Donald Wore was born in Northville on June 23, 1912, at Providence Hospital with his family. Donald was the first child of Charles and Mary Wore. His parents owned and operated Wore's Barber Shop in Northville. Donald graduated from Northville High School in 1930. He was a barber for the Wayne County Commission for 30 years, and a member of the Northville Historical Commission.

In 1936, Donald married Mary Scott of Northville. They were married for 42 years and had two children, John Jr. and Thomas. Mrs. Wore died in 1978.

Donald and Mary had four grandchildren, Donald, John, Thomas, and Eileen. Donald and Mary were involved in many community activities, including the Northville Historical Society and the Northville Area Chamber of Commerce.

Donald passed away at Providence Park Memorial Gardens on June 13, 2014, at the age of 101. He was a member of the Northville Historical Society and had served on its board of directors. He was also a member of the Northville Area Chamber of Commerce and the Northville Lions Club.

Donald Wore is survived by his daughter, Cheryl, and son, Donald, Jr., as well as his grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Donald's funeral was held June 18, 2014, at St. Mary's Church in Northville.
