Sixties bash supports Angola Hospice

Photo by Lisa Walker

Dear Mountain Times readers, Dirk Hopkins, and even Janice Kennedy came out to sup-sport Angola Hospice at its "Gonzo's" and Cribbs" through the Sixties Bash Light Up A Life event on Oct. 13 at Rock Financial Showplace-Dream Center in Novi. The party raised more than $12,000 to support the organization's programs for patients in their homes.

As a member of the Light Up A Life committee, volunteer Gerry Besh of Northville coordinated the donation of jewelry items for the silent auction. Most desired items went to Sandy and Joe Conigliare, Northville, with prices for The Reflections: (L to R) John Dean, Sam Prato, Toney Reuel, Jeffy Finzay, and Gary Barovette.

OBITUARIES

ROBERT EDDIE TAYLOR

At a &f Grand Rapids, Michigan, on October 21, 2007 in Williamston, Mich., after a months-long battle with brain cancer,’all his also resides in Battle Creek, Northville, Mich. He joined the U.S. Navy during WWII, afterward, granting him qualification for a 40-year Naval Reserve career. A &f the Navy’s old guard, he was a decorated career officer and a member of many outstanding Navy committees and associations.

Mike has been married to his wife, Virginia June (Brown), for 56 years. Together they reside in Williamston,Michigan. They have one son, Robert M. Taylor, Jr. of Battle Creek, Mich. and two grandchildren, Michael and Taylor, two great great grandchildren, Joseph and Holden. Everyone who was associated with Mike knew of his sincere honesty, his intense devotion to his family, and his genuine positive outlook.

Upon graduation, he enlisted in the U.S. Navy during WWII, and after three years as a Seaman 1st Class, he returned to Michigan.

After receiving his B.S. degree in Accounting from Michigan State University, he joined the Navy’s old guard, where he remained in various capacities. He retired in 1976 as a Vice Admiral.

Mike was a living legend even during tough times, with friends, family, and with the wrong group who "something" will be right.

Mike is survived by Virginia June (Brown), his wife of 56 years, and their son, Robert M. Taylor, Jr.

Mike is survived by his wife, Virginia; sons, Robert M. Taylor, Jr., and Michael; and grandchildren, Michael and Taylor. He is also survived by a great granddaughter, Joseph; great grandchildren, Jordan Mitchell, and Holden Taylor.

A celebration of Mike’s life will be held in the fall at the United States Marine Corps Air Station at Cherry Point, NC. The family requests that contributions be made in lieu of flowers to the Marine Corps Association.

Robert is survived by his wife, Virginia; sons, Robert M. Taylor, Jr., and Michael.

A memorial Mass of Resurrection will be celebrated at 11 a.m. at St. Andrews Catholic Church, 9550 W. Old Ford Rd., on Friday, October 26, 2007 in Novi.

Robert B. Freydl. On September 20, 2007, Mr. Robert B. Freydl, of Northville, Michigan, passed away after a long illness.

Mr. Freydl was born in 1928 in Prague, Czechoslovakia. He moved to the United States with his parents and arrived in New York in 1937. He was a member of the United Synagogue in Northville. He lived in Northville for over 60 years.

ROBERT F. BLACK

ROBERT B. FREYDL

Robert is survived by his wife, Virginia; sons, Robert M. Taylor, Jr., and Michael.

A memorial Mass of Resurrection will be celebrated at 11 a.m. at St. Andrews Catholic Church, 9550 W. Old Ford Rd., on Friday, October 26, 2007 in Novi.

Robert B. Freydl, 87, passed away on September 20, 2007, in Northville, Michigan, at age 87.

Robert B. Freydl was born in 1928 in Prague, Czechoslovakia. He moved to the United States with his parents and arrived in New York in 1937. He was a member of the United Synagogue in Northville. He lived in Northville for over 60 years. Mr. Freydl is survived by his wife, Virginia; sons, Robert M. Taylor, Jr., and Michael.

Upon graduation, he enlisted in the U.S. Navy during WWII, and after three years as a Seaman 1st Class, he returned to Michigan.

Robert is survived by his wife, Virginia; sons, Robert M. Taylor, Jr., and Michael.

A memorial Mass of Resurrection will be celebrated at 11 a.m. at St. Andrews Catholic Church, 9550 W. Old Ford Rd., on Friday, October 26, 2007 in Novi.

Robert B. Freydl, 87, passed away on September 20, 2007, in Northville, Michigan, at age 87.

Robert B. Freydl was born in 1928 in Prague, Czechoslovakia. He moved to the United States with his parents and arrived in New York in 1937. He was a member of the United Synagogue in Northville. He lived in Northville for over 60 years. Mr. Freydl is survived by his wife, Virginia; sons, Robert M. Taylor, Jr., and Michael.

Upon graduation, he enlisted in the U.S. Navy during WWII, and after three years as a Seaman 1st Class, he returned to Michigan.

Robert is survived by his wife, Virginia; sons, Robert M. Taylor, Jr., and Michael.