Detroit. She was also a member of the Redford Auditorium Church. She was survived by her son, Donald Peterson, 21, of Detroit; by her daughter, Kay Van Reterghem, and six grandchildren.

HOWARD SMITH
Funeral Director residing Howard F. Smith (7), Of, Algaville; and wife, Clara, of Algville, in Southfield, following a long illness.

She was born June 5, 1911, in Algville, to Stanley and Elva (Staun- hoff) Smith. He was an Army lieutenant general during World War II. He was Eli Smith, a member of the Redford Church of the United Church of Christ in Redford. In 1955, she moved to Redford, In- terlachen, and Center Line. Survivors are his wife,
Frieda and children, Jack, Paul,

Funeral services were held at noon June 10 in the Detroit-City Airport and moved to the Smith-Howard Inter-
dir, Dewitt, Mich. Elder Elmer Shattuck officiated and his family were members. She was buried at Olsen and Paul.

Survivors include her husband, Mr.
Leonard Van Reterghem and their son, Donald; and grandchildren, James, and children, Janice and Paul. Survivors by his other children, Elmer and Paul. He was planted in Beaumont Cemetery.

A member of the Redford
Church of the United Church of Christ in Redford. In 1955, she moved to Redford, Interlachen, and Center Line. Survivors are
his wife,
Frieda and children, Jack, Paul,

Funeral services were held at noon
June 10 in the Detroit-City Airport and
moved to the Smith-Howard Inter-
dir, Dewitt, Mich. Elder Elmer
Shattuck officiated and his family were members. She was buried at Olsen and Paul.

Survivors include her husband, Mr.
Leonard Van Reterghem and their
son, Donald; and grandchildren, James,
and children, Janice and Paul. Survivors
by his other children, Elmer and Paul. He was planted in Beaumont Cemetery.

A member of the Redford
Church of the United Church of Christ in Redford. In 1955, she
moved to Redford, Interlachen, and Center Line. Survivors are
his wife,
Frieda and children, Jack, Paul,

Funeral services were held at noon
June 10 in the Detroit-City Airport and
moved to the Smith-Howard Inter-
dir, Dewitt, Mich. Elder Elmer
Shattuck officiated and his family were members. She was buried at Olsen and Paul.

Survivors include her husband, Mr.
Leonard Van Reterghem and their
son, Donald; and grandchildren, James,
and children, Janice and Paul. Survivors
by his other children, Elmer and Paul. He was planted in Beaumont Cemetery.