OBITUARIES

MARY E. MCCONACHIE

Mary Kathryn McConachie, 59, of Livonia, died Nov. 15, 1996, in her home. She was born Aug. 15, 1937, in Utica. Mrs. McConachie was a homemaker and a member of St. Monica Parish. She is survived by her husband, Thomas McConachie; a daughter, Samantha McConachie Gavel; two sons, Thomas M. and Richard, both of Livonia; a brother, George Desmit of New Haven, Mich.; and three sisters, Margaret Haggerty of Utica, Rosemary Bost of Massachusetts, and Marilyn Searce of Denver, Colo.

LEGALU ASSOCIATIONS

Lillian E. Bakewell, 90, of Farmington Hills, formerly of Southfield, died Dec. 23, 1996, in Southfield. She was a member of Salem Bible Church, the Michigan Association of Allied School Personnel, past member of Salem Sunday School and past member of Thayer Cemetery Association.

BUSINESS TAX CREDIT APPROVED

Local lawmakers Nancy Cassis, R-Livonia, and Julie Witter, D-Huntington Woods, voted yes on the measure to expand the Single Business Tax Credit to companies that have located and expanded in Michigan and created 10,000 indirect jobs.

NAGLE'S CLUB

MERRILL

The cost, according to the state, was $20,000. The town donated the land.

MEGA STANDS FOR MICHIGAN ENTERPRISE GENERA

MEGA stands for Michigan Enterprise Generation Assistance. Created in 1995, MEGA gives a tax break to companies that have located and expanded in Michigan and created 10,000 indirect jobs.