Heading to college requires some advance planning

Money Matters

It's hard to believe that the Fourth of July holiday is just around the corner. As students and parents alike look to the形mout of the school year, it's essential to start planning for the fall term. This means getting ready to go to collec7 or living on campus, and it's important to have a plan in place for both. Parents and students can work together to ensure that all their needs are met before the fall term begins.

Large donation speeds up Village Arts Factory project

Glen Schwartz has been a supporter of the Village Arts Factory project on the old Mason Ford property at Cherry Hill and Ridge Roads since 2011. The project aims to turn an existing building into a hub for arts and culture activities. The donation will help to speed up the project's timeline and bring it closer to completion.

Highland Games set for Aug. 4

The 10th annual Highland Games presented by the Elks and St. Joseph Catholic Church will be held on Aug. 4 at the Highland Lake Golf Club. The event features traditional Scottish dances, music, and food, as well as a variety of other activities for families.

Another type of power of attorney is a medical durable power of attorney. A medical durable power of attorney allows another person to make decisions about your medical care when you are no longer able to do so. It's important to have a medical durable power of attorney in place to ensure that your medical decisions are made in accordance with your wishes.
