Man charged with taking lewd photos

Burrill's is accused of using his cell phone on the afternoon of Sept. 5 to take photos of the girl.

According to Northville Township Police, at 4:29 p.m. on Sept. 5 officers responded to a 9-1-1 call from the Barnes and Noble, which is located at 17111 Haggerty Road. The mother of the girl called after she observed a male subject who she had noticed following her family throughout the store, who then approached her 13-year-old daughter.

According to the police investigation, the child was standing at a computer terminal and was wearing a dress. The subject knelt behind the child and placed his cell phone between the child's legs under her skirt. The mother confronted the subject, who then fled the area in a small green pickup truck.

The subject was described as a heavy set Caucasian male, approximately 5 feet 10 inches tall, with dark hair. Surveillance images of the subject were available for review to assist with identification and these were given to the media, which were seen by the tipsters.

Burrill is being held on a $500,000 10-percent conditional bond in the Wayne County Jail. He is not allowed to have contact with the victim.

THE MILLION MILE CLUB

Northville carriers have perfect driving records over three decades

> By Kurt Kuban Staff Writer

How many people can say they've driven a million miles on the road without ever having been into an accident?

Over at the Northville Post Office, there are three longtime carriers who can boast just that. Betty Karsten, George Huchla, and Livonia resident Roy Bloxsom have all been recognized as "Million Milers" for having never gotten so much as a scratch on their postal vehicles. Each has spent more than 30 years on the job, delivering mail throughout the Northville community.

Huchla, who everyone Knows as "Hutch,k" is the junior member of the group. He has been a carrier for only 34 years (Karsten has been on the job for 35 years, and Bloxsom has the most time at 37 years). Huchla said it does take a concerted effort to stay safe on the road, especially when you primarily travel residential streets.

"You have to think about safety all the time," said the 57-year-old Dearborn resident. "You always have to be on the lookout for kids on bikes or people pulling out of their driveways. You just never know, so you really have to be alert."

Huchla estimates he drives about 20 miles a day on his current route, which includes the Lakes of Northville sub.

Northville postal carriers and smiling members of the "million mile club" are (from left) Betty Karsten, George "Hutch" Huchla, and Roy Bloxsom. The trio, all postal carriers for more than 30 years each, were recognized for their safe driving and good service recently.

Lyon resident, has served three different routes during her time in Northville: downtown and north of Eight Mile; the Eight Mile and Taft area; and over the last three years south of Six Mile between Bradner and Winchester. In her current route, she travels about 11 miles per day, and when you add in overtime and extra routes that she might take on, it comes to about 65-70 miles per week. She also attributed her success on the road to awareness.

"You just always have to be aware of the crazy things that go on around you," she said. You can't move until you check your mirrors. People are walking their dogs or kids are running up and down the street. It's just amazing to me how people can be inconsiderate of us. I think sometimes they think we're just sitting there and not doing a job.'

And, while Karsten, 55, has yet to cause any injury-related accidents, she has donated her fair share of blood over the years to help others who have gotten into accidents. She said she recently reached the milestone of donating 19 gallons of blood over the years, something she is very proud of.

All three carriers were recently presented plaques for their safe driving records on the job, which, for Huchla at least, also extends to his driving outside of work. He said he has never been in an accident in his life. In fact, he was thinking of taking his plaque up to AAA to see if they would give him some kind of discount on his driver's insurance.

the department blocking off the street and simulating an emergency fire run to the home. Once there they used the new equipment in different rooms and floors of the home.

Although the trucks are not it service yet, Northville City Fire Chief Steve Ott said, "The training opportunity is a great way to get better accustomed to the capabilities of the QRV."
"We are continuing to we are continuing to work and learn on them, so it becomes part of our muscle memory. They will soon be put into service," Ott said. "The QRVs will add a whole new and valuable option for us."

The City of Plymouth vehicle is replacing a vehicle that was lost in a fire on June 9, 2013. The QRV for the Northville Station will replace an existing unit that is currently in service.

The QRV is smaller than a traditional truck, but it packs a similar punch and has a air foam system that is the most modern.

Ott said the new QRVs have Compressed Air Foam Systems (CAFS) as well as 1,250 gallon pump and ladder package. The "Jaws of Life" will also be able to be placed on these vehicles. These will become first response vehicles for both stations.

The training was held this past Saturday morning and it went well. Ott said there were some different details to get used to, but overall it went well.

"These trucks are a new trend," Ott said. "These first responders will give us more capability at a structure fire."

The Menharts plan on having the home, which among many things had a defective foundation, demolished and a new one built on the lot from the ground up by Ross-Man Construction.

She said the Beautification Commission members volunteer so much of their time planting and maintaining containers and beds throughout the city and township to make Northville such a beautiful place to live and visit. The support of the city and township plays a big part in their efforts.

"Everyone notices how special our town is," Mantay said.

All of the businesses in the community are judged over the summer by beautification members. Mantay said the most important thing when judging is to remember that it is the whole picture, which includes the building, the grounds, and the flow-

Northville District Library portrait shines light on Sarah Ann Cochrane

Sarah Ann Cochrane, for whom the local Plymouth/Northville Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution is named, is one of Northville's most famous women. The Northville District Library wants to make sure locals know who she was.

The library recently hung up a portrait of Cochrane. The newly framed portrait was originally presented to the library in 1964 by the Northville/Plymouth DAR chapter, and has been in storage for many years. It is now located on the main level of the book mural.

Cochrane, born in 1832, was the daughter of a pioneering Michigan family and a direct descendant of five American Revolutionary War soldiers. In 1843, Cochrane and her family came to Michigan from Vermont when her father, the Rev. Sylvester Cochrane, was asked to become the minister of a new Presbyterian Church in the village of Northville. Two years later, her father founded the Northville Academy, where young men studied before entering the university. The building

Cochrane helped her father teach in the school until it closed in 1857. In 1858 she graduated from the Monroe Female Seminary and reopened the school as a unit for young ladies until 1860. She worked at the Detroit Public Library from 1883 to 1906. Under her supervision, the library first classified its collection using the Dewey Decimal Sys-

A story about Sarah Cochrane was published on July 17, 1969 in the Northville Record Centennial Edition, and recounts Sarah's journey to Michigan by horse and wagon as a youngster. Northville High School senior Erin Kim talks about the school's involvement in the international charity buildOn, which has a chapter at the school.

During the meeting NHS junior Esha Jain shared her experience in going on a "trek" to help build a primary school in Nicaragua.

"The main thing I took from this experience was being with that community and getting to know them," she said. "That was my favorite part. It meant a lot to me to help them with such an important need."

Each month buildOn does fundraisers to help raise money to fund trips to places in need of the group's help. Not all club members will go on a trip, but all will help out in some way toward the end goal.

In the first three years, Warriors for Warriors has raised more than $200,000 and more than 170 people have been honored during these touching ceremonies.

Shirts will be sold prior to game day throughout the community for $15 at Your Salon, Tricho Salon and Yoberry. Western students and staff also show their support by wearing their pink T-shirts on what they call Warrior Wednesday. To date, more than 1,000 shirts have been sold for this year's event.

This year, the honorary captain for Warriors for Warriors is Sydney Balzer, a fifth-grader at Commerce Elementary who has endured leukemia not once, but twice. She has used her experiences to help others and founded her own community service project -Colors for Cancer Kids.

"Commerce Elementary is incredibly proud of Sydney," said Christina Carlin, Commerce Elementary principal. "Her bravery, strength and selfless spirit are an inspiration to us all. Sydney's courageous journey has touched people's hearts and reminded us to slow down and cherish the ordinary, everyday moments. After conquering leukemia for the second time, we couldn't be happier to see her arrive at school every day with a smile on her face. She truly has the heart of a warrior."

To kick off the evening, a Warriors Survivor Parade will begin at 6 p.m. It is notable that the parade is open to those who have been touched by any form of cancer. Patients, survivors and those Warriors who wish to honor the memory of friends and family who lost or are fighting their battle to cancer are welcome to join in the march. "How to Pay for Care — Qualifying for Benefits (Including Veteran's Benefits) When You Or A Loved One Needs Help"

Veterans & Qualified Dependents: Get The Help You Need To Pay For At-Home Care, Independent/Assisted Living, or a Nursing Home! (Even If You've Been Told You Don't Qualify)

If you or a loved one needs help with care – at home, in assisted or independent living, or even a nursing home, you need to understand your legal options – because your legal options have a big impact on your financial options.

VETERANS: If you or a loved one is a Veteran, the spouse of a Veteran, the widow or widower of a Veteran, or a qualified dependent, you may qualify for a very important -- but little known -- benefit. The "real" name is improved Pension, but people usually call it "Aid & Attendance." This is an amazing benefit for those that need help with expenses related to athome care, assisted living, or nursing home care, but are afraid of depleting assets or running out of money.

Nursing Home: Also, if your loved one needs nursing home care (even if NOT a Veteran), it is important to understand how to qualify for nursing home Medicaid, even if you think you have "too much money." There are strategies that can SAVE thousands (and more) of dollars!

The problem is that people are often told they don't qualify -- but they aren't told they could become qualified - and they are > definitely not told how to qualify.

> > The result? Major depletion of, or a complete loss of, a lifetime of savings. Don't let misinformation keep you from making good decisional

Northville man gives Beaver Creek a makeover

By Sue Mason Staff Writer

He goes by the nickname Tiny, but there's nothing small about David Thompson and his plans for Beaver Creek restaurant in Westland.

Thompson, who is a Northville resident, and a partner bought the restaurant in late August and are in the process of freshening the decor, tweaking the menu and adding entertainment in preparation for the grand reopening of Beaver Creek Saloon and Grill this weekend.

"I want to be the Sam Malone of Westland," Thompson said. "Doing this is what I love to do. Owning a bar and restaurant has been a lifelong dream."

Thompson has already made some changes inside. The Mutt of the Month photo gallery at the entrance has been moved to the back room, where artist Jeremy Cronk is in the process of creating a mural of a town with the Beaver Creek Saloon as the focal point. He also has hung his favorite photograph of Johnny Cash in the alcove off the main dining room.

"When the new owners took over, the guests asked if were we getting rid of the dogs. I told them yes and no," general manager Misty Lindquist said. "We've been doing Mutt of the Month forever. Some of those photos have been up since 1990."

Making changes

The blue lights that covered the exterior of the bar and were turned on during the holidays have been replaced with new lighting and 30 years of grime on the log siding was power washed away. Thompson's plan is to redo the exterior to make it look like a group of buildings and carrying that theme around the building and along the fence line.

"I want to redo the exterior so it looks like its own entity," he said. "When people walk in the door, I want them to feel like they're at home." Thompson also has been working on the menu. He carries a white binder filled with recipes he's trying out on the Sunday night crowds. He's been serving five samples at a time, seeing what works and what doesn't work. His focus is on more fresh ingredients and he's created a batter station in the kitchen so the cooks can do fresh batter-dipped food.

Surprisingly, it was Beaver Creek's pot roast sandwich that sealed the deal on buying the restaurant.

"I have a palate, a very, very good palate," Thompson said. "I want to serve good downhome, hearty food with outstanding service and good prices."

He's dropped some things from the menu, like the southern fried chicken, and kept the cookies. Thompson has changed up the wine list and is offering drink specials everyday. He also plans to add his signature items to the menu. This week, he had the cooks prepare corn fritters using fresh corn left from last weekend's Blues, Brews and Barbecue in Westland. His taste testers told him to put them on the menu.

Return of music

The biggest change will be the addition of music.

While Thompson had thought about renaming the restaurant Bootz, he was swayed to keep the Beaver Creek name by Lindquist. His "passion has always been country music and classic rock" and that's reflected in the entertainment, which will be a mixture of country, acoustic and classic rock

Each Wednesday night will be acoustic 7-10 p.m. for Hump Day Date Night and feature performers like Mike Adkins, who is touring with Uncle Kracker. Each weekend will feature classic rock and country bands. There will be music Saturday night for a pre-grand opening, while the bands for next weekend's grand reopening will be Rye Whiskey on Friday night and Big Ray and the Motor City Kings on Saturday night.

Thompson grew up in Wyandotte and lived in Redford for 20 years before moving to Northville with his wife Sue and daughter Morgan. He started in the business in 1984 and, from the very beginning, knew he wanted to be an owner. Over the years, he helped open Doc's in Livonia, worked at the Diamondback in Belleville and was general manager of the Elysium in Detroit.

He didn't know Beaver Creek, at 1609 N.
Wayne Road, was available when he and his partner started looking, but as soon as he pulled into the parking lot, he "just knew."

"I knew it was exactly what I was looking for, it had a rustic, down-home environment," he said.

And that's what he and the staff are working on.

"When you come to the Creek, I want you to think you're coming home," he said. "That's the atmosphere I want."

Novi man launches Mr. Handyman

In response to the increased demand for residential maintenance and repair services, local entrepreneur and Novi resident Mike Wierzbicki will open Mr. Handyman of Northville, Canton and Plymouth. This location is part of North America's largest full-service home repair franchise and the No. 1 employer of handymen nationwide.

After working more than 25 years in the real estate and property management industry, Wierzbicki made the decision to move on from the company after the announcement of a corporate downsizing. Since a portion of his responsibilities throughout his career included managing facilities and construction, Wierzbicki thought Mr. Handyman would be a good fit with his skill set and talents. He also found Mr. Handyman attractive because of its proven business model and support of the home office. Wierzbicki is excited to service the local community for all of its home improvement

Renovation expenditures are forecast to total almost $60 billion annually. For millions of homeowners, tending to these nagging repairs while balancing work and family has created a thriving demand for professional, safe and reliable home-repair services. This growth will also bring office and technician jobs to the area

"The steady increase of existing home sales and prices reflect a healthy rebound in the housing market," Wierzbicki said. "As a result, the demand for home improvement services in the area has increased as well. Our goal is to help area residents shrink those nagging 'to-do lists' on the refrigerator."

Service will be provided to Northville, Canton and Plymouth communities. For more information or to schedule a visit, call 248-719-7730.

Michigan retail sales climb again in July

Michigan's retail industry posted strong sales numbers in July for the second month in a row and forecasts for the end of summer and beginning of fall also rose, according to the Michigan Retail Index, a joint project of Michigan Retailers Association and the Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago.

Retailers' short-term sales forecasts also increased by 7 points in July, after slipping by nearly 10 points in June.

"It has been an unusually good summer. Shoppers were open to summer's sidewalk and other clearance sales as well as discounts on back-toschool merchandise, which may tell us two things about today's consumers," said James P. Hallan, MRA president and CEO. "First, they were confident enough to go shopping and spend money. Second, summer's sales appealed to their continued caution and desire to stretch their dollars.'

The positive numbers were across the board geographically and by types of stores and merchandise, he added.

The July survey of MRA members showed 63 percent of retailers increased sales over the same month last year, while 18 percent recorded declines and 19 percent reported no change. The results create a seasonally adjusted performance index of 74.9, up from 66.7 in June. A year ago July the Index stood at 63.9.

Looking forward, 58 percent of retailers expect sales from August through October to increase over the same period last year, while 13 percent project a decrease and 29 percent no change. That puts the seasonally adjusted outlook index at 76.7, up from 69.5 in June. A year ago July the Index stood at 82.0.

Annexation and Values

A few years ago there was an attempt by a developer with the backing of Livonia's Republican dominated city government to have a large portion of Northville Township annexed by Livonia.

My Republican opponent, Terry Marecki, was at that time a member of the Livonia City Council. She voted to support annexation.

I live in Livonia and I was opposed to the annexation. I spoke against it at meetings and in e-mails. I wrote a letter against it that was printed in The Livonia Observer. I even put out signs urging a no vote.

Like most of the Democrats I talked to about the annexation, I saw it as a moral issue. You do not hurt your neighbor to help yourself. The Republicans who supported the annexation took the opposite position. They talked about how it would benefit the citizens of Livonia. They did not seem to care how it would affect Northville Township.

The majority of Livonia's voters rejected the annexation request. They apparently did care how it would affect their neighboring community.

There appears to be a clear difference in values between Democrats and today's Republican elected officials. Democrats tend to treat other people the way they themselves would want to be treated if they were in the other person's shoe. You do not hear Democrats saying "greed is good" because they do not believe it, particularly when the greed results in hurting someone else.

You should consider voting for candidates whose values are the most like your own.

Farmington Players open season with 'Arsenic and Old Lace'

The Brewster sisters love to murder old men and bury their bodies in the basement. That zany premise sets the stage for the Farmington Players season opener, the farcical black comedy Arsenic and Old Lace by Joseph Kesselring.

Tickets are now on sale for the show that runs Sept. 26 through Oct. 18 at the Players Barn, 32332 12 Mile, in Farmington Hills. The show is sponsored by Mall, Malisow and Cooney, P.C.

Ínsanity runs in the family in this classic play that premiered on Broadway in 1941 and later became a popular film directed by Frank Capra. In the Farmington Players version, Cynthia Tupper of Farmington Hills and Mary Ann Tweedie of Novi shine as the spinster aunts, Abby and Martha, all too happy to dispose of lonely old men with a few sips of elderberry wine laced with poison.

As the old women perfect their deadly hobby, their nephew Mortimer Brewster (David Galido of Novi) pays a visit, discovering a body stashed in a window seat - and the game is on for a show rich in irony, where you can't help but root for the killers.

Kristi Schwartz of Canton makes her directorial debut captaining a show she first "fell in love with" during a high school acting class. "I'm attracted to the juxtaposition of 'good vs. evil' in this show," Schwartz said. "Being a good girl who always follows the rules, I wanted to direct a black comedy where I could explore that dark

Their live-in nephew

Teddy (Dan Muldoon of Madison Heights) prances around convinced he's President "Theodore Roosevelt," even supervising the digging of the Panama Canal. Charging up the stairs blasting his bugle, Muldoon creates a whimsical portrayal of the 26th president.

The craziness intensifies when the creepy third nephew, Jonathan, pops in — a Boris Karloff-looking serial killer on the run played by Guy Copland of Berkley. He's hiding from police with his sidekick Dr. Einstein (Gary Weinstein of Farmington Hills). Copland nails his part as the criminally insane bad guy everyone loves to hate, while Weinstein does the same, digging into his bag of comic tricks to make Einstein a lively character.

Schwartz admits she's fortunate to be blessed with a "talented cast and crew." She admires how her leading man Galido skillfully plays the "straight man" Mortimer, who discovers the bodies in the basement, covers it up from "clueless cops" and calls off his wedding, because he fears insanity may just be a family trait.

Northville voters should say 'YES' on library millage renewal Nov. 4

Northville voters will have a lot to ponder when they grapple with the ballot for the Nov. 4 general election. They will help decide everything from a Congressional race, to many statewide offices including governor and attorney general, as well as state senate, state representative, county commission and even a local school board race. And that's just to name a few.

Without doubt, this is an important election.

Because there are so many races going on, one of the issues that has been somewhat under the radar is a millage renewal for the Northville District Library. Voters are being asked to renew the library's operating millage of almost 0.2 for seven years.

The dedicated millage, which was first approved by voters back in 2010, is set to expire in 2015. This tax levy brings in about $450,000, or nearly a quarter of the library's overall operating revenue. Other sources of revenue include a one-mill levy on property that – in 1994 – voters approved in perpetuity, and building bonds that will be paid off in 2015. While the library budget is supplemented by fundraising, especially by the Friends of the Library, the lion's share of revenue is raised through property taxes in both the city and township. This operating millage is a big piece of that

There may be an inclination by some voters to balk at this request. Nobody likes to pay taxes. But it must be remembered that this is not a tax increase – it is a renewal of an existing tax levy that will cost the owner of a $200,000 home (with a $100,000 taxable value) about $20 per year.

Like all governmental entities, the library has been hit hard in recent years by declining revenues. That's why this small operating millage is so vital. It can be argued that the library is at the very heart of the community. Located in downtown Northville, the library is certainly utilized by local residents. If you don't believe that, stop by on a weekday, especially after school gets out.

The reality is the Northville District Library is a vital part of this community, and has been since it was first founded in 1889. Not only does it offer thousands and thousands of books, reference materials, magazines, CDs and DVDs, but it also has wonderful programming and services that are utilized by all segments of the community. It goes without saying that cuts would have to be made if this millage renewal failed. You can't lose a quarter of your budget and still provide the same level of services.

That's why we believe voters should approve this millage renewal, especially considering library-related taxes will go down after 2015 when the building bonds are paid off.

The thought of Northville not supporting its library is hard to imagine.

Vote YES on the millage renewal. The library is one of the best values in town.

STEVE FECHT

Anne Mannisto, assistant director of the Northville District Library, shares information about the library's November millage renewal with attendees at the Sept. 9 campaign kickoff for volunteers. Learn about the renewal by visiting northvillelibrary.org, which includes a brochure about the millage.

Slavens gets nod in 7th Senate race

Voters in the Michigan state Senate 7th District have rarely had a choice as clear as the one they face in the Nov. 4 general election.

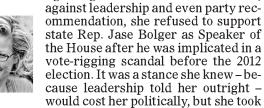

Incumbent Republican state Sen. Patrick Colbeck of Canton, conservative enough to be a Tea Party darling, faces liberal Canton Democrat Dian Slavens.

We believe voters in the district – which serves Plymouth, Plymouth Township, Northville Township, Canton, Wayne and Livonia – should choose Slavens.

The district, which used to be a Republican stronghold, now leans more to the middle than it has in the past. That's why Democrats like Dr. Syed Taj and Steven Sneideman can get elected to the Canton Township board; Sneideman, in fact, was the board's highest vote-getter two years ago.

The term-limited Slavens has been an effective state representative. In her first term, she piloted legislation that provided incentives for battery-makers to make Michigan their business home. Republicans essentially co-opted her effort to end life-time health benefits for legislators, but the measure passed none-

She may have had her best - and strongest - moment at the beginning of the current term when,

Slavens

Slavens is a strong supporter of public education and would support changes to the formula for financing public schools. While charter schools and cyber schools currently get the same foundation allowance as public schools, Slavens believes that because they don't have costs such as transportation, they shouldn't get the same allow-

Colbeck, on the other hand, firmly believes that the cap should be eliminated to allow more charter schools to pop up and provide competition to local public schools.

While Colbeck eschews anything that looks like a tax to fix roads, Slavens would look at things such as higher user fees for larger trucks and tweaking the user fee schedule. And while Colbeck refused to vote to make the Medicaid expansion effectively immediately, Slavens supported the move.

Colbeck is a stand-up guy who believes in what he's doing, makes his choices and backs them up with data he believes explains them. He explains his votes (explanations can be found on his Facebook page) and stands by what he says.

But we believe Slavens comes closer to representing the district than does Colbeck. Dian Slavens gets our nod for the state Senate 7th District.

Vote 'yes' for library

On behalf of the Board of Trustees of the Friends of Northville District Library, I am urging all Northville and Northville Township residents to vote yes for the Northville District Library. The library is one of our community gems and this millage renewal is vital so it can maintain the same level of quality services and programs. It is important to note that this is a renewal only and will not raise your taxes.

The Friends of Northville District Library Board of Directors works closely with the library staff and administration. We witness firsthand their dedication and hard work to maintain and grow the vital resources of information in all forms. Equally important are the many extra programs and services for all age groups, from the littlest patrons in the Read to Me and Story Time baby and toddler programs, tween/teen online homeworker help, summer reading programs, 'how to' programs for all ages, and free entertainment/informational programs and films just to name a few.

Please join us and flip your ballot over and go to the last proposal and vote 'Yes' for the Northville District Library. The library needs your support. Thank you.

ture diverted millions in funds from successful public schools to for-profit charter schools which perform poorly and are not held accountable for their poor performance. 3.) You are happy that the public schools are forced to cut teacher salaries, cut school programs, and then get blamed for all the ills of society.

4.) You are pleased that the governor and legislature won't do anything about our crumbling roads and infrastructure so that we can have more damaged cars and trucks, broken down bridges, flooded underpasses and accidents.

5.) You are happy that the governor and legislature eliminated the helmet law for motorcycles thus guaranteeing that more people will be more seriously injured and killed, and everyone's insurance costs will go up.

COMMUNITY VOICE

What issues are most important to you in the upcoming general election?

This question was asked in downtown Northville.

"I think money has become a big issue in politics, so I would like to see less of that influence and more getting things done for the greater good rather than for the money."

John Grunewald Northville

"I think the economy is still a big issue, but education should come first."

> Lorraine Vaughn Northville

"The big issue is voting. People need to vote more and until they do they can't complain."

Natasha Young Northville

'Taxes. I want to see government spend our tax dollars wisely."

Bill Gaines

Northville

6.) You are pleased that the governor and legislature passed a bill allowing the shooting of aerial fireworks by anyone in your formerly quiet neighborhoods before and after every holiday (including Christmas) thus threatening our peace and safety and threatening our homes with fire.

If you are pleased and happy with these things, then you should not vote in the Nov. 4 election. You can be assured that your not voting will enable a continuation of the kind of decisions that our current governor and legislature are so eager to make.

Why no road fixes?

I have always seen in past election years a lot of road work going on all around in our state and the country, for that matter. I do not see it this year in Michigan, and it is sorely needed.

I had thought in those other years it was because those up for re-election wanted to show they were getting something done and, therefore, deserved re-election. So why not this year?

Then I read in the paper about Rep. Hugh Crawford not willing to vote before the election to fix the roads, apparently because his wife is now running for state representative since he is term limited. It would seem Hugh Crawford plans to vote to raise taxes on someone and is afraid they won't vote for his wife if he does it before the election.

Well, he didn't seem to have any trouble voting in 2011 to tax my husband's pension, take away his sister's homestead exemption and take the $600 child tax credit from our nieces and nephews. He didn't seem to have any trouble voting to raise those taxes. Maybe that's because most people did not see those tax increases right away and 2011 was not an election

Carleen Tindall

Will Kathy be same as Hugh?

So I read in your paper that our state representative, Hugh Crawford, says after the election they will vote to raise taxes to fix our roads. My question is, why are we paying these people full-time for a job they only do part of the time?

Gov. Snyder said back in Jan. of 2013 that they needed more money to fix our roads, and waiting until November this year will be almost two years. And then it will be summer of next year before workers will start fixing the roads. That means the thump, thump you hear now will be bang, bang long before it is fixed.

Mr. Crawford said they aren't fools; they will raise taxes in the lame duck session after the election. Apparently we are the fools for paying them for any other time and we are fools if we think his wife will be any different if she gets voted in.

Patricia Gibson

Truth is always an issue in election years

he election season is always pretty interesting. Maybe it's just me, but it sure seems like we hear a lot more from our elected officials during elections than we do during off-years. Of course, that makes sense because they are pretty eager to prove to us what a great job they've been doing for us since the last election.

Incumbent officeholders usually paint a pretty rosy picture and tell us the future is bright, while their opponents try to show us how the sky is falling.

I suppose it is the nature of the beast that is our political system. You kind of have to take things with a grain of salt during elections.

That was the case last week, when state Rep. Kurt Heise, a Plymouth Township Republican who also represents the

Offers Expire 10/1/14

Northville community, put something out on his Facebook feed applauding a decision by the Michigan Strategic Fund and Michigan Economic Development Corp. that allowed Northville Township to capture more than $23 million in taxes "to convert the former state hospital campus at Seven Mile and Haggerty into a public green space and trail system."

Heise continued: "The project is leveraging the private development of the commercial and retail space going in at the corner of Seven Mile and Haggerty Roads which is expected to generate a total capital investment

100 full-time jobs." Well, Heise's post led to a series of calls to Northville Township Supervisor Bob Nix. Some people took the post to mean the state was going to shower $23 million onto the township so it could finally tear down a major eyesore in the community and implement the recreation plan the township has for the property. This would have been welcome news, indeed.

However, the truth is little murkier, as Nix pointed out at last week's township Board of Trustees meeting.

Nix, who had traveled to Lansing to attend the Michigan Strategic Fund meeting that Heise was referencing, wanted to make it perfectly clear that the township is no closer now to clearing the Seven Mile property of the old state psychiatric hospital than it was before the meeting. Really, all that happened is the state approved the brownfield plan that the township put in place a year ago.

Things move a little slower in Lansing, unless they are trying to ram through lame-duck legislation like right-to-work.

In addition, Nix explained the $23.4 million number Heise quoted is really about $17 million – the rest will be interest paid on the project.

And, in fact, when you factor in that Schostak, which is the developer of the commercial North-ville Park Place project from which the tax capture will come, will get 50 percent of the tax capture, the township is actually only going to get about $12 million over the 30-year brownfield plan.

And that's only if the commercial property is fully developed, which it is not at this point.

There's still another 40 acres on the property that is undeveloped with no plan in place, even though the clock is ticking on the tax capture.

The frustrated Nix also pointed out that the money the township is ultimately able to capture from the brownfield plan most likely won't even be enough to demolish all the buildings that are left on the old hospital property, let alone begin to implement the recreation plan.

"At this point, we will begin collecting taxes next year and then figure out how we are going to pay the cost of this project," Nix said. "We're going to have quite a challenge to capture this money. We may be forced to do this project in incremental bites. The only way we could get this money now would be to go out for bonds. I don't think we're in any financial position to do

So, as you can see, the situation is not quite as rosy as Heise portrayed it. But, hey, it sounded pretty good – and there is an election around the corner.

Pumpkinfest offers fun for all

Ex-Tiger Milt Wilcox, Miss America 1988 eager to visit

> By Julie Brown Staff Writer

Milt Wilcox of the 1984 World Series-winning Detroit Tigers is coming Saturday to South Lyon for Pumpkinfest.

Wilcox and his son founded the Ultimate Air Dogs, in which dogs leap high and far. Ultimate Air Dogs will be featured at this weekend's Vibe Credit Union Pumpkinfest of the South Lyon Area, set for Friday through Sunday in downtown South Lyon. Wilcox will be grand marshal for the 10 a.m. Saturday parade, which begins on Pontiac Trail, south of Nine Mile, and proceeds north to Bartlett Elementary.

"I'm really excited about coming back and being part of the parade," Wilcox said by phone, now living in Jacksonville, Fla. "It's going to be interesting 30 years later."

The festival is also marking its 30th anniversary this fall and organizers were glad to get Wilcox. "Basically I'm coming up there just for the parade," said Wilcox, who also visits Traverse City often for its cherrythemed festival.

"It's amazing how many people still remember the '84 World Series," he said. "I'm very excited. I love Michigan and South Lyon was always one of my favorite areas.'

He'll be joined in the local parade by Kaye Lani Rae Rafko-Wilson, Miss America 1988 and a native of Monroe, who still calls that community home. "I'm sure she

Pumpkinfest wouldn't be complete without the pile of pumpkins in the heart of downtown looks a lot better than I do," Wilcox said, joking.

Rafko-Wilson will also be in the Pumpkinfest parade, as well as posing for photos and signing autographs. "I'm super-excited and I think it's going to be nice," Rafko-Wilson said by phone. "I think it should be a nice, fun time.'

Her daughter, Alana Wilson, is Miss Monroe. Rafko-Wilson, who's director of Gabby's Ladder, offering grief support, recalled a 1987 South Lyon appearance when she'd just been named Miss Michigan in

"Hopefully the crowd'll figure out which one of us should be wearing the crown," she said with a laugh when informed of Wilcox's comment. She's looking forward to meeting the former Detroit Tigers player.
"I'm just excited they thought of me," she add-

Natalie White of South Lvon is vice president for this year's festival. She and other organizers have been hard at work for some time to make sure the event runs smoothly.

"We've been working on the festival since last year. Every year, the committee has new things," White said. There will be, as in the past, a 5K leading off the parade.

"This year's parade theme is the '80s," White said. "It will be fun to see. Big hair, leg warm-

The Chamber of Commerce of the South Lyon Area sponsors a scarecrow contest that takes in festival dates, enhancing the feel and look of Pumpkinfest. Each year, a large pile of pumpkins is set up at Lake and Lafayette streets in the heart of downtown.

Tigers mascot Paws will be featured at this Pumpkinfest, as well.

This year's event was heavily promoted on social media and elsewhere, White added: "It's definitely grown into a community event.'

Corporate sponsors are key to the event, which will include musical entertainment, a beer garden, food, nonprofit booths, inflatables, vendors at the farmers market and a chance to catch up with neighbors and friends.

The nonprofit booths are essential for fundraising that enhances groups' mission and local quality of life, organizers noted.

Last year, more than $16,000 was raised for 27 nonprofits. Hours for Pumpkinfest are 6-11 p.m. Friday, 11 a.m. to close Saturday (following 10 a.m. parade), 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. Sunday.

CC romps 49-0; Brother Rice next up

Shamrocks spoil reunion for Traverse City Central

> By Brad Emons Staff Writer

Things are starting to click for the Novi Detroit Catholic Central football team heading into Friday's Central Division showdown against Birmingham Brother Rice.

CC, which started the season 0-2, evened its overall record at 2-2 with an impressive 49-0 victory Saturday over previously unbeaten Traverse City Central at Thirlby Field.

The Shamrocks made it their own personal cherry orchard as they picked apart the Trojans with a 42-point first-half uprising to spoil Traverse City's 1988 Class A state championship 25-year reunion (which ironically was a 24-14 win over CC at the Pontiac Silverdome).

"Things worked our way pretty well the first half," CC coach Tom Mach said. "We played a very good game in all phases of our game because we knew exactly what we were facing coming up in our league, so it was time to make sure to respond to what we had

And the Shamrocks certainly responded, building a 21-0 first quarter lead thanks to a 7-yard touchdown run from Nick Giese, followed by a 17yard fumble return from Tyler Laurentius for another TD along with a 41-yard TD pass from Joe Fanning to Alexander

CC added three more TDs in the second quarter, including a 4-yard pass from Fanning to Laurentius, a 2-yard run by Giese (set up by Phil Schmitz's 35-yard interception return) and a 1-yard run by Bock.

With a running clock invoked for the start of the second half, CC put one more score on the board in the final quarter on a Daniel Quaine 1-yard TD run. Cole Gingell went a perfect 7-for-7 on extra points.

Top tacklers for the Sham-rocks included Schmitz (three solo), Grant Hartwig (three solo), Ike Marchie (two solo), Jordan Jenkins (two solo) and Michael Edwards (two solo) with six apiece.

Defensively we did a good job of containing them," said Mach, whose team limited the Trojans to just 52 yards rushing and 30 passing (7-of-14). "We were fortunate to get a couple of fumbles and take advantage of those fumbles. We were happy with the kids' play and their attitude, the way they handled the bus ride. It

Tank's fourth-quarter TD seals 21-12 victory against Mustangs

South Lyon played Friday night with the heart of a Lion and demonstrated why it's a team to be reckoned with down the road in the KLAA's Central

The visiting Lions bottled up Northville's high-powered offense and walked out of Tom Holzer Field with a hardfought 21-12 victory to stay undefeated at 4-0, while handing the Mustangs their

'We knew they (Northville) were big and physical, they have some great players there and coach (Matt) Ladach does a great job of getting them ready," South Lyon coach Mark Thomas said. "But I think our guys worked hard for it just with the speed and tenacity we had."

Although the Lions were outsized and outweighed, they more than held their own, limiting the defending Central Division champions to 250 yards total offense.

Meanwhile, South Lyon wound up with 350 total yards, including 235 on the ground led by junior Trevor Tank, who finished with 104 yards on 16 carries. His 2-yard touchdown run with only 6:35 left in the final quarter sealed the victory.

"That's South Lyon football," Thomas said. "We just kind of pound the football, pound the rock and did a really good job of that. The guys up front did a great job. The offensive line made some holes for those guys.'

Clinging to a 14-12 lead midway through the final quarter, it was Tank's 36-yard burst up the middle down to the Northville 23 that led to the gameclinching TD.

"It's nice to break out and get everyone excited," the 6-foot-2, 225-pound Tank said of his longest run of the night. "Everyone's confidence just goes up, the lineman's confidence goes up. Everybody gets up. You can tell it's the turning point.

Jackson lifts Wildcats past Salem for first victory

Novi junior racks up 228 all-purpose yards for Novi

> By Brad Emons Staff Writer

After three tough losses to start the 2014 season, Novi's football team found a way to win Friday night by upending host Salem, 30-22, in a KLAA Central Division game at Plymouth High School.

Junior running back Emanuel Jackson helped orchestrate the victory with 228 all-purpose yards and four touchdowns as the Wildcats improved to 1-3 overall and 1-1 in the Central.

The 6-foot, 163-pound Jackson rimisned with a team-best 121 yards on 18 carries, including TD runs of 13, 26 and 8 yards. He also caught five passes for 102 yards, including 50-yard TD reception from sophomore quarterback Alec Bageris with 1:39 left in the third quarter to give Novi a 24-15 lead.

"Emanuel had a real nice game for us running the ball and catching it," Novi coach Jeff Burnside said. "He's a talented kid, so we tried to get him the ball as many times as we could and tried to get it to him as many ways as we could. He was running hard tonight, so we just latched onto him and let him go.' Bageris, making his second straight straight in place of injured senior starter Rohit Mogalayapalli, turned in another solid effort, completing 12-of-18 passes for 156 yards and a TD. "He had a couple of nice plays," Burnside said of the 6-2, 160-pound signal-caller. "He had some young moments, too, but you can't ask more out of a young kid that is coming on. He came in last week (31-28 loss to Livonia Stevenson) and didn't know he was starting until Thursday. He didn't know until then, but this week he had full reps. We saw some difficult things on defense this week and he hung in there tough, put the ball where it

GIRLS SWIMMING

Northville's depth torpedos Brighton

Staff Writer

Northville girls swim coach Brian McNeff figured the final count would be close Sept. 18 going into a dual meet at home against a talented Brighton squad.

And his Mustangs passed the early-season test with a narrow 96-89 KLAA crossover victory over the Bulldogs.

"This was a great win for our team," McNeff said. "Going in to the meet, I knew it was going to be a close one. Scoring it out at first, I actually had us losing by two points. I made some adjustments to the lineup and told the girls that we needed some people to step up. We don't get too many close meets like this, but in the past we have always swam well in pressure situations. Today was no different."

Sophomore Laura Westphal was a doublewinner, earning first in the 200-yard individual medley (2:09.58) and 500 freestyle (5:09.14). She also teamed up with Nikki Pumper, Kelsey Macaddino and Gillians Zayan for first in the 200 medley relay (1:53.41). Other individual winners for Northville were Macaddino, 100 butterfly (59.34); Darby Mroz, 100 backstroke (1:02.31); and Jessica Yan, 100 breaststroke (1:14.73)

"There were a number of girls who swam some great races and picked up the points that we needed to win the meet," McNeff said. "These girls have such a desire to do well that it always amazes me at what they can do when they really put their minds and bodies to it. I was definitely a proud coach tonight."

Northville's depth was able to offset the performance of Brighton freshman Taylor

Seaman, who captured the 100 and 200 freestyle events in 55.17 and 1:59.09. She also led the Bulldogs to victory in the 200 freestyle relay (1:42.65) and 400 freestyle relay (3:41.89)

"There were some great swims by a lot of people like Jessica Yan, Natalie Filipowicz and Laura Westphal,' McNeff said. "But someone who really had a great was Darby Mroz. She dropped a ton of time in her events and was able to score points were she wasn't supposed to."

Northville spikers fall in Bedford Gold round

Emily Martin recorded a team-high 39 kills on the day as the Northville volleyball squad finished 3-1-1 in Saturday's Temperance Bedford Invitational.

The Mustangs, now 11-6-2 overall, were eliminated in the first round of the Gold Division by Pinckney, 25-22, 25-14. In pool play, Northville defeated Livonia Stevenson (25-9, 25-22), Carleton Airport (25-11, 25-12) and Blissfield (25-18, 25-15), while splitting with Monroe (23-25, 25-22).

"The depth of our team contributed to the successful weekend," Northville coach Amanda Yaklin said. "It ended sooner than the team would have liked, but many season-high records took place before then. I'm proud of the players making changes. Our top-end keeps getting better, while we gain experience and learn to be more consistent."

Other team leaders for the Mustangs included Bryce Quick (18 kills); Emily Hogan (41 assists, 11 ace serves); Kiera Borthwick (33 digs, 30 good passes); Martin (23 digs); Rachel Holmes (52 assists, seven aces); Emily Bowers and Olivia Boisineau (12 kills each); Makenna Strunk (nine kills); Anna Mae Crowley (nine kills); and Ally Lang (13 good passes).

NORTHVILLE 3, S.L. EAST 1: South Lyon East (6-7-1, 1-2) put up a fight Thursday night, but the visiting Mustangs (8-5-1) turned in a total team effort to emerge with a 25-20, 21-25, 25-19, 25-17 KLAA Central Division victory.

The Mustangs were led by Martin, who recorded 19 of the team's 46 total kills. Strunk also chipped in with 13 kills and five aces. Holmes and Hogan contributed 22 and 10 assist-to-kills, respectively.

Emily Watkins posted a team-best four blocks, while Quick added three. The match ended with a stuff block by Boisineau and Bowers.

On the defensive side. Borthwick finished with a team-high 14 digs.

The Mustangs were also good on 59-of-62 service receptions as five players hit a personal goal on passing without an error including Borthwick, Martin, Strunk, Liz Hansell and Lang.

"South Lyon East was a scrappy team," Yaklin said. "They pushed us to be low error on attacking. We were fortunate to have another night where all 15 of our players contributed to a win.

SALEM 3, NORTHVILLE 2: On Sept. 16, the visiting Rocks improved to 1-1 in the KLAA Central with a 16-25, 25-23, 25-23, 17-25, 15-10 victory against the Mustangs (7-5-1, 1-1).

"Salem worked hard and came back to win the third set," Yaklin said. "That was a turning point in the match. We fought back and won the fourth, but Salem jumped out ahead in the fifth. Hats off to them for sticking to it. Salem has a very nice, competitive team this year. We will use this as motivation to go back to work each day in practice."

Martin paced the Mustangs with 17 kills, while Strunk and Katie O'Malley each added 10. Holmes and Hogan combined for 43 assist-to-kills with 22 and 21, respectively.

Shamrocks boot rival Rice, then drop two

By Brad Emons Staff Writer

No matter the sport, the stakes are always high when longtime Catholic League rivals Novi Detroit Catholic Central and Birmingham Brother Rice collide.

And Tuesday night's boys soccer meeting was no exception, as the host Shamrocks continued their sterling Central Division play with a hard-fought 2-0 victory over Rice.

CC improved to 6-1-3 overall and 2-0-1 in the Central, while the loss dropped the Warriors to 2-4-3 and 0-2.

"They (Rice) were a little bit tougher than I thought they would be, but we did come to play," CC coach Gene Pulice said. "We started out well, then we kind of got off our game because we thought it was going to be easy. We had to get some things under control at halftime. We came back and got back on our game and finished another goal." Senior midfielder Will Coffman staked the Shamrocks to a 1-0 advantage with 30:22 left in the first half off an assist from senior midfielder Noah Kleedtke.

The score stayed that way until 17:13 was left in the match, when senior forward Paul Wiedmaier knocked home a rebound to put the game away after Kleedtke took the initial shot from the left wing.

"We had really good start from Will Coffman, who scored our first goal," Pulice said. "But I think really what turned the tide for us in the second half is that I brought on Anthony Chavez and Justin Murray, who put a lot of pressure on the back line of Brother Rice. So they had to drop players back to defend and that turned the tide for us."

Rice's best opportunity to score came just 2:10 into the second half, when junior defender Brandon Sebou sent a laser shot to toward the crossbar that was deflected with one hand on an acrobatic save by CC

goalkeeper Peter Ki-

"It took us 11 minutes to realize that we realized we were playing CC and then started competing," Rice coach Barry Brodsky said. "They got that goal in the first 11 and after I thought we played pretty hard, had some chances.

"They were the better team tonight, but I'm not too disappointed in our play after the first 11 minutes."

CC outshot the Warriors, 14-5, including 6-3 on goal.

"We had some good restarts and if you have some good restarts in the offensive third, good things can happen,' Brodsky said. "(CC) did a good job of cleaning it up. The type of team that we are - if we can get some restarts - we might be able to score."

CHAVEZ 2, DETROIT CC 1: Ariel Hart's goal with only 5:58 remaining enabled Detroit Cesar Chavez Academy to earn a non-league win Saturday at Novi Detroit Catholic Central (6-3-3). Chavez took a 1-0 halftime lead on Edwin Montijo's goal five minutes into the match, but CC tied it with 23:41 left in the second half on Chad Quick's goal from Brendan Paul.

Novi settles for scoreless draw against Livonia Stevenson

By Brad Emons Staff Writer

Everything came up goose eggs Sept. 18 in the KLAA Central Division boys soccer showdown between host Livonia

Stevenson and Novi. The 0-0 deadlock leaves Northville atop the division at 5-1, while Stevenson and Novi stand at 4-1-1 and 3-1-2, respectively.

Stevenson, now 8-1-1 overall, lost the first encounter to the Wildcats, 5-2, on Sept. 2, but tightened up defensively to keep Novi, now 5-2-3 overall, off the board.

"There's a lot of soccer to be played," Stevenson coach Ken Shingledecker said of the Central Division race. "There's a long way to go before this thing is decided by anybody. It was a great game, two really good teams and I'm happy with my guys' performance. I thought Novi was good, too. There were only a couple of golden chances for either side, but the biggest save of the night came from Stevenson junior goalkeeper Austin Kaczamarek, who blocked a point-blank header with his right arm to deny Novi forward Amissi Kajinake with 28:59 left in the match.

"I thought their goalie (Kaczmarek) made two very athletic saves," Novi coach Brian O'Leary said. "One down on this end on Tony's (Asimadu) header and the one down here after we had taken a free kick or corner kick that came on top of the box. Connor (O'Leary) hit it and he (Kaczmarek) made two athletic saves there. He definitely did a good job." Novi put four shots on target out of seven attempts. The Wildcats also had seven corner kicks to Stevenson's three.

"He (Kaczmarek) was excellent," Shingledeck-er said. "He's really stepped up and has been really good. That's our fifth shutout and he's been playing really well."

Stevenson, meanwhile, put three shots on net out of seven tries as well, but Novi's 6-foot-3 senior goalkeeper Tommy McMaster stood tall as well.

"I thought my goalie really played well," O'Leary said. "It's something I've been looking for. We've got three goalies on the roster and I just kind of been rotating and waiting for someone to grab a hold of that job and I think he made a huge step in that direction tonight.

"There was a lot of things I really liked – his leadership out there, being very vocal, taking charge of things. Although the first match turned out to be a three-goal decision in favor of the Wildcats, the second meeting featured the two teams playing more close to the vest.

"We just talk about getting better every game and I thought we got better this game from last game," O'leary said. "So I was 100-percent happy. One thing we've been having trouble with all year was we'll play real well, then we'll have a five- or 10minute chunk where we just don't play well.

"And I thought that was our best 80-minute game of the year, so I was pleased with that and that's what we've been focusing on."

There were only a few new wrinkles made following the first meeting, as the Spartans' defense put a dragnet around

Warriors, with help on the back line from sweeper Paul Alex and center-back Kyle

Senior Cameron Fyffe also stood out for Clarenceville.

NORTHVILLE 4, SOUTH LYON 2: On

Sept. 16, senior Kyle Johnson tallied a pair of goals as the Mustangs (4-2-3, 4-1) downed the host Lions (3-4-3, 1-4).

Johnson scored just 35 seconds into the match and broke a 1-1 tied with another goal on a deflection off a free kick from

Nick Toupin in the 10th minute.

Manuel Kansy's goal at the 35-minute mark from Josh Hamilton made it 3-1 for the Mustangs at intermission.

Alec Morgan added Northville's fourth goal in the second half on a 25-yard free

Senior Alec Melucci made four saves in the victory.

"We possessed the ball well the first half,

Novi's pair of dangerous forwards Kajinake and Asimadu.

"I think (Stevenson) may have gone with a little bit more tighter marking scheme," O'Leary said. "I think last time maybe they let us get the ball a little bit more than they did tonight. But I don't know if that's huge to us because we basically talked about: 'What do you do when the defender comes up tight on your back versus what do you do when the defender gives you cushion?' We should be prepared for both things, but I think that was an adjustment they made.'

Northville boys champions at Jackson Invite

By Brad Emons Staff Writer

The Northville boys cross country team brought home the hardware Saturday, finishing first among Division 1 schools in the Jackson Invitational at Sharp Park.

Northville led the 24-team field with 60 points to hoist the firstplace trophy, with Saline (90), defending Division 1 champion White Lake Lakeland (113), Traverse City West (187) and Ann Arbor Pioneer (198) rounding out the top five.

"I felt the boys ran
"Northville well today," Northville coach Chris Cronin said. "Our key is our pack. (Senior) Sean McCullough is a big part of that group. He is starting to regain his form after being slowed by injury earlier in the season. The coaching staff is confident that he can run side-by-side with our top guys and that makes us a formidable team.''

Grand Blanc senior Grant Fisher, the defending Division 1 individual satte champion, crossed the finish line first in 15 minutes, 22.3 seconds for 5,000 meters.

Northville junior Conor Naughton also turned in a sterling performance, taking fifth in 15:54.3.

Also scoring for the Mustangs were senior Nick Noles, eighth (16:10.5); senior Jason Ferrante, 11th (16:18.0): McCullough, 15th (16:25.9); and sophomore Ben Cracraft, 21st (16:41.4).

"I thought Nick Noles had a great race today," Cronin said. "We were hoping to go under 16 (minutes) today, but that will happen in the coming weeks. He's a smart runner and used a strong third mile to pick up some critical places." Senior Sam Kremke (16:41.4) and junior Kenny Gooslby (17:12.1) rounded out the Northville contingent in 37th and 49th places, respectively.

'We may not have had super fast times at Jackson, but when you compare the field to MSU, the times were generally off by about eight to 10 seconds," Cronin said. "In these early season invites, I try to downplay times and focus on competing. I felt the boys did that today and that's why we came out victorious.

Novi harriers get first at Anchor Bay Invitational

By Brad Emons

The season just keeps getting better and better for the Novi boys cross country squad.

The Wildcats kept their unbeaten streak intact by capturing the 17-team James Cleverly Friday Night Invite hosted by Anchor Bay High School.

"We ran well as a team," Novi coach Robert Smith said. "The times don't show it because the course was slow, but our overall placing proved the point.

Novi needed just 27 points to secure the win as St. Clair Shores Lakeview placed a distant second with 96, followed by Utica in third with

Algonac's Morgan

ROBERT SMITH Novi junior Joost Plaetinck took second overall in the Anchor Bay Invite.

Beadlescomb took first in 16 minutes, 20 seconds (for 5,000 meters), while Novi junior Joost Plaetinck was only seven seconds behind in second place.

"Joost's time of 16:27 was my first indication that the course was slow," Smith said, "Joost is very consistent.

Other Novi scorers earning top 10 finishes included Nate Hall, third (16:56); Scott Mac-Pherson, sixth (17:08); Cameron Misko, seventh (17:11); and Adam Ditri, ninth (17:25)

Also making strong showings for Novi were Sahisnu Malapati (11th, 17:33) and John Landy (12th, 17:37).

"An interesting fact is that if all the other schools (17) competed against us as one team, we would still have won the meet by a score of 27-33," Smith said. "All seven guys were about 20 to 25 seconds off of their usual performance. When that happens across the board, I'm not concerned. It was simply a slow course. Places trump times."

Shamrocks repeat

Novi Detroit Catholic Central placed four in the top seven Saturday to repeat as the Division 1 champ in the CC Invitational held at Cass Benton Park.

Catholic Central paced the eight-team field with 35 points, followed by Orchard Lake St. Mary's (54), Northville 'B' (82), Allen Park (121), Southgate Anderson (143), Catholic Central 'B' (159), Dearborn (166) and Farmington (240).

Farmington Harrison's James Weekley took first overall with a time of 16:46.64 for 5,000

led the way for the Shamrocks in third with a 17:10.77, followed by junior Avery Felty, fourth (17:11.05); sophomore Mark Borek, fifth (17:14.15); junior Bailey Hobson, seventh (17:20.18); and sophomore Brandon Canavan, 16th (17:54.77)

Catholic Central's non-scorers included junior Alex McLaren (19th, 18:00.22) and junior Matthew Fosdick (23rd, 18:06.82).

"It was getting very hot, in the high 70s," CC coach Tony Magni said. "The sun was really hitting a lot of people, but it wasn't all that bad by the time we got done.'

Peter Bejin paced the Northville 'B' team in eighth place (17:34.39).

Northville girls run second at Jackson

By Brad Emons Staff Writer

Despite missing two key runners from its starting lineup, the Northville girls cross country team managed to earn a runner-up finish in Saturday's Jackson Invitational held at Sharp Park. Birmingham Seaholm, which placed four in the top 10 - led bysenior Audrey Belf's clocking of 17 minutes, 27.81 seconds (5.000 meters) - dominated the 21-school Division 1 field with 33 points. Rounding out the top five were Northville (102), Ann Arbor Pioneer (116), Salem (145) and Sterling Heights Stevenson (147).

"The girls ran another great race and improved from last season's time for most of them," Northville coach Nancy Smith said. "We had a rough week as we were hit with sickness. On race day, we decided to pull Emma Smith, who has been sick all week. Also still out from

CC had 261 yards rushing out of a total of 316 yards. Giese led the way with 67 yards on nine carries.

The Shamrocks had 18 first downs to five for the Trojans, who were missing two key players due to disciplinary reasons, including top rusher Ethan Campbell.

CC now focuses its attention on 4-0 and topranked Brother Rice, the defending Division 2 state champ, which is riding a 26-game winning streak.

"Defensively, they give you a lot of problems," Mach said of the Warriors. "They're big up front. They put a lot of pressure on you. We're going to have to be able to move the football. One of our goals, obviously, is to move the ball and keep the ball out of their hands as much as possible because the quarterback (Alex Malzone) is very good and their offense is very good."

Rice has won the last three meetings between the two teams. CC last beat the Warriors, 21-19,

"They're scoring a lot of points and, once they get it, they do a lot of things with it," Mach said of Rice. "That's definitely our concern and how we handle their defense and what we're able to do with our offense, controlling the time of possession and things like that."

Game time for the Central Division opener is 7 p.m. Friday at Berkley's Hurley Field.

quarterback Anton Skupin hit Joe Newman on a 54-yard bomb with 7:53 left in the first quarter after two Northville defenders got tangled up with one slipping to the Northville, meanwhile, got bogged down offensively by committing two costly first-half turnovers, while being penalized four times for 30 yards.

South Lyon's Connor McGee set up South Lyon's second TD when he intercepted a Justim Zimbo pass at the 25 and return it to the 15 on the first play of the second quarter.

Faced with a thirdand-seven at the Northville 12, Skupin scrambled up the middle for a TD to give the Lions a 14-0 cushion with 9:58 left in the half.

Three penalties, including two personal fouls, hurt South Lyon on its next drive after forcing Northville to punt. The Lions were also guilty of 10 penalties for 70 yards during the first half.

The Mustangs got the ball back and scored, thanks to Zimbo's 42yard pass to Kevin Bak, who made an acrobatic catch at the Lions' 18 with a Lions defender draped all over him. Four plays later, Zimbo scored on a 3-yard keeper, but Northville missed the PAT to trail 14-6 with 3:02 remaining in the half. Saving all three timeouts, the Lions moved down to the Northville 15 during the final minute, but Bak's interception in the end zone as time expired ended the threat to keep the score at 14-6. With 7:23 left in the third, Northville pulled within two on Zimbo's 20-yard TD pass to Aaron Huggins, but the Mustangs couldn't convert on the two-pointer and still trailed 14-12.

That's when the Lions' offense got revved up, resulting in Tank's 2-yard TD run. Vince Candela added the allimportant PAT for a nine-point South Lyon advantage, 21-12.

"They've always been big, strong, physical. We knew what we were walking into," Tank said of the Mustangs. "We prepared for this and knew what it was going to be like and we just went out and got it."

Down two scores, Northville had two final possessions, but couldn't find the end zone as Erich Stephenson's interception with only 35 seconds remaining ended the suspense.

"They're a very good football team and we knew coming in that even if we played well, it was going to dogfight," Northville coach Matt Ladach said. "And unfortunately, we had way too many penalties tonight and we didn't protect the football.

"I don't know if they really took things away from us offensively. And don't get me wrong, I'm not taking anything away or any credit away from them. They played real well, but we really hurt ourselves with the penalties and the turnovers."

Last season's 16-15 loss to the Mustangs certainly provided incentive for the Lions.

"We worked all summer and all winter because we lost two games in a minute and 34 seconds last year," Thomas said. "Northville went down and kicked a field goal to beat us last year, so we worked hard. That was one of our goals to not let that happen again. We took care of that business and got that respect in the league now."

P.J. Schnepp was Northville's top rusher with 54 yards on nine carries, while Zimbo was 12-of-31 passing for 140 yards.

Nico Woods added 72 yards on 13 carries, while Skupin hit 7-of-15 passes for 115 yards for the Lions. While Thomas called a "total team effort." Tank said he and his teammates have a simple formula for success. "Eleven Mile-Pontiac

Trail, rock' em, sock' em football," the junior said. "That's what coach (Thomas) always said. Everybody says it and that's what we're known answered with a 21-yard field goal to cap a 13play, 71-yard drive with 5:30 left in the third quarter to put the Wildcats ahead to stay, 17-15. Jackson's 50-yard TD reception from Bageris with 1:39 left in the third and his 8-yard TD run with 11:54 in the fourth gave Novi a 30-15 advantage.

But Salem refused to fold, getting an 81-yard TD pass from Nicholson to Jacob Miller with only 1:11 remaining. Kwiecinski's PAT made it a onescore deficit at 30-22.

But Wildcats senior defensive lineman Dylan Haggard recovered the ensuing onside kick to preserve the victory.

"Dylan Haggard, that was awesome," Burnside said. "He stepped in there, saw that ball and there was no hesitation whatsoever. He grabbed that and we knew we just had to take a couple of kneel-downs and get out of there." Salem outgained the Wildcats in total offense, 421-274, as Nicholson completed 13-of-27 passes for 242 yards.

"Salem's a tough team and they've always played us tough," Burnside said. "Their record doesn't mean anything. They've always played us tough, especially down at their place. That grass field (at Plymouth) and that early kickoff time (6:30 p.m.) is always tough. They have tough kids there."

Defensively, senior Jalen Ward led Novi with 10 total tackles, including nine solo. Patrick Wojtylo added five, while Caleb Wright added four solo with a sack.

Devontez Jones also had an interception.

"The defense made a couple of very good stops for us tonight, got us on some short fields and we were able to score," Burnside said. "We didn't have to go real far to score tonight. Only a couple times (we) had to go the length of the field."

Burnside said Mogalayapalli could return to the lineup this week after being injured in practice Sept. 11.

"It depends how his knee responds," he said. "I've always been a guy who kind of likes a twoquarterback system anyway. Rohit does some nice things. There were some throws tonight that he could have made that Alec didn't. And there's probably some plays that Alec could have made that Ro wouldn't have. They're a good complement. They're pretty good in the offensive scheme, just have different strengths. You've got to call the game a little different for Alec than what you do for Ro, but not that different.'

Firefighters face big challenge in protecting disabled residents

According to the U.S. Census Bureau's American Community Survey, encompassing the years 2008 through 2012, 7 percent of the people at least 5 years of age living in the community had some type of ambulatory disability, defined as "having serious difficulty walking or climbing stairs." Such disability can delay or prevent an individual from escaping a fire.

The National Fire Protection Administration estimates that physical disability was identified as a contributing factor in an estimated average of 400, or 15 percent, of U.S. home fire deaths per year during years 2007 through 2011.

Providing adequate fire safety for individuals with physical disabilities can be challenging, particularly in cases of severe mobility limitations. Detection requirements consider the time a typical person needs to leave the building. If an individual cannot move out of danger, a working smoke alarm provides less benefit. In rare cases, particularly when an individual is already in poor health and in the immediate area of the fire origin, fatal injury may occur before a sprinkler operates.

In most cases, however, sprinklers reduce the intensity of the fire and the danger even when an individual cannot fully evacuate. In 2012, NFPA Journal writer Kenneth Tremblay described a Florida fire in which an operating sprinkler saved the life of a 50-year-old wom-an who used a wheelchair in a 13-story apartment building primarily for older adults. The woman's discarded cigarette ignited her sofa and spread to the adjacent paneling. A single sprinkler controlled the fire until firefighters could extinguish it completely. While the woman suffered severe burns, she did survive.

In this analysis, national estimates derived from the U.S. Fire Administration's National Fire Incident Reporting System (NFIRS) and NFPA's annual fire department experience survey are used to show the causes and circumstances of home fire deaths of victims when physical disability was a factor and highlight differences from overall home fire deaths. The NFIRS Complete Reference Guide notes that "physically disabled" includes temporary conditions, but it does not indicate if sensory disabilities should be included. Although the overall numbers may not capture disabilities that were not obvious, this information can help people with disabilities and those who work with or care for them to develop and communicate ways to better protect this community from fire.

Compared to all home fire victims, victims with physical disabilities were more likely to be female and at least 65 years of age. Fifty-one percent of these victims were female. Fifty-six percent of all home fire victims were male. When physical disability was a factor, three of every five (60 percent) victims were at least 65 years old compared to 30 percent of all home fire fatalities.

While home fire deaths in general are much more common between midnight and 6 a.m., time patterns were less pronounced when physical disability was a

More than half (55 percent) of these deaths resulted from home fires with operating smoke alarms compared to only 40 percent of home fire deaths

Boat, trailer parking can obstruct access

Q: We are board members of a marina condominium. Some of our boat owners are parking their boats and trailers on public roads abutting the community. Do you think we have any basis to stop them from doing so because it has, in our opinion, a detrimental effect on property values?

Robert

A: While the association would probably have no jurisdiction over members of the public, and cannot regulate owner resident behavior outside of the community if there is no nexus to the community, there is at least some precedent that it can regulate the behavior of owners and residents on property outside of the project if it has an impact presumably adverse on the association. A good example would be a situation where it is necessary to prohibit owners and residents from parking boats and trailers on public roads abutting the community if it obstructs access to the community. You are best advised because of this unique issue to retain an experienced community association at-

Q: Our condo unit previously had bedbugs. The previous owner was told to treat her unit since their older documents and state law were silent on the pest bedbug type issue. Now, I understand that bedbugs have appeared in the second unit, and I assume they crawled across the common elements. Who do you think should be responsible for taking care of the bedbugs in the individual units?

A: That is a tough question, because the cause of the bedbug may not have emanated from the common elements, but may have traversed the common elements to get into your unit or they may not have. It requires the review of your condominium documents and an out of the box analysis by a knowledgeable condo attorney. It may also be that the association may choose to pay for a general building inspection and then owners can deal with their own issues and the association can deal with bedbugs on the common elements, if any. Good luck.

Car Report

As Dealer Pipelines Fill, Chrysler Launches 'Factory Tour' of New 200

By Dale Buss

Chrysler is beginning to get traction with sales of the all-new Chrysler 200 mid-size sedan, and it's a good thing: Chrysler Chief Marketing Officer Olivier François told me that the success of the new offering is absolutely crucial to the future of the Chrysler brand and to move it further toward fulfilling CEO Sergio Marchionne's goal of more than doubling its sales over the next few years.

"There's the potential for the Chrysler brand to attain a certain level of excellence and sophistication" in the years ahead, as Fiat Chrysler attempts to build Chrysler into a much broader, mid-market brand in the United States, Francois said. "That doesn't mean 'luxury' or premium pricing. In fact, we no longer had to describe our vision for Chrysler – the new 200 is the embodiment

To that end, Chrysler has just launched a new interactive online experience called the Chrysler 200 Factory Tour, which takes consumers inside the company's completely overhauled assembly plant in Sterling Heights to show off not only the state-ofthe-art manufacturing process but, especially, features of the new 200 that are illustrated by specific gee-whiz operations in the plant.

The Factory Tour promotion is one more incremental way in which Francois is helping Marchionne and Chrysler brand CEO Al Gardner achieve the admittedly challenging goal of getting American consumers to regard the new 200 as a truly fresh and deserving vehicle and then to consider buying one.

Under the new regime at Fiat Chrysler, our first exposure to the 200 was glimpses of the car as driven by Detroit's own Eminem in the now-iconic two-minute commercial during the last half of the 2011 Super Bowl, when Francois introduced the "Imported From Detroit" advertising theme that helped power the brand and the company through the next couple of years.

But that car was basically a re-skinned Sebring. The new 200 is a completely fresh entity, based - like the new Dodge Dart on a Fiat mechanical platform, blessed with a sophisticated and larger design, outfitted with Chrysler's new 9-speed transmission, benefiting from upgraded materials and execution in the interior, and outfitted with an array of special features such as a slick new touchscreen electronics interface that's refreshingly easy to use.

After filling dealer pipelines, the new 200 finally is outpacing the year-ago model in sales. For August, sales of the 200 were 10,810 units, 7 percent ahead of year-earlier sales. And while for the year to date, sales of the new version were still running about 31 percent behind sales of the previous 200, volume of the new car in August did increase by 39 percent compared with the previous month, July. So sales momentum is building.

And the new Chrysler 200 is getting some important recognition about its attributes. For example, the Insurance Institute for Highway Safety last month named the new 200 a top safety pick "+," its highest rating, when equipped with front-crash prevention. The 200 is loaded with a comprehensive array of 60 active and passive safety and security features including driver-warning/assist systems and state-of-the-art occupant restraints.

Francois is innovating yet again with the Chrysler 200 Factory Experience. American auto buyers are used to seeing glimpses or even long looks in television ads into the sparklingclean, technologically impressive factories that turn out today's automobiles when the brand wants to make a point about how advanced or well-built a vehicle is. Chrysler has already done this with the "Born Makers" TV ads when it launched the new 200 earlier this year.

But to my memory, no brand has ever done anything as immersive as the Chrysler 200 Factory Tour - of course, taking advantage of the nearly inexhaustible contentplatforming capabilities of the internet. The tour uses Google Maps Business View technology to take consumers inside the Sterling Heights plant using 360-degree interactive films and photography inside the 5-millionsquare-foot operation.

With narration by a plant manager, the Factory Tour allows consumers to get up-close to various aspects of the assembly process and highlights some special things that, François believes, will underscore the worthiness of the new 200 as a competitor in the tough mid-size sedan segment. There's a look, for instance, at the "butterfly assembly" aspect of the operation that simultaneously brings together two sides of the car body on opposite sides of the factory before they're married in the heart of the facility.

"With so many consumer options," Gardner said in a release, "we believe showing where and how the [car] is made will make a lasting impression."

Chrysler 200 is a striking new design.

5 things you can do n 5 minutes to prep for an interview

By Debra Auerbach CareerBuilder writer

Things that take around five minutes to accomplish: making popcorn, showering, ordering coffee (depending on the line), paying a bill online and prepping for an interview. Yep, that's right. There are some simple things you can do in a short amount of time to ensure

Here are five ways to prep for an interview in five minutes:

ment the interview begins.

that you're confident from the mo-

1. Select a winning outfit

First impressions are important, and your appearance is part of the first impression you make on hiring managers. It only takes a few minutes to pick out an outfit, but what you choose can actually speak to the type of worker you may be. According to a CareerBuilder survey, when asked to advise job seekers on the best color to wear to a job interview, employers most often recommended blue (23 percent) and black (15 percent). Not only did orange top the list of the worst color to wear, but it was also most likely to be associated with someone who is unprofessional.

Also consider factors such as fit, accessories and other elements of your appearance (nails, polished shoes, etc.). You want to stand out, but you don't want it to be because of a bad outfit choice.

2. Read the company's "about us" section

While you should invest time in researching the company and role before an interview, if you only have five minutes, head to the company's website and give its "about us" section a good read. There you should find information such as the company's mission statement, its core values and general company facts. A quick read like that can > impress inter

when you demonstrate how your approach to doing business aligns with the company's.

3. Practice your "elevator pitch"

The common, "So, tell me about yourself," question or variant of it usually comes up right at the start of an interview. While it may seem like the easiest question to answer, a question that broad can actually be tricky. How do you truly tell this hiring manager who doesn't know you and whom you want to impress everything about your work experience without going on and on? Instead, take a few minutes beforehand to practice your "elevator pitch," or a 15-30 second overview of who you are, what you do and an example what you've accomplished.

4. Determine the best route to your destination

You could spend days prepping for an interview, but if you show up late, it could all be for naught. A simple solution is to check out the location's address beforehand, consider what traffic conditions may be like, and plan out the best route and mode of transportation that will get you there on time (or better yet, early).

5. Review your resume

After spending hours updating your resume, you may think you know it backward and forward. But while you may have added in a section about your current job, did you look back at what you wrote for previous jobs? It's easy to forget details about earlier work, so don't get caught off guard if asked about a certain project at a former company, especially if it relates to the job for which you're applying.

Debra Auerbach is a writer and blogger for CareerBuilder. com and its job blog, The Work Buzz. She researches and writes about job search strategy, career management, hiring trends and workplace issues.
