Residents: Preserve historic barn

Neighbors want to see it stand

BY PAM FLEMING STAFF WRITER

Yet another historic 1840s barn in downtown Northville is attracting the attention of residents who want it to be preserved.

Neighbors of a residence at 413 Randolph St. showed up at the Dec. 15 Historic District Commission meeting to say they don't want it to be torn

The barn under the direction of local architect Walter Coponen. He said he had a structural engineer review the barn, which has been used as a garage, and that the structural integrity has been ruined. The property owners are proposing to remove the barn.

"I am here before you tonight to demolish the structure," Coponen said to the commissioners.

Coponen said a few years ago the owners tried for a variance before the Board of Zoning Appeals to make the garage/barn into a carriage house-style garage, but the request was denied.

After much discussion, commissioners are asking Coponen to talk to the city staff about obtaining a second opinion on the structural integrity from a city-approved structural engineer and then report back to

The city doesn't have a structural engineer on staff.

Coponen said there is some question as to the safety of the garage/barn.

The building is on a concrete slab, so it can't be moved to a different location.

One of the neighbors had Tim Willis of the Barn Preservation Network look at the structure, and he said the barn was a viable structure.

A woman who lives next door to the property on Linden Street said the barn reminds

This circa 1840s barn at 413 Randolph St. will be reviewed by a cityapproved structural engineer in the near future to see if the structure is safe. The property owners want it torn down, but neighbors are asking the city to preserve the historic building.

Employees at Mitsubishi Electric Automotive America Inc. in Northville Township are spreading good cheer this holiday season by helping others.

Cheryl Crawford, human resource supervisor, serves as president of the company's philanthropic committee called PEACE, that stands for Proving Excellence And Caring Exist. Throughout the year, the firm has many different fundraising events.

Crawford received the company's Presidential Service Award. This year, employees purchased gifts and a meal for students and families at Cooke School in Northville and students from the Redford Union Oral Program for the hearing impaired.

Someone gets nominated to receive this award for the previous year's contributions," Crawford explained.

The firm at 15603 Centennial Drive off of Five Mile between Sheldon and Beck roads has partnered with Cooke School for students with cognitive impairments since

"It's been very successful," Crawford said. The affiliation with Redford Union Schools' hearing impaired program is new. We have an employee whose spouse works there," Crawford said, so that's how the new partnership began. The firm had a holiday party at Cooke School on Dec. 3, with the Redford Union party on Dec. 6.

Gifts are purchased for all of the students and brought to the firm, where they are wrapped and returned to the schools for Santa to distribute.

"It's about a three- to four-hour event," Crawford said. This year, more than 400 people at Cooke School participated." Cooke has about 160 students.

TOYS FOR TOTS DRIVE

Mitsubishi also does an on-site Toys for Tots drive at the company each year. The company's headquarters is in Mason, Ohio, with the Northville location serving as the sales office, employing about 100 people.

Thehe people belong to the PEACE committee, but many more volunteer their time. They also have a canned food drive and an Adopt-A-Family program during the holi-

"Philanthropy is a big part of the Mitsubishi Electric culture," Crawford said. They want all of our subsidiaries to have social responsibility."

The Mitsubishi Electric America Foundation's focus is on children with disabilities. "We also take suggestions from employees on other causes we might like to support," Crawford said.

Joe Teed, another member of the PEACE committee, said this year the company has "adopted" about 10 families that they will provide food and gifts.

Goal is to get school on board

Northville High School senior Robert Hsu has an opportunity to meet first lady Michelle Obama last month in their cru-sade against childhood obesity.

"This is an important issue," and I hope my experience will bring more attention to it," Hsu

He was invited to a health forum on obesity with Obama and Mayor Corey Booker of Newark, N.J., on Nov. 18 at Maple Avenue Elementary School. Hsu, 17, of Novi was invited as one of two members of the Alliance for a Healthier Generation's Youth Advisory Board. This national organization is based in New York City.

The students participated in a special event with Obama as part of her Let's Move! initiative to reduce childhood obesity. Chassidy Sumler, 16, of Flora, Miss., was the other Youth Advisory Board member. They met with Obama and Booker to discuss ways the youth leaders are working to inspire young people in their communities to eat better and

CHILDHOOD OBESITY STATS

The number of adolescents who are overweight has tripled since 1980 and the prevalence among younger children has more than doubled, according to the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services. According to the 1999 to 2002 NHANES (National Health and Nutrition Examination Survey), 16 percent of children age 6-19 years are overweight. Not only have the rates of overweight increased, but the heaviest children in a recent NHANES were markedly heavier than those in previous surveys.

In her speech to students, the first lady recounted the stories of four youth leaders in the Alliance's empowerME kids' movement. Her remarks below are from the official transcript:

HOW TO GET INVOLVED

Those interested in becoming a youth leader can visit www. empowerME2b.org.

Parents and teachers looking for ways to create a healthier community for children can visit the Alliance's Healthy Schools Program website at www.HealthierGeneration. org/schools and learn how to make a school a healthier place for students to learn and staff to work.

He hopes that forums like this can serve as a catalyst to create further change in our schools and community, especially with the projects he has brought to NHS, such as the Healthy Schools Program designed to improve a school's overall health environment.

HEALTHY SCHOOLS PROGRAM

Hsu's first goal is to get NHS to sign up for the Healthy Schools Program, a comprehensive program that tarpers vall aspects to the school.

This includes meals, vending school activities, health education, physical education, policy and school employee wellness.
"I want Northville to become self-sufficient when I leave," Hsu said. "I want the school to be able to continually improve the meals that are being offered."

He is currently working to recruit teachers, parents, administrators and other students to join a School Wellness Committee.

"I'd like to get conversations started about school health," Hsu said.

A third change Hsu made was to start running more last summer. "I tried to run an hour a day rather than just playing tennis and then doing nothing the rest of the day," he said.

Hsu said his parents support his efforts because they understand it's something he believes is important.

HGTV show 'Cash & Cari' debut party slated in Northville Jan. 3

Public invited to world premiere airing

Cari Cucksey, who recently opened the consignment store RePurpose in Northville Square, will debut her new HGTV show "Cash & Cari" with a party in the downtown Northville mall on Jan. 3.

The self-made treasure hunter and broker, who is said to give new life to dusty relics, will have a special event at 8 p.m. at 133 W. Main Street in the space formerly occupied by NOMI restaurant.

Doors will open at 7:30 p.m., with a special viewing of the cable TV show at 10 p.m. Beverages and hors d'oeuvres will be served, with a VIP area reserved for special guests.

The guest speaker will be best-selling author Mark Victor Hansen, co-author of the "Chicken Soup for the Soul" series.

ABOUT THE SHOW

In the show, Cucksey finds, restores and sells items for a homeowner for personal profit. During the series, that officially premieres at 10 p.m. Eastern Standard Time on HGTV, Cucksey and her team are shown searching estate sales, flea markets, attics and garages to find hidden or overlooked antique furniture, decorative accessories, collectibles and memorabilia.

Whether it's a vintage Chanel gown left behind a the dry cleaners, a limited-edition pink vinyl copy of Michael Jackson's "Thriller" album or a Capodimonte porcelain statuette, Cucksey's expert eye can spot the undiscovered gems that could lead to big bucks.

Viewers can follow her as she helps families dig through piles of personal possessions and then prepare the bounty for sale. For Cucksey, it's about the thrill of the hunt. So, in some instances, she buys the contents of an entire home, packing up the goods and refurbishing the items for sale at RePurpose, her shop in Northville Square at W. Main and Wing streets.

COUNCIL MEETING EARLY

The city of Northville invites the community to come celebrate the world premiere of Cucksey's new national cable TV show. Northville City Council members voted Monday night to move the Jan. 3 city council meeting to 5:30 p.m. to accommodate Cucksey's special 8 p.m. event.

Driving without license

A 25-year-old Plymouth woman was arrested for driving on a suspended driver's license at 5:36 p.m. on Nov. 15 at Seven Mile and Haggerty roads.

An officer pulled the woman over after he saw her vehicle turn left from southbound Haggerty Road onto eastbound Seven Mile Road after the signal had turned red.

Drunk driving arrest

2A 19-year-old Lake Orion woman was arrested for operating under the influence of liquor at 3:01 a.m. on Nov. 16 at Six Mile and Haggerty roads.

The woman was stopped by police because the headlight was out on the passenger side of her vehicle, and the license plate light was also out.

The woman provided an expired registration and valid proof of insurance. She said she did not have her driver's license with her because her purse had been stolen.

The officer could smell alcohol on her breath even though she said she had not had anything to drink.

Wheels, tires stolen

3A 30-year-old resident of Surrey Lane reported to police that someone stole the wheels and tires from her vehicle between 10 p.m. on Nov. 15 and 6 a.m. on Nov. 16.

The vehicle was under the carport and had two landscaping blocks underneath on both sides toward the middle of the vehicle.

There are no witnesses or suspects in the case.

The four wheels were valued at $1,500.

Possession of marijuana 4A 21-year-old Northville woman was arrested for possession of marijuana and paraphernalia at 9:44 p.m. on Nov. 17 at E. Clairmont Circle and Stonewater Boulevard.

Police were dispatched to the area about a parked vehicle with its occupants acting suspicious. The call was made by a nearby resident.

The vehicle was parked in front of a house that is still under construction.

The officer spelled burnt marijuana upon approaching the vehicle.

The driver, a 26-year-old man, said he was just stopping by to use the portable toilet.

The man said he did not have any marijuana, but that his girlfriend had some in her purse. The woman admitted that the drugs were in her

She said she could identify the elephant because it had been repaired.

She could not provide serial numbers or brand names for any of the stolen items, however. Other stolen merchandise included a $400 garden tiller/riding mower, $2,400 in tools, a $400 fiberglass extension ladder and the amusement park figures valued at $10,000. Unity in the Community

MLK Day encourages Northville students to 'Keep the Dream Alive!'

Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.'s challenge to keep his dream alive is the theme of the fourth annual "Unity in the Community" event being hosted by Northville Public Schools on Martin Luther King Day, Jan. 17.

Community members are welcome to attend the gathering, which will take place at 7 p.m. at Genitti's Little Theatre, 112 East Main Street in downtown Northville. The evening will feature readings by student winners of the districtwide writing contest based on this year's theme — "Keep the Dream Alive!"

Dr. King had a dream that all people would be able to be friends with whomever they choose; not be judged by how they look; solve problems with words and not violence; and stand up for what they believe is right, even if others disagree. Students participating in the contest were asked to write an essay, letter or poem or create a poster or project describing what they think needs to be done to achieve peace and harmony in our community and world. The deadline for entries was Dec. 14.

· Nine writing contest winners will be selected including one from each of the district's six elementary schools' fourth and fifth grade entries, and one each from Hillside Middle School, Meads Mill Middle School and Northville High School. Two winning posters or projects selected from entries by the school district's special education center program students at Cooke and Old Village schools will be displayed on the cover of the "Unity in the Community" event program. All winners receive a $160 U.S. Savings Bond provided by the Northville Educational Foundation. Establishedin 2000, the Foundation is a Michigan nonprofit organization committed to providing support for programsthat enhance educationalexcellence and strengther learning experiences for sturents in Northville Public Schools. The Foundation raises professionally manages and, in partnership with Northville Public Schools, distributes donated funds to supplement and enrich educational programming.

The Jan. 17"Unity in the Community" event also will feature songs celebrating Dr. King's message of peace and unity sung by the Northville High School Sophomore Select Choir.

A special presentation by Schoolcraft President Dr. Conway Jeffress will focus on the importance of the education of our nation's young people in realizing Dr. King's viduals and groups to achieve intellectual, social, and economic goals. "The writing and poster contest, along with the Unity in the Community event, provides an opportunity for our students, school families and community members to reflect on how Dr. King's legacy of peace, unity and service to others still has so much meaning for us today," said Lynne Mossoian, director of Special Services for Northville Public Schools and chairperson of the school district's Martin Luther King Day Planning Committee.

Everyday in our community and our schools we do our best to keep Dr. King's dream alive and live by the principles he taught," said Northville Superintendent Dr. Leonard R. Rezmierski. "I am confident the writings and artwork our students create will offer hope for a brighter future and inspire us all to be kind and helpful to our fellow citizens."

Admission to the "Unity in the Community" event is free. However, in keeping with Dr. King's wishes that we should act in service to others, those attending the program are encouraged to contribute a non-perishable food or household item for donation to Northville Civic Concern to help those in need in the Northville community.

High kickin' to first place

More than 60 elementary, middle school, high school and collegiate pompon and dance teams from across Michigan competed in various categories throughout the day. These included Jazz, Hip Hop, Contemporary Pom and High Kick. Teams were scored in areas including showmanship, formations and transitions, unique choreography, music incorporation, team precision, form and height of kicks, and overall performance. Mid American Pompon will host its Regional Competitions at Livonia Churchill High School on Saturday, Jan. 22, Ann Arbor Skyline High School on Sunday, Jan. 23 and Saginaw Heritage High School on Saturday, Jan. 29. At Regionals, teams will be competing to qualify for the State-Wide Championship at Eastern Michigan University on Sunday, Feb. 13.

"Why would we not go to extremes to try to save it?" she asked. Urban legend is that the property belonged to the son of the town's blacksmith back in the day, but this has not been historically substantiated.

Heidi Nielsen of the Northville Historical Society and curator of Mill Race Village said that no information is available on the structure or the corresponding Coponen said the structure was compromised in the 1960s when a carport/lean-to was added to the structure.

"If it had been left alone, we'd be talking about a completely different animal," he said. "We can't dismantle it and make it look like it does now. We'd have to completely have to start over from the skeleton."

Commissioner Jennifer Bayly said she believes the city owes it to the community to at least check out the possibility

"It's history is on that land," Bayly said. "It's an avenue we should look into. We owe it some consideration rather than to just start to tear it down. We want to preserve the few historic buildings we have left.'

Mayor Chris Johnson, who is on the commission, said the real question is whether the building is safe.

The existing structure would need a variance in order to rebuild it into a usable garage as the 14-foot barn/garage is to tall under current height regulations.

We're kind of in a Catch 22." said Commissioner Joe Hoffmann. "We can't move it, and we'd need a variance to make it work."

The application to demolish the structure was withdrawn until the city-approved structural engineer's report is completed.

CADY STREET BARN DISCUSSED

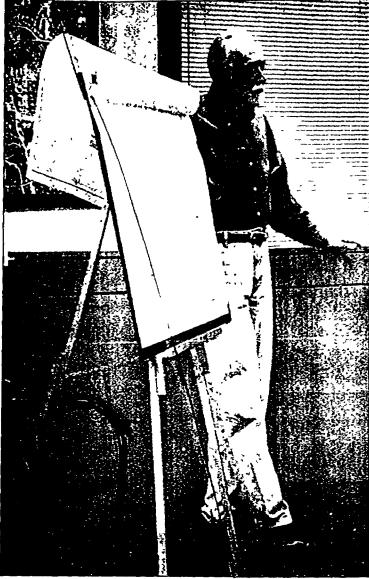

Commissioners reviewed a barn on Cady Street next to Oakwood Cemetery at their November meeting and continued to discuss it at the Dec. 15 meeting. It has been deconstructed and was supposed to be reconstructed on the property.

However, Greg Presley, the architect on the project, said Dec. 15 that some of the materials on the Cady Street barn may need to be replaced with new ones.

The original intent was to save it, but I don't think we're going to be able to do that now," Presley said. "The siding is peeling," he said, and there is other damage that can't be repaired.

On the upside, the young couple who have purchased the home plans to use quality materials in refurbishing the barn (no fake wood), and they plan to incorporate windows from the 1840s barn into the Senior Center, 303 W. Main St. She'll start her new job on Jan.

Joanna Harris, current operations coordinator, will serve as

She would have worked for the communities for 26 years in April.

Sincock, 53, was 27 when she started working for Northville. She was hired as assistant director by the current director, Jef Farland.

"About a month and a half after I started he accepted the director of parks and recreation position in Southfield," Sincock said.

John Anderson was hired that fall, and he served as director for six and a half years. When he left, Sincock was promoted into the director's position in October 1991.

SEEN LOTS OF CHANGES

She said the community has changed so much in terms of development since she started back in 1985.

"When I started, the race track (Northville Downs) still had their stables where St. Lawrence Estates is," she said. They used to bring the horses across the street and had a traffic officer that would guide the horses from the stables over to the track. It was fascinating."

Sincock said Beck Road wasn't even paved back then, and the whole western side of the township was virtually undeveloped.

The department had a beautiful athletic complex at Six Mile and Beck roads on property owned by Chuck and Jim Lapham," Sincock recalled. There were three soccer fields. Don Thompson allowed the city to use some of his property for a baseball field. "It was sort of like an early Field of Dreams."

The soccer fields were in operation until Community Park was built in the early Traci Sincock laughs during a quick tutorial of pickleball at Hillside Recreation Center. The director of Northville Parks and Recreation will be leaving her position at the end of this month to take a job with the Northville Chamber of Commerce.

Sincock said she feels fortunate to have worked in the community during a time when so many new facilities were being constructed.

"It seemed like every year we were building a new park or adding another project because the community was growing so fast," she said.

CHAMBER EASY TRANSITION

The Northville Parks and Recreation Department already has a close partnership with the Chamber of Commerce already, so Sincock has worked with Humphries and her chamber co-associate director Jeri Johnson on many projects over

"Instead of serving the residential community, I'll be serving the business community," Sincock said.

The next big event is the Business Showcase at Northville High School on March 5. This year's theme is Hollywood," Sincock said.

WHAT MAKES COMMUNITY SPECIAL

Sincock said what makes Northville special is the cohesiveness between the city, township and the schools.

Other communities are trying to figure out how to do this, and it's just our culture here since the 1970s," she said. Sincock grew up in Lansing and graduated from Eastern Michigan University. She and her husband of 15 years, Paul, live in Plymouth with their yellow Labrador retriever, Luke.

She enjoys participating in the Susan G. Komen Three-Day Breast Cancer Walk for the past 10 years either as a walker or a volunteer, running, golfing, downhill skiing, travel and reading. Her mother, Jane, died of breast cancer.

"I don't want anybody else to have to ever go through that, so whatever I can do is my mission," she said.

She is also an active Northville Rotary Club member and was very involved in the Michigan Parks and Recreation Association and foundation board.

The township thanks Traci for a remarkable record of service," said Chip Snider, town-ship manager. "Traci performed admirably and effectively at a time of great changes to the challenges facing the Northville community. The residents appreciated her determination to achieve the right results in the back room or the boardroom. Traci was recognized as a leader in government with a distinctive expertise in recre-

She said her mission as director of Northville Parks and Recreation was to leave the department in better shape than she found it. "I hope we did that." Sincock said.

OUR VIEWS

Holiday season Bringing out the best in our communities

As we sit with our families and friends and celebrate another Christmas and holiday season, most of us can be thankful for the ability to enjoy the trappings of the season — the food, the presents, the family.

It is our nature to want our families gathered around us, like a warm blanket of love, especially at the holidays. However, not everyone has that luxury. Whether for medical reasons or through economic strife, many don't have families with whom to spend the holidays.

That's what makes people willing to share what they can — be it their money, their toys, their belongings, their homes, their businesses — to help others have a happy holiday season. There are many examples of which we know, including civic groups of all kinds, bell ringers at Salvation Army kettles, churches, volunteers who work the shelters and food lines, local Jewish and Muslim organizations uniting to relieve their Christian brethren on Christmas Eve and Christmas Day.

Countless stories crop up every year of these gooddeed doers.

And there are countless more about whom stories do not crop up, folks who help simply because they want to, and can. They host the homeless, donate anonymously to charities, help charitable groups pack food packages.

Those of us left to gather will do so with love and gratitude, as befits the season. Sure, there will be plenty of food and presents, as the commercialization of the season comes to a close, but that's not really the reason we get together. We do so in the spirit of love and togetherness.

It won't be that way for everyone, of course. Local charities again report a decline, for the most part, in giving, but an increase in requests for assistance. Everyone gives what they can, but with an economy still struggling to show signs of recovering, that hasn't been easy.

-Each year, we rouse ourselves during the holiday season to listen to the better angels of our nature. We reach out to others during this special time and promise to carry our concern forward into the new year.

Sometimes we do and sometimes we get too caught up in the frenzy of our own too-busy lives to make good on the promise. We do the best we can and then, when the season rolls around again, we make the promise one more time.

The commercial aspect is omnipresent, but once we get past that, the holiday season (Christmas, Hanukkah and Kwanzaa) are for most of us about home and hope, about family and love. We all long to be together, but in today's fast-paced, too-busy-to-take-the-time world, the fates don't always allow that.

Separations come, an assertion all too clear especially to the families of our servicemen and women serving in wars on two fronts - Afghanistan and Iraq - this holiday season. Until we can have that perfect Christmas, we will all simply have to muddle through, somehow.

Sometimes merry little Christmases can be the best kind. We hope your holiday season fulfills your every hope and dream.

Letters to the Northville Record Editor: New super should not be same old

*Really, is that how our school system should be run?" - Cecilia Bruck

Anti-bullying club forms at Northville High School

This should have been started long ago and in earlier grades. I have a daughter who skipped 8th grade in the Northville School system because of bullying and the principal at the time just said it was "part of growing up". No common sense and less work for her/him. I wish good luck to this group... and MAYBE the administration and school board will hopefully support this endeavor.

Great job, Ali! I personally know the girl who started this, and I can tell you that she is very passionate about this cause. I also know the teacher who sponsors this, and she also truly believes the club's mission. I am proud to say that I support this 100% and that I am also a member! I am happy that our school is starting to take a second look at bullying. As shown by suburbs49's post, bullying is a serious issue. We don't just attend school to learn, but more importantly, to become better citizens. RobertHsu

Opposing views not welcome

In case you have not heard, bright new signs are being designed to replace the traditional "Welcome to Northville Township" signs that greet many residents and visitors who live and work in the community. The signs will be similar in size; however, they will contain the words "views differing from the township supervisor or Board of Trustees not welcome in this community.

Proof arrived at my doorstep last week when I received a letter in the mail informing me my services were no longer required as a volunteer on the township's Economic Development Corporation / Brownfield Redevelopment Authority. Although I was disappointed my term was not renewed, I was not surprised, as I routinely asked questions and tried to understand the issues rather than "rubber stamping" items that appeared on the agenda for vote.

Case in point, at the Oct. 25 meeting, the group was asked to review / approve an application for a cleanup grant submitted to the EPA for the state hospital property (the actual application was sent in prior to the review by the EDC/BRA). I raised several concerns with regard to the vague application and asked that my nay vote and reasons for the dissenting vote be included in the BRA meeting minutes. My goal was to make the minutes public and transparent so the township residents could hold members accountable for their votes. I'm sure this, along with the fact I did not support the property purchase, sealed my fate.

Needless to say, when the draft minutes were distributed, no mention was made of my concerns (which I've included below).

Most disheartening was how certain township "leaders" provided conflicting and inaccurate statements on why certain terms were extended and others were terminated. Unfortunately, the blatant inaccuracies led the EDC chairperson to submit his resignation – a big loss for the township given his ethical, business acumen, and desire to make Northville Township a better place to

I believe, and hope you agree, the responsibilities of a volunteer EDC within a community is to raise questions and provide comments on issues at hand. What good is the committee if it is used to rubber stamp or push agendas of the Board of Trustees?

"Based on the discussion and concerns noted at the Brownfield Redevelopment Authority meeting held on Oct. 25, I do not support the proposed application to the EPA. Concerns noted that should be resolved prior to this or future applications include:

1. No master development plan exists for the Northville State Hospital site. The master plan should include specific details of the use of land, timing for use, and project milestones that can be measured. Specific clean-up requirements (including estimated costs and sources of funding) should be included along with a prioritization of the cleanup plan. No firm date has been set for completion of the master plan (spring / date).

2. The application is too vague and does not detail how the $200,000 will be spent. Although it is intended to give flexibility to the Township, by not submitting a detailed plan, the Township could adversely impact the chances of obtaining these, and more importantly, future funds. Grants are competitive and most likely will be awarded to applicants with solid, detailed plans. Why not put our best foot forward and show the EPA we are serious about this property (hard to say you are serious without a master plan)."

Was Scrooge a Republican?

Remember the Christmas story about Scrooge? He was a rich business owner who paid his employees starvation wages and didn't care that they were barely able to feed their families. He was only interested in making more money for himself. Many Republican members of Congress seem to have adopted Scrooge's philosophy. They are doing their best to deprive average Americans of fair tax rates, jobs and even Social Security. They are laughing all the way to the banks, most of which they own.

Republicans want the super rich to keep the tax breaks they received from the Bush administration. These wealthy folks have so many homes, luxury cars, private jets and bulging bank accounts they can't keep track of them. Democrats want average Americans to have some well-deserved tax cuts, but Republicans insist there will be no tax cuts for the little guys unless the super-rich keep theirs.

Democrats want to rebuild roads and bridges many of which are dangerously close to collapsing, like the one in Minneapolis in 2007. This would provide jobs for thousands of Americans and make highway systems safer. But Scrooge says, "We can't afford that." These same congressmen remained silent when President Bush gave billions of dollars to Wall Street bankers with no strings attached.

If you have lost your job and depend on your unemployment check, you may be out of luck. Scrooge has voted to stop unemployment checks, too. 'Tis the season to be jolly, but a message of disapproval to Republicans in Congress might be in order,

Schools should work with businesses

In today's tightening job market, one would think that technical schools, community colleges and traditional four-year colleges and universities would be preparing their students better than ever for the business world and helping them get jobs.

The reality is they are not. When I was in college back in the late 1980s, for my last couple of years I was already working full time and always found it strangely funny in a sick kind of way how professors were encouraging students to go to graduate school and not seek business experience before getting their masters.

Perhaps that is why the economy is in the mess it is today. University and colleges are not teaching or stressing the importance of moving fast and getting things done. In business, money loves speed.

But as I went to colleges, technical schools and two-year universities (avoiding the four-year colleges because we had just hired a recent grad that seemed to love research, but never wanted to get anything done) I noticed most of the placement directors or career planning coordinators did not answer their phones. Worse yet, they had many assistants reporting to them, and I am not sure if they would answer their phones either.

After calling 10 colleges, I only had two who answered the phone and were helpful. I even said to one, "Great, I found someone that will answer their phone." What is wrong with this picture? Keep that in mind when you are tempted to vote "yes" for raising taxes for publicly-funded education system. Perhaps the time has come to make all colleges and university taxable business, since they seem to be in business to make money and not help their student.

Here I want to hire some of their alumni. recent graduates or current students wanting to get valuable business experience before graduating, and they make me work very hard just to talk to someone.

If they are truly concerned about the students' best interest, should they be the ones doing the work and making the phone calls to find out what business are hiring?

When did we let the world get turned so upside-down?

Doug Klingensmith, concerned business owner Milford

Over one ton

Girl Scout Juniors in Troop 40834 and Troop 40574, all fifth graders at Silver Springs Elementary School, Northville, earned their Girl Scout Bronze Award by collecting more than one ton of canned goods for Northville Civic Concern in November. The 20 girls planned and executed a two-week food drive in the community and at school. The classroom that brought in the most food won a pizza party. The girls collected and delivered more than a ton of food to Civic Concern on Nov. 13. "The girls date-checked all the food, stocked the shelves and learned how the organization distributes food to 180 families right here in our community, said Shannon Graham, leader of Troop 40834. "It was an overwhelming experience for the girls," said Graham. "They really learned a lot and came away from the experience with a new perspective."

Team Ivon repeats as national AAU champ

Boys harriers dominate in offseason race

BY CHRIS JACKETT CORRESPONDENT

It may be the offseason for Novi's boys cross country team, but that didn't stop many of their runners from uniting for an offseason trip to Orlando for the AAU Cross Country National Championships.

Competing as Team Ivon – a homage to their hometown, "Ivon" is "Novi" spelled backwards – 22 Wildcats raced in the Youth division (ages 13-14), Intermediate division (ages 15-16) and Young Men division (ages 17-18) at the 5-kilometer (4-k for Youth division) event held Dec. 4.

To qualify, teams had to place in top three at the Michigan district race in November or any individuals who placed in the top 25 at the district race could also compete.

As the defending champions in the Young Men division, the Wildcats had no trouble qualifying and repeating with another national title despite losing their top runner from last year.

Senior Brett Giampa finished second in an All-American time of 16 minutes and 38 seconds. He was followed by seniors Joe Schubring (sixth in 16:54), Chase Conrad (14th in 17:58), Chris Vera-Burgos (17th in 18:07) and Garrett Murphy (18th in 18:18).

In addition to the top five runners who earned Team Ivon a score of 57, senior Steve Pravato was 22nd in 18:28, senior Nirguna Thalla 23rd in 18:29, junior Kevin Hanlon 28th in 19:30 and senior Sahil Mehta was 32nd in 20:12.

The younger Novi runners also fared well, as the Intermediate division edition of Team Ivon placed sixth nationally behind junior Eric Gardner's 24th-place finish in 17:33.

Adding to the team's score of 216 were junior News staff writer.

Ryan Tgiros (36th in 18:06), junior Mike Benkarski (42nd in 18:23), freshman Mike Dickmann (55th in 18:55) and sophomore Allen Potter (59th in 19:04).

Freshman Cameron Richman (61st in 19:08), sophomore Mitch Hall (75th in 19:54), sophomore Brennan Giese (76th in 19:55), freshman Paul Hoag (79th in 20:14) and freshman Justin Jarvis (80th in 20:15) also competed for the Intermediate team, but their finishes only pushed back the competition and did not count in the top-five scoring.

Team Ivon had just three harriers competing in the Youth division's shorter 4k race. Among a field of 76 runners, freshman Brian Barnes finished 10th in 14:15. Freshmen Nathan Hall (24th in 15:00) and David Gardner (44th in 15:41) also showed a glimpse of the Wildcats' future while competing with the Youth division AAU team.

Mustangs split week

Boys basketball beats Walled Lake Western, falls to Glenn

BY SAM EGGLESTON
CORRESPONDENT

It was a week of wins and losses for the Mustangs as they headed into the winter break.

The squad, coached by Todd Sander, earned a 68-59 win over Walled Lake Western before bowing, 47-43, to a tough John Glenn squad.

ON TAP

The Mustangs will be in action during the winter break, playing Tuesday in their own Holiday Tournament with a game against Dearborn. The team will then play Jan. 7 against Livonia Stevenson.

Against Western, Northville followed the lead f Andrew Baldwin, who scored 31 in the victory, including 18 in the first half.

"Drew was very efficient tonight," said Sander. "I thought it was one of his best games of his career."

Northville actually trailed, 36-32, at the end of the first half despite the outstanding performance by Baldwin, but the team came back to lead, 50-45, by the end of the third before completely taking control.

"We played a pretty com-

"We played a pretty complete game," said Sander. "Despite trailing by four at the half, we felt pretty good about where we were at."

The team came out and took advantage of Walled Lake's willingness to shoot, claiming control through strong rebounding and solid shooting.

Contributing to the win were Levi Perry and Al Myers, who had eight points each. Myers added six of his in the third quarter alone.

"(Al) was real active around the rim and the offensive glass," said Sander. "I was happy how he responded to the challenge after the break."

Unfortunately, Northville wasn't able to repeat that kind of comeback against John Glenn, which took a 22-20 lead by the end of the first half and managed to stay just ahead of the Mustangs until the final buzzer.

"We trailed most of the game with Glenn's lead fluctuating between two and five much of the night," said Sander. "We struggled with some of Glenn's pressure early, turning it over 10 times in the first half. We had a few key breakdowns-that I think were mostly mental--but in general, we played terrific team defense."

Northville followed the lead of Bryce Groshek and Baldwin, who had 16 points each. Glenn, however, did hold Baldwin to just four in the first half.

Novi wrestlers defeat Farmington, N. Farmington

BY CHRIS JACKETT CORRESPONDENT

It was a strong week of competition for Novi wrestlers again, as the Wildcats defeated both Farmington and North Farmington while also competing in the Oakland County Championships.

Competing in a quad meet at Northville Dec. 15, Novi edged out the Falcons 39-37 in the first dual contest. Heading into the final two matches with a 33-31 lead, sophomore Ben Landry (160 pounds) pinned his opponent in the first round.

Junio Giddiani Albuerne (125), senior Beau Bielski (140), senior David Sparling (189) and senior Alan Mencer (215) also won their matches by pin fall, while senior Shabaig Sidhu (135)

Girls hoop program shows dominance again

Wildcats improving on early mistakes

BY CHRIS JACKETT CORRESPONDENT

A pair of road contests at Walled Lake Central and Livonia Churchill last week allowed Novi's girls basketball team to close out the month with two solid victories.

The 'Cats (5-0) outscored the two schools 105-39 during the two games, an average 33-point margin of victory.

"It was good to see some things come together. The girls executed the game plan for both games and played together," Novi coach Bill Kelp said.

The tougher of the two tasks was Dec. 14 at Central (3-2), but the Wildcats shut out the Vikings in the second quarter en route to a 31-7 halftime lead and 57-29

Please see GIRLS HOOPS, B2

GIRLS HOOPS

"They were 3-0 and shoot the ball well, so we focused on contesting their shots. We did a good job of contesting their shots and limiting them to only one shot," Kelp said. "Brittany Berehulka shot really well and showed her range."

A sophomore, Berehulka led all scorers with 21 points while shooting 4-for-7 from distance (6-for-11 overall). Senior Joanna Beaton also turned in a strong performance with 14 points on 4-for-7 shooting. The two combined to shoot 11-for-12 at the free throw line.

We have been struggling at the line, so it was good to see; both of them are fundamentally our best shooters," Kelp said.

Sophomore Jade Antolec also had a solid sixpoint, six-rebound performance as the Wildcats shot 36.2 percent from the field (17-for-47) and 77.3 percent from the charity stripe (17-for-22).

Novi also controlled their turnovers (five) and fouls (12), while Central made 18 turnovers and 15 fouls while shooting 9-for-30 from the field. We took care of the ball against WLC by playing together," Kelp said.

The Wildcats' turnover troubles returned in an otherwise dominant showing in last Thursday's contest at Churchill (1-3), where very little worked out for the Chargers in a crushing 48-10 Novi victory.

We wanted to pressure their guards to make it difficult to get it into the post because they have a very good post player and that was the difference, Kelp said.

Although the Wildcats made 17 turnovers the same number of steals they had - the Chargers made 27 turnovers and only had two more field goal attempts than Novi had field goals made. The 'Cats shot 41.7 percent (20-for-48) and Churchill shot 4-for-22 from the field.

The Chargers outrebounded Novi 16-14 overall, but were shut out in the second quarter. It was Novi's second straight game with a secondquarter shutout, where senior Alyssa Armiak (seven points on 3-for-3 shooting, four assists) has held down the defense throughout the sea-

"I think, in both games, all of our players stepped up defensively and bought into the game plan," Kelp said.

Novi led 30-2 at halftime and rolled through a well-divided offensive display.

Beaton led all scorers with 11 points, followed by senior Maddy Sinkovich (nine points), freshman Kerri McMahan (eight points, six assists, four steals), sophomore Jade Antolec (six points) and junior Ally D'Annibale (four points, four rebounds, five steals).

"I think that is one of the strengths of this team right now that different players have led us in scoring most nights. This means that they are playing unselfishly and together," Kelp said. "I think Joanna has been very steady and has gained a lot of confidence. I'm very proud of the way she has been playing."

After taking a few weeks off from competition due to the holiday break, the Wildcats' boys basketball team (5-0) will return to action Jan. 7 against visiting South Lyon (2-1). KLAA Central Division play continues Jan. 11 at Plymouth Salem (1-4) and Jan. 14 against visiting Northville (1-1) All games tip off

After an impressive showing the night prior, Berehulka was held to one point on O-for-10 shooting; eight were three-point attempts.

Novi's freshmen team has dominated the opposition on its way to a 4-0 record this season, with a 166-31 combined advantage over the three Walled Lake schools.

The 'Cats outscored Central 49-7, Northern 53-13, Western 64-11 and then Saline 43-33 in the season opener.

Erin Dircks (11 points), Sarah Elhage (nine points), Hannah Fan (eight points) and Kasey Lowney (six points) led the way Dec. 15 against Central, while Kelly Lewis (14 points), Fan (9 points) and Serene Ozeir (8 points) led all scorers against a crippled and undermanned Northern squad Dec. 10.

To open the season Dec. 3, the Wildcats used a 19-point third quarter to defeat Saline with Lewis (19 points, 12 rebounds), Rachel Whitens and Anna Greulich (both with six points) leading the way.

The girls followed with a season-high 64 points against Western as Lewis (22 points), Elhage (eight points), Ozeir (eight points) and Whitens (seven points) paced Novi.

Churchill misfires, Novi catches fire in 54-29 win

Wildcat starters' eight très in 18 minutes too much for Chargers

BY CHRIS JACKETT CORRESPONDENT

There was no coming back from the hole that was dug last Thursday when winless Livonia Churchill visited undefeated

The Chargers (0-4) didn't have a field goal until the final minute of the first quarter, when senior Cecil Anthony hit a running jumper in the lane for his only basket of the night. The score would only cut the host Wildcats' (4-0) lead to 15-4 before the 'Cats rolled to a 54-29 conference vic-

Novi senior Rob Laney (14 points) was dominant for the Wildcats early on, hitting the first three field goals of the game to get seven of Novi's first eight points during an 8-2 opening

"He was really aggressive. He wasn't pleased with the way he played Wednesday night and he came out with the intent that he was going to set the tone," Novi coach Cory Heitsch said.

The 'Cats poured it on in the second quarter as senior Samer Ozeir (game-high 16 points, seven rebounds), junior Scott Kempa (five points) and senior Chris Milon (four points, 15 rebounds, five blocks) joined in for a 20-7 advantage that led to a 35-11 halftime score.

Things are going his way right now," Heitsch said of Ozeir. "He didn't have as many rebound opportunities because he was playing perimeter defense."

The Chargers outscored Novi's bench 9-0 to close out the final 5:47 of the third quarter, including five points from junior Bryan Bartig, which tied senior Josh Dillard's first half point total for the team high.

Josh Dillard, a first-year senior player, provided a lot of energy early on when we were down," Solak said.

After a fourth-quarter-opening three pointer by senior Troy Bogenschutz cut the Chargers' deficit to 47-27, neither team could score for several minutes.

A breakaway layup by Novi sophomore Tre Cadwell broke the Wildcats' drought with about 4:30 left in the game, nearly seven minutes since Lancy's three pointer.

They were excited. They were pleased to be out there," Heitsch said of the reserves.

The Wildcats closed out the game on a 7-2 run that began with Cadwell's lone score of the night and held on for a 25-point

Mustang girls outshoot Regina

The Northville Mustangs girls hockey team took home a decisive victory last Friday night, defeating Regina, 6-3.

Defense, as always, played a huge part in the team's success, said coach Bill Holden. He highlighted the efforts of senior defensemen Lindsey Kreichelt, Katelyn Meck and Natalie Demuro, and sophomore Kate Sell.

The key to success at the high school level is goaltending and the Mustangs are led by two of the league's best goalies," Holden said.

He is, of course, referring to Avery Allman and Katilyn Sabourin, who both started at the varsity level as sophomores and are the only pair of goalies in the girls hockey program's 10-year history to have done so.

Shamrocks wrestling team wins 2nd-straight Oakland County title

BY SAM EGGLESTON CORRESPONDENT

The Catholic Central Shamrocks had a lot to deal with last week. Their coach, Mitch Hancock, had a baby added to his family and the team had to not only take on the best squads in Oakland County, but also had to wrestle the No. 2-ranked team in the

Thankfully, everyone proved to be ready for each of those challenges and Hancock's baby was born and the Shamrocks earned a championship for the second-straight year in the Oakland County Tournament and defeated the Davison Cardinals, 47-21.

This team loves to compete and each individual has a goal of accomplishing something great," said Hancock. "It is easy to keep young men focused

We divide our schedule into three seasons and we finish the first part on December 30th at the Goodrich Tournament of Champions.

That meet will be key for the Shamrocks.

Traditionally, the team that wins at Goodrich has gone on to win the MHSAA team state finals title as well--an honor that has been all Shamrock in recent years.

To prepare for that meet, and the finals, the Shamrocks wrestle the best teams they can, hence their Oakland County Tournament grappling, which the squad won. Individually, the Shamrocks had four titles with Evan Toth (103 pounds), Malik Amine (112), Alec Mooradian (135) and Mikes Trealout (189) taking home titles. Runner-ups for CC were Ken Bade (125), Riley who wish to achieve excellence. Hanson (140) and Nick Mason (145). Overall, Catholic Central had 13 out of 14 wrestlers finish in the top five.

To win his title, Amine had the most difficult of any Shamrock wrestler, but lived up to the challenge as he defeated six All-State wrestlers in his bracket, including a pin over state runner-up Josh Wood from Rochester in the final match.

The Shamrocks also secured a win over Davison, the No. 2-ranked team in Division I behind Catholic Central.

The wrestling team earned a 47-21 victory over the Cardinals. Earning victory via a pin were heavyweight Mike Popiela as well as Hanson, Mooradian, Trealout and Bade.

SHEN YUN PERFORMING ARTS

Classical Chinese Dance & Music in an Unforgettable Production

A GIFT FROM A DIVINE LAND

THERE WAS A TIME long, long ago when China was known as Shen Zhou-The Land of the Divine. The arts and the culture there were considered so exquisite and so vibrant that they could only have been bestowed by the heavens. And thus the people of the land strove to hold themselves to a higher standard so as to be worthy of such gifts. Today, Shen Yun brings these gifts

Perhaps it is the quiet gentleness of the heavenly maidens that reminds us of a better time and a better world. Perhaps it is the conviction of warriors dashing across the plains that tells us that good always defeats evil in the end. Or maybe it's just the timeless stories of courage and compassion, kindness and

Whatever it is, Shen Yun has touched the hearts of millions. "I cried a few times," one audience member confessed. "What 'I saw was power, honesty, and integrity—I am grateful for that." The show has graced some of the most prestigious stages in the world, from the Royal Festival Hall in London to the Kennedy Center in Washington, D.C. Shen Yun is more than just the world's premier classical Chinese performing arts company. It is an experience you won't want to miss.

A PERFORMANCE 5,000 YEARS IN THE MAKING

A performance by Shen Yun is traditional Chinese culture as it was meant to be: a study in grace, wisdom, and all the virtues distilled from millennia of Chinese civilization. The classically trained dancers, musicians, and singers of Shen Yun Performing Arts share a vision: to revive and restore Chinese culture to its former, glorious state.

Based in New York, Shen Yun Performing Arts is distinguished by its conscious effort to remain independent of China's communist regime, which has abused and impoverished the arts for decades. In fact, a show like Shen Yun's can no longer be found in China today. As one well-traveled New Yorker noted: "I've seen China before with my eyes, but this show had me experience China with my soul."

nese a little foreign, never fear. The show is based on Chinese culture, but the values it portrays belong to all of humanity.

ONE OF THE MOST DEMAND-ING ART FORMS IN THE WORLD

No other art form in the world boasts such strong expressive qualities and diversity of technique as classical Chinese dance. It takes years of rigorous training to master the many leaps, flips, and delicate gestures. Dancers must also be versed in Chinese culture to achieve the bearing needed to bring ancient legends and heroic figures to life.

In addition to the classical forms, Shen Yun features the distinctive colors and styles of ethnic and folk dance. Choreographers draw upon over 20 dynasties and 50 ethnic groups to create pieces that range from the northern steppes of Mongolia to the lush forests of Yunnan. Among the most impressive elements of any Shen Yun show are the large-scale ensemble pieces in which dozens of dancers appear to move as one body across the stage.

Shen Yun has also created its very own brand of story-based dance, which often deals with universal, thought-provoking themes. As one distinguished ballet dancer noted, "There's a lot of depth and meaning. It's a new realm of dance.

TWO GREAT CLASSICAL MUSIC TRADITIONS ONE FRESH, UNEX-PECTED SOUND

Some remarkable instruments such as the pipa or ethu date back more than 3,500 years, but the reality is very few Chinese instruments have made it to the world stage. To remedy this, the composers of Shen Yun bathe the distinctly Chinese sounds in a rich sea

For those who find all things Chi- of Western strings, percussion, wood winds, and brass. The result? A new and mesmerizing sound.

> Each season, the composers create over 20 original scores. They work closely with the choreographers to ensure a seamless blending of the music with each and every dance.

EXTRAORDINARY ARTISTS

"There's just something about them," audience members often remark.

At a time when the influence of Taoism, Buddhism, and Confucianism was strong in the Middle Kingdom, art was a means to explore the connection between mankind and the higher universe. Poets and artists cultivated virtue and engaged in study and meditation because they believed that to create true art worthy of the heavens, there must first be inner beauty and purity.

Today, the artists of Shen Yun follow in that noble tradition. Their training regimen requires focus and a mindful lifestyle. Many draw inspiration from traditional cultivation practices such as Falun Dafa, which teaches truthfulness, compassion, and forbearance.

Among the company's artists are many winners of international competitions in dance, music, and singing, as well as accomplished choreographers and composers. No other Chinese performing arts group in the world can boast such a remarkable body of tal-

GIRLS HOOPS

"They were 3-0 and shoot the ball well, so we focused on contesting their shots. We did a good job of contesting their shots and limiting them to only one shot," Kelp said. "Brittany Berehulka shot really well and showed her range."

Hometown Weeklies | Thursday, December 23 2010

A sophomore, Berehulka led all scorers with 21 points while shooting 4-for-7 from distance (6-for-11 overall). Senior Joanna Beaton also turned in a strong performance with 14 points on 4-for-7 shooting. The two combined to shoot 11-for-12 at the free throw line.

We have been struggling at the line, so it was good to see; both of them are fundamentally our best shooters," Kelp said.

Sophomore Jade Antolec also had a solid sixpoint, six-rebound performance as the Wildcats shot 36.2 percent from the field (17-for-47) and 77.3 percent from the charity stripe (17-for-22).

Novi also controlled their turnovers (five) and fouls (12), while Central made 18 turnovers and 15 fouls while shooting 9-for-30 from the field. We took care of the ball against WLC by playing together, Kelp said.

The Wildcats' turnover troubles returned in an otherwise dominant showing in last Thursday's contest at Churchill (1-3), where very little worked out for the Chargers in a crushing 48-10 Novi victory.

We wanted to pressure their guards to make it difficult to get it into the post because they have a very good post player and that was the difference," Kelp said.

Although the Wildcats made 17 turnovers - the same number of steals they had - the Chargers made 27 turnovers and only had two more field goal attempts than Novi had field goals made. The 'Cats shot 41.7 percent (20-for-48) and Churchill shot 4-for-22 from the field.

The Chargers outrebounded Novi 16-14 overall, but were shut out in the second quarter. It was Novi's second straight game with a secondquarter shutout, where senior Alyssa Armiak (seven points on 3-for-3 shooting, four assists) has held down the defense throughout the sea-

"I think, in both games, all of our players stepped up defensively and bought into the game plan," Kelp said.

Novi led 30-2 at halftime and rolled through a well-divided offensive display.

Beaton led all scorers with 11 points, followed by senior Maddy Sinkovich (nine points), freshman Kerri McMahan (eight points, six assists, four steals), sophomore Jade Antolec (six points) and junior Ally D'Annibale (four points, four rebounds, five steals).

"I think that is one of the strengths of this team right now that different players have led us in scoring most nights. This means that they are playing unselfishly and together," Kelp said. "I think Joanna has been very steady and has gained a lot of confidence. I'm very proud of the way she has been playing."

After taking a few weeks off from competition due to the holiday break, the Wildcats' boys basketball team (5-0) will return to action Jan. 7 against visiting South Lyon (2-1). KLAA Central Division play continues Jan. 11 at Plymouth Salem (1-4) and Jan. 14 against visiting Northville (1-1). All games tip off

After an impressive showing the night prior, Berehulka was held to one point on O-for-IO shooting; eight were three-point attempts.

Novi's freshmen team has dominated the opposition on its way to a 4-0 record this season, with a 166-31 combined advantage over the three Walled Lake schools.

The 'Cats outscored Central 49-7, Northern 53-13, Western 64-11 and then Saline 43-33 in the season opener.

Erin Direks (11 points), Sarah Elhage (nine points), Hannah Fan (eight points) and Kasey Lowney (six points) led the way Dec. 15 against Central, while Kelly Lewis (14 points), Fan (9 points) and Serene Ozeir (8 points) led all scorers against a crippled and undermanned Northern squad Dec. 10.

To open the season Dec. 3, the Wildcats used a 19-point third quarter to defeat Saline with Lewis (19 points, 12 rebounds), Rachel Whitens and Anna Greulich (both with six points) leading the way. The girls followed with a season-high 64 points against Western as Lewis (22 points), Elhage (eight points), Ozeir (eight points) and Whitens (seven points) paced Novi.

Wildcat starters' eight très in 18 minutes too much for Chargers

Bennetts said the tankers face a bigger challenge when school resumes.

"We need to have a great winter break and come into the New Year ready to go," he said. "I have faith that the seniors on this team will step up and become the leaders that we need the rest of the way."

Shamrocks wrestling team wins 2nd-straight Oakland County title

BY SAM EGGLESTON CORRESPONDENT

The Catholic Central Shamrocks had a lot to deal with last week. Their coach, Mitch Hancock, had a baby added to his family and the team had to not only take on the best squads in Oakland County, but also had to wrestle the No. 2-ranked team in the state.

Thankfully, everyone proved to be ready for each of those challenges and Hancock's baby was born and the Shamrocks earned a championship for the second-straight year in the Oakland County Tournament and defeated the Davison Cardinals, 47-21.

This team loves to compete and each individual has a goal of accomplishing something great," said Hancock. "It is easy to keep young men focused who wish to achieve excellence. Hanson (140) and Nick Mason We divide our schedule into three seasons and we finish the first part on December 30th at the Goodrich Tournament of Champions."

That meet will be key for the Shamrocks.

Traditionally, the team that wins at Goodrich has gone on to win the MHSAA team state finals title as well--an honor that has been all Shamrock in recent years.

To prepare for that meet, and the finals, the Shamrocks wrestle the best teams they can, hence their Oakland County Tournament grappling, which the squad won. Individually, the Shamrocks had four titles with Evan Toth (103 pounds), Malik Amine (112), Alec Mooradian (135) and Mikes Trealout (189) taking home titles. Runner-ups for CC were Ken Bade (125), Riley (145). Overall, Catholic Central had 13 out of 14 wrestlers finish in the top five.

To win his title, Amine had the most difficult of any Shamrock wrestler, but lived up to the challenge as he defeated six All-State wrestlers in his bracket, including a pin over state runner-up Josh Wood from Rochester in the final match.

The Shamrocks also secured a win over Davison, the No. 2-ranked team in Division I behind Catholic Central.

The wrestling team earned a 47-21 victory over the Cardinals. Earning victory via a pin were heavyweight Mike Popiela as well as Hanson, Mooradian, Trealout and Bade.

SHEN YUN PERFORMING ARTS

Classical Chinese Dance & Music in an Unforgettable Production

A GIFT FROM A DIVINE LAND

THERE WAS A TIME long, long ago when China was known as Shen Zhou-The Land of the Divine. The arts and the culture there were considered so exquisite and so vibrant that they could only have been bestowed by the heavens. And thus the people of the land strove to hold themselves to a higher standard so as to be worthy of such gifts. Today, Shen Yun brings these gifts

Perhaps it is the quiet gentleness of the heavenly maidens that reminds us of a better time and a better world. Perhaps it is the conviction of warriors dashing across the plains that tells us that good always defeats evil in the end. Or maybe it's just the timeless stories of courage and compassion, kindness and kinship.

Whatever it is, Shen Yun has touched the hearts of millions. "I cried a few times," one audience member confessed. "What I saw was power, honesty, and integrity-I am grateful for that." The show has graced some of the most prestigious stages in the world, from the Royal Festival Hall in London to the Kennedy Center in Washington, D.C. Shen Yun is more than just the world's premier classical Chinese performing arts company. It is an experience you won't want

A performance by Shen Yun is traditional Chinese culture as it was meant to be: a study in grace, wisdom, and all the virtues distilled from millennia of Chinese civilization. The classically trained dancers, musicians, and singers of Shen Yun Performing Arts share a vision: to revive and restore Chinese culture to its former, glorious state.

Based in New York, Shen Yun Performing Arts is distinguished by its conscious effort to remain independent of China's communist regime, which has abused and impoverished the arts for decades. In fact, a show like Shen Yun's can no longer be found in China today. As one well-traveled New Yorker noted: T've seen China before with my eyes, but this show had me experience China with my soul."

For those who find all things Chinese a little foreign, never fear. The show is based on Chinese culture, but the values it portrays belong to all of

No other art form in the world boasts such strong expressive qualities and diversity of technique as classical Chinese dance. It takes years of rigorous training to master the many leaps, flips, and delicate gestures. Dancers must also be versed in Chinese culture to achieve the bearing needed to bring ancient legends and heroic figures to life.

In addition to the classical forms, Shen Yun features the distinctive colors and styles of ethnic and folk dance. Choreographers draw upon over 20 dynasties and 50 ethnic groups to create pieces that range from the northern steppes of Mongolia to the lush forests of Yunnan. Among the most impressive elements of any Shen Yun show are the large-scale ensemble pieces in which dozens of dancers appear to move as one body across the stage.

Shen Yun has also created its very own brand of story-based dance, which often deals with universal, thought-provoking themes. As one distinguished ballet dancer noted, "There's a lot of depth and meaning. It's a new realm of

Some remarkable instruments such as the pipa or ahu date back more than 3,500 years, but the reality is very few Chinese instruments have made it to the world stage. To remedy this, the composers of Shen Yun bathe the distinctly Chinese sounds in a rich sea of Western strings, percussion, woodwinds, and brass. The result? A new and mesmerizing sound.

Each season, the composers create over 20 original scores. They work closely with the choreographers to ensure a seamless blending of the music with each and every dance.

"There's just something about them," audience members often remark.

At a time when the influence of Taoism, Buddhism, and Confucianism was strong in the Middle Kingdom, art was a means to explore the connection between mankind and the higher universe. Poets and artists cultivated virtue and engaged in study and meditation because they believed that to create true art worthy of the heavens, there must first be inner beauty and purity.

Today, the artists of Shen Yun follow in that noble tradition. Their training regimen requires focus and a mindful lifestyle. Many draw inspiration from traditional cultivation practices such as Falun Dafa, which teaches truthfulness, compassion, and forbearance.

Among the company's artists are many winners of international competitions in dance, music, and singing, as well as accomplished choreographers and composers. No other Chinese performing arts group in the world can boast such a remarkable body of talent.

A BRAND NEW PRODUCTION FOR 2011

Months of training and preparation culminate each winter when Shen Yun debuts a spectacular original production with all new dances, costumes, and

How To Answer: 'What Have You Been Doing Since You Were Laid Off?'

Kaitlin Madden, CareerBuilder.com Writer

When you first lost your job. you spent your time wallowing in your sorrows -- eating ice cream in your pajamas and watching Judge Judy all afternoon. Then your determination kicked in, and you decided to find a new job. You perused job boards, polished up your résumé, searched for old co-workers on LinkedIn -- and occasionally watched Judge Judy all afternoon.

While this may be the truth about what you've been doing since your last job ended, telling this to a recruiter probably won't be all that impressive. Though looking for a job is an admirable and necessary task for those out of work, telling a recruiter about your job search won't set you apart from the pack.

So how do you answer the "What have you been doing" question in an interesting, unique and truthful manner?

Focus on activities you've been involved with

For example, if you have three kids, tell the recruiter how you've been able to serve as team parent for your child's soccer team since you have more free time. Or, if you've spent your extra time going to the gym, talk about how you've been focusing on improving your health. These things show that you're making the best out of a less-than-ideal situation.

Activities like volunteering and part-time work can also yield transferable job skills. If you've been helping out a local charity with its online marketing efforts or putting in 20 hours a week as a part-time receptionist, relate the experience to the job you're applying for.

"There are tons of transferable skills that are gained from volunteer work and unpaid projects," says Susan Fletcher, psychologist and author of "Working in the Smart Zone." "Community involvement, events you've participated in or even been in charge of, volunteer boards you've served on and organizations you've been a member of provide a network and skill set similar to a paying job."

Highlight self-improvement

Have you been reading up on your industry in an effort to stay current? Did you recently start a blog about your field or try your hand at consulting?

"Our chief technology officer likes to ask people what they learned last month," says Daniel Ruby, research director at Chitka, an advertising company. "[Whether it be] a new coding language or a new database structure -- keeping up on the latest emerging skill sets is a very good sign that this is someone we want to hire."

Showing an interviewer that you've been developing your skill set while unemployed demonstrates that you are motivated and interested in furthering your career and have a passion for your industry. "We've interviewed several people who were laid off and had been unemployed for a while," Ruby says. "Personally, I like to hear about entrepreneurial ventures they've tried, whether it's building an ad-powered website, starting an online store, etc. Like many tech firms, we love seeing the entrepreneurial spirit in someone. If they started a company and failed, that's great, because they started a company and were actively working to control their own destiny."

Lay the groundwork

You can't give an interesting answer to the question "What have you been doing since you were laid off?" if you haven't been doing anything interesting. Although it may be hard to concentrate on anything but finding a job, it shouldn't be your sole focus. Taking on volunteer activities, signing up for a class that will improve your skills, doing contract work or joining a job-search support group will not only help you keep your sanity while you're unemployed, but will also make you more attractive to potential employers.
