provide quality lifestyle.

25TH COUNTY DISTRICT

SHAWNEE SPEDDEN, Democrat, Walled Lake. Did not respond in time for publication.

G. WILLIAM CADDELL, Incumbent, Republican, 55, Walled Lake. Doctor of Chiropractic (24 years), Chiropractor, County Commissioner (11 years), Area Resident 30 years, local businessman 20 years.

A) Limited Tax Bonds - Bonds paid off by tipping fees from solid waste - It will not raise tax. Existing millage rate will be responsible for any short fall in bond payment.

B) No - If it ain't broke, don't fix it. Things are working OK - perhaps some Road Commission Departments should merge with County Departments and contract with the county for services.

C) County Budget - provide adequate services. Reduce county millage - resist state programs that are unfunded - no deficit spending. Solid Waste - provide workable program. Roads improve this infrastructure - more money returned from Lansing. Law Enforcement - fund adequate protection for the people of Oakland County.

26TH COUNTY DISTRICT

MARLENE A. SMITH, Democrat, 57, Sylvan Lake. Married to husband Bob 41 years. 3 grown sons, 7 grandchildren. Resident of Sylvan Lake 23 years. Retired from Pontiac Motors in 1987. U.A.W. Special Benefit Representative at retirement, held several elected positions as a (...)

A) We have already invested over $8 million in a comprehensive solid waste disposal study involving recycling, composting, incineration and landfills. If our county hadn't blinked — we would have had the most comprehensive waste disposal plan in the country. AND it would have cost the county absolutely nothing. The local governments (...)

B) No, it gives one office too much power. Several departments should be eliminated as there is a duplication of services. They should be under a Bi-partisan board made up of elected County Commissioners.

C) Reducing the millage rates. Stepped up drug prevention and enforcement programs. Meaningful protection of the rights of crime victims. Genuine coordinations among the almost 50 police agencies in Oakland County. More action and less conversation to alleviate traffic congestion. Economic development and job creation through focused growth management and an (...)

A) The solid waste program is a very well rounded program in that it involves a combination of landfill, recycling and incineration. I have some reservations regarding the financing of the program because very little effort has been expended in attempting to hold down the ultimate cost of the program while (...)

B) They are very efficiently and economically operated units of county government, and therefore, they should remain autonomous until such time as documented evidence is produced that clearly establishes that these units of government can be more effectively and efficiently run under the County Executive.

C) We must develop a plan in conjunction with Road Commission to solve the traffic congestion problems in the county. Also, we must continue to support programs that will help protect the safety and welfare of the citizens of Oakland County. We further must support proposals to protect and preserve the (...)

DONN L. WOLF, Incumbent, Republican, 55, Farmington Hills. Incumbent Commissioner; Personnel, General Government Committees. Member National Association of Counties Energy/Environment Committee. Former Mayor/eight year Council Member Farmington Hills. Detroit Edison Community and Governmental Affairs Executive. Education: AB-Michigan, MA ETS.

A) Our solid waste program, recycling, composting, waste-to-energy operations, landfill, is one of the most necessary and important programs undertaken by Oakland County and local communities in this decade. Financed through the issuance of bonds, it will be self-supporting through revenues and will not involve general taxes.

B) Eventually, the complexities of government will necessitate such a change. Accountability would rest with the most visible elected officials, the County Executive and Board of Commissioners. Efficiencies in operations would be realized by eliminating duplication of administrative services and costs. There would be unified policies in regards to County development.

C) Improve the County road and highway network. Strengthen law enforcement agencies' capabilities to take the strongest stand possible against crime and drugs. Hold the line on taxes through more efficient services. Every County program should be scrutinized as to its necessity and operations. Implement our County solid waste program.

Gene Schnelz, Incumbent, Walled Lake. Unopposed.

Robert L. Templin, Bloomfield Hills. Unopposed.

New 10 year term ending 1/1/01 and new 6 year term ending 1/01/97.

Vote for two. (The candidate receiving the highest number of votes will be elected for a 10 year term. The candidate receiving the second highest number of votes will be elected to a 6 year term.)

THOMAS M. BRENNAN, 44, Troy. Brennan, a 16 year resident of Troy, has been in private practice of law since his graduation from the Detroit College of Law in 1974. A primary area of his practice has been trial (...)

A) If elected, I will use the powers of my office to ensure that litigants receive a prompt and fair resolution of their disputes. I will encourage court personnel to assist everyone coming before the court with courtesy and compassion.

B) I would consider alternative sentencing in those cases where the accused has no prior criminal history and where the needs of society as well as those of the accused and his family would be better served by the alternative sentence than by imprisonment.

C) I would personally favor the establishment of a separate family court to handle domestic relations matters and adoptions. The establishment of such a court would allow its judges to specialize, and thereby acquire a greater expertise, in the handling of these matters.

RUDY NICHOLS, 44, Waterford. Booth, Patterson, Lee, Karstrom & Steckling - Private practice 1974-76. Dept. of Law, City of Pontiac - Municipal law - 1976-82. Michigan House of Representatives - State Representative - 1983-84. Michigan State Senate - State Senator - 1984-90.

A) By serving the public and by practicing my belief that the judiciary exists to serve the public, not itself. Beyond this, I would make myself accessible, whenever possible, to explain the legal system to whomsoever is interested.

B) Whenever the law and the circumstances of the case would allow it, but also in view of any rights victims may have as well.

C) Divorce should remain with Circuit Court unless and until there is enough support and resources for a family court system.

JAMES P. SHEEHY, 47, Rochester Hills. Received his Juris Doctor from the U of D School of Law. Since his election in 1980, he has served as Presiding District Judge for three terms, by special appointment as Acting Circuit Judge, Probate Judge and (...)

A) Judge Sheehy is a highly respected and outstanding District Judge. He is committed to the philosophy that the law should serve the people and that all citizens, young and old, financially well off and poor and under-represented, should receive equal treatment under the law, trials without delay, and reasonable decisions.

B) The alternative sentence method is often used when the jails are overcrowded or when someone is not a threat to society and the safety of law abiding citizens. The bad guys should be removed from the streets and put in jail.

C) At this time divorces should remain in circuit court where the trained and experienced judges are. If experienced judges are available to start a Family Court, the people can be properly handled.

DEBORAH TYNER, 34, Franklin. Wayne State - J.D. Cum Laude 1981. University of Michigan - B.A. - 1977. Currently a partner in Sommers, Schwartz, Silver. Former Assistant Prosecutor - Felony Trials. Appointments: Attorney Discipline Board, Mediator. Member: Women's Bar Association, Women's Economic Club.

A) My criminal and other trial experience would be valuable in conducting the courtroom in a dignified and orderly fashion. I would work with community organizations, the media and others to help improve public understanding and appreciation of the need to maintain and strengthen a lawful, safe and just society.

B) When an individual demonstrates the capacity for rehabilitation and is able to benefit from counseling or therapy such as first time offenders for minor offenses; elderly Defendants; individuals with psychological problems that are better served by the State's mental health facilities; and the physically handicapped.

C) A family court should be established to meet the specific and on-going needs of domestic relation matters. Extensive time and the help of specially trained personnel should be devoted to child custody matters. The Circuit Court dockets are currently over-burdened.

OAKLAND PROBATE COURT

Probate court has original jurisdiction in juvenile delinquency and dependency cases. It hears cases on wills and estates, guardianships, and commitments of the mentally ill. Current salary is $93,817.

BARRY M. GRANT, Incumbent - Unopposed.

DISTRICT COURT JUDGES

District courts have exclusive jurisdiction over civil cases up to $10,000 and minor criminal cases. In Oakland County, a district court may cover one to a dozen communities. Six year term. Salary is $93,817.

Candidates were asked to summarize their biographies in 35 words or less and to answer each of the following questions in 50 words or less:

A. What contributions would you make toward improving the public's perception of, and confidence in, the judicial system?

B. Under what conditions would you consider alternative sentencing — as opposed to a jail sentence?

C. What should the role of the district court judge be in preventing substance abuse?

TERRENCE BRENNAN, 40, Royal Oak. Graduated from Notre Dame, and the Detroit College of Law. Now in private practice. Formerly served as Court Clerk for Judge John Mann, and was the Assistant and Acting City Attorney for the City of Royal (...)

A) To improve the public's perception of and confidence in the judicial system, I would ensure that I am: prompt and prepared for all court hearings, decisive, firm, fair and consistent, courteous, available, involved in the community, willing to work and to educate the public on Court operations.

B) At a minimum, I would consider the following factors to determine if jail or some alternative sentence is appropriate: The nature of the offense, past criminal record, likelihood of repetition, statutory guidelines, if any, defendant's attitudes, victim's input, if restitution possible, benefits and availability of alternative sentences.

C) The District Judge can play an important role through imposition of the right sentence which may include either jail (both the imposition or threat thereof), inpatient treatment, probation, or some combination of all three. The Judge can also help educate the public by speaking at schools and community groups.

DONALD PATRICK WILLIAMS, 57, Royal Oak. Royal Oak High School, 1951; U of M, MSU, Detroit College of Law, 1963. Practicing trial attorney 26 years, criminal and civil. Mediator/Arbitrator. Married 32 years, 6 children, U.S. Army veteran.

A) I would first conduct myself in a way that would not bring disrespect to the judicial system. I would treat all litigants, attorneys and witnesses and spectators with the respect due them. Court would be operated punctually. I would be available to speak to schools and organizations about the system.

B) Non-violent first offenders, drug and alcohol abusers where in-patient or outpatient care would be more productive; any situation where an educational setting would be more beneficial to the offender and society. Tethering, probation, essay writing and community service are alternatives to jail where appropriate.

C) He should be accessible when his input is requested for substance abuse programs. He can work closely with schools in such programs because I think the key to preventing substance abuse is to educate children early. He can be tough on crimes when drug use is involved.

DISTRICT 45A

City of Berkley.

Non-Incumbent term ending 1/1/97. Vote for one.

WILLIAM R. SAUER, 43, Berkley. Graduate Mich. State and Detroit College of Law; General Practice Attorney (Civil and Criminal) since 1975; Berkley Councilman (1983-1987); circuit, District Court Mediator; Probate Court Guardian Ad Litem, married 21 years, one child.

A) The public view of the judicial system is basically formed by T.V. and movies. As Judge I would visit the schools and invite other groups to visit Court on a regular basis to give first hand educational experience, and hopefully, confidence in our judicial system. Openness is an important factor.

B) Alternative sentencing such as community service, probation, counselling, etc. is proper when the person demonstrates that he or she will benefit and it will resolve the underlying cause of their illegal act. A Judge must decide if the sentence is to rehabilitate, deter others, punish or a combination of each.

C) Appearing in District Court on a substance abuse offense means prevention has failed. As Judge I could be a party in preventing someone from repeating the abuse, but most of the responsibility for prevention lies with home and family, by their providing a supportive and moral environment to the children.

ARNOLD J. SHIFMAN, Berkley. University of Michigan, 1951-1955. Detroit College of Law, J.D., 1965. 7 years - Oakland County Prosecutor's Office. 2 years -

Chief Assistant. 18 years - private practice.

A) Educating the public is the only way to improve the perception of and confidence in the judicial system. This would be accomplished by taking the court to the citizenry. Sessions of court could be held at the high school, senior citizen complex and other public places.

B) When the probation department and I believe that a greater benefit to society would be derived if the defendant were not placed in a jail surrounding. Such sentences could be assisting community organizations, the elderly, charitable organizations and the City of Berkley.

C) A district court judge could help prevent substance abuse by continually making themselves available for speaking engagements throughout the community. Further, the process from time of arrest to court appearance should be speeded up so that a drug offender does not forget what his purpose is for being in court.

DISTRICT 45B

Cities of Huntington Woods, Oak Park, Pleasant Ridge and Royal Oak Township.

Regular term ending 1/1/97 Vote for two.

MARVIN F. FRANKEL, Incumbent, 58, Huntington Woods. Born Detroit, Michigan 8/27/32. Graduated, Central High School 1950. B.A. Hillsdale College, 1955. LLB Wayne State, 1958. General Practice, 1958-1975. Oak Park Municipal Judge 1968-1975. 45-B District Judge 1975-present.

A) Making certain that important decisions that you make are written and articulated in language, easily understood by the public so that the average person on the street understands what you did and why you did it.

B) Jail is a sentence of last resort not first resort. It is only after other options available have failed, that one should resort to jail. When a judge sentences to jail, it is a statement of failure both as to the individual respondent as well as society itself.

C) Take advantage of the community resources available when sentencing a defendant in a substance abuse case. Then require the defendant to become self-reliant and productive often times through completion of basic education.

BENJAMIN J. FRIEDMAN, Incumbent, 59, Huntington Woods. 1960 graduate of Wayne State Law School. Elected Municipal Judge 1969. Appointed District Judge - 1975 and re-elected in 1978, and 1984.

A) My record speaks for itself - 21 years of judicial service. I will continue to allow litigants to have their say and listen patiently. District Court is the people's court and must continue to be so. Citizens must be encouraged to exercise their rights in Court and be comfortable doing so.

B) It is an option used for first offenders. Being caught, spending a few hours in jail before arraignment is usually sufficient deterrent. Hopefully, these defendants will not appear again. When employment loss could occur because of incarceration, alternative sentencing is possible - loss of job creates more problems than jail solves.

C) We must emphasize encouraging of therapy. First offender programs featuring education and counseling, and dismissal upon a successful completion of probation. There is little we can do to prevent the initial abuse - our contacts occur afterwards and we must try to stop further abuse.

Experience: Extensive trial experience at District and Circuit Court levels. Background: Trial attorney, 1976-1987.

A) Performance. In the civil area I have reduced the docket by one-third. In the criminal area I have imposed harsh sanctions for criminals, particularly drunk drivers. Perception. I have engaged in many community and charitable events, have published four articles, and speak publicly to groups whenever asked.

B) First offense non-violent crimes. Sentencing must, however, include serious sanction, i.e., community service, community work program, alcohol programs. Repeat offenders must, though, receive some jail time. The community must perceive that the judges will not give everyone the proverbial 'slap on the wrist.' Some jail time is important.

C) Harsh sanctions and bonds on sellers. Much less permissiveness with respect to users. Harsh sanctions with respect to drinking and driving offenses. No drug causes the amount of violent death and injury as does alcohol. I have consistently incarcerated repeat drunk drivers and will continue to do so. Education.

Cities of Farmington and Farmington Hills.

Regular term ending 1/1/97 Vote for one.

FREDERICK L. HARRIS, Incumbent, 60, Farmington Hills. 1952 Graduated, MSU, B.A. 1963 Graduated, WSU Law School, J.D. Presently, Judge of the 47th District Court. Retired from the U.S. Marine Corps with rank of Colonel. Former Assistant Prosecuting Attorney, Wayne County (1963-1964).

A) The most significant contributions any judge can make to improving the public's perception of our judicial system is:

1) Be punctual and consistent. 2) Listen attentively to everyone. Litigants who know that their side of the case has been heard have greater confidence in our courts regardless of the outcome.

B) In misdemeanor controlled substance abuse cases, I will consider a disposition under the health code in lieu of jail for a first offender. Impose jail sentences to be served at the end of probation. Upon satisfactory completion of probation and community work, I will suspend the jail sentence.

C) Upon a finding of guilty, a judge's role is to impose a sentence that will deter the defendant from engaging in any further illegal conduct. Defendants placed on probation in drug cases have to submit to urine screens regularly while drunk driving case defendants will receive some form (...)

FREDERICK O. KNAUER, 60, Farmington Hills. LLB/JD WSU 1953. Private practice (general) 36 years. Court mediator. State Bar: Representative Assembly (6 years, elected by peers), Civil Procedure (Chairperson), Citizenship (Chairperson), Constitutional Law, Law Day (essay judge), Public Relations, Advanced Technology.

A) I will strive to earn public respect and confidence by punctuality, preparedness, attentiveness, courtesy and (when appropriate) occasional humor. Decisiveness coupled with sensitivity, firmness with fairness, justice with mercy, and a constant awareness that the court 'belongs to' and exists for the public, not the judge, will be my aims.

B) Alternative sentencing, if available and appropriate, fills the gap between too lenient fines or probation, and potentially counterproductive jail terms. For example, a contrite first offender, as well as the community, may well benefit from enforced community service or educational endeavors. Conversely, jail may be the best answer for 'scofflaws'.

C) A judge must first teach by example; therefore, must never personally abuse drugs. Sentences should be remedial where possible, sufficiently punitive when necessary, and serve effectively to communicate an appropriate warning to other potential abusers. Courtrooms and judges should be available to schools and communities to educate against drug abuse.

A. As a candidate and as a judge I would hold the office I seek in a higher regard than my personal interests. I would conduct myself in public or in private in a manner that would bring respect and esteem to my office.

B. Punishment where possible should include a reasoned attempt to rehabilitate the criminal, reducing the odds of recurrent behavior. In crimes lacking in malicious intent and physical injury to victims I would expect better results.

C. A district court judge needs to treat all forms of substance abuse as potentially lethal conduct and embed that message in persons convicted of such crimes. He needs also to help educate the unwary of the risks involved in behaviors too often accepted as socially tolerable.

INTRODUCING THE DOOR THAT BEATS WOOD TO A PULP.

THE NEWPORT. LOOKS LIKE OAK. INSULATES LIKE STEEL.

There's never been an entry door like it. The finish looks like oak. It's insulated like a steel door. It stains like wood. But all in all, it's 100% Peachtree. And the Peachtree Newport is not only beautiful. It gives you six times the insulating value of a wood door and is guaranteed for as long as you own it.*

Stop by and see the incredible new Newport and Non-Stop Warranty today.

HOROSCOPE

October 21 through October 27

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21)

Your romance sector seems a little off. Don't worry, this phase will soon pass. Use discretion when dealing with a loved one's quandaries.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21)

It is important for you to channel your creative energies in a productive and informative way. Don't gamble with your hard-earned finances.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19)

Look at the facts and know that you are your own best judge of character. This is a good time to party, but be wary of the opposite sex.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18)

Listening could quite possibly be the most important activity you participate in this week. Use others' ideas to make wise decisions.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20)

Family members could bring havoc into your love life. Of course, they don't realize what they are doing, and it is important you let them know.

ARIES (March 21-April 19)

Work plans move ahead on a smooth course. Friends appreciate your social graces in a sticky situation. A chance to improve becomes evident.

By C.C. Clark

TAURUS (April 20-May 20)

A friend's indecision could cause pain for others. Talk to this person and tell them what they are doing. They really don't understand.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20)

Take matters into your own hands concerning family situations. Don't shy away from confrontations. Get your facts straight and then go for it.

CANCER (June 21-July 22)

Don't be overly critical of others. It seems easy to pick on those you love, but you must look at yourself to see where the real problems lie.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22)

A change in plans is in store for this week, but don't let that throw you. You are ready for just about anything that comes your way.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22)

Present yourself well to superiors this week. They could be judging you for future projects and may be determining how well you could handle them.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 22)

'WIOU' brings humor, wit to dramatic newsroom setting

John Shea chooses first series with care

By Mary Ann Townsend

WIOU marks a huge turning point in actor John Shea's career.

His first venture into series television is set to debut Wednesday, Oct. 24, on CBS, unless the World Series requires a seventh game.

Throughout his acting career, the Yale Drama School graduate has garnered an impressive list of Broadway and feature film credits, with Broadway's 1976 production of Yentl and film's 1982 Missing among them.

But a recent painful event, the loss of a close relative, prompted Shea to put work on hold for six months to re-evaluate his life and the direction his career had taken. He realized he needed to make his name more well known, but he did not want to sacrifice his standards of quality in the process. He's hoping, and with good reason, that WIOU will help him attain that goal.

"I wanted to do this now instead of later, because when someone close to you dies, you realize just how fragile the whole thing is. It sort of hits you in a place that you never really knew before. It sort of wakes you up and shakes you up and you start thinking very, very seriously about how you're spending your time and what you want to accomplish," Shea explained.

While his acting credits are impressive, Shea said he realized he had little name recognition, and that was hurting his chances to pursue his talents for directing.

"I felt like I'd been orbiting. I've been doing a lot of things that are offbeat these last few years, kind of off-Broadway things and art films, and things that weren't particularly commercial or successful or mainstream. And I realized that it had come time in my career where I had to do something like that."

Having been identified with heavy roles such as the title character in HBO's The Impossible Spy, a young American killed in the Chilean revolution in the feature film Missing, and a Nazi in NBC's Hitler's SS: Portrait in Evil, to name a few, Shea said he looked for a role that blended comedy with drama. After reading 30 scripts for this fall's new shows, Shea knew there was only one role that fit him, that of news director Hank Zaret in WIOU.

Zaret is trying to pull a fading big-city television station out of the ratings cellar while coping with the egos and eccentricities of his staff. The story-lines can focus on current social and political topics, which appealed to Shea's serious side, while at the same time provide humorous moments.

As icing on the cake, WIOU boasts an impressive cast, including Helen Shaver, Mariette Hartley, Phil Morris, Harris Yulin and Dick Van Patten.

Shea researched the role by observing the news staff at KCBS in Los Angeles. He found some similarities between him and his character.

"It's a delicate dilemma that my character gets into, and will have to constantly walk this tightrope to make this station successful and make it first place without compromising the ethical standards, the journalistic standards that he was brought up with," Shea said.

"And that's a problem that I face," the actor continued, discussing putting his name into a mainstream project in which he could take pride.

Cable Comments

By LARK L. SAMOUELIAN
Executive Director,
SW Oakland Cable Comm.

It all began at the Novi Chamber of Commerce luncheon when Steve Myers and I sat next to one another.

We shared enthusiasm for each of our careers. Steve Myers and his wife Izumi Suzuki own a consulting firm dedicated to eliminating cultural barriers that could hinder business relations between small American and Japanese firms. This in itself I found fascinating, but more so the energy which Steve Myers radiated. I immediately shared with him the wonderful opportunity offered by Community Television. He was pleased because the experience could include his entire family.

As a result of his dedication and his family's enthusiasm, the Myers are a cable television family. Together they produce a cable television program entitled 'Junior Japanese'. Son, Ken, who is ten years old, instructs the class. Daughter, June, helps in the audience of children. Mother, Izumi, prepares the content while pappa Steve is in the Control-room.

"This all started out as a father-son activity," says Steve, "but soon the whole family got involved." Producing 'Junior Japanese' enables the entire family the opportunity to work together before and after the show. The entire experience reinforces their belief that language learning can be fun.

In addition to the Metrovision viewing area, the following channels and stations have expressed an interest in showing 'Junior Japanese': GRTV in Grand Rapids; Booth Communications in Birmingham; Metro-Vision of Livonia; TV22 in Saline and Omnicom in Canton.

The production team included Bridget Dean, Amy Hamlin, Nancy Covert, Izumi Suzuki and Akiko Sakuma who worked on the course content; Keith Croket and Kathy Friedrichs put together the video crew. Amy Hamlin was an educational consultant. All were sponsored by Lee Mamola Architects and World Book/Childcraft.

'Junior Japanese' is delightful to watch. Learning is easy. When, as an adult, you watch children who are eager to learn and not afraid to make a mistake, it is hard not to pick up a pad and pencil and join in.

Even Cable News Network found the curriculum and unique blend of student-teacher-family a pleasing human interest story. Ken teaches Japanese phrases, customs and vocabulary to his students as well as demonstrating Tae Kwan Do and origami, the Japanese art of paper folding.

This program has been part of the Cranbrook P.M. program and Novi Community Education.

For a period of time the Myers family kept the control room humming as they also produced with other community residents an art and culture talk show called "Vladislav at Victor's". The program was taped at Victor's Restaurant in Novi. Concert pianist Vladislav Kovalsky and Virginia Dickerman, professional tap and jazz dance instructor co-hosted the series. They interviewed painters, sculptors, performing artists, and museum curators. The audience could sup at Victor's while the program was being taped. Kovalsky is an artist-in-residence at Wayne State University and has given concerts throughout Europe and the U.S. Virginia Dickerman still owns her own Dance Studio and lectures on the power of positive thinking.

Once again Steve Myers understood the delicate balance of blending talent, business and community in a non-commercial environment. Hard work and a lot of time are bottomline factors to every show. Including family, friends and business contacts is also a challenging and rewarding benefit of the creative television involvement.

The Myers family are a perfect example of how to appreciate the opportunities surrounding us. How many times do we go by something and say, "I should do that" and don't because we are too busy. What we find through such an active family is that if one does do now, without delay then all is done and experiences nurture opportunity.

Frankie (Christopher Meloni) helps his mama (Ann Guilbert) maintain her cool by lending a hand on The Fanelli Boys, airing Wednesdays on NBC.

Superstar Burt Reynolds makes a TV comedy comeback

Small-town story draws big-name talent

By AMY SCHMIDT

When ABC moved Burt Reynolds and "B.L. Stryker" from Monday nights to Saturdays, the death knell was struck. Reynolds knew it and recalls a conversation he had with "Columbo's" Peter Falk: "We had lunch and I said, 'Do you think we're on the wrong night, Peter?' And he said, 'People keep asking me when we're going to bring 'Columbo' back.'"

Reynolds decided to throw the towel into ABC's ring and try something else. And when word got out that Burt Reynolds was interested in doing a half-hour comedy, he found no shortage of suitors.

Nabbing Reynolds was no easy task, says 'Evening Shade' creator and executive producer, Linda Bloodworth-Thomason. (She is also the creative force behind CBS' hit show 'Designing Women.') "He had an encampment in his front yard. I mean, I had to wade through people almost in tents to get inside. When I walked into Burt's house, he was inundated with gifts. He had a really nice leather jacket from Columbia Pictures, and he had received phone calls in the middle of the night from people named Peters and Gubers, or whatever their names are — and all kinds of movie deals and game shows. Piles of them."

It wasn't Reynolds' most lucrative offer, but he liked Bloodworth-Thomason's work and the premise of the show: "I wanted to play a man with a family because that's kind of the way I am now. I can identify with it," says the actor, husband to actress Loni Anderson and father of their one son, Quinton Anderson Reynolds.

Reynolds also remembers growing up in a small town in Florida, not unlike Evening Shade, Ark. "I went to school barefooted every day until I was in the eighth grade... I was a big rebel; I was constantly in trouble all the time. And then I found athletics." He later attended Florida State University on a football scholarship.

On "Evening Shade," Reynolds plays a retired pro-football player who moves his family back to his hometown, where he coaches the local football team. Evening Shade, Ark. really does exist. Located 240 miles northeast of Little Rock, it boasts a population of 360, and has one grocery store and three filling stations. It doesn't really have a football team, but it does have a basketball team.

Reynolds has been a big drawing card for the show. "Evening Shade's" cast — Marilu Henner, Elizabeth Ashley, Hal Holbrook, Charles Durning and Ossie Davis, to name a few — is impressive. Also, Bloodworth-Thomason hadn't written a script, but CBS signed the show anyway.

But why should a big-name star like Reynolds do a comedy series at all? Why not revamp his movie career? Reynolds is both candid and glib: "I had a wonderful movie career which I don't think I'll ever match again. I can't go back and have that kind of success again. So, I would hope that I could have some success in this kind of medium."

"When people talk about the dead-end of my career, and people certainly love to talk about it," he jokes, "and they make analogies of me and Tom Selleck not having a hit movie — I love Tom Selleck, and I think his acting style is wonderful. It's mine," he kids. No question about it, Reynolds has a good instinct for comedy.

ABC debuts World of Discovery with "Cougar: Ghost of the Rockies," Sunday.

STAR NOTES

Series not in plans for Dick Van Dyke

By Amy Schmidt

Dick Van Dyke is the first to admit that drama's not his forte. But when NBC offered to cast him as a publishing magnate in Keys to the Kingdom, he couldn't resist: "People will find it interesting watching me trying to play a strong man."

When asked if he would do another comedy series, Van Dyke hesitated. The thought of a 15-hour-a-day grind gave him pause. Besides, he said, he is coming up on his sixty-fifth birthday. Also, that would leave little time for Dick's favorite pastime — sailing.

Experience has shown it would be unlikely that Van Dyke could replicate the success of the The Dick Van Dyke Show, anyway. The New Dick Van Dyke Show dragged along for three years while Van Dyke and Company aired only one season. The actor then briefly co-starred on The Carol Burnett Show.

When The Dick Van Dyke Show ended it seemed Dick's film career would skyrocket. That didn't happen either. Nonetheless, he will always be remembered for Mary Poppins, Chitty Chitty Bang Bang and Bye Bye Birdie.

But it ain't over 'til the fat lady sings. Van Dyke guest starred on The Golden Girls last season. This season he will appear on Coach as the older brother of his real-life younger brother, Jerry Van Dyke.

TIME OUT

Super Bowl legends come head-to-head

By Steve Paschal

It will be a battle of the Super Bowl legends on CBS Sunday, Oct. 21, when the Pittsburgh Steelers take on the San Francisco 49ers.

The NFC 49ers are the reigning Super Bowl champions after demolishing the Denver Broncos 55-10 in Super Bowl XXIV.

The Steelers, who were the undisputed "team of the 1970s" with an unprecedented four Super Bowl trophies, beat the Los Angeles Rams 31-17 in Super Bowl XIV. Then, the 49ers won the NFL championship in 1982 and again in 1989-90 to become known as the "team of the 1980s."

Now the Steelers believe they are ready to challenge the 49ers for the title, "team of the 1990s."

Also on Sunday, NBC offers a doubleheader of regional telecasts beginning with either Dallas at Tampa Bay, New Orleans at Houston or Philadelphia at Washington. The second game will feature either Phoenix and the Giants or Atlanta and the Rams.

ABC's Monday Night Football will showcase two other AFC teams that are itching to get a shot at the NFC champion on Jan. 27 in Tampa Bay. The Cincinnati Bengals, heartbreak losers to the 49ers just two years ago, travel to Cleveland to face the Browns, who are trying to overcome three losses to Denver in the AFC Championship over the last four years.

CABLE NEWS

Jessica Lange hosts Vivien Leigh profile

By Christy Bergslien

Jessica Lange will host Vivien Leigh: Scarlett and Beyond on Monday, Oct. 22. This one-hour TNT special will trace Leigh's legendary 30-year career — from her Gone with the Wind triumph to her emotional problems later in life.

The Disney Channel airs two original presentations based on classics by Mark Twain and Charles Dickens. First, on Sunday, Oct. 21, Tom Sawyer (Raphael Sbarge) and Huckleberry Finn (Mitchell Anderson) reunite as grown-ups to investigate a murder in Back to Hannibal: The Return of Tom Sawyer and Huckleberry Finn. Directly following will be the first of the four-part miniseries The Life and Adventures of Nicholas Nickleby, performed by the Emmy Award-winning Royal Shakespeare Company. Kenneth Branagh will introduce the four episodes comprising the 8-1/2-hour adaptation of Dickens' novel.

Patrick Swayze plays a Chicago cop using his Kentucky hillbilly wiles to track down a killer in Next of Kin, debuting Sunday, Oct. 21, on HBO.

Project: Man in Space, hosted by Mike Wallace, reveals the events that led to the first steps into space. The first launch by Russian cosmonaut Yuri Gagarin and the launch of the American Mercury astronaut program are explored during the special, which airs Monday, Oct. 22, on the Arts & Entertainment Network.

Who played the Clays in 1962 film?

By Steven Alan McGaw

Questions:

1. Name the 1962 film about an unhappy couple named Joe and Kirsten Clay. Now, who played the roles?

2. In that same year, '62, a certain actress was nominated for Best Supporting Actress. (She didn't win; Patty Duke did.) The woman in question now stars in a popular, fairly long-running series on CBS. a.) Name the actress. b.) Name the movie. c.) Name the series.

3. Let's go back two years. In 1960, the Best Actor and Best Supporting Actress trophies went to performers in the same film. The actress later went on to star in a memorable, if somewhat lamebrained, series on ABC in the early '70s. In the show, her stepson played her son. a.) Name the actor. b.) Name the actress. c.) Name the film. d.) What was the series? e.) Identify her stepson.

Answers:

1. Jack Lemmon and Lee Remick in the classic Elmer Gantry. Jones went on to star in The Partridge Family with stepson David Cassidy.

2. Angela Lansbury was nominated for her chilling portrayal in The Manchurian Candidate. Lansbury now is seen in Murder, She Wrote.

3. Burt Lancaster and Shirley Jones were recognized for their performances in the classic From Here to Eternity. Jones went on to star in The Partridge Family with stepson David Cassidy.

Rick Rossovich portrays Spud Lincoln in Sons and Daughters, Thursdays on CBS.

BITS AND PIECES

Offbeat 'MacGyver' episode to feature variety of guests

A host of well-known stars and character actors joins series star Richard Dean Anderson in a wildly offbeat episode of MacGyver that has recently completed filming in Vancouver, B.C. The episode, titled "It's a Mad, Mad, Mad Nomad," will be telecast during the 1990-91 season on ABC. Guesting are John Anderson, Dick Butkus, James Doohan, Henry Gibson, Sandra Gould, Richard Kiel, Rich Little, Marion Ramsey, Marion Ross, Abe Vigoda, Jesse White and Wendy G. Williams.

The creators of The Golden Girls and Empty Nest are developing a new half-hour comedy for ABC called Good and Evil. Susan Harris will create and write the series that looks at the good and evil elements of a family, specifically twin brothers. One brother is innocent while the other is evil incarnate.

Singer/songwriter Martika joins Steven Bauer in the cast of Wiseguy for the series' first six-hour arc. She plays Dahlia Mendez, a latin night club singer who lives with disbarred attorney Michael Santana, played by Bauer. In preparation for the role, Martika recorded her own renditions of some classic torch songs, which she will perform throughout the arc.

Edward Woodward sees the premiere of his new detective series Over My Dead Body, Friday on CBS.

Richard Dean Anderson

Carole King and Melissa Manchester collaborated on the theme song heard on The Trials of Rosie O'Neill, the new CBS drama series starring Sharon Gless. King composed the song, which Manchester sings over the credits.

Visilios Choulos, a lawyer representing Sammy Davis Jr.'s family, labels the headlines on several tabloids as untrue. The late singer left an estate worth $6 million to $8 million. Mrs. Davis is also working on prospective books, movies and documentaries about her life with Davis.

Pretty Marg Helgenberger stars in China Beach, ABC's acclaimed Vietnam War drama, Saturdays.

SOAP TALK

The arts kept Billy Hufsey out of trouble

By Candace Havens

Dear Candace: I would love to meet Emilio from Days of Our Lives. I always watch him when he is on the show; he's so good looking. Could you please tell me more about him?
—Alma Olivas, Big Spring, Texas

Dear Alma: Billy Hufsey (Emilio, Days of Our Lives) began his career on the popular prime-time series Fame, where he played Christopher Donlon. The 26-year-old actor was happy to make the switch to daytime, and he really enjoys playing an adult role, rather than a high school student.

Born in Brookpark, Ohio, he spent his youth in a mixed ethnic neighborhood, fostering the self-reliance required to survive and flourish. The youngest child in a close-knit German/Irish family, Hufsey found the arts a means to express his inner turmoil and idealism, without getting into trouble.

He is both strong and graceful, which has helped him become a No. 1 athlete and dancer. In fact, during high school he became an undefeated welterweight Golden Glove competitor and enjoyed honors as the school's "Outstanding Athlete of the Year." Then, in 1979, he won the United States Singles Dance Championship.

After testing his wings in New York, Hufsey decided to head for Hollywood. According to the actor, he had only $100 in his pocket and a desire for acting. His desire paid off when he landed the role on Fame.

"Christopher Donlon was the closest character to my real self," commented Hufsey. "He had the same struggles that I have in my life. But growing up, I have known guys like Emilio and I understand who they are and how to play them."

Apart from his abilities as an actor and dancer, Hufsey is also a gifted singer and musician who plays guitar, drums, saxophone, trumpet and piano. When not consumed with his acting obligations, he enjoys dating and practicing karate and judo.

I want to hear from you! If you have a favorite soap scenario you would like to sound off about, or a question about the soaps, write to Candace Havens, Soap Talk, P.O. Box 17748, Fort Worth, TX 76102-0748.

LET'S TALK

Tom Sawyer and Huck Finn grow up

By Amy Schmidt

Mark Twain once remarked, "Someday it may seem worthwhile to take up the story of the young ones and see what they turned out to be." The Disney Channel does just that with two of Twain's most beloved characters in Back to Hannibal: The Return of Tom Sawyer and Huckleberry Finn, debuting Sunday, Oct. 21.

The one-hour world premiere sees Tom Sawyer, played by Raphael Sbarge, and Huckleberry Finn, portrayed by actor Mitchell Anderson, into adulthood. Tom is a fledgling lawyer in Chicago, and Huck is a struggling cub reporter in St. Louis. The two old friends are reunited after being summoned back to their hometown of Hannibal to investigate the murder of Becky Thatcher's (Megan Follows) husband. The prime suspect is the duo's old pal Jim, played by Paul Winfield.

Faced with the entire town angrily intent on hanging Jim, Tom and Huck meet up with a young orphan boy (Zachary Bennett) whose daring and guile reminds them of themselves in their own youth. The trio must employ some quick thinking, fast talking and brazen cunning in order to find the real killer and save Jim's life. Also co-starring in this story of adventure and intrigue are Ned Beatty, who plays The Duke of Bridgewater, and William Windom as Judge Thatcher.

By Polly Vonetes

Q: What can you tell me about an actor named Dennis Farina? How old is he? What state does he live in? Has he done anything besides Crime Story? I have tried every source possible to obtain this information, only to come up empty. You may be my last hope, don't let me down. —Scott Corl, Salem, Ohio

A: Dennis Farina was born in Chicago, Ill. on Feb. 29, 1944, and continues to make his home in Chicago. He is married and has two children. Before coming to Hollywood, he spent 18 years as a Chicago police detective. Following the demise of Crime Story and his character Mike Torello, Farina turned down a number of "tough cop" roles before accepting a small role as Jane Alexander's gambling-addicted husband in the TV movie Open Admissions because, he explains, "I wanted a role as different from Torello as possible." His next role was in Midnight Run, then he starred in NBC-TV's Blood Brothers: The Hillside Strangers. His most recent work was in the miniseries Blind Faith.

Q: I would like the address of Bette Davis. She has been a favorite of mine since I was a little girl. Does she still send out autographed pictures of herself? —Donna Slover, Knoxville, Tenn.

A: Somewhere along the line you must have missed the news that Bette Davis succumbed to cancer at the American Hospital in Paris on Oct. 6, 1989. She was 81 years old.

Q: I saw a movie on late night TV years ago, the name of which escapes me. It starred Doug McClure and Katharine Ross and was a WWII adventure about an American GI and an Army nurse who try to escape the Japanese with a busload of children in a jungle setting. I would love to know the title of this film and whether or not it is available for rental. I would guess it was made in the late '60s. —Carol Sander-son, DeRidder, La.

A: The movie you requested has two titles, Longest Hundred Miles and Escape from Bataan. The film also starred Ricardo Montalban. A 1967 NBC made-for-television movie, I do not have it listed as available on video.
