Roth, Price and Darga elected

Voter turnout
tops 31 percent

Joanne Maliszewski
Staff Writer

On Monday night, Ken Roth knocked on his 1,000th door to introduce himself to voters. It must have been a lucky knock because the community activist and attorney was elected Tuesday to serve as Northville's new mayor, replacing longtime Mayor Chris Johnson, who did not seek election after 28 years of service.

"Something like this is momentous," Roth told friends and supporters at the Bak Bar in downtown Northville as election results rolled in. "You don't know how it will turn out."

Roth outdistanced challenger Eileen Gikas with approximately 71 percent or 1,051 votes. Gikas garnered close to 29 percent or 425 votes.

In a close race, city council incumbent Nancy Darga and challenger Marilyn Price were elected to two open seats with four-year terms. Price — who ran with Roth — captured 35.32 percent or 917 votes. Price was followed by Darga with 33.78 percent or 877 votes.

Challenger Joe Corriveau, a Northville District Library board member, came in third with 30.59 percent or 794 votes. Northville had a voter turnout

Northville's O'Brien honored with WJR's Women Who Lead award

Terry Jacoby
Correspondent

Being proud of your spouse isn't unusual and you can certainly hear the pride in John O'Brien's voice when he talks about his wife, Terri. But you can also feel the pride with the words he uses to describe her and the way in which he shows his pride.

This past summer, John showed exactly how proud he is of his wife by nominating Terri for the News/Talk 760 WJR Radio Women Who Lead award, which spotlights women across the region who are leaders in their industries and communities.

Hosted by WJR's Ann Thomas, each edition of this WJR podcast series presents an interview with "an impressive and inspiring woman who is making a difference."

O'Brien, 52, of Northville, was featured on the July 13 podcast and attended the WJR Women Who Lead breakfast awards ceremony on Oct. 8.

"One of Terri's favorite sayings is 'while you pray, move your feet,'" John O'Brien said.

O&E is committed to serving our readers and advertisers

Redford Observer Reporter Beth Jachman was going about life Sunday evening when a horrendous blast shook Redford Township. She wasn't supposed to work that day, but Jachman — like so many other journalists who work for O&E Media — cares about the town she covers, so she grabbed her gear and went toward the sound. She contacted veteran photographer Bill Bresler and he made the short trip from his Livonia home to join her at the scene.

An entire home had exploded and there were more questions than answers when they arrived. As emergency crews worked the hectic scene, Jachman, a Redford resident, noticed township Supervisor Tracey Schultz Kobylarz had posted information online, while Bresler captured images that would soon accompany the story online at our website, hometownlife.com.

What Jachman and Bresler did that night wasn't heroic, but it personified what O&E is all about. We cover community news like no other organization in the state of Michigan. Our reporters break big stories because they are in the towns they cover. But they also write about you, too.

I once took a call from an excited grandmother who had a simple request. Her 5-year-old grandson had just caught two fish on a single hook and she wanted to know if we would put it in the paper.

That little boy took home a copy of his grandmother's hometown newspaper and a photo of his big day graced the front page.

We cover hyper-local stories others often ignore. I know what we do still matters, but I also know that our business will continue to evolve.

Change is relentless and that was the case Friday, when valued colleagues dispatched one final deadline before walking out the door for the last time.

There were a few tears as friends said goodbye, but most

Art House hosts 2 exhibits through early December

Small Works, an All-Media Juried Art Exhibit, is back by popular demand, beginning Nov. 6 at the Northville Art House, 215 W Cady.

The exhibit showcases works of art limited to 12 inches by 12 inches by artists from throughout metro Detroit and several other states. Some 120 artworks chosen from more than 270 entries — with painting, drawing, sculpture, jewelry making and many other disciplines — will be represented.

A second exhibit will be held in the lower gallery. Picture This! is the theme of this year's Northville Camera Club exhibit, the club's biggest event of the year.

Members are invited to participate in this show, and it's the one time of year that their local photographic talent can be seen in one place. Many creative interpretations of the theme Picture This! will be on display, including: nature, animals, family, culture and architecture. Many of the photos in the show are for sale.

Both exhibits begin Nov. 6 and continue through Dec. 6 during regular gallery hours, 1-5 p.m. Wednesday through Saturday.

Club to host 'Women's Prisons in Northville'

"Women's Prisons in Northville (1928 to 2013)" is the topic of the Nov. 6 meeting of the Northville Woman's Club.

Presented by Joe Oldenberg, retired librarian and archivist at the Detroit Public Library, the meeting will be at 1:30 p.m. in New School Church at Mill Race Historical Village.

Oldenberg's presentation will tell the history of the Women's Detroit House of Correction, one of the only women's prisons in the Midwest — and for many years the only women's prison in Michigan. He also will discuss the history of Scott Correctional Facility and include stories about women prisoners at both Women's DeHo-

Co and Scott Prison.

Oldenberg has taught Michigan history at Oakland Community College and is a presenter at Greenfield Village in Thomas Edison's Menlo Park Complex and in the Wright Cycle Shop, home of the first powered airplane built by Orville and Wilbur Wright.

A Northville resident, Oldenberg is chair of the Northville Township Historic District Commission, whose mission is preserving the history of Northville Township.

Those interested in learning more about the Northville Woman's Club or attending its programs, should contact president Maryann Cotterill at 248-344-8235.

Northville siblings win PAWS for Applause awards

Choya Jordan
Staff Writer

“A child shall lead them.” Many have heard this phase over the years, but often we overlook it when it is actually performed. There’s definitely no overlooking the selfless acts of two Northville siblings who forfeited birthday gifts and instead hosted “No Gifts” food donation parties.

Kaitlyn, age 7, and Joshua, age 5, invited their friends and guests to their respective birthday parties (Kaitlyn’s in March and Joshua’s in May) but instead of bringing gifts, each guest was asked to bring a non-perishable food item.

“At an age where it’s all about them, I loved their giving hearts,” says Kristine Dreyer, the mother of the youths in a PAWS for Applause nomination letter to the Observer & Eccentric.

“Some people right in our very community don’t have a lot to eat,”

MARK CUNNINGHAM

Kaitlyn, age 7, and Joshua, age 5, at the Detroit Tigers vs. Kansas City Royals game at Comerica Park on Sept. 20.

Dreyer said. The youths collected roughly 100 food items for Northville Civic Concern, a local nonprofit organization.

“Because of their giving hearts, other friends have now followed suit and have requested a ‘no gift’ birthday parties for either food or animal items to give to local animal shelters. What a great role model they are in our community,” Dreyer said.

We agree, and for that reason the Observer & Eccentric and Detroit Tigers recognize Kaitlyn and Joshua as a PAWS for Applause winner. The sister and brother team won four Detroit Tigers baseball tickets to the Sept. 20 game, a Little Caesars Value Certificate and an autographed item from the Detroit Tigers. Additionally, they were congratulated by the PAWS and awarded a certificate.

N’ville author reads, signs her new book

Northville animal welfare activist and author Cheryl Lyn Phillips will sign copies of her new book, GG’s Journey: From Lost to Loved, from 1-5 p.m. Sunday, Nov. 8, at Tirami Su, 146 Maincentre.

Learn about the true, heroic story that inspired Philipps’ book.

Phillips is dedicated to helping animals in need while spreading the word about the importance of humane education. Her debut novel is told through the eyes of GG, a once abandoned dog that overcomes significant obstacles on her quest to finally find a loving family. Phillips not only adapted GG’s story for print, but she was also the catalyst that put GG’s real life journey into motion.

“I first saw GG when I was volunteering on Maryland Street in Detroit. I immediately knew that she was alone and without shelter. I had some dog treats in my car, so I got out and began walking in her direction. As she approached, I could see in her eyes that she was a friendly, loving animal, but I could also see that she was sick and in need of medical attention,” Phillips said.

As readers witness GG’s struggle with life-threatening illness, misconceptions about her behavior and the uncertainty of her future, they get a behind-the-scenes glimpse into the systems that are designed to support, but often fail, animals in need.

Phillips hopes that her book does more than just tell GG’s story, which is why 15 percent of all net proceeds from the book, as well as other related merchandise, will be donated to animal welfare.

for five years, mentoring, encouraging, loving and guiding them.”

In 2010, O’Brien started a girls travel club in southwest Detroit through a nonprofit called Bridgepointe, which has worked with the schools in southwest Detroit for over 16 years. O’Brien served on the board of directors.

The Girls Travel Club has been to many communities, universities, restaurants, plays, amusement parks, businesses and radio stations since the inaugural trip to Ann Arbor and the University of Michigan to learn about the world outside of Detroit. They have traveled by car, bus, limo, train and boat.

The original idea was for the club to end after eighth-grade graduation. But enough of them expressed interest in continuing the journey that the travel club kept motoring down the highway into their high school years.

“All eight of the girls are now in college and Terri’s commitment is stronger than ever,” said John said. “She is always on the phone or talking to them to make sure they are staying focused on their future.”

Terri, a native of Southfield and owner of Street Marketing in Northville, was proud to receive the unexpected honor. She was invited along with all the women who were nominated and was allowed to bring seven guests to sit at her table for the breakfast at the One Woodward Building in the Beacon Room for the live broadcast with Paul W. Smith and Ann Thomas.

“I was surrounded by my husband John and six women in my life that are my rocks and mentors,” she said. “I also had AnaLisa, one of the travel club girls come as well. Each of the women being awarded was asked to speak live on the air with Smith about their service to the community.”

O’Brien talked about her work with the Girls Travel Club for the last five years and was “honored” and “humbled” to be acknowledged for her work in Detroit.

“Honestly, it has never felt like work to me. It was community with some amazing smart young ladies,” she said. “My friend Lisa Burnia and I have enjoyed mentoring these young ladies and have helped them see their true potential. Education was always the main message along with dream big.”

Terri said one of her favorite mentors over the years has been Lisa’s mom, Barb Argue.

“She always lifted me up with laughter, love and support during my difficult teenage years,” she said. “I guess everything does come full circle. I know she would be proud that Lisa and I are continuing on with love and support for others. I hope that we are setting an example for our daughters and the girls in the travel club of the power of giving back actually becomes the power of receiving.”

Polka dots reign supreme in record-breaking Rosie gathering

Sue Mason
Correspondent

It was a sea of red-and-white polka dot scarves Oct. 24 as 2,096 women stood shoulder to shoulder, singing and cheering their way into the Guinness Book of World Records.

It was a second time in a year that the Yankee Air Museum's Tribute Rosies snagged the honor of having the largest gathering of women dressed as Rosie the Riveter, easily besting the Aug. 15 record of 1,084 set at the National Rosie the Riveter Park in Richmond, Calif.

"Everyone has a wristband and we're counting as they come through a turnstile," said Tribute Rosie Nancy Zajac of Ann Arbor, who was in charge of the original Rosies who showed up for the record-breaking event. "People were in line at 10 a.m. and we got our first ones at 8-8:30."

The record-breaking event was sponsored by the Michigan Aerospace Foundation, Yankee Air Museum, Wayne County Airport Authority and AVFlight and was held in the shadows of the portion of the original Willow Run Bomber Plant that is being transformed into future home of the National Museum of Aviation and Technology at Historic Willow Run.

Jean Chappa had a front row seat for the event. The 94-year-old Farmington Hills resident was among the 43 original Rosies who joined in the event.

"It's nice to reminisce and see so many Rosies," said Chappa, who worked on the wings of B-17 bombers at Murray Body in Detroit for more than two years. "It's nice to know what I did helped win the war."

At first it didn't look like Patricia Graham of Westland would make it to the event because she was sick and, when she was fully recovered, she had to go shopping. She had given her Rosie costume to her granddaughter Heather Graham of Livonia.

"I came here to pay homage to the women who worked in the factories in World War II," she said. "I'm very proud to be an American and I'm proud to be a woman."

Joining Graham and her granddaughter were daughter Tina Lane of Spring Lake and Heather's mother Sheila. The trio decided it would do the event if Patricia couldn't.

"We're glad we're doing it," Sheila Graham said. "Heather is wearing her outfit in honor of her grandfather."

Every female who showed up was checked to make sure their costume was vintage Rosie the Riveter, right down to the red socks, dark-blue work clothes and red scarf with one-inch white polka dots. Each was given a wristband with a number. Patricia Graham's was 1742.

"We bought six boxes of 500 wristbands," Yankee Air Museum Director Kevin Walsh said, adding that by 1 p.m. they were well into the fifth box.

Lesa Laney of Grand Rapids and her sister, Frances Laney of Midland, saw the event online and decided to participate.

"We loved the idea; it fits in with feminism and the women's movement," Frances Laney said.

"It gave me goosebumps to be a part of it," her sister said. "We were in group 1800-1850. They brought the original Rosies in front of us."

The right clothes

According to Zajac, the Dunham's store in Lincoln Park had com-

JoAnn Fabrics helped the effort by donating a bolt of fabric to make scarves for the original Rosies by Emily Zelman-ski of Wayne, who handles costuming for the Tribute Rosies.

And the person in charge, Zajac said, was none other than Alison Beatty, who started dressing up as Rosie the Riveter in 2013 to draw attention to the Save the Bomber Plant campaign, which lead to the formation of the Tribute Rosies.

For the ladies, setting the record meant standing in one place for five minutes. To pass the time they sang the national anthem, God Bless America and Amazing Grace.

While the ladies were the focal point, the men stood behind barriers, watching as they set the world record. Many wore Rosie scarves to show their support. A few even came dressed in military gear.

Walking through the crowd, Yankee Air Museum member Gerald Lester said it looked like the Army.

"If it's moving, you salute; if it's not moving, you paint it," he said.

OUR VIEWS

Laud veterans — also help them adjust to civilian life, secure jobs

As our communities observe Veterans Day on Nov. 11, we pause to remember the great sacrifices made on the battlefield and also on the homefront.

Older veterans of World War II, Korea and now Vietnam pause to reflect on their service to their country. Veterans are now returning from conflicts in Afghanistan and Iraq, many having served more than one tour of duty.

They're often not all that young and face challenges in returning to the workforce and adjusting to civilian life. On the work front, Schoolcraft College offers a great resource with its Veterans Resource Center.

Its coordinator, Pam Paxton-Keehner, helps student-veterans navigate through the thicket of paperwork that helps them to return to the classroom and hone their skills. She's proud of them, including Detroit policeman Lawrence Smith of Canton, who came to Schoolcraft for his associate's degree and went on to Eastern Michigan University, where he earned his bachelor's degree.

Smith spoke last year at a Schoolcraft ceremony on Veterans Day at the resource center, sharing his experiences. He applauded Schoolcraft and Paxton-Keehner for the help and encouragement they gave him.

We need to hear the stories of veterans of the earlier conflicts and also provide help for newer returning veterans. Schoolcraft's Veterans Resource Center is in the McDowell Center on the Livonia campus. Paxton-Keehner is available at pkeehner@schoolcraft.edu or 734-462-4351.

Center hours are 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. Monday and 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Tuesday through Friday. The Livonia campus is on Haggerty, between Six Mile and Seven Mile.

Let's honor all our servicemen and women this Veterans Day as we also help them join the workforce, hone skills and learn. Let's also work toward the day when armed combat is just a distant memory.

Colbeck touts direct primary care as all-in-one tool

What if there was a way that state government could fix the roads, repair potholes in healthy Michigan, stretch school dollars, free-up more resources for local government and reform auto no-fault? How about one that would accelerate job growth? It turns out that one tool does it all. What is that tool? The answer is direct primary care.

Direct primary care eliminates the middleman for routine healthcare services and re-focuses healthcare on the doctor-patient relationship. It provides better care for less money. In fact, over 20 percent less.

Michigan is seeing rapid growth in direct primary care service providers in the wake of the passage of my bill (Public Act 522 of 2014) to protect these providers from insurance regulations. An estimated 150 doctors have already adopted the direct primary care business model in the state of Michigan and more are contacting my office as word spreads. Direct primary care is good for doctors, good for patients and good for employers seeking quality health care options for their employees.

Sen. Patrick Colbeck

How could it help fix our government policy potholes?

We spend $664 million per year to provide health insurance for over 51,000 state employees. Twenty percent savings frees up $133 million per year.

We spend $17 billion per year on Medicaid for over 2.4 million citizens of our 10 million citizens. Twenty-percent savings frees up $3.4 billion per year, of which almost $1.4 billion comes from state revenue.

We spend $1.25 billion per year on healthcare costs in education. A 20-percent savings frees up $250 million per year, or over $167 per pupil.

We spend an estimated $775 million per year on local government healthcare. A 20 percent savings frees up $155 million per year for our communities to hire more policemen and firemen.

Each of us spends $150 per vehicle per year on no-fault auto insurance. Healthcare services are the principle purpose of no-fault insurance. A 20-percent savings should reduce the cost of no-fault insurance by up to $30 per vehicle per year. A reduction of 20 percent in the liabilities for the current $18 billion Michigan Catastrophic Claims Association Fund would free up $3.6 billion for further reductions in insurance premiums.

Last but not least, Michigan businesses spend an estimated $31 billion per year on healthcare. A 20-percent savings frees up $6.2 billion per year for employers to invest in their employees and help their businesses achieve a competitive edge over businesses in other states. This would have a tremendous impact on job growth in Michigan. This job growth would in turn generate additional tax revenue to fill all of the potholes previously cited simply by getting more people back to work.

In short, direct primary care could be used as a "Swiss army knife" tool to fix many of the policy issues facing the state of Michigan. As we expand the use of this tool throughout our state, Michigan has an opportunity to be at the center of a free-market healthcare revolution. This revolution will reverse today's trend toward less care and more money to one that provides better care for less money. Now, isn't that a worthy pursuit?

For more information on direct primary care Services, see my healthcare reform strategy at www.SenatorPatrickColbeck.com or visit www.DPCare.org.

Dangerous legislation

At the beginning of the summer, Gov. Rick Snyder announced the formation of a "Prescription Drug and Opioid Abuse Task Force." It was an important move and perhaps an even more important acknowledgment — Michigan is facing a prescription drug abuse crisis.

According to the Michigan Department of Health and Human Services, a record 1,533 people lost their lives to a drug overdose in Michigan in 2013 — with prescription pain killers resulting in more deaths than any other drug.

Now U.S. Attorney Barbara McQuade and law enforcement have weighed in, publicly calling out Michigan as a "drug pipeline" with pushers illegally pumping highly addictive prescription painkillers across the Midwest.

And it seems like every day we read another news story about prescription drug abuse claiming lives and tearing apart communities.

Unfortunately, lawmakers in Lansing are poised to pass a new bill that could make this crisis much worse.

Senate Bill 320, which could receive a vote from the Senate Health Policy Committee very soon, would for the first time ever give full prescribing authority to 3,000 certified registered nurse anesthetists, without requiring any additional training.

What's more, it would remove all physician oversight of opioid prescription by nurse anesthetists, tossing away the common sense safety measures and oversight required of every other Michigan nurse with prescribing authority.

The numbers tell a frightening story. The Department of Health and Human Services recently reported that between 2009 and 2012, 36 percent of fatal drug overdose victims had obtained prescriptions from 5 or more prescribers in the year before their deaths. The more prescribers, and the less oversight, the worse the problem.

Adding 3,000 new prescribers overnight, while stripping away basic oversight requirements will only drive those numbers higher and exacerbate Michigan's opioid abuse crisis. All with lives in the balance.

Gov. Snyder, Lieutenant Gov. Calley and Attorney General Bill Schuette are taking important steps to combat Michigan's prescription drug abuse crisis. And law enforcement is fighting back. But just when policymakers, physicians, and drug treatment experts are picking up steam in their battle to address opioid abuse, Senate Bill 320 would make it worse.

We strongly urge lawmakers to reject this dangerous legislation.

Truth about vehicle warranties

True or false: Until your vehicle is out of warranty, it must be serviced by the new

Market has important role in Northville

JOHN HEIDER | STAFF PHOTOGRAPHER

Mark Prielipp of Prielipp Farms begins to stack and put away crates that were used to display pumpkins at the Oct. 29 Northville Farmer's Market, the last day of the season. The market will reopen the first Thursday of May in 2016 at the lot across the street from Northville Downs.

car dealer or the factory warranty will be void. Although you may have answered "true," the correct answer is "false."

It's the law that consumers can have routine repairs performed by their local independent repair shop or do the work themselves without affecting the warranty. The Magnuson-Moss Warranty Act, enforced by the Federal Trade Commission (FTC), prohibits a manufacturer from voiding the vehicle warranty because service was done by a non-dealer.

According to the FTC, "It's illegal for a dealer to deny your warranty coverage simply because you had routine maintenance or repairs performed by someone else. Routine maintenance often includes oil changes, tire rotations, belt replacement, fluid checks and flushes, new brake pads and inspections." It is also important to note that the "Magnuson-Moss Warranty Act makes it illegal for companies to void your warranty or deny coverage under the warranty simply because you used an aftermarket or recycled part."

The council strongly recommends adhering to scheduled maintenance requirements and keeping records and receipts for all vehicle service. If a warranty claim arises, these records will provide proof that maintenance has been performed in accordance with the manufacturers' recommendations and requirements.

Good manners: Key to civil society, some say, on decline

Julie Brown
Staff Writer

Judge Mark McConnell of Westland's 18th District Court has been on the bench more than 6½ years. He sees his share of rudeness in court.

"Absolutely. All kinds of forms," said McConnell, a Westland resident. That includes rudeness to court staff, other parties in the courtroom and the judge.

"It seems at times people don't have any respect for authority or the sanctity of the courtroom," he said. "It is something that starts at home and in the schools. The kids are allowed to get away with things."

McConnell has found that has led to a sense of "entitlement. It just flows into a rudeness and a disrespect for others."

He'd been in courtrooms before becoming a judge, so didn't really have to learn how to control the setting.

"I have the ability to hopefully control my courtroom. I take advantage of those opportunities," McConnell said.

Some modern-day business people and others are irked by phone manners, including having someone on a phone delay responding in person while taking a call. McConnell said only attorneys are allowed phone use in the 18th District Court, which they need for their jobs.

"Generally, they will put their phones away when court is in session," he said.

The court officer had a situation with a woman who was abusive using a phone there when more extensive use by non-lawyers was permitted.

"The next day, we banned phones in the building," McConnell said.

Golden rule

He added, "Be kind to everybody," agreeing the Golden Rule of treating others as you wish to be treated is key.

At the Northville Chamber of Commerce, Traci Sincock, associate director, said of rudeness, "I don't hear that from a lot of our chamber members. We're a small office, so we don't get a lot of walk-in traffic."

She's seen service locations that indicate service will begin when a customer's phone call ends. Plymouth resident Sincock agreed being personable helps chamber staffers.

"I would hope. You have to be able to listen and respond accordingly," she said.

Technology has presented some generational issues, Sincock noted, although working with local high school students at festivals and other events has been pleasant for her.

"Certainly technology is a very important element to their lives," said Sincock, who has been in the work force for 36 years, including as Northville's parks and recreation director.

She's heard of a day to "tell it like it is" to others.

"Some people have filters and some people don't," Sincock said.

Stella Delap has owned Basket Kreations for almost 27 years, now on

Delap McConnell

Forest in Plymouth and in Canton its first 10 years.

"We have a very nice clientele in here," said Delap, a Canton resident. "Most of the people who come in here become almost like our extended family."

Some even bring Delap presents like homemade cookies or bottles of wine.

"They're just really great people," she said. "I don't even look at it like a job."

Cellphone users at Basket Kreations will occasionally say, "I'm sorry, I have to take this. I have a sick mom."

Added Delap, "In today's world, we're so connected." She noted young customers are also polite and often more open to suggestions on ideas for gift baskets, boxes or gift bags.

"The young people, I love them. I find them fun. I have never had any young person be rude to me," Delap said.

Little bit of patience

Diners at three popular downtown Plymouth restaurants on Main — Fiamma Grille, Compari's on the Park and The Sardine Room — will meet owners the Yaquinto family, including son Ryan Yaquinto.

"I think a little bit of patience goes a long way," Yaquinto said of the restaurant industry. "We never try to mislead people. We always ask customers to bear with us. We're just trying to help them enjoy their meal."

"People are usually giving us the benefit of the doubt. It's a very respectful community," he added.

Compari's is marking 15 years in business, Fiamma Grille 10 and it's the third year for The Sardine Room. "We always try to be proactive instead of reactive," said Yaquinto, a Plymouth resident, noting family ownership helps.

"The best way to go about it is to communicate with us," he said. Some will post on social media, "without always giving us a chance to correct or rectify the situation."

Northville-area estate has five acres, seven bathrooms, heated marble and six-car garage

Judy Rose
Michigan.com

This showy, sprawling house commands its site with a wide footprint — 5,400 square feet of living space on the ground floor, plus attached, heated garage bays for six cars. It's on five wooded acres outside Northville, approached through iron gates and a long driveway.

The house is big and dramatic, with one set of owners for the last 20 years, Millie and Bob Cummings, who designed and built it to host friends, kids and grandkids. Toward this goal, they built such special features as three bars, two wine cellars, big play areas and a pool cabana that can hold a dance floor.

The footprint of this house is so large because two areas you'd expect to find upstairs or in the lower level have been pulled onto the main floor. Biggest is the owner's suite. It has not one, but two, master bedrooms, a sitting room with a two-way fireplace, his-and-hers walk in closets and a large bath.

Second is the media room — a wall of built-in equipment with a raised viewing platform in back, located just off the foyer. The main floor also has an in-law suite, which the grandkids turned into a play room. The drive up to the house is dramatic — through its brick pillars and iron gates with the words "Summer Place." The front architecture is showy with a very long, tall portico. At each side are brick bays with a balcony and stone balustrades above. The lavish accent trim is limestone. Inside, the foyer has a beautiful two-story, blond oak staircase with Lucite spindles, hand-built inside the house.

Beyond that is a very large great room with a two-story fireplace on one side and a full-service bar at another. "It's the favorite entertaining spot of our whole house," Millie Cummings said. "It's always fun to see who comes first, because they want to get a bar seat."

Past that comes the kitchen suite with a motorized appliance center and an especially nice breakfast room that looks out at the landscape. There's a butler's pantry and a hearth room with a fireplace.

The pink-and-white dining room is her favorite, she said — dinner party size at 18 feet long. On an inside wall, a big glass window shows a temperature controlled wine cellar for 750 bottles. Under an etched mirror is a built-in buffet and china storage.

Other assets of the house include a large patio, with a swimming pool plus a shallow kiddie pool. A cabana here holds another full bar and a hot tub that can be covered for a dance floor. The cabana has automatic shutters, so bad weather doesn't have to stop the party.

This is a house for rambunctious good times, but now the grandkids are off to college. "It's time for a new family," Cummings said.

Novi Equestrian Expo returns Nov. 13-15

The 21st annual Novi Equestrian Expo gallops Friday through Sunday, Nov. 13-15, into the Suburban Collection Showplace, 46100 Grand River Ave. in Novi.

One of the region's most popular and long-running equine events, the Equestrian Expo is produced in collaboration with the Michigan Horse Council for the enjoyment and education of all Michigan horse owners and fans. The expo features exciting riding and agility exhibitions, a wealth of equine health and training tips, and an extensive shopping area that will delight horse lovers of all ages.

Admission is $10 for adults and $5 for children 6-11. 4-H members with ID card are free Friday and seniors 55 and older can get in for $5 Friday.

Expo hours are 2-8 p.m. Friday, 10 a.m. to 7 p.m. Saturday and 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Sunday.

Featured all weekend is Tennessee trainer Josh Lyons, considered among the world's top horsemen by applying a simple philosophy: "Knowledge and motivation are the only tools needed to bring with you to the barn."

Also at the expo is trainer Terry Myers, pioneer of the Ride-in-Sync approach to symmetry between horse and rider. The clinic teaches horsemanship techniques which foster a partnership between horse and rider. With the philosophy that the horse cannot move properly until the rider is positioned properly, Myers teaches riders how the fluidity of their body in the saddle affects their horses' movement.

On Nov. 15, Oakland County 4-H Clubs will host their second annual Gently Used Tack Sale as a fundraiser for 4-H.

Public meeting on I-275 construction to take place Nov. 10 in Livonia

David Veselenak
Staff Writer

Got questions on the upcoming Interstate 275 construction project through Livonia, Farmington Hills and Novi?

The Michigan Department of Transportation announced Friday it will host a public meeting to inform motorists of more details of the project, scheduled to begin sometime in the spring. The meeting will take place 4-7 p.m. Nov. 10 at Davenport University, 19499 Victor Parkway, in Livonia.

The open-house meeting will give interested motorists and residents more details on the project and MDOT officials are expected to be available for questions. Those who require special accommodations for the meeting can contact MDOT at 313-375-2400 prior to the meeting date.

The project, which will go from Five Mile to the I-96/I-696/M-5 interchange, will include more than $70 million in work. Work will entail replacing 13 miles of concrete pavement on the freeway, including on all the ramps to the interchange in Oakland County. Shoulder work and repairs to 16 bridges are also expected to take place, as well as drainage improvements and intelligent transportation systems work.

MDOT recently asked motorists to vote on a traffic pattern they would like to see during the construction. More than 87 percent voted to close and detour one direction of I-275 at a time during the work. This option, the cheapest and shortest of the three proposed by the agency, will take only one construction season.

Traffic costs for closing one stretch of the freeway at a time and detouring the other will be $1.04 million, while the other two options would have cost $2.87 million and $4.85 million, according to MDOT.

The public can still leave feedback on the project if there are concerns or other issues they have regarding the work, including if they are not able to attend the meeting next month. Feedback can be given by going online at research.net/i275 feedback.

New bills on car insurance, liquor sales, drones, more

Kathleen Gray
Michigan.com

Drivers would face more problems for driving without insurance, and elderly people might be able to get a cocktail at the nursing home under bills introduced in the Legislature last week.

State Rep. Peter Lucido, R-Shelby Township, has introduced a pair of bills that would require auto insurance companies to notify the Secretary of State if someone's auto insurance expires or is terminated. The bills also would boost the penalties for driving without insurance, which is illegal in Michigan.

In another package of bills, homes for elderly people could get liquor licenses and sell alcohol at their facilities.

Bills introduced last week include:

PREP FOOTBALL PLAYOFFS

DEBORAH HEIL

Novi's Emanuel Jackson, getting a seal block from teammate Adam Guirey (right), bursts up the middle against West Bloomfield.

NOVI PULLS STUNNER ON WEST BLOOMFIELD

Jackson, Bageris fuel 31-28 upset against undefeated Lakers

Brad Emons
Staff Writer

Apparently Novi didn't get the memo that it was a big underdog going into Friday's MHSAA Division 1 football playoff opener at undefeated West Bloomfield.

The upstart Wildcats rode the jet legs of Emanuel Jackson and the accurate arm of quarterback Alec Bageris to stun the Lakers, 31-28, in the Division 1 pre-district game.

And if it wasn't the upset of state tourney so far, it was certainly the biggest surprise in the opening-round games in Division 1. It also moves the Wildcats (6-4) into the district final beginning at 7 p.m. Friday at Novi Detroit Catholic Central (8-2).

For Jackson, the 6-foot, 175-pound senior, it may have been his finest hour as he rushed for a game-high 189 yards on 25 carries and two touchdowns, while catching nine passes for another 75 yards and a TD.

"This one mattered the most, because we were in the playoffs and it's either go hard or go home," said Jackson, who finished with 256 all-purpose yards. "And it's my senior year. We just had to do it. We just had to get that 'W.' We got after them."

For Bageris, the 6-3, 175-pound junior, it was another sterling effort as he completed 20-of-34 passes for 214 yards and two TDs. His offensive line also kept him upright as West Bloomfield was unable to register a sack.

"It's not just me throwing, it's just trusting my athletes," Bageris said. "We got a lot of weapons out there. Obviously, Emanuel Jackson is a hell of a player. Anthony D'Annibale ... I just trust all my players. I feel comfortable throwing it up to them and they'll go get it."

With Novi clinging to a 24-21 lead

BOYS SOCCER

Shamrocks claim first regional title since 1996

Catholic Central finishes job
vs. Ann Arbor Pioneer, 2-0

Brad Emons
Staff Writer

Detroit Catholic Central's 2-0 MHSAA Division 1 regional championship victory over Ann Arbor Pioneer was New York Philharmonic-like.

That was the opinion of the team's conductor, fourth-year coach Gene Pulice, after the Shamrocks earned their first boys soccer regional crown in 19 years Oct. 29 at Novi's Meadows Stadium.

Goals had been hard to come by recently for CC, but not on this night as the Shamrocks scored twice in the second half to improve to 20-2-3 while securing a spot in the Division 1 state semifinal.

"It's definitely our old self again here," CC fourth-year coach Gene Pulice said. "Got back in the swing, knocking it around. We played the old 'ticky-tocka.' It was working for us tonight."

After a scoreless opening half where scoring chances were virtually non-existent, the Shamrocks' Charlie Trevisan changed things just nine seconds after the second-half kickoff, when he stole a pass, dribbled up the middle and fired a shot just outside the box and through a stunned Pioneer goalkeeper Eli Shoup to make it 1-0.

"That's a forward's dream, to get one of those goals," the freshman standout said. "That's what I dream every night and I'm so glad it happened. It's our plan to start fast, sprint off the back line and I got a good bounce. The bounces just went our way on that play. Really grateful for that."

That goal seemed to spark CC for the remainder of the match, as it controlled play against the Pioneers (14-3-3).

"We were energetic from the first whistle," Pulice said. "Again, our leadership in the back was outstanding. Our captains, Matt Turton and Justin Murray, really had the back line organized tonight. Our goalkeeper (Peter Kirouac) ... you compound him with everyone else and it was just an organizational symphony tonight. That's what tonight did it for us."

CC may have caught the Pioneers napping at the start of the second half.

"Let's call it a break," Pulice said. "A lot of effort. It was just a great effort by a freshman, Charlie Trevisan. He broke free, he read the play well, intercepted the ball, put the pressure on them, went and put it in the back of the net for us."

CC's second goal proved to be no accident, as junior Matthew Sherman found Farzad Baghaie just inside box and the junior midfielder made it a no-doubter with 11:40 left in the half.

Just 6:40 later, Baghaie nearly made it 3-0 when his shot rang off the left post.

"I was just running down the field and it was that one moment, one chance, I had and just capitalized the opportunity," Baghaie said of the

Northville's defense rises to the occasion, 24-20

On a night where the Plymouth offense rolled up 505 yards, it could not come up with a 506th that would have given the Wildcats a last-second victory in Friday's Division 1 football pre-district game against host Northville.

Trailing 24-20 with time running out, Plymouth senior quarterback Chris Walls delivered a perfect pass over the middle to senior wide-out Victor Abraham at the 5-yard line, for a big 20-yard gain.

Abraham might have scored if not for a stellar stop by Northville senior Zachary Prystash.

"You just knew you had to do it; if you didn't do it, the game might be over," said a breathless Prystash, a key reason Northville did hang on to the 24-20 win. "And that's not how I wanted it in my senior year. It was just a play that had to be made and luckily I did it."

After an incompletion, Walls then tried to take it in himself, but came up just shy of the goal line, with Prystash and teammates in on the tackle — sealing Northville's four-point victory.

"I saw (Walls) running towards the goal line and it was that moment of, like, 'Is this really going to happen?'" Prystash said about the do-or-die sequence near the Mustangs' end zone. "I forgot who hit him and slowed him down, but I was able to punch it out."

"It was just a great team stop at the end. It was really wonderful. I just punched the ball out, just one of those plays that you'll never forget."

The back-to-back stops left Plymouth players on the turf, almost beside themselves about how the game ended.

MIS-bound: Novi wins regional crown

Brad Emons
Staff Writer

Every placing proved to be crucial Saturday as Novi captured its first boys cross country Division 1 regional title since 2006.

The Wildcats, getting a photo to finish victory from senior Joost Plaetinck, cleared rival Northville by five points for the team title, 55-60, in a meet held at Willow Metropark in New Boston.

Novi Detroit Catholic Central finished third with 75 points and will also be headed to the MHSAA finals Saturday at Michigan International Speedway in Brooklyn. Salem and host Livonia Stevenson placed a distant fourth and fifth at the 15-school regional with 156 and 182, respectively.

Novi was able to withstand a second-half charge from the Mustangs.

“Every single man was competitive, right down to the very end,” Novi coach Bob Smith said. “That was kind of the strategy, to let the race unfold and then close strong.”

Plaetinck reversed his fortunes from a year ago by nipping reigning regional champ Chaz Jeffress of Salem at the wire with a time of 15:33.1. Jeffress was clocked in 15:33.2, while Kensington Conference champ Tony Floyd of Franklin took third in 15:43.4.

“I really wanted it and just gave everything I had, honestly,” Plaetinck said. “It’s been a long year and it’s finally paying off. I tried to let the first mile play itself out with all the adrenalin that was running. And then as the first mile was done, using that downhill, I tried to make a move. It just paid off this time. At conference, I let them have a gap from the start. I just had to chip away at that. Today, I was with them the whole race.”

The individual battle for first was so close that race officials couldn’t eyeball the victor and were forced to determine the winner based on their electronic chip clocking.

“He won by less than a tenth of a second,” Smith said. “It was amazingly close.”

Novi placed four others in the top 20, including sophomore Gabriel Mudel, seventh (16:02.0); junior John Landy, 13th (16:17.4); junior Scott MacPherson, 16th (16:26.4) and senior Adam Ditre, 18th (16:32.5).

Novi’s non-scorers were junior Aric Landy (32nd, 16:57.1) and junior Glenn Sawyer (44th, 17:21.6).

“Joost, our front-runner, he PRed and I think most all of them did today,” Smith said. “We really peaked well today. One of the guys that was a real positive for us was Scott MacPherson. He was nicked up after the KLAA meet and it was a 50/50 chance whether or not we should have even run him.

But he assured me he was ready and, sure enough, he’s really the hero today.”

Northville, which defeated Novi in a dual meet and lost to the Wildcats by only seven at the conference meet, placed five in the top 20, led by senior Conor Naughton (fourth, 15:50.2) and junior Ben Craft (fifth, 15:50.2).

“This is Conor’s best time of the season and I think it equals his best career time,” Northville coach Chris Cronin said. “Both Conor and Ben (Craft), the way they handled that race ... they didn’t panic. They let the race play out and just ran a real smart, tactical race. They made it kind of a track race, just let the race dictate way out in front of them because we saw what happened at the (Kensington) conference meet and then we attacked the second half.”

Seniors Thomas Smither (15th, 16:25.5), Christian Freiburger (17th, 16:28.6) and Keny Goolsby (19th, 16:34.2) rounded out of the Northville scoring contingent.

Also turning in strong finishes for the Mustangs were freshman Nicholas Couyoumjian (21st, 16:37.7) and senior Sean Coleman (16:49.1).

“Anytime you run a rival like that, you learn a little something,” Cronin said. “We tried a little bit different strategy today. We didn’t go out as hot as we have in past races and it paid dividends today. We really committed to running together as a team, so we formed little packs and today, it was effective. We battled today, but we can get a little better by next week and we’ll get better.”

Also making the return trip to MIS will be Catholic Central, which also placed four in the top 20, paced by junior Ty Buckley and senior Avery Felty. The pair finished eighth (16:31.0) and ninth (16:31.1), respectively.

“Ty Buckley, our third man, just gave it his all,” CC coach Tony Magni said. “Ty has come a long ways. He’s done a great job for us.”

CC’s other scorers were senior Scott Smith, 12th (16:15.3); junior Mark Borek, 20th (16:34.3); and senior Alex McLaren, 26th (16:52.2). The Shamrocks also got a 33rd from junior Ben Racine (16:57.6) and 49th from senior Matthew Fosdick (17:30.6).

“I said, our main goal was to get out of here, top three, that’s all I want to do,” Magni said. “Novi and Northville are very good, but we gave them a run today. I thought we’d get third if we’d run our race. We ran a little better and we were third by ourselves.”

The Division 1 boys finals start at 3 p.m. Saturday at MIS, with Rockford favored to repeat as team champion with Novi, Northville or, perhaps, even CC knocking on the door.

“We didn’t lay it on there for today; our sights are next Saturday,” said Smith, who has two Class A state titles and two Division 1 state meet runner-up finishes under his belt.

And the best could be yet to come for Northville, as well.

“There’s always a little time to peak,” Cronin said. “We’ll dive into our bag of tricks and Bob (Smith) will dive into his and we’ll see what happens next week. Honestly, our best chance of doing anything is if we work together to try and take down Rockford. There’s a lot of teams kind of looking up at Rockford and if our numbers can force their numbers down, it can make the state meet really interesting. Our goal is to hold up our end of the bargain. I hope Bob does, too.”

Catholic Central, meanwhile, is no stranger to state cross country titles either.

“We’re just going to play it out, see what happens,” said Magni, who has guided the Shamrocks to three Division 1 along with three Class A state crowns.

South Lyon subdues rival East in three

Brad Emons
Staff Writer

Nothing comes easy once the volleyball state tournament begins and South Lyon found that out Monday night in the opening round of the Class A district.

The Lions survived a stuff challenge from rival South Lyon East to beat the host Cougars for the third time this season, 31-29, 25-13, 25-22.

South Lyon, which improved to 20-14-1, advanced to the district semifinals Wednesday against host Howell.

“That first game was a really hard-fought game,” South Lyon first-year coach Tom Teeters said. “We put our middles (hitters) back in the middle for the most part and I think that helps us in some way with our blocking, but it may hurt us on our hitting.”

Jessica Ignace, a 6-foot-3 senior, sparked the victorious Lions with 14 kills and eight blocks, while Mikayla Monk added 11 kills. Setter Hannah Barton finished with 39 assist-to-kills and three blocks.

Other contributions for the Lions came from Samantha Halaby (seven kills, three blocks), Liberty Romanik (six kills, 11 digs), Callie Harper (20 digs), Arianna Camanse (11 digs) and Brooke Mrocka (11 digs, two aces).

“I think the people that came through in tight situations were Liberty (Romanik) doing some great digging and running balls down,” Teeters said. “And Arianna (Camanse) did some great serve receive. And once our middles got into it the second and third (sets), they did some great things.”

The Cougars, who finished 14-25-2, got a team-high 10 kills from junior Maddie Topping, while setter Nicole Dowdell contributed 22 assists.

East also received a boost from recent call-ups Sophia Bolden, a freshman, and Brooke Schmidt, a sophomore. Both made significant contributions during their playing time.

“South Lyon East really picked up its game as well,” Teeters said. “At the beginning of the year, I said that some of their JV players were varsity level. It made a big difference and their team is much stronger with those players.

“(East) serve received very well, much better than we did, so we looked for other ways to win the game and that was probably with our overall team hustle and our blocking probably helped us out.”

The Cougars return most of their cast next season, with the exception of three graduating seniors.

“We saw a lot of potential with this team this season and I firmly believe we’re starting to turn the corner,” East coach Dennis Belaire said. “I wanted to thank the seniors – Nicole Dowdell, Peyton Jones and Bailee Taylor – for their contributions to the program during their careers at East. We’re looking forward to 2016.”

GIRLS CROSS COUNTRY

Northville takes fourth regional in five years

Brad Emons
Staff Writer

When the Northville girls cross country team heads into its final meet of the season, team members may want to adopt the an old advertising pitch from the Avis Rent a Car commercial:

“When you’re only No. 2, you try harder. Or else.”

The Mustangs, who have been ranked second all season long behind defending state champion Birmingham Seaholm, head this weekend to Michigan International Speedway in Brooklyn poised to make a run at the MHSAA Division 1 state title.

Last year, Northville finished third in the Division 1 finals after winning it all in 2013.

Northville is coming off its fourth regional title in five years after winning by a comfortable 49-point margin over runner-up Salem (81) last Saturday at Willow Metropark in New Boston.

And the Mustangs did it without their No. 2 runner, junior Cayla Eckenroth, a returning all-stater who missed her second straight meet with a shin injury. Eckenroth was wearing a boot as a precautionary measure at the regional.

“She’s going to be coming back next week,” Northville coach Nancy Smith said. “She had a stress point in her medial tibia. She’s been going to (therapy) and they almost got her back to 100 percent, but the boot is just a safety net.”

Northville, which scored 32 points, placed all seven of its runners in the top 16 while displaying more than enough depth to pace the 15-school field.

Farmington senior Maddy Trevisan was the meet’s individual winner, covering the 5,000-meter course in 17 minutes, 52.1 seconds as the Falcons grabbed the third and final state qualifying berth with 128 points.

Trevisan finished exactly 25 seconds ahead of Northville senior Lexa Barrott, who took runner-up honors in 18:17.1.

Also scoring for Northville were senior Emma Herrmann, fifth (18:59.2); freshman Olivia Harp, sixth (19:05.0); sophomore Rachel Zimmer, ninth (19:06.4); and junior Emma Smith, 10th (19:14.6).

The Mustangs also received solid performances from seniors Hailey Harris (12th, 19:26.2) and Paige Zimmer (16th, 19:36.8).

Saturday’s regional performance – minus Eckenroth – was encouraging under the circumstances, from Smith’s perspective.

“We ran well,” she said. “The girls aren’t pleased with their times. They thought they ran slower, but we ran better than we did last year. And our focus is on the state meet, so we just need to get there and see what we can do next weekend.”

One breakthrough performance came from Rachel Zimmer, who broke her own 5K personal best by 18 seconds.

“She was a freshman last year on my state (finals) team, struggled a little bit this year but has come on strong at the end,” Smith said.

The Division 1 girls race starts at 2 p.m. Saturday at MIS.

Ray paces Wildcats

Freshman Katherine Ray was Novi’s top finisher in 20:04.7 as the Wildcats finished 10th in the team standings with 274 points.

Other scorers for Novi included junior Jessica Lypka, 19th (20:19.9); sophomore Addison Lentz, 62nd (21:41.4); sophomore Kacy Shaheen, 80th (22:25.9); and sophomore Shaily Fozdar, 81st (22:28.6).

The Wildcats’ non-scorers were sophomore Hannah Hood-Blaxill (90th, 23:19.5) and junior Heather Blair (93rd, 24:18.9).

Shamrocks hit the ground running, crush Mott

Catholic Central rolls up 378 rushing yards to easily defeat Corsairs

Tom Morelli
Correspondent

With the way Novi Detroit Catholic Central ran all over Waterford Mott on Friday, the school might want to look into getting a sponsorship from the Big Three.

Utilizing a series of running backs to rev up their offense, the Shamrocks put it into over-drive in their Division 1 football playoff opener, finishing with 378 rushing yards on their way to a 42-6 victory and a date in the district final at 7 p.m. Friday at home against Novi (6-4).

CC (8-2) had their own Big Three to lead the way, with junior Nicholas Capatina (15 carries, 129 yards) and sophomores Cameron Ryan (20 carries, 121 yards) and Carson Kovath (eight carries, 85 yards) providing the necessary horsepower.

Shamrocks coach Tom Mach, now in his 40th season, made sure to also give credit to the muscle up front for their efforts in putting together a flawless production line.

“We established our running game a little bit more than we usually have this season,” Mach said. “I think our line did a good of establishing themselves, our backs ran very hard and it was a great team effort. Our goal tonight was to improve and that’s what we’ve been trying to do each week and each day of the season.”

It didn’t take too long for CC to get up to speed, scoring on its first three possessions.

Catholis Central’s Nicholas Capatina keeps his balance against a Waterford Mott tackler in Friday’s 42-6 win.

After forcing the Corsairs (6-4) to a three-and-out on the opening drive, the Shamrocks moved the ball downfield by splitting the carries between Capatina and Ryan.

In just seven plays, CC marched 42 yards, capping the drive on a 3-yard dash up the left side by junior Tyler Morland midway through the first quarter to take an early lead.

Mott was unable to reverse its fortunes on the ensuing drive, which ended on senior running back Corbin Moorer getting tackled in the backfield by linebacker Austin Darkangelo and defensive end Jackson Ross on fourth-and-inches.

The turnover on downs led to more points for the Shamrocks, who made it 14-0 with 2:07 left in the quarter on a trap by Ryan from 3 yards out.

An interception thrown by the Corsairs placed CC just outside the red zone for its next series, which saw Ryan go off-tackle for a 10-yard score to give CC a three-touchdown lead with 27 seconds left in the first.

Despite having their first possession of the second quarter end on an interception, the Shamrocks were able to squeeze in one last score before halftime, thanks to a 33-yard burst up the middle by Kovath with 1:30 remaining.

“Mostly tonight, we played inside because we thought our line has been getting better all year long,” Mach said. “They did a great job of blocking tonight and that’s the name of the game – you block and tackle. We told them going into the game that the team that makes the fewest mistakes is going to win the game and the team that blocks the best and tackles the best is going to win the game.”

CC triggered a running clock with a little over two minutes elapsed in the third on another Kovath touchdown, but Mott was able to put a temporary stop to it on the ensuing drive.

Backed up near their own end zone, the Corsairs broke their scoring drought on a 98-yard dash by Moore (eight carries, 114 yards) through the center of the defense, although the extra-point attempt was blocked.

With 5:03 remaining in the quarter, Kovath scored his third TD of the game to restart the running clock.

Senior quarterback Jacob Baldwin of the Corsairs completed 11-of-21 passes for 193 yards and an interception, with classmate Desmond Fitzpatrick hauling in seven of them for 93 yards.

CC senior defensive end Michael Edwards accounted for two of the squad’s four sacks and finished with six tackles, while Alex Bock added four solo and one assist. Isaac Darkangelo, Jackson Ross and Morland each added four tackles.

Meanwhile, senior defensive backs Tyler Laurentius and Chyle Johnson each nabbed an interception. Austin Darkangelo had a fumble recovery, while Kovath blocked an extra point.

Shamrocks, Novi meet for only the third time

Postseason foes have short history, back to 2002

Brad Emons
Staff Writer

Jeff Burnside was a young JV football coach sitting upstairs the first time Novi met then Redford Detroit Catholic Central in the Division 1 state playoffs.

The year was 2002 and CC won that inaugural match-up, 26-3, before going on to capture the Division 1 state championship.

“We had just come off an emotional (17-13) win at Lake Orion, upset them when they were ranked No. 1 or 2 in the state at the time,” Burnside said. “I was JV coach, helped out in the booth that night. I remember they had that good running back, (Mike Brooks).”

Burnside, now in his third season as head coach, was also on the Wildcats’ staff in 2008 in the only other meeting between the two schools, when Novi lost in the regional final at home to Novi Detroit CC, 15-12.

“It was Halloween night,” Burnside said. “We fumbled late in the third quarter, they got a short field and scored in eight plays. We stayed close in the fourth quarter, threw a pass on fourth down and we thought we had it, but it was a half-yard short.”

Seven years later, the two teams are paired up again as the Wildcats (6-4), coming off a huge 31-28 win over previously unbeaten West Bloomfield, take a short trip down the road Friday to play at CC in the district final. Game time is 7 p.m.

The Shamrocks (8-2) are coming off a convincing 42-6 first-round victory over Waterford Mott in which running backs Nicholas Capatina, Cameron Ryan and Carson Kovath combined for 235 yards on the ground.

“We did a very good job of running and blocking last week,” CC coach Tom Mach said. “We were happy with that. We started early with the run and it appeared to be there. Our kids came ready to play last week and did a very good job of blocking and running very hard.”

CC’s defense, meanwhile, will be a stern test for Novi’s potent offense, led by senior slot back Emanuel Jackson, who had 256 all-purpose yards in the upset playoff win last week, along with junior quarterback Alec Bageris, who has thrown for 2,038 yards this season with 20 TDs and only four interceptions.

“I think (Bageris) gets the ball off faster than anybody we’ve played against this year,” Mach said. “I don’t see a lot of people getting close to him. When they try to put pressure on him, the ball is already off.

“They put you in position where you have to tackle them in the open field and they a lot of good athletes that can run and catch.”

Catholic Central’s defense has been stellar this season, to say the least. The Shamrocks allow only 10.8 points per game.

“They’re always in the right spot,” Burnside said. “Their middle linebacker (Isaac Darkangelo) is outstanding, probably the best we’ve seen all year. He’s a sophomore, too. He’s pretty solid. The (Alex) Bock kid shows up on defense making plays. Their corners are good and their safeties are always where they’re supposed to be. Their ‘D’ linemen are solid, so we got our work cut out for us.”

One of the keys to Novi’s late-season success has been the improved play of the offensive line, led by Johnny Davis, Dylan Haggard, Jeff Kilikevicius, Cooper Smith and Adam Guirey, all new starters this season.

Last week, they kept Bageris upright as West Bloomfield was unable to register a sack. Bageris completed 21-of-35 passes for 225 yards.

“They’ve gotten a lot better as the season has gone along,” Burnside said of his line.

“They still make mistakes from time to time, but the mistakes are not as glaring as they once were. They’re getting all their assignments now, which is pretty good.”

The game features teams with contrasting styles and Mach knows time of possession could work in his team’s favor.

“I think it’s going to be a very interesting and tough ballgame,” he said. “It depends on ball control a bit. If we can control the ball, we’ll try and do it, but like I say, you don’t know how the game is going to go.”

NOVI

after West Bloomfield converted a fourth-and-two resulting in a 52-yard pitch and catch from Trishton Jackson to Garrett Winn with 9:39 left in the fourth, Bageris came up with a pair of clutch throws to put the Wildcats up again by 10 points.

On third-and-20, Emanuel Jackson made an acrobatic 27-yard grab. Then, on third-and-12, Bageris hit Traveon Maddox for 13 yards and another first down to keep the drive going.

On third-and-goal from the 9, Bageris slipped a pass to Anthony D’Annibale for a TD to put Novi up again by 10 points, 31-21, with 4:10 to go.

But the Lakers refused to fold and got a clutch fourth-and-12 pass over the middle for 39 yards and TD from Trishton Jackson to Evan Foster to make it a one-score game again, 31-28, with only 2:09 remaining.

The Lakers’ Navon Mosely then successfully recovered the onside kick at the Wildcats’ 29 just six seconds later, giving West Bloomfield a short field armed with two timeouts.

“It was darn good and it kept rolling and rolling,” Novi coach Jeff Burnside said of the onside kick. “It was like in slow motion. You always hear about that, but it really was. They got it, but luckily our kids responded.”

Seemingly down-and-out facing fourth-and-17 at the the Novi 34 with just under a minute to play, West Bloomfield tried some trickery as wide receiver and backup QB Brandon Williams took the snap, then fired a seemingly lateral pass to Trishton Jackson, who was lined up as a receiver. Jackson, in turn, connected on a 32-yard pass to Winn all the way down to the Wildcats’ 2.

But the play was whistled back for an illegal forward pass and, on the next play, Novi defensive back Ryan Welch ended the suspense, picking off a Trishton Jackson pass near the 10-yard line to clinch the victory.

“It’s a tough loss for us; we were playing a team that was hot,” West Bloomfield coach Ron Bellamy said. “We played against a team we haven’t seen all year long. This quarterback (Bageris) is the real deal. They had an unbelievable scheme. You got to give Novi credit. They came in here and they didn’t have any worries in the world. People didn’t expect them to win, no pressure on them and I thought they did a good job defensively in the first three quarters. They were in position. We played pitch and catch and they just did a phenomenal job.”

Things started off precariously for Novi, which gambled on a fourth-and-inches at its own 31 on its first possession, but got stopped short of the first down.

The Lakers, despite getting an offensive pass interference call to nullify a TD, struck five plays later on a 3-yard TD run by Darrian Sanders. Nick O’Shea converted the PAT for a 7-0 advantage with 8:12 to go in the first quarter.

Novi then put together a long drive, going 71 yards in nine plays down to the Lakers’ 1, but the Wildcats couldn’t punch it in on three downs. And following offsetting 5-yard penalties, Novi got on the board thanks to a 23-yard Blake King field goal with 1:50 remaining in the same quarter.

The Wildcats got a big play on fourth-and-11, when Bageris led Emanuel Jackson beautifully to the left corner of the end zone for a 20-yard TD pass with only 1:11 left in the half. King’s PAT gave Novi the lead 10-7.

And that carried through into the third quarter, as Novi went up 17-7 with 6:23 left when Jackson scored on a 1-yard run to cap a nine-play, 88-yard drive that was kept alive by a 32-yard pass from Bageris to D’Annibale on fourth-and-nine.

But things went a little haywire in the final quarter, as West Bloomfield’s Davion Johnson burst through the middle for 80 yards and a TD on the first play of the quarter to cut the deficit to 17-14.

But less than a minute later, Jackson answered for Novi with a 65-yard TD run to make it 24-14.

“I was tired, but I got the ball in my hands and tried to make it happen,” Jackson said. “Snap got to me and I just took it. My offensive line, I love them. They’re my buddies. I got to take them out to eat after this game. I’m happy.”

Meanwhile, West Bloomfield, facing fourth-and-two, scored with 9:39 left to pull within three, 24-21, after Trishton Jackson threw a short screen pass to Winn, who maneuvered through a sea of Novi tacklers for a 52-yard TD.

“They started wearing us down,” Burnside said of the frenzied fourth quarter. “When you’re running around after that kid (Trishton Jackson), you start getting tired. They somewhat platooned and we got the ‘Dirty 30,’ that’s what we go with. We got a lot of kids going both ways. We just got tired towards the end.”

But Novi was able to weather the storm and come up with the victory as it out-gained the Lakers in total offense (421-374) and first downs (17-10).

“This such a great group,” Burnside said. “This group of seniors, I’m so dang proud of them because they were 1-17 through their freshman and JV years and now they’re leading us and we get our first playoff victory since 2007. I’m so dang proud of this team. I love this group of boys.”

And the Wildcats were able to match West Bloomfield’s athleticism throughout the four quarters.

Novi’s defense excelled during the first half, limiting the Lakers to only 116 total yards as Nick Sabo finished with the night with nine tackles, while Scott Latham added six.

“We’ve got some playmakers; we’ve got a good quarterback,” Burnside said. “Al is phenomenal. Anthony D’Annibale is phenomenal. Obviously Emanuel is Emanuel. Traveon Maddox made some great plays for us.”

And while Trishton Jackson, a Michigan State commit, completed 19-of-31 passes for 216 yards and two TDs, it was Emanuel Jackson who tipped the scales in Novi’s favor.

“I’m hoping I can sneak out three more years of eligibility, is what I’d like to do,” Burnside said of his Western Michigan commit. “Phenomenal kid. He’s a great football player and even a better person. I love that kid to death. He’s been so important for us to get this thing going. But the thing is, as I talked to him today, I said, ‘E,’ are you ready to go?’ He’s says, ‘Coach, the team is ready to go.’ What guy says something like that? To me, it’s absolutely amazing.”

And it was an amazing Novi victory, for sure.

The same teams who battled Saturday for the KLAA Central Division girls swim title are expected to be the favorites again this weekend at the Kensington Conference meet.

Northville scored 576 points and survived a stiff test from Salem, which scored 555, to earn its fifth straight divisional crown in the five-school meet held at South Lyon East.

Rounding out the top five were host South Lyon Unified (467), Novi (297) and Livonia Stevenson (258).

“The meet was a lot closer than we are used to and we were actually down by quite a bit after the 100 fly,” Northville coach Brian McNeff said.

“These girls are great competitors, though, and there was no way they were going to lose this meet. They really stepped up in the second half and scored us a lot of points.

“The meet next week (at Novi) is going to be just as competitive and I am looking forward to what we can do there. It should be a fun meet.”

Salem was led by the Zhang sisters, Linda and Lisa, who figured in five first-place finishes.

Linda set a meet record in the 200-yard freestyle (1:53.99) and was first in the 100 butterfly (58.2). Lisa set a new KLAA Central record in the 50 freestyle (24.57).

They also were members of the first-place 200 freestyle (1:39.68) and 400 freestyle (3:40.43) relay teams.

Northville first-place finishers included Kelsey Macaddino, 100 freestyle (54.88); Sabrina Lee, 100 backstroke (1:01.82); and Erin Szara, 100 breaststroke (1:09.65).

“We swam great today,” McNeff said. “I was really proud of all the swimmers who competed today. The girls who ended their season today dropped a ton of time and really made all the hard work throughout the season worth it. It is always great to see all the smiles on the girls faces when they swim their best times of the season and there were a lot of smiles today.”

The prelims will be Friday at Novi, while the finals will start at 11 a.m. at Novi.

“We also had a lot of swimmers that were trying to earn a spot on the conference team and they swam great also,” McNeff said. “I told the girls after the meet that they are going to force me to make some really tough decisions.”

quarter and wound up with 225 yards rushing on 28 carries and all three Plymouth touchdowns – said he didn’t get a good look at the final play.

But Sawchuk stressed that the game never should have reached that point for his team.

“The kids played hard, but really it doesn’t come down to that one play,” said Sawchuk, whose team finished 6-4. “I It comes down to a culmination of some undisciplined things that we did. That’s on me, I guess.”

Sawchuk praised his senior group, including quarterback Walls (292 all-purpose yards), Abraham (six catches, 134 yards), lineman Michael Jordan and running back Cameron Stella, who rolled an ankle in the first half and watched the rest of the game on crutches.

“Very gritty, very proud of those kids (the seniors),” Sawchuk said. “It’s a talented bunch of kids.”

Northville coach Matt Ladach, whose 10-0 team will host Canton in next Friday’s district final, grinned while talking about the way his defense stood up to the last-ditch comeback try by the Wildcats – particularly the way the 5-foot-6 Prystash contributed to the final stops.

“You can imagine the stress, but our players have been resilient all season,” Ladach said. “And this was just another example of our players’ toughness. I’m so proud of them. “And you look at Prystash, he’s a small guy, but that dude is pound-for-pound tough. Will take him against anybody any day. I mean, he’s just a tremendous fighter.”

Northville’s game-winning score was a 10-yard toss from senior quarterback Justin Zimbo (7-of-15 passing, 107 yards, two TDs) to sophomore receiver Anthony Abbott with 9:52 left in the fourth.

On third-and-long, Zimbo floated a high toss that Abbott reeled in near the front-left corner of the end zone.

The Mustangs followed up the TD with a key two-point conversion pass, from holder Christian Field to Alec Coppock.

The snap on the extra point was fumbled and Field had the presence of mind to pick it up and throw to Coppock.

“That’s another example of a player doing the right thing,” Ladach said. “It was a bad snap, our holder picked it up, made the fire call and our wing went out and ran that flare route. It was a completion.”

Plymouth then took the ball at its own 1-yard line and moved it inside Northville’s 30 on a combination of runs by tough-to-stop Timmons and Walls.

But Northville defensive back Jack Burke intercepted a pass that was intended for Abraham in the end zone to stop that threat.

Northville jumped out to a 7-0 lead with 10 minutes to go in the first quarter on a 38-yard touchdown scamper by Zimbo.

The Wildcats drew even with 8:37 to go in the half on a 34-yard run down the right side by Timmons. An 8-yard run by Stella (10 carries, 32 yards) started the series; it turned out to be his final appearance of his prep career as he left with his ankle injury.

The Mustangs answered less than two minutes later, when Zimbo connected with Abbott on a 53-yard TD catch-and-run. Abbott caught the ball at midfield along the left sideline and raced the rest of the way, just inches from going out of bounds.

After Walls and Abraham hooked up for a 54-yard pass, Timmons carried it in from the 4-yard line for the tying touchdown early in the third.

A high snap over the head of Plymouth punter Alan Farmer, however, gave Northville a safety and 16-14 edge midway through the third.

Before the end of the quarter, Timmons scored again, from the 11, to give the Wildcats the lead. But the extra point was blocked, making it 20-16 Plymouth.

Sawchuk lamented an unsportsmanlike conduct penalty that kept a Northville drive moving, late in the third. The Mustangs then made the Wildcats pay for that, with the ultimate game-winning score by Abbott.

“We had them three-and-out and we gave them extra downs,” Sawchuk said. “You can’t do that to a good team.”

Mustangs look to stymie Canton

Northville hopes to stop powerful ground game

Brad Emons
Staff Writer

Northville football coach Matt Ladach said he can only put last year’s 48-7 pre-district football loss to Canton well back in his rear-view mirror.

It’s a new season and a new set of players as the Mustangs (10-0) get the Chiefs (8-2), this time at home beginning at 7 p.m. Friday at Tom Holzer Field, in the MHSAA Division 1 district final.

Canton is coming off a 70-35 first-round win over Livonia Stevenson, while Northville held on to beat Plymouth on the final play of the game at its own 1-yard line, 24-20.

“They’re a talented group and well-coached and they’re very disciplined, so it’s a good recipe for success right now,” Ladach said of Canton, which is averaging 38.8 points per game. “We definitely did not play well against them at all last year. In fact, they kicked our butts. It would be irresponsible for me to say that playing them last year is helping us prepare for them, because we didn’t play well at all.”

Northville’s offensive output may not be as potent as Canton’s, but the Mustangs are averaging 28.4 points per outing, while holding their opponents to 16.4.

And with senior dual threat running and passing quarterback Justin Zimbo steering the ship, the Mustangs have managed to find a way to win the close games.

As former Oakland Raiders owner Al Davis used to say, it’s “Just win, baby,” as six of Northville’s 10 victories have come by 10 points or less.

“I’ve been saying it every week from that fact that they lean on one another, consistently do the right thing and they’re just absolutely playing their guts out,” Ladach said of the team’s formula for winning tight ballgames.

Ladach anticipates his team will be at near full strength for Friday’s encounter with the Chiefs.

“We’re little beat up,” he said. “Plymouth is a tough team, so we’re definitely banged up and bruised up, but in terms of injuries, we’re fine. We’re a little hurt, but not injured.”

Northville’s biggest challenge this week is slowing down Markus Sanders and Canton’s explosive running attack out of its wing-T offense.

Ladach said it can be done, but only one way.

“Every single player has to do his job and he can only do his job,” he said. “He can’t try and overcompensate for a teammate, just have to remain disciplined.”

second goal. “It was right there. All I had to do was put my head to it, get it in the back corner of the net ... whatever you have to do to get the job done.”

The last time CC had scored two goals was Oct. 6 in a 2-2 tie against Warren DeLaSalle.

“We’ve actually been struggling to score,” Trevisan said. “It’s good momentum for us going into the next couple of games. We got two great goals and, hopefully, we can carry that on to the next couple of games.”

BOYS SOCCER

Catholic Central earns OT regional victory, 1-0

Chavez's goal eliminates KLAAs champion Grand Blanc

Brad Emons
Staff Writer

Goals have been hard to come by lately for Novi Detroit Catholic Central's soccer team lately, but the Shamrocks proved once again that one is enough.

The Shamrocks pitched another shutout Oct. 27 in the MHSAA Division 1 regional semifinal with a 1-0 win against KLAAs Association champion Grand Blanc, getting a goal from senior Anthony Chavez with 2:05 left in the first 10-minute overtime at Novi's Meadows Stadium.

CC, which improved to 19-2-3, earned its first regional title since 1996 and will face Ann Arbor Pioneer, which also advanced with a 3-0 victory over Brighton. (CC had last reached a regional final in 2013 losing to Salem, 2-1.)

The last time the Shamrocks had scored more than one goal in regulation came Oct. 6 in a 2-2 tie against Warren DeLaSalle. In CC's four state tourney wins, it has scored a total of four goals.

"Playoffs are a funny thing," CC coach Gene Pulice said. "Everybody knows that it's do-or-die and anything can happen. We did struggle a little bit coming out of the second half and we were under pressure, so we had to make a few changes."

The altered lineup was due in part to three starters going down, including Justin Murray, the team's captain and top defender, near the end of regulation. Jared Lee and Jacob Poorman were also out.

"We had to reinvent the wheel a little bit and we finally found a combination that worked," Pulice said. "When we went back to our game plan, we got lucky. I say lucky, because the soccer gods shined on you. And I think it shined on us a bit tonight."

"One of our players played it across to the other side and he just sent in the ball," Chavez said. "It was a little bloop and I was able to get a head on it and put it into the back of the net."

Grand Blanc (16-3-2) had possession of the ball for the final 20 minutes of the second half, but couldn't penetrate CC's defense.

"About 20 minutes in the first half, we started playing the ball on the ground," Grand Blanc coach Greg Kehler said. "The second half, we had them chasing us all over the place. We just couldn't get that one pass in there. They're good defensively and their goalkeeper (Peter Kirouac) made a couple of great saves to really secure the win."

But CC regrouped and got more of an offensive push going into the first 10-minute OT period.

"In overtime, we got mentally into the game and our hearts were in it," Chavez said. "We just wanted to win it more than them. It wasn't like that in regulation."

Pulice noticed a change, as well.

"I do think we owned the overtime part of it, for sure," he said. "We had some great efforts out of Cade Kozlowski — he came in off the bench and did a great job for us. Victor Szymanski, great job for us. Valentino Ivezaj came off the bench for us. That is definitely a testament to our depth. We said all year long that we've had depth and it showed here tonight."

And it's become a CC team of interchangeable parts.

"We can substitute anybody on the team and they'll just as good and we'll keep winning games," Chavez said.

Meanwhile, the Shamrocks hope to continue to maintain their winning formula, even if it takes only one goal.

"Our whole game is playing as a unit," Pulice said. "And that's where we connected some passes. We combined, we got some good service and then Anthony Chavez put a blistering header in to put us up one-nil. It's one of those things where we got organized in the back after all these injuries."

All in a day's work for area sportsman

Tim Smith
Staff Writer

Bookending Mark Hosch's wild and crazy day in early October were big moments on the golf course and hunting grounds. We're talking about registering a hole-in-one and bagging a deer.

Of course, the 38-year-old Canton resident had to deal with a flat tire between the two events.

"I really can't tell you what was more of an accomplishment," Hosch said about the whirlwind of activities Oct. 2. "Though what I can say is it seemed like this day was never supposed to happen at all or could ever happen again. I'd never believe it. But it happened to me."

It was almost as though Hosch had a big handful of house money that day, because — except for the flat tire, of course — he could do no wrong.

As proof, consider the life-long golfer's approach to the 168-yard 11th hole at Cattails Golf Club in South Lyon on a cool, brisk morning. The foursome included Hosch and his three witnesses — Matt Vargo, Ryan Deschaw and Ryan Taucher.

"We were facing a 20 mph wind in our face," Hosch said. "I originally had a 7-iron in my hand. My playing partner, Matt Vargo, said, 'You need to club up.'"

"Why I listened, I don't know, but I said, 'I'll hit a 5-iron and if it doesn't go in the hole, you're fired.'"

On-target

Still smiling from the playful banter, Hosch smacked the ball without even taking a practice cut.

"I hit the ball and at no time did it seem like it was going to go in," he said. "It draws back to the hole, one bounce off the pin and in. It was one of those 'Did that just happen?' moments."

Hosch had just sank the third ace of a golf career that began when he was 8 years old.

In 1985, his dad enrolled him in the Washtenaw Country Club junior golf program and he never strayed too far from the sport since.

"It is my favorite sport/hobby to take part in," Hosch said. "My entire family golfs — my wife, children, mom and brothers. I will play it until I need to make that ultimate tee time in heaven."

Little did Hosch know that his eventful day was just beginning.

Down note

After leaving Cattails on Cloud 9 following the hole-in-one, Hosch headed for home. The trip didn't last long, Canton's Mark Hosch retrieves the ball he sank for an ace on the 11th hole at Cattails in South Lyon.

COURTESY MARK HOSCH

The same day as his hole-in-one, Mark Hosch bagged an eight-point buck in Washtenaw County.

thanks to a flat tire discovered at Six Mile and Currie roads in Salem Township.

"From the highest of highs to the lowest of lows," Hosch wrote in his detailed email about the day.

While changing the flat tire, he decided to celebrate the hole-in-one with his brother, Matt.

Before long, the conversation turned to getting out on the first night of deer hunting season.

"I can remember thinking, 'It's the first night of the season ... don't let a flat tire get in the way.'"

Hosch is an even more accomplished hunter than golfer, having harvested around 30 deer since taking up the sport in 1998.

"I took my first buck at 21 on my very first opening day on Nov. 15, 1998," he said. "I was hooked from that minute. I've filled at least one deer tag every year since."

Bagging a buck

Hunting in Washtenaw County, Hosch extended the streak when he bagged an eight-point buck, using a Parker Crossbow.

"I would have taken any deer that night, to follow up the ace and bring my spirits up from the flat tire," Hosch said.

It took time and tracking skills for Mark and brother Mitch to find the buck some 80 yards from where it had been struck.

"I couldn't believe it," Mark Hosch said. "I just capped off the hat trick — ace, flat and a buck."

"We are thrilled to be featuring these lovable characters in this year's Ice Palace," said Melissa Morang, Great Lakes Crossing Outlet's marketing and sponsorship director. "For those of us who grew up alongside these characters, as well as children who might be experiencing the Peanuts gang for the first time, this year's holiday experience is sure to be crowd-pleaser."

In addition, kids can watch special scenes from the new movie, create and compare their icy hand print alongside Snoopy and Woodstock, have their photo taken with a life-size graphic of Snoopy and his dog house and much more.

Both malls will also offer the opportunity for families to visit with Santa Claus as part of the Ice Palace experience. Those who visit Santa will receive a complimentary gift.

The Plymouth home is close to downtown and by Fairground Park.

Maple St. home, built in 1879, shows Italianate Victorian architecture

Julie Brown
Staff Writer

The city of Plymouth has many older, restored homes, including one on the market at 391 Maple St. that is a classic example of Italianate Victorian architecture.

The home is listed with Bake Real Estate of Plymouth at $310,000. It was built in 1879 by John Hood and is known as the Hood-Behr Home.

John Hood returned from the Civil War and bought the land from John Kellogg. Previous owners of the land included William Starkweather, Tim Lyons and Ben Holbrock.

“The current owners have done a fantastic job enhancing the features of the home while maintaining the historic character, which is important to them,” said broker/owner Carrie Bake, the listing agent, in an email. “The tall windows and ceilings are dramatic and it has a location very close to Kellogg Park and all that downtown Plymouth has to offer.”

The home description notes: “The original home is a square, two-story house with a simple hipped roof. There are wide overhanging eaves adorned with large decorative brackets. The tall, arched hooded windows are also indicative of this style of architecture. Around the 1880s, the rear one-story wing was added — possibly as a carriage house or kitchen. This space has since been transformed into a large family room with a cork floor and radiant floor heating. An enduring historic home in the heart of Plymouth.”

- Its features include:
- » Received Heritage Day plaques for architectural/historical significance.
  - » Three bedrooms, one full bath and one half bath.
  - » 1,632 square feet above grade.
  - » 67-by-113 corner lot across from Fairground Park.

- » Original wood windows on upper level restored to working order.
- » Historic light fixtures in dining room and entry way with reproduction light fixtures in kitchen, full bath, and upstairs hall
- » Half bath remodeled with Pewabic Pottery of Detroit iridescent tile backsplash, and iridescent art glass light fixtures
- » Private back yard with flowering bushes, old fashioned lilacs and trees.
- » Lily-pad filled pond that

Heed law if deciding whether to ban drones

Q: A board member in our condominium association has been piloting his drone to inspect construction work being done by contractors to a common element in our building. This has upset the co-owners living in the complex as they are concerned about the privacy issues that this activity raises. Can we demand that the association prohibit this drone activity?

A: It's not clear from your question whether the individual operating the drone is doing so in his official capacity as a board member, under the board's authority and approval, or for his own curiosity as a hobbyist. The Federal Aviation Administration has recently proposed rules regarding small unmanned aircraft which, in addition to aircraft requirements, include operational limitations, certification and related responsibilities. FAA policy specifically excludes the use of drones for business purposes. If a drone is to be used for business purposes, it must first get an exemption from the FAA.

The board will also need to consider the facts of this present situation and determine this individual's status before it finalizes a resolution. However, it must also eventually establish guidelines for third-party individuals (hobbyists) and professional entities (Realtors and insurers), if it is going to address this matter in a thorough manner. If the board decides to ban drones for particular reasons, they should include these restrictions in the association's bylaws and/or rules and regulations. I would recommend that the board seek qualified legal counsel before it makes a recommendation to the co-owners regarding this topic, as it has such sweeping ramifications. An error in judgment could invite unnecessary litigation against the association.

Q: I have a condominium in Florida and the issue of drones is a growing concern for our community. Many residents have discussed the issue at homeowner's meetings, but we are not sure where the law stands in this regard.

A: Many states have enacted statutes to regulate unmanned aircraft and Florida recently passed a new law on July 1 that addresses the various restrictions and regulations placed upon drones. Florida legislators reviewed the concerns of their constituents and found that privacy issues were at the forefront of their concerns. As such, the “Freedom from Unwanted Surveillance Act” was enacted, which limits the use of drones by both private individuals and government entities.

The new statute provides that law enforcement may not use drones to gather evidence for purposes of carrying out criminal investigations. Furthermore, no person, state agency, or political subdivision may use a drone on privately owned property without the written permission of the owner, tenant, occupant, invitee or licensee of such property where there is a reasonable expectation of privacy. There are exceptions outlined in the statute. These exceptions include specific law enforcement issues, as well as legitimate business or governmental concerns, such as use by utility companies to observe easements. The law provides that if a person has been found guilty of violating the statute, that individual may be subject to civil penalties, including reimbursement of attorney's fees. Look for more statutory and homeowner association restrictions to be adopted to deal with the increased problems.

Tips for developing your personal brand

BY MATT TARPEY
CAREERBUILDER

Like it or not, you have a personal brand — an image and reputation built through interactions with people and the corresponding thoughts and emotions that image evokes. Thanks to smartphones and the Internet, it's relatively easy for a new acquaintance or a prospective employer to find plenty of information about you. A well-maintained image not only gives you the chance to take control of what they might find, but it also can increase your likelihood of getting hired.

Here are some tips on how to develop a powerful personal brand and influence how people and businesses view your top product: you.

Identify your passion.

One of the biggest turnoffs for employers is when a candidate doesn't seem genuinely enthusiastic about a position. Real passion can't be faked, so take some time to understand what truly matters to you, what you enjoy doing and where those two intersect.

"Your personal brand should be (a product) of your value system. Identifying your values is the first step," says Bill Treasurer, author of "Leaders Open Doors," which focuses on how leaders create growth through opportunity. "What do you stand for? What do you stand against? What principles do you hold so dear that you would never compromise them?"

"Authentic passion is attractive and demonstrates traits like commitment (and) being well-rounded and enthusiastic," says Alexa Merschel, U.S. campus recruiting leader for accounting firm PwC. "Recruiters look for passion because it is the quality that drives people to arrive at work with energy and enthusiasm."

Prepare an elevator pitch.

Even after you have a strong grasp of your personal brand in your head, conveying it to others can sometimes prove to be tricky. You can count on holding someone's attention for only a few minutes, so make that time count. Come up with a list of the most important aspects of your experience, skills and goals and practice explaining each succinctly.

Network.

You can have the best-maintained personal brand in the world, but it's useless if nobody ever hears about it. While companies use advertising campaigns to promote their brands, that's not exactly the best strategy for your personal brand. That's where networking comes in.

"Even when you are not looking for a job, keep connected to your network. Set a goal of continuing to expand your network and also checking in with people in your network," says Joseph Testani, assistant dean and executive director of the Gwen M. Greene Career & Internship Center at the University of Rochester in New York. "Your career is about relationships more than anything else. Invest in them, and your returns will be great — new business ventures, new job opportunities, new collaborative ideas — but most importantly, deep and rich relationships, which will serve as a great support network."

Get your name out there.

Networking isn't the only way to get exposure. Share your expertise and highlight your skills by getting involved in professional speaking opportunities or through services such as Help a Reporter Out, a free service that connects thought leaders and experts of all kinds with reporters and bloggers.

"In the same way that product placement is important to consumer brands, situating yourself where your personal brand will stand out is important," Treasurer says. "Submit proposals to speak at conferences where your uniqueness will be valued by the attendees. Join associations where your contributions would make a difference. Sponsor charities that connect to what you value. You're the brand, so place yourself where your brand will get noticed."

Your personal brand is already out there. It's up to you to make it a strong brand with a clear voice and a history that employers will trust and seek out.
