Mill Race Matters

This week community residents will join the Northville Historical Society for their annual holiday open house at their historic school building. The open house will be open to those who have made advanced reservations.

1. This year’s theme is “Time.” Community residents and visitors will enjoy the open house, which will feature a look at the history of the school building and the community. The open house will take place at Mill Race Village, 4120 Ten Mile Road, Northville, MI 48186.

2. The open house will be held on Saturday, December 2, from 10:00 AM to 5:00 PM. Admission is free, and all are welcome.

3. The open house will feature an exhibit of the history of the school building and the community. Visitors will have the opportunity to learn about the building’s history and see some of the original furniture and artifacts.

4. The open house will also feature a variety of activities for children and adults, including a talk by a local historian, a hands-on activity for children, and a scavenger hunt.

5. For more information, please contact the Northville Historical Society at (734) 986-7868 or visit their website at northvillehistoricalsociety.org.
