Botsford Pediatric Urgent Care Center

It's 9:00 at night, your child is running a temperature... what do you do?

Our Pediatric Urgent Care Center was developed with your child's safety in mind. Your child can be seen after your doctor's regular office hours by a board-certified pediatrician, in a comfortable setting... and you avoid the emergency room!

Appointments Are Not Necessary, Walk-ins Are Welcome!

However, we encourage you to contact your physician for a referral to our Center. For some insurance plans, a referral from your physician may be required within 24-48 hours after your child is seen at our Center. You or your child's physician may call ahead to alert our staff regarding any special needs that your child may have during their visit.

Center Hours:

- Monday-Friday: 6-10 p.m.
- Saturday: 10 a.m.-8 p.m.
- Sunday: 12 noon-8 p.m.

23133 Orchard Lake Rd., Ste 100
Farmington, MI 48336
(248) 476-KIDS (5437)

An affiliate of Botsford General Hospital

---

Voters wait for more information on bond election

Continued from 1

Including another elementary school — in an accumulating string of expansions — "I will positively support it again. It doesn't seem proper to be building anything," he said, as he announced a plan for a new school at Northville High School.

She also cited having high quality schools to instill intense interest in the community as a whole.

"I really do think the schools are a critical to the kind of community we have here," she said. "There are a lot of people here who are proud of the schools, not just parents. They have dedicated their lives to the schools. I moved here 15 years ago because of the schools. The reason I came out of the election was to accommodate the level of demand that we have."

Northville Township resident Arthur Andersen said he is in favor of the bond issue.

"I think that is the way we have to go," he said. "In saying that I am not saying that I am against any bond issue. I am just saying that we have to raise the money."

She also said having high quality schools to instill intense interest in the community as a whole.

"I really do think the schools are a critical to the kind of community we have here," she said. "There are a lot of people here who are proud of the schools, not just parents. They have dedicated their lives to the schools. I moved here 15 years ago because of the schools. The reason I came out of the election was to accommodate the level of demand that we have."

Northville Township resident Arthur Andersen said he is in favor of the bond issue.

"I think that is the way we have to go," he said. "In saying that I am not saying that I am against any bond issue. I am just saying that we have to raise the money."

She also said having high quality schools to instill intense interest in the community as a whole.

"I really do think the schools are a critical to the kind of community we have here," she said. "There are a lot of people here who are proud of the schools, not just parents. They have dedicated their lives to the schools. I moved here 15 years ago because of the schools. The reason I came out of the election was to accommodate the level of demand that we have."

Northville Township resident Arthur Andersen said he is in favor of the bond issue.

"I think that is the way we have to go," he said. "In saying that I am not saying that I am against any bond issue. I am just saying that we have to raise the money."

She also said having high quality schools to instill intense interest in the community as a whole.

"I really do think the schools are a critical to the kind of community we have here," she said. "There are a lot of people here who are proud of the schools, not just parents. They have dedicated their lives to the schools. I moved here 15 years ago because of the schools. The reason I came out of the election was to accommodate the level of demand that we have."

Northville Township resident Arthur Andersen said he is in favor of the bond issue.

"I think that is the way we have to go," he said. "In saying that I am not saying that I am against any bond issue. I am just saying that we have to raise the money."

She also said having high quality schools to instill intense interest in the community as a whole.

"I really do think the schools are a critical to the kind of community we have here," she said. "There are a lot of people here who are proud of the schools, not just parents. They have dedicated their lives to the schools. I moved here 15 years ago because of the schools. The reason I came out of the election was to accommodate the level of demand that we have."

Northville Township resident Arthur Andersen said he is in favor of the bond issue.

"I think that is the way we have to go," he said. "In saying that I am not saying that I am against any bond issue. I am just saying that we have to raise the money."

She also said having high quality schools to instill intense interest in the community as a whole.

"I really do think the schools are a critical to the kind of community we have here," she said. "There are a lot of people here who are proud of the schools, not just parents. They have dedicated their lives to the schools. I moved here 15 years ago because of the schools. The reason I came out of the election was to accommodate the level of demand that we have."

Northville Township resident Arthur Andersen said he is in favor of the bond issue.

"I think that is the way we have to go," he said. "In saying that I am not saying that I am against any bond issue. I am just saying that we have to raise the money."

She also said having high quality schools to instill intense interest in the community as a whole.

"I really do think the schools are a critical to the kind of community we have here," she said. "There are a lot of people here who are proud of the schools, not just parents. They have dedicated their lives to the schools. I moved here 15 years ago because of the schools. The reason I came out of the election was to accommodate the level of demand that we have."

Northville Township resident Arthur Andersen said he is in favor of the bond issue.

"I think that is the way we have to go," he said. "In saying that I am not saying that I am against any bond issue. I am just saying that we have to raise the money."

She also said having high quality schools to instill intense interest in the community as a whole.

"I really do think the schools are a critical to the kind of community we have here," she said. "There are a lot of people here who are proud of the schools, not just parents. They have dedicated their lives to the schools. I moved here 15 years ago because of the schools. The reason I came out of the election was to accommodate the level of demand that we have."

Northville Township resident Arthur Andersen said he is in favor of the bond issue.

"I think that is the way we have to go," he said. "In saying that I am not saying that I am against any bond issue. I am just saying that we have to raise the money."

She also said having high quality schools to instill intense interest in the community as a whole.

"I really do think the schools are a critical to the kind of community we have here," she said. "There are a lot of people here who are proud of the schools, not just parents. They have dedicated their lives to the schools. I moved here 15 years ago because of the schools. The reason I came out of the election was to accommodate the level of demand that we have."

Northville Township resident Arthur Andersen said he is in favor of the bond issue.

"I think that is the way we have to go," he said. "In saying that I am not saying that I am against any bond issue. I am just saying that we have to raise the money."

She also said having high quality schools to instill intense interest in the community as a whole.

"I really do think the schools are a critical to the kind of community we have here," she said. "There are a lot of people here who are proud of the schools, not just parents. They have dedicated their lives to the schools. I moved here 15 years ago because of the schools. The reason I came out of the election was to accommodate the level of demand that we have."

Northville Township resident Arthur Andersen said he is in favor of the bond issue.

"I think that is the way we have to go," he said. "In saying that I am not saying that I am against any bond issue. I am just saying that we have to raise the money."

She also said having high quality schools to instill intense interest in the community as a whole.

"I really do think the schools are a critical to the kind of community we have here," she said. "There are a lot of people here who are proud of the schools, not just parents. They have dedicated their lives to the schools. I moved here 15 years ago because of the schools. The reason I came out of the election was to accommodate the level of demand that we have."

Northville Township resident Arthur Andersen said he is in favor of the bond issue.

"I think that is the way we have to go," he said. "In saying that I am not saying that I am against any bond issue. I am just saying that we have to raise the money."

She also said having high quality schools to instill intense interest in the community as a whole.

"I really do think the schools are a critical to the kind of community we have here," she said. "There are a lot of people here who are proud of the schools, not just parents. They have dedicated their lives to the schools. I moved here 15 years ago because of the schools. The reason I came out of the election was to accommodate the level of demand that we have."

Northville Township resident Arthur Andersen said he is in favor of the bond issue.

"I think that is the way we have to go," he said. "In saying that I am not saying that I am against any bond issue. I am just saying that we have to raise the money."

She also said having high quality schools to instill intense interest in the community as a whole.

"I really do think the schools are a critical to the kind of community we have here," she said. "There are a lot of people here who are proud of the schools, not just parents. They have dedicated their lives to the schools. I moved here 15 years ago because of the schools. The reason I came out of the election was to accommodate the level of demand that we have."

Northville Township resident Arthur Andersen said he is in favor of the bond issue.

"I think that is the way we have to go," he said. "In saying that I am not saying that I am against any bond issue. I am just saying that we have to raise the money."

She also said having high quality schools to instill intense interest in the community as a whole.

"I really do think the schools are a critical to the kind of community we have here," she said. "There are a lot of people here who are proud of the schools, not just parents. They have dedicated their lives to the schools. I moved here 15 years ago because of the schools. The reason I came out of the election was to accommodate the level of demand that we have."

Northville Township resident Arthur Andersen said he is in favor of the bond issue.

"I think that is the way we have to go," he said. "In saying that I am not saying that I am against any bond issue. I am just saying that we have to raise the money."

She also said having high quality schools to instill intense interest in the community as a whole.

"I really do think the schools are a critical to the kind of community we have here," she said. "There are a lot of people here who are proud of the schools, not just parents. They have dedicated their lives to the schools. I moved here 15 years ago because of the schools. The reason I came out of the election was to accommodate the level of demand that we have."

Northville Township resident Arthur Andersen said he is in favor of the bond issue.

"I think that is the way we have to go," he said. "In saying that I am not saying that I am against any bond issue. I am just saying that we have to raise the money."

She also said having high quality schools to instill intense interest in the community as a whole.