

Recreation reins go to Gottschalk

By MIKE TYREE
Staff Writer

Two dozen competitors vied for an opening atop the Northville Community Recreation Department, but a long-time recreation understudy won a jump ball for the job.

Traci Gottschalk, since 1985 Northville's assistant director of parks and recreation, last week was tabbed to replace John Anderson as community recreation director.

Anderson resigned in September to take a job with the city of Roseville.

Gottschalk faces numerous challenges as the new director, including an economic slump that decreases the focus on local recreation spending. Financial problems, combined with a growing community and limited recreation space, put the department in a quandary.

But Gottschalk, who earned a recreation degree from Eastern Michigan University, plans to use a progressive approach to face her challenges.

"One of the first things I want to do is increase our credibility in the community," she said. "I want to let residents know we're here, that we're an

Group targets 1992 budget

By MIKE TYREE
Staff Writer

So much for the bare-bones budgets prepared by township department heads.

Members of the township budget review committee on Tuesday had little trouble chopping thousands of dollars from budget requests during the second phase of the budget process.

Budget cuts agreed upon by the seven members of the review committee topped the $65,000 mark, as reviewers attempted to balance the township's $4-million 1992 budget.

Hardest hit was the township building department. Review committee members recommended cuts in excess of $28,000 from the department's $250,000 1992 proposed budget.

Other departments, including planning and zoning ($11,300), hall and grounds ($6,500), and finance ($3,900) also noticed cuts in their proposed budgets.

The committee was scheduled to ponder reductions in township police and fire budgets this afternoon at township hall.

The committee is charged with recommending cuts to provide Northville Township with a state-mandated balanced budget. With preliminary figures set at $4.05 million for 1992, and a current fund balance of $56,000, the committee must designate cuts totaling approximately $83,000 to achieve a balanced budget.

The township also is seeking further cuts to ensure a fund balance

Racetrack cuts scare city

By STEVE KELLMAN
Staff Writer

Local officials are betting against receiving any racetrack revenue from the state this year, and are laying odds that the lack of money may sidetrack the city's budget.

The speculation follows Gov. John Engler's line-item veto Friday of an estimated $3.675 million in state-returned racetrack revenue from the state's 1991 / 92 budget.

The revenue, which the state calls "grants to cities with racetracks," is actually a percentage of the money that the state takes from the track. The percentage is set by the State Racing Statute of 1980 and returned to racetrack cities in part to provide police, fire and related services for the track.

The governor's veto cuts an estimated $700,000 to $900,000 from the city's budget, and throws into doubt the future of the city's police protection for the track.

Mayor Chris Johnson said the governor's action may prove devastating to the entire city budget.

"We're really going to have to take a cold, hard look at everything," he said. "It's so much a percentage of the budget that you can't just sit there and say, 'Oh, we'll do this and the problem will be solved.' Just eliminating every service we provide to the track still will not balance that $700,000. Lots of things will have to happen."

City officials, though certain that the governor's action could prove devastating to Northville, were uncertain about their response.

"I think we've got a whole range of options," said City Manager Gary Word. But he hesitated to speculate on particular options until the final

Schools lose less than expected

A tax-base-sharing plan that recently became law will not cost Northville schools as much as previously announced by the state.

Original estimates had the district losing $546,093 in the first year of the plan, which requires school districts considered property-wealthy, or "out of formula" by the state's funding plan, to share 50 percent of tax revenue from commercial and industrial growth.

Northville actually will lose $100,000. The discrepancy was the result of a miscommunication between Oakland County and the state, said Northville Director of Business and Finance John Street.

A second part of the tax-base-sharing plan reduced the state aid "recapture" by $1 for each $2 lost to tax-base sharing.

Because Northville will lose $100,000 to tax-base sharing, its recapture will be reduced by $50,000.

Next year, the recapture will be reduced even further — $2 for every $1 lost to tax-base sharing. Then the new plan says recapture will be reduced $1 for each $1 lost to tax-base sharing in future years. Recapture is a reduction or elimination of funds appropriated by the state to finance certain programs like special education and transportation.

Schools recant claim of half-million-dollar loss

Last year, Northville lost additional money and raised the millage levy with voter approval after the state stopped paying for social security payments of school district employees.

This year, Northville will again lose the money, but in-formula districts also will be affected. The state capped its social security contributions to the first $50,000 of salary for all school districts, including those considered poorer by the state funding formula.

The change is important, Street said, because it affects districts considered poor by state funding cuts.

"As an out-of-formula district you feel picked on, but the social security they are backing out on affects everybody," he said. Although the loss to tax base sharing is less than expected this year, state school funding law has not stabilized, said Superintendent Leonard Reznierski.

"We've got a ways to go before we can assume this language is going to be constant," he said. Board President Jean Hansen said the state continues to mandate more programs while providing fewer dollars for education.

News Briefs

CORRECTION: Jack Hosmer finished third, not fourth, in the 1990 township treasurer's special election, as was reported in an article and editorial printed in the Oct. 10 edition of the Record. Hosmer finished with 215 votes, ahead of Bill Butterfield (164 votes), and behind Betty Lennox (807 votes) and Rick Engelland (665 votes).

The Record regrets the error.

PUMPKIN GIVEAWAY: Century 21—Suburban, a real estate agency in the Highland Lakes Shopping Center on Seven Mile Road, will give away a free pumpkin to the first 500 families that visit Saturday, Oct. 26.

The giveaway starts at 10 a.m. at the office, 43133 W. Seven Mile. For more information call 349-1212.

USED BOOK SALE: The Friends of the Northville Library will hold a used book sale from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 16 in the council chambers at Northville City Hall, 215 W. Main.

The sale features both hardback and paperback books, including many children's books, cookbooks, and books on decorating, sewing, crafts, technology, politics, science, religion, art, psychology, philosophy, and fiction. Some of the sale books are classified as "antiques" or out-of-print. People may find that special holiday gift among the volumes for sale.

CLOTHING DRIVE: First Presbyterian Church of Northville wraps up its annual fall clothing drive from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. this Saturday, Oct. 19.

The church welcomes everyone to bring old, clean clothes in plastic bags to the west entrance of the church, at 200 E. Main. Someone will be there to receive them. Tax receipts will be available.

FESTIVAL PHOTOS WANTED: The Northville Community Chamber of Commerce is seeking photos of the Northville Victorian Festival to compile a scrapbook.

The chamber asks anyone interested to donate copies of any photos they have. Drop them off at the chamber office, 195 S. Main next to the well.

PARADE PARTICIPANTS: The Northville Community Chamber of Commerce is seeking participants for the annual Santa Parade scheduled for Nov. 24.

This year the parade will take on a Victorian theme, with Santa arriving in a horse and carriage. Groups, businesses or individuals are encouraged to participate in any way in keeping with the theme—no motorized vehicles allowed. Costumes, walkers, horseback riders are all possibilities; the chamber welcomes other, creative ideas.

Anyone interested is asked to call the chamber office as soon as possible at 349-7640.

THEATER BENEFIT: The Northville-Novi Branch of the American Association of University Women is sponsoring a wine and cheese benefit performance at the Marquis Theater on Friday, Nov. 1.

The show is "Nunsense," a popular musical comedy. The wine and cheese benefit starts at 7 p.m. and the musical begins at 8 p.m. Tickets are $12 and are available by calling Jewel Luckett at 349-1046 or Marcia Stewart at 349-8423. A portion of the proceeds go to local scholarships.

Student expelled in stun-gun case

By SUZANNE HOLLYER
Staff Writer

A Northville High School freshman was expelled Monday for bringing a stun gun to school and zapping two students.

The 15-year-old boy was arrested and suspended from school following a Sept. 23 incident where he allegedly brought a stolen stun gun to school and used it on several students.

The possession of a stun gun is a felony in Michigan. The gun generates 75,000 volts of electricity. When held against a person's body for three to five seconds, the gun can cause convulsions and incapacitation.

School officials were required to give special consideration when expelling the boy because he is handicapped. Federal and state law requires school districts to consider whether or not a student's handicap was the source of inappropriate behavior before issuing suspensions or expulsions.

They found the use of the stun gun to be unrelated to a handicap or a frustration resulting from a lack of achievement caused by the handicap.

Two other students, also handicapped, were suspended for five days for using the gun.

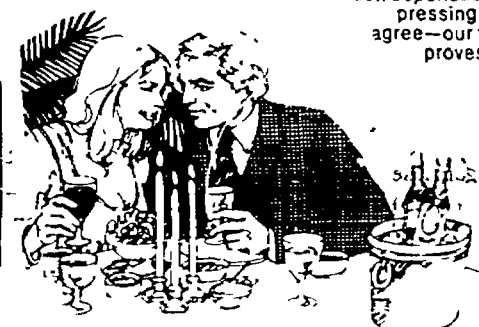

Northville city police charged the student with possession of a stun gun. The case is pending in the Oakland County Juvenile Court, where a hearing is scheduled for Oct. 23 to discuss the boy's violation of a previous probation.

Court records show the boy was on probation for an October 1990 charge of possession of stolen property over $100. He has completed 50 hours of community service and made restitution in the amount of $418 as a result of the earlier charge, according to court administrator Barbara Consilio.

The stun gun charge is considered a violation of his probation, she said.

The district likely will begin the former student on an educational program outside of Northville Public Schools. Because the boy is a special education student, the cost will be shared between several school districts through the county, said Superintendent Leonard Rezmierski.

Police News

Punches, threats fly at Northville Eagles nest

City police are investigating a report of an assault and battery at the Fraternal Order of Eagles lodge, 113 S. Center St. A female bartender was reportedly hit in the face by a 43-year-old Northville man at 12:58 a.m. Oct. 14, after a fight involving the bartender and another woman.

According to the police report, the man reportedly "leaned over the bar and proceeded to strike (the woman) several times in the face. (The man) then grabbed her hand and twisted her finger back injuring her hand. While (the man) was doing this, he was also telling (her) that he could really mess her up. (The man) then left the Eagles."

ANOTHER ASSAULT REPORTED: City police are also investigating a reported case of assault and battery just after midnight Oct. 11 at the Wagon Wheel Lounge, 212 S. Main St. A 29-year-old Warren man was reportedly hit in the face by a Westland man at 12:10 a.m. after he asked for money the Westland man reportedly owed him.

According to the police report, the Westland man invited the alleged victim out into the parking lot, where he hit him in the face and tore his shirt. Both men reportedly fell to the ground while hitting each other, before the alleged victim broke free.

The alleged assailant was reportedly very intoxicated at the time.

MAN COMMITTED AFTER DRUG, ALCOHOL ARREST: A 35-year-old Plymouth man was committed to the psychiatric center of Oakwood Hospital in Westland after his arrest early Oct. 9, township police said.

Police said the man was arrested on southbound Haggerty north of Five Mile on suspicion of driving under the influence of alcohol. The man refused a preliminary breath test at the scene and later a Breathalyzer test at police headquarters.

Police found a bag of what later proved to be marijuana in the man's coat and also uncovered a container of 17 unspecified pills in his pants pocket.

The man was cited for drunken driving, possession of marijuana, and driving with a suspended license. Before posting bond, the man told police he might commit suicide if he was released. Police said the man began to scream, talk to himself and bang his fist on the walls of his cell.

Police delivered the man to Oakwood Hospital for observation.

BUSINESS BURGLARIZED: Thieves broke into the Six 'N Park party store, 17071 Northville Road, early Oct. 8 and stole 40 cartons of cigarettes and 250 lottery tickets, township police said.

Police responded to the store after an alarm sounded. They found a front window had been removed with a pry tool and the cigarettes and lottery tickets gone. The stolen items were valued at $930.

The theft is one of a series of party store breaking and enterings investigated by police in the past several weeks. The same individuals are suspected in the thefts, police said.

VEHICLES DAMAGED: A Lincoln Park man told township police that someone smashed the front windshield and passenger window of a 1973 GMC stepvan parked at a construction site on Rolling Woods Drive Oct. 6.

Damage was estimated at $1,000. The owner of a 1988 Ford Escort told township police that someone shot the vehicle's driver's side window while the car was parked in front of the China Fair Restaurant in the Northville Plaza Mall last week. Damage was estimated at $100.

A Northville woman told township police that someone scratched the entire length of the driver's side of her 1991 Toyota Celica late Oct. 7 or early Oct. 8 while the vehicle was parked in a carport on W. Harbour Village Drive.

Damage was estimated at $500.

HOUSE DAMAGED: A Dunswood resident told township police that someone scorched and damaged 12 bricks on the side of his residence early Oct. 7. Damage was estimated at $200.

ARRESTS AT MEIJER: A 37-year-old Detroit man was charged with larceny after he attempted to steal a video cassette recorder from Meijer, 20401 Haggerty, Oct. 7, township police said.

Police charged a 55-year-old Ferndale woman with larceny after she attempted to steal shoes, clothing and personal items from Meijer Oct. 8.

A 44-year-old Detroit woman and a 25-year-old Detroit woman were arrested and charged with larceny after attempting to steal seven cartons of cigarettes from Meijer Oct. 9.

A 22-year-old Detroit man on probation for armed robbery was arrested with a 29-year-old Southfield woman and charged with larceny at Meijer Oct. 9, township police said.

WINDOWS SMASHED: Two 3-foot-by-6-foot windows reportedly were smashed on the north side of Adistra, 16580 Northville Road, late Oct. 9 or early Oct. 10, township police said. Damage was estimated at $600.

EXPENSIVE BIKE STOLEN: A mountain bike valued at $2,000 was reported stolen Oct. 1 from Town & Country Cyclery, 148 N. Center St. Neighbors heard glass breaking at 3:15 a.m. but did not report it to police, who responded at 6:20 a.m. to a report of a broken window.

When police arrived, they found the store's south front window shattered and a rock inside the window. The store owner noted that the bike was missing from the window, but could find nothing else missing.

The bike was described as a black and lime green Cannondale model SE-2000, with front and rear suspension.

DANGEROUS DRIVERS CHARGED: A 17-year-old Northville girl was charged with throwing an object into a vehicle's path at 7:45 p.m. Oct. 11, after city police saw her lean out the window of a northbound vehicle on Rogers at Thayer and throw a plastic soda bottle at a car following her.

The drivers of both cars were also charged with speeding.

SUSPENDED LICENSE ARREST: A 23-year-old Warren woman was arrested by city police for driving on a suspended license Oct. 10. She was pulled over for a minor traffic violation while driving south on Griswold near Pennell. A computer check revealed that she had failed to appear in court in Center Line on a registration and / or license plate violation, and had failed to comply with a court judgement from Dearborn on a defective or missing equipment violation.

She was turned over to Dearborn police after posting a $500 personal recognizance bond.

Citizens with information about the above incidents are urged to call Northville City Police at 349-1234 or Northville Township Police at 349-9400.

Armed robbery report prompts investigation

By CRISTINA FERRIER
Staff Writer

A 17-year-old Northville resident said Thursday that he was robbed at gunpoint by two men who offered him a ride to work.

The man told Novi Police he was walking west on Eight Mile east of Beck around 4:30 p.m., when two men in a green Pontiac stopped next to him and offered him a ride.

The man, on his way to work in the Seven Mile/Ridge area, said he accepted the ride and got in the car. As he began to tell the driver where to go, the passenger allegedly told him to shut up and pointed a small, dark revolver at him. The passenger then reportedly told the 17-year-old to give up his wallet, which he did.

The driver then reportedly drove up Garfield Road and stopped the car, then removed $44 from the wallet and ordered him out of the car.

Area police departments are watching for the car. Plymouth Township police last Thursday reported seeing the car heading north on I-275.

The driver is described as a white male, age 25-30, with blond, short, straight hair, fair skin and a thin build. The passenger is described as a white male, age 25-30, with hazel eyes and long, brown, wavy hair with a large build and medium skin color. He was reportedly wearing a blue T-shirt and blue jeans and had acne scars on his left cheek.

Anyone with information is asked to call the Novi Police Department at 349-6887 or 348-7100.

Police tune into suspect

By MIKE TYREE
Staff Writer

A 47-year-old Inkster man has emerged as a prime suspect in a series of larcenies from automobiles at the Meijer parking lot, Northville Township police said.

Police said the man was arrested late Oct. 3 while hiding in his car in the lot of Haggerty and Eight Mile. A witness earlier had reported that the man was breaking into a 1991 Pontiac Grand Am.

According to the witness, the suspect pushed a straightened coat hanger between the Grand Am's window and door. The dome light then came on inside the vehicle and the suspect began to enter the vehicle before noticing the witness.

The witness then contacted police and led them to the Grand Am. Police said the vehicle's door lock had been tampered with and its radio was missing.

Police then began a search of the parking lot and saw the Inkster man slump in the seat of his car. The man was removed from the vehicle and identified by the witness as the man who was breaking into the Grand Am.

Police searched the man's vehicle, but did not find any car radios. They did discover a coat hanger fashioned to form a small hook, however.

The suspect was arrested and later released pending a warrant. Police said the man has a criminal record of theft convictions.

Two other vehicles parked in the Meijer lot were broken into Oct. 3, according to police records. A Northville woman told police someone punched the door lock on her 1990 Olds Cutlass and stole an AM/FM radio. The theft occurred sometime between 7:30 and 8:40 p.m., about the same time the Inkster man was spotted breaking into the Grand Am.

A Novi woman then told police someone broke into her 1988 Grand Am and stole her AM/FM cassette player sometime before 8:45 p.m.

Reviewers scan proposed budget buffer for 1992.

Recommended cuts are slated to be reviewed by the township board at an Oct. 28 session. The board will make the final decision on cuts and must approve a 1992 budget by Nov. 1, according to state law.

Tuesday's review session was punctuated by committee members' complaints about alleged high employee benefits packages.

"Some of the benefits range from 30 percent to 42 percent (of salaries)," said committee member John Sassaman. "Where do I apply? 'I don't want the job,' he said. 'I just want the benefits.'"

Committee member Wes Henrikson also voiced displeasure with benefits and the number of employees working for Northville Township.

Township Manager Richard Henningsen said fringe benefits for all township employees are based largely on the fringes won by police and water and sewer department union employees. Henningsen also said employees should be able to go about their daily tasks without worrying whether the grim reaper of unemployment was stalking them.

Planning consultant hopefuls woo city council

By STEVE KELLMAN
Staff Writer

Four planning consulting firms made their case to become the city's consultants this week, in hour-long interviews before the city council.

The council quizzed the WBDC Group of Southfield, McKenna Associates of Farmington Hills, Carlisle Associates, and Ayres, Lewis, Norris & May of Ann Arbor, before an audience including five of the city's nine planning commission members and the city manager Monday and Tuesday evenings.

The selection process follows consultant Don Wortman's departure from Ayres, Lewis, Norris & May, the city's contracted consulting firm for nearly four years, to Carlisle Associates.

Mayor Chris Johnson said the council likely will decide on the city's consultant at its Oct. 28 meeting, following a meeting by the planning consultant screening committee tonight. The committee consists of Johnson, Council Member Jerry Mittman, Planning Commission Chairperson John Hardin and City Manager Gary Word.

The members of the WBDC Group on Monday emphasized their company's strong team philosophy. Jim Ferro, who would serve as the city's primary contact, said, "We have organized ourselves to carry out our work in a way that maximizes the positives and minimizes the negative aspects of being a large firm." That organization includes assigning specific project teams drawn from the firm's nearly 200 employees to each client, with each team tailored to the client's needs.

The firm is not unfamiliar with the Northville area, as its consultant Brad Strader now serves as Northville Township's planning consultant. "I think that presents both some opportunities and some potential negatives," Ferro admitted. "But I think the positives . . . far outweigh the negatives."

Strader noted that WBDC serves as a consulting firm to several pairs of cities and townships. "In planning right now, communication and coordination between communities is a big issue," he said.

Planners from McKenna Associates followed WBDC Monday night by emphasizing their firm's closeness to the community.

"We can get here very quickly, and we think that is an asset for the City of Northville," said McKenna vice president Sarah Hodges.

Tod Kilroy, who would serve as the city's consultant, said, "I'm a practical person, and I will give you nuts-and-bolts recommendations."

Kilroy said one of the first things he would do as the city's consultant is call a "community meeting" of the city's various boards and commissions, "and figure out priorities . . . so we can avoid getting off on the wrong foot."

McKenna Associates came in a close second the last time the city sought a planning firm, after long-time consultant Ron Nino's retirement in 1988. Ayres, Lewis, Norris & May was selected then.

On Tuesday, Wortman said his knowledge of the city and its zoning ordinances made him the best choice for consultant.

"My familiarity with the zoning ordinance, and my familiarity with the master plan, will allow us to hit the ground running," Wortman said. "I think it would take another planner a year, a year and a half to get familiar with that ordinance, and you can save yourselves that time."

Though Carlisle Associates is a relatively small firm of seven planners, president Richard Carlisle noted that the firm's specialization in municipal planning consultant services made it comparable to much larger firms. "Planning and urban design is our business; it's not a sideline," he said. "I think we can be considered experts in that area, and have really not spread ourselves thin like some larger firms have done."

Carlisle also noted that planners at larger companies are often seeking to leave for more lucrative and more powerful positions with smaller firms. "Case in point," he said, mentioning at Wortman and drawing a chuckle from the crowd.

The consultant proposed for the city by Ayres, Lewis, Norris & May cited some familiarity of her own with a City of Northville master plan. Betsy Reich was one of the team of University of Michigan students that drafted the city's 10-year master plan in 1980, and she served as a de facto planning consultant at that time.

"We had quite a lot of community involvement, we did the flip-chart meetings, et cetera," Reich said. "Hopefully it was a useful document."

ALNM president Abe Munfah emphasized that the work done by the firm during Don Wortman's tenure with the city was not the work of one man. "I don't think any one person can do the program or can come up with a master plan or zoning ordinance by himself," he said.

Munfah said he believed his firm's six-member planning staff, in connection with its engineering and other departments, could continue to serve the city well.

Local store sells Redford man a golden goose

The 33-year-old man won a $2 million Lotto jackpot on a ticket he purchased at the Eight Mile Road store.

Manager Kenneth Williams was at the store Oct. 1 when the winner walked in the door. "The guy came in Tuesday at about 6:30 (p.m.), bought a $1 Easy Pick, and it happened to be a winner," Williams said.

Though store patrons frequently win $100 or more, he said, "That's the first big winner that I know of, and we've been here four years."

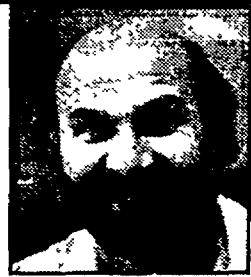

The winner, a Redford man who requested anonymity, reportedly told his sister "I'm 33, single, rich and I'm going to Hawaii" after discovering he had won in the Oct. 2 Lotto drawing.

"I don't know if I'll really go to Hawaii," said the winner. "I was hysterical when I realized I had won. I was so excited. I read the Lotto numbers in the newspaper at work at about 4 p.m. and I started partying at 5 p.m."

"I called my family and had them check the numbers five different times. Then we had a big party with my family and close friends; we must have gone through a case of champagne."

He said he plans to buy a new car and home, and make investments with his winnings.

DENTAL INSURANCE DOLLAR COVERAGE

As a rule, dental insurance assumes responsibility for a specified percentage of the bill for covered dental services, leaving the remainder to be paid by you.

3. Dollar Limit. This system requires that you pay the difference between the company's limit for a service and your dentist's fee.

Some programs use "pre-determination". If this is a part of your program, your dentist will submit your treatment plan and the fees to the insurance company for review.

1. Deductible. Like your auto insurance, this method requires that you pay a specified dollar amount toward your bill before insurance coverage begins.

Gottschalk wins director's slot active department.

"If we're not currently offering something that people want, I want to know about it," she said.

Another top priority is to spruce up the community center and improve local recreation fields and facilities. Applying a new veneer to facilities will both upgrade appearances and possibly spur the public to become more involved with community activities, Gottschalk said.

Public involvement is needed, both financially and with donations of time and effort, she said. Alternative funding is needed to expand recreation resources in Northville, she said.

"I want to look at any kind of funding source we can get up to (the level of comparable communities)," she said. "We'll be more aggressive with grants than we have in the past."

Potential federal, state, or county grants would be directed to several programs, Gottschalk said. She listed outdoor volleyball and basketball courts as priorities.

The recreation department does benefit from city and township shared-service funding, but local government money does not pay for community center rent or for recreation programs, Gottschalk said. User fees are needed to pay the freight for those programs.

Northville's population increased dramatically during the 1980s, but recreation space has actually decreased because of development demands.

The community finds itself in the embarrassing position of owning 44 acres of recreation-designated property on Beck Road, but not having sufficient funding to develop the land. The department has accumulated only about half of the estimated $246,000 needed to build a complex of soccer and baseball fields, Gottschalk said.

And while former Director John Anderson had estimated that the Beck Road park would be operational earlier this year, Gottschalk said it's doubtful that fields will be in use at all in 1992.

"The initial thing is that it has to be graded," she said. "We may have to (develop the park) in fragments."

That isn't good news for the scores of folks who jam local recreation facilities from spring until fall. But Gottschalk says she is discussing strategies to involve local residential developers and other businesses in park construction.

ties from spring until fall. But Gottschalk says she is discussing strategies to involve local residential developers and other businesses in park construction.

"I'll name a ball diamond after someone who'll donate," she said. "We've got some money, but not enough to develop."

Gottschalk's promotion creates an opening in the recreation department. The assistant director's job is due to be posted in trade publications with a Nov. 13 closing date, she said.

Weight Loss Surprises Researchers

WASHINGTON—A nutrition organization was hopeful that a nutritionally complete "hi-tech" food tablet would help erase world hunger problems, until a study revealed that one of the ingredients could cause significant weight loss.

Researchers in Europe found that an ingredient in the aptly named produce Food Source One actually caused people to lose weight, even though specifically instructed not to alter normal eating patterns, according to one study published in the prestigious British Journal of Nutrition. Researchers in an earlier study had speculated that the weight loss was due to a decrease in intestinal absorption of calories.

While the development of Food Source One, a project of National Dietary Research, would not be used to successfully fulfill its original goal, the discovery has been a windfall for overweight people. A Daytona Beach, Florida woman fighting a weight battle for 12 years used the product on the recommendation of her physician Food Source One is available at:

and lost 30 pounds. She stated, "Not only have I lost 30 pounds, but my cholesterol has dropped from 232 to 143. I have two closets full of clothes which have not fit me in two years that I can now wear." In a separate report, a telephone interview revealed that a Wilmington, North Carolina pharmacist lost 14 pounds in 15 days on the product and was never hungry.

Food Source One is available through physicians and pharmacies without a prescription because it is not a drug and contains only natural ingredients already known to be safe. Copies of the referenced style are available free from National Dietary Research, Suite 553, 1377 K St., Washington, DC 20005, however, please include $2 Postage & Handling for each request.

McGriff talks on mentoring

By SUZANNE HOLLYER
Staff Writer

The entire community is needed to educate a child, according to an African proverb.

And for Detroit students, the community extends far beyond the city limits, said Detroit Public School Superintendent Deborah McGriff Oct. 6 at Northville First United Methodist Church.

McGriff spoke about the importance of mentoring at the Sunday night program. Members of the Northville church were already sold on the idea.

Northville First United Methodist and Second Grace, a United Methodist church in Detroit, began an Adopt-A-School program in 1990. It was the first program of its kind begun by two churches, one suburban and one from the city.

They adopted Dixon Elementary on Detroit's northwest side.

Members of both churches visit Dixon Elementary at least once a week.

Sunday, they invited McGriff to Northville to discuss what she thinks about mentoring.

She said the saying, "War is too important to leave to generals," can be expanded to read, "education is too important to leave to educators."

Mentors can provide a great service to children, she said. A mentor is a role model, a door opener, a protector and a challenger, she said.

"A mentor is there to help you. A mentor is not there to substitute your standing on your own two feet," she said.

A mentor does not replace parents, but helps bring out the best in someone less experienced.

Anyone can try to be a mentor, McGriff said. She suggested program organizers involve young people as mentors, possibly even high school students.

And she said she hopes Adopt-A-School organizers monitor the program and offer skill development to its mentors.

"Not everyone will have all their mentoring skills developed," she said.

The best mentor will leave a student thinking he or she reached a goal alone, McGriff said.

She ended with a Chinese proverb that said: "When the best leaders leave, the people will say, 'we have done this ourselves.'"

Dixon Elementary principal Robert Kolnowski also spoke saying the Adopt-A-School program gives him all the help he needs to be successful.

"I can't go wrong. I have all this support," he said.

Anyone interested in participating can call Jim Bosscher, 344-1211, or Jerry Rupley, 348-8739.

Participating requires a one-hour commitment per week.

Cooke spirit yields cans

Cooke Middle School students collected cans and paper products for Civic Concern during its Spirit Week, the first week in October. Each grade competed to collect the most products. Points were assigned for each collected item with paper products earning two points and canned goods earning one point. A total of 1,265 points were earned. Seventh-graders "far and away" won the contest, according to school officials.

fate of the racetrack revenues is known. The governor still could restore the cuts, or legislators could override the governor's veto with a two-thirds vote.

"I think we have to take it at face value," Word said. "The governor is in control with his line-item veto power, and he's made it clear where he's coming from." But the manager was not quite ready to write off the racetrack funds for the coming year.

"I keep hearing that the governor's made his decision, then other sources tell me that he may change his mind, he may provide part of it . . . I don't want to start withdrawing services when it's not yet necessary," he said.

"I think we have to have an idea what the future will hold within the next two to three weeks . . . and at that time we'll just have to assess what our position is."

The proposed budget submitted to the governor by the Legislature earlier this year included an across-the-board 9.2-percent cut of last year's racetrack revenue and an additional 10-percent cut on this year's revenue.

"They indicated that we were looking at a 20-percent reduction rather than a 100-percent reduction," Johnson said.

"We worked real hard with the Legislature throughout the summer and after all the compromises were made, boom, out comes the red pen and that's the end of it without any warning that that's what the governor intended to do," he said. "That's just cruel."

State Sen. Robert Geake, R-Northville, said he argued against the cuts but that the governor was adamant about making them.

"I pointed out that it's money that's generated by the tracks in the first place, and that it's really needed for our police and fire protection," Geake said. "He said he was sorry, but the state needs it."

The governor's pre-emptive strike on the revenue caps a long history of legislative opposition to state-returned racetrack revenue, Geake said.

"Clearly, it's the last word," he said. "The grants to the cities with racetracks were never popular with the Legislature, and those of us that

Opening night in the grandstand at Northville Downs represent the cities with racetracks always had a hard time getting it in the budget to begin with because it was considered pork-barrel politics by other legislators."

The mayor echoed the senator's sentiments, saying, "I quite frankly don't have a lot of hope in the legislative arena, simply because we were a minority going in, and we're still a minority."

Johnson said the city would meet with representatives of other racetrack cities within the next week or two to discuss the possibility of suing the state for the funds. "Our options will include legal action," he said.

"There's still no legal basis for the governor to spend that money in the general fund, unless the law is amended . . . They're prohibited by law from spending that money elsewhere."

But Johnson noted that Sen. Jack Welborn, R-Kalamazoo, has introduced legislation to eliminate the revenue-sharing portion of the racing statute.

Meanwhile, the city council will meet in special sessions this month to determine how to deal with the potential budget crisis resulting from the cut. Session dates have not yet been set.

"These budget sessions obviously will be some of the most difficult we've ever faced," Johnson said. "For a single issue, nothing could have hit the city worse."

Johnson's main complaint about the cuts themselves is that the state is seeking to maintain its source of revenue from the racetracks, without paying the local municipalities charged with guaranteeing safety at the tracks for providing that service.

"I don't have a problem if they decide to eliminate racing in the State of Michigan, but this response is outrageous," he said.

Senator seeks local funding for racetrack

By STEVE KELLMAN
Staff Writer

While city officials plan their response to the recent slashing of state-returned racetrack revenues from the state budget, State Sen. Robert Geake is looking for another way to fund the services provided by the revenue.

Geake said last Friday that he is seeking to assure a method for the city to fund police and other services to Northville Downs. "The first thing I'm going to do when the senate opens Tuesday morning is introduce my bill to allow cities with racetracks to levy their own surcharge on bets," he said. "It would be taking an additional percentage of what we call the handle, the amount of money bet on each race."

Geake was unsure how the legislation would fare in Lansing, but he saw little reason for opposition to the bill. "I don't see why anyone would object to it, but you never know until you try," he said. "It seems to me that non-racetrack cities would not care, and the others would support it."

"On the one side, it might reduce betting a little bit because it will reduce the amount of money bet that they'll have available to pay out in winning tickets. On the other hand, the success of racetracks in attracting the public depends on their being a clean, safe environment. So if that money levied by the cities goes directly to provide services to the racetrack, they might not see it as a problem."

No matter how the issue is resolved, Geake anticipated that the governor's action would place an added financial burden on the state's racetracks, which he said have not been all that profitable to begin with.

"The track is going to have to take some steps to either provide private security officers or contract with the city, if they can afford to do it, which I would doubt," he said. "The racetrack is not overly profitable for the owners and operators. There's not a lot of extra money there for this sort of thing. There are a lot of expenses having to do with running a racetrack and to have to provide all their own security would be an additional burden."

Off and running at the Downs

By STEVE KELLMAN
Staff Writer

The cars began arriving more than an hour before the first race. The parking lot that had lay largely vacant for six months began to fill up as the sun went down. And the hopeful began to stream toward the racetrack entrance.

It was opening day at Northville Downs Oct. 14, and the Jackson at Northville harness racing meet was about to get underway.

In the paddock, drivers in their brightly colored outfits threaded their way between bystanders, leading their horses and sulks between the stalls on the way to or from the track for a few practice laps.

"What's the moon like tonight?" asked driver Steve Howard of Northville, as he leaned against a stall and smoked a cigarette. "I like to race them when the moon is full; they all race better that way."

The Northville man was preparing to run a horse named Vujo in the first race. "I like to call him Voodoo," he said.

But even with a full moon, Howard said the most important thing for a driver to learn is how to lose. "The wins are by far a lot fewer than the losses," he said. "You can't win all the time, not even half the time, but it's usually fun anyway."

Howard took up racing four

years ago after leaving a full-time job as a painter. It seems the fumes from the paint were too much for him.

"Nobody ever died from the smell of horse manure," he said.

He said opening day served as a reunion for many drivers and others in the horse racing profession. "It's nice to see a lot of the different people. At the end of the meet a lot of people go their different ways . . . I'll see tonight people I haven't seen all summer."

The people involved in horse racing are a close-knit community,

Howard said. "You don't have too much time for anything else, so pretty much most of your friends do come from the industry," he said.

In the grandstand, Lt. Gerald Ryan of the Northville City police department wandered through the crowd as one of several officers keeping the peace at the track, which consisted mostly of walking through the crowd in full uniform to strike fear into the hearts of would-be scofflaws. Ryan said he had been coming to Northville Downs for 20 years, and wouldn't miss the excitement of the track for the world.

"This place will be here forever, as long as all these people keep coming," he said, waving his hand over the crowd.

In the clubhouse, people pored over the racing programs, some using magnifying glasses to read the fine print. Two men stood in a corner arguing over a horse's odds of winning, with one emphasizing his points by stabbing a pen onto the other's folded program.

At a table, a man fanned a sheaf of bills out to count them and handed several, half-reluctantly, to his female companion.

Then the announcement came over the loudspeaker like the voice of doom.

"Ten minutes. Ten minutes to post time."

As the race drew nearer, the orange and blue seats of the grandstand began to fill and people began jockeying for position on the fence along the track.

The drivers and their horses, previously stretched out around the half-mile track, began assembling behind the rolling starting gate as it drove around the track. The voice came over the loudspeaker again: "They're all behind the gate. Heere they come."

And with the dimming of lights in the grandstand and the sound of a bell, another racing season at Northville Downs was off and running.

CHARTER TOWNSHIP OF NORTHVILLE AMENDMENT TO ZONING ORDINANCE 94-10-91

AN ORDINANCE TO AMEND THE TOWNSHIP OF NORTHVILLE ZONING ORDINANCE BY AMENDING THE TEXT THEREOF.
THE CHARTER TOWNSHIP OF NORTHVILLE ORDAINS:

PART 1. The Charter Township of Northville Zoning Ordinance No. 94 as amended is hereby further amended by amending Article 11, Section 2.2 DEFINITIONS, Article 1X, Section 9.3 REQUIRED CONDITIONS (OS-1 LARGE OFFICE DISTRICT), Section 9.5 SERVICE ROADS (OS-2 LARGE OFFICE DISTRICT), Article XIII, Section 13.3 SERVICE ROADS (FS FREWAY SERVICE DISTRICT), Article XVII, Section 18.28 DIVISION OF PLATTED OR UNPLATTED LAND NOT REGULATED BY PUBLIC ACT 288 OF 1967, Section 18.32 SIDEWALKS AND BIKE PATHS, Section 18.35 STANDARDS FOR PRIVATE ROADS AND ACCESS EASEMENTS, Section 18.36 DRIVEWAY STANDARDS

THE CHARTER TOWNSHIP OF NORTHVILLE ORDAINS:

Section 1 Amendment to add paragraphs 57a. and 76a. to Subsection 2.2 DEFINITIONS.

57a. Lot Frontage: Is the length of the front lot line, measured along the right-of-way or easement line.

76a. Private Road: a road owned and maintained by the owners of the property it serves and provides access to more than one residence, building or use. A private road may be used to provide public services such as utility easements, waste collection and emergency services.

Section 1 Delete Subsection 9.3, 7. REQUIRED CONDITIONS

~~7. A service road providing access between sites may be required by the Planning Commission subject to the conditions of Section 13.3 Service Road of the FS District.~~

Section 2 Delete Section 9.5 SERVICE ROADS:

~~A service road providing access between sites may be required by the Planning Commission subject to the conditions of Section 13.3 Service Road of the FS District.~~

Section 3 Change Section 9.6 EXTERIOR FACADES and 9.7 SCREENING OF ROOFTOP EQUIPMENT to read:

9.5 EXTERIOR FACADES AND 9.6 SCREENING OF ROOFTOP EQUIPMENT

Section 4 Delete Section 13.3 SERVICE ROAD

Section 13.3 Service Road:

~~Uses permitted may also be subject to the following conditions:~~

~~1. In those instances where the Planning Commission finds that an excessive number of access drives may occur with relation to a major thoroughfare and thereby diminish the carrying capacity of the thoroughfare, a service road may be required on that development of contiguous abutting properties will allow traffic circulation from one property to another without having to re-enter the public thoroughfare.~~

~~2. The service road shall be parallel to the front property line and shall be at least twenty-two (22) feet wide. Said service road shall be an easement which will permit the use of the service road for traffic circulation from one property to another. Said easement shall be in a form acceptable to the Township Board of Trustees and approved by the Chief Building Official. The issuance of a building permit for permanent structures, such as curbs, shall be permitted within the easement although temporary features, such as wheel stops, may. Each property owner shall be responsible for maintenance of the easement so that it remains usable as a means of getting from one property to another. The easement shall be recorded with the Wayne County Register of Deeds prior to the issuance of an occupancy permit.~~

~~3. In reviewing the site plan, the Planning Commission may permit parking in the easement area provided that the layout is such that the parking can be removed at a later date when the service road is needed for access to adjacent properties without disrupting the layout of the parking area. Temporary parking spaces permitted within the service drive shall not be included in computing the minimum off-street parking requirements under Section 18.12 OFF STREET PARKING REQUIREMENTS.~~

~~4. The edge of the service road easement nearest the street shall be located fifteen (15) feet from the existing or future right-of-way line of the street. A eight (8) foot wide greenbelt shall separate the service road from the parking area of the site.~~

~~5. The entire twenty-two (22) foot service road area shall be paved up to abutting properties. Backing from parking spaces onto the service road shall not be permitted, except on a temporary basis. The site plan shall indicate the proposed location of the service road, the property line and the Chief Building Official shall maintain a record of all service road elevations so that their grades can be coordinated. Proposed service road elevations shall be not more than one (1) foot above or below the elevation of adjoining, undeveloped property. Paving of the service road shall meet construction specifications established by the Township Board of Trustees.~~

~~6. Temporary entrances and exits may be approved for individual sites provided money is placed in escrow to secure elimination of temporary entrances and exits. Occupancy permits shall not be issued until monies have been deposited with Northville Township.~~

~~7. In determining which entrances and exits will be permanent and which will be temporary, the Planning Commission shall be guided by a minimum distance of six hundred (600) feet between approved drives on the opposite side of the street.~~

~~8. If the Planning Commission determines that the maximum number of zoning lots to be served by a service drive can be determined, the location and extent of the service drive may vary from the above standards.~~

Section 5 Change Section 13.4 AREA, BULK AND YARD REQUIREMENTS to read:

Section 13.3 AREA, BULK AND YARD REQUIREMENTS

Section 1 Amendment to Section 18.28 DIVISION OF PLATTED OR UNPLATTED LAND NOT REGULATED BY PUBLIC ACT 288 OF 1967:

1. Applicability

a. This Section regulates divisions of land for sale, or lease of more than one (1) year, or of building development as building sites, as follows:

(1) A parcel of unplatted land divided into not more than four (4) parcels each containing ten (10) acres or less and into additional parcels each containing more than ten (10) acres.

(2) A parcel of platted land divided into not more than four (4) parcels.

2. Requirements of Site Plan

a. The site plan shall provide easements and private roads in accordance with Section 18.35 STANDARDS FOR ACCESS EASEMENTS AND PRIVATE ROADS. Property within such access easements shall not be credited toward requirements for minimum lot width or minimum lot area.

b. Areas of Parcels

(1) Net Area: Each parcel resulting from the proposed division shall have, exclusive of any area occupied by an access easement, a net area not less than that required for a single subdivision lot. No parcel shall have a net area of less than one (1) acre unless a public water supply main and sanitary sewer meeting Northville Township requirements are installed (or an acceptable guarantee is deposited with the Township to insure such installation).

(2) Buildable Area: For any parcel where available references or on-site observation indicates potential for a wetland regulated by the Michigan Department of Natural Resources under the Goetz-Wenderson Wetland Act, the applicant shall submit a wetland determination study of the site conducted by a qualified wetland consultant or the Michigan Department of Natural Resources. If the study indicates the presence of a regulated wetland, the applicant shall illustrate on a site plan that the proposed lot(s) have sufficient area for building in compliance with the setback requirements listed in the Article XVII SCHEDULE OF REGULATIONS.

c. Frontage and Width of Parcels

(1) Minimum Frontage: The lot frontage along a public street, private road or access easement for any parcels created shall be a minimum of sixty (60) feet unless the frontage is along a forty (40) foot wide access easement approved by the Planning Commission under the procedures outlined in Section 18.35 STANDARDS FOR PRIVATE ROADS AND ACCESS EASEMENTS.

(2) Minimum width: Parcels abutting a public street, private road or access easement shall be as required by ARTICLE XVII SCHEDULE OF REGULATIONS unless otherwise provided for in Section 18.35 STANDARDS FOR ACCESS EASEMENTS AND PRIVATE ROADS, except, land at the end of a private access easement shall meet the yard requirements illustrated in Figure 18.35 a. 4.

d. Shape of Parcels

Parcels should resemble rectangles but may be irregularly shaped as conditions dictate. However, unusual shapes proposed only for the purpose of meeting parcel area or width requirements shall not be permitted.

e. Building Locations

Within each parcel shown on such site plan, there shall be delineated and fully dimensioned an area within which the principal structure shall be confined and a greater area within which accessory buildings shall be confined. The areas so delineated shall be such that, in the opinion and judgement of the Planning Commission, development on each parcel will be in conformity with the spirit and intent of the Ordinance with respect to the particular zoning District, will be compatible with existing development in the vicinity primarily as to yard relationships and will not adversely affect adjacent properties. No building permits shall be issued for buildings not located within the limits shown on an approved site plan.

3. Submission of Site Plan

a. Preliminary Submission

Preliminary submission of a proposed division of property is intended to allow the applicant to present a proposal at a minimum expense and to receive comment and direction from the Planning Commission. The preliminary submission is optional. An applicant may concurrently submit material required for both Preliminary and Final Site Plan. A preliminary submission shall include the following items:

(1) A plan of the property to be divided, accurately drawn at a scale of not smaller than one inch equals one hundred feet (1" = 100'), prepared by a Registered Land Surveyor or Civil Engineer licensed to practice in the State of Michigan and showing at least:

(a) Survey location, dimensions and area of the property to be divided.

(b) Topography, by contours on U.S.G.S. datum at intervals of not more than two (2) feet, extending to the opposite right-of-way line of any abutting street or highway and extending at least twenty-five (25) feet onto all abutting property; also all existing buildings on the site, all important trees or stands of woods and features of special interest in development and use of the parcels.

(c) Location and description of any buildings located on abutting property within fifty (50) feet of the boundaries of the parcel to be divided.

(d) Boundaries of all proposed divisions, with complete dimensions and area of each proposed resultant parcel.

(e) Proposed easement locations, with dimensions.

(f) Proposed limits within which principal structure and accessory buildings shall be confined on such parcel, with dimensions.

(2) Information, as required by paragraph 3.d. (2) of Section 18.24 SITE PLAN REVIEW and Section 18.34 TREE AND WOODLANDS PROTECTION.

b. Final Site Plan

After the Preliminary Site Plan as submitted or modified is accepted by the Planning Commission, the proprietor shall submit to the Planning Commission for final approval and final record, the following items. The applicant may submit the Final Site Plan concurrently with a Preliminary Site Plan.

(1) A plan, in the form of an original ink drawing on drafting film or a mylar duplicate, drawn to a scale of not less than one inch equals one hundred feet (1" = 100'), showing in conformity with the accepted plan:

(a) Survey location, dimensions and areas of all parcels.

(b) The site plan shall indicate the location and complete dimensions of all easements. For easements providing access for public utilities or services, an accurate legal description, prepared by a Registered Land Surveyor or Civil Engineer, shall be provided that includes recitation of the purpose of the easement, with grant to the Township, its successors and assigns, in perpetuity, of the right to occupy and use such easement for installation, maintenance and operation of publicly utilities.

(c) Description of any access easements and private roads in accordance with Section 18.35 STANDARDS FOR PRIVATE ROADS AND ACCESS EASEMENTS.

(d) Completely dimensioned limits within which principal structure and accessory buildings shall be confined on each parcel.

(2) A legal description of each parcel into which the property is divided prepared by a Registered Land Surveyor or Civil Engineer.

c. Approval of Final Site Plan

(1) When the Final Site Plan and its accompanying material have been reviewed and found to be in conformity with the accepted Preliminary Site Plan, the Planning Commission shall formally approve the Final Site Plan, and give the proprietor written notice of the approval.

(2) The Township Attorney and Engineer shall review the easement and related documents.

(3) Upon receipt of written approval by the Township Attorney and Engineer, the easement and related documents shall be reviewed and approved by the Township Board of Trustees.

(4) The easement and related documents be recorded with Wayne County Register of Deeds.

(5) All access easements and private roads shall be designed and maintained through a joint maintenance agreement in accordance with Section 18.35 STANDARDS FOR PRIVATE ROADS AND ACCESS EASEMENTS

(6) Following the above, the resultant parcels shall be eligible for building permits.

Section 1 Section 18.32 SIDEWALKS AND BIKE PATHS

1. SIDEWALKS

Sidewalks, conforming to the construction standards established by the Board of Trustees, shall be constructed if required by the Planning Commission, based on the following conditions:

a. Where necessary to provide access to, or through, common areas. This access shall be a minimum of twenty (20) feet wide if not included within a street or road right-of-way. The Planning Commission may require landscaping or walls to screen common walkways from adjacent uses.

b. Where desired to connect high pedestrian generators such as neighborhoods, schools, parks, public buildings, churches, multiple family housing, office parks and uses serving the aforementioned.

c. Between principal buildings and parking lots serving such buildings to reduce potential conflicts.

d. Where sidewalks or bike paths are recommended in the Township Master Plan, subarea plans or corridor plans.

e. Within the public street or private road easement right-of-way based on the following table:

Street Classification	Criteria	Sidewalk Requirements
Major Thoroughfare	Section Roads and any roadway with a right-of-way over 100'	Sidewalks along both sides
Secondary Thoroughfare or Collector	Main Street Bradner Winchester Any other roadway with a minimum 86' right-of-way	Sidewalks along one side
Local Street	All other streets	No sidewalk

2. BIKE PATHS

In conjunction with development of any zoning lot abutting an established bike path plan as approved by Northville Township, an eight (8) foot wide bike path located one (1) foot within the proposed street right-of-way line shall be provided and shown on the site plan. An alternate location may be approved if it is more suitable to the area or if trees or hillsides need to be avoided. Construction shall be in accordance with standards established by the Township Board of Trustees.

Section 1 Amendment to add Section 18.35 STANDARDS FOR PRIVATE ROADS AND ACCESS EASEMENTS

Section 18.35 STANDARDS FOR PRIVATE ROADS AND ACCESS EASEMENTS

The purpose of this Section is to establish the procedures, design standards and ensure proper maintenance for roads which are not intended to be dedicated to the public.

1. Applicability

The procedures and standards of this Section shall apply to all private roads including those in developments regulated by the Condominium Act, Act 50 of 1978 and all private roads hereinafter constructed in the Township. For purposes of interpretation, private roads in a condominium development shall not include parking lot aisles or drives connecting parking lots to internal roads.

The standards of this Section also apply to service roads required by the Planning Commission to manage access along a roadway. A private road providing access to two (2) or more dwelling units or other principal building to which access is provided by a private road shall only be constructed, extended, improved or relocated after a permit authorizing such activity has been issued by the Building Department.

2. Frontage and Lot Width Requirements (Refer to Figure 18.35a):

a. Frontage: All parcels shall have a minimum frontage of sixty (60) feet along a public street, private road or access easement, unless a forty (40) foot wide easement has been approved by the Planning Commission as described in 4.b below.

b. Width: The minimum lot width for parcels abutting a public street, private road or access easement shall be as required for the zoning district in Section 17.1 LIMITING HEIGHT, BULK, DENSITY AND AREA BY LAND USE, unless otherwise provided for in this Section. In single family residential districts, lots at the end of a private road or easement need not provide the required minimum lot width at the setback line provided that a minimum setback of forty (40) feet is provided on all sides, as illustrated in Figure 18.35, a. 4.

3. Submittal Requirements

The following items shall be provided on a site plan and submitted, either separately or combined with other required site plan submittal information, to the Planning and Zoning Department with an application for a private road construction permit:

a. Completed application form and fee, established by the Township Board of Trustees.

b. Parcel number and name of owner for all properties having legal interest in the private road.

c. Plans, designed by a Registered Engineer or Land Surveyor showing location, dimension, and design of the private road. The plan shall identify existing and proposed elevation contours within all areas to be disturbed or altered by construction of the private road.

d. Location of all public or private utilities located within the private road right-of-way or easement, or within twenty (20) feet including, but not limited to: water, sewer, telephone, gas, electricity, and television cable.

e. Location of any lakes, streams, drainages or Michigan Department of Natural Resources regulated floodplains and wetlands within one hundred (100) feet of the proposed private road right-of-way or easement.

f. Declaration of Restriction for Private Road Construction and Maintenance in a format provided by the Township, as described in item 6 of this Section.

4. Design Standards:

No permit shall be issued by the Building Department for a private road providing access to two (2) or more dwelling units, principal buildings, lots or parcels unless the proposed construction is in conformance with the following standards:

a. Purpose of Access Easements: Easements shall give access from a public street or streets to all parcels resulting from the proposed division not having street frontage and shall be established for the joint use of owners of all resultant parcels of the original property for ingress and egress and for the location of private or public owned utilities serving such resultant parcels.

b. Access Easement Width: The site plan shall provide an easement or easements sixty (60) feet in width, provided that the Planning Commission may reduce the required width to forty (40) feet if any of the following conditions exist:

(1) Where the easement can only provide access to one (1) parcel of land without public street frontage; or

(2) In the judgement of the Planning Commission, the easement is unlikely to become a public street in the future; or

(3) Where the Planning Commission determines the easement does not have the potential to serve additional lots in the future.

In making such a determination, the Planning Commission shall consider recommendations of the Township Master Plan and the desire for continuity in the public street system.

c. Maximum Length, Cul-de-sac turnarounds: Maximum length of a private road access easement that provides sole access to properties, and any required turnaround shall be in accordance with the illustration and table in Figure 18.35, b. A private road shall provide a turnaround for vehicles either by a cul-de-sac turnaround, a hammerhead or Y configuration or a continuous loop street layout under either of the following situations:

(1) The access easement provides access to five (5) or more parcels.

(2) The access easements is over six hundred (600) feet in length.

d. Cross Section and Construction Materials: Cross section and materials for a private road shall be in accordance with the standards illustrated on Figure 18.35, c.

e. The improved surface of the private road shall be setback a minimum of fifteen (15) feet from any adjoining lot or parcel which does not derive access from the easement or private road.

f. All areas disturbed by the construction of a private street shall be provided with topsoil, seeded with grass, and protected against erosion.

g. Woodland Protection: Private roads shall comply with Section 18.34 TREE AND WOODLANDS PROTECTION. The Township may require staking of the road alignment for inspection prior to construction and/or inspection following construction to ensure compliance with Section 18.34 TREE AND WOODLANDS PROTECTION. Fees for this inspection shall be established by the Township.

h. Vertical Clearance: In order to provide adequate access for emergency vehicles, fifteen (15) feet of overhead tree clearance shall be provided within the width of the gravel or pavement.

i. Private Road Geometric Standards:

(1) Grade: Grades shall not exceed seven percent (7%), with a maximum grade of two-percent (2%) for a minimum distance of thirty (30) feet from the intersection with a public right-of-way or another private road. The Planning Commission may approve a grade of up to ten percent (10%) for low traffic volume streets provided that there is under 500 vehicles per day and where significant topographic features would be preserved.

(2) Minimum horizontal curve shall be defined by the desired design speed but should never be less than two-hundred-thirty (230) feet in radius.

(3) Vertical curves shall be designed for grade changes greater than one-percent (1%).

(4) Minimum tangent distance (straight-away) between two curves shall be fifty (50) feet.

(5) Private road design plans shall document that minimum stopping and intersection sight distances meet the design criteria outlined in the most recent edition of the American Association of State Highway and Transportation Officials (AASHTO) Manual "A Policy on Geometric Design for Highways and Streets."

3. Intersection Design Standards:

(1) Private roads which intersect with existing or proposed private roads or public street rights-of-way should intersect at a ninety degree (90°) angle.

AMENDMENT TO ZONING ORDINANCE 94-10-91

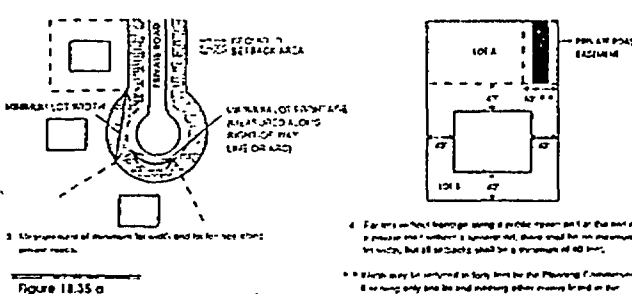

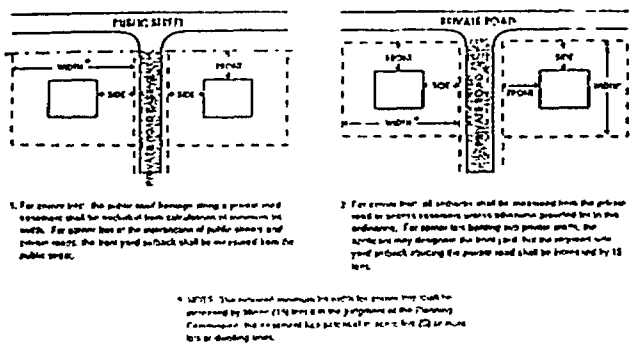

Where constrained by environmental features, a reduced angle of intersection but in no case shall the angle be less than seventy degrees (70°).

- (2) Proposed intersections shall align directly across from public streets, private roads or non-single family residential driveways, or be offset at least one-hundred-fifty (150) feet measured centerline to centerline.
- k. Street names shall be required by the Planning Commission for any private road serving two (2) or more lots. The applicant shall inform the Township of address number(s) assigned by Detroit Edison prior to issuance of an occupancy permit.
1. Signs: All signs within the private road or access easement shall be identified on the site plan and be in accordance with the Michigan Manual of Uniform Traffic Control Devices, unless the Planning Commission approves another type of design for consistency with the character of the development. Street signs shall be provided at all intersections. These signs shall contrast in terms of color with public street signs, and shall indicate the road is private. The Township may require the posting of "no parking" signs.
- m. Sidewalks/Bike paths: Sidewalks or bike paths may be required by the Planning Commission according to the conditions of Section 18.37 SIDEWALKS AND BIKE PATHS.
5. Service Road Design Standards (see Figure 18.35 d).

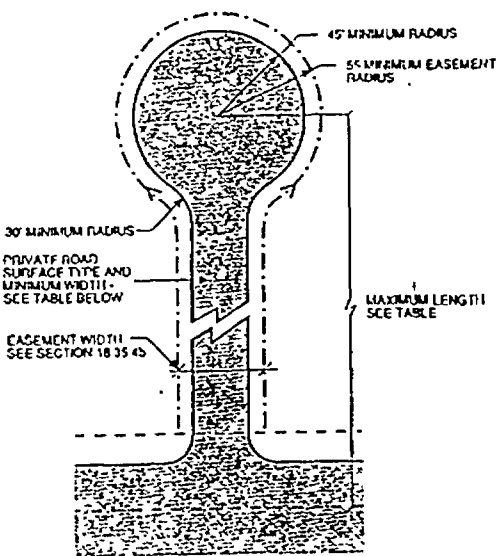

Service roads are an alternate to numerous individual driveways serving a series of uses of lots. The use of service roads, in conjunction with driveway spacing, is intended to preserve traffic flow along major thoroughfares and minimize traffic conflicts, while retaining reasonable access to the property. Service roads and access easements for service roads shall be designed to the standards for private roads, with the following additional standards:

- a. Location: Service roads shall generally be parallel or perpendicular to the front property line and may be located in front of, adjacent to, or behind, principal buildings. In considering the most appropriate alignment for a service road, the Planning Commission shall consider the setbacks of existing buildings and anticipated traffic flow for the site.
- b. Access Easement: The service road shall be within an access easement permitting traffic circulation between properties. This easement shall be sixty (60) feet wide, except an access easement parallel to a public street right-of-way may be forty (40) feet wide, if approved by the Planning Commission. The required width shall remain free and clear of obstructions, unless otherwise approved by the Planning Commission. A maintenance agreement shall be provided in accordance with item 6. of this Section.
- c. Construction and Materials: Service roads shall have a base, pavement, and curb and gutter in accordance with Figure 18.35, c, 2, except the width of the service road shall be twenty-six (26) feet wide, measured from the face of the gutter pan.
- d. Parking: The service road is intended to be used exclusively for circulation, not as a parking maneuvering aisle. The Planning Commission may require the posting of "no parking" signs along the service road. In reviewing the site plan, the Planning Commission may permit temporary parking in the easement area where continuous service road is not yet available, provided that the layout allows removal of the parking in the future to allow extension of the service road. Temporary parking spaces permitted within the service drive shall be in excess of the minimum required under Section 18.12 OFF STREET PARKING REQUIREMENTS.
- e. Access to Service Road: The Planning Commission shall approve the location of all accesses to the service road, based on the driveway spacing standards of Section 18.36 DRIVEWAY STANDARDS, provided the Planning Commission may allow additional driveways if approved by Wayne County and consistent with Section 18.36 DRIVEWAY STANDARDS.
- f. Temporary Access: The Planning Commission may approve temporary accesses where a continuous service road is not yet available and a performance bond or escrow is created to assure elimination of temporary access when the service road is continued. Occupancy permits shall not be issued until monies have been deposited with Northville Township.
- g. Elevation: The site plan shall indicate the proposed elevation of the service road at the property line and the Building Department shall maintain a record of all service road elevations so that their grades can be coordinated.
- h. Landscaping: The greenbelt between a service road and the public street right-of-way shall be landscaped as specified in Section 18.16 PLANT MATERIALS. Such landscaping shall be arranged to simulate a natural appearance.
- i. Maintenance: Each property owner shall be responsible for maintenance of the easement as noted below.

6. Maintenance Agreement

An agreement for financing on-going maintenance shall be provided by the property owners benefitting from the private street. The applicant shall provide a completed copy of the Township's Declaration of Restriction for Private Road Construction and Maintenance form to the Township Clerk prior to issuance of a building permit. The easement shall be recorded with the Wayne County Register of Deeds prior to the issuance of an occupancy permit.

7. Requirements for Building Permit

No building permit will be issued for the construction of a dwelling unit or other principal building to which access is provided by a private road unless the following conditions are met. For projects approved for construction in phases, the following conditions must be present for each phase prior to issuance of building permits for structures. For purposes of this Section, a project with five or fewer single family lots or residential units shall be considered as one phase. The intent of this Section is to insure each phase of a private road is constructed prior to building construction in the phase.

- a. A construction permit for the private road has been issued by the Township Building Department.
- b. Design and construction of the private road complies with all applicable provisions of this Ordinance.
- c. The private road has been completed to the satisfaction of the Building Department or a performance bond or escrow in an amount equal to the cost of the construction has been provided to the Building Department to insure completion of the street within one year from the date of issuance.

8. Existing Nonconforming Private Roads and Access Easements

It is recognized that there exist private roads, service roads and access easements which were lawful prior to the adoption of this Section which are inconsistent with the standards herein. Such roads are declared by this Section to be legal nonconforming roads or easements. The intent of this Section is to permit legal nonconforming roads and easements to continue and undergo routine maintenance for safety purposes, as determined by the Building Department. This Section is also intended to allow new dwelling unit construction to occur on existing lots which front along such a road on the adoption date of this Section, if the roads are reasonably capable of providing sufficient access for the uses permitted in the zoning district and for provision of emergency service vehicles.

However, this Section is also intended to discourage the extension of nonconforming roads or increase the number of lots or building sites served by such a road, except in planned subdivisions, divisions of land or site condominium projects existing on the adoption date of this Section, unless provisions are made to upgrade such road to comply with the standards herein. Any reconstruction, widening or extension of a non-conforming private road or access easement shall be in conformity with this Section.

For purposes of determining whether a lot along a private road or access easement qualifies as an "existing lot" as used in this Section, at least one of the following conditions must have existed at the time this Section was adopted, 1991.

- a. The lot consists of a "condominium unit" for which a master deed had been recorded with the Wayne County Register of Deeds in accordance with the requirements of the Michigan Condominium Act and other applicable laws and ordinances.
- b. The lot consists of a parcel that was described by metes and bounds as recorded by a deed or as a land contract, and registered with the Wayne County Register of Deeds.
- c. The lot has been assigned a unique parcel number by the Wayne County Register of Deeds and was individually assessed and taxed on that basis.

Section 1. Amendment to Article XVIII GENERAL PROVISIONS by adding Section 18.36 DRIVEWAY STANDARDS.

Section 18.36 DRIVEWAY STANDARDS

PREAMBLE:

The intent of this Section is to establish standards for driveway spacing and the number of driveways for application during the site plan review process. The procedures standards of this Section are intended to promote safe and efficient travel within the Township; minimize disruptive and potentially hazardous traffic conflicts; separate traffic conflict areas by reducing the number of driveways; provide efficient spacing standards between driveways, and between driveways and intersections; implement the Master Plan and corridor study recommendations; protect the substantial public investment in the street system; and to ensure reasonable access to properties, though not always be the most direct access.

The Township recognizes the driveway standards herein may be more restrictive than those provided by Wayne County, in recognition that the countywide standards may not meet the comprehensive transportation and land use goals of the Charter Township of Northville. Construction within the public right-of-way under the jurisdiction of Wayne County must also meet the permit requirements of the County. Where any conflicts arise, the more stringent standard shall apply.

1. Definition - Commercial Driveway: For the purposes of this Section, a commercial driveway is defined as any vehicular access except those serving one (1) or two (2) dwelling units, or serving just and essential public service structure.
2. Driveway Location in General:
 - a. Driveways shall be located so as to minimize interference with the free movement of traffic, to provide adequate sight distance, and to provide the most favorable driveway grade.

- b. Driveways, including the radii but not including right turn lanes, passing lanes and tapers, shall be located entirely within the right-of-way frontage, unless otherwise approved by Wayne County and upon written certification from the adjacent property owner agreeing to such encroachment.

3. Driveway Spacing Standards:

- a. Minimum spacing requirements between a proposed commercial driveway and an intersection either adjacent to or on the opposite side of the street may be set on a case-by-case basis but in no instance shall be less than the distances listed below. The following measurements are from the near edge of the proposed driveway, measured at the throat perpendicular to the street, to the near lane edge of the intersecting street or pavement edge for uncurbed sections.

Location of Driveway	Minimum spacing for a Full Movement Driveway	Minimum Spacing for a Channelized Driveway Restricting Left Turns
Along Major Thoroughfare, intersecting street is a Major Thoroughfare	250 feet	125 feet
Along Major Thoroughfare, intersecting street is not a Major Thoroughfare	200 feet	125 feet
Along a Secondary Thoroughfare	125 feet	75 feet
Along A Collector, Local Street, or Private Road	75 feet	50 feet

1. Thoroughfares and Secondary Thoroughfares are listed in the Township Master Plan.

2. For sites with insufficient street frontage to meet the above criterion, the Planning Commission may require construction of the driveway along a side street, a shared driveway with an adjacent property, construction of a driveway along the property line farthest from the intersection or require a service road as described in item 3 below.

- b. Minimum spacing between two commercial driveways shall be determined based upon posted speed limits along the parcel frontage. The minimum spacings indicated below are measured from centerline to centerline.

Posted Speed Limit (MPH)	Minimum Driveway Spacing (In Feet)
25	125
30	155
35	185

- c. To reduce left-turn conflicts, new commercial driveways shall be aligned with those across the roadway where possible. If alignment is not possible, driveways should be offset a minimum of one hundred fifty (150) feet from those on the opposite side of the roadway. Longer offsets may be required depending on the expected inbound left-turn volumes of the driveways.

- d. In the case of expansion, alteration or redesign of an existing development where it can be demonstrated that pre-existing conditions prohibit adherence to the minimum commercial driveway spacing standards, the Planning Commission may modify the driveway spacing requirements. Such modifications shall be of the minimum amount necessary, but in no case shall spacing of a full-access driveway be less than sixty (60) feet, measured centerline to centerline.

4. Number of Commercial Driveways:

- a. The number of commercial driveways serving a property shall be the minimum number necessary to provide reasonable access and access for emergency vehicles, while preserving traffic operations and safety along the public roadway.
- b. Access shall be provided for each separately owned parcel. This access may be an individual driveway, shared driveway or via a service drive. Additional driveways may be permitted for property only as follows:

- (1) One (1) additional driveway may be allowed for properties with a continuous frontage of over three hundred (300) feet, and one (1) additional driveway for each additional three hundred (300) feet of frontage, if the Planning Commission determines there are no other reasonable access opportunities.
- (2) The Planning Commission determines additional access is justified without compromising traffic operations along the public street, based upon a traffic impact study as described in Section 18.30 IMPACT ASSESSMENT.
- (3) Two one-way driveways may be permitted where the frontage is at least one-hundred-twenty-five (125) feet.

5. Shared Driveways and Service Roads:

- a. Where noted above, or where the Planning Commission determines that reducing the number of access points may have a beneficial impact on traffic operations and safety while preserving the property owner's right to reasonable access, a shared driveway or service road connecting two or more properties or uses may be required. In particular, service drives may be required where recommended in corridor or sub-area master plans; near existing traffic signals or near locations having potential for future signalization; along major arterial roadways with high traffic volumes; and along segments with a relatively high number of accidents or limited sight distance.
- b. Shared driveways and service roads shall be within an access easement recorded according to the procedures of Section 18.35 STANDARDS FOR PRIVATE ROADS AND ACCESS EASEMENTS.
- c. Service roads shall be designed according to Section 18.35 STANDARDS FOR PRIVATE ROADS AND ACCESS EASEMENTS.
- d. The number of accesses along a service road shall be according to the standards of item 3b above. The Planning Commission may allow temporary access where the service road is not completed if a performance bond or other financial guarantee is provided which assures elimination of the temporary access upon completion of the service road. Occupancy permits shall not be issued until such financial guarantee has been submitted to the Township.

6. Commercial Driveway Design:

- a. For high traffic generators, or for commercial driveways along roadways experiencing or expected to experience congestion, the Planning Commission may require two egress lanes.
- b. Where a boulevard entrance is desired by the applicant or Planning Commission, a fully curbed island shall separate the ingress and egress lanes. The radii forming the edges on this island shall be designed to accommodate the largest vehicle that will normally use the driveway. The minimum area of the island shall be 180 square feet. The Planning Commission may require landscaping on the section outside the public right-of-way. Such landscaping shall be tolerant of roadway conditions.

PART II. Conflicting Provisions Repealed.

Any Ordinance or part of Ordinances in conflict herewith are repealed save that in all other respects Ordinance No. 94, as amended, is hereby ratified and reaffirmed.

PART III. Effective Date:

The provisions of this ordinance shall be in full force and effective immediately upon publication.

PART IV. Adoption.

This ordinance was adopted by the Township Board of the Charter Township of Northville, pursuant to authority of Act No. 184, Public Acts of 1943, as amended at their meeting of October 10, 1991.

Mill Race Matters

Soon Mill Race Historical Village will close for the winter. Why not take one of the few remaining opportunities next Sunday afternoon to visit the buildings, stroll the grounds, and enjoy a tranquil Sunday afternoon?

Buildings will be open from 2-5 p.m. through the end of October. Then buildings will again be open for the third Christmas Walk weekend Saturday and Sunday, Nov. 16 and 17. There is an admission charge for the Christmas Walk.

Ongoing fall workshops remain. There is still time to enroll for three children's programs: Sheep to Shawl (spinning and wool development), Marbles (games, history, and making a marble bag); and pottery (beginning ceramics). Adult evening classes remaining: Hearth Cooking, Crazy Quilt Pillow, Counted Cross Stitch Ornaments, Gingerbread House, Herbal Remedies. One remaining adult day class: Candlemaking. Contact 348-1845 for additional information or to register.

In addition to the Christmas Walk, Mill Race will host a Sunday afternoon Tea Dance on Sunday, Nov. 24. Victorian costuming is optional. The afternoon begins at 1:30 p.m. and runs to 4:30 p.m. The cost will be $12 per couple. The event is open to everyone, although space is limited. Reservations may be made at 348-1845.

Other area historical events upcoming include: "Mozart Comes to Salem II," Salem Walker Church, 7:30 p.m. Oct. 19; Photographica Trade Show, Oct. 27, Novi; Photo Preservation, Oct. 17, Novi Historical Society; Love of Lace Tool, Nov. 16, Great Lakes Lace Group, Taylor Community Library; Conserving Michigan's Cultural Heritage in the 21st Century, Greenfield Village, Nov. 17-19; Still Memories, A Century of Michigan Photography, Michigan Historical Museum, Old House Lecture Series, Nov. 11, Jan. 15, Livingston County Historical Society; History of Local Native Indians, Salem Historical Society, Nov. 21. For additional information on these call 349-9005.

This week the Northville Historical Society would like to acknowledge the following donations to the society and Mill Race Village: cash register for the country store from Grandma Betty's; Adopt-a-Tree in honor of Lois and Tom Curi's 40th wedding anniversary by Donald and Barbara Willoughby.

CHARTER TOWNSHIP OF NORTHVILLE AMENDMENT TO ZONING ORDINANCE 94-08-91

AN ORDINANCE TO AMEND THE TOWNSHIP OF NORTHVILLE ZONING ORDINANCE BY AMENDING THE TEXT THEREOF.

THE CHARTER TOWNSHIP OF NORTHVILLE ORDAINS:

PART 1. The Charter Township of Northville Zoning Ordinance No. 94 as amended is hereby further amended by amending Article XVIII, Section 18.34 TREE AND WOODLANDS PROTECTION and Section 18.16 PLANT MATERIALS.

Section 1 Change subparagraph a. of paragraph 3. of Section 18.34 TREE AND WOODLANDS PROTECTION to read as follows:

3. Woodlands Applicability & Tree Protection
a. All parcels requiring site plan review or special land use approval shall be reviewed for woodlands area and tree protection when the site contains any protected trees as provided by this Section and Section 18.24 SITE PLAN REVIEW hereof.

Section 2 Change paragraph 5. a. of Section 18.34 TREE AND WOODLANDS PROTECTION to read as follows:

a. Any Township resident or property owner may nominate a tree within the Charter Township of Northville for designation as a landmark tree or historic tree.

Section 3 Change paragraph 7. to read as follows.

7. Review Procedures and Requirements
a. The Planning Commission shall review all plans in regard to designated trees and woodlands and may impose such conditions on the manner and extent of the proposed activity or use as are necessary to ensure that the activity or use will be conducted in such a manner as will cause the least possible damage, encroachment or interference with natural resources and natural processes within the woodlands areas or to trees.

b. The plan submitted shall graphically highlight landmark and historic trees and all trees to be removed or relocated as part of the proposed improvements.

c. A detail indicating the method of tree protection or a narrative describing the method of tree protection shall be provided in the plan.

d. The extent of tree protection shall be indicated on the plans.

Section 4 Change paragraph 8. to add subparagraph h. to read as follows:

h. Exemptions to Tree and Woodlands Protection:
1. The TREE AND WOODLANDS PROTECTION Ordinance may consider the following trees for exemption, unless they are landmark or historic trees. The following species of trees may be exempt if they do not comprise the predominant species within the woodland and it is determined that they do not contribute to the overall vigor of the woodland stand or have significant value for watershed or erosion control

- Box Elder
- Silver Maple
- Poplar
- Willow
- Tree of Heaven
- Catalpa
- Elm
- Cottonwood
- All trees less than eight (8) inches d.b.h. within a woodlands area.
- All trees less than twelve (12) inches d.b.h. outside of a designated woodlands area.

Section 5 Change subparagraph c. d. and d. of paragraph 9. to read as follows:

c. Deciduous trees shall be replaced by deciduous trees and evergreen trees shall be replaced by evergreen trees. Trees shall be of the same species as the removed trees, when available from Michigan nurseries, unless otherwise approved by the Planning Commission and when trees of the same species are not available, replacement shall be pursuant to the replacement chart, used as a general guide, on file in the office of the Planning and Zoning Department. Group 1 trees may be replaced by other Group 1 trees. Group 2 trees may be replaced by Group 1 trees or other Group 2 trees. Group 3 trees may be replaced by Group 1 or Group 2 trees or by other Group 3 trees. Site factors (i.e., wet site, dry site) must be given consideration in replacement choices.

d. Transplanted trees from a Woodlands Area which are to be removed by development may be used for replacement trees.

1. For relocated trees ten (10) inches caliper or greater, a statement regarding the method of transplanting shall be included. In addition, the individual performing this transplanting shall have a demonstrated experience and success in transplanting trees of this size.

e. No change
f. No change
g. Where woodland densities permit, tree relocation or replacement shall be within the same woodlands area as the removed plants. Where tree relocation or replacement is not feasible within the woodlands area, the relocation or replacement on the site may be elsewhere on the property. If tree relocation or replacement within the same woodlands area or elsewhere on the property is not feasible, the developer may seek a variance from such requirement from the Zoning Board of Appeals in accordance with the regular standards applicable for variance.

Section 6 Change introductory paragraph 10 and 10 a. (1) as follows

10. Tree Protection During Construction
Before development, land clearing, filling or land alteration commences, the developer shall be required to erect for the protection of remaining plants, barriers as approved by the Township. All trees to be removed which are protected by the Ordinance shall be flagged with surveying tape, "x"ed with paint or otherwise identified. For trees to be saved, protective fencing shall be located at the drip line of trees or tree groupings, unless it can be demonstrated that this is not practical.

11. Penalties
a. Penalty Any person, firm or corporation violating any of the provisions of this Ordinance shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, shall be subject to a fine for not more than five hundred ($500.00) dollars and the costs of prosecution, or shall be punished by imprisonment for a period not to exceed ninety (90) days for each offense, or by both such fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the court, together with the costs of such prosecution. Each unauthorized removal of a tree shall be deemed a separate offense.

THE CHARTER TOWNSHIP OF NORTHVILLE ORDAINS

Newspaper publishes unsupported opinions

Over the past several weeks, Northville Record reporter Mike Tyree has been writing articles, insinuating the Northville Township Board is practicing "good ole boy" politics. While I have not been named as one of the practitioners by the Record, based upon the reaction of several members of the audience at the October 10 Board of Trustees meeting, it was apparent that all six members have been judged guilty either by fact or association. Since I am not guilty by association, I feel that I must express my thoughts publicly.

What is "good ole boy" politics? My definition is one or all of the following: 1. See that your friends are appointed to positions so that your policies will be implemented without question. 2. You support my vote and I will support yours. 3. Deal cutting. 4. See that your friends get township business.

As of this date, neither Mike Tyree nor The Northville Record editorial staff has accused any member of the board of any of these actions. All they have done is state that the board is guilty of "good ole boy" politics and not presented any facts to support that position. The Northville Record has succeeded in inflaming the public by their so-far baseless insinuations.

It appears to me that The Northville Record has appointed itself judge and jury of how the Township should be run. It should be very careful, as this can be a dangerous position to assume. To this point things have not gone its way so it is on the attack. All township residents should be grateful that the Record is being vigilant in its observations, but the Record should stick to reporting facts, not opinions. If there are misdoings, shady deals, unqualified appointments or other questionable dealings, they should be reported and the appropriate people taken to task.

Now to the subject of the Treasurer's appointment. The October 10 editorial implied that the board should request new resumes for that position or at least appoint the second-place person from the last election. I chose not to follow either recommendation for the following reasons: 1. Resumes of many candidates were reviewed about 1.5 years ago. 2. Three people felt the desire and dedication to actually stand for election in August 1990. 3. All three people had been contacted and expressed a current interest in the position. 4. In my opinion two of the three were capable.

I could not support Rick Engelland based upon the campaign tactics he found necessary to use in the election. Specifically the use of half-truths (i.e. Trustees voted themselves a 50-percent pay increase. True, but the whole truth is that the sum was $25 a month.) This implies to me that he was unable to stand on his own record. Both Bill Butterfield and Jack Hosmer ran on their record, and both have the credentials to be a good treasurer. I firmly believe that an efficient township must be run like a business and not on political rhetoric. I personally feel that the main problem with government today is that there is too much reliance on political rhetoric and not enough on facts.

I urge The Northville Record to return to reporting facts and leave out unsupported opinions. If that fails, then I encourage readers to look for the facts within articles to back up the opinions and insinuations so that they are not influenced by a reporter that does not have things go his way.

The township board is not crazy!

To the editor:
I became concerned about adverse comments circulated about the Township Board. Accordingly, I decided to attend the Township Board Meeting on Thursday, October 10, 1991 to see firsthand what had changed these people who have served the community so well for a number of years.

I would like to report that I observed professional behavior by the Township Supervisor and all members of the board. I thought that the entire Board demonstrated honesty, integrity, patience and sincere desire to serve the best interests of all of us in the community.

I think examination of the facts will show that the Board did carefully consider the qualifications of the candidates for the open positions. Also, the appointments were made in an expeditious manner which was necessary for the efficient operation of the Township.

I was surprised to find so few people at the Township Board meeting where the majority of the seats in the audience were empty. I would like to recommend that anyone who has a chance should take the opportunity to attend a Township Board meeting and draw their own conclusion.

I think the majority will agree with me that the Township Board is doing a good job.

Richard W. Ambler Sr.

Political pandering takes over

To the editor:

After the last two appointments made by our township officials, 1) township supervisor and 2) treasurer, it is obvious that political pandering has taken over as our current form of government. When will this stop?

The residents of Northville Township need to wake up and start paying attention to the issues and candidates which directly affect our community.

The appointment of Jack Hosmer (who finished a distant third in the 1990 election) over Rick Engelland (who finished a close second) clearly states that the township board does not concern themselves with who the residents want as their public servant.

Next August, it is time to return the selection of township officials back to the residents and not the local politicians. We urge every township resident to keep abreast of the upcoming 1992 elections and get out and vote.

Tom and Paula Worniak

This is my opinion on recent acts

To the editor:

As many people know, I applied for the position of Northville Township Supervisor recently and it was awarded to Betty Lennox. I have hesitated writing, as I did not wish to be perceived as the "sore loser" or "crying sour grapes." However, after the outrageous actions of the Northville Township Board of Trustees on at least two occasions recently, I feel the need to write and express my opinion.

I was sure Ms. Lennox would be appointed supervisor, as she was the out going Georgina Goss' personal choice, and is non-threatening to certain members of the board of trustees. I felt it was most certainly a prearranged — done deal. But I'm forever hopeful and did think the board of trustees would at least be smart enough to follow their own published process instead of aborting it midstream and denying the people of Northville Township the best supervisor they could get.

Trustee Nowka had begun the meeting criticizing The Northville Record for being unfair and biased, then ramrodded through the appointment of Ms. Lennox in an incredibly unprofessional, less-than-honorable display of politics supported by Cook and Williams. It would be truthful to say that I was shocked by the arrogant, crass procedure and very disappointed not to have even been given a fair chance. It was a blatant disregard for the people of Northville Township and a true showing of the type of local politics I had hoped to be able to change if given a chance!

The incredible support of family, friends and the people of Northville helped me to walk away looking forward to the election in 1992. I was further encouraged by the outrage many residents expressed both to me in person and in their letters to the editor in The Northville Record.

I did not feel Ms. Lennox was the best choice for supervisor and Northville Township needed forward progress. Less than 24 hours after being appointed, she granted an interview with the very Northville Record reporter she had claimed on the night of her appointment was unfair to her. In this interview she criticized publicly a top township employee, i.e., Mr. Dick Henningsen, township manager, alluding that his job may be less than secure. Is this Ms. Lennox's idea of improving communication amongst township staff? Is this her way of acting in a respectful, professional manner when dealing with township business? I was disgusted, but again kept quiet. I then read Trustee Williams' article of self-defense in The Northville Record and could only sadly shake my head. This was followed by a letter to the editor from Trustee Nowka. It was two columns of political, avoidance talk and complete nothingness.

Well, the creme de la creme came last Thursday night when the appointment of the new township treasurer (to fill the spot vacated by Lennox) was on the agenda. Once again the board of trustees chose to bypass the open, fair, public process. No notification of resumes being accepted for the position was ever published. Nor was the person who received the second highest number of votes in the last treasurer election even considered! Once again Trustee Nowka (with the support of Williams and Lennox) crammed Mr. Hosmer down everyone's throats. This was an even more ridiculous, unprofessional display than the supervisor selection. They wouldn't even allow the many residents present to offer input. As hard as that may be to believe, it is all on film! This is appalling!

I can no longer remain silent! I strongly urge the people of Northville Township to immediately recall trustees Nowka, Williams, Cook, and Ms. Lennox. Do not tolerate for even one more year the arrogant, unprofessional manipulation of these less-than-straightforward people in power. They could do a lot of damage in one year. Take their power away! Please, at the very least remember in November 1992 and vote these people out.

As we watch the Senate hearings on Clarence Thomas this week on TV, we can see just how dangerous manipulative government can become. Please send a ripple of hope and change outward from Northville Township and vote for change. Preferably ASAP but at the very least in November 1992!

Appointment is a new round of arrogance

To the editor:

Just when one would think that the political foolery being acted out at Township Hall had reached an all-time low, the stage gets set for yet another scene of unbelievable arrogance. In naming Jack Hosmer to fill the vacated treasurer's position, the township board has chosen to turn its back on the democratic process that took place last

Our Opinion

Only choice is to seek track taxes elsewhere

This looks like the end. After the years of hand wringing, strategy plotting, and political maneuvering, it looks like the state has put a final halt to the return of horse-racing tax money to cities housing the racetracks. In slightly better financial times, the state sent the City of Northville close to a million dollars a year under the now-ended program. For the most recent fiscal year, Northville and the other cities with tracks practically had to use a crowbar to pry out of Lansing money a portion of an allocation which had been promised months earlier.

In the just-completed round of state budget deliberations, the racetrack tax return actually made it through both houses of the Legislature. But Gov. John Engler sliced it out with his line-item veto power, and rest assured, it's going to stay sliced.

It's unclear at this point whether the Legislature will try to override any of the vetoes. If it does, the racetrack money probably won't be among them. And even if it is attempted, this is one expenditure certain to fall short of the two-thirds majority necessary for an override.

So the money won't be there next year. And with the state fiscal outlook continuing to be gloomy well into the future, the money most likely won't be there any time soon.

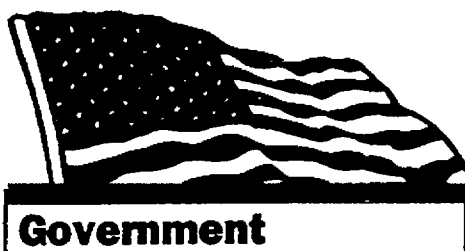

These funds are vital to the operation of the city. Historically, the lion's share of the money has gone directly to pay for extra costs associated with housing a track in the city — additional police patrols, waste disposal, and so on. The balance, in a sense, has been gravy, allowing the city a source of revenue it wouldn't otherwise have.

Eliminating the money throws the city's already precarious budget right over the cliff. Without replacing the revenue, the city will have to consider massive cuts, the most obvious being things like extra police patrols at the track.

It's a little hard to believe the governor and his staff thought this issue through completely. In addition to eliminating the money returned to the racetrack cities, the governor's veto pen crossed out some $7.2 million in direct support for the standardbred and thoroughbred industries. There is some indication that this money may be subject to a deal; that remains to be seen.

But add all this up and it means bad times for horse racing, not just for the track cities. These cuts, taken together, could easily mean the end of the industry in Michigan over time. And the governor appears to be forgetting that horse racing is vitally important for the state.

All the money the state has spent on racing is only a fraction of what the state takes in from racing, in the form of a tax on all money bet. Not to mention the thousands of people the industry employs in Michigan.

So what next? The city, and its representatives in the Legislature, and other track cities, and their representatives, must not sit back and accept the defeat — and indications are that they don't intend to do so. The money has been removed from the state budget; all right, it will just have to come from somewhere else.

Two possibilities, both of which have been mentioned before, now gain new significance. The first is a lawsuit against the state by the racetrack cities. From a lay perspective, there are certainly grounds for action: The return of money is state law, plain and simple, and not returning the money violates that law.

A suit might have an excellent chance of success, but even so it would probably be just a temporary solution. Starting with the assumption that the Legislature really isn't behind the idea of returning the money in the first place, all it would have to do is change that law. Until that happens, though, the law remains on the books, and could prove a useful tool in this fight.

The second option is to establish a method for Northville and other racetrack cities to get their money right off the top, before it ever gets to Lansing. State Sen. Bob Geake, whose district includes two of the half-dozen tracks in Michigan, is already pushing for a new law which would allow the cities to tax betting directly.

At the outset, he expects no real opposition in the Legislature; there's no obvious reason for any of the legislators to object. The tracks themselves, on the other hand, may well oppose the idea, since the new tax would fall on top of the tax the state already levies. But if such a system appeared to ensure the future of the racing industry in Michigan, that opposition might disappear.

The options will become clearer over the next few weeks, as the various officials begin to sort everything out. A combination plan of legal action and new taxation might prove the ultimate solution. Right now, all that's clear is that the city needs action, it needs it badly, and it needs it now.

Interesting talk at the hospital

I couldn't get in a word edgewise. It was Wednesday night, the first night of the week when we have any real opportunity to update each other on what's going on in our lives, and she was telling me all the things going on where she works.

She's a social worker at Northville Regional Psychiatric Hospital, and she was telling me that we wouldn't be able to go to exercise class together tonight (Oct. 17) because there's going to be a community open house at Northville Regional from 7-9 p.m.

The open house is titled "Expanding Horizons: Developing a New Partnership with the Community." There will be refreshments. Each department is setting up informational tables. And several people have to make short talks to explain the hospital's role and functions.

She was going on and on about the open house, telling me that she is going to be one of the speakers and her little talk is scheduled to start at 8:20 p.m.

And I couldn't get in a word edgewise.

Finally, she paused to take a breath and I took advantage of the opportunity.

"Didja read my column last Monday?" I asked hopefully.

"Nope," she said emphatically.

"I try to read your columns every week because people ask me about them and I want to be prepared in case you've written anything bad about me or the neighbors."

"I started reading it last Monday, but it was boring. Something about Freedom of the Press and how proud you are because The Northville Record didn't run the Pee Wee Herman story.

"As soon as I saw it was boring, I stopped reading." I'd like to tell you I was surprised at her response, but that isn't true. My suspicion is that a lot of people stop reading my column whenever it's something serious. Those suspicions did not stop me from reacting with horror, however.

"You didn't read it because it was boring? How can you say something as important as Freedom of the Press is boring? How come you gobble up all the trivial stuff, but you stop reading whenever I write something serious?"

"Besides," I continued. "Carol McCloud liked it. Carol McCloud liked it enough to send me a nice note. She said the column was 'a keeper.'"

"Are you done rambling yet?" she asked, cutting me off in mid-sentence.

And then she started talking about her open house again. Which only made me madder. Hey, how come she gets to talk about her job and I can't talk about mine? So I decided to cut her off just like she had done to me, only I did it really coy.

"So what time is your speech, honey?" I asked solicitously.

"I was thinking maybe I will come out to hear it."

"Eight-twenty," she replied sweetly, surprised at my sudden interest in her open house. "Are you really thinking about driving out to the hospital just to hear my speech?"

"Of course, light of my life," I said, smiling. And then I nailed her. "Just as long as it's not boring."

It felt good. I had softened her up, thrown her off guard and, then belted her with a verbal uppercut to the mid-section.

Unfortunately, the good feeling didn't last long. After all these years, I ought to know it's hard to nail her with a clean shot without getting belted in return.

"So who's Carol McCloud?" she asked.

The system breeds arrogance

We are not governed by citizen-politicians who take time out of their careers and family responsibilities for a spell of public service.

We are governed by a separate political class, people whose life work is winning and holding elective office.

I have been making this point for years. And so the events of the past week failed to take me by surprise, other than to demonstrate just how crass and arrogant our leaders have become.

We learned that many members of Congress — including Michigan Democrats John Dingell and Dale Kildee and Republican David Camp — used the House of Representatives bank as a free check kiting agency.

We learned that dozens of Washington lawmakers had stuffed the House dining room for more than $300,000. And we learned that a daily function of the House sergeant-at-arms has been to fix local parking tickets.

When a separate political class governs other mere citizens, you can expect this kind of nonsense. A New York Times poll found that the American people regarded members of Congress as "corrupt, pampered by unnecessary perquisites and arrogant about their power."

The same was said for our leaders closer to home in Lansing: the Michigan House, Senate and members of the office of Gov. John Engler.

As they knocked 83,000 poor and jobless Michiganians off the welfare rolls and into a struggle with survival, our political masters were cooking up a quiet little deal to feather their own nests.

In the final conference committee meeting on the general fund budget (closed to ordinary folks, of course, because we wouldn't understand), the House conferees proposed increasing the budget for both chambers by $8.2 million. The Senate leadership gladly went along.

This increase comes to more than 10 percent, three times Michigan's inflation rate. It includes restoring a 9.2-percent cut, adds about $1 million for each chamber for moving costs, and increases printing (to send you and me those timely and interesting newsletters), Social Security and retirement benefits!

Engler's staff went along for an extra $325,000, plus $58,000 that appears to have come from a simple multiplication error.

When asked about trying to have it both ways, Engler's chief of staff, Dan Pero, replied that the governor's office was "badly overworked." I don't doubt it. I also imagine that most people cut off from General Assistance appreciate how overworked the governor's office is.

What is scandalous is that the decision to pour money into the already cushy jobs was taken in silent conspiracy. Both Republicans and Democrats went along. Class solidarity among our political masters surpasses partisanship any day.

The only person on the inside of these dealings who beefed was Dick Young, a sensible Democratic House member from Dearborn Heights. "I don't want to look like a flaming hero, but warned them that increasing their budgets at this time didn't make a heck of a lot of sense," Young said. "When the Wayne County morgue is filled up because of the way we're cutting the budget, we shouldn't try to go back to business as usual."

The deal gave the Department of Management and Budget, run by Engler's chief budget cutter, Patricia Woodworth, an extra $950,000.

I suspect Woodworth got the check just about the same time she signed the letter threatening the Detroit Institute of Arts with complete elimination of state support if they didn't quit beefing about their cuts.

Just like the man says, "Them that has, gets."

Town can be proud of tourney

To the Editor:

The community of Northville can certainly be proud of the job it did in late July and early August this past summer. It was a continuation of an affiliation with amateur baseball at the national level that started some nine years ago. The tournaments have grown, the relationship has grown and the entire two-week program, covering two national world series, continues to get better. Our community of Northville is receiving national recognition and prominence in the world of amateur baseball. Teams from all over the country, coast to coast, choose Northville as the place they want to be to compete for a national championship, in the oldest amateur baseball organization, the National Amateur Baseball Federation.

The Sophomore (13-14 years old) World Series was held July 25-28 and the Junior (15-16 years old) World Series was held Aug. 1-4. Both were held at Northville and Novi High School. Once again they were two tremendous tournaments with the teams more equally matched than in any previous tournament. All teams came into the tournament as winners and each one of them left as winners.

The positive attitudes and approach to the game throughout both tournaments by players, coaches, and parents was a major contribution to the tournament success. The positive philosophy and environment provided throughout the tournament was greatly appreciated by all concerned and the community of Northville and all the people involved in the running of the tournament received plaudits after plaudits for the outstanding tournaments.

The 1991 tournaments were co-hosted by Northville Junior Baseball and Little Caesars Amateur Baseball Federation. The two World Champions, for the second year in a row, came from the State of Ohio. The sophomore champion was Miamisburg Post 165, Miamisburg, Ohio, just south of Dayton; and the Junior Division Champion was Marion Dow from Cincinnati, Ohio.

Our visitors this year came from Brooklyn, N.Y.; Ellicott City, Md.; Acworth, Ga.; Lexington, Ky.; Cincinnati, Ohio; Bowling Green, Ohio; Manooka, Ill.; St. Charles, Mo.; Redmond, Wash.; Windsor, Ontario; Miamisburg, Ohio; and Warren, Mich.

The Tournament Committee was awesome once again. One of our longtime faithful leaders had to withdraw from participating this year and the committee recognized her during the tournaments as a small token of our appreciation for her many years of contributions to the tournaments. The plaque reads, "Kay Kehoe, Thank You for the years of volunteer service as our T-Shirt Lady." Your dedication to the fundraising has helped our N.A.B.F. World Series provide college scholarships to the youth of our community.

Presented July 25, 1991 Northville Junior Baseball Tournament Committee

Thank you Kay and Bob. I would also like to recognize some very special people to publicly express my gratitude, appreciation and thanks for their dedication and work that each one did in their roles as members of the Tournament Committee.

Thank you all the businesses and residents who have supported this program, Metro Detroit Shell Oil Dealers for the field decorations and bunting and Absopure for their donation of bottled water.

Thanks again to the Little Caesars Amateur Baseball Federation for their financial support of these namet Committee: Diane Amber-ozlak, Lloyd and Helen McKee, Dan and Bev Bastian, Judy Walsh, Bill and Suzanne Kaley, Tom and Celeste Busard, Bruce and Sue Christenson, Chuck and Debbie Apligan, Charlene Frellick, Mike and Sandy Yaeke, Mike and Lynn McComb, Bill and Gail Baughman, Anita Farrar, Bill and Donna Rice, Rick Kelley, Joe and Barbara Stak-nis, Kirk Anderson, Scott and Linda Reaville, Tim and Mininta Cain, Dennis and Sandy Nielson, George and Margaret Surdo, Diane McCulloch, and Dan and Carol Shaw.

A very special thank you is extended to both the Pom Pon squad and cheerleaders from Northville High School for their participation in the opening ceremonies and banquets. The Pom Pon Squad helped to make the opening ceremonies what they were.

A special thank you and appreciation are extended to the Northville Sandy Koufax and Mickey Mantle, coaches, players, and parents for all their help prior to, during and after the tournaments, in all aspects of tournament responsibilities. Participation this year was the highest that it has ever been and it was greatly appreciated.

Northville Parks and Recreation Department, John Anderson and his staff were very involved and supportive throughout the tournaments and we thank them very much.

We also want to thank John Osborne and Novi High School and Novi Parks and Recreation for the use of the high school facility.

The Northville School System was once again very supportive of these tournaments and we thank them for the preparation and use of their facilities.

I would also like to recognize and congratulate the umpires for another outstanding job in their role and responsibilities. We continue to have the cream of the crop and they too are a vital part of and contributor towards these tournaments being a positive tournament for all concerned. The winner of the Junior Series goes on to the U.S.B.F. Junior Olympic Super Series and one of our umpires is selected to go also. For the second year in a row, our umpire was selected as one of the top umpires and umped in the gold medal game. Congratulations Steve Frellick, 1990 and Joe Saunders, 1991.

We want to thank once again city and township officials for their continued involvement and support of the tournaments. Thank you to the First Presbyterian Church of Northville and our guest speaker at the Junior banquet, Jim Newman, Principal of Adult Education at Bentley Center, Livonia, Michigan.

Once again, a deep gratitude and thank you is expressed and extended to John and Toni Genitti for their direct involvement in the program, their continued support, and generous donations to the program.

Thank you all the businesses and residents who have supported this program, Metro Detroit Shell Oil Dealers for the field decorations and bunting and Absopure for their donation of bottled water.

Thanks again to the Little Caesars Amateur Baseball Federation for their financial support of these tournaments.

Congratulations Northville and thank you for a job well done and appreciated.

Many helped Tivoli Fair be a success

To the editor:

Preliminary reports indicate that this year's Tivoli Fair was the most successful in its 22-year history, and we have lots of people to thank for helping make this so:

Northville Downs, The Driving Club, and Margaret Zayti and her staff.

MainCentre Cleaners, Goldsmith Galleries, Genitti's, Orin Jewelers, Baby Baby, D & D Bicycles, and Crawford's for their aid for Tivoli Fair in the Sept. 26 issue of the Record.

Liz and Fran Gazlay, Diane and Art Rockall, Susan Lapine, Cathy Payne, Tom Swigart and Jan Juhasz for set-up.

Jayne Murphy for making all the calls for hostesses, who included Leslie Ryder, Linda Clark, Eileen Dunn, Judy Kohl, Ellen VanNoord, Marlene Benham, Janice Cook, Nicole Anderson, Cheryl Spinazze, Dennis Cassidy, Pam Hoetger, Nancy Roscello, Phyllis Heckmeyer, Enid Manheimer, Nancy Hill, Connie Els, Barb Louie, Marion LaFevre, Paulette Rizzo, Patty Beck, Cheryl Cassidy, Karen Yurgallite, Georgiana Schimpf, Mary and Chuck Keys, Amy Miller, Kathy Fox, Kathryn and Robert Peale, Lucia Danes, Barb Glover, Carol Koster, Irene Rostik, Sonia Swigart, Barb Wilson, Pam Toetger, Judy Gorden and Rita Wightman.

Martha Nield and the Boy Scouts, Mary Ann and John Bruggeman for their help with the clean-up.

Rita and Bruce Turnbull for taking charge of the Society Booth. The Northville Record for their articles.

And a very special "thanks" to two people who had no choice as to volunteer or not — our husbands, Wes and Ron.

We couldn't have done it without you!

Thanks for benefit dinner for Friends

To the editor:

I want to thank everyone who helped make the eighth annual Friends of the Northville Public Library Benefit Dinner a success. Our benefactors John and Toni Genitti and their staff provided a wonderful dinner. John Lobbia, President and Chief Executive Officer of the Detroit Edison Company, was an outstanding speaker to make a most enjoyable evening for all attending.

As you can possibly guess, I am a driver who observes the 35 mph speed limit and I do not care how many cars follow me and "tailgate." I also believe that the signs posting the speed limit and school zones are adequate and readily observable to an alert driver.

In the relatively short time I have lived at my present address, I have seen three serious accidents on Taft that I would judge to have been caused by excessive speed and careless driving. Two were collisions caused by Taft Road drivers hitting cars that were entering Taft from the subdivisions, but the third was a serious one.

It happened one evening after dark, and the driver was coming south on Taft and did not realize that Taft ends at Eight Mile Road. (That fact is clearly marked.) This accident happened three or four years ago, but it's still remembered by the residents. In reconstructing the accident, it appears that the driver was driving at an excessive speed and saw the traffic light at Taft and Eight Mile beginning to change from green to red. The driver, a young woman, attempted to "make the light." She was not successful and hit the electric power pole which plunged the surrounding homes and the gas station into darkness. The car became airborne and ended up on its roof in the Northville Green parking lot. Needless to say, the police and fire department as well as an ambulance were soon involved and it became necessary for the fire department to use "The Jaws of Life" to extricate the driver. I looked at the car the next morning before it was removed and I was amazed that the young woman had not been killed. (In her favor, she had been wearing her seat belt.)

As you can possibly guess, I am

We also want to mention Speedy Printing for providing the tickets and a special thank you to The Northville Record for the excellent publicity.

The "Friends" is a fortunate group to have so many local people willing to support our fundraiser, making possible the many projects and equipment we provide for the library.

Newspapers provide valued service

To the editor:

I am taking this opportunity, during National Newspaper Week, to commend you and The Northville Record for the services provided the citizens of Metro Detroit.

The staff at this facility recognizes the value of an informed public. Newspapers long have been the primary source of information for the American people. Information needed for the public to make wise and effective decisions that guide our nation.

We especially appreciate your support of the men and women of Operation Desert Storm.

While we respect the scrutiny, vigilance and persistence of the press, we also welcome the thoughtful, well-researched and accurate reporting of the many issues confronting our citizens.

The free press, driven by the Constitution's First Amendment, is the principal strength of our nation and our community. The work of your publication and its value to the citizenry is appreciated.

Pizza Cutter shows great generosity

To the editor:

There are not words to describe or thank Jim Delano, owner of Northville Pizza Cutter, his wife, Liz, and their wonderful employees. They worked so hard during the Victorian Festival to provide donated pizza for a very special group of students. These students are members of the Students Against Driving Drunk Chapter at Northville High School. For the second straight year Pizza Cutter has shown their generosity and concern for S.A.D.D.'s mission:

To reduce the number of drinking and driving incidents.

To come forward and support ongoing school and community programs.

We, as S.A.D.D. advisors, want the community to be aware of this positive connection between the community and the schools.

Thank you Jim Delano and family and those hard workers who make such tasty pizza. "S.A.D.D. loves ya!"

Columnist not a fast learner

To the editor:

When I read the headline of Mike Mallott's column of Thursday, Oct. 3, I thought it was going to be a protest to the excessive speed driven by the number of drivers that use Taft Road.

The more I read your column, the less sympathy I had for and the less empathy I had with you. It reminded me of the proverb, "White man cheat Indian, first time, shame on white man. White man cheat Indian second time, shame on Indian." By your own admission, you have received three speeding violations within the relatively short time of three months. I am forced to come to the conclusion that you would not be considered a fast learner.

Although I do not have a Taft Road address, I live close enough to it and use it enough to consider myself qualified to answer your column. First, in the summer when our windows are open, we can hear the cars as they drive in excess of the posted speeds on Taft. This is especially annoying at night when one is attempting to sleep.

Second, in addition to the schools that are on Taft, I believe that you are not aware there is a handicapped child who lives in one of the homes fronting Taft. It is clearly marked and an alert driver would exercise extra caution. Also, there are housing developments whose main road empties into Taft, which is another reason for exercising caution.

As you can possibly guess, I am a driver who observes the 35 mph speed limit and I do not care how many cars follow me and "tailgate." I also believe that the signs posting the speed limit and school zones are adequate and readily observable to an alert driver.

In the relatively short time I have lived at my present address, I have seen three serious accidents on Taft that I would judge to have been caused by excessive speed and careless driving. Two were collisions caused by Taft Road drivers hitting cars that were entering Taft from the subdivisions, but the third was a serious one.

It happened one evening after dark, and the driver was coming south on Taft and did not realize that Taft ends at Eight Mile Road. (That fact is clearly marked.) This accident happened three or four years ago, but it's still remembered by the residents. In reconstructing the accident, it appears that the driver was driving at an excessive speed and saw the traffic light at Taft and Eight Mile beginning to change from green to red. The driver, a young woman, attempted to "make the light." She was not successful and hit the electric power pole which plunged the surrounding homes and the gas station into darkness. The car became airborne and ended up on its roof in the Northville Green parking lot. Needless to say, the police and fire department as well as an ambulance were soon involved and it became necessary for the fire department to use "The Jaws of Life" to extricate the driver. I looked at the car the next morning before it was removed and I was amazed that the young woman had not been killed. (In her favor, she had been wearing her seat belt.)

As you can possibly guess, I am one of the older residents of Northville and demographically, we are becoming the most rapidly growing segment of the population. As I said, I have no sympathy or empathy with these drivers who try to get the most speed they can from their vehicles. In fact, if the decision were mine, I would want even stricter enforcement of the traffic laws, not only in Northville, but wherever it is so warranted.

In closing, I might mention one thing you have already discovered. The fines for excessive speed are much higher in Northville, Northville Township, Plymouth, and Novi. Thanks to people who pay them, these fines are probably a considerable part of the income budget of these communities. I heartily support such a policy.

I do hope that you, out of respect to the Taft Road residents and children in the Taft Road schools that you will drive in a safer and more conservative manner.

year. The board made two glaring errors. First, they chose not to take the time necessary to make a public announcement in order to hear from interested candidates. Second, they didn't have the decency to even place in nomination the name of Rick Engelland. You remember Rick Engelland; he is the gentleman who finished ahead of Jack Hosmer in the primary election last year for the treasurer's position. The board members used every excuse in the book to justify their position of ignoring the electoral process. The essence of their justification was this: We (the board) know better what the township needs than the voting public.

To follow this line of reasoning to its logical (illogical) conclusion, elections could easily be done away with. Just get the village elders to make decisions on who is and who isn't worthy of serving the citizens. This is America, where they democratic process is to be cherished, not ignored, just because somebody feels or thinks that the vote of the people was improper. This is a philosophic principle that should terrify voters, regardless of who they had voted for during the last treasurer primary.

Newborns have always been a handful.

These days, "crack" babies are lucky to be born even that big.

This year more babies will be born, premature and underweight, to "crack" cocaine-addicted mothers.

You may have seen photographs of "crack" babies. It's not such a pretty picture. Imagine what it must be like to work in one Metropolitan Detroit maternity ward where, on average, one in ten babies is born addicted to drugs.

Now more than ever, the United Way needs your donation to help fund local organizations with programs to help pregnant addicts

HOROSCOPE

LIBRA (Sept. 23 - Oct. 22)

Egotism will get you nowhere. Make certain you are aware of what you are doing and saying so you don't leave the wrong impression.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 - Nov. 21)

A love relationship intensifies, and the sparks will fly. Try being a little more carefree. The change in attitude will do you wonders.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 - Dec. 21)

Your financial sector is looking much better, and you will be able to plan for future ventures. Check investment options carefully.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 - Jan. 19)

A tasteless comment could cause big problems with loved ones, especially a mate. Laughing at your own mistakes is important.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20 - Feb. 18)

Friends and family think you are wonderful and want to prove it to you. Accept their kindness and reciprocate whenever possible.

PISCES (Feb. 19 - March 20)

Confronting someone close to you is not easy, but it is necessary. You will meet or reacquaint yourself with a person who will bring you joy.

By C.C. Clark

ARIES (March 21 - April 19)

Pay close attention to detail and be cautious when signing contracts. A friend needs your advice but is afraid of being judged. Show you care.

TAURUS (April 20 - May 20)

Ignorance is not bliss, especially in business matters. You must know all the facts before making an educated decision. Cut through red tape.

GEMINI (May 21 - June 20)

Your creative energy is sending you in all directions. Take time to focus your thoughts, but not at the expense of family and friends.

CANCER (June 21 - July 22)

Getting plenty of sleep will help you avoid illness. The best way to make sure you don't get sick is to rest, eat right and exercise.

LEO (July 23 - Aug. 22)

Open your mind to co-workers' and family members' ideas, and they might just surprise you. Children may figure prominently in coming weeks.

VIRGO (Aug. 23 - Sept. 22)

You know money doesn't grow on trees, but there will be times this week when you wish it would. Paying off debts early is important.

Camp's in session: 'Dynasty' returns to ABC

Evans and Collins duke it out once more

By Steven Ala McGaw

Susan Sontag wrote her seminal essay "Notes on Camp" many years prior to the advent of ABC's "Dynasty." Prime-time television, however, has offered few series or specials that better exemplify that distinctive style than the high-gloss, high-dudgeon, high-wind adventures of the Carrington clan and its associates.

Now, two years after its cancellation as a series, "Dynasty" returns in a four-hour miniseries airing Sunday, Oct. 20, and Tuesday, Oct. 22, on ABC. John Forsythe is back as Blake, the suave patriarch of the Carringtons. Linda Evans reprises her role as Krystle, while Joan Collins stomps and snarls once more as venomous Alexis, Blake's first wife. John James and Emma Samms return as Jeff and Fallon. Steven Carrington will be portrayed by the actor who created the role, Al Corley (Jack Coleman played the part in later years), and newcomer Robin Sachs plays Adam, a character originated by actor

Gordon Thomson.

When "Dynasty" left the air after nine seasons, viewers were left hanging. Could Blake's empire weather a constant barrage of threats, frequently from Alexis? Could love, for anyone, at anytime, survive the continual tumult? Worst of all, when last seen, Krystle was in a coma. There were, clearly, questions to be answered.

Appearing before reporters last July, the "Dynasty" folks (including creators Esther Shapiro and Aaron Spelling) made it clear those questions will not be so much answered as abandoned. Evans described Krystle's unseen, but complete, recovery from the coma as "a miracle." Fallon's infamous abduction by aliens will go unmentioned, as will the fact that Steven looks, well, like his old self again. (The Corley-to-Coleman change was originally explained by a disfiguring accident in Indonesia.)

"Dynasty: The Miniseries" aims simply to offer a second helping of the high-dollar histrionics and matchless glitz that made the original a Wednesday-night staple for millions of viewers. Designer Nolan Miller spoke at length of the many costume changes. Spelling recalled 91 shooting locations, and newcomer Jeroen Krabbe was touted highly as Collins' love interest in the show.

And what would a trip to "Dynasty"-land be without a fight between Krystle and Alexis? Evans said this one has a cat fight royal. "They gave her (Collins) all the great dialogue, and I got all the good punches," the actress reported gleefully.

Summarizing their efforts, Shapiro said the show was designed to be lighthearted and fun. She also maintained the show "should be available to a person who's never seen 'Dynasty'." They should be able to see this, understand what went on and still have a full show."

ABC's hopes for "Dynasty: The Miniseries" are high; the network especially wishes to draw a large female audience opposite the World Series on CBS.

Given sufficient ratings, Spelling and Shapiro speculated that the "Dynasty" denizens could be visited again, perhaps in yearly movies or miniseries. Spelling was particularly optimistic, saying, "'Dynasty' will never die." Neither, it seems, will camp.

STAR NOTES

Superboy strives for real strength

by Lisa Otoupal

Most people know Superman came from Krypton, was adopted by the Kents and after college moved to Metropolis. The years between had never really been examined until The Adventures of Superboy followed young Clark Kent through a work/study program at the Bureau for Extranormal Matters in Central City, Fla.

Playing the title role in the series is Gerard Christopher. Born in New York City in the Bronx, Christopher is the ninth of 12 children. He studied at Juilliard and then moved to Los Angeles to attend UCLA, where he majored in economics and business.

In order to finance his education, Christopher did some modeling and appeared in more than 60 television commercials. Keeping his model looks is no easy task — the actor works out and runs every day. He has participated in triathlons and other sporting events and maintains a strict diet.

Christopher was featured in the films Dangerously Close and Tomboy. He appeared in the television series Murphy's Law and True Confessions and in the pilot Welcome to Paradise. The Adventures of Superboy is his first regular television series.

In addition to his acting duties, Christopher co-produces the series. He has also written two scripts for the show, one that received critical acclaim last season, and one that will air this season.

LET'S TALK

Denzel Washington's the 'Glory' winner who took home Oscar

By Taylor Michaels

Q: Tell me about Matthew Broderick, one of my favorite actors. Did he win an Oscar for his performance in Glory? I've noticed that in most of his movies he talks to his audience. Is there any reason for this, do you think? —Cynthia Rizh, Portland, Ore.

A: Broderick was born Aug. 21, 1962, in New York City. His movies include Max Dugan Returns, War Games, Ladyhawke, 1918, Ferris Bueller's Day Off, Biloxi Blues, The Freshman, Family Business and Glory. A few years back he was involved with Jennifer Grey (the star of Dirty Dancing and Broadway-star Joel Grey's daughter), but now he is involved with actress Helen Hunt, whom he met while filming Project X four years ago.

As for talking to his audience, Broderick used that device in Ferris Bueller's Day Off and Biloxi Blues, and he talked to himself in Ladyhawke. In all cases it was probably because the scripts called for it.

Broderick did not win an Oscar for Glory, but his co-star, Denzel Washington, did win the award for best supporting actor.

Q: I'm a big fan of the adult-film star Marilyn Chambers. I would like to know her history and how she got her start in adult films. —Mark Tucholski, Kihei, Hawaii.

A: Ironically, Chambers was once the Ivory Snow baby. Years later she met the Mitchell brothers, producers of pornographic movies, who felt having the Ivory Snow girl in one of their movies would be fantastic.

Chambers' first adult film, Behind the Green Door, was such a popular success that its producers tried to get it nominated for an Academy Award.

In 1977, Chambers made her first mainstream film, Rabid, with director David Cronenberg (Dead Ringers, The Fly).

Q: I'm writing about something that has bothered me for a long time. As a Christian, I'm aware certain things must be fulfilled and times change. Fornication is accepted in this day and age, and cursing is commonplace. However, what are we telling our young people? How can they grow up with a good sense of what's right and wrong with all the mixed messages out there? Do all television shows have to show unmarried couples living together as though it's accepted and moral? Nudity and profanity are so common in movies that a lot of people are used to it and are no longer shocked by it. —Connie Nolen, a grandmother, Morristown, Tenn.

A: Fornication, profanity and nudity existed long before television. Children learn what's right and wrong from their families, not from network executives. And by the way, a nude body can be the basis of great art, as in the case of Michelangelo's David. Maybe it's time to turn off the television and take your grandchildren to the museum where they can learn to appreciate the beautiful things in life.

Q: About two years ago, Martin Mull published a humorous book titled The

Matthew Broderick

History of White People in America. I have tried a number of bookstores in Ohio, and none of them has a copy. I would appreciate an address for Martin Mull so I can inquire about his book. —James Hargus, Norwalk, Ohio.

A: I called a local bookstore on this one. The History of White People in America is published by Putnam Press. Go back to your bookstore with this information and ask them to order it for you.

Q: Since Julia Roberts has been on the big screen, I have enjoyed her freshness. I have written to a few production companies for an address so I might be able to let Miss Roberts know this, but have had no luck. Please help! —M. Wilhelm, Red Wing, Minn.

Bits And Pieces

What ever happened to those lost tapes of Eddie and the Cruisers? They're now being released, that's what. A new album, Eddie and the Cruisers: The Unreleased Tapes, includes songs written and recorded for the Eddie and the Cruisers films that never appeared on any LP. Performed by John Cafferty and the Beaver Brown Band, the first two movie soundtracks sold well over 3 million copies.

Rock 'n' roll fans can look forward to new tracks on the album title "Fool and His Money," "Heat of the Night" and "When the World Was Young."

A big sis is forever

Kelley Blakemore and Becky Russell

Kelley always knew Becky's schedule. Sometimes when they got together, Becky would take Kelley roller skating or to the library. Or they would just "hang out."

And today, although Kelly and Becky no longer live in the same town, they are still great friends. In fact, they have quite a unique relationship. Becky is Kelley's big sister, and they are not even related.

Kelley Blakemore is in the seventh grade. When she first met Becky, her parents were divorced and she lived with her father and 16-year-old brother (her father has since remarried). Kelley's father wanted her to have a positive female role model, so he called the Big Brother/Big Sister office in Albion and requested a big sister for Kelley.

Becky Russell, a recent Albion College graduate whose father is Rev. James Russell of Northville, became interested in the Big Brother/Big Sister Program last year. Russell said she has a good relationship with her real little sister at home and wanted to do something "consistent and service-oriented."

Russell knew of other students who had strong relationships with their "Albion" little sisters, so she contacted the program director.

After almost a semester of interviews, Russell and Blakemore were matched up.

It did not take Russell and Blakemore long to get to know one another. "Kelley and I hit it off really well," Russell said. "Kelley is a very energetic, very bright girl."

For their first meeting Russell bought poster board and magazines, and they cut and pasted their favorite things on the poster board. It was a good ice breaker, Russell said.

Next, Russell made a schedule book for each of them — to let each other know what the other one was doing during the day. For Blakemore, they decorated a pink note pad with Blakemore's favorite stickers and some ribbons. It contained Russell's entire schedule inside.

"We go bowling together, go out to dinner and she comes over to my house. Sometimes she takes me to church or we eat at McDonald's," Blakemore said. Russell describes Blakemore as a "very outgoing girl."

"Kelley feels comfortable with people right away," Russell said, adding that Blakemore "loves Baldwin (the campus cafeteria), loves to see my friends and loves to dance and do cheers."

Russell also tries to instill in Blakemore the importance of an education.

"I tell her school is very important and there are a lot of different activities to be involved in," she said. Blakemore currently attends Washington Gardner Junior High School and plays the trombone in the school band.

"We also work through problems together," Russell said. They talk about everything from schoolwork to boys, she added.

"I can express things to her (Becky) that I can't to my own family," said Blakemore.

"The neatest thing," Russell explained, "is showing her a different perspective of life that she doesn't see at school."

Russell said becoming a big sister was a big commitment, and she tried to be consistent regarding the amount of time she and Blakemore would spend together.

When Russell began to come close to her graduation date, the two began to talk about it.

"I told her that I will always be her big sister. We'll always have each other's address and phone number so we can keep in touch," she said.

And indeed, they have kept in touch since her graduation last spring. Becky now works for a major accounting firm in Detroit and spent the summer touring Europe, but the two still keep in contact.

"Recently we went out for dinner," Jim Russell said. "Kelley is a very bright girl. I told her if she goes to college, I will pay for her books."

Apology to other drivers

Cristina
Ferrier

To the people who have shared the road with me — I am sorry.

I haven't always taken your safety into concern.

There have been many times when I drove while thinking about other things, my mind on "automatic pilot" even though my hands were on the wheel and I was looking at the road.

I'm not going to do that any more.

I recently covered a tragic accident at Pontiac Trail and Beck roads where a woman was killed because someone else ran a red light.

The driver who ran the light wasn't drinking or using drugs. She was even wearing a seatbelt. But I bet I know how she came to run that light.

She just wasn't paying attention.

The obvious and terrible tragedy of this accident is the driver who was going through the green light. She died, and her family is in deep grief because they don't have her anymore. The pain must be unbearable.

But I am sure the driver who caused the accident — who escaped uninjured — is living her own personal hell.

She's only 26, and her life will probably never again be the same as it was before she ran that light.

And deep down, I know that it could have been me.

I've driven over the speed limit countless times. Worse, I've sometimes sped up instead of slowing down when the light turned yellow, and I've watched it turn red the moment before I drove under it.

I've been gifted with two traffic tickets recently. One was for an illegal left turn in downtown Northville. I was heading north on Center and turned left onto Main because I wasn't observant enough to notice a huge sign saying "No left turn."

The other was issued by a state trooper who caught me driving 72 mph on I-696.

But instead of taking those tickets as the warning I should have — that I'd better start driving more carefully — I just cursed my bad luck and complained about the money I had to pay.

Now I'm thanking those officers for those tickets, and I'm thanking God and fate and the stars and everything else that those tickets are all I got.

I'm so, so sorry for the family of the woman who was killed in that accident at Pontiac Trail and Beck. I'm changing my driving habits so I won't cause any accidents like that.

I hope those who share the road with me and those I love will make that same decision, if they haven't already.

Volunteer

BERNICE SPRINGER

Retired librarian keeps helping out

What does a retired librarian do? Well, if she's like Bernice Spengler, she volunteers in a library.

Three years ago when the police department was moving out and the Novi Public Library was taking over the whole building, Spengler, who had retired from almost 40 years as chief librarian of the Burton Historical Collection of the Detroit Public Library, went to the reference librarian and asked if, when they moved into their new quarters, they would need help in checking or shelving?

She was taken on right away and, she said, "I have kept going one day every week, putting in six hours, including lunch time," working on a variety of assignments.

"Reading the shelves" was one of the first things she did — checking each book to see that it was in its proper place. "That took a couple of weeks."

Once she was given a "shelf card," listing "a bunch of cards to pull from the catalog drawers because the books were out of date or lost." That's not just one card for one book, but three — one for each author, subject and title.

"They give me a variety of things to do," Spengler said. "They're capitalizing on my experience."

Volunteering at Novi is different from working professionally at Burton, Bernice Spengler said, not just because of her relationship with staff but also because of the difference in clientele and subject matter.

At Burton, the patrons were university students and people who wanted to trace their ancestors. Here at Novi, there are people of all ages coming in and, she exclaimed, "I'm getting all this new fiction."

If others would like to volunteer at Novi Public Library, Spengler said, "They wouldn't get the jobs I do" because they wouldn't have the same background experience, but "there are volunteer jobs that especially high school kids come in to do."

In Our Town

Smiths celebrate 50 wedded years

Virginia and Clifford Smith celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary Oct. 4 with a party for 125 people at Holy Family Center. The party was organized by their sons, Clifford Jr. of South Lyon and Steven of Redford.

"We had a DJ and were entertained by the Sixth Gate Cloggers," Virginia said. "There was a dinner and dancing."

Clifford Smith is a retired builder who built many of the residences in the Northville area. The couple were married and settled in Northville after he returned from his service in the Army in World War II. He also built the house in which they live.

The Smiths are avid gardeners, with a large garden as well as fruit trees and flowers in their yard.

They furnish flowers for Our Lady of Victory church every Sunday, and each year they deliver bushels of fruit and vegetables to Our Lady of Providence home.

Local girl stars at fair

Jennifer Wulff was awarded eight ribbons at the 1991 Michigan State Fair.

Jennifer has many interests for a 10-year-old, including woodworking, arts and crafts, cooking and baking.

At the fair, Jennifer was awarded the first-place ribbon and rosette for her homemade fudge. The rosette was awarded for the outstanding exhibit in the candy category. This award was quite an accomplishment for a 10-year-old, keeping in mind that she was competing along with other 9- to 19-year-olds.

Jennifer received four second-place ribbons for a scrap book she put together, a candlestick in the woodworking category, for her homemade zucchini bread and rolled sugar cookies. Jennifer was awarded three third-prize ribbons for a seasonal hand decorated wreath and painted picture frame.

Jennifer is a fifth-grade student at Winchester Elementary School and takes dance lessons at Toni Vadnais Dance Center in Livonia.

Jennifer is following in the footsteps of her mother, Laura, who has taken numerous ribbons at previous Michigan State Fairs.

Local at Old World Market

Rigmar Cuolohan of Northville will present and narrate the traditional clothing of many cultures during the International Fashion Show at the Old World Market.

Cuolohan will offer a brief explanation about more than 30 traditional ethnic costumes worn by the International Institute volunteers.

The Old World Market will take place in the Southfield Civic Center Pavilion on Friday, Oct. 18 and Saturday, Oct. 19 from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. and Sunday, Oct. 20 from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Tickets are $2 for adults and $1 for children, seniors and groups. For more information call the International Institute at 871-8600 or the Southfield Civic Center at 354-4954.

Woman's Club

The Northville Woman's Club will hold its regular scheduled meeting Oct. 18 at First Presbyterian Church Ball Fellowship Hall at 1:30 p.m. The meeting will feature former Northville City Manager Steve Walters, who is now Plymouth City Manager, on being left-handed in a right-handed world.

Members are invited to bring guests.

Single Place

Single Place Presents will offer a special evening of recognition featuring...

Virginia and Clifford Smith

ing special guest Andy Morgan on Wednesday, Oct. 23 at 7:30 p.m. Cost is a $3 donation.

Morgan is known for his warmth, love and dedication to singles ministries. His topic Wednesday will be "Where have we been, where are we now, and where are we going."

Morgan is formerly the minister with single adults at Single Pointe of Ward Presbyterian Church in Livonia. He has helped pioneer adult single ministries in Tulsa, Okla.; Aurora, Ill.; and Arlington Heights, Ill.

Morgan was a former host of Solo Flight, a radio program for singles in the Detroit area and today is speaking for singles functions throughout the midwest and is leading divorce recovery workshops.

Nonsense at Marquis

Laugh your troubles away with the wonderfully wacky Little Sisters of Hoboken and their outrageous misadventures as they take you through the side-splittingly funny nonsense of "Nonsense," winner of four Outer Critics' Circle Awards including Best Off-Broadway Musical.

The "habit forming" play will be presented at the Marquis on Fridays, Saturdays and Sundays from Oct. 18 through Nov. 3. Saturday and Sunday performances are at 8 p.m. and Sunday performances are at 2:30 p.m. Special matinees will also take place on Wednesday, Oct. 16 and Thursday, Oct. 24 at 2:30 p.m.

Friday and Sunday tickets are $10; Saturday tickets are $11; special matinee tickets are $7.50. Advance tickets are available at all TicketMaster outlets or at the Marquis Theatre Box Office. For phone orders, information on senior citizen discounts or other information call the theater at 349-8110.

Ski-skate

The Northville Mothers' Club is already planning its annual ski and skate sale.

The sale is scheduled for Saturday, Nov. 2 from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. at Meads Mill Middle School. A 15-percent commission goes to the Mothers' Club to help benefit the Northville Public Schools.

Equipment you wish to sell should be brought to Meads Mill on Friday, Nov. 1 from 4-7:30 p.m. Do not bring anything to sell on the day of the sale; items will not be accepted at that time.

If you have a large number of items to sell, the club will provide tags early for pricing.

Jennifer Wulff

Items can be brought other than ski or skate equipment, provided they fit the general theme of the sale. Please do not bring any ski equipment older than seven years because they may have bindings or soles that are obsolete and cannot be safely adjusted.

For more information call Marilyn Robison at 349-1240 or Carol Rahimi at 349-3762.

Carmel Quinn delights Town Hall participants

By CRISTINA FERRIER
Staff Writer

Carmel Quinn, who millions of people remember from "The Arthur Godfrey Show" in the 1950s, entertained hundreds of local people Monday at the first 1991-92 Town Hall meeting.

"Who remembers Arthur Godfrey?" she asked the audience. Nearly everyone applauded.

"Arthur Godfrey's got to be in heaven because he talked his way in," she said.

Quinn entertained the audience for over an hour with a mix of songs—mostly Irish—and a collection of jokes and anecdotes.

She also involved the audience by including sing-alongs and using various audience members as partners in duets.

Quinn has three children, two girls and one boy, who are grown up. One of her daughters is in New York and is a singer, she said. Her son is an English teacher in Prague, Czechoslovakia.

"People say to me, 'Are your girls married?'" she said. "And they're not."

"People are always anxious to get their girls married, but all I want is that they be happy," she said.

"I live in an old house in New Jersey that is crumbling—I find pieces of ceiling on the floor—and I say, why don't you date a nice house painter, or a nice electrician?"

"But my daughters, they date poets who sit around my house looking wan while the ceiling falls down."

Quinn, who immigrated from Ireland nearly 40 years ago, said she loves America in a way that only people from other countries can.

"This is a great land that opened its arms to people from other countries, and today, when we look at the rest of the world, we are able to see how lucky we really are," she said.

Quinn was on "The Arthur Godfrey Show" from 1956-1962, when the show ended due to Godfrey's falling health.

"I didn't realize how big the show was when I came on," she said. "I thought it was a little local show. I didn't know what all the fuss was about."

She said she had a good relationship with Godfrey because "I didn't see him as an especially important person. In Ireland, one person is the same as another. People just aren't that impressed by famous people. That's why so many famous people take vacations there."

"I told him (Godfrey) one day that he is a very lucky man to be as successful as he is, because there are plenty of people with more talent than him and plenty of people with more talent than me, and they are out of work."

"He laughed, because he knew it was true."

Quinn said she and her husband, from whom she is now separated, met in Ireland when she was singing in "a little place in Dublin."

"He was always asking me out," she quipped. "But it wasn't what you would call harassment."

She eventually came to America because he wanted to come here.

"I didn't know I would do well here," she said. "I just came here with him."

Because she often sings to no one in particular, a neighbor who heard her singing told her she should try out for the "Arthur Godfrey Show."

The rest was history. "At the audition I did about seven songs without music, and they said, 'We're putting you on Monday night.'"

Sara Elaine Nowka/Joseph Lucien Harding III

Sara Elaine Nowka, daughter of James L. and Bette Lynn Nowka of Northville, and Joseph Lucien Harding III, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lucien Harding Sr. of Birmingham, celebrated a double-ring ceremony on June 22, at United Methodist Church, Boyne City. Rev. Eric Hammer officiated.

James Nowka gave the bride away. The bride wore a dress that she herself designed with a drop waist, full skirt, off the shoulder with pink and white silk roses around the tops of the sleeves, buttons down the back with a bow and a short train.

The veil was two-tiered netting trimmed in white satin with a fresh flower band rearing the face.

The bouquet consisted of white roses, white daisies and pink baby's breath.

Matron of honor was Julie Nowka of Northville, sister of the bride. Bridesmaids were Susie Proctor of Texas, Lyn Hogan of New York, Julie Ward of Royal Oak, Lynda Kenney of Chicago, and Megan Dougherty of Massachusetts.

The best man was Bill Leulich of Birmingham, a fraternity brother of the groom. Groomsmen were Jon Pedersen of Royal Oak, Jon Liebold of Colorado, Christopher Nolan of Chicago, David Lydy of Birmingham, and Brad Morrison of Chicago.

The reception was at Walloon Lake Country Club with 175 guests.

The couple took a trip to France and now make their home in Bloomfield Hills.

PTA News/Middle Schools

COOKE

At our second PTA meeting of this school year, John Mahler from National Bank of Detroit gave a presentation on what NBD is doing with the Cooke students this year as Cooke's Partner in Education. The meeting was our first of two evening meetings and was very well attended.

Our fundraiser of recycled stationery is now completed, and was a great success.

Mark this on your calendars. On Nov. 14 at 7 p.m. at Cooke School Dwight Sieggreen, one of our own science teachers, will give a presentation on Alaska. The entire community is invited. In the past, Sieggreen's presentations have been very informative and entertaining as he draws from his own experiences to make us feel we too have traveled to these far-off places.

Beginning with this school year, the middle school chapter of SADD is changing its name to STAND. Students Taking A New Direction. They are presently working in conjunction with the NHS SADD chapter on the Maybury Haunted Forest. At the first meeting, the officers were elected: Kelly Moser, president; Jaime Belanger, vice president; Andrew Song, treasurer; Kelly Larigan, secretary. The Cooke chapter of STAND is presently looking for a parent as a volunteer co-facilitator. If anyone is interested, please contact Mr. Adair at Cooke.

The girls basketball team has been busy practicing for their first game which was Oct. 15.

The football team has played three games to very supportive home crowds.

Again the PTA is sponsoring this year's Halloween treat for the school.

Our first JES program for the year was Los Flamencos, a group of Flamenco dancers. It was an exciting, enjoyable program for students, teachers and parents alike.

Our next PTA meeting will be on Thursday, Nov. 7 at 9:30 a.m. at Cooke. At that time we will have the drawing for the free dinners at Genetti's and Riffle's. We hope to have the parents continued support all through the year that we have had so far, so please attend.

MEADS MILL

It is hard to believe that we are already six weeks into the 1991-92 school year which began very nicely. Meads Mill's Open House was held on Sept. 10 and was well attended. With a population of 495 students our school is filled with enthusiasm, talent and spirit. Good luck to staff and students on a new and exciting year.

The eighth-grade Meads Mill students spent two weeks learning through example about the colonial period through the Victorian Settlement of Northville. Students viewed a play by the Northville Players called "Her Fatal Beauty." They also visited the Mill Race where 10 docents explained crafts of the period. The students participated in five projects including colonial book-making with marbled paper, candle making, colonial recipe and cooking, costumes, and colonial games. The project ended with a full day of costume judging, storytelling, games, dances and food all provided by the students through their work and research. The project was funded by a grant from Northville Rotary Club.

The sixth-grade students celebrated quality water awareness week by visiting the Detroit Waste Water Treatment Plant, which is the largest in Michigan. Wearing hard hats and safety goggles the students received a tour viewing the entire treatment process. This included chemical injection to remove phosphates, screening used to remove debris and grit, skimming of grease and oil from the water and the removal of organic matter through the use of microorganisms. The students also visited the central computer system and were introduced to possible careers in waste water treatment. A truly great learning experience.

Congratulations to seventh-graders Jessica Dolnids and Brian Wagner on their win in the Ford Motor Co. "Art is in the Community" essay contest. Sixteen schools entered the contest of which only 10 winners would be chosen. Thanks to Jessica and Brian, Meads Mill was honored with two winners. They, along with Mrs. Klokenga, their parents and classmates were invited to a La Pizza Party which included a performance of "La Pizza con Funghi" by Michigan Opera Theater and pizza from Little Caesar's Enterprises. Jessica, Brian and Mrs. Klokenga also received tickets to the Pavarotti concert which is a Tibor Rudas Production.

Michigan Education Assessment Program (MEAP) will be testing all seventh grade students in reading and math and all eighth grade students in science. Look for results to be mailed home.

The Mid-West Talent Search is on again. All seventh and eighth grade students who scored in the 95 percent or above on the nationally standardized achievement test are invited to take the ACT or SAT as part of a program sponsored by Northwestern University. Good luck to them all.

Spirit Week will be the week of Oct. 21 through 25. We will be sponsoring a canned goods drive all week long that will benefit our local civic concerns. Students can earn extra points for the spirit contest by bringing in badly needed items such as tuna, peanut butter, jelly, cereal and fruit. Points can also be earned by wearing the appropriate clothing each day. Monday will be college sweatshirt day; Tuesday, Hat day; Wednesday, School color day; Thursday, Button/pin day; and Friday, Crazy Mixed-up day. The grade accumulating the most "spirit" points will be awarded with free entry to the next activity day on Nov. 6.

The Meads Mill Media Center sponsored a book fair during parent-teacher conferences. Parents as well as students were able to purchase books and posters. The media center was able to take in a 50 percent profit on the sale in new paperbacks for its paperback collection.

CROSSROADS

You've seen A Chorus Line so you know the drill. More than 300 aspiring performers walk into the audition and about 25 of them walk out with a job.

In the case of Jason Bendler of Troy, Disney auditioned 1,000 to 1,500 instrumental players across the nation and picked 90 of them for the All-American College Band.

Dancer Michael Serapiglia of Troy had an even slimmer chance; they only picked 12 dancers from all over the United States to perform in the "Best of Disney" show last year.

Both performers were picked by recruiters like Bob Radock, who knows what it's like to be one of the chosen few. Bob was a music student at the University of Michigan when he was chosen for the All-American College Band and spent a summer playing his trombone at Disneyland.

Radock directed the band for two years at Troy High School and was in his second year as admissions director for Interlochen Arts Academy when the phone rang one day.

"We're looking for a music festival coordinator to book guest entertainers into Disneyland," the voice said.

"From the north woods to Anaheim," Bob says. He moved on to Walt Disney World in Florida as the coordinator of international festival entertainers when EPCOT opened in 1982. Now he is manager of Educational Programs for the division of Creative Entertainment at Walt Disney World.

During those 13 years he has widened his career horizons a lot. As a student of academia, Radock could spend two hours on two bars of music, with that focus required to pursue a traditional music career.

At Disney he has stage-managed major musical shows, such as the Count Basie Orchestra, booked international talent, helped bring educators and work professionals together, and pursued one of his favorite goals — widening the horizons of students who come to Disney World.

Students like Michael Serapiglia and Jason Bendler.

Michael had been in school musicals at Shrine High School in Troy but didn't start dancing until his senior year. He went into the theater program at Wayne State University, took dancing lessons from Annette and Company School of Dance in West Bloomfield and started looking towards Broadway.

"I auditioned for Disney's All-American College Show last February at Marygrove College, along with 175 other contenders. They broke us into groups of three and taught us choreography. We did a jazz dance. The next day we learned a ballet piece and did the jazz again. Then we had to sing.

"Two-and-a-half months later they called. I spent three-and-a-half months doing five shows a day in the Magic Kingdom. I loved it."

Singers and dancers will audition again Feb. 1, 1992, at Marygrove. And Michael will be there.

"It was the first job in my field and I learned a lot, including work discipline and how to work with others during 378 shows."

His advice for others who want to audition: "Be prepared with a few different songs. Be as professional as possible. Have fun. Disney wants fun people. Disney is a fun place, and they want you to have fun."

These auditions are for professionals. The All-American College Band and the All-American College Orchestras are for college students who may not be professional. That's how Bob Radock started in the music field. That's what Jason Bendler was doing this summer and during the 20th anniversary celebrations this month. Having fun and widening their musical horizons.

Jim Henson's Muppet Vision 3D is one of the top new attractions in the Disney-MGM Studios Theme Park in Orlando, Florida

Celebrating 20 years of magic Touches of whimsy make Walt Disney World special indeed

By IRIS SANDERSON JONES
Travel Writer

WALT DISNEY WORLD: Standing in line always irritates me a little, but it's hard not to smile as I inch towards Jim Henson's Muppet Vision 3-D in the Disney-MGM Studios Theme Park.

The "How Long Is the Wait" sign is "Another timely service of the Muppets Lab Department of Wild Guesses." Part of the Muppets Division of Line-Engineering, of course.

It's those little touches of whimsy in the middle of all these technological wonders that keep me coming back to Walt Disney World, which celebrates its 20th birthday this month. The Muppets are my choice for the best new attraction in the World, followed by the new Spectro-Magic light parade in the Magic Kingdom.

I wish I'd been there 20-some years ago when Dick Nunis, now chairman of Walt Disney Attractions, was first driven into the 27,400 acres of pine groves and swampland that Walt had bought in central Florida.

"We drove in a four-wheel drive over rutted trails for what seemed like hours until we stopped in the middle of nowhere," Nunis says. "The driver said this is where we'll build the gate."

"You've gotta be kidding," I told

Milford girl joins Disney 'cast'

Lisa Kulhavi grew up in White Lake and graduated from Lakeland High School in Milford. So what is she doing working the front desk at the Port Orleans Resort in Walt Disney World?

"I came down here on spring break with my family. I was supposed to go to graduate school, but on an impulse I interviewed at Disney and they offered me a job."

"I worked the front desk at the Caribbean Beach Resort and opened the Port Orleans this year. I was going to go back to Albion for graduate work, but I'm in grad school now at Orlando College."

They don't call Lisa an employee — she's a "cast member," and all cast members must remember that they are on stage whenever they are working at Disney.

Lisa's tips: "Stay on property. It's not that much cheaper outside the property if you must provide your own transportation back and forth and pay parking."

"You can get the feeling of fantasy in four or five days. We're paid to create that fantasy. Learn to relax and have fun."

Lisa is the daughter of John and Esther Kulhavi of Milford. Do they visit her in Walt Disney World?

"They live in Michigan but they have a season's pass," Lisa says.

him. I wouldn't even get out of the car!"

That swamp now holds a $3 billion complex with three theme parks, 18 hotels, three golf courses, water parks, campgrounds.

If Nunis could take you aboard the gigantic Cinderella Castle balloon launched Oct. 1, and practice a little of that famous Mickey magic, you could see the 43 square miles of the World light up at dusk in time sequence over the years.

The Cinderella Castle skyline of Magic Kingdom and a few hotels, Walt Disney Village in 1975, EPCOT in 1982. Eleven years later, an explosion of new lights with Disney-MGM Studios Theme Park and new hotels all over the property.

Soar high enough and you might see west to Tokyo Disneyland and east to EuroDisney, which opens in France at 9:01 a.m. April 12, 1992.

Disney has sprinkled its pixie dust on several new projects this year.

Hollywood's Pretty Woman, Dinosaurs Live, Honey I Shrank the Kids Adventureland, Teen-age Mutant Ninja Turtles, Muppet Vision 3D and a new Mickey Mouse Club are already open at the Studios.

Stage shows based on movies Beauty and the Beast and The Little Mermaid premiere November and January respectively.

There are two new golf courses, Fazio's Osprey Ridge and Dye's Eagle Pines; two new luxury hotels, Disney's Yacht and Beach Club Resorts; two new moderate hotels, the Port Orleans Resort and the Dude Landings Resort which follows in January; and time-share Vacation Club condos opening in December.

All that technology, plus Minnie Moo and Grandma Duck's Farm, where a cow born with Mickey's trademark black ear marking on his white coat resides in the Magic Kingdom.

I was greatly concerned when I heard that the Main Street Electrical Parade was moving to EuroDisney. It has lighted up the Magic Kingdom at night since 1977 and is one of everybody's favorite attractions.

I need not have worried. As I stood on the street in the Kingdom at 10 p.m. one recent night with the lights turned down and the crowd inched, the first float came around the corner like a great ship of light, bearing life-sized characters with lighted hair. They danced in light on rolling balls. There were dancing bass fiddles and dancing pianos, dancing peacocks and gliding fish.

It was just a bigger and better electrical parade, and it was wonderful.

Spending hot days and nights in a theme park isn't everybody's idea of fun, but whenever I hesitate about going to Mickey Country I remember the whimsy that is so much a part of the World.

Like covered bridges? You'll love this festival

By MARY QUINLEY
Special Writer

Some of us go to the Covered Bridge Festival to see the bridges. Others go for the food. Any excuse is a good one.

The Parke County Covered Bridge Festival, held in Rockville, Indiana, began Oct. 11 and runs through Oct. 20.

"We have the most covered bridges of any single county in the nation," said Emily Bryant from the Parke County Tourist Information Center. "The oldest bridge is the Crooks Bridge, built in 1855-1856. Our newest bridge is the Nevins Bridge, built in 1920. Cars can drive through both. Tornadoes, floods and arsonists have claimed 11 of the bridges."

For the covered bridge enthusiast, and all other curious souls, bus tours will guide you through the hilly farm country of the "Covered Bridge Capital." Twenty-one of the county's 33 bridges are open to traffic. Visitors can walk through the remaining 12. If you choose a bus tour, be sure to ask your guide to explain the difference between double span and single span covered bridges. Parke County boasts the longest in both categories.

Be on the lookout for scarecrows on your bus trip. Your vote counts, as the decision for "best decorated" scarecrow is left to tourists. Farm houses along your journey advertise yard sales and U-pick pumpkin patches.

Why were bridges covered, you might ask.

Answer: To protect the trusses from the elements of rain and snow. Two prominent covered bridge builders, J.J. Daniels and Joseph A. Britton, were residents of Parke County.

"No one today can build bridges the way they did," boasts Bryant. Festival visitors are encouraged to roam Rockville's courthouse grounds. More than 100 booths and displays are featured.

Bring your appetite. For starters, try a smoked sausage sandwich, corn-on-the-cob, or biscuits and ham. Rustic kettles, filled with 30 gallons of navy bean soup, simmer atop an outdoor fire. From behind an old shack a clothesline extends to the nearest tree trunk. The hand-washer machine completes the scene. Life without electricity.

"The theme for this booth is 'Beans on Wash Day,'" said Bryant.

"When I grew up I actually used the type of hand washer that is demonstrated here."

The huge crocks of homemade soup, served with a side of cornbread, feed thousands of hungry visitors who attend the festival.

Homemade persimmon ice cream, fried apple pies or funnel cakes will satisfy your sweet tooth.

Large tents crammed with arts and crafts tempt visitors with homemade jellies and jams, covered bridge paraphernalia and wooden stools. Plan to do some Christmas shopping. Booths are filled with ornaments for the tree, colorful wax candles and handmade quilts.

Sunday morning activities include a "Hymn Sing" near the senior citizen tent. The Rotary Club sponsors a Pancake Breakfast from 7-10 a.m.

Nighttime entertainment includes "The Curse of The Aching Heart," a melodrama featuring a villain, lots of romance and a happy ending.

"We have Jim Jerome, a local retired banker from Rockville, who always plays the villain," says Bryant. Showtimes are Saturday night; Sunday afternoon; and Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings during the festival.

Neighboring communities to Rockville join in the festivities. You will discover old mills, waterfalls, country stores and apple butter demonstrations.

Billie Creek, minutes from Rockville's courthouse, is a replica of a turn-of-the-century town. Festivalgoers are invited to stroll through recreated buildings and three covered bridges.

Inhale the sweetness of freshly-baked cinnamon rolls in Bridgeton, an old mill town. The smokey scents of barbecue chicken and elephant ears will consume you. Take a few minutes to walk across the Big Raccoon Creek via the 245-foot Bridgeton covered bridge.

Feel the urge to "swing your partner?" You're invited to square dance at the 4-H Fairgrounds. Join in, or sit and watch.

Time permitting, visit the art gallery, antique show or historical museum. You can enjoy a tractor-pulled or horse-driven cart ride around the town.

Admission is free to the Rockville courthouse lawn activities. Hours are 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Sunday through Thursday and 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. Friday and Saturday.

Rockville is approximately 175 miles northwest of Cincinnati.

For more information, contact the Tourist Information Center of Parke County at (317) 569-5226 or (317) 569-5372.

Chicago Road offers rural charms

Now is the perfect time of year to cruise the old Chicago Road and enjoy rural Michigan playing dress up in fall's designer colors — while it lasts.

In a 1937 footnote to Michigan pioneer William Nowlin 1876 memoirs, "The Bark Covered House Or Back in the Woods Again," the renowned Michigan Avenue is described this way:

"The Chicago Road is the northwest's most notable highway. Anciently the Indian trail from the south end of Lake Michigan to the Detroit River, with the third decade of the nineteenth century it became the principal thoroughfare over which emigrants from the East thronged westward toward — and beyond — Lake Michigan.

"Over it ran the first stage coach which ever entered Chicago in Sept., 1833. By 1837, the Western Stage Company was advertising a daily stage from Detroit to Chicago through in four and a half days. Today (1937), U.S. Highway 112 follows the approximate route of the Chicago Road of a century ago and over it hourly streams an almost constant procession of cars, passenger buses and trucks. To accommodate this traffic, from Detroit as far as Ypsilanti a superhighway, 204 feet wide has been constructed."

By 1991 standards, the superhighway — now U.S. 12 — has become a fast-paced, back-country road through some interesting farm country and small, quaint towns with names like Moscow, Napoleon, Somerset Center and Jonesville. Traffic here typically varies from non-existent to moderate.

What helps keeps the flow going is U.S. 12's new calling as a mecca for antique hunters.

Starting at Saline, a charming community in its own right, at every twist of the road another shop or antiques mall sprouts up. Stores along the route, with names like Bob's Antiques and Muggs's Collectibles, run the range from elegant to cutesy to Grandma's attic-never-looked-this-cluttered.

Carloads of bargain-hunting tourists often keep running into one another as they cruise from town to town.

Noteworthy in Saline is the Town and Country Antique Mall, housed in an idyllic setting, the early 1800s Weller Mill. Downstairs is a small restaurant serving light lunches.

The Chicago Road presses on straight through the Irish Hills, where nature is improved by putt-putt golf courses and lifesize dinosaur statues in Prehistoric Forests. Here is the junction where tacky meets funky.

Dominating Brooklyn, the historic Brick Walker Tavern — at one time a haven for weary stagecoach passengers — now has a large collection of antique furniture for sale. The complex of old buildings is in itself of interest.

Brooklyn is at the junction of M-50, where there's a decision to make. Turn south into Tecumseh for a series of three well-stocked, relatively pricey antique malls or keep heading west to Allen.

Allen may seem like a mere hamlet, but it takes pride in its self-proclaimed title of the antiques capital of Michigan.

The Old Allen Township Hall shops are particularly worth a visit. This is probably one of the few places in Michigan where you can choose from a large selection of authentic Afghan peasant jewelry. Other exotic finds are South American, African, Asian and Native American folk art, including Southwestern pueblo pottery.

Just outside of downtown Allen is Green Top Country Village, western Michigan's answer to Greenfield Village. A collection of historic buildings have been brought together to create, surprise, another antique mall.

On the used-treasures run in Allen, you can break the bank or find major finds for under $20. We bought a 1920s-era, handmade silk Chinese scatter rug caked with dirt for $2 (it washed up just fine.)

This is farm country, after all, and a full selection of produce stands line the road. Besides the typical garden fare, some sell the trendy new Matsuo apples — perfect when baked into something as Japanese as apple pies.

"Night Watch" is a suspense thriller about Elaine Wheeler, a woman troubled by unsettling memories and vague fears. Upon seeing (or believing she sees) the dead body of a man in the window of an abandoned tenement across from her townhouse, she calls the police, but they find nothing but an empty chair. Another incident occurs involving another dead body; this time a woman's; the police turn skeptical.

Dinner theaters are Oct. 25 and 26 and Nov. 1, 2, and 9. Dinner will be held at 6:30 p.m. in the Waterman Center. The menu includes: tossed garden salad, rolls, Breast of Turkey Marsala, new potatoes with parsley, broccoli with lemon butter, and New York style cheese cake. The show will follow at 8 p.m. in the Liberal Arts Theatre. Dinner theatre tickets are $15.50 per person.

Theater-only shows will be on Nov. 8, 15, and 16. Tickets are $6. Actors in "Night Watch" include: John Clark, Tim Courtney, Michelle Danowski-McDermott, Susan Durack, Stephanie Lockhart, John McPhail, Jim Mirisula, Tom Mort, Patricia Parsons, Sean Sullivan, and Matt Wood. Tickets are available at the Schoolcraft College bookstore, or may be ordered by calling 462-4409. Visa and MasterCard are accepted. If you'd like to pay by personal check, send a note verifying the date wanted for Dinner Theatre or Theatre-Only tickets, along with a self-addressed, stamped envelope to: Schoolcraft College Bookstore, Attn: Theatre Tickets, 18600 Haggerty Road, Livonia, MI 48152-2696. Your tickets will be mailed promptly.

Schoolcraft College is located at 18600 Haggerty Road, between Six Mile and Seven Mile roads.

FAMILY DINNER/THEATER: Northville Community Recreation will host a night of dinner and theater for the families of Northville at 6 p.m. Friday, Nov. 15.

O.J. Anderson will present "I'm Wonderful." This program encourages the audience to learn about self-esteem, imagination, creativity and how to have fun. This one-man production will use songs, games and skits to encourage viewers to explore their creative energies.

This production will take place at the Community Center, 303 W. Main St. Tickets are $8 and may be purchased at the Northville Recreation Department through Tuesday, Nov. 5. The ticket price includes the performance and dinner by Genitti's.

MURDER MYSTERIES, OPERA AT GENITTI'S: Due to the overwhelming success of all the dinner theaters, John and Toni Genitti of Genitti's Hole-in-the-Wall Restaurant continue to present their Murder Mystery and Verdi Opera Dinner Theatre performances.

Genitti's now has three different production companies performing three different Murder Mystery Dinner Theatres. Every Friday evening at 7:30 p.m. separate performances are planned in separate dining rooms. Reservations are required for all shows.

Special performances of the Murder Mystery Dinner Theatre are now available for large groups of people any day of the week, day or evening, lunch or dinner time.

Dinner is served. As the crime unfolds during the performance, the guests try to discover who "committed the murder" through clues given out during heated exchanges between cast members. Additional clues and motives are given out as the cast mingles with the guests. Small gifts are awarded to those who correctly guess the identity of the murderer.

The standard seven-course dinner is served family style, like an old Italian wedding: lots of food, served hot, homemade soup, antipasto salad, vegetables, Italian sausage, baked chicken, Italian steak (pork), garlic toast, beverage and a luscious dessert.

The "Verdi Opera Dinner Theatre" is now scheduled the third Thursday of every month at 7:30 p.m. All arias are performed by the Verdi Opera Theatre of Michigan. Special performances are available for large groups. Reservations are required for all shows.

Harrison wins division showdown, 38-7

Hawks shut down Huzjak and offense

By NEIL GEOGHEGAN
Staff Writer

What does it take to completely shut down Northville's potent passing offense, led by All-State quarterback candidate Ryan Huzjak?

Whatever it takes, Farmington Harrison has it. The Hawks — viewed by many as the premier team in the state — limited Huzjak to a season-low 35 yards passing and crushed the Mustangs 38-7 in the showdown for first place in the WLA Western Division on Oct. 11.

The defeat was witnessed by a big Homecoming crowd, on hand to see if Huzjak could lead Northville past unbeaten and top-ranked Harrison for the first time ever. Instead, they watched as another quarterback — Harrison's Andy Fitzpatrick — picked apart the Northville defense, enabling the Hawks to capture the program's 10th straight division crown.

"I don't know if there's a team in the state that can beat Harrison," Mustang Coach Darrel Schumacher admitted. "Obviously, it gets frustrating. We are not happy about the fact that we can't beat them."

While Fitzpatrick was scoring two touchdowns and passing for a third, Huzjak was running for his life. The 6-foot-2, 180-pounder was sacked 11 times while connecting on just 5-of-20 passes. His favorite receiver, senior wideout Jamie Miller, caught one pass for two yards. And, believe it or not, the Hawks were missing two starting defensive backs — Greg Piscopink and Dan Hight — due to injuries.

"(Harrison) is an excellent football team and I thought we played them pretty tough," Schumacher said. "If it wasn't for the two breaks in the first half, it could have been a totally different ballgame."

Actually, there were more than just two huge plays in the half. Northville moved the ball deep into Harrison territory on three occasions, and came away with zero points. Then, just before the half, an errant punt snap gave the Hawks the ball at the Mustang 34. On the next play, Fitzpatrick hooked up with Roy Granger for the touchdown pass, giving Harrison a 14-0 lead.

"If we went in (to the locker room) at 7-0, it's still a tossup," Schumacher said. "But to give away a score like that really hurt us mentally. It set the wrong tone, and it carried over into the second half."

Harrison's first score came on the first possession of the game. Granger converted a key third-down play by reversing his field and gaining 27, and then Fitzpatrick reeled off another 21-yard gain, which moved the ball inside the Northville 5. Granger capped off the drive with a three-yard TD scamper.

The Mustangs had a prime opportunity to respond when Danny Walsh returned the ensuing kickoff 62 yards — down to the Hawks' 32 — but Northville failed to get a first down. Early in the second quarter, Huzjak led the Mustangs down to the Harrison 4, following an impressive 47-yard march, but a fumble ended that threat.

Northville's final first-half opportunity came when Chad Olson picked off a Fitzpatrick pass near midfield. The Mustangs drove inside the Hawks' 20, but two quarterback sacks moved them out of scoring range.

with a seven-play, 77-yard scoring drive that put Northville into a 21-0 hole. Fitzpatrick completed a

24-yard pass to Mike Pesci and a 25-yard toss to Duante Anderson to keep the drive alive, and then scored the touchdown himself from four yards out. With five minutes remaining in the third, Ben Pinsky booted a 25-yard field goal to increase the lead.

The Hawks scored two more TDs in the fourth quarter — one was a four yard run by Fitzpatrick and the other was a six yarder by Tom Donagrandi — to make it 38-0. The Mustangs avoided the shutout, however, by putting together a 59-yard touchdown march in the final minutes against the Harrison reserves. Sophomore John Gatti scored from two yards out to cap a seven-play drive with 1:18 remaining.

"(Harrison) defended us very well," Schumacher said. "Our linemen played the best they have all year, and yet they were no match for Harrison size-wise. Everybody is learning that to stop Northville, you have to go after Ryan Huzjak. That's what we'll face the rest of the season. He was running for his life and he never really got a chance to set up in the pocket and throw."

The Mustang defense was designed to stop Granger, and it worked. He had a season-low 90 yards on 22 carries, but that gave Fitzpatrick and the rest of the Hawks more open room. Northville's top defenders included Todd Osborne (six solo tackles, seven assists), Brett Butz (five solos, four assists) and Kevin Shaw (four solos, four assists).

"We felt going in we had to stop Granger, but to do that you have to give something up," Schumacher said. "Fitzpatrick had a fine game and he showed what kind of a player he is."

The loss ends Northville's win streak at four and drops the team's record to 4-2 overall, 3-1 in the WLA Western Division.

CHURCHILL PREVIEW: The Mustangs will end the regular season with three straight road games, and the first will be tomorrow (Oct. 18) against Livonia Churchill.

"The kids will bounce back because we played hard (against Harrison) and lost to a better team," Schumacher said. "We just have to refocus."

Golfers qualify for state meet

By NEIL GEOGHEGAN
Staff Writer

For the second straight season, the Northville golfers have earned a spot in the MHSAA State Meet.

The Mustangs will be one of only 15 Class A teams with an opportunity to win the '91 state title thanks to an outstanding team performance at the MHSAA Regional Tournament on Oct. 11 at Oak Pointe Golf Course in Brighton. The top three teams in each of the five Class A regional contests statewide qualify for a berth, and Northville managed a third-place finish at Oak Pointe with a score of 318. Brighton, playing on its home course, placed first (score of 305) and Howell was second (313).

"We really rose to the challenge," Mustang Coach Trish Waldecker said. "This is where we had to play well, and we did. The kids have been pointing towards this all season and our scores were just wonderful."

Senior Todd Christianson paced Northville with a 39-36 — 75 total for 18 holes. His back-nine 36 was even par, he finished just two strokes off the pace at three-over-par, and captured third-place honors overall.

"Todd played almost mistake-free golf," Waldecker said. "He's been playing well the last couple of weeks and he was bound and determined to do well at this tournament."

The Mustangs also got an outstanding round from junior Joe Staknis, who fired a 39-40 — 79, which is his first sub-80 round of the season.

The rest of the Northville competitors included Matt Telepo (38-42 — 80) and Kevin Krupansky (47-37 — 84).

"An 84 was the worst score we had to count, but the good thing about Krupansky's round was that he came on so strong after having some trouble on the front nine," Waldecker said. "He never gave up, and that is easy to do when things are going wrong."

Northville's team score of 318 was five strokes better than last year's regional total, and the Mustangs are without All-Stater Chris Lemmon, who the team lost to graduation.

WLA MEET: The Mustangs proved once again that they are among the Western Lakes' elite by placing fourth in this 12-team event at Hudson Mills Golf Course in Dexter with a score of 429. Plymouth Canton took first place with 417.

"It was a very tight race," Waldecker said. "Sure, we would have liked to win it, but I'm satisfied with fourth."

Krupansky (41-42 — 83) and Staknis (41-42 — 83) led Northville and finished tied for fifth overall, five strokes off the pace. The other Mustang competitors were Telepo (41-45 — 86), Ed Murphy (42-46 — 88) and Christianson (41-48 — 89).

"The back nine at Hudson Mills was very tight and long, so it caused us some problems," Waldecker said. "I knew we'd finish at least in the top half. It was just a matter of how well we played and how high we'd end up."

Netters wrap up ordinary campaign

By NEIL GEOGHEGAN
Staff Writer

For a program that always seems to have extraordinary players and teams, the 1991 Northville girls tennis season was . . . well, ordinary. But hardly typical.

The Mustangs (7-5 overall, 6-5 in the WLA) wrapped up a mediocre campaign last week by placing sixth at the WLA Meet on Oct. 8 and then tying for fifth at the MHSAA Regional on Oct. 11-12 at Waterford Mott. Coach Uta Filkin usually has her teams vying for first-place honors in both those tournaments, but not this year.

"It was an awfully long week," she "Our doubles teams did exceptionally well. As for the singles, we had some tough draws and it ended up hurting our final point total."

UTA FILKIN

said.

At the WLA Meet at Livonia Stevenson, Northville wound up in the middle of the pack with nine points (Farmington Harrison won it with 19), but there were highlights. The No. 1 and No. 2 doubles teams advanced all the way to the finals before falling and settling for second place. At No. 2, Kelli Woodsum and Jodie Buttigieg entered the tourney unseeded, but managed to shock the second- and third-seeded teams en route to a berth in the finals. They fell to top-seeded Karen Bailey and Laurie Bailey of Livonia Stevenson (5-1, 6-1) in the title match.

At No. 1, Stacy Green and Sandy Bosscher were seeded fourth, but they made it to the finals with a perfect 3-0 mark before dropping a 7-5, 6-4 decision to Laura Perry and Courtney Richa.

Two of the four singles players fell in the first round, but No. 4 Molly Gudritz won her first two matches (including an upset of the No. 4 seed from Plymouth Salem) before losing in the semifinals. Susan Welx won her first match 6-0, 6-0 but then fell to the No. 4 seed in three sets.

Northville High School is scheduled to play host to two Michigan High School Athletic Association (MHSAA) post-season district tournaments this fall, and neighboring Novi will be a competitor at one of them.

Northville is the site for both the girls basketball and boys soccer districts. The basketball tournament will be held on Nov. 18-22 and will include five local teams, but not Novi. While the Mustangs are battling teams like Plymouth Canton and Plymouth Salem, the Wildcats will be matched against teams like Farmington Hills Mercy and North Farmington at the Walled Lake Central District.

The Northville District winner will advance to the Plymouth Canton Regional and take on the Temperance-Bedford winner in the first round on Nov. 25. The victor at Walled Lake Central will move on to regional play at Southfield Lathrup High School to take on the Berkley winner. The Class A final is slated for Dec. 7 at

Mustang cagers down Churchill

By NEIL GEOGHEGAN
Staff Writer

With two losses in their previous three games, the Northville cagers needed a convincing victory. Coach Ed Kritch and company got exactly that on Oct. 10 at home against Livonia Churchill, waxing the Chargers 58-34.

"It was a good win because it gave us a chance to put the (Plymouth) Salem loss behind us," Kritch said. "We got the fast-break offense going early and we were off and running."

The Mustangs, who looked so tentative against Salem five days earlier, quickly built a 10-point first-quarter lead, and then continued to increase the margin. In the first eight minutes, senior Kara McNeil notched eight points as all five Northville starters got into the scoring column. Churchill standout Chrissy Daly tallied all nine of her team's first-quarter points.

In the second, Kritch used six reserves extensively and the Mustangs led 32-21 at halftime. The starters returned in the second half and senior Karen Pump responded by hitting a pair of three-pointers. Heading into the fourth, the gap grew to 49-28.

In all, 10 of Northville's 11 players scored. Pump led the way with 14, Laura Apligian added 11 and McNeil chipped in 10.

"We beat Churchill 47-13 earlier this season, but they didn't have Daly that night," Kritch said. "They provided stiffer competition this time around."

The Mustangs (9-2 overall, 3-2 in the WLA) now head into a crucial portion of the 1991 schedule. Northville has a pair of key road games on tap against Plymouth Canton (today, Oct. 17) and Livonia Franklin (Oct. 24) — two intra-division rivals.

Northville hosts district tournaments

Kellogg Arena in Battle Creek.

In soccer, the Mustangs will provide the host site for a total of eight teams — including Novi — from Oct. 21-26. Other powerhouses like Plymouth Salem and Livonia Churchill are also in the field.

The winner of the Northville district will take on the Dearborn District winner at the Plymouth Canton Regional on Oct. 28. The Class A final will be on Nov. 9 at Bloomfield Hills Andover.

In other post-season action, both the Northville and Novi cross country squads (boys and girls) will attempt to earn a spot at the MHSAA State Meet by competing in the regional race on Oct. 26 at Marshbank Park in West Bloomfield. Only the top three finishers in the 21-team field will qualify for the state meet on Nov. 2.

The Mustang and Wildcat divers will have to qualify at the Brighton Regional if they want to compete at the state meet. The regional is scheduled for Nov. 19.

Tankers trounce Franklin, 70-23

The Mustang tankers won their sixth dual meet of the season in seven tries on Oct. 10, trouncing visiting Livonia Franklin 70-23.

Northville won 10 of 12 events against the Patriots, including two relay races: the 200-yard medley (with Megan Gobel, Teri Juhasz, Jodi Wesley and Sheila Osborne) and the 400 freestyle (with Tammy Cook, Alice Anthony, Kathy Lang and Kelly Polich).

The individual firsts came from Kathy Lang in the 200 freestyle and the 100 freestyle, Juhasz in the 200 IM, Cook in the 50 freestyle, Sarah Carney in diving, Wesley in the 100 butterfly, Daneen Lang in the 100 freestyle and Allison Sieving in the 100 backstroke. Wesley's effort surpassed the state cut (1:02.99) for the 100 butterfly.

The Mustangs also added eight second place finishes in the individual events. They include Sieving in the 200 freestyle, Daneen Lang in the 200 IM, Amy Cristof in diving, Juhasz in the 100 butterfly, Polich in the 100 freestyle, Cook in the 500 freestyle, Erica Anderson in the 100 backstroke and Katrina Heckmeyer in the 100 breaststroke.

Northville (6-1 overall, 4-1 in the WLAA) got back into action today (Oct. 17) at home against Walled Lake Western.

Undermanned harriers move to 4-2

By NEIL GEOGHEGAN
Staff Writer

Injuries, graduation losses and other setbacks don't seem to bother coach Nick Dunwoodie and his Northville cross country team.

The Mustangs entered the '91 campaign having to replace their top seven runners from the 4-2 squad of the season before. But on Oct. 10, Northville topped Farmington Harrison 21-34 in dual-meet action, raising the team's record to 4-2. And only six of the team's 13 runners were physically able to compete.

"We are pretty beat up right now, so considering that, we did very well," Dunwoodie said. "Of the six kids we ran, only three of them were 100 percent healthy."

Despite the injuries, the Mustangs put four runners in the first five slots. Laura Brown was first overall (23:09), and she was followed by Mari Kissenger in third (23:57), Adrienne Browne in fourth (23:59) and Laura Thomas in fifth (24:03). The rest of the Northville finishers were Michelle Splain in eighth (24:37) and Urvi Mujumdar in 18th (28:20).

The Mustangs also performed well on Oct. 8 at the six-team Westland John Glenn Freshman/Sophomore Invitational. Northville came in second with 41 points, 13 off the pace set by Dearborn Edsel Ford.

"We did a good job," Dunwoodie said. "Five of our seven runners placed in the top 20 and received medals."

The Mustang finishers included Brown (fourth overall, 22:51), Thomas (seventh, 23:52), Rachel Ledeo (eighth, 23:55), Roopal Vashl (10th, 24:02), Angie Groves (12th, 24:24), Erin Maloney (21st, 24:54) and Mujumdar (22nd, 26:01).

BOYS CROSS COUNTRY UPDATE: Farmington Harrison swept the first five places on Oct. 10 against the Northville boys en route to an easy 15-48 triumph.

"We knew going in that this is (Harrison's) strongest team in, maybe, 25 years," Mustang Coach Ed Gabrys said. "They had the first five spots and they were all under 18 minutes."

Despite the loss, four of Northville's top seven runners notched personal best times on the Cass-Benton Park course. Sophomore Mark Ritter was sixth overall, and his time of 18:20 was an improvement of 21 seconds. The rest of the finishers were Dlasuke Ishikawa in ninth (personal best 18:51), Jeff Zwiessler in 10th (19:04), Ron Kukalnis in 11th (personal best 19:08), Chris Smith in 12th (19:17), Nate Kimmis in 13th (personal best 19:21) and Scott Lloyd in 14th (19:31).

At the John Glenn Freshman/Sophomore Invitational on Oct. 8, the Mustangs placed sixth in a field of eight with 128 points. Ann Arbor Huron took first place with 37 points.

Northville boasted two top-20 finishers: Ritter (14th place, 18:40) and Zwiessler (19th, 18:56). The Mustangs are 2-4 overall, 1-3 in the WLAA.

Northville's soccer streak remains intact

Northville's streak against Novi in boys soccer is still intact, but it was close to coming to an end on Oct. 12 when the two neighboring teams battled to a 2-2 draw.

The Wildcats have never beaten the Mustangs in boys soccer, but Novi took a 1-0 lead into halftime and then had to stage a late-game comeback after host Northville scored two unanswered second-half goals.

"It was a very hard-fought, aggressive game," Novi Coach Larry Christoff said. "I suppose it was a moral victory for us considering that Novi's never beat them. It's a very big rivalry, and both teams wanted to win badly."

Ironically, the two teams are scheduled to meet again on Oct. 21 in the MHSAA District opener at Novi.

The Wildcats scored the only goal of the first half when Dave Zyczynski rifled a shot from 30-yards out that found the back of the Northville net. The goal was unassisted.

It remained 1-0 until the Mustangs got on the scoreboard at the 15-minute mark of the second half. Ten minutes later, Northville scored again on a rebound, to take a 2-1 lead.

But Novi quickly mounted a threat and scored the equalizer a minute later when a shot by Kevin Sitts hit a defender, was controlled by Tony Wise, and lobbed over the goalender's head from the right side of the net.

The final nine minutes were extremely hard fought, as both teams struggled to get the game-winner. The Mustangs had two corner-kicks and two throw-ins down the stretch, but couldn't cash in. Northville was also forced to play the final four minutes of the game shorthanded, after a player was disqualified after receiving his second yellow card.

The Mustangs had a 10-8 shots on goal advantage in the match.

"(Northville) has a very good team, so we were happy with the outcome, even though it was undecided," Christoff said. "We'll have to break the tie on Oct. 21."

Mustang Coach Bob Paul was unavailable for comment.

Recreation Briefs

HORSE SHOW WINNER: Two Northville teenage sisters had a big weekend at the annual Youth Show sponsored by the Michigan Horse Show Association at the Michigan State Fairgrounds.

Brooke Horan, a sophomore at Northville High School, competed in the Quarter Horse Showmanship competition and won first prize, outdistancing 57 others from across Canada and the U.S. Horan also competes on the Northville High School Equestrian team and is undefeated this year in four showmanship events. Her horse Forged Impression was the Youth World Champion Showmanship Quarter Horse in 1990.

Her younger sister — Rhianna Horan, an eighth-grader at Meads Mill Middle School — competed in the Quarter Horse Hunt Seal competition and won second place out of 59 contestants. This is the first year on the quarterhorse show circuit for Rhianna and her 5-year-old mare Shanannas Dee Bar.

Both Horan sisters will compete this month at the American Quarter Horse Congress, an international competition held on Columbus, Ohio.

HITTING LEAGUE UPDATE: Northville High School hitters pulled out the standings of area schools in the hitting league at Grand Slam USA in Novi with 273 points.

Individually, Steve Christenson of Northville leads the league with 87 points, followed closely by teammate Joe Staknis (86 points). The Novi I team is in fourth place (179 points) and Novi II is in 10th (140 points).

Northville's No. 1 singles player Diane Vogt rips a backhand.

Netters place 5th at regional meet

"Our doubles teams did exceptionally well," Filkin said. "As for the singles, we had some tough draws and it ended up hurting our final point total."

MHSAA REGIONALS: The highlight for Northville at the 14-team regional was the play of Gudritz at No. 4. Seeded fourth, Gudritz won her first two matches rather easily and then pulled off one of the biggest upsets of the entire event when she knocked off top-seeded Tona Schaverina of West Bloomfield in three tough sets (6-3, 5-7, 6-1). In the finals, however, Gudritz fell to Novi's Kristen Patee 6-4, 2-6, 3-6.

"Molly played exceptionally well," Filkin said. "She played, overall, the best tennis she's played all season."

The only other Northville flight to make it to the semifinal round was Green and Bosscher at No. 1 doubles. They were seeded fourth, but lost to Perry and Richa of Stevenson again, 6-4, 7-6 (7-2). Buttlieg and Woodsum at No. 2 as well as Lisa Wagner and Jenny McCormick at No. 3 each won two matches before being eliminated.

CHARTER TOWNSHIP OF NORTHVILLE AMENDMENT TO ZONING ORDINANCE 94-09-91

THE CHARTER TOWNSHIP OF NORTHVILLE ORDAINS:

PART 1. The Charter Township of Northville Zoning Ordinance No. 94 as amended is hereby further amended by amending Article XIV, RD RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT DISTRICT, Section 2.2 DEFINITIONS, Section 18.14 OFF-STREET LOADING AND UNLOADING, Section 17.1 LIMITING HEIGHT, BULK, DENSITY AND AREA BY LAND USE.

THE CHARTER TOWNSHIP OF NORTHVILLE ORDAINS:

Section 1 Amendment to add paragraphs 78a. and 78b. to Section 2.2 DEFINITIONS

78a. Restaurant, Carry-Out: a restaurant for the selling of food or beverage which is served in disposable containers or wrappers for consumption primarily off the premises.

78b. Restaurant, Drive-In: a restaurant at which patrons are served from a drive-in window, by employees serving patrons while in a motor vehicle or at which consumption of food takes place within the motor vehicle on the premises.

Section 1 Amendment to ARTICLE XIV RD RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT DISTRICT

PREAMBLE:

The RD Research and Development Districts are designed to provide for research and development uses, corporate and professional offices, and low intensity industrial uses which have limited impact outside of the industrial building. The RD District is intended to permit uses which manufacture, process, package, assemble or treat finished or semifinished products from previously prepared material. The processing of raw materials for finished products or for shipment in bulk form to be used in an industrial operation at another location, shall not be permitted. This District also permits accessory uses, intended for employees and patrons of the principal permitted uses, which support and complement the principal uses, when meeting the standards set forth herein.

Section 14.1 PRINCIPAL USES PERMITTED.

In a RD Research and Development District, no land shall be used and no building shall be erected except for one or more of the following specified uses, unless otherwise provided in this Ordinance.

1. Uses conducting research, design, testing and pilot or experimental product development.
2. Vocational schools and other types of technical training facilities.
3. Computer programming, data processing and other computer related services.
4. Office buildings for any of the following occupations: corporate, administrative, professional, accounting, writing, clerical, stenographic, drafting, reproduction, and sales.
5. Medical offices and clinics including auxiliary or accessory laboratories.
6. Banks, credit unions, savings and loan associations, investment companies, brokerage firms and similar financial institutions, including automatic teller machines as a principal or accessory use.
7. Any of the following industrial uses when conducted wholly within a completely enclosed building:
 - a. The manufacture, compounding, processing, packaging or treatment, using previously prepared materials, of such products as: bakery goods, candy, cosmetics, pharmaceuticals, toiletries, food products, hardware and cutlery.
 - b. The manufacture, compounding, assembling or treatment of articles of merchandise from the following previously prepared materials: canvas, cellophane, cloth, cork, leathers, felt, fiber, fur, glass, hair, horn, leather, paper, plastics, precious or semiprecious metals or stones, metal or sheet metal (excluding large stamping such as automobile fenders or bodies), shell, textiles, tobacco, wax, wire, wood (excluding saw and planing mills) and yarns.
 - c. Manufacture or assembly of electrical appliances, electronic instruments, and devices, radios and phonographs.
8. Laboratories — experimental, film or testing.
9. Municipal buildings and uses.
10. Accessory structures and uses customarily incident to any principal uses permitted, provided the accessory uses occupy a maximum of twenty-five (25%) of the building.

Section 14.2 ACCESSORY USES PERMITTED SUBJECT TO SPECIAL CONDITIONS:

The following accessory uses and buildings developed in connection with the principal uses listed in paragraphs 1 through 5 of Section 14.1 above may be permitted in RD Districts of at least sixty (60) acres in size, provided a maximum ten percent (10%) of the total land area in the District is utilized for accessory uses, twenty (20) acres have been developed or are under construction for principal uses permitted, and the standards of Sections 14.3 and 14.4 are met.

1. Hotels, motels and related display, convention and restaurant facilities.
2. Retail business, service and personal service establishments such as: news stands, convenience stores, greeting card shops, repair shops (watches, radio, television, shoe, etc.), tailor shops, beauty parlors or barber shops, laundry or dry cleaning pick-up, drop-off establishment without processing, travel agencies, printing or photographic reproduction, photographic, art or interior decorating studios, provided such uses are planned for the employees and patrons of, and developed integrally within or as part of, a principal building.
3. Theaters, corporate fitness centers, health spas, racquetball clubs, bowling alleys or similar forms of indoor recreation intended for employees of principal permitted uses. A maximum of ten percent (10%) of the total floor area devoted to such a use may be used for a cafeteria or restaurant. The Planning Commission may permit indoor recreational facilities in a separate building accessory to a principal use, provided required on-site parking is provided.
4. Day care facilities.
5. Heliports at a location approved by the Planning Commission, at least one thousand (1,000) feet from residential districts, with landscaping to buffer views from residential uses.
6. Restaurants or other places serving food or beverage, but not including drive-in restaurants.
7. Carry-out restaurants, provided that all customer access is located inside of the building.

Section 14.3 STANDARDS FOR ACCESSORY USES

Permitted accessory uses shall be subject to the following conditions:

1. Such uses shall be permitted only in a multi-story building which contains at least one (1) principal permitted use.
2. The total area devoted to accessory uses in a building shall not exceed twenty-five percent (25%) of the total floor area of the building.

five percent (25%) of the total floor area of the building.

3. All customer entrances shall be on the interior of the principal building.

4. All accessory uses shall provide off-street parking as required by Section 18.12 OFF-STREET PARKING REQUIREMENTS provided the Planning Commission may reduce the required number of spaces for the accessory use(s) by up to fifty percent (50%), depending upon the nature of the accessory use.

Section 14.4 REQUIRED CONDITIONS

Uses permitted in Section 14.1 through Section 14.3 shall be subject to the following conditions:

1. Site plan review: All uses shall receive site plan review and approval by the Planning Commission prior to the issuance of any building permit.
2. A maximum of three (3) exterior truck docks shall be permitted for loading and unloading spaces per building.
3. Landscaping: All parking and loading areas shall be buffered from public streets by berms, landscaping and/or walls.
4. Storage and Performance Standards: The outdoor storage of goods or materials shall be prohibited. Any use established in the RD District shall be operated so as to comply with the performance standards set forth hereinafter in ARTICLE XVIII — GENERAL PROVISIONS, Section 18.15 PERFORMANCE STANDARDS. In addition, the following uses or similar uses which may create unusual danger for fire, explosion, toxic or noxious matter, radiation or which may cause noxious, offensive, unhealthful or harmful odors, fumes, dust, smoke, light, waste, noise or vibration shall be considered as not meeting the minimum standards of this Ordinance as to performance and potential negative impact on surrounding properties:
 - a. Processing of corrosive acid, cement, lime, gypsum or plaster.
 - b. Distillation of bone, tar, petroleum refuse, grain or wood.
 - c. Processing or storage of explosives.
 - d. Processing of fertilizer or storage of compost.
 - e. Processing of products from animal refuse or offal including glue, size or gelatine.
5. Processes using steam or board hammers or forging presses.
6. Tanning, curing or storage of skins or hides.
7. Processing of sulphurous, sulfuric, nitric, picric, carboic, hydrochloric or other corrosive acid.
8. Biological laboratories engaging in genetic research.
9. Exterior Facades and Screening.

a. All exterior building facades and any accessory buildings shall be of the same finish material as the front facade of the main building and all material used shall be recognized as finished materials.

b. The exterior finish of the buildings shall be harmonious with the surroundings and in character with the existing man-made or natural environment. Bright, pastel colors shall not be permitted as the predominant color and shall not be used for any significant features. Reflective glass shall not be the predominant exterior material.

c. Elevators, stairways, tanks, heating and air conditioning equipment, vents, ducts, pipes and other similar apparatus shall be screened from view by a penthouse or structure equal in height to the height of the equipment being screened, and the outside finish building material of such penthouse or structure shall be the same as, or complementary to, the finish material on the facade of the building to which it is attached.

4. Public Roads.

All zoning lots shall have frontage on a public street. The division of land for purposes of separating parcels which would have access to private easements shall not be permitted in this district.

SECTION 14.5 AREA AND BULK REQUIREMENTS:

See ARTICLE XVII — SCHEDULE OF REGULATIONS limiting the height and bulk of buildings, the minimum size of lot by permitted land use and providing minimum yard setback requirements.

Section 1 Amendment to change 3 c of Section 18.14 OFF-STREET LOADING AND UNLOADING

3. c. All spaces shall be provided off-street in the rear yard or interior side yard and in no instance shall such spaces or access to the building for loading/unloading be permitted in a front yard. In those instances where exterior side yards abut an Industrial District across a public or private street, loading and unloading may take place in said exterior side yard when the setback is equal to at least fifty (50) feet.

Mall walking grows in popularity

By STEVE KELLMAN
Staff Writer

As the leaves turn color and the air turns cold, many people turn away from their regular exercise schedule. The chill in the air, and the bundles of clothing that must be worn for the daily walk around the block, conspire to turn even the most dedicated perambulator into a couch potato for the winter.

So where does a devoted walker go to take in a few laps when the weather takes a turn for the worse?

How about hitting the mall? Mall walking is becoming more popular than ever at Twelve Oaks Mall in Novi, 27500 Novi Road. With more than 2,000 registered walkers already, the mall's management will begin offering monthly programs geared to walkers in particular, starting Tuesday, Oct. 29.

The new program is an acknowledgement of the increased popularity of mall walking. "We've never had a really formal walking program," said Marketing Director Elaine Kah. "We've just allowed people to come in and register, and sign a waiver for liability purposes. And we've got over 2,000 people registered. . . . Some of our most avid walkers are here every day."

Now those walkers can learn while they burn some calories, by participating in the monthly courses.

"We've gotten together with the University of Michigan Health Centers, and we're going to actually start doing formalized monthly programs for them in the mornings where we'll have speakers talking about different health-related and walking topics," Kah said. "On the kickoff, they'll speak about the proper shoes and walking warm-ups and cool-downs, and all the things that relate."

The kickoff celebration for the Twelve Oaks Walkers will be held Tuesday, Oct. 29 at 9 a.m. In the mall's center court, Dr. Raymond Hobbs, a University of Michigan Health Centers internist and gerontologist, will discuss various aspects of walking and answer health-related questions.

Walkers will be given calendars to log their miles. Incentives and achievement awards will be incorporated into the program to encourage progress.

The following programs will be held the second Tuesday of each month between 9-10 a.m. Speakers from University of Michigan MedSport will discuss preventing cancer through diet Nov. 12 and healthy holiday eating Dec. 10.

Twelve Oaks opens its doors to walkers at 8 a.m. Monday through Saturday and 10 a.m. Sunday. The upper level track is eight-tenths of a mile long, while the lower track measures a half mile.

Twelve Oaks is located in Novi at I-96 and Novi Road. The mall is open to shoppers Monday through Saturday between 10 a.m.-9 p.m., and Sunday between noon-6 p.m.

Halloween Run scheduled at OCC

A witch abandons her broom and sprints down the path. A skeleton skips the warm-up, not having to worry about muscle pulls.

These are some of the things you may see at the "Horrible Halloween Three-Mile Run," a benefit event for Easter Seals beginning at 9 a.m. on the Orchard Ridge Campus of Oakland Community College on Oct. 27.

Persons of all age are invited to participate in the three-mile event or the "Monster Fun Run." First-place finishers in the three-mile run will win a round-trip ticket on Northwest Airlines for any place in the continental U.S. All participants in the "Monster Mile" will receive an award or ribbon and all kids under 12 will receive a trophy. Following the race there will be costume judging, music and refreshments.

The entry fee is $8. The first 400 adults, age 13 and over, will receive a free T-shirt. For more information, call 471-8095.

AEROBIC FITNESS: Aerobic Fitness is a complete one-hour exercise program designed to improve overall fitness, increase endurance, strengthen and tone muscles. Morning and evening classes are now available and a new session starts Oct. 21.

Six-week classes run continually throughout the year. Fee is $36 for two classes per week; $48 for three classes and $58 for unlimited classes. For locations and schedules, call 348-1280.

JOAN AKEY'S FITNESS CLASS: Joan Akey's Fitness Class is now being offered on Mondays (9-10 a.m.) and Thursdays (8:45-9:45 a.m.) at the Northville Community Center.

This low-impact fitness session uses all new techniques with lively upbeat exercises choreographed to popular music. This class is designed to work every inch of your body, as well as promote your well-being.

For registration information, call Joan Akey at 981-6605.

OPEN SWIMMING OFFERED: Northville Recreation Department offers open swimming at the Northville High School pool on Mondays and Wednesdays from 7:15-8:15 p.m., and on Saturdays from 2:45-3:45 p.m. A lap swim will also be offered on Mondays and Wednesday from 8:15-9:15 p.m. Locker rooms and showers are available. The fee is $1 per person. For more information, call 349-0203.

NEW ATTITUDE AEROBICS: Northville Community Recreation is expanding its fitness program beginning this fall. In addition to the regular high/low aerobics workout, New Attitude Aerobics is offering three new exercise opportunities: "Light-n-Low Aerobics" for beginners and impact-conscious exercisers; a "Circuit Workout" using free weights, step-bench etc.; and a 6 a.m. "Eye-Opener Circuit Workout."

For more information, call 349-0203 or 348-3120.

YOGA CLASSES: Seven-week yoga classes are being offered in Northville. Diane Siegel-Divita, past president of the Yoga Association of Greater Detroit, is the instructor.

The classes will be offered on Thursdays (7-8:30 p.m.) and now Mondays (7-8:30 p.m.) at the Northville American Legion Hall. Yoga effectively trains the body to develop strength, flexibility and balance.

Cost is $28. For more information, call Siegel-Divita at 344-0928.

JAZZERCISE CLASSES OFFERED: Juli Huddleston has started Jazzercise classes in Novi this month. A unique combination of effective exercise, jazz-movements and popular music, Jazzercise is the number-one fitness program in the world.

The 60-65 minute class includes warm-up, a dance-aerobic segment followed by a cool-down, muscle-toning and flexibility exercises and a final cool-down.

Huddleston offers classes on Monday, Wednesday and Friday mornings at 9:30 a.m. and Mondays through Thursday at 5:45 p.m. at Grand Slam USA in Novi. There is a babysitter at all of the classes for a small fee.

For more information, call 426-9096.

SCHOOLCRAFT HEALTH CLUB: If you're thinking of joining a health club, Schoolcraft College has something for you.

The Livonia Junior college is offering a Health Club and a Gym and Swim program. The health club is designed for families to enjoy unstructured activity in a modern, fully equipped physical education facility. A nominal fee of $3 is charged per visit and you will have the use of gyms, racquetball courts, weight machines and saunas. A membership fee of $25 per individual or $65 per family will cover the entire fall session. The club meets on Sundays from 1-5 p.m. for 26 Sundays.

The Gym and Swim program is offered on Thursdays and on Saturdays from 8 a.m.-noon. This program costs $3 per visit on Thursday and

President's Council dines White House style

Friday the 13th — what a lucky day for me! Little did I know that I was going to embark on the most impressive lunch of my career.

Friday morning at our President's Council meeting, Arnold Schwarzenegger announced to the 12 council members present that we would have an intimate lunch with the President and Mrs. Bush at the White House.

At noon we entered the east wing of the White House leading to the Roosevelt Dining Room. The focal point of the beautiful, stately room was a long wood table dressed in white linen, with deep blue and gold rimmed presidential china, understated crystal and flatware, and three lovely flower arrangements of yellow and red.

As I glanced at the table I noticed the place cards. President and Mrs. Bush would be seated across from one another at the center and I would be seated next to Mrs. Bush and across from Arnold, kitty-corner to President Bush.

Our intimate lunch started informally. Shooting the breeze — we call it.

Twenty minutes later an aide to the president leaned over and asked, "Mr. President, can I let them in now?" With that, a swarm of media with large cameras and huge microphones on long stems hovered over the president — a short news conference concerning the president's Council on Physical Fitness and Sports.

Back to lunch. At his point the president cheerfully asked, "Well, what have all you council members been accomplishing lately? Let's make this a working lunch." With that, Andrew Card, deputy chief of staff, pulled out his trusty pen and paper.

We started by discussing the council's mission and goals. Schwarzenegger talked about our present priority to concentrate on youth fitness. Schwarzenegger is in the midst of a 50-state tour to help improve youth fitness through the return to quality daily physical education classes.

"We must get the parents involved and develop innovative community programs," Schwarzenegger said. Schwarzenegger, along with the President's Council, has already visited 26 states. Michigan will be No. 27 as Schwarzenegger will be in Detroit Nov. 12.

At each state we visit with the governor, state legislators, educators, fitness leaders, parents and others to establish a strategy to help reverse the downward trend in youth fitness. President Bush expressed his concern with drug problems and how exercise will help the situation by giving children higher self-esteem. We must get creative in the way exercise is presented to the youth. We all agreed motivation is the bottom line.

President Bush offered to help in any way he could to get our youth physically fit. "Our children are this country's greatest asset — they are our future," the president said.

As we continued on to the other subjects of fitness, we discussed our next priority — senior fitness. Since this age group is the fastest-growing population in the United States, Dr. Cory Sen Vass, a fellow member of the President's Council, talked about her new project called "Grand Time Striders," developed by T. George Harris, editor in chief of the Children's Better Health Institute.

The concept is for older adults and children to team up to accumulate walking miles in order to win an award. The two team members can adopt each other through this program.

The President's Council will also plan state tours next year to develop other programs similar to Dr. Sen Vass for older adults.

We talked about Health People 2000, a National Health Promotion and Disease Prevention Objective produced by the United States Department of Health and Human Services. This publication contains a national strategy for significantly improving the health of our country in the future. It deals with the prevention of major chronic illnesses, injuries and infectious diseases.

Arnold then introduced our new executive director of the President's Council, Capt. John Butterfield. Butterfield is a 30-year Navy veteran who has been a consultant/executive director in developing major health and fitness programs.

Butterfield and I were teammates in the recent Nike Capital Challenge Run. It was a piece of cake for Butterfield, who is a true marathon runner.

Being the grand lady she is, Mrs. Bush took great interest in every word said. I believe she truly cares about our council. Within the first two minutes of our conversation, she informed me of her daily exercise routine. What a lady! We had such an enthusiastic talk — she is so full of life.

President Bush, as always, I find to be dynamic, charismatic and, most of all, caring. The fact that he remembered me from previous meetings astounded me.

We are fortunate to have Arnold Schwarzenegger as chairman of the President's Council — he is an involved and dedicated leader. He has already embarked on the most ambitious agenda in the council's 35-year history.

Having a lengthy direct dialogue with President and Mrs. Bush was an experience of a lifetime. I certainly watched my manners while I ate lunch.

Mrs. Bush noticed that I didn't belong to the "clean plate club."

Myrna Partrich, co-owner of The Workout Company of Bloomfield Township and a member of the President's Council on Physical Fitness, is happy to answer any questions readers may have regarding exercise. Please send those questions to: Sports Department, 805 E. Maple, Birmingham, 48009.

Buying a new home gets a little easier

By James M. Woodard
Copley News Service

The "window of opportunity" for home buyers is opening wider in many regions of the country.

In many cases, first-time buyers are successfully taking the big step into home ownership. The key reasons for the widening opportunities are very low home mortgage interest rates, new and creative loan types, lowering home prices in many areas and a pentup demand for homes by purchasers who have long been waiting for the right conditions.

Some of today's first-time home buyers are combining new and innovative mortgage loans with financial assistance from a family member.

"We're selling an increasing number of homes to first-time buyers," said a particularly active broker. "Some of those buyers produce a 'gift letter' from a parent, indicating that the parent will give (not loan) an amount of money toward the down payment for the couple's first home. This makes it easier for the buyer to qualify for a mortgage loan."

One increasingly popular loan, especially with first-time home buyers, is the Fanny Mae two-step loan, according to Tom Cross, sales manager for 1st Nationwide Bank — a subsidiary of Ford Motor Co.

The two-step loan provides a low fixed interest rate for the first seven years, then adjusts to the prevailing rate at that time. It then remains fixed for the remainder of a 30-year term.

Another very favorable loan for first-time buyers is a convertible adjustable mortgage loan, Cross said. This loan starts at a low interest rate — currently about 7 percent. The rate is adjusted annually, but may be converted to a fixed-rate loan anytime after the first 13 months. The new fixed-rate interest will be at the prevailing rate at the time of conversion.

With such a low starting interest rate, many more families now can qualify for home financing.

HOME DESIGNS

Bright and compact highlight Hyacinth 1

By James McAlexander
Copley News Service

Bright, compact and efficient, the Hyacinth 1 makes excellent use of space and offers several features not often found in smaller homes. The most notable of these are a guest suite, an electronic security center, three bathrooms and a recycling center.

The big country kitchen has a wide garden window and a full pantry with plenty of room for storing home-preserved fruits and vegetables. Friends and neighbors will love dropping by to sit around the kitchen table and chat. The range and oven are built into an eating bar that borders on the dining room. Handy for warming and serving a hurry-up can of soup, it also doubles as a buffet for more formal meals.

In response to an increasing interest in preserving the environment, a recycling center is built into one wall, with counter space and cupboards over the passthrough bins. Family members will appreciate the ease of placing cans, bottles, plastic or whatever in the bins during kitchen cleanup without stepping outside. Later, when the time comes to bundle and bag items for the recycler, the work can be done on the other side of the bins, in the garage.

By combining the dining and living rooms, the designers have given the area, and thus the whole home, a more spacious feeling than would be the case with two smaller rooms. Some families may wish to totally forgo formality and outfit this window-brightened area as a large family room, including a home entertainment and/or computer center. Triple sliding-glass doors open onto a small deck.

The master bedroom has a bay window, a triangular-shape walk-in closet and a shower with no tub for easier and safer access. The other bedrooms are located at the opposite end of the house. A shared oversize tub, bathed in natural light from above, is accessible from both the main bathroom and another that serves the small guest suite.

Utilities are hidden behind pocket doors in a room that could be used for guests, hobbies, sewing, exercise or even as an office.

For a study plan of the Hyacinth 1330-41, send $7.50 to Landmark Designs, c/o HomeTown Newspapers, 223 E. Grand River Ave., Howell, MI 48843. (Be sure to specify plan name and number when ordering.)

ETCH IT

Using glass engraving techniques, you can create personalized designs

By ALICIA GARRISON

In just a few minutes, you can turn a plain-looking piece of glass into a distinct work of art through a fun and easy process known as glass etching.

You don't have to be a skilled crafter to etch glass because the technique is so simple to do—and it's relatively inexpensive.

Glass etching does not involve the use of a diamond-tipped chisel, as most people think.

"That technique is glass engraving," said Laura Pope, owner of Laura's Craft Shop in downtown Brighton. "Glass etching is a design that is embedded into the glass by using an etching cream (available at most craft stores)."

Etching designs can be transferred to both glass and mirror. It is commonly used to personalize glassware, decorate mirrors, and makes great Christmas ornaments—use your imagination.

"Some people even use it to decorate the side light windows of their front doors," Pope said.

All you'll need to get started is some glass etching cream (Armour Etch sells jars for approximately $4.75), a rub-on stencil (they sell for approximately $3.25; Rub 'n' Etch and Rub 'n' Stencil are popular manufacturers), a cheap paint brush, glass cleaner, masking tape and a pair of plastic gloves (optional).

Most craft stores offer a wide variety of rub-on stencils for etching. Nearly 36 patterns are in stock at Laura's Craft Shop, 427 W. Main St. Instructions are included in the package.

Once you've gathered your materials, you can begin. Follow these simple steps:

1. Clean your glass or mirror with a non-flaming solvent. Let it dry thoroughly.

2. Cut out the stencil design of your choice. Keep the stencil side (dark blue side) facing down on the white backing sheet until ready to use.

3. Measure to determine where you want the stencil to appear on your glass or mirror.

4. Separate the stencil from the backing sheet, and place it on the glass with the dark blue side touching the glass.

5. Remove the carrier sheet.

6. Secure the stencil in place by putting masking tape all around the edges of the stencil (don't cover open design spaces).

7. Use wooden applicator (comes with rub-on stencil) or popsicle stick and rub stencil with smooth, even strokes (don't dig into the stencil) to transfer it onto glass or mirror. Be sure to rub all areas, especially fine lines and the stencil under the taped edges.

Getting rid of graffiti

By Gene Gary
Copley News Service

HOW TO

Q. We have a concrete retaining wall at the front of our hillside lot that is at the street level and has become the target of some local neighborhood pranksters. It is now covered with very objectionable graffiti written in spray paint. Is there any way we can remove this from the concrete, or will we have to paint over these obscenities?—M.Z.

A. There are a number of commercial products that are suitable for removing spray-paint and feltip markings from concrete surfaces. You may have to experiment with several before finding the right formula for removal of the particular substance that was used to deface your wall.

It is important that you follow manufacturer's instructions carefully. If you are not successful in locating a commercial product, you can try using methylene chloride.

Be sure and wear protective clothing and use extreme care to avoid splashing. Brush the methylene chloride onto the surface, wait two minutes and rinse with water during continued brushing. Oxalic acid or hydrogen peroxide can be used to help bleach out some of the pigment from concrete pores.

Solutions of sodium hydroxide, xylene or methyl ethyl ketone also are helpful in removing graffiti. Sometimes effective cleaning can be achieved with water blasting and sandblasting.

If you are successful in removing the graffiti, apply an anti-graffiti coating or sealer to the cleaned surface to prevent future problems. These surface treatments prevent spray paint and other graffiti substances from entering the pores of the concrete and facilitate the removal of stains should the problem reoccur.

Aliphatic urethanes are considered the best anti-graffiti coatings because of their resistance to solvents, yellowing and abrasion.

Solvents such as mineral spirits or methyl ethyl ketone can remove most graffiti from an aliphatic polyurethane without compromising the urethane coating.

Easier new home buying

"The key to successfully purchasing a home in today's market is education," Cross said. "Buyers should know precisely what they're getting into. Homes, prices and financing options should be carefully studied."

Cross noted that a few years ago some mortgage loan representatives were paid extra fees to push and sell negative amortization loans. These are loans where the balance can increase, not decrease, each month. They were seldom understood by borrowers and were particularly profitable for lenders.

It definitely pays to shop, learn and understand before signing a home-loan document.

Q. Is a computer program available that provides up-to-date information on real estate taxes?

A. Yes, several. Of the newly offered software of this type, the best I've seen is a program called "Ask Rich Robinson." It provides concise but complete information on 38 real estate tax categories—e.g., personal residence, exchanges, installment sales.

Richard Robinson, CPA, has been specializing in real estate tax work for many years. He has conducted seminars on the subject throughout the country. If you are interested in his new software package, write to him at P.O. Box 929, Fredericksburg, TX 78624.

Q. For a home buyer, where is the most affordable and least affordable place to live?

A. According to a recent study by the National Association of Home Builders, the most affordable regions are in the Midwest and South. The least affordable are in the West and Northeast.

As for cities, the least affordable is San Francisco, where the median home price is $279,000 and median family income is $49,900.

The most affordable city is Saginaw, Mich., where the median home price is $61,000 and median family income is $39,700.

Send inquiries to James M. Woodard, Copley News Service, P.O. Box 190, San Diego, CA 92112-0190.

Steps for engraving your mirrors or glass

8. Carefully remove masking tape and slowly peel off the carrier sheet. If a portion of the stencil did not adhere to the glass, retape the carrier sheet and re-rub the area.

9. Gently rub stencil area with backing sheet to clean exposed glass before etching.

10. Place masking tape around the entire border of design to prevent cream from spilling over the stencil area. There should not be any exposed glass between the stencil and taped border.

11. Put on plastic gloves (optional) and apply a thick layer of etching cream to the stenciled glass with brush. Stay within the taped area, and distribute cream evenly.

12. Leave cream on for one minute.

13. Rinse off all cream and stenciling. This will work best by a sink. Wet brush with warm running water and gently wipe away particles. When all of the cream is washed off, you can submerge entire glass under running water.

14. Remove any remaining tape or stencil.

15. Clean glass or mirror thoroughly with glass cleaner.

You're done.

"Once the cream is embedded into the glass, it will not come off," Pope said. "It can even be used in the dishwasher."

Streaking can occur, Pope said, but it is usually the fault of the glass or mirror because they have imperfections throughout.

"Not using enough masking tape to protect the glass or mirror when rinsing is about the only mistake you can make," she said. "Masking tape is cheap—use it."

Glass etching classes are available at Laura's Craft Shop. Call 313-227-9100 for a schedule. "How-To" videos are also available for rent.

In no time at all, you'll be going through your house to look for old things you can make new and beautiful, Pope said.

Black Memorabilia from Germany

By James G. McCollam
Copley News Service

ANTIQUES

Q. I have a decorative dish depicting two black children. It is marked "K.P.M." and "Made in Germany." Can you identify the maker and estimate its value?

land.

It would be difficult to select one of these as being better in quality and workmanship. If there is any difference in price, it is based on familiarity with the name "Haviland."

A. This Black Memorabilia dish was made by the Krister Porzellan Manufaktur in Waldenberg, Germany during the early 1900s. It would probably sell for about $75 to $85.

Q. The mark is on the bottom of each piece of a seven-piece toilet set (pitcher, bowl, soap dish, etc.). Can you identify the maker and determine the vintage? I would also like to know its value.

K.T.&K.
CHINA

A. Your toilet set was made by Knowles, Taylor & Knowles Co. in East Liverpool, Ohio, around the turn of the century. It would probably sell for $700 to $800 in good condition.

LIMOGES PORCELAIN

By far the best-known company producing fine tableware in the Limoges area of France was Haviland & Co., founded in 1842 by an American, David Haviland. In the beginning, his company simply decorated porcelain made by native French potters. By 1865, he was producing his own porcelain. Most of his wares were marked "Haviland & Co."

In addition to David Haviland, there were dozens of others like Wm. Guerin & Co., Delinieres Co., Charles Ahrenfeldt, J. Pouyat, Tressemannes & Vogt, Martial Redon, A. Laternier, not to mention David's son, Theodore, and his nephew, Charles Field Haviland.

There was an enormous quantity of Limoges china imported to the United States between 1880 to 1920. This provides a generous supply of tableware and decorative items for any collector's choice.

We might examine some typical prices of Limoges. We find a chocolate pot marked "Haviland & Co." The price is $135. There is also one marked "J. Pouyat" decorated with red roses listed for $130. Next is one marked "D. & C."

(Delinieres Co.) with hand-painted cherries; it is listed at $225. One bearing the logo "T. & V." (Tressemannes & Vogt) decorated with purple grapes is offered at $215.

This is not to suggest that Delinieres is always more valuable than Haviland. The only conclusion that should be drawn is that the higher-priced items were also the most attractively decorated.

There is one situation that might cause some confusion. During World War II, Theodore Haviland set up operations for the United States, so don't be surprised when you encounter Haviland china marked "Made in USA." Item for item, American Haviland is worth about half as much as French Haviland.

Q: Which Light Bulb Gives More Light?

A: Both give equal amounts of light—but the one on the right uses one-fourth of the energy, and over its lifetime can cut $30 off your electricity bill and last nine to 13 times longer, than the one on the left.

John Colizzi, owner of the Sawmill, is joined by store manager Chris Riley

The Sawmill can do it all in wood

By RICK BYRNE
Copy Editor

It's hard being everything to everybody, but when it comes to wood-working, The Sawmill in Northville is making a game effort.

The store began several years ago as a retailer of unfinished furniture. That in itself is nothing new. What is new is that The Sawmill has grown immensely. Owner John Colizzi has broadened not only the line of items sold at the retail store, but has branched out into other areas as well.

"We're not just a place where you can go and buy an inexpensive piece of furniture and take it home and paint it anymore," he says.

The store stocks everything from $30 chairs to $400-$500 cherry chairs, from solid oak tables costing $169 to ones costing $2,000.

"Even our inexpensive pieces are good furniture," Colizzi says.

And while most unfinished furniture stores have limited themselves to Early American style, there is no limit to the styles you can find at The Sawmill. That's because the store can custom build and design a piece to meet the needs and desires of the customer.

The company even builds and sells such small items as napkin holders and paper towel dispensers.

"We have built everything," Colizzi says with confidence, and he has the pictures to prove it.

"We recently did a 25-foot conference table for a large truck company," Colizzi says. "We contracted out the manufacture of it, but we did all the design work."

The company also built and 18-foot cross that adorns the wall in-

More Detroit suburban travelers

The SPRING Newspapers' circulation more than doubles the daily suburban circulation of either The Detroit News or Free Press.

In fact, SPRING's suburban circulation is greater than the two metro dailies' combined.

And that's not all.

According to the 1991 Belden study, SPRING reaches more of the affluent suburban shoppers who have more—and spend more.
► 146,100 more suburban vacationers than the daily News (55,400 more than the Free Press).

► 91,800 more suburban purchasers of airline tickets than The News (9,700 more than the Free Press).

► 80,700 (and 7,900) more suburban business travelers.

More suburban boat owners, travel agent customers...

Simply put, one order in SPRING delivers more.
Shouldn't you be advertising in SPRING more?

Northville's Sawmill takes on many jobs

side the Novi Faith Community Church. Perhaps the oddest request came from a magician, who had The Sawmill build him a trunk with a trap door in it.

"I don't know how he used it," Colizzi says.

Executive offices have become a large part of The Sawmill's business, too.

"Commercial work is one of the areas we're going after aggressively," Colizzi says. "We'll custom-build wall units to be higher, deeper or wider to accommodate various uses."

The Sawmill is also interested in helping people furnish in-home offices.

"We can do it very inexpensively," says Colizzi. "Home offices usually don't have a budget for that kind of thing. People just take what they can find and adjust it."

Refinishing jobs bring satisfaction for Colizzi as well, if for no other reason than they make interesting stories.

"We had an individual bring in a rockers that he had had since he was in college," Colizzi says. "He thought it was junk. It was missing half the back, and it was just a mess. He spent $400 on it, and it came out beautifully. It brought back memories of college for him."

Another customer brought in an old secretary that he liked. Because it was in terrible condition, he figured it was of little value. After some research, however, Colizzi discovered it was a valuable Civil War-era antique.

"We showed them secret compartments they didn't even know were in it," says Colizzi. "Now that it's fully restored, it's probably worth about $5,000."

Keeping in close touch with customers is something Colizzi takes pride in. The store at 316 N. Center St. has a very casual atmosphere. Even the family dog sometimes hangs around.

"We have very personable atmosphere, and there isn't any high pressure," Colizzi says. "It's a family business. We pride ourselves on being a small, family business."

Knock on wood.

Mary DiPaolo/Focus: Small Business

Don't give away all your business

If there's a business owner on this planet who hasn't been asked to do something for nothing by a friend or family member, I'd sure like to meet that person.

Realistically, anyone who owns a business and does a halfway decent job of it must eventually face up to the fact that business-related "freebies" will be expected from him sooner or later.

The only problem is that time is money for any business owner and, far too often, friends and relatives are the first to forget that. The good news is that anyone in business for himself can avoid unfriendly feuds by developing tactful strategies to "fend off the freeloaders."

Just the other night I was visiting the home of a friend whose mother recently passed away. When my friend's uncle and I were introduced, he immediately began asking me a series of questions about starting his own business.

After several minutes, I realized that our brief encounter could easily turn into a two-hour consultation if I let it.

Instead of worrying about how to extricate myself gracefully from the situation, I responded in a way I knew would leave no harsh feelings. As the following strategies have "worked" for me over the years, so they can work for you, too.

Because the line between professional and personal service isn't always clear at times, it remains the responsibility of the business owner to define it. And yes, even though it's difficult in certain situations both parties will be better off in the long run.

One strategy you can use to maintain that line includes asking the person involved if he is seeking your service(s) as a friend or as a professional. By doing so, you help set the proper tone for what is being requested.

As an example, a caterer who is asked "as a friend" to bring an entree to an upcoming social function will know immediately what he is in a position to offer — without blowing his personal budget (and relationship) in the process.

Next, when giving advice, make clear your position when a few simple questions begin to lead to several complicated ones. Here, you can say something like, "Since we haven't been working together and I don't have all the facts about your situation, I can only offer you a few hypothetical answers."

Last, if the person doing the asking appears to be a good prospective customer or client, offer a business card and have him call for an appointment. This way, any questions you answer from that point on may be more appropriately focused on the specific services you provide, your fees and level of expertise in his area of interest.

In two weeks, we will conclude this series on avoiding feuds with friends and relatives.

Mary DiPaolo is the owner of MarkeTrends, a Northville-based business consulting firm. She is also producer and host of the cable television series, "Chamber Perspectives."

Money Management

Taking full advantage of the new kiddie tax

You may still realize a tax benefit by shifting some of your income to your children, says the Michigan Association of CPAs. The key is understanding the mysterious kiddie tax.

HOW YOUR CHILD'S AGE AFFECTS TAX RATES

Under the kiddie tax, a child under age 14 can apply $550 of his or her standard deduction to offset the first $550 of unearned income, making this amount tax-free. Unearned income refers to such investment income as dividends, interest and capital gains. The next $550 in unearned income is taxed at the child's rate, usually 15 percent. However, if your child has more than $1,100 of unearned income, the excess will be taxed at your highest rate.

Unfortunately, in certain circumstances, your child may end up paying taxes at a rate even higher than your own. To compute your child's tax, you have to add all your child's unearned income to your own taxable income, making it possible to bump some of your child's income into a tax bracket higher than yours. A parent may elect to include the child's income in his or her return and the child will not be required to file a tax return if all the following conditions are met: 1. the child is under 14; 2. the child's gross income is more than $550 and less than $5,000; 3. the child's gross income consists solely of interest and dividends; and 4. no estimated tax payments have been made.

With children over age 14, the first $550 of unearned income is tax-free,

DRAWBACKS OF INCOME-SHIFTING

Transferring income to a child does have its drawbacks. The assets that produce the income must actually be in the child's name. In other words, you give up legal control of the money permanently. If your son turns 17 years old and decides to sell his investments and take a trip to Tahiti, or buy a red convertible, there is no legal action you can take to stop him. You must also consider the gift tax liability when transferring investments. Gift taxes can be avoided only if you stay within the annual exclusion of $10,000 per person, or $20,000 if the gift is given jointly with your spouse.

MINIMIZING THE KIDDIE TAX

Despite these drawbacks, shifting some of your income to your children still makes sense if you want to save taxes as well as accumulate funds for their college education. Remember, the first $1,100 is still treated favorably. That means that at a return of 10 percent, a child under age 14 can have more than $10,000 invested in his or her name before the investment income would reach the $1,100 point where earnings would begin to be taxed at the parents' rate.

If you have children under age 14, instead of investing in assets that generate taxable income, consider investments that are either tax-free or tax-deferred until the child reaches age 14.

Business Briefs

NBD BANK N.A. recently opened the doors on a new 20,000-square-foot bank in Country Club Corporate Park in Farmington Hills.

Located on 12 Mile Road and Country Club Drive near Haggerty Road, the new facility houses a 5,400-square-foot branch office, including four drive-in lanes and a drive-up automated teller machine. The remaining space is used for NBD commercial lending and mortgage services and will provide the bank with room for future growth.

NBD Vice Chairman Thomas H. Jeffs II said, "Farmington Hills was chosen because it's one of the state's fastest growing areas. This new building — our fourth in this community — represents our continuing commitment to meet the increased financial needs of the residents and businesses of Farmington Hills and to help the area grow and prosper."

REMERICA REALTY has opened an office in Northville at 330 N. Center St.

Remerica is one of the fastest-growing real estate companies in the area. Presently the largest in Plymouth, the new owners felt a great need to be represented in the Northville market. The office emphasizes residential properties.

Office hours are Monday through Friday 9 a.m. to 9 p.m., Saturday 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., and Sunday 11 a.m. to 5 p.m.

TWO NORTHVILLE RESIDENTS were among 312 employees recently honored by Catherine McAuley Health System, Ann Arbor, for completing ten or more years of service in 1990. Local service award recipients include Terri McEachern, 20 years, and Mary Brennan, 10 years. McAuley employs approximately 5,600 people.

DR. HELENE LACOSTE has joined the obstetrical faculty at Providence Hospital and is responsible for teaching residents in her specialty. In addition Lacoste sees patients at the Providence Medical Centers in Milford and South Lyon.

A graduate of Wayne State University School of Medicine, Lacoste completed her internship and residency in obstetrics and gynecology at Sinai Hospital in Detroit. She is board eligible in obstetrics and gynecology and is a junior fellow of the American College of Obstetrics and Gynecology. Lacoste lives in Farmington Hills.

The Providence Medical Center-Milford is located at 1155 N. Milford Road, Milford. Lacoste sees patients there Mondays from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m.; Tuesdays from 1-5 p.m.; and Wednesdays from 2-7 p.m. The South Lyon Center is a 210 N. Lafayette; she is there Thursdays from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m.

AMERICAN SPEEDY PRINTING CENTER, an international printing franchise with more than 700 locations in the United States, Canada, England and Japan, recently opened its newest center in Novi.

Located at 24291 Novi Road in the Pine Ridge Center, the center is owned and operated by local Chamber of Commerce members Nelson and Kelly Wilson. Prior to joining the American Speedy franchise team, the Wilsons were employed in the advertising/marketing business.

The American Speedy Printing Center in Novi is a full-service, quick printing business featuring complete offset printing capabilities, typesetting and photocopying. Special services offered through this location are thermography (raised printing), free pick-up and delivery, facsimile service, desktop publishing and color copying capabilities. The center prints virtually everything from business cards to carbonless forms, flyers, envelopes, brochures and program booklets. They carry a complete line of quality paper and color inks with full bindery services available.

"Quick printing and communications are becoming increasingly important industries in today's business world," said Nelson. "We're committed to serving the specialized needs of the Novi area business community."

The Novi American Speedy Printing Center is open 8:30 to 6 p.m. Monday through Friday and 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. Saturday. The telephone number is 313-380-8520; fax 313-380-8522.

R.L. POLK & CO. appointed Jordan V. Brun to the new position of manager/employee training, announced Timothy L. Williams, vice-president, Human Resources.

In his new position, Brun will be responsible for developing and managing company-wide training programs and the information management systems that support these programs.

Brun joined Polk from Applied Learning International where he launched training and management development activities for a major automotive manufacturer. Prior to that, he was training supervisor for the Davis-Besse Nuclear Power Station in Toledo, Ohio.

Brun received his master of science degree in 1978 from Wayne State University and his bachelor of science degree in 1969 from Michigan State University.

He resides in Novi with his wife and two sons. R.L. Polk & Co., an information services pioneer and industry leader, employs approximately 7,000 persons in more than 50 office and production facilities in the United States, Canada, England, Australia, Germany and Barbados.

In addition to being the statistician and direct mail marketer for the auto industry, Polk is the principal publisher of city directories in CROSBY'S COPPER POT CAFE in New Hudson is celebrating its grand opening under new ownership.

The cafe, located at 56310 Grand River Ave., opened about two weeks ago under the new ownership of Charles M. Crosby. The new owner has painted the business and said he is trying to "warm the place up" with some work on the interior.

The cafe serves breakfast and lunch. Crosby also offers catering as a special service; contact the owner or manager Terri Milne for details.

The menu features world-class omelettes, a children's menu as well as daily specials.

Crosby formerly was a chef at E.G. Nick's in West Bloomfield and Brighton. He has catered events for two years and studied culinary arts at Oakland Community College.

The cafe is open from 6 a.m.-4 p.m. Monday through Friday and from 6:30 a.m.-4 p.m. Saturday and 8 a.m.-2 p.m. Sunday.

CHARLES N. SIMKINS, an attorney with offices in Northville and Brighton, recently spoke at the Iowa Head Injury Alliance's Annual Convention in Cedar Rapids, Iowa.

The purpose of this invited lecture was to assist attorneys in recognizing and understanding the seriousness of mild closed head injury and the impact that such an injury can have on the injured person and their family.

Simkins specializes in the representation of persons surviving traumatic brain injury, and has been a trial attorney for 16 years. He is a member of the Michigan Trial Lawyers Association, Association of Trial Lawyers of America, the National Head Injury Foundation, where he is currently serving on the task force for minor head injury, a member of the faculty of the American College of Trial Lawyers and the chairman of the development committee for the Michigan Head Injury Alliance.

Along with being a trial attorney representing persons representing persons surviving traumatic brain injury, Mr. Simkins sponsors an annual seminar on closed head injuries for doctors, lawyers and health care providers for the benefit of the Michigan Head Injury Alliance, and has published a book entitled "Gentle Touches: A Collection of Essays by Persons Surviving Head Injury". He has also authored a number of articles on the topic of closed head injury, including participating in the authorship of a 24-page booklet on closed head injury to doctors, lawyers and health care providers in Detroit, at a seminar sponsored by Southwest Medical Clinic in Benton Harbor, and to the Association of Trial Lawyers of America's Annual Convention in Toronto, Canada.

Anyone interested in obtaining copies of materials on closed head injury may do so, free of charge by calling 248-6030.

"I went from house to house, getting any food or clothes they would give me. Then I handed it all out to needy people in the neighborhood."

Curbside appeal is one of the most important sales tools in a slow housing market. Make sure the house looks well-tended.

Home sale strategies for a sluggish market

By Debra Lee Baldwin
Copley News Service

You've noticed, no doubt, that some houses for sale in your neighborhood are snapped up right away. Others languish on the market for months.

The economy may be a factor, but certain other considerations are equally important. If you're thinking of selling, there are ways you can make your home a winner.

GET THE RIGHT AGENT

The most common reason people choose to sell without an agent is to save the expense of the commission.

But unless you have plenty of real estate savvy, you may find that 6 percent well spent. An agent has up-to-date knowledge of the market, knows how to show a house to advantage and can lead both parties through the intricate steps of the process, paperwork and all.

"Selecting an agent is like looking for someone to fill a job," says Business Week magazine. "Don't just go to the yellow pages. Get referrals from people who have sold homes recently. Then interview several agents and ask about their sales contracts, advertising plans and assessment of your property."

Also, line up a lawyer early—one who specializes in real estate and who can churn out a contract before a buyer's interest cools.

CREATE CURB APPEAL

Take another look at those houses that haven't sold. Something about them is a turnoff, and you may be able to see it from the street.

Perhaps one has cracks in the concrete driveway; another, weeds in a side yard; a third, an iron gate spotted with rust; the fourth, a dented mailbox. And the fifth looks fine, but it lacks character.

These demerits may seem trivial, but a choosy buyer will take them as hints that the rest of the house is uninteresting or falling apart.

Now, look at your own house with the same ultracritical eye (if you can't be impartial, ask a friend or your agent to help). Try to remember how it looked when you first fell in love with it.

Chances are the bushes were trimmed, the stair railings painted, the front door clean (the hardware gleamed), the paint wasn't peeling, and there were cheery blooms adorning the window boxes (if it was midwinter, they were made of silk).

PSYCH THE BUYER

You know the importance of having everything clean, orderly and in good repair, inside and out.

But if that's all it takes to sell a house, developers wouldn't bother with model homes. The actual sale has more to do with reaction than reason.

Your goal is to make your house a home anyone would love to own. Buyers should walk in and fall head over heels—without quite knowing why.

The rooms should be drenched with light. Open the drapes (be sure windows are clean) and turn on all the light fixtures—even if it's midday.

Consider painting walls and cabinets off-white or pale beige to enhance an open, airy, spacious feeling. If the carpet is worn, dark or shag, pull it up and replace it with a short-pile neutral.

You've heard of baking a pie or bread to add a cozy aroma—but that's a tall order if the house is shown repeatedly. Instead, simmer water on the stove and add a cinnamon stick.

No model home is without music, so follow suit. Soft, soothing instrumentals are best—nothing that calls attention to itself. And turn off the TV set.

Clean out your closets and cupboards, leaving only a few attractive, upscale items. Ideally, these should be things the buyer might like to own and that represent an appealing lifestyle.

The closets of model homes sometimes have wrapped packages sitting on shelves, or shopping bags from high-end department stores. Kitchen counters often display utensils favored by gourmets, intriguing cookbooks and bowls of fruit.

Bathrooms have piles of soft towels and baskets of body-soothing lotions; tables in dining rooms are set with china, crystal, candlesticks and linens.

And nearly every room has a potted plant or floral arrangement.

If you have a dog, send him to the neighbors (same goes for your kids). If you have a calm cat, let her curl up on the family room sofa.

And if you plan to be present (not always a good idea), illustrate the ideal lifestyle. Be out of earshot but visible through French doors, with your feet up, reading House Beautiful and sipping Pernier from a long-stemmed glass.

PRACTICAL CONSIDERATIONS

Not sure you've caught all the objections a buyer might have? Have a professional home inspector take a look around.

It's better to incur the cost of repairs than to lose the sale. Besides, a buyer who finds the faults first will want to negotiate.

Finally, be realistic about price.

According to Business Week: "An unreasonably high price will turn buyers off as quickly as a nuclear waste dump in your back yard."

Never mind the past, when prices doubled every decade (or, in some parts of the country, every six months). All that matters is the present.

Your broker should be able to provide prices of comparable homes that have sold recently in your area. These are your best indicators of the current market value of your house.

LIGHTEN UP

Debra Lee Baldwin
Copley News Service

It used to be that lighting a room meant installing a fixture in the middle of the ceiling.

Nowadays effective home lighting combines ambient all over-illumination with task lighting (for reading and working) and accent lighting (to dramatize decorative elements).

Your options for light sources range from tall, elegant torches to glittering chandeliers to tiny, bright halogens.

You'll want to choose fixtures that are practical as well as beautiful, that please the eye as well as brighten their surroundings.

Remember too, the importance of lighting in creating a mood. Install rheostats (dimmers) to soften the illumination in dining rooms, bedrooms and living rooms.

OFF THE BEATEN TRACK

Perhaps the most versatile lighting is track — even though the name suggests otherwise.

It's basically a series of lamp-holding fixtures attached along an energized track. Early tracks held only one circuit, but today's models can support as many as four, each with its own rheostat.

"More than any other system, track is the go anywhere and do (almost) anything lighting scheme," New York lighting designer Edward Effron told Practical Homeowner magazine.

"You can suspend it in midair as a bold architectural element or conceal it behind a louvered soffit. And the tracks, themselves, are available in a variety of finishes and profiles to complement almost any home decor."

Effron suspends miniature low-voltage lights from delicate cords in the center of an open-floor-plan kitchen. The result creates intriguing points of light above the workspace.

He also uses track lighting to "graze" uneven surfaces (such as walls paved with stone) to form unusual shadows, and he nestles recessed track lighting between high windows to wash tall bookcases in shadowless light.

Track lighting can be a problem-solver. If your dining room has a high ceiling, it's hard to hang a chandelier. And even if you do, the light may not be adequate.

The editors of Better Homes and Gardens Building Ideas suggest installing recessed downlights instead of a single fixture; each can be focused on a different area.

HALOGEN OR NOT?

Because the bulbs are small and low-voltage, halogen lamps take on amazing shapes.

Tiny bulb housings perch on the ends of impossibly slender rods; cantilever lamps move, dip and swivel at the touch of a fingertip.

The Tizio lamp, designed in 1971 by Richard Sapper for Artemide, is featured in the New York Museum of Modern Art. Another desk lamp, the Dove (actually shaped more like an eel) is in New York's Cooper Hewitt museum.

During the '80s it was the 'in' thing to have halogen. During the '90s, interest seems to be leveling off.

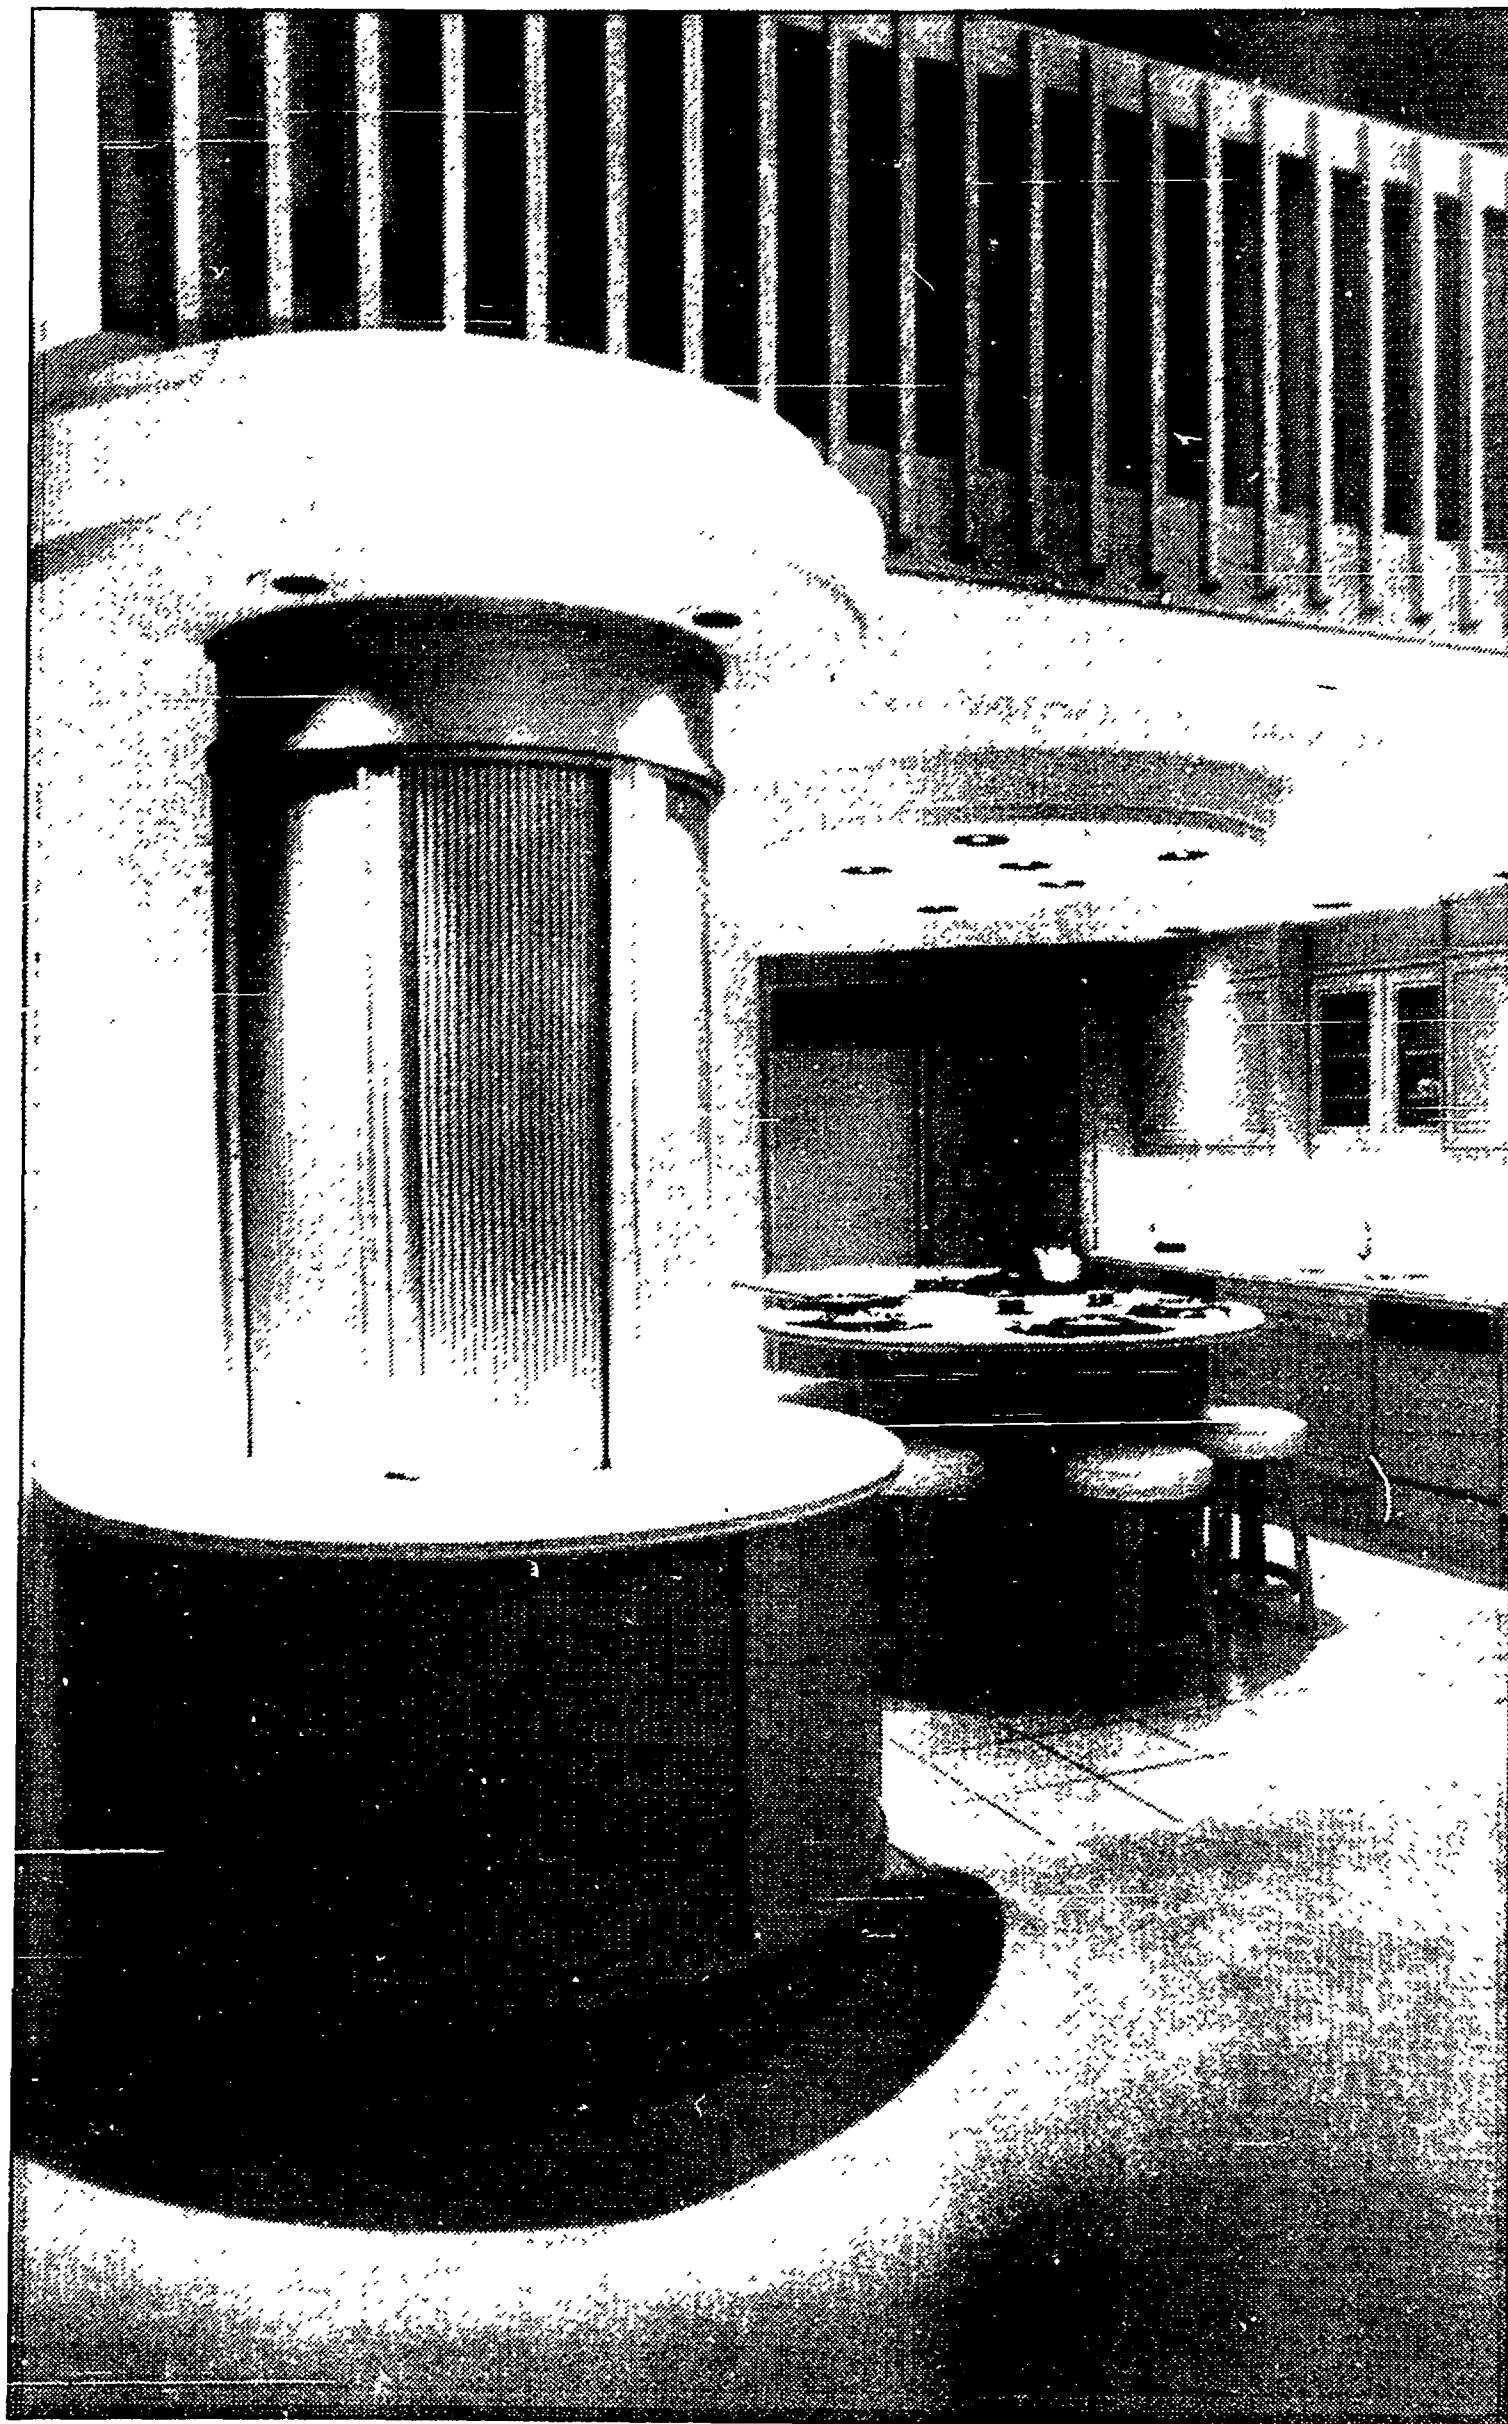

"Low-voltage halogen was on the upswing the last four years, but the market is saturated," says Steve Leveen, owner of Levee, a mail-order source of "tools for serious readers" based in Delray Beach, Florida.

Leveen adds, "Halogen is everywhere, in any lighting store, and you can get halogen bulbs—retrofits — that will work in any light fixture."

The bright white light of halogen is considered by many to be ideal task lighting; others prefer the warm yellow glow of traditional incandescent.

"There's nothing magic about halogen," says Leveen. "It's not necessarily better, it's just different."

As to which he recommends for reading, Leveen says it's purely a matter of personal preference.

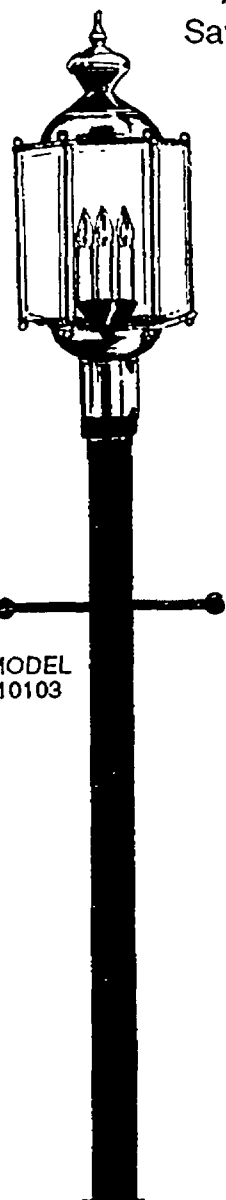

Ambient, functional lighting should be one of the first things you consider when decorating a room.

HOME IMPROVEMENT 2

"Don't be swayed by what someone else tells you is good, try it yourself, and go with what is comfortable."

He adds that most people are more comfortable reading in a room that has both direct task lighting and overall ambient lighting.

"Vision experts will tell you that it's hard on your eyes to adjust when you look sideways from a bright page into a dark room."

FIXTURE TRENDS

At least for the present, period decorating seems to be outshining contemporary; interest in high-tech is dimming and traditional styles are enjoying a resurgence.

Leading the pack are lamps that date back to the birth of electricity in American homes during the Arts & Crafts period—primarily early 20th century pieces by designers Gustav Stickley, Dirk Van Erp and Frank Lloyd Wright.

Sources of originals are auctions, estate sales, antique stores and flea markets. But because the lamps are rare (and can cost tens of thousands of dollars), manufacturers are releasing reproduction pieces at affordable prices.

Among the most in-demand are those with mica lampshades. Sheets of mica inserted into metal channels, like stained glass, lend a smoky amber translucence.

Also popular are reproductions of 18th century English desk lamps. Fixtures are brass with black shades; graceful bases resemble one or several candlesticks.

After the interest in past styles peaks, what's next?

Perhaps, suggests Metropolitan Home magazine, high tech that doesn't look high tech. Artists are using unusual materials—translucent plywood, Plexiglas, metallic mesh, hand-cast glass—to create luxury lighting that combines fantasy with function.

Architectural Digest's editor talks

By Alison Ashton
Copley News Service

If I had any doubts about the popularity of Architectural Digest, I learned differently when it came time to buy a copy. It took visits to three different bookstores to find a current copy—the magazine sells out every month.

What is it about this home design periodical that sets it apart from its competitors? It occupies a crowded rack, sharing space with more than 10 national magazines and a host of regional publications specializing in home design.

It's not hip and trendy like Metropolitan Home and it's certainly not a how-to manual like other publications. And it's of a more genteel ilk than Home, its sister publication at Knapp Communications.

Instead, AD offers a monthly visit to the homes and hideaways of the rich and famous (and the rich who don't want to be famous—their abodes are featured anonymously).

Which houses are featured every month comes down to Paige Rense, who, as the magazine's editor-in-chief since 1971, has overseen AD's transformation from a boring nuts-and-bolts trade periodical to a glossy bible of upscale design.

But Rense insists there's no voodoo when it comes to selecting the houses.

"Everyone thinks I have some great, complicated procedure. I just look at it—that's really all you do," she says. "I look first for something that will photograph well because houses are like people; some are photogenic and some are not. After all, our readers will see pictures, so it has to photograph well."

"I don't look for any particular period or geographical location. I don't really care who the people are; I don't care if it's costly. I want it to be interesting to our readers for some reason. It might be bizarre or something whimsical or something heartbreakingly beautiful."

Mostly, Rense looks for the one element every AD house must have: "magic."

That magic might translate into an sun-bleached hotel in St. Croix or a lovingly restored Palm Beach manse or maybe Czar Nicholas' summer cottage.

Houses featured in AD have ranged from Woody Allen's apartment to Tiffany design director John Loring's cozy Paris pied-à-terre.

Interiors all seem to have the personal stamp of their owners, but the glossy photos usually don't feature the inhabitants lounging around, which encourages you to see yourself living there.

Not, if the "Letters From Readers" section is any indication, that AD's readers are a hopeless herd of style slaves. Letters range from laudatory to scolding, and some take issue with Rense's choices.

How does Rense find these magical houses? Designers, photographers and homeowners bring them to her attention.

"I have a network of people to who tell me about things, beyond the designers. In a little over 20 years, I have a better network than the CIA," she laughs.

However, she admits that much of what ends up in the magazine depends on her opinion. For example, she is moving away from the drop-dead decorated look that was popular in the '80s, although some of her readers still like it.

"So much of that is personal," she concedes. "My idea of something that's very decorated might not be someone else's idea of what's very decorated."

She gives a wide berth to anything that looks stale or, worse, faddish and trendy.

"I try to avoid things that will bore our readers. If they've seen too much of a certain look before, then I think it's time to pass on. If I'm getting sort of tired of something, I think they are too."

Of course, when you're talking to someone like Rense, it's hard to resist asking her what's new in design these days. Unlike other home editors and designers, she's reluctant to reel off a grocery list of trends to watch. She'd rather talk about people's attitudes toward their houses.

"I think (design) is going in a very good direction because it's sort of no direction. People want things that are much more suitable, more simplified, not so decorated, much more personal, highly individual," she says.

"I think people realize that designers don't really have any secret sources. People are much less concerned about the judgment of other people today—they're being much more individual about what they're doing with a house or apartment. They no longer do what a decorator tells them to do."

So how do you start evolving an interior that's entirely your own? Rense has a few tips:

- "You need a plan. I would just tackle it the way you would tackle building a house. With decorating, the foundation is the background."

- "The most important thing you can do is take an objective look at your house. That's very difficult, and that is why a designer is very helpful."

- When evaluating your furniture, "think, 'would I buy that today?' If you don't really love it, I would earmark it for sale or to give to a charity."

If you like a couch or chair but it looks dated, consider having it slipcovered or reupholstered.

- "You have to start first with the basics. Do you want a flow of one color throughout the house? Do you want the same floorcovering or the same window treatment? Do you want paint or wallpaper?" If you're really at a loss, or just need an objective (and educated) opinion, it could be worth the expense of a decorator. Rense points out that some decorators consult on an hourly basis and can help you formulate a plan. Many department and furniture stores also offer design services when you make a purchase.

"If you're really serious and you really want a wonderful place for yourself, most decorators are glad to help you."

But hire a decorator with care.

"Too many people just casually hire someone they run into at a cocktail party," says Rense. "The chemistry is everything."

She recommends interviewing at least three designers. Look at their portfolios and ask for references.

"Ask to see any work they've done for past clients," she says. "I would check with past clients to see if they've been satisfied."

Most of all, remember that great interiors evolve over time. Rense's favorite example is the English country homes AD features every year—they took generations to age into the gorgeous homes we love now.

Building your house of tomorrow, today

By Mike Dale
Copley News Service

So you want to build your own home? Perhaps it's the ultimate dream of a prospective homeowner.

The good news amidst the fear and loathing that accompanies a sluggish economy is that "selfcontracting" can be a rewarding and money-saving experience, according to J. Rodney Taylor, author of "So You Want to Build a House" (Betterway Publications).

"The cost can be controlled," he says, noting that self-contractors can save 25 percent to 35 percent on the price of their dream home.

Three basic elements go into the creation of a successful new home: the building design, the site and the financing.

DESIGNS ON LIFE

Home design should be the first consideration. It should be a creation of the entire family. Identify features you want to preserve and those you want to avoid.

Look through plan books, magazines and real estate ads. Collect pictures of houses and rooms. Mark designs and photos that catch your eye. Sketch in additions or deletions.

Think about the style of your life, as well. Do you prefer country living vs. city life, formal vs. informal, an expanding family or a shrinking family?

Use your imagination. Visualize yourself walking through the drawings and photographs you have chosen. Pause in each room to look around. Be specific with your imagery. After all, it's your dream.

In addition, be aware that with self-contracting, you can probably construct up to 30 percent more space for the same dollars that you would have spent by using a licensed contractor, notes Taylor.

LOCATION

It will take a lot of research to determine where you want to build. A good idea is to check out development in the town or city in which you wish to build. Go to city hall. Talk to developers and city planners.

Determine how factors such as zoning ordinances, land-use restrictions and availability of utilities will affect your long-term plans.

For example, don't select a narrow lot if you want a wide, rambling home, and don't choose a steep slope for a single-story cottage.

NEGOTIATION

After deciding on several parcels, rank them in the order of preference. Also compare your prospective lots with those in the area. They're available through local data-base services, the county courthouse, the local Board of Realtors or a real estate appraiser.

In terms of negotiation, says Taylor, make an offer 20 percent to 25 percent below market value and never become emotionally involved with any piece of property. Start with your No. 1 selection and move through the list until you find a lot that meets your needs.

PASSING INSPECTIONS

Each city or township adheres to specific building requirements, or housing codes, according to four major systems of the house: framing, electrical, plumbing and mechanical.

To avoid undue costs (not to mention headaches), here are Taylor's recommendations on preparing for Mr. Inspector:

- Get to know your inspectors personally. Arrange meetings with inspectors before building your home. Learn their names so you can ask for them specifically.

- Don't estimate completion times. Make sure the job is complete before the inspector arrives. Be sure no unforeseen "snags" develop. He may not be so prompt next time you call.

- Ask the subcontractor to stick around for the inspection. If there's a problem with the inspection, the subcontractor may be able to help. It eliminates a lot of "back-and-forth" phone calls.

- Be flexible but firm. Disagree if you wish, but don't cajole. Most inspectors are willing to listen to an argument on items that don't relate to codes or laws.

Other rules of thumb include: Don't allow workers for subcontractors to talk with inspectors; as the inspector leaves the job site, be sure to thank him; don't make any kind of offer to the inspector that could be construed as a bribe and post your house plans.

PITFALLS

As with anything involving more than one person, self-contracting provides its share of frustrations.

Sometimes subcontractors and their crews don't show up for work when promised. A materials supplier may have an inventory shortage on something you needed yesterday. Mother Nature may not cooperate with your dream each and every day. Inspectors, at times pesky as gnats, may buzz around your ears with "pet peeves" of building modifications. The list goes on.

Taylor's remedy? Expect the unexpected. Have patience. Expect everyone to offer well-meaning advice. Be persistent. Be aware of the "hurry-up-and-wait" principle. Be firm but flexible. And expect the house, when constructed, to appear smaller than it really is.

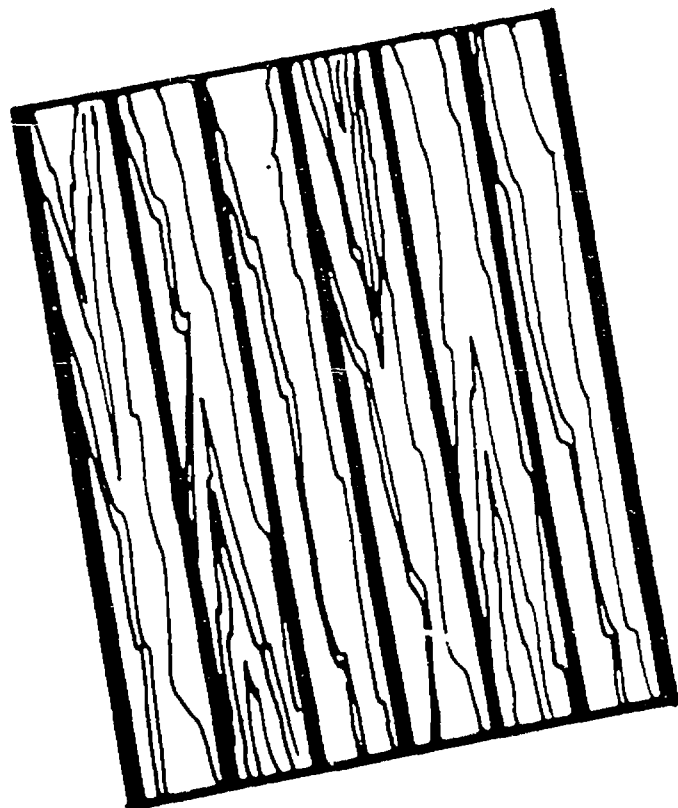

A final note, this about construction industry "buzzwords."

Terms that you should bone up on in the construction industry include: covenants, amortize, discount points, loan draw, rate caps, GFI, PVC, R-factor, liens, title search, batter boards and wainscoting.

Bedrooms and offices that double-function

By Orlando Ramirez
Copley News Service

The last two decades have seen a gradual change in the floor plans of our homes. The emphasis now is on open spaces. Family rooms open onto kitchens that open onto dining rooms that open onto living rooms. Family living and entertaining is fluid, moving from area to area with ease.

But with open homes, privacy has become more important. As a result, private spaces within the home are now upgraded and treated with the importance they deserve.

The solitude that these places bring is important in our hectic society. They are a sanctuaries where we can retreat from the world to study, exercise or just pamper ourselves. Here you can where you can indulge any decorating whim you wish. The idea is to make yourself comfortable.

The ultimate critic of your efforts is you. If you are decorating for your children or spouse, be sure to ask them what they want. Their input will help yield the end result that will reflect their need for privacy.

BEDROOMS

Since we spend one-third of our lives in bed, it makes sense that the bedroom be pamper central. A quick glance at decorating magazines or around the furniture showrooms can easily deflate your fantasies of a dream bedroom.

Most of these showplaces cost a pretty penny, which their aren't too many of given these tight financial times. Yet, given some ingenuity, there are ways to transform you bedroom into a boudoir.

First off, choose a color. Be sure it doesn't clash with the carpet. The colors this year tend to be muted, but if muted isn't you, there are plenty to choose from. Dark and subdued colors create calmer spaces, while brights and whites fill the room with energy.

Professional designers say the best way to turn a bedroom into a private retreat is to pick a pattern you like and carry it throughout the room. This can often be done with a set (or sets) of designer sheets that can be cut up and sewn into curtains, bedspreads, pillows and vanity covers.

It is not necessary to buy the highest quality sheets. The lowercount quality sheets are fine for these decorative purposes.

Once you've found the main theme, it's time to focus on the details. Contrasting or complementary colors to those found in the main pattern can be used for shams and pillow trim, as well as to cover the headboard and seats of side chairs.

Accents are important here. Just a little bit of lace can make your bedroom if used in strategic places. Don't forget the window treatments. A formal treatment you make yourself can lift your room from the ordinary to the elegant.

Plenty of pillows — round, square or rolled — piled on the bed can unify a variety of patterns or make bold color statements. Don't be afraid to sew your own.

Perhaps most important of all, get rid of clutter. Locate boxes of different sizes and colors—or decorate them yourself—to store those things you can't put in your closet.

NURSERIES

There's a new baby boom afoot in the land, and couples are transforming that spare bedroom into a nursery.

The first consideration is the function of the room. It is a space for work and play.

Experts suggest you plan a nursery that will grow with your child. As a newborn, the youngster will need a crib, changing table, diaper pail and other accouterments of infancy.

Soon the crib will be replaced by a daybed and Mom's rocker will be relegated to the storeroom, while a plethora of toys will vie for every inch of space.

One consideration is that the furnishings be covered with easy-to-care-for fabrics, as well as that there be no decorations that might prove dangerous to the inquisitive toddler.

When choosing a color scheme, designers suggest you stay with the primary colors. Although pinks and pastel blue may be more soothing to your eye, studies have shown that a bright color scheme may stimulate your child's imagination and increase his or her IQ by as much as 12 percent.

HOME OFFICES

Given the microchip revolution, many people are working out of their homes. Hook up the fax machine, start up the modem, download the disk drive and you're in business.

Even if your place of employment is someplace else, a home office is essential, if nothing else as a place to set up the home computer.

Many home offices are set up in a spare bedroom that must double as a guest room, but a home office can be set up anywhere. The most important thing is to define how much space you need.

If you're just going to use it as a place to pay bills and store papers, then a sectioned-off corner of the family room will do just fine. However, if you use a home computer, fax machine, telephone, copier and other machines, then you will need quite a bit of space.

Decoration takes back seat to function in these private spaces. Choosing a desk is the obvious first step. With the advent of home computers, the old-style cumbersome, six-drawer desk has become obsolete.

Now, the new computer-friendly desks have tabletops of varying heights and lack drawers to get in the way of the all the cords. Shop around. Manufacturers have created new designs that incorporate old styles, such as the rolltop desk that houses a computer instead of an array of pigeonholes.

As a result, storage for all the paperwork and books is essential. Selecting the right shelving is based on your needs. Do you have many items to be shelved or just a few? If function is not your primary concern, then don't be afraid to invest in fine woods for your shelving. Oak lawyer cases with glass fronts are both functional and elegant.

Recycle your furniture to refinish a brand new look

By Sharon Williams
Copley News Service

Maybe it's time to deck out the den again or create a new look in the living room.

And in keeping with the spirit of global awareness—as well as a limited pocket-book—you've decide to recycle and refinish rather than repurchase another truckload of spanking new furniture.

Furniture recycling is one of the hottest trends going today. Not only is it smart economically and environmentally, but it offers a lot of room for creativity. After all, it's up to the new owner to inject new life into what was just rusty garden furniture, worn upholstered pieces or outdated chairs.

Furniture recycling can begin in a junkyard, or at a flea market, garage sale, antique store, thrift store, estate sale, auction, junk shop or swap meet.

Once a potential find is found, it's all up to you to evaluate its virtues and the best way to play them up. Some suggestions:

• Refinishing: One of America's foremost hobbies, refinishing is probably the most popular way to revive a distressed or worn piece of furniture. By refinishing the piece yourself or taking it to a professional, you can restore an original finish or create a brandnew one. Aspiring do-it-yourselfers can find myriad books and magazines on the subject.

• Paint: Paint isn't just for covering up wear and tear and other sins of the past anymore. With the stroke of a brush, you can create a faux finish—such as marble or tortoiseshell, stencil on a design, highlight an interesting feature with color, paint on trompe l'oeil whimsy or even make a piece appear older than it is. Craft shops abound with ideas and workshops to help you learn such techniques.

• Upholstery: A few yards of cloth can make years of difference to a weathered chair or sofa—all while making it instantly fit into your decorating scheme. Turn to an upholstery professional to do the job, or take a look at the home decorating fabrics and how-to instructions in your favorite fabric store.

Another idea: Whip up a slipcover pattern that will neatly cover all the past indiscretions.

YOUTH TENNIS CLASSES

TENNIS FOR TOTS - These classes are designed to introduce the 4-7 year old to the basics of tennis. Drills and fun games have been developed to improve a child's balance, muscle control, hand/eye coordination and their tennis skills. The YMCA will provide racquets for tots who do not have their own.

- TOTS I - Introduction to the court and racquet. Stationary forehands are emphasized at this level.
- TOTS II - At this level the child is introduced to hitting the ball on the move. The backhand is presented at this level.
- TOTS III - SUPER TOTS - We will further develop the forehand and backhand strokes. The basic strokes of tennis are developed to prepare them for the Junior Beginner programs.

JUNIOR BEGINNER - The Livonia Family YMCA conducts a series of three class sessions for beginning junior players, ages 7 through 14 years of age who have had little or no tennis experience. We wish to teach the fundamentals in a relaxed, yet challenging atmosphere. At the completion of the series of classes each student will have been taught to:

- Hit a forehand, backhand and serve.
- Understand the court terminology.
- Know how to keep score.
- Handle themselves with proper court etiquette.

JR. BEGINNER I - Beginners who have had no formal lessons should begin at this level. Work on grip, stance and strokes. Complete coverage of rules and scoring.

JR. BEGINNER II - We further develop skills attained in Beginner I. Footwork, consistency and placement of shots will be emphasized.

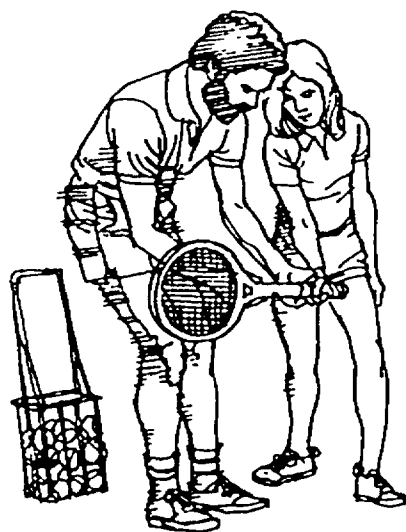

JR. BEGINNER III - Continued development of forehand, backhand and serve. Introduction to the volley.

JUNIOR INTERMEDIATE - These levels are designed for the child who has completed the Junior Beginner series. This level is a prerequisite to advance to the Junior Excellence program. At the completion of the Junior Intermediate classes, each student will have been taught:

- Good stroke execution with forehand, backhand, serve.
- Ability to place the ball and rally consistently.
- Introduction to the overhead
- An understanding of singles and doubles strategy.

JR. INTERMEDIATE - The basic fundamentals are reviewed and refined with concentration on consistency and control.

JR. EXCELLENCE PREP - Work on control, placement and strategy. Many game situation drills are used. Singles and doubles strategies of the game are emphasized.

JUNIOR EXCELLENCE

JUNIOR EXCELLENCE - The Junior Excellence program is tailored for the young adult, who is serious about their tennis game. Completion of the Junior Intermediate program or its equivalent is a must. Junior Excellence is for the player who desires to play at the high school level or beyond. An optional six week, 1-1/2 hour, weekend competitive league is available for those interested. Program objectives of the Excellence Program include:

- Ability to hit ground strokes consistently with depth.
- Improve footwork.
- Development of a spin serve.
- Strenuous conditioning program, with emphasis on quickness, speed, and improved flexibility.
- Stroke production drills that give you confidence in your ability.

JR. EXCELLENCE I/II - For students who have completed Junior Intermediate lessons. Players work with others of the same ability, but are encouraged to develop and advance through a no nonsense approach to serious training.

ADVANCED JR. EXCELLENCE - For the player who has completed Jr. Excellence I and II.

SUPER JR. EXCELLENCE - For the player who has completed Advanced Excellence.

INCREDIBLE I JR. EXCELLENCE - Pro's permission is required. Tournament and High School players.

INCREDIBLE II JR. EXCELLENCE - Pro's permission is required. High powered workout for the most advanced High School tennis player. This level includes coordinating stroke production consistency with physical and mental conditioning.

ADULT TENNIS CLASSES

ADULT BEGINNER - This series of three levels is for the person who is just beginning to play or simply needs a refresher course. Forehand, backhand and serve are the fundamentals that are stressed.

ADULT BEGINNER I - For players new to the game who have had no formal instruction.

ADULT BEGINNER II - This level will further develop skills attained in Beginner I. Emphasis on proper stroke technique, footwork consistency, and ball placement. Introduction of the volley.

ADULT BEGINNER III - Emphasis on consistency and placement, along with singles and double positioning.

ADULT ADVANCED - Designed for the intermediate or advanced player. A high powered workout that will sharpen your game. Game situation drills and plenty of movement are features of this series of lessons.

FOREHAND, BACKHAND, SERVE (FBS) - Work on control and placement of shots, plus movement and positioning.

VOLLEY, LOB, OVERHEAD (VLOH) - Emphasis on the net game and development of game strategy.

PRO SPECIAL - Classes arranged according to level. Smaller class size for the serious player. Class is designed to develop the total game. Drill point play situations and a great workout will be emphasized to help you maximize your potential.

ATTACKING TENNIS - Concentration on attacking aspects of tennis including serve and volley, approach shots and aggressive net play.

FOUR ON ONE - Four people and the Pro of their choice.

See Page 12 for Days and Times.

All programs are available free of charge to YMCA members. Or special Indian Program memberships are available. Campouts and some special events are for an additional fee.

At Livonia Family
YMCA

The Parent Child programs for children five years of age and up are sponsored by the Livonia Family YMCA and are part of a total National YMCA program. A close family relationship is built as the children and parents have fun and learn about Indian lore through crafts, games, songs, stories, outings, and campouts.

Tribes are made up of eight to 10 parents and their children who meet in the homes on a rotating schedule once or twice a month at a mutually convenient time. They also enjoy monthly outings and family swims and Fun Nites at the YMCA. Parents participate with their children in all activities. There is never a child without a parent!

Each tribe has an Indian tribal name. They determine the type of vest they wish to adopt, make them and wear them to the various functions and tribal meetings. Meetings usually include a short business session followed by an activity. Outings are geared to the interests of the child and parent together (bowling, roller skating, campouts, community service projects and many others). Headbands, patches for your vests and manuals are provided with membership in the program. Feathers to wear in the headbands are earned by doing craft projects, participation in activities, learning Indian names of each tribal member to name a few.

Membership in any of these programs is sure to be a rewarding experience for parents and children and strengthens the family as a unit. Membership may also enable you as a parent to re-ignite the wonder and excitement of learning new things and growing up.

Join the many families who are involved in the Indian Parent Child Programs. Give your child the gift of time, your time together!

SPECIAL INFORMATION

PRE-SCHOOL

SHRIMP & KIPPER (6 months to walking)

This is an introductory class designed to encourage the parent and child to enjoy themselves while learning about the water and aquatic safety. The games that are played will relate to future classes and help your child learn proper body positioning in the water. Cloth diapers and tight fitting plastic pants required. 1 child per parent.

INIA/PERCH (walking to 3 years)

This level further encourages the parent and child to explore the aquatic environment and increase propulsion skills such as kick movements and upper body control. Child will learn breath control in a fun atmosphere.

LITTLE SQUIRTS (30-36 months)

A class designed for the child who is unsure of their swimming skills but no longer needs a parent in the water. Each child is given the time to explore its new environment and build friendships with other children in the class. The gym portion of the class pays particular attention to large motor skills such as climbing and rolling.

PIKE (3-6 years)

Preschoolers who need help with floating, kicking and other basic swimming skills. All children in this class are taught the very basics of swimming. The gym will involve large motor skills such as walking on a pre-school balance beam, hopping, skipping and forward rolls. Group games are also introduced.

EELS (3-6 years)

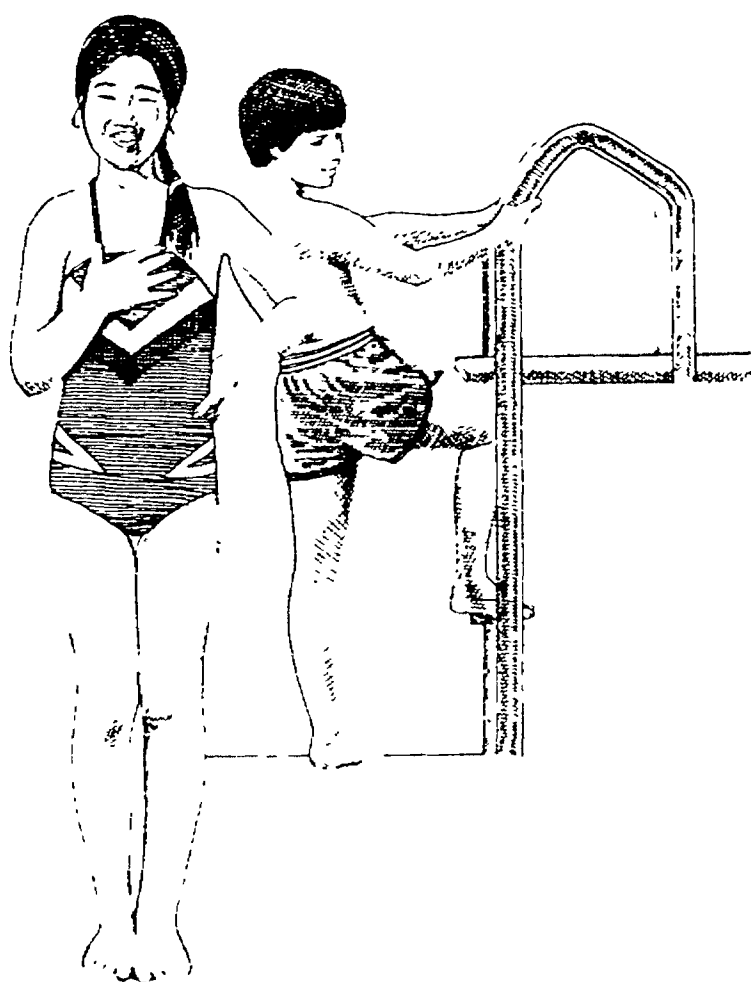

The goal of this class is to take a child who is able to swim one width of the pool with support from flotation device. The major part of the class will be spent on rotary breathing with work on a sitting dive and basic swimming safety skills. The gym will consist of group games and different types of gym equipment. The children will be encouraged to develop upper body strength and coordination.

RAYS (3-6 years)

This class is for advanced pre-schoolers who must be able to swim the width of the pool with rotary breathing. We will work on endurance, diving from the side of the pool, treading water and pool games. In the gym the children will work toward independence on the equipment in the gym, although they will still be working on their basic locomotor skills.

SCHOOL-AGE

PRIVATE SWIM LESSONS - For All Ages 6 yrs and up

Geared to the individual needs of participant. All lessons are scheduled by the Aquatic Director. You must schedule and pay for a set of 4 (four) lessons. NO MAKE-UP LESSONS will be scheduled unless a 24 hour notice is given.

FEE: $15 per half hour PAYABLE 48 HOURS BEFORE 1ST LESSON.

POLLIWOG

This is the ideal "first" class for your child to take in our Swim Program. In our Polliwog class your child will learn the very basics of swimming such as floating, kicking and gliding. There are no pre-requisites for this class. When your child leaves this class, they will know how to swim, paddle stroke for 25 yards with some help and kicking with kick board for 25 yards.

POLLIWOG EXPRESS

This class is unique to our Y and is designed for the child who have been in Polliwog two or more times. In this class your child will practice those skills that are needed to progress into Guppy. Endurance is the main focus of Polliwog Express.

GUPPY

A class for your child to develop self-confidence and increase swimming ability without help from floats or instructors. Rotary breathing and front crawl are the main areas emphasized in this class.

GUPPY BUBBLER

Like the Polliwog Express class, the Guppy Bubblers are unique to the Livonia Y. Guppy Bubblers will spend the majority of their time in class working on their Rotary Breathing.

MINNOW

Minnow is the first formal time that your child will work on back crawl. Rotary breathing and endurance become more important in this class. In order to enroll in this class, the child should be able to swim one length of our pool with rotary breathing. Self help skills and mouth to mouth resuscitation will be covered in this class.

FISH

In our Fish class the swimmers will work on breaststroke, backstroke and learn how to do the dolphin kick. Standing dives and personal survival skills become more important in this class.

FLYING FISH

In our Flying Fish class the swimmers will spend more time practicing those strokes they already have learned from earlier classes. The butterfly stroke is introduced at this level. Each swimmer will be challenged mentally and physically as they learn about lifetime fitness habits.

SHARK

Shark is the highest level at the Livonia YMCA. We will teach each child how to do flip turns, surface dives, basic first aid and work on the side stroke.

TOT GYM

This class is fun for the child up to 3 years old. Parents are involved in this class that uses games and activities to work on large muscle groups and hand-eye coordination. Let your child explore up, down and around on mats and obstacle courses. Work with them to build confidence and enjoy themselves.

BEGINNER TINY TUMBLERS

Is your child not quite ready to leave your side? That's okay, we have a class for your three and four year old that you can be actively involved with! We have all the fun and do all the activities of a regular Tiny Tumblers class only you are there the whole time. Check it out!

TINY TUMBLERS

Get your little ones involved! This class is especially designed for three and four year olds. Creative games using the parachute and balls, imagination practice with animals and sounds, refining tumbling work on the mats and balance beam introduction are all part of this class. Get your kids off to a great start with Tiny Tumblers.

PRE-SCHOOL GYMNASTICS

Don't stop with Tiny Tumblers! Keep your children growing and learning with our Pre-School Gym program. We'll progress to more work on the mats and beams to other gymnastics apparatus such as the uneven bars and rings. Motor skills, and fine tuning of coordination and balance will help your child be more successful in everyday tasks and concentration. Plus - they'll have fun!

NEW! NEW! PRE-BEGINNER GYMNASTICS

Has your child progressed from Pre-School Gym, but is not quite ready for beginner gymnastics? We have the perfect class for them! This class gives your child a little extra time to master skills taught in the Pre-School Program, but also begins to introduce them to the discipline and new skills they will be learning in beginner gym. Also gives your child extra time to socially acclimate to a class structure.

PRE-SCHOOL BALLET (Ages 3-6)

An exciting introduction for your child into the world of ballet. Learning the basic steps and discipline of ballet encourages your child's interest, along with providing fun.

TUMBLING FOR THE NON-GYMNAST

A class designed for 5th through 12th graders who are not currently in a gymnastics program and who just want to have fun with tumbling. A great class for preparing for cheerleading tryouts or the non-cheerleaders looking to increase flexibility, coordination and tumbling skills.

GYM CLASSES

SCHOOL-AGE

BEGINNER GYMNASTICS

No experience necessary! Now is your chance to get involved in this sport. Conditioning and exposure to all competitive apparatus (beam, uneven bars, tumbling skills). You'll learn safety principles of gymnastics and how to do some basic tricks on the bars and beam. Check it out!

LEVEL I & II INTERMEDIATE GYMNASTICS

Have you passed the skills of Beginner Gymnastics? Are you ready for the next level? Progress in your program by taking Level I & II. Learn more tricks on the apparatus, become better conditioned, improve your technique and start preparing yourself to be a member of the team!

LEVEL III & IV ADVANCED GYMNASTICS

Fine tune all of your gymnastics skills at this level. The next step is the team!

TWISTERS GYMNASTICS TEAM

You've made it! Competitive gymnastics for the experienced/advanced female gymnast. Must try out or be recommended by one of our coaching staff. BOOSTER CLUB for parents Home and away meets with other Ys during the season!

RHYTHMIC GYMNASTICS CLASS

Interested in discovering a new form of gymnastics? Try Rhythmics, an official Olympic sport. The class will introduce the aspiring gymnast to the use of hoops, balls, ribbons and clubs in this creative, athletic form of gymnastics.

BASKETBALL CLASS

This coed class is a great way to get introduced to the game of basketball. Learn the basics of ball handling, defense, shooting, strategy and playing the game! Non-competitive, skill building class.

FLOOR HOCKEY

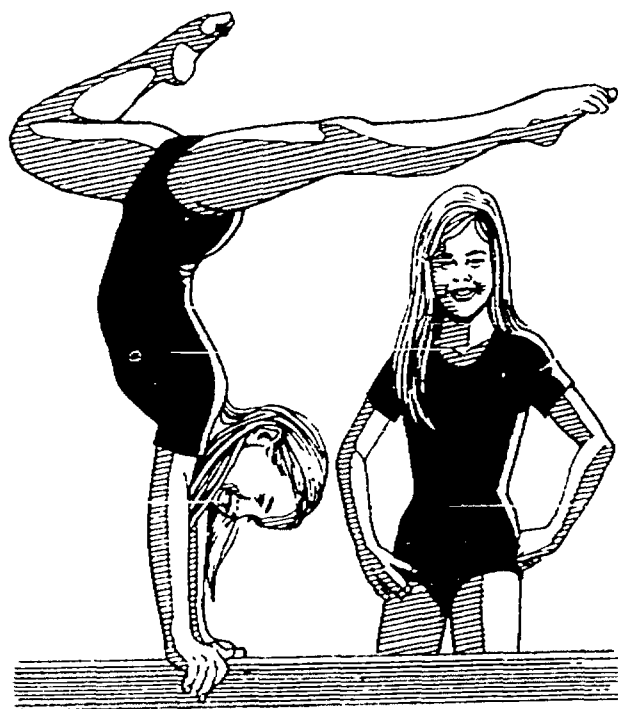

A fast-paced, exciting game. Everyone is playing! Learn the game by practicing stick handling, shooting and defense. Play real games during class. Skill building and progressive.

F.A.S.T. Fitness Activity for Sport Training

Come to the Y after school for a great time! Organized games, fitness activities, skill building in sports are all part of the program. You'll also get to swim (lessons and free time). Join us this year!

TEEN WEIGHT TRAINING

A great class offered to kids 14-17 years. Proper techniques of weight training will be emphasized with free weights and Pyramid and Nautilus equipment in the Wellness Center. Basic principles and personal training programs will be devised. A great way to get in shape!

All Classes Follow USGF Protocol and Are Taught by Certified Instructors

See Page 15 for Days and Times.

ADULT CLASSES

BEGINNER FITNESS

Been out of fitness for a while? Never exercised before? Enjoy a less intense workout? This class is for you! Come join us to exercise and socialize with people at your fitness level.

CONTINUING FITNESS

Get Fit, Stay Fit! Classes are designed to increase cardiovascular endurance, strengthen muscles and improve flexibility. Appropriate for the new exerciser in good shape or for those who just want to maintain their level of fitness.

SUPER FIT

Are you an overachiever? An intense person? Love to sweat? Super Fit is a high level, choreographed, 1-1/2 hour class featuring cardiovascular conditioning, muscular strength and flexibility exercises. Circuit training and other exercises will be introduced to keep you challenged.

HIGH ENERGY, LOW IMPACT AEROBICS

Enjoy this Saturday morning class where low impact is the focus! You'll get a great cardiovascular workout while keeping impact with the floor to a minimum. Appropriate for any fitness level.

STEP AEROBICS

It's new, it's exciting, it's a great workout, it's STEP AEROBICS! The latest craze in fitness is here. This class gives you all of the benefits of a high intensity workout without a lot of high intensity impact. Creativity on the Steps is the key. Try this one!

WATER EXERCISE

A wonderful, wet workout! You don't need to be a swimmer to exercise in the pool. All work is done in the shallow end. We work you hard enough to get your heart and lungs in shape, but the buoyancy of the water takes all of the impact away. The class helps you increase flexibility and muscular balance and coordination, too.

PRE NATAL

Feeling low on energy and out of shape during pregnancy? Don't want to or aren't supposed to overdo? This is the class you need! Exercise emphasizes keeping you fit and toned during pregnancy. Walking and simple aerobic exercise along with safe floor exercises are done to keep lower back and abdominal muscles strengthened.

TORSO DYNAMICS

Tone, firm, strengthen and sculpt your body! Torso Dynamics is the perfect class to do all of these things. It's also a great compliment to an aerobic workout. It is conveniently offered after Tuesday, Thursday fitness class - take them both!

WOMEN'S WEIGHT TRAINING

A new class for Women only. We will teach you the basics of lifting weights - proper technique and use of the machines in the Wellness Center and Iron Works room. Get your body back in shape. Instructor will help you design your own program.

PHYSIOLOGIC

Tired of working out and not getting any results? Maybe you're not working out right or maybe you're working on the wrong thing! We offer a fitness evaluation to determine your current level of fitness and set you up on a program that will help you get results. See the Wellness Center Staff for an appointment today!

POWER WALLYBALL

Enjoy some good competition in this exciting game! A cross between racquetball and volleyball, wallyball can be enjoyed and mastered by all. Space is always limited because it is played in a racquetball court. Grab some friends or co-workers and join in the fun.

ADULT MEN'S BASKETBALL

Informational meeting for all teams will be on October 3rd at 6:30 p.m. The season will start play on October 27th, 1991. The Sunday League will be limited to 14 teams. Tuesday Night League will be limited to six teams. The cost of the Sunday League is $315 and the Tuesday League will be $275. For more information call Aaron Reeves - 261-2161.

RACQUETBALL CLINICS

Are you interested in learning more about racquetball? If so, contact Aaron Reeves for more information - 261-2161.

KARATE

BEGINNING KARATE

Introduce yourself to the world of Tang Soo Do, a form of Korean Karate. Karate is an exciting and very disciplined art form. Train and learn with high level Master Dan!

KARATE CLUB

Be a part of an elite club of students who are striving to be the best! Club participants follow a rigorous training program and advance to various belts at their own pace. Various registration and association fees required and there are mandatory clinics for advancement. Taught by Master Romines, 6th Dan.

AIKIDO

A different art form than Karate (Japanese Budo). A creative art that evolved from a combat Martial Art of the Samurai Warrior to a non-combative, non-competitive art form. Enjoy increased levels of concentration, flexibility, lower body strengthening and cardiovascular fitness.

BEGINNING AIKIDO

A great introduction to this non-combative, non-competitive Japanese art form. Learn all about Aikido in this beginning class so you may progress in the program.

TWINGES-IN-THE-HINGES "Arthritis Aquatic Program"

The National YMCA and the National Arthritis Foundation have joined together to establish a recreational water program for persons with arthritis. Swimming ability is not necessary for participation. This class does not replace prescribed regimen of therapeutic exercises, but studies have shown potential resistance property of water can help decrease pain or stiffness and improve coordination. Class will meet for one half hour per week with an additional half hour water time at the participant's convenience.

A special registration form is required and participant's doctors will be contacted by the YMCA for a medical consent form. Registration form may be obtained from the Physical Education Secretary or Aaron Reeves, Aquatic Coordinator.

Class is open to any adult with arthritis who is able to climb stairs to locker rooms and pool.

YMCA - LIFEGUARD TRAINING

Want to become a Lifeguard? Sign up now for our lifeguard class that will enable you to work at any pool in the area. The prerequisites for the class are that you must be 16 years old, have or be enrolled in both a CPR and First Aid class.

INSTRUCTORS AND LIFEGUARDS NEEDED

MUST BE 17 YEARS, HAVE CURRENT CPR, LIFEGUARD, FIRST AID. Contact Aaron Reeves, 261-2161. Day and evening shifts available.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED!

If you are interested in doing volunteer work, the Livonia Y is interested in you! We could use your enthusiasm and expertise (a little or a lot). If you are interested in helping in any of the areas listed below, please fill out this form and leave it at the front desk.

BASKETBALLA YMCA INVENTION*BASKETBALL

The sport has changed since we invented basketball, but our aim is still the same.

Since Dr. James Naismith created basketball 100 years ago at the YMCA training school, our goal has been to help kids develop self-esteem and strong moral values. Because we believe that's what they need to take their best shot at life.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE:

Five Advantages to Buying the Chef's Chicken:

Advantage #1: FRESH FLAVOR FROZEN IN TIME
The Chef's Chicken is made from young, tender broilers that are aged to their peak tenderness. Then they're sized, blade-cut and trimmed. Finally, to capture the chicken's fresh, natural flavor at its very best, each piece is individually frozen. Fresh flavor, moistness and tenderness, as a result, is literally frozen in time - assuring you chicken that's as fresh as the day it was packed.

Advantage #2: STOPS BACTERIA
In its early stages, bacteria does not affect the appearance, taste or smell of food. However, when chicken is ice packed and not flash-frozen, the growth of bacteria is accelerated. The Chef's freezing process stops the growth of harmful bacteria.

Advantage #3: NO LEFTOVERS
You really get what you order. Consistently good, fresh-tasting chicken. When ice pack chicken is bought, giblets account for about 14% of the whole bird. Trimmings and excess fat... add about another 5%. This is weight you pay for, but rarely use.

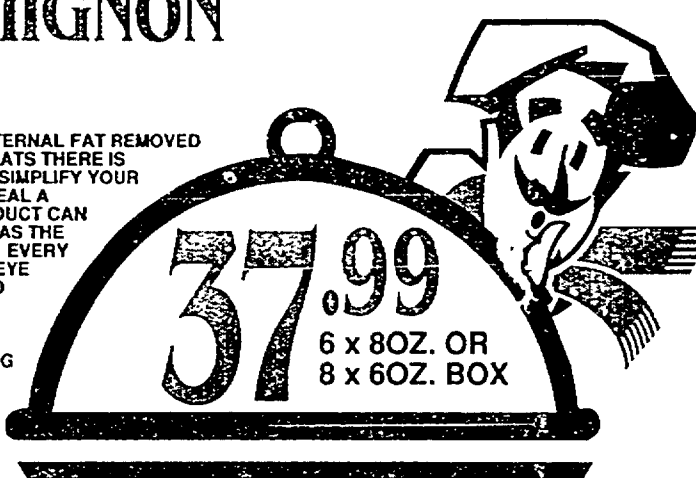

Advantage #4: CONSISTENT IN SIZE AND QUALITY
Buying ice pack chicken, is buying an inconsistent product. Weights typically vary by 4 to 16 ounces per bird - varying the number of chickens in one case to the next, number of pieces yielded and most importantly the size of those pieces. With the Chef's chicken, you are assured accurate sizing and number of pieces. You know exactly the number of servings in each carton.

Advantage #5: LESS LABOR - READY TO COOK
You can take the Chef's chicken from freezer to recipe without thawing. Using any standard cooking method, portions are already cleaned and trimmed then packed under the strictest guidelines. Ice pack chicken requires additional cutting, cleaning trimming and preparation before cooking. Convenience and quality by the Chef is guaranteed.
