B&E suspect guilty of offense

By RANDY COLE
A Farmington Hills teenager accused last month with another in a string of burglaries at two Northville Township homes has been found guilty of unlawful entry.
Mark Bruno, 18, was found guilty by a jury for three counts of unlawful entry, which he was charged with on June 27, 2021.
The jury deliberated for two hours and then found Bruno guilty of all three counts.
Bruno was released from jail on bond pending sentencing, which is scheduled for Sept. 13.
Bruno faces a maximum of 20 years in prison for each count.
Bruno and another, 17-year-old boy, were charged in May with breaking into two homes in Northville Township, each with a total value of more than $10,000.
The boys were caught on surveillance cameras at one of the homes, which was located on Bomber Drive, in the early hours of May 23, 2021.
Bruno and his co-defendant, 17-year-old Robert Williams, were charged with one count each of unlawful entry, unlawful breaking and entering, and theft.
Bruno was found guilty of all three counts, while Williams was found guilty of two of the three counts.
The boys were each sentenced to 18 months in jail, with credit for time served.
Bruno was also sentenced to 18 months in jail, with credit for time served.
